Developers, Board Discuss Street Options Apartment Complex Proposed

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

Concerned condominium residents filled the room during the Public Hearing portion of Monday evening's village board meeting.

The Public Hearing was held at the request of a development company, R.T.K.M., LLC, to have the board consider alternatives rather than extending both Highland Avenue and Carrol Road on Kewaskum's east village limits.

The developers, Randy,

Tim, Kris and Mike Heberer of Kewaskum, are proposing to construct a three-building, 32-unit apartment complex on a parcel of land that was zoned R-4 in 1980.

The land, known as the Honeck property, is located on Kewaskum's east end, just south of the Moraine Condominiums East on Main Street, adjacent to Highland Drive.

The Highland Drive/Carrol Road alternative proposition had previously been discussed before the Plan Commission, who recommended the Public Hearing/Informational Meeting to the Board.

The purpose of the Public Hearing at this point was to discuss what plans would best serve the Village of Kewaskum, the area residents and the developers in regards to a public street versus a private driveway.

Randy Heberer, spokesperson for the developers, stated their reason for requesting a private driveway was it would be more advantageous for the village because the owners would be responsible for their own snow plowing and road maintenance. The private roadway would also eliminate traffic flow problems and keep the neighborhood a little less congested, because it would be private, not an extension of Highland Drive. It would also eliminate apartment residents and visitors from using Highland Drive for parking purposes.

The private road concept would also allow the developers to better utilize the layout to accommodate an additional two units.

The Public Hearing was mostly informational, according to Village Administrator Daniel Schmidt, who explained the board would still have to send their recommendation back to the Plan Commission who would state their approval/opposition to the development concept.

A Conditional Use Public Hearing is then scheduled. During this process, the Developer's Agreement

Bids Approved for Middle School Project School District Performance Report Results Given; Pledge Policy Sent Back to Committee

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

This past week parents should have received the School District of Kewaskum's 1993/94 Performance Report, providing factual data about the district's progress and success, as well as state rankings. District Curriculum Coordinator Connie Strand spoke to school board members at this month's meeting regarding the results of the report.

"There were three parts to the test: multiple choice, writing and short answer, for an accumulated total of 246 points," she explained. Although the results of the 1994-95 performance report are not out yet, Strand indicated there was a dramatic increase in scores, especially at the high school level.

"This year, we improved the testing situation a great deal, showing the student what to expect so they were better prepared." Guidance Counselors discussed the importance of the evaluation with the students, and the results were reflected in more positive attitudes and better grades. Last year, students were tested in large groups, but this year they were given in separate curriculum areas, further aiding their performance totals.

As an example, with a state average of 153 in the 93/94 school year, Kewaskum tenth graders earned a composite score of 147. The following year, with a state average of 156, the tenth graders increased their composite grade to 164. Individual performance reports are being mailed to parents.

Strand also discussed the curriculum level meetings, which were held for six days, each day dedicated to one grade.

The meetings were set up to allow dialogue between grade levels, establish objectives, and revise the reading/language/arts curriculum. The teachers also discussed patriotism in school and what it means. The next steps to be taken will be the development of portfolios for students regarding their achievement outcome, so teachers receiving them for the next year can review each individual.

The Pledge of Allegiance policy was once again a topic of heated discussion, when President Ruth Schmitt questioned how it will be implemented at the high school level and whether or not it will be done on a daily basis. She stated that she had a request from a member of the policy committee to take it back to the committee because, as written, it was not acceptable to them.

The first reading of the policy stated, "The Pledge of Allegiance shall be recited in grades K through 12 at the beginning of the school day. No student shall be compelled, against their objections or those of their parent(s)/guardian(s) to recite the Pledge. The district curriculum will include instruction to teach and enhance development of patriotism among our students at all grade levels." Apparently, the line "at the beginning of the school day," is too open to interpretation.

Board member Jean Goeden insisted that it be discussed now, at the board meeting, and not at a policy level. "Well, this is just another stall tactic, that you wanted in the first place," Schmitt responded, "when you adopt a policy, it does take a great deal of time to come to a final consideration of how this will be implemented."

Debbie Donath, a Farmington resident who had worked to install this policy, left the meeting in anger, after declaring, "I think you're all a bunch of politicians, and I hope you don't get re-elected if that's the way you feel."

President Schmitt, despite debate, maintained that they were not continuing to bury it, they were continuing to work on it, and the policy was sent back to the committee. The next Policy Committee meeting will be held February 20th at 7 p.m.

Brian Cohen of Hunzinger Construction and EKV architects presented bids to the board and went over the costs for the middle school project. At this point, they

$400,000 Roof Repair Referendum Will Be Placed on April Ballot

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Kewaskum can look forward to another referendum appearing on the April ballot, addressing the issue of generating $400,000 for capital improvement of school roof replacement in the 1995-96 budget year.

The board approved the resolution Monday night to exceed the revenue cap in a non-recurring referendum. Voters in the district will be asked to approve the one time tax levy, which will add $.50 per one thousand dollars of equalized value, based on a 9% increase.

According to reports from the Finance-Transportation-Buildings and Grounds Committee, the existing roofs that are in need of replacement include those of the Kewaskum Middle School, the Kewaskum Elementary School library, and the high school library, field house, and shop roofs.

Board member Ray

Engelking asked the Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds, Fred Boehlke, "is this an item that should be handled immediately?" Boehlke responded that these are 23 to 24 year old roofs, and have been continually patched and repaired over the years. Some of them are beginning to leak again, creating possible damage to books and other school materials.

Dr. Heather pointed out that with the passage of Act 16 on August 12, 1993, school districts are no longer able to tax or borrow money for capital improvements, and pay it back under debt service (fund 30), without voter approval. "Districts can still levy a tax for capital improvements, but must pay it back from fund 10, which is almost impossible to do because of the revenue cap limitations, unless amounts are very small."

The board did discuss

Kewaskum Juniors, KHS Students Combine Quilting Efforts

Kewaskum High School Clothing Class students display the handmade ABC quilts they made.

By Louise Martin

Each year for the past several years, members of the GFWC Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club have purchased supplies and materials to make quilts for terminally ill infants and children under a nationwide program entitled, ABC Quilts.

This year the club enlisted the help of the Kewaskum High School Clothing Class students to sew the quilts. Twenty baby-soft, flannel quilts were made under the direction of the classroom teacher, Robin Jasinski. The Kewaskum Juniors are very grateful for the instructor and students' involvement in this project.

The ABC Quilt program was started in 1988 by Ellen Ahlgren of New Hampshire, a caring and compassionate woman who wanted to help at risk children.

The idea is simple... handmade quilts made by individuals, church groups, homemakers, quilt guilds, school children, scouts and women's clubs, that are donated to hospitals, clinics, foster homes and private families.

The purpose of the quilt is to provide a special gift of comfort and unconditional love to any at risk child under six years of age. Most of the children who receive these quilts are drug affected HIV positive, terminally ill or abandoned children living in foster homes. Many do not survive their fourth birthday.

There are five volunteer area coordinators in Wisconsin. Each coordinator attempts to fill a monthly quota of 20 quilts each. These quilts will be sent to Mt. Sinai Medical Center in Milwaukee for distribution.

Any person who would be interested in making quilts can contact Karen Kletti at 334-0227.

And when it was all over you turned and walked away,

At that very moment my son was fighting for you,

And to defend that "piece of cloth," his own red, white and blue,

He wouldn't turn his back, he knew what he had to do,

For the likes of you who had no guts, he gave all he had to give,

That you and many like you could have a place to live,

They draped the flag on his coffin and sent him home to me,

I cherish that "piece of cloth" that he will never see.

It's just a "piece of cloth" is what I heard him say.

Enthusiast's Love of Trains Began With Childhood Train Set

Lloyd Bunkelman of the Kettle Moraine Ballasters, works on his project for the upcoming show in Paradise Mall this weekend.

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

The Fifth West Bend Hobby Show is taking place this weekend at Paradise Mall in West Bend and model railroad enthusiasts from around the area have been busy putting the finishing touches on their layouts in preparation for the show.

Maybe finishing isn't the right word. Lloyd Bunkelman of Campbellsport, a member of the Kettle Moraine Ballast Scorcher's, claims, "you're never really finished with the setup, there's always something more you want to add or change, or improve on for the next time."

His love for trains began with a childhood train set. While growing up he watched the trains traveling through Kewaskum and Campbellsport, especially Northwestern. "I always lived close to the railroad tracks," he explains, "and that's the one I always saw."

Bunkelman began working with model railroads about eight years ago, and joined the local club, Kettle Moraine Ballast Scorcher's which meets in the basement of the West Bend Hobby Shop every Wednesday for a work session. They start out with sections of plywood, measuring two, four, six or eight feet in length. These are called modules, and all the work that's done on them has to adhere to a strict set of standards so they can all be linked together. His club is also a member of the Association of Model Railroad Clubs.

All the work is done to scale so the relationship between the trains, buildings, people, cars and other miniatures are very true to life. Hobbyists can choose to build from a range of different scales, for example, the modules Lloyd is working on for the upcoming weekend follow the N scale, with everything laid out 1/60 of full scale. "There's no end to the details that can be added - anything that make it appear lifelike," he stresses.

Tracks are laid down, colorful backdrops are painted, lights are wired into the buildings and cars are weathered to make them look old. Specially made gravel is sifted and glued down, along with grass and roads. Most supplies can be bought at a hobby shop or ordered through catalogs and trade magazines. Although Lloyd purchases a lot of the buildings, he also constructs some of them from scratch, so tiny and detailed, it's difficult to imagine working so small.

"I usually travel to about six shows a year. The biggest one is Train Fest, held in Milwaukee. It's like being a kid in a giant toy store." Clubs from around the state and Illinois gather to exchange ideas, and show off their displays. Attending the shows is a good way for someone who wants to get started to find information. "My advice would be to find someone in railroading who can help you, maybe through a local hobby store. Swap meets are also a good place to get started and find a scale you want to work with."

Rail fanning is a popular pastime for Bunkelman, who never tires of watching the trains at yards in Fond du Lac and Butler, and traveling to see some of the old steam locomotives that make runs on special occasions. "I think the use of freight trains is really growing again," he points out, as more and more companies turn to the use of the railroad to ship their products. One such method is the inter-model, which is a freight car set on a double stack car.

Right now, he works with a group of 4-H kids, helping them build a diorama and letting them sample a little of everything, such as learning how to weather and make things look old. These projects can be brought to the county fair for judging.

His collection of train memorabilia include postcards, brochures, watch fobs, switch locks, train schedules, and old time tables. "There's a lot of books written on just railroad collectibles," he points out.

Bunkelman's days are spent working for the Fond du Lac County Highway Department. His wife, Linda, is employed as a Dental Assistant with Dr. Connor's office in Kewaskum.

They both enjoy collecting antiques, and Linda helps Lloyd out with painting some of the pieces for the modules.

Referendum

alternative ways of acquiring the monies through the authorization of general obligation school building bonds, based on a four year pay-off. The issuing of bonds would also call for a referendum, costing the taxpayer $.27 per one thousand dollars of equalized valuation each year. Although taking this direction could move up repair time to possibly this summer, the bonds would also create extra expenditures in the amount of $50,806 for interest.

Neal Weare suggested that perhaps these items should be sent back to the policy committee for evaluation of the different options, but Dr. Heather pointed out that all resolutions have to be in by Friday, in order to appear on the April ballot. He felt that issuing bonds to raise the funds would have less of an impact on the voter.

President Ruth Schmitt reminded everyone that the state taxpayers will be faced with more and more referendums in the future because of the new laws. "This is the way Wisconsin schools will be doing business for a very long time -- whether it be sewer, or lights or roofs or football fields. We're going to be doing business like this as long as we fall under current law. I see that all of us are going to be extremely frustrated asking the voter over and over and over for community needs, and we're not always going to agree on what those needs happen to be."

It was entirely another matter when it came to asking for funds for lighting of the KHS football field, which the agenda included as an item to be passed for inclusion on a referendum. Village resident Judy Harlow was in the audience to express her concern as to why lights were being discussed again, when taxpayers voted it down during the last election. "I think it comes down to a matter of prioritization of needs and wants. I don't think football field lighting comes under a need, I think it comes under a frill." Harlow attends the afternoon football games and pointed out that Slinger raised the money for their lights through projects run by the students. She remarked that village residents have yet to experience the impact of the building program, and with new village assessments, residents will see their taxes go sky high. "Athletics is a small part of education," she added.

Addressing questions concerning why this is all being brought up again, Dr. Heather answered, "I brought it up because people around town were saying we ought to run that again. So I took it to the committee. It's their choice if they want to run it or not." School Board candidate Mary Andera also sided with Harlow, suggesting they give it another year, after people get their tax reassessments.

The board decided to table the $80,000 lighting addition, not wanting to deal with pushing the issue when roof repairs had a greater need for attention. In a 7-0 vote, the school board approved the $400,000 for the roof replacement and repairs, and a referendum election to authorize the school district budget to exceed the revenue limit by this amount.

'Riding the Rails' Is a Way of Life

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Watching the trains lumber through town is a favorite childhood pastime, bringing back memories of days when the entire community came to meet passengers or pick up a shipment of valuable necessities.

These days, riding the rails is a way of life for Jim Yanke of Kewaskum. As a conductor for the Chicago and North Western Railroad, he's traveled countless miles across the state during his 35 years with the company. Although the hours are long and often unpredictable, he wouldn't trade his job for another. "Working on the railroad does not stop because it is 20 below, or raining or snowing out," he remarks. "It sure doesn't stop because it's Christmas or Thanksgiving."

His grandfather worked on the railroad which inspired Jim to start his career July 5, 1960. He worked as a switchman and yard master in various yards, and a brakeman and conductor on road freight trains between Butler and Chicago, Adams, and Fond du Lac, and also passenger trains between Milwaukee and Chicago.

During the 70's, he trained new brakemen and switchmen, including some of the first women to be employed in this service on the C & NW Railroad.

Throughout the years, Yanke traveled on a local freight that switched the towns between Butler and Fond du Lac, which included Kewaskum. The crew would switch cars in and out of Rosenheimer Malt and Regal Ware. "The best part of this job was stopping at Campbell's Restaurant, now Buffy's." Some of the waitresses there still remember Jim from those days.

"I was always impressed with how friendly the people of Kewaskum were and often said to myself, 'what a nice place to live.'" These memories became a reality last April when Jim purchased a home on Werner Drive, and moved his family here from Germantown, where they'd lived for the past 18 years. "Our neighbors as well as everybody we've met in town have extended their friendship."

His current job has him conducting a run from Butler to Sheboygan. At one time there were five crew members on a train, but new technology has trimmed it down to two. Since cabooses are no longer in use, a device called FRED (Flashing Rear End Device) is placed on the rear car of the train and hooked to the air brake hose. FRED transmits to a receiver in the locomotive, information regarding the air brakes. It also tells if the rear car is moving, and turns on a red blinking light at night.

Radios are used for all communications. "If we need to talk to the dispatcher in downtown Chicago, we call him from the locomotive radio. There's a keypad similar to a push-button phone -- you just push in the proper code, and you can talk to any radio base on the C & NW, even as far away as Wyoming."

Three separate crews work this run; Crew A at midnight, Crew B at 8 a.m., and the C Crew at 4 p.m. Jim works the last, with days running ten to twelve hours long. Each job is on for seven days.

Sometimes the railroad decides not to run a train in this time frame, and then he gets a call to stay at home. As an example, Jim explains, "they'll call me around one and tell me not to show up in Butler at 4, or I'm set back to 8 p.m. and not ordered yet. They call me again about 6:30 and tell me to show up at 8, or they may tell me I'm annulled tonight."

It's a waiting game he's used to. His schedule can range from a couple days off during the week to a solid month without a day off.

The trains haul chemicals to Borden Company, barley for Schrier Malt Co., materials for Kohler, plastics, scrap metal and lumber -- but the main product hauled on that route is coal. There are four to six sets of solid coal trains that run from mines in Wyoming to the Edgewater Coal Plant on Sheboygan's lakefront.

Yanke's train consists of 115 cars, measuring 6,000 feet in length and weighing in at 15,000 tons. Two, newer 4400 horsepower locomotives are used, with fuel tanks that carry 5,000 gallons of diesel fuel. The loaded train starts out of the Powder River Basin in Wyoming, traveling to North Platte, Nebraska. Here, fresh fueled locomotives are put on, as it continues to Sheboygan.

Upon arrival the train is switched onto five receiving tracks. The power company uses their own locomotives to pull the car through a dumper house, where each car is tipped over and the coal flows into a pit in the ground, then it's transferred to large piles on a conveyor system. When the cars are emptied, the C & NW crews go to the plant and assemble the train back into one unit. Jim then walks through the entire train, making sure the air brake on each car is functioning properly. Then it's time to head home.

Jim has recently been used as a Rules Instructor for the line in Milwaukee, Adams, Wisconsin Rapids and Winona, Minnesota. He's also had an article published in a National Railroad magazine.

"The only bad part of my job is when you have an accident," he expresses. "In the 35 years I've been working with the railroad, I've been involved in ten deaths, six of them suicides." It usually takes Jim about three days to get over the tragedy. "I don't think about it when we're driving, it's when I get home and go to bed and close my eyes..."

When at home, Yanke enjoys spending time with his family. His wife, Ellen, was formerly employed with the Cedarburg post office, but since Jim's schedule was often unpredictable, she wanted to be home when he was home. She's been busy redecorating and wallpapering their new house, and both of them enjoy traveling as much as they can.

Last May, they visited Moscow, Russia, where their son Jim was working for U.S. Ambassador Thomas Pickering. They toured Moscow and St. Petersburg, with their son as a guide. Their daughter Laurie is getting married in May and another daughter, Linda, lives in Port Washington.

Jim is also a photography and history buff, and carries memberships with the Chicago and Northwestern Historical Society, The National Railroad Historical Society, and the Kewaskum Historical Society.

These days you'll find him working with Augie Bilgo and Tiny Terlinden, using his photographic equipment to copy a collection of old Kewaskum photographs and postcards onto slides. In less than a year, Yanke has learned a great deal about Kewaskum's history, and has been working with the Centennial Committee on their upcoming celebration June 10th.

"I enjoy my job a lot, but working long hours and holidays is hard on a family and I have to give lots of the credit to an understanding wife and family. You can't belong to a bowling team when you work for the railroad!"

JV, Frosh Girls Defeat Falls

By Tom Menger

Kewaskum coach Keith Amundson has been trying to teach the importance of free throws and good defense to his JV girls basketball team all year, and the team needed both in a 44-32 Valentine's Day victory over Sheboygan Falls.

The Lady Indians shot exactly 60% from the line, connecting on 18 of 30 charity shots. This, along with a tenacious zone defense that turned back a late Falcon rally, proved to be the major factors in the game.

Leading scorers for Kewaskum were Jackie Hass with 13 points and Susie Vrana with nine. Becky Heisdorf also added eight points and a handful of assists to boost the Indians.

While the JV's were using good defense to lead them to victory, the freshmen girls used a blazing offense to post a 22 point "de-feathering" of the Falcons.

The frosh jumped out to an early lead and never looked back, coasting to a 55-33 win.

Erin Krueger led the offensive surge with 16 points, while Carrie Wiesner added 11 and Megan Ramthun chipped in with nine.

Feb. 7, 1920

Celesta Uelmen, 8 years, the oldest of five children of Nicholas Uelmen, residing near New Fane, passed away on Sunday morning of burns she received at her home on Saturday. While seemingly in the act of opening the door of the heater in the sitting room, with the aid of her dress to keep her hands from getting burned, unfortunately had her clothing catch fire, which rapidly spread over her entire body. She ran out of doors and her younger siblings ran to the barn to summon their father who was doing chores. When her father saw her she was a mass of flames and he immediately proceeded to quench the flames. With the exception of her face and hair, her skin had been burned to a crisp. Medical aid was summoned but she succumbed to her burns on Sunday. Her mother passed away in 1917 of blood poisoning.

In another close and hotly contested game, the local A.C. team defeated the crack Cedarburg team at the Opera House last Sunday by a score of 30 to 26.

IN MEMORY

In memory of MARIE GLOEDE, who passed away Feb. 28, 1988:

Although she's always near our hearts
And never out of our minds
It's the loss of her love and being apart
That's a constant numbness of our lives.

They say with time our hearts will heal.
But we've yet to find this so
It's been seven lonely years
And many, many tears.

We know she's in a better place
And it helps that this is so
There is no pain or suffering
And the reason we could let her go.

We will never forget her loving smile
Or the tenderness she had always shown
For these are the things we miss the most
And the reason we loved her so.

We look forward to the day
When the Lord calls us her way
And once again we will all be together
In a better place and time.

Sadly missed by, her husband, daughter and grandchildren.

People to People Student Ambassadors Chosen

Melissa Rady

Three Kewaskum Middle school 8th grade students have been selected by the People to People student ambassador program to travel abroad this summer. Kristin Danielson, Melissa Rady, and Stephanie Schultz will be part of the 11-member Washington/ Ozaukee County delegation traveling to England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales during their 21-day exchange program.

As Student Ambassadors, Kris, Missy, and Stephanie will join other People to People ambassadors in New York, and will depart for three famous capitals -- London, Edinburgh, and Dublin -- along with many smaller towns and villages in the historic and beautiful countries comprising the United Kingdom and Ireland. They will have many opportunities to experience daily life and appreciate the important history of these countries and their people.

The itinerary for this program provides a combination of a strong educational focus with a wide variety of fun activities. Several homestays are planned to give the Student Ambassadors an opportunity to experience life first-hand with British and Irish families. Orientation to London will include visits to Parliament, St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace, Whitehall, Trafalgar Square, the Museum of London, and Hyde Park. The unique culture of Scotland will be experienced while visiting Edinburgh, a medieval city built on extinct volcanoes. Their travels will also take them to Wales, a country of quaint villages, castle ruins, rugged mountain passes, and beautiful parks, where they will visit Conway, Snowdonia, and Snowdonia National Park. Still more excitement awaits our Ambassadors as they venture on to Ireland via the Cork overnight ferry. While there, the students will sample a taste of the Irish countryside with its many castles, country estates, traditional jaunting carts, and Phoenix Park, the biggest enclosed park in Western Europe. The Student Ambassadors may even get to kiss the "Blarney Stone" in southern Ireland at Blarney Castle in County Cork.

Kristin, Missy, and Stephanie were selected on the basis of letters of recommendation and personal interviews by the selection committee. High standards are required for this selection since Student Ambassadors represent American youth and they help to achieve the goal of People to People

Stephanie Schultz

International: world peace through individual contact. They serve as ambassadors of goodwill and friendship for their school, community, and country.

People to People was founded in 1956 by President Dwight D. Eisenhower to promote world peace and international understanding. It is a private, nonprofit, non-political organization. Since 1963, the People to People Student Ambassador Program has sent thousands of students to many destinations around the world, thereby encouraging communication, and promoting international friendship and understanding.

would be established which would include any sidewalk issues, driveway, etc. Schmidt also explained the street abandonment process which is quite time consuming.

It was also explained the private driveway would save the condo residents the cost of the installation of curb and gutter and sidewalk improvements should Highland Drive be extended. The village itself would save on some of the cost of the above issues, plus on street lighting.

Condominium residents were in full-force attendance at the meeting to voice their concern and ask questions. Questions raised by them included concern over a line of trees along Carrol Drive, curb, gutter and sidewalk issues, traffic congestion problems, water runoff and flooding problems.

It was explained most of the issues raised would be addressed in the Developer's Agreement later in the process.

Trustee Robert Beisbier stated, "It's going to happen, so we have to come up with something satisfactory to everybody."

Attorney Roger McKenna, appearing on behalf of the developers, stated, "all we're looking for here is approving or not approving the concept of closing up the road instead of having a public road running through. The rest of it is all involved in the Developer's Agreement." McKenna also said, "We're trying to work with the people in the condo association, what is more feasible for everybody."

Trustee Dave Goeden suggested an alternative road layout which would widen out an "S" shaped roadway and the developers agreed to check out that option.

The Public Hearing was then closed and Trustee Goeden made the motion to approve the proposal and concept. The board agreed unanimously and the proposal will not go back to the Plan Commission for their input.

HT Boys B Team Takes 4th at Barton

It wasn't first place, but it meant a trophy for the Wildcats who played in the annual 5-6th grade tournament at St. Marys of Barton during the week of February 13-18th.

The Wildcats met their first opponent, Holy Angels of West Bend, on February 13th. Height on the side of Holy Angels was a decisive factor in the 36-32 loss. Holy Angels controlled the Wildcats in rebounding and in blocked shots.

Those scoring during this first game were Mitch Strobel with 17 points, Josh Repovsch with four points, Paul Mertz with three points, Jon Boedeker and Mark Schrauth, each with two points, and Nick Thorn and Jacob Stoffel, each with one point.

The Wildcats faced a much improved Cabrini team as their second opponent on February 16. Although the Wildcats led at the end of each quarter, the game could have gone in either direction. The greatest lead was five points. The final score of the game was Holy Trinity 39, Cabrini 34.

Those scoring for Holy Trinity were Mitch Strobel with nine points, Jacob Stoffel with eight points, Mark Schrauth, Josh Repovsch and Paul Mertz, each with six points, and Nick Thorn and Noah Koch, each with two points.

The final game for fourth place was played on Saturday, February 18. Holy Trinity had to face St. Matthews of Campbellsport. In regular season play, the Wildcats had split the games with this opponent, so the game could have gone either way. However, the Wildcats were hungry for a trophy, and went after it in a big way.

They took the lead early and by excellent defense and rebounding, held St. Matts to only three points in the first half. At the final buzzer, the Wildcats had won by a score of 34-22.

Those scoring for Holy Trinity were: Mitch Strobel with eight points; Luke Piwoni, Mark Schrauth and Nick Thorn, each with six points, Jacob Stoffel with four points, and Josh Repovsch and Jon Boedeker, each with two points.

HT Wildcat Girls 'B' Team Wins See-Saw Game

Last Saturday's victory did not look as natural as usual, but the Holy Trinity Wildcat Girls 'B' team won a see-saw game against the St. Marys of Mayville Celtics, 36-32.

This eighth-straight victory for the Wildcats was a difficult confrontation. Even though fouls were numerous and the basket seemed to have a lid on it, Holy Trinity hung tough and managed to come out on top.

Sara Williams continued to be a leading contributor with her season high of thirteen points. She also had five steals and five solid rebounds. Not far behind was Jenny Kopecky with nine points and three rebounds. The quick fifth grader also nabbed nine steals.

Bridget Polzean sunk two baskets for a total of four points and looked sharp in several key plays that kept the Wildcats in the running.

Making two free throws during the final seconds was Emily Rinzel. This not only gave Emily a game total of four points, but managed to provide a more comfortable game ending. Roberta Rinzel and Bridget Teofilo scored two points each. Making one of the many attempted free throws for one apiece were Dani Nass and Becky Bohn.

Holy Trinity Girls 'A' Team Falls to Mayville

The girls basketball "A" team from Holy Trinity lost a hard fought contest recently to the team from Mayville, 38-28.

The Mayville defense played very well and made it extremely difficult for the Wildcats to run their offense with any degree of efficiency. Even when they were able to get the ball in good scoring position, they weren't able to connect. Complicating matters was the play of the Mayville point guard, who was continuously able to penetrate on offense and create many good scoring opportunities.

The Wildcats fell behind early by a score of 10-3 at the end of the first quarter and had to play catch-up the rest of the game. Unfortunately for the Holy Trinity squad, they were only able to connect with the basket a total of seven times for the entire game. The bulk of their scoring came from the free throw line, where they went a very respectable 13 for 20.

Leading the scoring for the Wildcats was Amy Piwoni with 10 points. Following her was Jenny Kraft, Katie Kopecky and Carol Neumann with four each. Rounding out the scoring was Nicki Wessing with a nifty three pointer, Amber King with two and Stacy Zehren with one.

Offense Absent in Lady Indians' Loss

By Statesman Sports Writer

CHILTON - It is quite rare when a single player outscore the opposition in a girls high school basketball game. So you could guess that it may be unprecedented that a player nearly doubles the score of the other team.

But that almost happened here, last Tuesday night, as Chilton's Chyanne Kapitzke scored 36 points in the Tigers' 54-19 rout of Kewaskum.

The loss dropped KHS to 2-14 on the season, including 1-8 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

In addition to Kapitzke's big night, the Tigers' Mary Engler also nearly outscored the entire Lady Indian squad by herself. Engler finished with 13 points.

The Indians, meanwhile, didn't score more than seven points in any quarter, and were held to four points in each of the first, second and fourth quarters.

Leading the meager KHS offensive attack were Tiffany and Tanya Laubach, who each scored six points. The Indians attempted just two free throws in the game while the host Tigers were whistled for just six fouls.

Kewaskum 4 4 7 4 - 19
Chilton 15 12 14 13 - 54

Kewaskum - Ti. Laubach 6, Ta. Laubach 6, Schreffler 4, Leitheiser 2, Yahr 4. Free Throws - 1 of 2, Fouls - 17.
Chilton - Kapitzke 36, Engler 13, Seckel 2, Casper 3. Free Throws - 11 of 16, Fouls - 6.

Big Second Quarter Lifts New Holstein

By Statesman Sports Writer

NEW HOLSTEIN - The Kewaskum girls basketball team couldn't sustain its effort against New Holstein for four quarters here, last Friday night.

In fact, the Lady Indians played the Huskies tough for just the first quarter, and the result was a 62-44 loss by the Indians, dropping them to 2-14 on the season. That mark includes a 1-7 record in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

KHS came out strong against the hosts, leading by a single point, at 16-15, after one period of play. But the Indians couldn't stop the Husky offense in the final three periods, leading to the loss.

New Holstein turned the game around with a 19-point second quarter outburst. That gave the Huskies a 34-25 halftime lead, one which they would never surrender.

Instead, the Huskies gradually pulled away over

Kiel Edges JV Indian Girls

By Tom Menger

After being whipped by Chilton, 41-22, the Kewaskum JV girls basketball team was hoping to regain some confidence with a win over Kiel here recently.

The girls got off to a good start, using fine defensive play to create turnovers that led to a halftime lead.

Kiel gave the Indians a taste of their own medicine in the second half, using a tough zone defense to stop Kewaskum's offense.

Although they still held the lead at the end of the third quarter, the Indians were able to hit only one shot from the field in the fourth, and let the game slip away.

Kewaskum was only two for 16 from the free throw line, a statistic that played a major part in the 29-22 loss. Jenny Jagielski and Missy Thull led the Indians with six points each.

Freshmen Girls Defeat Kiel

By Tom Menger

The freshmen team got the only victory for the Kewaskum girls recently, with the varsity and JV teams both dropping their games against Kiel.

The game was close all the way, with neither team being to manage more than a six or seven point lead.

After battling back and forth for most of the game, it all came down to the final two minutes for Kewaskum.

Kewaskum was clinging to a 37-33 lead with just under two minutes left in the game, when they committed a foul that sent Kiel to the free-throw line. The Kiel shooter hit on the first toss, making the score 37-34.

The second try was missed, but Kiel secured a quick rebound and basket to cut the Indians' lead to one.

With only 45 seconds remaining, and Kiel threatening, Dawn Felix stripped the ball from the Kiel dribbler, setting up a basket by the Indians' Sara Ramel.

With the score at 39-36, Kiel still had one chance left, but the Indian defense held, forcing a desperation half-court shot at the buzzer that wasn't close.

KHS Coach Ken Soerens was pleased with the win stating, "They were a tough team... it was close the last time we played them."

are under budget by $4,685, without alternates. Approval was received by the state, and construction should begin March 1st. The board approved the bids, and also went over the KHS project drawings with the architects.

The board also approved plans for the new press box for the athletic field, with construction costs estimated at $9,000. Jeff Dziedzic, a member of the building and grounds committee and business agent for the local carpenters union, had expressed that union members would volunteer their time to construct portions of the press box. Volunteer masons are also being sought.

Campbellsport Building Supply has donated the drawing plans and developed a list of materials, and a fund raiser is being planned to sell concrete blocks for $5 to $6 per block, in exchange for free admission to home football games in 1995.

Other items from the Building and Grounds committee included mention of the annual safety inspection, beginning in March, and the approval of paint for the Wayne Elementary school entryway. Volunteers from their PTO will be working on the project.

Student Representative Andrea Bonlender, reported on the senior citizen Bingo luncheon sponsored by the student council. Over 150 seniors attended from around the area. She also had the chance to participate in last month's state convention, and out of 400 school districts in the state, Kewaskum was chosen for the fourth year in a row, to present their preschool program as an example for other schools. The honor was shared with only ual Truants and Dropouts.

Results of a postgraduation follow-up will give you a good indication of what our students do after they leave Kewaskum High School. Graduation rates are reported under Graduation Requirements.

Finally, information is included about the number of School-Sponsored Community Activities and Extra/Co-Curricular Activities the district is involved in, Staffing Ratios (teacher-to-student) and Revenue and Expenses.

We hope you will take some time to look over this report and if you have any questions please contact the District Office at 626-8427.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of MELIN PROST, who passed away two years ago, February 22, 1993:

God looked around his garden and found an empty place.
He looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face.
The road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb.
With the suffering and pain, God put His arms around you
And took you to His heavenly home to stay.
Everytime we see your picture you seem to smile and say,
"Cheer up and carry on!"--
Memories are our keepsake
With which we will never part.
God has you in His keeping,
We have you in our hearts...

Sadly missed by wife Doris, children and grandchildren.

HT Boys' 'B' Team Takes 7th At Tournament

Holy Trinity began tournament play on Friday, February 3, by meeting the sponsor of the tournament, St. Johns.

Coach Herriges had his roster limited to 11 by the flu and by tournament regulations, while St. Johns had a roster of 24. The number of players, however, did not dampen the spirits of the Wildcats.

The M and M combination of Mitch Strobel and Mark Schrauth kept the game competitive through all four quarters. Strobel scored 21 points (2-3 pointers) for the game and Schrauth had 14.

Paul Mertz added five more while Luke Piwoni had four. Jacob Stoffel ended the scoring with two. St. Johns eventually won the game by the score 52-46. However, according to Coach Herriges, the Wildcats got an "A" for the effort they exhibited in the first match.

The second game of the tournament on Saturday, February 4, put the Wildcats up against Zion Lutheran of Menomonee Falls. Height played a major factor in this game as the greater percentage of the rebounds were awarded to Zion. Mitch Strobel again had an outstanding game, scoring 19 points (3-3 pointers). Mark Schrauth had seven points, Jake Stoffel also had seven points and Paul Mertz had two. The final score was Zion 44, Wildcats 35.

The last game on Sunday, February 5, matched two conference competitors against each other. St. Marys of Barton, who on January 31 had been beaten by the Wildcats in conference competition, again met their defeat at the hands of the Wildcats.

Jacob Stoffel, who had been somewhat quiet during the first two games, began pounding the backboards, adding up to a total of 16 points. Mitch Strobel had ten points and Jon Boedeker, who missed the first two games because of illness, added seven.

Other scoring was done by Paul Mertz with four points, Mark Schrauth with three points and Luke Piwoni with two. The final score of the game was Holy Trinity 44, St. Marys 26.

KHS JV Boys Lose to Falls

By Tom Menger

The Kewaskum JV boys basketball team was involved in yet another close game when they tangled with Sheboygan Falls last week.

After a close first quarter, the Falcons started to pull away, and had the lead at the intermission.

Kewaskum battled back in the second half though, and took a one point lead with just two minutes remaining. Kewaskum couldn't hold on however, and Sheboygan Falls regained the lead, 51-50, forcing the Indians to foul with just seconds remaining.

The strategy didn't work for Kewaskum, as Sheboygan Falls sank both free throws in the bonus to take a three point lead.

Kewaskum still had one chance left to tie, but a desperation shot fell short at the buzzer, and the Indians had to go home with a 53-50 loss.

Dan Jeserig and Andrew Laatsch led Kewaskum with 16 and 12 points respectively.

Catholic Schools Week Observed at Holy Trinity

Why do we celebrate Catholic School's Week? We celebrate because there is so much to say about a Catholic education. In this day and age, it is very hard to be a parent but there has never been a better time to choose a Catholic education for your child.

In a Catholic school, children receive an education that is second to none. It has been proven that at a National level, Catholic school students consistently outperform others on tests for math, reading and science. They are also more likely to go on to graduate from a college.

However, academic achievement is not the only area of importance. Equally as important is the environment in which the children are taught. Caring, Catholic school educators share Christian beliefs and values. They reinforce morals which are so important at this time.

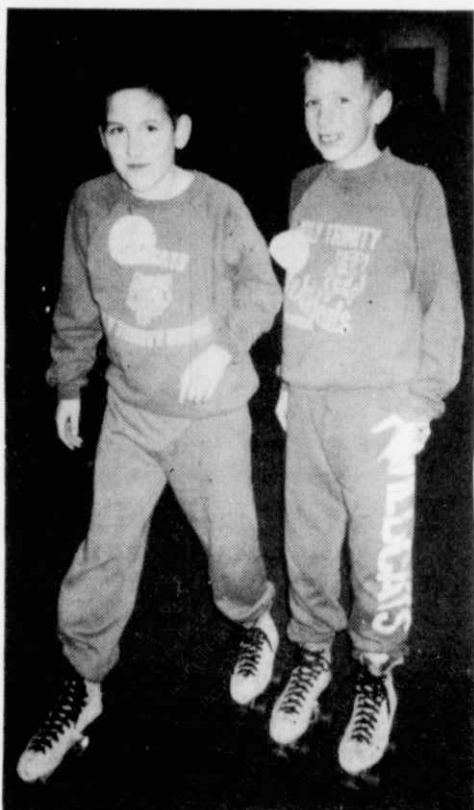

Holy Trinity School is no exception to the above. For the past 114 years, Holy Trinity students have ranked among the top students at the high school level not only in academics but in service activities as well.

Holy Trinity scheduled many events to celebrate the week. On Sun., students were the main participants in the liturgical celebration of the Mass at their various parishes. On Mon., the school week began with a school-wide prayer service and by the students writing letters of appreciation to their parents for making the commitment of sending them to Holy Trinity. On Tues., an all day open house encouraged parents to observe their child's classroom curriculum and activities. On Wed., the school Prides met to make buttons which the students wore for the final days of the school week. On Thurs., each grade was involved in a service projects.

Some grades raised money for the families of recent fires within the Kewaskum community as well as for Riveredge. Other grades made valentines and treats for the local nursing homes. The week ended on Fri. with the all-school Mass and all-school skating party at Skate Country.

Holy Trinity celebrated with gusto. They did so to promote the concept that not only an academic curriculum will suffice to meet the needs of our children in this parent day society, but that Catholic schools have the right and privilege to develop Christian values in children in a world that is besieged by chaos and total lack of morals.

If anyone is interested in enrolling their child at Holy Trinity school, the doors are open. There is no discrimination because of color, race or creed. All it takes is a decision from parents that values and morals are as important as the "3 R's."

Excellent Coaching Nets Victory for Wildcat A-Team

The 1994-95 Holy Trinity A-team boys concluded their basketball season on a high note, defeating the Consolidated Catholic Schools of Lomira and Theresa Raiders on Friday, February 17th at the Kewaskum Middle School. The win gave the team a conference record of 8-2.

Victory is sweet but it was especially so for five eighth grade players who were playing the conference game representing Holy Trinity. Following the introduction of the players, cheerleaders and their parents, and an entertaining cheerleading routine, the Wildcats were set to play the undefeated Raiders.

The Raiders captured the tip off but were not able to score against the Wildcat defense. Veteran Eric Wenninger was the first to score for the team. Jarrod Gruber intercepted a Raider pass giving the Wildcats momentum.

Several shots by Holy Trinity during the quarter hit the rim but did not fall. Near the quarter end, an alert Shaun Timblin picked up a dropped ball by CCLT and went coast-to-coast for a score. Luke Martin knocked the ball away from a Raider, allowing Jarrod Gruber to set up for two. A pass from Martin to Wenninger and an outside shot by Jason Butschlick gave the Wildcats the edge, 12-11 at the first quarter end.

In aggressive defensive play, Jason Strobel forced two consecutive jump balls just into the second quarter. The lead went back and forth between the two teams dur-

HT Boys 'B' Team Wins Final Game

The Holy Trinity Wildcats ended their season in style, beating CCLT of Lomira, 41-30.

It was Parent's Night, so the team was pumped up to play their best for the huge crowd of cheering parents. Coach Tom Herriges started his veterans who immediately built up a good lead early in the first quarter. He then quickly began to substitute freely, allowing the rookies of the team substantial playing time. When the final buzzer sounded, the Wildcats ended their season with an overall record of 6-4.

Those players scoring for the Wildcats were Mitch Strobel with nine points; Tim Branta with six points; Josh Repovsch with five points; Luke Piwoni, Mark Schrauth, Paul Mertz and Jacob Stoffel, each with four points, Jon Boedeker and Bryan Kraft, each with two points, and Scott Herman with one point.

ing the quarter and was tied at 17 all at the half.

Excitement in the gym ran high as the two teams took the court for the second half. Early in the third quarter, Jarrod Gruber executed a successful steal. After several attempts at the Wildcat basket, Timblin was able to sink the ball.

A pass from Strobel to Timblin resulted in another two. Jarrod Gruber intercepted a Raider pass but the Wildcats lost the ball on a traveling call. The Wildcat defense forced the Raiders to shoot from the outside but with just seconds left in the quarter, the Raiders squeezed ahead of Holy Trinity, 28-27.

The lead in the fourth quarter see-sawed. A traveling call on the Raiders gave Holy Trinity possession. A pass from Martin to Wenninger to Timblin netted two. The Raiders put pressure on

HT Boys 'B' Team Defeats Mayville

On the coldest day of the new year, the Holy Trinity Wildcats played a hot game against their opponent, St. Marys of Mayville, and won, 45-34.

Holy Trinity took the lead early in the first quarter. An injury to one of the Wildcat starters, Mark Schrauth, necessitated an early substitution. The first quarter ended with the score Holy Trinity 11, Mayville 7.

The second quarter saw a turn of events with Mayville leading by a score of 14-13 at the half. During the half-time team conference, Coach Herriges encouraged the team, "to win the game for Mark," and that is exactly what they did.

Mitch Strobel, who was held to just three points in the first half, added 13 more in the second. Jon Boedeker was hot from the free throw line and ended up with 10 points.

Other Holy Trinity players adding to the score were Josh Repovsch with six points, Jacob Stoffel with five points, Luke Piwoni with four points, Noah Koch with two points and Mark Schrauth with two points.

the Wildcats with the defensive press and guarded center Timblin, making it difficult for teammates to feed him the ball.

A steal by Strobel resulted in two by Butschlick. Jesse Boegel connected for another two with Holy Trinity trailing by one. With just over two minutes remaining, Strobel intercepted a Raider pass. A Wildcat pass to Jarrod Gruber netted two, giving Holy Trinity a three point lead.

CCLT called time out. When play resumed, Strobel came back with a big play knocking the ball away from a Raider as he held the ball over his head looking for a teammate to pass to. As time began to wind down, CCLT had numerous fouls trying to get the ball. Strobel scored one at the charity line with 44 seconds remaining, putting the Wildcats up by four.

The Raiders were at the foul line with 22 seconds remaining. CCLT rebounded the ball under their basket, shot and missed. Holy Trinity pulled in the rebound. An aggressive Raider defense put Jarrod Gruber at the line netting his first basket. With the fans at the edge of their seats, the second shot rolled around the rim before falling! Jason Gruber added another Wildcat score at the line to end the game with a Wildcat 41-37 victory.

In a well coached game by Tony Butschlick and Tom Timblin, the Wildcats had only six turnovers.

Jarrod Gruber and Shaun Timblin led the team with ten points each. Gruber had four steals, three rebounds and two assists while Timblin had two steals, 12 rebounds and two assists. Eric Wenninger added nine points, one steal, five rebounds and two assists. Jason Strobel contributed five points, four steals, one rebound and two assists. Jason Butschlick added four points, three rebounds and four assists. Jesse Boegel had two points and Jason Gruber, one. Luke Martin helped the team with two steals and one rebound and Patrick Bohn had one rebound and one assist.

The Wildcats will participate in the annual Mother/Daughter - Father/Son rivalry on Friday, February 24th. Play begins at the Kewaskum Middle School at 5:30 p.m.

Cub Scout Pack 3744 Holds Blue and Gold Dinner

Shown above is "ZZ Top" singing "Sharp Dressed Man" performed by Chris DeLaurier, left, Dee Dee Peter, center, and Toni Weiss, right. They were real happy to shave their beards and so were their husbands! Great fun (and embarrassment) was had by all. Bevis, Butthead and Cher, portrayed by Jim Uelman, Neil Bialk and Janis Oppermann also were on hand with the song and an ad-lib done to, "I Got You Babe." They won the contest by applause. It was pretty close, however Bevis and Butthead were favored.

Cub Scout Pack 3744 held their Blue and Gold Dinner on January 29 at the Amerahn. The theme was "Endangered Species."

Each Den made up their own centerpiece to go along with the theme. A very good meal, catered by Glacier Inn, was enjoyed by everyone, with each Den also bringing a side dish or dessert.

Boy Scout Troop 744 opened with the Flag ceremony.

Thank yous were extended to all the leaders: Den One - Dee Dee Peter and Toni Weiss; Den Two - Neil Bialk and Jim Uelman; Den Three - Mark Heinke and Tammy Schladweiler; Den Four - Chris DeLaurier; Screaming Eagle Webelos - Debra Tiedt; Cobra Webelos - Lisa Borlick; Cubmaster - Neil Bialk; Assistant Cubmaster - Jim Uelman; Awards Chairman - John Kletti, and Committee Chairperson - Janis Oppermann. A special thanks was given to Lori Gerlach for her years with the Scouts and as a Den Leader coach.

Each Den performed a skit for everyone's entertainment. The highlight, especially for the boys, was to watch their very own leaders dress up and perform a lip sync contest. Everyone enjoyed this a lot, (except for maybe the leaders in the contest), but fun was had by all. Beware boys... next year it's your turn.

Anyone interested in scouting can please call Neil at 533-8936 or Janis at 626-4966.

18. Jenny Kopecky scored nine points, while Sara Williams contributed eight. Bridget Polzean added four and Emily Rinzel had two.

The Wildcats continued their tournament play and returned to Barton on Thursday to face Saint Mary's for the third time this season. Saint Mary's had posed the most serious threat on Holy Trinity's winning streak but the Wildcats came out on top again, 29-18. It was Jenny Kopecky's night at the basket with 11 points. Sara Williams downed five and Lynn Wiesner four.

The remainder of the score was evenly spread, illustrating the excellent team effort always shown by the Wildcats. Contributing two each were Emily Rinzel, Becky Bohn, Bridget Polzean and Courtney Timblin. Jackie Broecker made a free throw for a single point.

On Friday, February 17, Holy Trinity completed their league season against CCLT of Lomira. The Wildcats, who hosted CCLT for Parent's Night, played smart defense, holding their opponent to 10 game points. The 22 total points made by the Wildcats was another team effort.

Points were evenly spread with Lynn Wiesner, Jenny Kopecky and Erin Weiss each downing four. Sinking two were Jackie Broecker, Becky Bohn, Rebecca Cartwright, Bridget Teofilo and Roberta Rinzel.

The tournament championship game was played on Saturday evening February 18. The Holy Trinity Wildcats faced their previous nights opponent CCLT of Lomira. A full court press initiated by the Wildcats, successfully rattled CCLT, keeping them scoreless in the first period.

Holy Trinity ended the first half with 15 and held CCLT to five points. Lomira made a turnaround in the remaining periods but proved to be no match for the Wildcats. The 28 to 17 final score crowned Holy Trinity the Tournament Champs.

Lynn Wiesner was hot with a three-pointer in the second period and a game total of eleven. Slamming in three consecutive lay-ups and an additional pump shot for two was Sara Williams with eight total points. Jenny Kopecky tossed in six and Becky Bohn, two. The final point was a free throw made by Robin Wolf.

The team was presented with a trophy and each girl received a gold medallion. The greatest award was watching the sportsmanship and enthusiasm the girls showed throughout the tournament and the season.

Coach Gary Bohn set an exemplary example and always made each player feel like a hero. He made them realize basketball is a team sport, everyone's effort counts. The Holy Trinity Girls B team proved him right, if you play like a team, you are all champions.

The girls ended the evening with a familiar cheer... Who are we? The Wildcats! What are we? A TEAM! Why are we here? To have fun! And they did!

Tough Regional Shows

By Statesman Sports Writer

SLINGER - Kewaskum wrestling coach John Nell was right on target last week when he reflected on how tough the Campbellsport Regional meet was.

Nell said after the meet that he believed that at least half of the wrestlers earning state tournament berths in the Slinger Sectional would have come out of the Campbellsport Regional. As it turned out, Nell hit the nail right on the head, as 13 of the 26 state-bound wrestlers came from the Campbellsport Regional.

"It went pretty much like I thought," Nell said. "I thought it was a tough regional and it would be one of the stronger regional meets in years."

Four Campbellsport wrestlers are headed to Madison, including the Dexter brothers, Clint and John. Chilton also sent four grapplers to the state meet, while New Holstein and Sheboygan Falls sent one apiece.

In addition, another Eastern Wisconsin Conference school -- Plymouth -- sent a pair of wrestlers to the State Division 1 tournament.

KHS Indians Down Falls

By Statesman Sports Writer

SHEBOYGAN FALLS - The second and third quarters weren't all that special, but the first and fourth periods were for the Kewaskum boys basketball team here, Thursday night.

The Indians started strong and finished even stronger, as KHS was able to secure a second straight win over Sheboygan Falls, this one a 59-55 victory on the road.

The win gave the Indians a 3-8 record in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

Riding a current momentum-building stretch of solid play that will take them into the post-season, the Indians came out on fire against the Falcons, scoring 19 points in the opening period to take a 19-15 lead.

Some cold shooting stretched over the next two quarters allowed Sheboygan Falls to fight back. By half-time, the lead had swung in the Falcons favor, 29-27, and the Falcons maintained a 41-39 advantage heading into the final stanza.

It was in that period, though, that the Indians exploded. KHS scored 20 fourth-quarter points, the biggest coming on a pair of jumpers by Tony Bunkelman, leading them to the season sweep over the Falcons.

Bunkelman nailed two jumpers in the final half-minute of play, allowing the Indians to pull away late.

Kevin Martin, whose free throws sealed the win, led the Indians with 16 points. Travis Thull added 11, while Kevin Klahn chipped in with 10.

Kewaskum - Jacak 11, Klahn 10, Bunkelman 6, Martin 16, Rettler 6, Strigenz 5, Free Throws - 9 of 15, Fouls - 18.

Indian Boys Pick Up Second Victory

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM - It was a long time in coming, but the Kewaskum boys basketball team finally notched its second win of the season here, last Tuesday night.

And they did it in impressive fashion, as they did a complete turnaround from an earlier game in beating Eastern Wisconsin Conference rival Chilton, 59-41.

The Indians had been embarrassed in their contest at Chilton a few weeks back, 74-33. That 41-point margin must have been on their minds, as the Indians came up with a big effort in the return encounter.

The Indians fell behind early and trailed 11-9 after one quarter of play. It looked to be another lackluster performance, which the Indians have showed during the season in accumulating just one conference win.

But that thought disappeared in the second quarter, as the Indians outscored the Tigers 22-10 to take a 31-21 lead into halftime. Included in that spurt was a run that wiped out a three-point Tiger lead.

The Indians withstood any Tiger rally in the second half, allowing just eight third-quarter points in controlling the contest.

Despite shooting under 50% from the free throw line (5 of 13), the Indians held on and improved to 2-7 in the EW, and to 2-14 overall.

Sophomore Kevin Martin led the Indian offensive attack with 19 points, while Joe Rettler added 15.

Chilton - Hoerth 6, Hintz 12, Mueller 4, J. Sattler 6, Heiman 8, Muller 2, Reindl 1, P. Sattler 2. Free Throws 7 of 10, Fouls - 15.

Kewaskum - Jacak 6, Martin 19, Rettler 15, Butschlick 5, Klahn 6, Strigenz 6. Free Throws - 5 of 13, Fouls 3 of 13.

Lady Indians Outlast Falcons

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM - The Kewaskum girls basketball team has had its share of trouble putting points on the board this season. Surprisingly, however, the Lady Indians found the right time to start scoring here, Tuesday night.

Backed by a stellar effort from Kelly Schreffler and Tanya Laubach, the Lady Indians picked up their second Eastern Wisconsin Conference victory of the season, outlasting Sheboygan Falls in two overtimes, 78-71.

In a season that has seen the Lady Indians score under 20 points in an entire game, the huge outburst, albeit in the equivalent of five quarters, could almost be considered amazing.

KHS scored in double figures in each of the first four quarters, culminating the effort with an 18-point fourth quarter. The Lady Indians needed every one of those points, however, as they found themselves down by three with time running out.

That's when Schreffler picked it up, sinking a three-point shot with just two seconds left, thus knotting the score at 56-all and sending the contest into an extra session.

The Indians jumped out in front in the overtime, gaining a slim lead. But the Falcons quickly came back, taking the lead and going up by three with the time running out on KHS.

This time it was Laubach to come through in the clutch. She sank another desperation three-pointer, this one with just one second left, forcing the game into a second overtime period.

The Lady Indians then erupted for 15 points in the second four-minute overtime session, easily pulling away from the Falcons. It was an amazing turnaround from a 19-point effort in an entire game against Chilton, just a few weeks back.

Making the victory more amazing was the fact that the Lady Indians were forced to play the final minute of the contest with just four players on the court. That came after everyone else had fouled out.

Dziedzic Advances to State

Joel Dziedzic shows his form in a match prior to advancing to the state wrestling meet in Madison this weekend.

By Statesman Sports Writer

SLINGER - The day didn't go quite as well as Kewaskum wrestling coach John Nell would have liked, but Saturday's WIAA Sectional meet here wasn't a total disaster for the Indians.

Sophomore Joel Dziedzic finished second in the 112-pound weight class, and will represent the Indians at this weekend's state meet in Madison. It will be the second straight trip to the state meet for Dziedzic, who finished fifth at 103 pounds last year as a freshman.

No other KHS grappler was able to finish in the top two and earn a trip to Madison, however. The Indians' four other wrestlers that made it to the Sectional all came up short in their bid for a state berth.

Dziedzic, meanwhile, had to work extra for his return to Madison. After two relatively easy matches in the opening rounds, Dziedzic met his old nemesis from Campbellsport, Clint Dexter, in the championship bout.

A week earlier, Dexter had beaten Dziedzic in the Regional final, Dexter's second victory over the KHS standout this season. Dexter had also scored a win in the season-opening three-way dual, in a match that Dziedzic had to default because of injury. Dziedzic missed several weeks due to injury, but came back to beat Dexter in the Oshkosh Tournament final in December.

Thus, the two grapplers knew each other well, and Saturday's final turned out to be another closely contested battle. Dexter scored a quick takedown and near-fall points in the first period, jumping out to a 4-0 lead. That was all the scoring that would take place, as Dexter hung on over the final two periods for his first trip to state.

Nell said that he felt that the key to the match was that Dexter, and not his wrestler, got off to a good start.

"I wanted Joel to get that first takedown," Nell said. "I thought that would be an important part to the match. Unfortunately, Dexter got off to the good start. Clint's definitely on a roll right now."

Dziedzic had to regroup after the loss, or face having his season ended. Dziedzic faced a wrestleback match against Waterford's Chris DeMent, with the winner joining Dexter in Madison. Dziedzic pinned DeMent in 4:36 for his second pin of the day. Dziedzic opened with a 4:32 pin of Shorewood's Kevin Raczinski, and followed that with a 7-2 win over Jefferson's Mike Wallet.

"He really didn't have too much of a problem," with the other matches, Nell said, noting that his wrestler had little trouble in the wrestleback match. "He was in pretty good control the whole way."

Another KHS wrestler just missed a state berth, as he lost in a wrestleback match. Jake Thull, competing in the tough 125-pound bracket, dropped a 13-6 decision to Waterford's Alex Guardiola in the match for second place.

"We knew that it would be a tough one," Nell said of the wrestleback match, which Thull had earned after fighting his way through the consolation bracket.

After a first-round technical fall (16-0 in 5:15) victory over Parkview's Jerod Perkins, Thull was pitted against Elkhorn's Mark Rathje in the second round. Rathje, the top-rated 125-pounder in Division 2, showed why he is so highly-regarded with a 16-1 technical fall over Thull.

That sent Thull into the consolation bracket, where he took care of Campbellsport's Chris Sabish, 10-8. That set up the wrestleback with Guardiola, who had lost to Rathje in the finals. Thull finished the season with a 26-9 record.

Tyler Dieringer also wound up with a 26-9 mark, after going 1-2 on the afternoon. Dieringer opened with a 1:01 pin of Union Grove's Shawn Quaderer, but was pinned by Waterford's Corey Pederson (4:14) in the second round. Pederson went on to win the 130-pound title.

The loss sent Dieringer into the consolation bracket, where he met Edgerton's Matt Wallow. A victory would have earned Dieringer a shot at a wrestleback match, but Wallow pinned him in 3:54, thus ending the season.

The Indians' two other participants in the Sectional, Peter Reis and Richard Wulff, each lost their initial match and were eliminated from competition. Reis lost to eventual 152-pound champion Matt Winn of Whitewater 9-1, while Wulff lost to second-place finisher Drew Helwig of Whitewater 11-6 in the 189-pound bracket. Helwig entered the tournament with a 32-1 record.

"It was kind of disappointing that we didn't get another one or two guys down there (to state)," Nell said, noting, "but I'm not disappointed in the kids. They wrestled real hard."

As for Dziedzic, Nell said that the sophomore standout has a legitimate shot at bringing home the state championship at 112 pounds.

"If he wrestles like he's capable of, Joel's certainly going to be one of the ones to beat," Nell said. "With eight kids in each bracket, any one of the kids is capable of winning it all. It all is going to depend on their state of mind."

Nell added that Dziedzic's state of mind should be good, seeing as how he received invaluable experience in participating in last year's meet.

"I think it's going to make a big difference," Nell said, noting Dziedzic was somewhat intimidated by the big crowds at the meet last year as a freshman. "It really kind of hit him when he got out on the mat. I think he was stunned. It should be a different story this year."
