Board Discusses Issues

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

The second half of last Monday evening's Village Board agenda resolved some issues, but left most open for future discussion.

The first item addressed under Committee Reports was an electronic scoreboard, which possibly might be located near the southwest diamond at Kiwanis Park. Trustee Charles Waala, Chairman of the Parks and Recreation Committee, stated Ron Theusch of the Kewaskum Athletic Club had been in contact with a representative of the Coca Cola Company for sponsorship of the scoreboard.

Coca Cola would underwrite the cost of the electronic scoreboard under the condition they would be allowed to place two vending machines in the park that they would fill and monitor and the Village would receive 20% of the profits. They would also like Coke products sold at all the concession stands in the park.

During a Committee meeting prior to the regular meeting, Waala directed Ron Theusch to go back to Coke with a counter proposal indicating the Village would allow the two vending machines and Coke could be sold at the Athletic Club's concession stand. Coke would also be allowed to place their sign over the Pepsi sign on another diamond.

Pepsi's proposal would only allow for half of the cost of the scoreboard. Both proposals would be for five year terms. The Committee will now wait to hear what Coca Cola ultimately decides.

Also under Parks and Recreation, discussion was held regarding financial assistance on the proposed River Hill Park volleyball courts. Members of the Fire Department who are constructing the courts, asked if the Village would pick up the cost of the transportation of the sand. The sand for the courts has been donated. The board voted unanimously to pay $1,000 towards the hauling of the sand so the volleyball courts could get underway.

The board also voted unanimously on the hiring of the summer part-time employees for Kiwanis Park.

Beginning the New Business segment of the agenda, the board voted to accept the audit report for the year ending December 31, 1994 and agreed on the renewal of the three year contract with Conley McDonald for accounting/auditing services.

The Board voted six to one, with David Goeden voting no, on the Resolution Discontinuing and Vacating a portion of Highland Avenue as heard earlier at a Public Hearing.

Review and discussion was held on the Certified Survey Map of the R.T.K.M. L.L.C. planned unit development reflecting a change plus the Conditional Use Permit and Developers Agreement of the same.

Attorney Roger McKenna, speaking on behalf of the developers, stated, "If you read this thing thoroughly, everything has to be done before an occupancy permit can be issued. This is not a 32 unit apartment building that's being built. It's three buildings in three phases. I think it's highly unreasonable that they have to do everything before they can get an occupancy permit. I would think that there could be some way you could work something out that if they complete the building of phase one, so they can get the occupancy permit. They may not build more than one building this year. We realize we have to have the sewer and water and the road and some of these things, but to have all the buffers in and all the stop signs in and things of that nature before they can get an occupancy permit, I think is highly unreasonable."

Trustee Robert Beisbier stated, "I don't think we were told that."

Village Administrator Daniel Schmidt added, "We were unaware that it was going to be phased, one building at a time." The rest of the board was in agreement that they were not aware that the development was being constructed in phases.

Schmidt said, "There is a possibility that we can work it out," with Village President Robert Wagner adding his agreement.

Discussion followed on the issues and changes that needed to be addressed, and it was then recommended sent back to the Plan Commission.

Tornado Awareness Week is April 24-30

Governor Tommy G. Thompson has proclaimed April 24-30, 1995, "Tornado Awareness Week."

"Let's make this the safest tornado season yet," said Governor Thompson. While Wisconsin can't avoid tornados, there are precautions you can take to protect your life and your property. The Wisconsin Division of Emergency Government, the National Weather Service and county Emergency Government Directors are joining forces to see that Thompson's wish comes true.

Wisconsin lies on the fringe of the infamous path of tornado destruction, aptly named "Tornado Alley." Many Wisconsin communities and people have felt the strength of a tornado -- one of nature's most violent phenomena. A number of activities are planned to inform all citizens of the dangers involved -- and safety precautions necessary -- in the event of a tornado.

On Thursday, April 27, a simulated tornado drill will be conducted statewide. Schools, office buildings, industries, nursing homes and hospitals are encouraged to take part.

Time after time, the biggest tragedies occur in areas where tornados have never been reported and have no precedent in most people's memories. The fact is that every county in Wisconsin has experienced at least one tornado. Tornado awareness is everyone's business.

Martins Share Their Memories

Dorothy and Bill Martin

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Bill and Dorothy Martin have been members of this community for a good many years, in fact, they met in Kewaskum where Bill was born and raised.

He was born in 1913, the son of William and Anna (Sukawaty), and remembers his grandfather had a farm in the Town of Wayne. His father was a carpenter, but also ran a coal-fired steam thrashing rig, traveling from farm to farm when the season called for it. He later sold the thrasher, and worked as a night man in Rosenheimer's Malt House, keeping the big boilers running.

The Malt House was seven stories high, with openings in the floor. The barley was stored in big drums and steeped in water. Later it was heated to the point where it would make the barley "grow," after which it was laid out upon the floors, and the rising heat would dry the barley. His father enjoyed working to keep the big boilers stoked with coal.

Bill attended school in Kewaskum, and by 1933, was employed as a Shell Oil wholesaler, delivering Petroleum products to service stations and farmers in the area for 17 years.

He recalls one of the funniest moments of his childhood happened at the old swimming hole. "As you go up the river behind McElhatton's house, the water winds around a big bend, and there's a deep hole. I used to swim there with a group of boys, and if you wore a bathing suit, you were considered a sissy. One hot day we were all cooling off in the river when suddenly a Sunday School teacher came by, parading a group of young girls behind her, on some kind of outing. We all dove into the river and ducked under the water, while the teacher hurried her class along, trying to shield their eyes."

Originally from Tomah, Dorothy's Uncle Roman Smith from Kewaskum came up and got her one day, declaring the Republican House was in need of a good waitress. He was employed as a bartender there. "He came up and got me and that was that," Dorothy remarks, pointing out that in 1939 a job was a job, and you didn't turn one down.

Although she was officially hired on as a waitress for the hotel, the job description included doing all the laundry, cleaning and cooking. People would travel all the way up from Chicago for their Sunday, family-style chicken dinner... all you could eat for one dollar.

She enjoyed helping with the wedding cakes, which were baked in the shape of hearts, sprinkled with coconut, and tinted to match the color of the bridesmaids' dresses. There was only one choice on the menu each day - whatever the cooks decided to serve. The hotel was kept busy with telephone and electric crews working in the village, and there were always three or four single men who had permanent rooms upstairs.

Food was stored in the ice house out back, and was kept cool within the 12 inch walls where the ice was packed in sawdust. They had a small refrigerator in the hotel, and one day Dorothy was asked to clean it out (meaning use up all the food so it wouldn't go to waste). "I threw together everything I could find: leftover vegetables, cut up beets, fried eggs, all topped with Mrs. Schulz's homemade sauce. Six ladies came in for lunch and loved the salad so much they asked for the recipe, but how could I give it to them!!"

At first, she couldn't bring herself to pick up the tips left on the tables. "I felt like it was stealing," she explains, and refused to take it. But living at the hotel she caught on fast, and soon learned that it was money she'd earned. The rooms at the hotel shared a bath, yet each room contained a dry sink with a chamber pot inside for those middle of the night callings.

One of Dorothy's cousins was a good friend of Bills, and they met during a trip to the movie house, and have been together ever since. On February 1, 1951, the position of clerk/treasurer became a full-time, appointed position (previously it had been a part-time, elected office) and Bill, who was always a whiz at math and figures, applied for the job and was hired. It was a title he held in Kewaskum for 32 years, as he watched the town grow and change.

The old Village Hall (where the Toning Shoppe is now located) housed a library upstairs, and the fire station. An old shed to the east of the building was turned into a garage where the fire equipment was stored until they had room in the building. But when Bill started the job, the Village Hall hadn't been completed yet, so he received his training in Augie Koch's general store, who was the interim clerk until Bill was appointed. "I learned the job in-between customers," Martin recalls.

He kept records for the water and sewer department, issued licenses, tax and water bills, and maintained the general records, which was all done by hand in those days before computers. At that time, the population of the village was about 1,000 people.

"It was difficult at times, dealing with the public," Bill states, "and sometimes I had to tell off my best friends. But afterwards, we were both much better off." He seemed to collect a following of older women, who had created a "fan club" revolving around him. The ladies wanted him to take care of all their bills, and would stop by his house on weekends to do business. One of them, who was considered a bit of a crab, insisted Bill come over one day and collect her tax money. He told her that it wasn't possible since he didn't have the receipt book with him, but she was adamant, explaining how she'd saved $20 a week for an entire year and didn't want the money laying around the house!

Telephone calls were common at all hours of the day and night, until he was allowed some help later on, and hired a part-time office girl, which turned into a full-time position. "Back then the village was afraid to spend a penny," he declares. Gerry Burkhardt was his secretary for nine years, until he retired. She left with him, maintaining that she couldn't work for anyone else. Before that Norma Kluever served as secretary for the clerk.

Bill's office was a meeting place of the minds, and often men would come in just to visit and pass the time. He used to arrive at his office by eight, and there'd be Joe Eberle (the famous beagle man) waiting at the door for him. Charlie Miller was the village president at that time.

Meanwhile, Dorothy was working for the Lay Lumber Company, where she remained as their bookkeeper for 20 years. She also worked for accountants in West Bend, and for Badger Packaging.

When she quit the numbers business, she decided to branch out on her own, starting a custom sewing service designing wedding and bridesmaid dresses. She loves to sew, and continues to make clothes for herself and Bill, including wool coats and matching London Fog raincoats and hats.

The couple remembers the village moving at a much more leisurely pace when they were young. The water came from wells, and it wasn't until 1924 that the water department was established, with the sewage treatment plant following in 1928. "The utilities departments continued to grow until they're what you see today," Martin observes. When he retired, Dan Schmidt took over the position Bill served in for over three decades.

Bill is also remembered for his 41 years of service with the Kewaskum Fire Department, at one time acting as assistant chief. He and John Stellflug were the first two members to have a second phone line installed in their homes for emergency calls. Accompanying the emergency phone, was a sort of dog bell hooked into the home, that would activate the fire alarm located in the fire house. "We always had to have a babysitter for the phone if we went away," Dorothy recalls.

Miller's Funeral Home, then operated by Pat Miller, ran an ambulance service, using a remodeled hearse. When he was ready to buy a new vehicle, he didn't want to remodel it into an emergency coach, so he approached the fire department and said he'd donate the old one to them, if they took over the job, which they did. Dorothy and Bill were both trained in First Aid and Civil Defense, learning knots and bandages when the classes were first offered in the village.

They enjoyed attending at least two conventions a year, with Bill serving on statewide committees, one of which he worked on to reform election laws. State Senator William Steiger came to Kewaskum to have lunch with the Martins years ago.

The Martins have a past deeply entwined in the development of the community, especially its governmental operations, and look forward to the celebration planned for Kewaskum's Centennial.

Fin-N-Feather Opens Addition

A new addition to the Fin-N-Feather Supper Club in New Prospect offers a "back-door" view of the scenic Milwaukee River and it's changing seasons. The building was previously the Sports Shop, and is now connected to the restaurant by a covered walkway. Owners Dennis and Betty Krueger can now offer their customers a new private conference room, known as the "cabin room," with antique decor. Seating is available for 20 to 30 people. The spacious main addition is done in burgundy and forest green, following a "woody" theme with real trees stretching out onto the ceiling. With the capability of seating 100 customers, Betty points out that they are now taking reservations for banquets and weddings. The old dining room has now become the restaurant's cocktail lounge, and is also used for quick sandwiches, as well as for those diners who prefer to smoke. Stop by the Fin-N-Feather for a dining experience that discovers the heart of the Kettle Moraine.

Andrew Rix Named U.S. National Award Winner

The United States Achievement Academy has announced that Andrew Rix has been named a United States National Award winner in English.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students. Andrew, who attends Kewaskum High School, was nominated for this National Award by Mr. Jan Rosenthal, an English teacher at the school.

Andrew will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly United States Achievement Academy award winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Andrew is the son of James and Margaret Rix.

Lisa Krahn Offers Tours Of Sibley Historic Site

Mendota, MN -- Visitors to the Minneapolis/St. Paul area are welcome to tour Sibley Historic Site in Mendota, MN. The new site manager there as of Jan., '95 is Lisa A. Krahn, 1986 graduate of Kewaskum High School, and the daughter of Sylvester and Jean Krahn of Beechwood.

The site features the two oldest private residences in Minnesota, including the limestone home of Henry Hastings Sibley, MN's first governor. Lisa and her staff are busy constructing exhibits and arranging the (c. 1840) interior furnishings in preparation for the upcoming season, which extends from early May to the end of October. Lisa manages most aspects of Sibley Historic Site's interpretive program and is also in charge of its collection of over 20,000 artifacts, including a nationally-recognized Native American object collection.

Mendota ("M'dota" in the native Dakota language) lies at the intersection of the Minnesota River with the Mississippi River. It is a ten-minute drive east of the Mall of America. Sibley Historic Site is operated by the Daughters of the American Revolution and first opened to the public in 1910.

A Message from Bonnie

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers and how are you all doing today? It has been a little while since we "chatted" so there is a lot to report on. Hope you will find it interesting. Many questions to respond to this week:

QUESTION: When are the self-adhesive stamps again going to be available -- I hate licking stamps!!

ANSWER: We received a shipment and put them on sale as of April 19. I also put in an additional order for more, but am unsure when they will be received. Hopefully, as you read this article, they are still available. The self-adhesives and the "have to lick them" are both available in books of 20 for $6.40.

QUESTION: When are commemorative stamps depicting 32 cents going to be available -- I do not like the "G" stamp!!

ANSWER: As you read this column, the following stamps with 32 cents on them are available: KID CARE (these are the stamps that were selected from a nationwide contest last year sponsored by McDonalds and the Postal Service) and the Richard Nixon stamp. On April 28th, the Bessie Coleman stamp will go on sale. For your information (whether collecting or liking variety...) the current stamps are depicted in the showcase by the stamp window with the dates that they are available for sale!!

QUESTION: When is the Marilyn Monroe stamp going to go on sale? Will it be the big collectible item like the Elvis stamp?

ANSWER: The Marilyn Monroe stamp goes on sale as of June 2 and the Postal Service is anticipating a big sale of these stamps. This will be the latest commemorative available prior to our Centennial in Kewaskum.

QUESTION: Please provide us more information concerning the special cancellation that will be available for the Centennial. Can I come into the Post Office at any time and get this SPECIAL cancellation?

ANSWER: Very good question! I will be covering this same question time and time again before, during and at the end of our big celebration. You CANNOT receive this special pictorial cancellation PRIOR to June 10th. June 10th... you can only receive this special cancellation at the park. At the park, you must bring in a STAMPED envelope and/or postcard OR purchase one of these at OUR SPECIAL BOOTH. THIS IS A VERY COLLECTIBLE ITEM! If you cannot attend the Centennial, you must make your request BY MAIL! You cannot come into the Kewaskum Post Office June 12th or the following 30 days from the end of the June 10th celebration to get this as there are strict regulations that MUST be complied with. The Statesman article in last week's paper totally "spelled out" what had to be done if you could not make it the day of the big celebration on June 10th. But, if you still have any questions after that or this article, please feel free to call me with any questions, okay? Well, that is it for this week... Have a great day... a happy every day!

Health Hut Sponsoring 'Dance for Heart' Saturday

Area youth and adults will participate in a "Dance for Heart" event on Saturday, May 6. Registration time is 9:30 a.m. with the step-aerobics starting at 10 and ending at noon. This annual fund raiser will be held in conjunction with "Turkey Days" in Campbellsport.

The two-hour event will help fund heart research, community programs and heart-health education activities conducted by the American Heart Association of Wisconsin. Dance for Heart is a nationwide effort to fight heart disease and stroke -- the number one killer in America and in Fond du Lac County. Dancers collect pledges from friends, relatives and co-workers for every minute they dance.

Besides raising funds for the American Heart Association, Dance for Heart also promotes the health benefits of exercise and step-aerobics, according to the local Coordinator, Vicki Stoffel.

"Dance for Heart" combines fitness and fun for everyone -- men and women, and the youth through the older generation. All are invited to participate, young and old, boys, girls, men and women! It's easy, fun and healthy, and it's rewarding to know that while we're having fun doing step-aerobics, we're also raising money to help protect everyone in Campbellsport and the surrounding area from heart disease and stroke.

Over the past years, the Health Hut Fitness Center of Campbellsport, has raised more than $9,000. The public is invited to come to Columbus Park on May 6, joining the Health Hut aerobic instructors. Rereshments will be served and a fun time will be had by all.

A new feature this year is besides earning prizes from the Heart Association, if you register before May 1st, and raise more than $10, you will receive a free "Turkey Bash" t-shirt valued at $10, courtesy of the Health Hut with the lettering by NSP Graphics of Campbellsport.

Stop in at the Health Hut at 150 W. Main Street in downtown Campbellsport and pick up an entry form. The supply of free t-shirts is limited, so register today. Call the Health Hut at 533-4747 for more information.

Fields to Participate in WB Litter Busters Cleanup Day

The staff of Fields Fine Furniture will roll up their sleeves and pitch in for a little spring cleaning Saturday, April 29, as they join the citywide Litter Busters Glad Bag-A-Thon sponsored by the West Bend Beautification Committee Inc.

This is the fourth annual spring cleanup program organized by the not-for-profit community organization and the first time Fields has participated. "Since we moved into our new, larger location between Island Avenue and the beautiful downtown Riverwalk we felt it is appropriate to participate in this spring cleanup program," says Steve Picus, president of Fields Fine Furniture.

Fields moved into the former West Bend Outlet Mall, 180 Island Avenue, a 50,000 square foot building on the east side of the Milwaukee River in downtown West Bend. "Our entire staff will pick up Litter and discarded recyclables along both the Riverwalk and Island Avenue sides of our building," Picus adds.

Last year, 1,900 people representing community schools, churches, businesses and local service organizations collected more than 5,000 pounds of litter and recyclables in the one-day cleanup, says Maradel Sager, president of the West Bend Beautification Committee.

The West Bend organized Litter Busters is participating in the national Glad Bag-A-Thon program sponsored by the makers of Glad Bags. West Bend and Milwaukee are the only two communities in Wisconsin among the 100 communities participating in this year's Bag-A-Thon cleanup project, Sager says. The West Bend Litter Busters program will run from 9 a.m. to noon on April 29. West Bend city garbage trucks will be made available to help transport the collected trash.

"We at Fields Fine Furniture are pleased to take part in this worthwhile program," Picus says, "and help keep West Bend the beautiful community that it is."

1995 Kohl Foundation Scholarship, Fellowship Recipients Announced

THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1995 PAGE 11

MADISON -- The selection committee -- The Herb Kohl Educational Foundation Scholarship and Fellowship Program has chosen the recipients of the 1995 Kohl Foundation awards for students and teachers, President of the Wisconsin Newspaper Association, Larry Tobin, announced recently.

The $1,000 awards are being made to teachers and students who have demonstrated excellence in the academic area and have displayed a broad range of ability and interest beyond the academic setting, he said.

"I am very pleased to make this announcement because it is an opportunity to reward Wisconsin students and teachers for a job well done. This select group is among Wisconsin's best achievers," Tobin said.

Melissa S. Rohrer of Kewaskum High School, was listed as one of the 1995 Kohl Student Scholarship Winners. Peggy Henke of the Kewaskum School District, was a recipient of a 1995 Kohl Teacher Fellowship.

The scholarship/fellowship recipients were selected by a panel comprised of representatives of the Wisconsin Newspaper Association, the Department of Public Instruction, the Wisconsin Association of Nonpublic Schools, the Herb Kohl

Foundation, and several education-related associations. "I think it is significant that Wisconsin's students and teachers are recognized for their devotion to education and learning," said Lee Nagel, WANS President.

The Kohl Foundation Scholarship and Fellowship Program was established by U.S. Senator Herb Kohl in 1990 and to date has awarded over $1.5 million to Wisconsin educators, students and schools.

"Education is the key to the future of Wisconsin and our nation. I am very proud of the accomplishments made by these students and teachers and look forward to the great contributions they will make in the future," Kohl said.

Letters notifying the recipients of the award were mailed by the Kohl Foundation recently. A formal presentation to the recipients is being planned by the foundation and an announcement of the presentation will be made later this month.

The airplane was being tossed by rough weather. "Pray," advised a little old lady. "I don't know how," replied her companion. "Well, do something religious," she said. So he started a bingo game.

IN MEMORY

Remembering LLOYD KELLER... Called to Eternal Life April 26, 1991:

Time passes quickly, but my memories remain as bright as yesterday. None of us can be together for all time as much as we wish that possible.

Once again, I see the sunshine. I see the faces of good people and the sweetness that lies behind their eyes. I see the flowers that dance in the wind, and the grain that lifts its head above ground and gives us our daily bread.

I am thankful for our time together. You enjoyed your life to the fullest, unselfishly; therefore, so did I. And, so, you shall live within me always.

You brought great joy to my life and I miss you!

Carole

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of JERRY THOMPSON, who passed away one year ago on April 30.

I can still see your cowboy boots walking across the floor, your laughter ringing out in the TV store.

It seems like only yesterday when we were at the races. Now you're in another place.

We all miss you more than words can express. DAD, you were the BEST!

HT Students Collect One Million Can Tabs

Students, parents, teachers and families from Holy Trinity School in Kewaskum have collected one million tabs from soda cans. The project was started in October, 1992, to teach the children how much one million really is. The goal was reached in December, 1994.

To celebrate reaching the goal of one million tabs, the students will gather on Friday, April 28th at 1 p.m. To begin, a prayer service will be held to commemorate Earth Week. After the prayer service, the students will participate in a bucket brigade to move all the tabs from the upstairs of the school to a trailer in the parking lot.

The students now have a better grasp of how large a number one million truly is. Many, many people have saved tabs for the students and they are grateful to everybody who helped in reaching the goal.

Everyone is looking forward to seeing all one million tabs in one large mountain. The money raised from recycling the aluminum tabs will be donated to the Ronald McDonald House in Milwaukee.

The school is located at 305 Main Street in Kewaskum.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Regular Meeting
April 3, 1995
8:00 p.m.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in Regular Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Robert Wagner presided. All Trustee Members were present. A quorum was present. Trustee Charles Waala arrived a few minutes late due to the Library Board Meeting running longer than expected.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Trustee David Goeden, seconded by Trustee John Borland and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the March 20, 1995 meetings were approved with one correction as noted by Trustee David Goeden regarding the payment of the KKCP bathroom roof rehabilitation coming from the Open Space Fund.

A public hearing was held on the request of R.T.K.M. LLC. to allow for the development of a Planned Unit Development Overlay District. The development is for the two existing R-4 Multi-Family lots which shall become one after the affirmative action is taken on Resolution No. 95-5 discontinuing and vacating a portion of Highland Avenue. The proposed development has not changed in concept other than those suggested changes by the Plan Commission and Village Board. A couple of citizens were present and asked why the change was being proposed. It was indicated that conditions have changed since the original layout in 1980 and that it was felt that this would serve both the needs of the entire community as well as area property owners better. On a motion by Trustee Robert Beisbier, seconded by Trustee William Kulas and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Board closed the public hearing. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 0 "Absent."

A public hearing was held on the request of R.T.K.M. LLC. to allow for the placement of a private driveway, sidewalk, parking lot and recreational area within a floodplain conservancy. The DNR requirements were reviewed as to restrictions. On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee John Borland and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Board closed the public hearing. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 0 "Absent."

Assistant Fire Chief Mark Herriges was present and informed the Board that the Department was concerned over a comment made by Trustee David Goeden regarding spending. It was noted by President Robert Wagner that the comment was from one Board Member and did not represent his view. The majority of Board Members concurred and indicated they support the Fire Department and the entire Village Board appreciates their volunteer activities and support of the department. It was noted that the comment was not interpreted entirely correct and that the Village Board is the responsible body establishing taxes which everyone is concerned about. Trustee David Goeden indicated he acknowledges their concern, but wishes the department would have called him to discuss the matter. Trustee Robert Stoltzmann informed the Board that the Board, as well as those in attendance at the Village Board and Committee meetings, should weigh their comments for clarity and appropriateness.

It was noted that the request of the Fire Department for financial assistance regarding the installation of the volleyball court at RHP (estimated cost to be $1,000) would be discussed at the Park and Recreation meeting scheduled for April 17, 1995 at 7:00 p.m. It was also discussed that the department should proceed with putting together cost and alternatives regarding the replacement of the one tank truck. Trustee Charles Waala asked the Fire Department if any consideration has been given or will be given to purchasing a used vehicle. It was noted that if one department disposes of a truck it has problems and may not be the best way to address our situation.

Chief of Police Richard L. Knoebel informed the Board that the new squad car would be arriving this week and that a news note will appear in the paper pertaining to vehicles and trailers, etc., parked on public streets. It was further noted that the New Fane Sportsman Club donated $500 to the DARE program. The Board extended their appreciation for the generous donation.

Trustee David Goeden asked the Chief if any further thought was given to a smaller squad car. The Chief indicated this was discussed earlier during the budget process in a prior year. The larger car is needed for transports and in 1994, 143 transports took place.

On a motion by Trustee William Kulas, seconded by Trustee Charles Waala and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the advertising for sale of the 1993 squad car.

Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles informed the Board that the Fond du Lac Avenue (USH 45) project is scheduled to begin on April 17, 1995 and that the estimated completion date is 55 working days later.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann, seconded by Trustee William Kulas and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the advertising for bids to remove the Village's 3 underground storage tanks. The work is in the 1995 budget.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed the following:

1) League and Taxpayer bulletins.
2) Reviewed a letter from the Wisconsin Central Railroad regarding the signal request from the Village for Old Fond du Lac Road at Wildlife Drive. It was noted a petition needs to be filed with the Office of the Commissioner of Railroads. The work has already begun so such a petition may be filed and public hearing set.

3) It was noted that Bank Wisconsin has graciously agreed to donate $1,500 for the Centennial Fireworks. Also it was noted that Regal Ware, Inc. has donated $1,500 for the Indian Ceremony and $210 for a

Some Friends

Friends are like a petal,
Of a rose,
Or as precious as a baby,
Some Friends,
Some aren't meant to be,
Ya know some people say,
"If you love something set it free

if it comes back to you, it was meant to be,
if it doesn't, it was never yours."

It's kind of like a friend if their there for you all of the time, good times, and bad times, it was a true friendship.

If they were never there, say good-bye,
Some people say a friend lasts forever, but those who say that are wrong,
A friend may mischeat you,
A friend may be unfair to you,
Some friends are hard to understand,
Others it's like writing a book,
Even-though I can say sometimes it's like talking to a wall.
Oh, why is that?

600 Trout Planted Here

A cooperative effort between the Wisconsin Dept. of Natural Resources and the Village of Kewaskum allowed the opportunity for 600 trout, between 12-16" long, to be planted in the Milwaukee River here last Wednesday, as part of the Urban Waters Fishing Program.

This planting is a continuation of the original effort begun by the Kettle Moraine Sportsmen's Association and provides area residents the chance to fish for trout.

Trout-Fishermen-Wanna-

B's are reminded the area below the Main Street bridge to above the dam is the only area where it is currently legal to fish. All other areas are not open until the regular fishing season begins the first Saturday of May.

Large, yellow signs are posted in River Hill Park, stating the rules and regulations on urban water fishing.

New PFD Requirements

Effective May 1, 1995, the United States Coast Guard has changed the law for personal flotation device (PFD's) requirements on boats under 16 feet and non-motorized boats. In the past, boats under 16 feet were required to have a PFD of any type for each person on board the boat.

Many boaters carried the type IV, or the boat cushion, to meet this requirement. Beginning May 1, all boats will be required to have one wearable PFD for each person on board the boat. The type IV will no longer meet the requirement. One type IV will be required for boats 16 feet and over which has always been the case.

The new law does not require that the PFD be worn but there is to be one provided for each person on the boat and is to be of the proper size for the person using the PFD. As a general rule, PFD's come in four sizes: under 30 pounds; 30 to 60 pounds; 60 to 90 pounds, and 90 pounds and above.

Boat rentals will be given a one year grace period to switch over to the wearable type PFD's, but only in non-motorized boats. If a motor is put on the boat, the new requirements will apply.

Again, the new law does not require that the PFD be worn, but it is always recommended especially when the water is cold, during high speed operation, and when a passenger is unable to swim.

The type IV cushions can be used as seat cushions in a boat, but will no longer meet the legal requirements.

540 Wild Iowa Pheasants Released North of Kewaskum

Program Sponsored by Kettle Moraine Chapter of Wings Over Wisconsin

Participants in this year's wild Iowa pheasant release included Kettle Moraine Chapter of Wings Over Wisconsin members Bob Manthei, Bernie Sarauer, Danny Sarauer, Wally Ferber, Bob Gatzke, and Wisconsin DNR representatives Tom Issaks and Missy Sparrow.

This spring marks the second year of a three year pheasant release program sponsored by the Kettle Moraine Chapter of Wings Over Wisconsin.

Last week, 540 wild Iowa pheasants were released in rural Kewaskum within the Chapter's pheasant habitat restoration project north of the village. The release of these birds helps supplement the existing wild pheasant population in the area, and since its inception in 1994, populations in the project area have increased by 150%. Another 500 wild pheasants will be released in 1996 to complete the restoration project.

The Kettle Moraine Chapter, Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, and local landowners have been working together to improve the countryside for all wildlife species. Over 200 additional acres of wildlife habitat has been added to the project area, thanks to the many helpful and cooperative landowners in the area. Many food plots and acres of nest cover are being planted in order to improve the pheasants likelihood of survival and for everyone to enjoy.

The Kettle Moraine Chapter would like to extend their gratitude to all those landowners that are participating in this effort. If not for them, the Chapter would not have been able to participate in a project such as this, which improves the countryside for all wildlife species while still sustaining profitable agriculture.

If any local landowners are interested in being a part of this project, or would like more information, please contact Chad Zembrowski at 414-387-5298, or write to P.O. Box 202, Mayville, WI 53050. By working together, this pheasant habitat restoration project will be a huge success.

Marni Lynn Breaks KHS Track Record

MARNI LYNN

By Tom Menger

After nearly breaking the Kewaskum High School track record in the 3200m run as a freshman, Marni Lynn definitely had her sights set on the record this year.

Training since December,

Lynn came into the 1995 season in excellent shape, and easily broke the old record, held by Sandy Klein.

Lynn's time of 12:12.46 at the Oshkosh Invitational smashed the old record by some 27 seconds.

"Marni was so relaxed... she knew where she was the whole race," KMS coach Jerry Gosa said, noting that splits of the time needed to set the record were figured before the race, and Marni was well ahead of the record at every turn.
