High School Dedication Held

They said it couldn't be done... that it would never be finished on time, but Hunzinger Construction hung in there to beat the odds, and members of the community gave the Kewaskum school board and administration a standing ovation at Monday night's dedication ceremony for the newly remodeled high school.

Brian Cohen of Hunzinger and architect Dave Dell'Agnes spoke with pride about the success of the project, and the team work that prevailed between the school's support staff and themselves. Although construction is still in the finishing stages, most work should be completed by October 1. Principal Charles Heidner told the audience that it all began three years ago with a locker room that badly needed repairs, and led to taxpayers approval of a $4.5 million dollar referendum last year.

The results received unanimous approval from all who toured the new facilities,

School Board Makes 'Fresh Start' in New Accommodations

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Last Monday night's school board meeting met for the first time in the high school's new cafeteria, and although the space and acoustics made hearing difficult, the new accommodations gave the meeting an atmosphere that reflects a fresh start.

Mr. Cartwright appeared before the board to discuss the Let There Be Lights Project, which is raising money to purchase lights for the high school track and football field. Organized by the Booster Club, their efforts have raised over $11,000 so far, and a total of $23,845 is needed to buy the lights from Sports and Universal Lighting Companies.

Much of the installation work will be done by volunteers from the community, and Cartwright asked the board if it was possible to receive a loan from the school district so they could buy the lights now, and pay back the district at a later date. The companies will hold to the quoted price if they receive a down payment. The Booster Club would continue to hold fund raisers, such as the raffle tickets they are now selling. The group would like to begin installation next spring, which will be a four pole steel system that allows for additional lighting in the future.

Board President Neal Weare indicated that Dr. Heather would have to look into the budget and see if monies were available for this kind of loan, and the matter will be brought up at a future Finance-Transportation-Building and Grounds Committee Meeting

Food Service Supervisor Kathleen Robinson provided the board with information they requested concerning the St. Lucas lunch program, and whether the district was losing money or making money. "Providing lunches for children is not a money making entity, and it's not supposed to be, according to the DPI," Robinson told the board. The district charges St. Lucas $1.25 per lunch, and the cost of the meal is $1.40, but St. Lucas provides their own milk, as well as serves their own food,

New Building for Finishing Touches

Judy and Dennis Johnson of Finishing Touches.

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Finishing Touches Gift Shop moved into their new building with the country store look this past weekend, celebrating with a grand opening for old and new customers.

"It was a terrific weekend," owner Judy Johnson exclaims. "We had a huge response both days, with over 250 new customers, and at some point cars were lined up down the street." The new shop is located next to their home on Highway S, and boasts quite a bit more space than the previous store that was run out of the Johnson's extra garage.

"Since we opened November '91, our business has doubled each year," Judy states, "and we just grew out of the old place." With her large inventory of gifts from around the world, Finishing Touches needed a new home to keep up with customer interest, and give them room to move. "We had so much stock, if we got more than five customers in the store at one time -- it was crowded!" she points out.

Construction began this past June, with John Gitter of Kewaskum designing and constructing Judy's new gift shop. "I only gave him a few specifics -- I wanted a roof line like they have on the Cracker Barrel stores, and I wanted only one window," Judy explains. "I got a lot of static about the one window, but I needed the wall space inside." John took it from there, and the result is an 1,800 square foot custom store, with a hardwood floor throughout, that Judy and her husband Dennis laid plank by plank, with the help of two other people.

"We call it the floor from hell," she asserts, mentioning it took four people working four days, 14 hours each day to just lay the floor. The result is a work of art, and enhances the shop's country store theme, along with the pine shelving and cabinets Dennis built. "He took vacation time off from work to finish the inside, did all the painting, molding, and wood work," she says, giving credit where credit is due, but there may be an ulterior motive here, since Dennis now resumes control over the garage that was originally built to be his workshop. Employees Connie Schulist, Debbie Schmidt, Jodi Strobel and Helen Zuehlke also helped wherever and whenever help was needed, along with Judy's right hand and best friend, Brenda Gitter.

The exterior of Finishing Touches is done in a chocolate-brown siding that resembles wood, accented with an old rose door and brass torchlights. A spot light highlights the lone window at night.

New merchandise is still arriving every day, and Judy

Gifts, crafts, collectibles, special and personalized orders draw large crowds to Finishing Touches on Highway S.

is still busy entering all her inventory into the computer so she can get it out onto the shelves. Her customer list has grown to over 1,200 over the past four years, which she says is due in part to her display window in Paradise Mall, West Bend, and the fact that she specializes in special orders and personalized gifts. Her Frequent Buyer Program averages a 15% savings for her customers, or $35 off store merchandise when the card is full. "Also, I'm really good at fitting a lot into a small space!"

Finishing Touches Gift Shop is open Tuesday through Friday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., Wednesday until 7 p.m., Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sundays from 12 noon to 4 p.m.

Archbishop and Bishop To Visit Area Parishes

Holy Trinity Parish, along with St. Bridget's Parish, St. Michael's Parish, and St. John of God Parish will be honored with a visit from Archbishop Rembert Weakland, O.S.B. and Bishop Richard Sklba from the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

This visit is in conjunction with the 150th Anniversary of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. The bishops will be in our area on Sunday, October 1, and Monday, October 2, 1995.

The local parishes have been planning several activities that will take place during the Bishop's visit. On Sunday, October 1, Bishop Sklba will concelebrate the 11 a.m. Mass at Holy Trinity along with Father Brophy.

Archbishop Weakland will concelebrate a 1 p.m. Mass at St. Michael's Church, along with Father Zens. This will be in place of the usual 10 a.m. Mass celebrated at St. Michael's. Also taking place at this Mass will be the blessing of an old processional cross that was found on the property and refurbished.

At 2:30 p.m. on Sunday afternoon, there will be a Town Hall Meeting held in St. Michael's Church for parishioners of all four parishes. Questions and concerns were submitted in writing to the Bishops, however, all are encouraged and invited to attend to hear what the Bishops have to say.

Following the Town Hall meeting at about 5 p.m., there will be a joint gathering of the Parish Councils from the four parishes. This will be later followed by an informal gathering or town hall meeting of sorts with all the high school students from all the parishes at 7:30 p.m.

On Monday, October 2, Archbishop Weakland will concelebrate the 7:45 a.m. Mass at Holy Trinity which will include the children attending Holy Trinity School.

At approximately 10:30 a.m. they will be visiting the shut-ins at Maple Dale Manor and Meadow Creek apartments. This will be followed by an Ecumenical Luncheon. Before leaving town on Monday, the Bishops will have the opportunity to meet with the teachers at Holy Trinity School.

including the set up and clean up. "We are not losing money or making money," she explained to the board. "We're doing it as a neighborly gesture, and the more (children) I feed, the lower prices I get by with by ordering in bulk." Board member Goeden, who volunteers at St. Lucas, said the school has a 95% participation in the school lunch program.

Mrs. Goeden also brought up for discussion to see about the possibility of hiring a maintenance consultant to evaluate the schools' maintenance needs, currently and for the future. "I just think we need an independent person to come in and approve our maintenance department or just evaluate the programs of our maintenance staff." The cost for an evaluation is estimated between $4,000 and $5,000.

Ruth Schmitt wanted the discussion to go to the policy committee since she felt the topic warranted lengthy discussion. "I need to know exactly what your concerns are and who in particular you feel is not carrying their weight, given the evaluations we've had. They seem to indicate that the job has been done well so far," Schmitt told Goeden.

Goeden pointed out that this evaluation should be done so the board would have some direction to take, regarding the staff requirements for the new additions to the school. "Maybe we don't have enough staff and need to do something with our program," she maintained. "I have personally not received any complaints about the maintenance to this date," Schmitt answered, "so I would like specific concerns brought up at this particular meeting." President Weare told everyone that the board has no problem looking into different avenues and the topic would be discussed at the next FTB & G committee meeting.

Another difficult decision the board faces is a philosophical one, Dr. Heather told them that evening, and concerns about the crossing guard issue. Mrs. Puestow presented the board with a petition signed by 57 citizens, calling for a crossing guard at the corner of Main Street and Parkview. "When I see a kid crossing Main Street, I cry because there's so much traffic there," she told the members. Dr. Heather told the board, "we've looked at this request before, and the board has to decide is it the village, school, or parents' responsibility to get kids to school?"

He suggested that perhaps the village should pay for the additional crossing guard, which would cost $4,900 per year. "I'd like to get all kids to school safely, but I'm not sure it's our responsibility."

At present, the village is responsible for hiring the crossing guards, but it's up to the district to foot the bill. Heather told the board members they needed a philosophical discussion on who is responsible, and that perhaps the village is, since it's their streets and sidewalks. The district already pays three crossing guards, but Heather said he will ask the Sheriff's Department to investigate the intersection of Highway 45 and H, to see if conditions there are safer following the addition of a stop light and sidewalks. Then it would be possible for the crossing guard presently there to move to Parkview and Main Street. The board took no action on this item that evening.

Brian Cohen of Hunzinger gave a brief construction update, indicating that teachers were reviewing their rooms, to see if there's anything that needs correcting or completing, and that their crew had been working day and night the past two weeks to complete flooring and ceiling areas at the high school. Completion of unfinished areas has been moved up from December 1 to October 1.

He told the board they were looking at an approximate savings of 5% of the original referendum monies. Figures as near as possible would be presented at the next board meeting. Board member Goeden again questioned whether the construction company received any money for the items listed on the contingency, including the alternates.

"We don't benefit from those items, our fee is fixed, whether there is 20 or 120 items. We have a fixed fee contract with the district," he explained to Goeden. "We're looking out for the district's best interest to try to get as much money back for the district, and get the best facility for the district," he responded.

In other discussion, Goeden requested that the reinstatement of girls' golf be put on the next agenda, and that a flag be located in every classroom of all the schools. She stated that the American Legion would do this, and would also come to the classrooms to teach the students about the flag.

The board approved the resignation of District Administrator Dr. David Heather, with regret. His last day with the district will be October 15, and Neal Weare expressed his appreciation for the dedicated work Dr. Heather has done the past seven years, including his role in the building additions.

A limited term contract for third grade teacher Julie Wenzlaff was okayed and Mark Heise was named varsity baseball coach for the 95-96 school year. At the next meeting, the board will consider increasing FTE time for Mrs. Lora Schreiber from 70% to 100%.

The board approved accounts payable and payroll in the amount of $674,092.13.

Kewaskum Teachers Visit Hesse, Germany

Kewaskum Middle School teachers David Drexler and Karen Diemer participated in a Teacher Exchange with Wisconsin's sister state, Hesse, Germany for two weeks in August.

Drexler and Diemer were two of twelve teachers selected by Wisconsin to represent the state and their schools in Germany.

While in Germany, the twelve students and a representative from the Department of Public Instruction, studied Germany's Dual System of Education, a unique system which offers students opportunities to train as apprentices prior to age 18.

The Wisconsin group attended seminars by the Ministry of Education and visited vocational schools and work sites where they had the opportunity to speak with the apprentices and their trainers.

The Wisconsin teachers will continue to meet this year to work on a joint project focusing on "School to Work" programs which will then be shared with their schools, businesses and communities.

Yeska Family Reunion

Labor Day weekend, the descendants of Anton and Stella (Paluka) Yeska met at the Homestead in Neshkoro, WI for their 6th family reunion.

The following words pretty much cover the events.

Sakes alive, it's 95
And we are gathered here.
The young, the old, and in between
To bring each other cheer.
The Kurz's are in charge this year
To keep us all in line.
We've never had a problem,
I'm sure they'll do just fine.

A few loved ones are missing,
Which leaves an empty chair.
I know they're joining in the fun,
While watching from up there.

We come from the East,
We come from the West,
And other points as well.
We wouldn't miss this for the world,
We all have much to tell.

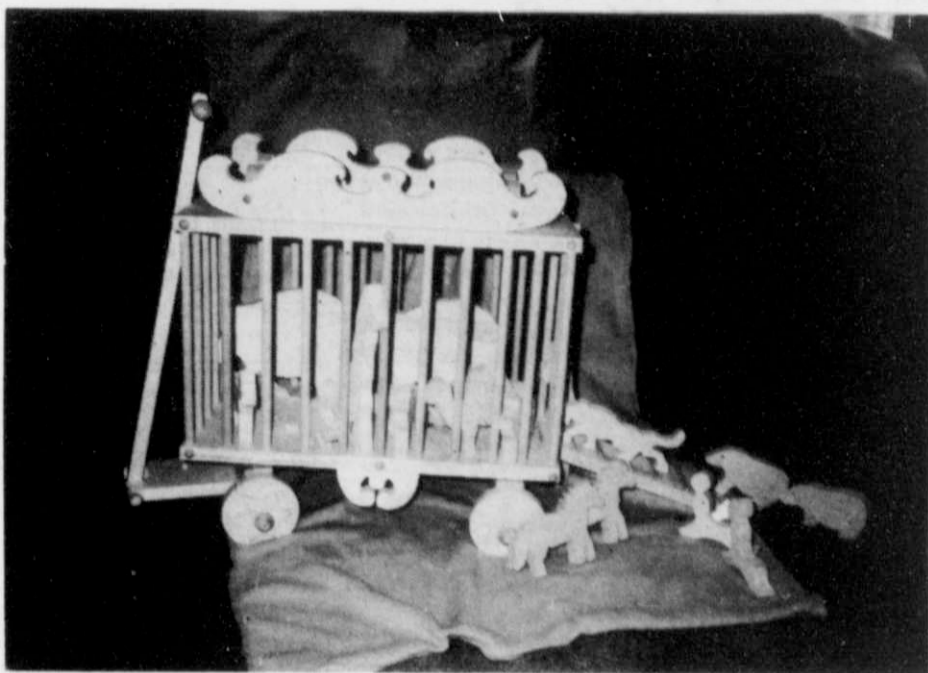

This is Polish "Gemetlikeit"
I know I've spelled it wrong,
But later when the face if fed,
Our hearts will be filled with song.
As we gather around the roaring fire,
And anecdotes are said,
We hate to see the evening go,
But then it's off to bed.

A morning Mass by Father Joe
With liturgist, Kathy, in charge.
We thank our Lord for this gathering.
As they softly strum their guitars.

Then it's off to the races or who knows what!
Perhaps a fish or two,
There's always plenty excitement
What you do, is up to you.
So here's a great big welcome
To each and everyone
We're glad to be in Neshkoro,
Where Yeska's roots were begun!

Isabelle (Yeska) Muckerheide

Will Share High-Flying Hobby At Kettle Kountry Kolors Fest

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Don Palmer of Green Bay flies kites for peace, as well as the sheer pleasure of the sport, and he'll be bringing his kite making skills and knowledge to share with everyone at Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolors family fun festival on Saturday, October 7, at 10:30 a.m.

Don's interest in flying kites began 72 years ago, when his Dad made him his first one, and for the past 15 years, Palmer's been a serious enthusiast, promoting peace through kite flying and educating children by giving school programs on the subject. Why? "Because no one has ever seen the wind, and I'm fascinated with what it can do," he relates. That also explains why he also enjoyed sailboat racing for so many years.

Palmer was originally born in Colorado, grew up in Milwaukee, and lived in Door County for awhile before settling down in Green Bay. He loves to be out in the open, enjoying nature and states, "it's real communing with God."

Don owns over 120 kites of different types and varieties, and will be displaying some of them at the festival, including the Delta Wing, and the Rokkuku, or Japanese flat kite, and some stunt kites.

"I'll be making a kite with the children, talking about the history of kites, safety rules regarding flying, launching the kite, and maintaining it in the air," he relates. "There are tricks to keeping it tangle free, and also what to do when a problem occurs." Palmer enjoys working with children and travels from school to school, sharing his love of the hobby with others.

Kite flying competitions have grown in intensity through the years, and events are held throughout the world. The kite originated in the Far East over 3,000 years ago, and its use spread from there. It was invented for the purpose of fishing, and has also been used in times of war, for rescue work, to pull wagons in England, and for religious ceremonies.

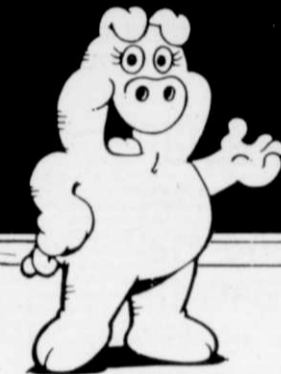

As a peacemaker, Don points out that in the history of the recorded world, only 8% of life on earth has been free of war, which isn't a very good reflection of it's inhabitants. On the second Sunday of October, people from all over the world will be flying kites for peace, an event developed by Jane Parker Ambrose. Last year 350,000 people in 41 different countries participated on the same day, and this statement for peace was covered by CNN news. This year, Don will be organizing a group in Green Bay to fly kites on Sunday, October 8. Anyone interested in participating can write Don at 403 Greene Avenue, Green Bay, WI 54301, or call him at 414-432-8490.

The Kettle Kountry Kolors kite demonstration will last about two hours, and will include constructing a Scott Sled Kite, approximately 18" by 24", and about one hour of group flying time. Those interested (adults and children) in making a kite and learning more about this fascinating hobby, should fill out the form below to guarantee you a chance to work with Don, which promises to be a high-flying experience.

from the bright, expanded cafeteria adorned with round windows to the white-white band room with high ceilings and real acoustics. New rooms, new computers, a state of the art kitchen staffed with shining equipment gave the school a look of the 90's.

Board member Mary Andera was impressed with the outcome. "I think the facilities are beautiful," she commented, and adds, "it's amazing the support staff at this school got this done in the amount of time they did." Construction was started in June of this year.

High school science teacher Jerry Gosa couldn't be happier with his new room and equipment. "After 19 years of walking through that door... well, I'm just very, very happy having this classroom. The laboratory is separate, and from an educational standpoint it's ideal."

Other new areas include the administrative office and adjoining guidance area, done in burgundy, blue and mauve, home economics with a new sewing lab, locker rooms and the unfinished but spacious mezzanine.

Although school board members' time at the open house was cut short because of a special meeting, Board President Neal Weare took time out to greet visitors and guide them to points of interest. "I think it turned out fantastic, and the feeling carries over throughout the community, from people I've talked to," he relates. "It's the same way with the middle school. What's made me happy, some of them voted against the referendum, and I had one of them tell me they were extremely well pleased, and it was a work of art."

What's even more impressive, is the fact that this "work of art" will have a major impact on the lives of the students who fill the halls and dream about their future.

The new high school renovation received a standing ovation at the dedication ceremony Monday evening.

A large crowd descended upon Kewaskum Middle School's Open House last Thursday evening, as parents, teachers and village residents gathered to celebrate the school's million dollar expansion, some curious to see if taxpayers got their money's worth.

The answer was a unanimous "yes," and the beaming faces of teachers and students were evidence that the renovations-enhanced not only the building itself, but the spirit and attitudes of the occupants.

After a formal dedication ceremony, crowds filled the hallways, visiting classrooms and admiring the big hit of the evening -- new windows in the rooms. "Most of the classrooms had no windows before," said Karen Larson, seventh grade teacher at KMS. "Now we can look outside and view the changing seasons, and I can utilize our weather and environment as a teaching tool."

The consensus of the teachers was that kids behave better in a less crowded environment, and the remodeling project has added a new entrance, hallways, classrooms, bathrooms, carpeting, badly needed equipment, and bigger lockers. "It's so wonderful," commented seventh grade teacher, Miss Badura. "I know there was a bit of a battle to get the windows, but it really has changed everyone's outlook. Also, the carpeting, colors and the way everything goes together..." she added, referring to the continuity in blending the old school with the new.

Board member Ruth Schmitt toured the facilities, talking with long time resident Laverne Hron, who taught in the school district for thirty years. "I think it's just wonderful," Laverne stated, emphasizing her feelings with a big smile. Schmitt was impressed with the wooden key eighth graders Michelle Zingsheim and Tashina Meyer had presented to the school, painted with an impressive depiction of the new exterior of the building. "One of the girls told me that she liked the new look because it made her feel more grown up, like high school," Ruth remarked.

The Booster Club was on hand, manning a table that sold T-shirts and sweatshirts, and promoting raffle tickets for their "Let There Be Lights" project. The raffle offers a weekend in Door County, Admiral tickets, and school sweatshirts. They are available at Family Hair Salon, and from Booster Club members.

Principal Katherine Crowley has been enjoying their newly enclosed office space, which was previously out in the open and subjected to the noise and flow of students going from one class to the next. "I can't say enough nice things about all of this," she stated. "Students have so much space, there's been enough renovation done that it feels like a new school to them, to us all. This creates a completely different learning experience for kids."

She pointed out that lockers are now located nearer the classrooms, with eighth graders and half of the seventh grade located in the new addition. The grades were all mixed up before, but are now organized by hallways, making it easier for everyone. "We were so pressed for space before that teachers had their supplies and materials stored on carts, and moved them from room to room as needed," she explained. Some of them worked out of four different classrooms. During lunch hour, 40 teachers had to cram into a standing room only space, and try to eat lunch. Obviously, morale has improved 100%.

"I want all the taxpayers to know their decision has made a difference," Crowley emphasized, "and it has made such a positive impact on the kids."

Board member Ron Beimbom was proud of the work the board had done to make all of this possible. "From the beginning, we, as a board, tried to make a concentrated effort to assure that it would look good," he maintained, "and the outside of the building is designed so well, it looks like it was all built at the same time."

According to enrollment figures, 420 Kewaskum Middle School students are enjoying coming to school each day, thanks to the efforts of the community, and a school board that didn't want to take no for an answer.

Health Officials Urge Women To Increase Folic Acid Intake

(NU) - Government and private health officials have issued an urgent call for women to increase consumption of folic acid, a B vitamin, to reduce the risk of neural tube birth defects. Birth defects are the leading cause of infant mortality in the United States.

At a recent conference held by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, leading health experts recommended use of a daily multivitamin supplement with folic acid by all women of childbearing age. The recommendation was endorsed by the CDC and representatives from the Spina Bifida Association and the March of Dimes.

As far back as 1992, the CDC recommended that all women of childbearing age consume 0.4 mg of folic acid daily. Since the announcement, however, the incidence of neural tube birth defects has continued unabated and the message has gone unheeded.

A recent Gallup Poll of more than 2,000 women found that only 15 percent were aware of the CDC recommendation. In addition, only 20 percent of those who had given birth since January 1993 had taken a folic acid supplement prior to becoming pregnant. This is the critical time because the neural tube closes three to four weeks after conception, before most women know they are pregnant.

Godfrey Oakley, M.D., director of CDC's division of birth defects and developmental disabilities, said that if the recommendation were followed, neural tube birth defects could be reduced by 50 to 70 percent.

Natural Sources or Supplements?

Good dietary sources of folic acid include orange juice, liver, green leafy vegetables, legumes, and fortified cereals. However, on average, women consume only 0.2 mg of folic acid daily. In theory, it is possible for women to obtain 0.4 mg of folic acid from their diet, but "from a practical point of view, supplements are the way to go," said Scott Simpson, M.D., director of women's health at the Texas Health Department.

The Food and Drug Administration is considering fortifying the grain supply to increase folic acid intakes. In 1994, the agency approved a health claim authorizing supplement manufacturers to state on their labels that folic acid may help reduce the incidence of neural tube birth defects.

Spina bifida results when the neural tube, which holds the developing spinal cord, fails to close properly in a mother's womb. About 2,500 babies are born each year with spina bifida in the United States. Treating and caring for spina bifida patients costs an estimated $200 million a year.

In ancient times, people hung wet mats in their doorways so that when wind blew in, evaporation of the water cooled the indoor air.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Mid-Monthly Meeting
August 21, 1995
8:00 p.m.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in Mid-Monthly Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Robert Wagner presided. Trustee David Goeden and Trustee John Borland asked to be excused and were absent. All other Trustee Members were present. A quorum was present.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Trustee William Kulas, seconded by Trustee Harry Roecker and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the August 7, 1995 meeting were approved as corrected and noted by the Administrator and printed.

Mr. & Mrs. George Eggert and Mr. & Mrs. Harvey Jandre were present to ask the Board to revisit their action on the Third Street parking. It was their suggestion that the parking restrictions should be the same as the parking restrictions on the west end of Third Street. After a general discussion it was noted that the parking as designated for the north side only should remain in force until the matter can be revisited on September 6, 1995 and all property owners notified again by mail.

Ms. Nanci Goeden appeared before the Board with a petition asking the Board to consider removing another parking stall on the north west side of the intersection of Parkview Drive and Main Street. It was noted that if a semi parks on Main Street a visibility problem is created. The Board took the matter under advisement and said they would review the situation.

The Village's County Board Supervisor Daniel Stoffel was present to review a couple of topics with the Board as follows:

1) Thanked the Village Board for their support for the Clean Sweep Program and indicated receiving the grant is hopeful.

2) Informed the Village Board that the County Board is undertaking a long range plan for the County.

3) Informed the Board that we will be entering the 3rd year of the 4th year of the County Library agreement and more than likely will begin discussing the next agreement in 1996.

4) The Board was also told progress is proceeding on the County Golf Course and work has started on the Fair Ground site selection.

The Village Board asked a few questions regarding zoning and animal care and then thanked Supervisor Stoffel for taking time to appear before the Board.

Assistant Fire Chief Mark Hergges presented the July, 1995 monthly report:

Fire calls - 2, Year to date - 16; Jaws of life - 2, Year to date - 20; Rescue calls - 12, Year to date -; Training - 146, Year to date - 1,348; Extra training - 74.5, Year to date - 893.15.

Criminal investigations - 37; Traffic warnings - 176, Traffic citations - 42; Adult arrests - 21, Juvenile arrests - 22; Property stolen - 0, Property recovered - 0; Parking warnings - 6, Parking tags - 5.

Chief of Police Richard L. Knoebel informed the Board that the VALUE bids for squad cars came in at $18,789, less than anticipated, and that if ordered prior to November 15 there would be an additional $400 savings.

Also, the Chief of Police reviewed with the Board the use of the State Patrol Eden Radio Tower for EDT etc. The use of the tower would be free, but the equipment would range from $7,000 to $9,000.

Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles reviewed with the Board a few of the maintenance projects and their progress.

On a motion by Trustee Harry Roecker, seconded by Trustee Robert Stoltzmann and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the renewal and new applications for Operator Licenses for 95/96 upon proper payment of fees and documentation and authorized the office to issue said licenses as follows:

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt, with the absence of Trustee David Goeden, reported that a Plan Commission Meeting is scheduled for August 29, 1995 at 7:00 p.m.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed a letter that was sent to JLN & Associates regarding a storm water problem and that it is hopeful a solution to the problem can be worked out. The Board will be informed of any progress.

GOOD FOOD

Festive Apple Flatbread for Fall

(NU) - What is it about fall that reawakens us? Is it the change of temperature that quickens our senses like a splash of cool water in the morning?

Something calls us to celebrate the season with lively smells and tastes. Bite into a crunchy, just-picked apple for the flavor essence of fall. Or jazz up your breadbasket with these individual sweet-and-savory apple flatbreads. They use store-bought dough and flavorful Washington state Fuji apples, and take just minutes to prepare.

APPLE ROSEMARY FOCACCIA

(Makes eight 4-inch pieces)

1 10-ounce tube refrigerated All-Ready Pizza Crust
1 Washington state Fuji apple
2 tablespoons dried rosemary leaves
Olive oil
Coarse salt

Heat oven to 400 degrees. Lightly grease two baking sheets. Remove dough from tube and cut crosswise into eight sections. Pat each out to a 4-inch round and place on baking sheet.

Core apple. Trim and discard about 1/4 inch from both ends. Cut apple crosswise into eight 1/4-inch-thick slices. Place one apple slice on top of each dough round. Top with some rosemary leaves. Brush lightly with olive oil and top with a bit of salt.

Bake 10 to 12 minutes or until lightly browned. Serve warm or at room temperature.

Bartlett Harlequin Jam Spells Farewell to Summer

(NU) - The gradual seasonal change from summer to autumn is signaled by the appearance of pears, one of the last fruits from summer's abundance to be harvested.

Bartlett pears from the Northwest start their march to market in August, and are available in bounteous supplies by Labor Day. Bartletts are termed a "summer pear" because of their harvest time, usually earlier than the winter varieties.

Like all pears, Bartletts don't ripen well on the tree, and are picked when they are mature but not yet ripened. Regular Bartletts, the kind that turn yellow when they are ripe, are shipped in a firm green state to maintain quality when they reach stores. It takes only a few days before their sunny yellow color indicates that they're ripe.

Red Bartletts, while a different variety, are comparable to familiar yellow Bartletts in taste, texture and juice. The difference is only in skin color. Again, shipped in a firm, unripened state, these pears start out a very dark red, often with vertical stripes of a lighter color. Then, the magic of the ripening process turns them to a brilliant scarlet.

For busy cooks who may recall the jams, jellies and preserves from summer kitchens of an earlier era, this small batch recipe makes it easy to spend a scant hour and produce a heavenly pear jam that tastes like "back home." Use either red or yellow Bartletts.

Bartlett Harlequin Jam

(Makes eight half-pints)

1 1/2 pounds (3 to 4) USA Bartlett

pears, pared, cored and finely chopped
1 can (20 ounce) crushed pineapple
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 package (2 ounce) powered fruit pectin
5 1/2 cups sugar
1 jar (8 ounce) red maraschino cherries, chopped

Measure 2 cups of pears into a heavy kettle; add pineapple and lemon juice. Add pectin; stir well. Bring to boil; stir constantly. Add sugar; mix well. Cook and stir over high heat until mixture comes to a full rolling boil; boil four minutes. Remove from heat and skim. Carefully stir in cherries. Ladle into clean, hot 1/2-pint canning jars with 1/8 inch of tops. Seal according to manufacturer's directions. Place jars on rack in canner. Process five minutes in boiling water bath, with boiling water two inches above jar tops. Remove jars from canner. Place jars on thick cloth or wire racks. Cool jars away from drafts. After 12 hours, test lids for proper seal; remove rings from seal jars.

Takes Second Place In Tour De Strongland Bicycle Race

Scott Stonecipher of Kewaskum secured a convincing second place in the Seventh Annual Tour De Strongland road race held in Vandegrift, Pennsylvania on September 9-10.

This was a two-day event consisting of an 11 mile off-road race the first day, followed by a 33.5 mile mountainous road race on the second. Scott was forced to abandon the off-road stage due to a flat tire at the end of the third of four very difficult laps, but not before he managed to put six minutes between himself (in second place) and the remaining 25 riders.

The road stage got under way with a rather large (50+) field, but was blown apart by the first, and worst, mountain climb of the day just two miles into the race. The lead group was down to 14 riders and making good time on the rest of the field.

Without much intermediate action (other than the relentless mountains to climb!), the group headed toward the final corner leading into the uphill finish.

Scott was tucked conveniently in fourth spot until the corner, when he dove inside and flew past two of the three riders in front of him. This move caught numbers three and two by surprise, and they had no time to react, leaving a ten-second gap, and bringing him to within six feet of first place.

People are always blaming their circumstances for what they are. I don't believe in circumstances. The people who get on in this world are the people who get up and look for the circumstances they want, and, if they can't find them, make them.
—George Bernard Shaw

YOUR HEART

Ask Your Pharmacist (NAPS)—Local pharmacists have heartening news for many Americans.

An aspirin a day may keep a heart attack away, doctors say.

They carry at low cost a simple pill that, medical research suggests, can prevent second heart attacks in some people.

The little pill is aspirin. Studies show daily aspirin therapy can provide a 20 percent reduction in risk of a second heart attack for previous victims and reduce the risk of first attacks for those with angina.

What's more, your pharmacist now has a way to make aspirin easier to take. An 81 mg. chewable aspirin for adults has been designed by Schering-Plough under the trusted name of St. Joseph aspirin.

According to Rodney A. Carter, Pharm. D., "The 81 mg. chewable tablet will make it convenient to take sufficient aspirin to protect your heart, especially when coupled with proper nutrition and exercise."

If your doctor recommends aspirin therapy to prevent a second heart attack, you can ask your pharmacist about the aspirin options available for you.

A banshee was an old woman in Irish legend, whose shrieks and wailings outside a house meant there was to be a death inside.

Indians Travel to Rice Lake Saturday

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM -- When a team is in a conference in which there are just seven teams, obviously one team is going to have a bye each week during the course of the season.

That plays havoc with some athletic directors, who frantically have to search for an opponent for their school during that bye week.

That was the case facing Kewaskum, which has its bye this week and had to search long and hard to find a foe to battle.

That search ended in Wisconsin's northwest corner, where Rice Lake will play host to the Indians this Saturday, beginning at 2 p.m.

"It's very difficult to find games in the middle of the season," KHS coach Clark Pearson said. "You have to find someone in another conference that has seven teams."

Rice Lake (1-3 on the season) fits that bill. A member of the Big Rivers Conference, Rice Lake faces teams like Chippewa Falls, Eau Claire North, Eau Claire Memorial, Hudson, Menomonie and River Falls on a weekly basis. This week being Rice Lake's bye as well, the fit was perfect, yet still very far away.

Located about 60 miles north of Eau Claire, Rice Lake is a good six hours away, meaning that the Indians bus will leave Kewaskum about 6:30 a.m. for their 2 p.m. tilt.

"It'll be a full day," Pearson said, noting he expects to return to Kewaskum after 11 p.m. that night.

In order to make that long return trip more enjoyable, the Indians must stop a powerful offense that features the wishbone rushing attack.

"We really don't get a chance to see that in our conference," Pearson said of the three-back set. "They are bigger than us, and they seem to move the ball pretty well."

Day Football a Hit!

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM - Officials at Kewaskum High School may be scratching their heads and asking a question after last Saturday's first-ever day football home game.

"Why have we waited so long to play day games?"

If Saturday's result was any indication, the Indians seem to have taken a liking to this playing football under the sun and not the stars thing.

The 54-7 blowout of Chilton was just what the doctor ordered for the Indians, now 2-2 on the year, including 1-1 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. With every game in conference play now crucial, the Indians will definitely need a home field advantage.

They found it Saturday, playing in front of a large Parent's Day crowd. The big gathering, perfect conditions, and a weak opponent made for one fine day.

"We had a real nice crowd, the weather was nice, and obviously the outcome was real nice for us," KHS coach Clark Pearson said. "Everybody got to play, so that was great."

And while the new field just west of the high school may still be hard for both players and fans to get used to, the condition of the turf was adequate.

"The field was pretty nice, although it was a little hard from not getting any rain," Pearson said. "But overall, I was pleased with the condition of the field."

Drug Impaired Driving: What You Should Know

Washington, DC. (NAPS)—Here's news about prescription medicines and driving that should give you a healthy knowledge about safety.

Police officers can now determine if you have been using drugs while driving.

An estimated 1.5 billion prescriptions are filled in the United States each year. In fact, studies show drugged driving is as big a problem as drunk driving. Fortunately, police officers can now determine if someone has been using drugs while driving.

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration of the Department of Transportation has developed a Drug Evaluation and Classification program. Now, officers skilled in the procedure can determine drug impairment and predict the category of drug used with a high degree of accuracy. One more thing to consider is that if you drive while impaired, your insurance may not cover you.

Punt, Pass and Kick

Indians Rout Chilton, 54-7

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM -- As far as home openers go, it usually won't get any better than this.

Playing in its first ever home day contest, the Kewaskum football team put it all together in a convincing 54-7 route of Chilton's over-matched squad. Both the 54 points and 47-point margin of victory represented highs in KHS coach Clark Pearson's eight-year tenure as the Indians boss.

"I believe that's the most points we've ever scored," Pearson said. "I remember us scoring 40 once or twice, but we never broke 50. We weren't trying to pour it on, either."

Pearson noted that he got all of his players into the contest, and the last scoring drive came with all second and third unit players on the field.

The KHS first unit didn't do too shabby either. Both offense and defense were clicking for the Indians on Saturday, with the special teams even coming through with some big plays.

The first big play came on Chilton's first possession. After the Indians defense held the Tigers, Jason Liegl broke through the Chilton punting unit and blocked the kick. Richard Wulff scooped up the ball, returning inside the Chilton five-yard line. On the next play, running back Aaron Kurth ran off tackle for four yards and the game's first touchdown.

"The defense obviously set the tone early," Pearson said of the punt block and subsequent score.

After KHS stifled the Tigers once again, the second punt of the contest resulted in the Indians' second score.

Ryan Herman nestled the ball at his own 40-yard-line, and with the Indian punt return unit blocking for him, Herman sprinted down the field to paydirt, and quickly it was 14-0, Indians.

"We had set up a punt return on that and it worked perfectly," Pearson noted.

Junior quarterback Kevin

Martin, filling in for the injured Brian Butschlick (pulled groin), also got into the scoring act in the first half, plunging into the end zone from one yard out early in the second quarter.

Chilton then put together its only scoring march of the game, getting on the scoreboard with a short pass play. But that would be the extent of the Tiger offense for the rest of the day, as the Indian defense once again, came through with a big day.

"The defense played well the whole ballgame," Pearson said. "They got most of their yards on that one scoring drive. We held them to under 100 yards of offense, and any time you can do that, you know you're doing well."

The Indians outgained the Tigers 317-94 for the contest, with KHS limiting their guests to just 14 yards rushing.

The Indians, meanwhile, piled up 303 yards via their ground game, with Kurth leading the way with his 131 yards on 20 carries. Kurth scored on a three-yard burst later in the second quarter and then added his third touchdown of the game, this one a 32-yard scamper in the third period.

"He ran really hard," Pearson said of the senior back. "He did a real nice job out there, breaking some tackles."

Herman added 69 yards on his 12 carries, while also scoring two touchdowns. Martin also later added his second score, while Eric Kopecky rounded out the offensive outburst with a one-yard score late. Luke Chesak made good on six of seven extra point tries.

"We finally put together a complete game," Pearson said of the contest. "Both our offensive and defensive lines did a really good job. I was really pleased with the improvement that we made."

The KHS coach did admit that Chilton was not one of the stronger teams that the Indians have or will face this season.

That dominance showed in the game statistics, with the Indians having nearly twice as many plays (66-34) as the Tigers, while only having to punt once the entire game. KHS also picked off four passes thrown by the Tigers, with Andy Rix coming away with two of those interceptions.

We think you'd rather spend more, and get a product that does the job right . . . that goes on easier, protects better, looks better and lasts longer. So, we don't cut things out to offer a low price. We add things in, to offer a better product.

Like premium quality pigments to protect longer and resist fading. And stronger, more expensive "binders", to hold the pigments on the surface better for maximum beauty and protection. And extra fine grinding of the pigments and binders to provide a smoother product that brushes out easier, goes much farther per gallon, washes easier and resists dirt pick-up and weathering.

There's more to paint than price. There's Mautz.
