New Adjusted Tax Levy for School District

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

The tax levy for the Kewaskum School District was amended by the school board at Monday night's public hearing, due to the fact the Department of Public Instruction revised their estimate of how much equalized aid the district will receive for the 1995-96 school year.

The new figure is $91,155.00 less than their previous estimate of $4,580,145.00, making the new estimated state aid figure $4,488,990.00. To maintain the same level of expenditures, the Fund 10 tax levy must be increased by $91,155.00, for a total of $5,878,131.00, up from the previously reported $5,786,976.00. Fund 30 remains unchanged.

This change will increase the tax levy to $6,624,306.00, and create a new tax rate of $14.42 per $1,000 of equalized valuation, up from the previously set rate of $14.22 per equalized value.

The new figure is still a $1.35 decrease from the previous year's rate of $15.77 per $1,000. With the equalized aid adjustment the 1995-96 tax levy will increase by 2.9%, but the tax rate will decrease by 8.56%.

Board Votes 4-3 to Approve Request For Waiver of Administrative Rule

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Kewaskum resident Linda Guelig summed it up at Monday night's public hearing when she told school board members that the outcome would read, "despite overwhelming public disapproval for what you want to do, you still want to do it," and the board did go ahead and do it with a traditional 4-3 vote, approving the request for a waiver of an administrative rule for a school district administrator license for

Charles Johnson.

The majority of teachers, parents and residents that made up the audience that evening made it clear they weren't happy with the decision, and voiced their disapproval of what they said was a board that failed to represent the consensus of the people, which questioned the appointment of Johnson as interim superintendent of the Kewaskum School District due to his lack of certification.

The board had called a public hearing to meet state requirements, since the governor had placed a bill into the budget that allows a district to hire an uncertified superintendent if a public hearing is held to obtain a waiver, although in the end, the board has the final decision, based on legal counseling by the district's attorney.

Miles Turner of Waunakee was the first person to address the board that evening, and stated that he works with the School Administrator's Association of Wisconsin, and was invited there by board member Ruth Schmitt. He asked the board to ask themselves a number of questions before making their decision that evening. "If the individual is not certifiable and is not licensable, why? What specific shortcomings or specific

Tickets Available For KHS Musical

The Music Department at Kewaskum High School has been busy working on the fall musical. Tryouts were held the first week of school and the students have been rehearsing each week since.

The musical this year is "HELLO DOLLY" and it will be presented on Friday, November 3, and Saturday, November 4, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the auxiliary gym.

Tickets are available during the school day until the night of the performances. The cost of the tickets is as follows: the front five rows are $5.00 each and the remaining side rows are $4.00 each. Seats are reserved for you so that you do not have to stand in line to get in.

A special performance for the senior citizens in the area will be presented on Thursday, November 2 beginning at 4 p.m. This performance is free and we hope to see many of our area senior citizens in attendance.

Their performance will be held in the new auxiliary gym, which is located above the new locker rooms adjacent to the Field House. An elevator is available for those who can not climb stairs.

The students at Kewaskum high school hope to see you at one or more of the performances as a full house makes for a better performance. If you have any questions or wish to reserve tickets over the phone, please call the High School office or Larry Ammel at 626-2166, Monday through Friday.

A large crowd attended Monday night's School District public hearing and brought heated debate over the new interim superintendent Charles Johnson.

Saddle, Gift Shop Open in New Prospect

Laurel Vail is New Prospect's newest business owner.

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Cool, fall weather draws horse enthusiasts from across the state to the quiet trails abundant throughout the northern Kettle Moraine State Forest for pleasure rides as well as endurance and trail competition. Trailering horses to weekend campouts at Horseman's Park in New Prospect means sometimes forgetting the feed bucket, riding equipment or other equine necessities.

Since Headquarters Saddle and Gift on Highway 55 opened this past July, that's no longer a problem. Situated in New Prospect, the new tack and gift shop offers horse lovers a vast selection of supplies and related gift items, with the added convenience of front door service. "I've had people ride their horses up to the door to fit a saddle, or replace broken reins," relates Headquarters owner, Laurel Vail, who plans to add hitching posts in the very near future for her four-legged guests.

Vail previously opened her first store in Cato, located between Manitowoc and Green Bay, where she also raised and trained Appaloosas, and offered riding classes. "I used to trailer the horses down here a lot for endurance and competition trail riding," she points out. "I also had many friends here in the area, and thought opening the store was a great opportunity to move down here.

Her new home and attached business was built this past summer, and she's still in the process of finishing up the interior and ordering more stock. Offering a large parking area so horse trailers can pull in, Laurel caters to trail riders and the ever popular weekend cam-pouts at Horseman's Park.

"The park is so close, people can walk down from the trails and replace something broken," she explains, and her years of experience in horses leaves her well equipped to help customers make the best choices in riding equipment.

"Our inventory changes all the time, depending on the time of year," Vail mentions, and her stock includes a complete line of riding gear, English equipment, blankets, saddles, bits and bridles, insulated saddle bags, horse treats, buckets, helmets, shoes, clothing, including outback oilskins and brushed denim, to name just a few of the items offered at Headquarters.

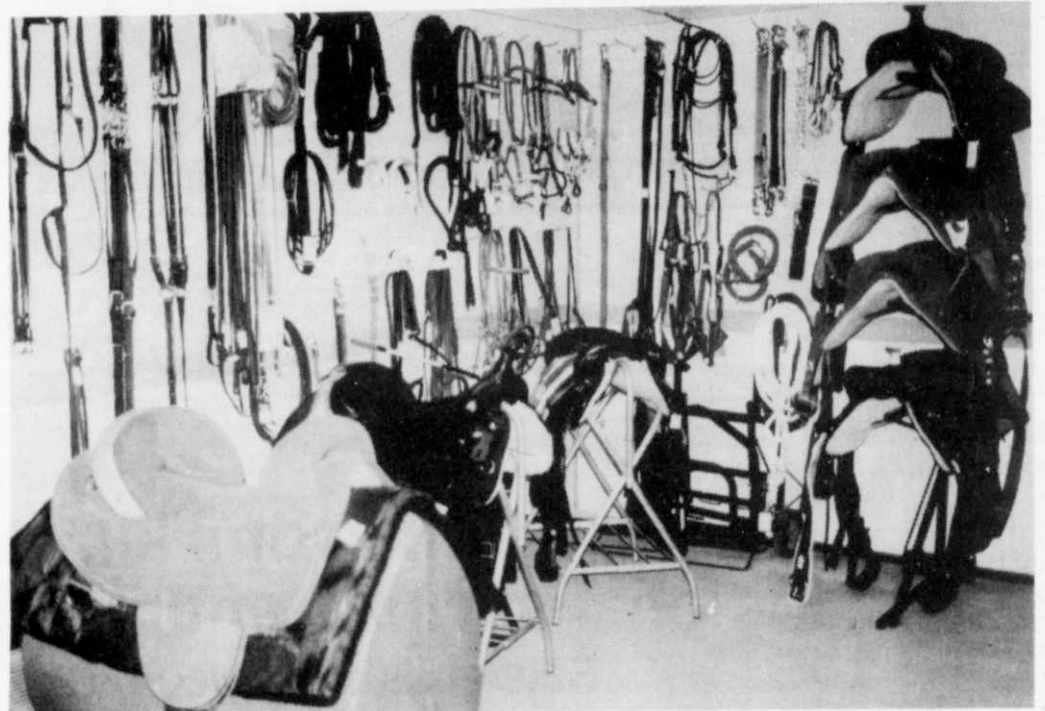

The new business also displays an assortment of unique gift items with a southwest theme. Belt buckles, bolos, leather ties, hair-pipe necklaces made from bone, and silver jewelry are carefully chosen to appeal to collectors as well as customers looking for a specific gift for that special horse lover on their Christmas list.

She points out an unusual line of Southwest belt buckles designed with a mosaic of feathers, native wood, and snakeskin, as an example of the kind of hand-crafted item she seeks for her store. There's also wind chimes, pillows, shinning door mats, and bathroom accessories, like towel racks and paper holders, crafted out of horseshoes by Wayne McVay of New Prospect. She's waiting for a shipment of guardian angel pins, just right for her store since they're adorned in cowboy hats.

Local artist Louise Ralston has been working with Laurel's line of clothing, hand painting horses, eagles, and other wildlife designs onto shirts and denim outback coats, and her work reflects the subtle beauty of nature. Ralston's work can be seen in a wall mural at the Fin 'N Feather Restaurant down the road from the tack shop.

Laurel spends her extra time giving riding lessons in beginner, advanced, English, or western riding. "I used to break and train horses, so I have a lot of experience riding and showing," she states, offering both private and group lessons at hourly rates. She owns two Arabians right now, and also enjoys raising and showing her purebred Doberman Pinschers, who have earned both champion and obedience titles.

"We also have gift certificates available for the store, or riding lessons," she adds, which make great gifts for the holidays.

Headquarters Saddle and Gift is open from 9 to 5 daily, Tuesday through Sunday. Stop in to browse or buy; it may bring out the horse lover in you.

Kewaskum Board of Education September Student of the Month

Kewaskum High School Junior Nicole Cochenet, daughter of Ronald and Kathy Cochenet has been selected as the Board of Education September Student of the Month. This semester she is taking algebra, English 3, human anatomy, art 3, U.S. history, life sports, and astronomy and meteorology. Nicole has also been a member of Future Homemakers of America. Nicole's nomination included these comments. "I have had this student in another class in which she didn't always do her work, had a short attention span, and didn't listen well. This year she is in a more difficult class, has done all her work, and has even taken a test over to improve her grade. She has surpassed all of my expectations. Her positive attitude and tenacity this year are very pleasant surprises."

Receives Graduate Certificate

Sister Lorna Zemke, O.S.F., Ph.D., Chair and Music Educator at Silver Lake College, presented the graduate certificate. To earn the certificate, Theusch completed an in-depth, 18 credit study of the philosophy, methodology and musicianship of the Kodaly Concept developed by Zoltan Kodaly, a Hungarian music educator, musicologist, composer and civic leader.

Kodaly believed that every child has a right to music just as he or she has a right to reading and writing his or her own language. The method is child-developmental, sequential, and pedagogically sound. It uses the voice as the basic instrument available to all, and folk songs as the "mother-tongue" of the musical language.

The Silver Lake College Department of Music enjoys a coveted reputation for excellence and scholarship. Its dedicated and highly qualified faculty have gained the respect of local, regional, national and international colleagues through their outstanding teaching and performing, as well as by the innovative programs developed at Silver Lake College. Training in the Kodaly Concept of Music Education at Silver Lake College has received national and international commendation.

Letters to The Editor

October 16, 1995

Editor,
The Kewaskum Statesman

The direction taken by the Kewaskum School Board with respect to the hiring of an interim Superintendent who is apparently without the educational experience necessary to hold a superintendent's license from the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction should be a cause of great concern to parents, students and district employees.

It is assumed that a Superintendent should be employed to provide educational leadership and vision for a district. Part and parcel to this capability is a background rich in a variety of educational experiences, both in the classroom and in administration. From what has been reported in the press, the current candidate, though experienced in various facets of military life, does lack relevant, school-oriented educational experience.

One often quoted member of the board maintains that the Board is interested in candidates who possess experience outside the field of education as those people would bring different insights to educational issues. Though the present candidate may indeed possess some leadership qualities which would be helpful in the educational arena, the fact remains that this candidate does not appear to have the educational background needed to fully appreciate the issues which administrators, teachers and non-certified staff deal with on a daily basis.

The center of education is the student, and the primary benefit of the three-year teaching requirement for administrative certification is that it allows the individual to spend time getting to know students and issues related to their education.

To accept anything less than proper educational experience in a candidate who will set the educational direction of a school district is without logic and does not bode well for the future of the district.

Sincerely,
John Breese,

weaknesses might there be that prohibits him from receiving that license?"

According to a letter received by Mr. Johnson from the DPI, he only lacks two of the three years of contracted elementary level or secondary teaching experience that would qualify him for a Wisconsin school or district administrator's license. The letter also stated that due to the unique circumstances surrounding his application for a license, the application was taken out of normal processing procedures, and given immediate attention.

Turner went on to explain that skills needed for the position may be transferable from other professions and walks of life, yet knowledge of the school financing system, school law, specific curriculum programs, as well as legal liabilities, were all factors that should be given serious consideration when choosing someone for an administrative position.

As far as questions concerning the board's decision to chose an uncertified candidate were concerned, board president Neal Weare told the audience, "I said this before and I'll say this in front of the entire group. I think people can be certified, and not qualified. I think there are people that are qualified, and not certified." The unanimous consensus by the board to hire Dr. Johnson, based on his qualifications and experience, was 6-0-1, with one abstention.

Linda Kaiser, who works for the district, said she had noticed an alarming pattern developing recently, in which action is taken before fully considering the consequences of that action, and in turn, education suffers and the district loses. She cited examples such as lack of an AODA program, elimination of a social worker, cutbacks in guidance hours but an increase in duties and action by the board to save dollars by cutting staff. "Many people have left this district lately," she told the board. "We need to improve communication and listen to each other."

Others were concerned that the board was in danger of losing state aid by pursuing this matter, and Attorney Camilla Hughes explained that the board was in compliance with the law by asking for the waiver, and the Department of Public Instruction will decide if the waiver will be granted. If the board decided to hire Mr. Johnson after the waiver was turned down, at that point, they ran the risk of losing state aid.

The board indicated that Mr. Johnson's contract would take place only if a waiver was granted, and they would not seek his employment otherwise. Weare pointed out that Johnson understood the conditions and accepted them. A waiver is effective for four years, and is renewable, according to Assembly Bill 150, "if the school board has evaluated the educational and financial effects of the waiver over the previous four year period."

It was also pointed out that evening, that Mr. Johnson would be receiving a higher starting salary than former administrator Dr. Heather had received after seven years of experience in the district.

Resident Jack Theusch asked what we're getting from this candidate that we (the district) could not get from the other two, and Weare answered, "Speaking on my behalf, I didn't get the standard answers I got from the others. There was a certain sincerity, forthrightness, coming together with his leadership and qualifications."

Dr. Johnson's record includes writing, organizing and putting together a 28 to 52 million dollar (five or ten year plan) curriculum budget for the Department of Defense in 1990, while he served in the military.

Board member Ruth Schmitt spoke up at this point, telling the audience, "I think that the public needs to know that never in my nine years as a school board member, have we hired a superintendent without seeing any transcripts," adding that Johnson left the military in 1993, and therefore could not administrate and oversee that military budget.

Taxpayers like Fred Bittendorf, Elmer Hallen, and John Meisser commended the board for their selection, but were outnumbered by the rest of the speakers that evening. Biddendorf stated that he valued the ability Mr. Johnson would have to take a fresh look at things from someone who's not a part of the system.

Questions have been raised regarding President Weare's involvement with a parent organization known as PRESS (Parents Raising Educational Standards in Schools), which some teachers have labeled "right wing." Taxpayer and parent Kathy Charland brought up the subject at the hearing. "I feel that his (Weare's) affiliation with this group may be the driving force behind his need to hire a person unexperienced in the K-12 public school setting." She went on to indicate that State Representative Glenn Grothman ran a public hearing this summer that was addressing the desires of the PRESS organization, and that he'd been instrumental in getting this public hearing set up as quickly as possible.

President Weare tried to set a time limit for the speakers, indicating that a policy committee meeting was scheduled to follow the hearing, but the crowd protested, and Ruth Schmitt stated she had spoke with the State Attorney General's office that day, and they related to her that a public hearing must give everyone a chance to speak.

Marcia Theusch, who has served on several school committees, had a problem with the process the board was following. "I feel that Kewaskum is setting themselves up to be the test case for this new waiver process, and I have a hard time understanding why we would want to test this process with the highest position in the district."

Audience members also brought up Johnson's Officer Efficiency Report, stating that that information would be a helpful indication of his abilities as a leader, but according to the board, it was not submitted in his resume. President Weare did state that Mr. Johnson was a company commander that commanded up to 900 troops in combat. "When I get information back from retired Brigadier Generals that speak very highly of this man and his accomplishments in Desert Storm and Desert Shield, along with seeing the Honorable Discharge, that also speaks for itself," Weare stated.

Teacher John Breese told the board, "This evening, I'm hearing over a three to one margin, that the constituents in this room do not want you to go on with this waiver. I have to wonder just whose lines you're voting along with, and for what purpose, and to what end." He also pointed out that the board was going against its own written policy, which states, "the individual selected for the superintendent's position shall possess Wisconsin certification as District Administrator, and shall have prior successful administrative experience."

President Weare turned the tables after being accused of causing the lack of trust between teachers, the community, and the board. "I think the students are the losers, when parents and employees of this district send home notices with the kids to foster political ideas, and I wasn't going to say anything, but I've had it, and board members that are parents, their kids didn't get any of these notices. Coincidence? Trust? My daughter didn't get one, but I know there were kids at KES who did. Trust is a two way street people."

Board member Mary Andera asked for clarification from the Quarles and Brady representative, Mrs.

Hughes, if everything they were doing was perfectly legal. "Does the DPI have any problem at all granting certification?", she asked. "I'm not going to violate any laws for anybody. I have to be clear on this, I have to be sure in my mind before I make my vote." She was assured by their legal advisor the district would not lose state aid if they did not go against what the state superintendent has set forth in the rules.

Near the end of the public hearing, Mr. Johnson was asked if he would like to make a statement to the community and the board. He replied, "I really don't have much to say, other than I greatly appreciate the opportunity, if it is an opportunity. I trust the process will serve the best interest of the district, and I'm looking forward to the challenges ahead. I'd just like to get to it."

The motion to approve the request for a waiver was made by Mary Andera, seconded by John Schulte, and won by a 4-3 vote, with Andera, Goeden, Schulte and Weare voting yes, and Schmitt, Beimborn and Sparks voting no.

Parish Mission Set at Holy Trinity Church

Father Richard Hart

KEWASKUM -- Capuchin Franciscan Father Richard Hart will conduct a parish mission of Sharing the Good News of Jesus. The mission will take place at Holy Trinity Church, 331 Main Street, Sunday, November 12 through Thursday, November 16. Father Hart will preach at the weekend masses, November 11 and 12, to outline the schedule and purpose of this parish mission.

The evening service will begin at 7 p.m. The topics for the five evenings are: Sunday evening - "What is the Treasure We Share? Sharing the Good News"; Monday night - "Too Good a Secret to Be Kept, Why Share the Good News?"; Tuesday's service - "Gold Mines Eagerly Awaiting Exploration. How and Where to Share the Good News"; Wednesday evening - "Are We a Forgiving Community? The Sacrament of Reconciliation", and Thursday's final service is - "A Work Which Cannot Fail, Eucharist/Mass - The Source of Our Strength."

Father Brophy, Pastor of Holy Trinity Parish and Father Hart urge the community and the parishioners of Holy Trinity to set aside other activities during this "mission" week and spend time nourishing themselves on the Word of God and to grow in their faith and understanding.

"This is a wonderful time for us as a community of believers to be open to the Spirit of God working among us - calling us to a deeper faith, wholeness and service to one another," Father Brophy said. "Whether one can attend the entire week or part of it, the time will be well spent for people to 'reconnect' with the Lord. Our society needs that saving love on all levels. I know people will enjoy Father Hart's enthusiastic presentations."

Father Hart assumed leadership of the Capuchin Preachers in 1973. He lives in Milwaukee and is a member of the midwest Province of St. Joseph of the Capuchin Order, headquartered in Detroit, Michigan.

Since 1525, Capuchin Franciscans have exercised a special ministry to preaching in addition to their commitment to the poor and disenfranchised.

A great man is he who has not lost the heart of a child.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MICHAEL FIERKE, JR. May 26, 1971-Nov. 1, 1993

We thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday,
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name.
All we have now are memories
And your picture in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake,
With which we will never part.
God has you in His keeping,
We have you in our hearts.
A million times we cried,
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still,
In our hearts you hold a place
No one can ever fill.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For a part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.
Love,
Mom and Dad,

In loving memory of HELEN STEINER, who passed away one year ago, October 31, 1994:

CARD OF THANKS
Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend can say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much,
whatever the part.

KMS Sixth Graders Enjoy Outdoor Education at Camp Whitcomb

Drew Donath and Niky Fischer wait patiently for the wax to melt for their nature candles.

A delicious cake from a box-oven is being frosted by Tyler Steinhardt and Joe Gerlach.

This year, Kewaskum Middle School sixth graders attended Camp Whitcomb on September 21-22 or September 28-29. Camp Whitcomb is located in Hartland and contains 284 acres of forest, lakes, marsh, ponds, open fields, cabins and lodges.

The students enjoyed a variety of activities this year, and many KMS staff members volunteered their time and expertise to help make this a memorable experience.

Students rotated through eight different activities: Archery taught by Mrs. Cathy Daniels and Ms. Tracy Schomberg (sixth grade teachers), Box Baking taught by Mrs. Margaret Pecher (sixth grade teacher) and Mrs. Kathy West (seventh grade teacher), Cooperative Challenge Course led by Ms. Leslie Bruss and Mrs. Diane Stangl (sixth grade teachers), Orienteering by Mrs. Karen Larson (seventh grade teacher), Wet and Wild Pond Study led by Mrs. Kim Gutjahr (sixth grade teacher) and Ms. Brenda Badura (seventh grade teacher), Walk on the Wild Side Hike led by Erv Uhlman (sixth grade teacher), Wax and Prints Candle-Making taught by Mrs. Kris Schumacher-Rasmussen (art teacher), and Canoe Safety led by Keith, the camp's environmentalist.

Also helping out with overnight cabin supervision was Bob Gonwa (KMS EEN teacher) and three very enthusiastic fathers, Mr. VandeBoom, Mr. Kehres and Mr. Schairer. A great big thank you goes to all of those people who made this trip a huge success.

Other favorite activities that the students participated in were campfire songs and activities, a night hike with only one flashlight, passing the "Suzy" secretly around, tug-o-war competitions, and many cabin-time activities. I'm sure any sixth grader would love to share their positive thoughts about their experiences while at Camp Whitcomb. They all seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves while learning and gaining knowledge about the environment.

A quote from the book You Are An Environment: Learning Environment Attitudes really sums it up: "The first law of environmental education -- an experience is worth 1000 pictures."

Halloween Safety Tips, Costume Guidelines Offered

Halloween can be both fun and safe if parents follow basic safety guidelines.

To help keep children safe, Children's Hospital of Wisconsin recommends the following guidelines:

General Halloween Tips

*Encourage your children to attend community or home Halloween parties in place of traditional door-to-door trick or treating.

*Use discretion when deciding which Halloween events to attend. For example, children under five years of age should not be taken to haunted houses. If your child becomes frightened while attending an event or trick or treating, stop the activity, reassure the child and return home. There is always next year.

*Light carved pumpkins with a flashlight instead of candles.

*Accompany young children who go trick or treating. Older children should trick or treat in groups and only go to homes of people known by their parents. Children should never trick or treat in unknown neighborhoods.

*Remind children never to enter a strange home or apartment.

*All trick or treating should be done during the times established by your community. (Kewaskum's trick or treat hours have been set for Sunday, October 29 from 2 to 4 p.m.). Do not allow children to trick or treat after dark.

*Tell your children not to eat any treats before returning home. Parents should carefully examine all treats, disposing of any that are not sealed or appear to have been tampered with in any way. If there is any doubt, throw it away. Avoid giving out hard candies. Children may choke on them.

Tips for Choosing/ Designing a Costume

*Make certain your child's costume fits properly. Avoid baggy clothing and billowing skirts. Costumes should be large enough to allow the child to wear warm clothing underneath, but short enough to prevent tripping. Do not allow children to wear adult shoes or boots.

*Costumes, wigs, beards and other special apparel you purchase should be labeled: FLAME RESISTANT. This label indicates the item will resist burning and should extinguish quickly if it comes into contact with fire.

*Use facial paints and cosmetics in place of masks. If a mask is used, make certain the eye and nose openings do not restrict vision or breathing. The mask should be free of sharp edges and have an elastic band securely attached to it. Children should wear the mask on top of their heads in between trick or treat stops.

*Costumes that cover your face or make-up that grossly distorts facial features should be avoided. These types of costumes may unnecessarily frighten small children.

*Costumes should reflect characters or objects that are fun from a child's perspective.

*Avoid disguises with a religious or death theme, such as angels, devils, witches or skeletons. Children come from a wide background of cultural and religious beliefs and may not understand it is in jest. A growing number of families do not celebrate Halloween for a variety of reasons.

Please respect their right to avoid participation.

*Because many families are subjected to violence in their neighborhoods, costumes should not include any objects of violence, including knives, swords, guns, etc. These accessories should not be viewed as toys. They may be sharp, pointed, hard or breakable, which can lead to injuries. Costumes featuring medical injuries with blood, bandage wraps, etc., also may be inappropriate.

Tips for Pedestrians And Motorists

*Parents should make certain trick or treaters cross streets at corners and wait on the curb, not in the street, until it is safe to cross. Trick or treaters should obey all traffic lights and stay on sidewalks as they go from house to house.

*Motorists should be on the alert for trick or treaters in their communities.

*Those receiving trick or treaters should make certain walks and steps are clear of obstacles.

Kewaskum Midget League Wins All Star Tournament

The team receives their trophies

Summer's over, bats, balls and gloves are put away, but our midget league all-stars should still be recognized.

In this tournament in Campbellsport on the weekend of Aug. 18-20, pitchers could only pitch one inning. For the first time all season, the players were allowed to steal

First game against North Fond du Lac, we came back three times to tie the game and send it into extra innings. The team was lead by outstanding defense by Darrin Schulist. In the bottom of the eighth down by one, with two outs Josh Repovsch drew a walk. Lee Schacht singled to left. With runners on 1st and 2nd Jennie Kopecky lined a double to right center to score the winning runs.

In the second game against Campbellsport, Kewaskum got off to a quick start. With clutch hitting from Noah Koch, Tom Ogi, and Matt Hartmann, we took an early lead. With strong pitching from Adam Hubacek and Braedy Long, we went on to the championship game.

In our championship game against a strong Eden team, we took an early 2-0 lead after one inning. Eden came back with 4 runs in the top of the second to take a 2-4 lead. In the top of the third, they scored again to take a 2-5 lead.

In the bottom of the third, Nick Thorn grounds into a fielders choice. Phil Carlson draws a walk to load the bases. Chris Canter lines a run clearing double to center-field. We went on the score two more runs in the bottom of the fourth to win the championship 8-6.

To all the All-Stars, thanks for a great weekend. To all the parents, thanks for your time and help. Until next spring, your coaches Gary Schweder, Dan Rieder and Brian Carlson.

Who Should Get a Flu Shot?

From November through April, symptoms that include fever, chills, headache, aching muscles and joints, and sore throat may signal the onset of influenza or "flu." In Wisconsin, flu season usually peaks in January.

As in past years, flu shots are recommended for those who are at high risk, including:

- adults with chronic heart or lung disorders.
- residents of nursing homes or group homes for the elderly.
- people over age 65.
- anyone with chronic illnesses such as diabetes or kidney problems.

According to Delores P. Harder, Director of the Community Health Nursing Service, influenza can be fatal. Complications can include pneumonia (the most dangerous complication for the elderly), bronchitis, and sinus and lung infections. Dehydration is another flu danger.

To protect against flu, people at high risk should get a flu shot every year. Last year's shot won't provide protection this year because flu viruses may change every year.

This year's vaccine contains the strains A/Texas (H1N1), A/Johannesburg (H3N2), and B/Beijing. Each year the vaccine contains strains representing the viruses expected to circulate during the upcoming winter months.

For protection that lasts throughout the flu season, health care providers recommend that flu shots be given in late October or early November. It takes the body about two weeks to build up protection following the shot. Protection begins to lessen after a few months.

"The flu shot will not cause flu because it's made from inactivated viruses. It provides protection to about 75% of persons who receive it," Delores Harder said.

Most people suffer no lasting side effects from the flu shot. However, a sore arm, fever, or aches may follow and last a day or two.

Influenza is a highly contagious respiratory disease, caught by coming in contact with a flu virus directly or indirectly. Direct contact occurs when viruses are inhaled, and indirect contact occurs following use of dishes, or other personal articles contaminated with flu viruses.

A pneumococcal (bacterial) pneumonia shot is also available to protect those over age 65 and the chronically ill from this disease which may occur in those weakened from influenza. This shot may be given at the same time as the flu shot in a different site.

Flu vaccine will be a Medicare covered service this year. Bring your Medicare card.

Remaining 1995 flu-pneumonia clinics will be held at the following locations:

Monday, October 30 - Slinger Clinic, Community Hall, 220 Slinger Road, Slinger, 10 to 11 a.m.

Tuesday, October 31 - West Bend Clinic, Public

Agency Center, 333 E. Washington, Room 1145, West Bend, 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Tuesday, November 7 - West Bend Clinic, Public Agency Center, 333 E. Washington, Room 1145, West Bend, from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m.

Tuesday, November 14 - Germantown Clinic, Germantown Senior Citizen Center, W162 N 11960 Park Avenue, Germantown, 1 to 2:30 p.m.

Flu vaccines will be a Medicare covered service this year. Bring your Medicare card. Flu = $7.00, Pneumonia, $10.00.

Cardiac Rehabilitation Support Group Offered

St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend is hosting a FREE cardiac rehabilitation support group on Tuesday, October 31, at 7 p.m.

The cardiac rehabilitation support group is designed to educate and provide support for people who have had a heart attack, bypass surgery, angioplasty, or other heart problems. Family members are welcome. Topics vary.

STATE OF WISCONSIN
DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES
PUBLIC NOTICE OF INTENT TO REISSUE A
WISCONSIN POLLUTANT DISCHARGE ELIMI-NATION SYSTEM (WPDES) PERMIT

Permit Number: WI-0000060-5; Current Permit Issued: September 20, 1985; Expiration Date: December 31, 1989; Proposed Expiration Date: September 30, 2000.

Permittee: Regal Ware, 1675 Reigle Drive, Kewaskum, Wisconsin, 53040-0395.

Facility Where Discharge Occurs: 201-202 Second Street, Kewaskum, Wisconsin 53040.

Receiving Water: Milwaukee River in Washington County.

Activities or Operations Resulting in an Existing Discharge: This facility manufactures stainless steel and aluminum cookware (with no coatings) and small electric appliances. An average of 155,000 gallons per day of noncontact cooling water is discharged into the Milwaukee River. The cooling water is once through municipal water from Kewaskum, which is used to cool electrodes of welding equipment and hydraulic press systems. No water treatment additives are used in the cooling water. The use of air cooled compressors instead of water cooled has reduced the volume of cooling water. The cooling water enters a sampling manhole, where it splits into two discharge outfalls. Storm water runoff from the plant parking lot and roof also discharge with the cooling water. Sanitary wastewater and process wastewater discharge into the sanitary sewer.

The Department has tentatively decided the WPDES permit described above should be reissued. Appropriate effluent limitations and special conditions will be included in the permit.

Persons wishing to comment on or object to the proposed permit, or request a public informational hearing, are invited to do so by writing to Paul Luebke, Bureau of Wastewater Management WW/2, Department of Natural Resources, 101 S. Webster Street, P.O. Box 7921, Madison, WI 53707-7921. All comments or suggestions received from members of the public and interested government agencies must be received no later than 30 days following the date of this public notice. These comments will be used along with other information on file in making a final decision regarding the permit.

A public informational hearing may be held if response to this notice indicates significant public interest pursuant to sec. 147.13, Wis. Stats., or if a petition requesting a hearing is received from 5 or more persons. Requests for a public informational hearing should state the following: the name and address of the person(s) requesting the hearing; the interest in the proposed permit of the person(s) requesting the hearing; the reasons for the request; and the issues proposed to be considered at the hearing.

Information on file for this permit may be inspected and copied Monday through Friday (except holidays), between 9:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. at the address previously listed in Madison or the Southeast District Headquarters located at 2300 North Martin Luther King Drive, P.O. Box 12436, Milwaukee, WI 53212. Information on this permit may also be obtained by calling Paul Luebke at (608) 266-0234 or by writing to the Department. Reasonable costs will be charged for copies of information in the file other than the public notice and fact sheet. Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, reasonable accommodation, including the provision of informational material in an alternative format, will be made to qualified individuals upon request.

414,000 Apply for Hunter's Choice Permits

MADISON -- There were 414,300 deer hunters who applied for hunter's choice permits for the 1995 deer season by the September 20th deadline.

Hunters who were successful in the drawing for hunter's choice and bonus antlerless deer permits should have received their permit and bonus application form in the mail recently, according to Marilyn Davis, chief of the Department of Natural Resources Licensing and Registration Section.

Hunter's Choice permits allow hunters to shoot an antlerless deer in a designated deer management unit. A bonus permit allows a hunter to take an additional antlerless deer in the unit for which it was issued.

There were a total of 577,335 antlerless permits available statewide for the 1995 seasons. Approximately 24,600 hunters were not successful in obtaining hunter's choice permits because they applied for a deer management unit that had more applicants than permits were available. Permits were issued for those units through a drawing.

The DNR expects that there will be bonus permits available in some deer management units after the mail-in orders are processed. The units and numbers of permits available will be announced the end of October, Davis said.

The remaining permits will go on sale November 4, through over-the-counter sales at select DNR offices around the state and over the phone. Permits may be purchased over the phone by calling 1-800-695-HUNT (4868). The phone sales will operate 24-hours-a-day through November 9. Permits may only be purchased over the phone by using a MasterCard or Visa card.

Cost of these antlerless-only permits are $12 for residents and $20 for non-residents.

Hunters are limited to no more than three bonus permits in most deer seasons for the 1995 gun deer season, and only one of the three can be for a northern forest unit. See the 1995 Wisconsin Hunting Regulations for units included within this boundary. Metro deer management units have a limit of six permits. Hunters who purchase permits by mail are also subject to these limits.

Daggett Gets MVC Honors

NORMAL, IL -- For the second consecutive week recently, junior Sue Daggett, whose home address is 1248 Roseland Drive, Kewaskum, has been named the Missouri Valley Conference's female cross country athlete of the week.

The first honor came after Daggett defended her title in the Bradley Invitational. The Random Lake native covered the 5,000-meter course in 17:36, 26 seconds faster than her winning time last year.

She also recently defended her title in the Illinois State Invitational, posting a time of 17:32, 30 seconds faster than her winning time in 1994. Since joining the Illinois State program in 1993, Daggett has been the top Redbird finisher in 10 of the 14 races in which she has entered.

A two-time all-MVC selection, Daggett picked up all-District V honors in 1994, a season in which she earned academic all-league and academic all-America accolades as well. As a member of the Redbird track team, Daggett was a 1995 national qualifier in the 10,000 meter run.

This marks the fourth weekly MVC citation for Daggett, who owns league track records and conference championships in the 5,000 (16:34.47) and 10,000 (36:44.89) meter runs. Her previous cross country award came after the 1994 Bradley Invitational, while her track award came just prior to last year's MVC championships.

"The back-to-back awards are truly a testament to Sue's character and dedication," said associate head coach Angie Miller. "She has consistently proven herself to be the best runner on our team, the best runner in the conference, and one of the best runners in our district. As the season goes on, I look for even better things from her."

Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Daggett of Kewaskum.

KHS Cagers Lose in Regional

Despite being at the top of the Eastern Wisconsin Conference volleyball standings and brilliant play, the Kewaskum girls lost their bid for a berth at being eliminated in the tough regional round-robin tournament held here Friday evening. The Indians, who were ranked fourth, finished third, behind Waupun, rated first in the state in Division 2, and Slinger, ranked number 5. This was the first loss for the Indians, who ended their season 12-0 in conference play.
