District Elementary School's Just Say No Clubs Receive Statewide Recognition

Just Say No Clubs from Kewaskum's Elementary Schools, namely Wayne, Farmington and Kewaskum, received recognition from Governor Tommy Thompson for "leadership in the prevention of substance abuse in Wisconsin" at a recent awards ceremony held in Madison.

The Just Say No club organization in the Kewaskum Elementary Schools was one of just six programs statewide to receive such recognition, and the only one at an elementary school level.

Two of the Just Say No Club advisors, Jody Mundingler and Cheryl Taylor were on hand to accept the award.

In a press release announcing the awards, Governor Thompson said, "We must continue to develop comprehensive programs to educate young people about drug and alcohol use. (Such) programs must not be left only to the schools, but must also be integrated throughout the community."

In addition to their school activities, the Just Say No Clubs here have recently participated in community events such as marching in the Christmas Parade, promoting the Great American Smokeout, and raising money to purchase holiday gifts for families throughout Washington County.

Christmas Program Held at Kewaskum Elementary School

"It's a Small, Small World," was the theme for the Kewaskum Elementary Christmas program, tying into the overall yearly Disney-type theme, "Magic Kingdom of Learning."

Each grade represented a country during the program and then sang traditional songs from their countries. Studies about, and holiday activities from, the countries were included in regular classroom lessons. Those attending the program were also invited to a "Folk Fair" in the cafeteria featuring foods, crafts and projects from each classroom's country.

Mikey Rohlinger, fourth grade, introduces one of two songs his class sang in German during the Kewaskum Elementary Christmas program.

Second graders at KES represented France in the Christmas program festivities, even singing one half of their song in French.

Luke Terlinden shows his father the traditional gingerbread houses made by the fourth grade at the Kewaskum Elementary School Christmas program "Folk Fair."

As calm and balmy as Wisconsin can be at seemingly magical times, it also can be rough, stark and nature-dangerous. Like the story of old...a young, sweet, pregnant teenage country girl with a worried, frustrated male friend seeking a safe haven for her to give birth to a child destined to become a very special visitor from heaven to the earth.

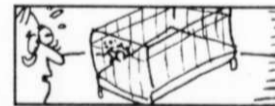

"No room in the Inn," is the response to his knock on door after door. Where was this God who was responsible for the mess he and she were in? Like the young lad bringing home the cows struck by lightning - just like that! Was there any sense to it all? Is this what men and women are born to have to face?

A stable. Yes, perhaps there just might be an empty stall? Age and experience has taught me that one can make things go no matter what! Time was at an essence, now. Yes, there was a stall with a hand-fashioned manger. At least we are protected from the cold, damp night and the animals herein are sharing their warmth.

Rough and ready shepherds tending their flocks noted a breath taking star...heard a joyous concert from on high...and traveled to witness what had come about in that metropolitan - stable. Like seeing little kittens, puppies, ducklings and chicks...even shepherds have heart for a tiny babe laid in a manger.

GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST...an amazing scene and an amazing experience which they will never forget. And one of the shepherds turned to his friends and softly said: "I want to go home. My wife will be so interested in what I have seen tonight."

And, the baby, Jesus, softly cooed: "Because of tonight...heaven shall be your home...there is always extra room there; and the Lord, God shall welcome you to heaven Himself for you have been fashioned in His Holy Image. In the meantime live at peace, enjoy the beautiful creation and always remember no matter what, the LORD IS WITH YOU."

The custom of setting up a Christmas crib is said to have started with St. Francis of Assisi in 1224.

Students Buy Gifts With Prize Money

Activity books, crayons and bubbles were just some of the items purchased by Wayne and Farmington Elementary students with the prize money they received.

In the true spirit of Christmas, students from Farmington Elementary Schools decided to purchase gifts for area families with the money they won in Kewaskum's tree decorating contest.

The tree, adorned in decorative styrofoam garland and student-made hearts, bulbs and "God's eyes," stands in front of the Kewaskum Statesman office at 250 Main Street, and was decorated by students from Farmington Elementary School.

Upon learning that their decorating job received the $25 third prize, students discussed how appropriate it would be to donate the prize money to area families for Christmas. Students felt the money could best be used to buy gifts for the annual gift distribution run by the schools' Just Say No Clubs.

Several students took a brief field trip to the K-Mart store in West Bend to purchase children's gifts for that purpose. With the help and generosity of K-Mart personnel, students were able to purchase numerous items -- including crayons, books, toy cars, and balls -- many at a discounted price.

Once purchased, the gifts were donated to the schools' Just Say No Clubs for wrapping and distribution to area families for Christmas. In doing so, students realized that it really can be better to give than to receive.

ABC SKAT RESULTS

The winners at skat played by the ABC Senior Citizens at Beechwood Hall on Tuesday, Dec. 17th were: Harold Eggert, 20-2--18 net; Francis Gilboy, Grand Schneider with 4; Harold Eggert, Grand Schneider with 3.

Fourth grader Jessica Spaeth considers choosing a book for the Just Say No Club's gift donations. The students purchased gifts with prize money awarded to them for their Village tree decorating.

Youth Apprenticeship Program Sets Record

A record number of county high school students are enrolled in Youth Apprenticeship programs this school year, according to statistics just released by the Washington County School-To-Work Partnership.

"There are 50 students enrolled in printing, banking and finance, and manufacturing from all five public high schools," announced Jan Shane, executive director of the School-To-Work Partnership. "That includes 20 seniors completing the final year of their technology-related educational programs and 30 juniors who have now completed their first semester of their first year."

Youth apprenticeships are two-year programs in which high school students spend half of every school day at school and half of the day learning technical skills at participating businesses. Besides getting paid for their work-based training, the students also complete their high school education, earn up to 12 credits that can transfer immediately into related technical college programs, and have opportunities to be hired after high school graduation at wages higher than untrained entry level personnel could expect.

"Youth Apprenticeship expands career options for our students," Shane said. "Depending on what they want to do, they can enter their work force immediately with great opportunities for advancement, go on to technical college to learn more about their chosen profession, or continue on with four-year college, if they like."

Since 1992, when 12 youth apprentices enrolled in the first printing program (one of two pilot programs in the state that year) through the West Bend School District and Serigraph, Inc. of West Bend, youth apprenticeships have shown steady enrollment increases. "We've more than doubled enrollment since that first year," Shane said.

"We're pleased with the growth in interest our students and their parents are showing in Youth Apprenticeships," Shane said. "We're pleased with the steady growth all of our school-to-work educational programs have had."

"As we continue to spread the word about the importance of modern workplace skills education, we are confident even more students will participate in the future."

A combined total of 293 students participated in all of the School-To-Work Partnership programs last year. "That was a record, too," Shane said. "Although we haven't completed tabulating figures yet for this school year, we expect the number of participating students will easily top 300."

In addition to the two-year youth apprenticeship programs, the School-To-Work Partnership also offers job shadowing projects, career mentoring programs, tech prep classroom work and work-based learning co-ops, which can range in length from several class periods to one year.

"It is our goal to eventually give every student in Washington County an opportunity to experience workplace technology and career planning assistance," Shane said.

Participating Kewaskum High School youth apprentices include: Cherie Christian, junior, and Rebecca Heisdorf, senior, both in Banking and Finance.

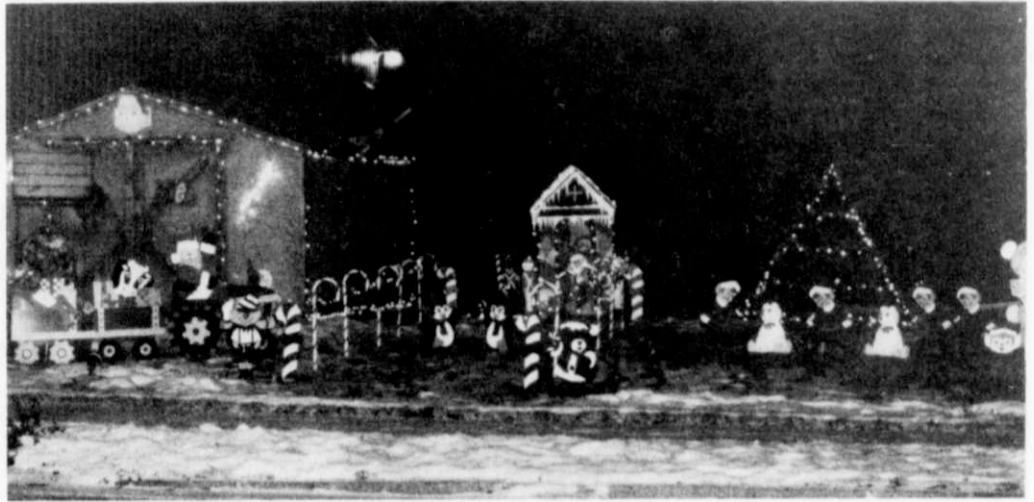

Businesses offering workplace training to youth apprenticeship includes: (Printing) Serigraph; Quad Graphics, Hartford; Post Printing, West Bend; Broy Co., West Bend; Key Logo, Hartford.

(Banking and Finance) Guaranty Savings Bank, Menomonee Falls; Guaranty Savings Bank, West Bend; Bank One, Germantown; Bank One, West Bend; M&I First National, West Bend; Glacier Hills Credit Union, West Bend; First National Bank, Hartford, Slinger Branch; West Bend Savings Bank, West Bend; West Bend Savings Bank, Kewaskum; Firststar, Germantown.

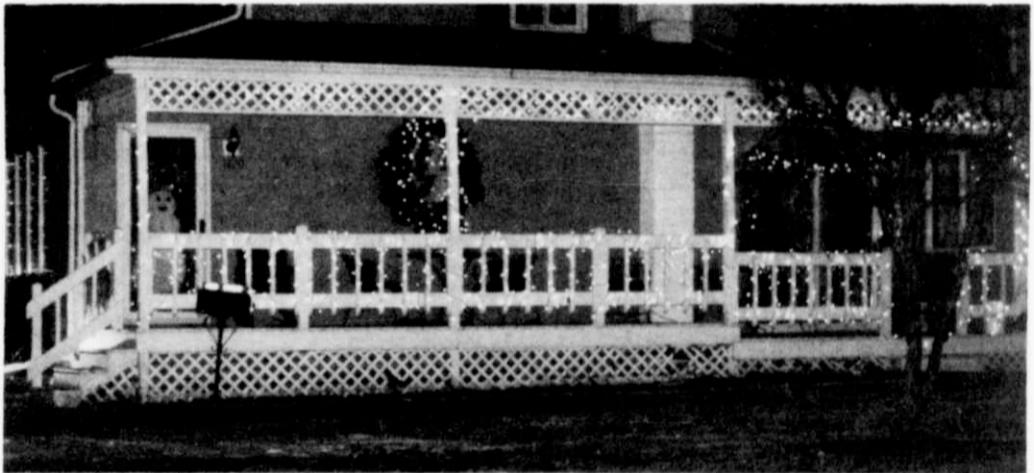

(Manufacturing) Serigraph, Bohr Precision, Germantown; T&D Machine Co., Butler; Ajusta Manufacturing, West Bend; Slinger Manufacturing, Slinger; Gruber Tool Co., West Bend; Gehl Company, West Bend; Farmland Welding, West Bend.

In its second year, the Washington County School-To-Work Partnership develops and assists local educational programs that help students make a successful transition into a high skills work force. Members include all five county school districts -- Germantown, Hartford, Kewaskum, Slin-

Kewaskum is 'All Dressed Up' for the Holidays

Due to a lack of volunteer manpower this year, the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is not going to be sponsoring a Home Decorating Contest this year. And that's really a shame because this year the village is all decked out from end to end with beautiful holiday decorations. Therefore, even if there is no prize money involved, we thought it might be a nice idea to feature a few of those decorations every week for the next few weeks in the Statesman. However, bear with us, as it is extremely difficult to get those nighttime shots, especially when it is cold. If we miss your favorite, give us a call at 626-2626. Shown above is the front yard of Ruthie and Wally Ewert at 1329 Riverview Drive, literally a "Winter Wonderland" of decorations, loaded with candy canes, gingerbread men and women, a Christmas train and colored lights galore.

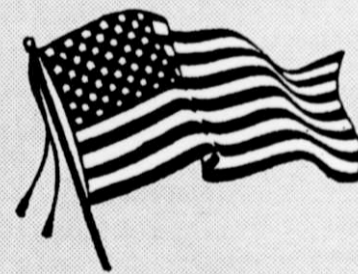

The deck at the Fred and Kathy Krieser home at 1120 Roseland Drive is strung end-to-end with white lights that adds a warm glow to the entire house.

In England, from the seventh to the 13th century, the year was reckoned from Christmas Day.

Letter to The Editor

WHAT CHRISTMAS MEANS TO ME

Dear Editor:

Christmas is a beautiful time of the year. With all the decorations, caroling, laughing and the white snow on the ground; it is a peaceful and happy time.

Under all the physical attractions of Christmas is the real meaning. It is the birth of Our Lord Jesus Christ. It is forgotten in all the hassle and rushing around getting ready for Christmas. Jesus should be the center of our celebration.

Christmas is not only for a day. It is 365 days a year. Christmas is Love. Christmas is Sharing. Christmas is Caring. Those things should be every day of the year.

Christmas is too commercialized these days. The real meaning of Christmas is lost in the commercialization, hassle and rushing around for what.

The question most asked is, "What do you want for Christmas?" My answer to that question is "Nothing. No material thing will ever take the place of the people in my life. People are very important to me. They give me encouragement, love, confidence and support." My family and friends are there with their hearts and minds open.

I feel Christmas is a time of giving yourself in some way. Giving yourself is the biggest gift of all. That is the gift which Jesus Christ offers to each and every one of us.

I would like to wish all of you a Most Blessed

Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous 1997. May your days be filled with love, happiness and peace -- today, tomorrow and always.

To close I would like to share with you:

YOU STILL HAVE TIME

With the Christmas rush you still have time to mend a quarrel hug a child visit a forgotten friend
give a soft answer gaze at the beauty around you forget a grudge laugh a little smile at a stranger
keep a promise
speak your love
share a treasure
a gift of life
-- say a word of thanks.

P.O.P.S. Student of the Month

Peter Jaecks, son of Mrs. Mary Jaecks, has been selected as the POPS Student of the Month for November. As one of his nominating teachers stated, "Peter has made a big turnaround since last year. He has been the clear cut leader all year in participation. He's also very polite and helpful to other students, and other teachers have made similar comments. I think Peter exemplifies what POPS is all about and is very deserving of Student of the Month."

POPS, the Power of Positive Students, is an international program that was started at Kewaskum High School five years ago by the Student Council and has seen continued growth through the staff and students at Kewaskum High School.

JUST DESSERTS

Dairy Council of Wisconsin suggests that you make homemade whipped cream to top off your favorite pie. Beat heavy whipping cream with cream of tartar until stiff (TIP: chill bowl and beaters first). For a sweeter flavor, add a tablespoon of powdered sugar and a teaspoon of vanilla after the cream begins to thicken. Or add a tablespoon of maple syrup instead.

To make an appointment, or for information, call 335-4610. The office is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Eligibility is determined by the number of people in the household and the total gross household income for the three months prior to the month of application. One person, $2902.50; two people, $3885; three people, $4,867.50; four people, $5,850; five people, $6,832.50; for each additional person add $982.50.

The Energy Services Program is a three-part program offering: 1) Heating Assistance; 2) Crisis Assistance; and 3) Weatherization Services.

Heating Assistance is a one-time benefit payment during each heating season (October 1 through May 15). It is intended to help pay a portion of the annual heating costs for eligible applicants. The amount of the heating assistance benefit is determined by family size, income level, and heating costs.

Crisis Assistance provides both Emergency Services and Pro-Active Services.

Emergency Services provide help during the heating season to eligible households that do not have any way to pay for fuel or heating repair costs. Emergency applications are taken on a "walk-in" basis.

Pro-Active Services are designed to offer training and counseling on how to reduce fuel costs, budgeting and money management to avoid future emergencies.

Weatherization Services can conserve energy and help to reduce heating costs. Applicants who are eligible for heating assistance may also be eligible for the Federally funded Weatherization Services. All services and material are provided at no cost to eligible applicants.

In order to receive a heating benefit, you must apply and be found eligible. Only one member of any household may apply. Call the Washington County Department of Social Services at 335-4610.

Minutes of Village Plan Commission

Village of Kewaskum Plan Commission
October 29, 1996
7:00 p.m.

The Plan Commission of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Robert H. Wagner called the meeting to order. Members present were David Goeden, Richard Schmidt, Theodore Meilahn, Frank Beesten, Administrator Daniel Schmidt and Richard Zarling. A quorum was present. Member Charles Waala asked to be excused and was absent.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and the Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Frank Beesten, seconded by David Goeden and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Commission approved the minutes as printed for October 1, 1996.

The request for rezoning of 1551 Fond du Lac Avenue also known by Tax Key No. V4-0021 from R-3 Two-Family Residence District lots to B-1 Limited Retail and Service District. The Request is being made by the Butler Financial Group. Mr. and Mrs. Butler were present and shared their plans for the building and remodeling thereof with the Commission. On a motion by David Goeden and seconded by Richard Schmidt and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Commission recommended the rezoning as requested and sent the matter to the Board for public hearing.

On a motion by Richard Schmidt and seconded by Theodore Meilahn and unanimously carried by voice vote the Commission authorized sending a request with a recommendation to the Village Board to request SWERP to prepare a Zoning Ordinance to correspond with the new Land Use Plan upon its completion.

Mr. Rick Kania of SEWRPC was present for discussion on the Master Plan. Mr. Kania reviewed the ratios of lots to zoning classification as selected as goals for the Village by the Plan Commission. It was noted as previously established the ratios are 65% single-family, 10% two-family and 25% multi-family. These ratios are based on land as perceived to be developed within the sewer service area and using the suggested zoning.

Mr. Kania noted that a meeting was scheduled with the School District in reference to proposed school land uses. The plan and area of the plan were reviewed on October 14, 1996 at the School Administration Building. Several Administrators were present and an Architect for the School District. The variety of matters were discussed as well as possible future locations for different school facilities. It was noted at the conclusion of Mr. Kania's presentation that the District did not want any proposed school facilities shown or noted in the plan, with the exception of elementary schools. Mr. Kania stated that this was the School District's prerogative and it was their duty to take care of their own facility planning and time table as to needs.

There would be mention that areas would be looked at for the varied facilities and that with the development of the area within the land use plan numerous expansions will be required.

It was noted the next Plan Commission Meeting is scheduled for December 10, 1996.

On a motion by Richard Schmidt, seconded by Frank Beesten and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Commission adjourned the meeting. Roll call vote was 5 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 2 "Absent."

Rupert Travels to China

Rupert rests atop the Great Wall of China while pursuing his goal to travel around the world.

Rupert the bear is happy and well and visiting China.

When last heard from, Rupert the stuffed teddy bear was perched atop the Great Wall of China, waiting for the next leg of his amazing quest to travel around the world.

As part of a joint language arts project between Mrs. Kasten's first grade at Kewaskum Elementary and former KES teacher Sandy Stern's third grade at Slinger, it was arranged to start Rupert the teddy bear on an around the world trip. Set up through a West Bend travel agency, Rupert got his first ride, to China with Dick and Lois Finch of Kewaskum.

While there, Rupert visited the world's oldest observatory, Tiananmen Square, and the Great Wall of China. He also sent postcards to his friends in Mrs. Kasten's class, and purchased a Panda quilt for them, which he sent back with the Finchs.

Rupert is spending time with the Finch's granddaughter, Anna Leung, who will be taking him to her school there to await a ride to a different country with another travelling family. Rupert also has a note that informs his travelling companions to take a picture with the camera found in his backpack, and then find him another ride.

Mrs. Kasten's class will continue charting Rupert's travels around the globe.

"We're all kind of travelling with him," said Mrs. Kasten. "We worry about him and we get excited hearing from him. It has already been an exciting trip for all of us."

Dick and Lois Finch brought Rupert with them on their trip to China, here in Tiananmen Square.

In the Service

Marine Pvt. Gary J. Reese, son of Ronald W. and Lois M. Reese of 615 E. Main Street, Campbellsport, recently completed basic training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

Reese successfully completed 11 weeks of training designed to challenge new Marine recruits both physically and mentally.

Reese and fellow recruits began their training at 5 a.m., by running three miles and performing calisthenics. In addition to the physical conditioning program, Reese spent numerous hours in classroom and field assignments which included learning first aid, uniform regulations, combat water survival, marksmanship, hand-to-hand combat and assorted weapons training.

Reese and fellow recruits worked as a team to solve a number of tactical problems during the program. They performed close order drill and operated as a Marine small infantry unit in the field.

Reese and other recruits also received instruction on the Marine Corps' core values -- honor, courage and commitment, and what the words mean in guiding personal and professional conduct.

Reese joins 41,000 men and women who will enter the Marine Corps this year from all over the country.

He is a 1996 graduate of Campbellsport High School.

Marine Cpl. Scott J. Heller, son of Joseph W. and Joyce C. Heller of 1549 Stark Street, Kewaskum, recently reported for duty with 1st Military Police Company, 4th Force Service Support Group, Lexington, Kentucky.

Heller's new assignment is an example of how Navy and Marine Corps men and women are assigned to ships, squadrons and shore commands around the world. Whether serving in the Persian Gulf near Iraq or in the Adriatic Sea near Bosnia, people like Heller are making a difference as they work to improve their knowledge and skill as part of the most highly technical naval force in history.

The 1991 graduate of Kewaskum High School joined the Marine Corps in January of 1992.

Anna Leung, granddaughter of Kewaskum's Dick and Lois Finch, hugs Rupert during a visit to the world's oldest observatory in China.

Here's Prayer For Christmas

St. Francis of Assisi is perhaps best remembered for his influence on the caroling tradition. He was, however, a great friend to animals and a writer of note. He is given credit for authorship of this Christmas Prayer:

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Peace

Where there is hatred, let me sow love.

Where there is injury, pardon.

Where there is doubt, faith. Where there is despair, Hope. Where there is darkness, light. Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;

To be understood, as to understand;

To be loved, as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive,

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.

Award Winners Announced By Rock River League Oldtimers

The Rock River League Oldtimers' Association recently announced the names of the 1996 award winners that were honored at the Annual Awards Dinner held in October in Horicon.

Inducted into the Rock River Hall of Fame were: Roy Maass, an outfielder for the old Lebanon Elms; Bill Bergin, scorekeeper for Ashippun, Watertown and Lebanon and a league officer for many years; Marv Grahl, a pitcher and outfielder for Eden, Campbellsport and Long Lake; Jim Pirkel, a catcher for Watertown and Earl Roberts, an infielder for Randolph and Beaver Dam. Also, Alvin "Carp" Reinhard was posthumously inducted into the Hall of Fame.

For the first time, the membership voted for the recipient of The Rock Diamond Award for outstanding service to amateur baseball. This year the award will go to Elmer Marks, long-time manager and Commissioner from Ashippun, now living in Watertown.

Elmer started his career in 1931 (at the age of 17) as a pitcher with Hustisford in what was the Central Rock River League, also managing for a short time. In 1946, he organized and managed a team in Ashippun in the Land O' Lakes League and later switched to the Rock River League. He continued as manager in Ashippun for 29 years. In 1961, he, along with Jerry Rabbach of Watertown, started the Tri-County Nite Baseball League. In 1964, he was elected Commissioner of the Rock River League and in 1970 accepted the additional role of Commissioner of the Tri-County Nite League.

In 1981, he organized the Rock River Oldtimers' Association. In 1984 Elmer was very instrumental in organizing the Southern Wisconsin Amateur Baseball Association (SWABA) Tournament, a tournament for local amateur teams emphasizing participation by the smaller town teams in the area.

He was named the first Commissioner of SWABA and held the post along with commissioner of both leagues until 1990, when he decided to retire. Elmer found out he couldn't get out of baseball totally. He was recently elected to a third year as secretary of SWABA and is mainly responsible for raising the prize money for the tournament. On Sundays in the summer, you will still find him on the job as scorekeeper for the Ashippun Mudcats Baseball Team.

Because of this, the university continues to have a job placement record of nearly 97% for its graduates.

These former Kewaskum High School students are enrolled at UW-Stout this fall: Weston A. Duenkel, a sophomore, art major; Jason L. Sauer, a sophomore, industrial technology major, and Kevin M. Hein, a senior, technology education major.

Go Pack Go!

Packer fans Larry and Nancy Krahn, 1140 Roseland Drive, Kewaskum, added these words of cheer to Christmas decorations this year on their front lawn, and all Packer fans hope the Krahns will be able to keep this decoration up and lit and shining brightly until late January! And if Sunday's game is any indication of the playoff games to come, Green Bay is New Orleans bound! SUPER!
