Proposal Fails 6-1

Life Insurance Issue for Retired Teachers Still Goes Unresolved

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

An agenda item to approve term life insurance plans for nine retired Kewaskum educators failed to pass at Monday night's school board meeting, as board members voted 6-1 against the proposal.

After the district switched insurance carriers in an effort to save money this past June, the nine individuals received notice from WEA Insurance (the district's previous insurance carrier) that their term life insurance policies were canceled, without any warning. Over the years, the retirees had been able to purchase low cost term life insurance through the group, and some were approaching age 65, when it was to become a paid up policy.

According to business manager George Allmann, the district had no knowledge of who had life insurance plans after retirement, adding that only health insurance was included in the contract with retired teachers.

Finance-Transportation-Buildings and Grounds committee chairman Tom Timblin stated at the meeting that efforts had been made to offer comparable insurance through Minnesota Mutual, offering term life insurance to the retirees at a rate of 60 cents per thousand (of income). The premiums could be prepaid in a single payment of $24,850, or five annual payments of $5,700. He thought both sides could negotiate to find an acceptable middle ground. A third option included waiting until the retired employees reached the age of 65, and then purchase paid up insurance at a higher rate.

Timblin said he had also hoped an agreement had been reached and a deal brought before the board in which the school district would prefund one half of the $24,850 in a single payment, with employees paying the other half. The board could have voted on it as a one time deal," he added, but the proposal failed in negotiations.

On Aug. 5th, the district received a letter from the Kewaskum Education Association stating that the new policies should provide the same terms and cost as previously provided to the nine retirees, and anything less constitutes a breach of past practice.

"Sadly, the intent is to play hardball and not negotiate, demanding that the board fully prepay the premiums, or they will file a grievance," Timblin expressed. "It is interesting the KEA did not find this important enough to include in their contract," he noted. "It's easy to blame the school district, but that would be intellectually dishonest in my opinion. There's much more involved here than that. Frankly, I'm disappointed and don't know what to do."

Pearson Selected As Interim Superintendent

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Beginning with the teacher's first day of school, Aug. 18th, Kewaskum Middle School principal Clark Pearson will be stepping in as the district's interim Superintendent, while the board begins its search for a permanent replacement for Dr. Charles Johnson.

"This will give us a little breathing room," board president Jean Goeden expressed after the decision was made in closed session Monday evening, followed by unanimous board approval in open session around 9:45 p.m.

Johnson's official resignation was approved at Monday night's board meeting, with regret, and the board wished him well in his new position as executive vice president of the Free Congress Foundation in Washington D.C. Mary Andera and John Schulte voted against accepting the administrator's resignation, with Tom Timblin abstaining.

Goeden said the board will continue to remain strong and move forward in the process of beginning a search, possibly sometime in November. "At that time we will decide what to do and how to go about the search," she stated. "At this time, with school district's going through the same thing we are, the pool of Superintendents available is very limited. Most have already filled positions for the school year."

Working with the Wisconsin Association of School Boards, Goeden said she received a two page list of 31 retired school administrators capable of serving in an interim position, but board members agreed Pearson's years of experience would help the district maintain projects initiated by Dr. Johnson.

Pearson, who is now beginning his 26 year in the school district, has served as high school principal for 12 years, taught high school math and coached football for another 12 years, and was the middle school principal this past year. "I feel I can bring my experience and knowledge of the district into the job, and help keep things running smoothly," he said after expressing his new role. "I also feel I have an understanding of what the community wants for their schools," he added, as a resident of Kewaskum who has remained active in the community itself, and raised his family here.

Meanwhile, the board is looking internally to fill the position of middle school principal, and has a candidate in mind, although no official announcement has been made as of this week's newspaper deadline.

Johnson will be fined the standard $500 penalty for breaking his two year contract, in which he agreed to serve as the district's Superintendent until June 30, 1998.

Timblin Takes 1st Place At Truckers Jamboree

Timblin took first place in the 64A Tractor Trailer division of this year's eighth annual National Waupun Truckers Jamboree held this past weekend in Waupun. The show is held to salute the trucking industry.

Welcome Back Students Wednesday, Aug. 20

Dear Parents:

Please review the coordinating instructions below for information on general school procedures for the coming year. As we begin this year, we again ask for your support and involvement in the educational experiences of your children. Please take the time to talk with your child's teachers so that what happens in the classroom is known in the home. We have truly dedicated teachers and we need to work together to support their efforts for your children in any way possible. You are vital in helping to develop a "desire to learn" attitude in your children.

Our entire staff looks forward to welcoming the children to a new school year and toward working with you to make it a year of successes.

School Coordinating Instructions

1. Wednesday, Aug. 20th is the first day of school for new and returning students of the Kewaskum School District.

2. Johnson Bus Company provides information on bus rules and pick-up times. If you have not received this information by August 18th please call Johnson Bus at 626-4414 to complete arrangements. We ask that families take time to review the bus riding rules and safe boarding, riding, and unloading procedures. If this is your child's first experience riding on a bus, why not take some time to accompany him/her or arrange for someone else to accompany him/her for their first pick-up and drop-off? Also, please be aware of the times crossing guards are present on village street corners and utilize them accordingly. Do not send or drop your children off at school before the school doors open because they will be unsupervised.

3. Information for those interested and eligible for the free and reduced hot lunch program is published this week in the Kewaskum Statesman. During registration the forms were available to those interested. If you did not receive a form and would like one sent to you, or wish to review the qualifying criteria, please call Jeanne Jacak at the business office at 626-8427, extension 8005.

4. School on Wednesday is a full-day and hot lunch will be served. Hot lunch prices have changed this year and are as follows: elementary schools $1.30/meal, middle school and high school $1.55/meal. The new computerized lunch ticket system will be utilized and information was given to all families on registration day. If you have any questions, call Kathy Robinson at 626-2166, extension 4118.

5. The district does not carry accident insurance for students. We therefore urge parents/guardians to review their own policies to be certain coverage is adequate, particularly in the case of athletics, this is a necessity. The schools do have insurance forms provided by Student Assurance Company of Stillwater, Minnesota available to parents who would like to purchase additional insurance or insurance for their children. The parents purchase the insurance on their own - the district is not involved in the sale of insurance. Contact your child's school office for further information.

the insurance must provide equal terms of past practice per insurance contracts of the past thirty-five years, pointing out that many of the individuals affected do not have insurance other than the term insurance because the district provided it at low cost with the option to continue it after retirement.

Retired teacher Dean Roe spoke out in favor of the district making the one time payment, or the five annual payments, but the board voted 6-1 against the proposal, with Timblin the lone supporter.

Board member Larry Fechter said he tended to agree with Tom, but had several unanswered questions, and no one was in the audience to field questions for the KEA.

"I don't believe it's our obligation to pay the premium in this case," John Schulte commented. "The contract is between the insurance company and the retired teacher."

The situation remains presently unresolved, with the KEA contract being looked into by both sides.

Retiring Zoning Administrator Zarling Honored

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

The Kewaskum Village Board opened the August 4th meeting by recognizing former Zoning Administrator Richard Zarling. Zarling recently announced his retirement after serving the Kewaskum community for 25 years. At that time, Village President Robert Wagner applauded Zarling, reading a Proclamation of Appreciation which stated, "In grateful recognition of your 25 years of faithful, efficient and dedicated public service rendered to the Village of Kewaskum."

At the August 4th meeting, Wagner formally presented Zarling with the framed Proclamation and a gift certificate. Wagner stated, "We really appreciate how well you served the village all these years."

Along with his thanks, Zarling added, "I would just like to thank the existing board and previous boards for the dignity with which they treated me. It was a pleasure. It's kind of interesting to note that when I first took the job, I didn't get paid."

Additionally, Zarling thanked the attending board members and Village Administrator Daniel Schmidt for all his help.

A Public Hearing was then held on the request of Richard and Faith Mauk for the rezoning of the parcel of property located at 402 Main Street from R-2 Single Family Residence District to B-3 Central Community Retail Business and Service District.

The Village Administrator noted the Plan Commission had sent a favorable recommendation back to the board on the request for the northeast corner of the Parkview and Main Street parcel and noted it was in conformance with the village's new Land Use Plan.

Richard Mauk explained he and his wife were planning on opening an antique store in the lower portion of the building. Mauk added they also have plans to "change the front of the building back to the store front that existed 25 years ago."

President Wagner commented he felt it would be a "real nice addition (to the community)."

A member of the audience, Mike Berger, who also owns a business (Main Street Crafts) with his wife, Judy, just across the street, east of the proposed new store, stated, "I came tonight to speak in favor of it (the new store). It's going to certainly help anyone on our end, business-wise, and it's going to bring more people into town."

The board closed the public hearing at that point, and later in the meeting unanimously approved the rezoning.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel opened the Reports by Department Heads segment of the meeting, commenting, "The (Kewaskum) School District has requested that we start Middle School D.A.R.E. They have gotten a grant and they will pay for everything."

Knoebel added it would be a six-week program rather than a 17 week program. Trustee Gary Gavin asked if the district was making a commitment to the program for more than one year.

The Police Chief commented that they were, stating George Allmann said he wanted the project to keep going, reiterating, "they approached us with the project, and he says he has the money in the A.O.D.A. budget to keep it going. If they don't finance it, then the program will go by the side. I'm sure they understand that."

Knoebel added Tom Bauer will be the D.A.R.E. officer. The board unanimously approved the new program.

The Police Chief also explained to the Board a new mutual aid agreement with Washington and Ozaukee counties, called the SMART Program. He added, "if we needed immediate response, we might be able to get as many as five officers here within 10 or 15 minutes. If you have some kind of disaster, it would really help."

It is a new, more structured program which was originated through the Police Chiefs Association, and Knoebel stated he would bring more information back to the board as the program progresses.

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles reported on the walkway between Braatz Drive and Knights Avenue and added the slurry seal and asphalt work has been completed in the village for this year.

Trustee Warren Dums stated a village resident had contacted him asking why an alley near his residence was not completed to which Gilles explained some alleys had to be eliminated due to budgeting concerns, adding the condition of that particular alley was not that bad. The worst alleys were done first. Gilles added it was never planned to do the alley in question this year.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt reviewed the budget control sheets for the period ending in June of 1997. Schmidt added, in reference to the water utility the utility is in good shape, stating, "however, the condition of well #3 (the well at the village garage), is stabilized but with the growth we're seeing, we're going to have to look for the placement of the new well in the very near future. It won't be as costly as the last one because we do have the water tower. That's something we'll have to address in 1998 as far as where is that going to be located, planning for that and then proceeding with the rate adjustment to help cover that expense."

Under committee reports Trustee Robert Stoltzmann recommended the hiring of Patty Coulter as a crossing guard to replace an existing guard who resigned. The board approved the hiring.

Under Parks and Recreation, Trustee John Kenworthy received a request from the Washington County Humane Society to use River Hill Park for an upcoming two-day fundraiser with provisions and adjustments. Discussion on the rate adjustment ensued with Trustee Gavin stating, "I personally think for a non-profit organization... if you're bringing in one thousand people into the village it's good for everybody as far as letting them know Kewaskum's here. We have a nice park and we have a nice town." After further discussion, the board voted to allow the use of the park with the proposed adjustments.

Trustee Kenworthy also noted attendance figures at the Kiwanis Park pool is up over one thousand from last year's figures. Trustee Gavin and President Wagner brought up for discussion the possibility of installing a water slide or some other piece of water equipment to add a little more fun to the pool area.

Administrator Schmidt commented, "When the park was originally opened we were planning on putting a slide in and the insurance company told us if we put the slide in they were going to drop us. That goes back to 1979."

President Wagner added he felt it was worth looking into and he hoped community organizations might care to provide some funding for the same.

Plan Commission Representative Trustee Gary Gavin mentioned there was a Plan Commission meeting scheduled for August 26.

Mill Park Days at Dundee on Sunday

Are you looking for a perfect, relaxing, yet fun day, somewhere between the hectic pace of summer and the beginning of the school year? You will find that spot if you travel to Dundee on Sunday, August 17, when you attend the annual fall fund raiser, Dundee Mill Park Days.

Bring the family as there is always something of interest for grandparents to the very young.

By popular demand, the Wisconsin Civil War Veterans Reserve Corps will return. Camped just north of the upper pond will be their officers' tents and small tents, wives in period dress making soldiers' uniforms and bandages for the wounded using 1860's sewing machines, camp cooking of beef and beans, cleaning of weapons, black powder pistol firing and occasional scenarios of the Civil War situation. You are invited to stop and see the authentic reproductions of the Wisconsin Civil War uniforms and ask questions about the state's role in history connected to that time.

Take a tour of the old mill to catch a glimpse of history that is trying to be preserved. Many old artifacts have been donated and are on display. There will be committee members on hand to answer questions and show the workings of the mill plus how electricity is generated.

The Cristo Ray Petting Ranch will have their petting zoo set up across from the mill. Take the kids and pet the llamas and other animals.

To satisfy that sweet tooth, stop by the Pastry and Ice Cream Oasis for some homemade pie ala mode or a float.

Free hay rides and buckboard rides are again being sponsored by local banks and businesses, so don't forget to catch a ride.

Are the kids saying, "I'm bored?" Pop on over to the game area where the Long Lake Fishing Club has games for the young and not so young.

The live music, this year, is being provided by local talent. Harold Miller has been an accomplished accordionist for most of his life. He has lived in the Campbellsport area all of his life, and will perform from 12 to 3 p.m. Chuck Roethke will be returning to his hometown of Dundee, along with his wife, Joyce, and daughter, Lynn. Chuck's Family Three will perform from 3 to 6 p.m.

Pick up a souvenir shirt or have your picture taken by the 1800's photographer located at the camp. Take advantage of the opportunity to watch some rope making, wool carding, or spool knitting.

Whet your whistle and still those grumblings in the tummy with a cold beer or soda, plus some of the best food in Fond du Lac County (the cooks said I had to say this) in the huge refreshment tent.

Remember, you can park in any of the free parking areas and take the horse drawn buckboard to and from the festivities.

Take yourself back to a place in time when life was not quite so hectic. Relax and enjoy. See you in Dundee on Sunday, August 17!

The mass of the Milky Way is equal to 200 billion suns.

On Aug. 16, 1917, Andrew & Frances Bonlender welcomed daughter, Marie to their family.

On Aug. 16, 1997, Marie Kohlschmidt celebrates her 80th birthday.

The Kewaskum Chapter of Future Farmers of America successfully completed showing and selling beef, hogs and a sheep at the Washington County Fair. Harold Ramthun's steer was judged the grand champion and was bought by the West Bend Elevator for $1.25 a pound. Al Martin, Tim Ramthun, Barb Peterson, John Ramthun, Debra Meyer, Henry Haack, Dick McKee, Doug Panzer, Nancy Peterson, Dale Prost, Joe Sekeres, Terry Schaub and Guy Nauman also were successful in the steer show. Scott and Mark Matenaer, Dale Secor and Janice Kohn were 4-H students of the area showing beef. The grand champion barrow was shown by Jim Hawig of Kewaskum FFA and it was bought by Milwaukee Stockyards for $337.50. Patty Schaub showed the reserve champion and sold it to the PCA for $201.00. Other Kewaskum Chapter members showing hogs were Gary Zehren with a blue ribbon, Richard Loof, Mike Nigh, Tom Schoofs, Tom Zehren, Roger Kirchner, Bill Bloecher, Cal Tackes and Mark Ruplinger. Steve Volm was the only member showing sheep.

Letter winners for the summer baseball season recently completed have been announced by Coach Neil Denniston of the Kewaskum Indians. The Indians finished in third place in the Scenic Moraine with an 8-6 mark. Senior letter winners include Tom Theusch, Glenn Eichstedt, Rick Halfmann, Jeff Czerwonka and Jim Kern; Ju-

Board Disagrees on Religious Policy

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

The reappearing policy on religion made its way to the school board meeting Monday night for a second reading, seeking approval from a board that's offered differing opinions on the subject of religion in public schools.

In a 4-3 vote, the proposed Religion and Religious Expressions in School was put to rest, and it's back to square one for the board's policy committee.

Members of the audience spoke at the onset of the meeting, all against the need for religion to be spelled out in a five page document within a public school setting.

KEA President John Breese (check spelling) told the board there are hundreds, perhaps thousands of tax-exempt organizations in this country alone that have achieved the status of being classified as a religion, and this policy would open the door to all of them.

"The board needs to be aware of just who all these religions are, and I'd like to know how they intend to inform the teaching staff, so that we are not infringing on their (the students) rights to distribute literature."

"They can do this now on the basis of freedom of speech," board member John Schulte answered in reply.

The topic had been discussed in depth at an August 4th board worksession, with board members Schulte, Mary Andera and Tom Timblin focused on trying to reinstate three previously deleted sections back into the policy that addressed curriculum, the use of symbols, clothing, and student clubs. Schulte made the motion to accept the policy at the regular meeting with these items included.

Schulte, who has campaigned for the policy since March of 1995, stated the Bible could not be found in a Kewaskum school library to use as a reference source, yet books on witchcraft were available.

Although it was pointed out there actually was a Bible in the high school library, Schulte said he advocates including paragraphs in the policy that detail the legal use of religious literature, music, drama, and art in school curriculum and activities, as well as the wearing of religious symbols, articles of clothing, and the display of religious symbols. "Without this, you couldn't even put up a Christmas tree, or use the colors green and red," Schulte told the rest of the board.

During the board meeting, parent Mary Miller stated she did not advocate having a Bible in the school library, because she is a Catholic, and if the St. James version was used, that is not the translation her faith uses. "Religion is a family value, and the school system cannot continue to take over the responsibility of the family," she said.

Policy committee chairman Jon Downs addressed numerous issues at the worksession that reflected his opposition to the policy, his main point contending that most of it is already being done as a "non-issue," and if and when it becomes an issue, the chances of district involvement in legal litigation increases. "It's a problem waiting to happen," he commented.

"I'm tired of running," policy promoter Mary Andera maintained. "We need to stand up for our rights. We're not writing any laws here, these are the laws. We can't forbid it." She emphasized that the contents of the policy had come from statements made by Richard Reilly, Secretary of the Department of Education, by direction from Bill Clinton.

Larry Fechter spoke out against the policy because of his personal beliefs, and had originally supported the idea of a simple statement reflecting what the community was about, such as "we have to welcome God back into our schools." "I would sooner defend cases instance by instance, with case law, but not with this," he argued. "I would defend a Christmas program, that's something. But not this. This is nothing, this is a document of just paper and ink."

In answer to statements referring to the board's lack of research regarding the subject, Fechter remarked that he was sorry he could not support the policy, because of the time and effort put into this by the board, and believed that in itself, was a benefit to the district. "All our hearts were in the right place," he said.

Schulte pointed out that the formation of a religious policy began because so many infractions had occurred against students in the past, such as a grade school student being told not to put "I Love Jesus" on a poster, and being asked to refrain from silent prayer before eating lunch. "We aren't backing anything that isn't backed by the Supreme Court," he emphasized. "This is not a reflection of anyone's personal beliefs."

Although both Schulte and District Administrator Charles Johnson had refused to identify who would defend the district if legal issues arose, Schulte had previously cited the National Liberty Counsel as the source for the language content of the religious policy.

The NLC is a non-profit legal organization based in Florida, that defends religious liberties and helps schools develop those policies. Schulte first introduced the NLC to the school board two years ago, after past Farmington administration tried to replace the school's traditional Christmas program with a spring concert. The decision was later reversed when numerous parents voiced their disapproval.

Community member Marcia Theusch told those attending the board meeting that a 1995 newsletter she received from the Liberty Counsel includes the board's religious policy almost word for word. "The counsel has political leanings, and a belief system that may or may not fit this district. I think that's going beyond your role as a board, and I don't think this policy, in small town Wisconsin, is necessary."

Johnson stated that the reason the policy was so lengthy (six typewritten pages) and awkward to read was because it was put together directly from case law.

"There are good people on both sides of this issue that just disagree," Jon Downs said. "If I thought this was good for our school district, I wouldn't be afraid to fight for it." He added that unintended consequences could be the antithesis of what the board had hoped for. "You're assuming these students' religious beliefs are what you think they stand for."

Questions arose regarding Satanism, witchcraft, and voodoo as examples of beliefs that may have to be honored if the religious policy goes into force.

In regards to curriculum, Downs supported Mary Andera's view that the district does need to look into textbooks to review how Christianity is taught in relation to world history.

Tom Timblin upheld the policy, hoping it would be a lasting document for future boards. "People are watching us. We're leading the state in something like this. Personally, I want to leave my mark," he stated. "I believe our public schools should be governed by the principles of Christianity." Citing violence, discipline, and sexuality in schools, he could not see why this policy would not pass, when the "ACLU people are coming out of the woodwork."

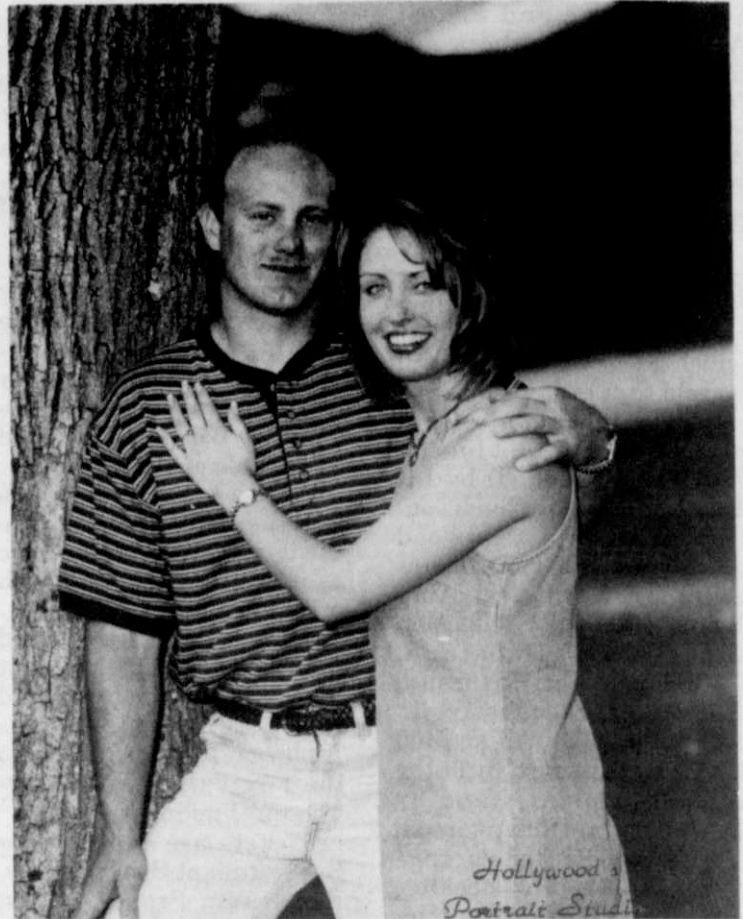

The policy failed 4-3, with Downs, Goeden, Fechter and Maul voting no. Although Lisa Maul remained silent during most of the worksession and during the board meeting's discussion of the issue, she did cast the deciding vote.

President Goeden thanked the committee members for their diligent work and said that some of the issues will continue to be looked into.

County Youth Attend 1997 Wisconsin 4-H Conference

The Wisconsin 4-H Youth Conference took place from June 16th to 19th in Madison at the UW Campus.

Over 800 youth from the state attend this conference. Ten youth from Washington County had the opportunity to attend the conference; learn new ideas, and how to promote 4-H to our community and our lives.

Youth from Washington County who attended were: Christopher Heppner, David Pauli, Rayelle Miller, Tiffany Schwendimann, Jennie Schulz, Maribeth Pauli, Nicole Nass, Brooke Zanow, Cindy Gundrum and John Kohler. Ron Held and Pamela Kescenovitz, 4-H volunteer leaders from Washington County were chaperones for the conference.

We loaded a bus along with youth from Ozaukee County and we were off to the experience of a lifetime. We checked in at the dorms; received our information and dorm assignments. The first day was a day to get acquainted with all of the places and people we would be seeing on campus in the next few days. On the first evening, we had an exciting seminar with all the people at the conference, then we had an option to do some fun activities for the rest of the evening.

All the youth attending the conference participated in various seminars. We learned about different cultures, different people, careers, wet and wild water seminars, responsible youth seminars, and even how to make our heritage live on. An assembly was held on hazards of driving drunk and about reaching for your goals and striving for what you believe in.

This was a wonderful experience for me. I met new people from my county as well as from the state. These experiences can help me with 4-H and also help me in my future. This was a worthwhile experience and I encourage any youth in 4-H to attend the Wisconsin 4-H Youth Conference next year to learn how to further your future.

Special thanks to the West Bend Noon Kiwanis, Washington County Bankers Association and the Washington County 4-H Leaders Association for their sponsorship in sending the delegates to the conference.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

This letter is in regards to the many people I need to thank for my past 15 years of business and its success.

First off, I must start with my parents, John and Mary Ellen McElhatton. From little on, they taught my brothers and sisters and myself that if you want something, you need to work hard for it. If you want your own business, you need to be there and work side by side with your employees. It can't be successful unless you're ready to put the time and effort in. They have always stood behind all the children and are very proud of each and every one. I know without their support I would never have had such a successful business. I love them dearly for that. Thank you, Mom and Dad.

Next in line would have to be all my brothers and sisters and their families. I can't even write all the things they have done. In 1982 when I first opened, they were there helping to get the building ready for the center to open. In 1988 when I expanded the center they put in many late hours working on the plumbing, drywall, electrical, wallpapering and much more. Whenever outside play equipment had to be put away for winter storage, they were there. Many weekends over the past 15 years were spent doing some kind of work at the center. And before I married by husband Wade, my youngest brother Mike was the maintenance man. Thank you to all my brothers, sisters and their families.

Going down the list, next would be all my friends who have helped me out. If you are reading this letter I hope you know who you are because there are too many to name. From the first group who were there to tear out the old clinic walls and help me name the center. Also, the friends who helped my brothers redo the outside play area. If you helped on a float (many first place floats) or pulled it through the parade. If you were there to help when I added on in 1988. If you designed my logo and letterhead or ran off countless banners for me. I could go on and on. Thank you - all my friends.

Next would have to be all the parents, aunts, uncles and grandparents of my little clients. So many of you have become life-long friends of mine. I really enjoy it when I run into some of you and whether your child has been gone from the center for one year or ten, you still talk about what your children did at my center. Thank you for all the lovely Christmas gifts and well wishes when I was married and had both my children. Most of all thank you for entrusting your children in my care. Thank you - all my parents of the children who have attended My Little Friends.

Then comes all the children -- may you be 20 years or two years old. You have brought me so much joy and many good memories. It really makes me feel good inside no matter how old you get you still come up and say "Hi" and "I remember when I was at your day care." Maybe someday I will write a book about all the things you have done over the years. I could probably blackmail a few of you... Ha... Ha! Thank you - past and present students.

Last but not least, my employees. Over the past 15 years I have had a very small turnover of employees. Because of this, we have become just like a family. You know this is very uncommon in the day care field because its such a low paying profession. That's so sad, when you think about it, because you are working with children -- the future. Maybe someday people of your IMPORTANT field will be paid what you should be. All my employees are like family to me and have always been there for me. I wish every employer could have the wonderful employees I have had. You girls are the best. Thank you so much for everything.

Well, I'm sure I may have missed someone along the line, so I just want to say THANK YOU everyone who has touched my business in some way or another.

Thank you,
Shawn Roberts
(My Little Friends
Day Care)

P.S. I know I mentioned you in last week's article Wade, but I do need to thank you again. You are the best husband anyone could have. You have done so much for me and have also put up with alot. I love you so much!

P.S.S. Good luck Audra and keep smiling!

Letter to the Editor:

The West Bend Chapter of the American Red Cross took part in the nationwide spring fundraising campaign. This annual event is conducted to raise financial contributions, as well as a search for additional volunteers. Although our Spring campaign for 1997 ended June 30th, donations are accepted year-round with emphasis on the disaster and transportation programs, as these services are vital and costly. Nationally, the Red Cross is "Something To Believe In."

Our board members and fundraising committee want to express their appreciation to the numerous individuals, businesses, and foundations for financial support and donation of services.

Volunteers giving much time and effort are recognized annually at our June dinner meeting, which was held this year at the Top of the Ridge Restaurant. Dr. James Albrecht was the guest speaker, enlightening the group with an update on his Donated Health Care Services project. We thank him also for his time and concern.

To help meet the continuing needs as a volunteer or with financial assistance, the local Red Cross chapter can be contacted at 2410 S. Main Street, Suite B, West Bend, Phone 334-5687.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following letter was partially run in last week's edition. Some how or another, gremlins accidentally made off with the last portion of the letter. Therefore, we are re-running the letter in its entirety.

*Ohayo gozaimas, (Polite way to say Hello
in the morning.)*

The weather has been great so far, very warm in the Tokyo area and cooler in the mountains. Typhoon hit Japan on Friday, July 25th. It was in the southern area below Kyoto. There was much wind and rain but no one was injured. According to local people this storm was not very severe.

The youth from Wisconsin and the rest of the delegates from the United States are having a great time. Some of the attractions they have been seeing are: Japanese schools, Buddhist temple, fireworks, LABO Camp similar to 4-H Camp and Tokyo Disneyland. Using chopsticks to eat has been a challenge to some of the youth as well as ourselves.

Everyone has had the chance to try many different foods and found out they are very delicious. LABO parties have been a big hit with the youth. Here they meet Japanese youth from age two to 20. These meetings are where Japanese youth get together to practice English both by doing activities, games and singing songs. Many new friends are being made by our 4-H'ers. Welcome parties are popular and potluck dinners are served. Some of the best dishes are made such as noodles, vegetable and tuna pizza, tropical fruit, rice cookies and crackers with tea, orange juice, apple juice and Coca Cola to drink.

The cultural experience has been great and youth are able to see how other people around the world work, live, eat and have fun. Family units are very close knit in Japan and watch out for one another. Many times as many as three generations live in one house. Daily chores like wash, dishes, feeding animals and house cleaning are shared by all family members.

School is just getting finished for many Japanese youth. They get only one month of summer vacation and get work from school to do during that time. Exercise and eating healthy are top priorities in their lives. School work is very important because they must take a test to get into High School as well as University.

Sunday, July 27th we attended a Welcome Party in the city of Chino where we are staying. This city is a sister city to Longmont, Colorado and eight youth and two chaperones from Colorado were doing an exchange and visiting many places throughout Japan. The Japan International committee had drum presentation by youth and songs played on Koto-Japanese harp and bamboo flute-Shakuhachi. Mayor from Chino was present and we had the opportunity to meet and speak to him. Again the food and drink was plentiful and hosts were friendly. Fresh watermelon was delicious!

If weather clears we will go to Shinto Temple and see flying squirrels and by the end of the week use more modes of transportation to move unto another host family in Northern Japan whom we hosted their daughter Satoko for one year school program in 1991-92.

All the American delegates are doing great and will have a difficult time saying goodbye.

Sayonara from Chino, Japan.

CORRECTION

In last week's feature story on Tuttle Creek Learning Center, Inc. (formerly My Little Friends) and in their business directory display ad on Page 18, it was incorrectly stated the daycare opens at 6 a.m. Correct hours for Tuttle Creek should have read 6:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. The extra one half hour was added to the evening hours. The writer apologizes for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Live 'Action' at the Thiemerdome

Time (and printers) waits for no newspaper, and besides that, with school opening this week we actually had to get in some REAL NEWS this week. Therefore, due to that elusive lack of time, we must postpone the results of the nail-biting conclusion to the "Over 40 Boys" season. The play-by-play (along with the usual smart wisecracks) will be published in its entirety next week, along with the team photos, trophy winners, and the #1 softball fan of the season. (Just love keeping all you Thiemerdome fans in suspense!)

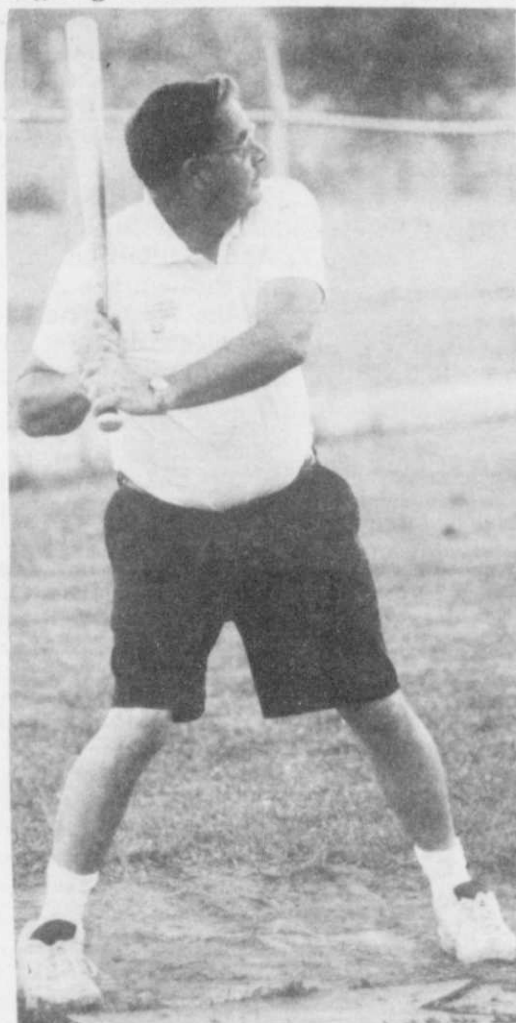

Don't forget the Thiemerdome World Serious-Less scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 6. Reserve your spot, NOW! It is hoped by that time, Tim Miller will be fully recuperated.

CONTRACT NEGOTIATIONS?? As soon as the season-ending game was over (possibly before) Kuehl's Manager, Dennis Kuehl, left, cornered a key player, Buddy Perkins (who went in to pinch-run during the game) and began negotiations for next season. Buddy seems to be astonished at Kuehl's offer... "Let me get this straight... you're offering me a buck a game and a six-pack as a signing bonus???" Better talk to your agent, Buddy!

Al Batcher's pre-game warmup includes the precise positioning of his trusty knee brace. This ritual of wrapping braces and muscle bandages obviously should have been performed by many of the "Over 40 Boys"... right, Tim Miller???

Finally, a picture of Rick Jaeger of Jaeger Insurance. It took awhile to get the camera speed to keep up to Rick, but we finally got him to slow down, keep his hands away from his face and show the form we are all used to seeing him use at the Thiemerdome!

MORE CALISTHENICS?? He's got style... he's got grace... We're not sure, but we think Harry Schladweiler just threw the perfect pitch or he might possibly be leading the fans during the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

Amerahn's John Kleinke, right, explains, "This is a bat," to Roger Schneider. I've seen Roger smack the ball, John, he doesn't need any more explanations!

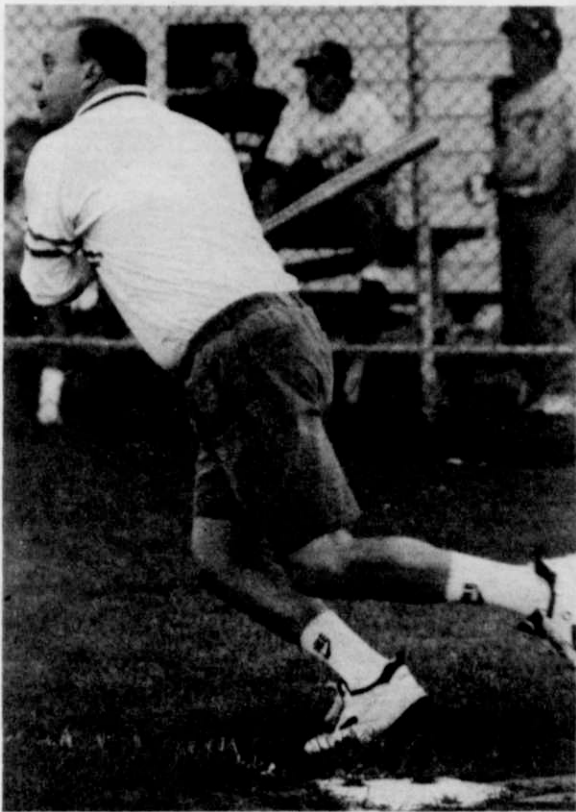

Such a physical kind of guy... Bob "Butzie" Buddenhagen leads his teammates in pre-game warmups, dropping for pushups. (Truthfully, I think Bob tripped going after a groundball... or did he trip over a ground hog... I forget... but at the Thiemerdome, anything is possible!)

Old-Timer's Reunion Saturday

This is the last call for all you former hardball players from the Kewaskum and West Bend areas. Dig out your gloves and limber up your muscles for the Old-timer's game to be held this Saturday, August 16, at the Kewaskum Kiwanis Park.

Kewaskum's senior old-timers (over 40) will take on West Bend's finest vintage of years gone by in a game starting at 1 p.m. Following that game less senior old-timers from the two long time rivals will do combat in a game open to former hardball players of any age.

The field will be open to any of the old-timers any time after 11 a.m. to take some batting practice, loosen up creaky arms, etc. Equipment will be available.

We are looking for a beautiful day for baseball on Saturday. If the weather does not cooperate we will still be able to get together and trade lies about our baseball careers as there will be a tent at our disposal through the good graces of the West Bend Elevator. So please don't let unsettled weather keep you away.

Beat the Clock to Win $1 Million

Using innovative ways to prepare meals more quickly could help you win $1 million. Create an original recipe that's ready for the table fast, and enter it in the Pillsbury Quick & Easy BAKE-OFF® Contest. Here are some helpful tips:

Take the express-prep lane. Use quick and easy methods, such as cooking in a skillet on the stovetop. Since you're not using a long, slow simmer or lengthy roasting to develop flavor, make good use of flavorful convenience products, such as salsa and seasoning blends.

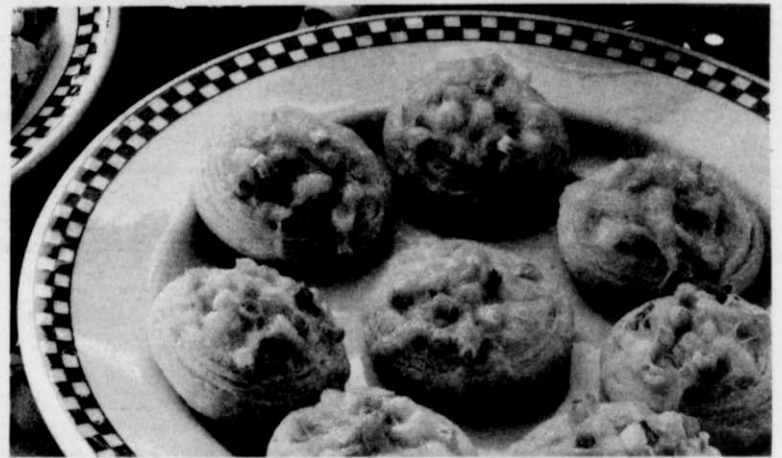

Stop the chopping. Eliminate chopping and slicing time. For example, buy chicken tenders or strips instead of chicken breasts.

Jump start your scratch cooking. Instead of scratch cooking, incorporate convenience products, such as prewashed and packaged salads, bottled sauces or marinades, or ready-to-use pastry crusts.

Add a pinch. Create a unique flavor, using seasoning ingredients you have on hand. Try a packaged seasoning mix for convenience.

Ready, set, done. Minimize preparation steps. Mix everything together in just one bowl. Use whole packages and cans when possible to reduce measuring time and to minimize leftover ingredients.

Here's a good example of a recipe meeting the requirement, which is no more than six ingredients, for the "Quick Snacks and Appetizers" category. These easy-to-make, savory snacks have only four ingredients and are great anytime.

CHEESY SPIRAL SNACKS

- 1 (4-oz.) can Pillsbury Refrigerated Crescent Dinner Rolls
- 1/4 cup chopped green onions
- 1/8 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 oz. (1/4 cup) shredded Cheddar cheese

Heat oven to 375°F. Remove dough from can. DO NOT UNROLL DOUGH. Cut roll of dough into 8 slices; place slices on ungreased cookie sheet. Top each slice with 1/8 of onions, garlic powder and Cheddar cheese; press topping gently into dough.

Bake at 375°F. for 8 to 13 minutes or until light golden brown. Serve warm. 8 servings.

Entries for the BAKE-OFF® Contest must be postmarked by Oct. 20, 1997. For an entry blank, call 1-800-477-1111 through Sept. 30, 1997; write Pillsbury Quick & Easy BAKE-OFF® Entry Blanks, P.O. Box 9300, St. Cloud, MN 56398-9300; or visit the Web site at www.bakeoff.com.

Eligibility Requirements for Free, Reduced Price Meals Announced by School District

The School District of Kewaskum, public and private, has announced its policy for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch Program. Each school office and the central office has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party.

The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility. Children from families whose annual income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced price meals.

INCOME CHART
(Effective from July 1, 1997 to June 30, 1998)

Household Size	Annual	Month	Week
1.....	14,597	1217	281
2.....	19,629	1636	378
3.....	24,681	2056	475
4.....	29,693	2475	572
5.....	34,725	2894	668
6.....	39,757	3314	765
7.....	44,789	3733	862
8.....	49,821	4152	959
For each additional family member add:	+5,032	+420	+97

Application forms were given to each family on registration day. To apply for free or reduced price meals households must fill out the application and return it to the school. Additional copies are available at the principals office in each school. The information provided on the application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and may be verified at any time during the school year by school or other program officials. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

To obtain free or reduced price meals for children for whom households receive Food Stamps or Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), an adult member needs only to list the names of the school children, give Food Stamp or AFDC case number for each child, sign his/her name and return the application to the school office. Households must inform the school authorities when they no longer receive Food Stamps or AFDC.

For the school officials to determine eligibility for free or reduced price meals of households not receiving Food Stamps or AFDC, the household must provide the following information requested on the application: names of all household members, and the social security number, of the adult household member who signs the application. In lieu of a social security number, the household may indicate that the signer does not possess a social security number. Also, the income received by each household member must be provided by amount and source (wages, welfare, child support, etc.). Households are required to report increases in income of over $50 per month or $600 per year and decreases in household size.

Under the provisions of the free and reduced price meal policy, the District Administrator will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent or guardian is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he/she may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If the parent/guardian wishes to make a formal appeal, he/she may make a request either orally, or in writing to: Mrs. Jean Goeden, School Board President, 2478 Hwy. 28 East, Kewaskum, WI 53040, Phone 334-9549. If a hearing is needed to appeal the decision, the policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

If a household member becomes unemployed, or if the household size changes, the family should contact the school. Such changes may make the household eligible for reduced price meals or free meals if the household income falls at or below the level shown above, and they may reapply at that time.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a household has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for free or reduced price meals, the household should complete an application for a family of one or contact the school for more information.

The information provided by the household on the application is confidential and will be used only for purposes of determining eligibility and verifying data.

In the operation of the child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, color, sex, national origin, age, or handicap. If any member of a household believes they have been discriminated against, they should write immediately to the Security of Agriculture, Washington D.C. 20250.

Any questions regarding the application should be directed to the determining official.

THANK YOU

I would like to opportunity to thank everyone who helped me through my accident that took place on July 23. Special thanks to the following: the Fillmore EMTs, the Newburg Fire Dept. and their Rescue Squad, all of my family, Marty, friends and co-workers. Thanks for all the flowers, cards, and kind words during my stay at St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend and while I was recovering at home. Your kindness will always be remembered.

NATIONAL SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM Letter to All Households

Dear Parent/Guardian:

All schools in the Kewaskum School District serve meals each school day. Lunch ticket prices are $1.30 per day for students in grades 1-5 and $1.55 per day for students in grades 6-12. Children also may get meals free or at a reduced price of $.40 per day. All meals served must meet standards established by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. However, if a child has been determined by a doctor to have a disability and the disability would prevent the child from eating the regular school meal, this school will make any substitutions prescribed by the doctor, if a substitution is needed, there will be no extra charge for the meal. If you believe your child needs substitutions because of a disability, get in touch with us for further information.

If you now get food stamps or AFDC for your children, your children can get free meals. If your total household income is the same or less than the amounts on the income Chart below, your children can get free meals or reduced price meals. A foster child may get free or reduced price meals regardless of your income.

TO GET FREE OR REDUCED PRICE MEALS FOR YOUR CHILDREN, YOU MUST COMPLETE AN APPLICATION AND RETURN IT TO THE SCHOOL. WE CANNOT APPROVE AN APPLICATION THAT IS NOT COMPLETE.

(Effective from July 1, 1997 to June 30, 1998)

Household Size	Annual	Month	Week
1.....	14,597	1217	281
2.....	19,629	1636	378

6.....	39,757	3314	765
7.....	44,789	3733	862
8.....	49,821	4152	959

For each additional family member add: +5,032 +420 +97

Verification: Your eligibility may be checked at any time during the school year. School officials may ask you to send papers showing that your children should get free or reduced price meals.

Fair Hearing: You may talk to school officials if you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the results of verification. You also may ask for a fair hearing. You may do this by calling or writing: Mrs. Jean Goeden, Board President, 2478 Hwy. 28 East, Kewaskum, WI 53040, Phone: 334-9549.

Reporting Changes: If your children get free or reduced price meals because of your income, you must tell the school if your household size decreases or your income increases by more than $50 per month or $600 per year. If your children get meals because they get food stamps or AFDC, you must tell the school when you are not getting AFDC or food stamps for them. You may then fill out another application giving income information.

Confidentiality: The information provided by the household on the application is confidential. Public Law 103-448 does authorize the release of student free and reduced price school meal eligibility status to persons directly connected with the administration and enforcement of federal or state educational program. With your written consent, they may also use the information for other programs if you sign a statement waiving confidentiality for those specific uses.

Reapplication: You may apply for meals anytime during the school year. If you are not eligible now but have a change, like a decrease in household income, an increase in household size, become unemployed or get food stamps or AFDC for your children, complete an application then.

In the operation of the child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age or handicap. If you believe you have been discriminated against, write immediately to the secretary of agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

We will let you know when your application is approved or denied.

Sincerely,
Charles B. Johnson, Ph.D.
District Administrator

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of DORIS KLUEVER, who passed-away ten years ago, Aug. 16, 1987.

There is a road called remembrance
Where thoughts and wishes meet;

We take that road in thought today to one we can not meet;

You filled our life with happiness and you gave us all your love.

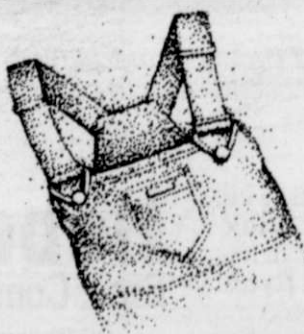

For the time we shared together, we thank the Lord above;

To your resting place we visit and place flowers there with care,

But only God knows the heartache.

When we turn and leave you there.

Grothman Announces World Wide Web Site

Madison: State Representative Glenn Grothman (R-West Bend) announced today that his office has established an outpost on the information super-highway with the introduction of a site on the World Wide Web.

"It seems the natural thing to do," Grothman noted. "The number of constituents contacting me by e-mail has increased dramatically over the past year or so. It is evident that a growing number of people in the 59th district are logging on to the internet-and they're using their connection to make their voices heard in Madison. This site will make that contact more interactive."

The state-provided WWW site, updated frequently by Grothman, provides access to the state statutes, bills, the administrative code, and committee activities. It also provides visitors with access to Rep. Grothman's press releases and columns, information about Grothman and contact information for his office, and further public access to the activities of the Joint Committee for Review of Administrative Rules, which Grothman chairs.

The pride of the Grothman site, however, is its "Links to the District" section. "The site provides information not just about Madison, but about our exciting district to internet surfers from around the world," Grothman said. "I want to make the list even bigger-I encourage people to let me know of other in-district sites they want to see as links on my page."

The Grothman Newpage may be found at the follow address: <http://www.legis.state.wi.us/assembly/asm59/news/index.html>.

Rock River Playoffs Still Possible for A's

The results were mixed for the Kewaskum Athletics as they notched four wins against only one loss in one of their busiest weeks in recent memory.

The results were mixed in that their efforts strengthened their chances for a playoff berth in the Rock River League Northern Division. However, the one loss the A's suffered ended their play-off run in the Tri-County Nite League.

The Athletics opened the week's play with a 15-11 victory over the Slinger Stingers in the first game of the Nite League playoffs. A big offensive effort overcame an up and down mound performance.

Doug Gonring led the charge banging two home runs in a seven-run sixth. Gonring added another hit, scored four times and drove in three runs. He had ample help as Curt Schroeder and Scott Donath each added three hits and three RBI's. Ryan Hall and player-manager Dave Donath contributed two hits apiece. Jason Wiedmeyer picked up the win on the mound.

The tables were turned when the A's travelled to Rubicon for the second game of the playoffs. The Red Sox banged out 20 hits, walked 11 times and took advantage of three Kewaskum errors to score a lopsided 25-10 win. Rubicon now goes to Clyman to face the Cannors for the 1997 championship.

Matt Schneider, Ken Immel and Kevin Klahn shared mound duties with Schneider getting tagged with the loss. Kewaskum's few highlights came at the plate as both Doug Gonring and Curt Schroeder blasted a pair of home runs. Kevin Klahn had three hits and Scott Donath ripped two doubles.

The news was all good on the Rock River front as three victories in three days put the A's in charge of their own destiny. Kewaskum went to Oshkosh on Friday night and handed the Merchants a 7-3 setback behind a superb pitching performance by Bob Bothe. Bothe went the distance, allowing only three runs on nine hits. He struck out two and walked three.

The Athletics got just enough offense against Luke McAleer as they scored three in the first and three in the fifth to maintain throughout the game. Terry Koth was the big gun, rapping four base hits good for three RBI's. Scott Donath was three for four and Doug Gonring added two hits.

Kewaskum closed out their busy week with a bang. The visiting Horicon Honkers fell twice to the hometown boys. The first game ended in a hard fought 8-6 win. The second game was a blowout as the A's notched a 21-2 victory.

Dane Dorn turned in a strong performance on the mound, going seven innings to get the win. Dorn walked four and struck out four, while giving up only three runs. Ken Immel pitched the last two innings.

Matt Sternig led the A's hitters, going three for four. Kevin Klahn and Ryan Hall each chipped in with two hits.

Jason Wiedmeyer's solid pitching performance in the second game was overshadowed by Kewaskum's offensive barrage. Curt Schroeder led an 18 hit attack with three hits, six runs scored, a homer and two RBI's.

Doug Gonring, Scott Donath, Dane Dorn, Ryan Hall, Matt Sternig and Tim Gundrum all contributed two hits to the onslaught. Gonring hit his eighth home run in eight games on the way to driving in four runs and scoring twice. Donath scored five runs and Dorn knocked in four.

Kewaskum's late season charge has made the final regular season game against the Slinger Stingers a big one. The A's will host the Stingers at Kiwanis Park on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. A victory would assure the Athletics of at least a tie for the final playoff spot in the Northern Division of the Rock River League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is the fact that Sunday's game is also the annual West Bend Elevator day with many of the Elevator's patrons and employees in attendance.

Kewaskum finished with an 8-4 record in Tri-County League Play (including playoffs). The A's are 11-8 in the Rock River League. Overall, they are 21-14 for the season.
