District Students Show Improvement In State Proficiency Test Scores

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

The new state proficiency tests indicate Kewaskum students know the three R's and quite a bit more.

A summary of the 1997-98 WSAS test results for the district was presented to the school board at Monday night's meeting. Curriculum Coordinator George Allmann indicated the students have shown district wide improvement, and outscored the national averages.

The tests, given at the fourth, eighth and tenth grade levels, had been feared by administrators and school boards across the state. It was a new test based on the recently released state standards, and graded students on their level of proficiency, instead of the standardized comparisons everyone had been used to.

The test results placed students in one of four general proficiency categories: Minimal, Basic, Proficient, and Advanced in the subject areas of math, reading, language arts, science and social studies.

Student scores were averaged together to create a proficiency level for each school, so some students did score at the minimal or basic level in some subjects, which indicates areas that need to be worked on.

Wayne Elementary School ranked the highest in the system, with incredible social studies and reading scores of 67% proficient and 33% advanced.

"I credit much of this to the teacher," Allmann stated. Their weakest area was enhanced language, where 17% fell into the basic category. They earned across the board an average 60% or above proficient, compared to national averages of around 40%. Eighteen students took the tests at WES.

Farmington Elementary School's strong points were reading (63% proficient, 23% advanced) and social studies (51% proficient, 26% advanced). The fourth grade at FES is made up of two classes, totaling 35 students. Again, language came up as an area of lower scores, with 17% rated at the minimal performance level, the second largest percentage in the minimal category of all schools. They averaged 50% proficient compared to the national average of 37%.

Kewaskum Elementary School, the largest of the grade schools, tested 52 fourth grade students. Their highest advanced level percentage was earned in math (19%), but at the same time, 25% fell into the basic category, indicating a wide variance in abilities.

This group scored high in reading (71% proficient, 13% advanced), as well as science (62% proficient, 10% advanced) and social studies (62% proficient, 17% advanced). Their largest percentage of basic performers (35%) could be found in enhanced language. Average proficiency 58%, compared to the national average of 37%.

Kewaskum Middle School tested 135 eighth graders. 35% of the students placed in the advanced level for social studies. They fared well in reading (55% proficient, 19% advanced), and science (50% proficient, 22% advanced), but showed a lower performance in math.

Scores in this subject fell into the basic (50%) and minimal (13%) categories, although Allmann stated this was an improvement over last year's test scores. Language, as well, placed 68% of eighth grade students in the basic category. Students' average proficiency - 39%, compared to the nation's 26%. Surprisingly, national averages indicated only 12% proficiency in language, and 15% in mathematics at this grade level.

Kewaskum High School challenged 160 tenth graders with the WSAS tests. 34% of the students met advanced proficiencies in social studies. They also rated high in reading skills (53% proficient, 28% advanced). Language, math, and science found large groups of students in the basic category, with math showing the largest percentage of minimal proficiency performers at 26%. Nationwide, 60% of tenth grade math students scored minimal proficiency. KHS students placed in average proficiency 43%, compared to the national percentage 23%.

National percentages were based on a sampling of students who took the test in 1996. The test results of Kewaskum School District students will be compared to statewide and national outcomes in other future reports.

Both the school board and Allmann felt the tests indicate a steady improvement in student performance over the past two years, with overall results surprisingly higher than anticipated.

"We have two major areas we will be working on, enhanced language and mathematics," Allmann told the board.

Parents will have the opportunity to meet with administration to review test results and ask questions on Monday, February 16, at 7 p.m. in the high school commons. Individual students reports have been mailed to all parents last week.

Town of Wayne to Celebrate 150 Years

Town of Wayne friends and families are invited to "ONE BIG BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION" for their home town. This event will take place on Sunday, May 24, 1998 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Wayne Elementary School.

Highlights of this day will include delicious refreshments prepared at Salem UCC Church in Wayne. We also hope to have an old fashioned pie social. Donations of pies from individuals, groups and church organizations would help to make this social successful. Let's show the world the great cooking and baking talents of our local folks.

Century ownership of farms will be acknowledged and area churches will be opening their doors for informal information tours. In the evening, Uncle Sam's Fireworks is donating fireworks to highlight our celebration. It definitely will be a fun family experience.

Your Sesquicentennial Committee is in need of help and donations to further enhance the event. We would like individual families who have had longevity in the Town of Wayne to provide a historical article with photos. This article need not be long -- sometimes pictures say so much more. The committee will provide easels or whatever is necessary to help.

If you are planning to contribute a display of any kind, please contact the committee chairman, Donald Schulz, at 629-5707 by May 1. You may also contact committee member, Carol Oelhafen at 626-4239.

We are also looking for memorabilia of the past; such as clothing, dress forms, pictures of families, farms, school pictures or special events. Old machinery, farm tools or old advertising would also add to the display.

Do you have a skill that was used many years back? An educational display would demonstrate what our ancestors did for their very existence. Please let us know.

Please mark this date on your calendar, as this day will only happen once in our lives. Let's ALL honor our beautiful TOWN OF WAYNE.

Our heritage has been preserved with the stroke of the pen and in pictures for generations to share and enjoy. This history has been compiled in book form and will be released for sale sometime this spring. Watch for news of this publication and information where it will be available.

Board Sets Work Sessions To Discuss Facilities Planning

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

The Kewaskum School Board has set two work session dates to discuss facilities planning and future building needs.

The work sessions are scheduled for Wednesday, February 18 and Monday, March 2, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the high school library. The meetings will be open to the public.

The February work session will function as an organizational meeting, giving board members a chance to sort through all the information received from the Facilities Planning Committee.

Board president Jeanne Goeden said it was high priority that all board members work from the same set of facts and figures. "There were quite a few numbers thrown out for enrollments and final costs. I think we have to make sure all these figures are correct," Goeden said.

The Facilities Committee will be formally dissolved at the March school board meeting, although its members will probably be called upon to serve in other capacities, including information gathering to help further a fall referendum.

With this plan on their minds, the board will be moving at a fast pace through the next few months to meet the fall deadline and decide what kind of choices taxpayers will be given on a building referendum.

Goeden said that reopening Beechwood School could be one of the items listed, at a first year start-up cost of $600,000. According to the district's business manager, an annual referendum would be required thereafter, to approve yearly operational costs for the school, (estimated at $136,000) because it would exceed the state mandated revenue cap limits imposed on the district.

"If we worked it (the cost) into the budget (which would eliminate the annual

Board Sets Work Sessions To Discuss Facilities Planning

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Host Families Sought for 4-H Work Sessions Japanese/Korean Exchange

Local families are needed to host Japanese Korean exchange students, ages 12-18, for four weeks this summer as part of an exchange program sponsored by 4-H. The Japanese and Korean youth will stay with their American host families from mid-July to mid-August, 1998.

The program is open to 4-H families living in Southern Wisconsin with children between the ages of 10 and 18. Families without children in this age range will be considered as hosts for the adult chaperones from Japan or Korea.

You only need a willingness to share your home and your world. There is no need to know Japanese or Korean. The youth have all studied English and are anxious to use it.

The program gives host families a chance to share their culture, friendship and family life with an exchange student and at the same time learn about Japanese and Korean life. The homestays only last a month during summer vacation, but the effects last a lifetime.

Host applications and brochures about the program are available through the county 4-H office at 335-4473 or by contacting the 4-H County Coordinator, Diane Lemke at 626-4829. The Washington County 4-H or County Coordinator is available to answer your questions.

The 4-H Japanese Exchange program is one of the largest exchange programs in the world involving North American and Japanese youth. Since it began in 1972, some 30,000 youth have stayed with families in 39 states including Wisconsin and more than 4,000 American youth have made reciprocal visits to Japan.

referendum), some other program would have to go," President Goeden stated.

There was some discussion on land purchase options at Monday night's board meeting, with business manager George Allmann informing the board of how to go about acquiring land for the district.

According to Allmann, if the cost is below one million dollars, no referendum is necessary and the school board could vote to borrow the needed funds, which would also fall under the revenue caps. If the land exceeded one million dollars to purchase, the board would be required to put it up to public vote on an official referendum, or a special meeting of the electorate, approved there by a majority vote.

An agenda will be worked out for the scheduled March work session and it is hoped these discussions prepare the school board for their proposed March 23rd special meeting on the subject. "There isn't an easy solution," Goeden commented.

Moraine Park Celebrating Vocational Education Week

Students and faculty in the more than 50 programs at Moraine Park Technical College will be celebrating National Vocational Education Week February 8-14.

The theme of the week-long celebration, "Get Your Career in Gear," emphasizes the role vocational education and its business and industry partners play in helping youth and adults enter and progress in the workforce throughout their lives.

"We're proud of the level of skills students gain at Moraine Park and how, working with people from the business community, we're preparing young people to be productive workers and community leaders in the next century," said Moraine Park President John Shanahan.

According to the American Vocational Association, research shows that 18 of the country's 20 fastest-growing occupations require the technology and skills taught in vocational education programs. Research also shows that among high school graduates entering the workforce, those with a vocational education background earn 21% more than those without this advantage.

A Stroll Off Main Street

The Kewaskum Malt and Grain Co. before the 1911 fire.

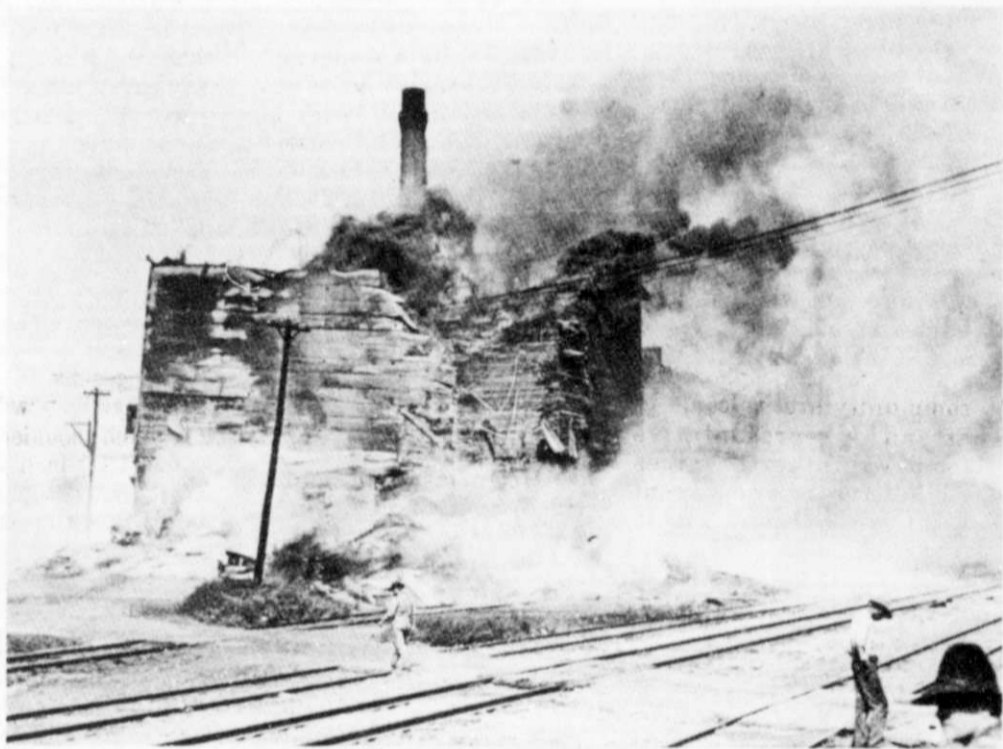

Continuing on our weekly detour off Main Street, crossing the tracks from Regal Ware we come to the L. Rosenheimer Malt and Grain Company. According to "Kewaskum Then and Now," the company had its origin in the grain elevator and feed mill operated in connection with the store run by Moritz and Adolph Rosenheimer, beginning in 1874. In 1891 the L. Rosenheimer Malt and Grain Company was incorporated. Its first president and general manager was Adolph Rosenheimer, Sr., who continued as president until his death in 1942. In 1911 Moritz Rosenheimer and his brother, Adolph, separated their business ventures with Adolph taking the bank and the malt and grain and Moritz taking the feed mill and store. In September, 1911 the grain elevator, formerly located just south of the present plant was destroyed by fire, and the plant was also damaged. It was immediately rebuilt on the north side of the plant and malt production was continued until Prohibition in 1919. During the years 1919-1933, some barley malt was produced and in 1930 and 1931 wheat malt, an experimental process at that time, was produced for General Mills. After the repeal of Prohibition, normal operations were again resumed. Robert G. Kroncke, together with his wife Linda, obtained controlling interest in the corporation in 1968. The malt plant was purchased by John Kratz in 1975. Most recently the building was occupied by Glacier Processing. Today the building stands empty but various options are being studied by owner Gary Gavin. If anyone has historic information or a fond memory to contribute about the upcoming businesses traveling north on Railroad Street or the north side of Main Street, (heading west), please send the information to the Kewaskum Statesman or call 626-2626. Any historical information you can contribute on the balance of the buildings on Main and/or Railroad will be appreciated more than you know.

KMS Students Win Art Honors

Kewaskum Middle School eighth grader Ryan Kropp stands beside his Gold Key pastel drawing, along with his brother Josh, left, mom Debbie Kropp and grandmother Millie Repich.

Kewaskum Middle School eighth grader Ryan Kropp and seventh grader Nicole Waala had their artwork chosen to appear in the 1998 Wisconsin Regional Scholastic Art Awards Exhibition at the Milwaukee Art Museum through the end of February.

Ryan's work, a pastel drawing titled, "Beyond the Shadows," received the Gold Key award in the grades 7-9 competition, while Nicole's pastel drawing, "Fraction of a Feather," earned her a Silver Key award.

As a result of the Gold Key designation, following its exhibition at the Milwaukee Art Museum, Ryan's drawing will travel to a juried competition in New York to be judged on a national level.

Both entries were the result of art class activities at KMS, and were entered in the competition by KMS art instructor, Ms. Molenda.

Sweet Potato Cheesecake

Cheesecake is always a favorite and the sweet potatoes with the dark brown sugar and liqueur make this choice a decadent one.

- 2 (8-ounce) packages light cream cheese
- 1 cup nonfat sour cream
- 1 cup mashed, cooked sweet potatoes (yams)
- 1 cup dark brown sugar
- 1 large egg
- 2 large egg whites
- 2 tablespoons praline liqueur or liqueur of choice
- 2 teaspoons vanilla flavoring
- 1 (9-inch) prepared graham cracker crust

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. In large mixing bowl, beat together the cream cheese and sour cream until creamy. Add sweet potatoes and brown sugar. Add egg and egg whites one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add praline liqueur and vanilla. Spoon mixture into the prepared graham cracker crust. Bake for 40 to 50 minutes or until set. Remove from oven to cool. Refrigerate until chilled, about 2 hours.

Posing under her Silver Key award winner is Kewaskum Middle School seventh grader Nicole Waala, along with her art instructor, Ms. Molenda.

"That was very good, Mr. Clark, but the eye chart is over here."

IT'S BACK.....

25 Years Ago

February 2, 1973

Hiring of two new patrolmen for the Village of Kewaskum has been announced by Police Chief Donald Hlavaty. They are Richard L. Knoebel, 22, and James A. Wichtoski, 24, both of West Bend. Both were sworn in as members of the Kewaskum Police Department at a ceremony at the Municipal Building at 9 a.m. Thursday and began working as patrolmen.

The signing of the peace treaty to end the Vietnam War Saturday at 6 p.m. was celebrated in Kewaskum by the blowing of the village's fire siren and the ringing of the church bells and chimes. The siren sounded in a steady blast for three minutes and all local churches rang their bells or chimes.

After four long years of anxious waiting, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fickler of Kewaskum finally got the bad news in a phone call Saturday that the name of their missing son, Capt. E. James Fickler, USMC, was not on the list of 555 POW's released by the Communists. Capt. Fickler was missing in action in Southeast Asia since Jan. 17, 1969. His parents were overjoyed at the announcement of the ceasefire and hoped their son's name would be among the list of prisoners of war. But Saturday's message was what they dreaded to hear, that Capt. Fickler's name was not on the list of POW's turned over to Secretary of State William Rogers. There is still a possibility that he might be among the men held in Laos, for whom a list was not released. Capt. Fickler was shot down over Vietnam on a mission four years ago. He was the pilot of a fighter plane on a night mission. It is believed that he was downed south of the demilitarized zone on January 17, 1969. Capt. Fickler graduated from Kewaskum High School in 1961 and the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 1965. He enlisted in the Marines in February of 1965 on an inactive status. He left for Vietnam in April of 1968.

Construction of a new middle school for grades 7 and 8 was the major portion of a building program approved at the Monday meeting of the School Board. The total building program will include additions at Wayne, Farmington and Kewaskum Elementary Schools and at the high school. The vote on this approach was unanimous, with all seven board members present and voting. Once the decision on the building program was made, the board then considered a resolution to borrow $1.6 million for the construction, remodeling and equipping.

In a check made this week, it was learned that building permits were issued for 30 new homes and one apartment building containing ten housekeeping units, which were erected in Kewaskum during 1972. These permits do not include another 16-unit apartment building now under construction at the corner of First and Railroad Streets and the new Bank of Kewaskum building going up on Fond du Lac Avenue.

The deadline for filing papers for village offices to be elected in spring was 5 p.m. Tuesday, January 30. Charles Miller is the only candidate to file for village president to succeed Cyril Wietor. Six candidates filed for three trustee posts to be elected. Alfred Kral, an incumbent, and Daniel Schmidt filed early in January. Roger Strack filed Jan. 22 and three more names were added to the list Tuesday: John Tassar, Robert Staehler and Ken Neldner.

Sixty years of service to Kewaskum as a civic organization were recognized Saturday evening when the Kewaskum Woman's Club observed the 60th anniversary of its founding at their Founders Day dinner at Hon-E-Kor Country Club. The club has the distinction of being the oldest civic organization in Kewaskum.

Germantown hung onto its first place tie with Grafton by defeating Kewaskum Friday night here, but was given a battle by the Indians before emerging with a 56-44 win. The Indians two young sophomores, Scott Koth and Mike Koepke, both of whom were in the top five in conference scoring, were held to 10 and 8 points respectively, but led their team. Koth's brother, Jeff, also contributed eight points. Kewaskum's JV's beat Germantown, 67-54. Randy Koepke led the way with 22 points, followed by Don Gruber with 18, Paul Petri with 11 and Tom Timblin with 10.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Zuehlke, Route 1, Kewaskum on January 25.

Letter to the Editor:

TOWN OF BARTON OPENS PRIME FARMLAND FOR DEVELOPMENT

Town of Barton taxpayers, are you aware of the great injustice that was done to the landowners in the Exclusive Agriculture Zoned Districts? Since 1979, the Town of Barton has had an Exclusive Agriculture Zoned District. Under this zoning, the landowners agreed not to subdivide the land. It is to remain in agriculture use, and could not be sold in parcels smaller than 35 acres. By agreeing to this in 1979, we as farmers, have had the land protected for the future generations to come. By this agreement of not being able to sell the land for development, the landowners are eligible to secure tax credits and has the power of the state of Wisconsin Department of Agriculture behind them. This zoning has worked well for the past eighteen years.

Now, by the Town of Barton Planning Commission actions on February 2, 1998, we have a very high chance of losing this. When zoning is adapted, the landowners and the municipality establish a trust relationship. The parties should not change the trust relationship unless substantial reasons exist. One person should not be able to effect numerous landowners who have accepted the terms of Exclusive Agriculture. Instead of enforcing the existing zoning, the Town of Barton Planning Commission changed them to accommodate the sellers. With the full knowledge from a letter sent to the Town Chairman from the State Wisconsin, this could not be done, and still have State Certification. The Town of Barton E A District has now been opened up for development. Anyone residing in or next to the E A District that built or purchased a home, can now expect more homes to be built. The Town of Barton rural atmosphere will be gone. Farmers are not the only loser. Farmers will lose immediately. Homeowners will lose in the future.

Under the new Town of Barton Exclusive Agriculture Plan, we are to receive Bonus Lots and Deed Restrictions. If you have a farm of 35 to 70 acres, you would be allowed one Bonus Lot of 1 acre or more and the remaining land must not be less than 35 years. Once you sell that lot, there will be a Deed Restriction on the remaining land, so no more can be sold. DEED RESTRICTIONS are forever! If the land is 70 acres or more, you are allowed 2 Bonus Lots, 1 acre or more with the same Deed Restrictions. We have lost our exclusive Agriculture protection from the State of Wisconsin. We lost our Tax Credits. We now have lost our freedom. This has been taken from us not by an agreement or a negotiation. I believe it is in the interest of the persons affected by this action to contact your Town Supervisor and express your concerns. We need to seriously consider the long term effects that these changes will have on the trust relationship that the residents expect to have with these government officials.

Jerome A. Mueller

Letter to the Editor:

Wisconsin citizens are not getting a fair return on the gas taxes they pay to the federal government and it's time for that to change.

Every year, Wisconsin sends more money to Washington D.C. in federal gas taxes than it received back in highway and transit aid. Since 1955, that's meant a loss of more than $624 million. Wisconsin wouldn't have such high state gas taxes if the federal government would have provided us with our fair share of the gas taxes it already collects.

To get a better return, Wisconsin needs the amount of money the federal government spends on transportation to increase. And, there's a way for Congress to increase transportation spending without raising taxes or taking money away from other programs.

Sufficient transportation funds are already being collected through the 18.4 cent federal gas tax. The problem is that 4.3 cents of the gas tax is being held hostage. It is simply being left to accumulate in the Highway Trust Fund in order to meet balanced budget goals. If Congress continues not to spend Highway Trust Fund revenues, balances will balloon to $90 billion by 2002.

The opportunity for Congress to increase the size of the federal transportation program, and change the way funds are distributed back to the states, will come in the next few months when members debate both the budget resolution and a multi-year reauthorization of highway and transit programs.

New federal budget numbers indicate surplus funds will be available. The projected surplus can be used to help Congress meet its balanced budget goals, freeing up the 4.3 cents in federal gas tax for its intended purpose - transportation investments.

There will be lots of competition for any surplus funds, including tax cuts, national debt reduction and increased program spending in other areas.

These are worthy causes, but Highway Trust Fund revenues are user fees meant to support improvements to the nation's highway and transit systems.

Significant transportation needs exist. Many state highway pavements were constructed in the 1960s and are nearing the end of their life cycles. The average age of state bridges is 32 years. Transit systems are facing staggering capital and operating expenses as they work to respond to growing demands and expectations.

Transportation spending benefits the national economy that helped produce the budget surplus in the first place. It would be unwise for Congress to disinvest in transportation if it wants to maintain economic growth.

Wisconsin is counting on its fair share of federal transportation funds. Current transit funding runs out on March 31; federal highway funds stop May 1.

Charles H. Thompson
Secretary, Wisconsin
Dept. of Transportation

Budding Poets Bloom at WES

Building upon the first grade classroom's flower studies, Wayne Elementary School art teacher, Ms. Ambrose, had first graders work together to create these huge, colorful flowers to decorate the Wayne hallways.

First graders at Wayne Elementary School spend part of each day writing, either individually or as a group.

Recently, some class members (Brandon, Melissa, Nathan, Nicole, Thomas and teacher, Mrs. Kesting) created a poem about a topic they were studying... flowers.

A FLOWER

There's a flower,
here's a flower;
little rainbows of color
sitting in the grass
I reach down to pick one,
but something stops me,
it's too dazzling.
This flower,
it is JUST perfect.

Stress Reduction Techniques Offered

Ways to reduce stress, including relaxation techniques, are being offered in a program sponsored by St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend on Monday, February 23.

Barbara Argabright, manager of health promotion services at the hospital, will present the program from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the hospital's fourth floor east conference room.

Stress can cause headaches, fatigue and upset stomachs. Learning how to relieve stress can help individuals alleviate the symptoms and improve overall mental and physical well-being.

Super Bowl Party

Packer fans Bob Sonnenberg, left, and Randy Kreif, sported their green and gold "war paint" at a Super Bowl Party held on Super Sunday in the lounge area of the Thiemerdome (otherwise known as Thiemer's Sip and Snip). A halftime snowmobile parade, with machines decorated in Packer flags was also held. All had an enjoyable and Packer support was not diminished in spite of the "Super" loss. Gonna be tough taking those snowmobiles to Miami though!

When fishing for trout: the first cast is critical; your chances of catching a fish diminish with each cast.

A Triple Valentine?

by Ami

Just about one year ago, on Valentines day while tramping through the snow laden hardwood forest near my home, I ran across a startling sight. A white-tail doe apparently had just given birth to triplet fawns! A bit early, I muttered for it seems to me that March is the usual time for deer to drop their young.

And to make the experience even more interesting was the fact that this particular doe was familiar to me for I had observed her frequently the past two-three years...unfortunately she apparently had been shot causing her right front leg to hang helplessly. I clearly remember the first time I ran across her, how my heart became heavy, grieving for her handicapped condition. And, of course, I worried each hunting season, hoping that she might survive one more year!

There she was, licking each little one to let them know they were loved by a caring mom. And as usual, I softly greeted her with words of praise. I had never seen a doe with triplets before or since. And, thank goodness, she just stood there looking at me as if I were but a friend passing by. Hurrah! I exclaimed to myself. At least I hadn't startled her into running off leaving these wobbly newborn to fend for themselves.

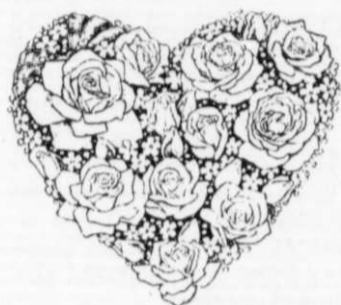

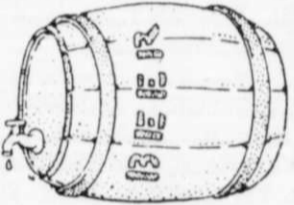

Then the miracle of every birth became a reality. The smallest fawn found the "fountain of sustenance" and readily gulped that important first milk like an old timer. It didn't take long before number two and three followed suit. How great, I reckoned...the thrill of new birth with its natural abundance of innate love and caring surely will forever be a mystery to mankind.

In the months that followed, I ran across the doe and her babies quite frequently. Another miracle, I reasoned noting that each of the three were not only healthy, but all of a goodly size...not a runt type among them! Surely by the grace of the Lord this handicapped deer was raising three beautiful little ones. How very special, I mused once again inspired by Mother Nature's Valentine surprise package. And some how it seemed to me that the hand of the Creator was graciously touching this devoted mother of three. I am sorry to report that in the year 1997 my handicapped friend was not to be found in our lovely Kettle Moraine countryside.

Humane Society to Hold Rabies, Microchip Clinic

The Washington County Humane Society will again offer its Rabies Vaccination Clinic from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Sunday, March 8th. Dr. Tom Kruske will be the attending Veterinarian. WCHS will also be offering pet owners the opportunity to have their pets microchipped.

The State of Wisconsin requires that all dogs be licensed by April 1 of each year and many municipalities enforce this law. Because a current rabies vaccination is needed to license a dog, WCHS is offering the community a low-cost and convenient way to help pet owners meet this deadline while also insuring the health and protection of their pets.

Dogs over 5 months of age are required to have a rabies vaccination. While cats are not required by law to be vaccinated, statistics show that in the United States rabid cats have out numbered rabid dogs in 8 out of the last 10 years. (Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Association) With this in mind, WCHS highly recommends that all cats be given the rabies serum. The vaccination is good for three years on both cats and dogs. Animals under the age of one year, must be revaccinated within one year.

This year, in addition to the rabies show, WCHS will offer the AVID Friendship to cats, dogs and other pets for easy permanent identification. A simple and safe injection will provide a pet with a tiny computer chip, coded with a personal identification number. Placed under the pet's skin, it will provide a life time of protection for your pet.

The cost for the rabies shot is $12.00 per animal. The cost for microchipping will be $17.00 and includes a lifetime registration on a global recovery network and with the U.S. Veterinary Medical Association's database. This registration fee is usually an additional $15.00. No appointment is necessary, but animals will be vaccinated on a "first-come, first-serve" basis.

For further information, please contact the shelter at 577-4388.

In 1998 Resolve To Recycle

(NAPS)—By Valentine's Day, most of us have long abandoned New Year resolutions. Here's one to keep: Buy Recycled!

A new national annual event—America Recycles Day—has begun to focus Americans on the importance of not just recycling, but also purchasing products made of recycled materials.

The Institute of Scrap Recycling Industries points out that items tossed into the recycling bin are not really recycled until they are remade into new products we actually buy. Commit yourself to these resolutions and we'll all have a Happy New Year:

- Shop at stores that carry recycled-content products.
- Look for product labels that assure you of recycled content.
- Find paper towels, lunch bags, facial tissue, and similar items made from recycled paper.
- Buy door mats, carpet padding, new carpeting, insulated jackets, and sleeping bags made from recycled plastic beverage bottles.

- Give handymen gifts of tools made from recycled metals.
- Water your garden with hoses made from recycled rubber.
- Scrub your pots and pans with scouring pads made from recycled plastic.
- Resurface floors and countertops with recycled glass tiles.

It Is Never Too Late To Kick The Habit

(NAPS)—It is never too late to stop smoking. Experts say that when a person stops smoking, the risk of lung cancer begins to decrease from that day forward. After not smoking for 15 years, an ex-smoker is only slightly more likely to die from lung cancer than a lifelong nonsmoker.

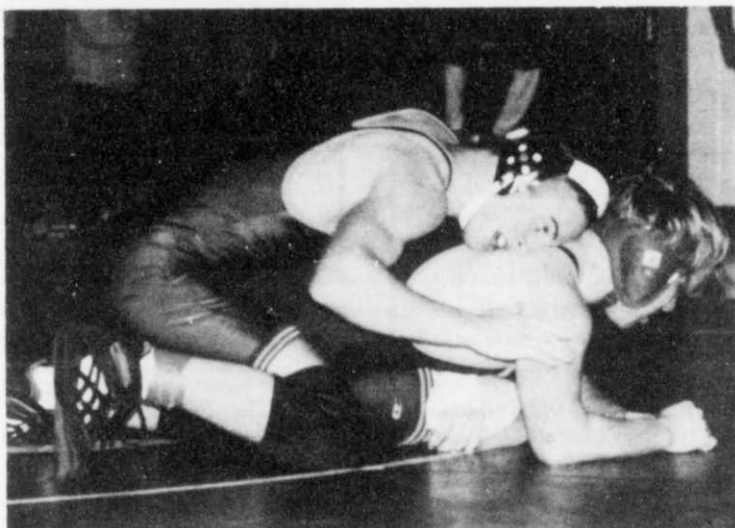

In the United States, smoking is responsible for 87 percent of lung cancer, which is the leading cause of cancer death in both men and women. In 1997, an estimated 178,100 Americans—98,300 men and 79,800 women—will learn that they have lung cancer. Additionally, an estimated 160,400 American will die of lung cancer in 1997. In order to stop the number of cancer deaths from growing, individuals must stop smoking cigarettes, pipes and cigars.

While quitting smoking may seem challenging at first, you will find that as your body becomes healthier and stronger, you will feel a great sense of personal accomplishment. Following are a few tips that will help you as you kick the tobacco habit:

- Ask a friend to quit with you. You can lean on each other for support.
- Get rid of all cigarettes, ashtrays and smoking paraphernalia.
- Pay attention to cigarette advertising. Read and study all ads carefully. Remember the happy, healthy models in the ads are not a realistic portrayal of most smokers.
- Change your routine in the morning: do not sit at the same place for breakfast or add a few morning chores.
- Carry things to put in your mouth when you crave a cigarette such as hard candy, toothpicks or gum.
- Reward yourself at the end of the day for not smoking. Read a good book, take a bubble bath or call a friend long-distance.

You can reduce your risk of developing lung cancer today. The rewards will last a lifetime.

For more information on lung cancer and general cancer prevention, contact the Cancer Research Foundation of America at 800-227-CRFA.

Holy Trinity Boys Get Revenge on West Bend

The Holy Trinity seventh and eighth grade boys had a busy week of basketball. They played St. Mary's of West Bend at Kewaskum on Friday, February 6.

This was an important game for the Wildcats as they lost to this team in overtime at their previous meeting. The boys were not going to let this happen again as they beat St. Mary's by a score of 44-34.

The Wildcats jumped out to a 10-0 early lead but the Crusaders went on a run of their own and cut the lead to 10-5 by the end of the first quarter.

The boys traded baskets during the second quarter and played each other evenly. When the half-time buzzer sounded, the score was 22-20 still in Holy Trinity's favor.

The Wildcats came out of the locker room fired up for the second half. They played tough man to man defense. This in turn led to steals and fast break lay-ups. The boys led by as many as 13 points at one time. St. Mary's coach called a timeout to try and rally his team but to no avail.

Nick Thorn led the way with a double-double. He had 12 points and 11 rebounds. Josh Repovsch and Josh Timblin were next with nine apiece, including a three-pointer for each one.

Bryan Kraft had six points, but also added seven assists and seven rebounds. Scott Herman added a three-pointer to the total. John Neumann and Adam Gitter had a bucket each and Anthony Laatsch chipped in with a free throw.

The Wildcats were in the St. Mary's Springs tournament in Fond du Lac on January 31 and February 1. They won their first game against Our Lady of Angels/St. Michaels by a score of 36-33. They went on to play one of the F.A.C. E.S.'s teams in the next round, but lost a very close game by a score of 40-36.

On Sunday, they were on to the game to determine who was going to be in third place. The boys played an all eighth grade team from Lomira Junior High. The Wildcats played very well and composed throughout the entire game against a much bigger team. This time their quickness just wasn't enough against the taller team and they fell by a score of 37-35 to take fifth place.

Indians Split Pair in Tumultuous Week

Tuesday night the Kewaskum boys basketball team ventured up to New Holstein to challenge the Huskies (6-3) and their 6'9" center Kyle Peterson.

The Huskies handled Kewaskum by 23 points in their first game played on Indian soil, but this game was to be vastly different.

Kewaskum jumped out to an early lead that they held the entire first half. David Gerhartz scored nine and sophomore Jason Strobel added seven points to stake the Indians to a 30-24 lead at the intermission.

Fourteen turnovers in the first half, forced by a scrappy KHS full court man-to-man press, had the Husky faithful silently worried about a huge upset. The Indians with only two boys over 6', continued to harass the much taller Huskies, who boasted five players over 6'3" tall.

As the second half wore on, Kewaskum kept bombing away from three point range. A 48% shooting night allowed the Indians to starve off numerous Husky runs and maintain a slim lead.

As the clock crept under two minutes to play, sophomore Billy Cook and Gerhartz combined to make eight free throws down the stretch. With 12 seconds remaining and the Indians clinging to a three point lead, Kevin Heise, the Huskies leading scorer, stole a Kewaskum inbound pass, wildly dribbled back outside the three point line and launched a turn-around jumper that floated halfway down the basket and then bounced out at the buzzer to seal Kewaskum's biggest upset to date this season.

David Gerhartz led Kewaskum with 22 points, including four threes, five rebounds, three steals and five assists... (and no, he didn't sell the popcorn at halftime!)

"And, John Warnecke and Aaron Seiser battled their big guys all night long," a relieved Coach Tom Timblin reported after the game. He added, "John added 13 points and Aaron held Peterson, their big center, to three points." Seiser, a sophomore, is only 5'10".

Coach Timblin praising other players, also said, "Josh Gaffke, Jason Strobel, Shaun Timblin and Chris Koth all played great in-your-face defense."

Chris Koth was called up from the JV's for the balance of the season to help bolster the squad.

Timblin concluded, "What a nice win for the kids. It's good to see them smiling again. I'd also like to applaud Assistant Coach Scott Pritzel who has been doing a whale of a job the whole season."

Kewaskum 15 15 10 22 - 62
N. Holstein 9 15 13 22 - 59

KEWASKUM - Gaffke 6, Gerhartz 22, Christophersen 2, Warnecke 13, Timblin 4, Cook 9, Strobel 7, FTs 8-10.

NEW HOLSTEIN - Engels 13, Peterson 3, Heise 10, Nickel 2, Lefebvre 10, Sippel 9, Burnett 3, FTs 16-26.

"Just when we thought we were back on track, this hits us like a ton of bricks" said Coach Tom Timblin, referring to the fact that five of his varsity players were suspended for an athletic code violation.

"Aaron Seiser will miss the rest of the season. Jason Strobel, David Gerhartz and Shaun Timblin will miss three games and Andy Christophersen has to sit out one contest," Timblin added. "And, to add insult to injury, John Warnecke, our most consistent athlete, badly sprained his ankle in practice. He will be day-to-day for a few weeks."

This all comes on the heels of Paul Wiedmeyer's season-ending suspension, along with Tim Vetter quitting the team. To avoid having to forfeit to Two Rivers, Timblin brought up Curt Koth, Jessie Boegel and Todd Wright from the JV team.

The Kewaskum varsity team now consists of five sophomores and four juniors. So, with all this new blood, the Indian bus treked north to Two Rivers.

Predictably, the Indians started slowly, but they initially played a tight two-three-zone defense to help protect the injured Warnecke. After the first quarter, it was evident he couldn't continue.

The cold shooting Indians found themselves on the short side of a 20-3 first quarter deficit. Kewaskum then switched to their full court man-to-man press that they ran the balance of the game.

Although clearly outmanned, the young Indians actually outlasted the Raiders the rest of the way forcing 20 turnovers. Kewaskum cut the lead to 11 points midway through the third quarter, but could get no closer. The final buzzer sounded with the Raiders on the winning end of a 62-42 score.

Timblin reported, "With all the craziness that surrounded this game, we've got to build on the positive things that happened. Josh Gaffke nailed six three-pointers and led us with 20 points. Billy Cook added three three-pointers and played a great floor game. Doug Wenzel, Chris Koth and Josh Rieder made the best use of their extra minutes by playing good, hard defense. In their first varsity action, Curt, Jessie and Todd all played respectable games. The last three quarters were almost a dead heat. I wish we had played man the entire game."

Timblin finished by commenting, "I hope the kids have enough foresight to positively accept their discipline and be better young men for it. All this turmoil will help us down the road, maybe not this year, but I like our future."

Kewaskum's record is now 3-7 in Eastern Wisconsin action and 5-9 overall. Friday night the Indians host the Manitowoc Roncalli Jets at 7:30 p.m.
