Seeking Donations To Village Fireworks

With the arrival of Spring on Tuesday, naturally come thoughts of all the fun summer activities we have planned for ourselves and our families. Along with these thoughts, comes fond memories of past summer holiday celebrations, including the annual Fourth of July fireworks display held in the village on July 3.

As goes with all memorable events, pre-planning and budgeting is a must. At Monday evening's Kewaskum Village Board meeting, approval was given to order the annual community fireworks. Now is the time the village must do the initial ordering of the annual fireworks, even though additional displays can be added to the order.

Therefore now is the time we are asking everyone who loves the event as much as we do, to open up their checkbooks and generously donate to this exciting annual celebration.

The village budgets over $6,000 towards the purchase of the fireworks. Even though that seems like a large amount, those little rockets come with a substantial price tag, and that amount just won't be able to include all the additional brilliant skybursts we have become accustomed (and addicted) to.

So that leaves it up to us, those who wait in anticipation of seeing the colorful aerial bursts, to help defray the cost, so bigger and better displays can be purchased again this year.

The Village will place a second order of fireworks with the monies they receive from contributions. And don't forget, special orders for ground displays or aerial sets can also be made. Contact the Village at 626-8484 for more information.

And, PLEASE be generous. Last year's fireworks were the most astounding, breathtaking show we've seen and Kewaskum has gained the reputation of displaying the finest fireworks in the county. Let's keep up the good work Kewaskum, and produce a show our neighbors will come from miles around to see.

This event boosts local business and gives us all a chance to be proud and feel good about our fine commu-

KMS Forensics Team Heads For State Meet

On Saturday, March 24, 12 Kewaskum Middle School forensic team members will be competing for trophies at the State Meet in Oshkosh.

The middle school students who earned the privilege to compete at State are: Shane Barrett Sunday, Nicole Braun, James Brigowatz, Amanda Carpenter, Frank Cole, Jacob Cochran, Brandon Herman, Samantha Kuphal, Ian Meyer, Emily Sedgwick, Nicole Stern and Jackie Vandrell.

Good luck to all these hard-working, talented young people.

All donations can be mailed to the Village of Kewaskum, P.O. Box 38, Kewaskum, WI 53040 or they can be dropped off at the Kewaskum Statesman, 250 Main Street. And don't forget those familiar red canisters that are displayed on business counters throughout the community. A great place to drop your spare change.

Police Dept Proposes Parking Ticket Hike

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

Police Chief Richard Knoebel indicated at Monday's Kewaskum Village Board meeting that he thought the village board should look at raising the price of parking tickets.

In his monthly report to the board Knoebel indicated that 94 parking tickets were issued that month.

Most of the tickets are from the village's winter parking ordinance. "People would rather pay the ticket then move their cars from the street," said Knoebel.

The police chief indicated this is the highest number of parking tickets his department has ever issued in a month's period.

Right now the winter parking violation costs $5 and the person receiving the ticket has 48 hours to pay or can be subject to suspension of all vehicle registrations held.

Other violations include: parking in a two hour zone, double parking, blocking alley, blocking driveway, blocking a crosswalk, parking next to a fire hydrant, parking in a marked no parking zone, improper parking, parking next to a yellow line, parking in violation of an official sign and weight violation. All of the aforementioned come with a restitution of $5. Parking on private property without consent is a $10 fine and parking in a physically disabled zone is $20.

In Campbellsport, violators receive a fine of $10 across the board. They have seven days to pay it. If not paid in seven days the ticket is raised to $20, finally if not paid after 28 days of issue, the fine is $30 and a notice is sent to the department of motor vehicles suspending any and all vehicle registrations of the registrant.

Slinger is similar only the violator has 30 days to pay the ticket or it jumps to $30.

Village administrator Dan Schmidt stated that the last time he recalled a fine increase was in 1983 when tickets were raised from $1 to $5.

The police department is in the process of doing a study of area communities to see what the fines will be. There is no word when this will take effect.

Residents are reminded that the winter parking ordinance is still in effect and will be repealed after April 1.

KHS Chamber Concert Monday

The Kewaskum High School Music Department is putting on a Chamber Concert on Monday, March 26, beginning at 7:00 p.m. This concert, which was incorrectly scheduled for March 27, will feature the bands and choirs that will be participating in the Washington D.C. festival in early April and selected solo/ensemble events. Pieces to be performed by the D.C. choir include "Hiney Ma Tov," a Jewish folksong and "Dixit Maria," a late Renaissance madrigal.

Other vocal groups include the KHS Jazz Choir ("Shoe-fly Pie" and "Someone To Watch Over Me"), Swing Choir ("Fame," "Celebration," and "If You Believe" from "The King of Egypt"), madrigal singers ("Fire, Fire My Heart!"), and a men's quartet ("Hard Times Come Again No More.')

The Jazz Band will play selections featured at their recent trip to Carroll College and songs to be played at District Contest. Some of the other instrumental ensembles will be the Brass Choir (playing Handel), the Saxophone Quartet (playing Mozart), and the Percussion Ensemble will dazzle concert goers with their rendition of Katchaturian's "Sabre Dance."

The DC Band will perform two of their selections "Flourish for Wind Band" by Ralph Vaughan Williams and "Meditation and Festiva" by Jared Spears. In Washington DC (and at the Concert in the Park) they will also play "Chorale and Shaker Dance" by John Zdechlik.

Controlled Burns Proposed In Tri-County Area

MILWAUKEE - The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources is proposing to conduct controlled burns this spring at several locations in Washington County, Ozaukee County and eastern Dodge County.

Burn areas range from 2.5 acres up to 535 acres in size and are located at Theresa, Allenton and Jackson Wildlife Areas, the Loew Lake Unit of the Kettle Moraine State Forest, and on private lands in Washington and Ozaukee Counties.

Controlled burns are conducted to increase plant diversity and stem density on grasslands, for site preparation for seeding warm season grasses, to set back undesirable woody vegetation, and to improve waterfowl brood and migration habitat.

A primary goal on upland sites is to improve nesting habitat for bird species such as mallards, blue-winged teal, pheasants, bobolinks, dickcissels and grasshopper sparrows.

The largest burn unit will include the main flowage area of Theresa Marsh, located south of Hwy. 28. Water levels in that portion of the Wildlife Area were drawn over winter in preparation for burning. Burning, followed by re-flooding to cover the tops of burned cattails, will improve habitat for waterfowl and other wildlife by providing more areas of open water and a larger variety wetland plants.

This type of project does not have the potential to cause significant adverse environmental impacts; therefore, the Department has made a preliminary determination that an environmental impact statement will not be required for this project.

Burn proposals may be reviewed at the Pike Lake DNR office, 3544 Kettle Moraine Road, Hartford, WI 53027. Questions or comments regarding the burns should be directed to Tom Issac, Wildlife Biologist or Edward Eilert, Wildlife Technician, by March 30, 2001.

Kewaskum Students Reminded of Snow Make-Up Day

Friday, March 23 is a regular school day for students in the Kewaskum School District.

According to District Administrator Wayne Graczk "It was in the school calendar as a 'built in snow day' but since we had two snow days this winter so far, March 23 becomes a make-up day for one of the snow days."

Therefore all students are required to be in school Friday, March 23, regardless of what is on the school calendar.

Holy Trinity Graduate Returns as Guest Speaker

Lucas Martin, Midshipman at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland, shared his experiences with the students at Holy Trinity School. Lucas is a 1995 graduate of Holy Trinity. He told the students about the procedure to apply for the Academy, the degrees available, the summer experiences, and the five year commitment to the Navy following graduation. A video graphically portrayed life at the Academy. The students were especially interested in the first year discipline which we often see in movies about boot camp life. Lucas is the son of Larry and Louise Martin of Kewaskum.

Village's Summer Construction Project Approved

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

The Kewaskum village board approved a construction project that will cost taxpayers $64,235.25. The funds will be derived from the general budget and water utility.

The project is to be undertaken on the northern portion of Stark Street by Mueller Excavating of Campbell-sport.

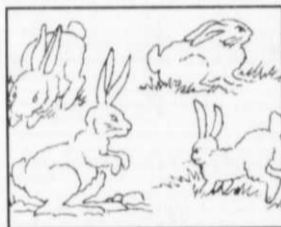

This project will consist of adding an extension to the current water main and resurfacing the road from Main Street to the road's end at Moraine Court.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt says work on the project will commence once the village receives DNR approval which should be coming in April.

Rabies Clinic Coming

This year's rabies clinic, held by the Kewaskum FFA and the Ogi Vet Clinic, will run from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m. on Wednesday, March 28th in the high school agriculture shop. The clinic offers a great opportunity to give dogs and small animals their rabies vaccination. Pictured here is Dr. Charles Ogi, from the Kewaskum Veterinarian Clinic, administering a vaccination, while the owner holds the "patient" during last year's rabies clinic. All of the proceeds from the clinic go to the Ogi scholarship fund.

News From The Capitol

By Rep. Glenn Grothman

Time For University To Be Open With Taxpayers

"It's awfully difficult for a white male to get into our law school." So said a representative of the University of Wisconsin Law School. Is this an appropriate thing for an employee of a state school to be telling a taxpaying applicant?

Racial preferences, or Affirmative Action have come under nationwide scrutiny with voters in both California and Washington even voting for constitutional amendments to eliminate this practice. In my opinion this is an odious practice obviously unfair to applicants which would otherwise have been given access. Even worse, labeling people by where their ancestors were born will permanently divide our country.

Traditionally America has been a great country because we view ourselves as Americans, not Chinese, Africans or Europeans. Other attempts at democracy in places such as Africa or the Indian subcontinent have not been successful because people view themselves as part of an internal tribe, not the country as a whole.

In an effort to determine the extent of this practice at the University of Wisconsin - Madison I sent a letter asking for application and acceptance rates by test score for both undergraduate and law school admissions on January 15th. Nine other state legislators signed on as well. I am sure in this computer age the University could have complied within a week.

After promising compliance for almost two months, I was informed last week that the University would not give us the information.

By chance the Center for Equal Opportunity (CEO), a non profit organization out of Washington D.C., which is affiliated with Linda Chavez, had filed suit to get similar information. We were both denied with the University claiming that under the Family and Educational Rights and Privacy Act they could not release this information.

Interestingly, other state universities in Minnesota, Michigan, North Carolina, California, etc. had no problem complying when asked by CEO. Apparently the UW System feels less responsibility towards its students and taxpayers than other fine institutions around the country.

I am not sure what they are trying to hide. CEO has hired an over $200 an hour law firm in Milwaukee to file a lawsuit to get this information which should be a public record. If the lawsuit is successful the University will have to pay double the attorney's fee under Wisconsin's open records law thereby increasing college tuition. In the interim, the Attorney General's Office must waste resources fighting this lawsuit rather than prosecuting criminals.

Also, apparently in response to my letter the UW System Board of Regents passed a surprising resolution last Friday reconfirming their policy of treating different people differently according to their ancestor's homelands. This was another highly unusual step by the University in that the resolution was not distributed to the Regent's in advance of the monthly meeting. Therefore it forced them into a somewhat surprise vote.

Regardless about how you feel regarding racial preferences, it is only fair that the taxpaying public should be aware of what their state government is up to. Such secrecy in Madison breeds distrust and disrespect in the system and the Chancellor's Office. If they can't even be trusted to be open about such a simple request how can they be trusted when they claim that they have a tight budget and need a significant transfusion of taxpayer dollars? I will demand from the University that they immediately produce this information and stop putting taxpayer dollars at risk as well as Wisconsin students in the dark as far as how their university works.

Please feel free to contact me in Madison at 1-888-534-0059 or at any of the following.

Dairyland Seed Introduces HybriForce-400™ Hybrid Alfalfa

WEST BEND - After more than two decades of research and development, Dairyland Seed will release HybriForce-400™ hybrid alfalfa to the marketplace for the 2001 growing season.

"Our investment in research has paid off with one of the most significant advancements in seed research since the introduction of hybrid corn," says Tom Strachota, chief officer of Dairyland Seed. "In 1998, a University of Wisconsin study reported that there had been little or no genetic gain for alfalfa yield in the last 17 years. Hybrid alfalfa will change that and will have long-term benefits to the agricultural producer."

Field research trials indicate that HybriForce-400™ hybrid alfalfa has increased vigor and stronger plants compared to non-hybrid alfalfa varieties. "We have noted more aggressive growth of the hybrid alfalfa stand with yields that are 8% to 15% higher over the life of the stand," says Dr. Paul Sun, vice president of research for Dairyland Seed. "We believe that a significant reason for the increased yield is the increased vigor of the hybrid alfalfa plant. Our research has noted that the plant greens up earlier, and shows more vigorous regrowth after cutting."

Dr. Sun and his team of scientists at Dairyland Seed's Clinton, Wis., research facility have been trying to unlock the yield potential of alfalfa through hybridization for 24 years. Their efforts have focused on the development of female (ms, or male sterile) plants. The new patented technology, called msSunstra™, represents the culmination of these efforts. "For more than 24 years, we have worked to identify special female and male plants so we could control pollen flow. With current alfalfa, bee randomly spread pollen and cause inbreeding. With hybrids, by controlling pollen, we capture additional vigor which is expressed as 8% to 15% more yield," Sun says. "The plants also can take more management abuse and provide farmers greater cutting flexibility with less risk of strand loss when harvesting high quality forage."

Dairyland Seed's HybriForce-400™ hybrid alfalfa will be marketed this year in limited quantities. "This is a tremendous advancement for our research and for our alfalfa products," Strachota says. "We have invested many years of research to bring the most productive products to the marketplace."

HybriForce-400™ hybrid alfalfa joins a growing list of seed innovations in alfalfa from Dairyland Seed. Magnum V alfalfa has established itself as one of the premier alfalfa products on the market. In state trials, Magnum V has consistently proven itself as one of the best yielding products on the market, finishing first or not significantly different than first in 84% of the state trials it has been entered in across the country.

In addition to HybriForce-400™ hybrid alfalfa technology to other seed companies. Expect additional hybrid alfalfa varieties for the 2002 growing season to be announced from those companies who access the msSunstra technology.

"Our elite products are backed by more than 30 years of solid research," Strachota says. "Growers have always been able to count on Dairyland Seed for superior performing alfalfa varieties."

Dairyland Seed Co., Inc., is a family owned seed company with research programs in alfalfa, soybeans and hybrid corn. Its breeding programs, established in 1962, include company breeding and nursery facilities in Clinton, Wis., Gibson City, Ill., Otterbein, Ind., Gilbert, Iowa, and Sloughhouse, Cal. Dairyland Seed also owns and operates an alfalfa seed conditioning facility in Homedale, Idaho. ## KHS Students Participate In 'Skills Olympics'

The Moraine Park Foundation in cooperation with the School Relations/School to Work Department of Moraine Park Technical College sponsored the 23rd Annual Skills Olympics on Friday, March 2, at the Fond du Lac campus.

This year's event was attended by over 400 high school student participants from 16 area high schools. Students competed for a scholarship of $200 with gold, silver and bronze medals designating first, second and third respective placing. The scholarships must be used within two years.

Honorable mention placing are also acknowledged. A single school trophy is issued to the top participating school. The 42 contests include a wide range of interests sponsored in each of the educational programs offered at MPTC.

It is interesting to note that many students participate in more than one competitive area in this all day event that cost each participant a $4 participation fee that covered lunch and entertainment.

Contest specifications and judging criteria were provided to each student one month prior to the event. Many students spent countless hours preparing for the events of the day.

Mary Koch, Family and Consumer Education Department, attended the event with eight Kewaskum High School participants.

KHS attendance at this event decreased significantly this year, with students competing in a total of seven of the 42 contests offered.

The following students from Kewaskum received recognition: Josh Mueller, First Place - Computer Data Processing; Heidi Terlinden, Second Place - Child Care; Stephanie Herrick, Second Place - Nail Art; Carrie Gayan, Honorable Mention - Nail Art; Kirstin Krudwig, Cassie Laatsch, Stephanie Herrick, Honorable Mention - Sandwich Relay.

All KHS students, freshman through senior, are encouraged to explore this unique opportunity to pursue scholarship that can be applied toward any MPTC course or any MPTC program offered at any time.

Next year the event will be held on Friday, March 1, 2002. Details will be made available one month prior to the event. For more information, please contact Mary Koch at KHS at 626-4239, ext. 4108.

All KHS students are encouraged to review the contest details and to begin preparation during the first semester in the fall.

EDUCATION... IT'S EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

By Wayne P. Graczyk,
Kewaskum Superintendent of Schools
www.ksd.k12.wi.us

There are three very important dates to mark in your calendar.

The first is Thursday, March 29, 2001. Electors are asked to please mark your calendar and attend this important Special Meeting of the School Board.

The purpose of the meeting is to give the school board the authority to sell school district property. This special meeting will be conducted the same as the Annual Meeting and has the same powers. By statute, every elector of a school district is eligible to vote at a special meeting of the school district.

On March 29, you the electors will be asked to authorize the sale of the Beechwood site. In order to vote, you must attend the meeting. It will be held in the High School Cafeteria and begin at 7:00 p.m.

The second important date is Friday, March 23, 2001. This will be a regular school day. The school calendar shows March 23 as a scheduled "built in snow day" so it will be used to make up one of our two snow days.

The third date is Sunday, April 8. The new Kewaskum Elementary School will be open for a Walk Thru by the general public between the hours of 1 and 3 p.m. While the building isn't complete, I promised the community the opportunity to see the building during construction.

The building will be open to the general public and I think you will be as excited as we are as it nears completion. Visitors should be aware that the elevator is not operating so the only way to the 2nd floor will be by using the steps. We hope that as many people as possible can make it to our Walk Thru.

He who never made a mistake, never made a discovery.

Little Folks School House Teams Up With Easter Seals

If you were to ask any of the little folks what the word "disability" means, they would probably tell you that a disability is something that makes walking, talking, hearing, seeing, or touching harder for some people. They might also respond that it's when part of the body doesn't work.

For the past few weeks, the teachers at the Little Folks School House have been working with the children, teaching about disability awareness. The goal in mind is to encourage a better understanding and acceptance of people with disabilities.

The tendency to fear or avoid someone with a disability is normal not only for children but for adults as well. Education about the causes of disabilities and how people adapt to them can lead to a better understanding which then builds attitudes and behaviors which are positive and accepting.

The unit was designed to help children understand that all people have similarities and differences and that people with disabilities may be different from us in one way but are like us in most ways.

To gain a deeper understanding of what it's like to have a disability, the children were introduced to special aids such as a pediatric wheelchair, walker and crutches. They were also able to get a feel of what it is like to be blind or deaf. Each child had the opportunity to experiment and attempt to perform tasks while pretending they were disabled.

One of the highlights of the unit was a "HOP-N-ING." The Hop-n-ing is an educational fund raiser made possible through Easter Seals services. Prior to LFSH hop-n-ing, the children asked parents, relatives, neighbors and friends for pledges for hops made during a three minute period. On February 21, the little folks hopped their little legs off and managed to raise $400 for Easter Seals. Each child who participated will receive a prize, a certificate and the knowledge that they've helped someone less fortunate than themselves.

Dodie Sargent, Administrator of the Little Folks School House would like to express thanks to St. Joseph's Hospital Rehabilitation services and Kewaskum School for lending teaching aids and to all the children and families for pledges and donations collected for Easter Seals.

Shaun Beisbier of Kohlsville is shown hopping

25 Years Ago

March 12, 1976

A three-day ice storm which started last Monday and Tuesday and reached its peak on Thursday, was reported to be the worst in memory, and was probably the worst ever. It included rain, freezing rain, sleet, snow, thunder and lightning. The devastating storm left damage Thursday and Friday like a tornado had struck the area. Electric and telephone poles and wires were downed, and an unbelievable number of trees, limbs and branches were felled all over from the terrific weight of the ice coating. Many sections were without heat, light and power for days and all events were canceled. People were warned to stay off the streets because of falling, arcing live wires and trees. Some villages and cities were isolated as highways and streets were closed and barricaded, and schools and industries were closed. Police and firemen were on duty around the clock. Roseland Drive between Midland and Western Avenue was one of the hardest hit in the village, as fallen trees and limbs blocked the street and six trees had to be cut off completely. Riverview Drive from Main Street to the village park was also blockaded because of fallen wires and branches. Winds gusting up to 50 miles per hour and below freezing temperatures on Friday added to the havoc. There was also the danger of water pipes freezing and farmers had problems getting water for cattle. Milking and milk cooling was difficult as farmers tried to get access to portable generators. Ice in ponds was broken for water, which was also hauled. Dry ice was distributed and shipped to where available to help keep foods from spoiling. In Washington County many poles themselves fell across roads. It was estimated that about 500 utility poles were down, some of them steel towers that carry high voltage lines. About 2,000 wires were down. Forty downed poles were counted on U.S. 45 between Kewaskum and West Bend. The last remembered ice storm was in February of 1933. Things were not as completely dependent on electricity for heat and power then so it did not appear as severe.

On Monday evening the Kewaskum Jaycees held their regular membership meeting and election of officers for the 1976-77 year. Jerry Buchel was elected President. Jerry was Internal Vice President for the 1975-76 year. Ralph Bier was elected Internal

Vice President; Wayne Riekkoff, External Vice President; Dave Rohlinger, Treasurer; Tom Bartelt, Secretary; Dick Thiemer, State Director; and Mark Kral, Ed Weddig and Larry Watry were elected as members of the Board of Directors.

Gayla Herriges and Todd Garbisch have been chosen as Kiwanis Students for the month of February. Gayla is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Herriges of New Fane and Todd is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garbisch of rural Kewaskum.

In a battle between two conference champions, Kewaskum, the Scenic Moraine kingpin, ousted New Holstein, the Packerland Conference titlist, 77-72, in the Regional opener at Kiel Saturday night, postponed from Friday because of the ice storm. Two-time Class B state champion Sheboygan Falls, which won the state titles in 1974 and 1975, flashed its form of old in demolishing Kiel, 74-56, in the second game. Kewaskum and Sheboygan Falls thus earned the right to meet for the Kiel Regional Championship Monday night, in which the Falls Falcons whipped the Indians, 91-73, in their third impressive tournament win.

IN MEMORY

In memory of GILBERT REINDL who passed away one year ago, March 26, 2000:

He greeted all with jest a smile,

He stopped to talk a little while,

He gave so much, so often In many special ways.

In gentle words of comfort, In happy words of praise

And as he traveled on earth's sod,

He loved his family and his God.

He rests now in heaven above,

We cherish his memory with our love.

Sadly missed by your family.

Have You Listened Lately?

by Ami

In spite of the blustery goings on the month of March hands us off and on... it still is my favorite month. Yes, March provides the yearly miracle of SPRING-TIME! The first robin back from the south, the flock of Red Wing Blackbirds in the nearby swamp, the first of the spring flowers, the Blood Roots raising their pure white blossoms...and let us not forget the lowly skunk cabbage showing off its rather squat ugly maroon so called flowers!

But the joy of joys is the pause a moment when leaving ones house to hear the sweet singing of the wild bird returnees! Their songs deliciously wafted on the warming spring air can out do the loudest of the rock 'n roll bands. And their morning concerts remind us that come May the nightly symphony of the frogs will be serenading us at bedtime. You just cannot beat nature!

Then to experience the wooded glens with their array of wild flower blossoms... the result of the Lord's planting and care. Indeed, March can parade a lion or two; but it is the "Green Up" time we all appreciate the most.

Some people believe that when a horse yawns, the weather is going to change.

Teens Offered Chance to Play 'Pig' With Ray Allen

SHEBOYGAN - As part of a Piggly Wiggly statewide youth initiative, Wisconsin teenagers will have the opportunity to hit the hardwoods and play a game of "PIG" with Bucks guard Ray Allen at the Bradley Center on Saturday, April 14.

"This is the first year Piggly Wiggly and the Milwaukee Bucks have joined together to offer teens this unique opportunity," said Michael Houser, executive vice president/chief marketing officer of Schultz Sav-O/Piggly Wiggly Supermarkets. "Ray Allen is an amazing individual both on and off the court. We are proud to give some of our local opportunity to play against him."

Sponsored by Schultz Sav-O Stores, the Piggly Wiggly "Play PIG with Ray" contest will randomly select three youth between the ages of 12 and 17 to play "PIG" with Allen at the Milwaukee Bucks versus Toronto Raptors game.

Allen, number 34 for the Milwaukee Bucks, has had several career highlights since joining the team in 1996. In the 2000 summer Olympics, he was a member of the U.S. Olympic basketball team. During the 2000-2001 season, Allen led the Bucks in scoring, ranked 14th in the NBA with 22.1 points per game and second in three-point field goals made.

He also initiated his own charity, "Ray of Hope" Foundation in Connecticut, which provides food and clothing for the needy and he starred in Spike Lee's hit movie, "He Got Game."

Entries to "Play PIG with Ray" are limited to one per person and can be submitted at neighborhood Piggly Wiggly Supermarkets from March 5 - 25, 2001. For more information visit www.shopthepig.com.

Piggly Wiggly Supermarkets are supplied or operated by Schultz Sav-O Stores, Inc. The company is headquartered in Sheboygan, where it operates its grocery, dairy, produce and frozen food distribution center. There are over 90 Piggly Wiggly stores across Wisconsin.

FFA Week Highlights

This year's FFA week got a great start in Kewaskum with the annual Toy and Craft Show. The show was held on Sunday, Feb. 18, at the Kewaskum High School.

With over 300 people through the door, about 70 tables of exhibitors, and a great turn out for the pedal pull, this year's show was a great success. This year the FFA held a raffle for a small Ford 9N tractor, which was won by Bryan Lofy.

February's monthly FFA meeting and activity was combined into a night of snow tubing at the Sunburst Ski Hill. Despite the cool weather the FFA members still had a lot of fun. There were over 20 FFA members that joined the fun on Tuesday, Feb. 20, at Sunburst Ski Hill.

FFA week was acknowledged in the High School on Tuesday, Feb. 20, with a quiz about FFA for all of the homerooms to take and FFA sponsored ice cream sandwiches for every student in school. The FFA also offered donuts, cake, and milk to the high school staff and all FFA members.

The FFA officer team worked very hard again this year to compose the FFA Supplement that was published in the Kewaskum Statesman Thursday, Feb. 22. The Supplement this year was an eight-page paper that highlighted the FFA events and activities that took place throughout the past year.

FFA week is a great way for the Kewaskum chapter to show their generosity and diversity to its members, the students in high school, and all of the public.

Summer Exchange Hosts Needed

Host families are needed for a summer cultural exchange program in which Black children from rural and small towns in Mississippi spend between 12 and 19 days with Wisconsin families. This yearly exchange began in 1968 and is organized by Project Self-Help and Awareness (P.S.A.), a non-profit, non-denominational organization.

Each year, over 100 children return to Northeastern Wisconsin as the exchange is a chance for them to live in an environment more free of prejudice and poverty. Many Mississippi children hope to come to Wisconsin this summer, but have no family to host them. You and your family, or someone you know, may be able to make that wish a reality. There are also opportunities for volunteer bus drivers and adults to chaperone the buses. Interested families can obtain an information packet by calling Ann Neumann at 262-626-2936.

Super Craft Saturday

Super Craft Saturday will be held Saturday, March 31, at the Ashford Town Hall. The town hall is located four miles west of Campbellsport on Highway 67. This event will run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

All projects are make-it-take-it so all material will be provided. The cost of each project will cover the cost of all materials used.

There will be many Easter and spring projects available to make including ceramics, glass etching, stamping, wood projects, clay pot projects and more. Projects are for all ages of children through adults. All projects may be used by 4-H members to take to the fair.

There will also be a brat fry and bake sale at the town hall during Super Craft Saturday sponsored by the St. Matthew's eighth grade.

No pre-registration is required. If you have any questions, please call Jo Ann at 533-4252.

NOTICE WOOD CHIPPING SERVICES

The Department of Public Works will resume scheduled wood chipping the first and third Monday of the month, beginning MONDAY, APRIL 2nd.

Please FOLLOW THESE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Place large (butt) end toward the street, at the curb.
2. Pile branches no more than 2 feet high; a long low pile is best for feeding the chipper. Leave a gap in the pile every 8 feet.
3. For small brush, TIE IN BUNDLES with string or twine. No boxes, bags or cans of branches will be chipped. (Reason, is that stone, gravel, wire, metal or dirt enters the chipper it will destroy the knife edges on the chipper, delaying our chipping until the knife is replaced and resharpened).
4. No roots of any kind, or material with any dirt on it.

Note: Yard waste, garden plant waste, corn stalks, sun flower stalk, leaves, grass and materials that will rot down in a compost pile can be brought to the DPW yard and placed in the yard compost bin. Hours are 7:00 AM to 3:30 PM Monday - Friday.

DNR Outdoor Report

March 13, 2001

Winter once again demonstrated its intention to stay for a while in central and northern Wisconsin with snowfalls early the past week ranging from about eight inches in the Bayfield area to six inches through west-central and central Wisconsin, to only two to three inches in the northeast.

The new snowfall is further extending the snowmobile and cross-country ski season in those parts of the state. Snowmobile trails were in good condition throughout northwestern and north central Wisconsin, but fair to poor in the northeast.

Trails reopened in some counties as far south as Marathon and Wood. Be sure to call ahead to your destination for the most current conditions as all areas have been reporting that conditions have been changing quickly.

Both the Brule River and the Northern Highland American Legion state forests reported that their cross country ski trails were re-groomed after the snowfall and should be in good to excellent condition for late season skiing. Most trails throughout southern Wisconsin are now closed and trail managers are asking people to refrain from even hiking on trails as trails can be easily damaged as the ground thaws.

Mountain bike trails in the Southern Unit of the Kettle Moraine State Forest are closed. They will begin to be inspected at the beginning of April to determine when they will be opened.

Lakes in northern Wisconsin still have up to 30 inches of ice, so ice-out is not anticipated for several weeks yet. Lakes in southern Wisconsin still have 16 to 20 inches as of March 13, though they are beginning to open up near inlets and outlets.

Most of the larger rivers in southern Wisconsin are in the process of opening up and some have already opened; rivers in central Wisconsin are just beginning to open, especially below dams.

Panfish anglers continue to do fairly well on waters throughout the state, as the general game fish season remains closed through May 5. Crappie fishing continued to pick up on northern lakes with some reports of limits. Crappies are not in any solid patterns, but are suspending at various depths in about 10 feet of water in many locations.

Bluegills were being caught primarily near the bottom in up to 18 feet. Perch fishing slowed down some this week, but they were still being caught near the bottom over mud and weed flats in 12 to 18 feet.

Some anglers have begun fishing walleye in open water below the Wisconsin River dams in central Wisconsin, but success has been slow. A few walleye and sauger have been biting below dams at Prairie du Sac and Wisconsin Dells.

The Mississippi River opened below the Dubuque Dam and anglers were catching mostly sauger with a few small walleye. Some walleyes were also being caught on the Fox River near the De Pere dam.

Bluegills and northern were hitting at Whalen's Grade on Lake Wisconsin. Panfish action on the Madison chain of lakes has been changing daily. Bluegills were being caught on Mendota, Monona, and Waubesa. Some crappie were being caught on Lake Waubesa and some perch were still being caught on Mendota, but fishing has slowed.

Along Lake Michigan, perch fishing has continued to be slow on Green Bay, with just a few being caught off Door County. The season for yellow perch closed at midnight March 15 on Green Bay, its tributaries and the Fox River downstream of the De Pere dam.

Brown trout were starting to show up at the mouth of the Oconto River. Brown trout and splake were being caught through the ice off of Little River. Some nice northern pike were caught this week on Green Bay north of the Oconto breakwater. Fishing has been slow on southern Lake Michigan tributaries.

More horned larks have been seen this week. Songs of cardinals, purple finches and the white-breasted nuthatch are becoming more frequent. Downy woodpeckers have begun to drum on hollow trees to establish their mating territories. Great horned owls are sitting on eggs and bald eagles have set up nesting territories and will begin incubating eggs soon.

Returning diving ducks including mergansers and buffleheads were seen on the open water of the Mississippi River. Sandhill cranes and Canada geese are returning in increasing numbers. Raccoons, skunks, and opossums are becoming more active with the longer days and warmer temperatures and the first woodchucks of spring have been reported.

Wisconsin Hunters Set State, National Record Deer Harvest

MADISON - Wisconsin hunters set a national single state record for deer harvest during the 2000-2001 deer hunting season with a total kill of 618,374. The total includes all deer taken by archery, gun and tribal hunters.

"We needed a big harvest," said Bill Mytton, deer and bear ecologist for the Department of Natural Resources, "and we set the conditions for one by extending the gun and archery seasons and issuing free bonus permits with each license sold. Wisconsin hunters took up the challenge and produced a record harvest, but the work isn't done."

"We went into the 2000 hunting season with 1.8 million deer in the state. Even with the record harvest plus the winter we're seeing, we'll still go into spring with a breeding herd capable of putting us right back at that 1.7-1.8 million level by fall of 2001."

The 2000 season produced a record gun hunt harvest at 528,494. Archers added another 86,899 for their second best ever season total. The best archery year was 1999 with 92,203 deer registered. The early and late Zone T seasons may have contributed to the lower archery harvest even through the early archery season was extended four days, to the Thursday before the traditional nine-day gun hunt.

A complete summary of the 2000-01 Wisconsin big game hunting seasons with county by county and management unit breakdowns will be published in the 2000 edition of the Wisconsin Big Game Hunting Summary. The summary will cover deer, bear and turkey and is due to be published around mid-May 2001.

Some winter kill has been reported in a few scattered northern counties. The severity of a winter is measured by the Winter Severity Index (WSI). The WSI was developed in the early 1970s. It is calculated by adding the number of days with 18 inches or more of snow on the ground to the number of days when minimum temperatures are 0 degrees Fahrenheit or below, between December 1 and April 30. A point is added for each day one of these conditions occur; two points are added for a day when both conditions occur. At the end of the winter all the points are added up, resulting in the WSI number for the whole winter. A winter with an index of less than 50 is considered mild, 50 to 80 is moderate and over 80 is severe.

Northern Iron County near Mercer and Upson currently are at a cumulative WSI of 103, Rhinelander is at 52 and Eagle River at 59. Overall, winter kill is not expected to be much of a factor in herd size for 2001, Mytton said.

The most important factor ahead, according to biologists, is the number of fawns born this spring. A greater number of does will give birth to twins following a mild winter.

With another large herd expected in 2001, DNR wildlife managers are once again proposing a statewide early antlerless gun-deer hunt involving 97 deer management units - the same number of units designated in 2000. Hunters would be issued one free bonus permit for each archery and each gun deer hunting license for a combined four-deer harvest privilege.

Statewide informational meetings are now being held to explain the details of the proposed 2001 season structure. For locations near you contact a DNR service center or look to the DNR website <http://www.dnr.state.wi.us>.

KHS Boys Track Second At New Holstein Indoor

By: Jerry Gosa

NEW HOLSTEIN - The Kewaskum High School boys' track team started their 2001 season with their annual indoor track meet with New Holstein and Kiel. New Holstein won the meet by scoring 62.5 points. The Huskies won seven of the 14 events, while Kewaskum won four events and finished with 49.5 points. Kiel scored 33 points to finish third.

Senior Charlie Sparks started the indoor season with a career best 45' 10" in the shot put, while sophomore Tony Koefel finished third with a throw of 43' 6 1/2". Sparks teamed with Chris Canter, Tom Ogi, and Kevin Miller to win the 800m relay in 1:45.9. The same group had difficulty with their handoffs in the 400m relay on the tight indoor track and finished second to New Holstein.

Sophomore Andy Lickel was a surprise winner in the 200m dash as he edged teammate Tom Ogi who ran in a different heat, 26.7 seconds to 26.8 seconds.

Kewaskum's Josh Parrent battled New Holstein's Brian Diedrich in the pole vault with both athletes clearing 11' 6". Parrent placed first based on clearing 11' 6" on his first attempt. Teammate Brian Wall placed third with a jump of 11'.

Paul Mertz and Tom Ogi placed third and fourth respectively in the high jump with 5' 8" and 5' 6" jumps.

Tony Fitts and Charlie Sparks finished second and third in the 60 yard dash with times of 7.0 and 7.1 seconds. Numerous heats or only three competitors each were run in the hallway of on the indoor track for the dashes making head to head competition impossible.

Chris Canter placed third in the 400m dash and Tom Ramthun also finished third in the 1600m run. Mike McKee finished fourth in both the 60 yard high and low hurdles. Bryan Kraft finished fourth in the 800m run and in the 3200m run. Adam Woebeking also finished fourth.

KHS Hosts Second Annual Kewaskum Indian Invite

By: Jerry Gosa

KEWASKUM - Long after most of the athletes from the seven schools had left the Kewaskum Indian Invitational on Saturday, March 17th, only the three pole vaulters from Kewaskum were left in the field of 17 varsity vaulters. A public address system definitely wasn't needed to award the first place medal to Josh Parrent after he won the competition by clearing 12'. Parrent systematically cleared 10', 11', 11'6" and 12' as the visiting competitors dropped out of the competition, and Parrent chose to have the bar raised to 12' 9 1/4" in his bid to break the KHS indoor school record. Three attempts and three misses did not diminish his winning effort.

Teammates Brian Wall and Tom Ogi tied for second place after both cleared 11' on their first attempt. Sophomore Mike McKee won the JV pole vault competition with a height of 10' 6" and Kurtis Cochran placed second with a height of 9' 6".

Troy Koefel won the shot put competition with a throw of 43' 2" and teammate Charlie Sparks finished second with a 42' 5 3/4" toss. Joe Kietzler of Watertown won the high jump with a height of 6' 4". Kewaskum teammates Paul Mertz and Tom Ogi placed second and third respectively with heights of 6' and 5' 10". Mertz's effort was a career best. Brian Cotter of Kewaskum also placed fifth local Australian and New Zealand public. They not only see a part of the world that is truly fascinating, but they also act as Ambassadors for America as they exemplify the sporting traditions Americans love.

Becht is currently soliciting sponsorship to help defray the cost of the trip. A major source of funds comes from voluntary contributions from family, friends and interested sponsors. For every $2 contribution, you will receive a raffle ticket giving you the opportunity to win a trip for two to Australia. Donations will help raise enough money for Becht to participate in this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.
