Village Trustees Authorize Borrowing $415,000 For New Pumphouse

By Andrew R. Kuehl
Staff Writer/Photographer

The Village Board meeting Monday evening began by remembering the victims of the recent tragedy on the east coast during a Moment of Silence.

Later the board voted unanimously in favor of borrowing $415,000 from the state trust fund for the construction of a new pumphouse in the village.

The board reviewed bids from contractors at a meeting in August. At that meeting administrator Dan Schmidt said the village engineers figured the bids would come in at around $377,000.

The loan carries a ten year term at a five percent interest rate.

At that previous meeting trustee Andy Pesch stated he thought this was a lot to pay for a well. Schmidt said due to restrictions by the state the price of constructing a well is a bit more costly.

Department of Public Works Director Jerry Gilles thought work will commence by the end of September or early November.

Monday, trustee Kevin Scheunemann asked if this will serve the village well into the future, Gilles stated "We should be good for water production for awhile, (it) should serve the village's needs for about 12-15 years if we do not get any large industrial or commercial customers."

Gilles also stated that if the village develops to the east it would be good long range planning to purchase land for a well on that side of the village. The village is currently served by one well on it's east side.

At the same meeting trustees were faced with the Bilgo Lane parking issue that was brought up after the school district removed all the parking from the westside of Bilgo Lane in August.

They had two options, leaving the parking as no parking 24 hours a day, which it is currently or putting up signs restricting parking only from 7 am to 4:30 pm on school days as required by state law.

The new state law requires that parking must be restricted along all streets that abut a grade school. The law was passed to give police authority to repel individuals from kidnapping or preying on young children.

Bilgo Lane resident Dick Schlice said he, along with his neighbors, were very unhappy with the situation and that he spoke on behalf of his neighbors who oppose having no parking 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

His gripe, that Bilgo Lane more than other residential village streets is used too much for parking for school and village functions along with churches in the area to prohibit parking.

Schmidt told the trustees that it was possible to put up signs that would restrict the parking only during school hours that would supercede the yellow line.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel said he was concerned that if signs are used with the yellow line still in place and people saw people parking there they would park in other prohibited areas. He also said it would make ticketing difficult in other areas.

KES principal Kieth Kriewaldt said they wanted to encourage parking in the new parking lot behind the school. Kriewaldt was concerned that young kids might walk into the signs. He said he would have to put foam around them unless they were put up away from the kids' line of travel.

He said another neighbor he talked to wanted to keep it yellow. He further stated that the parking lot in the back of the school can hold 80 vehicles normally but can hold up to 200 vehicles in extreme cases.

Lori Heisler of Johnson Bus was present and stated "We would like it to be yellow" she also stated that things are "100% better than last year!"

Schlice stated "I think it's selfish of Mr. Kriewaldt to take that parking away from the residents."

The group of trustees unanimously approved ordinance 01-05 to adopt the state regulation.

They then took the task of deciding what to do with the current situation at KES.

Trustee Larry Ammel stated that he thought the back parking lot was never full while he was employed as a teacher at KHS. He thought maybe for graduation but otherwise it was not widely used. He also thought the school should make it easier for people to use.

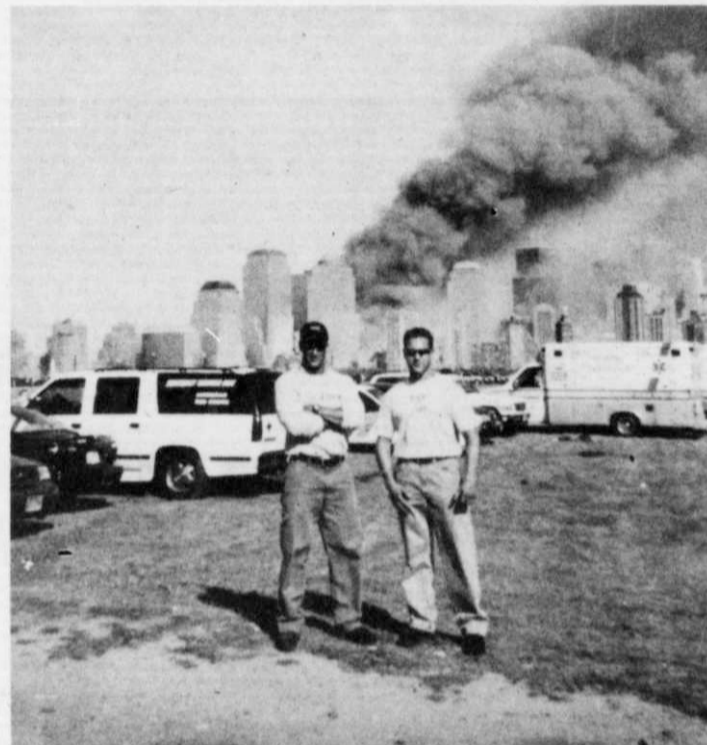

"I think the most important part is the safety of the kids. If the school thinks it should stay yellow, I agree" stated trustee Pesch.

Trustee Tom Piwoni didn't feel like many of his fellow trustees. He made a motion to put up the signs and enforce a parking restriction only on school days. Trustee Bob Stoltzmann agreed with Piwoni and seconded his motion.

President Kenworthy asked for roll call vote. Trustees Ammel, Pesch, Scheunemann, Matt Heiser and Kenworthy all voted against the motion. Piwoni and Stoltzmann voted in favor of the motion they brought to the table. The motion failed.

Local Residents Experience Terrorist Attack Firsthand

Two area men are happy to return to Wisconsin after witnessing the horrific events that took place in New York City last week.

As reported in last week's edition, Kewaskum native, Brad Riekkoff who was competing in the International Natural Bodybuilding Federation's Naturalmania Nationals unfortunately had a front row seat to the terror in New York City's lower Manhattan.

Accompanying Riekkoff was Chad Rochwite, formerly of the Campbellsport area.

Speaking with Riekkoff Tuesday afternoon, he said he was eating in a cafe in Manhattan when the first hijacked jet struck the first tower of the World Trade Center. He rushed out of the cafe, with many other patrons. He said he presumed the building was on fire. When the second jet struck he saw it exit.

"All you saw was a massive amount of paper flying out of the building" said Riekkoff.

He described the sound as similar to a fireworks explosion, only twice as loud. In addition to hearing the crash, he along with hundreds of others felt the intense heat from the burning towers.

After the second crash, he said people started yelling "terrorist!" and "bomb!"

Amid the commotion Brad found himself surrounded by hundreds of people. Next to him was a caretaker and approximately 20 orphaned children not knowing what to do next.

He then went to his hotel

Area Groups Help Purchase Defibrillator for KHS

Area groups along with KHS school organizations were able to purchase a defibrillator for KHS. From left to right: representing the Booster Club are Dawn Reidelbach, Lori Long, and Mary Miller, representing the American Legion, Post 384 Ladies Auxiliary - Kewaskum Post is Evelyn Thiemer, KHS principal Donn Wollweber, representing Geidel's Piggly Wiggly are Jesslyn and Mike Geidel and representing the Fillmore Happy Hearts are Marjorie Degnitz and Sharon Geidel.

Once again Kewaskum has something to be very proud of. Through the wonderful generosity of a combination of school and community organizations, along with the school district coordination with Kewaskum School District Superintendent Wayne Graczyk, Kewaskum High School now has an A.E.D. (Automated External Defibrillator). AEDs are small, light weight fully automated devices that analyze a victim's heart condition and provides it's user with valuable information and appropriate emergency medical interventions that saves lives.

Sudden Cardiac Arrest (SCA) is one of the leading causes of death around the world. Each day approximately 700 Americans suffer from SCA. About 95% of all cardiac arrest victims die because their hearts begin to quiver uncontrollably and cannot pump blood. Sudden Cardiac Arrest is not the same as a heart attack. Abnormal heart rhythms called arrhythmia cause most SCA and one of the more common forms is Ventricular Fibrillation. In VF, the heart's electrical impulses become chaotic thus rendering the heart incapable of properly functioning. The AED returns the heart to normal or what is called normal sinus rhythm. The intervention provided by the A.E.D. is critical to saving lives because mistakes are eliminated in the diagnosis of the situation and the proper treatment is provided very quickly.

Automated External Defibrillators are more and more prevalent in public places like airports, public libraries, theatres, schools and athletic facilities.

Members of the KHS staff and administration will be trained and certified on the proper use of the Automated External Defibrillator. Some already are, including High School Principal Donn E. Woolweber.

Thanks to the Kewaskum Boosters Club, The Kewaskum American Legion Ladies Auxiliary, Fillmore Happy Heart Group and the Kewaskum Piggly Wiggly, Kewaskum High School is a safer place to be for everyone. What a superb demonstration of community caring for our children and those who work with them and share in their great achievements.

The Kewaskum Boosters Club, The Kewaskum American Legion Ladies Auxiliary, Fillmore Happy Heart Group and the Kewaskum Piggly Wiggly are heroes for their generosity and thoughtfulness.

Hot Time for High School Students

Area high school students are invited to attend "INFERNO" this Saturday, September 22, at Ridge Run Park in West Bend (Scenic Drive entrance).

S.T.A.N.D., for Students Taking Action Not Drugs, has organized this FREE EVENT. Activities, which will run from 4 to 10 p.m., will include flag football, ultimate Frisbee, three-legged races, tug-of-war, music, food and a bonfire!

S.T.A.N.D. is made up of 19 students from West Bend and Kewaskum high schools. Their task is planning alcohol and drug-free events for young adults. They are also working towards obtaining a site for a club for high school students.

S.T.A.N.D.'s first event, Battle of the Bands, was held this past June in Kewaskum. Almost 200 students attended. "We are hoping at least as many come to INFERNO," says Linda Dymond from the Council on AODA, the committee's chairperson. "Kids are often saying that there is nothing fun to do. We are trying hard to change that here. Teens are doing the planning, so hopefully, these are things that teens want to do."

Others supporting S.T.A.N.D.'s work are: Joe Hahn, Kettle Moraine YMCA's Assets for Youth youth initiative; Charlotte Price of the Youth and Family Project, Teri Baron and Ann Marie Lanser. Questions about S.T.A.N.D. or Assets for Youth may be directed to Joe Hahn at the YMCA at 262-334-3405.

Making Safety a Way of Life Educational Materials Available

Many children think they are invincible. They've heard, "Don't play with matches!" over and over. But they don't think their houses will burn down. That's the stuff of TV, it doesn't happen in real life. Safety is often the last thought on a child's mind.

During fire safety month October, parents, schools and youth organizations nationwide will be reminded of the importance of keeping kids safe. Many accidents can be prevented if kids are alert and aware of their surroundings. Modern Woodmen of America, a fraternal life insurance society with offices in Kewaskum, offers free educational materials to help make safety a way of life for kids.

Modern Woodmen's Safety Awareness Program uses a variety of fun, educational activities to help kids become more aware of their surroundings and avoid accidents. The program teaches safety regarding fire, weather, camping, hiking, being home alone, playgrounds, streets and sidewalks.

The free study course is available for schools, scouts, park and recreation departments, day-care facilities and other interested groups nationwide. Modern Woodmen provides all resource materials at no charge -- including an instructor's manual, workbooks, activity sheets and props for classroom use.

Programs are available for two levels -- preschool through second grade and third grade through sixth grade. All participants receive fire safety checklists, emergency telephone cards and glow-in-the-dark light switch finders.

"The Safety Awareness Program is a wonderful way to help kids learn to be safe," says Jeff Jaeger, a local Modern Woodmen representative. "Kids love this program because it's fun and on their level. Teachers and youth leaders like that it's understandable, easy to implement and absolutely free!"

Started in 1982, the Safety Awareness Program is one of six Youth Educational Programs offered by Modern Woodmen. According to Jaeger, Modern Woodmen offers the program as part of its commitment to members and their communities. "It's just one more way we can strengthen families and communities," he says.

Teachers and youth group leaders can contact Jaeger at 1-262-626-4139 or e-mail JJplogo@aol.com or log on to www.modernwoodmen.org for more information or to order the program for their organizations. Estimated delivery time is 30 days.

Modern Woodmen of America is a fraternal life insurance society headquartered in Rock Island, Illinois. The organization serves more than 750,000 members nationwide, offering financial products and services for families and service programs for communities.

Kettle Kountry Kolers to Feature Something For Everyone

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is again sponsoring its 12th annual Kettle Kountry Kolers family fun festival on Saturday and Sunday, October 13 and 14, in River Hill Park, along the banks of the serene Milwaukee River in Kewaskum.

This year's committee members have spent many hours of planning in preparation of the annual fall festival.

Many people have enjoyed Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolers over the years with an estimated attendance of over 20,000 for both days in 1999. Attendance was down in 2000 due to the inclement weather.

This year's festival has many popular returning attractions, plus a host of new activities, again, at little or no charge!

Making a return along the banks of the lazy Milwaukee River, amid the rich hues of autumn, will be the camps and lodges occupied by the ever-popular Buckskinners. At this teaching encampment, members will gladly explain to you the "tricks of the trade" during the Buckskinners era. Cheer at the "hawk" (tomahawk) throwing contest, enjoy browsing through period shops offering clothing, kettle korn, lotions and soaps. Enjoy the sights and sounds of a time that seems forgotten.

Children will find lots of fun things to see and do. A special children's activity tent sponsored by the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club, Kewaskum Women's Club and Junior Women's Club along with area businesses will feature clowns, face painting, and music. As a special attraction to the tent the Kewaskum Library's Jill Wenger will be telling stories with her puppet friends. There are lots of special events geared to entertain children as well as the whole family. A pumpkin carving contest, basketball shootout, make-it-and-take-it crafts and BB gun shoot are activities sure to delight young and old

Holy Trinity School in Kewaskum is sponsoring a quarterback contest Saturday and Sunday outside the children's tent. Kids ages seven and younger will win a prize everytime. Kids ages eight and older are invited to compete for a $100 gift certificate for MC Sports in West Bend. The cost to enter is $1 for three throws.

New this year is a talent show/lip sync contest. This will be performed on the park gazebo on Saturday at 2 p.m.. There is a $5 entry fee and prizes will be awarded. For more information contact Wendi at 262-626-2616.

Another exciting new feature this year will be a cheesecake eating contest on Sunday sponsored by one of Kewaskum's newest establishments, Door County Cheesecake Creations. For more information contact Bonnie at 262-626-1717.

Be sure to check out the Wisconsin State Patrol safety equipment display and you won't want to miss the Reserve National Guard helicopter landing and exhibit on Saturday.

For your listening pleasure, enjoy the assorted sounds of the live entertainment scheduled throughout the park all weekend.

On Saturday the gazebo will feature the Kewaskum High School Jazz Band at noon and the Big Cedar Bluegrass Music will perform at 1 p.m.

On Sunday the gazebo will feature local favorite Bound for Heaven gospel quartet at noon and "Reilly" at 2 p.m..

The Sno-Chief's beer garden will also have live music both days.

Sunday begins with a tasty pancake breakfast, sponsored by the Kewaskum Sno-Chief's, served from 8 to 11 a.m., in the beergarten.

St. Lucas Lutheran

Church will sponsor an ecumenical church service at 10 a.m. again this year in the Children's Activity Tent. Everyone is welcome, regardless of your faith.

Sunday will also feature the annual 5K Kewaskum Youth Scholarship, Inc. (KEYS) walk/run beginning at 11 a.m. The event is open to everyone. If you are interested in the race please call Jerry Gosa at Kewaskum High School 262-626-8427. The course winds through the village of Kewaskum and can be completed as quickly or leisurely as one would like to take it. It would take the average person approximately one hour to walk.

Whatever you are in search of, there's a good chance you'll find that special gift item (and one for yourself!) in the ever popular craft tent. Each year the tent and outdoor displays expand, allowing new vendors and familiar vendors to show and sell their craftsmanship.

And while the shoppers browse, their significant others can sneak off to the Badger/Packer sports tent sponsored by The Kewaskum Statesman and the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce. On Saturday the Badgers will be playing against Ohio State. Sunday the Packers will stand off against Baltimore. The tent will feature a huge TV screen set up so no one will have to miss even a minute of the Badgers or the Packers defeating their foes. There will be plenty of birdseye view seating for everyone with food & refreshments being sold and a few surprises scheduled.

You must bring a hearty appetite to Kettle Kountry Kolers. A large variety of foods will be available, including soups, hot sandwiches, salads, luscious homemade desserts, French-fried treats, snacks and beverages to tempt your palate.

Exciting raffles are being held in conjunction with Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolers this year.

Take a chance or several chances, on 50/50 cash raffles, a $300 cash raffle, or a winter weekend getaway to the Kalahari Resort and Convention Center in Wisconsin Dells. The final raffle will be for a framed print entitled, "American Spirit." The print is by Hubertus artist George Kovach. The print is of a Fourth of July celebration with a '57 Chevy in plain view and a kaleidoscope of fireworks that burst into the sky over a small lake. The prize has been donated by Artcentral owned by Dan and Phyllis Schmidt of Kewaskum. All money raised from this raffle will be split between Kettle Kountry Kolers and Kewaskum's Fourth of July fireworks.

This invitation is extended to you and your family to come out and enjoy this year's Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolers Family Festival on Saturday, October 13, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday, October 14, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Committee members have worked non-stop to present this gift to area residents, their family and friends.

Parking will not be available in the park. Enjoy a leisurely walk to the park or please take advantage of the free shuttle service provided by Johnson Bus of Kewaskum at the Kewaskum downtown parking lot, Auto Body Dynamics parking lot and KHS/KMS parking lots. Shuttle busses will deliver you to one of two drop-offs in River Hill Park.

Take in the sights... the sounds and the rich beauty of nature in the peaking autumn colors which surround us so close to home here in the Kettle Moraine. Take in Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolers!

Final Meeting Scheduled For Next Saturday

Kettle Kountry Kolers Still Needs Volunteers

The Kettle Kountry Kolers Festival Planning Committee will be holding a final meeting Saturday, September 29 on the 2001 Kettle Kountry Kolers Festival in the main park area of Riverhill Park. Everyone and anyone is invited to attend this meeting.

Kettle Kountry Kolers has grown so big in the last few years the Chamber of Commerce can no longer put the festival on by itself. They are looking for active community members to volunteer their help put undertake this year's event.

This year's festival will be held on Saturday & Sunday, October 13 & 14, in Riverhill Park. If you cannot attend the meeting but want to help please contact Larry Ammel at 262-626-4731.

AAA Wisconsin Maps Fall Color Tours

The summer has been winding down, but for tens of thousands of travelers, the arrival of autumn marks the best time to hit the road.

"We live in a state that is recognized near and far as a truly special place when the autumn colors emerge," said AAA Wisconsin spokesman Michael Bie. "Forests cover a remarkable 45 percent of Wisconsin. In addition, there are fall festivals celebrated in every corner of the state."

Autumn's color show peaks in stages, beginning at the top of the state, where cooler temperatures arrive first and move downward. Peak color is generally found in northern Wisconsin (north of Highway 29) in mid-to-late September and early October, in the middle-section of Wisconsin from early to mid-October, and in the southern part of the state from mid-to late October.

September weather typically dictates what kind of color displays can be expected in October. Bright days that are warm, but not hot and muggy, and cool evenings, but not below freezing, are the ideal conditions for bringing out the most brilliant colors.

AAA Wisconsin recommends several routes known for their spectacular fall scenes and traditional festivals.

Highway 10: Highway 10 takes motorists past the Highground in Neillsville, a stirring veterans memorial park overlooking one-half million acres of Wisconsin woodland and glacial moraine.

Highway 13: The Lake Superior shoreline is the setting for this 93-mile route running from Superior to Ashland. Forests, lighthouses, and the spectacular Apostle Islands National Lakeshore are featured. Bayfield's annual Apple Festival draws visitors to the streets of the quaint fishing village in early October.

Highway 35: The northern stretch of Highway 35 between Superior and St. Croix Falls is home to Pattison State Park in Douglas County, site of Wisconsin's tallest waterfall, and Interstate State Park in Polk County, where the Dalles of St. Croix River offer impressive vistas.

The lower section of Highway 35 is the Great River Road, running for 250 miles along the Mississippi River from Dickeyville to Prescott, one of our nation's great treasures. Dotted by quaint towns and scenic overlooks tucked away among bluffs high above the river, this route is a must-see for those hoping to savor the very best of a Wisconsin autumn. La Crosse's Oktoberfest USA celebration, held for two weekends in late September and early October, is one of the nation's top fall festivals.

Black River State Forest: Nearly 67,000 acres of pine and oak trees comprise the forest. The Black River and sandstone formations help provide a picturesque setting. Located just off I-94 in Jackson County. Nearby is Warrens, home of the annual cranberry festival held in late September.

Horicon National Wildlife Refuge: Located southwest of Fond du Lac in Dodge County, the refuge is known throughout the world as the place where more than 250,000 Canada geese, ducks, swans, cranes and herons rest on their fall migration.

Nicolet National Forest: The Nicolet National Forest sprawls across 661,200 acres in northeast Wisconsin's lake and recreation country. Within the forest's confines are part or all of seven counties, 1,200 lakes, 1,100 miles of streams, 400 spring ponds, and 800 miles of trails. Highways 8, 32, 55, 70 and 139 are the thoroughfares.

Highway 42 & 57: Highway 42 from Manitowoc, along Lake Michigan, is part of the Great Lakes Circle Tour. Joining Highway 57 south of Sturgeon Bay, the two roads then chart courses north through Door County to Gills Rock. Observation decks at Peninsula and Potawatomi State Parks offer breathtaking vistas.

Highway 60: An 82-mile route makes its way along the Wisconsin River from Sauk City to Prairie du Chien. The scenery at Wyalusing State Park, located at the confluence of the Wisconsin and Mississippi Rivers, is a fitting exclamation point to the journey. Twelve miles north of Sauk City on Highway 12, is Devil's Lake State Park, its 500-foot bluffs providing willing hikers with a view of the lake and nearby Baraboo Hills.

Highway 67: This high-

A family of four can register for $40. Additional family members are an additional $10 each. On race day, individual registrations will be $15. Runners and walkers can also register online at www.active.com.

KEYS 5 K Run/Walk participants can collect pledge money and depending on the amounts collected and turned in one the day of the race, will earn gift certificates from Pedal Moraine, MC Sports, Paradise Theater, Kewaskum Subway, or embroidered sweatshirts.

Medals will be awarded to the first three finishers in 16 age groups. KEYS has expanded the age groups for male and female so that individuals with ages 7-15 will only compete with participants of the same age. This will mean that more children can enjoy the thrill of winning a first, second or third place medal.

A short race for children ages five and under will again be held at noon this year. Participation in this event is free.

Cash awards of $100 for first place, $75 for second and $50 for third overall male and female runners. A $200 cash prize goes to the male and female who break or set a new course record. The male course record is 14:27 and the female course record is 17:38.

For more information on the KEYS 5 K Run/Walk, please pick up a registration form. Registration forms are available at Kewaskum area schools, West Bend Saving Bank's various locations and Miller's Furniture. For answers to additional questions, please call Jerry Gosa at 262-626-8427 ext. 4156 or Sharron Miller at 262-626-2184.

One Injured in Weekend Accident

A Fond du Lac County Sheriff's deputy inspects the vehicle of a West Bend man who was injured late Saturday afternoon as a result of a two car motor vehicle accident on U.S. Highway 45 south of Eden. Both Terry L. Gilbert, 41 of Campbellsport and Andrew J. Trinkl, 27 of West Bend were southbound on Hwy. 45. Gilbert was stopped and proceeding to turn right, into his driveway. Trinkl did not see Gilbert and attempted to avoid hitting him. He allegedly hit the rear drivers side of the Gilbert vehicle and lost control of his Chevy Blazer causing it to roll four times before coming to rest on it's roof. Neither driver was carrying passengers. Campbellsport Rescue Squad assisted the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department at the scene of the accident.

Local Red Cross Volunteer Travels to New York

Jim Krudwig, of West Bend, has been activated by the National Red Cross to respond to the disaster at the World Trade Center. This is the fourth disaster for which Jim has volunteered. He will be in New York anywhere from three to four weeks working in the capacity of Government Liaison. He previously assisted at Tropical Storm Allison, Hurricane Floyd and the floods in Virginia.

When not flying out to disasters, Mr. Krudwig is an active volunteer at the West Bend Red Cross Chapter as a transportation driver and a member of the Disaster Action Team (DAT), which is a group trained for local fires, floods, tornadoes and similar problems.

The data received from the National Red Cross is mind-boggling. For Red Cross purposes, seven relief operations are on-going: World Trade Center, the Pentagon, the crash site in Pennsylvania and the four airports which were the departure and destination of the hijacked planes.

Forty-five shelters have been opened and over 800,000 meals have been served to waiting families and rescue workers since last Tuesday. Red Cross Mental Health workers have made 10,000 mental health contacts and continue to console survivors and relatives of those lost in the tragedies. 14,300 Red Cross volunteer Disaster Services relief workers are laboring diligently day and night. All American Red Cross disaster assistance is free, made possible by voluntary donations of time and money from the American people.

Washington County residents who are interested in becoming local volunteers are invited to attend a video class entitled "Introduction to Disasters." The video shows the many Red Cross activities and volunteer opportunities involved in local disasters. The class will be held on October 2nd at 6 p.m. at the Red Cross building at 819 Schoenhaar Drive. There is no charge or obligation. Call 262-334-5687 to register.

room to grab his camera. From his hotel room he could see the billows of smoke pouring from both buildings. Once he was out of the hotel, into the parking lot, the second tower collapsed. Brad recorded the dust and debris show on film. The photo, so grayish white, it depicted a New York winter blizzard. The photo was unusable with this article because of the dust and smoke.

Brad said his next thought was how to get out of Manhattan. Air lines had already been shut down and it was impossible to leave by car. Around two or three o'clock, while walking, he and Chad found a man offering to take people to New Jersey by tug boat for 10 bucks a head, a small price to pay to get out of the confusion and avoid the melee on the Brooklyn Bridge, (the shortest route out of Manhattan).

"All four lanes of traffic on FDR Drive were packed with people. The Brooklyn Bridge was the same thing," said Riekkoff.

After the two settled in New Jersey, Brad made contact with his dad in Kewaskum, who decided to drive to New Jersey to bring Brad and Chad back home.

To add to the "excitement" of this escapade, while carrying his suitcase in a subway Brad was pulled aside by four uniformed police officers. The officers stated they received a call and someone suspected him of carrying a bomb. He was detained and had his suitcase searched.

Brad and Chad arrived back home this past weekend and things are slowly going back to normal. Both were back at work on Monday.

Sensenbrenner Speaks On Terrorist Attacks

By Judy Steffes

Earlier this week Wisconsin Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner made several stops at his regularly scheduled town hall meetings. The Republican from Menomonee Falls held office hours in eight different communities in Washington and Dodge Counties on Monday and only one person showed up when Sensenbrenner was in Kekoskee.

The following is an exclusive interview with Congressman Sensenbrenner during his stop at the Addison Town Hall. The Congressman spoke on issues surrounding the recent terrorist attacks.

Kewaskum Statesman: This past Tuesday was the one-week anniversary of the terrorist attack, why haven't we seen any retaliation from the U.S.?

Sensenbrenner: President Bush and his national security team are planning a surgical strike. First they have to find out who to strike, secondly they have to use diplomacy in order to get as many people supporting America's efforts to get rid of international terrorism and third when we do strike, we have to strike with enough force so that we can make our point, achieve our objectives win and get out.

KS: Isn't the non-reaction though a sign of weakness on the part of the U.S.?

Sensenbrenner: Non-reaction is not a sign of weakness. Franklin Roosevelt did not retaliate against the Japanese the week after Pearl Harbor. He marshaled America's forces, he put together a battle plan and it was not until the next year during a raid on Tokyo that the Japanese realized they were not safe in their island nation. The President must be given a chance. The Congress has given the President the authority and the money he needs to root out international terrorism and we stand ready with additional legislation if that's necessary. But the worst thing the U.S. can do is attack the wrong target, not get the right people and inflame the Muslim world needlessly. Now is the time to put faith in the leaders of our country to allow them to do their job and as the President has said this is something that is going to be long and drawn out and it'll take years to root out the causes and the people who participate in international terrorism and we can not expect victory in a week and anybody who does do that is really giving aid and comfort to our enemies because the terrorists want America to give up on this war.

KS: You mentioned additional legislation to help uncover international terrorism; such as?

Sensenbrenner: I

talked with Attorney General John Ashcroft and the Justice Department is sending a package of legislation to the hill, most of which is under the jurisdiction of the Judiciary Committee which I chair. That legislation is designed to increase the legal authority by which the federal government can protect the citizens of the United States. I have given the Attorney General my commitment that my committee will promptly consider the legislation and it is my hope that we will be able to put together a package that will sail through Congress and land on the President's desk shortly.

KS: On Monday the stock markets opened for the first time since the terrorist attacks occurred. Representative Mark Green from Green Bay said the best way people can show their support for this country was to invest, but the market dropped 684 points. What's your read on the situation?

Sensenbrenner: Well, I have a lot of investments and I have not sold one share of stock and I do not plan on selling any stock in the near future because our economy is resilient. We have had a week where a significant part of the economy was shut down as a result of the destruction in New York and the attack on the economic capital of the United States but investing in America is still a good bet.

KS: How do you feel about the lack of turnout at these meetings?

Sensenbrenner: I'd like to be able to talk to more people but these types of meetings usually attract complainers and dissenters and the fact that I am not mobbed with complainers and dissenters shows how unified America really is. This is unlike the Persian Gulf war where there was a significant group of people that dissented to the use of military force before the first President Bush ordered the ground assault. While I recognize there are some people who question the military response the number of those in this community are a lot less than eleven years ago when the Persian Gulf war started out.

KS: Is it feasible to think "war"?

Sensenbrenner: The attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon were acts of war. They are worse than Pearl Harbor. More than two and a half times the number of people were killed on Tuesday than were killed in Pearl Harbor. Pearl Harbor was a military target and the World Trade Center was not and the attack on the World Trade Center was an attack on the American people, American values, and American Culture. The militants who

A view of the dust storm after the towers collapsed. This shot was taken about six blocks from the World Trade Center have declared war on the United States say they want to wipe out our culture. They are using their religious values in an extreme way of promoting their political views and I believe it is very important that the American people do not believe that all Muslims feel the same way the militants do.

KS: If President Bush were going to declare war, what would be the sequence of events leading to the declaration?

Sensenbrenner: President Bush is not asking for a declaration of war. What Bush asked for, the Congress gave him last Friday, which was authorization to use military force against those who were responsible for the World Trade Center and Pentagon terrorist strikes. A declaration of war is not called for in this instance. Osama bin Laden, if he is the culprit in this, is a criminal. We don't declare war as a nation against criminals, we indict them, we try them, we convict them and we punish them and we will do that to Osama bin Laden.

There are two other very good reasons why a declaration of war is not a good idea. The first is if we were to declare war against bin Laden and his followers, then they would be protected by the Geneva and Vienna conventions on how war is conducted. Since he hasn't signed those conventions, only nations do and not individuals do, we would be giving him and his followers protection but he would not have to give the same protection against American soldiers who are in the field. Giving this man a benefit is not something we should be doing. The second thing is, if there were a declaration of war that would abrogate every life and casualty insurance policy that is issued in this country. It would give an insurance company every excuse not to make payments of legitimate claims and allow them to get off the hook. That would have a huge economic hit on our country.

KS: Should the U.S. end their ban on assassinating foreign leaders?

Sensenbrenner: Yes. We should end the ban on assassinating foreign leaders, not that we would do it but having it held out there would keep the foreign leaders guessing on whether or not there would be an assassination plot against them. President Clinton during his term in office actually signed an executive order authorizing the assassination of bin Laden following the bombing of the Embassy in Kenya, which he orchestrated. So there has been that exception but I think we ought to say this is an option and whether or not we do it will be up to the circumstances.

KS: What is the correct way to respond to this terrorist attack?

Sensenbrenner: The key to rooting out international terrorism, in my opinion, is cutting off their money. And there has to be an aggressive international effort to stop the money laundering and to freeze the assets used to finance international terrorism. In my opinion why bin Laden has been much more effective than other international terrorists is that he comes from a very wealthy Saudi family. So freezing the assets of the bin Laden family would be a way to stop the financing and it is a way to root out international terrorism basically by cutting off their food because the money that finances it is their food. And the other thing is the military response. I believe that our President has already stated that he is not going to use a two million-dollar missile to destroy a ten dollar ten in Afghanistan. So the response is going to be a smart response rather than a knee jerk response.

EDUCATION...
IT'S EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

By Wayne P. Graczyk,
Kewaskum Superintendent of Schools
www.ksd.k12.wi.us

The aftermath of Tuesday's tragedy left all of us with a void, a complete emptiness. I would like to share an e-mail that Valerie (my wife) sent to her family. It struck a cord with me and I wanted to share it with you. I need to make a couple of points for clarification. Amber is our Golden Retriever, Eva and Heidi are our daughters and my wife works as the Director of Communications for the Sisters of St. Agnes. Here is what she wrote.

Dear Family:

I needed to write. I wasn't going to. The ominous silence in the face of our Nation's tragedy is so deep. There are no words. And yet, here I am longing to connect to each of you. The innocence is gone; life cannot be the same again. My mind is on the men and women boarding the planes, which I have done so many times, and innocently believing they would safely arrive at their destinations.

Yesterday morning I walked. It was a gorgeous sunny day, cool and our neighborhood was so beautiful. I was moved to praise God for the peace, the deep peace in my world. And I prayed for World Peace. I don't do this every morning. I seldom am so moved...and yet I did yesterday. I rounded the corner a block from my home, the sun was brilliant, my precious Amber was in full stride and I couldn't but glory in the beauty of the moment.

As I entered the Convent and rushed upstairs, our conference room was standing room only as the Sisters and employees gathered to watch on TV the towers fall. The silence among us, the helplessness we all felt was overwhelming. Throughout the day, as I spoke to people carrying on the daily business, our conversations drifted to this deep sorrow, the shock, the loss, the "How do we live this experience?"

I spoke to Wayne briefly, Eva called from Texas...their schools were cancelled and she was with the boys. I called mom and she said Meg, Yvonne and Hugh all had called her. Heidi called...it was a deep need of touching base, to know the people we love and cherish were OK, the reassurance that our part of the world wasn't blown to bits, wasn't altered, that you are all still there.

So it is with an open heart, and a heart that is heavy, that I send you each my love. May God hear our prayers for all the innocent lives that were affected and families that will grieve forever. May we each find a way to embrace the present and know it is really all we have. And it is enough. I love you all. Valerie.

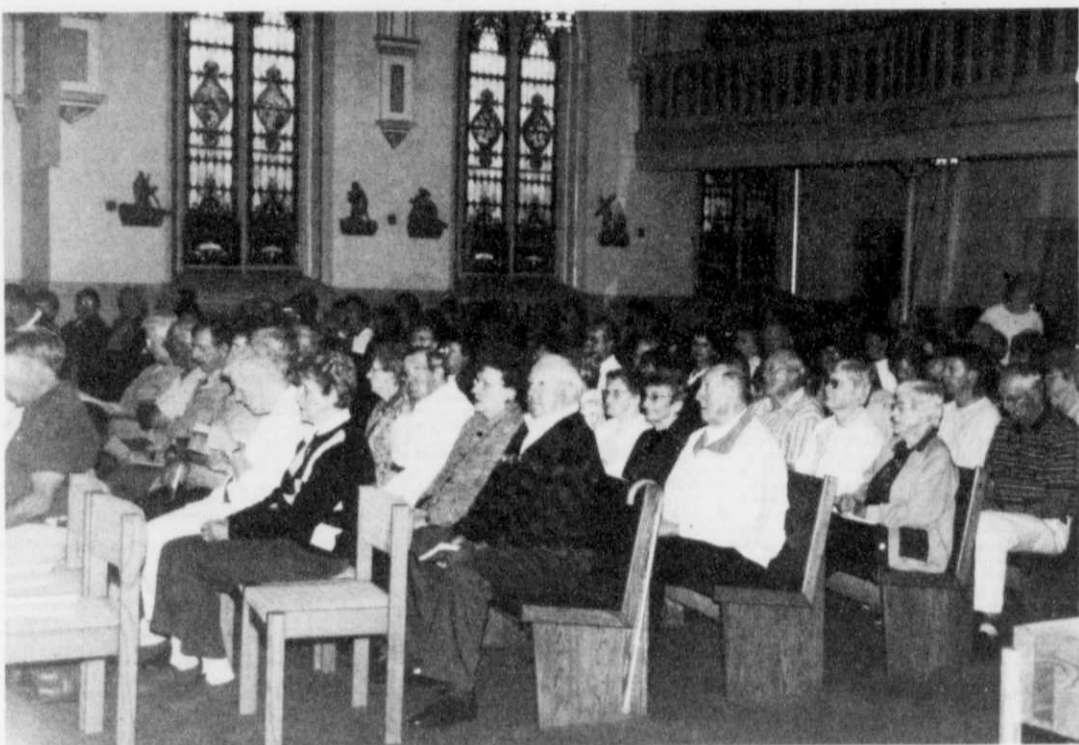

Sincerely,

department fought the blaze and a mutual aid call was also placed with the Campbellsport department.

Those desiring a Lutheran education for their children will have an opportunity to do so this fall at the newly established parochial school at St. Lucas Lutheran Church in Kewaskum. As of last week, 56 students were enrolled in grades K-8 with the largest class having 11 students, the kindergarten. This is the second parochial school in Kewaskum with the other being run by Holy Trinity Catholic Church.

Chuck McClain, the defending champion and Clark Eichstedt, the challenger, battled it out for the Hon-E-Kor championship Sunday with "Ike" emerging the winner. The two big hitters started out at 11 a.m. and about eight hours later the match went right up to the 36th hole with Eichstedt winning one-up. Last Friday Audrey Bartelt won her sixth Hon-E-Kor championship to give Kewaskum golfers both the men's and women's titles. Audrey defeated the defending champion, Irene Schlefke of West Bend, in sudden death on the 19th hole. The two were tied after 18. Scott Rohlinger notched his first junior title. Scott, who lettered on the high school team last spring, downed Bob Nigh, who will be a freshman at Kewaskum High School, 5-4 in the finals.

Daughters were born to Val and Helen Juedes of Kewaskum on August 23 and to David and Nancy Boegel of Campbellsport on August 12.

Sons were born to Robert and Bonnie Stoltzmann, Kewaskum, on August 20, and to Larry and Janice Bunkelman of Kewaskum on August 21.

In memory of our mom, ANNABELLE TESSAR, who passed away one year ago, Sept. 13, 2000 and our dad, ALLEN TESSAR who passed away 25 years ago, Sept. 22, 1976:

Time does heal as everyone said it would, But the thoughts and memories of both of you Will forever be present.

Dad, we remember hearing the jingling of change in your pocket along with your smirky grin and the twinkle of those piercing blue eyes.

Mom, we remember all those cookies, cakes and beautiful quilts and not to call between 9 and 10 pm on Tuesday because you were watching NYPD Blue.

You both in your own words and ways taught us how to live, love and most of all how to laugh. How lucky we are...we all miss you.

Recycling, Garbage Collection Takes on New Look for Town of Scott Residents

by Bernadette Mondloch

There is good news and bad news for the Town of Scott transfer station.

During the past few months, recycling and garbage collection has taken on a new look. Instead of the Town Highway Department workers supervising the Saturday work at the transfer station, it is being taken care of by Town Supervisors and volunteers from the Batavia Athletic Association.

There is only one paid employee, that being former employee Barbara Milaeger. That was the good news.

Now the bad news. Supervisor Irene Gnacinski announced that the tipping fee is being increased from 30 cents per ton to $3.00 per ton. The change is expected in the near future, the exact date is not known.

Fluorescent Bulbs are now being accepted for recycling. Cost of disposal is set at 55 cents for four foot bulbs and 70 cents for eight foot. They are collected in a separate barrel, unbroken. When the barrel has been filled, it will be picked up by Superior Services and taken to Port Washington for recycling.

Gnacinski said that there are a lot of dirty cans and bottles coming in to the recycling center. Residents are asked to rinse out cans and bottles.

Articles which are not acceptable for recycling includes tin cans with white lining or Teflon lining, such is used for salmon, and oil jugs and containers from car oil. These are all for the garbage. The town has chosen not to accept tires.

Action was taken to grant a conditional use permit to Richard Bemis and Julie Bemis Binder to operate a flower shop in the basement of the Bemis home at W 7085 Hillside Drive. Conditions of the permit require off street parking and waste (greens etc.) to be controlled.

A request for tax exemption from the county library tax was made in the amount of $37,368. The requirements are that the town spend for the local library, an amount equal to or greater than the county system requests.

Fees being paid for Zoning change requests, conditional use requests and variance requests has not been sufficient to cover the costs involved.

The current price is $150 per permit. This includes $25 for each planning commission member per meeting plus the cost of a public hearing ad, postage, stationary etc. Future fees for those requests has been increased to $170.00. Commenting on the rate change, Town Chairman Steve Jung said, "We don't want to make money on these requests, but we do need to break even."

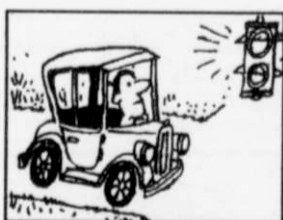

There are times when an applicant is asked to return to another meeting because sufficient material was not available to make a decision. The question which will be, decided at next months meeting is whether or not the second meeting will also require another $170 or should it be at no cost.

Members of the Batavia Athletic Association asked for permission to use a small storage room at the Hilltop building for storing some of their equipment. They also requested permission to put up outdoor Christmas decorations and to build an approximate 12 by 12 foot shed to store larger equipment. All requests received the "go ahead."

Tim Marquardt was appointed to the Board of Appeals to replace Ron Rezell. Gnacinski, Lakeview Library Board representative, reported that the library will be closed for one week in early October to complete the bar coding which is necessary to be ready for the startup date of automation which is replacing the old card catalog system.

Following a closed session dealing with personnel issues, the board voted to increase the hourly wage for Highway Department Superintendent Mark Muench to $17.25 and 75 cents per hour require him to pay 50% of his insurance premium.

Yeska Family Reunion Held

Isabelle (Yeska) Muckerheide

Labor Day weekend, the descendants of Anton and Stella (Paluka) Yeska held their 12th annual reunion at the Homestead in Neshkoro. After a stop at the Princeton flea market, the day began with a golf outing at Twin Oaks near Wautoma. Later games were held for the children.

Afterwards many attended the 4:00 p.m. Mass at St. James Place. A sumptuous meal of barbecued chicken, prepared by Chris Hlavenka's secret recipe, and tenderloin tips on noodles plus other goodies were on the menu. Kewaskum summer sausage made a hit as usual, and some is being sent to Florida.

Saturday evening we played "Family Feud." Richard Dawson couldn't make it, so Alex "Tree Bark" filled in, alias Joe Kurz.

The young folks played guitars and violin around the campfire, while us elders enjoyed playing sheephead.

Sunday morning after a 9:15 Mass, those more agile played baseball while some hiked around the pond. Sunday evening a few of us went to Peck's Plantation for dinner to celebrate Patty Celek's birthday. We later surprised her with a birthday cake. Joe Kurz also had a lighted birthday cake on Saturday with many humorous cards and gifts for his 50th birthday. We played bingo Sunday night.

Letters to the Editor

Letter to the Editor:

As I drove through Kewaskum after the horrific and cowardly attack on New York and Washington D.C., I saw very few homes flying the American flag.

There is no better way to show how united a country can be after a disaster than to fly our country's flag.

Do you not realize the gravity of such an act as was delivered to our country on Sept. 11 (9-11-01)?

It can't happen here - why not? God Bless America the greatest country in the entire world.

Elmer and Betty Hallen

Dear Editor:

This week our county

mourns the loss of so many of our fellow citizens. We are united in our grief and in our feeling patriotism. With this in mind, Washington County is sponsoring a patriotic program with the theme, Spirit of America, on Thursday, September 20, 2001, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

The event will be held at Washington County Fair Park, 3000 Pleasant Valley Road, located on County Highway PV (Pleasant Valley Road) and 145. The public is invited to join in this tribute. Donations for NYC 911, Salvation Army and Red Cross will be accepted.

Ramthun Places 10th in State FFA Tractor Operators' Contest

Brad Peterson of the River Falls FFA was named State Winner of the Wisconsin FFA Association's State FFA Tractor Operators Contest held Tuesday, August 7 at the Wisconsin State Fair in West Allis. Peterson's FFA advisors are DeWayne Benedict and William Forster.

FFA members from around the state can compete in their local and sectional tractor operator's contest and must be named one of the 10 sectional winners in order to advance to the State FFA Contest. A contestant must be at least 14 years of age and have successfully completed the tractor certification course or be 16 years of age and have completed at least one year of agricultural education and be enrolled in classes the current calendar year of the contest.

Nathaniel Roske of the Barron FFA placed second and Alonzo Cartright of the Montello FFA was third. In addition, the other sectional winners which competed in the contest included: Section 3: Mark Wolf, Bangor; Section 4: Nick Peacock, Shullsburg; Section 5: Caleb Matzke, Monroe; Section 7: Andy Vanderwerff, Granton; Section 8: Austin Beilke, Bowler; Section 9: Steve Barta, Kewaunee; Section 10: Tom Ramthun, Kewaskum.

The Tractor Operators Contest involves four major parts - Written Exam, Practical Exam, Two Wheel Driving Event and Four-Wheel Driving Event. In addition, contestants are also scored on safety anytime they are operating the tractor during the contest.

The contestants take a 50 question written exam. Questions are asked about anything from tractor safety to maintenance. The Practical Examination consists of the inspection of a tractor for maintenance and safety items. The basis for selecting these items will be a routine daily check-up. Some of the unsafe items that contestants could look for would be the SMV emblem missing, lights not operational, crankcase fluid low, etc.

The Two-Wheel and Four-Wheel Events involve driving courses each with a five minute time limit and demonstrating safety and skillful driving.

The purpose of the contest is to promote and encourage safe and skillful farm tractor operation, in addition to providing members an opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge of tractor maintenance.

The State Tractor Operators Contest is sponsored by Rural Insurance Companies through the Wisconsin FFA Foundation, Inc.

JV Soccer Team Ties Kohler in First JV Match

The Kewaskum mens' junior varsity soccer team visited the Kohler mens' JV team on Wednesday, September 12, playing the first every junior varsity mens' soccer game for Kewaskum.

The Kewaskum team did an excellent job outthrusting the Kohler team to the ball in a fast-paced exciting game. Twenty-one times the Indians took the ball to the Kohler goal, striking solid shots at their goal. Several shots rang off the barr just missing the mark.

Many follow-up crosses went whistling by the Kohler goal keeper. Kohler mounted many attacks only to be sent back by good defense and counterplay. Kewaskum maintained the momentum for the entire game.

The defense did a very good job countering the strong forwards of Kohler. Shane Harlacher played a superb game at sweeper, stopping many attacks on the Indians goal.

Starting the Indians own counterplays down the field, Josh Lawrence and Dean Pankratz played excellent at defense. Nick Durian, Adam Hildebrand, Dave Fraser, Jason Knoll, Kevin Lemke, Justin Brockman, Nick Zolecki, and Jake Clayton played a great transition game at midfield.

Jason Knoll, celebrating his new haircut, played a super game at midfield. Brad Franzen, Kevin Lemke, David Figge, Noah Olla, and Aaron Olla did a great job both in defense and offense. Adam Gitter, in his first ever start at goal keeper did an excellent job stopping the Kohler team cold.

Adam Gitter, in his first ever start at goal keeper, did an excellent job stopping the Kohler team cold. Gitter played a prominent role in keeping the ball down on the Kohler side of the field during the last two minutes in which Kewaskum scored the tying goal.

Justin Brockman played several positions on the field, doing a great job at all. The only one he didn't play was goal keeper. Tyler Hickman was nothing but awesome in his attacks on the Kohler goal. He got the assist on the goal for Kewaskum.

Adam Hildebrand got his first goal of his soccer career sending a grass cutter that caught the Kohler keeper off the line. It was a great game and a great tie for the first Kewaskum junior varsity soccer team.

Soccer Team Suffers 2-1 Loss To Kohler Team

The Kewaskum men's varsity soccer team traveled to Kohler to take on their team on Monday, September 17.

The Kewaskum team did a very good job in the first half of the game moving the ball to the Kohler goal. The defense also did a very good job countering the strong forwards of Kohler.

Kurt Cochran, Bradey Long, and Bryan Becht did a superb job keeping the offense at bay. Justin Wessing, Josh Timblin, Chris Baker, and Adam Hickman did a great job at mid-field.

Aaron Olla, Noah Olla, Justin Brockman, and Tyler Hickman played their best game at forward for the first half. The team is developing synergy and beginning to play good soccer but they were unable to compete in the second half.

Keith Boegel, Adam Gitter, Lee Schacht and Kevin Lemke did an admirable job in playing the backup role.

Lymphedema Patient to Share Success Story

WEST BEND -- A special guest will join the next meeting of the Lymphedema and Venous Edema Support Group Tuesday, September 25, at 7 p.m. at the Cedar Ridge Second Floor Conference Room, 113 Cedar Ridge Drive, West Bend.

Terry Mahler, breast cancer survivor and Cedar Haven lymphedema patient, will share her experience completing the Avon 60-mile Breast Cancer Walk June 15, 16 and 17. An Oostburg resident, Mahler raised almost $5,000 for breast cancer research on her walk.

Cancer-free after having breast cancer and several lymph nodes removed in 1996, Mahler developed lymphedema in May 2000. Lymphedema is a chronic swelling of an extremity or body part caused by an obstruction in the natural flow of lymphatic fluid in tissues.

It may occur due to surgical removal of lymph nodes, a congenital (born with) defect of having too few or impaired lymphatic pathways or lymph nodes, or pathway destruction from trauma, surgery or radiation. Not everyone with these risk factors will develop lymphedema. Of the 25 percent who do, symptoms may occur up to 15 years later.

While there is no cure, Mahler's lymphedema is being controlled with the help of Linda Skibicki, a Cedar Haven Rehabilitation Agency occupational therapist certified in lymphedema treatment. When Mahler set her goal to participate in the walk in February, Skibicki helped outline a training and therapy plan including specialized massage to improve fluid drainage, exercises and compression garments. Among the 3,250 participants in the Three-Day Walk from Kenosha to Chicago, Mahler said there were many other lymphedema patients.

The support group will include an informal discussion with Mahler about the walk, as well as an opportunity for participants and caregivers to ask questions and share support, resources, challenges, and successes in living with lymphedema or venous edema.

The group is facilitated by lymphedema patient and cancer survivor Shirley Brown, and will include refreshments. Attendees are invited to bring in clean Yoplait yogurt pink lids for the "Save Lids to Save Lives" fund-raising campaign to benefit the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

The meeting is free and open to all community members and is sponsored by Cedar Haven Rehabilitation Agency. A not-for-profit organization, Cedar Haven provides free screenings by appointment for lymphedema and venous edema, as well as osteoporosis, urinary incontinence and work or sports injuries.

The agency is a division of the Benevolent Corporation Cedar Campuses, a regional leader in rehabilitation, education, older adult living and health care. For more information, call Cedar Haven at (262) 306-2150.

Farmington I Seniors Are League Champs

The 2001 summer league season was full of excitement as the Farmington I senior girl's team tied with Belgium I seniors with a record of 9-1. This later sent the two teams to Beechwood for a tough playoff game on August 10. Farmington I came out on top with a 13-2 victory.

WBKV to Broadcast Kewaskum, C-Sport Football Game

Classic Country AM 1470, WBKV, will broadcast this week's Kewaskum-Campbellsport football game.

Pre-game starts at 6:45 and kickoff is at 7 p.m. Sports director/play-by-play announcer Bob Dohr and color man Jay Godersky will deliver all the exciting action.

edge of their seats, the game was tied 12-12 at the bottom of the seventh. This was Farmington I's chance to shine. With Wendy Ralph hitting a single, this brought Steph Janz to bat where she hit deep to a gap which brought in the winning run to end the game 13-12.

The Kettle Moraine girl's tournament was held in Random Lake this year on July 21-23. This was a double elimination tournament. With three teams left in the tournament, the games were post-poned because of heavy rain.

This brought back Belgium I, Farmington I and Random Lake on August 3rd to finish the tournament. With Farmington I and Random Lake both having one loss they had to face each other to determine who would play Belgium I in the championship game.

Playing eight innings, Farmington I came out on top beating Random Lake 20-19. Farmington now had to face their biggest challenge, that was to beat Belgium two games. In game one Farmington showed that they were up for the challenge beating Belgium 21-5 giving Belgium I their first loss. The final game of the tournament ended with Farmington I losing to Belgium I, 13-18. Belgium I finished in first place with Farmington I in second place and Random Lake in third.

Hard work, dedication, determination and friendship on and off the field made a successful season for the Farmington I ladies. Congratulations to all the players and coaches.

Indians Come Up Short Against Falls

The Kewaskum Indian football team gave the Sheboygan Falls Falcons their toughest game in two years, but came up just short in a 14-7 battle.

The game started off in a very fast pace when the Indians fumbled on their third play from scrimmage and the Falcons took it in with not even two minutes off the clock on a three yard run by Paul Widder.

Despite their fast start the score remained 7-0 all the way until 1:12 remained in the third quarter when Travis Kempf found Tom Ogi in the back of the end zone from five yards out. Matt Hartmann's kick was good and the game was tied 7-7.

In the fourth quarter, the Indians were able to pin the Falcons down on their own one-yard line. Kewaskum seemed to have the momentum, but the Falcons were able to sustain a 99-yard go ahead drive with a couple of key third down plays and took the lead for good with 2:56 remaining on another two-yard run by Paul Widder.

Kewaskum did get the ball back one more time, and was able to move into Falcons territory, but the drive stalled when the Falcons stopped the Kewaskum offense on a fourth down play.

Justin Rhoads finished the game with 43 yards on 17 carries. Travis Kempf was eight for 17 and 74 yards with a touchdown and interception. Tom Ogi caught three of those passes for 29 yards and a touchdown, and Tony Fitts caught three passes for 28 yards.

Kewaskum hosts Campbellsport in the Annual Kettle Moraine Bowl at 7 p.m. Friday.

A Tailgate Party being held from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Kewaskum Fire Station precedes the game. All proceeds from these pre-game festivities will go toward the bleacher fund.

W.B.'s Pokorski Wins 40 lap Winged Super Modified Espen Wins EWSC's 15 Lap Limited Late Model Semi-feature.

By Sheila Karstaedt
EWSC Correspondent

The race night started out with a memorial service to remember those who lost their lives, were injured or lost a loved one or friend in the terrorist attacks in New York, Pennsylvania, and Washington, DC.

After qualifying, all pit personnel circled the track while Sheboygan's VFW Post Color Guard presented the flag as Rachael Fiedler sang the National Anthem. Keith Borth carried the black flag in honor of the victims. EWSC Board of Directors and Local Law Enforcement Personnel led the Pledge of Allegiance followed by a tape of "Old Glory." "God Bless America" was sung by everyone and a memorial prayer was said by the Rev. Martino Sanders. "God Bless the USA." by Lee Greenwood, was played at the conclusion of the Memorial Service.

Paul Pokorski of West Bend won the EWSC 40 lap Winged Super Modified A-Main.

Fast time was set by Rick Thompson of Campbellsport with a lap of 17.205.

The 25 lap Super Stock feature saw Oostburg's Mark Scholten take the lead.

The 15 lap Limited Late Model semi-feature saw two cautions. Chad Espen of Kewaskum jumped out to the lead. The first caution of the race came out on lap 11 for debris on the track.

The restart saw Espen being hounded by Waldo's Jason Parrish, Jeremy Becker of Kiel, Sheboygan Falls Dave Schaezler, and Tom Schmitzer.

The second caution of the race was for several cars getting tangled together. The restart saw Espen, and other drivers fighting for the win. Espen went on to take the checkered flag.

Next week the Winged Super Modifieds and the Limited Late Models will be racing at the Sheboygan County Fairgrounds with the IRA Sprint Cars.

Good Week for KHS Golf Team

The Kewaskum High School girls golf team had an impressive week as they gave themselves a little more breathing room in the race for the conference title by shooting a 184 at Old Hickory in Beaver Dam on September 12.

Best score for the Indians was a 42 by sophomore Crystal Dreher but she got lots of help from her teammates with rounds of 46 by Courtney Timblin, 47 by Candi Heberer and 49 from Niki Dreher.

Second place went to Hartford with a 196 largely because of Samantha Wolf's score of 37. Third was Watertown with a 202, followed by 220 for West Bend West, 222 by Beaver Dam and Oconomowoc and a 230 by West Bend West.

On Saturday the team traveled to the Appleton West Invite held at Winagame Golf Course in Neenah and placed sixth in the 20 team event. The Indians shot a 370 team total but had outstanding 18 hole rounds from Courtney Timblin with a 42-38 for an 80 and Niki Dreher with a 37-44 for an 81. Sophomore Crystal Dreher and senior Maggie Herriges also helped the cause.

Finally, the team competed in another Little Ten match at Lac LaBelle in Oconomowoc on Monday, the 17th. Finishing with another first place, even though it was only by one stroke, gives the team a little more cushion as they go into their last conference meet next week.

Again paced by seniors Niki Dreher and Courtney Timblin, who both shot 46's, a 49 by Crystal Dreher and 51 by Candi Heberer, the Indians totaled a 192 on the cool and overcast evening.

Audrey Dickmann and Amanda Gessner also saw some varsity action in the contest. Kewaskum's team total of 192 was followed by Hartford's 193, Oconomowoc's 201, Watertown's 202, West Bend West's 215, Beaver Dam's 218 and West Bend East's 229. Medalist for the meet was Hartford's Samantha Wolf with a 42.

The Indians have four of the top 10 golfers in the Little Ten on their squad -- Niki Dreher, Crystal Dreher, Courtney Timblin and Candi Heberer.
