Scott Town Board Holds September Meeting

By Berndette Mondloch
Staff Writer/Photographer

The Beechwood Sportsman's Club has approached the Town of Scott Board of Supervisors for assistance in cleaning up the weed problem which exists in Beechwood Lake. Funds are needed to get rid of milfoil which is taking over the lake making it difficult to even launch a boat. Club members have obtained assistance from the Department of Natural Resources and have done an Aquatic study, looking for solutions to the problem.

The cost for a chemical which could be used on a three acre portion of the approximate ten acre lake area are estimated at $600 or more and about $280 for killing the algae.

The board will be looking into the possibility of obtaining a grant for the lake clean up or possibly including something in the 2003 budget. Plans are to tackle this project next spring.

The Fire Commission will be investigating two sub-standard driveways which exist within the town. Driveways must be 14 feet wide and free of vegetation which could hamper fire equipment when responding to a call.

Both Beechwood and Batavia firemen have the 2003 proposed budgets ready for presentation to the town board.

Plumbing which is in need of repair is creating added expense for the Scott Community Center. It is necessary to remove a 3 by 10 foot portion of the ceiling in order to get at the plumbing. Due to the leaky plumbing, the ceiling has begun to mold, another reason for its removal.

Supervisor Ike Kumrow reported that eight slippery signs have been swiped from North Maple Tree Road.

On South Maple Tree and Brazelton Drive, stop sign and dead end sign were removed by vandals, bent and thrown into the ditch.

Estimates are being sought for tires on the International and GMC trucks.

Cleaning Service costs are being investigated for the Community Center

Certified Survey for three acres owned by Harold Laux was approved

Nuisance ordinance from a neighboring town is being reviewed for possible adoption for the Town of Scott

New rules at the Recycling/transfer station: $1.00 for bag stickers or $1.00 for bags until the supply is exhausted

Picnic license approved for the Batavia Fire Department for October 5th Volkswagen Car Show.

Kewaskum High School To Present "The Pajama Game"

Auditions, tryouts and call backs have been completed. Parts have been selected and assigned. Rehearsals have been scheduled and held. Students have been measured for costumes and they have been ordered. Just imagine, all of the above has taken place just in the month of September and with the month of October upon us, much more will be taking place at KHS.

The show, which captures the musical energy of a group of working-class Americans involved in a labor dispute in a garment factory in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was created by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross was adapted from the Richard Bissell novel, 7H Cents. The Pajama Game is concerned with activities at the Sleep Tite Pajama Factory, where Sid Sorokin (Abe Foerster), the new plant supervisor, has developed a crush on Babe Williams (Sarah Karrels), a union representative. Their romance rides a bumpy road as it occurs during a confrontation between the factory's management and the workers, who are demanding a 7-cent raise in their hourly pay. Running parallel to the main love story is the romance of a fanatically jealous time study man, Hines (Kyle Lickel) and the plant president's secretary, Gladys (Alison Yanke).

This upcoming production promises to be an excellent time of enjoyment for you and your whole family. The performances will be offered on Friday, November 1, 2002, and Saturday, November 2, 2002. Please mark your calendars, set some time aside for the actors and musicians of KHS, and watch for more information on the continuing labor problems at the Sleep Tite Pajama factory. Who knows, maybe your pajamas were made there!

NEWS BRIEFS

Homecoming Info

The Kewaskum High School Student Council and entire student body would like to invite the area communities to all 2002 Homecoming activities. The Homecoming week will begin with a Powder Puff Football Game on Wednesday, Oct. 9 at 7:00 PM on the KHS football field. Many changes have occurred with this event and it is promised to be better than ever. On Friday, Oct. 11 we will begin our Homecoming night festivities with a parade at 5:00 PM. All KHS organizations are invited to participate and all community members are encouraged to attend. The parade will commence at the high school where it will lead into the 2nd annual Tailgate Party. Be sure to attend for great food, music, games and prizes! The Tailgate party will continue until the beginning of the Homecoming Football Game. We would like to invite the KHS classes of 1967 and 1972 as our special guests and encourage all other alumni to join us in celebrating Indian spirit.

Statesman Website Now Up And Running

It's taken almost a year but the Kewaskum Statesman's website <www.kewaskumstatesman.com> is now fully functional.

Statesman customers are now able to do a number of things at their convenience.

The front page consists of a simple menu bar on the left where you can click on buttons to navigate yourself around the site. On the right gives upcoming news stories and a weekly poll. News on the front page is posted daily, while only summaries are posted on the website customers can take a sneak peak at what is coming. Sports is posted weekly and obituaries are left on for two weeks from the date of posting.

Want to enter the world of classifieds? Hit the link to take you to the classified network. Customers are able to view and place classifieds online at their convenience.

Try the advertising link for current pricing, supplement schedules, soon advertisers will be able to pay their advertising statements via credit card or electronic check.

The Kettle Moraine Information link will take you directly to www.kmoraine.com where a wealth of information on current area events and history can be found.

Government links will be the browser's direct link to governmental agencies in the Statesman coverage area.

Under submissions the user is able to submit a wedding announcement, birth announcement, engagement or letter to the editor. Soon obituaries will be able to be submitted.

A staff email directory can also be found.

An event calendar is in the process of being created and is a work in progress.

Subscribers to the Statesman are now able to, under subscription info renew a subscription online, start a new subscription, change an address, find a newsstand that sells the Statesman or request a free sample copy. At a later date you will be able to purchase back issues from the site and report interruptions or problems with receiving the paper.

Moving on down the line you can click on Statesman History for a complete history of the paper since its debut in 1895. Photos of previous editors and daily life at the Statesman can also be found there.

In coming weeks please check the site frequently for updates. Also look for a link to get more information on our web design services and advertising on the site. We welcome your comments and suggestions for the site.

Let's Put All the Cards on the Table

How Big is the Unfunded Liability In the State Pension Plan?

TOWN OF BARTON - It is remarkable that it is late-2002, and Wisconsin has yet to release either the 2000 or 2001 Comprehensive Annual Financial Reports (CAFR) for the Employee Trust Fund (ETF) that reports the condition of the Wisconsin Retirement System based on Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. What explains the delay? The Legislative Audit Bureau (LAB) is reporting that the 2000 ETF CAFR will be released in "Fall 2002" and the 2001 ETF CAFR will be released in "Spring 2003." In contrast, the LAB released the 1999 ETF CAFR on August 3, 2000-within 8 months of the end of calendar year 1999.

Cathy Lawton, Independent candidate for the State Assembly in the 59th District, stated: "Perhaps it is just a coincidence that these important reports will not be released until after the November 2002 election-or, perhaps our elected officials are simply attempting to delay the release of still more bad news for the State's taxpayers. It is time to put all of the cards on the table. With a 1999 unfunded State pension liability of $2.1 billion and 2000-2002 investment losses of at least $4 billion, it is time for our elected officials to tell the taxpayers just how much more they will be paying to fund pensions for Wisconsin Retirement System employees." The public's explosive reaction to the Milwaukee County pension improvements-and the resulting resignation of Milwaukee County Executive Tom Ament, and the waves of successful Supervisor recalls-makes clear that the public cares about the salary and benefits that our elected officials provide for themselves.

The Wisconsin Retirement System (WRS) is a Defined Benefit Plan for Government Employees. The Wisconsin Retirement System is a Defined Benefit plan. In other words the State is obligated to pay the defined benefits to government employees, regardless of investment performance. For example, according to the Wisconsin Legislative Fiscal Bureau (LFB), a WRS career employee retiring after 30 years of service can usually expect an income of approximately 65% to 80% of previous gross earnings, when WRS pension and social security are combined. This, however, is in sharp contrast to private sector retirement plans. Beginning in the mid-1980s, the private sector moved away from Defined Benefit plans to avoid the risk of investment returns insufficient to fund the defined benefits. It is unclear why the State has decided to expose taxpayers to that risk by continuing the Defined Benefit plan. As noted by the State of Wisconsin Investment Board (SWIB) in the 1999 ETF CAFR:

Over the long-term, investment earnings play a major role in the viability of the retirement system. The funding of the retirement system assumes that some of the cost of benefits will be paid from investment earnings. Without these earnings, employer [taxpayer] and employee contributions would have to increase in order to maintain retirement benefit levels in the future. Retirement benefits, taxpayer and employee costs, and the extent to which the plan provides a funded guarantee of future benefits are affected by the investment results of Wisconsin's public retirement system. Lower investment income ultimately means that payments by taxpayers and employees are higher.

In addition, the 1999 ETF CAFR reported that: "State law requires the accrued retirement cost to be funded."

The Wisconsin Retirement System Experienced Significant Losses during the Period 2000 - 2002. Based on the 2001

Wisconsin Annual Fiscal Report (AFR), Wisconsin's investment losses exceeded $4 billion in the fiscal year ended June 30, 2001. In addition, it is likely that the investment losses continued in fiscal year 2002. As of December 31, 1999, the Wisconsin Retirement System's unfunded liability was more than $2.1 billion. According to the LFB, this unfunded liability resulted from: a) the Legislature's decisions to enact government employee benefit improvements that are applied retroactively, and b) prior service balances (i.e., the decision of certain public sector employers to cover the prior service of its employees as of the date it entered the Wisconsin Retirement System). The Wisconsin Retirement System's 1999 $2.1 billion unfunded liability is comprised of the following balances:

State of Wisconsin	$679.1 million
First Class Cities	$238.0 million
Fourth Class Cities	$2.4 million
Villages	$ 23.2 million
Special Districts	$6.7 million
Towns	$4.1 million
Counties	$241.9 million
School Districts	$874.3 million
Technical Colleges	$31.8 million
Cooperative Education Service Agencies	$10.0 million

The Legislature's most recent retirement benefit improvements were enacted in 1999, at which time benefit formula multipliers were increased retroactively. Interestingly, the Wisconsin Legislative Fiscal Bureau reported in October 2001 that any unfunded liability arising from the 1999 benefit improvements would not be determined until the actuarial valuation of December 31, 2001.

Wisconsin's Annual Pension Payments are Increasing Rapidly - 16.8% annually since 1996.

In 1990, total annuity payments for retirees were $663.2 million. In 2001, annuity payments were expected to exceed $2.3 billion. Where will the money come from to pay the rapidly growing WRS retirement benefits?

An American Naturalist In Cuba

The Evening with Nature Series at the Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest continues with "An American Naturalist in Cuba."

The program will be held on Thursday, October 10, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Henry S. Reuss Ice Age Visitor Center.

The Ice Age Visitor Center is located off of Highway 67, 1/2 mile west of Dundee. The program is free, but donations are always gratefully accepted.

Join Howard April, naturalist from Wehr Nature Center in Milwaukee, as he shares his recent teaching experience in Cuba. In 2002, Howard was part of a team of people sponsored by the International Crane Foundation that worked with local Cuban educators and students.

Discover how Cuba is dealing with the fall of communism, eco-tourism, the Internet, and their affect on the environment. Learn how a class of Wisconsin fourth graders connected with their Cuban counterparts.

For further information or directions to the Ice Age Visitor Center, please contact Jackie Scharfenberg, Forest Naturalist. She may be reached at (920) 533-8322, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Ten Finalists to Compete For Pig Kissing Honors

Slowly but surely, we are coming to the tail-end of our journey to bear witness to someone making kissing noises with a pig. We have patiently made it to the finals.

Without any further ado, because I know what a suspenseful time this has become in everyone's lives, I better announce who the fortunate five females and macho five males are who made it the final honor of the pucker. Big, sloppy, wet piggy kisses are in store for one guy and one girl.

FEMALE FINALISTS

AGGIE FLEISCHMAN
TAMMY GARBISCH
LYNDA WITT
JEANNE MARCHANT
JILL YANCY

MALE FINALISTS

DAVE TWOHIG
RON JON
BOB BONENFANT
ROY GARBISCH

Due to the difficulty understanding the ballots, faulty voting machines and the Chads that were not fully pushed through the ballots, the final voting tally was extremely time-consuming and this article will have to have a touch of brevity. I know, there are those who say I don't know how to be brief, but I'm learning.

However, I did want to remind everyone that the final pig-kissers (male and female) will be announced (and do the deed) around 2 p.m. on Sunday, October 13, as part of the annual Kettle Kountry Kolers Family Fun Festival. The exciting event will take place in the beer garden.

It will not be a formal affair, even though I've heard that Dave Twohig has rented a tux. If what Dave tells me is true, it is a sight to behold, and worth coming up to the park to see. I think all he will need yet is a red wig, a red bow tie, and, of course, red wax lips (for you know what!)

Dave also mentioned if he is the lucky winner, he is immediately leaving the park and going home to "share the wealth" with his wife, Kathy, who has been behind him all the way, encouraging everyone in Campbellsport to vote for Dave. She has been telling everyone that in Campbellsport, Dave will be the last guy to let you down!

And, wonder of wonders, the husband and wife tag team (Roy and Tammy Garbisch of Silver Platter fame) are still in contention. They had a bit of slow start, because Roy told everyone if they voted for him he would no longer put pork on the menu, but I think he's finally starting to warm-up to the idea of cuddling up to the little porker and sneaking a kiss on Sunday.

Actually, the end result of this fiasco has turned out better than I expected. There were a few candidates that had strong objections to standing in front of all of Kewaskum and the surrounding area to kiss a pig. Most of those people must have done something right for they are no longer in the running. Except for Jill Yancy. I don't know who, Jill, but SOMEONE wants to see your lips in action!

Take the easy way out... actually the only way out... stick massive amounts of money in the cans for your opponents. Aggie and Jeanne won't mind! Besides, Aggie has been quoted as saying there are worse things that could happen. Name one, Aggie!

I would really like to see a movement started to have Aggie and Jeanne BOTH give our little pink friend a little peck on each cheek. One on each side... but I won't say which cheek. I really like you guys... will you still be my friends? I'm trying to get all the nasties out of my system so that next week when I have to give an autobiography on everyone, I can learn to be kind. (Yeah, right!)

The Statesman's Secret Squirrel will be on the prowl this week trying to get candid pictures of our final ten candidates, and hopefully, just like the Miss America pageant, I can get a statement from all the potential kissers on just why they feel they are the best-suited for the job. Stay tuned and KEEP VOTING! Only 10 voting days left!

'Wet Down' Dedication Held at St. Lawrence

The 13th Washington County Wet Down took place on Monday evening in St. Lawrence.

This Wet Down was the official dedication of St. Lawrence's newest purchase for their fleet, a 1991 Emergency One Pumper from the city of Odessa, Texas. The unit has a high rise, enclosed cab with a 1500 gallon per minute pump.

Attending the ceremony were chairs Pat Hoerth of the Town of Hartford and Bob Bingen of the Town of Addison. Fire department representatives with vehicles from Allenton, Kohlsville, Slinger, Woodland, Iron Ridge, Richfield, Jackson, Theresa, Campbellsport, and Hartford. Assemblyman Glenn Grothman addressed the crowd and firefighters, showing his admiration for their dedication to help others.

The ceremony began with an appearance of two students from Slinger High School, Morgan Ilse and Mindy Kearns singing the National Anthem.

The first Wet Down began in Allenton, eight years ago, as the result of a number of Slinger firefighters attending a similar event on Long Island, New York. Since that date, Sheboygan, Waukesha, Ozaukee, Dodge and Fond du Lac counties departments have adopted this tradition.

A Wet Down allows those in the fire service to take time to meet with friends, to reflect on their purpose of being a firefighter and/or rescue technician. It gives the public an opportunity to join in with the firefighters as they dedicate their newest vehicle in the county and re-dedicate themselves to protecting and serving those that are having "one of the worst moments in their lives."

It wasn't many decades ago, that each department was solely on its own. "That calling for mutual aid meant you were inferior and couldn't do the job yourself. Now, we interact with each other in the most highest standard of professionalism," said Ron Naab, assistant chief of the Allenton Fire Department.

It is the desire that the firefighters never have to respond to a call that involves a family member or one of their own, or one that involves the death of any human. These tragedies are very trying on each and every firefighter and rescue personnel, as well as family members.

However, as with this Wet Down, there are many good times and rewards for helping someone at possibly the very worst moment of their lives. A firefighter and EMT/First Responder loves the challenge of solving a problem.

These are a unique breed of people that thrive on problem solving and pushing the envelope to help others. This special group of hometown heroes devotes much of their time to doing a better job, hoping not to have to use their skills. They enjoy traditional things; they respect patriotism, love their country and their communities.

Most important, they cherish the ability to purchase equipment and vehicles that allow them to do a better job with more efficiency and safety.

St. Lawrence has now inherited the traveling trophy designating the date and location of the latest Wet Down, along with plaques denoting all the other Wet Downs. This trophy will stay with the St. Lawrence department until the next Wet Down occurs.

Hartford Fire Department is about to accept delivery of a new engine from Emergency One and very well may be the next site for a Wet Down.

Terror on Rural Street Opens Oct. 4

The Hartford Community Service Inc. will be hosting their fifth annual Terror on Rural Street starting Friday, October 4. They will be selling tickets for $8 from 6:30 to 10:30 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays, October 4, 5, 11, 12, 18, 19, 25 and 26. They will be selling tickets on Sundays, October 20 and 27 from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Terror on Rural Street is located at 147 North Rural Street, next to the Wisconsin Automotive Museum.

Terror on Rural Street is Wisconsin's premier hi-tech haunted house, consisting of 12 rooms and a maze featuring over 40 costumed actors and dozens of theme park quality special effects.

Proceeds from this event go to support Hartford Community Service Inc. scholarships, community projects, and area non-profit organizations.

Concessions are available while you take shelter from the monsters of the night in their heated lobby.

Bring the family, relatives, friends and neighbors and remember it's a time to be SCARED!

For more information, contact Hartford Community Service Inc. N2298 S. Resthaven Rd., Rubicon, WI 53078 or call 262-670-0998 evenings. Terror line 262-673-0998 (24/7 beginning Oct. 1).

4-H Open House Oct. 3

The Kewaskum 4-H'ers will host an Open House on Thursday, October 3, from 7 to 8 p.m. at the Kewaskum Town Hall, located at the intersection of Highway 28 East and Kettle Moraine Drive (9019 Kettle Moraine Drive).

4-H is open to youth from kindergarten through high school. Youth, parents and families interested in learning more about 4-H are encouraged to attend. Club members will display their projects, offer hands-on activities and serve refreshments.

If you are unable to attend and are interested in joining 4-H, contact the Club's General Leader, Mrs. Bonnie Zanow, at 626-8071.

Free Concert At West Bend

On Saturday, October 12 at 7 p.m. Lighthouse Ministries, Inc., a non-denominational ministry will be presenting a free concert with national recording artist Geoff Moore along with Roscoe Meek from the Distance Band.

Lighthouse has been putting on concerts for the last 15 years and this is one you will not want to miss out on. The concert will take place at the West Bend high school auditorium, 1305 E. Decorah Rd., West Bend. Seating is limited to 1250, with doors opening at 6 p.m.

With four straight Grammy award nominations, 11 number one hits, four Dove awards and six Dove award nominations, Geoff continues to have a great impact on people of all ages. He has written several songs with his friend, Steven Curtis Chapman and has shared the 1993 Gospel Music Association Dove Award song of the year "The Great Adventure with Chapman. His most recent project with Chapman was the number one song, "Speechless," which has been played on every Christian radio station across the nation.

With themes of grace, perseverance, compassion, charity, friendship, and love, Geoff delivers a multifaceted, yet back-to-basics acoustic sound, built upon compelling melodies that showcase his distinctive, impassioned voice. The concert will be more of an intimate time with Geoff and Rescue as they play some of his past and present hits. You will see that Geoff has a passionate heart for God and a willing hand for man as he sponsors Compassion International at his concerts.

Special guests Matt and Suzie K. will be opening for Geoff.

For more information call 262-338-0205.

Season Tickets Available For KM Symphony

The Kettle Moraine Symphony announces the sale of season tickets for its 2002-2003 35th Anniversary Season. Purchasers will get a seat at each of the six concerts at performances from October to next May. They are priced at $60 for adults and $55 for seniors or students.

"Purchasing season tickets can save more than 30% over single admissions, and there are other benefits," said Mark Koenig, KMS Executive Director. "Purchasers will be seated on a preferred basis, so they can make the most of their listening experience. And they will receive our newsletter to learn the latest about concerts and orchestra news."

The ticket package covers the following events:

Opener Concert, Oct. 19 at Washington County Fair Park or at the Schauer Arts and Activities Center.

Christmas Concert, Dec. 13 at the Schauer Center.

Winter Concert, January

25 at the University of Wisconsin - Washington County Theater.

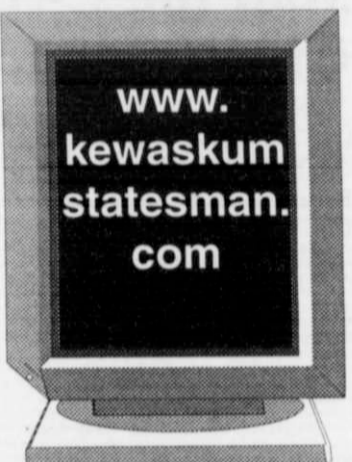

Kids Concert, Feb. 8 at the Fair Park.

Concerto Concert, March 22 at the Schauer Center.

Pops Concert, May 17 at the Fair Park.

Each of the concert venues has free parking and is fully accessible to all.

Season tickets can be ordered by calling the Kettle Moraine Symphony at 262-334-3469. They will be delivered about October 1.

Musical Masquers to Hold Auditions for New Year's Show

Musical Masquers will hold auditions for their annual New Year's Eve production at Immanuel UCC, 501 Walnut, in West Bend, on Saturday, October 5 from 9 to 11:30, and on Tuesday, October 8, from 7 to 9, in Fellowship Hall downstairs. Enter from Walnut and go down the stairs.

The play Cowgirls is the story of six musicians, three of the classical genre and three of the country persuasion, who come together in Hiram Hall somewhere in Kansas to make music that's a little bit of each.

Needed are six females ranging in age from 20 to 50 who are singers/musicians. The women play piano, violin, cello, guitar, banjo, autoharp and bucket. If you are both a musician and a singer, or if you wish to work behind the scenes, contact Mugs McFadden at 262-626-4638 for further information.

Join the C-Sport Advent/Christmas Cantata

You are welcome to join the Advent/Christmas Cantata. The Campbellsport Ecumenical Ministerium of the Campbellsport area invite you to join the Cantata with your singing and instruments. Books will be supplied with the music and a CD of "The Perfect Christmas".

Tentative dates are Dec. 15 and/or 22 for the performances. No try-outs are necessary, just a desire to sing in a large group to sing the Lord's praises!

Call as soon as possible to register 920-533-8132. The first of five rehearsals (every other Wednesday) is Oct. 9, at the United Christian Church on Forest St. in Campbellsport at 7pm.

Children are also urged to join and will practice before the big group, at 6 pm.

Parade of Colors Fall Hike Oct. 5

A Parade of Colors Fall hike will be held on the New Fane Trail, Saturday, October 5, 2002, beginning at 10 a.m. It is sponsored by the Washington/Ozaukee Chapter and the North Kettle Moraine Chapter of the Ice Age Park and Trail Foundation. Directions to the New Fane Trail are from New Fane, drive south on Kettle Moraine Drive, then turn east on County Line Road. Trailhead is on left (north) side of road 1/4 mile east of K.M. Drive.

A guided walk will be at 11 a.m. Hikes of varying lengths are offered. Refreshments and shuttles will be provided. Contact Dori Maier at 262-306-0970 or Barb Romberger at 920-923-6408.

Fishing Tourney At Long Lake This Weekend

The Long Lake Fishing Club is sponsoring a "Two Day Fishing Tournament" on Saturday and Sunday, October 5 and 6. The top individual prize will be $75 with six winners collecting a share of a $300 purse.

The entry fee is $10 for club members and $20 for non-members, which includes a 2002-2003 membership. Each fisherperson can register the single longest fish in each of six categories: Northern Pike, Walleye, Bass, Bluegill, Crappie and Perch. Total length of each contestant's catch will count.

The two-day tournament gives entrants extra time to catch a legal-sized fish from each of the six categories. Come and enjoy the fun of fishing on Long Lake and the excitement of being a contestant in this annual tournament.

Registration forms are available around the lake at Dins Mini Mart, Benson's Hide-a-Way and Millie's Tavern. Last minute registrations can be made at Dins Mini Mart until 11 a.m. on Saturday, October 5.

Fish check-in and measuring will take place at Benson's Hide-a-Way on the north end of the lake starting each day at 11:30 a.m. and ending at 12:30 p.m. sharp. If you have questions please call John or Don at 920-533-4770.

Benefit Being Held For Cancer Patient

A fund-raising benefit is being held for Julie Mondloch/Griffin on Saturday, October 12, from 2 p.m. until ?? at Cedar Hills Inn, 4534 Arthur Road, Slinger.

Live music will be performed by Mark Pannier and the B.B.s from 3 to 6 p.m. There will also be a pig roast, raffles and a silent auction.

To get to Cedar Hills Inn from West Bend, take Highway 33 West to Highway Z and then take Highway Z to Arthur Road.

Julie is 36-years-old and was diagnosed with inflammatory breast cancer in November of 2001. After four months of chemotherapy and radiation, the cancer spread to her bones.

On September 6, 2002, Julie's doctors told her they had found two brain tumors and without treatment, she had one month to live. With treatment, she would possibly have six months to live.

Julie is a single mother of two. Her son, Jeremy, is 15 and her daughter, Heather, is 10. Julie has no life insurance and not enough health insurance to cover her medical bills. She is unable to work due to the second round of radiation treatments and her progressed cancer.

If you are unable to attend, but would still like to make a donation, please call Toni Krahn at 920-528-8700 or Bernadette Mondloch at 920-994-4876. Donations can also be mailed directly to the Julie Griffin Fund, % TSB Bank - Mayville, P.O. Box 1111, Lomira, WI 53048.

Halloween Nature Hikes

Are you looking for a non-scary, but fun-filled Halloween event? The Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest is offering their fifth annual Halloween Nature Hikes on Friday, October 18, and Saturday, October 19, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The hikes will take place at the Long Lake Recreation Area located off of Division Road, just north of Highway F, about one mile east of Dundee. Groups of about 30 people will leave every six minutes with the last hike leaving at 8:30 p.m. Each hike will last about one hour. The hikes are most appropriate for those over the age of five years.

Mysterious things are happening in the Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest! The forest creatures are talking and do they have stories to tell. As you wander through the dark autumn woods, you'll meet a cast of characters including a wild turkey, a slimy salamander, frolicking squirrels and a wise old owl to name a few.

If you listen closely, you will learn how they are adapted for surviving in the woods and how we can help protect their way of life.

There will also be exciting games and crafts for the kids to do before or after their hikes. The Friends of the Kettle Moraine will provide hot and cold cider and popcorn for all the hikers. State Park vehicle admission stickers are required for this event. A daily sticker is $5 and an annual sticker is $20.

For more information contact Jackie Scharfenberg, forest naturalist, at the Ice Age Visitor Center at (920) 533-8322.

Golf Balls and Butterflies Take Flight - So Can We

What does the word "four" make you think of? The number after three?

I might think this, too - unless it's a beautiful day. Then I'd think of golf. "Fore," that is, yelled behind a bumpy, white ball, soaring for a distant green.

Hard and dimpled, modern day golf balls no longer have their ancestors, outer casing which was perfectly smooth, similar to a ping pong ball. The golf balls were re-made and "dimpled" when someone discovered that roughing them up a little made them fly farther and faster.

Golf balls, humans. Same.

And speaking of flying... Have you ever watched a butterfly being born? The cocoon seems to convulse endlessly, convincing the onlooker that the butterfly is surely trapped and will never break free. Any witness to such a delivery can be tempted to help - to just tear the cocoon wall ever so gently, making it easy for the butterfly to come through. Ironically, to do for the butterfly what the butterfly needs to do for himself is to deny the butterfly its ability to fly.

The process of struggle within the cocoon is what builds the strength the butterfly needs to soar. No struggle, no flight.

Butterflies, humans. Same.

Sixteen hunters recently completed the Wisconsin Hunter Education course sponsored by the Kewaskum Police Department, the Kettle Moraine Sportsman Association, the New Fane Sportsman's Club and the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. The instructor was Richard Knoebel, a certified DNR Hunter Education instructor.

Students who successfully completed the basic course received a distinctive embroidered emblem attached to a blaze orange hunting hat and a lifetime Hunter Education Certificate, they are: Brian Ernise, Lindsey Ernise, Erica Esser, Gary Esser, Jenny Frederick, Andy Garbish, Nick Garbish, Jason Geidel, Jordon Gonring, Tanner Lauters, Blaise Lopez, Dustin Luther, Jessie Michaels, Cory Rutherford, Craig Sedgewick and Emily Sedgewick.

The course included lessons on hunter responsibilities, firearms safety in the home and a field, knowledge of firearms and hunting equipment, wild life identification and management, marksmanship and other outdoor skills.

All graduates were given the opportunity to fire rifles and shotguns at the New Fane Sportsman Club grounds. The New Fane Sportsman Club donated the range, ammunition and facilities.

The next Hunter Education Class is scheduled to begin in April 2003. Anyone interested in taking the class should call the Kewaskum Police Department as soon as possible as space is limited.

Lecture Focuses on Technological Transformation of Life and Work

WEST BEND - Are you unable to settle for conventional wisdom and mediocrity - do you have a passion for knowledge? If so, then plan on attending a stimulating lecture by Richard Thieme on October 10th at 7:30 p.m. at UW-Washington County. Thieme, internationally known business consultant, writer and professional speaker, will discuss the human dimension of technology and the work place as well as change management and organizational effectiveness.

The focus of Thieme's lecture is "living on the edge..." the edge of the technological transformation of life and work, the edge of personal and organizational change, and the edge of a diverse world. Above all, the former Episcopal priest addresses the edge of a genuine practical spirituality, the kind that responds to the question: "What works?" A common response heard afterwards from those attending Thieme's lectures, is "He really made me think."

Thieme has been called "one of the most creative minds of the digital generation" by the editors of CTHEORY and Digital Delirium and... "an online pundit of hacker culture" according to the LA Times. He is a contributing editor for Information Security Magazine and a regular speaker at the Black Hat Briefings (intelligence and corporate security). His column, "Islands in the Clickstream," is published in Singapore, Toronto, and Capetown and distributed to subscribers in 58 countries. Thieme has spoken four times for the Black Hat Briefings (intelligence and corporate security) and five times for Def Con, the annual computer hackers' convention.

This lecture is free and open to anyone interested in learning how to develop their creative intelligence skills (thinking "outside the box"), as well as those interested in internet technology and computer security. UW-Washington County is located at 400 University Drive in West Bend.

Countdown to KEYS Run/Walk

There are still 10 days until the ninth annual KEYS Run/Walk on Sunday, October 13. KEYS members report that they are halfway to their goal of having 1,000 participants for this event which raises scholarship money for Kewaskum High School students.

Participants who register before race day receive the price break of $15 per registration, or $50 for a family of four. On race day the price for each registration will be $20.

This year the KEYS race t-shirt is a colorful teal green and is sure to be pleasing to all who participate in the event. Shirts have been designed for KEYS again this year by Dianne Wrucke, a graphics designer who has been awarded for her work by Runner's World magazine. Shirts are now on display at all our Kewaskum public and private schools.

The KEYS Run/Walk begins at 11 a.m. in River Hill Park. This event is a great way to exercise, benefit your community, and enjoy a day as a family.

Registration forms are available at West Bend Savings Bank, Miller's Furniture, SynergyHealth clinics, and all Kewaskum area schools. Completed forms can be dropped off at any of these places, or sent to Kewaskum High School, PO Box 124, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

Area Agencies Respond to Mock Bioterrorism Event

WEST BEND - Area health and public safety agencies tested their response to a mock bioterrorism incident recently when the county Bioterrorism Readiness Committee held its second "tabletop" exercise of the year in which key local emergency management personnel discuss a simulated emergency and evaluate their responses and resources.

Most of the 25 representatives from St. Joseph's Community Hospital, Washington County, West Bend, city and county fire, law enforcement, emergency management, health agencies, and media didn't know the problem they would face when they walked into the Police Department Training Room.

"The committee developed the scenario in meeting the months before. One of our main goals was to test police and city hall personnel's response to this type of incident," said Pat Pearson, infection control coordinator at St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend, who chairs the committee.

Participants divided into three teams and were given bits of information as the mock situation developed.

1:20 p.m. - A police dispatcher receives a 9-1-1 call from Cheryl in the Parks and Recreation Department that there is a disturbance in the Commons area, apparently a fight between an employee and another person.

1:22 p.m. - The dispatcher receives another 9-1-1 call from Jean in the clerk's office who can see three people fighting; one person is on the floor and bleeding.

1:23 p.m. - Two police arrive and find the suspect being held down by the court police officer and an employee.

Tabletop participants gradually learned that the imaginary suspect, who had been in municipal court and had made anti-government threats, also poured several bottles of an unknown liquid onto the floor. The liquid came into contact with clothing and people causing contamination.

Based on the facts they knew, teams were asked "What would you do next?" "Who should be called?" "What precautions should responders use?" "How should the contamination be identified, isolated and eliminated?"

"There was a diverse group at each table, and we all worked through the same scenario," said Margie Klink, director of public relations at St. Joseph's. "It made you think what would you do, where would you go, and when. It was interesting to see it play out, and to see how all the different branches of government and services are talking to each other during a crisis."

At the end of the exercise, participants were asked: Would they have made any changes in their earlier evaluations? Were there liability issues? What if the organism or chemical was one that was easily passed on and capable of causing death?

The bioterrorism exercise was held September 10, 2002, just one day short of the anniversary of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks on the United States. The Bioterrorism Readiness Committee has been working on disaster issues since 1999.

"I very much appreciate St. Joseph's hospital staff working with us, and for being a leader in the area of bioterrorism. St. Joseph's started with us almost two years ago, well before 9-11," said West Bend Mayor Mike Miller.

He said the tabletop format gave participants a chance to "rehearse" what would happen in a real emergency, something you can't do in a crisis. And he noted that the exercise also showed that participants had different thoughts on how problems should be handled, depending on who they were, but were able to arrive at a common solution.

A functional exercise is being planned for October at the hospital to test its new disaster plan. Craig Schickert of the Emergency Care Center; Bob Peck, safety and security coordinator; and Pat Pearson are working on that exercise, which is a level above a "tabletop" and involves a simulated, real-time exercise from a command post. The Joint commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations requires the hospital to test the response phase of its emergency management plan twice a year, either in response to an actual emergency or in planned drills. Drills are conducted between four and eight months apart.

Pearson said that the teams handled several dilemmas well. One dilemma involved the need to take specimens of the questionable liquid to Madison for testing while, at the same time, working to contain the perimeter where the contamination occurred. Teams decided that rather than call for a helicopter, a squad car could take the specimen most efficiently and safely. Mark Ormsby, director of regional planning for Wisconsin Emergency Management, who helped to review the exercise, agreed.

Pearson added that as a result of the session the hospital and city also agreed that the hospital would be represented in the incident command center during a disaster. The command center - a special room in the police department - would be the base of operations for the incident commander (usually a fire department official). The chain of authority, known as the incident management system, has safety, liaison, and public information officers reporting to the incident commander, who oversees operations, planning, logistics and finance activities.

Participants in the September 10 bioterrorism exercise included:

Debbie Geidel, City of West Bend - Administration.

Dennis W. Melvin, City of West Bend - Administrator.

Gerald Kudek, City of West Bend - Fire Department.

Jim Vest, City of West Bend - Fire Department.

Borchardt Named Commercial Banking VP By WB Savings

West Bend Savings Bank Senior Vice President for Commercial Lending, Tom Hopp, has named David R. Borchardt Vice President Commercial Banking. Borchardt has been Branch Manager of the bank's Random Lake office since it opened in September 2000.

"As a full-time Vice President for Commercial Banking, I will have the opportunity to bring more and better banking services to the businesses of the Random Lake area, just as we did to the retail/person side two years ago," stated Borchardt. "This is a very positive career move for me; something I've looked forward to since coming over to West Bend Savings Bank two years ago."

Random Lake and the surrounding area have been identified as a "growth zone" for businesses, according to bank spokesman, and it is in the bank's interest to have someone with a strong interest in, and knowledge of the local economy representing the bank's commercial banking efforts in the area.

Borchardt, who will be located in the bank's new office in Random Lake, is a life-long resident of Random Lake with over 10 years of experience in all aspects of banking. He will be involved in the commercial banking prospects for all sizes of businesses in Random Lake and the surrounding areas.

David R. Borchardt was named as Vice President, Commercial Lending by West Bend Savings Bank.

Leicht Named Branch Manager For WB Savings, Random Lake

West Bend Savings Bank Random Lake Branch Manager Christina Leicht.

Christina (Chris) Leicht has been named Branch Manager of the West Bend Savings Bank Random Lake office according to Linda Kreutzer, Vice President for Retail Sales for the West Bend based institution.

Leicht who has 10 years in the banking industry, has been a "floating" Branch Manager for West Bend Savings Bank, meaning she has been filling in for branch managers throughout the bank's 14-branch system. "I'm very happy to have a permanent home-branch of my own," says Leicht, who is a resident of Waldo, "and having it in this beautiful new facility right in Random Lake is about as good as I could hope for."

"Chris will be able to handle and sustain the terrific growth we've enjoyed in Random Lake," according to Kreutzer. "She's an excellent banker and a wonderful people-person, we have no doubt she will blend into the branch and continue to serve the customers just as David (Borchardt) has for the last two years."

Leicht takes over the Random Lake Branch Manager position from David R. Borchardt. Borchardt, whose office will also be in Random Lake, has been named Vice President Commercial Banking by the bank.

West Bend Savings Bank opened a new facility at the corner of Evergreen Drive and Highway 57 in July of this year after being located next to the Midway Mart since September of 2000. The new building, with lobby, drive through, and conference facilities is the result of the bank's realization of the growth occurring along the Random Lake / Highway 57 corridor and the success their products and programs have found in the area.

Governor Announces Federal Terrorism Grants Local Responders Eligible for $5.9 Million for Equipment and Training

MADISON - Gov. Scott McCallum announced today that Wisconsin will receive more than $5.9 million in federal grants to distribute to local first responders so they can buy equipment, cover training costs, and conduct terrorism-related exercises.

"September 11 made us realize it is critical that our emergency responders receive the appropriate equipment and training they need to do their jobs safely and protect our citizens," Gov. McCallum said. "These federal dollars will further aid our efforts to make sure Wisconsin communities are prepared for every possibility."

Of the grant money, $5.5 million is for equipment and $413,000 for training and conducting exercises. In conjunction with this grant approval, Wisconsin Emergency Management (WEM) submitted the FY 2002 Expenditure Plan, which outlines how the grant money will be allocated at the local and state levels.

WEM should receive federal approval by mid-October and then will begin working with county emergency management directors, hazardous material teams and bomb squads to distribute the money.

This grant award resulted from the completion of the statewide assessment of first responder needs and capabilities conducted by all 72 counties last year.

Rep. Grothman to Receive 'Friend of Grocers' Award

Madison - Representative Glenn Grothman (Republican-West Bend) will receive the "Friend of Grocers" award on Thursday, September 26, 2002 at 4:00 p.m. at Olsen's Piggly Wiggly, W61 N286 Washington Avenue in Cedarburg.

The "Friend of Grocers" award is given to Legislators who earn the letter grade of "A" on the Wisconsin Grocers Association (WGA) Biannual Legislative Report Card.

The WGA makes a shopping list of issues significant to the retail food industry and assigns grades to Legislators based on their legislative performance during the session.

Legislators who earn an "A" are awarded a miniature grocery cart with an affixed plaque recognizing them as a "Friend of Grocers". In addition, "Friend of Grocers" recipients receive the endorsement of the WGA for the 2002 elections.

The award will be presented to Representative Grothman by Brandon Scholz, WGA President and Layton Olsen, Owner of Olsen's Piggly Wiggly.

"The WGA is proud to be able to present Representative Grothman with this award at Olsen's Piggly Wiggly in Cedarburg. Both Representative Grothman and Olsen's Piggly Wiggly share the common goal of providing excellent customer service to their constituencies," said Scholz.

Representative Grothman was also a recipient of the 1998 and 2000 Friend of Grocers awards. "Receiving this award and recognition for three consecutive sessions is a testament to the consistent support Representative Grothman has given our industry," concluded Scholz.

Emergency Care Center

24-hour board certified emergency physicians caring for over 16,000 patients this year

Patients coming to the emergency care center at St. Joseph's Community Hospital can depend on its 24-hour staff of board certified emergency physicians, a distinction that not all hospitals can claim and patients should ask about.

Specially trained in a wide range of adult and pediatric emergencies, the emergency physicians at St. Joseph's are also board certified by the American Board of Emergency Medicine, having successfully completed the board's comprehensive examination of their competence in emergency medicine.

When life's emergencies need expert attention, you can depend on St. Joseph's specialists to provide the care you need.

BBQ Chicken Pizza is made with barbecue sauce in place of tomato sauce. The dish can be a tangy and tasty alternative to regular pizza.

BBQ Chicken Pizza Makes 1 (12-inch) thick-crust pizza

Dough:
2¼ to 2½ cups all-purpose flour
1 envelope Fleischmann's RapidRise Yeast
1 teaspoon salt
¾ cup water
2 tablespoons olive oil
Cornmeal

Topping:
½ cup barbecue sauce
Barbecued chicken (recipe follows)
1½ cups diced ham
2 tablespoons chopped green onion
1 cup grated Swiss cheese

In a large bowl, combine ¾ cup flour, undissolved yeast, and salt. Heat water and olive oil until very warm (120° to 130°F). Gradually add to flour mixture. Beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough remaining flour to make a soft dough. Knead on lightly floured surface until smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Cover; let rest 10 minutes.

Shape dough into a ball; roll to a 13-inch circle. Place on 12-inch pizza pan that has been brushed with olive oil and sprinkled with cornmeal. Form a standing rim by pinching the edge of the dough. Let dough rest 10 minutes;

TOWN OF KEWASKUM NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING FOR CONDITIONAL USE PERMIT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing will be held before the Town Board of the Town of Kewaskum at the Town Hall located at 9019 Kettle Moraine Drive in the Town of Kewaskum at 7:30 p.m., October 21, 2002 to consider the application of Allen and Louisa Reindl for the issuance of a Conditional Use Permit for a farm consolidation as provided for in Section 3.03 (C)(1) of the Town Zoning Ordinance. Granting the permit will allow the applicants to remove the house and farm buildings on a preexisting parcel zoned EA. Exclusive Agriculture, for sale purposes. The applicant's property is located at 4655 Badger Road, Part of the NW 1/4 of the NE ¼ of Section Nineteen (19) of the Town of Kewaskum.

Dated this 30th day of September 2002.

J. Sandra Stern, Town Clerk

prick with fork randomly. Par bake at 400°F for 10 minutes. Spread barbecue sauce over dough. Top with meats, onion, and cheese.

Bake at 450°F for 10 to 12 minutes or until crust is golden.

Barbecued Chicken:
Season 2 boneless chicken breasts with 1 teaspoon salt and ½ teaspoon ground black pepper. Marinate in 1 cup barbecue sauce for 1 hour. Drain chicken. Discard marinade. Grill or broil chicken, turning and basting with additional sauce, about 15 minutes or until chicken is tender and no longer pink in center. Slice.

TOWN OF WAYNE PUBLIC NOTICE

A public hearing will be held at 7:30 pm on Tuesday, October 15, 2002 in the Town Hall of the Town of Wayne 6030 Mohawk Rd, Campbellsport, WI 53010.

The purpose of the hearing will be to receive public comment on a Petition to rezone property from A-2 Agricultural/Rural/Residential to B-3 Highway Business District submitted by James Murphy (property owner) and Lamar Advertising. The property is located on the Southwest side of Highway 41 in section 7 of the Town of Wayne. The reason for the application is to facilitate a Conditional Use Permit to move a billboard located in the State DOT Right-of-Way to the adjacent parcel. The Tax key number is T12 012-0148 in section 7 in the Town of Wayne.

TYPE E NOTICE - VOTING BY ABSENTEE BALLOT

Any qualified elector who is unable or unwilling to appear at the polling place on election day may request to vote an absentee ballot. A qualified elector is any U.S. citizen, who will be 18 years of age or older on election day, who has resided in the ward or municipality where he or she wishes to vote for at least 10 days before the election. If voter registration is required, the elector must also be registered.

TO OBTAIN AN ABSENTEE BALLOT YOU MUST MAKE A REQUEST IN WRITING.

Contact your municipal clerk and request that an application for an absentee ballot be sent to you for the election. You may also request an absentee ballot by letter. Your written request must list your voting address within the municipality where you wish to vote, the address where the absentee ballot should be sent, if different, and your signature.

Special absentee voting application provisions apply to electors who are indefinitely confined to home or care facility, in the military, hospitalized, or serving as a sequestered juror. If this applies to you, contact the municipal clerk.

You can also personally go to the clerk's office, complete a written application, and vote an absentee ballot.

Former First Lady of State to Host Free Women's Health, Wellness Retreat in West Bend

West Bend Area women are invited to a free, one-day Women's Health and Wellness Retreat hosted by Former First Lady Sue Ann Thompson and the Wisconsin Women's Health Foundation on Thursday, October 10 from 8:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the West Bend Inn and Convention Center. "We hope to give women tools that will help them cultivate wellness in their own lives, as well as give them a day that will leave each woman feeling up-lifted in body, mind and spirit," says Thompson.

Registration and health screenings will begin at 8:30 a.m. followed by author, speaker and humorist Mary Pierce - "The Laugh Lady" - who will open the morning with her inspirational keynote: "Get a Grip! Hanging on in Hectic Times." The morning general session will also include a video and brief discussion about the physical affects of alcohol on women. WWHF President Sue Ann Thompson will close the day with a goal setting exercise as part of her keynote presentation entitled: "Making a List You Can Live With: Small Steps Count."

A complimentary lunch is also included in the program, and each woman attending will have an opportunity to attend three-45 minute breakout sessions which include:

Breast Cancer: What Are My Risks?, Jill Kolesar, PharmD, BCPS, Associate Professor of Pharmacy, UW-Madison.

Controversies in Hormone Replacement Therapy, Dean Pollnow, MD, Aurora Health Care.

Eating Your Way to Good Health, Myra Peters, Paradise East Springs Health and Wellness Center.

Journal Writing for Growing and Healing, Shirley Cunningham, MA, MSW, CISW, Amoranita Publishing Company, Scottsdale, AZ.

Matters of the Heart, DeAnn Campbell, MPAS, PA-C, Aurora Health Care.

Osteoporosis: What You and Your Loved Ones Can Do About It, Mary Beth Elliot, PharmD, PhD, UW-Madison School of Pharmacy.

The program reflects the Foundation's philosophy that wellness encompasses both physical and mental health. "Our physical and mental health are interconnected," says Thompson. "A deficiency in one area makes it difficult to maintain the other; we need to strive for a balance between the two. Through these retreats, we hope to empower women to make positive life-style changes." The Retreat is also being hosted in West Bend in memory of Mrs. Thompson's brother, Bill Bunk, who was a long time resident of West Bend and who lost his life to cancer just a few years ago.

The Wisconsin Women's Health Foundation was established in 1997 by former First Lady Sue Ann Thompson after her own recovery from breast cancer and is founded upon the principal that "it all begins with a healthy woman." Women are responsible for making over 85% of all healthcare decisions - essentially a healthy woman means a healthy family. The Foundation's primary mission is to help women throughout Wisconsin become better advocates for their health and their families by connecting women with the information, resources and tools they need to be healthy.

The Women's Health and Wellness Retreat is one of seven which will be presented by the Wisconsin Women's Health Foundation throughout the state. Presenting partners include Aurora Health Care and Genesis Behavior Services. Other sponsors include the Wisconsin Department of Health and Family Services Division of Supportive Living and Division of Public Health and Charter Communications.

The retreat is free and open to the public with lunch included, but seating is limited. Reservations can be made by calling 1-800-448-5148.

Mueller Mauls 'Em at Dickeyville

Lloyd Mueller celebrates his 2002 National Championship at Delbarton, West Virginia.

By Bud Northrup

Clay Wilwert has done an outstanding job improving the infamous 500 foot hill outside of Dickeyville, Wisconsin, actually making it possible to run two hills at the same time. The 2003 National Amateur Hill-climb Championships will be hosted by Wilwert's Harley Davidson, and use that two hill format. It should be very entertaining.

The last Dickeyville climb of 2002 was held on September 15 with Lloyd Mueller, from Kewaskum, posting the fastest ride of the day. Riding his beautiful Harley Davidson, and fresh from winning the 2002 National Championship in the Open Class, Mueller came from behind to win the Open Class at Dickeyville. Todd Cipala had set the first round fast time for the class (and overall) at 10.13 seconds on his hot Harley, while Mueller was hot on his wheels with a 10.38 second run. In the second round, however, Mueller chose a new line up the hill and really made it work, posting a 9.97 second run. Cipala (National number two) crashed at 395 feet on a full throttle attack trying to overtake Mueller, and had to settle for second place. Chad Koopsma blasted over in 10.70 seconds on his Honda for third with Harold Waddel and Mike Schobert taking fourth and fifth.

In the King of the Hill dash for cash, Mueller and Cipala again emerged at the top. Cipala carded an exceptional 9.78 second time, but Mueller wasn't to be denied - he delivered an unbelievable ride, roaring over the top in an astounding 9.05 seconds to take the King of the Hill money as well as the overall fast time award. Harold Waddel, Chad Koopsma and Lane Schultz filled in the top five spots.

Cipala still had a good day for himself, however, as he came from behind for the win in the 750cc Novice class. Tom Daniels had set the first round time at 11.38 seconds on his Kaw Triple, and Cipala posted a 11.68 second run on his triple. In the second round, Kaleb Northrup flew his National number two triple over the top in 11 seconds flat to take the class lead. Daniels crashed trying to overtake Northrup, and all waited for Cipala to come to the line. Cipala was late coming, as he had to change rear wheels from his KX500 to the triple (he'd flattened the triple's tire), but the work paid off for him as he carded a 10.66 second run to take the class win. National number four Jason Northrup finished fourth with Chris Meyer claiming fifth.

Harold Waddell was a double winner, taking the 600cc four stroke and 750 Expert class wins on his Triumph twins. The four-stroke class was exceptionally tight with Waddell's winning time of 11.97 seconds only 9/1,000's quicker than Todd Cipala with his YZ426, in at 12.06 - and that just barely good enough to beat Lloyd Haas on his YZ426 with a 12.08 second run. Boots Weber was close in fourth on his Honda 4-cylinder beauty with a 12.15 second run with Troy Sherwood hot on his heels in 12.15 second run with Troy Sherwood hot on his heels in 12.15 seconds. Only 21/1,000's of a second separated the top five.

Waddell's 11.16 second ride in the second round of the 750 Expert class gave him a come from behind win there, as National number three Lloyd Haas had run a 11.56 second time to take the lead into intermission. Stacy Ulmer turned in a 11.52 second time in the second round to also slip by Haas into second place. The Schultz brothers, Lane and Wade, took fourth and fifth.

Kirk Mueller also staged a come from behind win in the 600cc Novice class. Cipala had posted a 10.93 second time to take the first round lead, but slipped to the third behind Mueller and Ernie Beckwith, who nailed a 10.58 second run for second place. Kaleb Northrup claimed the fourth place cash with Chad Koopsma taking fifth.

Kurt Koester was fast as always, blitzing the hill in 10.11 seconds on his KX500 for the 600cc Expert win, with Waddell running a close second in 10.31 seconds on his CR500. Honda riders Paul Hackbarth, Lane Schultz and Lloyd Haas filled out that class top five spots.

Indians Crush Kiel

By Kyle Darmody
Student Reporter

After going up early and winning the first match 15-5, the Kewaskum girls varsity volleyball team never looked back, as they continued to pound Kiel in the final two matches, 15-4, and 15-13, Tuesday, September 24th at Kiel.

"Our consistency in our passing was much stronger," Coach Dave Rizzardi said.

The Indians Beth Boedecker, and Jill Wittmann were huge contributors in that, as Beth recorded nine assists, while Jill recorded five.

"I think we basically out played them through better offense," Rizzardi concluded.

On the offense for the Indians Steph Herrick had four kills, followed by Heather Meyer and Jill Wittmann who both had three, while Jenna Roecker helped the cause with three aces in the serving department.

On the defensive end, Katie Klug led the team in blocks, with four (three assisted, and one solo), while Lindsay Gaffke, and Danielle Degroot led the Indians in digs with five each.

After the dominating win at Kiel the lady Indians came home Thursday, September 26th to host Two Rivers.

Indians Pound Two Rivers

By Kyle Darmody
Student Reporter

After a successful night at Kiel on Tuesday, the Kewaskum girls varsity volleyball team struck again Thursday, September 26th, when they ran over Two Rivers at home, 15-2, 15-4, and 15-7.

"It was a good week," Coach Dave Rizzardi stated. After the two conference wins the Indians improve their record to 5-2.

The Indians dominated right from the start Thursday night, with high powered offense, and a stingy defense.

On offense Indian Heather Meyer led the way with five kills, while Jill Wittmann recorded four. Meyer along with fellow senior Lindsay Gaffke, led the Indians with two aces each on the night.

Juniors Beth Boedecker, and Jill Wittmann once again led the Indians in sets as they both picked up nine assists. Wittmann wasn't done there, as she also went on to lead the Indians in digs with eight.

While at the net Katie Klug picked up three blocks (two solo, and one assisted), and Alexa Nelson had two of her own (both solo's).

"Well this week is a good warm up for next week," Coach Rizzardi said. Warm up, because the Indians head in to very tough competition next week, starting with Sheboygan Falls on Tuesday.

The Indians beat Falls Thursday, September 12th in an all out war late into the third match. After the Falls match on Tuesday the Indians are going to be heavily tested again Thursday as they host, the conference leading New Holstein team. The Indians lost to the Huskies, in a Quad which was held at New Holstein on September 19th.

As if the Indians didn't have enough tough competition in those two games, they will be tested again on Friday, at a tournament in Grafton, along with Saturday, when they travel to Oostburg for yet another tournament!

"Well, this is obviously the biggest week of the year," Rizzardi said. The Indians head into this week tied for second in conference. So if the Indians leave this week with two big wins against Falls and New Holstein, they will be in good position for a conference title!

The Indians could use all the help they can get, so please come out and support the girls as they take on conference leading New Holstein Thursday night. Game time is scheduled for 7:30.

At last Thursday's Indian Invite cross country meet, the girls team captured the second place trophy with a score of 64 points. Campbellsport won the championship with a score of 26 points. Hannah Floyd of Campbellsport breezed to an easy overall win with a time of 20:34 for the 500 meter course.

Varsity runners for the girls were Allison Janz in eighth place with a time of 23:26, Becky Herriges, 10th in 23:38, Breyan Donath, 11th in 23:39, Jessi Graham, 20th in 25:36, Rachel Shea, 22nd in 25:38, and Katie Uelman, 31st in 27:52.

The boy's team took a third place trophy being edged out by Howards Grove and Campbellsport. Pat Buffington from Howards Grove captured the individual top honors with a time of 17:29.

Kewaskum boy's varsity runners were Josh Meyer taking fourth place with a time of 18:13, Marty Harris, 13th in 19:46, Adam Woebeking, 18th in 19:57, Andy Lickel, 19th in 19:57, up and coming freshmen Jon Howig and Zack Van Wormer, 24th and 26th place respectively, and John Carpenter, 34th place.

The boy's JV runners were paced by Adam Janz, fifth place, and Adam Wagner, eighth place

Indians Lose Kettle Moraine Bowl Trophy

By Kyle Darmody
Student Reporter

After high hopes with a quick start, the Kewaskum varsity football team was unable to hold on to the lead, and went down to rival Campbellsport 28-14, Friday, September 27th at Campbellsport.

The Indians grabbed the momentum early, as Jake Wilson took the opening kickoff 53 yards to the Campbellsport 44 yard line.

Two plays later Travis Kempf found Dave Wicklund down the middle of the field, for a 50 yard touchdown pass. With the Matt Hartmann extra point sailing through the uprights, the Indians took the early 7-0 lead.

The Indians were able to force Campbellsport to punt on the ensuing drive, but were unable to pull in easy catches on offense and were also forced to punt. Campbellsport then had success moving the ball on the Indians defense before fumbling the ball deep in Indians territory.

After another Cougar drive the Indians forced Campbellsport to bring in the field goal unit, but the Indians' Keith Schmidt was able to get a hand on the kick forcing it to fall short.

After yet another Indian punt the Cougars would finally strike, as Cougar quarterback Ricky Batzler hit Tyler Schill on a quick slant for a 61 yard touchdown. The extra point would tie the score at seven.

The Cougars would then cough up the ball twice to the Indians in the second quarter. The Cougars were driving deep into Indian territory when they fumbled the second time. But instead of taking advantage of the opportunity, the Indians threw a critical interception which was returned deep into Indian territory. Unlike the Indians however the Cougars took advantage and scored on a Ricky Batzler touchdown run. The extra point was good and the Cougars had a 14-7 lead heading into halftime.

The Cougars would come out of halftime and take the opening drive all the way to the end zone when Batzler hit Tim Rowe on a 13 yard touchdown pass, however, the extra point failed, making the score 20-7.

This time the Indians would answer, when Ryan DeLaurier capped off a long drive with a three yard touchdown run. The extra point was good and cut the Cougar lead to six, with the score at 20-14.

Following the touchdown, on the kickoff the Indians yet another fumble and it deep in Campbellsport territory. But a holding penalty on the first play set the Indians back ten, and the Indians never were able to move the ball, and were forced to punt.

The Indians never were able to get any offensive production after that point, while the Cougars would add one more touchdown, on another Batzler run. With a good two point conversion, the Cougars sealed the deal and picked up the win.

With the loss, the Indians lost possession of the Kettle Moraine Bowl Trophy, a trophy which they have held for the past two years.

The Indians now drop to 1-3 overall and 1-2 in conference, with a trip to Rocfall staring them in the face on Friday, October 4th.

out of 25 teams, Saturday, September 21st at Winagamie Golf Course, in the Appleton West Invite.

The Indians were led by junior Crystal Dreher who shot an 87 (46 out - 41 in). Dreher was followed by fellow juniors, Cassie Rimmel who shot a 101 (55 out - 46 in), and Katie Kowalczyk who shot a 103 (57 out - 46 in).

The Indians then traveled to the Pagoniga Country Club, in Oconomowoc, on Monday, September 23rd for a Little Ten Conference, golf meet.

In the last 50 years, every time the University of Kentucky has won the NCAA basketball championship (1949, 1951, 1958, 1978, 1996 and 1998), the New York Yankees have won the World Series.

Indians Take Third At Conference Meet

By Kyle Darmody
Student Reporter

With scores of 197, and 198, Watertown and host Oconomowoc, stole the show at the Little Ten Conference meet, held at Pagoniga Country Club, in Oconomowoc, Monday, September 23rd. The Indians settled for third with a score of 211.

The Indians were once again led by junior Crystal Dreher who shot a 44, which was the second best score, out of all scorers. Dreher was followed by senior Cassie Laatsch, and freshman Kate Korth, who both shot 55's.

Being one of the last conference meets, the Indians will most likely have to settle for a third place finish in conference after winning the championship last year. Place Points as of 9/23/02:

1. Oconomowoc, 11;
2. Watertown, 12;
3. Kewaskum, 17;
4. West Bend West, 22;
5. West Bend East, 27;
6. Beaver Dam, 28;
7. Hartford, 40

Indians Take Second in Wash. Cty. Scramble

By Kyle Darmody
Student Reporter

With a team score of 143, the Kewaskum girls varsity team, split into three separate groups of two, and took a second place finish at the 2002 Washington County Scramble. The Indians were beat out by West Bend West who, as a team, shot a 136, with their best group of two shooting a 43.

The Indians best group, was the team of Crystal Dreher and Nicole Rimmel, who shot a 46. The team of Cassie Rimmel and Kate Korth shot a 48, while the team of Cassie Laatsch, and Katie Kowalczyk shot a 49.

The Indians then traveled to a meet in Hartford on Monday, September 30th, before heading in to Golf Regionals, which began on Wednesday, October 2nd.

Sixth Grade Gridiron Ends Up On Top at Saukville

By Cindy Shaske
Kewaskum Gridiron Club
Board of Directors

The sixth grade continued their positive season with a win at Saukville, 20-18. As the score affirms, the game was a real nail biter. The sixth grade overcame a 12 point deficit at one point to pull ahead for the win.

The seventh and eighth grade were not as fortunate as both posted losses 0 - 41 and 6 - 22.

In other Gridiron action, the fifth grade team celebrated Parents Night on Wednesday, September 25. Though they posted a loss 13 - 21, the night's festivities were enjoyed by parents, players and guests.

FREE FESTIVAL GUIDE

KEWASKUM Kettle Kountry Kolors

FAMILY

COME JOIN THE FUN
SATURDAY & SUNDAY
October 12 & 13

at River Hill Park
KEWASKUM

Sponsored by
The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce

Supplement to THE KEWASKUM STATESMAN Edition

Welcome to Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors

Cliff Demos of Door County joined our festival last year for the first time. Enjoyed himself so well that he thought if would be a shame to let Kettle Kountry Kolors dissipate. At the January Chamber of Commerce meeting he volunteered himself and Wendi Dreher of Hair on Main.

Wendi has been an active Chamber member over 12 years. "I love this time of year and we have so much to offer here right in Kewaskum," said Dreher who has in previous years been on other committees for the festival.

This year will be the 13th annual Kettle Kountry Kolors. The committees have brought back many of last year's favorites, including the HUGE craft tent, the Buckskinner encampment and marketplace along the Milwaukee River, the children's activity tent, make-n-take craft center, talent show/lip sync contest, Kiwanis basketball shoot, new Holy Trinity quarter-back contest, Gateway Gobblers BB gun shoot, and you can't forget the main event... FOOD!

New this year is a soccer kick-off, pony rides and paint-ball games.

Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival is sponsored by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce as a community event that supports the community. When Kettle Kountry Kolors was first started the idea was to draw people into the area for a weekend to benefit the business community and through the support of that business community Kettle Kountry Kolors is what it is today.

Kettle Kountry Kolors has always been a FREE family fun festival. Originally it was decided the festival was a "gift" to area residents from local businesses to thank them for shopping here and supporting the local businesses. Please don't forget to continue doing so.

Without the support of local businesses and civic organizations donating money, time and manpower Kettle Kountry Kolors would be no more. Demos and Dreher wish to thank all of the businesses and the many who have helped on the various committees.

This year's Committee Chairs are as follows:

- Cliff Demos & Wendi Dreher
Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival Co-Chairmen
- Jeanne Goeden
Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival Publicity Chairman
- Joann Hall
Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival

- Craft Tent Chairman
Mary Meisser
Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival Buckskinner Chairman
- Larry Ammel
Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival Entertainment Chairman
- Patsy Panzer
Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival Sign Chairman
- Gwen Dreher
Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival Park Decorations Chairman
- Karen Heberer
Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival Information Booth Chairman
- Audra Beyer & Shelly Marx
Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival Children's Tent Co-Chairmen

If you are interested in becoming part of this event by participating as a vendor or volunteer please call the Chamber at (262) 626-3336.

Please feel welcome to enjoy Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival. Please take the time to support our local businesses and organizations, who have made this festival possible.

Wide Variety of Entertainment At Kettle Kountry Kolors

The girls from Mirror Image Dance Academy of West Bend will once again be performing at Kettle Kountry Kolors. They will perform in front of the gazebo at 11:30 on Saturday, October 12.

This year the entertainment at Kettle Kountry Kolors is guaranteed to cater to most everyone's musical desires.

On Sunday, the Twin Hill String Band will be performing along the Milwaukee River near the Bucksinner encampment.

On Saturday, those aspiring musicians can display their talents to all who care to listen in the beer garden as they offer Karaoke from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

At 2 p.m. on Saturday, there will be a Karaoke and Lip-sync contest. For more information contact Wendi Dreher at 262-626-2428 or pick up entry forms at Hair on Main or The Kewaskum Statesman. Prizes will be awarded immediately after the event.

Also on Saturday, the Mirror Image Dance Academy will be performing at 11:30 a.m.

On Sunday, after the 9:30 a.m. church service hosted by Peace United Church of Christ, stop by the beer garden to enjoy a Pancake Breakfast from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. Shuttle service will be available before the church service from the Peace Church Parking lot to the park.

After the pancake breakfast, be sure to stick around for Downtown Harrison from noon to 3 p.m.

There will also be a variety of music on Saturday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. by Big Cedar Bluegrass, Julida Boys featuring Polka music and Reilly featuring Irish music.

For those of you looking for other things to do in the park, there will be canoe and kayak rentals along the Milwaukee River, a free BB gun shoot, a basketball shoot, quarterback shoot and soccer shoot-out. There is also a wide variety of things for kids being offered in The Pig Zone.

Also, again this year, there will be a dunk tank. This year the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring it with proceeds going toward the Kewaskum Christmas Parade.

Also make sure you visit the Bucksinner encampment along the Milwaukee River. They have items available to purchase and do a wide variety of demonstrations.

So make sure you come down and take part in some of the activities at the 13th Annual Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival.

Kiwanis Club Still Seeking Old Cell Phones

The Kewaskum Kiwanis Club is asking cell phone users to answer the call and turn in used cell phones they no longer need to help raise funds for the various community projects the club sponsors. Collection efforts have been going strong for almost a year now. Over 300 phones have been collected thus far.

"The primary goal of our phone drive fundraiser is to collect wireless phones that consumers aren't using anymore," said the club's president Larry Ammel. "With more than 30 million used wireless phones lying idle in American homes and businesses, an individual can turn a used item into new funding that helps support our mission in a simple but effective way."

Any portable cellular or

PCS phone is accepted, excluding bag phones of vehicle-installed models. The Kiwanis Club will also take the phone's battery or charger, if available. All donors should deactivate the wireless service of any donated phones before turning them in.

"We're very excited about this new fundraising opportunity," said Ammel. "Not only will it benefit our organization, but donated phones that can't be refurbished are properly recycled to benefit the environment as well."

The public may donate their used wireless phones by mailing them to

Music For Young and Old At Kettle Kountry

Music is a part of every festival. Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors is no exception and will feature an interesting variety of talented musicians on Saturday and Sunday, October 12 and 13 at River Hill Park in Kewaskum.

Saturday will feature Karaoke from 11 am to 3 pm in the south pavilion. Dance your favorite polka from 11 am - 2 pm on the gazebo with local favorite, The Julida Boys featuring Kewaskum's

Roger Mertz. After that listen to an Irish jig by Reilly who will perform a variety Irish folk music. They will take the stage from 2 - 5 pm also on gazebo.

If you're strolling along the banks of the Milwaukee River on Sunday, enjoy the Twin Hill String Band strumming some bluegrass sounds beginning at 1 p.m. and again at 3 p.m.

On Sunday The Mineshaft's Downtown Harrison will be in the park pavilion from noon until 3 pm. Big Cedar Blue Grass Band from West Bend, will be on the gazebo from 1 -4 pm.

Kiss-the-Pig Contest Brought Back; Winners to Pucker Up on Sunday

Finalists in the last Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors Kiss-the-Pig contest, shown above, left to right, included: Candi Heberer, Roy Garbisch (of Silver Platter, also a semi-finalist in this year's contest), Paul Becht, Bob Bonenfant (of WBWI-WBKV fame, a semi-finalist whose fans would love to see him win this time around), and Jeanne Amerling, who was also a contestant this year. Paul Becht was the eventual winner of the previous contest and even got to kiss the little piggy twice because the photographer didn't get the shot with the first pucker.

Pictured above is Kewaskum's now-famous MR. Piggy who got to cuddle up with Paul Becht. This year we have had to conduct a preliminary "star-search" for another pig, due to all the notoriety and public appearances our previous pig had on the "Today" show and "Good Morning America." It seems he could no longer keep up to the arduous schedule and was forced to retire. However, he did exit the business quite wealthy after his investments paid off. Seems he had quite a "snout" for the stock market and keenly knew when to get out. The committee has assured us though, that they are in hot pursuit of another pig that will be agreeable to kissing a human.

Hold on to your pork hocks Kewaskum! By popular request, the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce has decided to bring back our wet-snouted, pretty-in-pink, four-legged porker friend, just in time for the annual Kettle Kountry Kolors family fun festival October 12 and 13.

And just like other years when the Chamber brought our own little "Miss/Mr. Piggy" to River Hill Park from a friendly, neighborhood farm, getting there has been half the fun!

For those of you who missed Kevin Stautz of Hollywood's Portrait Studio chasing a petrified-to-actually-kiss-a-human pig around the beer garden in River Hill Park a few years back, this event is not to be missed. Let me tell you, pigs are very unpredictable and don't take kindly to the idea of kissing a different species.

But kiss-a-human ol' piggy will do on Sunday in the beer garden of River Hill Park following a last-minute voting frenzy to find out just WHO the lucky winner will be. No one, except this writer will be privy to the information and I'll not share the secret, because I just love to keep everyone in suspense. (Not to mention, every dollar raised for Kettle Kountry brings a smile to my face. And if no one knows who is actually in the lead, everyone will keep voting... for their opponents!

Kiss-The-Pig Contest

The pig-kissing contest was brought back as a fundraiser to help underwrite the cost of the Kettle Kountry Kolors festival. To give a brief history, the Kewaskum Chamber of Commerce sponsored a "Kiss the Pig" contest... not once, but twice before.

The first time the Chamber was a little "green" at what makes a pig actually want to KISS a human. But by the second time the contest was run, just three short years ago, the Kettle Kountry Kolors committee had learned all the ropes about training a pig to perform the dasdardly deed. Unfortunately, we forgot to tell Kevin Stautz!

The hard part was trying to talk adults into this game. As difficult as it was trying to talk the pig into kissing a human, getting community residents to volunteer their lily-white lips for the sake of raising funds was not an easy task. But, alas, the promise of fame and fortune, not to mention a t-shirt and some cheap prizes, lured many into this sordid contest. Actually, no one volunteered, so we did the next best thing... we let their "friends" just nominate them without their permission. And who could say no to that cute little pig?

Well, that may be stretching it just a bit, but the Chamber is promising a real treat in return for your participation in this contest. Part of the proceeds from this event, will, as in other years, go to fund this year's event. BUT, the Chamber has agreed to put away a portion of the proceeds to bring back the popular lumberjack show in the very near future.

So how's that for a deal? Doesn't that just make you want to fill out a bunch of votes to have one of the finalists kiss our lovable piggy?

Now for some of the fine pigtails... er...I mean, details. We started out with numerous nominations, with two separate categories for the guys and the girls. Many of them moved out of town.

After the nominations closed on July 31, the 15 men with the most nominations AND the 15 women with the most nominations went into the semi-finals in August. In September the field was narrowed down to the top 10 male and top 10 female candidates.

The last segment, the finals, began on October 1, and eliminated ten more candidates. The finals now consist of the top five male and top five female chosen few. On Sunday, October 13, in the beer garden at Kettle Kountry Kolors, the male and female runners-up and the male and female winner will be announced, just prior to puckering up for a sloppy, wet kiss!

Piggy has confessed he is really looking forward to kissing the luscious lips of one of the girls, but is a little nervous about the guys. Be gentle with him, please!

Don't miss the finale and don't forget to keep on voting. The voting will continue until noon on Sunday, October 13. As a matter of fact, Miss Piggy will be on hand at the park on Saturday and Sunday to collect your votes. (It seems she has taken quite a liking to our own little piggy and wants to see if the winners are worthy to kiss her new friend).

Each vote costs only a dollar and it is well worth it to be able to say to the winner... "Congratulations... I voted for you!"

Make Your Own 'Spooky Cookies' at Kettle Kountry Kolors

The Junior Women's Club of Kewaskum will have supplies to make your own "Spooky Cookies" at the Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival Saturday and Sunday.

They will have colorful frosting and decorations to make the scariest cookies you can imagine!

The booth will be open all the hours of the festival. They will be located in The Pig Zone (formerly the Children's Tent).

Exciting Raffle Prizes Being Offered

This print, "The Diehards," by Don Kloetzke will be raffled off at Kettle Kountry Kolors. The print, frame and matting were donated by Dan and Phyllis Schmidt of Artcentral in Kewaskum. They have two similar prints available for purchase at the store. Tickets are $2 each or six for $10. There are also many other raffles being offered.

Eight exciting raffles are being held in conjunction with Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolors this year to help fund the FREE festival. The Chamber encourages everyone to enjoy the show but PLEASE help support the festival by taking a chance on some of their raffles.

The first raffle is for a two night stay in Door County. Exact location is to be announced at a later date.

The second raffle is a framed print called "The Diehards" matted and framed donated by Artcentral of Kewaskum. The print is a picture of Packer fans in the snow outside of Lambeau Field. The print was done by Don Kloetzke.

Kewaskum Frozen Foods and The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce also donated two spanferkels that will also be raffled off.

There will also be a raffle for an "American Girl Doll." These dolls retail for approximately $90.

Also Wendi Dreher donated a Game Boy Color to be raffled off.

And finally, there is a chance for two lucky people to walk away with $50 cash each. Who couldn't use $50?

Tickets will be on sale for $2 each or six for $10. Tickets are available at local Chamber businesses or you can purchase tickets in the park at the Chamber Information Booth. Drawings will be held at 2 p.m. on Sunday, October 13.

An American Girl doll similar to the one shown above will be raffled off at Kettle Kountry Kolors. Tickets are $2 each or six for $10. There are also many other raffles being offered. This doll retails for approximately $90.

Food selections at the Thirteenth Annual Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival of Entertainment scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, October 12th and 13th will be numerous and certainly please even the most finicky eater.

Whether you are just looking for some munchies or something a little more filling, it will be available at River Hill Park, Kewaskum, on Saturday and Sunday.

Starting at the south end of the park we have the Kewaskum Sno-Chief's who will be serving hot ham sandwiches, chili, and hot and cold drinks. Treat the family to their Pancake Breakfast on Sunday morning from 8 to 11 a.m. where the Sno-Chiefs will be serving up a great meal to start up your day.

In the south food-stand, the Wayne Crusaders 4-H

Club will serve hot dogs, chili dogs, hot pretzels and caramel apples. West of the 4-H kids, you will find The J.O.'s Chicken Coop. Chef Jodi will be serving chicken dumpling soup, Swiss chicken sandwiches and chicken fajitas. To compliment her mouth-watering items she will be serving Coca-Cola products, Snapple and Sprecher Root Beer. Next to J.O.'s you will find Woody's Steakhouse of Kewaskum. Woody and his crew will be serving up pizza along with BBQ pork sandwiches and his famous Chicken enchilada soup.

St. Matthew's Catholic Church in Campbellsport will tempt you not only with their smiles but their desserts too! They are hard at work making eclairs, cream puffs, tortes, pies and cookies. To compliment their mouth watering desserts they will serve coffee, hot chocolate and hot apple cider. Next to them the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club will lure one's appetite with their ever popular Kewaskum Frozen Foods brats and hamburgers, hot dogs, Brew City French fries, chicken wings, onion straws and nachos.

Then there's the chocolate... Julia Desterhott from Julie's Butter Cream Fudge will be bringing her fresh, yummy, mouth-watering homemade fudge for you to try. Julia will also be located along the main park area path.

Next to the north food pavillion will be another returning vendor, Butter Rose Concessions offering mini-doughnuts, caramel apple chips, stuffed pretzels, soda, popcorn, nachos and sno-cones.

Savor the grilled steak sandwiches and hot dogs offered by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce in the north food pavillion.

Kewaskum's Door County Cheesecake Bakery will be offering fresh roasted corn on the cob for that last hurrah of sweet corn for the summer.

On the other side of the park in the Buckskinner Camp and Marketplace you can sample many Native

Vast Array of Crafts at Festival

For those of you who would like to get a start on your holiday shopping, attend the Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival October 12 and 13 to find that unique gift for everyone on your list.

What could be more special than a handmade craft that was hand-picked by you as one of your personal favorites to give to someone you care for?

This year there are new faces and lots of the same ones in the craft area. There will be embroidered sweatshirts, t-shirts and jackets. Again there will be peek-a-boo dolls and life-like dolls. As always, there will be a huge variety of holiday items such as scarecrows, pumpkins, baskets and ornaments.

The following is a list of some of the many crafters and artisans that will be displaying their crafts at the festival this year. Some are new faces with many of the favorites returning for another year.

Patsy Schulz of Allenton will be returning for her 13th year with her beautiful array of wedding accessories and photo albums.

Tracie Biefeld will be representing Pampered

Chef. She will be displaying the latest in the Pampered Chef line.

For the little ones, Otto Krueger from Midwest Industries of Oshkosh will be selling Yo-Yo balloons, stove top hats, princess halos and other kiddie novelties.

Diane and Dave Mathe of Oshkosh will bring a little taste of the Southwest to Kettle Kountry Kolors with Native American jewelry and artifacts.

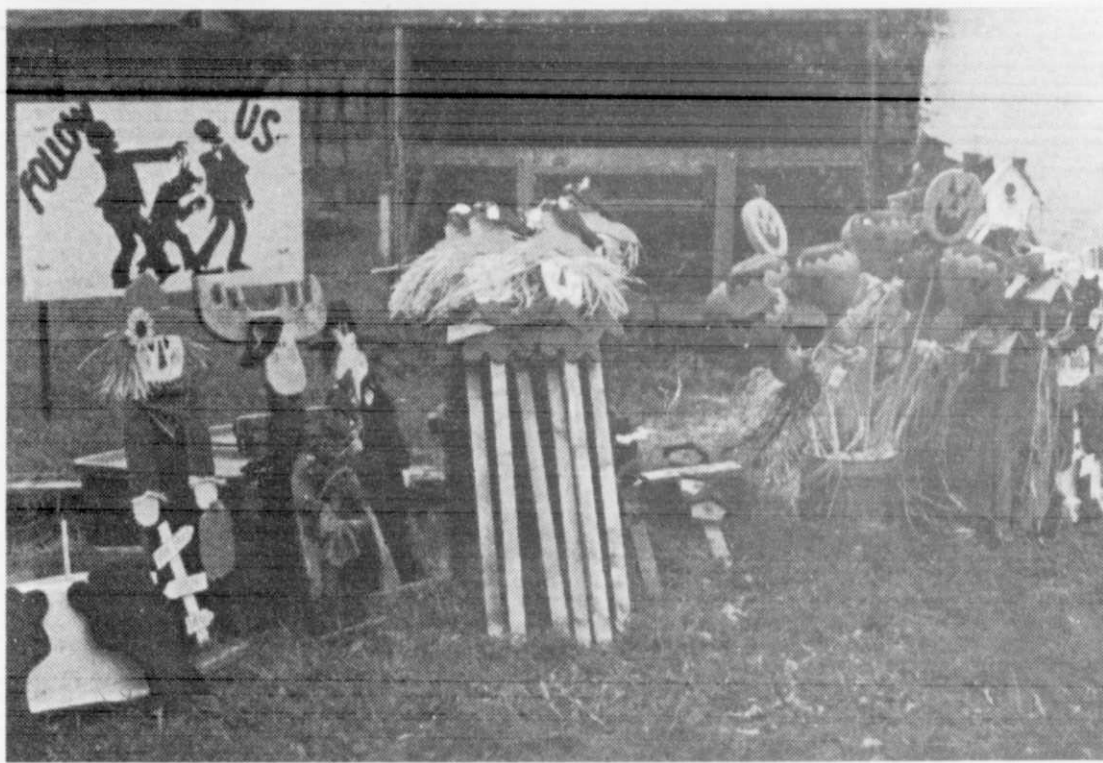

Lori Severance of West Bend will once again be featuring peek-a-boo dolls and painted furniture.

Teresa Klein will have an assortment of printed shirts available to purchase.

Gail Kahn will once again have socks and t-shirts.

Jeff Jaeger of J.P. Insurance will also occupy a booth and can answer any insurance questions you may have.

Donna and James Schmidt of Colgate will

Debbie Schmidt will have various lawn ornaments and household seasonal decorations on display.

have wooden shelves and various craft items.

Joyce Slezak of Port Washington will have

Lots to Do for Kids of All Ages At Kettle Kountry Kolors

By Nicole Rawley
Statesman Staff

An annual feature at Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors Family Fun Festival is the "The Pig Zone" (formerly the Children's Activity Tent) in which many interesting fun-filled events take place for both children and adults. This year will be no exception with many outstanding activities scheduled during the weekend on Saturday and Sunday, October 12 and 13 in Kewaskum's River Hill Park, just off STH 28.

Tuttle Creek Learning Center will be presenting games all day Saturday and Sunday. There will be the duck game, milk bottle game, ping-pong toss and ring toss and two new games.

Outside the children's tent, there will be a quarterback contest, basketball shoot-out, paint ball, soccer kick-off. All of these events will be offered for a minimal fee.

The National Turkey

Federation will also once again have their FREE BB gun shoot at the north end of the park.

Does carving pumpkins sound like fun? That's available too! The Kewaskum 4-H will be sponsoring pumpkin carving in the main craft tent all day Saturday and Sunday. A small fee will be charged.

Returning for her

eight year at Kettle Kountry Kolors,

JoAnn Hall of Campbellsport is excited to again be at Kettle Kountry Kolors in her "Make-It-and-Take-It" ceramic booth both days of the festival located at the south end of the beer garden. JoAnn and several of her assistants will be ready to help you create a ceramic piece that you paint and take along home with you. There are lots of items to choose from. A minimal cost is involved for this event. If you have something special you would like JoAnn to bring along, you may call her at 533-4252 and request it.

On Saturday, there will be pony rides from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. A small fee will be charged for rides.

Also the Kewaskum Police Department will be fingerprinting kids and handing our various items including Green Bay Packer cards.

This is just a brief sampling of the events planned by members of the festival planning committee. The festival is sponsored and funded by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce for this, the, 13th annual Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors Family Festival. Take advantage of their hospitality... join in the fun!

Historical Buckskinner Encampment Will Be Located Along Milwaukee River

Buckskinner blacksmith Les Neuman handcrafts metal items such as shepherds hooks. His items are available for sale during Kettle Kountry Kolors.

The 13th Annual Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival again will be offering a great way to visit the past and preserve the historical days of the "Rendezvous." A favorite of many festival goers of past years is the Buckskinner Encampment, this year known as the River View Rendezvous, along the beautiful Milwaukee River.

Buckskinner camp chairmen, Mary and John

Meisser, assure us that history buffs and flatlanders young and old alike will enjoy spending some time in this year's camp.

Webster states the word rendezvous is of French descent, meaning a meeting place or a place to gather.

Meisser describes Buck-

skinner as a group of people who enjoy reliving and teaching about the North American Fur Trade era. They are also known for the many adventurous tales they tell.

In that era few roads existed in Wisconsin. Rivers were the mode of travel. Fur traders and trappers would transport their goods in dugouts and birch bark canoes to a rendezvous. Farmers and settlers soon began to join them transporting goods by rafts, flatboats and some by wagon train.

The rendezvous became a way for isolated people to meet, visit, exchange ideas and understandings, and trade goods they needed for the following year. The time period represents the beginning of French colonization to the 1840's, when fur trading waned. The fur business was replaced by silk as the choice fabric in New York, Paris and London.

Rendezvous are held all over the country with each one having its own unique activities. Most have a preacher or minister, a blacksmith for the necessary fire pit needs, traders who sell and demonstrate their craft, many lodges, Buckskinner dressed in pioneer clothing, music with at least one bagpipe player, contests and demonstrations.

The "Skinner" tradition continues to grow as more and more people become interested in the event. People interested in learning about the historical times can now revisit that era.

Millie and the late Jack Odekirk of the Auburn Lake area organized and helped bring to Kewaskum the pioneer clothing, the lodges, aromas of open-fire cooking and history lessons. The first year the Buckskinner made an appearance at Kewaskum's Kettle Kountry Kolors festival, there were only 11 lodges set along the backdrop of the Milwaukee River. This year nearly 100 lodges and encampments are expected to fill both sides of the Milwaukee River in River Hill Park.

Among some of the traders appearing at this year's rendezvous are Jon Eldeen who will be serving Native American fry bread and other goodies from his "Hang-Around Cafe."

Steve Blattner and Kim Scott will be camping and displaying their authentic birchbark canoes and would be happy to share the history of their craft and how they are made.

New to the encampment this year is Marilynn Filler, an artist who specializes in period artwork of trappers

How to Make Halloween Fun: Costumes, Treats and Sound Effects

(ARA) - Scariness and spookiness are upon us. And we're not talking about opening 401(k) statements. Ghouls and goblins will be running through neighborhoods searching for candy and scares alike. Trick-or-treaters will be heard screaming and screeching while being haunted by neighborhood houses decorated for one of the most anticipated holidays for children -- Halloween.

Halloween's history has changed over the years. Centuries ago, Halloween night was known as "devil's night." Superstitious people associated this day with death and supernatural happenings, such as bad omens, black cats, and bats or spiders. Halloween night was known to be one filled with vandalism as well.

Fast forward several hundred years, and you have a more modern, contemporary holiday of fun, food and decorations. Today, Halloween has turned into one filled with lavish costumes, home decorations, and more candy than a dentist cares to know about. Party-goers of all ages dress up in fun, scary or outrageous costumes for school, college and other celebrations.

If you're getting back to the simple ways of life, nothing's better than an easy costume for kids and adults. How about the chiton?

"OK, so not everyone recognizes what the term 'chiton' means," says Kathy Colussy, of The Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale. "But if I mention the word, 'toga,' we can recall images of togas from movie epics or from college fraternity parties. Our mind conjures up bodies draped, swathed and pinned in bed sheets." The gown is remarkably simple to construct and designed to be belted or draped to flatter any figure. By following the steps below, you're sure to impress everyone at your Halloween party.

How to Make a Toga

In making a toga, there are two simple variations. The first involves one long rectangle (approximately 5+ yards of fabric) that will be swathed around the body. The second is constructed of a semi-circle cut from fabric that is the size of a double or queen-size sheet. More fabric is obviously required based on the size of the person who will be sporting the toga.

Supplies:

One old sheet or several yards of muslin 1 1/2 times a person's height
Sewing thread to match
Several large safety pins

One large brooch to fasten at shoulder, optional

Note: To allow for minimal sewing skills, men should wear some sort of shorts because the toga will later be fastened to what is worn UNDER the toga.

Directions:

Using your large bed sheet or fabric, begin to form a semicircle shape in the cloth. Next an additional cut into the top center of the semicircle approximately the size of 1/4 to 1/3 into center of the fabric should be made. This cut will allow the semicircle to be wrapped and draped successfully around the body.

Taking one large safety pin, secure one corner of the semicircle to the waist on the right side of the body and pin again on the left side of the body.

It should be noted that once the fabric has been secured the amount of fabric from the waist down should fall to approximately the knees or mid calf. If it does not you may opt to cut additional selvage from your semicircle.

Before proceeding simply make additional fold in the cloth to compensate. Next the fabric will be wrapped several times around the body.

Finally, once you have the amount of draping and folding you are comfortable with, take the excess fabric and throw over either the right or left shoulder, and fasten with safety pin or brooch.

For those wanting to create their own spooky haunted house sounds, they can use tapes or CDs of graveyard sounds, doors slamming or screams. Kids, and adults, can have so much fun creating their own haunted house sounds. Simply recording such sounds on your tape or CD recorder will allow you to spook those trick-or-treaters.

Now, it's on to the food portion of your celebration. Families are looking for more creative recipes to entice children to eat more traditional and seasonal favorites, such as pumpkin muffins.

Party and baking instructor Kim Smith, of The Art Institute of Seattle, recommends her pumpkin muffins to start Halloween morning off right.

Pumpkin Muffins

- 1 1/2 cups canned pumpkin
- 3 each eggs
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 3/4 cups melted butter
- 1 1/2 cups sugar

- 4 1/2 cups pastry flour
- 2 tablespoons baking powder
- 1/2 tablespoon salt
- 1/2 tablespoon cinnamon
- 1/2 tablespoon nutmeg
- 1 1/2 cups raisins

Topping:

- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 cup coarsely chopped nuts, such as walnuts, pecans
- 1/2 tablespoon cinnamon

Directions:

Add all ingredients into large bowl and mix together until well blended. Batter will be lumpy. Spoon into lightly greased muffin pan. Sprinkle generously with topping mixture. Bake at 350 degrees until toothpick comes out clean. Serve warm or heat in microwave until warm.

Yield: 1 1/2 dozen

Wisconsin's Fall Colors Expected to be Vibrant

MADISON - Wisconsin residents and visitors can get ready for another beautiful fall color season in Wisconsin, according to state forestry officials, who say that despite the dry spell this summer, Wisconsin forests experienced an excellent growing season.

"The weather during the growing season is critical in order to have an abundant quantity of leaf mass available on the trees to provide the potential for an excellent fall color display," explains Kirsten Held, Forestry Outreach Specialist with the Department of Natural Resources Division of Forestry. "The forest trees are in excellent shape heading into this fall season."

"The intensity of the fall color season really depends on the weather that Wisconsin receives during September and October. To have the most brilliant and vibrant fall colors, a series of fall days filled with bright sunshine and cool, but frost free, evenings are required. These weather conditions cause lots of sugar to be produced by the trees and trapped in the leaves, which ultimately leads to the intense red, orange and purple coloration of the leaves of certain species," Held said.

The duration of the fall color season is related to the wind intensity and rain occurring during late-September and October. High winds and driving rains during this time of the year cause significant numbers of the leaves to fall from the trees, which can prematurely shorten the fall color season.

It is difficult to predict the exact peak fall color times in the state since fall color peak varies slightly from year to year depending on the weather conditions," said Held.

The Division of Forestry is anticipating that the peak fall color season in far northern Wisconsin will be during the last week of September and the first week of October, though significant color should begin appearing in isolated, lower lying areas by mid-September. Peak color should occur in central Wisconsin during mid-October and in southern Wisconsin during the later half of October.

Some spectacular fall color viewing areas in Wisconsin include: the Lake Superior shoreline along the Bayfield Peninsula in far northern Wisconsin; Chequamegon National Forest near Hayward; St. Croix Scenic Riverway in northwestern Wisconsin; Rib Mountain and the Wausau area in Central Wisconsin; Door County in eastern Wisconsin; Kettle Moraine State Forest in southeastern Wisconsin; the Wisconsin River Valley, Baraboo Hills region (especially Devils Lake State Park) and Wildcat Mountain State Park near Ontario in southwestern Wisconsin; and the Mississippi River Valley in western Wisconsin.

"The forests of Wisconsin are poised for an excellent fall color season," Held stated, "and Wisconsin remains one of the premier states for viewing fall leaf color." For current information on the current best fall color viewing areas in Wisconsin contact the Department of Tourism's Fall Color Hotline at 1-800-432-TRIP.

What Causes The Fall Colors In Wisconsin?

Fall is when Mother Nature paints Wisconsin's forest a vivid autumn color of golden yellows, rich reds, brilliant oranges and deep purples.

"The fall color beauty of Wisconsin's forests is actually caused by the shortening day-light hours, not fall frosts," explains Kirsten Held, Forestry Outreach Specialist, Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources Division of Forestry.

Certain tree and shrub species commonly are associated with differing colors during the fall: green ash and aspen turn golden yellow; red maple a brilliant red; oak and hickory become a reddish-brown color; white ash a deep purple; and sumac a scarlet red. Even tamarack turns a beautiful deep golden yellow and loses its needles in the fall, the only conifer (evergreen) tree in Wisconsin that does.

What causes this palette of colors? There are three types of pigments that are directly involved in producing the colorful leaf display; chlorophyll, carotenoids and anthocyanins.

Chlorophyll is present in the leaves year around and gives the leaves their green color throughout the growing season. In the process called photosynthesis, chlorophyll utilizes the sun's energy to produce simple sugars - the trees food - from water and carbon dioxide.

Carotenoids are present in the leaf chloroplasts also, but because of the green coloration of the chlorophyll predominate, the aren't seen through the growing season. The carotenoid pigments are responsible for the yellow coloration of fall leaves.

Anthocyanins produce the brilliant reds and purples of the fall color season. This color pigment develops in the early autumn within the liquid of the leaf cells in response to bright light and excess sugars within the leaf cells.

How is fall color created? During the summer chlorophyll is continually produced and broken down within the leaf. Subsequently, the chlorophyll masks the yellow carotenoids within the leaf and production of new chlorophyll subsides and the existing chlorophyll breaks down, revealing the carotenoids within the leaves and subsequently their yellow coloration.

At this same time, veins that transport sugars out of the leaf close and newly produced sugars are trapped within the leaf promoting production of anthocyanins. Anthocyanins cause the scarlet red and deep purple colors.

"Weather that is most conducive to spectacular fall leaf color is bright, sunny, warm days and cool, crisp nights that remain above freezing. These weather conditions promote the production of sugars within the leaves and the sugars, in collaboration with the bright light, enhance the production of anthocyanin pigments within the leaves and gives us the orange, red and purple we so enjoy," explains Held.

For current information on the current best fall color viewing areas in Wisconsin contact the Department of Tourism's Fall Color Hotline at 1-800-432-TRIP.

Put The Haunt In Your Halloween Parties

(NAPSA)-If you want your next Halloween bash to be the black cat's meow, try these tips to keep your guests screaming for more.

Inviting Ghoulish Guests- Paint the party details on a huge pumpkin (or line up three smaller ones, each bearing a different piece of information, such as date, time, or place). Take a close-up photo of the "invitation" and send copies to guests in bright orange envelopes.

Spooky Decor- Many stores have a variety of decorations and Halloween accessories that can help make your party a howling success. For example, Mr. and Mrs. Skeleton are decorations dressed to party. Each stands five feet tall. Mr. Skeleton has a top hat and black trench coat with "faux" trim, while Mrs. Skeleton has a "faux" fur cap, pink coat and carries a black and red rose. You can also light your guests' way with the store's Hanging Flame Light. The "flame" is made of silk. A small fan blows it to simulate a moving flame and an orange lamp simulates the glow of a fire.

Frightening Food- For dessert, make a graveyard cake by cutting sugar cookie dough into tombstone shapes and bake. Use icing to write R.I.P. on the cooled cookies and personalize them with guests' names. Stick the tombstones into a chocolate cake to resemble a graveyard.

Gruesome Games and Fun- Ask everyone to bring a carved pumpkin to the party (B.Y.O.P.). Set up a special table to display them (this will also enhance your party decor) and provide paper and pens so guests can vote for their favorites. Use a jack-o-lantern as a ballot box. At the end of the night, count the votes and award a sack of Halloween treats to the winner.

October is National Popcorn Poppin' Month

(NAPSA)-It's that time of the year again when Americans join together to celebrate their favorite crispy, crunchy snacking treat ...popcorn! Don't let October pass without celebrating National Popcorn Poppin' Month.

Each fall, popcorn lovers celebrate the harvesting of this nutritious and versatile snack. As farmers head to the fields to harvest their crop, families and friends are expected to join in the celebration by gobbling up more than 17 billion quarts of this naturally fun treat. That's 58 quarts per man, woman, and child.

What makes popcorn so popular? It's fun and versatile. Topped with your favorite sweet or savory topping or eaten just plain, it's a wholesome and tasty treat.

Here are a few quick and easy ways to celebrate National Popcorn Poppin' Month at your house this year:

Have a popcorn party. Create a popcorn bar with sweet and savory toppings and let your guests create their own popcorn taste sensation.

Edible art. Create shapes for the fall harvest season (Jack-O-Lantern, Indian Corn Ears, Halloween Kitty, etc.) using popcorn recipes found at www.popcorn.org, and then eat them!

Try a new popcorn recipe each week during October. For more popcorn recipes or more information, visit www.popcorn.org or call, toll-free, 1-877-POPALOT. Remember, Good Times are Poppin' in October during National Popcorn Poppin' Month.

BALLPARK POPCORN CRUNCH

- 1/2 cup butter
 - 1/2 cup brown sugar
 - 3 quarts unsalted popped popcorn
 - 1 cup chopped walnuts
- Cream together butter and brown sugar till light and fluffy. In a separate bowl, toss popcorn and walnuts. Add creamed mixture to popcorn and nuts. Combine until coated. Spread on a large baking sheet in a single layer. Bake in 350° oven for 10 minutes or until crisp. Yield: 3 quarts.

POPCORN GRANOLA

- 3 1/2 quarts popped popcorn
- 1 cup flaked or shredded coconut
- 1 cup sliced almonds or sunflower seeds
- 2/3 cup raisins
- 1/2 cup honey
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon salt (optional)

Preheat oven to 250°F. Combine popped popcorn, coconut, almonds and raisins. Blend honey, butter, cinnamon and salt, if desired. Pour over popcorn mixture. Toss to coat thoroughly. Spread on lightly buttered 15 x 10-inch jelly roll pan. Bake for 40 minutes, stirring every 10 minutes. Cool to crisp. Store in tightly covered container. Makes 18 servings.

Register for Annual KEYS Run/Walk

It is still not too late to register for the ninth annual KEYS Run/Walk which raises money for Kewaskum youth scholarships.

Registration forms are available at all the Kewaskum schools as well as at the Kewaskum Statesman office, Miller's Furniture and the West Bend Savings Bank. Many other Kewaskum businesses support the race and have registration blanks available to form company teams.

The race begins at 11 a.m. at Kewaskum's River Hill Park on Sunday, October 13. Winners in the many age groups will compete for medals as well as cash prizes.

Area schools are competing before race day and attempting to build teams while practicing for the race as they incorporate walking and running into their fit-homeroom with the most registrations. Lots of middle school students wore Keys T-shirts on their "Wear-Your-Favorite-Keys-T-Shirt-Day".

As in past years, pledge incentives are being offered to all who register for the race. Mountain bikes, sweatshirts, and movie passes are just some of the prizes for collecting various amounts of pledge money.

All money raised from the Keys Run/Walk is used to fund education scholarships for graduating Kewaskum High School seniors. KEYS, Inc. is a non-profit, all volunteer organization. Join in for the run/walk on October 13 and be sure to plan to stay for all the fun and food during ness programs. Kewaskum Elementary plans to have an "All School Walk/Run" on three successive Fridays to promote the race. St. Lucas students are practicing for the run with Mr. Gosdeck and members of the cross country team. At Wayne Elementary the students are learning about their school theme of "Pride and Friendship" by working in multi-age teams to earn points before race day.

Points will translate into a day of "Make Your Own Ice Cream Sundae," sponsored by the PTO. At Farmington Elementary students are being encouraged to collect registrations as well as pledges and are having "Keys T-Shirt Days" every Friday.

The PTO will have a special reward for the students who register for the Keys Run/Walk after the race weekend. Kewaskum Middle School students are competing for a "Giant Chocolate Chip Cookie Party" by trying to be the

Scarecrows Will Decorate Community Streets

Last year's scarecrows entitled "Marshmallow Man" took St. Lucas's first place. It was designed by Justin Ethier, Jonathon Rudzitis and Blaise Lopez.

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce will be holding their popular Scarecrow Decorating Contest throughout the village of Kewaskum in conjunction with their 13th Annual Kettle Kountry Kolors Family Fun Festival October 12 and 13.

The Scarecrow Decorating Contest was initiated six years ago, in an effort to spruce up and decorate the village streets in honor of all the new visitors to the community during the festival weekend.

Judging for the Scarecrow Decorating Contest will be held on Friday, October 11, with the winners to be announced during the Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival on Sunday afternoon in River Hill Park.

Competition will be accepted from three elementary grade levels, sixth, seventh and eighth grades only with acceptance and approval by the teacher. Only three scarecrow designs for each school will receive awards. Schools invited to participate include Holy Trinity Catholic School, Kewaskum Middle School and St. Lucas Lutheran

Judging will be based on five designs:

1. Costume idea
2. Expressions (facial and body)
3. Colors used in single design
4. Craftsmanship of design
5. Creative use of materials (straw bales, ladders, tools, etc.)

All designs must be sturdy, weather-resistant and thief-proof secured. Each design should have a laminated 4"x 6" card attached, listing the name of the scarecrow, the school and the student names.

Scarecrow projects must be completed and placed in the designated village street locations assigned by the Chamber before Friday, October 11. A map depicting locations is shown on this page.

Nine cash prizes will be awarded by the Chamber. There will be three first place prizes of $30 each, three second place prizes of $20 each and three third place prizes of $10 each.

If you have any questions or are interested in participating please contact Chairperson Gwen Dreher at 626-3336.
