KHS Junior Charged With Felonies For 'Senior Prank'

A worker from a tree service company called in by the school district works on sawing down a tree in front of Kewaskum High School after four students tried cutting the tree down in a "senior prank"

Students coming to Kewaskum High School heard the sound of a chainsaw instead of a school bell Friday morning. But the sound of a chainsaw is what started a fiasco that has left one KHS junior with felony charges for his role in this "senior prank".

The ordeal all started when a neighbor to the high school heard the sound of a chainsaw from her open bedroom window Friday morning around 1:50 a.m.

Kewaskum police officer Mark Steiner was dispatched to the high school and as he was investigating he noticed the suspects driving away from the scene.

Steiner pursued the suspect vehicle as it proceeded out of town on USH 45 north at speeds near 90 mph.

Once out of the village and into Fond du Lac County officer Steiner lost sight of the vehicle and approaching speed near 110 mph, notified the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department who later apprehended the suspect vehicle.

Washington County Sheriff's deputies arrived on scene in Kewaskum and made sure no further damage was done to the school building. At that time it was deemed the 40 foot high maple tree that has withstood four additions to the school and maybe as many as 40 graduating classes would need to come down for safety reasons.

Shane W. Dreher, 18, the driver of the vehicle, was charged Friday with one felony count of attempting to flee or elude a traffic officer and one count of felony criminal damage to property, as a party to a crime. Dreher faces fines of up to $10,000 or up to three years, 6 months in prison or both on each count.

"This is terribly unfortunate for the school, community and the four young men involved. It's one of those things you wish you could turn time backwards so another course of action could have been taken," stated KHS principal Donn Woolweber.

Woolweber stated that three of the students will face an expulsion hearing June 2. The other student involved will be heard on June 11.

He further stated that there has been no word on how to replace the tree or if it will be replaced. He guessed that when all is said and done the "prank" will have cost around $10,000.

Charges for the other three are being reviewed by

Town of Wayne Holds May Meeting

By Kim Survis
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
ksurvis@kewaskumstatesman.com

There was a large turnout for the May 21st Town of Wayne board meeting.

The major topic of discussion at the meeting was Dennis Vogt's rezoning petition for a subdivision. The new subdivision is currently zoned as agricultural; the landowners asked that the land be rezoned to residential.

A motion made to rezone, but died for lack of second, despite the Town of Wayne Planning Commission's recommendation to zone the area residential. The subdivision owners agreed to have a meeting with neighbors affected by the subdivision to address any wishes or concerns. This issue will be brought up at next month's meeting.

The town was contacted by the Washington County Sheriff's Department about possibly setting up a campground for this summer's Harley Davidson anniversary festivities on land in the town. The board is contacting the landowner to see if there would be some interest to have a temporary campground for cyclists.

There are a few roads in the Town of Wayne in need of seal coating and wedging. The Board decided to approve advertising costs for bidding and accept bids for the roadwork.

Damage to Hillcrest Road was also discussed at the Board meeting. Apparently heavy trucks backing down the road, leaving a two-inch drop in fill caused the damage. No action was taken, the topic was tabled to the next meeting.

Day for Remembering

"Much has changed since last year," Representative LeMahieu told the crowd of about 80 at Fillmore. "We are again a country at war."

On such a beautiful day it was disturbing to be reminded that men and women are still fighting and dying in Iraq for the freedoms of the nations of the world. Marlene Domasky once again put together a lovely program at the Turner Hall honoring the veterans buried in the German Methodist Church cemetery and in St. Martin's Cemetery in Fillmore. St. Andrew's Rangerettes and young members of the Boltonville Fire Department, Sarah and Joey Peterson, Cindy Mueller, Kimmy Kohlwey and Alison Godejohn, took turns as MC, inviting the audience to the Pledge of Allegiance, singing our National Anthem and "God Bless America," as well as introducing Daniel LeMahieu, our 59th District Assemblyman.

"We struggle to find the right words to convey our thoughts and attitudes," he said. "In a time-honored tradition we honor and give reverence to those who have died in the wars." A worldwide freedom that Americans fought to defend is a South Korea which has grown and prospered. We will honor on July 27 the fiftieth anniversary of the armistice to end the Korean War, and the 30,000 who gave their lives. The Representative ended with a quote from a hymn: "Their names are etched not only on gravestones, but in our hearts."

The colorguard was graciously provided by the Fred Schaeffer Post of West Bend. "We do about fifty to sixty funerals a year, and participate in about four other events, like Memorial Day," Mike Schuster said. He and Steve Zacher performed the flag-folding while Mrs. Domasky read the symbolism behind it. Each of the thirteen folds represents a particular practice or belief, from life itself to womanhood to our nation's motto "In God We Trust" as the final fold. The flag was then presented to visitor Vernon Moths from Milwaukee, a veteran himself. He came up to Fillmore today to visit his family's graves; his father, Arthur, served in World War I. We were treated to a moving rendition of Taps by KHS's Nic Luther, while Seth Wynveen and Kyle Lickel led singing. Several children helped to lay pine and lilac decorated wreaths on graves afterward.

Bernice Wendel showed her father-in-law's World War I uniform and her husband, Allan's, Korean summer and heavy-duty uniform and caps. Mary Secor shared her husband, Gerry's, World War II uniform. "He wore his summer uniform out," she said. A kit and uniform of the World War I soldier was shown by Ray and Betty Mertzig, recently acquired by their son, John. The Swamp Busters 4H brought along their float from the Rain Days parade, adorned with the photographs of past and present servicemen.

The smell of hamburgers and brats brought the crowd down to the baseball diamond behind Turner Hall where the Fillmore Fire Department made a valiant effort to defend their honor against the Stan Maertz faction. In a real nail biter, the firefighters fell by a score of 9-11. Tom Paulus' was the next team up at 2:00. We'll have the final tournament results and photographs next week.

Kewaskum Fire Department Holds EMS Open House

The Kewaskum Fire Department members organized a EMS Open House recently in honor of National EMS Week. Tours of the fire station and the equipment inside along with a visit by Flight for Life Helicopter and a Jaws of Life demonstration were enjoyed by the many who attended. The open house was organized by Craig Garbisch and Sandy Hahn, Kewaskum EMS personnel.

My Favorite Kindergarten Teacher

It has been said that "Everything you need to know, you learn in kindergarten."

Assuming this is true, we all owe a debt of gratitude to our kindergarten teacher. June of 2003 brings a close to Mrs. Irene Stradtman's kindergarten teaching career. Before arriving in Kewaskum she taught, for a brief time, in Pepin, Waupun, and West Bend.

During 1974 Irene taught kindergarten at Beechwood Elementary School. From 1976-79 she worked with Tot-Time children at Peace Church. From 1980-84 she went back to kindergarten at Beechwood Elementary School. Kewaskum Elementary School was her school from 1984-99, and for the last four years she has been at Wayne Elementary School.

During these 34 years she has had an impact on the lives of many students and their parents. Irene often thinks back about the students she has had in class and wonders about them.

Maybe some of you many former students would like to send a note and tell her what year you were in her class and what you are doing now. She would treasure these memories for many years to come.

Her address is 540 Werner Drive, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

Thanks,
David Stradtman

No Rain For Boltonville Rain Days

Every once in awhile the firefighters in Boltonville who call their picnic Rain Days luck out and it's just the opposite. This past weekend, was one of those weekends.

That great weather from the man above had those in the Boltonville hamburger stand make history. For the first time ever, the "fryers" ran out of 6,000 hamburger patties. Guess next year Steve and Jill Enright will have to pony up another cow!

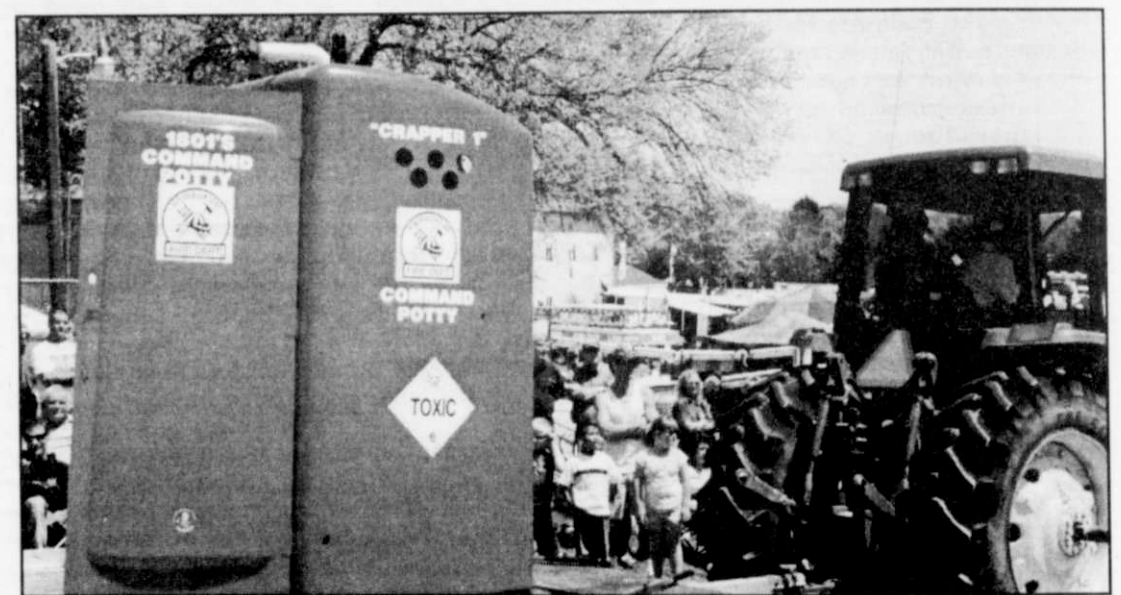

The Enright's, farmers in the Farmington area, donate the beef every year for this annual event that draws thousands. We don't know though if it's Steve's meat that draws the crowd or the seasoning Kewaskum Frozen Foods adds when they make their famous "seasoned patties" that are used at the event.

Kevin Fay, one of the many organizers of the event said he didn't know though if they would ever set the record (224 barrels) of beer kegs consumed that was set in the early 1980's and never broken. This year they settled for selling 180.

All the money raised from this event is used to pay for equipment and training for the Boltonville Fire Department which serves the township of Farmington and provides mutual aid and a lot of razzing to Kewaskum's Fire Department and others in the area.

That razzing led to a float entry in the parade shown to the right. Apparently this new apparatus was added to Kewaskum's line of equipment after an "accident" at a recent fire call in the village. Very reliable sources from inside the Kewaskum Fire Department tell the Statesman that the chief, 1801, forgot to leave something at the fire station and had to return there to take care of this forgotten business. We heard the whole ordeal was pretty *#^tty. Oh and don't worry, this new piece of equipment didn't cost taxpayers a dime. Kewaskum firefighters went out and got donations from local businesses to help meet the expense.

The Boltonville Fire Department is already beginning their plans for their annual Street Dance that is held the second Saturday in September. This year's dance is September 13. More details will follow in this newspaper.

Please watch next week's edition for raffle prize winners.

Project Update

Crews from Badger Wrecking in West Bend work on removing the home of Maurice Struebing. The home was sold to the state to make way for an improved USH 45 CTH H east Badger Road intersection. Statesman Photo: Andrew Kuehl

Ideal conditions have helped aid crews in the USH 45 reconstruction project. According to project engineer Jeanne Marchant projects are being completed and started according to schedule.

A problem Marchant has been having is residents sticking rummage sale signs on the road construction signs. She states that any sign placed on a DOT road sign will be removed immediately. It is also against the law to post signs on road signs that belong to the DOT.

The Maurice Struebing home has been razed and work has already begun on the new Badger Road that will intersect with CTH H East. Work on razing Syl's Little Club and Dean Derge Metal Works will take place towards late June as they will be occupied until June 15. Progress is being made on the installation of storm sewer and should be complete in two weeks at which time paving of the new northbound lanes will commence.

Marchant reminds drivers and property owners that driveways and intersections at CTH H W, Timblin and Prospect Drive may at some point be closed to install the storm sewer. She stated that her crews will make every attempt possible to accommodate property owners.

Construction of the box culvert at the Kewaskum Fire Station has been pushed back until June 16.

The stream along USH 45 that will be used for storm water retention is nearing completion. The floodplain will be seeded this week and early next week.

The hand planting of 9,600 rootstock continues to take place.

Meetings continue every Wednesday at the Kewaskum Community Room at 10 a.m. at the Municipal Building.

Marchant would like to remind everyone with more equipment being used in this project the need for caution when driving through the work zone increases as well. This is not just for the worker's safety but drivers as well. Drivers in smaller vehicles are not always easy to see from heavy equipment like dump trucks.

County and local law enforcement will be paying close attention to the construction area. FINES DOUBLE IN WORK ZONES! Speeds in the village are 30 MPH and outside the village is 45 MPH.

Kirst Participates in Nation Wide Conference

MILWAUKEE - Robert A. Kirst, Kirst Builders of Kewaskum, recently attended the JLC Live Residential Construction Show at the Midwest Airlines Center in downtown Milwaukee. The conference was hosted by Journal of Light Construction magazine, co-sponsored by Stanley, USG, Dodge Trucks, Anderson Windows, Youngstown Outfitters, Sashco, Occidental Leather, Canply and many others.

The conference was filled with "How to Job-Site Workshops, Hands-on Installation Clinics, Computer Labs and Business Clinics. Tutorial classes were held on topics such as: load paths and span charts for new construction, moisture and mold issues, trouble shooting foundations and small business management.

On the lighter side fun-filled competitions such as the hammer toss, golf ball in the hole and nail pounding competitions were held.

There was ample time to network with the instructors and other builders in the field. Much information was gained to improve bottom line and to build a more safe, durable, energy efficient and intelligent home for customers.

This was the first time this annual two-day event was held in Milwaukee.

A man, so they say, went bear hunting.

Unfortunately, he saw the big bear about the same time the bear saw him. He threw down his gun and started to run.

Suddenly a little rabbit got in his way. But the frightened man overtook him. He kicked him, saying, "Get out of the way, brother rabbit. Let somebody run who can!"

If you can't do the great things in life, get out of the way and let someone do them who can.

Don't criticize and hinder. Stand aside and cheer the one who's doing his best.

The Living Bible says, "Encourage each other to build each other up, just as you are already doing."

PEOPLE NEWS

Jaberg Installed as Association President

Steve Jaberg

WEST BEND - Steve Jaberg, 49, executive director and CEO of Cedar Community, was installed on May 8th to a two-year term as president of the Wisconsin Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (WAHSA) during the organization's annual meeting held in Waukesha.

WAHSA is a statewide organization of not-for-profit corporations serving the elderly and disabled. Its membership is comprised of 190 religious, fraternal, private and governmental organizations which own, operate or sponsor 194 nursing homes, 91 independent living facilities, and over 310 community service agencies such as hospice, home health and adult day care.

According to Jaberg, there are four major challenges facing the nursing home industry during his term. These include the widening rift in Medicaid reimbursement versus the actual cost of skilled nursing care; technological advances that are needed to free health care workers from paper work in order to provide more one-on-one resident care; and the perceived negative image of nursing homes. "An even larger problem, however, is the over-regulation of our industry," he said, referring to a variety of government guidelines in effect. "They are encumbering our caregivers, and thus taking valuable staff time away from the care of residents. There are examples of caregivers needing to document the documentation of other documentation," Jaberg added. "We need to provide vital information and spend more time with direct resident care issues."

As well as the many challenges facing Jaberg's presidency, he also looks forward to the opportunity to promote interaction among the members, association personnel and our legislative leaders. "I'd like to see an even greater focus on advocacy for the needs of WAHSA members," he said. "We need to over-communicate the needs of our members to legislative leaders. We want to help them understand the plight of the typical nursing home seeking to provide the high levels of quality care that providers, state agencies and society in general expect, with a reconciliation of meeting the Medicaid reimbursements needed to pay for this care."

Jaberg has a master's degree in health care administration from Cardinal Stritch University, Milwaukee and recently celebrated his 19th year as an administrator at Cedar Community. He directs the daily operations and care of over 1,000 residents and oversees 625 staff members. Cedar Community, now celebrating its 50th anniversary, provides superior health care, education, rehabilitation and senior housing on three campuses in the West Bend area.

UWWC Dean Search Unsuccessful

The search for a new campus dean at UW-Washington County has ended unsuccessfully. A new dean's search will begin again in the fall, with a permanent appointment made by the end of the next academic year. The announcement was made by UW Colleges Chancellor William Messner, in a memo to university faculty and administration.

Messner indicated that "Tom Brigham has agreed to continue to serve as interim campus dean until a permanent dean is appointed. Tom has done an outstanding job as interim dean for the past several months, and we are fortunate that he is agreeable to continuing in this capacity." Messner thanked "Sarada Prasad and the members of the Search Committee for all of their work in the search process, as well as for all those who provided me with input regarding the finalists who visited campus."

Unfortunately the timing of the search was such that it inhibited our ability to make a permanent appointment, and hopefully by commencing with a new search in the fall, we will be better positioned to bring the search to a successful conclusion." The national search for the dean's position began in February. From a pool of 50 candidates, four finalists were invited to the West Bend campus and a final interview with the Chancellor. The finalists included Dr. Michael Banks (St. Louis University, Missouri), Dr. Anthony Koyzis (UW-Oshkosh), and Dr. Suresh Tiwari (formerly with D-Q University, California). A fourth candidate, Dr. Anne Patterson (Eastern Oregon University) dropped out of the final interview.

According to University Relations Director, Sue Survis, the campus is "familiar with this scenario." A similar situation occurred in 1989, when Dean Thompson retired. The first search for Thompson's replacement was also deemed unsuccessful. Dr. Dion Kempthorne served as Interim Dean from early 1989 until the summer of 1990 when Dr. Joel Rodney was hired.

Tom Brigham noted that he "accepts the position and opportunity, realizing we have a wonderful faculty and staff to work with as well as a solid government structure." He indicated that "the transition should be smooth, with very limited interruption."

Kewaskum Middle School, under the direction of the Student Council, recently participated in the 11th annual Teddy Bear Patrol, which is sponsored by WTMJ and State Financial Bank. Teddy Bear Patrol is a program that puts donated stuffed animals in the hands of various police and fire departments in the southern and central parts of Wisconsin. These stuffed animals are then given to children in crisis situations (abuse, neglect, fire, accidents, etc.).

This year, well over 7,000 animals were collected by over 120 schools and individuals. The Kewaskum

Student Council is very pleased to announce that 171 stuffed animals were collected from the students in less than three weeks time and were delivered to WTMJ to be distributed to various departments.

They are looking forward to gathering even a larger number next year.

BERNICE G. HALL

Bernice G. Hall, 84, of Ashford, found peace on May 23, 2003.

She was born in the town of Byron on Dec. 14, 1919, the daughter of Oscar and Mary Weyer Beck.

Bernice spent her first years after graduating from Lomira High School working for a family in Milwaukee as a live-in cook. It was the Great Depression and she earned $3.25 for a six-day week, with a day free each Thursday known as "maid's day off." During World War II she worked at the National Enamel and Stamping Company in Milwaukee to produce ammunition shells. Bernice talked about how carefully the women worked to produce shells without flaws so American soldiers could rely on them to defeat the Nazis. She was one of 5 million women who were vital to the war effort by taking jobs in industry while men were in combat. Bernice was proud to be elected union steward to represent workers at the plant.

After the war Bernice married Arnold Hall on Oct. 12, 1946 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Lomira. Together they farmed the original 1849 Hall homestead in Ashford, milking cows and raising pigs and chickens. Bernice was a superb cook. She would prepare huge meals for the crews who came with the threshing machine to harvest the grain, before the use of combines. She would make "lunch" after evening sheepshead games with friends and serve countless holiday dinners. People were glad to be invited for dinner because Bernice service such a feast and she loved to see friends and family enjoy good food. She always said that the secret was to use the best quality ingredients, but she was an artist in the kitchen.

In 1960, she entered a WTMJ radio contest and won a trip on the Milwaukee Clipper, which was a passenger ship that crossed Lake Michigan. It was a grand adventure for the family. Bernice was a member of the Christian Mothers Society at St. Martin's Church in Ashford and along with other parish women, would donate to bake sales, cook at funerals, clean the grade school and church, and do many other vital tasks that women did to help sustain the parish. She helped her children with their homework, made sure they got to the doctor and dentist, packed countless grade school lunchboxes, did summer canning, but always made time to do something fun with the kids.

Bernice began to work outside the home in the early 1960s, when that was less common for married women to do than it is today. She began to work at the Herbst Shoe Factory in Lomira which made Child Life shoes, and later at the Gilbert Shoe Factory in Campbellsport and the Campbellsport Press printing plant. Several summers she inspected peas and corn processed at the Star Canning Factory in Lomira. In later years she worked at Susie's Restaurant in Lomira and in the kitchen at Campbellsport High School. Bernice also worked at the town hall on election day.

Through the years she also helped Arnold on the farm. This included picking stones after spring field work, washing eggs and packing them in crates for the "egg man" to buy, carrying the milk to the cooler in the milkhouse and cleaning the milking equipment, feeding the young calves, and cleaning the barn, until they retired from farming in 1982.

Through the years Bernice loved to dance with Arnold, play with her dog Ernie, listen to the Braves and now Brewers ball games, hang wash outside even in winter because it smelled so fresh, play sheepshead, make angel food cake with orange cream filling for her granddaughter Sheena and try new recipes. She was a careful shopper and urged her kids to "take it back" if something wasn't right. Bernice was always quick to laugh and loved to joke around, but her last years were very difficult due to loss of memory. Bernice devoted her life to Arnold and her children and now she can rest.

She is survived by daughters Joanne (Gus) Ricca of Shorewood and Louise (Bill) McClarran of Ashford as well as a granddaughter Sheena Hesson of Neenah and a sister, Dolores Koller of Racine.

She was preceded in death by her husband Arnold and son Steven.

(c) Impoundment-biting or attacking animal.

(1) The department shall have the power to summarily and immediately impound an animal whenever the department has reasonable grounds pursuant to subsection (d) to believe that the animal is a dangerous animal, pending the results of an investigation by the department. Any law enforcement officer or duly authorized department employee may enter and inspect private property to enforce the provision of this section. The owner of the animal shall be liable to the village for the costs and expenses of impounding and keeping said animal, unless the department fails to declare the animal dangerous or the department determination is ultimately overturned by the protection and public safety committee or the Municipal Court.

(2) An animal, impounded pursuant to this section, may be returned to the owner upon payment of all outstanding village fees and charges including costs and expenses of impounding the animal when the investigation is completed.

(3) In lieu of impoundment, if the animal is currently immunized against rabies, or if the animal species is at low risk for transmitting this or other diseases, the department may permit the animal to be confined at the owner's residence provided that the owner complies with conditions set forth by the department. (Refer to section 10-62 of the Municipal Code.)

(4) The owner or custodian of an animal confined under subsection (3) above shall immediately notify the department if said animal is loose, unconfined, has attacked or bitten or injured another animal or has attacked, bitten or injured a human being or has died. The animal shall not be sold or given away during the impoundment period.

(d) Determination. The department shall investigate situations in which there are reasonable grounds to believe an animal is dangerous. Reasonable grounds to believe an animal is dangerous are that the animal:

(1) Has attacked, bitten or injured another animal or human being engaged in a lawful activity; or

(2) Has without provocation and off the property of its owner, chased, confronted or approached a person in a menacing fashion such as would put an average person in fear of attack; or

(3) Has been trained for fighting or attack and is being handled, kept or maintained in a manner that causes or should cause an owner to know that it potentially poses a threat to public health and safety; or

(4) Has acted in any manner that causes or should cause an owner to know that the animal is a threat to public health and safety.

(e) Dangerous animal, declared. The department, after considering appropriate evidence, may declare any animal to be a dangerous animal (refer to subsection (d) above). The department shall make a reasonable attempt to personally notify the owner of the pendency of the department's investigation and shall notify the owner in writing of its determination. Mailing a copy of the determination to the owner's last known address and posting in accordance with approved department policy shall satisfy this notice requirement.

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess, harbor or keep any animal declared by the department to be dangerous, except as allowed in subsection (2) below.

(2) Any animal declared by the department to be a dangerous animal shall be humanely destroyed, removed from the village or placed under restrictions as set forth in department policies. The police chief or his designee shall issue an order authorizing the destruction, removal or restriction of the animal within two days after the time for appeal as provided in subsection (h) below has passed without notice of appeal being filed.

(3) Any animal declared by the department to be dangerous, if not already impounded by the department, shall be immediately surrendered to the department upon the order of the police chief or his designee, and it is the duty of the department to contact the Washington County Humane Society to take up and impound any such animal.

(1) The department may make a new determination if an owner fails to comply with the terms, conditions or restrictions imposed in subsection (f)(2) above.

(2) The failure of any person to comply with any term, condition or restriction imposed by the department is a violation of this section.

(h) Subcommittee review of determination. The owner or any person aggrieved by a department determination declaring any animal to be a dangerous animal may appeal such determination to the protection and public safety committee by filing a notice of appeal stating the grounds therefore with the chief of police within seven days of the date of mailing of the department determination under subsection (e) above. The protection and public safety committee shall schedule a hearing on whether to affirm, conditionally affirm or reject the department determination within 32 days, but not sooner than five days, and shall make reasonable efforts to notify the owner, bite or attack victims and their representatives, if any, department witnesses and other interested parties of such hearing and the opportunity to present evidence and testimony to the subcommittee. The subcommittee shall, within a reasonable period of time after the hearing, issue its decision in writing and serve a copy of the same by first class mail upon the owner and all parties requesting the same.

(i) Appeals to municipal court. Any person aggrieved by a determination of the protection and public safety committee under subsection (h) above may appeal such action on a dangerous animal determination to municipal court by writ of certiorari within 20 days of notification of such final action by mailing of the decision under subsection (h).

(j) Prosecution. It is the intent of this section that any investigation or determination under this section shall not prohibit the village from prosecuting the same owner for other animal control violations relating to the same animal or other animal.

(1) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be subject to a forfeiture of not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00. Each and every day such violation continues shall be considered a separate offense.

(2) The failure or neglect of any person to comply with any lawful order of the department issued pursuant to this section is a violation of this section.

(l) Severability. In the event that any subsection of this section shall be declared or adjudged by a court or competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, such adjudication shall in no manner affect the other subsections of this section, which shall be in full force and effect as if the said subsection(s) were not originally a part thereof. (Ord. No. 99-3, 3-15-99)

LEGAL NOTICES

RESOLUTION NO. 2003-14

A RESOLUTION OPPOSING PROPERTY TAX LEVY LIMITS OR A TAX LEVY FREEZE

WHEREAS, the imposition of property tax levy limits or a tax levy freeze has been discussed by the leadership of the State Assembly and State Senate; and

WHEREAS, the imposition of property tax levy limits or a levy freeze would eliminate local government control and "home rule authority" over the provision and level of services desired by the residents of local governments; and

WHEREAS, the Village of Kewaskum Village Board is firmly committed to responsible, prudent spending and taxation policies and feels it is in the best position to make the decisions for its citizens; and

WHEREAS, the Village of Kewaskum Village Board desires to have the ability, in consultation with the residents of the Village, to determine the services and level thereof to be provided to its residents; and

WHEREAS, the Village of Kewaskum Village Board believes that the Village of Kewaskum Village Board is in the best position to determine the level of services citizens desire, not arbitrary legislation; and

WHEREAS, the spending problem in Wisconsin is at the State legislature and Executive level not at the local level, that being the Village of Kewaskum; and

WHEREAS, the State of Wisconsin forces local municipalities to spend resources needlessly through unfounded state mandates; and

WHEREAS, property tax limits or a tax levy freeze would adversely impact municipal bond ratings and impact the ability of municipalities to meet future financial obligations that may have been pre-committed; and

WHEREAS, such legislation would remove incentive for economic development of a community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum that the Village Board is opposed to levy limits as they are arbitrary, do not take into account the level of services desired by the residents of local governments, and eliminates home rule authority for local governments.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Governor Jim Doyle, State Senator Mary Panzer and State Representative Daniel LeMahieu, local media and the League of Wisconsin Municipalities.

Education... It's Everyone's Business

By Wayne P. Graczyk,
Kewaskum Superintendent of Schools
www.kewaskumschools.org

Please Stop Comparing Schools to Private Industry! Please!

When I hear about our bad economy, and lay-offs, and cuts, etc., etc., etc., I am saddened to hear people, especially legislators and business people, compare us to private industry. Schools produce children, not things for sale. Well, maybe not children, but children learning. Companies produce a product that is sold for profit.

Allow me to illustrate my point: When company A produces a product, we'll call them widgets; they need materials and a specific number of workers to accomplish this. For example, if the company determines that the public will purchase 10,000 widgets, they need to produce 10,000 widgets and add workers and increase purchases to meet those demands. Conversely, if the market drops in hard economic times, and the people will now only purchase 5000 widgets, the company must cut back production which includes laying off enough people so the remaining workers can produce the 5000 needed widgets, and still make a profit. After all, that makes sense since they are in business to make money. That is what a for-profit company is about.

Now let's take a school. In the Kewaskum School District we have 1980+ students. These children are our product, our "widgets". When the economy turns sour, schools can't simply reduce staff proportionally to the lessened demand for a product like a company can. Whether the economy is strong or weak, Kewaskum still has 1980+ students to educate. That is why we aren't like the private sector and I dislike the comparisons being made. Politicians lose sight of one simple fact. They say layoff teachers, support staff, administrators, cut programs, reduce, reduce, and reduce. We have 5 buildings, 6 including the Community Building, that have to be heated, maintained, have built in overhead costs. We can't shut down one or two to save money because our total student enrollment hasn't dropped. We still have 1980+ students!

A reduction in staff results in higher-class sizes. We can reduce programs, but this diminishes the quality of education our children need to compete in the world today. We can reduce overhead but only so much because children, all 1980+, still need heat in the winter; need water and other vital resources to operate a school.

My point? With all the cuts we've already made (over the past 10 years due to a revenue limit imposed on schools), cuts in staff, programs, textbooks, supplies and maintenance, etc, we still have 1980+ students to educate, to teach. We're simply forced to do so with a smaller workforce, with less supplies, fewer programs and textbooks or outdated textbooks, not to mention not properly maintaining our buildings. With the state deficit and impending cuts to education, we are looking at class sizes ranging up to and in some cases over 30 at the middle school and elementary school and around possibly 25-28 (higher in some classes) at the high school. To add insult to injury, we now have the Federal Government demanding more accountability through the newly enacted No Child Left Behind Act. This Act will demand more of schools, at a time when resources are shrinking. With all of this swirling around for educators to ponder, we still have 1980+ students to educate, and must do so with less and less every year.

As a for-profit company, the rules are simple: If you produce a product that falls in demand, you simply reduce the workforce, cut back purchasing, even close a building or two until the economy, and/or demand for their product increases. It makes sense in the private sector, fewer widgets needed, equates to a smaller workforce, which conversely means less materials to buy. Isn't that what a for-profit company is for? To make a profit?

The point people fail to take into consideration is that schools don't make a profit. We not only don't make a profit, we are responsible for making a product that will someday help a company make money, or make a profit for them, but are being asked to do it at a higher standard but with less staff, programming and materials/supplies. Our children will one day become adults. Their level of education will have a tremendous impact on the value and success of our community, and our state.

Enrollment in the Kewaskum School District is steady. Some believe enrollment will rise, some predict it will remain stable. In either case, the numbers of children will rise or fall at a time when legislators and community members are demanding more cuts, lay-offs and "to do more with less", just like private industry does. My point is simple: In private industry, there are built-in mechanisms to confront poor economic times, i.e. lay offs, closing shops, moving to a different area, purchasing less because you produce less, etc. In schools there aren't any built in mechanisms, just the reality that we still have about students to teach. We really can't just close a building to help out in bad times, even temporarily like a business is able to do. Those who recall the impact the closing of Beechwood Elementary School had on the District many years ago know what I am talking about.

My wish is for people to simply understand this and cease comparing schools to private industry. We're different for many reasons, some discussed earlier. Educating children does cost money. It isn't inexpensive by any means. But without an educated workforce, our entire economy will be affected. It's a point we need to keep in mind during good times and in bad.

Queen of the River

Evie Overton spends alot of time fishing the Wisconsin River in Portage.

Hello Friends,

Jim and Evie Overton, ages 90 and 81, are living the dream life for a pair of retirees. Twenty years ago, when Jim retired from Oscar Mayer's in Madison, they remodeled their cabin on the Wisconsin River north of Portage into a year-round home. Jim took and still has a job bagging groceries at the local Piggly Wiggly for three hours a day.

Evie became a full-time fisherman. She transformed her weekend hobby of exploring and fishing the river into a way of life. I met the Overtons in the late 1990s while attending Portage Presbyterian Church with my wife, Laurie. A month ago, Evie called and asked me to go fishing with her. Yesterday, I did just that.

Tuesday, May 20
High 65, Low 48

It's not every day that someone asks me to go fishing and already has a boat in the water, has purchased both minnows and crawlers and has lunch packed. A guy could get used to that.

Today from the get-go

was a unique as well as a learning day. Jim is not much for fishing, so it would be just Evie and me. We fished in an area Aldo Leopold once called home. Much of the shoreline has not changed in the last 50 years.

Evie would have preferred to find her own minnows. She believes that catches more fish, but high water prevented that. Evie's style of fishing is simple and reliable, working out of the same 14-foot jon boat with a six horse Johnson motor that she's used for the last 30 years.

She works her favorite holes with three bait casting rods - one rod in each hand and the other close by. Each is weighted with about an ounce of sliding singers to keep it on the bottom.

What Evie and I did was fish, explore, and tell each other stories. If a book should ever be written, Evie has the stories for it. She has more outdoor common sense than 90 percent of the men I spend time on the water or in the woods with.

I appreciated comments

like, "I would rather fish than eat." We talked about the big boats of today that she sees on the weekends but rarely on a weekday.

"There was a day when they slowed down when they went by you when you were fishing, but not no more," she commented.

We talked deer hunting, which until three years ago, both Evie and Jim enjoyed. They were able to hunt just about anywhere in the area. Then a man from Chicago with deep pockets bought five adjoining farms as well as the islands and posted them as no hunting. I have heard this story from a dozen other people. He has created a new oasis, since the deer move into the refuge each fall. It is amazing how one man can affect the lives of so many others.

Every time Evie had a bite on her line, she knew what the fish was before she had it in the boat. Walleye stay on the bottom; small mouth bass run all over and shake their head a lot; red horse just peck away at the bait until it's gone or they get hooked.

The water was high and the current strong. In most cases, Evie insisted on tying off in deadfalls, places where tying off would scare most people.

A disastrous bit of bad luck struck Evie three years ago when her fishing partners, Dudley and Mike Runkel met their fate on the Wisconsin River near Poynette. Low water kept the Runkels from fishing near the Overtons' place, and a busy day kept Evie out of the boat on April 1, 2000.

Dudley and Mike hit a stump and were thrown from their boat. The boat kept moving, and the cold water temperatures claimed Evie's fishing partners.

Evie has been both smart and lucky the last two years. She has had a hard time pulling the cord on her motor to get it started. She sold her rig to her podiatrist, Dr. Dale Barret, who keeps the boat within walking distance of her house. She has a new fishing partner since Dale wanted her to teach him as much as she can about fishing this piece of paradise.

Thanks for the call, Evie!

Fishing Report

By Mr. Fisherman

This fishing report is about a job, one big fish, and another love affair.

A silent but deadly look has been given to me about not catching any bass. No more excuses. No more whining. Just produce or stop wasting your time and get a job. At 59 years old and being retired for almost 4 years, even the idea of working gives me a headache. The paper has been opened to the employment section and put next to my chair in the living room. Does someone think this subtle hint will make me try harder? It sure will!

All week long the fishing has been so-so on Long Lake with a few bass in the 17" range and some small northers. My trolling motor started giving me trouble again and it was down to Milwaukee to have it serviced. On the way there the Auburn Lake exit caught my eye. My thoughts went back to last year remembering how this lake was one tough cookie to fish. It only produced a couple of small bass and a few northers that had followed my lures up to the boat.

After coming back from Milwaukee the boat and I were off to Auburn for two days of fishing. Why would I go there? Am I a sucker for punishment and really want to go back to work? Guess I was up to the challenge!

The days were cool with the wind coming from the southeast and then switching to out of the north the next day. The water temp was 66 degrees with a few bass and small northers seen in the reeds, but nothing big. Neither was any bass spawning beds spotted in the shallow water. In fact I saw very few fish along the shore line. With water temperatures up in the 60's you would think the bass would be on the beds.

The northers were either hitting spinner baits and rapalas or following them up to the boat. The biggest northern was 26" long. Most of the fish caught were off the west shore line in 6 to 8 feet of water. For some reason the bass and northers were not striking rapala husky jerks. Most of the bass caught were quarter pounders.

The bass were hitting silver and black floating rapalas size 13 with a split shot about 8 to 10" ahead of the lure. This is the lure the big one hit. It was one beautiful, stunning, gorgeous, stupendous, magnificent, big, fat BASS. As she jumped out of the water (twice) two things were on my mind: 1) She is big and 2) now I can toss out the employment section of the paper. This baby kept me in retirement and she deserved a kiss for that. With my thumb in her mouth and my heart pounding I thanked her. There was no response. Duh! How can she talk with a thumb in her mouth? To keep her memory alive, maybe I shouldn't wash my hands for a week. Most wives would object to that!

This big bass came from the north side of the point, in the big lake, just off the weed line. Her stats were 4 lbs. 12 oz., but only 19" long. (Short, but hefty) A picture was taken at Parkview General Store and then back she went to Auburn Lake. Back home to spawn and to be caught to be released again. I hope there are many anglers who can have their picture taken with this bass.

Well you may have guessed by now that in two days of fishing Auburn Lake a new love affair has started. I'm ECSTATIC! This fish kept me out of the job market for at least a month. Oh thank you, thank you, thank you Auburn Lake. Thank you for that big one!

4 X 800M Relay Team Breaks School Record

KHS Boys Fifth at Frosh/Soph Conference Meet

By Jerry Gosa

CAMPBELLSPORT - Plymouth won the annual Eastern Wisconsin Conference Frosh/Soph Conference Meet with a total of 134 points, Thursday, May 22nd. Two Rivers followed with 128, Sheboygan Falls and New Holstein both with 105, Kewaskum 94, Kiel 53, Manitowoc Roncalli 47, and Campbellsport 20.

The Kewaskum 4 x 800m relay team of Alex Herriges, Eric Nass, Nick Bartley and Josh Meyer finished second, but still set a school record with a time of 8:38.8. The record of 8:42 set in 2002 was held by Meyer, Chris Baker, Tom Ramthun and Bryan Kraft. Sheboygan Falls won the 4 x 800m relay with a time of 8:33.7.

Meyer won the lone event for Kewaskum when he finished first in the 400m dash with a time of 54.3 seconds. Meyer's teammate Zack VanWormer, a freshman, finished second in the 400m dash with a season best time of 54.9 seconds.

"Van Wormer has made consistent improvement in the 400m dash the entire season," commented coach Jerry Gosa.

"We decided to switch things around and take Meyer out of his usual 1600 and 800m races for the Frosh/Soph Conference Meet. We thought the speed work would be good for him with the upcoming regional and sectional meet next week. He'll need to be well rested and ready for the high level of competition that he will run against," commented distance coach Randy Backhaus.

Luke Herriges placed second in the high jump with a season best height of 5'8". "Luke has worked hard this season and will continue to improve," stated jumping coach Jason Meinen.

The 4 x 200m relay team of Nate Steiner, Jake Sabel, Garrett Donath and Ross Stockhausen finished second with a time of 1:40.7. Two Rivers won the relay with a time of 1:35.1.

The 4 x 100m relay team of Steiner, Herriges, Sabel and Stockhausen finished third with a time of 48.7 seconds. Plymouth's unit won with a time of 47.1 seconds.

Donath and Stockhausen finished third and fourth in the 200m dash with times of 24.6 and 25.3 seconds respectively. Donath also placed third in the pole vault at 9' 6" and Stockhausen placed sixth in the shot put with a season best 36' 8.5".

Steiner also finished fourth in the 100m dash with a time of 11.8 seconds.

Scott Rhoads tied for fourth in the 110m high hurdles with a time of 18.9 seconds.

"We saw a lot of very good efforts. The athletes had a good meet. It was nice to see the team bounce back from Monday's meet. We have a lot of holes to fill in the line-up in the future, but we presently have a very good core of young athletes. Hopefully the freshmen class will provide needed help in events that we presently have few numbers," concluded coach Gosa.

The 4 x 800m relay team of Dorzok, Danielle DeGroot, Jenny Bischoff and Nicole Stern finished sixth with a season best time of 11:20.

"The girls had a very good meet. A lot of very good efforts yielded a lot of personal best times, distances, and heights. With the graduating senior girls gone next year, these athletes will have to continue this kind of improvement in order to compete in the tough EWC. Plus the team will need to pick up additional athletes to fill certain events," concluded Coach Jerry Gosa.

By Jerry Gosa

Jessi Graham won the pole vault at 9' 6" for Kewaskum and her teammate JohnnaJo Schicker placed second based on misses in the pole vault also at 9' 6". Katie Patterson finished in a five way tie for sixth place in the pole vault with a jump of 6' 6".

The 4 x 200m relay team of Amanda Donath, Jessi Graham, Becky Herriges and Breyan Donath continued to run well as they won with a time of 1:52.03.

Claire Spang placed eighth in the discus with a personal best throw of 88' 5" for the only point Kewaskum picked up in the throwing events.

"We had a lot of good efforts. However, this wasn't their best meet of the season like we would have hoped it would be. We knew that Two Rivers would win it and Falls would be up near the top. We realistically thought that a third place finish was possible. Now it is time to look ahead at the WIAA Regional at Lomira on Tuesday, May 27th and the WIAA Sectional at Kewaskum on Thursday, May 29th," concluded coach Jerry Gosa.

Waupun Ends Indian's Season

By Kyle Darmody
Student Reporter

Going down by a score of 3-2 the Kewaskum girls fastpitch team, took an early exit from WIAA State Fastpitch Tournament for the second straight year, by losing in the first round to Waupun on Thursday, May 22.

It took a while for the Indians to get started in this one, as they were retired "1, 2, 3" in the first three innings. The Indians were unable to get a run until the sixth inning. By that time Waupun had one. Then in the bottom of the sixth Waupun answered with two runs of their own, giving them a 3-2 lead, a lead which would they would never lose.

Leading the way for the Indians was Steph Herrick by going 2-3 in her last game in a fastpitch uniform. Also in her last game was Amanda Schladweiler who was also 2-3 from the plate.

With the loss the Indians end yet another year, and yet again have to say good-bye to another group of seniors, who have provided years of sweat and support for the program. This year they say good-bye to a large group of great ball players, including Heather Meyer, Amanda Schladweiler, Kala Retler, Kayla Sauer, Jamie Logan, Steph Herrick, Steph Schnabel, and Casey Maul.

KHS Boys Track Team Takes Fourth At EWC Championships

By Jerry Gosa

TWO RIVERS - The Kewaskum High School boys track and field team finished fourth at the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Track and Field Championships on Monday, May 19th. The conference title proved to be a tough three way battle between Plymouth, New Holstein and Two Rivers with the teams finishing in just that order. Plymouth scored 141.5 points to claim the EWC Championships with New Holstein and Two Rivers tied with 135 points. Kewaskum finished a distant fourth with 66.5 followed by Sheboygan Falls 65.5, Kiel 58, Manitowoc 52 and Campbellsport 45.5.

"We were not surprised by what Plymouth, New Holstein, and Two Rivers did. We were, however, surprised that we didn't have a better meet. After finishing third at the Vanderpan Invitational we thought that we were capable of scoring more points. We didn't have one of our better meets. That's just the Kewaskum coaches honest assessment of our athletes performances. Now it is time for our athletes to focus ahead on regional and sectional competition," reported coach Jerry Gosa.

Kewaskum's Josh Meyer had the best Kewaskum finish of the meet with his second place in the 1600m run. Meyer battled Mike Roedebeck of Sheboygan Falls down the stretch to the finish line with Roedebeck just edging Meyer's best time of the season 4:34.80 to 4:35.28. Meyer also finished sixth in the 800m run with a time of 2:06.35. Ryan Wachter of Plymouth won with a time of 2:02.98.

David Cibulka placed third in the discus with a career best throw of 147' 8". Cibulka's teammate Troy Koefler placed third in the shot put with a throw of 46' 6" and fifth in the discus with a season best throw of 135' 3". Derek Pawlitzke of Two Rivers won the shot put with a throw of 54' 2.5" and Nick Gretz also of Two Rivers won the discus with a throw of 163' 10".

Both the Kewaskum 4 x 200m relay and 4 x 100m relay team of Josh Uelmen, Andy Lickel, Adam Woebeking and Matt Hartmann placed third. Kewaskum got off to an excellent start in the 400m relay only to see their lead disappear because of a poor exchange towards the end of the race.

Hartmann finished fourth in the 300m hurdles with a time of 43.04 seconds and also placed seventh in the long jump with a season best jump of 19' 0".

The Kewaskum senior boy pole vaulters had an off night as Mike McKee placed fifth at 11' and Kurtis Cochran didn't place. Freshman Garrett Donath placed seventh with a personal best height of 11'.

The Kewaskum 4 x 800m relay team of Eric Nass, Zack VanWormer, Nick Bartley, and Alex Herriges finished fifth with a time of 9:10.54.

The Kewaskum 4 x 400m relay team of Garrett

Donath, Zack VanWormer, Adam Woebeking and Josh Meyer finished sixth almost nine seconds off their season best time after a dropped baton on an exchange.

Mike Wagner finished sixth in the 110m high hurdles with a season best time of 16.3 seconds. Uelmen also finished seventh in the 100m dash in 11.6 seconds and Garrett Donath finished eighth in the 400m dash in 55.6 seconds to conclude the scoring for Kewaskum.

Kewaskum traveled to Lomira on Tuesday, May 27th, for the WIAA Regional and then hosts the WIAA Sectional on Thursday, May 29th.
