KHS Grads, Speakers Keep Presence of Christ In Ceremony

Kewaskum High School Class of 2003

By Lisa Lickel
Statesman Correspondent
llickel@kewaskumstatesman.com

On a beautiful, sunny, Flag Day afternoon the audience packed the Field House at Kewaskum High School. Graduates were issued eight tickets each, and in Kewaskum tradition, the crowd arrived early for their favorite seats. Mr. Keith Reynolds, band director, cued the processional of the graduates with "Pomp and Circumstance." Boys wore green gowns and caps, while girls were decked out in white.

Twenty-nine of the seniors were members of the National Honor Society, and added a white stole with "Honor Society" noted on the vee, while fifty-two students of the class of 159 wore the gold cord and tassel of High Honors. Thirty-four of the students were honored with a gold tassel on their mortarboards signifying an Honor student.

Master of Ceremonies was retiring English teacher James Westphal, who spoke of entering and discovering the real world after life at school, which he also will face. "Neither you nor I will be back next fall," he said.

Two of the seven valedictorians gave speeches, with Alison Yanke adhering to her promise to actually make it through her speech without too many tears. Thank goodness the audience did not have to keep such a deal. Yanke afforded several teachers the opportunity to share their advice to the graduates, ranging in typical to humorous, and ribbed James Westphal unmercifully. Sarah Kurer, also Class Vice President, listed the memories that will now be missed by the students. All in all, though, it was the Jennifer Harter show. Jenny, the Class President, led the audience in the Pledge of Allegiance, included her own remarks with the valedictorians, presented the class gift of digital hallway clocks, led the graduates in the turning of the tassel after they received their diplomas,

USH 45 Workers Rupture Gas Line

A worker from WE Energies shuts off the gas main at Timblin Drive and USH 45 after a gas line was ruptured.

Construction workers from Hoffman Construction, general contractors for the USH 45 project ruptured a gas line at the intersection of USH 45 and Timblin Drive Monday around 1:40 p.m.

The Kewaskum Fire Department immediately responded. They later assisted Kewaskum Police with traffic control once USH 45 was closed from CTH H west, as far south as Prospect Street.

Fire fighters also evacuated the Kewaskum Mall and parking lot.

Personnel from WE Energies arrived on the scene about thirty minutes after The Kewaskum Fire Department. The gas was shut off about 15 minutes after their arrival.

According to WE Energies supervisor, Ralph Benson, the repair was completed 45 minutes after they arrived on the scene. Due to legal reasons he could not release any damage estimates.

According to Jeanne Marchant, the project engineer, this winter WE Energies lowered the lines in anticipation of the highway project. When a connection was made at that intersection they left a one foot riser at the connection that the workers were unaware of and that is what was struck by a front-end loader.

After the gas was turned off Kewaskum Fire Department cleared the scene. There were no injuries. More information on the project can be found in this issue.

and even designed the graduation booklet cover.

Several members of the graduating class participated in the choral and symphonic band offerings for the last time, and Mr. Woolweber, outgoing high school principal, used his professionally-trained vocal gifts in reading the names of the graduates.

Class flowers, white lilies, were given to the graduates coming off of the stage area.

Students and their families then went outside to the bleachers for a class photo and cap toss, numerous photo opportunities, receiving line and general good wishes.

School Board Discusses Modern Woodmen to Offer Child ID Kits and Prescription Discount Cards

By Nicole Rawley
Statesman Staff

The Kewaskum Board of Education met Monday night to discuss one of their favorite topics - next year's budget. Superintendent Wayne Graczyk started off the discussion by saying, "The seriousness of this budget dilemma should be noted. These are hard times for us and all other districts across the state." What makes this so hard for districts is that nobody knows what budget the governor and Joint Finance Committee is going to come up with and agree upon.

As it stands now, the district is facing $695,000 in cuts. Some of the cuts include: not replacing the 11 staff members who retired or were non-renewed, eliminating a KHS secretary, eliminating two aides at KHS, eliminating one KMS instructional aide, reducing extended contracts for curriculum, some of the gifted and talented funding, elementary intramurals, elementary athletics, some KMS clubs and activities, some KMS athletics, some KHS athletics, a reduction in EWC joint programs, parent contracts for transportation and eliminating and reducing extended contracts.

The district contemplated the laying off of eight more instructional staff members, but decided against it. However, they did stay with their decision to not hire staff to replace the 11 who left. If they would hire staff to fulfill those positions, the district would be facing an approximately 1.1 million dollar shortfall.

The board was presented with both a worst case and best case scenario based on the Governor's and the Joint Finance Committee's budgets.

The board will hold a meeting on Monday, June 23 at 6:30 p.m. at the Administration Building to discuss the budget. The public is invited and encouraged to attend. If you have any questions, comments or concerns regarding the budget, please visit the district's website for the school board members' contact information.

Modern Woodmen of America recently added two new programs to its lineup of fraternal member benefits. Members of the fraternal financial services organization can now lower their prescription drug costs and their anxiety about their children in case of emergency.

Modern Woodmen's new Child Identification Program offers parents the peace of mind of having their children's information at hand in case of emergency. And their children will know how to get help if needed.

The free kit stores fingerprints, DNA samples, personal information, medical and dental records, and a photograph. The kit's Safe Shoes Child ID feature provides a label that attaches to the inside of a child's shoe, listing phone numbers and names of people the child or a trusted adult can call for help.

The organization's Prescription Drug Discount Program provides a prescription card that's honored by numerous participating pharmacies across the country. Provided through Script Save, the program is especially helpful for members who have no prescription drug coverage. It may also be helpful for those who have plans with high deductibles, maximum limits, or that don't cover certain medicines.

Both programs are available free to Modern Woodmen members nationwide. "As a fraternal financial services organization, Modern Woodmen touches lives with more than quality financial products," says local Modern Woodmen representative Jeff Jaeger. "Helping members achieve quality of life is at the core of everything we do."

According to Jaeger, Modern Woodmen members have access to a variety of other free fraternal member benefits. "These new programs are just two of the many ways we're able to give back to our members and their families in good times and times of need," Jaeger says.

Members may also qualify for college scholarships, grief assistance, financial assistance from premium payments during times of hardship and other benefits.

Contact Jeff Jaeger at 262-626-4139 for more information about the benefits available to Modern Woodmen members. Or log on to the Member Benefitssection at www.modernwoodmen.org.

Headquartered in Rock Island, Illinois, Modern Woodmen of America is a fraternal financial services organization with offices in Kewaskum. Modern Woodmen serves more than 750,000 members nationwide, offering life insurance, annuity and investment* products, along with fraternal member benefits for families and their communities.

Sheriff's Department Receives Grant

The Washington County Sheriff's Department has received a grant from The Bureau of Transportation Safety to help combat aggressive driving in our county. The project is called Speed, Intersection and Aggressive Driver Behavior Enforcement. These funds allow the department to work extra traffic details with the aim of improving traffic safety, by decreasing speed and aggressive behavior related crashes, thereby reducing the resulting injuries and deaths.

Deputies assigned to these traffic details have been asked to specifically watch for violations of speeding, following too closely, unsafe lane deviation, failure to stop for sign, passing on right, and also to watch for seat belt and child restraint violations. The extra assignments will be at various times of the day, on several different highways, from May 26th through September 30.

Auburn Plan Commission To Have Final Say on Special Exception Ordinance

By Kim Survis
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
ksurvis@kewaskumstatesman.com

There was a large turnout for the June 9th Town of Auburn Board Meeting. The hot item on the agenda addressed the special exception ordinance for Joe Gatzke regarding his horses.

The town's attorney suggested amending the ordinance, but a decision will have to be made by the Town of Auburn Planning Commission. They will be meeting at 7:00p.m on July 14th, one hour prior to the regular scheduled Board Meeting to discuss the issue.

On Wednesday June 18th the sealed bids were opened for Roadwork to be done within the township. The winning contractor will be announced in an upcoming edition.

Bill Dei will be digging up the ditch to do some restoration work at the Lee Schultz residence, for a cost of $500 dollars.

Former Supervisor Joe Minz will be disposing of the old compactor for the Town of Auburn.

A special thank you was announced for Albert Fleischman for the donation of the tress put in front of the salt shed on USH 45.

Farmington Board Holds June Meeting

By Lisa Lickel
STATESMAN CORRESPONDENT
llickel@kewaskumstatesman.com

The Town Board of Farmington met on June 3 to discuss several agenda items, mostly annual license approvals. Town clubs, bars, Stoneridge Golf Course, Lazy Days Campground and the two fire department's liquor, beer and tavern and cigarette licenses were all renewed. A number of individual applicants were also approved for renewal pending favorable background record checks.

Open forum of the small group of residents yielded one request to look into placing a "No Trespassing" sign on town-owned property at Green Lake. Bicyclists have apparently been making a path and the landowner was concerned.

A discussion of the zoning moratorium was quickly tabled, following the recommendation of the Plan Commission to await action pending review of the zoning ordinances. Attorney Harvey had, as of meeting time, yet to respond to repeated requests to return the ordinances. Joe Enright, chairman of the Plan Commission also volunteered to make phone requests. "We have to get an answer back by next month's meeting," he said. Supervisor Ike Roell brought up consideration of purchasing a bucket truck for the town to safely cut trees and/or trim large branches along roads. Residents brought up valid points in discussion regarding hiring out the necessary cutting and the insurance adjustments and safety regulations that would need to be made. Those items will be looked into and brought back for discussion. Likewise, the trade in of two tractors for a mower head and a loader on a mower merited advice from the audience on the value of the equipment.

A temporary subdivision ordinance asking for a higher standard fee from builders for road work will be brought back after legality over the need to hold a public hearing on the matter is determined. Current rates are forty cents per linear foot.

In final action, Supervisor Roell asked for consideration of the board to rescind the Stormwater/Erosion Ordinance developed and recommended by the Plan Commission several years previously. "They (county officials) know the ins and outs, and have the manpower to watch over what's going on," Roell said. It was recommended to have the Plan Commission rescind the ordinance and send authority back to the county. Their next meeting is July 1, 2003 at 7:00 p.m.

Project Update

Shown above is a view of the grading for the new Badger Road that is being constructed.

Paving of the southbound lanes of USH 45 will begin June 27 if good weather holds out according to project engineer Jeanne Marchant.

Paving will start at CTH H west and proceed 1,800 feet south the first day. She expects the procedure to take three days.

Once paving is complete crews will be busy installing sidewalk, curb and gutter, fixing inlets to CTH H west, Timblin Drive and Prospect Street and installing lighting.

Marchant expects traffic will be shifted onto the new lanes mid July. After which the northbound lanes will be removed and the same procedure will take place as the southbound lanes.

Crews have also been working on grading the new Badger Road since the demolition of the Maurice Struebing home. Badger Road will line up with CTH H east when the project is completed. The intersection will also have traffic lights and street lights.

Construction of the box culvert at the Kewaskum Fire Station has again come to a halt this past week due to a piece of equipment malfunctioning. Marchant stated the contractor will be working again by Thursday.

Marchant would like to remind everyone with more equipment being used in this project the need for caution when driving through the work zone increases as well. This is not just for the worker's safety but drivers as well. Drivers in smaller vehicles are not always easy to see from heavy equipment like dump trucks.

County and local law enforcement will be paying close attention to the construction area. FINES DOUBLE IN WORK ZONES! Speeds in the village are 30 MPH and outside the village is 45 MPH.

New Student Services Director at UWWC

West Bend - Bridgett N. Golman has been approved as the new Student Services Director at UW-Washington County by the appointments committee. She will officially begin her duties on July 1, heading up the department that serves over 950 students.

Golman has more than 15 years of experience in the profession, serving most recently as Dean of Admissions and Financial Aid at Brevard College in Brevard, North Carolina.

During her tenure in Student Affairs, she has served in various capacities including Director of Admissions (Elizabeth City State University, NC), Director of Counseling and Testing Center; Interim Director of Career Planning/Placement (Johnson C. Smith University, NC), and Coordinator of New Student Orientation Programs (State University of New York, Dutchess Community College, NY).

Golman has a bachelor's degree in psychology from Lander University, Greenwood South Carolina. She holds a master's of education degree in Student Personnel Services/ Counseling from The University of South Carolina, Columbia.

The position is a full-time limited academic staff appointment, reporting to the dean. She will be paid $59,801 annually.

Who'll Win the Raffle at Mill Park Day?

By Nancy Durn
SPECIAL TO STATESMAN

Make sure you enter the raffles at Dundee Mill Park Day on June 21, 2003. There are seven terrific prizes listed in the mill newsletter, "The Grist". If you didn't get a chance to fill out the form, stop by the raffle table that day, purchase some tickets and enter to chance winning one of the following:

Who'll win the bacon at the 5 p.m. drawing? Two hog halves (two drawings), donated by Joe Berres, LUTCF, are being raffled off that day. Processing and wrapping is being provided by Loehr's Meat Service. This is eleven years in a row they both have helped support the mill.

Wouldn't a framed Mill Park Print look nice hanging on the wall in your home? The print was matted by Betty Lubbert with the frame donated by Donna Leiberman.

How about an Appalachian Art Bird House? This intricate wood work was donated by George's Lawn Service.

Chef La Voo, Inc. has donated five drawings of their pizzas, which are made right in our own beautiful downtown Dundee. Each drawing is for 2 pizzas of choice.

A basket of hair care products is provided by Connie Lavey of Studio 67 in Dundee. Win this basket and take time out to relax and pamper your hair.

Judy and Bill Benson of Benson's Hide A Way have donated His and Hers Geneva Classic watches. These lovely watches have a round face with a flexible band and are in tones of gold and silver.

Dave Brown, The Settlement House, donated an "Old World Santa". This Santa, handmade by Mrs.

David Brown of The Settlement House, lights up and stands 3-4 ft. tall. He is dressed in furs and is adorned with many old toys.

A raffle of pots and pans donated by Regal Ware, Inc., will also be held that day. So, come on down to Dundee Mill Park Day and enjoy the many attractions.

The Schlitz Audubon Nature Center will have their Am. Bald Eagle. The Buck Skinners will be encamped in the north end of the park. A blacksmith and rope maker demonstrations are on going with "Minnow Races" at the Ice Age Center tent. Food and beverages are available throughout the day. Entertainment by the Dan Sigma family from 1-2 in the afternoon and Mark Pannier and the BB's from 6-10.

All this fun can be found at the corners of Hwy 67 and CTH F, just six miles east of Campbelsport.

Holy Trinity's Annual Social Fest Set for Aug. 23

Holy Trinity's ninth annual Social Fest is set for Saturday, August 23, at Riverhill Park in Kewaskum from 4 p.m. to midnight. A $25 ticket entitles you to a baked chicken dinner with all the trimmings catered by Susie's of Lomira, plus free beer, soda and wine coolers. Dinner will be served from 4 to 7 p.m.

Your ticket also includes a chance to win the following cash prizes: first prize - $5,000, second through sixth - $500 each, seventh through 11th - $100 each. Prizes are based on sales of 1000 tickets. Buy your tickets before June 30, 2003 and be entered to win an additional $1,000.

The evening will include many games, raffles and an expanded voice auction (held at 7:30). Here is a list of just a few of the prizes that you could win: a HTS tuition package in memory of John Schmitt, HTS tuition package in memory of Christa Fleishchman, pation set by Helen Beisbier, $1,000

Brother Love's Show Coming To West Bend

This is a show you will not want to miss!

Brother Love's Traveling Show is coming to west Bend on Saturday, June 28th at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, June 29th at 6:00 p.m. at the West Bend High school Auditorium, 1305 East Decorah Rd.

Although this is the first time the show is being brought to West Bend, the cast of over 40 highly talented members of Faith New Creation Christian Church in Milwaukee has been drawing crowds for over a year in the Milwaukee area with this live performance.

Otherwise known as the 'Gospel According to the Oldies,' this show presents the Gospel in a unique manner using the music and attire of the 50's, beginning with the creation and the fall, through the crucifixion and right to modern day, giving us a musical picture of God's plan for mankind.

This 'Broadway' quality show is to be a gift to the community so there will be no admission charge and tickets are not necessary. Just mark your calendars and start inviting your friends, neighbors, relatives and co-workers. You will not be disappointed!

Please call Pastor Joe at 262-626-8337 or Pastor Ted at 414-461-8770 if you have any questions. So 'pack up your babies, your men and your ladies, and everyone goes to Brother Love's Show.' It is sure to be an evening of music, laughter and inspiration.

Uelman Earns Eagle Scout Rank

On Saturday April 26 Josh Uelman, the Junior Scoutmaster of the Kewaskum Boy Scouts Troop 744 gained the highest rank there is in all of scouts, the Eagle Scout. There was a great patriotic ceremony at Holy Trinity when Josh received his rank.

When asked how he felt to finally gain the rank of Eagle Scout, Josh replied, "It feels great to finally be receiving the Eagle Scout, especially because I've been working towards it for so long. Now, I can see the finished product."

When asked what was the journey like from Cub Scouts to Eagle Scout, he replied, "While I was going through scouts, it felt really long. It was this way until I was old enough to understand that I didn't have very long to complete the requirements. Coming into Boy Scouts and doing activities with older scouts was pretty interesting to me too. Overall, it was a great experience and I'm glad I had the opportunity to experience it for myself."

When asked overall, do you feel that all the time and effort was worth it? Why or why not? Josh replied, "I think that it was definitely worth all of my time because otherwise I wouldn't have been able to go fishing in Canada on the High Adventure Trip, or hang out with high school kids when I was still in middle school. It was an all around great experience."

Josh earned 31 merit badges over a period of 6 years. For his Eagle Project requirement, showing leadership and service to the community, Josh leading his troop, built new playground equipment for Holy Trinity School.

Congratulations Josh Uelman. We all honor you for your great achievement!

If you are interested or know of someone interested in Boy Scouts, for more information call Scout Master Brian Kober at (262) 626-2335.

Serving God In South America

By Lisa Lickel
Statesman Correspondent
llickel@kewaskumstatesman.com

A thin thread runs from St. Killian in the town of Wayne through the unveiled Beauty of the Confessions of St. Augustine to the veiled beauty of the Andes Mountains, connected by Father Charles Bodden, OSA.

Charles grew up on a farm near St. Killian with two brothers and two sisters. The priesthood called at a young age, and he began his studies at St. Frances de Salles, the preparatory seminary for the Archdiocese in Milwaukee, in 1964. "I always had a devotion to St. Augustine," he said. "I was interested in his life, the intensity of his faith and his community life," Charles said, regarding his choice of joining the Augustinian Order. After professing his first vows, he started Bachelor degree studies in Chicago and earned his CTU at Catholic Theological Seminary in St. Louis. "It was a school with a number of congregations, which I found interesting. I spent two years in a parish in the inner city of St. Louis. It was great preparation for a missionary."

Father Charles was ordained on June 5, 1978 in St. Killian by Bishop John C. McNabb, OSA. He was visiting Kewaskum for the Silver Jubilee of his Ordination, which was held on June 8 of this year. He was pleased to have Bishop McNabb celebrate with him. Father Bodden is not a large man, dark haired and mustached, and friendly. He blessed himself and offered "Thank You, God" for our recent breakfast.

It was a special trip for Father; a journey of about 3,700 miles from Lima, Peru. After his ordination in 1978, "They were looking for more personnel for the mission in Peru, and I was deposed to go. It was an initial commitment of five years, and I've been there ever since." His first service was in the Diocese of Chulucanas, high in the northwest corner of Peru, a bastion of Catholicism since the Spanish invaded and settled nearly 500 years ago. The Diocese was formed in 1964 by Pope Paul VI, and was subsequently divided to form another new mountainous Diocese, Piura.

The area is semi-tropical, being near the equator, but dry. "They have formed an interesting series of irrigation draining from small lakes. Everyone has their hours of how much water and where to take it. It is an ancient system, going back to Indian times." The civil province of Ayabaca is highest at 9,000 feet. The community is nearly totally agrarian, which made Father Charles comfortable. "I understood the things they were most concerned about. The people there have a great closeness to the earth and love for nature." They grow mostly corn and beans, and peas which they allow to mature and dry. During a five-year stint as the director of a pre-seminary program for young men, "we had a small farm to help sustain the program. I introduced vegetables they were not familiar with, the normal garden vegetables that we have here, like tomatoes, carrots and cabbage. I also ran a small project for raising small animals for food." They eat very little meat in Peru, mostly fowl, and at the coast, fish. Father Charles is very fond of a specialty dish called civiche, fish marinated in lemon oil with chilies and onions, and of roast goat. Exportation of mangoes and processing of native golf-ball-sized pungent lemons for oil, occupy many people. Over the last twenty years, "recovering ceramic" techniques of the ancient potters has created a community of artists gaining renown.

The dirt roads up to the mountain communities are terrible, washing out during the rainy summer season of January, February and March. "Often, they are disconnected for five to six months of every year." That was a challenge, considering his work was visiting the villages to celebrate the Eucharist with the faithful, perform baptisms and marriages and to update the lay leader training. His favorite mode of transportation? Mule. "The mule is very sure-footed. Some of the trails are very precarious and the mule knew how to traverse it. They are very strong, also, and smart. At a fork in the road, I let the mule decide which way to go. It always seemed to know where I wanted to end up." He laughed when asked about dangers, and began a recitation: kicked by mule, fell off a horse, lost, caught in a landslide, crossed flooded rivers, slept in flea-ridden conditions, hepatitis; earthquake was added later. "I take them in stride. The years of terrorism with the Shining Path (a Colombian terrorist group) were insecure."

In the early part of Father Charles's ministry, the Diocese was dependent on missionaries. Due to the success of training programs for the local men, now there are only about a handful of "foreigners." There is a priest for every 10,000 believers, and 12,000 lay people.

Father Charles taught history in the major seminary program in Trujillo for three years, and for the past seven years, has been in the capitol, Lima. He is the Novice Master in a training program for native men exploring entering the religious life. He represents three jurisdictions of the Augustinian Order: Chulucanas, the Amazon jungle community of Iquitos still controlled by Spain, and the southern high region of Cusco which is under Italian influence. "These three areas send candidates to me in Lima where we have a common program," he said. They are in the process of building a church near their living quarters. The neighborhood is made up of the growing professional class who were strangers to each other. Since news of the church building project came out, they've banded together to raise funds. "It's been a great community project," he said. They even had a wedding at the site already.

Keeping in touch with family and friends has been easier with modern technology and email. He is able to come home every year, also. What does he miss the most about Wisconsin? "I haven't seen a fall in twenty-five years."

Father Charles said that serving in Peru "has been a unique opportunity for service, a very fulfilling experience."

RESOLUTION NO 03-17

AUTHORIZING RENEWAL OF AGREEMENT FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE SUBURBAN MUTUAL ASSISTANCE RESPONSE TEAMS.

THE VILLAGE BOARD OF THE VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM, WASHINGTON COUNTY, WISCONSIN, does ordain as follows:

WHEREAS, the Village of Kewaskum, and other participating agencies in this agreement are so located that it is to the advantage of each to extend aid to the other with respect to the delivery of law enforcement services, and WHEREAS, it is recognized that the use of police officers to perform duties outside the territorial limits of the municipality by whom they are employed may be desirable and may be required under certain circumstances to protect and preserve the common health, safety, and welfare, and

WHEREAS, the Village of Kewaskum, and other participating agencies deem mutual aid law enforcement services to be in the best interest of their respective communities, and

WHEREAS, the Village of Kewaskum, and other participating agencies adopted resolutions in 1998 that defined the terms and conditions with respect to rendering aid and liability when rendering aid as part of agreement that expires in 2003; and

WHEREAS, authority is granted to enter into the mutual aid agreement pursuant to the laws of the State of Wisconsin in sections 59.28, 66.0313, and 66.0513;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum hereby authorizes its police department to participate in the Suburban Mutual Assistance Response Teams (SMART) and to abide by the SMART agreement, a copy of which is attached.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all the Village of Kewaskum officials and employees are hereby authorized and directed to do and perform all that is necessary to successfully carry out the terms of this resolution. Adopted and approved this 16th day of June 2003, by the Kewaskum Village Board.

Notice of Proposed Grading

Gary R. and Linda Gavin, P.O. Box 567, Kewaskum, WI 53040 c/o the Kewaskum Potawatomi Prairie, has applied to the Department of Natural Resources for a permit to grade more than 10,000 square feet on the bank of, and construct a pond adjacent to Kewaskum Creek. The purpose of the proposed two-phase project is to develop a single-family residential subdivision on a 72-acre parcel located in the southeast corner of the intersection of Kettle View Drive and Hy. "H". Approximately 35-acres of the site will be retained in conservancy.

The project is located in S9, T12N, R19E, Village of Kewaskum, Washington County.

The Applicant and the Department have complied with the requirements of the Wisconsin Environmental Policy Act and NR 150, Wisconsin Administrative Code.

If you would like to know more about this project or would like to see the application, plans, and applicable legal standards, contact Karen E. Van Atta, Waukesha Service Center, 141 NW Barstow, Room 180, Waukesha, WI 53188, phone number 262-574-2126.

Reasonable accommodation, including the provision of informational material in an alternative format, will be provided for qualified individuals with disabilities upon request.

If you feel the permit should not be granted, write to Karen E. Van Atta within 30 days of the publication of this notice explaining your objections.

If you object to this proposal and would like to request a public hearing, your objection shall specify:

1. Why the proposed project violates the legal standards, found under Section 30.19(1), 30.19(1)(c), Wisconsin Statutes; and
2. That you or your representative will appear at the hearing and present information supporting your objection.

If no objections are received which request a hearing, the Department may issue its decision without a hearing.

OBITUARIES

RONALD O. REIGLE

Ronald O. Reigle, 75, lived his life devoted to his family. He passed away peacefully on June 10, 2003 while surrounded by his family. He was the beloved husband of Eleanor Jane, dear father of Sudy (Tom) Altholz, Annette Barrett, Ronald C. (Lynne) Reigle, Jamie Reigle and Lynne (George) Klein. He was the loving grandfather of Tom (Kathryn) Altholz, Jamie (Rachel) Altholz, Jennifer and Georgeanne Barrett, Sam and Chelsea Reigle and Trish, Tori, and Livia Klein. He adored and was the adoring great-grandfather of Mia, Jack and Max Altholz, and Tyler and Ashley Altholz. He will always be remembered by his brothers, Jim (Patty) and Rich (Sally) and their families.

Ron was born June 11, 1927 in Canton, Ohio to Ruth and J.O. Reigle. He was married to his high school sweetheart, Janie Albright, on August 21, 1947. They shared 55 wonderful years of marriage together. The couple attended the University of Arizona together where Ron graduated in 1950. Upon graduation, Ron began his successful and accomplished career side by side with his brothers at Regal Ware, Inc. Ron proudly served as Executive Vice President of Sales and Management for the company which his father founded. Ron's achievements included: serving as President and Director of Metal Cookware Manufacturers Association, member of the Executive Board of the Association of Home Appliance Manufacturers, and Director and Membership Chairman of the Direct Selling Association. Ron has continuously served on the Board of Directors of Regal Ware, Inc. since 1969.

In addition to his career at Regal Ware, Inc., Ron was an incredible asset to the town of Kewaskum and West Bend, where he was a long-time resident. A two-time President of the West Bend Country Club, member of the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club and member of the Board of Directors of West Bend Savings and Loan, Ron thrived on participating in a community that embraced him so dearly.

In 1985 Ron retired to Tucson, where he continued to be an avid golfer at Skyline Country Club. He delighted in hiking with his grandchildren. Other passions included family gatherings, appreciating the great outdoors, traveling with Janie, and sharing embellished stories with everyone.

He will be sorely missed, but forever in our hearts and precious memories!

Visitation will be held Friday, June 20, from 2 to 5 p.m. at Miller Funeral Home, Kewaskum.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the Ronald O. Reigle Memorial Fund at the American Stroke Association, 1280 S. Parker Road, Denver, Colorado 80231 would be most appreciated. For further information concerning the memorial fund, call 1-888-302-8390.

The Miller Funeral Home, Kewaskum, is serving the family.

She was born on July 15, 1912 in the town of Theresa to Edward and Laura (nee Christian) Zimmerman. On September 21, 1935, Irene married Walter J. Koepsell in the town of Theresa.

Together with her husband, Irene farmed in the township of Theresa for many years. She was a member of the Immanuel Ev. Lutheran Church (River Church) in the township of Theresa.

She is survived by one daughter, Laura (Floyd) Klug of rural Kewaskum; a half-brother, Harold (Irene) Christian of Sun Prairie; a half-sister, Arlene (Lester) Zimmel of Mayville; a half-sister-in-law, Marilyn Christian of Iron Ridge; half-brothers-in-law, Reinhard Grulke of rural Mayville and Ronald Rowe of Hartford; sisters-in-law, Lorienta Koepsell of Austin, TX and Violet Koepsell of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; a granddaughter, Doreen (Chris) Van Ells of Greendale; two great-granddaughters, Kaitlyn and Hailey; nieces; nephews; other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Walter in 1990 and one son, Lloyd, in infancy.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, June 14 at 2 p.m. at the Immanuel Lutheran Church (River Church) in the township of Theresa with Rev. Mark Berlin officiating. Burial was in Hochheim Cemetery.

Visitation was held on Saturday, June 14 from 11 a.m. till 2 p.m. at the Immanuel Lutheran Church (River Church) in the Township of Theresa.

The Koepsell Funeral Home in Mayville is serving the family.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of WAYNE ROESEL:

We thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday
And days before that too.

We thought of you in silence,
we often speak your name.
All we have are memories and your picture in a frame.
When evening shadows are falling,

And we are all alone.
To us there comes a longing

If you could only come home.
Your memory is our keep sake with which we'll never part.

God has you in his keeping,
but we have you in our hearts.

Sadly missed and in our hearts forever.

We love and miss you...

ST. JUDE NOVENA

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us. St. Jude, help of the hopeless, pray for us. Say this prayer 9 times a day. By the 8th day, your prayer will be answered. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised. Thank You, St. Jude.

J.E.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of DOROTHY BRESEMAN wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to everyone for their kind expressions of sympathy, the floral and memorial tributes and other acts of kindness we received during our recent bereavement.

KEWASKUM SCHOOL NEWS

Holy Trinity Spelling Bee

Holy Trinity's school recently held their first through fourth grade spelling bee. Winners were: first place Charlie Bub (right) and runner-up: Jacob Verhaalen (left).

Campus Notes

MILWAUKEE - Brook Zanow, a junior at Wisconsin Lutheran College, has been named to the Dean's List. She achieved high honors, which signifies a grade point average of 3.75 to 3.89.

Zanow, the daughter of Darryl and Bonnie Zanow of Kewaskum, is majoring in elementary education at Wisconsin Lutheran, a liberal arts college located on the west side of Milwaukee.

Nearly 2,260 undergraduate students at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point have been honored for attaining high grade point averages during the 2003 spring semester, which ended in May.

Full-time undergraduates who earned grade points of 3.90 to 4.0 (4.0 equals straight A) are given the highest honors designation. High honor citations go to those with grade point averages from 3.75 to 3.89 and honor recognition is accorded to those with grade point averages from 3.50 to 3.74.

Personalized certificates of scholastic achievement are being sent to those who earned highest honors distinction.

Honor students include:

Jill McKee, honors and Carol A. Neumann and Melissa L. Theush, both highest honors, all of Kewaskum.

****

GREEN BAY - Forty-three students at the University of Wisconsin - Green Bay received University Leadership Awards in end-of-semester ceremonies. Recipients are selected by an awards committee from campus wide nominations.

Spring 2003 award winners included Sarah Pollpeter of Kewaskum.

Receive Degrees

GREEN BAY - The University of Wisconsin - Green Bay commencement ceremonies on Saturday, May 24, honored approximately 720 graduates who completed their degrees in May or at the end of summer session in August.

Local students include: Sarah Pollpeter, bachelor's degree in art, magna cum laude, (distinction in the major), Kewaskum; Julie Gundrum, bachelor's degree in Chemistry, West Bend and Shannon Chronister, bachelor's degree in Communication Processes, West Bend.

Heat Awareness Day June 19

Governor Jim Doyle has proclaimed June 19, 2003 Heat Awareness Day. The purpose of this day is to educate Wisconsin residents on the problems related to extreme heat and how to deal with heat related illnesses.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) "each year more people in the United States die from extreme heat than from hurricanes, lightning, tornadoes, floods, and earthquakes combined. On average approximately 300 people die each year from exposure to heat.

Your best defense against heat-related illness is prevention. Staying cool and making simple changes in your fluid intake, activities, and clothing during hot weather can help you remain safe and healthy.

The Washington County Health Department and CDC recommend you follow the following prevention tips to protect yourself from heat related illnesses.

- Drink more fluids (nonalcoholic), regardless of your activity level. Don't wait until you're thirsty to drink. Warning: If your doctor generally limits the amount of fluid you drink or has you on water pills, ask him how much you should drink while the weather is hot.

- Don't drink liquids that contain caffeine, alcohol, or large amounts of sugar - these actually cause you to lose more body fluid. Also, avoid very cold drinks, because they can cause stomach cramps.

- Stay indoors and, if at all possible, stay in an air-conditioned place. If your home does not have air conditioning, go to the shopping mall or public library - even a few hours spent in air conditioning can help your body stay cooler when you go back into the heat. Call the Washington County Health Department to see if there are any heat-relief shelters in your area.

- Electric fans may provide comfort, but when the temperature is in the high 90s, fans will not prevent heat-related illness. Taking a cool shower or bath, or moving to an air-conditioned place is a much better way to cool off.

If you must be out in the heat:

- Limit your outdoor activity to morning and evening hours.

- Cut down on exercise. If you must exercise, drink two to four glasses of cool, nonalcoholic fluids each hour. A sports beverage can replace the salt and minerals you lose in sweat. Warning: if you are on a low-salt diet, talk with your doctor before drinking a sports beverage. Remember the warning in the first "tip" (above), too.

- Try to rest often in shady areas.

- Protect yourself from the sun by wearing a wide-brimmed hat (also keeps you cooler) and sunglasses and by putting on sunscreen of SPF 15 or higher (the most effective products say "broad spectrum" or "UVA/UVB protection" on their labels).

- Wear lightweight, light-colored, loose-fitting clothing.

- NEVER leave anyone in a closed, parked vehicle.

- Although any one at any time can suffer from heat-related illness, some people are at greater risk than others. Check regularly on:

- * Infants and young children

- * People aged 65 or older

- * People who have a mental illness

- * Those who are physically ill, especially with heart disease or high blood pressure.

- Visit adults at risk at least twice a day and closely watch them for signs of heat exhaustion or heat stroke. Infants and young children, of course, need much more frequent watching.

These self-help measures are not a substitute for medical care but may help you recognize and respond promptly to warning signs of trouble.

Two kinds of heat related illnesses are Heat Stroke and Heat Exhaustion. Heat stroke occurs when the body is unable to regulate its temperature. Heat Exhaustion is a milder form of heat-related illness that can develop after several days of exposure to high temperatures and inadequate or unbalanced replacement of fluids. You should get help now if you feel dizziness, headache, muscle cramps, weakness, nausea or vomiting. You should call 911 if the victim has hot and dry skin, confusion, unconsciousness, chest pain, or shortness of breath.

United Way Campaign Leader, Theme Announced for 2003

James Hodges

James Hodges of West Bend has been named 2003 Campaign Chair of the United Way of Washington County. He is Vice President/General Manager and Sales Manager of WBKV-WBWI Radio.

Hodges was born in Mauston and graduated from Tomah Senior High School in 1974. He attended the University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire, receiving a B.S. degree in Journalism and History. He has worked for various radio stations in Wisconsin and moved to Washington County in 1990.

Hodges served a six year term on the United Way of Washington County Board, and was Board President in 2000-01. He returned to the United Way Board earlier this year, and will be President of the West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce starting July 1. He also chairs their Partnership Committee. A graduate of Leadership Greater West Bend, he is a member of the Noon Rotary Club and chair of the Rotary's annual million dollar Hole-in-One golf competition. He serves on the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Board and heads up their member services committee. He has also served on the West Bend Art Museum and Kettle Moraine YMCA governing boards, and as a Chamber Ambassador.

The father of two teenagers, Hodges is looking forward to leading the United Way drive. "Family has always been important to me, and I'm looking forward to working with the United Way family of volunteers, agencies and donors throughout Washington County," he said.

The 2003 campaign theme is: "Give From the Heart - And Change a Life!"

Hodges commented, "Our 67-year history as a United Way organization in Washington County is a rich one of generous donors and great leaders. Changing lives is truly what United Way has done, and continues to do," he said.

Hodges continued, "United Way funded programs help one in three people in our county. Each year, we build on our previous successes and strengths. Many of our key campaign leaders are already in place, thanks to the foresight and planning from last year's excellent effort, chaired by Tom and Lori Yahr. Some are repeat volunteers, and others are new for 2003," he said.

The 2002 Campaign raised $1,060,000. Funds are being invested in 50 programs among 24 non-profit agencies here in Washington County. This year's campaign begins in late August, and will cover the 10 communities of Kewaskum, Jackson, Slinger, Allenton, Hartford, Newburg, Hubertus, Richfield, Colgate and West Bend.

"We're in the process of reviewing our past campaign successes, looking at agency needs for 2003, and recruiting approximately 160 volunteers who will be involved in this year's campaign," said Hodges. An avid Packer fan, Hodges and the Communications Committee selected this year's fun theme of football.

"People involvement is the key to our continuing success. United Way's track record shows that businesses and individuals in Washington County are extremely supportive of United Way. We're counting on that support to continue and build this year as well," he said.

Barbara Hurula, Executive Director of United Way, complimented Hodges for accepting this leadership role for 2003. "Those who know Jim give him high marks for his drive, commitment and creativity. His past experience with United Way and the business community speak well of the leadership he'll bring to our campaign," said Hurula. "In the current economy, we go forward knowing it will be a challenge to raise needed funds to help our families, friends, neighbors and co-workers who live and work here in Washington County. With Jim's leadership, we're confident that we can meet that challenge," she said.

Hodges commented, "I'd like to thank the Washington County community for its continued generosity in supporting health and human service needs. We're looking forward to success this year. As our county continues to grow, demands on services are also increasing. Correspondingly, the number of donors and participating businesses need to increase as well."

Recipient agencies have prepared their 2004 budgets, and are currently meeting with panels of United Way fund distribution volunteers from around the county. The Panels will make their 2004 funding recommendations to the United Way Board of Directors by late June. Agency needs, along with the giving history of businesses and individual donors will be combined to determine the 2003 campaign goal. Final approval of the goal will be made by the board of directors in late July.

Funds collected in the upcoming campaign will be invested in four impact areas, to benefit 50 programs provided by 24 non-profit agencies here in Washington County. The agencies are: American Red Cross - Northern Region, American Red Cross - West Bend Chapter, Big Brothers / Big Sisters of Washington County, Bay Lakes Boy Scout Council, Potawatomi Area Boy Scout Council, Boys and Girls Club, Catholic Charities, Child's Place, Citizen Advocacy of Washington County, Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse, Family Center of Washington County, Friends of Abused Families.

Full Shelf Food Pantry, Girl Scouts- Great Blue Heron Council, Girl Scouts - Manitou Council, Hartford Area Blood Donors, Kettle Moraine Support Services, Lutheran Social Services, Nova Services, Salvation Army, Senior Citizens Activities, The Threshold, Volunteer Center of Washington County and the Youth and Family Project.

Village Board Meeting Minutes

Mid-Monthly Meeting
May 19, 2003
8:00 p.m.

The Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in Regular Session in the Council room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Mathew A. Heiser presided. Trustee Robert Stoltzmann asked to be excused and was absent for medical reasons; all other Trustee Members were present. A quorum was present.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and the Pledge of Allegiance.

On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Steve Scheunemann and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the May 5, 2003 meeting were approved as amended and printed.

Ms. Linda Theisen Kewaskum Chamber President and Ms. Jackie Burtard from St. Francis Bank were present to present the Kewaskum Village Board a check to go towards the annual fireworks display in the amount of $2,000.00 from the Kewaskum Chamber of Commerce. The Village Board as well as the entire audience thanked the Chamber for the generous community support.

President Mathew Heiser, called the public hearing on the "Ordinance to Annex Territory to the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin" and assign recommended zoning to said property. The area proposed for annexation is proposed for development and known by "Kettle Kountry Estates" and is north of STH "28 (Main Street) east of the village limits. The gentlemen from Solid Rock Construction were present and explained their intentions. The development would be R-1 single family residence, with one B-2 General Retail Business District lot, some P-1 park land, and an I-1 Institutional District lot for a future site of a village well, tower, etc. and C-1 Conservancy Districts. The developers explained the proposed development and reviewed the layout with the Board and others in attendance. Trustee Andy Pesch indicated the Plan Commission reviewed the request and sent it forward with a favorable recommendation. A few questions were asked in reference to the project. On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Andy Pesch and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Board closed the public hearing. Roll call vote was 5 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 1 "Absent". Note: On June 2, 2003 the area that already lies within the village will be brought up for rezoning from R-2 to R-1 single-family residence district, excluding one lot adjacent to Main Street.

President Mathew Heiser, called the public hearing on the "Ordinance to Annex Territory to the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin" and assign recommended zoning to said property. The area proposed for annexation is currently single-family homes and some vacant agricultural land primarily on the north side of CTH "H" west of the creek/village limits. The proposed zoning would be R-2 single family residence, the one larger parcel on CTH "H" having some R-3 Two Family Residence as long as access is acquired and some C-1 conservancy land. It was noted the matter of the east side of Edgewood Road and the signing of a consent and waiver for the dedicated roadway are needed prior to the signing and submission of this annexation ordinance. It was further noted that the improvements would be handled by special assessment process. A few questions were asked in reference to the annexation. On a motion by Trustee Thomas Piwoni, seconded by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Board closed the public hearing. Roll call vote was 5 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 1 "Absent".

On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Steve Scheunemann and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Board suspended the rules to take up the IX New Business (A.) and (B.) relating to the annexation as heard at public hearing and Ordinance No. 2003-09 and Ordinance No. 2003-10. Roll call vote was 5 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 1 "Absent".

Action was taken on Ordinance No. 2003-09 An Ordinance to Annex Territory to the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, for that area located north of STH "28" (Main Street) and east of the village limits as heard at public hearing for Mr. And Mrs. Ebert and Solid Rock Construction (Kettle Kountry Estates) as attached hereto:

On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni and unanimously carried by voice vote to accept the proposed 10 acre parcel of land in lieu of the $200.00 per lot open space fee as discussed and recommended by the Plan Commission.

Action was taken on Ordinance No. 2003-10 An Ordinance to Annex Territory to the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, for that area located primarily north of CTH "H" and west of the creek/village limits as heard at public hearing as attached hereto:

On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board directed the holding off on signing Ordinance No. 2003-10 until a legal description is available to prepare the paperwork for the dedication of roadway for the east half of Edgewood Road as well as the consent and waiver for the improvements on Edgewood Road.

On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Steve Scheunemann and carried by the majority roll call vote, the Board suspended the rules to take up the IIIV. Unfinished Business (B.) Reconsideration of Ordinance No. 2003-11 (1) Ordinance No. 2003-11 and (2) Resolution No. 2003-15. Roll call vote was 5 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 1 "Absent". Trustee Robert Stoltzmann "Absent".

On a motion by Trustee Andy Pesch, seconded by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann and carried by the majority voice vote, the Board moved to reconsider Ordinance No. 2003-11 an Ordinance to Amend Chapter 10 Animals as previously discussed. Trustee Thomas Piwoni voting no.

Discussion was held on the Ordinance No. 2003-11 An Ordinance to Amend Chapter 10 Animals as per the motion to reconsider by Trustee Andy Pesch. Mr. Gregory Bernau and Scott Konzal of 1434 Parkview Drive told the Board they were grateful for the reconsideration and if all goes well all threats would be dropped, signs removed and no hard feelings. The proposed amended ordinance would allow for the keeping of miniature potbelly pigs, clarify definitions and address the wild animal issue. Trustee Andy Pesch explained his reasoning for the reconsideration.

Action was taken on Ordinance No. 2003-11 An Ordinance to Amend Chapter 10 Animals as attached hereto: Note the amended ordinance allows for the keeping of Pot Belly Pigs as well as clarifying prohibited animals. Roll call vote was 4 "Aye" 1 "Nay" 1 "Absent". Trustee Thomas Piwoni voting "Nay" and Trustee Robert Stoltzmann "Absent".

Action was taken on Resolution No. 2003-15 A Resolution to Establish The Miniature Pot Belly Pig License Fee as attached hereto: Roll call vote was 4 "Aye" 1 "Nay" Trustee Robert Stoltzmann "Absent" and Trustee Thomas Piwoni voting "Nay".

Fire Chief Mark Groeschel did not have anything to report:

Police Chief Richard Knoebel presented the April 2003 monthly report:
Criminal arrests	17
Criminal investigations	31
Traffic warnings	66
Traffic citations	24
Adult arrests	23
Juvenile arrests	19

Director of Public Works received a request from the Kewaskum High School for permission to move and use two to three sets of the three tier bleachers from KKCP for a track meet. On a motion by Trustee Kevin Scheunemann, seconded by Trustee Thomas Piwoni and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the use of said bleachers.

Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles reviewed the following:

1. The water main break location within USH "45" and a few other locations have been repaired.
  2. It was reported that the generator at the treatment plant is nearing completion as far as the installation. It is projected that by mid to the end of July it will be in service.
  3. The number of digger tickets received for the month of April set an all time high, that being 61.
  4. The information was submitted for the salt purchase for 2003/2004.
  5. The water utility is in the process of flushing the hydrants as required by the PSC/DNR as noticed.
- Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed the following with the Board:

- 1) Review Mid-Moraine Municipal Association Meeting scheduled for May 28, 2003.
- 2) League and Taxpayer bulletins.
- 3) Review of the budget control sheets for period ending April 2003.
- 4) Announcement of the Open Book sessions Wednesday, May 21, 2003, 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and Thursday, May 22, 2003, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Also the announcement of the Board of Review for Friday, June 6, 2003, 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
- 5) Review of correspondence.

Washington County Revolving Loan Fund Revisions and Retail Loan Program Created

Washington County recently made some revisions to its Revolving Loan Fund (RLF) program. The Washington County RLF program was established through repayments on Wisconsin Community Development Block Grants (CDBG) Economic Development loans. The goal of the County RLF program is to create and retain well-paying jobs, encourage private investments, and provide a financing alternative for start-up or expanding business. Loans can be utilized for working capital, machinery and equipment purchase, leasehold improvements, land and building acquisition, and building renovation or construction with loan terms varying depending upon the use of the funds.

Because the funding from the Washington County RLF is from repayment of state and federal dollars, several guidelines are in place and used when reviewing applications. At least 50% of the total project costs must be funded through private resources, such as loans from financial institutions and new equity injections. Businesses must be willing to create or retain jobs based upon the amount of funds requested. Businesses must make at least 51% of the jobs available to low- and moderate-income persons.

Washington County now has two Revolving Loan Funds programs. One is for manufacturing or related distribution businesses and service businesses and the other program, which is new to Washington County, is for retail establishments. The recent revisions to the Revolving Loan Fund program for manufacturing, related distribution and service businesses eliminated a requirement that companies export product outside the State of Wisconsin. The newly created Retail Program allows for low-interest loans between $10,000 to $20,000 to be provided to retail establishments within Washington County.

For further information regarding the Washington County Revolving Loan Fund Program, contact Brenda Hicks-Sorensen, Economic Development Coordinator at (262) 335-4445 or via email at econdev@co.washington.wi.us. ## LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

To the "Concerned Citizens of Wayne"

I want the people of the Town of Wayne to take a look back in history. Let's remember when the Moritz family owned the sawmill in Kohlsville; let's remember when John Lavarda owned the cheese factory in Kohlsville; let's remember when Paula Petrie owned the general store in Wayne; let's remember when the Hahn family owned the Skyranch bar in Kohlsville.

The reason for this brief history reminder was not meant to remember the "good ol' days," but rather to remember the history and evolution of this town.

When the Mortiz family made the business decision to discontinue their sawmill business, the land was sold and is now the site of our town park, not another sawmill. When John Lavarda made the business decision to stop making cheese, the land and buildings were sold and is now a residence and apartment, not a cheese factory. When Paula Petrie made the business decision to stop running the corner grocery store the land and buildings were sold and is now the site of a day care center, not a grocery store. When the Hahn family made the business decision to stop running the Sky Ranch as a bar and restaurant they closed the doors and are using the buildings for storage.

Why should today's town business be any different?

The point I am trying to make is this: A farmer's corn field IS NOT your rural character; his animals grazing on pasture IS NOT your rural character; his red barn IS NOT your rural character. Rather, these are all parts of his business. If a farmer makes the decision to liquidate the assets of his business that is most beneficial to him, why should he not be allowed that right?

Just as the business climate over the past 150 years has evolved in this township, it will continue to evolve over the next hundred years. Let us not penalize those who realize that times are changing. Let us not force the farms in the town to stay here when it does not make financial sense for them to do so. We haven't done that with other businesses, so why should it be any different with a farm?

Dear Editor:

Last week I attended the retirement party of several teachers and staff that were retiring from the Kewaskum School District. I was attending because my Mom was one of the retirees.

I spoke with several teachers that I had as teachers when I attended the Kewaskum Schools. I could recall very specific memories of being in their classes, and realized that all those interactions had an impact on where I am and what I'm doing today. They exposed me to literature, concepts, ideas and experiences that would shape me and impact the rest of my life. Some may say it was just part of the job, part of the day as a teacher/staff person, and could easily be disregarded, or would go unrecognized as important or as making a difference.

So I am writing this as an acknowledgement and a thank you, to recognize the encouragement, inspiration, and contribution that teachers and staff have made, and are still making each day, in my life, the lives of my children and the lives of children and adults everywhere. It is not mundane, it is no small thing, and it is not taken for granted.

With much appreciation,
Ann (Weddig) Szalkowski

Dear Editor,

Wisconsin citizens, beware - the leading Democrat candidates for president will be in Wisconsin this weekend for the state Democrat convention in Milwaukee. Expect to hear a lot of heated words about how President Bush isn't looking out for the best interests of 'common folk' like you and me - a statement that couldn't be further from the truth.

Consider the fact that last month, President Bush signed the third largest tax cut in our nation's history. Hundreds of thousands of Wisconsin working men, women and families will benefit. 1.84 million Wisconsin taxpayers will see lower income tax bills this year. 761,000 Wisconsin married couples will be paying less in taxes thanks to the reduction of the so-called "marriage penalty." And 517,000 married couples and single parents in Wisconsin will see a $400 increase in the child tax credit to $1,000.

It's very interesting to note that not one Democrat member of Congress running for president supported this tax cut plan. Essentially, these candidates chose to vote against helping 'common folk' like you and me by allowing us to keep more of our hard-earned money. It's amazing these folks can keep a straight face when they claim to be looking out for our best interests.

Mark Brunner

To the Editor:

We Americans have some huge decisions to make about the direction in which we want our country to go. I offer a list of a few or my questions.

1) Are we going to insist that our leaders "tell it like it is" instead of telling us what they believe we want to hear? Will we support them for being honest?

2) Are we going to continue to allow the build-up of huge deficits at both the Federal and State levels which future generations will have to pay or will we have the integrity to pay for the government programs we need and want?

3) Do we simply watch while gaps in income between our wealthy and poor widen or will we demand policies which will stop this disturbing trend?

4) Are we going to continue depending heavily on regressive taxes such as the property tax in Wisconsin or will we develop a progressive income tax stripped of exceptions for special interests?

5) Are we going to develop a national system for taxing businesses which doesn't allow gross injustices such as off-shore tax shelters and also demand more patriotism from our businesses?

6) Are we going to end the whip-sawing of states and communities by business in order to obtain special concessions which cause the rest of us to pay more in taxes?

7) Are we going to demand term limits and/or public financing of political campaigns to eliminate obscene special-interest influence of legislators?

8) Are we going to end the secrecy in government which threatens our rights and hides any dishonesty in government decision-making?

9) Are we going to allow a policy of preemptive military strikes when it now seems obvious we don't have the intelligence system to give us accurate information with which to make such crucial decisions?

10) Will we raise our voices to demand foreign policy based on trust and cooperation?

Floyd Brenholt

Moraine Park Receives Scholarship Grant

Moraine Park Technical College recently received a $3,000 grant from the West Bend Community Foundation (WBCF).

The grant, presented to the Moraine Park Foundation, Inc., supports Moraine Park's ongoing efforts to establish secure endowment funds for the Tom Michael Memorial Scholarship and the Maureen Josten Scholarship. Both scholarships are awarded to students attending the West Bend Campus, with each scholarship fund receiving $1,500.

The Tom Michael Memorial Scholarship is for students in a Tool and Die/CNC-related program at the West Bend Campus. After his death, former colleagues began a scholarship fund in his name. The Maureen Josten Scholarship is for students enrolled in any program at the West Bend Campus. Upon Josten's retirement from Moraine Park in 2000, former colleagues set up a scholarship fund in her name.

"The new grant will build on last year's WBCF grant funds and individual donations from Moraine Park staff and community members," said West Bend Campus and Community Partner Craig Johnson. "All of these donations help our foundation continue to develop these important scholarship funds for West Bend students."

The WBCF, which is affiliated with the Greater Milwaukee Foundation, provides a permanent endowment for the West Bend Campus through a combination of contributions. It assists donors in creating charitable funds permanently dedicated to local causes.

The Moraine Park Foundation, Inc. administers various scholarship and grant programs sponsored by individuals, businesses, organizations, and agencies within the Moraine Park

Exodus House Receives Grant

The Exodus House is pleased to announce the receipt of a $2,000 grant from the West Bend Community Foundation.

Exodus House is a state licensed, short-term family style CBRF (Community Based Residential Facility) offering transitional living services to recovering male alcoholics or other drug abusers. It is a structured, professionally directed program to assist those persons in the transition between sobriety and re-entry into society.

Exodus House is funded primarily through the sale of services to other counties, residents' fees (based on their ability to contribute) and private contributions and grants.

If you would like to contribute to their program, please mail donations to Exodus House, PO Box 56, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

Fishing Report

By Mr. Fisherman

My dad was just a regular guy, nothing out of the ordinary! He was a mechanic and taught me his trade which has provided for us. A sense of humor would show up at times. He never taught me how to fish, but how to be conservative and inventive. He told me he was right all the time and that I was always wrong. (Is this where me being wrong all the time started?) There was never talk of how proud he was of me but I knew. When he took his last breath I was there. There was a special bond between us. (I was the only son out of 4 children.) Thanks dad for not teaching me these things. It was better that I learned them by myself. (You must have known that). One thing has changed now, Dad, my kids now know they are wrong all the time and I'm right all the time. Now to convince my wife of that! Happy Fathers Day Dad!

This was a week of ups and downs for me. When will fishing get better? My patience is running pretty thin. Monday morning the little bass boat went into the head race at Dundee Mill Park. Most of the bass have moved and gone into Long Lake. Above the dam the pads have grown and using a rapala is tough, but one 17" bass did strike it.

Wednesday Wolf Lake presented the same problem that other lakes are having. The fish are not biting, at least not the big ones. The bass were quarter pounders and were hitting plastic worms and rapalas. Finishing the week on Long Lake I did have some small bass hit on a Bass Pro Shop's Topknocker. It's a top water bait that acts like a Zara spook but is easier to use. It also has a steel ball inside that rolls back and forth. This bait takes the prize as one of the ugliest baits in my tackle box. Friday morning this lure worked as the bass weren't hitting a rapala. For some reason this lure succeeded and after casting it 5 times two bass hit it. Nothing big but at least some action. The first small channel on the north side of the lake did have one 15" bass that hit a rapala.

As of this Saturday my love affair with Auburn Lake is on the rocks. Some northern hit my Shad rap and didn't bring it back. I never had another strike. I hate this lake. She can find someone else to love her.

How's your fishing?

Riveredge River Valley Ride June 22

NEWBURG - The 11th annual Riveredge River Valley Ride gears up on Sunday, June 22, 2003, starting at 6:30 a.m. at Fireman's Park in Newburg and ending at Riveredge Nature Center. Routes of eight, 17, 27, 56 and 70 miles take bikers along the Milwaukee River and through the countrysides of Ozaukee and Washington counties.

Historical sites and well-equipped rest stops along the way offer riders a chance to relax and enjoy the day. Each rider receives a t-shirt. Registration fees are $30 for adults and $9 for children 12 years old and under. Children in tow ride free, but do not receive t-shirt. Individuals and groups are encouraged to join in the fun to help support environmental science education at Riveredge. A raffle ticket for a Trek bike and other prizes is included in the registration packet. For registration information, route descriptions, or brochure, call Riveredge Nature Center at 262-375-2715 or 800-287-8098 or e-mail riveredge@riveredge.us. You may also register on-line at www.riveredge.us.

The routes meander past wetlands, riverbanks, valleys, cows, and corn. Rest stops along the way supply cookies, biker buns, fruit and water. Sag wagons cruise the routes, ready to serve riders needing help. Day-of-Ride registration and the beginning of the Ride take place at Fireman's Park in Newburg. The Ride ends at Riveredge where food, music, and other festivities await the riders. This is FUN!

Big Gills on Marsh Lake

Kevin Dushek enjoying life on Marsh Miller Lake.

Hello Friends

Sometimes it pays to listen to fish stories. Last weekend I met the person who has won the Lucky 13 fishing contest in the bluegill division, for two years in a row. My new friend told me about a lake in Chippewa County that is about 450 acres and loaded with slab sized bluegill. That lake is Marsh Miller. Six days after receiving my hot tip, my stepson Kevin Dushek and I found ourselves camped at Birch Point Resort. We were going to find out for ourselves whether the story was fact or fiction.

Friday, June 6 High 65, Low 44

This trip was one of those shot in the dark type of adventures. I found the Birch Point Resort by calling information. The two hour drive from our Necedah home was filled with high hopes. We would not be drowned out by the steady downpour causing everyone's grass to grow a foot high.

As soon as I saw Birch Point, I knew our efforts would be well rewarded. Built in 1919, the resort has several permanent campsites and a lodge that appears to be a stomping ground for hundreds of people. What I liked the most about Birch Point is that it seemed like the kind of place where time hasn't changed a thing.

After meeting owner Paul Maire, building camp and launching our boat, Kevin and I hit the water. We dressed in rain gear with high hopes of finding the Sumo bluegill I had been told about.

Marsh Miller is long and narrow, filled with stumps dating from the 1880's when the area was flooded. It now has heavy weed growth on both shoelines. I motored into an opening in that weed growth and we began fishing. Both Kevin and I were using a worm on one pole and a leech on another.

We had been fishing for about five minutes when one of my bobbers vanished. When I set the hook, I knew it was a good fish. The measuring tape said our first bluegill of the trip was just over 9 1/2 inches. My informant had been true to his word.

At sunset we had 14 Sumos and a big bullhead in the basket.

Saturday, June 7 High 72, Low 42

I like what I am seeing here on Marsh Miller: no jet skis, no 200 horse powered bass boats and everyone slows down and waves when they drive by as you're fishing.

Kevin and I are completely into hunting big gills. As in hunting any trophy, our quarry requires skill and brains to catch. We anchor in two to four feet of water and fish in holes in the weed growth that are smaller than my desk.

When a fish is hooked, the real challenge begins. Trying to land a bluegill in stump filled water that has lots of lilly pads is a battle that the quarry often wins.

Kevin is 13, in love with every girl he knows and also half nuts. This morning, we had just found a new honey hole. While waiting the 20 minutes it takes for the fish to return after we set the anchors, I said something that had the boy laughing uncontrollably. Before I could catch him, he fell in the lake.

Like my two year old daughter who fell in the Chippewa Flowage in early May, I pulled the kid back into the boat. I pulled the anchors and we returned to camp for a warm up and some dry clothes.

We fished for two hours this evening without landing a thing. Then as if a light switch was flicked on, we started catching Sumos in a six foot square hole.

By dark, we had 30 in the basket and both of us were well aware that Marsh Miller was the best lake on our bluegill fishing menu. Like the Rush River, which I fished for the first time this past May, Marsh Miller will now be another of our annual trips.

Gotta fish!

KMS Boys Track Team Completes Season

Conference champion relay team of Jake Turowski, Logan Staege, Eric Ogi and Chad Hackbarth.

The seventh and eighth grade boy's track team wrapped up their season last Tuesday hosting the Moraine Conference Championship Meet. The seventh grade team placed 4th overall led by the second place 4 x 200 meter relay team made up of other personal standouts were David Spang in the 1600 meter run, Dan Dymond in the 400 meter dash, and Ben Butler in the 110 meter hurdles, all placing third with their personal bests of the season.

The eighth grade team placed third with some outstanding performances by conference champions Matt Parrent in the 800 meter run, and the 4 x 200 meter relay team of Logan Staege, Zach Parish, Eric Ogi and Chad Hackbarth. The 4 x 200 meter relay team set a new school record of 1:46.5, cutting two seconds off the previous record. This same relay team also broke the old 4 x 100 meter relay record at an earlier meet this year.

Other outstanding performances were Matt Parrent second in the shot putt, the 4 x 400 meter relay of Matt Parrent, Zach Parish, Jake Turowski, and Jake Cochran second place, Jake Turowski fourth in shot putt, Logan Staege fourth in the 100 meter dash, Bobby Gibson fourth in the 1600 meter run and the 4 x 100 meter relay team of Tristin Wright, Matt Weidmeyer, Bud Kattar, and Jake Cochran placing fourth.

KHS Baseball Season Underway

By Lisa Lickel

Calling All Indians Baseball Fans! It's time to get the rally whatever going! The Indians are losing ground in conference, sinking to 1 and 4; 1 and 7 overall through June 6.

Dave Donath's Indians took on the conference team to beat, New Holstein's Huskies, on a beautiful late afternoon Thursday, June 5, at Kiwanis Park. It has been great to see the stands full of fans, particularly grandparents. New Holstein won, 2-0.

Senior Matt Hartmann took the mound, giving up one homerun in the second. Third baseman Brandon Prom earned his paycheck for the evening with several great throws to beat out potential base hits.

The Indians offense needs some work, according to Donath. "We have to start hitting. We're not hitting very well and we have to start scoring some runs." Perhaps the Indians were disconcerted by the chatter of the Huskies. The catcher talked a running stream of auctioneer-style rapid-fire encouragement to the mound as well as to home from the dugout. Despite loading the bases on a little roller up the infield by first baseman Lee Schacht in the third with one out, the Indians still couldn't score. Shortstop for the evening, Travis Kempf, got Hartmann out of potential bases loaded jam in the fourth when Kempf first missed a diving hit down center field allowing the runner to reach. Hartmann was struck in the wrist by a line drive from the next batter, but quickly recovered and threw the runner out. He struck out the next Huskie, but walked the fourth player. Kempf then threw out the next man. A couple of hits through a gap at second and short left allowed the only other Huskie score in the fifth.

Schacht came up the third batter for the Indians in the sixth to hit a long fly to center. He missed the coach's signal to halt at second and was thrown out attempting to dive for third, ending the inning. He took his time getting up at Donath's feet.

Several long time outs by the Huskies in the sixth began to frustrate the Indians hitters and a change of pitching sent them down 1-2-3 in the seventh.

"We've got ourselves in a hole here. It would be nice to pick away at it," said Donath. "It would be good to get to five hundred."
