Kewaskum's Clark Eichstedt wins state's Senior Open

School Board approves $2 million loan

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

If this is a dream, Clark Eichstedt doesn't want to wake up for at least a week or two.

First, Eichstedt, who played some professional golf when he lived in England and still is highly competitive in the sport, captured the Hon-E-Kor men's club championship. Two days later, the Kewaskum native added the Wisconsin Senior Open to his title, winning over Tim Murphy of Eau Claire by two shots.

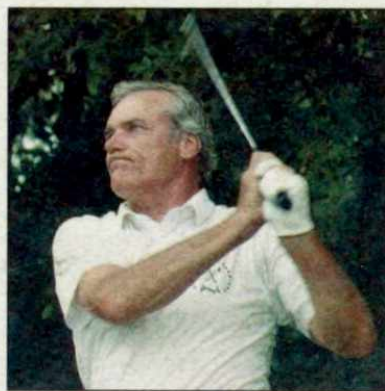

When asked if this was the biggest victory of his life, Eichstedt, who works at the Washington County Jail, said, "Oh yeah ... absolutely!"

Eichstedt started off the 36-hole event at Merrill Hills Country Club with a 3-under par 69 on Tuesday. Playing a little more conservative on Wednesday just to stay in front of the other men in his group and the rest of the field, he finished with a 1-over 73 for a total of 142.

Murphy 3-putted the final green for a 144.

The victory was worth $1,000 for Eichstedt, who can accept money because of his professional status. What was especially sweet about the victory was the fact he was the runner-up in the event a year ago at Eau Claire CC after making a double bogey on the last hole.

There would be no doubles this year and no relinquishing the lead, which he took on the opening nine holes by putting up an excellent 33.

Clark Eichstedt

Eichstedt's 69 led Randy Warobick, an amateur who once played for the University of Texas and currently is a member at West Bend Country Club.

For Tuesday's final round, Eichstedt said he was paired with Murphy, Warobick and Jeff Ausen, who was playing on his home course.

"I expected lots of birdies," Eichstedt said, but they weren't all that plentiful. "I made one ... Randy had one ... Jeff had one or two, and Tim Murphy had a couple," Eichstedt said, indicating his plan was to stay away from 3-putts and be a little more conservative.

"They're fast greens. You could easily three-putt," he said, so his approach of not gambling in an attempt to make birdies paid off. "Today I didn't need to shoot any better."

Eichstedt said he did have a few errant drives which landed in the trees, but he was still able to scramble and make par.

One mistake came on No. 17, which "Ike" said was "a pretty simple hole. I hit my drive way to the right," after first thinking about using a 3-wood off the tee, then erring in deciding to go with the driver.

He had a two-shot lead with two holes to play, and after making a bogey on 17, the margin between Murphy and him was down to just one stroke.

Eichstedt said Murphy hit a safe approach shot and ended up with the 3-putt, while he "threw it right at the pin" and two putted for par and the victory.

In addition to winning the nice paycheck, Eichstedt automatically qualified for the State Open and State Senior Open next year.

"Now I don't have to qualify ... it's something less to worry about. Qualifying is getting tougher every year," Eichstedt said, excited about the opportunities he has given himself.

Wisconsin State Senior Opentop six finishers — 1. Eichstedt, 69-73, 144; 2. Tim Murphy, 72-72, 144; 3. (tie) Bruce Hansen, Racine, 75-73, 148; Mike Muranyi, Monroe, 75-73, 148; Mike Hilton, Muskego, 76-72, 148.

KEWASKUM- The Board of Education has approved a bid from Robert W. Baird & Company for a $2 million Tax and Revenue Anticipation Promissory Note. The loan is part of the district's annual cash flow borrow.

Business Manager for the school district, Paul Reichert, reported that Baird bid a net interest rate of 3.696% on the loan. When the loan matures on September 3, 2008, the school district will repay the $2 million principal plus $76,666.67 in interest.

Baird is paying the school district a premium of $5,820 on the notes effectively lowering the school district's net interest cost to $70,846.67. The school district received only one other bid for its notes. The other bidder required an interest rate of 3.853%.

Last year the district borrowed $975,000 to provide operational funds for the 2006-07 fiscal year. This short-term loan was repaid on September 5, 2007.

Reichert explained "borrowing on a short-term basis for cash flow needs is necessary because typically during the first five months of the fiscal year (from July 1 until November 30) the District spends more than it receives in revenue. Property taxes do not begin to come in until January and we only receive about 40% of our state aid prior to December 31. It is estimated that disbursements during the five-month period from July 1, 2007 to November 30, 2007 will exceed receipts by $3,200,000. During this time period, the District uses its fund balance and the proceeds of a short-term loan to pay its bill."

Sheriff says jail inmate died of natural causes, not foul play

WEST BEND- Washington County Sheriff Dale Schmidt has reported that an inmate of the jail who was found dead on Friday, September 7, died while in custody from apparent natural causes.

William H. Kelly, 62, of Milwaukee, was booked into the jail on August 26 and was serving a municipal sentence of 49 days for Operating After Suspension. He was due to be released on October 13, 2007.

At approximately 9:43 p.m., inmates in the cellblock with Kelly signaled to Corrections staff that Kelly needed assistance in his cell. Approximately two minutes later, after the inmates were locked down, Corrections staff including the on-duty RN entered the cellblock where they observed Kelly's condition, immediately began first aid and summoned West Bend Rescue.

Kelly was taken to St. Joseph's Synergy Health Hospital where he was pronounced deceased at 10:35 p.m.

A full investigation of the death is being conducted including an autopsy, reporting to the Wisconsin Department of Corrections and an internal investigation of Kelly's Health care while in the jail, jail procedures and staff response to the medical emergency.

Preliminary results of the investigation reveal that Kelly had serious pre-existing medical conditions. Jail medical staff was aware of those conditions when he was booked into the jail and he was seen by medical staff several times during his stay.

Medical staff also secured proper medication for him. Additionally, staff response at the time Kelly was found was immediate and appropriate. There is no evidence of foul play or possible neglect in regards to Kelly's death.

New plow truck ready for snow

The town of Kewaskum is ready for the snow to fly. The township recently added a 2008 International Workstar 7400 to their fleet of plowtrucks. Bill Butzlaff Sr. reports the township made the purchase due to the aging fleet and availability of parts in an emergency if one of the other two break down. The truck after being outfitted with equipment package cost $124,200. Clerk Nancy Boden reports the township borrowed $60,000 for five years from West Bend Savings Bank. The truck was purchased at Lakeside Truck in West Bend and took delivery at the beginning of August. The truck boasts a 300 horsepower engine with a six speed automatic Allison transmission and 11 foot plow assisted by a nine foot wing. The truck also has a 10 foot multipurpose stainless dumpbox with a shouldering chute. Shown above accepting the keys from Doug Petsch of Lakeside Truck is Town Chairman Ellis Kahn. He is joined by plow truck drivers shown in the rear and front row left to right, Jeff Smith from Burke Truck, supervisor Allen Hron and supervisor Bill Butzlaff Sr.

KHS seeks nominations for Alumni Achievement Award

KEWASKUM- Kewaskum High School is continuing the Alumni Achievement Award to annually recognize two or three outstanding Kewaskum High School graduates who have gained distinction in their fields, contribute to their community of residence and who, by virtue of their character and accomplishments, offer admirable examples for students to emulate. Nominations are currently being sought for this year's award program.

Since the honorees at one time in their lives walked the same halls as the current Kewaskum High School students, they have a greater likelihood of helping students realize that they, too, can do great things.

Nominations of worthy individuals to be considered for this year's selection are currently being sought through Friday, November 16 by Christine Horbas, Principal, Kewaskum High School, 1510 Bilgo Lane, Kewaskum, WI 53040. The Alumni Achievement Award nomination application must include the following: name of Kewaskum alumni, degree(s) held, employment, achievements, honors received, membership in organizations, hobbies, resume, and other pertinent data.

Call Kewaskum High School, (262) 626-8427 ext. 4127, for a nomination application. Applications are also available on the district's website www.kewaskumschools.org. A committee comprised of representatives from the student body, faculty, administration, alumni, community service organizations, and the community will select the award recipient(s).

Kewaskum High School will publicly recognize the winner(s) of the Alumni Achievement Award during a school-wide assembly and a Kewaskum Board of Education meeting in March 2008.

Energy assistance available for heating

MADISON- The Wisconsin Home Energy Assistance Program is accepting early energy assistance applications. The Wisconsin Home Energy Assistance Program provides a one-time payment each heating season (October 1 through May 15) for heat and electric costs.

Households eligible for energy assistance may receive payments under the federal Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) and the state public benefits program. Payments depend upon household size, income level, and home energy costs. Wisconsin's Home Energy Assistance Program helps households with incomes below 150 percent of the federal poverty level ($30,975 a year for a family of four) pay for home energy costs. Households may also qualify for crisis assistance benefits, which can include purchase of home heating fuel, reconnection of utility service, temporary shelter, and heating unit replacements or repairs.

For information about applying for the assistance program please call 1-800-522-3014 or visit www.homenergyplus.wi.gov

POLICE REPORTS

Firearms stolen

On August 19, a Kewaskum Police Officer was dispatched to the 100 block of Prospect Street in reference to theft of guns.

The officer met with the complainant who reported on July 28, he pulled out his .40 caliber Desert Eagle Baby Eagle, and his 41/44 Mag Desert Eagle. At the time he put the two guns in the dining room in a clothesbasket under some laundry.

He stated he forgot to put them back in their proper place and on today's date his wife mentioned that she has not seen the guns for some time. He thought she had put them away. She stated she has not seen the guns since that date.

It should be noted the .40 caliber is valued at $450. The 44/41 Desert Eagle IMI is blue in color and is valued at $1,200.

The complainant revealed that one of his neighbors would be a person of interest. This person was questioned and he stated he had not see the guns.

The mother of the boy being questioned stated she searched her sons' bedroom and did not locate any guns.

Juvenile Runaway/ Sexual Assault

On August 19, a Kewaskum Police Officer responded to the 100 block of Elm Street in regards to a missing juvenile.

The complainant wished to report his 16-year-old stepdaughter, was not at the residence. The evening prior she stated she was going to bed.

When the complainant returned home from work he went to check on her and found she wasn't in bed. It didn't appear she had slept in her bed.

Later the mother of the missing teen joined the complainant and the officer. The parents revealed that they thought the teen might be with a friend who lived in the village or a 23-year-old married male subject that she had been spending time with. They also stated it was possible she might be with her grandmother who resides in Lomira or her biological father who resides in Ohio.

An officer checked the friend's residence but was unable to locate the friend.

The officer put an attempt to locate out on the teen and contacted police in Lomira and Ohio.

During the investigation, it was revealed that sexual contact may have occurred between the teen and the man she recently befriended.

Later in the day the teen was located. The teen was questioned in regards to the sexual contact that occurred between her and the 23-year-old man.

The teen revealed the two had sexual intercourse numerous times. The mother was concerned with the fact that since the teen and the man had become acquainted the teen has been continuously lying to her parents, sneaking out of the house and her grades have dropped at school.

The teen later advised the police officer that their relationship was ended.

The teen's parent's advised they were not sure if they wanted to pursue any charges against the man because they feared retaliation. They also reported the man's wife would also retaliate.

Vehicle vandalized

On August 25, a Kewaskum Police Officer met with a complainant who reported her vehicle was vandalized.

The female stated she found her vehicle with the windshield smashed. She told the police officer the damage must have occurred after she returned home from work around 1 a.m.

She parked her compact car in the 500 block of Main Street.

Earlier in the day another police officer took a report of another vehicle that suffered similar damage. A neighbor reported that she heard a noise outside her residence around 2 a.m. But did not call police at that time.

The damage was estimated at $350. There are no suspects at this time and it remains under investigation.

Police reports are compiled and written by staff member Andrew Kuehl with the cooperation of the Kewaskum Police Department. If you have information on any of these incidents please contact the department at (262)626.2323.

Kiwanis Club Turkey Shoot nails target

Melissa Kratz of Slinger is shown above taking aim on the rifle shoot at The Kewaskum Kiwanis Club's Turkey Shoot. The event was a hot spot on Saturday, September 8. Perfect fall weather gave way for an enjoyable day for those attending and a profitable day for the Kiwanis Club who continues to work diligently to raise funds for community projects and their scholarships. Matt Rinzel of Kewaskum is shown below with Kiwanian Mike Heberer presenting him with a gun he won in one of the 12 gun raffles that took place. One of the organizers, Jim Dorn reported, "The Turkey Shoot was very well attended. Over 300 frozen turkeys were won. The Kiwanis would like thank the New Fane Sportsman's Club, the volunteers that helped at the events, the businesses that displayed posters and sold tickets and the attendees that made the event a success. The 57th annual Turkey Shoot will be held on Saturday September 6, 2008."

Local News IN BRIEF

Auburn Recycling Center concerns raised

TOWN of AUBURN- Concerns were raised at the monthly town board meeting held on Monday, Sept. 10 about children at the recycling center. User sneaking in at closing time was also a concern for the operators.

Town chairman Merle Laatsch revealed that there was a close call last week when an unattended child was almost backed over. "We need to get the word out that they are responsible for their children and use common sense when bringing their children to the recycling center," he stated. Residents should take note that children are not encouraged at the recycling center and are there at their own risk.

Residents should also take note that the hours of operation will be better enforced in the coming weeks. The operators stated that recently users have been waiting until the last minute before arriving to unload their materials. The operators will NOT accept items after 4 p.m. on Saturday and 8 p.m. on Wednesdays. The center opens at 8 a.m. on Saturday and 1 p.m. on Wednesday.

Scott Community Center to get roof job

TOWN of SCOTT- Supervisor Cheryl Scholz presented bids for the replacement of the south, east, and west sides of the Community Center roof at the township's regular monthly meeting, Monday September 10. A total of four bids were received, with Sprosty-Carter Construction giving the low bid and being awarded the contract.

Sprosty-Carter's bid was $7,940; Schachazulu Roofing submitted a bid for $10,263, J.M. Borgwardt Construction's bid was $10,600; Steve Gross submitted a bid of $7,862, however because he is not a licensed company his bid was disregarded.

Sprosky stated when the project begins in fall, all the shingles in the four sections would be taken off and replaced with a 35-year shingle. Ice and water shield will be also be applied. Approx. (4) years ago the north section of the community center was re-roofed with (35) year shingles.

Dairyland Seed celebrates 100 years!

TOP: Company trucks from all of Dairyland Seed's locations flanked the entrances to the Washington County Fair Park in honor of the company's 100th anniversary celebration held there on Saturday, September 8. BOTTOM LEFT: Tom Strachota holds the microphone for Dairyland Seed Dealer Robert Schwandt of Juneau. Members of the Strachota family honored dealers who have been with the company for over 30 years. Schwandt has been a dealer over 40 years.

Orion Samuelson was the emcee and featured speaker for the anniversary celebration. Samuelson is heard on WGN Radio in Chicago and also heard daily on 260 radio stations with his syndicated National Farm Report and on 110 stations with his syndicated Samuelson Sez. His column will appear weekly starting in the next edition of The Statesman.

WEST BEND- If you add up the number of family owned companies in the state of Wisconsin you'll have only a handful. If you take the number of those companies that have survived the century mark, the number decreases even more. Located just outside the village of Kewaskum, Dairyland Seed announced that accomplishment this past weekend in grandiose style.

This year marks the 100th anniversary of the family-owned Dairyland Seed. The company commemorated their numerous achievements before over 1,000 family, friends, employees, customers, business associates, governmental officials and media representatives at their 100th anniversary celebration at The Washington County Fair Park.

From its beginnings as Strachota's Country Store in St. Kilian, Dairyland Seed has evolved into an industry-leading seed company. It is the only family-run seed company in the 800-member American Seed Trade Association with plant breeding programs in hybrid corn, soybeans and alfalfa.

"We are honored to be able to successfully carry on the family business for four generations," says Tom Strachota, CEO of Dairyland Seed.

In 1977 Dairyland Seed acquired its first research facility in Clinton. Over the past 30 years the research department has expanded while remaining committed to providing innovative seed varieties to help farmers who depend on its products. The company annually invests 15 percent of its revenue dollars in research—about twice the industry average—to maintain industry leadership in research and technology.

Dairyland Seed's research team has allowed the company to achieve many industry breakthroughs. In 1993, Dairyland was the world's first company to introduce herbicide-tolerant soybeans to the market, and after more than two decades of research, and many companies resigning their efforts, Dairyland released the world's first hybrid alfalfa in 2001.

The day began with optional tours of the main office, warehouse and seed-conditioning facility. After tours those in attendance embraced the opportunity to learn how Dairyland Seed has changed the world of plant breeding. Plant breeders, production experts second-generation owners, Orville and Marie Strachota and third-generation owners, Tom, Steve and John Strachota, excitedly discussed corn, soybean and alfalfa developments.

Orion Samuelson, gave those in attendance reason to be proud of the agriculture industry in his address. He is a Radio Hall of Fame broadcaster from Chicago's WGN radio network and host of "This Week in Agribusiness" on the RFD-TV satellite network.

The Strachota family also addressed those in attendance with their remarks entitled, "100 Years of Important Business Decisions—A Dialogue with the Owners," they also held a discussion about the future impact of plant breeding.

Dairyland Seed Co., Inc., includes company breeding and nursery facilities in Clinton, Wis.; Gibson City, Ill.; Otterbein, Ind.; Gilbert, Iowa; and Sloughhouse, Calif. Dairyland Seed also owns and operates an alfalfa seed-conditioning facility in Homedale, Idaho, and a corn seed-conditioning facility in Mt. Hope, Wis. Monica Sem, left, of St. Joseph Hospital's laboratory presents the Anne Weisling Memorial Scholarship check to Marcus Belger, right.

The SynergyHealth Foundation has announced that Marcus Belger is the recipient of the 2007 Anne Weisling Memorial Scholarship. The $500 per semester scholarship is awarded annually to a student studying clinical laboratory science. It was established by the laboratory staff at St. Joseph's Hospital in memory of the late Anne Weisling, who had been a lab employee for many years.

Belger is a junior at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and is planning on a career in public health. He is a 2006 graduate of Kewaskum High School.

SynergyHealth is a regional health system serving the greater Washington County community. St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend Clinic, and SynergyHealth Foundation are members of SynergyHealth.

Yeska Family Reunion

By ISABELLE MUCKERHEIDE

For 18 years the descendants of Anton and Stella (Paluka) Yeska have gathered for their annual Labor Day reunion. Our folks married 100 years ago on May 28, 1907. The theme of this year's event was "This Old House." It was presented by the Kurz families.

The men had a golf game Saturday morning. Later we received name tags and children's games were played.

After the 4 p.m. Mass with Father Gruba, a scrumptious meal was enjoyed. We had pork, turkey, salmon, sausage, salads, pies and grilled sweet corn.

At about 8 p.m., our talent show was held in John Kurz's new pole shed. He had a stage for the occasion. It started with the reading of my poem, and reminiscing by those left who lived in the old house. The "Lemon Sisters," (Isabelle, Dorothy and Lucy) sang This Old House, first sung by Rosemary Clooney in 1954. A quartet sang "Give Me That Old Time Religion," Janet Kempkiak accompanied us with her auto harp. At intermission we had ice cream or root beer floats.

Later a group played Yeska Jeopardy and The Price is Right, where we tried to determine the price of goods in 1907 that were presented by Patty Celek. Afterwards, a few games of Sheephead were played, while the younger ones kept the campfire going until the wee hours.

Sunday the hearty ones hiked around the Mill Pond, a distance of five miles. A breakfast of juice, coffee and bakery was enjoyed. Baseball was played at Stan O'Gene park. We were entertained by John Kurz on the concertina, and his son, Michael, on the violin.

Being Patty Celek's birthday, some of us were treated to dinner at Silvercryst in Wautoma. Sunday evening we played Bingo for cash and prizes. About 60 to 70 people were there.

A 7 1/2 month baby was the youngest attendee and I was the oldest at 89.

Monday we left for our respective homes filled with pleasant memories.

My poem for this year's reunion is as follows:

This is the year 2007
Which means one step closer to Heaven.
The Lord has brought us safe
thus far
Now let me tell you who we are:

We are children of Anton and Stella,
You might say "Jolly good fella"
As once a year we congregate
To reminisce and celebrate.

Several couples tied the knot
We had anniversaries, too.
All happened in the year that's past,
Were highlights for me and you.

Those of us who ventured forth
To try to win a fortune
We're often met with sad defeat
Instead it was misfortune!

I'm happy when the sun comes up,
I rise to meet the day
The Lord gives me one more chance
To follow in His way!

God bless you all, my dearest ones

What more is there to say?
Until we meet another time
May you enjoy the day!

Buchel playing some serious ball

Sydney Buchel

The 2007 U-11 New Hampshire Shooting Stars AAU Girls Basketball team recently competed in the Division 2 AAU National Basketball Championship in Dayton, Ohio, and finished in third place.

The Shooting Stars qualified for the tournament by winning the New Hampshire State Championship in May, and completing the spring basketball season with a 37-11 record. During the spring basketball season, the Stars played primarily against U-12, 12 and 14 year old teams, and lost only a single game to a U-11 team as they played across New England and New York.

The Shooting Stars defeated talented teams from Kentucky, Ohio, Maryland, North Carolina, Indiana, Georgia and Washington, DC, before losing to the eventual championship team from New Jersey in the semifinals by three points.

The girls had set their sights on playing in the championship game, but were very excited about improving on the impressive fifth place finish at the 2006 National Championships in Orlando, Florida as a U-10 team.

Sydney Buchel, 5'8", forward/center, was among the leading scorers for the team averaging 11 points per game, and she led her team in rebounding, pulling down 16 rebounds per game.

Sydney's basketball career started with an introduction to the game in third grade recreational ball and now includes three seasons of travel basketball, three seasons of AAU National Basketball and her first season of middle school basketball as a sixth grader in Londonderry, NH. Sydney has been coached by her father, Kewaskum High School Class of 82 graduate, Scott Buchel, during three of the last four years.

Sydney recently relocated from New Hampshire to Katy, TX with her family and she has been recruited to join the Houston Fire, which is a division 1 AAU team. She will start the 80 plus game schedule with her new team this month. Sydney, who is a seventh grader, will also be involved in volleyball, basketball and track at her new school.

Sydney is the daughter of Scott and Renee Buchel of Katy, TX and the granddaughter of Gerald and Diane Buchel, formerly of Kewaskum, now of Waukesha.

Nationally known speaker will address Kewaskum Kiwanis

KEWASKUM- The Kewaskum Kiwanis Club is inviting the community to take part in listening to a national speaker who will address members of the club at their meeting on Monday, September 17 at 6 p.m.. The address will center around the power of the media, news bias and the need for objective reporting.

Charles Wiley, a New York University graduate, has lectured over 3,000 times in all 50 states. He has lectured throughout the world - including talks in Germany, Australia, South Africa, Taiwan, Luxembourg, Thailand, Belarus, Namibia and Albania. He lived briefly in the Soviet Union while giving talks at Leningrad (now St. Petersburg) University. He also lectured, and resided on campus, in China (Jinan University, Guangzhou), Russia (Moscow State University) and elsewhere abroad.

As a journalist, Wiley has reported from 100 countries. He covered 11 wars, including reporting for NBC, UPI, the London Express and numerous other U.S. and foreign news media. His freelance articles and photographs have appeared in numerous publications, including the New York Times, U.S. News & World Report, Newsweek and Time. He's appeared on hundreds of network and local programs including CNN Crossfire and C-Span.

Wiley covered the Vietnam War in 1962, 1964, 1968 (the Tet Truce offensive) and 1972 (the Easter offensive).

His experiences include logging five combat missions with the Vietnamese Air Force and flying, at treetop level, into a besieged Hue, during the war's biggest battle.

Wiley reveals his search for facts has led to his arrest eight times by secret police, including in a Cuban dungeon while he was a correspondent for New York City radio station WOR.

Wiley has contributed to establishing guidelines for a free press in Mongolia, was a speaker for the White House Public Outreach Group and has spoken abroad under the auspices of the U.S. government. He also lectured at the Ministry of Civil Defense Academy in New Zealand and at London University to the Institute of Civil Defense.

Wiley frequently addresses military audiences - in the USA and abroad - including the Naval War College, the Defense Intelligence Agency school, an Air Force school for its top NCO's, the Navy Postgraduate School, CincPac, the UK intelligence school, the Spanish Army War School and many others. He spoke at the Imperial War Museum in Duxford.

Wiley speaks, annually, at dozens of colleges, high schools and other youth audiences throughout the country. Included are annual talks at UC Berkeley to the biggest political science class (700-800) in the USA and, every June, to almost 2000 of the country's top HS seniors at Boys State in both New Jersey and Wisconsin.

After having studied WWII for over a half century, Wiley has lectured about World War II including everyday life on the home front and memories of a young serviceman overseas. Research has taken him to hundreds of battlefields, archives and museums all over the world, from Hiroshima and Nagasaki to Telemark, Norway (where Hitler tried to develop an atom bomb); from Stalingrad to Cassino.

When the United States entered the war, Wiley was only 15 years old. He joined the USO and entertained at bases throughout the United States for a year. He officially enlisted in the U.S. Navy at 17.

His military service included duty with the amphibious corps in the Pacific and a brief tour with naval intelligence in Washington. He received a battle star for Okinawa and, at the end of the war, was among the very first to occupy Japan. He later helped evacuate the natives from Bikini before the atom bomb tests.

Free 'War and Peace' lecture series to begin Sept. 19 at UWWC

"War & Peace" is the theme for the Community lecture series to be presented at UW-Washington County (UW-WC) in 2007/08. Admission is free for the six Wednesday evening lectures. Three fall lectures will focus on the changing faces, influence, and impact of war, while three winter sessions will include discussions on ethics, the peace process, and social changes of war. Community members as well as area high school and college students are welcome to attend. No reservations are needed.

The first lecture is scheduled for Wednesday, September 19 in Room 228 at 7pm. Lt. Commander William Breyfogle of the U.S. Navy, will open the series with a presentation entitled, The Changing Faces of War. A question and answer session follows each hour-long lecture. Breyfogle served a total of 36 years, including ten on active duty before joining the Naval Reserve. Commissioned in 1990 as a Photo Officer, Breyfogle served as Combat Camera Team leader for U.S. Central Command with tours in Horn of Africa and Iraq, as well as

Public Affairs Officer and Psychological Warfare Officer.

Wednesday's discussion will include the influences of mass communications media on warfare, including Internet and satellite media. Breyfogle will also discuss the "end-state" of conflict. With no territory to be conquered and occupied in the Global War on Terror, what signals victory or defeat?

The complete series - dates and discussions include:

Wed., Sept. 19: Changing Faces of War. Speaker: Lt. Commander William Breyfogle, National Guard.

Wed., Oct. 3: Media's Influence on War. Speaker: Meg Jones, Milwaukee Journal/Sentinel Reporter

Wed., Oct. 10: Economic Impact of War. Speaker: Dr. Markos Mamalakis, UW-M, Economics Dept.

Winter Sessions

Wed., Feb. 13: Ethics of Intervention. Speaker: Dr. Richard Edwards, UW-WC Philosophy Dept.

Wed. Feb. 27: Peace Process. Speaker: Robert Ricigliano, UW-M, International Education

Wed., Mar. 12: Social Changes of War. Gundel Metz, Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs.

To coincide with the lecture series, artwork created by Vietnam and Iraq War veterans will be on display in the campus art gallery, beginning October 1 until December. On loan from the Vietnam Veterans War Museum in Chicago, the exhibit will be open before and after the two October lectures as well as during regular campus hours. The exhibit will include twenty pieces of artwork created in a variety of media, including oils, charcoal, acrylic, graphite, mixed media, pen and ink, and silver gelatin prints.

The purpose of the lecture series is to provide fundamental information and a better understanding of military efforts and impacts. More information is also available on the campus website at www.washington.uwc.edu/events/lectures. All lectures will be held in Room 228, which is located in the Collins Science Wing in the upper level of the campus at 400 University Drive in West Bend.

NEB announces changes Robason joins Regal Ware sales team

The staff of Raymond James' Financial Services located in the Fond du Lac Office of National Exchange Bank and Trust at 130 S. Main St. has a new look after adjusting to the recent retirement of Investment Representative Tom Siewert.

The bank welcomes the addition of Lisa Vance and Adam Stone to the Investments area. The staff of Raymond James continues to serve customers in all offices of National Exchange Bank & Trust by appointment.

General Securities Representative and Certified Financial Planner Jenni Riedeman will now assist Siewert's former customers in addition to maintaining her current portfolio. Riedeman will continue to provide Financial Check-Ups, a free service the bank offers to review a person's financial goals. Riedeman holds a B.B.A. degree in Marketing and an M.B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and has her Certified Financial Planner TM designation.

Lisa Vance joins the staff as a full-time Sales Assistant. Vance has recently completed courses to prepare her for licensing. Previously, Vance worked in the Loan Services Department of the bank. Vance holds a B.B.A. degree from St.

Norbert College.

Adam Stone has taken on new responsibilities as a General Securities Representative in the Investment Services Department, in addition to his current responsibilities in other areas of the bank. Stone is a licensed representative available to assist with all of your investments needs. Stone holds a B.A. degree in Management and Marketing from the University of St. Thomas and has completed the Graduate School of Banking.

Raymond James Financial Services, Inc., member FINRA, is a registered broker/dealer and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Raymond James Financial, Inc. (NYSE-RJF) and an affiliate of Raymond James & Associates, Inc., one of the nation's most experienced providers of investment products and services to individuals, corporations and municipalities.

KEWASKUM - Chris Robason has joined Regal Ware, Inc. as Sales Manager for the Wisconsin - based housewares manufacturer's Retail Division. In this position he assumes responsibility for plan development and execution of the company's worldwide retail strategy, including achievement of corporate goals within the division for growth, revenue, profitability, and inventory targets. Robason joins Regal Ware with more than 10 years experience in cookware sales management.

Chris Robason

Jim Moran, Senior Vice President of Corporate Administration for Regal Ware, said, "Adding Chris Robason to the sales team furthers our corporate objective to create a strong presence for Regal Ware products in the mid- and high-end retail environments. His extensive experience and track record of successful sales management is a welcome addition to our organization."

Chris, his wife Dawn, and their children, Shelby and Ben, currently reside in Graf-ton.

Free Prostate Cancer Screenings

Did you know...

Prostate cancer is the most common type of cancer found in American men, other than skin cancer. The American Cancer Society estimates that there will be about 218,890 new cases of prostate cancer in the United States in 2007. About 27,050 men will die of this disease. Prostate cancer is the second leading cause of cancer death in men. Lung cancer is the first.

Routine screenings are an important factor in early detection.

Early detection can result in more effective treatment options and increased life expectancy compared to those diagnosed at a later stage. Make your appointment today.

WHEN: Thursday, September 20, 5:00 pm - 8:00 pm

WHERE: West Bend Clinic
1700 W. Paradise Dr., West Bend

WHO: Annual screenings recommended for men over age 50, and starting at age 45 for men with a family history of prostate cancer.

Pre-registration is required.

A limited number of appointments are available. Call 262-365-6100 to register.

The free screening includes a health questionnaire, PSA blood test and a digital rectal exam (DRE) by physicians or a nurse practitioner. Participants must not have had a PSA or DRE within the past year and must be in good health.

Preliminary enrollment figures for the Kewaskum School District show a total of 1,983 students attending classes as of August 31. Enrollments by school are: Beechwood Elementary School 96, Farmington Elementary School 217, Kewaskum Elementary School 397, Wayne Elementary School 167, Kewaskum Middle School 332 and Kewaskum High School 774. Enrollments were higher than projected in the primary grades (K-2) and at the Middle School (7-8), while decreases occurred in the other elementary grades and at the high school. Enrollment at this time last year was 2,050 students.

The 1982-83 A.F.S. foreign exchange student is Hiroko Yamada, a seventeen-year-old girl from Nagasaki, Japan. She will be attending Kewaskum High School and living with the John Hazelwood family for the school year. Her American sisters and brother are Laurie, Jan and John Hazelwood, Jr.

Eleven Scandinavian high school students have recently arrived in southeast Wisconsin to begin a ten month cultural exchange experience living with families in Wisconsin. Kewaskum Community High School will be attended by Maria Carlfolk of Vaxjo, Sweden, who will be living with Carol and Roger Hecker and their daughter Shawn of Kewaskum.

After an hour's discussion Monday night, the Committee to Discuss a Closed Campus unanimously agreed to recommend the Kewaskum High School campus remain open.

The Kewaskum Woman's Club membership tea was held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Etta, club president, on Thursday afternoon, August 19. Four new members were introduced, namely, Mrs. Loretta Benicke, Mrs. John Hubbell, Mrs. Jim Paul and Mrs. Lillian Vetter. Officers are Ruth Gruhle, treasurer; Bernice Groh, secretary; Marge Rosenthal, vice president, and Rita Etta, president. Mrs. Corinne Opgenorth was honored for 50 years as a club member.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gruber, Kewaskum, on July 30. A daughter, Amy Marie, was born to Loren and Gail Bonlender, West Bend, on August 20 at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bonlender, Kewaskum, and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ruplinger, Oakfield. The Bonlenders also have a son, Brian, age three. A daughter was born to Ronald and Marjorie Stommel, Theresa, on August 28. A daughter was also born to Gary and Lori Zahn, Campbellsport, on August 30.

Kewaskum has had another homecoming and the event brought joy and happiness to every heart. The second annual homecoming last Sunday was a marked success in every particular. There were between three and four thousand visitors in the city and they were all made welcome. It is estimated that fully 700 people came from Milwaukee alone. The second annual homecoming has been so successful that there is no doubt it will be an annual event in the future and carried out on a liberal scale.

There will be a moving picture show at the North Side Park September 1. The admission will be 15 and 25 cents.

Charles W. Buss will commence making cheese Monday at the factory near the five corners in place of Ignatz Brandel, who left for Green Bay.

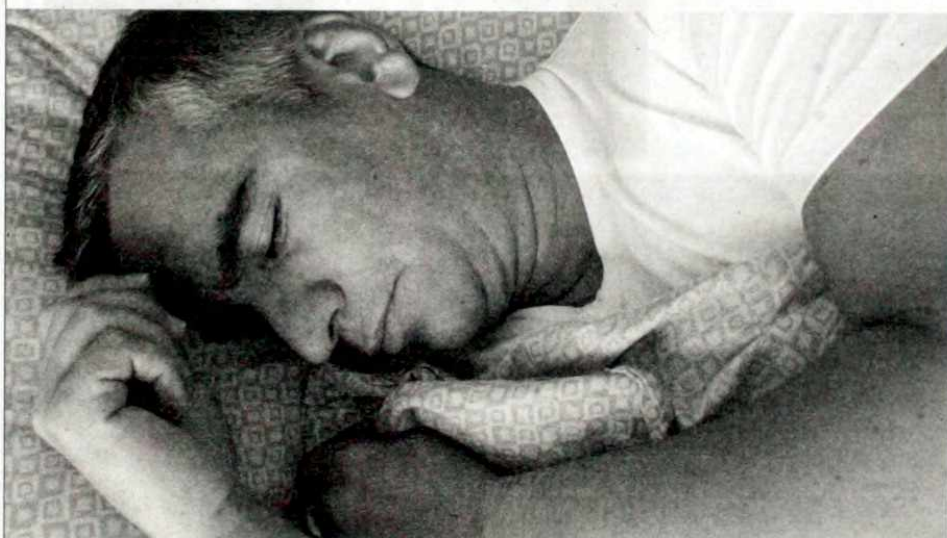

Work of building the concrete bridge which the Town will put up east of Kewaskum was begun last Monday by a Chicago company.

A.G. Koch of Kewaskum is having a 24 x 25 foot addition built to his elevator to be used as a potato house.

A baby girl was born to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Schaefer of Wayne on Monday evening.

Holy Trinity School principal is one fun nun!

Sister Katy LaFond takes time out with student Hailey Rohlinger on the Holy Trinity Playground. Sister Katy is regarded as "The Fun Nun", she began her tenure as Holy Trinity Catholic Grade School principal in July.

KEWASKUM- You can't ignore the stereotypes. Nuns, rulers and red knuckles seem to go together like lunch ladies, hairnets and moles. The state's youngest woman in recent years to enter religious life is out to change the stereotypes and she's doing it at Holy Trinity Catholic School. The Fun Nun has arrived.

Sister Katy LaFond is 27 years old and is breaking all the "rules" of sisterhood (well, those that don't really matter anyway). Sister Katy got her title from some of her former seventh grade students at Holy Family School. "I could tell some students were nervous about having a nun in their school because of the many stereotypes with nuns. After a few weeks someone was asking them about their teachers, and they replied 'we have the fun nun,'" she recalled.

Her "official" title led to her living group asking her to create a blog. Religious Life Rocks the Adventures of One Fun Nun was born. Sister Katy explains that her community is made up of a number of other School Sisters of Saint Francis (SSSF) nuns living in Milwaukee. The blog helps her in her role as an advocate for vocations in this region of the country.

After studying education administration at Alverno College, Sister Katy says she knew becoming a school principal was the next step on her path in the field of education. She began actively looking at employment postings in the Milwaukee Archdiocese. "I knew I wanted to be in Catholic education," she recalls.

Coming to Kewaskum

Pursuing through job postings of various positions available in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, Sister Katy saw the posting for Holy Trinity seeking a principal. She bounced the idea off of Sister Phyllis Wirtz, who lives in her community. "She lit up and said she was principal at Holy Trinity (before June Gauvin). She spoke highly of the community and the school. That made me very excited. When they offered me the position, I came for a visit and upon seeing the spirit of the teachers, and families I realized they viewed Catholic education as a family. That is very much in line with my values as an administrator," she said enthusiastically.

After starting on July 2, Sister Katy says the biggest impression made on her was the hospitality of the parish community. "People are so gracious, whether they are stopping in to say hello, see how I am doing or welcome me. I feel like I am part of a family," she reports.

Her first year on the job will be a learning curve. Sister Katy reveals she has made a few subtle changes. Ultimately she says she wants to learn what makes Holy Trinity tick. "I also see the role of a new principal building relationships with students,

One of the state's youngest women to begin religious life settles in as principal staff, and parishioners. As principal, I am the spiritual leader of the school," she declared.

"I hope parents will see a change as far as spirit of the school. When one is new, we are all new. With that said, we are growing together as a faculty. I feel very blessed to follow such a phenomenal person. I am so grateful for the foundation June has set for me," Sister Katy says.

Holy Trinity welcomes three new teachers along with Sister Katy. Jeff Janssen serves as phy-ed teacher, Diana Portlance as music instructor and Holly Feucht in K-4.

Religious Life Rocks

Sister Katy is part of the School Sisters of St. Francis, an international Franciscan community of more than 1,200 sisters and associates serving in educational, prayer, healing, social and pastoral ministries in Europe, Latin America, India and the United States. The organization was founded in 1874 in Wisconsin and is headquartered in Milwaukee.

Sister Toni Gradsnik is regarded as the first seed planter for Sister Katy. That seed was planted in fourth grade when Sister Toni was principal of Sister Katy's elementary school in Waukesha. "I said there was no way," she recalled. The two stayed in contact through high school. Sister Katy says she was able to acquaint herself with the sisters on a deeper level during her time at Alverno College.

"In our (Catholic) faith we believe that everyone has a calling through baptism. There are many ways to live out your call, and I always tell people that God calls us to find ways to be the best version we can be and to do what makes us happy. To some that is getting married and having a family. For some it's being single. And for some it's religious life. To live in the most authentic life I can, I chose religious life," Sister Katy asserts.

"I am very mission focused and service-oriented, I think that perked my interest with the community lifestyle of the SSSF. Being a very globally oriented person and knowing that we are global and not just trying to serve the people in the Milwaukee area is very appealing to me. The community life aspect sealed the deal; the community aspect is what I was called to. I feel at home with the sisters," Sister Katy reveals.

Sister Katy holds a bachelor's degree in elementary education with minors in vocal performance and early childhood education. She also holds a master's degree in administrative leadership with a minor in curriculum instruction.

In addition to her parents, Sister Katy has two younger sisters. She enjoys sports, especially soccer. She also is a Comedy Sportz improv comedy Actlete. These varieties of interests assure Sister Katy is one Fun Nun!

OBITUARIES

MARION P. MITCHELL

Marion P. Mitchell, 88, of Kewaskum, passed away on Thursday, September 6, 2007, at Villa Loretto Nursing Home in Mt. Calvary with her daughters at her side.

She was born on November 4, 1918, in Lena, the daughter of the late John and Pearl (Drolette) Kinziger and on June 3, 1941, she was united in marriage to C. Ernest "Ernie" "Doc" Mitchell in Lena, Wisconsin. Her husband preceded her in death on April 9, 2004.

Marion was a member of Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Kewaskum and the Christian Women. She was also a member of the Kewaskum Women's Club, a charter member of Hon-E-Kor Country Club in Kewaskum and a Girl Scout leader for many years. Marion enjoyed playing cards in numerous card clubs in Kewaskum and Campbellsport, and she was an avid Milwaukee Brewer and Green Bay Packer fan.

Marion was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She will be deeply missed by her family and by all who knew her.

Survivors include two daughters, Pat Carriveau (Fred Herman) of Campbell, California and Pam Mitchell of Itasca, Illinois; two grandchildren, Chris (Ann) Carriveau and Danielle Carriveau; two great-grandchildren, Taylor and Ryan Carriveau; a sister, Eva Armstrong of Green Bay; a sister-in-law, Marie Kinziger; a brother-in-law, Bob (Ruth) Mitchell of Mineral Point, many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In addition to her husband and parents, Marion was preceded in death by a brother, John Kinziger and a brother-in-law, Clarence Armstrong.

A Mass of Christian Burial for Marion was held at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, September 10, 2007 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Kewaskum. Father Edwin Kornath and Father Elroy Pesch O.F.M. Cap. concelebrated and burial followed in the parish cemetery.

Relatives and friends called on Monday at the church from 9:00 a.m. until the time of services.

Memorials to the Kewaskum High School Athletic Department or Villa Loretto Nursing Home are appreciated.

The Miller Funeral Home in Kewaskum has been entrusted with Marion's arrangements. Additional information and guest book may be found at www.millermartinfh.com.

LORRAINE A. WEGNER

Lorraine A. Wegner, nee Habeck, 89, of West Bend, passed away Thursday, Sept. 6, 2007 at the Cedar Lake Health & Rehabilitation Center.

She was born on Sept. 10, 1917 in Kewaskum to the late Adolph and Olga (nee Schultz) Habeck.

Lorraine graduated from Kewaskum High School in the class of 1937, and on Nov. 24, 1937 was united in marriage to Willard Wegner at St. Lucas Lutheran Church in Kewaskum.

Together they made their home in West Bend, and Lorraine became a member of St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church.

Her many church activities included the Ladies Aid, Ladies Guild, Altar Guild, choir, Sunday school and VBS teacher, Bible class leader, and for many years she was a part-time church secretary.

Lorraine graduated from and later taught the Bethel Series. She also worked at the voting polls during elections for many years.

She was creative and enjoyed working on different crafts such as afghans, cross-stitch and sewing.

With all this going on, she placed her main occupation as that of homemaker and caregiver for her family.

Lorraine is survived by two children, Carol (Ron) Bierman of New Berlin and Robert A. (Maren) Wegner Ph.D. of Blue Mounds; five grandchildren, Carey Remich, Scott Remich, Mark (Debbie) Remich, Melanie (Robert) Weber and Serena Wegner; two step-grandchildren, Kay Jens and Amy (Randy) Stehr; four great-grandchildren, Jessica Remich, Kyle Remich, David Remich and R.J. Weber; five step-great-grandchildren, Samantha and Katie Jens, Missy, Ericka and Jacob Stehr; a niece, Ruth Ann (John) Gehl; a nephew, Bernie Habeck; Lorraine's cat "Kitty"; other relatives and many friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Willard, and a brother and his wife, Ralph (Hildegard) Habeck.

Funeral services to remember Lorraine's life were held on Monday, Sept. 10 at 11 a.m. at St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, West Bend.

Rev. George Mumm officiated, and burial followed in Washington County Memorial Park.

Visitation was Monday at the church only from 9 a.m. until the time of service.

Memorials may be given to St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church or Cedar Community Hospice.

Myrhum-Patten Funeral and Cremation Service, West

Bend, assisted the family.

ARTHUR J. WEIS

Arthur J. Weis, 86, of Allenton, passed away on Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2007, at Synergy-Health St. Joseph's Hospital in the town of Polk.

He was born on Aug. 3, 1921, in Washington County, the son of the late Joseph and Josephine (Mechenick) Weis.

Arthur proudly served his country in the U. S. Army during World War II and was an active member of the Fohl-Martin American Legion Post 483 Allenton, where he was a past commander.

He was a member of Resurrection Catholic Church in Allenton and a former member of the church choir.

Arthur was a past town chairman and town supervisor for the town of Addison, and he operated the shoe store in Allenton and the Allenton Drive In.

Survivors include three nephews, Ralph (Kathy) Wenninger, Irvin (Laura) Weis and Steve Wenninger; six nieces, Carole (Walter) Mueller, Janis (Carroll) Mueller, Rita (John) Boegel, Susan (Larry) Jeffords, Charlotte Miller and Beverly (Allen) Schweitzer; a cousin, Matt (Theresa) Stoffel; other cousins, relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents, Arthur was preceded in death by two brothers, Leo and Edward Weis, and a sister, Helen Wenninger.

Cremation has taken place.

A Memorial Mass for Arthur was held at 6 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 9, at Resurrection Catholic Church in Allenton.

Father Richard Stoffel officiated, and burial of the remains, with military graveside rites, was at 10 a.m. on Monday in Sacred Heart Cemetery in Allenton.

Relatives and friends called on Sunday at the church from 3:30 p.m. until the time of services.

Memorials to the family are appreciated.

The Kietzer Funeral Home in Lomira served the family.

AMERICAN BAND

Music, Dreams, and Coming of Age in the Heartland

Seen any parades lately?

In most of the country, it's hard to miss 'em. Starting early-early summer and running almost every weekend, you can catch floats with lazy-waving princesses; politicians shaking hands; and local service groups dressed in costumes they wouldn't wear any other time.

And then there are the marching bands. From the earnestly out-of-step offerings of mini-schools to the megamarchers from the biggest academies, those kids know that it wouldn't be a parade without music.

In the new book "American Band", author Kristen Laine follows the beat of a Midwestern high school marching band through a note-able year of dedication, exhaustion, frustration, and accomplishment.

In many high schools around the continent, sports are King and athletes are venerated. But things are a little different in Elkhart, Indiana.

In Elkhart, the "cool" kids are members of the Concord High School Marching Minutemen, an elite marching band that anyone can join. Author Kristen Laine spent a school year with those kids, the staff, and the community that helped mold musical champions.

Laine followed band director Max Jones, a focused, driven man for whom sleep was a rare commodity and making good citizens of his students was the highest goal. Jones goaded, guided, and guilted kids into learning an ever-changing, seemingly-impossible championship-title-worthy musical routine.

Winning was expected of kids like Grant Longenbaugh, a natural leader who struggled with his faith in God while he dealt with external demons in his life. People assumed the best from students like Amanda Bechtel, who lived for her music but knew there was life after high school without it. Everyone presupposed greatness from guys like Nick Stubbs, a young man with his sights on West Point. But frustration was a daily emotion for these overachieving, well-grounded kids and their band mates who struggled with a performance that never seemed to come together.

The Minutemen won championships in the past, but only narrowly. Despite harsh schedules, lackadaisical attitudes, inexperienced newbies, and tardy choreography, Jones thought this 2005 band could be his best group ever.

Could the kids prove him right?

I'm not telling. Read the book.

Like a literary maestro for a coming-of-age orchestra, author Kristen Laine tells the story of one community that went the extra stanza for its kids, and the kids who make their town proud.

From the almost-obsessed director who cajoles, demands, and pushes his students to excel, to talented type-A kids who wouldn't dream of letting anyone down, to deadbeat band members who march to the music of a different drummer, Laine has a sharp eye for detail and lets you know the score. Her finale is perfect, with a crescendo that gives you goosebumps and ending notes that bring you up-to-date in the lives of the Minutemen, their families, and their teachers.

If you're a band parent; the member of a band, color guard, or show choir; or if you just want to read a great story on a unique-yet-universal subject, this book will strike a chord with you. "American Band" is music to your eyes.

thoughtfulness, her loving nature and her wacky sense of humor.

Shirley was a free spirit who unconditionally loved her family above all else.

She is survived by her children, Mark (Tracy) Rasmussen of West Bend, Kurt (Bonnie) Rasmussen of Campbellsport, Todd Rasmussen of Hartford and Jill Rasmussen (Mike Marks) of Hartford; nine grandchildren, Mark Jr., Jessie, Jessica, Dan, Ashley, Bryanne, Brody, Alivia and Sydney; her siblings, Joyce (Butch) Wetzel, Betty (Joe) Harrings, Ginny (Jim) Mullaly, Bonny (Ronny) Toman, Bob (Joy) Loether, Karleen (Denny) Wetzel, Gerrie (David) Wetzel and Mike Loether; and a sister-in-law, June Loether.

Shirley is further survived by other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Richard and Julia Loether; a brother, Richard Jr.; and grandsons Zach Rasmussen, Bo Ryan and Nicholas.

Funeral services for Shirley were held Saturday, Sept. 8, at 10 a.m. at Pinelawn Memorial Park, Milwaukee.

The family greeted relatives and friends on Saturday at the cemetery only from 9:30 to 10 a.m. Interment followed the services.

In lieu of flowers, memorials to the family are appreciated.

The Shimon Funeral Home, Hartford, assisted the family.

MAURICE LAWRENCE SHEA

Maurice Lawrence Shea, 84, Rockton, Ill., died at 8:38 p.m. Monday, Sept. 3, 2007, at Beloit Memorial Hospital, Beloit.

Maurice was born July 26, 1923, in Fond du Lac, Wis., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice and Mayme O'Loughlin Shea. He lived 13 years in Rockton, coming from Madison, Wis.

He married the former Marie Weeks in Kewaskum, on July 29, 1967.

He was employed as a teacher by numerous schools for 10 years, and then he was a custodian in Madison, for 20 years.

Maurice was a veteran of World War II and Iwo Jima, serving in the U.S. Marines. He was a member of St. Thomas the Apostle Church, Beloit, Wis., the Knights of Columbus, Madison, Wis., and "Smart Old Boys" Breakfast Club at Ray's Diner in Rockton, Ill.

Maurice loved sports. He graduated from St. Mary Springs High School, Fond du Lac, Wis., and St. Joseph's College, Rensselaer, Ind.

Survivors include his wife, Marie Shea of Rockton, Ill.; a son, Gordon (Suzanne) Shea of Sun Prairie; his grandchildren, Aidan and Madeline Shea of Sun Prairie; a brother, Gordon Shea of Fond du Lac; and a sister, Marcella Logan of Waupun.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 8, 2007, at St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church, Beloit, with the Rev. Steven Kortendick, pastor, officiating. Burial was at Rockton Township Cemetery.

Visitation was held from 4 to 7 p.m. Friday, Sept. 7, 2007, at McCorkle Funeral Home, Rockton, Ill.

McCorkle Funeral Home, Rockton, Ill., assisted the family.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of ANNA REINDL.

Nine months have passed,
Your smiles are gone
But we have so many memories
Of one we loved so much.
We think of you often
Of your cute expressions
And there were so many special ones.
We know you are safe in God's loving care
We'll miss you on your birthday and always.

Your loving family

The Desk

These arms hold you back from diving to the right, and his hands hold up your thoughts. As you sit there upon his lap, he stands tall on his proud legs and gives you a piggyback ride. The bones of his strong structure hold up his back, which you rest on day in the day out. You feel as though your life would be incomplete without his essence holding up your heavy heart.

SYSTEM (WPDES) PERMIT
No. WI-0056677-04-0

Permittee: R&J Partnership LLC, 9249 Wescott Rd., Kewaskum, WI 53040

Facility Where Discharge Occurs: R&J Partnership LLC, NWQ SEC 7 T12N R20E, Town of Farmington, Washington County, and Creekwood Farms, NWQ SEC 27 T7N R13E, Town of Lake Mills, Jefferson County, Wisconsin

Receiving Water and Location: Groundwaters of the East, West and North branches of the Milwaukee River Water Basin and groundwaters of the Upper and Lower Rock River Drainage Basins

Brief Facility Description: R&J Partnership LLC, formerly known as R&J Partnership - GEM Pullets, is a poultry operation that has downsized due to age and wear of the buildings and cages to 18,000 layers, for a total of 180 animal units. The number of birds will be repopulated during the next five years. There will be 55,000 layers (550 animal units) by August 2008 and a total of 120,000 layers (1,200 animal units) during the next 5 years. R&J Partnership LLC's WPDES permit will be revoked/reissued because the proposed permit will include a manure outfall at Creekwood Farms and will allow for expansions beyond the 1,000 animal unit threshold. In February 2007, R&J Partnership LLC reached a contractual agreement with Creekwood Farms to operate their manure processing business. The proposed permit will cover manure processing and handling at two sites, both operated by R&J Partnership LLC: Main Farm- 9249 Wescott Rd., Kewaskum, WI 53040; Creekwood Farms- N5505 Crossman Rd., Lake Mills, WI 53551.

The Main Farm consists of three poultry barns; with slats in the floor to collect manure, two below ground concrete manure storage pits, two temporary manure storage areas; one behind barn #1 and a second storage temporary storage area behind barns #2 & 3 and one compost building. A second compost building is planned.

The Creekwood Farm site consists of nine layer barns and three pullet barns, which are covered by WPDES permit WI0056308-04-0. There are also three manure processing buildings that will be operated by R&J Partnership LLC under the proposed permit.

All runoff control and manure storage systems will be monitored by the facility and reported according to the permit schedule.

The proposed permit requires that a Nutrient Management Plan be submitted and updated annually. The Nutrient Management Plan must be approved by the Department and cover the handling of all manure at both sites listed above. R&J Partnership LLC intends to compost and process most of the manure and will minimize any land application activities. The permit will restrict winter spreading of liquid manure on frozen or snow covered ground to only emergency situations and restrict solid manure applications on frozen and snow covered grounds. Manure will not be land spread in the Town of Scott.

Permit Drafter: Michelle Lehner, DNR, SER Headquarters, 2300 N. Martin Luther King, Milwaukee, WI 53212, (414) 263-8498, michelle.lehner@wisconsin.gov

Reason For Revocation: R&J Partnership LLC has purchased the fertilizer and manure handling component at Creekwood Farms (WPDES WI0056308-04-0), Lake Mills, WI. Since R&J Partnership LLC's permit does not expire until 12/31/2007, the Department is proposing to revoke the current permit and reissue the new permit, in order to facilitate this transfer of responsibility. Creekwood Farms' permit is also being reissued to accommodate this change in ownership, as a separate permit action.

The Department has tentatively decided that the above specified WPDES permit should be revoked/reissued.

Limitations and conditions which the Department believes adequately protect the receiving water are included in the proposed permit. Land application of waste shall be done in accordance with permit conditions and applicable codes. All land application sites shall be approved prior to their use. To receive a list of approved sites, or to be notified of potential approvals, contact the permit drafter.

Persons wishing to comment on or object to the proposed permit action, or to request a public hearing, may write to the Department of Natural Resources at the permit drafter's address. All comments or suggestions received no later than 30 days after the publication date of this public notice will be considered along with other information on file in making a final decision regarding the permit. Where designated as a reviewable surface water discharge permit, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is allowed up to 90 days to submit comments or objections regarding this permit determination.

A public informational hearing may be held if response to this notice indicates significant public interest pursuant to s. 283.49, Stats., or if a petition requesting a hearing is received from 5 or more persons. Requests for a public informational hearing shall state the following: the name and address of the person(s) requesting the hearing; the interest in the proposed permit of the person(s) requesting the hearing; the reasons for the request; and the issues proposed to be considered at the hearing.

Information on file for this permit action, including the draft permit and fact sheet (if required), may be inspected and copied at the permit drafter's office, Monday through Friday (except holidays), between 9:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Please call the permit drafter for directions to their office location, if necessary. Information on this permit action may also be obtained by calling the permit drafter at (414) 263-8498 or by writing to the Department. Reasonable costs (usually 20 cents per page) will be charged for copies of information in the file other than the public notice and fact sheet. Permit information is also available on the internet at: <http://dnr.wi.gov/org/water/wm/ww>. Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, reasonable accommodation, including the provision of informational material in an alternative format, will be made to qualified individuals upon request.

Despite tough competition, Indians stay close

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Sports Correspondent

The recent fourth place finish in the Hartford Invitational was probably a better effort by the Kewaskum High volleyball team than the championship the Indians claimed last Monday at Bay View.

How so? The competition. For starters, nearly all the teams in the Hartford meet are in Division 1, and some of them have solid reputations in the sport.

Kewaskum opened the long day by posting a 2-0 record against Waukesha South, behind game scores of 25-14 and 25-7, then in Round 2, it was the Indians besting Cudahy 25-7 and 25-1.

Now Kewaskum drew Madison Memorial in the match to determine which would wind up first in the pool and which would have to settle for second. The two teams split the first game, the Madison club on top in game 1 25-17, then the Indians firing up for a 25-15 victory, forcing a third game.

Both team fought hard before the Madison club surged ahead and won 15-11.

In the semifinals, the Indians lost to New Berlin Eisenhower, 26-28, 25-16 and 6-15.

As luck would have it, the Indians had to come back and play Madison Memorial again, and this time there was no third game. The Spartans prevailed 25-20 and 25-17, and it should be pointed out right away that Christina DeGroot was held out of the contest after seeing her first action in the other four matches.

"The girls really struggled this game with their passing," KHS coach Renee Altendorf said. "Christina sat, and we let Erika try to set this match. She did a really great job running the plays, and she and Elissa (Miller) had a great connection, so when Erika comes in to set, they do a great job laying next to each other."

In the final match, the Indians had a dozen kills, including three by Miller and two apiece by Megan Rinzel and Brandi Wagner. Heberer had eight assists and added one solo block.

DeGroot, who sprained an ankle in one of the team's pre-season practices, missed the match against Slinger and the Bay View Tournament but she was a spark plug when she was on the court Saturday.

Highlights from the other matches are as follows:

vs. Waukesha South — Miller, DeGroot and Jennie Wicklund were the main hitters with five, four and four kills, respectively. Kewaskum had 11 aces, led by Heberer and Wicklund, with three each.

"In the first game, the girls were ready to play, but we made some mental errors along with communication errors," Altendorf said.

vs. Cudahy — "The girls were on fire from the match before," the coach said, adding, "In the first game, we were glad Christina was playing because her jump serve and her being able to hit on two (occasions) helped us a lot.

Ace leaders were DeGroot and Heberer with five and four. Miller and DeGroot had the most kills, four each.

vs. Madison Memorial — In the first game, "We could not pass on serve receive, and we could not dig the ball," Altendorf said. Then came a complete about face, and, "In our second match, we started out on fire. Our main girl, Elissa Miller, was unstoppable. We were running the quicks out of the middle with her, and they could not dig her hits up. She had five kills in that game. We kept feeding her the ball until they had to put two blockers on her, and she still had a few kills off that."

Lauren Gonring served seven straight in that game, giving the Indians a 7-0 lead.

vs. New Berlin Eisenhower — This semifinal match was close, according to Altendorf until the Indians had difficulties passing the ball on service receive after they fell behind 7-6. "Eisenhower served the rest of the game. We struggled trying to get a pass to Christina," she said.

Altendorf was pleased with the efforts by her girls and concluded by saying, "I think the player of the game for me was Jennie Wicklund. She really stepped her playing up and we were able to use her in the back row and in the front row with her hitting. She also did a great job digging and hustled to get some balls we thought were never going to get up."

Plenty of excitement in Gridiron openers

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Sports Correspondent

The excitement of a double overtime victory and some explosive offense highlighted the first week's action in Kewaskum Gridiron football on Saturday on the West Milwaukee Middle School Field.

Playing against the West Allis Badgers, the eighth graders escaped with a 22-14 win after two overtimes, while the seventh graders came away with a high-scoring 32-24 decision, and the sixth graders followed with an 18-7 win.

The only team to lose was the fifth grade, which turned in a good effort in its 14-6 loss to host Oconomowoc.

At the end of regulation in the eighth grade game, the Indians and Badgers were tied at 8-8, with the Indians' lone score coming on a fumble recovery in the end zone by Jacob Wunder, and the PAT kicked by Andrew Doll.

In the first extra period, it was Sam Olla scoring on second down on a quarterback sneak. The kick was blocked so the score stayed at 14-8, then the Badgers were able to get into the end zone, but their extra point try was also no good.

According to assistant coach Rollie Maul, Kewaskum got the ball first in the second overtime, and the Indians wasted no time scoring as Joey Wollner rambled 10 yards on the first play for what turned out to be the winning TD.

Doll's PAT try was good, and now the Kewaskum defense had to hold and hold it did, stopping the Badgers for three straight losses and holding them on the 10 on the fourth down try.

"(Eric) Perkins made the final tackle. That was a plant!" Maul said.

The seventh graders opened a 20-12 lead by intermission, with touchdown runs by Hunter Flanders (on a sweep), a long run by Teddy Wollner and a short run by Derek Aupperle after a 55-yard pass from Flanders to Nate Krupp.

The Indians opened the second half with a 44-yard run by Wollner after Corey Burdick recovered a fumble.

West Allis came back with a score to cut the margin to 26-18, but the Indians came back with Aupperle going in from the 2 making the score 32-24.

There were some anxious moments in the closing minutes as West Allis had one last chance to tie the game. Aupperle's interception snuffed the Badgers' comeback try and made up for a fumble he had in the fourth quarter.

Joey Seitz scored a pair of touchdowns for the sixth grade, according to coach Joe Backhaus, who said, "Both were 40-yards plus," adding Austin Resch scored the other TD on a run that covered 50 yards.

When asked if anyone stood out defensively, Backhaus said, "Not particularly. They need to play more consistently on both sides of the ball ... we're looking for them to get better."

In the fifth grade game, Zach Smith scored the one TD on a 37-yard sweep and a nice cutback.

According to coach Mark Walcheske, the defense played well as a team, especially Garrett Buth. "I was real pleased with the offense," he said.

Walcheske said the "D" only gave up one touchdown. The other one was given up by the special team.

Offensively, Walcheske said fullback Max Vetter and wide-out Cory Kurtz did some nice blocking.

Win No. 10 is in the books

By Judy Harlow

Patience finally paid a big dividend for local golfer, Clark Eichstedt, who put together four good rounds over the Labor Day weekend to capture the men's championship at Hon-E-Kor Country Club.

In the finals, "Ike" topped Jim Rohlinger, who is also from Kewaskum, 4-and-3.

The win was Eichstedt's 10th, tying him with defending champion Craig Anderson of West Bend, who was eliminated in the semifinals by Rohlinger.

"Nine times since I've been back," Eichstedt said about the number of times he has attempted to add a 10th title to his list of wins since moving back to the area from California and before that England.

Eichstedt earned his first title in 1972. His other men's championships came in the following years: 1976, '77, '80, '82, '83, '84, '85, '86 and now in 2007.

One might say Eichstedt led the tournament from wire to wire. In the 36-holes of medal play qualifying, which took place Saturday and Sunday, he fired rounds of 70 and 74 for a 144, seven shots ahead of Rohlinger (75-76), Anderson (74-77) and Joe Volesky (76-75), the others who qualified for the final rounds.

There was a playoff to determine who would play whom in the semifinals, and when Volesky bogeyed the second extra hole, the stage was set ... Volesky had to play Eichstedt, while Anderson and Rohlinger were paired up.

The underdog Rohlinger defeated Anderson 2-and-1.

"I played real well this morning. I think on No. 17, I was 1-over... I had a 34 (par is 35) on the Red," Rohlinger said, explaining he never trailed in the match. "I was striking the ball well, and I made a lot of five-foot putts."

"Craig played real well, too. It was very close," Rohlinger went on, noting Anderson went out of bounds on No. 6 Red" which helped his cause.

While that match was going on, Eichstedt was defeating Volesky 3-and-2. "I think both rounds (semis and finals), I was 2- or 3-over," the eventual champion said, reporting, "Joe was very unlucky this morning. At least three times, he missed the fairway and got into trouble."

In the afternoon finals,

Eichstedt jumped out to a 3-up lead after playing the first nine holes, even after Rohlinger birdied the first hole on the Blue Nine. (Monday's rounds were played on the Blue and White Nines.

At first, Eichstedt wasn't sure how many HEK titles he had, but a quick check of the championship board indicated it was 10.

"I shot 40 on the Blue ... I hadn't seen it in a few weeks," Rohlinger said after making the finals for the first time. "I made a couple bad swings. When you play Clark, you can't make those mistakes because he's so steady."

Eichstedt said Rohlinger caught a bad break on No. 14 when his ball hit the flag and then the pin, but instead of dropping down next to the hole, it wound up 22 feet away.

Rohlinger said he definitely will be playing in the Kettle Moraine Amateur, which will be held Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 22-23. He is the defending champion in the event.

Others who started in the field but did not make the top four: Jay Krueger, 72-82—154; Jeff Anderson, 80-75—155; Dave Olds, 79-79—158; Jason Jahnke, 78-81—159; and Kewaskum High junior Ethan Geidel, 80-81—161.

In the women's championship, it was the personable Diane Kleinke knocking off Carol Averill, 3-and-1. The event was handicapped, and Kleinke had to give Averill 10 strokes.

"My chipping was better than usual," Kleinke, who also won a title in 2005, said.

In the semifinals, she beat defending champion, Kelly Marquardt, 6-and-5, while Averill was a 6-and-5 winner over Teresa Dreher, who was the medalist in the qualifying with a 95.

The winner of the First Flight was Dan Gibbon. He defeated Larry Sterr, 3-and-2.

In the Second Flight, it was Rick Averill edging Tom Timblin, 1-up, and in the Third Flight the new champion is Chris Kerry, who was a 3-and-1 winner over Buck Averill.

Indians have lots of stars in 3-1 effort KHS spikers emerge victorious in EWC opener

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Sports Correspondent

There was a battle for every point in last Thursday's Eastern Wisconsin Conference volleyball match between defending champion Kewaskum and Sheboygan Falls.

The first four games were all decided by two or three points (25-23, 25-22, 25-27), and then in the fifth and decider, the Indians claimed the match victory by winning 25-20.

"This was a big match for both teams," said KHS coach Renee Altendorf, adding, "Besides these two teams, the other team that could make a run for conference champs is Waupun."

Kewaskum, normally a solid serving team, struggled at the line against The Falcons. The Indians had seven serving errors, two short of the number of aces they recorded in the match. Leading the ace totals were Lauren Gonring, Erika Heberer and Brandi Wagner, who all had three.

Heberer's three big serves, one an ace, closed out the successful first game, according to Altendorf, who said, "The girls came out real strong and were causing Sheboygan Falls to make a lot of mistakes."

Momentum was definitely on the Indians' side in the second game, and the coach said, "Christina (DeGroot) was unstoppable. She had seven kills in the game."

Once again Heberer closed out the game, this time with four serves, including a pair of aces.

After falling behind by six points, KHS made a nice comeback in Game 3 only to lose, but it wasn't about to let the Falcons take the match. This time it was Stephanie Rinzel stepping into the hero's role, serving up six straight points.

Another high point was the blocking. "This match we were able to get our timing down on blocking and had our most blocks, with four. This game you could see in their eyes how much the girls wanted it, and they were not letting up," Altendorf said, praising the hustle of her players.

"Lauren played wonderful. She was just a great libero and was all over the court," Altendorf said. "She had 22 digs and had 27 receptions with only five errors."

Kewaskum did well killing the ball, and it was the 1-2 punch of the soph Heberer and the veteran senior, DeGroot, leading the way. They had 12 and 10, kills, respectively, according to the stat page, which also showed sophomore Elissa Miller with six.

Senior Alyssa Jung and soph Nichole Kison each chipped in with four kills.

In their EWC debut, the Indians certainly did well digging up balls the Falcons were trying to get to the ground.

There were 98 digs by KHS players, led by Gonring's impressive total, then the 18 by Heberer, 16 by Stephanie Rinzel, and 13 by DeGroot, who missed the team's first match and first tournament because of an ankle injury.

DeGroot did a great job setting as her total reached 25.

"This was one of the biggest matches of the season," Altendorf said.

Tonight, all three Indian teams travel to New Holstein for another conference match, then on Saturday it's off to Germantown for the Washington County Tournament, which should be very competitive because West Bend East, Kettle Moraine Lutheran, Hartford and Kewaskum all have strong teams.

KHS netters win two in a row

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Sports Correspondent

The Kewaskum High tennis team faced some rugged competition early in the season, but last week, the team took a giant step forward, defeating Waupun and Chilton in back-to-back matches held on Tuesday and Thursday.

There were three, straight-set wins in the 4-3 victory over Waupun. At No. 1 singles, Nellie Baum breezed to a quick victory, while the No. 2 and 3 doubles twosomes of Liz Staeger and Crystal Lepp and Cassie Prom and Lauren Smith dominated.

What put the Indians over the top was the three-set victory posted by Brianna Rahoy at No. 2 singles.

Most of the other girls were very competitive, according to new head coach Matt Fehlhaber who once played on the KHS boys team and has returned this fall to lead the Lady Indian program after Dan Ross resigned the position.

Against Chilton on Thursday, it was Kewaskum coming out on top by a 5-2 margin.

Once again, there were some nice straight set victories, specifically from Amanda Osswald and Becca Spaeth at Nos. 3 and 4.

The Indians were unbeaten in doubles play, despite some anxious moments when Anna Gitter and Kelsey Goetsch were on the court. They struggled a bit at the beginning but came back to win going away, 6-4, 6-1.

Once again, Prom and Smith played very well together at No. 3 doubles. Those two combined talents for a very impressive 6-0, 6-0 victory over their opponents.

Fehlhaber was very encouraged by these two outings and believes the Indians will build on these victories.

Previously, the Indians lost to the three powerhouses in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, an 0-7 decision to Plymouth, a 1-6 loss to Roncalli and 2-5 to Two Rivers.

Fehlhaber said he thought of the three, Roncalli might be the strongest. "They're a good team this year," he said.

With all these matches, Kewaskum is 2-3 in EWC action.

Also the Washington County Tournament concluded recently, and the Indians' No. 3 doubles team of Prom and Smith wound up second in the event. Fehlhaber said this pair opened with a win over two girls from Rufus King, and they reached the finals by defeating Germantown.

In the finals, however, their opponents from Slinger were a little too strong for them.

This afternoon, the Indians host Kiel in an Eastern Wisconsin Conference match.

Gavin fires a 59; Indians are fifth

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Sports Correspondent

As has been the case in the first two Wisconsin Little Ten golf matches, Hartford High had the low total in Wednesday's meet held at the long and demanding West Bend Country Club.

For Kewaskum, there were two ... no, make that three pleasant surprises. The Indians had their lowest team total (250 strokes) of the year by 16 shots, and they moved up one spot, finishing in fifth place, ahead of Watertown.

Last and certainly not least was the fact senior Rachel Gavin fired a 59 to finish among the top 10 in the competition.

"Rachel and Jordan are starting to find their rhythm again," said KHS coach Amy Piwoni, referring to the fact Jordan Benike also had a season-best score of 59.

Hartford's Christine Blau captured the medal with a solid 8-over-par 45 on the front nine. Next came West Bend's Liz Theriault with a 51. This is the first year the two West Bend schools have a combined team.

Gavin was in eighth place overall, and rounding out the scoring were Beth Noennig with a 63, and Danielle Donnelly, 71.

"Beth continues to improve and is starting to score well in her first year," Piwoni said. "She's a good listener and never seems intimidated."

Piwoni went on that No. 7 gave most of the girls trouble, and, "The mosquitos were horrible."

WLT Golf at West Bend Country Club — 1. Hartford, 205; 2. West Bend, 223; 3. Oconomowoc, 228; 4. Beaver Dam 243; 5. Kewaskum, 250; 6. Watertown 267.

Golf scores keep improving

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Sports Correspondent

The No. 1 player had an off day, but all the rest of the Kewaskum High golfers played well Thursday at Hon-E-Kor, well enough for the Indians to finish in fifth place for the second meet in a row and with a season-low 245 total.

"Freshman Kate Winkler had her best round of the year," KHS coach Amy Piwoni said, reporting Winkler fired a team-low 60 on the Red Nine. "She's got a great swing and will be tough as she continues to develop her game."

As has been the case in the three previous Wisconsin Little Ten meets, Hartford was No. 1 with 187 shots for its low four players, nine strokes ahead of Oconomowoc. Then came the combined West Bend team at 212, followed by Beaver Dam with a 235. After the Lady Indians came Watertown with a 254.

Capturing the medal was Christine Blau of Hartford with an 8-over-par 44.

The Indians were bunched nicely. After Winkler's 60, there were a pair of 61s from Beth Noennig and Danielle Donnelly and a 63 from Jordan Benike.

Rachel Gavin skidded to a 68 and did not count.

"Beth Noennig continues to impress me with her mental focus and drive to improve her scores," Piwoni said, adding, "Donnelly and Benike also stayed consistent."

The current standings are as follows: 1. Hartford, 4 points; 2. (tie) West Bend and Oconomowoc, 10; 4. Beaver Dam, 16; 5. (tie) Kewaskum and Watertown, 22 points.

The Indians are at the Appleton West Invitational on Saturday.

Indians remain unbeaten but give up first score

Pair of first quarter touchdowns set the pace for Kewaskum football team

The Kettle Moraine Trophy will continue to have the same home it has occupied for the past two years.

The Kewaskum High football team (3-0) made sure of that Friday night, dominating visiting Campbellsport (1-2) by a score of 28-7 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference opener for both schools.

After the final seconds ticked away, Michael Bunkelman, one of the Indians' defensive ends, sprinted for the trophy that goes to the winner of this annual rivalry and clutched it tightly.

Bunkelman and his counterpart, Jon Komp, were key ingredients in the Indian gourmet victory. Time after time, the two took on two and three blockers, to foil Cougar sweeps, and their efforts did not go unnoticed.

"That was just outstanding," KHS coach Jason Piittmann said, noting how difficult it can be to defend the Cougars' tricky offensive scheme.

Campbellsport's offense is not extremely successful coming from behind, however, and that is why Piittmann was happy to see his Indians score twice in the first quarter while the defense was limiting the Cougars to just one or two yards a play.

"They scored on their first series in their first two games (vs.

St. Mary's Springs and Mayville)," Piittmann said, explaining why it was important for the Indians to get off to a good start.

Junior Zack Amerling's 36-yard kickoff return to open the game gave Kewaskum excellent field position at Campbellsport's 44-yard line, and it took the Indians just six plays to get on the scoreboard.

Twice the Indians went to the air, with QB Nick Olla first hitting Amerling for 19 yards, and a couple plays later going to Matt Donath for the final eight and the TD. The ever reliable Brian Backhaus tacked on the PAT and Kewaskum was ahead 7-0.

Kewaskum's second drive was also successful. The Indians moved 64 yards in seven plays, concluding with Jordan Petrin's 4-yard run. Petrin picked up 10 yards in the march, with Ben Boettcher added 18 and Olla 10 on a keeper play.

The lone pass in the drive was a dart from Olla to Holt for eight yards.

Campbellsport was limited to two first downs and 28 total yards in the first quarter and didn't fare much better in the second, gaining a mere seven yards.

punter, when the Cougars didn't cover two of the KHS "gunners." The pass was on target, but the receiver didn't see it until it was too late, and the ball was turned over to Campbellsport on downs.

Kewaskum, more correctly Amerling, should have scored on the next series. Olla found Amerling alone 30 yards down the field, but it looked as if he slowed down for the final 15 yards, a Cougar defender caught him, stripped the ball, and Campbellsport recov-time.

Olla wound up with 167 yards passing, going 8x16 with no interceptions and he added 67 yards rushing in six tries. The junior QB's ball faking was especially impressive, and Piittmann said, "Nick's been very good at faking since we got him. He's learned it well."

Kewaskum wound up with 389 yards in total offense, with Petrin picking up 72 rushing and Boettcher added 53.

Campbellsport, which scored its touchdown on a Billy Mayer run with just under a minute to play, had 158 yards, all but 17 on the ground. Mayer rushed for 75 yards in 18 carries.

Yes, the Indian starters would

The Indians jumped ahead 21-0 by scoring on the third possession, one that covered 72 yards and included a 30-yard pass play to Eric Shaske and another of nine yards to Donath.

When it was suggested his team may have caught Campbellsport off guard with the passes, Piittmann said he and his staff saw some situations where they thought they could exploit the Cougar secondary.

When the Indians reached the CHS 6, an option play was called and as the Cougar defense zeroed in on Olla, he pitched the ball to Cody Seibel who sprinted into the end zone for the TD.

From here the KHS offense bogged down a bit, failing to pick up a first down on the next series, despite the alertness shown by Backhaus, the ered.

"Considering how we started, I was hoping for a little more," Piittmann said. "We kinda' got lax in the second quarter."

Things were a bit crisper after the break, especially during the 55-yard scoring drive. Petrin carried the ball seven times for 39 yards of the drive, and Shaske kept it alive with an excellent one-handed grab, covering 11 yards.

Boettcher scored from the 4, and Backhaus made another good kick, making the score 28-7.

About his receivers, Piittmann said, "Donath and Shaske had outstanding games" and credited offensive coach Dave Rockhill for creating some great double tight end plays to have both of them on the field at the same time. Piittmann predicted upcoming battles between the two schools could be "like the (Sheboygan) Falls-Plymouth games of five or six years ago."

Waupun defeated Plymouth 28-21 on Friday night, while New Holstein shut out Sheboygan Falls and Kiel nipped Two Rivers 21-20.

Herriges, McElhatton shine in meet

The first meet wasn't the best, but coach Dave Drexler's Kewaskum High cross country teams ran pretty well against New Holstein in a dual competition held Aug. 30 on the Huskies' home course.

The boys, paced by Zack Herriges and Tyler McElhatton, who placed 1-2, defeated New Holstein by a score of 27-28, while the Lady Indians lost 17-43 but got some better efforts than in the season opener at Kettle Moraine Lutheran.

"The boys team is running well together," Drexler said. "Zack and Tyler are looking very strong. Tyler did a lot of running over the summer, so he is coming into the season with a good base.

Herriges' winning time for the 5,000 meters was 18 minutes and 17 seconds (18:17), while McElhatton was next at 18:32.

"Aaron Monte is looking good and has moved up in the order nicely. This will be a big help to the team," Drexler said of his third runner, who finished fifth overall with a time of 19:32.

The other KHS counters were Dan Justman (20:52) and Matt Butzke (21:22) in eighth and 11th, respectively.

"Overall, the boys team is pretty solid," the veteran coach said.

As far as the girls were concerned, the top KHS runner was Tonya Jansen, who was fourth overall with a time of 19:54 for the 4,000 meters.

New Holstein's Libby Schoenborn crossed the finish line first in 19:06.

Ashley Roeske (20:51), Krystal Brackmann (21:23) and Vanessa Schellinger were all within 41 seconds of each other in eighth, ninth and 10th, respectively, then came Cassie Legate (22:13) in 12th place.

"The girls team could be ready for some surprises," Drexler said. "It is a young team with four freshmen who are looking strong in practice. With a little more meet experience, I think the freshmen will show their toughness."

Drexler is liking what he is seeing from Jansen, who is "running very well this year," and he is encouraged by the other veterans, including Schellinger and Legate.

At KML on Aug. 30, the boys finished eighth in the 12-team field, scoring 178 points and losing a tiebreaker with Lomira for the seventh spot.

Herriges covered the course in 19:57, good for 11, and McElhatton was four places back with a time of 20:08.45.

With some of the girls missing, the Lady Indians struggled to place 12th with 342 points.

Roeske was the first KHS girl to cross the finish line. She was 46th with a time of 20:38.
