Indians will be challenged at Jefferson in round two on Saturday

Indians have right ingredients for big win in playoff opener

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Sports Correspondent

With a little under four minutes remaining Tuesday night, the playoff victory cake was about ready to come out of the oven, then Kewaskum High linebacker Eric Turowski provided the frosting.

Turowski picked off a Tyler Zeman pass in the flat and rambled 33 yards for one final touchdown. Game, set and match Kewaskum, which dominated visiting Sauk-Prairie 34-7 in a Division 3 Level 1 playoff game.

This was the 10th straight win this year for the Indians, who will take their perfect record into the second round against Jefferson, a 27-7 winner over Portage. Sauk-Prairie ended its season at 5-5.

"Eric picked two of those off in practice this week," a happy coach Jason Piittmann said afterward, pleased with the way his offense, defense and special teams performed.

The special teams provided a spark on the very first play of the game. Junior Ray Wollner gathered in the ball at the 2-yard line, appeared to be hemmed in at about the 20 but kept his legs going and didn't stop until he reached the Sauk-Prairie 44.

After picking up a couple first downs on the ground, it appeared as if the drive might stall as the Indians were facing a fourth and eight at the 10-yard line.

No problem. Quarterback Nick Olla pulled off a nifty fake, stepped back and calmly tossed a perfect strike to John Holt in the left corner of the end zone. With Brian Backhaus' PAT, the Indians were ahead 7-0 just three minutes into the contest.

The rest of the quarter, it was the Eagles holding the upper hand and looking at their best opportunity to score before the final minute of the game.

After Olla was sacked for a 12-yard loss, Kewaskum punted to Sauk-Prairie 44, and quickly the Eagles had three first downs, the third one at the Indians' 20.

After a rare face mask penalty on the offense, a short run and an incomplete pass, S-P was facing a fourth and 10, and a Zeman to Nolan Bruening pass netted just eight, and the Indians took over.

Early in the second quarter, the Eagles tried a fourth down run at the KHS 40 and paid dearly for not getting it. After a couple short runs and an 11-yard pass to Zach Amerling, Olla showed his magic on a beautiful option play.

With an Eagle committing on the play, the junior quarterback made a perfect pitch to Ben Boettcher, who had a wide open field in front of him and turned it into a 44-yard touchdown.

This time Backhaus' PAT was blocked, so the Indians took a 13-0 lead into the break.

The score didn't stay that way long in the third quarter. Kewaskum's first drive, set up by Turowski's fumble recovery at the S-P 27, turned into a one-play, touchdown. Once again Holt and Olla teamed up for a score, and even though Backhaus' PAT was blocked again, the Indian faithful were feeling a 19-point lead would be enough.

One last time, the Kewaskum offense would score, this one coming on a 6-yard run by Jordan Petrin (2-point conversion on an Olla run) with 1:36 remaining in that third quarter, capping a 10-play, 85-drive, the kind that makes Piittmann beam.

One of the big plays in the march was a 30-yard pass from Olla to Matt Donath.

"The ends did a super job," Piitt-mann said, looking at the fact the passing game netted 126 yards, with Holt catching three balls for 78 yards and Donath two for 37.

The KHS coach also praised the play of Olla, who was six for nine in passing with no interceptions. "He played very well tonight. We knew their blitzing scheme would give us some trouble, but we were able to give him some time, and he threw some excellent balls."

Piittmann also shuffled his backs in and out to keep them fresh. "We figured it's a three-headed monster," the coach said, noting "They all bring a different dimension" to the offense, Petrin with his speed and spins, Boettcher looking for people to run over, and junior Nate Westerman "just a solid runner."

Those three, along with Olla running the option, were responsible for 176 yards rushing. Boettcher hit the century mark in 10 carries, while Petrin carried the ball 11 times for 45 yards.

Sauk-Prairie wound up with 341 yards, 164 rushing and 177 passing. Just over 100 of those passing yards came in the Eagles' final drive, which resulted in their only touchdown. Zach Fiene made a beautiful catch of a Zeman pass for 38 yards against the Kewaskum reserves.

While the win appeared relatively easy, Piittmann didn't see it totally that way. "The first half wasn't (easy), but we played much better in the second half."

When asked if he had a preference of who he would like to play, Piittmann said, "Portage gets us a home game," but it was not to be as Jefferson rolled up 499 yards in total offense in defeating the Warriors.

The game will now be held at Jefferson High School at 3 p.m. The high school is located at 700 W. Milwaukee Street in Jefferson.

Tickets for the game will not be available beforehand. They may be purchased at the gate. Piittmann stated that it is homecoming weekend in Madison and that drivers should allow themselves extra travel time.

Wisconsin We Care collecting for troops in Iraq and Afghanistan

The can at the Village Hall in Kewaskum on First Street waits for items to be sent to troops in Iraq and Afghanistan.

KEWASKUM- A town of Farmington man working with a state-wide organization is looking for help in providing daily needs of our troops overseas. Your help is as easy as dropping off a stick of deodorant at two locations in the Kewaskum area.

Ronald Melichar is assisting Wisconsin We Care, a grass roots organization dedicated to providing soldiers in Iraq and Afghanistan with packages from home. Wisconsin We Care has been up and running for almost five years. They receive food and other needed items from various businesses and individuals and then package them and send them to Wisconsin military units overseas. There are no paid executives or workers, the group operates entirely with volunteers.

The group has supplied over 50 units from Wisconsin with care packages containing personal hygiene products, snacks, and miscellaneous goodies (batteries, stationary, etc.). Over 3,700 boxes and over 67,000 pounds later, Wisconsin We Care has touched the lives of many troops.

The National Guard awarded Wisconsin We Care the Patrick Henry Award as well as recognition in the form of a plaque from the 126th Field Artillery, B Battery for thanks and recognition of Wisconsin We Care's support.

Wisconsin We Care sends 100% of all the product received to service men and women unless it is too large or is restricted from the military from being sent. In that case they donate the item/s to a local food pantry.

They are also happy to send care packages to troops of local families. To receive more information on this contact organizer Jeff Bukowski at (414) 416-9874 or to learn more about the organization visit them on the internet at www.wiwecare.com.

Locally, items can be dropped off in the vestibule of the Village Hall in Kewaskum and Marshall's Country Corner in Boltonville. Please see the list above, right.

Kewaskum Juniors donate to KMS

Members of the Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club recently donated $1000 towards the purchase of a defibrillator unit for use in Kewaskum Middle School.

Contacted by middle school physical education teacher Jeff Grotenhuis earlier this year, club members agreed this was an important community contribution that could save the life of a student, staff member or a member of the general public.

Middle school staff members will be trained on the use of the defibrillator. While it is hoped the defibrillator will not be needed, it is reassuring to know that the equipment is readily available in the event of a medical emergency.

The Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club is in its 40th year of volunteer service. Any woman who is interested in volunteering in our community is invited to call Kelly Goeden at 626-8893.

Kewaskum Lions sponsoring 'Sight Night'

Scare up your used eyewear and hearing aids for a great cause. The Kewaskum Lions Club with the help of the Kewaskum Girl Scouts will be collecting used eyeglasses during the annual trick-or-treat celebration.

The Girl Scouts will be coming trick-or-treating for goodies and eyeglasses at the same time. Please have them ready for them.

Volunteers from the Gift of Sight Foundation and Lions Club International clean, repair and classify the prescriptions and distribute them to the needy in developing countries.

If you have glasses for pickup and somehow get missed, you can drop them in the bucket placed at the service desk at Piggly Wiggly on Halloween weekend.

Partners donate $30,000 to St. Joseph's

St. Joseph's Hospital President Michael Laird accepts a check for $20,000 from Partners President Sharon Scott. The amount represents a portion of the Partners' $30,000 commitment to the hospital's Breast Care Program.

Submitted photo

WEST BEND— President Michael Laird of Synergy-Health St. Joseph's Hospital accepted a $30,000 donation Tuesday from the hospital's Partners organization to support the hospital's new Breast Care Program.

"No one in this room has not been touched by a diagnosis of breast cancer - whether it's a sister, a mother, daughter, a friend or other family member. That is one of the reasons the Partners organization has decided to donate $30,000 to help facilitate the Breast Care Program," Partners President Sharon Scott told 70 Partners volunteers and hospital executives gathered for a fall luncheon at the hospital September 25.

"This generous gift of $30,000 will be a springboard to move us in the right direction. The Breast Care Program represents a new concept of how we care for women with breast cancer,"

Laird said. "Partners will continue to be our partners as we move forward to address the needs of women with breast cancer in this community."

Laird said the Breast Care Program involves a team approach by physicians, surgeons, and radiologists to respond as quickly as possible to the needs of patients diagnosed with breast cancer, and a breast health nurse working side-by-side with the patient through tests and treatment.

Partners have also donated $5,000 to the Emergency Care Center to provide comforting stuffed bears that will be given to children who come for emergency treatment. Partners is a volunteer organization that serves patients and staff at the hospital and clinic and raises funds for hospital programs and services, including cancer care, The Kathy Hospice, and scholarships.

Annual Campbellsport Adopt-a-Family Program underway

CAMPBELLSPORT— Annual Campbellsport Adopt a Family Program is getting underway

The Christmas holiday season is once again quickly getting nearer and that means preparing a memorable Christmas for some less fortunate families in the Campbellsport area.

asking for those leads by calling (920) 533-4643 or (920) 533-8132.

Hensen and her group of volunteers assures that all names are kept confidential and anyone from the area of Ashford, St. Kilian and Campbellsport is eligible.

The Campbellsport Area Ministerium of Churches and our communities sponsor this program. The group also maintains a year-round food pantry at St. Matthew Catholic Church's Parish Center.

Nine KHS grads earn AP Scholar Awards

Nine students at Kewaskum High School have earned the designation of AP Scholar by the College Board in recognition of their exceptional achievement on the college-level Advanced Placement Program (AP) Exams.

The College Board's Advanced Placement Program offers students the opportunity to take challenging college-level courses while still in high school, and to receive college credit, advanced placement, or both for successful performance on the AP Exams.

Students took AP Exams in May 2007 after completing challenging college-level courses at their high school. The College Board recognizes several levels of achievement based on student's performance on AP exams.

Two students qualified for the AP Scholar with Honor Award by earning an average grade of at least 3.25 on all AP Exams taken, and grades of 3 or higher on four or more of these exams. These students are: Lindsay Krautkramer and Kyle Stoffel.

Nine students qualified for the AP Scholar Award by completing three or more AP Exams, with grades of 3 or higher. The AP Scholars are: Amanda Carpenter, Kate Conerton, Marissa Dehler, Jordan Geidel, Anton Lewko, Anna Rick, Clayton Stoffel, Ashley Turner and Jacob Turowski.

DAYS GONE BY

25 Years Ago

October 15, 1982

As Judy Geidel of Kewaskum's Sentry Foods store sat in the back office of her business, she was surprised herself to realize she and her husband Bill could trace her family's life in the business community back over 80 years. It all started in the early 1900's when Mrs. Geidel's grandfather, John Marx, opened an IGA store in the location which now houses the Kewaskum Saloon (NOTE: now John's on Main). Later Harold "Mixie" Marx and his wife Eleanor took over the business from his father. On June 5, 1977 the third generation took over operation of the family business when Judy (Marx) and Bill Geidel bought the business from her parents. Now there will be another change, not in owners this time, but locations. For the first time this family tradition will not be moving into new quarters on Main Street, but into a much larger store in the Kewaskum Mall. The new store will increase their selling space by about 4,000 square feet, allowing for an expanded Crestwood Bakery section and the addition of a delicatessen department. November 17 has now been targeted as the date for opening the new store.

The Wigwam Supper Club on Fond du Lac Avenue, Kewaskum, (NOTE: was located on site which is now home to Rain Dance Car Wash), has been sold to a group of investors as of October 6, according to William Edwards, former proprietor. William and Violet Edwards had operated the Wigwam from 1952 to 1979. It was sold to Robert and Judy Klein in 1979 and became The Homestead. The Kleins later rented the business to Tom and Ann Gundrum. They operated the supper club until the fall of 1981. The new operators anticipate a December 1 opening.

For the second time in six years fire was an unwelcome visitor to the Elizabeth Felten farm located on Mill Road in New Fane. Kewaskum Fire Chief Augie Bilgo said his department received the call at 2:15 a.m. and when they arrived on the scene the 108 by 60 foot metal pole building was completely engulfed in flames. The structure, which just had been erected in June, housed machinery in one half and large round hay bales in the remainder. Also destroyed by the blaze was a new tractor with only 80 hours on it, a brand new double axle manure spreader which had not been used yet, a combine and hay wagon, all stored inside the building, and a corn planter parked next to the building. The machinery lost in the fire belonged to Mrs. Felten's sons, Wilmer and Robert, and Wilmer's sons, Dan and Ron. The four Felten's operate the farm. Chief Bilgo noted that this was the fifth farm fire in the immediate area during the past ten years. The fire of undetermined origin is under investigation by the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department. Exactly six years ago on September 10, 1976, Felten's dairy barn was destroyed by fire. On January 18, 1982, the barn of Fred Meyer, Felten's next door neighbor, was burned.

A son, Samuel David, was born to Doug and Kristy Schacht, Kewaskum, September 30. Paternal grandparents are Henry and Marion Schacht, Kewaskum, and maternal grandparents are Kilian and Janice Honeck, Kewaskum. A son, Joshua Charles, to Tim and Kim Bulette, Kewaskum, on October 10. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Bulette, Horicon, and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Radmann, Kewaskum. Joshua has a one-year-old sister, Amanda Marie. A daughter, Jamie Crystal, was born to Steve and Welda Swed, Madison, on September 20. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Morris Swed, Princeton, and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Kleinke, Campbellsport. A son was born to Byron and Nancy Anderson, Kewaskum, on October 5. A son, Terrell Gordon, was born to Timothy and Denise Guell, Campbellsport, October 5. A daughter, Angela Mae, to Thomas and Renee Kaiser, Campbellsport, on September 30.

were called to the Jacob Muckerheide farm located about two miles northwest of the village to put out a grass fire which for a time threatened the farm buildings.

Seventy acres of eroded farm land recently acquired by the state have been allocated to Wisconsin State College, Milwaukee, to be used as an outdoor laboratory for biology and conservation classes, it was announced this week. Located two miles east of Kewaskum near Highway 28, the land is a part of the Kettle Moraine reforestation area. Cooperating with the state conservation department, students next spring will set out the first of several annual plantings of pine trees. Eventually 10,000 plantings will be made.

GOP presidential candidate Eisenhower's special campaign train passed through Kewaskum last Friday afternoon while on a tour of Wisconsin cities. The train, however, did not stop here.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bonlender, St. Kilian, on September 30. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Werner Wenzlaff, Kewaskum, on October 3.

55 Years Ago

October 10, 1952

The Kewaskum fire department received calls to two fires in the Town of Kewaskum the past week. Around 2 p.m. Saturday a blaze believed to have been caused by a grass fire burned down an outbuilding and scorched a pile of lumber on the former Roden School grounds several miles southeast of Kewaskum. At 4:15 Wednesday the firemen

WES fifth graders build cells

Mitochondria, nucleus, cell wall and ribosome are all words that you would have heard coming from the fifth grade classroom at Wayne Elementary School recently. Taking the place of a pencil and paper assessment, the students were asked to create a cell model, either plant or animal, that contained all the parts that they have learned about. The fifth graders were very imaginative in coming up with ways to construct their cells. Some of the creative ideas involved using paper mache, brownies and toppings and some everyday items found around the house. The students then used their models to quiz each other on the cell parts and their jobs. Shown above from left to right are Montana Graskey, Derek Voigt, Barrett Thompson and Melanie Juech with their models.

Third graders make apple cider

The third graders from Wayne Elementary School experienced the workshop "Fruits of Fall" at Riveredge Nature Center. They found various types of seeds in the woods and meadow, classified them and discussed the various ways seeds are scattered. They were treated to a special meeting with Johnny Appleseed in the woods. They learned how apple cider is made and were able to taste some cider and take some apple seeds home to continue the life cycle of apple trees. Riveredge offers unique opportunities in environmental education and promotes a respect and appreciation for nature. Shown above are Tyler Oelhafen and Nick Beine putting apples into the cider press while one of the Riveredge guides turns the handle of the press to make the cider.

MPTC Barber/Cosmetology salon gets its own makeover

After 33 years of being a place where future hair stylists and barbers learn how to give people a new look, the Barber/Cosmetologist salon at Moraine Park Technical College's Fond du Lac campus recently got its own makeover.

The community, the salon industry and anyone who is interested in enrolling in the Barber/Cosmetologist program or receiving services at the teaching salon are invited to tour the new facilities during an open house on Tuesday, Nov. 6, from 4 to 7 p.m.

Celia Jackson, Secretary for the State of Wisconsin Department of Regulation and Licensing, will be available from 4 to 5 p.m. to answer questions about state regulations. Instructors and students will be on hand to show visitors around the new classrooms and labs and answer questions. Program information and displays can be viewed. Complimentary hand massages will be given, as well as neck trims for those with short hair. Entertainment, refreshments and door prizes are also planned.

"It is Moraine Park's mission to provide the region with a highly skilled workforce, and bringing our educational facilities up to current industry standards is one way we accomplish that," said Dr. Gayle Hytrek, Moraine Park president. "Our new facility mirrors what is found in the industry today. The remodeling will continue to ensure that graduates of the program will be familiar with everything about today's salons and meet employers' expectations."

The Moraine Park salon "makeover" includes 40 new styling stations with a contemporary look and function. Curling irons, flat irons and hair dryers are tucked neatly away in individual upright slots within easily accessible drawers, keeping work stations clutter-free. The new shampoo stations include four state-of-the-art stand-behind stations that allow the stylist to stand behind the client while washing their hair.

Moraine Park's Nail Technician certificate program also got an upgrade with a classroom devoted to manicures and pedicures.

Another room serves as a day spa where students perform facials and waxing treatments. The new state-of-the-art dispensary houses hair care and other products; a new computerized system used for product pricing and inventory, appointments, and students and client tracking of services rendered and performed; and laundry facilities.

"In addition, we will be receiving a ceiling-mounted video camera so all students have a good view of instructor demonstrations on our large screen," said Amy Poshepny, Moraine Park barber/cosmetologist instructor.

The remodeling project was included in the 2006-07 and 2007-08 capital projects budgets with a total cost of $527,528. Major project contractors included Capelle Bros. & Diedrich Inc., Fond du Lac, general contractor; Ahern Gross Inc., Fond du Lac, plumbing; Groeschel Company, Malone, HVAC; and K.W. Electric Inc., Plymouth, electrical.

Moraine Park offers a Barber/Cosmetologist Apprenticeship, a Barber/Cosmetologist technical diploma and a Nail Technician certificate. With the approval of the Department of Regulation and Licensing, Moraine Park's apprenticeship program will offer classes online starting this January, in addition to the traditional classroom format.

Also that month, there will be openings for the full-time technical diploma and apprenticeship programs. The Nail Technician program will also have openings for classes that start in fall 2008. For more information, call 1-800-472-4554 or visit www.morainepark.edu and click on Academics then All Programs.

Moraine Park's Fond du Lac campus is located at 235 N. National Avenue. For directions, go to the College's Web site and click on About Moraine Park then Campus Information. To get to the Barber/Cosmetologist center, visitors should use the C-2 entrance.

In addition to the new band teacher mentioned in last week's column, Charles Komp has recently joined the KHS family. He teaches general and basic physics along with astronomy. One thing that has caught the attention of Principal Christine Horbas is that Komp is taking courses at UW Oshkosh to become more knowledgeable and to teach astronomy.

Komp currently holds a bachelor's degree and two masters degrees, in addition to taking courses in astronomy. Along with teaching and studying his own homework, he provides star gazing nights so the astronomy students can have the opportunity to look through a big telescope to get a closer look at the stars.

Another teacher that is new to KHS is Jeffrey Steers, teaching Early U.S. History and World Cultures. Horbas says he has brought a new and exciting method of teaching.

Steers includes bigger, more interesting, and hands on projects, such as, the Middle Eastern country project. Each student adopted a country from the Middle East and then made a binder of facts. Students then presented their project along with a food dish from their country.

Other new teachers have not been forgotten, they will be acknowledged in upcoming issues.

There has not yet been any new information from the H.O.P.E Club in regards to their effort or progress in getting KHS to start recycling. Updates will be given when available.

UWWC to hold Campus Preview days

Two college preview sessions are being planned at UW-Washington County this fall. The first daytime session is Wednesday, October 31 from 10am to noon. The second evening session is scheduled for Thursday, November 15 from 6pm to 8pm.

Advisors from UW-Washington County's Student Services office will present many aspects of college preparation, with topics ranging from admissions and curriculum planning to financial aid, scholarships and tuition costs. Area high school juniors and seniors and their parents are invited to reserve space for one of the two-hour sessions by phoning the Student Services Office at (262)

335-5201 or online at www.washington.uwc.edu. Reservations are required.

Information on UW-Washington County's athletic programs and student organizations as well as faculty expectations will also be presented. A panel of current students will share their personal experiences, insights and strategies for success. A tour of the campus concludes each event.

The campus which is part of the University of Wisconsin System, serves over 1,000 students from 17 area high schools. It is located at 400 University Drive in West Bend (just off Hwy. 33 West). Free parking is available in the student lot.

Students in Mrs. Dorst's 8th grade Family and Consumer Education classes at Kewaskum Middle School have become single parents for the week.

The purpose of this project is to allow the students a chance to experience some of the responsibilities that are involved in the care of human "babies."

The eighth grade students are required to take care of a five-pound bag of flour for one week. Each day a "Well Baby Check-up" is required to ensure the safety of the child.

At the end of one week, students will write a paper about their week of parenthood. In this paper, they will discuss the positives and negatives of being a single parent while attending school and extra-curricular events.

Moraine Park, Lakeland College unveil new partnership

The toughest decision you will have to make is whether to have two graduation parties.

Moraine Park Technical College and Lakeland College signed five agreements on Oct. 15 creating programs in accounting, marketing, business-to-business marketing, business management and administrative assistant/specialized administration. The five new programs allow students to simultaneously earn a Moraine Park associate degree and Lakeland bachelor's degree.

"Educational institutions have been talking about the need for these types of transfer agreements for some time and, with this interwoven agreement with Lakeland, it has become a reality for Moraine Park students," said Dr. Gayle Hytrek, Moraine Park president. "We are very excited to provide our students with a cost-effective way to earn their bachelor's degree without leaving their community."

Lakeland now has 33 interwoven degree programs with four Wisconsin technical colleges. The programs are unique agreements in Wisconsin because students may attend both colleges at once, mixing technical classes with humanities in the same semester. The program includes innovative agreements on joint admissions, counseling, financial aid and other services with increased student access.

"This is an enormously unique agreement in higher education," said Lakeland President Stephen A. Gould.

"It's unique in its complete seamlessness and predictability. There are no additional resources needed, because it restructures the resources that are already there. It's unique in that it is a public and private institution collaborating."

Dan Ensalaco, Moraine Park vice president of academics and economic development, said the agreement has benefits beyond Moraine Park's students.

"This newest collaboration between Lakeland and Moraine Park provides our residents with new career laddering opportunities that better reflect the realities of today's job market and encourages life-long learning," said Ensalaco. "In particular, we are pleased in the way this new program meets the needs of the adult learner. Meeting those educational needs is going to be key to keeping Wisconsin competitive with other states and the rest of the world. Lakeland has been a leader in articulating programs with the Wisconsin Technical College System. Moraine Park is pleased to sign this agreement and looks forward to developing new partnerships with Lakeland that push the envelope of post-secondary education in Wisconsin."

agreement, in which students complete a two-year degree before starting their four-year degree, students will be able to attend both colleges from day one, beginning with a joint application.

Full-time students can finish both degrees in four years. Both Lakeland and Moraine Park courses will be taken each year, with more Moraine Park coursework coming early in a student's academic plan.

Because students can take classes at each college each semester, students are likely to earn a Moraine Park associate's degree just before completing the Lakeland bachelor's degree; the exact time will vary from student to student.

Convenience will be a key. Lakeland will offer some of its courses at Moraine Park and most will be offered online. Students will also be able to take many Lakeland courses through the college's BlendEd format, a convenient, one-of-a-kind approach that allows students to decide on a class-by-class basis if they want to learn that week in the traditional classroom setting or online.

"This approach is about making college as non-intimidating and accessible as possible so that Moraine Park students can feel confident taking the next step right away," Gould said. "A lot of students, based on family or geographical limitations, can't 'go away' to school. Our program removes some of those traditional hurdles to a four-year degree."

Affordability is another advantage. Students can earn both degrees for about the same cost as attending four years at a state university, and financial aid is available.

The program also eliminates the need for credit transfers and other paperwork often related to moving from one school to another. Students will receive personalized advising from both Moraine Park and Lakeland.

"We are excited about partnering with Lakeland in this unique initiative to streamline the transfer process so our students, if they so choose, can work on both degrees simultaneously without having to duplicate course work," said Pat Olson, Moraine Park's dean of business. "It's a plus for our students."

Lakeland has interwoven degree programs with four other technical colleges: 14 programs with North Central Technical College in Wausau, 11 with Midstate Technical College in Wisconsin Rapids, two with Fox Valley Technical College in Appleton and one with Northeast Wisconsin Technical College.

The interwoven degree stems from results of a 2005 student survey at NWTC in Green Bay and meetings between the presidents of those two schools.

The survey showed that 61 percent of 719 students said they planned to earn a bachelor's degree after completing coursework at NWTC, and 80 percent said they would be more likely to transfer to a four-year college if courses they took at NWTC would transfer to a bachelor's degree program.

Lakeland continues to work with other technical colleges in Wisconsin to develop similar programs.

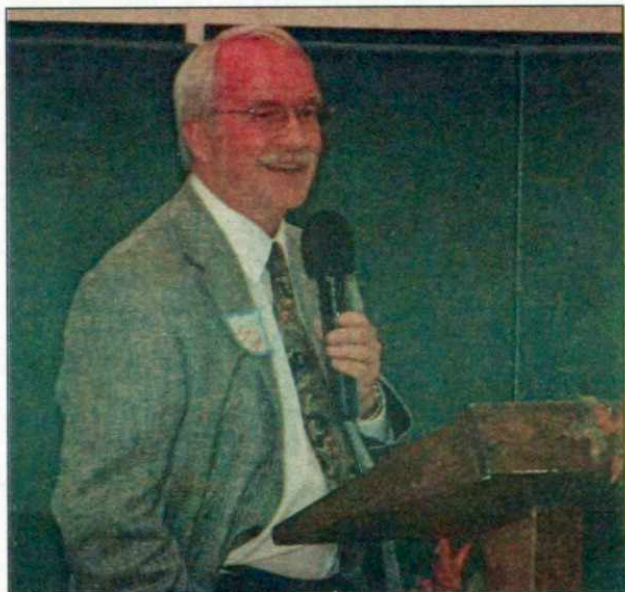

"Higher education needs to focus more energy on finding ways to deliver an education to students on their time, based on their schedules," Gould said. "We are excited about partnering with Moraine Park to create a program that truly puts the needs of our students first, and we believe it's a model for the future of higher education."

Students can learn more about the Lakeland/Moraine Park interwoven degrees by contacting Pat Olson of Moraine Park at polson@morainepark.edu or (920) 924-3333, or Lakeland's Fox Cities Center at foxcities@lakeland.edu or (920) 727-0777.

Pastor Dan pleased with first year at Salem

TOWN OF WAYNE- Next week Pastor Dan Schultz will celebrate his first year leading the flock at Salem United Church of Christ. While enjoying the new, church members also gathered and celebrated 150 years of memories.

Schultz became a pastor in 1999. He says his ultimate goal was to be in a small church, and didn't mind being in a rural area. On November 1, 2006 he answered a call at Salem.

Schultz recalls that he stumbled into becoming a pastor. His father was a pastor, but he (Schultz) didn't have any inkling of becoming the leader of a church. However, he did have an interest in theology.

During his studies of English and history at UW-Madison, Schultz was encouraged to visit out Emory University in Atlanta. "It seemed like a good fit, I applied, got in, and started in the academic program," Schultz revealed.

Ultimately, Schultz graduated with a Masters Degree in divinity. He went on to herd a church in Atlanta for a pastor on sabbatical. "I sat in the desk and said this feels right, this is where I am supposed to be. I began thinking more seriously of it (becoming a permanent pastor)," he stated.

Before answering his first call to pastor in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, Schultz spent time working in a Mennonite hospitality house. Before coming to Wayne, he was interim pastor in Abbotstown, Pennsylvania.

Schultz has made a few changes at Salem. He says he's worked on things with the Christian Education program. New classes will be divided into two groups, age appropriate. His current goal is to start a youth group focused on intergeneration education opportunities.

Schultz has also started a book entitled Christianity for the rest of us. A writing guru, he has also received national attention for his blogging efforts on www.streetprophets.com the last two years. In the August 11 edition of The New York Times, Schultz, the website and Salem were featured.

Schultz and his wife, Jennifer, are foster parents to two children, ages four and 10.

Salem United Church of Christ, located just north of the Highway H and W intersection in the town of Wayne, is a small community of about 150 members. One service is held weekly on Sunday at 9 a.m. Sunday school occurs at the same time.

The church is also known county-wide for their annual chicken barbecue in June and pancake breakfast, in March.

It's Not About the Hair

By Debra Jarvis

Sasquatch Books, $23.95 245 pages

IT'S NOT ABOUT THE HAIR

And Other Certainties of Life & Cancer

"A funny, inspiring, and heart felt book about surviving adversity in an illuminated way!"

—Judith Orloff, MD
author of Positive Energy

Debra Jarvis

Whining does no good.

You can rant and wail. You can scream to whatever God you believe in, pound a pillow, or glare at everyone around you. Tears are cathartic and fear is easy to understand, but none of these will change anything if your diagnosis is cancer.

That's one of the things you learn up-front in the new book "It's Not About the Hair" by Debra Jarvis.

As a chaplain in the cancer center at a Seattle hospital, Jarvis counsels patients who are new to chemotherapy and their disease. She talks to family members about treatment and expectations. She listens. And she talks about dying to cancer patients who are terminal.

You would think, with a job like that, Jarvis would have seen it all.

And you might be right. She did, until she herself was diagnosed with Stage I breast cancer.

Jarvis said she cried, but wasn't as terrified as she thought she would be. First of all, she had seen cancer: what it means, what it does, how people react to it, and that it can be survived. Secondly, she had faith in God and a sense of humor. Sometimes, those were one in the same.

Jarvis went through a mastectomy and reconstruction, but while her treatments were exhausting and her body felt as if it had run the kind of marathon that she was fond of tackling, Jarvis never stopped caring for the patients she had become close to. Woven through a narrative of her treatment, her work, and her post-cancer life, Jarvis remembers people like Addie who died with her three rambunctious grandchildren attending, and whose 5-year-old grandson put the adults at ease. She writes about Jenny, who received a "rock ritual" to after her last treatment. She writes of Cindy, who planned her own death. She writes of the faith she shared with them and all her patients as they went through treatment together.

As an almost-seventeen-year survivor of cancer, I've read a lot of books about cancer by former patients and by the doctors who treat the disease. Among those books, "It's Not About the Hair" is refreshingly different.

Gone are the doomsday suggestions for sores and stents and sutures. There are no maudlin bedside scenes where people carry on and relatives wail, and while you'll find anger in this book, you'll find more of an abundance of joy. Yes. Joy.

"It's Not About the Hair" is all about finding peace and faith, no matter where your cancer takes you. It's about the silliness (and needfulness) of buying mastectomy lingerie. And it's about surviving the days you have left, whether it's two, twenty-two, or twenty-two thousand.

Whether you've just been diagnosed with any kind of cancer, are many years past treatment, or if you've been on the support side of surviving, "It's Not About the Hair" is an excellent book about living and dying and the faith to do both. If you fall into one of the above categories (and who doesn't?), isn't it about time you read it?

Lange to leave Kettle Moraine YMCA

Jon Lange

The Board of Directors of the Kettle Moraine YMCA has announced the resignation of Jon Lange, Executive Director of the YMCA since 1998. In his time at the YMCA, Lange has touched the hearts and lives of many in the community. He is a true leader in the community and his dedication to his staff and everyone who walks into the YMCA has been tremendous. Lange certainly has been a visionary, leading the Kettle Moraine YMCA to become one of the most revered YMCAs in the country.

Lange's first experience with the YMCA began when he attended camp as a teenager. His career started in 1984 at the Green Bay YMCA as an aquatic director but within 18 months was promoted to begin the Door County Branch YMCA. In 1993 that branch became an independent YMCA and a new facility was built in Sturgeon Bay. Shortly after the opening of that center he came to West Bend to run the Kettle Moraine YMCA. In the past 9 years Lange has led the YMCA through extraordinary growth. During his tenure membership grew 54% while program participation rose 111%. Programs started under Lange include: Spinning, Pre School Health Enhancement, Body in Balance, Youth Health Enhancement, and THE COACH APPROACH as well as many other beginner activity classes at the River Shores location. YMCA Child Care enrollment has nearly doubled and an activity-based after school care program has been created under Lange's direction.

Lange has also been instrumental in raising $2.5 million for a capital expansion including an addition to the West Washington location and the opening of the River Shores location. Scholarship funding from the "Friends of the Y" campaign grew from $66,000 to just under $160,000 last year with a 253% increase in donors over that time.

Lange's greatest achievement however, has been sharing his passion for the YMCA mission. He greatly values the friendships and relationships he's fostered during his time at this YMCA. He will tell you that the YMCA is about love. It's about respecting people, caring for people, and helping them on their journey spiritually, mentally, and physically. "I've been blessed to work with a wonderful Board, an inspired group of staff and great people in the community. While I'll be leaving my position, my family is glad we are remaining in West Bend," said Lange.

Lange has been an incredible asset to the growth of the Kettle Moraine YMCA and he plans to bring his passion to the Metro Milwaukee YMCA as he takes on the position of Group Vice President overseeing all of their camps (including Camp Minikani and Camp Matawa), child care centers, and their charter school in the central city.

In mid November Aaron Schmidt, Senior Program Director will assume interim leadership until a replacement is named for Lange. Peter Ziegler has been named chairman of the Board Search and Selection committee. It is expected that the process of hiring a new Executive will take up to six months. Mike Palm, Board President, reflects on Lange's leadership saying, "Jon has really made our YMCA an integral part of the community and the relationships he has built are evidence of his passion for the YMCA. We are sad to see Jon go but we know he will excel in his new role at the Milwaukee YMCA and we wish him all the best."

Goeden, Biertzer among first Short Track Hall of Fame inductees

Kewaskum's Willie Goeden is among 20 former racers who are being inducted into the newly formed Southeastern Wisconsin Short Track Hall of Fame on November 3. Goeden is shown above with his 1968 Dodge Dart, which was restored for him by Dave Wilson, Jerry Zingsheim and Dave and Don Goeden in 1992.

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Sports Correspondent

Together they racked up up thousands of miles circling dirt and asphalt race tracks and won probably more than 100 season championships. They built race tracks. They were the flag men at the track. They were the heart and soul of short-track racing in southeastern Wisconsin.

Who are we describing? The group of 20 men who will be the first to be inducted into the Southeastern Wisconsin Short Track Hall of Fame on Saturday, Nov. 3 at the annual Vintage Modified Stock Car (M.S.C.) banquet, which will be held at the Wisconsin Automotive Museum in Hartford.

Among the 20 is Willie Goeden of Kewaskum, one of the short-track legends and they are in both modified and late model racing. Goeden, Miles "the Mouse" Melius, Fuzzy Fassbender, Bill Johnson and Etchie Biertzer were all household names from the 1950s through the 1980s, and for some beyond.

"It is good we can enjoy it," Goeden said last week about being inducted, and referring to the fact his former competitors and friends like Biertzer and Bill Johnson Sr. have passed away.

When asked how the Hall of Fame idea got going and how the Automotive Museum is currently expanding an area in its building to display short-track modified cars, photos and information, Goeden said it all started with some people who were involved in racing talking with officials at the museum and with John Surges, who is very involved with lining up car shows with some of the restored modified cars.

"He (Surges) got it going over there," Goeden said, indicating a committee was formed, including Reed Cederburg from the museum, and the rest is history.

In late September, a special Vintage Race Car Show was held in the museum's parking lot, and there was a ribbon cutting for the new display inside. That day "There were over 600 people who went through the museum," Goeden said. "They couldn't believe all the people who came."

Goeden said he was thrilled when he first got word about being selected for the Hall of Fame. "I felt pretty good about it, pretty privileged," he said, and proud of his 30-year era of racing.

"Where there was racing, I was there," Goeden said, explaining his weekly calendar included racing Tuesday at Beaver Dam, Wednesday at Cedarburg, Thursday at the quarter-mile dirt oval inside the big track at State Fair Park, Friday at Rockford, Ill. or Norway, Mi., Saturday at Hales Corners and Sunday afternoon in Columbus before heading back for the "Sunday Night Tradition" at Slinger Super Speedway.

"I ran seven times a week, and I had one night off," Goeden said, indicating for him, racing was a family affair with his twin sons, Dave and Don, getting involved early. "They were five or six at the time. The boys would clean out the car and wash it, so I could go racing again."

"Jeanne was up (in the stands) with the kids ... We called it the 'Bunny Bunch,'" Goeden, who was referred to as Willie "the Rabbit," said, reporting, early in his career he had some very dedicated pit men, including Jerry Zingsheim, Dave Wilson and Bobby Backhaus.

Other drivers had also nicknames. Melius was "the Mouse," and Biertzer, the "Flying Grandpa," and his fans were usually decked out in pink shirts and jackets.

Currently Biertzer's grandson, Scott, and Goeden's son, Don, are racing on the I.R.A. (Interstate Racing Association) Sprint Car circuit, and both finished among the top seven in points this season.

"We were all friends. It didn't pay to hold a grudge," Goeden said because the next night you might be at the starting line right next to them. After bumping fenders or tires, "We'd talk it over, go somewhere to have a hamburger and a couple of beers," and that would be the end of any difficulties.

When asked about his best year, Goeden, who retired after a serious racing injury at Kaukauna in 1987, said, "I have no idea ... Some tracks you counted points and some you didn't. I know I had 11 championships."

Concerning modern short-track racing, Goeden chuckled. "It's not the same. I'll tell you that," he said, explaining in his day, the driver with the fast time started in the back of the pack and enjoyed the challenge of moving up. Now, "the glory of going from the back to the front isn't there."

Goeden, family members, old pit crew members and other of his devoted fans will all join him in celebrating at the dinner on Nov. 3. "I think I bought about 30-35 tickets," he said. "It should be a good night."

Those being inducted into the Hall of Fame on Nov. 3 include: Goeden, Johnson Sr., Biertzer, Melius, who still lives in Slinger; Dick Binner, Dick Duston, Fassbender, who lives in Hustisford; the late Rollie Heder, who built Slinger Super Speedway, Bill Johnson Jr., John Kaishian, who owned Hales Corner Speedway, the late Carl Kulow and Happy Laack, who were involved in racing at the Fair Park in Plymouth; Ken Markwardt, Sheboygan; Roger Regeth, involved with the pace car at Kaukauna Speedway; Jimmy Reimer, Frank Smith, who drove sportsman cars in Milwaukee; the late Duane Sweeney, who was the flagman for Hales Corners and at the Indianapolis Speedway for a couple years; the late Ken Tloutan; Gino Wagner and Harry Woerner, who lives in Slinger. Woerner built cars for Melius.

There is no question Goeden and the others were dedicated to their sport and even though it was a lot of hard work at times, loved every minute of it.

"If I had the chance I would do it over again," Goeden said.

A limited amount of tickets go on sale Saturday at the Jim Trettow racing radio show that will take place at the museum. The cost is $25 per person and includes access to the museum.

White defeated Campbellsport 4-3 in nine innings and went on to win 5-3 against Kewaskum Green in the play-off. They then advanced to the league championship game.

On July 23 the team played Belgium Blue for a chance to win the Kettle Moraine Midget Major League Championship. With strong pitching and great hitting, Kewaskum defeated Belgium 6-0 to take home another championship trophy.

Teams from Kewaskum 9th and 12th in sectionals

By Judy Harlow

Waves of orange and black clad runners were found near the front of both packs in Saturday's Division 2 sectional competition held at Mayville High School.

Those runners helped Ripon High School post a rare double victory in the event. The Ripon boys came in with 54 points, 28 points in front of Berlin (82), and both teams earned berths in the WIAA State Meet this coming Saturday at the Ridges Golf Course in Wisconsin Rapids.

In the girls competition, that led off the day, it was Ripon taking the title with 58 points and the host Lady Cardinals finishing second with 71, so they will also be making the coveted trip to Wisconsin Rapids.

Only the top two teams and top six individuals not from those teams advance to the state competition.

The Kewaskum athletes ran pretty well but were not able to stay with the lead teams. The Indian boys, competing without Zack Herriges, who recently broke his leg, finished ninth in the field of 14 teams. Paced by senior Tyler McElhatton, Kewaskum wound up with 217 points.

McElhatton, running his final CC race, battled through the crowd to take 21st place overall with his time of 19 minutes and 19 seconds (19:19).

"The runners ran their hearts out today but it wasn't quite enough to get them to state. They were pumped, focused and ready to go but came away disappointed. With all but two returning for next year, they have a lot to look forward to," KHS coach Dave Drexler said. "Tyler ran especially well but made the mistake of going out too hard and paying for it later, he was in good position until midway in the race."

Eight places back was Aaron Monte, who had a nice effort with his 29th behind a time of 19:34.

The other KHS counters included Tim Hall, who was 42nd in 20:15; Matt Butzke, 59th in 21:03; and Dan Justman, 66th in 21:33.

Wautoma, the team that was third overall with 133 points, will be represented at state by Bob McCall and Sean Wise, who finished first and second, just one second apart at 17:53 and 17:54 in the 5,000-meter race.

The Kewaskum girls wound up 12th in the field, scoring 282 points. Like has been the case all season, Tonya Janssen was the leader of the KHS girls. She took 18:23 to cover the 4,000-meter course, which was good for 33rd place.

Krystal Brackmann stayed fairly close to Janssen, placing 43rd at 19:10, while Vanessa Schellinger placed 53rd with a 19:24.

The other two counters were Katie Legate, 73rd with a time of 20:34, and Tasha Wagner was 18 seconds in back of Legate. Her time of 20:52 was good for 80th overall.

Claiming top individual honors for the girls was Claire Rindo of Berlin, and boy did she have a super day, sprinting far out in front of the field with a 15:29. Then there was a 30-second gap before Karrie Vaness of Portage hit the finish line.

The sectional marks the end of the 2007 season for the Indians.

Victories absent in Gridiron games

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Sports Correspondent

Drawing teams from Thiensville-Mequon for cross-over games was no bargain for the Kewaskum Gridiron teams Saturday.

The host Cardinals, with a much bigger pool of talent to draw from, were a little too strong for the Indians, who were unable to win any of the four games.

The eighth graders (4-3) were behind 12-0 with a couple minutes to go when a long run by Eric Perkins sparked a thrilling 12-8 finish.

Coach Jim "Jonesy" Korth said Perkins got free for a 60-yard run to set up the team's lone touchdown.

"He went right off tackle and took it down to the five," Korth said. "He got us there, so we finished off with him," then Andrew Doll was perfect on the PAT, and the Indians were only down by four points.

The Indians tried and were successful on an onside kick when Doll drilled the ball into the chest of one of the Cardinal upmen. The ball bounced forward and Doll fell on it.

Kewaskum was unable to pull off the comeback, however, when a first down pass fell incomplete, QB Sam Olla was sacked for a loss, Perkins gained a few yards, then Joey Wollner caught a pass but was far short of getting a first down.

"They're a pretty good team," Korth said.

"Two passes got away from our corners (backs). That was the difference," assistant coach Gil DeLaurier said, praising Lance Pinchard, Kyle Boehlen, Michael Bier and Brandon Chapman for their efforts on defense.

Things went wrong for the Kewaskum seventh grade (4-3) right from the opening kickoff when Derek Aupperle thought the ball was going out of bounds and when it didn't, a Cardinal recovered the free ball inside the KHS 35-yard line.

A couple plays later, and aided by a penalty, T-M scored and did the same minutes later after a high snap from center on a punt resulted in T-M getting the ball at the Kewaskum 13-yard line.

The Cardinals scored in all quarters but the third en route to the 42-14 romp.

Kewaskum scored midway in the second quarter on a 1-yard run by Hunter Flanders. The score was set up by a Flanders to Nate Krupp pass that covered 40 yards.

The Indians' other TD was scored by Aupperle in the closing minute. Flanders passed to Aupperle for both extra points.

Coach Randy Schlice was disappointed his players did not compete with a lot of fire. "We'll see if we can turn it around next week at home," Schlice said.

The sixth grade team started with a long drive, but it stalled after one of its running backs was called for holding, then the defenses took over until the fourth quarter when T-M scored twice for a 12-0 victory.

The loss was the first of the year for Kewaskum, which is now 5-1-1.

Coach Joe Backhaus said his offensive line played well in the beginning of the game, but after the holding call, the Indians "basically went flat."

Defensively, Backhaus praised the efforts Joey Seitz, Casey Steinman, Brett Boegel, Robert Peterson, Kurtis Luedtke, Chris Gray and Greg Rate, who played well until the closing quarter.

The fifth grade team came out on the short end of a 35-6 score, and coach Mark Walcheske said, "They were bigger and a more physical team."

Down 13-0 at half, Walcheske was optimistic his team still had a chance to win, but the Cardinals scored on their first drive of the third quarter for a three-score lead.

"We ruined their shutout bid," Walcheske went on, reporting Zach Smith scored for the Indians on a 50-yard run.

Backhaus announced the seventh and eighth-grade teams will host Milwaukee Custer on Saturday, while the sixth graders will host a team from Lake Country.

Backhaus said the times of the games are still up in the air and will depend on whether or not the high school team will host another playoff game on Saturday.

The fifth grade team was scheduled to play its final game at West Bend East Tuesday evening.

It was a mismatch right from the beginning.

A young Mayville team, which didn't win a single match in the Wisconsin Flyway Conference this fall and only a handful of victories all season long, had literally no chance of beating second-seeded Kewaskum Tuesday night in an opening round of the Division 2 regional volleyball tournament.

In games that lasted the same time as the quarter of an NFL football game, the Indians had the victory all wrapped up by scores of 25-8, 25-12, 25-12.

Aces were definitely the Indians' trump card against the Cardinals. Kewaskum had an impressive 20 of them, led by talented Christina DeGroot, whose jump serve was lethal on this night. The senior southpaw pounded down 15 aces, including seven at the end of the first game when the Indians went from 17-8 to 25-8 with her at the serving line.

"She was on fire," KHS coach Renee Altendorf said. "The girls played well. I haven't seen them play this way in a long time."

Outscoring the Cardinals 11-4 after the score was 5-4, the Indians breezed to a comfortable win in Game 1, allowing Altendorf to not substitute at all.

"It was nice to be able to play everybody," Altendorf said, adding, "We knew we had to play hard and play tough."

About the only number that exceeded the ace total was the number of kills the Indians put down. There were 34 in the three short games, with DeGroot tops in that department also with 15, Jennie Wicklund adding six, and Elissa Miller and Erika Heberer right behind with five and four, respectively.

DeGroot also was credited with 25 assists, and she made a couple acrobatic passes to Heberer than wound up at the feet of the Cardinal players before they were able to react.

"Those two (DeGroot and Heberer) are a good combination. They feed off each other, which is nice to see," Altendorf said, adding it has been very rewarding to watch DeGroot lead the team this season and mold Heberer into being the leader after she graduates.

About the only thing that went wrong Tuesday was Emily Aycock suffering a minor ankle sprain.

"She'll be fine by Friday," Altendorf said. "She said she heard some crunching in her ankle."

Aycock was playing well when the injury occurred. "She was two for two (in kills) in the first game," the coach said.

On Friday night, the Indians kept the momentum going, eliminating Port Washington by scores of 25-21, 25-16 and 25-18.

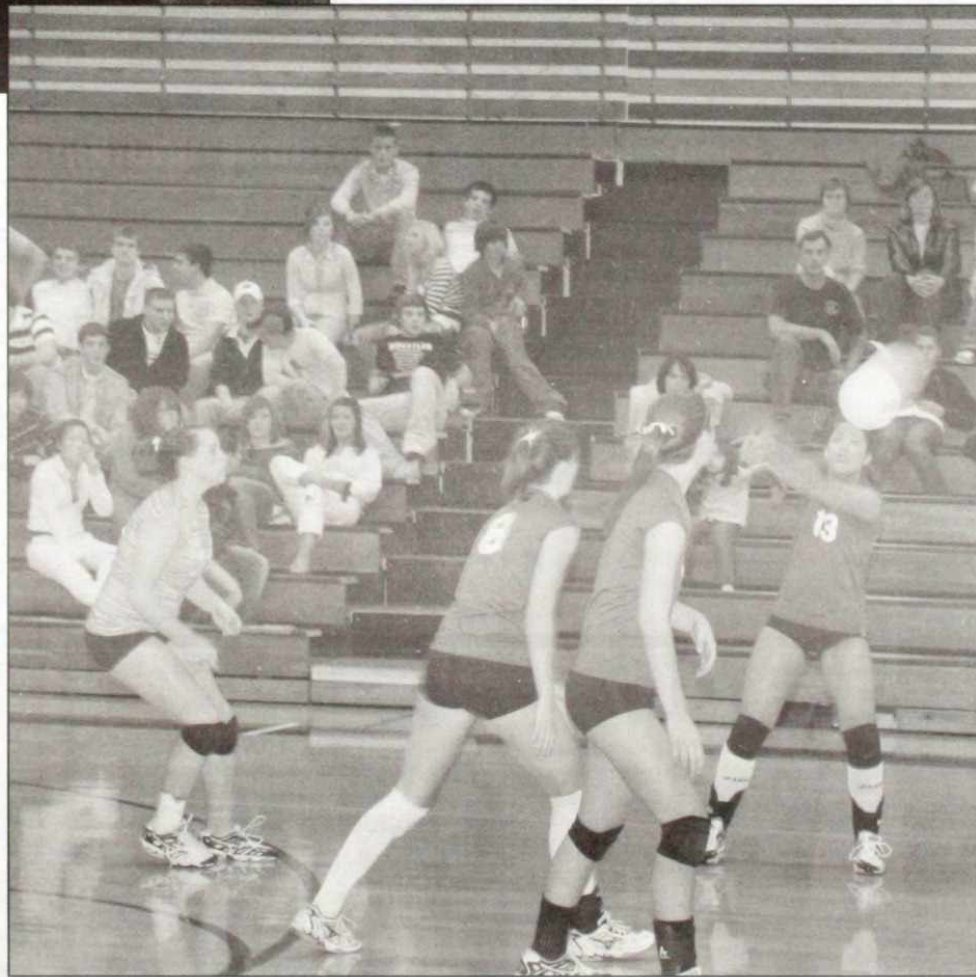

"Jennie Wicklund had a really nice game in the front row," Altendorf said. "We were just placing the ball real well."

The serving wasn't quite as good as Tuesday, but eight aces is still pretty impressive, and DeGroot and Heberer were the leaders with four and three, respectively.

The kill total reached 35, and atop the list of contributors was Wicklund with nine, followed by Miller, Heberer and DeGroot, all with six.

The hustle defensively was Lauren Gonring with her 13 digs, three more than DeGroot. Then came Megan Rinzel, Wicklund and Heberer with eight, seven and seven, respectively.

DeGroot had another good night settling, putting up 29 assists. This win earned the Indians the right to advance to the regional finals against Kettle Moraine Lutheran at Lomira.

Kewaskum's volleyball season comes to an end

After pummeling Mayville and Port Washington, the Kewaskum High volleyball team looked poised and ready for the battle for the regional title against Kettle Moraine Lutheran. The match got away from the Indians midway in the first game, however, resulting in an 0-3 defeat to the Chargers, who advance to sectional play.

The game scores Saturday night were 15-25, 12-25 and 13-25, pretty decisive scores, "but the girls played well. I was impressed with the way they played," KHS coach Renee Altendorf said Sunday evening.

It wasn't a case of the Indians being intimidated by the Chargers, who captured the Washington County Tournament title a couple weeks ago and traditionally have had a strong program in the sport. In fact, Altendorf said on the bus ride to Lomira, site of the final match, she could tell the Indians were excited about the challenge.

"They were ready to play. They wanted this game. They wanted to play hard," the coach said, explaining her team stayed close at the beginning but then fell victim to a big run in the first game and had trouble contending with the Chargers' height after that.

"It had to be 5 to 5 or 6 to 6," Altendorf said, "Then Cassy Marx had a big run on us."

While Marx didn't have a powerful jump serve, like the Indians' Christina DeGroot, Altendorf said, "She's a lefty though. She was serving from the opposite court, so that really threw us off."

In game 2, Altendorf said, "We let 'em get a couple points on us now and then ... we just couldn't pull it out at the end," and after going down 0-2, the Indians became a little deflated and the match was getting away from them.

"We struggled in our pass receiving and our digging," Altendorf said.

For the game, the Indians had just five aces. Normally Kewaskum does very well serving but in this match, quite uncharacteristically, it had four serving errors.

The Indians' kill total was also not as high as it had been recently. Out of the 16 kills, Elissa Miller put down seven, while DeGroot had three, and Brandi Wagner and Erika Heberer each contributed two.

As far as the digging was concerned, sophomore Lauren Gonring was at the top of the list with 16 but had seven errors. DeGroot chipped in with seven, Wagner had four, Megan Rinzel had four and Heberer added three toward the total of 42.

The Indians had a good night blocking the ball. The statistics showed a total of seven, with Miller and DeGroot leading the way with three and two, respectively.

That was a pretty big task, especially considering the Chargers' height advantage. "They have girls who are six feet .. We have girls who are 5-8 and 5-9," Altendorf pointed out.

This was Altendorf's third year as head coach, and in that span, the Indians have won two Eastern Wisconsin Conference titles and a second. They have never gotten out of the regional, however, but the coach said, "This is the farthest we've been."

The Indians had five seniors on the team, including DeGroot, the EWC Player of the Year in 2006, Alyssa Jung, Emily Aycock and the Rinzel twins, Megan and Stephanie.

All will be missed, but especially DeGroot, who has talent, versatility and a strong competitive spirit. Still, Altendorf thinks the team will continue to do well and that Heberer will be able to take over her roll as setter.

"Yes, we'll miss her (DeGroot's) leadership, and yes, we will miss her jump serve," the coach said, "but having Erika for two years (already), I hope she learned a lot" from Christina and will be ready to take over her role.

Overall, Altendorf was proud of her players even in the last match. "The girls walked off the court with their heads up high," she said. "We had a really good year. I can't ask for anything better than they did."

The Kewaskum High varsity football team put the finishing touches on another amazing season last Thursday night, using its strong running game, a potent passing game and a stingy defense to overpower host Kiel by a score of 35-17.

The win gave the Indians a perfect 7-0 mark in Eastern Wisconsin Conference, the outright title and a third straight conference championship. They also finished the season perfect and took a 9-0 mark into the post season Tuesday night.

Ben Boettcher returned to his familiar fullback spot and for the second game in a row hit the 100-yard mark, and Jordan Petrin, back after an ankle sprain he suffered in the game against Sheboygan Falls, showed no ill effects of the injury, rushing for over 100 yards.

"Offensively we controlled the pace of the game and ran very well, with two backs over 100 yards," KHS coach Jason Piittmann said, referring to the fact Boettcher gained 104 yards in 24 carries, while Petrin needed just 10 chances with the ball to gain 110.

Petrin showed his old form by breaking loose for one 35-yard jaunt.

When the two backs weren't chewing up Kiel's defense, the tandem of Nick Olla and John Holt was putting together a pretty fine aerial show.

Olla completed six of 10 passes on the night for 81 yards, and Holt caught every one of the six, including three for touchdowns.

The Olla-Holt combination was responsible for the Indians' first TD, which came with 4:40 left in the first quarter. It covered 20 yards, then Brian Backhaus tacked on the first of five successful PATs (point after touchdowns) and Piittmann could breathe a sigh of relief there was no overconfidence or looking ahead by his Indians.

Kewaskum scored twice more before the conclusion of the first half, the first a short run by Nathan Westerman and the next, with 1:12 to go before the break, on a Olla to Holt pass, covering 34 yards.

Kiel did get on the board in between those two drives, scoring on a 39-yard field goal by Cory Mathes.

The Indians extended their lead to 28-3 after Olla and Holt hooked up one more time, on a 4-yard pass, but the 25-point margin was short-lived as Adam Erhardt returned the kickoff 60-yards for a touchdown, and Mathes booted the PAT.

"We need to shore up some lapses on our kick coverage, but other than that, we had a nice, solid all-around effort," Piittmann said.

Both teams added a TD in the final quarter. Petrin found the end zone on a 12-yard run, while Mark Chermak scored for Kiel (2-5) in the closing minutes.

"Nick Olla used good judgment in the passing game, and John Holt had a great game," Piittmann said, heaping plenty of praise on his defensive unit, which limited Kiel to 111 yards, "and a good portion of that came on their last drive of the game."

Kiel wound up with 64 yards rushing. The Raiders' leading rusher was Chermak, who gained 43 yards in six carries. Brandon Gries completed four of 12 passes for 47 yards, including a 37-yarder to Mathes.

With the EWC title secured, the Indians now look forward to a successful run in the Division 2 playoffs, which they hope will lead to a trip to Madison and Camp Randall Stadium. Their first opponent was Sauk-Prairie in a game played Tuesday night in Kewaskum. Sauk Prairie came into the game with a 5-4 record.
