KHS players give a stellar Once Upon a Mattress performance

Budget time is here again for taxpayers

Opportunity to see where tax dollars are spent is at budget hearings

By Andrew Kuehl
Statesman Publisher

Taxpayers will get an opportunity to see where their tax dollars are being spent in 2009 as area municipalities hold their budget hearings starting next week. Public Hearings are held before the actual meetings where the budgets are approved. It is during that portion of the meeting where the electorate can comment on the budget.

The Village of Kewaskum will seek approval on a $2,607,528 budget on Monday, November 17 at 7 p.m.

The Town of Kewaskum will also hold their budget hearing on Monday, November 17 at 7 p.m. The town is seeking to have a $485,278.75 budget approved.

The Town of Wayne will look to approve a decreased budget of $564,500. The township is also seeking an additional $280,000 to cover road expenditures and capital improvement projects. The meeting will be held in the town hall at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 19.

The Town of Farmington will hold their Budget Meeting on Tuesday, November 25 at 7 p.m. in the town hall. Residents will consider a $671,447.01 budget. A complete copy of the budget can be found on the town website.

If you lend someone $20, and never see that person again; it was probably worth it.

Students from Kewaskum High School performed "Once Upon a Mattress" before over 1,200 people on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 7, 8 and 9. "I think that the show went off very well, the actors certainly ran it in a very professional manner. To me the attendance shows that not only are the students in the productions doing a great job, but also that the venue, the theatre is helping to draw good crowds," stated Larry Ammel who assists Director David Bertelsen.

One area man was injured in a single vehicle crash on Thursday evening, November 6 on Jay Road east of Highway 144 in the Town of Farmington. The driver of the vehicle was ejected from the vehicle and received emergency medical assistance from Boltonville First Responders, Kewaskum EMS and West Bend EMS Intercept. He was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend. Boltonville Firefighters assisted the Washington County Sheriff's Department at the scene.

Sisters of St. Agnes celebrate 150 years

The Sisters of St. Agnes are celebrating 150 years of service this year. Sunday, November 2, many of the sisters came to celebrate at Holy Trinity Church in recognition of 98 years of service to Holy Trinity School. Eight of the sisters who taught at Holy Trinity were there, as were three daughters of the parish, Sister Mary Ann Czaja, Sister Gonzaga Hron and Sister Ruth Battaglia, who entered the convent of St. Agnes.

Parish members, former students and the sisters enjoyed reminiscing about the years here and finding out what people are doing as a result of their education. The decision to leave the school was difficult, but at their number shrank it was necessary to focus on areas which most needed their services.

Sisters currently work as school administrators, care givers, and operate homeless shelters serving the need of many people around the world.

Village Notes

By Matt Heiser

Kewaskum Village Administrator

Village Code on automobiles

Recently the Village of Kewaskum has received some complaints about the storage of automobiles on private property. It might be helpful to review some village ordinances that define how automobiles may be stored.

Village Municipal Code states: Sec. 78-1. Storage of junk, etc., discarded property regulated.

(a) No person shall store junked or discarded property, including, without limitation, automobiles, automobile parts, trucks, tractors, refrigerators, furnaces, washing machines, stoves, machinery or machinery parts, wood, bricks, cement blocks, or other unsightly debris, except in an enclosure/building which houses such property from public view, or upon permit issued by the village board.

(b) The building inspector may require by written order any premises violating this section to be put in compliance within the time specified in such order and if the order is not complied with, may issue a citation for such violation of this section or proceed to abate the nuisance pursuant to sections 58-6--58-8, or both.

Sec. 90-96. Parking Regulated.

(a) Parking limits.

(3) No vehicle (motorized or non-motorized) may remain parked in any one location on any village street, without a permit, for longer than 24 consecutive hours unless such vehicle is moved a minimum of 100 feet (pursuant to § 349.13(1)(c), Wis. Stats.).

Sec. 90-98. Abandoned vehicles.

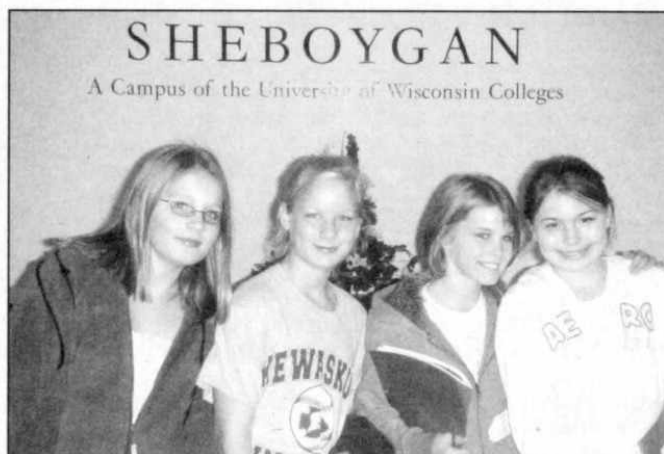

(a) Definitions. The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this section, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this subsection, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Abandoned vehicle means any vehicle, licensed or unlicensed, remaining on any street, highway or road in the village for more than 48 hours without the written permission of the chief of police or his authorized agent.

In addition to our local ordinances the village is also charged with enforcing state law. The state of Wisconsin requires all vehicles to be registered. If anyone has an unregistered vehicle on their property they could receive a citation.

Hopefully this will help people when they consider where and how to store automobiles on their property. If you have multiple vehicles on your property please remember your neighbors and do your best to remove them.

Lions seek designs for pin to commemorate football season

The Kewaskum Lions Club would like to congratulate the Kewaskum Indians Football Team on another great season. The club would like to show their appreciation by holding another pin design contest for all of Kewaskum School District.

The club is seeking a design for a pin to commemorate the outstanding season of the football team. There will be a $250 cash prize for the design chosen. That design will then be made into a pin and be distributed to the players and coaches and be sold to anyone who wants one. Contest open to all Kewaskum

School District students K-12. The design must include these things:

- The Lions International logo (which can be found online at www.lionsclubs.org), Kewaskum WI District 27-A2.
- Kewaskum Indians Football EWC Champs (with final record).

The pin design does not have to be circular, entrants should be creative.

Entries must be received by December 5, 2008. The winning design will be chosen on December 9.

"We would like this design to be more about the success of the football team than about the Lions, include the required Lions information but it can be smaller," stated member Brian Kleinke.

"We are looking for a design that represents Kewaskum and Lionism," Kleinke continued.

Send entries to: Kewaskum Lions Club, PO Box 642, Kewaskum WI, 53040 Your entry must include your name, phone number, e-mail address and which Kewaskum school you are enrolled at.

More information is available at: www.kewaskumlionsclub.org

New area codes planned for those in 920, 715 areas

MADISON - With Wisconsin's 715 and 920 area codes projected to run out of available phone numbers near the end of 2011, the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin (PSC) ordered relief for both areas by means of an overlay. Area code 715 will have an overlay of new area code 534, while area code 920 will have an overlay of new area code 274.

With an overlay, a new area code is introduced within the same geographic region as the existing area code. All existing customers will keep their current area code and telephone numbers. Eventually new telecommunications providers and new customers to the area may be assigned telephone numbers with the new area code. With an overlay, because both area codes reside within the same geographic area, all local calls must be dialed using the area code and the 7-digit telephone number (10-digit dialing). This 10-digit dialing requirement is mandated by the Federal Communications Commission. The option to an overlay, not selected by the PSC, was a geographic split. With a split, each area would have been divided and about half the customers in 715 and 920 would have needed to change their existing area code.

It is currently anticipated that the new 534 area code will be introduced in the 715 area in the summer of 2010. The new 274 code in the 920 area may be implemented in late 2011. The introduction of the new area codes has no impact on rates for local or long distance calling. Some customers may need to adjust automatic dialers, alarm systems, internal phone systems or call forwarding arrangements to accommodate the 10-digit dialing requirement.

In recent years, the prevalence of technology in everyday life has increased tremendously, causing an elevated demand for telecommunications services. The elevated demand encompasses new providers such as wireless cell phone companies and competing telephone companies as well as computer technology, OnStar, and security alarm systems services.

Area code 608 is projected to run out of available numbers in 2016, with the 262 area code expected to exhaust in 2022 and area code 414 in the year 2032. The PSC has been addressing area code exhaust in the 715 and 920 area codes for over a year.

Conflicts with their former landlord and the need for more space sparked Wendell Weisensel and Sarah Steir, owners of the formally named Rustic Inn of Kewaskum, to move seven miles away from Kewaskum to the Mauthe Lake area and in one of the area's most historical restaurant buildings.

Taking up residency in the former Forest House, which has a rich history in the area as The Bar N Annex, Weisensel and Steir will open as the Forest Lake Pub and Grill on Saturday.

Forest Lake Pub and Grill is five times larger than the Rustic Inn was. Owner of the property, Alice Linnabury, and her family gave an extreme makeover to the building just a few years ago which brought back the rustic charm to the historical structure.

"What they were running was a high end restaurant," Steir said of the Forest House. "We are doing what we know how to do best, which is to keep it a bar/tavern type atmosphere, with really good food."

With the added space, the dining room will be larger and separated from the bar area, which will have tables as well. The bar area will be the smoking area in the restaurant, which will seat about 50 people.

The added space also will bring more entertainment to the place. Between the bar area and non-smoking dining area will be pool tables and other amusements. Weisensel said they plan to put video games around the bar and sponsor different leagues.

Steir said the Rustic Inn was dubbed, "The best burgers in town." Forest Lake Pub and Grill will be: "The best burgers around." Steir said actually the burgers at the new place will be even better because they now have a char grill to cook them on.

"It's a very lean, half-pound burger," Steir said. "When it cooks we keep it nice and moist with olive oil and season it."

Forest Lake Pub and Grill has added more to the menu as well. Prime Rib will be served on the weekends. They have also added homemade pizza and will again serve their famous broasted chicken and baby back ribs. Their Friday fish fry will also return. Weisensel said their infamous Reuben sandwich would also still be served.

Forest Lake Pub and Grill is located at N1870 Highway

GGG in rural Campbellsport, near New Prospect. They will be open seven days a week. Monday through Thursday the kitchen is open until nine p.m. Fridays through Sundays it will be open until 10 p.m. Lunch is served until 4 p.m.

"We appreciate the patronage the public gave us at the Rustic and we are looking forward to see them out here," Weisensel said. "We are going to make sure the food quality is as good or better."

Steir said it will be a relaxed atmosphere, but it will not be a supper club. For more information call (920) 533-3253.

Happy Thanksgiving

Give thanks for pie

It's true — the kitchen is the heart of the home. Ever notice how people always gather there? Whether baking treats, making dinner or spending time with family and friends, the kitchen is my favorite place to be. Since my day job is Senior Culinary Specialist for the Nestlé Test Kitchens, you can bet I love to stir things up. This column lets me pass along to you some of my best recipes, tips and baking secrets.

(Family Features) Thanksgiving is just not complete without a pumpkin pie—it's the most treasured tradition on my holiday table. Amidst the flurry of activity on Thanksgiving morning, I'm glad that my pumpkin pies are make-ahead easy, desserts just waiting to delight us.

It's hard to top the traditional Libby's Famous Pumpkin Pie recipe, which has been on the label for over 50 years. This pumpkin custard has the perfect creamy taste created by the blend of pumpkin and evaporated milk and allows the time-honored spice blend to come through. For a cool twist on tradition, Easy Pumpkin Cream Pie is an easy, luscious pie with the flavors of the season in a cool, creamy dessert.

Make your holiday table its festive best with my top pie tips:

- Plan to make your crust ahead of time. Before rolling out, wrap in plastic and refrigerate for several hours or overnight. Remove dough

They'll treasure your baking tips and ensure the family's pie heritage.

- Pies generally serve 8. But do as I do—make and serve more than one kind of pie—and you'll find everyone wants a sliver of each! So you can "stretch" a pie further that way.

- Remember that "pie tomorrow"—leftover—is always welcome!

from your refrigerator when you start to make pie filling.

- Practice "mise en place"—measure everything for your pies and have them at hand before starting to bake.

- If you're a seasoned pie baker, start a sweet tradition by baking pumpkin pies with younger family members.

WBHS to present 'Go Ask Alice'

West Bend High Schools Drama Club is taking on a serious play with educational, as well as entertainment, value. They are in final preparations for their production of "Go Ask Alice."

The play, set in 1968 and loosely based on the book Go Ask Alice, is a powerful depiction of 16 year old Alice Aberdeen's tragic journey into drug addiction. The high school group is working in cooperation with The Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse, as well as West Bend ACTS, and the West Bend Police Dept., to make it as realistic and accurate as possible. The production stretches the skills and approaches of the actors, taking them into serious and challenging material relevant to their own age group and time. It is their hope that families will attend and use the play as a catalyst for beginning conversations about the very real threats that exist in the lives of all children. When speaking of the sacrifice required to produce a show of this magnitude, one high school student said, "If it saves one kid, it's worth it."

Performances will be held at West Bend High School Auditorium Friday, November 21, at 7pm and Saturday November 22, at 1pm and 7pm. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for students and seniors. They are available at the high school bookkeeper's office, M&I Banks in West Bend, or at the ticket window before the show. In addition, for each show, the first 150 students entering with a parent or other significant adult, will receive a $5 gift certificate to a local business.

Little Folks School House holds family fun night

The Little Folks School House recently hosted their second annual Family Fun Night. The event took place at the child care facility with 195 parents and children in attendance. Pizza and home-baked desserts were served. Parents were invited to view artwork done by the children which was displayed throughout the center. Each classroom hosted a variety of events such as face painting, a book fair, tee shirt sales, door prizes, and freebies. Parents were also able to view and purchase their child's photographs which had been taken two weeks earlier. The main attraction of the evening was a magic show performed by Rick Allen Productions. Rick invited audience participation as he performed his magic tricks and illusions. The children were especially excited when he produced a live rabbit, a live bird, and levitated a child.

Dodie Sargent, owner of the Little Folks School House, was very pleased with the success of Family Fun Night. It provided an opportunity for parents to get to know other parents, mingle with their child's caregivers, and also for parents to see their children interact with their everyday playmates.

Little Folks would like to thank the staff who put so much into the planning of this event as well as adult volunteers: Dustin Melzark and Glenn Albinger, student volunteers: Jarret Sargent, Joe Kurer, and Katie Dean, and Magician, Rick Allen.

Anyone interested in enrolling their child at The Little Folks School House should call Dodie or Jennifer at (262) 626-4023. Little Folks is a great place to be!

HT students learn about fairy tales from around the world

The third grade students at Holy Trinity are reading fairy tales. So far, they have been working on comparing the story of Little Red Riding Hood to Lon Po Po, which is a Chinese version of Little Red Riding Hood. After reading Lon Po Po, the students turned the story into a play, props and all, and performed their plays for other classes at Holy Trinity.

Halloween fun at area schools

ABOVE: Mrs. Hanschke's first graders along with their big buddies, and Ms. Flaherty's third graders, enjoyed a Halloween activity together. Ms. Flaherty invited their little buddies to her room and shared a homemade photostory that her students helped her make for her KU class, Digital Storytelling, taught by Tiffany Zarling. The photo story was entitled Our Hopes and Dreams. Third graders shared what their hopes were for the school year and their dreams for the future. It was projected through the computer onto a screen, incorporating photos, drawings, students' voices and music. This video show may also be seen by going to Ms. Flaherty's website and clicking on Our Hopes and Dreams. After the show students worked on word puzzles together, ate a treat and admired each other's costumes. TOP RIGHT AND RIGHT: Farmington Elementary School (FES) was home to a variety of ghosts, goblins, monsters and characters on Wednesday, October 29, during its annual Halloween Party hosted by the FES PTO. Fun activities included cookie and pumpkin decorating, Halloween bingo, the witch's kettle of goodies and your chance to have your picture taken in the spooky graveyard coffin. It was a ghoulishly good time for all FES families who attended this free event.

KHS seniors Amanda Kleppin and Amanda Meyer, and junior Tasha Wagner helped introduce a service project to Mr. Gonwa's Language Arts Class by collecting aluminum tabs for the Ronald McDonald House. The Ronald McDonald House is a place for families to stay when a loved one is staying at a hospital. Throughout the country there are many Ronald McDonald Houses. Locally there is one across the street from Children's Hospital of Wisconsin. "I know of a number of children from our school district who have benefited from the services of Children's Hospital and the nearby Ronald McDonald House," Gonwa stated. The Ronald McDonald House is run on donations and our class feels that they can make a difference and help. We are helping by collecting aluminum tabs that are given to Ronald McDonald Charities to support their houses. The class was tasked with creating a place to collect tabs and writing an announcement that motivates their peers to collect and bring in tabs. The KHS students created a beautiful container to collect aluminum tabs. Gonwa's students have responded by creating many wonderful containers of their own and some students wrote very creative ads for morning announcements. The community is invited to help by filling the containers by dropping your aluminum tabs at Mr. Gonwa's room in Kewaskum Middle School.

KEWASKUM CAREER ACADEMY

The first semester is considered a success for many KCA Students - With one semester under their belts, many Kewaskum Career Academy students are learning what it feels like to be successful in their high school careers. Two seniors are already finishing up their final projects and will soon be the first KCA graduates for 2009. Since the Career Academy is a self-paced program, students can work at their own pace and some seniors are taking advantage of this concept to achieve a high school diploma and move on to either early college admission or start their careers in the workplace. In October, all students visited Moraine Park Technical College and got a first-hand view of what college life may be like. All the students were given enrollment information and some have already applied for early admission in January or September, 2009. Many of them were surprised at the number of programs now offered at Moraine Park and that a technical college can provide them with a jump start on their careers. Other KCA seniors have started their application process to some two or four year UW colleges. One senior, Erika Martin, has applied at UWWC and is very excited about her future college plans. She plans on pursuing a career in fashion design. "I plan on graduating early and attending UWWC for two years. After that, I hope to go to UW-Stout to finish my degree. I want to become a successful fashion designer and hopefully have a career that involves traveling to New York or other fashion industry cities."

KES fourth graders explore the world of the whitetail deer

Throughout the month of October and November fourth grade students at KES have been studying Wisconsin animals, especially the whitetail deer. They have been exploring an interactive hands-on kit called the World of the whitetail Deer from CESA 6. With this kit, students are learning about the various parts of a deer and how past Native American tribes used them. They also participate in a series of stations, which allow students to understand adaptations of a whitetail, allowing them to survive in the forests of Wisconsin. Students also talk about the year's cycle of the deer and how to recognize deer tracks. Students have really enjoyed learning about Wisconsin's state wildlife animal.

Thanksgiving: The True Story

by Penny Colman

Henry Holt $18.95 160 pages

The size of a basketball hoop. As big as a tire.

Or... larger than a bike rim. No, wait - the size of a small planet. That's how big your plate will be this Thanksgiving because just thinking of all that food makes you really hungry.

Ever since Halloween ended, you've been learning about Thanksgiving in school. Maybe you spent time in Art class drawing pictures of Pilgrim men with silver-buckled hats, women with white aprons, and Indian guests with feathers in their hair.

What would you say if you found out that might all be wrong? Read more in the new book "Thanksgiving: The True Story" by Penny Colman.

For many years, schools have taught that the Pilgrims landed the Mayflower on Plymouth Rock and had a feast to celebrate. They invited Massasoit and his people, and they served turkey and corn, pumpkin pie and bread. And it all happened in 1621, right?

Certain people in Texas say no. Some in Florida and Virginia don't believe it, either. Some historians claim that "official" Thanksgiving feasts were celebrated elsewhere, long before Pilgrims even thought about sailing across the ocean. Pilgrims, by the way, wore brightly colored clothing and probably never had buckles on their hats.

Believe it or not, the United States didn't have an "official" Thanksgiving until Sarah Josepha Hale made it a personal mission to give us one. Hale firmly believed that Americans needed to unite on a holiday of gratitude. Over many years, she wrote hundreds of letters to influential government officials in support of a nation-wide Day of Thanks.

Finally, on October 3, 1863, Abraham Lincoln proclaimed the last Thursday of November to be Thanksgiving Day. Almost 80 years later, Franklin Delano Roosevelt changed the date to the fourth Thursday, after pressure from store owners.

So what will you and your family do on Thanksgiving? For most of us, it's not Turkey Day without the turkey, but "traditional" dishes vary from family to family. You might watch football after feasting, but cheering for your team is a tradition that's less than 60 years old. And you might be surprised to know that very early celebrations were quiet and serious with no games and no socializing. Some people even tried to pass laws making it illegal to have fun on Thanksgiving!

Does your little turkey love Thanksgiving? If so, this book will be a big hit at your feast this year.

Using personal and historical accounts, interviews, and newspaper articles from the past, author Penny Colman shows kids how Thanksgiving has evolved into the cherished holiday we know today. She explains how myths, mistruths, and traditions got their starts and she uncovers little-known facts that children will love to repeat at the kids table. Best of all, Colman doesn't "talk down" to her readers, which teachers, parents and kids will appreciate.

If your 9-to-16-year-old loves learning about holidays, cultural traditions, or might just want to read something appropriate for the season, look for this book. "Thanksgiving: The True Story" is a book they'll gobble up.

Kids Safety Bulletin Safety in Retail Establishments

By: Don C. Keenan

With the holidays fast approaching, shopping is on just about everybody's to-do list.

Retail establishments generally do everything they can to keep their customers and their merchandise safe. Unfortunately, their efforts are sometimes not enough, especially when the wrong-doer is targeting a child.

Keep in mind there are no laws or regulations requiring retail stores to provide safety measure to help prevent child abductions, molestations or abuse.

It's important to remember these tips when shopping with your children:

1. Do not rely on the security of the retail establishment: Usually there are only one or two security officers available, and they tend to look for individuals who appear guilty of theft - not kidnapping or harassment.

2. Do not park your car where you are blocked in on both sides or could be easily trapped: Criminals in parking lots will look for areas where victims could be trapped or not seen clearly by other shoppers. Also, be sure to only park in well lit areas.

3. Don't be distracted by the surroundings and never lose site of your child: While there are many demands and distractions during shopping, don't let your child wander or leave him/her alone. Take them with you to try on clothes, accompany them to the bathroom, and so on.

4. Avoid large crowds: Easier said than done, but remember it is easy to become distracted or to get separated in large crowds. It is also much easier for thieves to pick pocket.

Don Keenan, founder of the Keenan's Kids Foundation, has published a book on child safety titled, 365 Ways to Keep Kids Safe, which is available at www.balloonpress.com or at www.amazon.com. All proceeds benefit the Keenan's Kids Foundation.

Dance team trying to become a sport

By Pat Neumuth
Statesman Sports Editor
patrick@kewaskumstatesman.com

As of now the Kewaskum High School dance team is considered a competitive club, but the girls on the team are trying to make it an official WIAA sport in Kewaskum.

Dance coach Kim Tesch is new to the area, but not knew to dance. Tesch has 20 years of experience coaching both cheerleading and pom squads. Tesch was coaching Gridiron cheerleaders before she heard there was an opening with the dance team.

This is the first time Tesch has been a dance coach for a club and not a sport.

"I need to figure out the steps to take to make it be a sport," Tesch said.

Juniors Lisa Schulz, Megan Nickel, Ashley Jones and Mandi Forbes are doing their parts to try and become a sport.

The dance team already does much of the same as sport teams at the high school. They practice Tuesday through Thursday from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. Most clubs at Kewaskum High School have practices on and off. The dance team also follows the high school's athletic code.

"If you do get caught with alcohol or drugs, you are off the team or suspended," Jones said. "So I think with us following the rules that the sports follows, we should be considered a sport."

Tesch said she tries to incorporate as many dance styles for routines as possible. Right now, the team is working on a hip-hop routine. The last routine the team did at the football game was a modern pom routine geared around football. The next routine Tesch wants to introduce is a jazz routine.

"We are all interested in different style of dances, so we try to hit all of the dance styles for each girl," Tesch said.

The girls collaborate on what music is chosen for the routines. Nickel said they put the music together by listening to each song and see if they can free-style dance to the song. If they are having trouble, then they do not use that song.

The girls are torn on what season they like the best. Nickel and Jones like the football season because there are more people watching. Schulz likes dancing during basketball because of the hip-hop dance style incorporated with basketball.

"People can actually see your facial expressions and see you up close," Forbes said about why she prefers the upcoming basketball season.

vascular workout. The girls said it the most enjoyable way to exercise.

"It's like a workout, instead of going to workout in the fitness center," Jones said.

"They were very sore the first week," Tesch added.

The team really gets along with each other. Forbes said the team is tighter this year, than any other year. Schulz, Nickel and Jones have been on a dance team since eighth grade and Forbes started her freshman year.

"Yes, the dance team brings people together," Schultz joked.

The team currently has 10 members on the team. Today, they are holding tryouts to expand their team. Tesch said the requirements to join are to love to dance and want to work hard dancing.

Last year, the team was able to go to two competitions and went to a dance camp. Tesch is going to try and get them to more competitions.

Preview: Waupaca, Level four

By Pat Neumuth
Statesman Sports Editor
patrick@kewaskumstatesman.com

This Kewaskum football team is familiar with playing football in mid-November. This is the fourth year in a row the Indians have been to level four of the division three playoffs.

This year, the Indians must go through Waupaca to become state bound.

Head coach Jason Piittmann said Waupaca uses a lot of formations on both sides of the ball.

"They are very diverse," Piittmann said. "They throw the ball a lot. They run well."

"They'll run some option, I-formation stuff, single back. They'll spread it out. They'll run an unbalanced line. They'll run trips, five wide. You name it, you'll see it."

With the many different formations, Piittmann said he will be running many looks at the defense during practice. The defensive secondary has their work cut out for them, since Waupaca likes to pass more than run. Piittmann said the linebackers will have to adjust the most in case of five wide looks.

Their passing game will dictate on if Kewaskum will run man defense or zone. Piittmann said Waupaca showed a lot of quick outs and crossing patterns. Look for Kewaskum to mix up their coverage between both.

Waupaca has talent in the backfield. Running back Michael Solberg is a punishing runner with good quickness. Quarterback Brock Jensen is a big kid at 6-foot-3, 208 pounds.

Waupaca's defense also has many different looks. Film shows Waupaca has shown a four, split six and five man defensive line fronts.

"We've seen a variety of offenses against them," Piittmann said. "My guess is we will probably see a split six. It's hard to say."

The split six has four tight linemen with walk up outside linebackers as kind of like stand up defensive ends.

"There's always going to be pressure. When you get to this level, I don't care if it's your first time or 15th time," Piittmann said about if the team is feeling pressure about this game and advancing. "The good news is the kids have been no where else the last three years, so fourth time will hopefully be a charm."

"You know Waupaca has been here too, though. They won the state championship two years ago. So their kids are experienced as well."

Piittmann is hoping the one in the afternoon game time will bring better weather in the daylight. The field conditions will always be the same because they will be playing on artificial field turf. The field turf is similar to grass. Players will be able to wear their normal cleats.

Quarterback Nick Olla and the rest of the team are ready to redeem themselves with what happened last year.

"He's just a determined young man," Piittmann said of Olla. "He wants to be successful no matter what he does. I have him in class right now too and you give him a test and he more than prepares for it. He'll more than prepare for this game."

"He'll do whatever in his power to do that, but he knows it's going to take 10 other teammates on the field at one time to make everything work, too."

Waupaca is a No. 1 seeded undefeated champions of the Eastern Valley Conference. Waupaca beat New London 45-0, Mosinee 41-20 and Lakeland 24-0, respectively to make it to level four.

Saturday's kickoff is at the high school and college shared field. The field is located actually behind the middle school. Parking is best at the high school, which is about a block way from the field. It is a one in the afternoon start.

DeGroots have two daughters in NCAA vball event

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

The DeGroot girls, Danielle and Christina, teammates for a year at Kewaskum High School, sisters and friends forever, might find themselves in a rare situation of facing each other on the volleyball court this Friday in the NCAA Division 3 Volleyball Tournament.

That's right, if Danielle's St. Norbert's team defeats Carthage College and Christina and her UW-Whitewater team knock off Calvin College in opening-round matches on Thursday, the two sisters will be opponents in the second round.

The matches will all be held at the Kolf Fieldhouse on the UW-Oshkosh campus. The St. Norbert-Carthage match will take place at 3:30 p.m., right after the 1 p.m. clash involving the Warhawks and Calvin.

Danielle DeGroot is a four-year starter at St. Norbert's and plays all around. She has helped the Knights to a record of 30-3 this fall. St. Norbert's received the seventh seed in the tournament.

Danielle's numbers include 195 kills in the 114 games she had played in. That averages out to 1.7 kills per game. She also has contributed 273 digs, 2.39 per game, and she is a good blocker, evidenced by the fact she has 11 solos and 44 assists for a total of 55 this fall, which figures to .48 per game.

The Lady Knight captured the Midwest Conference title with a 3-1 win over Beloit College, 26-28, 25-21, 25-19 and 25-20. This is their first appearance in the NCAA 3 Tournament since 2005.

Carthage was the winner of the Conference if Illinois and Wisconsin Tournament and is second-seeded.

Christina was recruited heavily by Whitewater while she was a standout senior at Kewaskum High School. She won all-conference honors three years in a row in the Eastern Wisconsin Conferences and once was the league's MVP.

The younger of the two sisters, who excelled at jump serving all through high school, is a freshman setter for the Warhawks. They take a mark of 29-9 into the tournament. Currently Christina is among the top 30 in the nation in serving aces. She has 84 on the year, which leads the Lady Warhawks in that category. The next highest is 35.

Christina also had assists for the year, which figures to 7.39 per game, and she has chipped in with 225 digs or roughly just over 2 per game in her first year of collegiate play.

UW-Whitewater finished fourth in the WIAC (Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference) Tournament, losing third place to UW-La Crosse.

This is the Lady Warhawks 17th consecutive appearance in the NCAA 3 competition.

Heading back to state semis

The Indian football team has reached a familiar plateau by advancing past Port Washington, 33-15, and reaching the division three state semifinal game.

"I felt pressure to get back," head coach Jason Piittmann said about reaching the state semifinal game again. "Going forward, hey, we got nothing to lose. We've been here before, we've been close."

The Indians took advantage of the turnover margin. Port Washington quarterback Josh Gasser committed four fumbles compared to one interception thrown by Indians quarterback Nick Olla.

Josh Harbin knocked the ball loose for the first Gasser fumble on the Indians 11-yard line. Zach Amerling was Johnny on the spot and fell on it for the first turnover. This was the Pirates first possession. The rest of the fumbles came in the second half.

On the first play of the second half, Gasser was not quick enough to hand the ball off to running back Zach Moeller and Eric Shaske jumped on the ball. Gasser committed another fumble close to the end zone. Gasser lost the snap on the Indians 10. The final fumble was forced by outside linebacker Eric Turowski. Turowski rushed off the edge and blind-sided Gasser with a punishing hit.

Once again, the Indians scored on their opening possession of the game, but it was unconventional. Olla completed a nine-yard swing pass on third and seven to prevent going three-and-out. Four plays later Seibel converted on a fourth and one with a four-yard run. Olla took an option keeper 49 yards on the next play.

Olla's interception did lead to Pirate points. The Indians put a 15-play drive together after the first Gasser fumble until Joe McLree picked off Olla's pass.

Marty Clarke caught a 33-yard pass from Gasser to put the Pirates in the red zone. Three plays later, Moeller punched it in from two yards out.

The Indians came right back to put themselves back in the lead. Seibel scored from one yard out. The Brian Backhaus extra-point attempt was blocked.

Kewaskum got the ball back and scored just before half. On the fourth play from scrimmage, Amerling ran a wheel route, Olla put it in stride to Amerling and he broke away from the Pirate defense to score. The 42-yard touchdown was scored with 23 seconds left in the half.

"We thought we could get a big play off them. All week we've been working on that. He laid the ball right in there," Amerling said about the play. "I seem to run faster when they are after me."

Efficiency also played a part in the Indians road to victory. The Indians were 6 for 11 on converting on third down and 3 for 4 on fourth. Two touchdowns came on a fourth down conversion.

The first was the first touchdown of the second half. On fourth and inches from the two yard line, coach Russ Cross called a play action pass and Michael Herriges was wide open in the back of the end zone for the touchdown. The other came off the legs of fullback Nathan Westerman. Fourth and two from the 12, Westerman got the option give and burst through the line for the touchdown.

"Basically it means that they rely on me," Westerman said about getting the tough yards up the middle. "It means a lot to me that way, that I can get the yards when they need me to."

The Pirates never quit. They put a 13-play, 76-yard scoring drive together late in the fourth. Moeller ran in his second touchdown of the night. This one was a four-yarder.

Fans were in jubilation after the game. Backup quarterback Cody Nuernberg's father, Gary, said after the game that it was exhilarating.

"I'm so happy. These guys have worked so hard. They are good players. They are a well-coached team. There is an excellent tradition going on here," Nuernberg said.

"For these seniors to never have lost a football game in four years here is something that can never be taken away from them. It's not only an outstanding accomplishment, but you can look back with pride on it, not just as a school or community, but as a member of this team and always remember it," said Glen Eichstedt, who is a teacher and coach at Kewaskum.

"On the field and off the field, that's what cool about this team," Jacky Herriges, mother of Michael Herriges, said. "What makes a team is what they do off the field."

"They are very competitive and a strong team. I think they had a lot going for them. I think they are definitely state bound this year," classmate Jennie Wicklund said.

"Off the field they are really great guys, super nice. Very humble, very humble. They are lucky to be in the situation and they know it," added classmate Haley Gregoriou.

All of these spectators said they will be making the trip Saturday to Ripon to see their Indians play against Waupaca at 1 p.m.

A fan bus has been coordinated, those interested should contact the High School office at 262-626-8427.

For those not able to make the trip play-by-play action will be published on our website, www.kewaskumstatesman.com. Click on "Neumuth Notes."
