Village water rates increase in April

By Mitch Maersch
mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

Village households and non-profit entities will see their water rates rise come April 1 as a result of a percentage change in how the village's water utility is reimbursed for fire protection.

Small, medium and large residential rates are slated to increase by about $7 per quarter, depending on meter size and usage. Commercial rates, dependent on the same factors, could rise from $32 to $169 per quarter.

The Wisconsin Public Service Commission each year examines municipalities' water systems and determines through a mathematical formula how much water utilities will be paid for fire protection. How that money is paid is up to the individual municipality.

The Village Board during last year's budget process approved switching the percentage from 25 percent from rate users and 75 percent from the fire department budget to 50 percent from each. That means rate users start picking up 25 percent more of the tab come April.

As a result, the fire department budget went down, though Village Administrator Mathew Heiser hadn't figured those savings for taxpayers.

"It's a shift," he said.

The village years ago paid the water utility with only money from the tax rolls. Several years ago the percentage switched to 50-50.

Heiser said most communities have switched to put the entire charge on the rate users.

A public hearing with the Public Service Commission will be held at 10 a.m. March 9 in the Municipal Building's Council Room, 204 First St. The Village Board is not required to attend and no action will take place at the hearing.

For more information, contact the village at 636-8484.

The total numbers come to

The Village of Kewaskum has approved charging $170,963 of the total $222,519 Public Fire Protection (PFP) charge to general service customers under the equivalent meter method. The PFP charge billed to the Village of Kewaskum would be reduced by 50 percent (51,556) and the remainder 50 percent ($51,556) of the existing municipal charge would be recovered from general service customers.

A small residential rate could go from $62.24 to $68.99, medium residential from $83.76 to $90.51, large residential from $151.01 to $157.50

This year, the PSC came up with $222,519 to be paid to the water utility for fire protection. With the new percentage, rate users will pay $170,963.

Scoreboard replacement at Kiwanis

By Mitch Maersch
mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

The Kiwanis Park baseball diamond used by the high school and village got the go-ahead Monday night to make two improvements this spring that won't cost the village anything beyond installation labor.

The Village Board unanimously approved the Kewaskum Athletic Club's (KAC) request to replace the concession stand and the Kewaskum Athletic Association's (KAA) request to replace the old scoreboard.

A 16x20-foot concession stand will replace the 6x6 version mostly with donations. The present stand presents problems in that concessions must be shipped to the stand and beer must be hidden during high school games, said Jason Strobel, KAC coach.

The new one would have electric hookups for coolers and a refrigerator, he said. Space would be made for bathrooms and running water but those items aren't in the plans now. Issues may arise with piping through the Department of Natural Resources since the pipes would have to run below a stream in the ground, he said.

The club is paying for the roof and some other materials. The rest - labor, excavating, concrete and two trees - are all being donated, Strobel said.

A new, 6x16-foot scoreboard will replace the present version that has problems with lights and electrics.

The new, $4,138 scoreboard will have wireless control from the dugouts and have LED lighting, said Randy Schlice, KAA president.

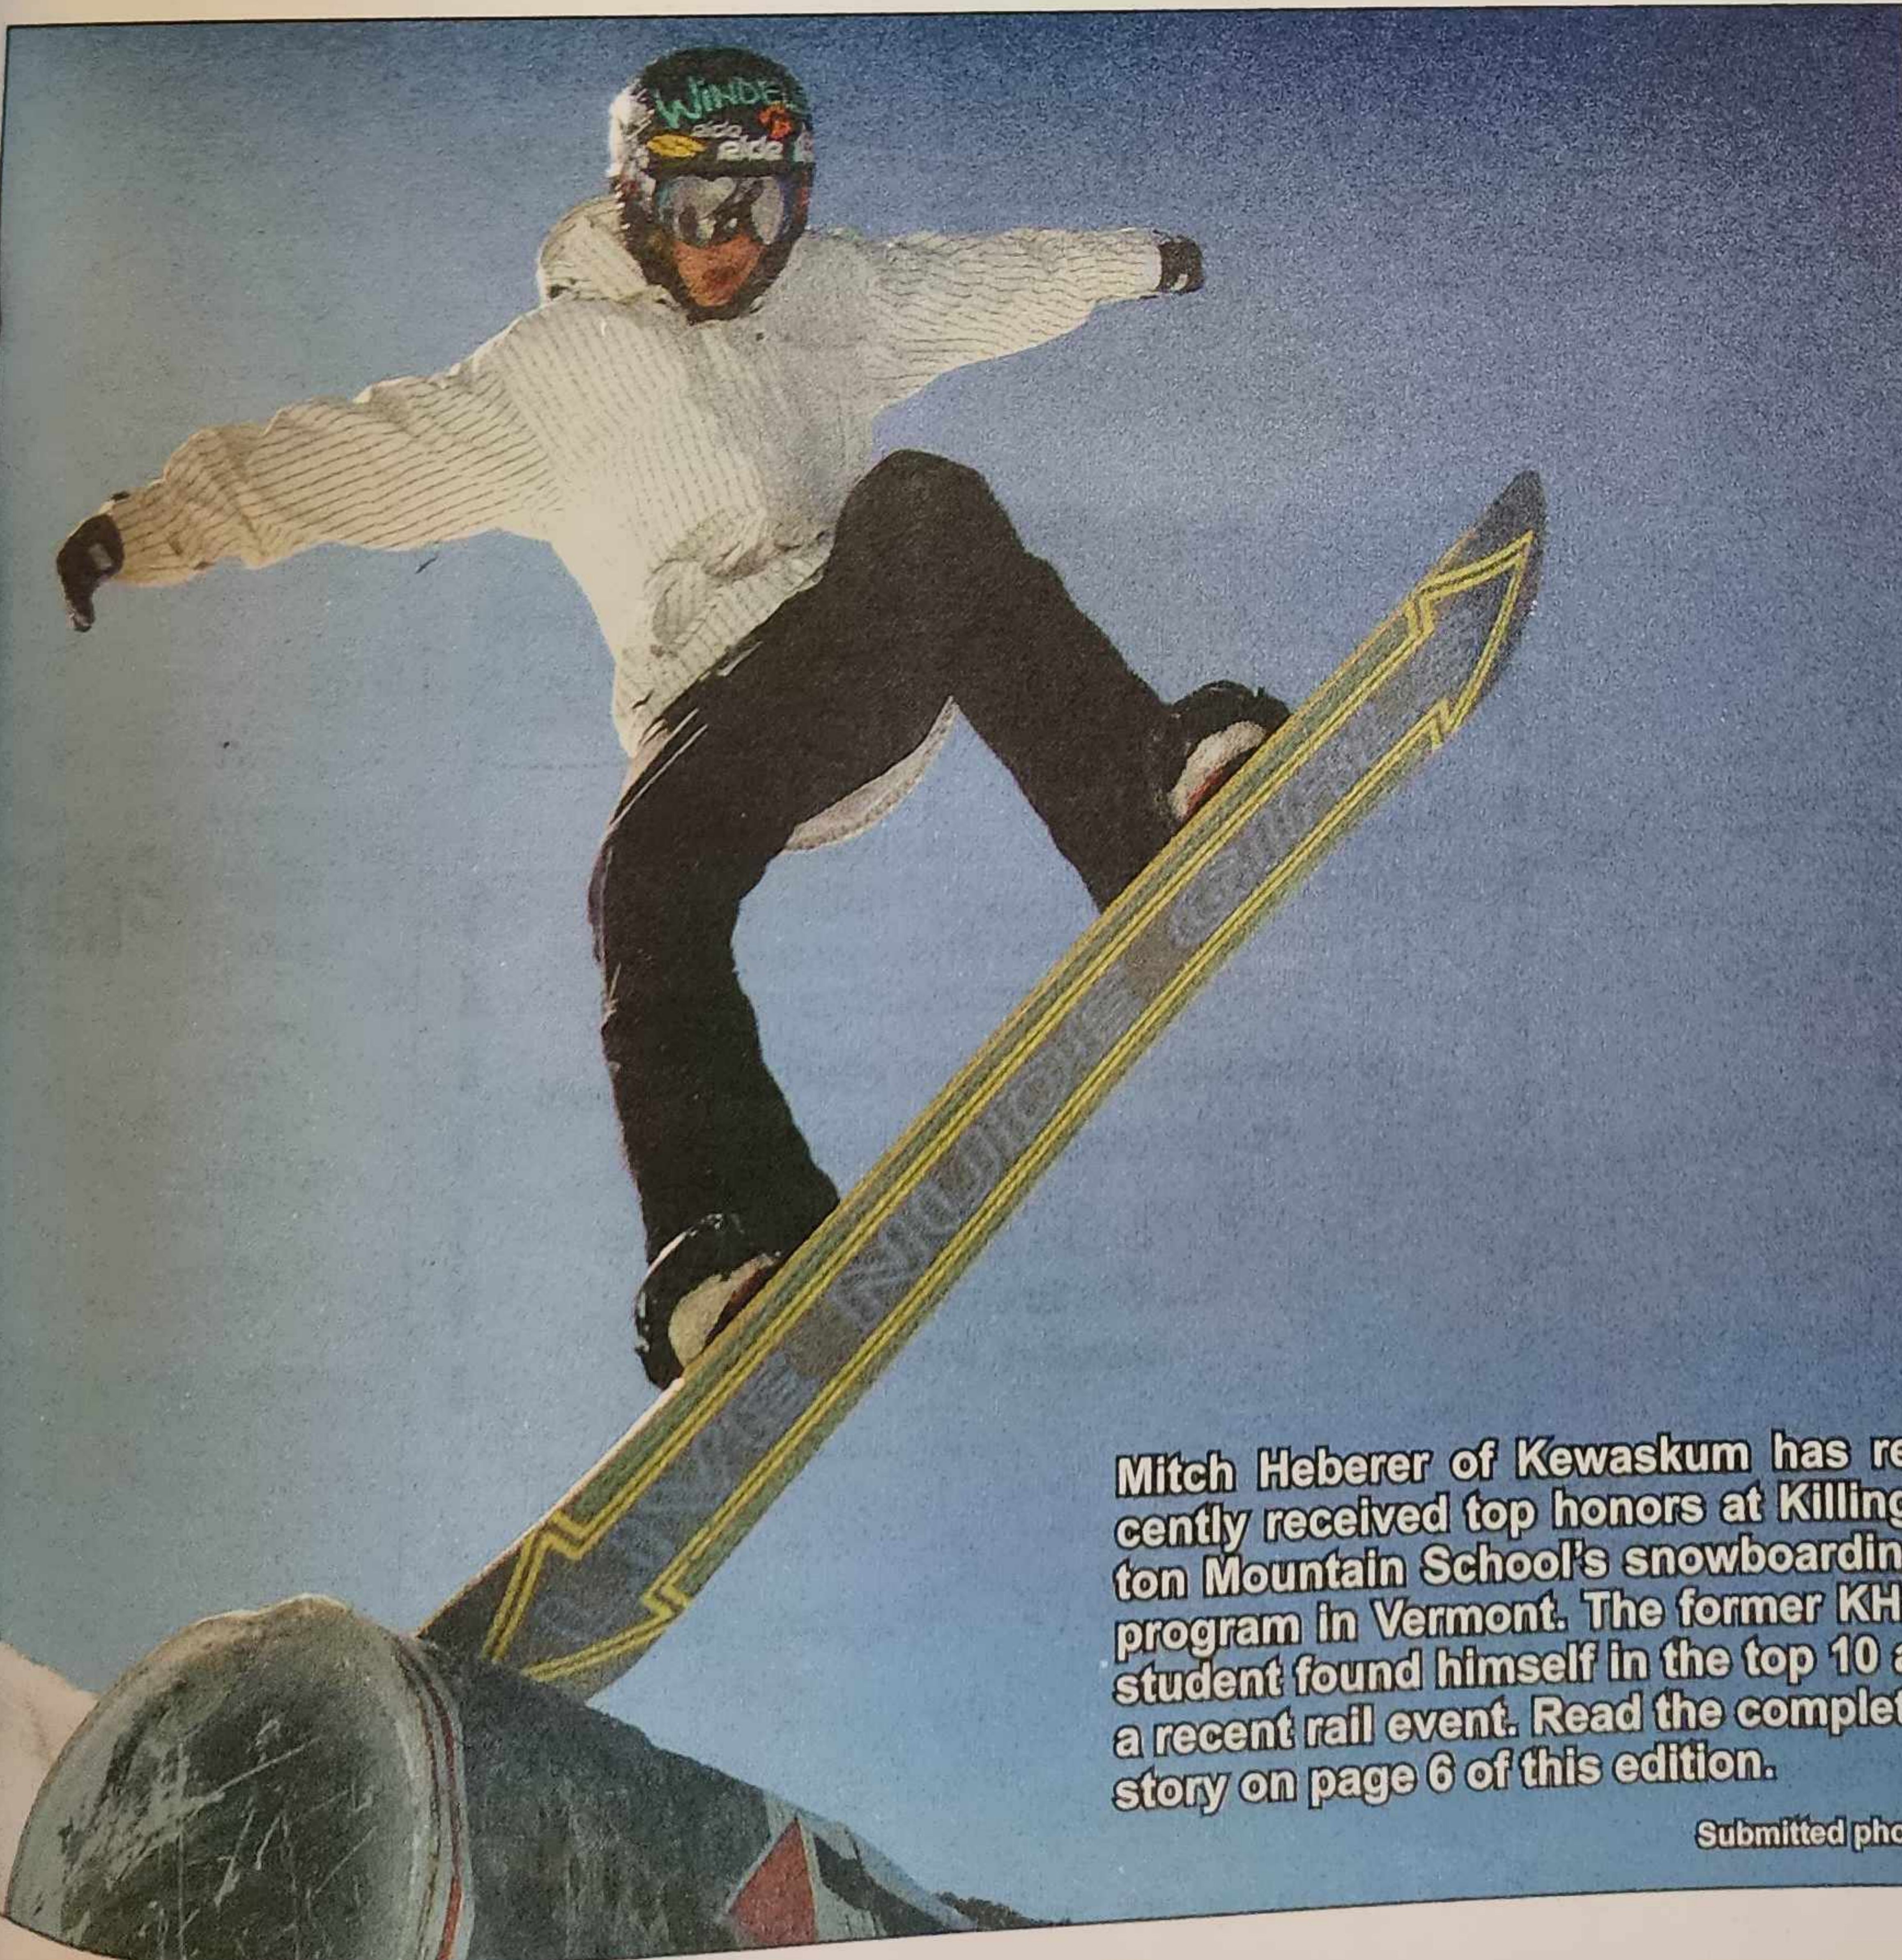

The KAA may choose the color of the scoreboard, and a 16-foot long strip on the bottom is open for a possible sponsor name. The board comes with a five-year warranty.

Schlice asked the village for help installing the scoreboard, which would be mounted around eight feet off the ground. The village has equipment that could do the job, and the board went along with the idea.

The present scoreboard is essentially trash given its problems, Schlice said.

The KAA is looking into replacing the dirt on the infield as well. Price quotes will be given at the association's March 15 meeting. Fundraising has started for the project, which Schlice expects to cost $20,000 to $30,000.

Heberer finds success in slopes

Mitch Heberer of Kewaskum has recently received top honors at Killington Mountain School's snowboarding program in Vermont. The former KHS student found himself in the top 10 at a recent rail event. Read the complete story on page 6 of this edition.

Cedar Valley Center and Spa and Cedar Home Health and Hospice welcome Author Judy Walz, MSN, RN for a one-day workshop on Healthy Choices: Wellness, Stress Management & Self Improvement for the Caregiver on Saturday, Feb. 27 from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at Cedar Valley Center and Spa, 5349 County Road D, West Bend. The one-day workshop is $50 per person and includes the program, materials, refreshments and lunch.

Overnight packages, $107.50 single occupancy or $175 double occupancy, are also available and include the program, materials, refreshments, three meals, overnight accommodations with private bath, access to the beautiful grounds of Cedar Valley and 10 percent discount on any spa treatment (advance appointment only).

Wellness has a 'multiplier effect.' What we decide to 'take in' (thoughts, emotions, spiritual hydration and food), how we digest it, use the energy and what we 'release' all determine wellness. This program will focus on caring for the caregiver before burnout occurs. Caregivers will develop alternative responses to life stressors and develop a personalized program of stress management through inner reflection, relaxation and connection.

A certified psychotherapist, Judy Walz, MSN, RN, is author of "Quick Fixes to Change Your Life: Making Healthy Choices." She has 30 years of clinical experience in nursing, counseling and education and specializes in self-concept modification, self-valuation, stress management, health consultation and nutritional counseling.

For more information or to register for the workshop, please call 262.629.9202 or email cvcinfo@cedarcommunity.org. Visit cedarvalleycenter.org for details and a workshop agenda.

Cedar Valley, a division of Cedar Community, is nestled in the Kettle Moraine, located on a 100-acre property, featuring 24 overnight guest rooms and conference rooms with a country-styled dining room and homemade meals. Cedar Valley Center is a great getaway location for personal use, business and religious retreats and family reunions.

Village Board Briefs

ATVs on Eisenbahn approved by Village Board

Taking all-terrain vehicles on the village's portion of the Eisenbahn Trail passed one of three hurdles Monday night as the Village Board approved an ordinance similar to its restrictions on snowmobiles.

Terms of the ordinance include state traffic laws, regulating speed to 10 mph or the posted limit and no ATV operation between 2-6 a.m.

The ordinance can be undone by the board if problems should arise. Given that, Trustee Kevin Scheunemann said he supported the ordinance. The board approved it, 6-1. Norman Kufahl voted against.

ATV usage must pass the Department of Natural Resources and the Washington County Planning, Conservation and Parks Committee before riders make take to the trail in the village. It is unknown if or when those entities will take up the issue.

Committee member/Board salaries discussed

An ordinance adjusting Village Board member compensation to only pay committee members to attend committee meetings could be approved at the next board meeting.

The ordinance was introduced at Monday night's meeting. Village President Andrew Pesch likes to wait to approve ordinances at a later meeting to give time for the board and public to mull them over.

The ordinance maintains trustees' pay at $1,500 per year and the president's pay at $2,000. It keeps the $51-per-day payment for Village Board members attending full-day educational workshops and $25.50 for half-days.

The change comes in attending committee meetings. The present ordinance pays board members $30 each for attending board and committee meetings such as the Plan Commission whether they are members or not. The new ordinance only allows for paying committee members who attend.

The board expects to approve the ordinance before this April's election but won't put it into effect until after the April 2011 election. That way the ordinance impacts all board members at the same time rather than half one year and half the other, given the election cycle. Board members' salaries are not allowed to be changed during the middle of their terms of office.

Peace Church young adults spend Christmas break building houses

Shown above is the group from Peace Church in Kewaskum that traveled to Alabama with Habitat for Humanity. RIGHT: The group working on the roof of one of the homes.

Thirteen young adults and two other adults from Kewaskum spent part of their Christmas break, in Mobile, Alabama building a house for Habitat for Humanity. They worked with the Alabama affiliate from January 1, 2010 through January 8, 2010.

In addition to donating their time and energy to help build houses, Peace United Church of Christ donated $1000.00 to Mobile Habitat to build the home they helped construct as well as future homes in the area.

The group consisted of ; Pastor Eric Kirkegaard, Sheri Rehn, Clayton Stoffel, Eric Ogi, Evan Bretzmann, Jake Imler, Jake Turowski, John Grant, Julianne Mason, Kaitlyn Ogi, Kyle Stoffel, Megan Ogi, Stephen Kattar and Nick Shiley.

Students were helping the local community as they help others build new homes, new hope and new lives. The majority of students involved with the Young Adult Habitat program are active members of Peace United Church of Christ and the others are college friends. This program allows students the opportunity to bring back skills, experiences and enthusiasm to share with the rest of their community

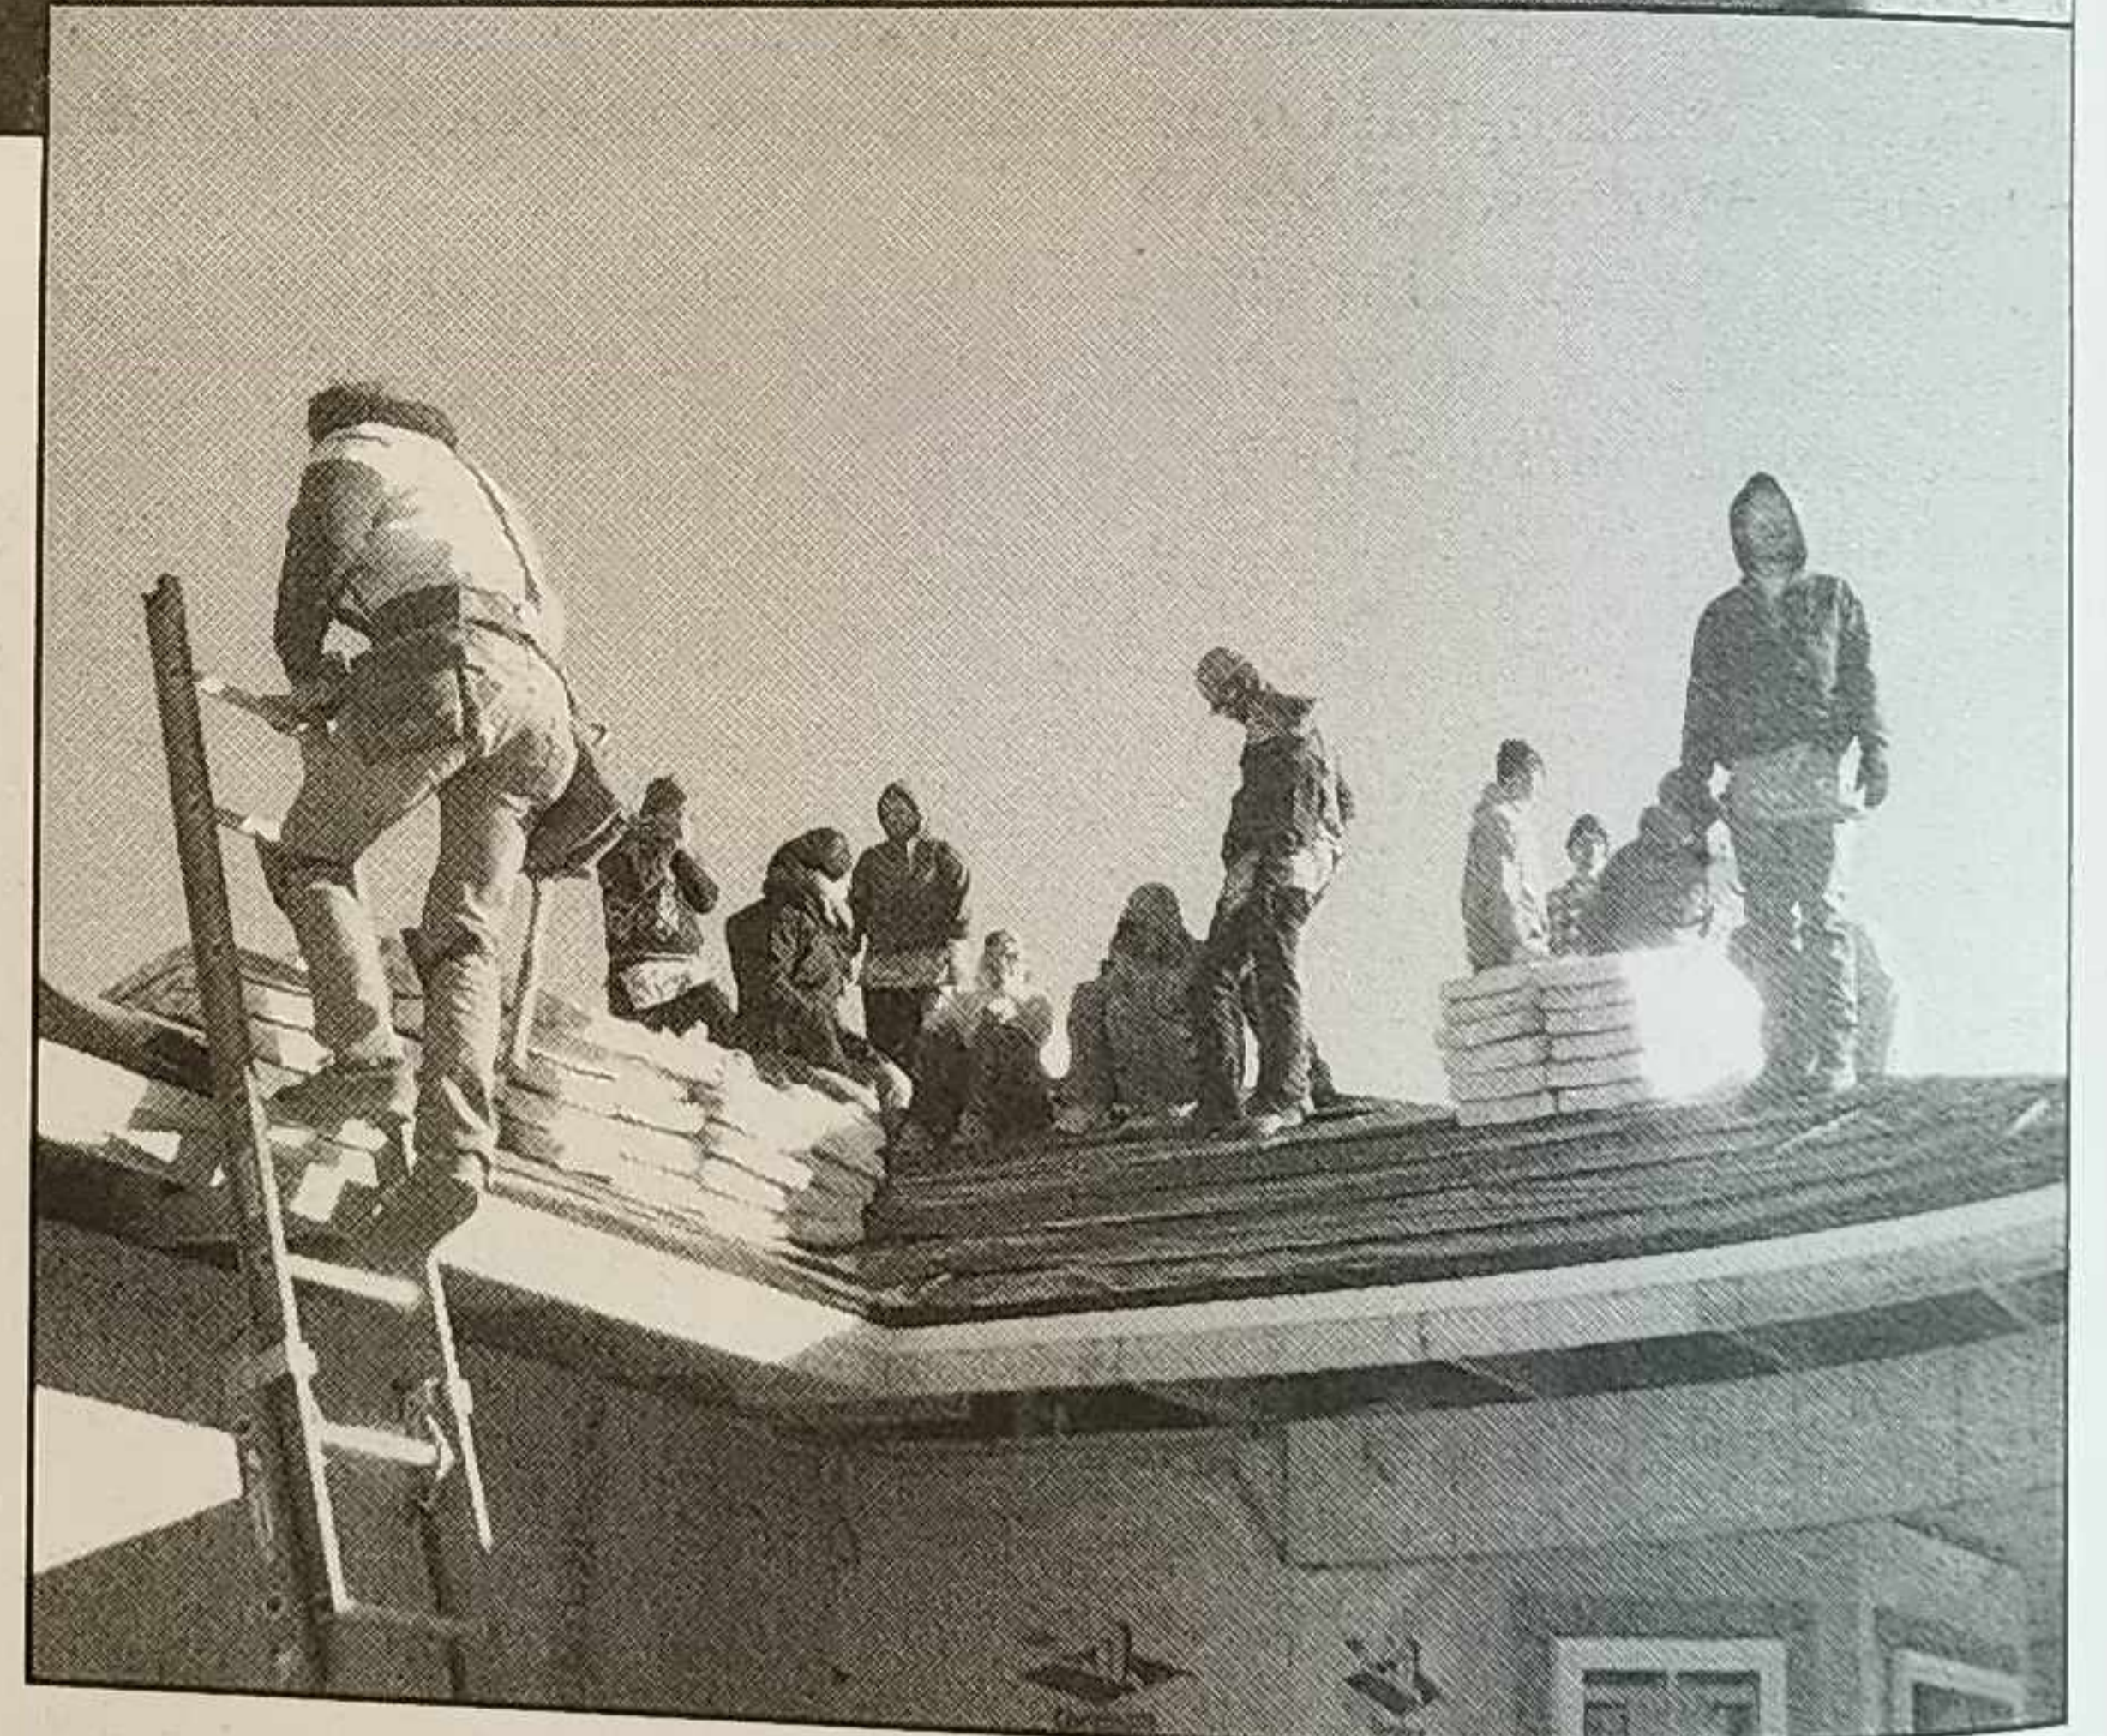

This is the 6th year that Peace U.C.C has sent a college group to a southern state to work on a Habitat for Humanity house. Habitat is a Christian organization that builds houses for families in need. It is in no way a giveaway program. The family does have to pay a no interest mortgage to the Habitat affiliate and also put in from 250 - 500 hours of sweat equity.

This coming June, Peace UCC will be sending a youth group up to Michigan for a week to work on another Habitat project. They are always accepting area youth to join them. The only requirement is that they are at least 14 years old.

In July, their adult Habitat group will also be going to Michigan for a week to work on a Habitat project. If you've ever thought that you'd like to volunteer to build a house, now is the time to sign up. You don't even have to have construction skills, just a willingness to help others.

For more information, please contact Peace United Church of Christ at 626-4011 or Karen Kletti at 334-0227.

Heberer lands in top 10 at recent rail jam event in New Hampshire

KILLINGTON, VT— Killington Mountain School's (KMS) Mitch Heberer, of Kewaskum, and Alex Kass, of Pewaukee, teamed up to find their way into the top 10 at a recent rail jam event held at Waterville Valley in New Hampshire. Heberer took fifth, earning himself an invitation to the year-end championship event April 24 at Mammoth Mountain in California.

"Mitch threw down strong consistent tricks on all three features and landed in fifth place in the 16 and over group," said KMS Snowboard Coach Ian Coates. "It was a beautiful blue bird day with welcoming temperatures. Both boys families were in attendance from Wisconsin."

The Peanut Butter and Rail Jam is Volcom's amateur snowboard contest series. The goal of the series is to give something back to the kids. Deviating from the established way snowboard contests are run, organizers put their heads together and came up with a fresh format. Instead of having three rails in a row, they put them side by side to create a rail zone. This boosts the energy level and fun nature of the contest because everyone is together, riding, hiking, and watching in a big group.

Killington Mountain School is a fully approved Vermont independent school whose mission is to inspire students to pursue excellence in academics and athletics in a culture that promotes integrity, leadership, responsibility, and respect. Training in the KMS snowboard program is directed toward the individual needs of athletes, who may range in ability from the first-time competitor to the most seasoned rider competing with the USSA/USASA Snowboard Team. Killington snowboarders train in Half-pipe, SBX, Slopestyle, Big Air, Slalom, Giant Slalom, and SuperG on some of the best pipes and parks in the country and on extremely challenging racing terrain.

Heberer is the son of Tim and Karen Heberer of Kewaskum.

VanEss donates to underprivileged families

Dr. Stephen VanEss's dental clinic in Kewaskum was among the many dentists across the state participating in the Give Kids a Smile campaign sponsored by the Wisconsin Dental Association's Southeast Region. Care was given on Thursday, February 5 through the rest of February.

Dr. VanEss and his staff have participated in the program the last few years. The staff at the VanEss Clinic will provide care to 10 students in the Kewaskum School District who can not afford dental care.

A total of about $719,000 in care will be provided to about 6,250 families in the program across the state this year. The program started in 2003.

Kewaskum actors in 'Diary of Ann Frank'

You may recall that last year at this time the Kettle Moraine Players visited the Kewaskum Theatre with the play Lovers: Winners - Losers which went on to win the state festival and three state awards and then win a major regional award competing against shows from four other states.

In keeping with their philosophy that their 'community' is not a single town, but the entire Kettle Moraine, the Kettle Moraine Players are getting ready to present The Diary of Anne Frank with a cast of 17 from Fond du Lac, Lomira, Campbellsport, Kewaskum, Slinger, and Milwaukee. The play will be presented in Lang Auditorium at Campbellsport High School on February 27th & 28th and March 5th & 6th.

Kewaskum is well represented in the cast with 4 people. Patrick Perkins, Katherine Pollnow, Christine Pollnow, and Scott Pollnow are all from Kewaskum.

Patrick is a graduate of Kewaskum High School from "many moons ago" who took up theatre as a hobby when injuries forced him to give up sports. Patrick continued his hobby all thru his career in the U.S. Navy and since his retirement. In fact, he is frequently paid to act and has appeared in shows all over the greater Milwaukee area. He plays the somewhat abrasive Mr. Van Daan in the production.

For Scott Pollnow and his daughters Katherine and Christine, this production is truly a family affair. Scott and Christine also appeared together in Hello, Dolly! in West Bend last June. Scott plays the dentist, Mr. Dussel, who arrives at the secret annex several months after the others when he gets his call-up notice from the Nazis.

Sisters Katherine (age 13) and Christine (age 15) play the Frank sisters in the play. Anne Frank is played by Katherine and Christine plays Margot Frank.

Because of concerns over the H1N1 virus when the show was cast, Kettle Moraine Players took the precaution of having understudies for almost every role and that's why there is a cast of 17 for 10 roles. Most of the understudies will get the opportunity to play one performance. If you want to see Christine and Katherine play the roles you should be ordering your tickets for any performance other than March 5th because their understudies have been assigned that performance.

Tickets for The Diary of Anne Frank are $12 for adults, $8 for students (HS and below) and are available on line at www.KettleMorainePlayers.com. Tickets will be $2 more at the door and advance sales will end 24 hours before the performance.

Performance dates and times are Saturday, February 27th at 7:30pm, Sunday, February 28th at 1:00pm, Friday, March 5th at 7:30pm and Saturday, March 6th at 7:30pm.

The play is being performed in Lang Auditorium at Campbellsport High School and is highly recommended for ages 10 and above.

Register now for ACT test Moraine Park March events

Registration is now open for the April 10, 2010 ACT achievement test. Students who wish to take the college admission and placement exam must register before March 5, 2010.

The ACT is a curriculum-based achievement exam. It tests what students have actually learned in school, not their aptitude for learning. The ACT also measures what students need to know to be ready for entry-level college-credit courses based on ACT College Readiness Standards™. Every student's results can be tied directly to these consistent standards.

The ACT has four sections—English, mathematics, reading and science—and takes about three hours to complete. Students who take the ACT Plus Writing complete an optional writing test that requires an additional 30 minutes. Unlike other exams, students are not penalized for guessing or answering all the questions on each test section. In fact, it is beneficial for test takers to answer all questions within the time allowed.

During registration, students may select up to four universities to receive their score reports. ACT scores are accepted by all four-year colleges and universities across the United States. ACT reports scores only when requested to do so by the student. Additional score reports are available for a small fee.

All students complete a detailed inventory of questions during ACT registration. Each test taker receives an ACT score report that includes a wide variety of information to assist with high school course selection, college readiness, career planning, and college admissions.

The cost for the ACT test without writing is $32. When combined with the optional ACT Writing Test, the total cost is $47. Students who qualify may apply for a fee waiver through their high school counselor.

The ACT website, www.actstudent.org, has helpful information, free sample items, and options to order inexpensive test prep materials to assist test takers get ready for the exam. However, the best preparation is to take rigorous core courses in school, study hard, and learn the academic skills needed in college.

Most students register online at www.actstudent.org. Students may also pick up registration forms from their high school counseling offices; these forms must be postmarked by March 5, 2010. Late registration is available until March 19, 2010 for an extra $21 fee.

December 11, 1959

A haymaker and its contents of about 100 tons of hay were destroyed by fire at the John Pamperin farm about 1-1/2 miles west of Kohlsville early Sunday evening. The loss is estimated at approximately $5,500. Pamperin's son, Walter, operates the farm. The blaze in the haymaker, a 50 foot high, metal silo type structure was discovered around 4:45 pm by Ray Pamperin, another son. He made an attempt to put out the fire with a hand extinguisher but the flames had already gained too much headway. Walter called the Kohlsville and Allenton fire departments and later the Kewaskum Fire Department was summoned. While the hay in the haymaker was burning out, firemen concentrated their efforts on saving the large barn only a few feet away and other buildings. They kept their barn soaked almost constantly and the cold weather came to their assistance as ice formed on the roof of the barn and prevented it from catching fire. The barn was saved from fire damage, fortunately, and only the haymaker was burned out and its contents of hay destroyed.

Santa Claus will be in Kewaskum on December 19 for the annual Christmas party for the kiddies at the theater, sponsored by the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club. The theater doors will open at 1 pm and Santa has promised that he will arrive promptly at 1:30 pm. He will be escorted to the theater on the fire truck to meet all the little tots and present each and every one of them free popcorn and candy. After Santa has had time to visit with all the children and give them their goodies, free movies will be shown at 2 pm.

At the December meeting of the Kewaskum Fire Department, held last Thursday evening, all the present officers were re-elected for 1960. They are: Assistant Chief, Armin Oppermann; Foreman, Bill Martin; Assistant Foreman, Bob Ours; Treasurer, Harry Koch; and Secretary, George Koerble. Chief Harry Schaefer, who is appointed by the village board, is serving a five year term in that capacity.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schoofs, Hubertus, on December 1. Mr. Schoofs is a son of Mrs. Joseph Schoofs of Kewaskum.

At a public service commission hearing Friday at the courthouse during which applications for amendments to motor carrier licenses were considered, Examiner Samuel Bryan was asked to put an end to what farmers residing in the southeastern section of the county of Fond du Lac, described as a truck war which is endangering the business of a cheese factory in the Town of Kewaskum operated by a group of 28 farmers.

Recent rains and the activities of a colony of beavers have created a flood problem in the Town of Osceola, it is reported by Leo Rosenbaum, town chairman, one of the farmers whose land is inundated. The beavers have been busy for several months damming up a small creek crossing County Trunk F near Waucousta and have succeeded in stopping up the stream with two completed dams. Water levels have been raised noticeably during the heavy rains the past week.

manufactured custom-designed corrugated fibreboard containers since 1965.

He and his wife resided in West Bend during his work with Badger Packaging. The couple lived in Appleton during their retirement years.

Earlier he was a national sales representative for Inland Container Corp., Chicago, as well as a sales executive for Reynolds Metals in Akron, Ohio. During World War II, Mr. Laue was a military packaging specialist for government contractor, Forest Products Laboratories, Madison.

In 1948 Mr. Laue became chief packaging engineer for the Lustron Corp. in Columbus, Ohio. The "Lustron" was a five-room steel porcelain enamel home that was delivered with all of its 4,000 parts on trucks and long flatbed trailers. "The entire house could be packaged in conventional corrugated fibreboard boxes," Mr. Laue wrote in a 1949 trade magazine. Total cost of packaging and loading each 25,000 pound home was (in 1949 dollars) $100, he added, stating that the Lustron home was then "America's biggest line-produced package."

Mr. Laue was an active golfer well into his 80s; he was also an accomplished swimmer still logging miles in the pool well into his mid 80s. Early in the Depression of the 1930s, when jobs were difficult to find, he competed with thousands of young people for the coveted position of lifeguard on the beaches of Lake Michigan near downtown Chicago. He was one of the select few hired.

A visitation was scheduled for 9:30 a.m. with a memorial service following at 11 a.m. on Monday, Feb. 15, 2010, at Christ the King Lutheran Church in Sherwood.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be directed to Christ the King Lutheran Church in Sherwood or the Wisconsin Talking Books and Braille Library, 813 W. Wells St., Milwaukee, WI 53233-1436.

Van Ess currently leads the MIAC (conference games only) in both save percentage (.929) and GAA (1.94). He has a 4-5-3 career record with a .910 save percentage and a 2.55 GAA in 11 career starts in net.

Spearers harvest 656 on opening day

OSHKOSH- It was a record smashing day on Lake Winnebago for the start of the 2010 sturgeon spearing season. Fish biologists working on the Winnebago Pool of lakes have been handling fish in their spring spawning surveys in excess of 200 pounds for several years now, and finally one of these large super-trophies has shown up in the spear harvest. Ron Grishaber of Appleton registered a 212.2 pound, 84.2" sturgeon at the Harrison Registration Station.

Another record - the largest male sturgeon ever registered in the spear harvest -- 116.8 pounds, 71 inches -- was brought in to the Winnebago registration station at Critters.

A record number of fish greater than or equal to 100 pounds were also registered. Thirty-one of these were taken from Lake Winnebago and three from the Upriver Lakes.

Both the Lake Winnebago and Upriver Lakes seasons are set to run from February 13 through February 28 unless spearers reach pre-set harvest caps.

Harvest caps for Lake Winnebago are set at 280 juvenile females, 666 adult females and 800 males. Caps for the Upriver Lakes are set at 70 juvenile females, 74 adult females and 200 adult males. Caps for the entire Winnebago System are 350 juvenile females, 740 adult females and 1,000 males.

Saturday's Lake Winnebago take was 515 including 324 female sturgeon (68 juvenile females and 256 adult females) and 191 males.

System-wide, there were 656 sturgeon taken Saturday -- 96 juvenile females; 294 adult females; 266 males.

Commenting on the number of very large fish in the Winnebago Pool population, Ron Bruch, DNR Senior Sturgeon Biologist, says his team has seen it increasing over the last 15 years due to regulations developed by DNR fisheries staff and the Winnebago Citizens Sturgeon Advisory Committee. These regulations were implemented in the 1990's and were designed to decrease the annual exploitation of adult female sturgeon (which are the largest fish in the stock, but the most vulnerable to overharvest). Another reason for these regulations was due to large hatches of sturgeon over a 20-30 year period in the early 1900's that are now entering the super-trophy size in their life. Lake sturgeon, especially females, are believed to be able to live for 150 years or more. The 211 lb record breaker harvested today has not been aged yet, but it is likely in excess of 100 years old.

Lady Indians tally another win

By Mitch Maersch
mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

KEWASKUM - Last December wasn't far from the minds of the girls' basketball team last Friday.

Waupun smoked the Indians, 66-46, on their court. On Friday in Kewaskum, the tables turned, though it took more than three quarters to do it.

The Indians, still with a mathematical chance to tie for a conference title, blew open a two-point game entering the fourth quarter on their way to a 57-41 victory.

The team is now 11-5 on the season, 8-2 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference and still undefeated at home (5-0). Sheboygan Falls continues to lead with a 10-0 EWC record.

Kewaskum had a season-high four players in double digits and two with double-doubles, none bigger than forward Elissa Miller, who blew up for 15 points and 14 rebounds. She shot 5-for-10 from the field and 5-for-6 at the free throw line and grabbed six rebounds in the pivotal fourth quarter.

"Elissa Miller was huge. She was HUGE," said Coach Mike Kleinhans.

The senior chalked her up production to the offensive execution.

"I think it was just a lot of with us working the ball around. With Candace (Beine) coming back, that opened up the post," Miller said.

Senior point guard Anna Butler scored 14 points, eight in the fourth quarter, and pulled down seven rebounds. Senior guard Haley Rauch matched her with 14, seven coming in the third quarter. Senior forward Jenna Buker added 11 with 10 rebounds.

Tied at 24-24 at the half, the Indians took a 36-34 lead going into the final quarter when they whipped the Warriors, 21-7.

Backup junior guard Christine Bohn drained an open jumper just inside the three-point arc early in the fourth quarter to put the Indians up 38-34, and the lead was never less the rest of the way.

On the next possession, Miller provided some magic. She snagged an offensive board and threw up a layup that sat on the rim long enough for every fan to bite off all of their fingernails, do their laundry and grocery shopping and help Congress solve health care, before the ball fell through the hoop for a six-point lead.

The Warriors were in the midst of three straight turnovers that helped the Indians build a 41-34 advantage.

Waupun only dressed seven for the game and two players got four fouls in the first half. The Indians were well aware.

"We kind of took advantage of the foul trouble so we could drive it a lot more and get those open shots," Miller said.

Butler came screaming through the lane for a basket to make it 43-34, followed by a Buker free throw and two more Butler buckets inside. With 2:37 to play, it was 48-34 and the rout was on.

That December loss weighed heavily on Butler's mind.

"It was major. We knew that that was not our team when we played that game. And we knew we had to come out tonight and prove that," she said.

It took until the second half, mostly the final eight minutes.

"In the locker room we kind of got fired up," Butler said of halftime. "We knew the last time they beat us by 20 and they came out thinking that they were going to do it again and we weren't going to be a big problem for them. But we wanted to prove that so once we got to the third quarter and saw that we weren't playing our game yet still, we needed to pick it up."

Kleinhans said he painted the picture at the half.

"You're in second. This hasn't happened in two decades. Do you want to go to third or do you want to move to first? Go out and play basketball. Do what we're supposed to do," he told his team.

He remembered that first meeting and called for a better sequel.

"I didn't want to get beaten by 20 again. I didn't like how we played over there. We didn't play as a team," he said. "We're learning what team is."

The second half was more like it. "We're getting patient. We're not rushing stuff," he said.

Kleinhans credited Bohn with some second-half poise after not playing the first half.

"She kept her cool and now she's starting to get it, too," he said.

The coach was happy to get Beine back from a wrist injury. He brought her off the bench and said she played some good defensive minutes. He praised Erica Rammer, filling in for Beine in the starting lineup, for her defense.

The Indians, after a rare slow start at home, did more last Friday than get their 11th win of the season and stay in the conference race.

"It shows that we're a team to reckon with and yeah, we had our slower start tonight, but we brought it back," Butler said.

"I think it shows us that even if we're in a tight game that any game we can still pick it up and come out with a win," Buker said.

"We know that we can play with intensity and when we play with intensity we can beat anyone," said Miller.

Notes: The second quarter ended with a flurry as Warrior Kaitlyn Bronkhorst hit a wide open three-pointer in the corner for a 24-21 lead. With about three seconds left, Buter took off with the ball down the middle of the court. She launched a three at the buzzer that hit the backboard and bounced on the rim a couple of times before going through for a 24-24 game. It didn't sit on the rim as long as Miller's shot but it did give fans a chance to start in on their fingernails.

"When I saw that they weren't going to guard it, I just shot it and hoped," she said. "And it went in."

The Indians' remaining conference schedule has them at 3-7 Kiel Tuesday (Feb. 15), at 6-4 Two Rivers Friday, hosting 0-10 New Holstein Feb. 25 and hosting Sheboygan Falls March 5.

The Falcons' schedule has them hosting 0-10 New Holstein Tuesday (Feb. 15), hosting 2-8 Campbellsport Thursday and hosting 6-4 Two Rivers Feb. 25 before coming to Kewaskum March 5.

Sno-Chiefs club trip

On Wednesday, Feb. 10th a bunch of the Kewaskum Sno-Chief members left to go to Gwinn in the UP. Before they could leave, they all needed to clean out the snow from the snowfall the day before. Then they left and got to their destination of the Sawyer Airforce Base in Gwinn, MI, they got into their rooms which were the old barracks.

Six sledders went for what was to be an 80 mile ride ending up to be 160 miles round trip. Some of them met at the restaurant for drinks and supper instead.

The next day the group took to the trails again, logging on anywhere from 60 to 300 miles. The rest of the parties arrived, however some of them ran out of fuel before arriving at the hotel. They finally arrived to get some miles on their sleds.

No one was injured on the trip, however they had one rollover, one sled broke a chain case and while waiting for the repair, borrowed a spare sled, one member drove right out of his track, and one had an unfortunate surprise rounding a corner right into the groomer, and one sled had one foot flames shooting out the exhaust pipes.

The next day was a ride to Big Springs to a clear lake where you could look into the water and see the bottom of the lake and you could see the active springs.

Some left on Saturday and some on Sunday. It was another fine trip with good conversation, good food, and excellent trails.

The group had ages ranging from 12 to 71, however only one woman on the trip.

All in all a great time had by all!

If you would like to join the club, contact President - Craig Sanborn at 262-343-0859 or come to a meeting at the Annex in Kewaskum the second Sunday of each month September thru April at 7:00 pm.

The club would like to get younger members together to start a youth club like Sheboygan Falls did.

Indians fall behind Cougars in hosting Regional meet

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

KEWASKUM- After going to the WIAA Team Sectional the last three years, Kewaskum's wrestling team was going to be home Tuesday night (Feb. 16) as it gave way to Campbellsport in Saturday's race to the Division 2 regional title.

The Indians do advance nine to the sectional at Milwaukee Lutheran, however, and that number would certainly have been one higher had junior ace Brad Bentz been able to compete.

Behind eight champions, the Cougars piled up 264.5 points to win the crown by 21.5 points over the host Indians, who came in with 243.

Finishing a distant third was Milwaukee Lutheran with 128, followed by Grafton (92) Brown Deer (89) and Mayville (29) which all came with only partial squads, another factor in determining the outcome.

We're coming out of here with nine guys going on, and they're all healthy," KHS coach Dennis Aupperle said afterward, referring to his five champions, Jared Koffke (119), Caleb Olla (135), Rob Maertz (140), Bo Seibel (160) and Cody Seibel (215), along with runners-up Brett Scoles (103), Derik Muckerheide (125) Austin Goeden (130) and Joey Wollner (145).

After winning an Eastern Wisconsin Conference (EWC) title last Saturday, Koffke (26-9) added his second in a week and did so with ease. After receiving a bye, the junior athlete won a commanding 11-0 major decision and followed that up with a pin in :46 over Nick Neumann of Milwaukee Lutheran.

"He's been looking good for the past few weeks," Aupperle said, confident Koffke has a good chance to qualify for state after making the field his freshman year.

Olla (23-8) had to settle for third in a strong EWC field at 135, but he was the strength of the 135-pound class Saturday, using a bye, a pin in 1:27 and a dominant 10-2 decision over Campbellsport's Greg Blatz to stand atop the victory stand.

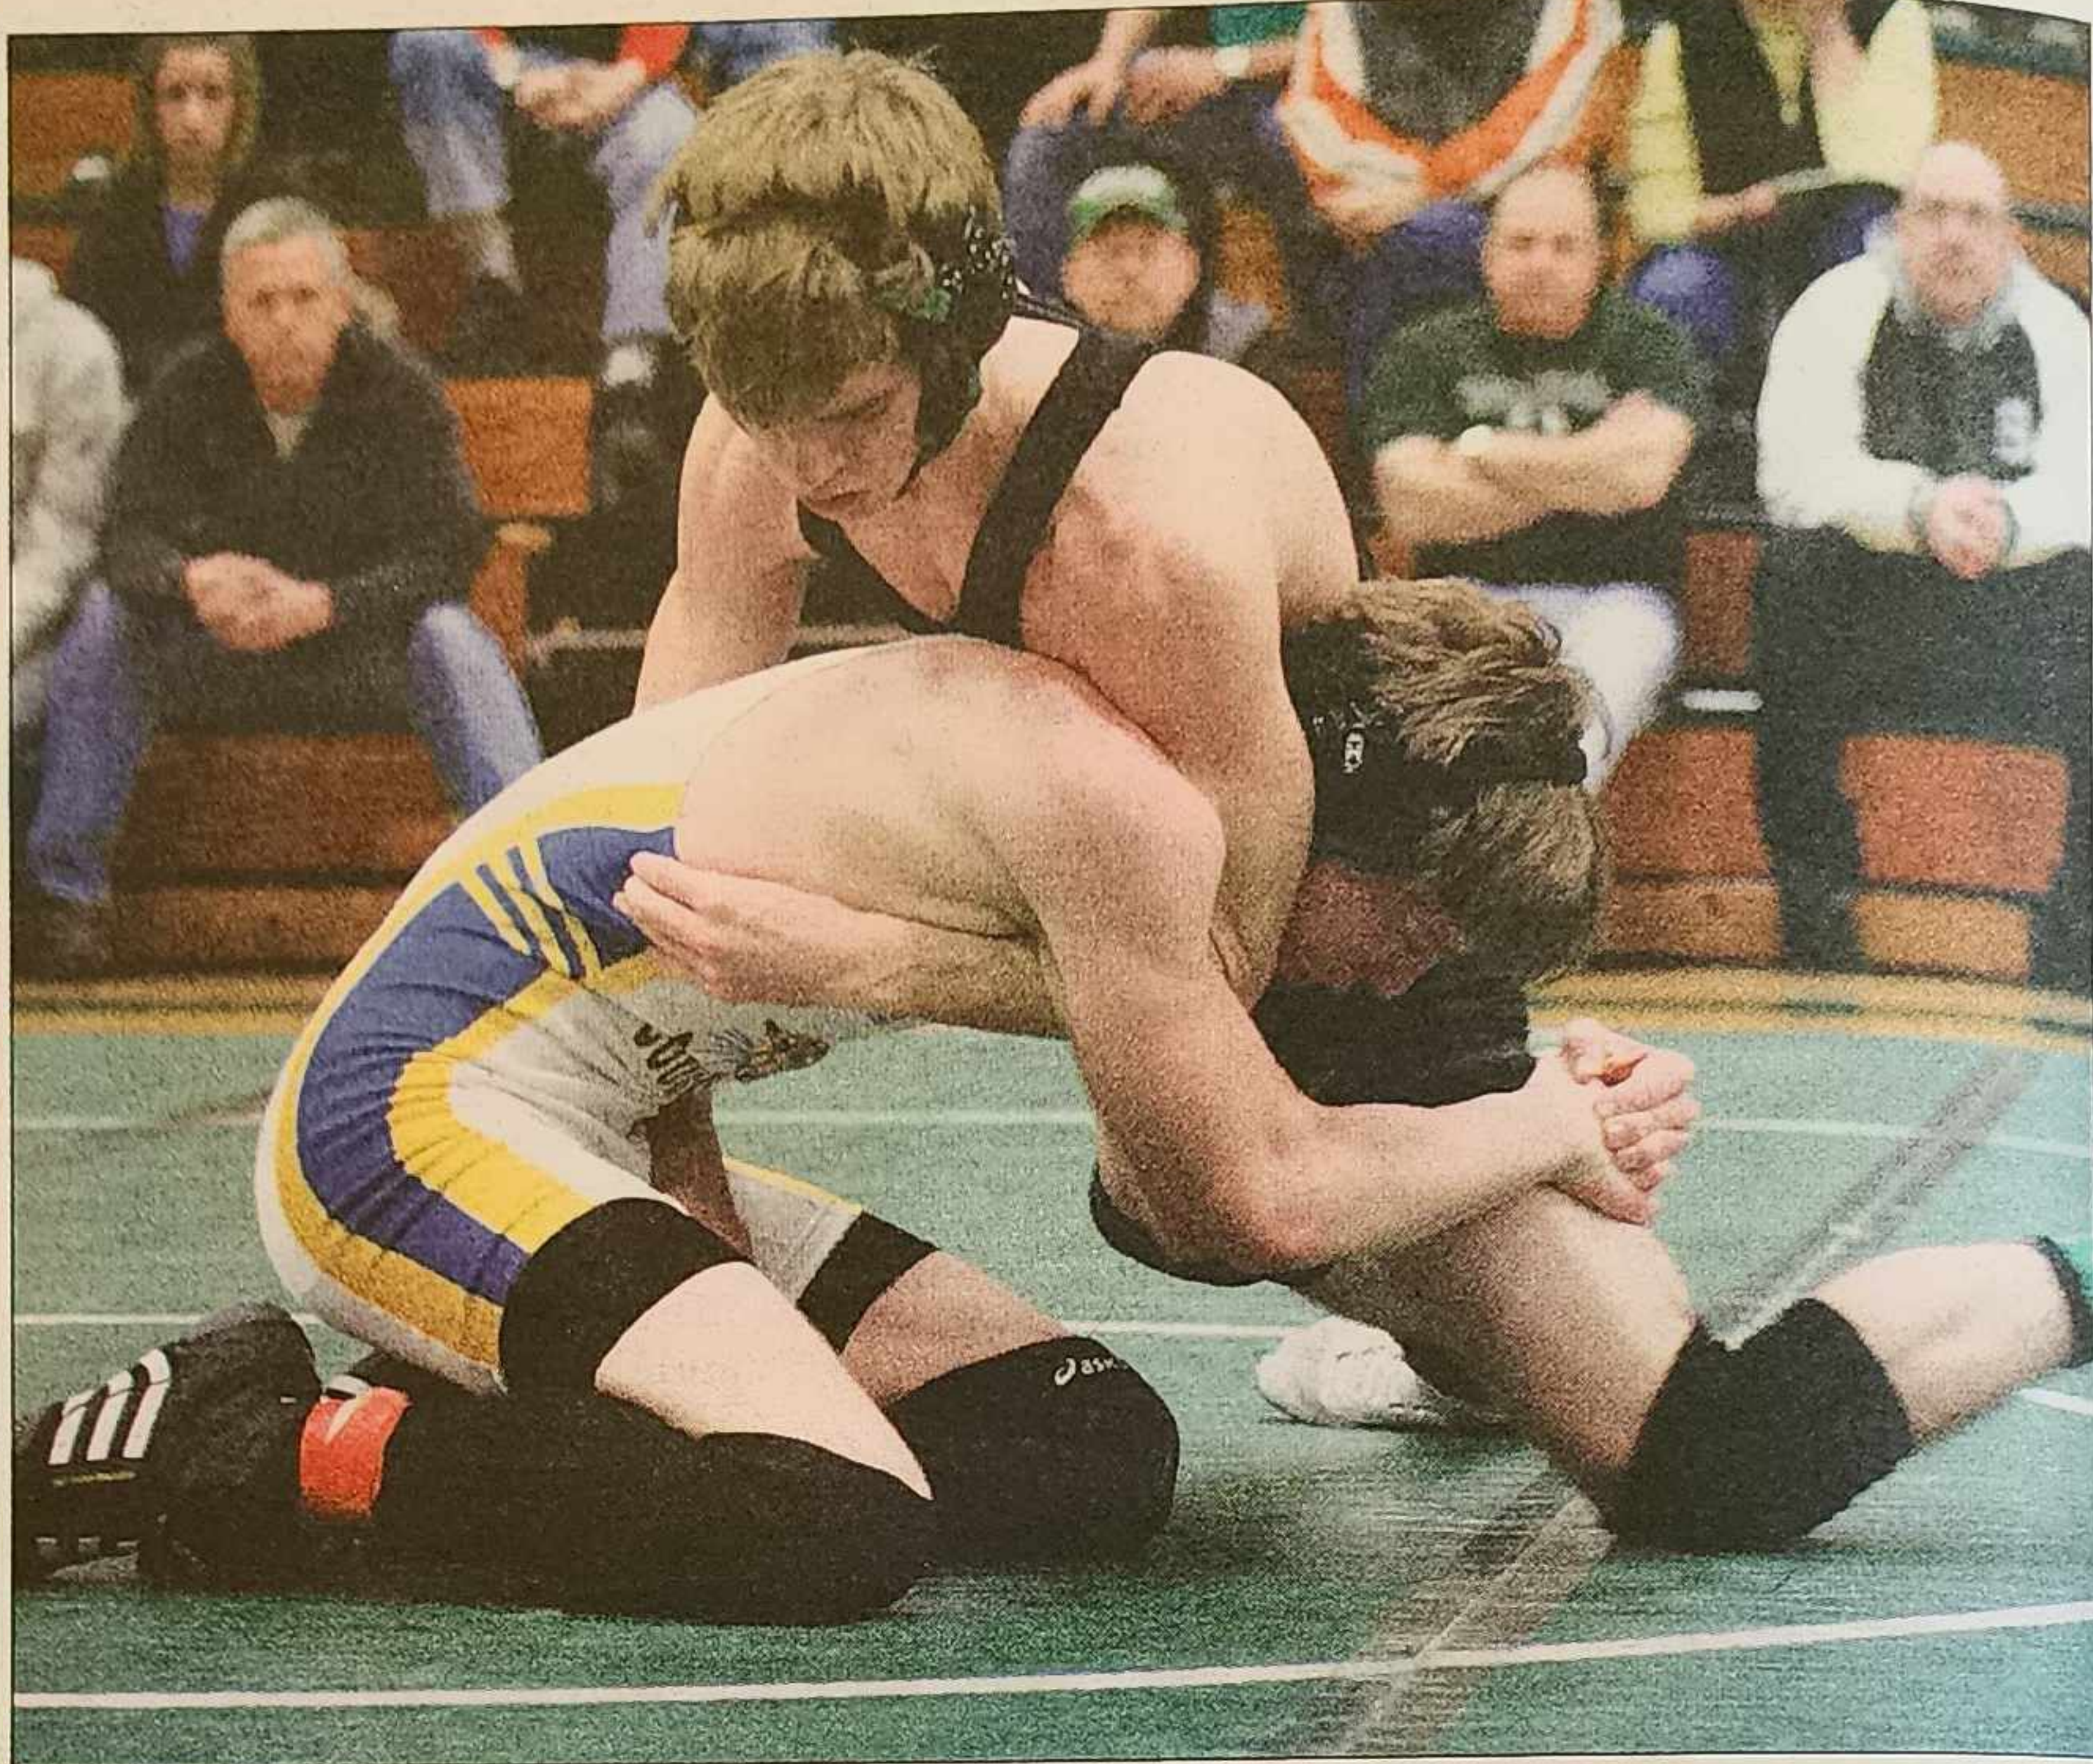

"He's had some tough matches this year," Aupperle said. "I'm happy for him."

Maertz (28-9) made it two in a row for KHS, pinning Cody Bobholz of Grafton in 5:33 in the finals after shutting out Cole Sippel 12-0 in the semis and taking a bye in the first round.

"He got the job done," his coach said.

Both Seibels were victorious by pin in the finals, with the senior Cody (27-1) needing just 34 ticks of the clock to put away Tory Dibb of Brown Deer.

In the semis, Cody Seibel needed just 1:29 to put Andrew

In the 130-pound final, a pair of seniors, Caleb Olla of Kewaskum and Campbellsport's Greg Blatz, matched wits and strength in efforts to win a regional crown. Above, Blatz shoots in on Olla's legs, but it was the veteran Indian piling up 10 points, including nearfalls in the first and second periods, for a 10-2 victory.

First round pairings announced

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

While they will all be cheering for their teammates to do well, it's more of a case of every man for himself Saturday as nine Kewaskum High wrestlers head into Division 2 sectional action at Milwaukee Lutheran High School.

There are eight wrestlers in each weight class, and the top three earn trips to Madison.

Looking for his second straight trip to the WIAA State Individual Wrestling Tournament is junior Bo Seibel, who placed sixth at 140 pounds a year ago. Now wrestling at 160, Seibel's first opponent will be John Schroeder of Ripon (20-2).

Cody Seibel (215) is also looking toward a second trip to state and to wipe away the disappointment of not making it last year when he suffered a couple crushing losses and had to settle for fourth in the sectional.

Saturday he starts his quest with a match against Gerritt Lubeke, 9-5.

Senior Caleb Olla (135 pounds) has never made it to the big stage but is in good position to make it this year. After good efforts in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Tournament and the regional, Olla, who has won eight of his last nine matches, is confident he is peaking at the right time.

"Yup, I guess so," Olla said after winning the sectional, but still very aware tough competition was ahead. "There's a real good kid from East Troy and Pewaukee," he said, "and (Tristan Rowley) a kid from New Holstein, who I've lost to twice ... maybe I'll get him next week."

What is the key to performing well in sectionals? "You've just got to wrestle your hardest out there," Olla, who will face Kaleb Price of East Troy (19-20) in the first round, said.

Other first-round pairings are as follows: 103 Brett Scoles vs. John Roycraft of Winneconne (40-4); 119 Jared Koffke vs. Luis Valadez, Whitewater, 28-6; 125 Derik Muckerheide vs. Devon Dzioba, Winneconne, (29-8); 130 Austin Goeden vs. Lucas Lambrecht, Sheboygan Falls, 28-10; 140 Rob Maertz vs. Jared Kanek, Omro, 19-17; 152 Joey Wollner vs. David Galarno, New Holstein, 32-2.

Wrestling begins at 10:30 a.m.

Gleason's (ML) shoulders to the mat, meaning he only spent 2:03 on the mat the entire day.

"It's good to see him back," Aupperle said, referring to Cody Seibel's shoulder injury in football that carried over to the early part of the wrestling season. "He did a real nice job."

Bo Seibel is starting to settle in at 160 pounds, which is bad news for others in the sectional field at that weight. He stretched his season record to 29-4 with a bye, a pin in 1:08 and a pin in 3:13 over Alex Russell of Brown Deer.

In his final match, Bo Seibel was leading 13-0 in the second period before putting his opponent away.

No doubt one of the feature matches of the afternoon came at 103 pounds where Brett Scoles and Campbellsport's Ryan Costello met again for the title. It was one excellent match between two competitors, and it went right down to the wire with Costello leaving with a 5-4 victory.

Scoles took Costello down early, but before the first buzzer, the Cougar took the upper hand, with an escape and take-down for a 3-2 lead.

Scoles was unable to score on Costello from the down position in the second period, and neither wanted to make a mistake in the third, leading both to become defensive. The official awarded Scoles a point for Costello stalling then called a double stall, so both got a point.

At the end, Scoles (27-9) had hold of Costello's head but could not get around for the takedown.

"I thought Brett went out there a little hesitant," Aupperle said, and perhaps anticipating another meeting in the sectional, added, "If he opens up and wrestles like he can, he's fine."

Muckerheide (15-17) won a 16-4 decision in the semis, then was pinned by Chet Floyd (of CHS) in the finals for his second place.

Goeden (15-9) led Rashaun Sparks of Campbellsport 3-2 near the end of the first period and was down by one, 3-4, after the second, but he fell victim to a leg scissors in the third and was pinned in 5:13.

Wollner (7-16) lost to CHS freshman Zach Gassner via pin in the finals, but he came back to pin Andy Wagner of Mayville in 2:30 of the wrestleback.

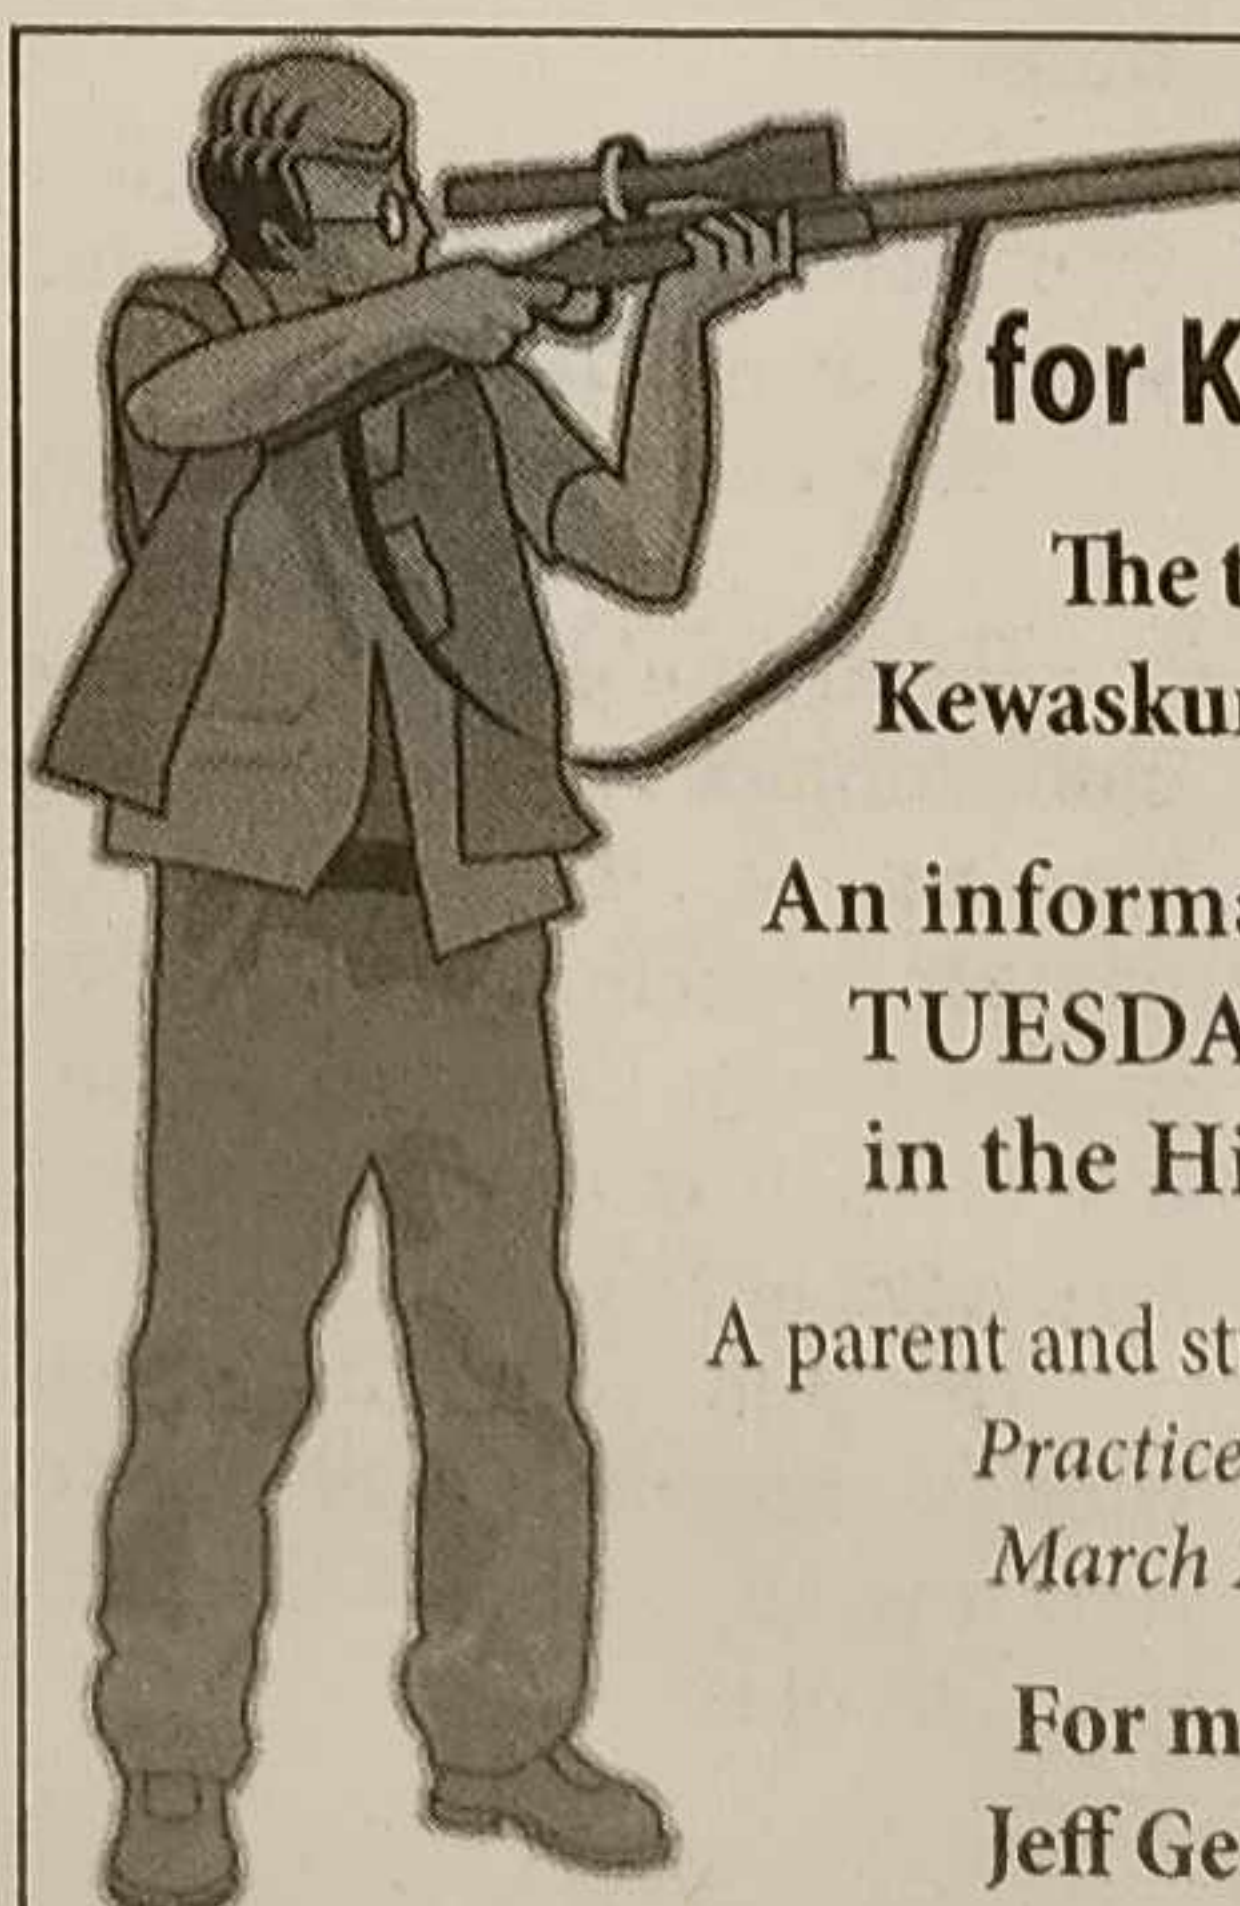

The Indians had hoped to have Bentz back after he wrested his shoulder in the EWC Tournament, but the doctor would not clear him to compete, according to Aupperle, who said, "He's got a deep stinger. He's done for the season."

"It hurt not having Brad," Aupperle said, adding the team was also without Steven Kudek, who injured his knee in the first match in the conference tournament.

Did it hurt, the four teams were far short of full teams? "I think so, and we didn't match up well with them (Cougars) today."

All the qualifiers will be at the Milwaukee Lutheran sectional Saturday (10:30 a.m.), with the top three finishers in each weight class advancing to the WIAA State Tournament.
