Two towns' road repair referendums on Tuesday's ballot

By Mitch Maersch
mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

The Town of Farmington is holding a binding vote to raise $200,000 that would continue each year unless it is voted down at an annual meeting.

The Town of Kewaskum is holding a non-binding, advisory vote that would raise $200,000 should the Town Board decide to implement it. Even if the referendum passes, the Town Board may decide whether or not to raise local taxes for the money since the vote is advisory only.

Both municipalities have cited decreasing state aid and increasing costs for road repairs as the impetus for the referendums.

In Farmington, with an expected 3 percent levy limit next year, approving the referendum would raise the town's mill rate 48 cents from $1.03 to $1.51. The owner of a $200,000 home would pay an additional $96 in taxes per year and the owner of a $300,000 home would pay $144.

Farmington Supervisor Art Seyfert said regrinding one mile of road and coating it twice with blacktop today costs $150,000 when seven years ago the bill was $65,000. State aid in that same period has gone down.

A close vote at Farmington's last annual meeting forced the board to hold the binding referendum.

In the Town of Kewaskum, if the non-binding referendum passes and the Town Board decides to go ahead with it, the $200,000 would be borrowed. At 4 percent interest, that would raise taxes $68 per year on a $200,000 home and $100 per year on a $300,000 home.

The Town Board didn't specify what kind of majority vote would trigger it to go ahead with the borrowing, but has said a simple majority would likely not be enough.

The Town Board at a special meeting Aug. 31 agreed the $200,000 would be used on four roads: Highland from Highway H to Highway 28 and Prospect Drive from Badger Road to Ridge Road would both be wedged and seal coated; Kettle Moraine Drive from H to Ridge Road would be seal coated; and Ridge Road from Kettle View to Highland would be wedged and overlaid.

The board had a host of road improvements from which to choose and tried to pick the roads that needed improvement the most. Other road improvements would have to come from its road repair operating budget, which is $31,000 this year.

School's mil rate to rise

By Mitch Maersch
mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

The Kewaskum School District's mil rate is rising by 33 cents after the School Board on Monday approved the 2010-11 budget.

The district's mil rate rises from $8.66 to $8.99 per $1,000 of equalized value. The owner of a $150,000 home will pay $1,348.50 in taxes, up $49.50 from last year's $1,299.

The increase is mostly driven by the district's property value decrease and less state aid, said the district's business administrator, Paul Reichert. The district's property value decreased by 1.78 percent, or $22.3 million. The district's property value still exceeds $1.2 billion.

State aid decreased by 1.8 percent, or $175,328, to $9,833,709.

The tax levy's general fund, paid for with local school taxes, is rising 1.8 percent, or $174,589, to $9,795,391. Had state aid not decreased the levy could have remained the same.

"If we just got the same as last year we would not have to raise the tax levy," Reichert said.

The total budget is $26,115,471, up 1.2 percent, or $313,292, from last year. District enrollment dropped by 23 students to 1,978 with the high school seeing the biggest shrinkage. It is down 61 students from 722 to 661. The middle school, however, is up from 355 to 389.

Open enrollment, the state program in which families may send their children to any school district, continues to cost Kewaskum money, but the loss has been decreasing in the past few years. Kewaskum loses 146 students to other districts - and the state's per-pupil aid along with them - and picks up 91. The net loss is $378,154, down from last year's $387,250.

Open enrollment losses have been decreasing since 2005-06 when the number topped out at $644,184.

The budget includes the second year of the spring's teacher contract settlement. In 2010-11, teachers will receive a 1.25-percent pay raise and a total salary and benefit increase of 3.82 percent.

The budget also includes the laying off of six teachers, the first time Kewaskum had to do that in at least a decade in order to help balance the budget.

Starting pay for a teacher goes up to $33,171 from last year's $32,671. Top pay increases from $75,969 to $76,919. Employee salaries and benefits make up 76.2 percent of the budget, up from 75.6 percent from last year but in line with 75.6 percent from 1997-98. The percentages have fluctuated since then from 77.1 to 70.5.

"We're in fairly good shape compared to some other districts in the low 80s," Reichert said.

The budget passed, 6-0, with no discussion aside from Reichert's presentation. Bill Kesting was absent.

On Thursday, October 14 at 6 p.m., the Kewaskum Women's Club members and a few husbands, toured the Kewaskum Wastewater Treatment Plant led by Department of Public Works Director Jerry Gilles and Water Department Director Jim Noren.

The 1954 plant was replaced in 1972 and 35 years later in 2007, this state of the art water plant with computer controls and up to date technical equipment approved by the DNR who regulate daily water treatment controls.

It was a very educational experience.

Long Lake Receives AIS Grant

The Long Lake Preservation Association (LLPA) is happy to report that they have been awarded a three-year $113,000 Aquatic Invasive Species (AIS) grant to spray Long and Tittle lakes for targeted invasive species. In 2002 Curly-leaf Pondweed and Eurasian Water-milfoil were identified by the Wisconsin DNR in our two lakes. These weeds start growing very early in the spring, spread very fast, and float on the surface creating navigation problems and choking out the desirable native weeds, which are required for good fish habitat. With this grant, the targeted weed will be eliminated by a licensed contractor under strict DNR guidelines. The native weeds will not be affected by the spray.

The Department of Natural Resources (DNR) Grant Program operates under a reimbursement system. The grant money represents a partnership between the DNR and the LLPA which must raise funds before any DNR reimbursements will be disbursed. The DNR will reimburse the organization 75% of the total project expenditures. Projects must be performed over a three year period. The LLPA will now map out a plan to raise $50,000 a year for three years and picking a contractor to complete the required treatment.

The Long Lake Preservation Association was organized in 2007 to enhance, preserve and protect the quality of Long and Tittle lakes including the north and south channels for future generations through effective environmental and education policies. The association is funded by its members, additional donations, and the proceeds from the Lake-2-Lake 10K Trail Run/Hike that is co-sponsored by the Friends of the Kettle Moraine and the Dundee Long Lake Lions Club.

The Association membership is open to any one interested in the health of Long and Tittle Lake's so that it can be enjoyed for future generations. If you are not a current member, now is the time to join in their efforts to control the invasive weeds the lakes. If you would like to learn more or join the LLPA, please check out their web site at www.longlakepreservation.org. You may also contact Ed Frac at 920-533-5830.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING YOUR COUNTY AND THE UNITED WAY!

To the Editor:

Let's talk about the Wisconsin Supreme Court. This also involves corporation money, (WMC) Wisconsin Manufacturers Commerce. Back in '08 the WMC ran numerous political advertising supporting their hand-picked puppet, Michael Gableman. They ran very misleading ads portraying Louis Butler as "soft on crime." Why did they want their man on the court? It's because of corporation lawsuits!

The current Senate race pits Feingold against Johnson. An argument from the Republicans is to vote out all "career" politicians! This is absolutely illogically ridiculous. Would your employer remove you for being a "career" employee, even if you were one of the best employees? A politician should be voted out based on performance only. Voting out Feingold would be an embarrassment to the State! Here's my reasons...

#1. Most importantly, in '99 Feingold voted against the repeal of the Glass/Stegall Act, also called the F.S.M.A. or Gramm/Leach-Bliley Act named after the three Republican congressmen that wrote the bill (essentially de-regulation). This de-regulation was predominately what caused this banking failure and this current economic recession. This had far-reaching consequences, all over Europe and Asia, seriously affecting countries like Greece. Why? Because these mortgage-backed securities were being traded internationally like an export!

#2. Feingold has consistently voted against free trade policies that are destroying our standard of living (reflected in the value of the dollar) and outsourced thousands of jobs. The idea that the United States should be completely dependent on other countries for all manufactured goods is an issue about National Security!

#3. Feingold voted against the Patriot Act, (apparently one of the only congressmen that actually read the bill). In 2008 a provision of the bill called Sneak and Peak allowed for 763 searches whereby only three turned out to be terrorism related. 65% were drug related. In 2009 Feingold voted in favor of an Amendment to the Sneak and Peak provision, citing concerns of the Fourth Amendment.

#4. The health care bill. Health care was rising about 8-10% annually for the past 10 years. Does anyone seriously contend nothing should have been done?! A recent article from the Milwaukee Journal stated from many different employers in Wisconsin, because of the new law, health care costs would rise 2%. Two percent would mean if between employer and employee costs would total about $1,000/month that increase would be $20. Twenty dollars and now kids would be covered until the age of 26, no denial of coverage for pre-existing conditions, no lifetime max. Sounds like pretty good bang for the buck. On top of that, small businesses will be getting a tax deduction, more needs to be done to get the help to the people, not corporation handouts!

Ron Johnson on the other hand is following his party lines by favoring FREE TRADE and favoring more de-regulation not more. Feingold stands out, many times opposing his own political party. He is a constitutional authority, a mainstream politician for the real people!

"The staff and nurses in the New Life Center were absolutely fantastic."

— Kristin Armstrong

For Kristin and Keith Armstrong, proud parents of Gabriel Raymond Armstrong, born Sept. 19 at Froedtert Health St. Joseph's Hospital, there's no doubt about it: The New Life Center is an extraordinary place. Especially considering the efforts that were made to unite the family shortly after Gabriel was born.

At the time, Keith was more than 6,000 miles away, completing his second deployment in Iraq with the U.S. Army. But thanks to a special Internet-based video connection from Kristin's room at St. Joseph's Hospital, Keith was able to meet his son only an hour later.

"Keith was really excited to meet Gabriel," Kristin says. "It was the next best thing to having him there with us. We've continued to talk just about every day and can't wait to get back together as a family."

As for St. Joseph's Hospital, "I couldn't have had better care," Kristin says. "The staff and nurses in the New Life Center were absolutely fantastic. And Dr. (Angela) Breckenridge of the West Bend Clinic was great. The hospital is gorgeous, and they had a way of making it all really comfortable. I'd absolutely recommend it to others."

Indians get running game going, stop everything on defense

While a record low-pressure system hovered over the Midwest creating windy havoc, a high-pressure system with an undefeated home record and the nickname of an earth mover plowed straight through Ripon's football team Tuesday evening.

The Kewaskum Indians would not be denied a home playoff win and they weren't going to let Mother Nature get in their way. Kewaskum made another of its nearly patented goal line stands in the first half, got a monster play from its fullback and dominated the second half on its way to a 21-0 victory.

"Pleased. Home win. Playoffs. Ripon's a nice team," said Kewaskum Coach Jason Piittmann. "We, especially the second half, we played good football. We played our style of football. We ran hard. We pounded the ball. Defense played well for the most part, especially second half."

The game-turning sequence came early in the second quarter with the game scoreless. Ripon drove down to Kewaskum's four. A first-down run yielded no gain as linebacker Mike Schladweiler made the tackle. A second-down run gained one.

On third down, Matt Ballard sacked quarterback Michael Polcyn for a four-yard loss.

Ripon got a procedure penalty before the fourth-down play and was backed up to the 12. Going with the wind, Ripon went for it. Polcyn completed a screen pass to running back Daniel Hron, who turned and ran toward the end zone.

Linebacker Brad Boegel stopped him on the two. Kewaskum held.

It was a dodge, but the Indians were far from out of the woods, which is where the wind was threatening to blow them as a forest resides to the north of the field. Heading into a formidable and steady breeze and a hungry defense, two runs earned one yard. On third and nine, Piittmann let senior quarterback Cody Nuernberg throw his first pass of the game. The ball sliced through the wind to land in T.J. Schlice's hands for a 12-yard slant.

A procedure penalty backed Kewaskum up to its 10, and after two Eric Perkins runs for a total of six yards, the Indians faced another third and nine, this time from the 16.

Nuernberg worked out of the shotgun, three receivers clumped to the left on the short side of the field and fullback Bo Seibel standing to his right. Nuernberg took the snap and promptly pitched to Seibel, who made a one-handed stab - he said the wind held up the ball for him - and took off into the gale as if a tornado was behind him.

The tornado would have caught him, at least if it wore a Ripon jersey, but not until 63 yards later. Seibel had sprinted Kewaskum out of trouble and into scoring position minutes after the Indians were primed to go down 7-0 in a game where points came at a lousy private-sector health insurance premium.

"It's in our playbook," Piittmann said of the play, though Ripon wouldn't have seen that one on film this season.

Seibel later topped off the drive from three yards out. The Indians drove 98 yards on 13 plays in 6:45.

"For him to bust through the line like that, and being a fullback, 205 pounds, whatever he is (the program says 200)... that's huge. Game changers," Nuernberg said.

"I think it was," Seibel said of the big run being the game-changer. "We scored on that drive then, we got our offense rolling. We put them on their heels then."

Up 7-0 entering the third quarter, the Indians started with the ball and the wind, which blew north/northeast, and blew the Tigers away.

Seibel capped another drive with a three-yard score, this time a 10-play, 62-yard variety that took five minutes. Perkins had 34 yards rushing on the drive.

"Coach Piittmann really fired us up at halftime again like he always does. He really wanted us to come out and shove it down their throat and play Kewaskum football," Nuernberg said. "It was a guaranteed thing we needed to get a score that first possession. We did not want their offense on the field again with a chance to tie it up. We wanted to go up two scores."

Less than six minutes later they went up three.

The defense forced a three and out and a 15-yard punt set up Kewaskum on Ripon's 49. Nuernberg and Perkins took this drive over, combining for 48 of its yards. From the 25, Perkins took a swing pass, juke a Tiger and zipped down to the five. He later took it in from the four.

The Indians had unleashed its offensive package called "bulldozer," which, in addition to being able to move earth should it so choose, moves Ripon defenders backward, and quite rudely.

The formation puts defensive tackle Kyle Boehlen (5-foot-11, 276 pounds) and occasionally Schladweiler, a linebacker by trade, in the backfield as blockers. Ball carriers Seibel and Perkins switched in and out to stay fresh and keep Ripon off balance.

It worked. The Indians racked up 264 yards rushing, controlled the clock and scoreboard.

"That's always Kewaskum's game plan, run the ball. Pound it up the middle," said senior center Cole Roberts.

"It was nice running behind Schlady and Boehlen - did some great blocking," Seibel said.

Ripon had a couple of chances to erase the goose egg in the fourth quarter, but the Indians' defense kept the zero on the board. Polcyn was often pressured into throwing early, usually by Ballard, and into coverage, which blanketed receivers like the actual blankets that covered Kewaskum's small but brave fan base at the game.

"We got good pressure on him. Defensive backs I think played really well," Piittmann said.

Kewaskum's defense held Ripon's passing attack to 6-of-19 for 58 yards. The Tigers only had seven possessions the entire game. It was the Indians' second shutout of the season to go along with a couple of near misses.

"I like getting shutouts," said defensive lineman Mack Donath.

"I think that was huge. Our corners played really well there at the end of the game when they started passing the ball," said Seibel. "That just shows that our defense can shut out a team. Our ones (starters) were in most of the game, too, so that was another reason."

Piittmann said the shutout builds momentum.

"We bent a little bit in that first half but we didn't break. That helps. It builds confidence heading into week two (of the playoffs)," he said.

On Saturday, No. 2-seeded Kewaskum (9-1) hosts No. 3 Luxemburg-Casco (7-2), a 40-6 winner at home over Green Bay Notre Dame on Tuesday.

Notes

Running wild: Eric Perkins now has 1,255 yards rushing and 18 touchdowns on 147 carries, averaging 8.5 yards per carry.

PATs good: Hunter Flanders, who had two point-after attempts blocked last week, clobbered all three of his chances Tuesday. One ball, going with the wind, left the stadium. A ball boy brought it back.

Capture the flag: Before the game, a Ripon cheerleader sprinted with the school's big flag to midfield, the team trailing and fans cheering. Kewaskum's quarterback was not happy.

"Mr. (Jason) Last (offensive line coach) actually came up to me, and told me, he grabbed me, he's like, 'Don't let anybody do that on your field.' It got me fired up," Nuernberg said. "Nobody else was really watching it happen. I told everybody to turn their backs around. But I was standing in the middle and I was watching. And it got me fired up so I just kept relaying that on the sidelines we don't let somebody do that in our house."

Windy wonder: Nuernberg said he didn't like throwing in wind. His numbers say otherwise.

"Throwing balls into the wind, they were just going all over the place, like throwing knuckle balls in baseball," he said.

He was a perfect 5-for-5 passing. Piittmann said he was impressed with both quarterbacks' passing in the apocalyptic storm of which the media has warned us.

"Heck, they've been forecasting it for four, five days," he said. Piittmann said he heard it would let up. He was still waiting for that to happen well after the game. "Never felt it."

Planting a laugh: On a deflected pass in the fourth quarter that sailed into Kewaskum's sideline, offensive line coach Jason Last let the ball slip through his hands, after which he took an immediate ribbing from players and anyone else just waiting for the chance to pick on the fun-loving guy with the booming voice and good sense of humor.

"I had seeds in my hands," said Last, adding he dropped them in his awkward reception attempt. Perhaps the school will dedicate a young tree in his honor in spring.

Our sons died in a war full of deception and terrible blunders

Once again I make my plea: consider searching your minds
Some leaders are deceiving you, inspiring this rhyme.

Conservative followers, where is your logic? Are you truly fooled

Into thinking your leaders can save us when they're clearly unschooled

The past two years Republicans have filibustered more then ever before

Obstructing the jobs and energy bills, bank regulation, economic stimulus and more
A recent Supreme Court nod permits large corporate donations to a political cause
Murdoch and News Corp's donating millions to the Elephant surely made you pause
Why choose leaders blocking tax cuts for middle class and those with less

Obama wants those more fortunate to share and help clean up the mess

Your leaders try avoiding higher taxes so their money they can keep

Why don't they want to help our country? It makes me want to weep

The chart shows Republicans consistently added to U.S. financial woes

Because they believed Reaganomics was the perfect way to go

To the Editor

I would like to remind voters that next Tuesday is the most important election of my lifetime. We are in an economic crisis and Forbes Magazine has ranked Wisconsin 48th for business. I served nine years with Scott Walker in the State Assembly and he was never allowed to fight for conservative values. Scott was also very independent and stood up against special interests associated with either party.

We also have a national crisis in which we are spiraling away from the principles that made our country great. Russ Feingold has voted for the European style health care bill and the big spending stimulus package that will do permanent damage to our freedoms. I know Ron Johnson and he will be the type of independent voice who will bring our country back to the principles upon which it was founded. Please join me in voting for Scott Walker and Ron Johnson on November 2nd.

Sincerely,
Senator Glenn Grothman

KMS students perform at Historical Washington County Society

By Mitch Maersch
mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

WEST BEND - A play premiere based on a short horror story had at least one audience member feeling a little more uneasy than anyone else, and that was even before the performance.

The author. As part of the Washington County Historical Society's Ghosts of Washington County activities, this year's Saturday night performance was a play, "13 Names of Hell," based on a short story of the same name by local journalist and author Dave Rank.

"For the past several years, the Historical Society organized a dramatic presentation of an Edgar Allen Poe short story. They also had some additional readings of local folklore," Rank said. "I happen to write horror stories on the side and last year I asked if the Society would be interested in including a few of my shorter works in their Ghosts of Washington County Show. They accepted. This year they asked if one of my stories could be dramatized because they felt they had run through Poe's works." Members of Kewaskum High School's Drama Club performed the play, co-directed by Kewaskum Middle School teacher and play director Nick Brettingen, who knows Rank through the Kewaskum Kettle Community Writers.

"When the Historical Society suggested a production of one of my stories, I thought it would be interesting if actual teens performed it since the main characters were young teens. I asked Nick if he would direct, and he said yes, even though he had to add that to his already busy schedule," Rank said.

"Dave knew I was a director and he had the opportunity for his short story to be directed, so he asked me as a favor if I could do it. I accepted of course and things started rolling from there," Brettingen said.

As about 50 audience members settled into their seats in the old Washington County Courthouse last Saturday night, Rank found his chair, reserved with his name on it.

"I was curious and a bit nervous. I sat in on their last rehearsal, so I knew what was happening," Rank said. "The nervousness came in because I hoped everyone in the audience found it entertaining."

The plot has one teen vying for revenge on his buddies after a Halloween story the year before scared him so bad he wet his pants. He would scare his friends with a tale he found that warns anyone saying the 13 names of hell will trigger the gates of hell to actually open.

Rank wrote the story for boys. But Kewaskum's Drama Club got nearly all girl volunteers. The first challenge was to switch sexes and then develop new, female characters for what would be a slumber party setting. Alyssa Flanders and Dani Neuiszer, in addition to acting, wrote the dialogue themselves in about an hour, with guidance from the directors.

Since some of the sounds and prose from the original story were difficult to adopt, just developing enough material proved difficult. The first version of the play lasted 10 minutes. The plan was to stretch it to 15.

"Turning a short story with not much dialogue into a short skit was a difficult task and the girls created most of the dialogue that was lacking in order to convert the story into something workable on the stage," Brettingen said.

This was a new experience

"I've been in plays but they're two hours long," Christine said.

"I can't believe how nervous I was for a 15-minute play," said Janik.

Directors assigned some of the stereotypical characters.

"We said 'You're going to be the ditz, you're going to be the nerd,'" said Christine.

Janik said some lines, especially the humorous ones, came from everyday conversation, like one character who refused to sing because when she does, "things die."

Neuiszer got to play Esther, the nerd who wet her pants the year before. She had no problems with the role's distinction.

"I don't care. It's fun," she said. "I like acting anything."

Neuiszer's character began the play in glasses and holding books, but quickly changed to a dark-haired goth-like girl and began reciting the names of hell, one by one. With each name, a curse or oddity occurred, scaring each of her four friends. One involuntarily ate a spider, another peed on her pillow, another became ill and another had her stuffed dog bite her.

By the final name, Esther was on stage alone after her friends scattered. A "Star Wars" Emperor-like creature in a black cloak with boney hands had made his way through the open gate of hell behind her. The devil quietly positioned himself behind the teen.

He slowly placed his hand on her shoulder and gave an iconic, evil, deep and slow laugh, sending Esther into a sudden quiet shriek of fear as a look of horror struck her face. The play ends there. The audience is left to wonder what happens next.

Nick Brettingen used one adult character to play the narrator and devil. Tony Janik set the slumber party scene for the audience and Esther's revenge plot before disappearing until the end.

Given this was a premier performance, Brettingen called out the big guns for this play premier. Janik's wife is the beautician for Nick's mother and father.

"I've never done this before in my life," Janik said. "I thought I'd be nervous but I wasn't. I felt comfortable with it. It was a lot of fun."

The girls rehearsed about a month for the play. Familiarity made it easier.

"We worked with a lot of people we were comfortable with," said Brandi Harrington.

Developing their own characters and dialogue helped in learning their parts.

"You just sit there and figure out what you're going to say," said Sarah Boettcher.

The girls said the room proved to be the biggest challenge. They had to talk loudly and slowly because it's "echoey," said Kayla Gallenberg.

Obstacles aside, they had a blast. The girls said they love Nick as their director.

"It was something different. I never did a Halloween show. We just all love acting," Flanders said.

Rank was pleased.

"I thought the kids did a wonderful job interpreting my original story, putting their own spin on my basic plot and injecting quite a bit of humor along the way. They made it their own dramatization," he said. "I enjoyed watching the performance. I thought everyone involved did a great job."

UWWC presents The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee

UW-Washington County will be presenting The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee on two weekends, Friday and Saturday, November 5-6 and 12-13 at 7:30pm in the campus theatre. The Tony award winning musical comedy is directed and designed by Brad Ford, UW-WC Communications and Theatre Professor.

Cast members include: Sheena Delong, Campbellsport as Olive; Ben Dern, Shorewood as Chip; Melissa Hammen, West Bend as Marcy; Kris Holly, West Bend as Panch; Amber Kelling, West Bend as Schwarzzy; Ryan Klug, Waupun as Barfee; Carl Liden, Waukesha as Mitch; Emily Timm, Grafton as Rona and Brian Tuel, Beaver Dam as Coney Bear.

Behind the scenes will be: David Gasperetti, assistant director and lighting; Ginger Starr, stage manager; Tom Utschig, vocal music director and sound; Lisa Schnabel, choreographer; Lisa Rowe, scenic artist; Pat Fox Schindler, costumes; and Carl Liden, props. Other crew members include: Charles Edwards, Nickolas Gryga, Aaron Hetzel, Kris Holly, Jill Hockerman, Aaron Olson, Kayla Pingel, Samantha Starr and Kelsey Westphal.

Anyway you spell it, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee is H-I-L-A-R-I-O-U-S. The story revolves around a group of young middle school spellers who compete for the top prize at the annual spelling bee competition at Putnam Valley Middle School. The tension mounts as the six quirky adolescents cope with overzealous parents, sabotage attempts, teenage crushes and the awfulness of puberty. With its enormously appealing cast of lovable misfits, nerds, and neurotics, the play captures the anxiety, excitement, and heartache that makes growing up so painful and yet so wonderful. A unique part about the production is that each evening prior the show, audience members are encouraged to sign up to participate, and several will be chosen to be "spellers" on stage with the cast.

Based on a book written by Rachel Sheinkin, the play was conceived by Rebecca Feldman with music and lyrics by William Finn. The 2005 Broadway production earned good reviews and was nominated for six Tony Awards, winning two, including Best Book.

"Can you spell irresistible?" According to The New York Times, "Spelling Bee is a Chorus Line with pimples." The Wall Street Journal called it a "rarity of rarities - a super-smart musical that is also a bona-fide crowd pleaser." The Associated Press put it simply, "How do you spell h-i-t?"

For ticket sales and reservations, phone the main office at 262-335-5208 (Monday through Friday 8am-4:30pm). Tickets will also be available at the door (while quantities last). Tickets are $12 adults and $9 for seniors (over 62) or youth (under 18). UW-Washington County is located at 400 University Drive in West Bend. Free parking is available.

Campbellsport Caper October 28

The annual Halloween Caper hosted by the Campbellsport Area Chamber of Commerce (CACC) is just around the corner. It will be held on Thursday, Oct. 28, at Campbellsport Elementary School.

The 17th annual Halloween Caper, will run from 5 p.m. - 9 p.m.

The Caper is such a unique event that no matter the age, from toddlers and kids to tweens and teens to parents and grandparents, all will have a spooktacular time. Events vary widely but all will have a Halloween theme.

Joining the event this year will be Grandpa Fred Turk. He will be performing one show at 6:30 p.m. Grandpa Fred Turk uses his banjo and puppets to introduce his humorous, original songs. He wrote his songs, that stress themes familiar to children such as family, school, and animals, during his 30-plus years of teaching elementary students. Songs include audience participation and many have children performing with him on stage using puppets or other props. He believes that children should be the "stars" of the show.

The traditional hay rides, courtesy of the Campbellsport FFA alumni, will run from 6 p.m. - 9 p.m. The hay wagons will stop at the Haunted Maze at St. Matthew's school and the haunted hallway at the high school.

One additional stop again this year will be at the Campbellsport cemetery. The chamber couldn't resist the urge to go through the cemetery at Halloween time. This will be an educational stop. Everyone on the wagon will learn about a Campbellsport resident who was instrumental in the history of the village.

Of course, one of the stops is at one of the area's best haunted hallways, which will be open for this one night only. Many hours of labor from the Campbellsport FFA members go into this great haunted thriller. Don't miss the chance for a good scare this Halloween season.

The haunted maze at St. Matthew's School is always fun and scary. The eighth grade students come up with some great displays for this scary scene. The haunted maze is open two days - Thursday and Friday.

The Campbellsport 4-H Club is again sponsoring a craft booth, where children can make Halloween decorations. The craft tables will be open from 5:30 p.m.-8 p.m. Face painting, always popular, is sponsored by the Campbellsport Chamber of Commerce.

A tasty menu of seasonal good eats will again be available for everyone. It will feature items like chili dogs, walking tacos, pizza from Ty's Place and much more. A wonderful selection of food will be available for purchase starting at 5 p.m.

Armstrong Apples will be at the event to sell caramel apples. This is a perfect treat for this time of the year and will be a delicious way to end the night or your meal.

For those who love to play games, National Exchange Bank will be having oodles of games for all area children. The games will run from 5:30 p.m.-8 p.m.

A Wii system will be set up for the older children. They can register to participate in a Wii games tournament. You can play all your favorite games to see who is the best. This will be sponsored by the Chamber, Campbellsport Elementary School and Fire Bug Car Wash.

Costumes are encouraged for children and adults to add to the Halloween spirit. A children's costume parade and costume contest will be held at approximately 6:45 p.m. or right after Grandpa Fred Turk's show.

Mood music will be provided by DJ "RPM" of Campbellsport. The music will run from 5 p.m.-8 p.m.

You will again be able to have your children's fingerprints taken and put on a card that you keep in case of an emergency. This will be sponsored by the Campbellsport Police Department.

Everyone will be able to capture this fun event on film. The Chamber of Commerce is setting up a pretty fall scene where a chamber member will take pictures of your children and/or family. You will then be able to go to the chamber website to download these photos. If you have your camera along, you can take your own photo.

The fee to get in is $5 per person, children under three will be free. For a complete event listing and more information, please visit www.campbellsportchamber.org.

This is a great family event filled with all kinds of Halloween fun. You will have so much to do, you won't know where to go first!

If you have never attended this fun-filled event, you have to get to the Halloween Caper. It is a great time for the whole family!

If you have been to the Caper before, don't forget to mark your calendar for October 28th. You don't want to miss all the fun!

Celebrate Halloween with fun family activities

With little witches, warlocks and ghosts galore, the spookiest day of the year is just around the corner. But, why wait until night-time to join in on the festivities?

This Halloween, celebrate from one spook-filled hour to the next with a variety of activities the entire family will enjoy.

Following are a few ideas likely to make your next Halloween celebration a real scream:

Don't Throw Away the Pumpkin Seeds. Save the seeds from your pumpkin carvings and turn them into a healthy Halloween snack. First, let clean seeds dry on a paper towel for 10 minutes. Next, spray a muffin pan with butter-flavored, nonstick cooking spray, placing seeds in the cups and turning them to coat lightly. For a flavorful touch, let's sprinkle on cinnamon and sugar, garlic salt or popcorn seasoning. Finally, bake in a preheated oven at 350 degrees Fahrenheit, turning once, for 10 to 20 minutes or until brown and slightly crisp.

Make a Pumpkin Man. Choose pumpkins or gourds in three different sizes. Insert a dowel or garden stake through the center of each to hold them together and then add stick arms, clothes, a hat and fun facial features. Set your pumpkin man on the porch or near the front door to greet night-time trick-or-treaters.

Prepare a Bone-Chillin' Brew. Quench everyone's thirst with an easy-to-make punch concoction that's sure to keep the party alive. Start with a punch flavor and mix it with frozen lemonade concentrate and lemon-lime soda and refrigerate. Next, pour water into plastic gloves and fasten with rubber bands or twist ties. Then line a baking sheet with paper towels and place filled gloves on paper towels. Freeze for three hours or until firm. Once the "hands" are frozen, cut the gloves off and let the hands float in the punch.

Host a Hair-Raising Bash. Invite friends and neighborhood kids to celebrate the holiday with costume contests, monstrous music and freaky foods, such as this recipe for Spiderweb Munch. This crispy snack is topped with a layer of melted chocolate and decorated with a thin piping of peanut butter to create creepy "webs." And don't forget to add a candy spider on top for an even spookier flair.

SPIDERWEB MUNCH

(Makes 12-16 servings)

- 2 c. semi-sweet chocolate morsels
- 1 c. creamy peanut butter, divided
- 1/3 c. powdered sugar
- 3 c. toasted rice cereal

Heat morsels and 3/4 cup peanut butter in small, heavy-duty saucepan over low heat, stirring constantly until smooth; remove from heat. Add sugar; stir vigorously until smooth.

Place cereal in large bowl. Add 1 cup melted chocolate mixture; stir until evenly coated. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Using small metal spatula, shape into 10-inch circle with slightly raised one-inch-wide border. Pour remaining chocolate mixture in center of circle; spread to border.

FOR SPIDERWEB:

Place remaining peanut butter in small heavy-duty plastic bag. Cut tiny corner from bag. Cut tiny corner from bag; squeeze to pipe concentric circles on top of chocolate. Using wooden toothpick or tip of sharp knife, pull tip through peanut butter from center to border. Refrigerate for 30 minutes or until firm. Cut into wedges.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of AL ROHLINGER, who passed away two years ago, October 30, 2008.

We watched through all your suffering,
And often had to cry,
For very soon we knew that,
We would have to say goodbye.

When days are sad and lonely,

And everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper,
Cheer up and carry on.

Every time we see your picture,
You seem to smile and say,
Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping,
We will meet again someday.

Missed by,
Janet

By the end of August or early September, all operations will cease at the Kewaskum plant of Great Lakes Malting Corporation, said Plant Manager Leo Sapala Jr. during an interview last week. Malting operations have stopped and all that remains is loading of the last shipments of malt and a final cleanup of the plant. Only three of the plant's ten employees are still on the job and their work is now to close down the plant. Low alcohol beer, a general drop in beer consumption and a highly competitive market are some of the factors contributing to the plant's shutdown. The original L. Rosenheimer Malt and Grain Company had its origin in the grain elevator and feed mill operated in conjunction with the store run by Moritz and Adolph Rosenheimer, beginning in 1874. In September 1911, the grain elevator, formerly located just south of the present plant (west side of Eisenbahn Trail, west of former Regal Ware building) was destroyed by fire and the plant was also damaged. It was immediately rebuilt on the north side of the plant, and malt production was continued until Prohibition in 1919. During the years 1919-1933, some barley malt was produced and in 1930 and 1931, wheat malt, an experimental process at that time, was produced for General Mills. After the repeal of Prohibition, normal operations were again resumed. The company contracted with the G. Heileman Brewing Company in 1966 to produce barley malt. The contract was continued until June 2, 1975 when the malt plant was purchased by John Kratz of West Bend. The L. Rosenheimer Malt and Grain Company was then dissolved. Later the business was purchased by Great Lakes Malting Corporation.

During its regular meeting Monday night, the Kewaskum Village Board approved the Fire Department's request to purchase a used 1980 truck chassis to be used for a future second tank truck.

August 6, 1960 marked the 15th Anniversary of the founding of Regal Ware, Inc., Kewaskum, manufacturers of aluminum and stainless steel cookware, giftware, electrical and industrial items. This milestone in the firm's history was fittingly observed with a reception and open house for all employees. The founders and original executive group present at the reception included: J.O. Reigle, president; L.N. Peterson, executive vice-president and general manager; C.E. Reigle, vice-president; Edna Oster, assistant to the president, and A.G. Hron, who recently retired after having been chief engineer and general superintendent. Coincidentally with the anniversary, J.O. Reigle announced that a new 16,000 square foot building, the eleventh addition to the factory in the 15 years, was nearing completion and would be ready for occupancy by September 1. The short history of Regal is resplendent with extraordinary achievements. A world's record was established in 1950 when Lever Brothers Company of New York ordered 2,000,000 kitchen utensils. Up to that time it was the largest single order for premiums ever placed in the aluminum industry. Regal was one of the first American industries to develop and manufacture 105 mm. shell cases out of steel and produced over 3,000,000 for the U.S. Army during the Korean War. In 1952, a special committee from NATO, including military, government and industrial experts from 11 different countries visited Kewaskum to study Regal's methods and techniques. Regal Ware maintains offices in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles and has field representatives throughout the United States, as well as in Canada and Hawaii.

The Rev. Sherwood Haas, a recent graduate of Eden Theological Seminary, will take over as pastor of Salem E and R United Church of Christ at Wayne the week of September 4 and will be installed at a later date. The Rev. Donald Koehn, former pastor of Salem Church, accepted a call to Calvary Memorial Church, Milwaukee, in October of last year.

The Kewaskum Kiwanis Club will sponsor its eighth annual Live Turkey Shoot on September 18, at the Bar-N Dude Ranch, six miles northeast of Kewaskum on County Trunk GGG, in the beautiful Kettle Moraine. The events of the day include many additional activities such as trap shooting, deer target shooting, trout fishing, as well as an entertaining program of authentic Indian dancers in full costume.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dreher, Kewaskum, on August 9. A daughter was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Uelmen, West Bend, on August 9. The Uelmens are former Kewaskum residents. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dye, Route 1, Kewaskum, on August 6. A son was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Theisen, Route 1, Kewaskum, on August 9.

The church was built in 1870 of native boulders which members of the parish hauled themselves from the local area and they also donated their labor in the construction of the church. The land on which the church stands was donated by the late Henry Heberer. A parsonage of stone was also built later.

Judy and Elaine first gave the demonstration entitled, "Stitch and Switch Around the Clock," for the Future Homemakers of America and received an "A" rating. They also gave it at the District FHS Demonstration Contest at Horicon and received an "A" rating there too, which entitled them to give the demonstration at the Wisconsin State Fair.

The Kewaskum Public Schools will open on September 6 with a record enrollment expected. One hundred ten freshmen have registered for the 1960-61 school year as compared to last year's number of 104. This year's high school enrollment is expected to exceed last year's enrollment of 371.

Over 600 pheasants raised this summer by the Kettle Moraine Sportsmen's Association of Kewaskum in the club pens just north of the village were released in the surrounding areas by members on Sunday morning. Aldwin H. Seefeldt, who takes beekeeping as a 4-H project and Fredric A. Seefeldt, prepared and made the exhibit. Alfred H. Seefeldt is a 4-H project leader in beekeeping.

The storm Monday night did considerable damage around St. Michaels. About 25 trees in Mrs. L. Habeck's woods and over 60 trees in Dricken's woods, which included some of the largest standing oaks, maples and hickory were either broken off or torn out by the roots. A large number of fences, corn and other trees on other farms were blown away. This was the worst storm that ever visited the area as long as can be remembered.

On account of other business interests, George H. Schmidt closed out his book store, his entire stock of stationary, public school books, etc. to L. Rosenheimer and Catholic school books to John Marx.

Mrs. Agnes Schaefer, who has been clerking in the L. Rosenheimer Store for the past 11 years, resigned her position which took effect last Saturday.

NOTICE OF GENERAL ELECTION AND SAMPLE BALLOTS

November 2, 2010

OFFICE OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK
TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY

Notice is hereby given of a general election to be held in the several wards in Washington County, on the 2nd day of November, 2010, at which the officers named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, together with the questions submitted to a vote, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall state his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth or machine and cast his or her ballot except that an elector who is a parent or guardian may be accompanied by the elector's minor child or minor ward. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate a particular voting choice.

A straight party vote is a vote for all the party's candidates listed on the ballot, unless the elector casts a vote for a candidate of another party, writes in the name of a candidate or applies a sticker. A straight party vote cannot be cast for Independent candidates. At the general election, if an elector wishes to cast a straight party vote for all candidates nominated by any party, the elector shall select the party of his or her choice and:

Where an optical scan system is used, fill in the oval next to the party designation. Where touch screen voting systems are used, the elector shall select the button next to the party designation.

To vote for individual candidates, where an optical scan system is used, fill in the oval next to the candidate's name for whom he or she intends to vote. Where touch screen voting systems are used, the elector shall select the button next to the candidate's names for whom he or she intends to vote.

To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, where an optical scan voting system is used, the elector shall write the name of the candidate of his or her choice in the space provided for a write in vote. Where touch screen voting systems are used, the elector shall type in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided for a write in vote.

An elector must vote for Governor and Lieutenant Governor jointly on one ticket. A vote for Governor is also a vote for Lieutenant Governor. To vote for persons whose names do not appear on the ballot, write the names of individuals for both offices on the lines provided.

On referenda questions, where marksense voting is used, the elector shall fill in the oval next to "yes" if in favor of the question, or the elector shall fill in the oval next to "no" if opposed to the question.

On referenda questions, where touch screen voting systems are used, the elector shall select the button next to "yes" if in favor of the question, or the elector shall select the button next to "no" if opposed to the question.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If an elector spoils a marksense ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initialed by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. The elector may spoil a touch screen ballot at the voting station, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth. Sample ballots or other materials to assist the elector in marking his or her ballot may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After casting his or her vote, the elector shall leave the voting booth, properly deposit the ballot, and promptly leave the polling place.

After an official marksense ballot is marked, it shall be inserted in the security sleeve so the marks do not show. The elector shall then insert the ballot in the voting device and discard the sleeve, or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit.

After an official touch screen ballot is marked, the elector shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing, or understanding English, or that due to disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. The selected individual rendering assistance may not be the elector's employer or an agent of that employer or an officer or agent of a labor organization which represents the elector.

The following is a sample of the official ballot:

Bears beware - local ladies have successful hunt

Danielle Dreher, 22, of Kewaskum waited 10 years to get a bear tag in Wisconsin but 2010 was her year. She is shown at left with her 456 lb. black bear taken in the Wabeno area after the two met face to face on Friday, September 24. The weekend hunt was a girls' weekend, three girls in the Dreher hunt group each harvested a bear. Dreher's family has been hunting black bears in northern Wisconsin for 30 years. She recalls being apart of her family's hunts since she was a baby. She fell in love with the hobby and began participating in the hunts since the age of nine. Since that time, she has raised and trained many dogs each and every summer. "In fact for the last four or five years, I have not missed a single weekend of training," she says. The third party in her group getting her bear was Brooke Balk, 15, of Eagle who harvested a 130 lb. black bear. Dreher concluded, "It was the first time we had an all 'ladies weekend' and it was awesome!"

Gridiron games feature plenty of defense

By Judy Harlow

Talk about a thrilling day of football. In playoff action last Saturday, two Kewaskum teams lost by one point and eight points and another ended in a tie before the fifth graders (5-2) posted the only win of the day, a 13-6 decision over Thiensville-Mequon Red.

"It was the first time we (he and assistant Mark Walcheske) ever beat these guys," coach Jeff Logan said. "It was great!"

After a scoreless first quarter, the young Indians got their first TD on a 12-yard sweep by Cole Surprenant. Gabe Christenson added the PAT.

Linebacker Faton Elmazi set up the score when he stole the ball from one of the T-M at the T-M 9-yard line.

To open the second half, Danny Kreis had a nice kickoff return, then Surprenant broke loose for a 52-yard touchdown.

The Cardinals scored late in the third quarter, then the Indian defense took over. Brandon Heckendorf and Austin Heberer both recovered fumbles, and Ayrton Lehmann intercepted a pass with 1:30 remaining.

The sixth grade game featured a whole lot of defense after the teams had back-to-backs cores in the third quarter.

The Cardinals threatened in the closing minute, but the Indians (3-3-1) held on for a 7-7 tie.

T-M scored first, according to coach Joel Tietz, who said, "The following drive we scored on a 35-yard run by Brady Hanson," capping a 60-yard drive.

Dalton Poole scored the PAT on a QB sneak.

The Cardinals threatened at the end of the game, reaching the Kewaskum 2 when they ran out of time.

"It was just a well played game by both sides," Tietz said, praising the efforts of Derrek Brock, who "gave us some good minutes at defensive end," and Connor Enright, who "stepped in and made some nice plays at cornerback."

The seventh graders (4-3) started like a bang and then fizzled, resulting in a tough 13-12 loss.

"The opening quarter we scored two touchdowns," coach Randy Schlice said, reporting, "Josh Baker had both of them, including a 40-yard run and a 30-yard screen pass from QB Michael Prochnow."

The first extra point was scored on a QB sneak, but the Indians missed on the second.

T-M got the go-ahead TD with just two minutes remaining. "We fumbled on our 40-yard line, and on the first play, their guy broke through and went all the way," Schlice said.

Kewaskum drove to the visitors' 10 but could not get in the end zone.

Defensively, Bert Elmazi "had another good game," according to Schlice, who cited Sam Fechter for good defense with a couple of sacks.

"We just made too many mental mistakes," Schlice said.

Except for two big plays at the end of the first half, the eighth grade game was a dead heat.

"They (Cardinals) scored with 10 seconds left in the first half," Kewaskum coach Rolly Maul said, reporting one of the T-M halfbacks broke away for a 60-yard run. On the next play, the Cardinals scored on a QB bootleg. They added the extra point and won 8-0.

"Our defense played excellent," Maul said, praising all his starters, especially Garrett Buth, L.J. Pinchard, who "played pretty well," and Dylan Thull, who "is always there" as the middle linebacker.

With a couple minutes remaining, the Indians, now 3-4, forced T-M to punt and started a final drive at their own 12. After a first down, Bille Lehmann hit Max Vetter with several rollout passes but on the next play, the ball was tipped and intercepted by the Cardinals.

"The kids gave a good effort," Maul said, indicating inconsistency hurt the offense.

KHS runners set personal records at Sheboygan Falls meet

By Mitch Maersch

mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

Kewaskum's cross country runners had four personal records at last Saturday's Eastern Wisconsin Conference meet at Sheboygan Falls.

Abby Backhaus paced the girls by finishing 31st in 18:50. April Stern was next in 34th in 19:04.

Jessica Nurkala edged teammate Lindsay Zuehlke in a photo finish, Nurkala 44th in 20:34 and Zuehlke 45th in 20:35, a personal record.

"Kelsey Koller crossed the finish line for the last time in her Kewaskum career with a PR time 21:01 in 48th place," said Coach Heidi Korth.

Tess Bandy was 51st in 21:54 and Allie Schmidt 55th in 23:01.

As a team, the girls scored 202 points, seventh of seven teams. Kiel won the conference with 44 points, barely edging Plymouth's 47.

"The girls ran well, though we were hoping for more PRs," Korth said.

Stern will be running in Saturday's sectional meet in Mayville.

For the boys, Chris Wetzel finished in 21:52, good for 40th place. Matt Vogt was 45th with a PR time of 23:57 and Austin Johann 47th with a PR of 24:49.

Kewaskum's April Stern was 70th of 97 runners in 18:57.63 at the Division 2 Mayville cross country sectional last Saturday. Stern was the only Kewaskum runner to advance.

Haley Johnson of Plymouth won the race in 14:48.6

Top awards go to Winkler

By Judy Harlow

KEWASKUM- From her first experience, Kate Winkler was hooked on the game of golf. Winkler, who won four letters competing in the sport at Kewaskum High School, recalls her dad being the one who got her started.

"After fifth grade, my dad put me in this golf camp at Hon-E-Kor," Winkler said over the weekend, after being named the MVP and captain of the 2010 KHS team. "I just kept going, and when I got to high school, I really, really liked it."

Yes, despite the fact there isn't much glory associated with girls golf, Winkler was happy with her decision to stick with golf.

Success wasn't instant, especially considering the Indians play golf in the Wisconsin Little Ten Conference against much larger schools as Hartford and Oconomowoc and Watertown.

There were no all-conference honors her freshman and sophomore seasons, but as a junior Winkler earned third-team honors, and this year she made the first team, finishing with the second-best average in the league.

Winkler averaged 47.7 per round in the WLT (with the highest score thrown out), and only Taylor Egnarski of Watertown bested that mark by averaging 44.8.

Concerning the most memorable moments of the season, Winkler said, "Oh gosh, there are so many ... I think the van rides (to the meets). We also have so much fun. That or my final putt at sectionals. It was a 30 or 40-footer. The pin was in the front and my ball was in the back. I made it and got a par ... the last putt of my high school career, and I made it."

Her favorite course? That's easy, Thornberry Creek, the site of the Division 2 sectional where Winkler shot a career-best 90. "It was beautiful," she said, indicating the course is surrounded by million dollar houses, some of them owned by Green Bay Packer players.

And does Winkler intend to continue playing golf? "For sure. I don't know about (playing in) college. I'm trying to get into Madison and don't know if I'm good enough to play there," she said. "If Madison doesn't work, I want to go to Whitewater."

Winkler also noted how much she and her teammates enjoy working with coach Amy Piwoni. "I love Amy as a coach," she said. "We all cried (at the banquet). She said we were like her kids."

Letter winners honored at the banquet included Sienna Warnecke (51.3 ave.), the Most Improved Player, Megan Gavin (55.1) April Basterash (58.4) and Heather Zuehlke (53.4), who missed the last several meets because of a broken finger. All but Basterash are seniors.

"Overall I thought we had a very good season in and out of conference," Piwoni said. "Saying goodbye to four very classy seniors was tough to swallow. These ladies have been an absolute pleasure to coach over the years."

Indians top Huskies to head to playoffs

Sam Olla turns to move the ball after receiving a 25 yard ball during the second quarter of Thursday's game at New Holstein.

By Mitch Maersch

mitch@kewaskumstatesman.com

NEW HOLSTEIN - Coach Jason Piittmann categorizes this year's defense as a bend-but-don't-break model.

Last Thursday, the Indians turned into Plastic Man before shifting into The Fantastic Four's The Thing when they needed it most.

Kewaskum's D made one amazing goal-line stand and four more huge stops inside the red zone in winning the regular season finale on the road last Thursday against playoff-bound New Holstein, 18-13.

With 1:45 left, the Huskies got the ball on their own 38 down five. Junior quarterback Sam Cash scrambled for eight, threw for 17 and scrambled for seven more and got out of bounds. After a three-yard pass, Cash scrambled again out of bounds for a 12-yard gain to the 15, leaving 24 seconds on the clock and not many nails left on which to chew for fans of either team.

Piittmann had gone to a three-man front, playing coverage and occasionally blitzing one man.

On first down, Cash sailed a pass to the left corner of the end zone. A catch wins the game. All-Conference cornerback T.J. Schlice had his man smothered and knocked away the pass.

On second down, Cash tried the same exact thing. So did Schlice.

On third down, Cash took off up the middle and reached the eight before several Indians converged.

Time expired. Kewaskum survived.

"That's what I've been waiting for all season. I've been waiting for a couple passes to come my way," Schlice said. "We just knew we had to stop 'em, so everybody got pumped up and blew it up."

"We knew we had to stop 'em. It was right there or nothing," said linebacker Bo Seibel. "They were coming close, like, every time the ball was in the air I was getting scared. T.J. played well on the corner and stopped 'em."

"Made it interesting," Piittmann said.

The Indians finished the regular season 6-1 in conference and 8-1 overall, the only loss to Eastern Wisconsin Conference champ Plymouth, 14-6, just like last season. New Holstein finished 4-3 in conference, 6-3 overall.

It was a night in which the offense couldn't get on track and the special teams looked like it missed the bus to the game. Kewaskum gave up a kickoff return for a touchdown, muffed a punt that New Holstein recovered, got two extra points blocked and on a missed field goal got a penalty for running into the kicker, letting the Huskies make the field goal from five yards closer.

"Little things make big differences. We scored three touchdowns. Three PATs makes that a lot different ball game," Piittmann said. "A fumble here, a penalty there, little things make differences.

We were fortunate we made just enough plays to come out ahead."

Before the dramatic last drive, Kewaskum's defense held the Huskies on fourth down deep in Indian territory. New Holstein drove from Kewaskum's 45 to the 14 all on running plays and one 15-yard face mask penalty.

On fourth and five, the Huskies tried a screen pass that had worked in the first half for 12 yards. This time, linebackers Joey Wollner and Seibel combined to tackle Cody Thede for a two-yard gain.

A first-quarter goal-line stand was even more impressive. On fourth and 10 from the Indians' 23, Thede ran up the middle for 10 yards, just enough to keep the drive alive and maintain the Huskies' already building momentum. Two quarterback scrambles took the ball to the two.

On first and goal, a Jake Entringer run left moved the ball inside the one. He followed with a run up the gut. Kewaskum stuffed it.

New Holstein tried a sweep left on the next play. Thede never got out of the backfield. Seibel, an All-Conference linebacker, blasted through the line like a racehorse out of the gate and made a solo stick for a four-and-a-half-yard loss back to the five.

The Huskies were forced to kick a field goal and settle for a 10-6 lead, a four-point swing that played much bigger later.

"We had two big stops right there. I got the tackle for a loss and that really, like, took the steam away from them. Then they had to settle for a field goal so that was huge," Seibel said.

"It was huge. Six points compared to three. That's big," Piittmann said.

New Holstein threatened again on the next drive, before the Indians forced a third and eight on their 20. Lineman Mack Donath and Matt Ballard stuffed a Cash scramble up the middle for no gain, and Wollner nearly picked off a fourth-down pass.

In the third quarter, the defense held tough again after the Huskies recovered a muffed punt on the 13. Ryan Ogi tackled Entringer for a two-yard loss, and Donath brought down Thede for no gain. Wollner and Seibel shut down a sweep for no gain and the Huskies had to try another field goal.

Ross Klapperich's 32-yard kick hit the right upright and bounced away, but the Indians were called for running into the kicker. Klapperich was good on the second chance from 27 yards, giving New Holstein a 13-12 lead.

"We were resilient. We never give up. That's the big thing," Piittmann said. "We had goal line stands in a couple of other games, too. Our backs were against the wall."

Offensively, Kewaskum did just enough but never really got going. After rushing for 200 yards in seven of its first eight games, The Indians were held to 112 on 30 carries.

Down 13-12 late in the third quarter, Kewaskum evened out the muffed punt recoveries when Brad Boegel and Brandon Chapman combined to recover a muff on the Huskies' 15.

On third and five, Eric Perkins gained four on a sweep left but the Huskies were called for a horse collar tackle, giving Kewaskum first and goal at the three. Seibel took it up the middle for the score on second down.

The two-point pass was incomplete and Kewaskum had an 18-13 lead.

On the Indians' first drive, trying to respond to Klapperich's 92-yard kickoff return for a score to start the game, Perkins hit Andy Doll for 39 yards on a halfback option. Perkins later scored on a 21-yard option right. The blocked extra point made it 7-6, Huskies.

After Wollner's near interception on fourth down, the Indians went to work again. A roughing the passer penalty moved the ball to the 35. Quarterback Cody Nuernberg hit Sam Olla, who outbattled a defender, for 25 yards and later hit Seibel for 26 on a middle screen.

New Holstein forced fourth and goal from the two, and Nuernberg used a playaction pass to hold the linebackers and then lofted the ball to Ogi in the back of the end zone. Another blocked extra point and it was 12-10 at half.

"We never got a rhythm going. That's what killed us," Piittmann said. "Part of that is what they did. They did things to try to take away Perkins and it was effective. We were able to do enough, though."

The Indians had said since the week before they didn't want to back into the playoffs. They attained their goal and didn't, but had their backs shoved against the wall a few times.

Notes

Eric Perkins finished the regular season with 1,171 yards on 132 carries and 17 touchdowns, averaging 8.87 yards per carry. He is still dragging around that flashing neon sign that says "tackle me" after early in the season running through teams like he was in his living room.

Yard marker injured: On third and 11 from their own 21 in the first quarter, Perkins bobbled a swing pass and angled toward the sidelines as he picked up speed as he secured the ball.

Defenders gave a shove and Perkins went airborne at breakneck speed toward his bench. The yard marker guy got the yard marker stuck in the ground and it ended up getting cracked on the play.

Being the gamer it is, the yard marker was taped up and stayed in the game. It is listed as day to day.

Happy belated birthday, Josh Dreher! The Kewaskum football team's manager emeritus who has been with the program for years turned 23 on Oct. 16. The team sang to him in its huddle after the 45-6 win over Sheboygan Falls. The Kewaskum football team will not be on "America's Got Talent" anytime soon, at least not for its singing.
