Lady Indians make school history with EWC title

Kewaskum shortstop Caitlin Rinzel falls on her back after putting the tag on Campbellsport's Cassidy Erickson in a strike-'em-out, throw-'em-out double play to end the fourth inning Tuesday at Campbellsport. Kewaskum won, 4-0, to seal the Eastern Wisconsin Conference title outright, its first in school history. See article on page 19.

St. Agnes Convent, School named to Register of Historic Places

By Mitch Maersch
Statesman Correspondent

WEST BEND - Somewhere, Richard and Margaret Driessel are grinning. Their dream of forever preserving the St. Agnes Convent and School has come true.

Last Saturday morning, the Washington County Historical Society unveiled a plaque at the official ceremony marking the site being named to the National Register of Historic Places.

The designation means the integrity of the two buildings' architecture must be maintained, which will happily be the responsibility of the Historical Society.

"Now they can't bulldoze this place. Now they can't leave it in disrepair," said Sister Deborah Golias.

Richard Driessel, a doctor and founder of the Barton Historical Society who wrote a book on the history of Barton, and Margaret loved the place so much they bought it and lived there five years when the city threatened to tear it down.

The Driessels ended up giving the site to the Historical Society.

"They are the ones that really saved this place from being demolished," said Golias.

The Driessels in the 1990s rebuilt much of the home at 1386 Fond du Lac St., making up for years of ignored maintenance.

She knows exactly what their reaction would be to Saturday's ceremony.

"They would be saying 'I told you so,'" Golias said with a laugh.

Saturday also marked the culmination of three years of paperwork by Janean Van Beckum,

Surviving Survivor: Boehlke dishes about what viewers didn't see

By Mitch Maersch
Statesman Correspondent

Days after the final show aired, after a family and class trip to New York City and college graduation, Andrea Boehlke can finally begin to reflect on her "Survivor" experience.

Boehlke, a Random Lake High School graduate and prom queen, took fifth place on the show. She did receive some money but doesn't want to say how much. First place got $1 million, second $100,000 and the totals incrementally decreased.

Her sister, Sabrina, who sometimes gets mistaken for Andrea since the two look alike, was crowned prom queen in Kewaskum last Saturday. The pressure is now on for the youngest, Sharla.

Boehlke graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point last Saturday with a degree in theater and she was the only one in her class to receive callbacks from agencies, possibly because of "Survivor." Some casting directors in New York are diehard fans.

She said she would love to host a show she is passionate about someday, like Jeff Probst has done with "Survivor" the past decade.

Boehlke said she still isn't sure how much of Phillip's antics were an act, but she said at times he couldn't fake having a temper that well.

Knowing what she knows now, she would have played more strategically to try to win. She said she felt bad voting off her best friend on the island, Matt, for a second time, but that he blew it when he revealed their secret plans to Rob and left her without much of a choice.

One of the most likable characters on the island, she said she is proud of how well she did in challenges and that she didn't lie or deceive people often. She was also known as one of the show's hardest workers. The self-described perfectionist was paranoid about how she would be portrayed but was pleased with her edit.

Aside from the show, she has two Facebook fan pages she had nothing to do with creating.

Boehlke said she stays in contact with everyone from her tribe except Grant, who is married and at a different life stage. She also talks with Ralph and may appear on Russell's reality show "Flipped" on A&E.

She said she is taking the positive experiences from the show, the biggest being her family being brought closer together, especially her and her dad, whom she saw briefly on the island.

Boehlke is signed up to do a CBS charity event in Louisville in June and may do more through the show. She relishes the opportunities she never would have had without "Survivor."

She stopped by the Statesman this week on the way to a job interview to share some of the things viewers don't see on TV.

Q: Any reaction now that it's over?

A: I'm in a really good spot with everything. I look back and when the show was going on it was relatively hard to actually watch sometimes. I'm just a perfectionist. I was, like, super paranoid. They're going to make me look like this. I can't believe I did that. It turns out everything was fine. I got a really good edit.

It was cool seeing all the support with the family. It's also kind of nice to be done. It's sad because it was really fun curator of collections and exhibits with the Historical Society. She completed the detailed task of making sure everything was filled out correctly to get on the National Registry.

Father Kasper Rehrl came to Wisconsin from Rome in the mid-1800s and started a school so nuns could educate future generations and to preserve the religion of those who immigrated to Wisconsin, mostly Germans along with some Native Americans. They attended mass at nearby St. Mary's.

In 1858, Agnes Hazotte knocked on Rehrl's door. She had to meet the reverend before being allowed in.

"He looked at her and said you are my child of destiny," said Golias.

The Sisters of St. Agnes was founded. She worked 49 years there.

In 1870, Rehrl took his mission to Fond du Lac and founded more than 15 parishes and schools in the Fond du Lac and Sheboygan area. He is buried next to Agnes today.

Golias said their spirit is still alive in West Bend and Fond du Lac.

New director of the Historical Society Patricia Lutz said Saturday's ceremony reaffirms the society's dedication to the site. She said she hopes to develop an educational plan and remodel the interior of the building this year.

While rich in history, being named to the National Registry could be just the beginning.

"I hope we get national attention," said Golias. "This is an example of frontier religion. We may have national guests here."

About the site

The covenant/mother house was built in 1858 adjacent to the original home bought by Barton founder Barton Salisbury. It is supported by nearly two-foot thick fieldstone walls. Original features include four gothic windows with pointed arches, a fireplace and a root cellar with access via a trap door.

The front porch was added in the mid-1990s when Rehrl's barn was remodeled. Planks from the barn line the ceiling in the kitchen.

The rectory was built in 1860. After Rehrl's death in 1881, an unknown number of people moved in and out of the home.

In the 1950s, owners tried to dig underneath the building to install plumbing, but the front wall sagged. The house was left vacant and in need of repair until the Driessels fixed it in the 1990s.

Most of the original plaster with milk paint remains in the first floor rooms.

Today, the Historical Society rents the house to Ryan Smith, whom Golias says has been wonderful about understanding its historic significance.

The barn was built in 1877 and housed animals and farm equipment. Narrow slits inside the wall allow for ventilation and an original rung ladder leading to the second floor. On the east gable is "R.K.R. 1877" marked by Rehrl.

Cedar Community increases inpatient rehabilitation unit to meet demands at Cedar Lake

WEST BEND - To meet the increased need for inpatient (also known as subacute or short-stay) rehabilitation care among a growing adult population, Cedar Community recently announced they have shifted the use of 24 long-term skilled nursing beds in its Cedar Lake Health and Rehabilitation Center to short-term rehabilitation. "This trend toward more admissions in need of rehabilitation had us turning away subacute patients," said Joanne Bodien, director of clinical services.

Cedar Lake is currently licensed for 229 skilled nursing beds and increased the inpatient rehab beds from 33 to 57, creating a third subacute unit to the existing two. Essentially the entire second floor of the health and rehabilitation center is now designated for short-term rehabilitation. Other physical changes include the addition of a speech therapy room, an additional therapy gym and office space to accommodate additional physical, occupational and speech therapy staff. Nursing staff has also been increased.

Cedar Community's inpatient rehabilitation programs primarily serve orthopedic patients who have had a knee or hip replacement, falls and fractures, or neurologic injury patients who have experienced a stroke, Parkinson's disease and / or generalized weakness. "For patients who are ready to be discharged from the hospital but aren't quite ready to go home, our subacute programs are their bridge to recovery," Bodien said. Many patients discharged from our short-term care units to their homes continue outpatient therapy through Cedar Community's Cedar Haven Rehabilitation Services, also located at the Cedar Lake location, or Cedar Home Health, their home care division.

Since additional inpatient therapy beds were implemented in April, Bodien reported subacute admissions are up 25 percent. "Cedar Community's planned approach to service development will allow us to best meet the future needs of local residents for rehabilitation care. Combined with our 18-bed short-term unit adjacent to St. Joseph's in West Bend, we are now the largest inpatient rehabilitation provider in the region."

The nation's 86th largest not-for-profit continuum of care provider, Cedar Community's mission is to "create relationships, services and environments to enhance the lives of individuals they serve." Its facilities are located on five campuses in Washington and Sheboygan counties. Additional divisions include independent and assisted living, skilled nursing care, rehabilitation, hospice, memory loss services, subacute and home care.

Birthday celebration benefits food pantry

In celebration of her 11th birthday, Katelyn Schultz, Farmington Elementary School Student Council President, decided she wanted a party that included the entire 5th grade. With a group that large, it was a good opportunity to raise some awareness and gather donations for the Kewaskum Community Pantry. In lieu of gifts, her friends were asked to bring a donation to the KFP. They were incredibly generous and when the directors of the KFP arrived to pick up the items, the donations filled their entire van. Submitted photo

Women's Club mostly about giving

The Kewaskum Women's Club began 100 years ago with helping the local library by donating books and held their meetings there also. Through the years, the club has always made philanthropic contributions to the community library, schools, girl scouts, village conservation and beautification projects, local festivals, food pantry, free clinic needs and two scholarships (worth $300 and $700).

The 13th annual Women's Club Salad Luncheon was held on April 9, and was a success with the donations from local businesses that allowed the club to contribute back to the community a total of $2,150 to the Kewaskum Library and summer library programs, Albrecht Free Clinic, Boys and Girls Club, Kewaskum, Wayne and Farmington Elementary Schools, Holy Trinity School, St. Lucas Lutheran School, the Kewaskum Community Pantry, Concert in the Park, Gateway to the Arts Festival and Girl Scouts (who will hopefully be future Women's Club members).

The Kewaskum Women's Club extends an invitation to area women to join their group who enjoy making contributions to the community. Anyone interested may call President Joan Wszalek at (262) 343-2178.

Please patronize our brat fry on Saturday, May 28, 2011 at Piggly Wiggly during the village-wide rummage sale and see the energetic members collecting more contributions to give back to the community.

Washington County Memorial Day Flag Program

WEST BEND - The Washington County Veterans Services Office coordinates this annual event that honors all of our County's deceased veterans. This program has its beginnings in the late 1930's early 1940's when George Kolb, Washington County's first County Veterans Service Officer (CVSO), was elected by the County Board, and it has continued since that time.

Each year volunteers, which consist of individuals and veterans organizations, ensure that all of the current 4,674 veteran grave sites in 89 different cemeteries throughout the County are marked with an American Flag. A total of 1,070 flags will be placed in the Hartford are alone this year. There has never been a shortage of volunteers for this program. Most volunteers even identify and help train their replacements when they themselves can no longer participate in the program.

The grave locations of each veteran buried within Washington County are maintained in the CVSO office in West Bend. Each year the CVSO office staff orders the required number of flags, prepares the necessary listing for each group of volunteers, and issues the required number of flags and flag holders necessary to ensure all grave sites are marked.

The Washington County Board has, and continues to support this County wide program each year. This program would not be possible were it not for cooperation between the Washington County Board and those who volunteer each year to get the flags placed. This is a good example of cooperation between local county government and the community. So this Memorial Day when you travel through the County and see those flags flying you will now know just how they got there.

Respectfully,
 Joan A. Russell

and awesome, and being in New York with all those people was a lot of fun. But it's also cool to be like, OK, I'm going to take a breather back at home, you know, do this for a while before I decide what I'm doing next.

Q: How has the adjustment been to being a bit of a celebrity?

A: It's interesting because I just see myself as hey, it's me. I just do the same thing. Close friends it's the same thing except on Wednesday nights Andrea is on "Survivor." Being in a college town is really interesting because when I'd go out at night. It's so funny because at first ... that's the "Survivor" girl. There she is. I was, like, oh my God, this is so embarrassing. Sometimes, guys will do, like, pickup lines. This one guy was like heard you were on "Survivor." But can you survive this? And I was like, Oh, my gosh, and my friends were, like, go away.

Q: What did you miss most?

A: Food. I think everyone misses food because you're thinking about food and you're just, like, drooling, because you're, like, seriously daydreaming about it. It's worse when people start talking and then you're, like, why can't I just go to the refrigerator and get something?

Q: What kind of stuff did you guys eat?

A: Rice (laughs). We had our rations of rice. In the beginning, Francesca was one of the people that - she made nine cups of rice which was a lot, but she got sand in it so all of our rice went to waste. And then in the next batch, someone decided to make it with sea water because they're like, oh, it will be salty. And it was awful and nobody would eat it. Looking back, at the end when we were running out of rice then I would have been eating sand with rice. There were crabs and that's about it, unless you won awards. Everything was not in season - the fruit, the coconuts, they were overripe. I was, like, why can't you put us on a place where there's tropical fruit?

Q: So how many meals did you guys miss because of the sandy and sea salt rice?

A: When we first got there we didn't eat for two days at all. Nothing. The third day we made that rice and we tried eating it with the sand but we didn't get very much. It was probably, like, five days without eating a meal. And then when you started eating it wasn't really a meal. You're eating a handful in the morning and a handful at night?

Q: How do you even think straight?

A: Exactly. That's why it really affects, like, how you think about things or you see people going off and getting so upset. I mean, some of that's maybe the personality, like maybe Phillip is kinda like that. Also I think a lot of it is credited to how much you're eating, and you're not sleeping either. You sleep on the bamboo and you have all these palms on top. And then at night it's dripping on you and it's cold. It sounds so miserable and at times it was really miserable.

Q: What kind of animals did you see?

A: There was a ton of howler monkeys. It was kind of cool when we'd wake up we'd hear them. We saw some snakes; we saw whales; we saw sloths. We did see puma tracks at night. We'd wake up the next morning and see these tracks right by our shelter. That was interesting. Never saw one. They usually come out at night.

Q: What was (Redemption Island) like compared to the camp?

A: We actually got more rice on Redemption Island. On Redemption Island, you got a ration of rice each morning so everyone got what we should have been eating, but because we wasted so much rice in the beginning and then there were maggots in the rice ... at the end we were skipping as many meals as we could. When we got to Redemption, I'm like, you guys are eating a lot here. This is awesome. I was almost full after eating.

Redemption was really beautiful. The scenery at Redemption was awesome. It's cool because once you got there you stopped thinking about strategy or being paranoid. It was really calm but it got boring really fast.

Q: What did you guys do to pass the time?

A: It's so funny. Lay around. And then at times you're like, OK, let's go gather wood. And then you gather wood for an hour. Because everything you do you have to do really slow because if you pick up something too fast you get dizzy. Because you're so tired. You take as long as you can to make rice. You sit around and talk and make rice, and you eat it as slow as you can.

Q: What did you guys drink?

A: We had a well at each place. That was good because you need water.

Q: Anything you want people to know that they don't see on TV that you think they should know about the show?

A: Just the whole you're not eating, you're not sleeping. That also so much time goes by. Like, a day out there seriously feels like a week. And that's why you grow so close to these people. All of a sudden you're blindsided or someone's voted out that's your friend. Like, you take it really hard because that's the only thing you have to cling on there, is, like, some relationship that you thought you built.

He's very good at hanging out with you and making you feel like you're comfortable. And he pits people against each other. He did that so well.

Q: Would you do this again?

A: It sounds so lame but yeah, I would. It's hard to pass up because I did have a lot of fun out there. What I'm taking from it is I'm forgetting the bad times. I remember times like eating on top of a volcano and when I got to see my dad out there. That was so amazing. I had some breakdowns throughout the shows. Everyone did. Then again, stuff like that is what gets you airtime.

Q: They flew your dad out there?

A: They flew him out there. He was out there for a week. He just won't stop talking about it, even now. They had such a great time because him and all the other loved ones got to basically be in Nicaragua and go out, go to the markets, go to all these resorts and eat as much as they can on CBS.

Q: So they didn't have what you guys had. Total opposite.

A: No, they were eating and living like kings. Then they came and saw us and it was really emotional. I saw him I was, like, dad, hey, what's up? And he was very emotional. It was just amazing to actually be able to hang out with a family member, someone that you completely trust.

Q: Do you think that hurt you in the end possibly, you were almost too good for your own good?

A: That's what's unfortunate about the game. The reason I was voted off which Rob quoted was she's likable, a challenge threat and a hard worker around camp. Oh, OK, sorry. I thought that's what maybe "Survivor" was but ... (laughs). That's what's so weird. You're almost better off getting to the end if you're unlikable and bad at challenges like Phillip. But then again if you're the one pulling the strings, like Rob, who is hard working and good at challenges and strategic, then you can bring those people to the end.

Q: Who were your better friends that you're going to keep?

A: Right now probably Matt I talk to the most. Their family's awesome. My mom is, like, so possessed with getting me with Matt. It's so funny.

Ralph, talks to Ashley and Natalie, talks to Phil and Rob, everyone but Grant because he's married - off doing his own thing

Q: Anything you learned specifically about yourself going in you didn't know?

My skin got a lot tougher, just in general. There are blogs out there that are so mean. It's so easy for someone behind a computer to rip you apart and make fun of you. You have to remember that these people see this edited version of you that's a show that's a game that's supposed to be about lying and stuff.

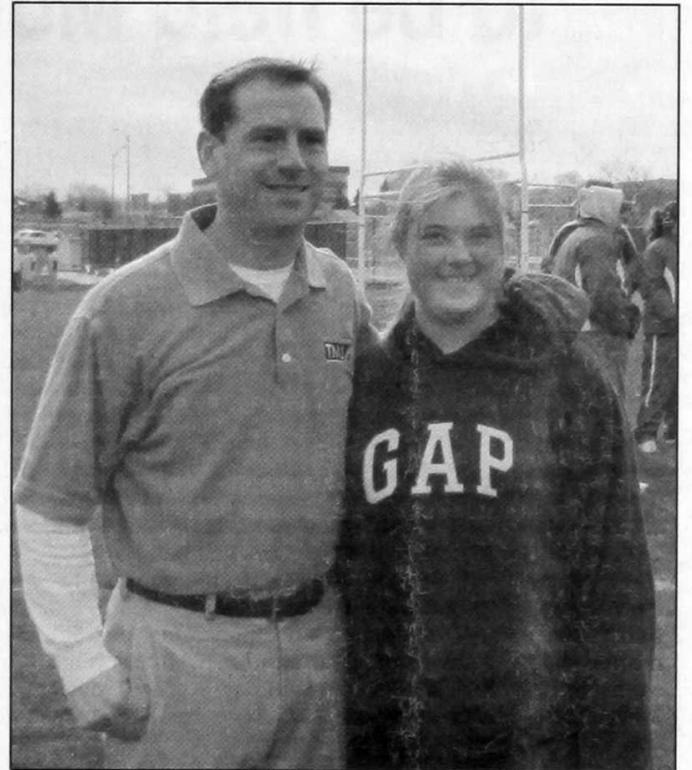

Also, just remembering about how you think about things in life in general. Remember your perception of it and the good that comes from it and take that, and just dismiss the rest.

Q: What do you want to do with (your theater degree)?

A: Anything in the entertainment business or there's always the farm. There's always Gateway (laughs). As long as I find something I'm happy doing, which I'm confident I will, it will work out. If I could host a show I really, really like ...

On watching herself on "Survivor": My mom would always joke, yeah, we're having such a blast at your expense. I'd be up at school studying while I'm watching "Survivor" and, like, paranoid they're going to like show the time I let Phillip give me a massage or something. Just stuff like that, I'm like, oh no!

Kettle Moraine kicks off summer programs

Memorial Day Weekend marks the official start to summer season at the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit. Every weekend from Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day is filled with entertaining and educational nature programs for preschoolers through adults. All the programs are free, except some events will be held at locations where a Wisconsin State Park System vehicle admission sticker is required.

These fifteen weeks of sensational summer fun begin on Friday, May 27, at 8:30 p.m. with a night hike on the Zillmer Trails (located off Hwy SS between Hwy G and Hwy 67 near New Prospect). We will be exploring the dark looking for birds of the night. On Saturday morning at 10:00 a.m. wander over to the Mauthe Lake Recreation Area (located off Hwy GGG south of Hwy SS near New Prospect), or the Long Lake Recreation Area (located off Division Road north of Hwy F near Dundee) to join the Saturday Morning Nature Sleuths. The Nature Sleuths will be solving mysteries of nature as part of the Wisconsin Explorer program for ages four and up. On Saturday afternoon from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the Mauthe Lake Recreation Area, or on Sunday from 12:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the Long Lake Recreation Area, drop in at the beach to discover the unique adaptations birds have that help them to fly and survive in a great variety of habitats. You can stop in for a few minutes or stay for an hour.

For the fourteenth year, Friends of the Kettle Moraine are sponsoring the Summer Saturday Evening Events. On Saturday evening, May 27, at 7:00 p.m., come to the Ice Age Visitor Center (located off Hwy 67 half mile west of Dundee) as Jackie Scharfenberg, Forest Naturalist, presents the program, "Taste of Nature: Wild Edibles." Learn what plants are safe to eat and let your tastebuds decide which are "good" to eat.

Venture outdoors, take the trip to the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit, and join us for our fun-filled and educational summer programs. For further information, directions to forest locations, or to request a complete summer schedule, contact the Forest staff at the Ice Age Visitor Center. The staff can be reached at (920) 533-8322. The center is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., and on Saturday and Sunday from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Moraine Park holds Endurance Challenge 2011; KHS places fourth

Kewaskum High School students placed fourth in Moraine Park Technical College's seventh annual Endurance Challenge held May 12 in Fond du Lac.

Seniors Brandon Speirs, Tanner Schaub, Andy Bullette, Nick Wendelborn and Tim Otten modified the engine, giving them the time of 13 minutes, 13 seconds. Seven other high school teams participated.

Their technical education instructor, Bryan Puls, was very proud of how his students performed in the challenge. "They were able to develop teamwork skills, engine diagnosis and gained valuable knowledge from the day," he said.

The event is sponsored by Moraine Park's Engine Research and Development Technician program and allows high school students to use their mechanical, math and creative talents to make their engines more fuel efficient.

Engines donated by Briggs and Stratton were modified by each team in the classrooms. The goal was to get the best fuel efficiency and run the longest. The students and instructors brought the modified engines to Moraine Park; they were filled with the same amount of gas then timed. Moraine Park faculty, staff and students, as well as employees of Kohler Co. and Briggs and Stratton assisted at the event.

Each member of the winning team will receive a $250 Moraine Park scholarship if they enroll at Moraine Park. Other prizes were donated by Kohler Co., Briggs & Stratton, Snap-on and Moraine Park.

For more information on Moraine Park, visit morainepark.edu.

March 10, 1961

After several months of Indian Summer and a practically snowless winter, a vicious blizzard swept into this area and all of southern Wisconsin with a vengeance on Wednesday, creating widespread havoc as it closed roads, schools and factories. The storm dumped from six to 10 inches of snow in this village. The snow was accompanied by 25 to 30 mile an hour winds with gusts up to 45 miles, piling snow into drifts of three to four feet high.

In one of the biggest basketball attractions ever staged here, outstanding stars of the Green Bay Packers football team, champions of the Western Division of the National Football League the past season, will come to Kewaskum to play an exhibition game with the Kewaskum Chevrolets in the Land o' Lakes league on March 18 in the spacious high school gymnasium. Members of the Packer squad include such famous former college and professional grid stars, as Tom Bettis, linebacker; Leu Carpenter, halfback; Gary Knafelc, end; Bob Skoronski, guard; Bart Starr, quarterback; Fred Thurston, guard; Dale Hackbart, defensive back; Ray Nitschke, linebacker, and Babe Parilli, quarterback. The team is coached by Norb Hecker.

A deal involving several local persons was closed in this village during the week which found John F. Schaefer purchasing the filling station and garage on the corner of East Water and Main Streets from John Honeck, the owner. Mr. Schaefer will continue to operate the place as a filling station and the garage portion will be turned over to his son, William, who operates a trucking business, and who will use the space as a storeroom and repair room for his trucks. Mr. Schaefer will also continue to conduct his present garage and milk transportation business. Up to the present time, the station was operated by Clarence Kueck, who, as a result of the Schaefer-Honeck transaction, has leased the K.A. Honeck garage on South Fond du Lac Avenue and will conduct his business there in the future. By that time, it is expected that K.A. Honeck, who recently purchased the former Schaub garage on Fond du Lac Avenue, and who will conduct his garage there in the future, will be ready for his opening in that place and as soon as he vacates his old place, Mr. Kueck will take over the reins.

The following people were the leaders in good conduct in the primary room of the Kewaskum School: Eileen Backus, Glenway Backus, Lois Klukas, Doris Mae Stahl, Betty Krueger, Junior Kaniess, August Bilgo Jr. and Jean Rosenheimer. These pupils were winners in the good conduct contest in the intermediate room: Marian Ramthun, Lorena Vorpahl, Lavern Ramthun, Lillian Werner and Wilmer Bunkelmann. The honor roll consists of Erhardt Schultz, Rachel Brauchle, Lois Koch, Marian Ramthun and Erna Lubitz.

Again it becomes our sad duty to chronicle the death of another pioneer resident of the Town of Wayne, namely, Jacob Meinhardt Sr., who passed away at his home, 1/2 mile south of Kohlsville on January 23.

The extreme cold wave of last week, when the mercury dropped close to 30 degrees below zero, finally disappeared from this vicinity on Tuesday of this week, but only temporarily, for on Thursday another less severe one arrived, but this one is due to end Saturday. According to weather reports the seige was the worst since 1912, having lasted for about one week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Schulz of the Town of Kewaskum, a nine-pound baby girl last Sunday evening. An eight-pound baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Herriges of St. Kilian on January 24. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. Staehler of this village on the birth of an eight-pound baby girl on January 25. On January 26, the big bird stopped off at St. Kilian again, this time leaving a seven and one-half pound baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Batzler on January 30. Mr. and Mrs. William Kumrow of near Beechwood were blessed with an eight-pound baby girl. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lierman of Beechwood are the proud parents of a baby boy born to them on Sunday.

February 7, 1936

Tickets for the Senior Class Play to be presented on February 14 and 15 are finding ready buyers. The cast of "Trouble in Paradise," includes Earl Bartelt, Vilas Bartelt, Ray Pfenning, Anthony Uelmen, Kilian Honeck, Howard Schmidt, Otto Weddig, Viola Backus, Lucille Romaine, Janice Koch, Marion Petermann, Doris Mae Rosenheimer, Delbert Backus, Eleanor Schleif, Elaine Schleif, Dorothy Backus, Paul Schmidt, and Carl Kohlschmidt. The Minvet Dancers are Dolores Horning, Ruby Menger, Frances Bunkelman and Norma Hawig. The singers are Eleanor Schleif and Armand Mertz.

Snow fell in this vicinity almost all day Monday and throughout the night, followed by more snow on Tuesday which was accompanied by a severe wind. And, of course, as an aftermath to this another cold wave of 18 degrees below zero struck on Tuesday evening. Traffic was still badly hampered and many country residents were still snowbound from a previous snowstorm and were unable to get to town except via bobsled, although many were unable to get there even that way and were compelled to walk or at least walk to a main highway first, when, from out of nowhere comes another storm, more severe than the previous ones, making matters worse than they have been in many, many years. Snowdrifts packed in cement-like fashion, 16 and 17 feet high, are common throughout this entire area.

A fuel shortage in this village was relieved over the weekend, when the L. Rosenheimer Company here received three cars of fuel last week, the tonnage being sufficient to take care of present needs. Although the A.G. Koch Company has had a supply on hand up to Thursday of this week, they are also short now, but expect two cars that should nearly be here. Coal in shipments is being delayed because of snow-blocked roads and railways through the entire state.

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kruepke on Hwy. 45-55, one mile south of Gumm's Corner became the haven of safety and comfort by 26 people who were overtaken by the intense cold and drifting snow which stalled their cars and trucks near there recently. Most of those marooned were travelers who were far from home. The people remained there for nearly 2-1/2 days before the roads were opened and they were able to be on their way.

February 14, 1936

This village, state and neighboring states were confronted with another severe blizzard which raged all day Saturday and part of the night, and although only about three inches of snow fell, the terrific wind closed all roads and passages up completely so that traffic was again shut off from Saturday until Tuesday, including the railroads. The stinging cold that accompanied the storm made even walking very difficult. Automobile drivers stated that they could not even see the fronts of their cars in many instances. On Wednesday afternoon of this week, when traffic was again starting to move more regularly, more snow began to fall and continued through the night. By Thursday morning the snow was still coming down. Ever since 1881 we have been hearing the older residents mention time and again of the severity of the winter of that year, which according to them, was the most severe of all -- up to this winter. Now at last, they are beginning to admit that this has that one topped and from now it is agreed upon that when reference is made to winter, it will be the storms of '36 that will be the main topic of discussion around the stove in the general store on the corner.

For a real, good old time, come one and all and dance to your heart's content at the Lighthouse ballroom, two miles north of West Bend on Highway 55 on February 16, to the modern and old time music of Pep Babler's W-I-S entertainers and again on February 21 with music by the same orchestra, at the last dance before Lent. Admission is only 25c at both dances.

Gonring says pitching is team's strength

By Mitch Maersch
Statesman Correspondent

Coach Doug Gonring said his baseball team's greatest asset this year will be found on that elevated portion of the diamond.

"The pitching is going to be our strength, and we've got to throw strikes," he said.

If that first pitch is a strike, Gonring said guys often tend to "make themselves out."

Kewaskum's mound patrol includes returning hurlers Cody Nuernberg, Mike Schladweiler, Brad Boegel and Lucas Kopeschka. That's where the team's quality and depth will be found.

Nuernberg made the Eastern Wisconsin Conference's first team as a pitcher last year. Boegel was Player of the Year in the conference, and made the all district and all state first teams, much due to his hitting. The sophomore belted 15 home runs.

Schladweiler made first team as a utility player. Kopeschka received honorable mention as a pitcher.

Others to see time pitching include Mike Holt, Garrett Yahr and Tony Gonring.

Behind the plate is junior Brandon Chapman, who Gonring said has done a good job so far in the first few games.

First team all-conference shortstop Sam Olla is back for his senior season to lead the infield. Yahr will play third next to him, replacing second team all-conference infielder Steve Kudek, lost to graduation.

In the outfield, gone are speedy centerfielder and EWC second-teamer Brandon Zolp and first team all-EWC outfielder Cody Seibel. Nuernberg, Kopeschka and Gonring will see time replacing them.

The Indians have the proverbial target on their backs after going 17-1 in the EWC last season, only losing to Sheboygan Falls, 3-2, in the third-last conference game. Second place went to Campbellsport and New Holstein, each with 10-8 records.

Early in the season, Kewaskum already had four games in by Tuesday, and had gone through a season's worth of hills and valleys.

On Saturday, the Indians blew a 4-3 lead with one out in the seventh inning at defending state champion Franklin and lost, 5-4. In the second game of the doubleheader, Saber Jay Dirienzo hit three homers and had seven RBIs to Kewaskum's one hit a 12-2 game shortened to five innings via the 10-run mercy rule. Boegel had Kewaskum's hit, a two-run homer.

On Monday, the Indians took an 8-0 lead and hung on for their win of the season in their home opener against state qualifier New Berlin West, 8-2. Boegel hit a no-doubt blast to left center and Yahr hit a liner over the left-field fence for a two-run shot.

Schladweiler pitched four innings and got the victory. He allowed two hits, whiffed one and walked two. He snuck out of trouble in the fourth inning after a hit, error and walk loaded the bases with nobody out.

On Tuesday, Kettle Moraine Lutheran came to town and won, 11-1, in a five-inning game.

Boegel, who plays first base when he isn't pitching, is already back to swinging a smokin' bat. He has three home runs in four games, including the Indians' only run on Tuesday.

"He's swinging the bat. We only had two hits (against KML) and you don't win ball-games with two hits. We've got to start putting the ball in play," said Gonring.

Gonring said an error in the second inning opened the floodgates to five runs, and the Indians didn't bounce back. A combined five walks didn't help on the mound, nor did nine strikeouts at the plate.

With a young team, Gonring said he figures on some young mistakes - and improvement.

"Hopefully, we get more intelligent," he said.

The Indians were scheduled to host Port Washington on Wednesday, and West Bend East on Friday in a rematch of a sectional semifinal Kewaskum won 2-1 in the last at-bat last season. On Saturday, Kewaskum hosts Homestead.

Conference play begins on Tuesday when the Indians host Kiel.

Larsen's 83 is good enough for eighth place

By Judy Harlow

FOND DU LAC- While the team finish wasn't what Kewaskum's golfers were hoping for, the lone senior on the starting five, Alex Larsen, had a good outing at the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Tournament on May 19.

Plymouth wound up with a 6-stroke cushion over Sheboygan Falls, 321 to 327 in the 18-hole medal tournament. Campbellsport wound up third at 335, followed by Two Rivers, 335.

Kewaskum coach Glenn Eichstedt had his charges aiming for a top-four finish but their 355 total put them in the sixth spot.

The team had two good scores but as has been the case much of the year, couldn't come up with the four they needed, Eichstedt said.

Alex Larsen, fired an 83 in the event held at Whispering Springs. Larsen came in with nines of 40 and 43, good for a tie for eighth overall. He finished the front nine with five straight pars.

"He's been somewhat of a surprise this year. He's shown steady improvement and more maturity as a senior," Eichstedt said about Larsen's efforts.

Chris Backmann of Sheboygan Falls had the best round of the day, a even par 72 but it wasn't enough to overtake Plymouth's Geno Kiela for the 2011 medal, based on scoring in all seven (rain wiped out the second to last mini-tour event which will not be made up) mini-tour events and the EWC Tournament.

Kiela, finished with 74 points, while Bachmann was next with 66. Rounding out the first team all-EWC were Tyler Siech of Plymouth, 54 points; Aaron Krueger, 44; and Ryan Newberry.

Kewaskum was not represented on the first or second teams. Tony Gonring scored 7 points during the season, good for 19th overall.

Plymouth successfully defended its EWC title, scoring 12 points for the year, nine ahead of Sheboygan Falls. Kiel and Campbellsport finished in a dead heat for third place as each scored 33 points, then came Two Rivers in fifth with 42; Waupun, sixth at 60; New Holstein, seventh with 61 points, and Kewaskum last with 62.

After Larsen's 83 came Dan Bohn's 84. His nine-hole scores were 43 and 41. The others KHS counters were Gonring and Nick Banks, who fired rounds of 93 and 95, respectively.

The Indians are scheduled to play in a Division 2 regional at Plymouth on May 25th.

Backhaus, Schraufnagel, Stahl lead Indians to fifth place finish

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

It wasn't the team finish coach Jerry Gosa was hoping for at the beginning of the season, but there were several good individual efforts from the Kewaskum girls in their fifth place effort in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Championships on May 17.

No one came close to dethroning Plymouth, which won the title with an amazing 215.5 points. Sheboygan Falls was a distance second at 122, followed by Two Rivers and Kiel, with 119 and 80 points, respectively.

Kewaskum earned 51.5 points, 1.5 ahead of Waupun's 50.

Junior Aly Backhaus, sophomore Ashlee Stahl and freshman Kate Schraufnagel were standouts for the Indians, placing in multiple events.

"She has developed into a nice triple jumper," Head Coach Jerry Gosa said about Backhaus, who took second and won a medal in the event with a leap of 32 feet, 1.25 inches (32-01.25).

Along with Tess Bandy, Natalie Bandy and Megan Ringwell, Backhaus was a member of the fourth-place 4x100-meter relay team, which was clocked at 55 and 01 second (55.01).

Backhaus also helped the 4x400 relay team to a fifth with a time of 4:31.95. Other members of that quartet were Tess Bandy, Stahl and Megan Ringwell.

Schraufnagel has shown significant improvement in several events this season. Her top finish was a fourth in the long jump with an effort of 15-03.75.

Schraufnagel also took sixth in the 400 (65.79) and eighth in the 200 (29.03).

"She (Schraufnagel) runs the 400 like it should be run," Gosa said, adding the 65.79 was her fastest of the year.

Stahl equaled the winning height in the high jump, clearing 4-11, but she lost first and second places on misses, finishing in the third spot.

"The wind was kind of bad (for jumpers)," Stahl said, noting, "My last jump at 5 feet was pretty good ... I made 5 feet at the Vander Pan" she is confident she can make that height in the regionals and sectionals.

Stahl also took fifth in a very fast 800 (2:39.12). "My 800 has been decent this year. I think I have been running it slower because the weather wasn't been good."

Val Hedlund, a junior, also had a good outing, taking fourth in the 100 high hurdles (18.31) and eighth in the 300 hurdles (55.58).

Sophomore Brianna Jacak added 4.5 points with her tie for fourth in the high jump (4-8).

Other Lady Indians who placed in the top eight were: 400 — Britney Peterson, 8th, 66.29; discus — Molly Potter, 8th, 97.04; pole vault — Tess Bandy, 7th, 6-06; and long jump — Kayla Oelhafen, 8th, 14-01.75.

The Kewaskum boys and girls teams were at Wisconsin Lutheran College Monday for the regional meet, and Kewaskum hosts a Division 2 sectional today (Thursday) with field events set to start at 3:30 p.m. and running events at 4:00.

Indians sweep Campbellsport to make school history

By Mitch Maersch
Statesman Correspondent

CAMPBELLSPORT - Liz Schaller was about in tears; Courtney Krueger was speechless.

The first fast-pitch softball conference title in school history and in their senior years does that kind of thing. So does a dominating shutout of Kewaskum's closest rival on the road to seal the deal, one day after a nail-biter against the same team at home.

"That was my goal from since I made varsity my sophomore year. All I wanted was (this) my senior year and I'm so happy right now," said centerfielder Schaller, who gave Coach Jeff Gosse a big hug after the game.

"I'm, like, speechless," said first baseman Krueger. "I'm really proud of the team and all that. We really worked hard and we deserved it."

With a 4-0 victory Tuesday, Kewaskum and its seven seniors won the Eastern Wisconsin Conference outright with a 12-2 record, edging Waupun at 11-3. The Indians wrapped up a share of the title after beating Campbellsport, 3-2, at home on Monday, but didn't find out until after the game. Plymouth had beaten Waupun, 7-6, ensuring the Indians at least half of the top spot.

Sharing wasn't in the cards as sophomore flamethrower Jenny Reicher (14-3, 1.46 earned run average) had her stuff Tuesday, allowing three hits, whiffing six, walking one and hitting two. From the third through sixth innings, she faced the minimum 12 batters.

The Indians' hitters laid off of high heat and did just enough, led by Reicher's two RBI singles, Krueger's two singles and two runs, and Michele Marquardt's two doubles, one RBI and one run.

"It's nice. We've been building this program for four, five years now, and we got it to the point where the last three years we knocked on the door and we finally got our way through," said Gosse.

The Indians finished last season at 11-3, losing two close games to 14-0 Waupun and one to Plymouth. In 2007-08, the Indians were 9-5, behind Waupun's 13-1 and Campbellsport's 12-2.

This year, the Indians put themselves in position by splitting a doubleheader at Waupun, and then put their title chance in jeopardy by splitting with Plymouth days later.

"You know, I didn't know. After that Plymouth game I thought we blew our chance," Gosse said. "We got some breaks along the way and the kids played hard. They didn't give up so I was real proud of them."

"We have been wanting this for a long time and having it my senior year is really important and means a lot to me," said senior catcher Abby Amerling.

"That means a lot to me. We worked hard as a team to get here and that's a big goal that we accomplished this year," said junior third baseman Marquardt.

On Tuesday, leadoff hitter Krueger grounded two singles up the middle in her first two at-bats in the first and third innings and came around to score both times. In the first, Reicher reeled her in with a rope single to left. In the third, Michele Marquardt smacked a fly ball to left center for an RBI double.

The Indians had a 2-0 lead after three, just what Gosse had drawn up.

"Go out and put runs on the board right away and put pressure on them," he said.

The Indians added a run in the sixth inning on a clutch sac fly by senior Rachel Backhaus. With speedster Schaller waiting at third, the pinch hitter bunted foul twice and got behind in the count. She then lifted a fly to center that scored Schaller without a throw.

"That's huge," said Gosse.

A 4-0 lead looked nice and necessary as the Cougars loaded the bases in the seventh, the first time they reached third all game. A double, dropped pop-up and hit batter had the bags full with one out as Kewaskum could smell a title and perhaps became a little anxious.

Reicher dug deep for a swinging strikeout of the No. 8 batter, and took that momentum to do the same to the No. 9 hitter as Kewaskum's fan base roared. Conference title - alone at the top.

"It's a great achievement and I'm glad to be a part of it," Reicher said.

In the midst of mowing down the Cougars' lineup, Reicher got help from her defense, which employed creative use of three-up, three-down in the fourth. With a runner on first and one out, Reicher struck out the No. 6 hitter, and Amerling fired to Caitlin Rinzel at second base to stop an attempted steal. Rinzel caught the ball and held her ground to make the tag as the sliding runner knocked her on her back.

Junior Aubrey Hart took the loss, allowing four runs on nine hits, whiffing seven and walking none.

On Monday, the Indians gave fans their money's worth (even though admission is free) in building a 3-1 lead and hanging on.

Up 3-2 in the seventh, Reicher got a groundout and then a strikeout. But the ball got away from Amerling, and she fired to Krueger at first just in time to get the Cougars' leadoff hitter. A fly ball to left that was nearly overran ended the game.

Reicher allowed two runs on four hits, whiffed nine and walked three.

Offensively, senior Jennifer Beiswenger was the batter when all three runs scored.

In the second inning with Amerling at third and one out, Beiswenger put down a bunt instantly grabbed by the Cougars' third baseman, who bypassed throwing to first for the out and turned to check Amerling instead.

Gosse said the "safety squeeze" was on, but Amerling didn't look all that safe as she froze halfway down the baseline, hung out to dry. But the third baseman quickly fired to the shortstop covering third, rather than running Amerling back, let her break for home and score without a throw.

In the fourth, with Amerling on third and Schaller at second and one out, Beiswenger ripped a line drive single up the middle that scored both on a two-strike count.

"I've been seeing it good lately. I just drove it. Anything close I've got to swing," she said.

Hart allowed three runs on four hits, whiffed eight and walked one.

Last Friday at a doubleheader at Kiel, the Indians swept, 13-1 and 10-3.

In game one, Reicher allowed two hits, whiffed six and walked two. Leading hitters were: Amerling, two triples, two RBIs; Marquardt, three hits, three RBIs, three runs; Reicher, three hits, two RBIs; Krueger, two hits, three RBIs; Erica Chesak, three hits, one RBI; and Rinzel, a triple, one RBI.

In game two, Marquardt allowed eight hits, whiffed three and walked one. Amerling went 2-for-3 with a double and two RBIs, and Marquardt went 2-for-3 with two RBIs.

As jubilant as the Indians were on Tuesday, focus can't end or their season will. Today, the playoffs begin. No. 2-seeded Kewaskum (17-5 overall) today hosts No. 7-seeded Brown Deer (3-14) at 4 p.m.

The winner faces the winner of No. 3-seeded Slinger (10-9) and No. 6-seeded Mayville (12-11) on Tuesday. The higher seed hosts until state.

Gosse said he likes a 2 seed better since top seeds get a bye and could get rusty. Thanks to rainouts, Kewaskum has gotten into a rhythm of playing often - 15 games from May 3 to 23.

"What's nice about that is we can keep playing. We don't have to take a week off," he said. The players know their work is far from over.

"It's going to take a lot because we can't just sit there and think we're going to win. We have to play hard and expect the hardest," said Amerling.

"We've got an attitude that we want to go out and win and play our hardest and try our best," said Marquardt.

Bohn explodes, helps end five-game skid

By Mitch Maersch
Statesman Correspondent

Kewaskum soccer team's biggest losing streak this season was just about singlehandedly stopped by its smallest player.

Senior Christine Bohn, short but quick and explosive, scored twice and assisted on a third goal in a 3-1 win against Brown Deer on Tuesday, halting a five-game skid.

Sophomore Sam Smallish scored once and had one assist, and junior goalie Kayla Bastian came up with some big second-half saves to help preserve the victory.

The Indians moved to 5-10-2 overall and remain 4-8 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

"We need to string some wins together here so we can go into regionals on a positive note," said Coach Luke Piwoni. Playoffs start next Thursday, June 2.

Bohn got the scoring started at 19:51 on an assist by Smallish, and the score was 1-0 at half as the Indians couldn't capitalize on several scoring chances.

Brown Deer tied it at the 45:15 mark, and nobody scored for the next 25 minutes.

At 70:38, Bohn scored on a direct kick that gave the Indians the lead for good.

"She played a great ball right over the top of the keeper and underneath the crossbar. It was a great shot because the keeper was really tall. I don't know how she put that one in there," said Piwoni.

Up 2-1, Bastian saved a ball headed for the far post.

"She ranged over, just got a hand on it and pushed it out wide," Piwoni said.

Bastian made another huge save when the ball quickly crossed over from one side of the field to the other. A Falcon tried to go near post and Bastian couldn't go down for it so she made a kick save, one of nine for the game.

"Kayla made some very big saves in the second half for us," Piwoni said.

At 77:18, Smallish put one in back of the net, on an assist from Bohn.

"She set her up perfect and Sam took her time and got a good shot," Piwoni said.

He said each team had about 10 shots on goal. The Falcons had about six corner kicks and the Indians four, so Piwoni said the game was about even.

Except Kewaskum had Bohn, Smallish and Bastian. Brown Deer didn't.

The victory ended a run of playing five tough conference opponents: New Holstein (8-3-1) twice, 3-0 and 4-0 losses; Plymouth (9-2-1), 2-0; Sheboygan Falls (9-2), 3-0; and Campbellsport (7-5), 4-2.

"We knew that was going to be a challenge the way our schedule lined up for those five," Piwoni said.

On Monday, New Holstein won 4-0 on goals at 14:00, 42:00, 56:00 and 73:00. After the third goal, Piwoni moved Bastian to her original position of sweeper and put Katie Schulteis at goalie in trying to go more offensive to get back in the game.

He said the Indians had chances but couldn't get make the final touch or final shot to finish them.

Last Friday, Campbellsport avenged a 4-3 overtime loss at Kewaskum on April 7 with a physical, 4-2 victory. It was the Cougars' eighth straight victory from May 7-20.

"They were really hungry. And they've been on a good streak. Real aggressive, real physical," Piwoni said. "This was by far the most intense battle that we've been in. just the overall game, the physicality and intensity of it."

Campbellsport's star and one of the best and fastest players in conference, sophomore Paige Birschbach, got the scoring started at 3:35.

Bohn nearly tied it up at 4:50 as she raced toward the goal, but hit the post. At 7:22, Bohn got one through as she dribbled from the left side of the goal to the right, and shot back left past the goalie to tie the game.

At 19:52, Bastian slipped on a long rolling ball, and at 22:53 another snuck through her hands. The Cougars had a 3-1 lead, just like in the first meeting.

Bohn scored again at 26:10, sneaking the ball over the outstretched goalie's hands, and the comeback looked to be on. It was 3-2 at half.

The Cougars controlled the ball more in the second half, but didn't light up the scoreboard. Piwoni put tall and fast George Abfall on Birschbach, which dented the offense but was a necessary move to stay in the game.

"George did a phenomenal job. We really kept her in check after that," he said.

With 14 minutes to play, Kewaskum had a chance with a corner kick. Campbellsport cleared the ball and Birschbach began racing down the field in an equivalent of a basketball fast break.

Seconds later, Birschbach assisted Theresa Flood for her second goal. At 66:23, it was 4-2 and the air came out of the Indians. There would be no comeback this time.

Bastian made eight saves. Piwoni said she settled down after getting over the initial shock of seeing Birschbach blow by the Indians' defense.

"She can just outrun everybody. I think that was a little wakeup call," he said.

The Cougars subbed plenty more than the Indians. Piwoni had to bring up a junior varsity player just for a third person on an already thin bench at full strength. Kelsey Phillips is out ill for the season, and Valerie Schiebel is out with a torn ACL.

Good news could be on the way, however. On Thursday, Kewaskum plays at Two Rivers, a team it beat 10-0 on April 28. On Tuesday, it closes the regular season at home against Waupun, which it beat 6-0 on May 5.

As expected, Plymouth's boys' track team had too much individual talent and depth for the other seven teams in the May 17 Eastern Wisconsin Conference Championships.

The Panthers won two of the three sprint relays and posted 1-2 finishes in the 200-meter dash and the 1,600 run en route to amassing 179 points, more than enough to claim the 2011 crown.

Two Rivers placed second with 105.0, with a resurgent Waupun program third with 103. Kiel just missed the century mark with 99.5 points, followed by Kewaskum in fifth place with 54, then came Sheboygan Falls, 44; New Holstein, 39; and Campbellsport, 24.

The Indians had legitimate shots at winning three events, and they came up short in all three, one by several inches and two others by the blink of an eyelash.

Favored to win the pole vault, senior T.J. Schlice had problems trying to adjust to a longer pole and had to settle for third place behind Eric Roberts of Plymouth and his teammate, Joey Wollner, who cleared 12 feet, 6 inches (12-6) and 12-3, respectively.

When the event started, there was a tailwind for vaulters that did not turn out to be an asset for Schlice, who started out at 11-6 and struggled right away, missing his first two attempts at that height.

KHS fans breathed a sigh of relief when Schlice made the height on his third try and cleared 11-9 on his second attempt, which looked smooth from the takeoff to the landing.

Schlice also looked very good, making 12-0 with better than a half of a foot to spare. It was here Schlice decided to pass at 12-6, but later could not make the height.

"On all three attempts, he was over" but caught the bar coming down, vault coach Josh Parent said.

"It just changes his timing," Parrent said, about the difficulty with the placement of the standards, which prompted the switch to the longer pole.

Still Parrent's confident T.J. and Wollner have a good chance to qualify for the state meet in La Crosse.

While he was disappointed not to win, Schlice is determined to do well in the regional and sectional. "I've just got to practice with it more," Schlice said about the longer pole, and when asked if he thinks he can hit 13 feet outdoors, he said, "Fourteen."

Wollner was delighted with his afternoon of work. "That's my first time at going over 12-3," he said, adding, "I have a feeling I can come back and add a foot next week."

It was pretty obvious the 4x200 and 4x100 relays races were going to come down to the Indians against Plymouth. Handoffs were going to be important as well as establishing a little cushion for the anchor man.

The race came down to Perkins and Plymouth's anchor, Dylan Tripoli, who pulled just slightly ahead with 25 meters to go, giving the win to the Panthers, 1:33.78 to 1:33.88.

"Our handoffs were fine," Perkins said after catching his breath. "We got the hand-off around the same spot. He (Tripoli) had the inside lane."

Other KHS runners in the event were Teddy Wollner, Schlice and Joey Wollner.

The same foursome came within .20 of a second of beating Plymouth in the 4x100, with the times at 44.58 and 45.18.

Another close finish came in the long jump where Perkins finished fourth, going 20-05, just .25 of an inch from third, .50 out of second and one inch out of first place.

Still Perkins was happy to eclipse the 20-foot mark for the first time this season. That's my best jump," Perkins said.

Perkins placed in a fourth event, finishing fourth in the 100 (11.56) with Teddy Wollner eighth (11.76).

Schlice added a third in the high jump (5-10) to his resume. Running back and forth between vaulting and jumping is not easy to do, as Gosa has pointed out more than once this season.

Sophomore Corey Burdick earned sevenths in the high jump (5-8) and pole vault (11-0), while Andy Doll chipped in with a fifth in the discus (133-10).

Note: Burdick cleared 12 feet in a meet held on Thursday, so "Now we have three vaulters that can go 12 feet," Gosa said.
