Paraprofessionals head back to 4K classes

By Mitch Maersch
Statesman Correspondent

Two and a half paraprofessionals are being hired to help 4-year-old kindergarten across the Kewaskum School District after a quick debate at a special School Board meeting last week.

The board, reacting to several teachers and others who spoke out against the shift of paraprofessionals to only serve special education students at the Sept. 12 meeting, held a special meeting two days later to address the concerns.

Most of the meeting was spent with board members trying to figure out what the difference was in paraprofessionals this year, often with zero or old information.

Board member Tim Ramthun asked for the difference between this year and last year. Interim Superintendent David Ewald said he didn't have that.

Steve Jensen cited staffing information he printed out from the district's website, which he was told was dated, which he said pointed out another problem.

"What I'd really like to know is how many paraprofessionals we exactly do have," he said.

Though public comment wasn't allowed since the meeting started 30 minutes before an expulsion hearing and time was short, the board let Kewaskum Elementary School principal Jody Heipp explain KES' paraprofessional staffing. KES has eight paraprofessionals but none serving the general 4K population.

Ewald said he did some research on Wayne and Farmington going back several years. He said neither ever had full-time paraprofessionals, just a couple of hours worth here and there. But those involved with 4K were concerned. At Monday's board meeting, Kewaskum Elementary 4K teacher Cathy Wilson described her

By Andrew Kuehl

KEWASKUM- Celebrating 100 years of manufacturing high-quality cookware in the United States is a noteworthy event in these days of challenging economics and increasing trade deficits. Doing so with 80% of the workforce being employed for 25 years or more is nearly unheard of.

Kewaskum based Regal Ware, will be doing just that when they hold their "Celebration of a Century!" on Saturday, September 24 at their manufacturing facility in West Bend on Schmidt Road.

Customers from as far away as Japan will be joining Regal Ware in their celebration from 11 a.m. - 3 p.m. Leo W. Gerard, International President of the United Steel Workers Union, will also attend the event.

Activities scheduled for the day include: factory tours, live music by Maple Road, drawings for cookware (must be present to win), a historic union memorabilia display, car show featuring cars from each decade 1910-present, entertainment by Ballet Folklorico Mexico en la Piel, games for all ages, pony rides and a bounce-house for kids, clowns, face painting and weather permitting, a hot air balloon.

Admission to the West Bend Co/Regal Ware Historic Museum on West Washington Street in West Bend will also be complimentary for the day.

Food and beverage will be available for purchase; proceeds will benefit the Student Ministries of the Christian Life Assembly of God

A brief program will be held at 1:00 p.m. featuring a variety of speakers representing Regal Ware, local and state government, the Direct Selling Association, the Cookware Manufacturers' Association, and local and international union officials.

Words like "generations" and "family" are central to the company that got its roots in 1945 when J.O. Reigle purchased The Kewaskum Aluminum Company and with L.N. Peterson and Edna Oster the trio formed Regal Ware, Inc.

Current President and CEO Jeff Reigle (grandson of J.O. Reigle) is the third generation of the Reigle family to lead Regal Ware. His sons Matthew and Ryan are both engaged in sales positions with the company; his father, James, is Chairman of the Board, and Jeff's brother, Doug, serves as COO.

St. Martin's Church celebrates 150th Anniversary

Dan Noennig and Pastor Vern Clausing lead a crowd of about 60 in applause to celebrate St. Martin's United Church of Christ's 150th anniversary on Sunday.

By Mitch Maersch
Statesman Correspondent

TOWN OF FARMINGTON - That quaint little church on Highway H has been worshipping for nearly as long as Wisconsin has been a state. St. Martin's United Church of Christ held its sesquicentennial celebration Sunday with an open house, fellowship and worship service.

Some past pastors attended, along with representatives from the UCC association and the Random Lake area's ecumenical community. Combined choirs from New Horizon and St. Martin's sang.

Dan Ebert had the job of ringing the bell 150 times, once for each year, "if the rope don't break," he said with a laugh before the service.

It didn't, nor has the spirit of St. Martin's. Albeit small - about 50 members - it is faithful and close.

"We grew up with most of these people," said Jim Boettcher, a member for 30-plus years who has served as the church's janitor and fix-it man. "It's been like a family."

Newer members say the same thing.

"The friendly people - I guess that's what made me join," said Rand Krueger, a member for a handful of years after moving to Newburg from Germantown.

Jason Shilts of Cascade attended for 10 years before officially joining a couple of years ago, joining his 28-year-old wife, Jamie, a lifetime member. He said it was "the good companionship" that drew him in.

Roger Ebert has been a member his entire life - all 72 years.

"When I got married I just decided that we were going to stay at St. Martin's," he said. "Very friendly people and you get to know everybody."

While many elements of worship have changed, others have not. The old-fashioned ice cream maker now sits in the corner downstairs as it takes too much ice and it's too much work to turn the crank. The bell, however, purchased in 1891 for $600, is still used today and will be rung 150 times on Sunday. It tolls when a member dies as well, once for each year of the member's age. One tradition that has grown is the annual pancake breakfast the first Sunday of November. The event had to be moved to Turner Hall just down and across the street because it drew so many people and for handicapped access.

Between 300 and 400 people enjoy-made-from-scratch potato pancakes, homemade applesauce and homemade desserts.

The men peel and cube the potatoes - up to 200 pounds worth - and women make 14 to 16 pounds of applesauce. All members bring desserts.

One man from Germany said the pancakes are the closest thing he can find to how his homeland makes them.

St. Martin's topped out at 150 to 200 in its history.

Today, the church has 51 members and gets 20 to 30 attending each Sunday, "so percentage-wise, we're doing pretty well," said Pastor Vern Clausing.

About half of the membership hails from Fillmore and half from the surrounding area, like West Bend, Campbellsport and Cascade.

It's been a long time since the days of horse and buggies, explaining why each small town had a few churches. People just couldn't get around as easily. Once they could move, many churches didn't make it. St. Martin's has.

"I think it's an accomplishment by itself," said 81-year-old Clayton Weinreich, a lifetime member. "A lot of quaint small churches have gone down."

Small or not, St. Martin's has made an impact.

"Even though you don't have the sons and daughters living in the area anymore you have sent seeds out throughout the world through this church," said member Dan Noennig. "I think it's a testament to a handful of people."

St. Martin's has one former member, Tom Degnitz, serving as a pastor in Pennsylvania.

Noennig is from Milwaukee and has attended larger churches with 450 members. St. Martin's had 80 when he joined 22 years ago.

"If I had my choice I'd stay in a small church. It's more of a family. In the big churches you get lost a little bit," he said.

Small churches, he said, don't have cliques as everyone must work together.

"I think everybody here knows that if something came up, the other would give their shirt off their back," Noennig said.

Jamie Shilts, 28, has been a member her entire life, though she has attended larger churches.

"It never felt it was right," she said. "This is home."

Member Mary Beth Desens said she has attended churches where if you weren't at a Sunday service nobody would notice. At St. Martin's, everyone notices.

"It's a small town. They ask how you're doing and they mean it," she said.

It's an adjustment to come to a place like St. Martin's from a big church. Mary Schluga made the move 13 years ago.

"I noticed in small churches those country churches, there are so many related," she said. "Now, I really like it."

Dr. Karen Elizabeth King, acting association minister of the Wisconsin Conference Southeast Association of the United Church of Christ, who spoke at the 150th celebration service, said she sees many old congregations across the area like St. Martin's.

"I think what makes them special is they really are a family," she said. "Generations and generations of families support these churches."

A few of the members' families date back to historical events in St. Martin's history. Cathy Weinreich's husband's grandfather's family was the first to live in the parsonage. Rosalyn Degnitz' grandmother taught piano lessons in the parsonage, the first house in Fillmore with a doorbell.

Today, the door to the church remains open for anyone.

"Come and try us, you might like us," said Weinreich.

Fall is in the air at community garden

It's pretty easy to tell, the jars of salsa are adding up on the fruit cellar shelf and they've hauled what feels like a ton of tomatoes from the garden plots at the Kewaskum Community Gardens located near the Kewaskum High School.

"Our garden plots have magnificent ground and we are truly blessed to reap plenty from those little seeds we sowed," stated Bonnie Wenzlaff Master Gardner and organizer of the community garden.

She went on to say, "We had four rows of corn in one of the plots and picked eight dozen ears of wonderful sweet corn plus we have stalks to decorate this fall."

She encouraged those in the community to plan for next year.

"When you do your fall yard cleanup and plan for next year, take time to plan for next year's crop. Instead of planting grass, leave a couple feet free for rows of peppers or potatoes so you can grow your own. We owe it to our younger generation."

Wenzlaff said she enjoys setting the example of knowing where your food comes from and using hands and a bit of effort to get it.

"Four feet of carrots can give you a half bushel—think about it. Plus they are attractive plants," Wenzlaff added.

Gardeners provided food to the Community Pantry from plots paid for by donation. Natural fertilizers were used, and no insecticides, other than insecticidal soap. Grass (mulch) was utilized as a weed preventer, so little weeding was done and only watered when putting in plants.

"We have hawks taking care of little varmints and a fence. The weather was hot; so the mulch did a great job of keeping moisture in the ground," Wenzlaff stated.

If you are interested in a plot for 2012, this is the time to reserve or get on the waiting list. Organizers are also seeking gardening equipment such as wheelbarrows, wagons or a plot for next year's food pantry crop.

Wenzlaff explained donations of all kinds were received this year. "One kind person gave us a donation for plants and seeds and Kettle Moraine Town & Country donated plants. A tractor club spent time this spring-plowing our spaces. The Washington County Extension Master Gardeners have generously donated time and energy and will continue to do so in 2012."

New and experienced gardeners are always welcome to ask for assistance with any question they may have.

The gardeners are also seeking individuals who wish to add their expertise. "Some communities use kitchens to preserve whatever people bring in. We could do applesauce, sauerkraut, tomatoes, pickles and enjoy the company," Wenzlaff explained.

Wenzlaff also advocated clean, healthy eating in the home. "As our children learn about new foods in school this year, it's a good time for us to introduce clean eating in the home with whole basic ingredients. Purchase more fresh produce and whole grains. When donating to the pantry, think about unbleached, unrefined. Choose brown rice instead of white. Donate basic spices, baking soda/powder, salt & pepper, so people can create their own mixes and eat healthy."

If it's time to find out more, call (262) 483-6385. Wenzlaff said she's happy to give tours of the garden so residents can see what's growing.

Paraprofessionals

first day of school.

Two students of hers went their own way "because they are 4" and one ended up in Wright's room. Two more English Language Learner students who don't speak English ended up in a first-grade classroom and refused to leave. A counselor had to get them out. Eight students wanted to use the bathroom at once, and a principal brought down one student who had an accident.

In walking students around the school, Wilson lost one and didn't know it, until a paraprofessional in special education found the student. And four boys accidentally joined the 5-year-old kindergarten line for the bathroom.

Wilson has been with the district for six years.

"I've never had a day like this. I was ready to pull my hair out," she said. "A paraprofessional would have been really nice on the first day."

Similar stories and safety concerns over having one teacher for several 4-year-olds struck a chord with the board.

"I'm really concerned about the safety issues," said Mary Miller. "People can't respond and it needs to be immediate."

"When I heard concerns on Monday, as a parent I'd be very concerned," said Sue Miller.

Paraprofessionals, she said, allow teachers to do their jobs.

"Teachers are there to educate," she said.

Board president Bruce

Braidigan said the budget is already balanced for the year. Adding a $50,000 expense to hire several paraprofessionals would be possible, "but there are consequences." Something would have to be cut from the budget.

Ewald suggested fund balance, essentially the district's savings account used to limit short-term borrowing for cash flow needs and for emergencies like a boiler breaking down, as a possible source of funding.

The board voted unanimously to split 2.5 paraprofessionals between Kewaskum, Farmington and Wayne. Ewald said he would meet with principals to determine how to divide the paraprofessionals' time.

Some 4K teachers and enthusiasts in the audience applauded.

"It's a start," said Braidigan.

Two vehicle crash closes Hwy. 45 Friday night

A two-vehicle head-on crash shut down Highway 45, north of Kewaskum late Friday evening. Authorities confirmed alcohol was to blame for the crash that injured two area residents. Captain Steve Gonwa stated the crash occurred after Billie E. Ludwig, 58, of Kewaskum, was traveling southbound on Hwy 45, crossed the centerline and entered the northbound lane of traffic in the path of Yvonne S. Loehner, 55, of Cascade. After colliding, both vehicles came to rest in the northbound lane with Ludwig's vehicle facing south and Loehner facing north. A third vehicle following Loehner made it through the scene without contact to either of the vehicles in the crash but could not avoid the guardrail. Ludwig was extricated from his vehicle with JAWS of Life by Kewaskum Firefighters. Both drivers were transported to St. Joseph's Hospital by Kewaskum Ambulance. Their conditions were not known at press time. Gonwa stated Ludwig was cited for operating while intoxicated and operating left of center. Kewaskum Police assisted Washington County Sheriff's Deputies at the scene.

Knife found on KHS student

A Kewaskum High School student was found with a concealed weapon in a "handbag" during school hours on the first day of school, Friday, September 2. After questioning the student, he was removed from the school.

The 16-year-old male is a village of Kewaskum resident. When questioned, the student told police he didn't realize he had placed the Winchester hunting knife in the bag.

The student told a detective he did not intentionally bring the knife to school. KHS Associate principal Kris Dreher stated disciplinary measures have already taken place.

Because the student is a minor, his name is omitted.

St. Martin's Anniversary

1963-1967 - Rev. Stemler; 1969-1970 - Rev. Mineau; 1970-1972 - Rev. Maschmeier; 1973-1976 - Rev. Standford; 1976-1981 - Rev. Klindt; 1981-2003 - Rev. Jerger; 2004 - Rev. Jornby; 2005 - Rev. Ehrgood; 2005-present - Rev. Clausung.

Organists of St. Martin's: Emma Berjes, Ernst Wittig, Bertha Voecks, Martha Crass, Anita Geidel, Selma Weinreich, Melda Oelhafen, Evangenline Leid, Alvina Hauch, Pat Birenbaum, Karla Stoffel, Linda Ruona, Norita Barrett.

St. Martin's history, according to its website:

This church was originally located at the site of the present St. Martin's Cemetery. The new church was built in 1891.

The church has been improved over the years, including a basement added in 1924. Services were held in German until 1928. In 1936 the apse was added. The church still retains its original beautiful stained glass windows with German writing on them.

In February 1943, St. Martin's Evangelical and the German Reformed churches joined and became St. Martin's Evangelical and Reformed Church. Over the years St. Martin's has been part of several yoked ministries. In 1960 the Evangelical and Reformed Church merged with the Congregational Christian Church and St. Martin's became known as St. Martin's United Church of Christ.

The congregation was established on September 21, 1861 at a meeting of local pioneers at the home of Ernst and Liberta Klessig. The first building was of stone, built over the course of the next summer and St. Martin's Evangelical Lutheran Church opened for worship on August 16, 1863. The building was located on the grounds of the current St. Martin's Cemetery. It was torn down in the late 1930s after serving as a Sunday School and confirmation meeting place when the new larger brick church was built in 1891.

The new church was dedicated on December 6, 1891. A new bell was installed, rung three times a day for 70 years. Services were held in German until 1928. The parsonage was built next door in 1912 and sold to a private party in 2006.

From 1981 until 2005, St. Martin's and St. Paul's Church of Waubesa shared a pastor. Twenty-three pastors and interim pastors served the congregation over the years.

In 1861 a group of German immigrants formed the St. Martin's Church. Later the Fillmore Reformed Church was formed. Records in the church of each are so extensive one can trace ancestors to point of origin in Germany and passages booked on ships are also recorded.

A memorial to one of the sons of our congregation lost during the Vietnam Conflict has become an integral part of the community. Not only does the Carillon chime on the hour but at noon and six it plays a seasonal selection of hymns.

In celebration of the 125th anniversary, a polka music-type of service was held -- seeking to worship in a new and contemporary way. The local polka band that had done quite a few polka masses in our area was employed to conduct our music and their choir helped lead us in singing.

St. Martin's has been involved in an ecumenical local township emergency food pantry for Farmington Township run by the St. Vincent De Paul Society of St. Michaels.

ADVANTAGES OF LIVING IN A SMALL TOWN - Summer time brings many unfamiliar faces on the streets of a small town due to the visitors at our various nearby lakes who come in to shop and look around, perhaps to smile at the activity, or lack of it in a village. One of the most often remarks made by these welcome visitors is the fact that as they pass down the street, many folks smile and say "hello." They can't get over the fact that we want to be friends. Evidently from wherever they come, especially in large cities, that never happens. So mark that down, folks, on the credits side of the ledger for life in a small town. People DO care here and that is indeed one of the greatest advantages of living in the "grassroots" section of the country.

Gary Backhaus, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Backhaus, Kewaskum, was injured on Monday afternoon when he was struck by a car on a parking lot on Railroad Street, next to the North Western Depot. Although injured and bleeding, Gary got up and ran to his home about one block away. The firemen's ambulance was called and the boy was rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend. He suffered a head injury and cuts and bruises to his entire body.

The Beechwood School District has petitioned to join the Kewaskum High School district. At a special meeting held recently for the purpose of deciding which high school district they would like to join, 76 persons voted and the results were 69 voted in favor of joining the Kewaskum district with only seven favoring other districts like Random Lake or Plymouth.

The barn on the Math. Kultgen farm, operated by the Waldschmidt brothers, near St. Kilian in the Town of Ashford, was completely destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning, and with it was consumed the newly threshed barley crop. The fire started during a thunderstorm and is believed to have been caused by lightning.

The four local contestants entered in the elimination McCormick - Deering Farmall "J.A." Machine contest at the Wisconsin State Fair last Sunday made excellent showings by taking two first places, one second place and one fourth place. The object of the contest was to attach and detach a Farmall Quick Attachable Cultivator in the shortest time, and was open to boys and girls 18 years old or less. A.G. Koch, Inc. local McCormick-Deering dealer, sponsored the trip to the fair. Winners were as follows: Girls - First, Mona Mertes, Kewaskum; Second, Earla Prost, Kewaskum; Fourth, Burnett Prost, Kewaskum. Boys - First, Howard Walters, Kewaskum.

Shortly after 6 am on August 14, the lid of a kitchen range blew off and allowed flames to burst forth onto the clothing of Mrs. William Gerner Jr. of the Town of Farmington, burning her severely. The Town Board of Wayne met last Friday to grant liquor licenses to Phillip Illian and A. Renk of Kohlsville, Frank Wietor and C.C. Schaefer of Wayne, Andrew Strobel and George Ruppinger of St. Kilian.

Independence Day this year was celebrated in this village in a very sane way on last Tuesday, Fourth of July. The auto parade held in the afternoon was a decided success, 12 autos being in line, all being very prettily decorated with the nation's colors. The line of procession was formed at Joseph Eberle's place. First in line was a decorated carriage containing four old soldiers and then came the band, next in line were the autos. The procession was ended with the decorated bus containing all children. Quite a number of people were attracted to witness the parade. After the parade a picnic was held at the North Side Park where enjoyment was to be had for all, both young and old. The dance in the evening was the main feature of the day which was attended by a very large crowd.

Nic Rimmel, our local machinist, is making extensive improvements in the building now used as a machine shop. He has taken out the tin shop in the rear of his main building and made it over into a first class garage, with cement floors throughout and a floor space 30 x 70 feet. This also enlarges his machine shop making a floor space of 120 feet. He is equipping the machine shop and garage with a complete stock of tools used in the business and will be ready in a couple of weeks to repair everything in the line of machinery and automobiles.

Mr. Goldschmidt of Kewaskum is busily engaged in putting up a steam heating plant at Strachota Brothers Store in St. Kilian.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Steve Klein of New Fane last Wednesday. J.D. Reinke, the carpenter contractor of Beechwood is wearing a broad smile these days presumably caused by the arrival of a little son at his home on the 9th. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bruessel on last week Friday.

Considerable excitement prevailed here last Tuesday evening when fire broke out in the Grell and Wollensak creamery. The damage done was very slight, the fire being checked before it made any headway. The origin of the fire was the burning out of the smoke stack, sparks of which set fire to the roof of the boiler house. No one was in the building at the time of the fire. Herman Backhaus was the first one to notice the blaze. After turning in the fire alarm he drove to Mr. Wollensak's home to notify the latter, who hurriedly drove back to the fire. Grabbing a fire chemical which is always in readiness in the building and with the aid of a ladder, Mr. Wollensak soon had the fire extinguished. Only a few minutes more and the whole building would have been afire which would have meant a severe loss to the owners.

The fourth annual picnic and dance of the Kewaskum Firemen will be held in the North Side Park on Sunday, July 30. The committee has made arrangements to make the affair a decided success. There will be a street parade composed of a band and the firemen in body at 1:30 pm. One feature of the picnic in the afternoon will be a tug-of-war between the Hook & Ladder boys and the firemen. Games of other sorts will be on hand for the enjoyment of all. The day will close with a grand ball in the evening.

At the special meeting of the County Board held at West Bend last week Friday it was decided not to build the proposed County Home for Washington County to replace the old poor house and farm.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lay last week Friday.

An automobile owned by David Rosenheimer of this village was very nearly destroyed by fire last week Friday evening. Mr. Rosenheimer had the car in front of H.E. Henry's place and was about to start the machine to take it back to the garage when in some manner the oil pan below the front seat started to burn. Dr. Klumb, who was nearby noticed the fire. He rushed to the car and by throwing dust and sand upon the fire easily extinguished the same.

Several Boltonville men were engaged on Wednesday afternoon fighting fire which was with difficulty extinguished after destroying one man's pasture and is still burning in the fences.

Joseph Herriges of St. Michaels recently built a 20 foot addition to his barn. He held a raising bee last Monday.

August 5, 1911

Last Sunday afternoon while coming to this village to attend the firemen's picnic, John Schmidt and his brother, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Schmidt, living three miles west of this village, experienced a runaway in which the former was seriously hurt. The runaway was caused by a tug of the harness unloosening from the phil near Herman Backhaus' place. When rounding the curve on Fond du Lac Avenue, the buggy was upset and the occupants forcibly thrown to the ground. John, the oldest of the two, sustained a broken hip. The younger of the two boys was fortunate in escaping injury with only a few slight bruises.

Automobiles are still arriving in this village as two more were purchased the past week. Theodore Eisentraut, a machinist employed in Nic Rimmel's machine shop, purchased a Kenmore runabout and expects the car today. William Eberle, night fireman in the L. Rosenheimer Malt & Grain Company's malt house, purchased a Maxwell runabout at Fond du Lac.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Campbell last Monday.

Late heroics lift 3 Gridiron teams

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

MEQUON- By posting thrilling come-from-behind victories in Mequon last Saturday, Kewaskum's eighth and sixth grade teams remained unbeaten in Gridiron play. The fifth grade (1-1) team also came from a point down to notch its first win of the year. The eighth graders used a fourth quarter fumble recovery toward a 19-14 win over the Cardinals, while an interception in the final minute preserved a 7-6 win for the sixth.

"Overall it was a good team effort," coach Rollie Maul said about the eighth grade win. "The guys showed a lot of heart," scoring 12 points in the final quarter.

Brandon Thull scored on a 40-yard run to put the Indians in the lead. This came one play after Charlie Witek and Ben Watzig forced a fumble and Eric Doll recovered.

Kewaskum's first touchdown was scored by Watzig on a short run, then Michael Prochnow hit Josh Baker for the successful PAT pass.

The other TD was scored by Steven Nurkala, who fell on a Thull fumble in the end zone.

"Berat Elmazi had a good game; Watzig played well and Sam Fechter," Maul said, noting, "The defense played well again today, except for a couple mental mistakes where we got sucked in."

"It was pretty exciting if you like defense," coach Joel Tietz said about the 7-6 win by his sixth graders (2-0).

The game was 0-0 at half-time, then the host Cardinals scored on a 35-yard quarterback run after a mixup in the Indians' secondary.

Kewaskum came right back with a 60-yard drive. The Indians had fourth and goal from the 9 when Gabe Christianson drew the Cardinals off side, then on the next play when his receivers weren't open, Christianson took off and raced into the end zone.

"We changed the defense up a little bit (the fourth quarter), and it worked," Tietz said, reporting his chargers stopped the Cardinals once, and on their last drive, safety Brent Goeden intercepted a pass, allowing the Indians to kill the clock.

Tietz said linebacker Declyn Gurrath has two sacks on blitzes.

Coach Mark Walcheske was singing a happy tune after his fifth graders came out on top 12-7.

"This is the first time a (Kewaskum) fifth grade team has beaten Thiensville-Mequon in the history of the league," the coach said, reporting his team scored on its opening possession capped by a QB sneak by Ryan Prochnow. The run for conversion failed, and it turned out to be important because the Cardinals got theirs after scoring in the second quarter to take a 7-6 lead into intermission.

Kewaskum got the winning TD with four minutes to play. Prochnow stepped back to pass but saw an opening and went around the end where "Elijah Barth threw a nice block to spring him" for the 35-yard scamper.

"Hunter Grady and Hunter Kuehl really led the defense," Walcheske said, adding backup QB Kyle Bast did well giving the starter a couple breaks.

Injuries continue to plague the seventh grade team (0-2), which fell 26-6. Dalton Poole scored Kewaskum's lone TD on a 20-yard run.

"Cayden Dwyer played good offensively and defensively," Coach Tom Kudek said, adding Zach Geidel stood out on defense from his end position. Another player cited was fullback Tommy Strom. "He ran hard. This was his first time running," Kudek said, adding, "All the other people are hurt. We have had a lot of injuries."

Mental mistakes took their toll, and Kudek said, "We had too many penalties."

Indian kickers fall to Cougars

Scoring goals - a problem for Kewaskum's soccer team last season - has resurfaced after an early season surge.

The Indians have scored twice in their last three games in the past week, all losses.

On Tuesday, Kewaskum lost at home to next-door rival

Campbellsport, 5-1. The Indians fell behind 1-0 within the first two minutes and 2-1 at the 21:54 mark before answering.

Senior midfielder Darren Campbell took a pass from Josh Farrand and fired a bender that nailed the left post and bounced in. At 26:00, it was 2-1 and the Indians had hope.

But they gave up a goal on a fast break with less than two minutes to go in the half and went into the break down, 3-1.

"That kind of deflated us," said Coach Luke Piwoni.

He moved sweeper Calvin Ranker up to stopper to try to spark some offense, but it didn't ignite. The Cougars took advantage, breaking down Kewaskum's defense and keeping keeper Joel Turk busy.

Kewaskum got spirited play from junior forward Zac Chimielewski.

"I think Zac played a pretty good game," said Piwoni. "He's been playing real well lately. He shored up the defense a lot."

The Indians are now 1-15 overall and 1-8 in a crazy Eastern Wisconsin Conference. Kewaskum's lone win came on Sept. 8, a 2-0 victory over Two Rivers. Campbellsport has lost twice to Two Rivers twice, 4-3, but beat Kewaskum 8-2 and now 5-1.

If there is some consistency, it's that the Indians have trouble tying the game.

"Unfortunately, the trend continues," said Piwoni. "We cannot score when we're down one goal. It's a unique stat."

Against Mayville on Monday, the Indians lost, 3-1. Ian Kenworthy scored Kewaskum's goal. It was 2-0 at half.

"We just came out pretty stale the first 20 minutes," Piwoni said.

Last Thursday, Kewaskum lost, 3-0, at Sheboygan Falls.

Today, the Indians host conference-leading Plymouth and on Monday travel to Kiel.

Lady Indians take third in Slinger invite

By Mitch Maersch

Rematches were unkind to Kewaskum's volleyball team on Saturday, as the Indians took third in the Slinger Invitational.

The Indians won the Hartford Invite on Sept. 3 after beating New Berlin Eisenhower in the finals, avenging a loss in pool play. They beat Slinger in the season opener last month.

On Saturday, they beat neither. Kewaskum went 3-2, beating Grafton, Elkhorn and Cudahy, and losing the two rematches.

"Our passing wasn't that good in the New Berlin and Slinger matches which effectively ruined our offense. We had beaten both teams before and were hoping to do it again but we were just a little slow. Lot of kids fighting colds and we just couldn't keep up," said Coach Joe Moser.

The Indians beat Cudahy, 25-10, 25-10, Elkhorn, 25-14, 26-24, and Grafton, 25-19, 25-22. They lost to Slinger, 25-16, 25-20, and Eisenhower, 25-21, 25-13.

For the day, senior Kayla Bastian had 26 kills, 31 digs and four aces. Anna Aycok had 22 kills and 11 aces.

Kelsey Phillips made 34 digs and Sam Smalish 28. Heidi Johnson had 29 assists and Sabrina Boehlke 25. Becca Fahney had 10 kills.

The Indians (5-1 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, 13-4 overall) travel to Sheboygan Falls (3-3 EWC) for a conference clash. On Saturday, they play at the New Holstein Invite.

Indians improving with personal bests

By Mitch Maersch
Statesman Correspondent

Kewaskum's cross country team turned in a few personal bests at Sept. 13th's meet at Waupun.

Runners battled more than their fair share of usual challenges, namely smoke from that wild fire in Minnesota that wafed its way down here.

"Although the air was a little smoky, several athletes had a personal best," said Coach Heidi Korth.

Allie Schmidt had a personal best time of 22:33 on the four-kilometer course. April Stern ran a 20:40, good for 25th.

On the 5K course, Ian Airaudi ran a 22:11 for 34th and Matt Vogt a 24:09 for 47th, both personal bests for the season.

Jared Sanborn in his first race paced the boys' team with a 21:17 in 28th place.

Kewaskum hosts the Dave Drexler Invite today.

Kewaskum wins 7th Kettle Moraine Bowl in a row

Kewaskum's Mike Bier (53) gets a hold of Campbellsport's Tim Whitty for a tackle during the second quarter of Friday's game against the Cougars. Getting in front of Whitty, ready to assist Bier is Kewaskum's Danny Bohn (5). The Indians sent the Cougars back to Campbellsport with a 34-6 loss.

Kewaskum's starting defense gave up its first points in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference last Friday.

Then it decided not to give up any more.

The Indians stomped their way to another EWC victory in blasting next-door rival Campbellsport, 34-6, though this time Kewaskum faced its first deficit of the season en route to going 5-0.

The Cougars ran the opening kickoff back to Kewaskum's 25, and eight players later scored on a six-yard touchdown pass. The point-after snap was fumbled and a two-point pass fell incomplete.

The Indians were down 6-0 just a few minutes into the game and were none too happy about it.

Within 150 seconds, Kewaskum went up, 7-6, on a Sam Olla one-yard sneak on fourth and goal, and the rout began.

Offensive lineman Brad Bottleman said that score was the turning point.

"Right after we got the first touchdown, I think. That got our momentum going and we just got fired up and started pounding the ball," he said.

Campbellsport's first score fired up an already pumped defense.

"That first drive, that was kind of tough, but you've just got to get through it. Keep your emotions in check. Just come out and stay disciplined," said senior tackle Mack Donath. "You know you need to step it up. You can't let them score again."

The Cougars never got much of a chance, only reaching Kewaskum's half of the field once the rest of the game. The Indians held Campbellsport to 97 yards, the second time in three weeks allowing less than triple digits.

The only time the Cougars really threatened was late in the first quarter. Kenny Gigstead and Brad Boegel combined to tackle a running back for a one-yard gain on fourth and two from the Cougars' 48.

"The first time we had to play four quarters, the first time we've had to face adversity early in the ballgame," said Coach Jason Piittmann. "The kids answered the call. We faced adversity right away and we answered it."

Eric Perkins was, well, Eric Perkins once again, rushing for 180 yards and two touchdowns on 22 carries, including a 53-yard score in which he never even got up to full speed. Once he got past the line he stopped to avoid a blocker, broke right and nobody was there. Well, except him, and he wasn't there very long. He moves pretty fast, even in second gear. The Cougars last year bottled up Perkins in the first half, forcing Kewaskum to spread the offense. This year, Piittmann said he spread the offense right away to set up Perkins for later in the game. The offensive line began to dominate again, plowing the way for the team's 275 yards rushing.

"You just feel like an adrenaline rush and you just go downfield and hit as many people as possible and just clear the way for Eric," said Bottleman.

He confirmed you needn't hit all that many people, though it's common courtesy.

"No, he's pretty quick," he said.

Perkins added a one-yard score in the second quarter, and it was 21-6 at half. Kewaskum was comfortably in control, though the score was closer than the game.

By then, the defense had figured out the Cougars' plays and was a step faster. A couple of times, Donath and linebacker Alex Fechter nearly took the handoff from quarterback Tim Whitty.

Fechter said that's when he thought the game was in control.

"I felt by the second half because we made some changes up there and we knew how we could stop 'em, and our defense was playing our thing, you know. They weren't getting anything on us anymore."

Campbellsport lost several yards on a few pitch plays outside, when Mike Bier and Fechter ran down ball carriers before they could make the turn.

That's when defense really becomes fun.

"It feels great. It feels like everything you do in practice is really worth it," said Fechter.

"Our goal is to play fast ... so they don't have time to make the reads they want to make," said Piittmann.

It's not that the Indians didn't play well, but the ball was bouncing their way. Kewaskum fumbled three times and recovered them all.

The biggest came in the third quarter. Olla hit Hunter Flanders on a slant near the goal line, and he lost the ball while being tackled. Tight end Andy Doll scooped it up right behind him for a four-yard score.

In the first half, Perkins dropped a then still wet and slippery ball from rain during a sweep. A Cougar tried to fall on it but only bounced it right back to Perkins, who corralled it as he went down.

Numbers again became a factor as the Indians only have one player - Boegel - who regularly goes both ways. It's a luxury, especially at a school of about 700.

"We're basically able to two-platoon. That allows us to stay fresh. Campbellsport had a lot of guys playing both ways. It wears and tears, and especially with the style of football that this game was," said Piittmann. "It was them wanting to run the ball and us wanting to pound the ball. You can see our linemen still sprinting to the line late in the game. I love that."

The game made the combined scores of Kewaskum's first three EWC games 143-18. It was the first time starters were pulled in the fourth quarter and not at halftime. Piittmann said he's not all that concerned about not having his team be tested late in a game.

"That's always a worry but there are other schools in the same boat, too," he said. "All you can do is take the one game at a time."

And now, the coach is in the midst of enjoying his favorite time of year. It's homecoming week, and all kinds of fun goodies are planned for the students and community.

"I hate homecoming. I hate homecoming. It's a lot of distraction. I've always said it. I always will," he said. "The boys know what's expected of them. They've got to stay out of the hoopla."

Kewaskum enters what could be a trap game Friday if it looks past it. In comes Waupun, 0-3 in the EWC and 0-5 overall.

"You've just got to stay focused. You can never take any game lightly," said Donath.

The Indians sit atop the EWC with Plymouth, both at 3-0.
