

Suspended police officer accepts settlement

By Andrew Kuehl

andrew@kewaskumstatesman.com

KEWASKUM- The Village and a suspended police officer have reached a settlement to end his employment. The settlement ultimately sees the officer retiring from the department in May of 2012 and both parties releasing "all claims."

Officer Troy Ellis who has served the department since 1989 has been on paid leave since May of this year following what village officials say was a disciplinary issue. Ellis, Village Administrator Matt Heiser and the Labor Association of Wisconsin, Inc. signed the agreement in early October.

The Statesman is currently investigating an incident involving Ellis while he was off-duty in May of this year. An open records request was filed Tuesday with the Washington County Sheriffs Office seeking information regarding the incident however that document was not received by press time.

Ellis will retire from the department on his 50th birthday, May 10, 2012 which the village accepted. Ellis will also receive a severance deal.

The Village will provide Ellis with a paid leave of absence until December 31, 2011. Effective January 1, 2012, Ellis agrees to use all of his accrued leave to remain in paid status until February 12, 2012 when his paid leave will be exhausted. Thereafter, he agreed to an unpaid leave from February 13, 2012 to May 10, 2012, the date coinciding with his retirement.

The Village will make health insurance premium payments on behalf of Ellis until February 28, 2012 and Ellis will pay the employee's share of the premium. The Village will also fully fund Ellis' COBRA insurance premium for the months of March, April and May of 2012. However, the Village will make a corresponding deduction from Ellis's retirement health insurance bank for the full cost of the health insurance premiums for that three month period.

The agreement also prohibits Ellis or his labor union from filing a grievance over the termination of his employment with the Village. The agreement also prohibits him or the union from filing a grievance over his eligibility for any vacation, holidays or other paid time off for hours of employment for 2011 and for any sick days which would otherwise accrue to his retirement health insurance bank for 2011.

The Village agreed not to file disciplinary charges with the Kewaskum Police and Fire Commission seeking the termination of Ellis' employment. Ellis waived any right to a hearing before the Kewaskum Police and Fire Commission.

Heiser stated, "It was the most cost

School mill rate to drop 18¢

By Mitch Maersch

Statesman Correspondent

Editor's Note- Last week's article on the cover of this newspaper was a budget article from 2010, our correspondent filed the wrong story. The article that follows is the correct article. We apologize for this error.

The Kewaskum School District has an approved budget and one board member none too happy about it.

The mill rate is $8.81 per $1,000 of equalized value meaning the owner of a $150,000 home will pay $1,321.50. The rate is down 18 cents from last year but up seven cents from the estimate at the annual meeting two months ago.

That change, said district business manager Paul Reichert, is due to the change in property values. He estimated a 1 percent increase that turned out to be a 0.23 percent bump. "Not what we projected but it's still an increase which I take as a positive sign," he said.

The general fund tax levy - the portion supported by local taxes - is $9,617,217, down $178,174 from last year, or 1.8 percent.

The entire budget is just more than $25 million. Of that, state aid contributes $8,852,002 (41.6 percent) and property taxes the $9.6 million (45.2 percent). It's the first time in 14 years property taxes contribute more to the budget than state aid.

Aid from the state this year is down $981,707, or 10 percent. On top of that, the revenue limit - the amount of money a district may raise - is down a total of $1,164,003, or $536 per student (a 5.5 percent decrease).

The district's revenue is down by more than $2 million (7.6 percent), but its expenditures are down by $1.9 million (7.2), Reichert said.

Changing the district's health insurance carrier saved the district about $500,000, and another half million was saved by having teachers contribute more to their retirement, he

County's Family Promise hosts cardboard box city

Family Promise of Washington County hosted "Cardboard Box City" on October 15th and several of our Kewaskum youth and chaperones participated. Still Waters Church in Jackson graciously hosted the event.

Family Promise is an organization that helps homeless children and their families by providing shelter, meals, education and helping the adults find a better job. Holy Trinity, St. Michael's and Peace United Church of Christ work together to host the families and provide meals for one week at a time, several times a year.

Family Promise has provided over 2700 nights of shelter to 20 families, 56 individuals (35 children, 16 under the age of 5). Their average stay is 47 nights before moving on to independence.

Each person in the group was assigned their own cardboard box that was to be their home for the night. The kids could decorate their "Home" any way they wanted.

They were then asked to act out several situations where a family from Washington County had some unexpected situations occur that caused them to loose their home. The group was given the amount of the family income, had to subtract the rent or mortgage payment, groceries then utility bills but then an emergency item would occur that would put them out on the street. The dramatization made them all aware of what actually happens in our home towns.

The Salvation Army Emergency Relief provided soup and a roll for dinner that night that could only be eaten standing up or sitting on the cold ground.

The cardboard box residents were then treated to a great concert with Kewaskum's Dave Gerhartz performing along with Sound Waves from Still Waters Church and Tom Utschig and the Wellspring Church Worship Team. There were a couple of testimonies given on how the Family Promise organization changed the lives of several people there and restored their faith in God. Everyone had a great time and enjoyed the music.

A bon fire was lit so that they could all warm up before the cold night of sleeping on the ground. Around 10:30, it was time to retire to their box Homes to try and find a comfortable spot. During the night it rained several times but luckily the cardboard boxes kept everyone dry.

This eye opening experience for our area youth provided them with some insight into the difficult situations and conditions that some of those in our midst must cope with on an everyday basis and hopefully provided them with the inspiration to not look away from our neighbors in need but to pitch in and offer a helping hand. For more information about Family Promise of Washington County, you can go to their web site www.familypromisewc.org, or write to them at P.O. Box 438, Slinger, WI 53086.

said.

The budget includes $51,057 for 2.5 paraprofessionals for 4-year-old kindergarten hired after the school year started, and $24,775 for a staffing increase in the first- and second-grade classroom at Wayne Elementary School. Reichert said those fit into the budget because the amount the district paid in salaries and benefits changed since the original estimate.

Fund balance, essentially the district's savings account used for emergencies like a boiler breaking down and to reduce cash flow borrowing and to help maintain a good credit rating, is at $2.694 million, or 13.3 percent of the operating budget. Last year's $445,000 surplus was put into fund balance.

The board approved the budget, 4-1. Troy Hanson and Steve Jensen were absent.

Board member Tim Ramthun cast the no vote. He said he didn't have enough time to read over the 47-page document since he received it in the mail last Friday. Sue Miller said she got hers on Friday, too, while other board members received their budget packets on Wednesday.

Ramthun raised several questions on the budget that seemed to agitate board president Bruce Braidigan, who seemed to want to quickly take a vote.

After the meeting, Ramthun said it was difficult to ask questions when board members wanted to go home; the budget was the only item on the agenda. He said the budget is too much information to digest and make a decision on in such a short time.

"I didn't get elected to bobble," he said.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor and Community,
Points-Of-Interest: Several (again). Status on requiring outstanding matters requiring completion (contract, handbooks, etc.) for our district educators is a personal task taken up recently, due to lack of response to multiple requests to the Board President. It is most important that our teachers are provided necessary stability in all facets of what they are required to receive as district employees, and movement to that end has been inexcusably slow. I seek closure for them. Also, KU is scheduled to be on the 11/14 agenda. I look to include discussion of the Food Pantry project as well, as both are currently funded by your tax dollars and both need to be reviewed immediately.

The policy committee met 10/24 to address Board policy #441.1 (Student Harassment/Bullying), Communicable Diseases (#'s 453.2 and 453.2P), and to begin looking at 453.600 (Fiscal Management). While in attendance, I inquired about the lack of including district employees (non-students) in the harassment and bullying policy and was told there was a separate policy for that. Unable to locate said policy, I am waiting the reply of the Policy Chair for clarification on this second bullying policy, as the matter of district employees harassing and bullying needs to be addressed. Lastly, there are several questions associated with the proposed changes in the 600 series policies, and I look forward to addressing them in an upcoming full Board session.

In closing, please know that much continues to occur behind the scenes. Community interaction is significant and I remain honored by the opportunity to serve. Communications with you will continue. If you have any questions or comments, please let me know.

Respectfully in your service,
Timothy Ramthun

Little Folks holds family fun night

On Saturday, October 15th, The Little Folks School House held their annual Family Fun Day with about 150 attending. It was a fun filled day with food, entertainment, and family activities. Fred Turk of Milwaukee performed a children's concert. There were door prizes, pumpkin painting, face painting and a family scarecrow decorating contest. This was an activity that the whole family could do together and there was a lot of creativity. The contest was won by the Fischer family of Kewaskum. The prize was dinner and a movie for the family. Family Fun Fest was a good opportunity for parents to mingle with other parents and teachers as well as watch their children interact with their peers.

Four injured in three-vehicle Eden crash

TOWN of EDEN- Four people were injured during a three-vehicle crash on Sunday, Oct. 30 on Highway 45 and south of County Road UU.

Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Deputies along with Eden Fire Department and First Responders responded at 3:56 p.m. to the rollover crash. Sergeant Ryan Waldschmidt stated a southbound vehicle stopped on Hwy 45 to make a left turn into a driveway when a second southbound vehicle rear ended the first, pushing that vehicle over the centerline and into the oncoming lane of traffic. A northbound vehicle was unable to avoid the oncoming rear-ended vehicle, crashing into it head-on and causing it roll over.

City of Fond du Lac Ambulances transported the injured to St. Agens Hospital in Fond du Lac. Their conditions were unknown at press time.

Officer Settlement

effective resolution for the village." in regards to why Ellis was given a settlement to end his employment with the Village.

The financial impact of the settlement will be explained in next week's newspaper.

It's unknown if this was the reason retired Police Chief Richard Knoebel was brought back as Acting Police Chief. Heiser would not comment on that but stated Knoebel has a contract with the Village until December 2 of this year to fill that role.

This is the second time Ellis has been on a leave from the department. During the first incident he found intoxicated, trying to get inside his neighbor's home during the early morning hours of March 18, 2007. He was off-duty and had to be removed from the scene by a fellow village police officer and taken to his home less than an eighth of a mile from his own home.

Ellis received a 15-day unpaid suspension. However, the settlement stated after five days, 10 days will be held for 18 months. If Ellis did not receive any disciplinary action in 12 months five days will be erased. If he continued for another 12 months without disciplinary action, the remaining five will be dropped. After going 18 months without disciplinary action, the 15-day total suspension was to be removed permanently from his employment record with the village. However his record would reflect he served a five-day suspension without pay.

The Village Board may act on acquiring a replacement for Ellis as soon as Monday according to Heiser.

Fall Show is Classic Musical Farce

Lucky Stiff comes to UW-WC stage

WEST BEND - UW-Washington County will present four performances of Lucky Stiff in the campus theatre in early November. The evening performances are scheduled for Friday and Saturday, November 4, 5, and 11, 12 at 7:30pm in the campus theatre. Free parking is available.

Based on The Man Who Broke the Bank at Monte Carlo by Michael Butterworth, the show is a classical musical farce, complete with slamming doors, mistaken identities, six million bucks in diamonds, and a corpse in a wheelchair. Should he succeed in passing his uncle off as alive, Harry stands to inherit six million dollars! If he fails, the money goes to his Uncle's favorite charity, the Universal Dog Home of Brooklyn. Music is by Stephen Flaherty. Book & Lyrics is by Lynn Ahrens. UW-WC Communications and Theatre Professor, Brad Ford, will produce and direct the performance.

Lucky Stiff includes six main characters. David Peci of West Bend plays Harry Witherspoon, the shy, sweet-natured and insecure young Englishman. Luigi Gaudi, the boisterous Italian, is played by Aaron Hetzel of West Bend. Annabel Glick, a representative of the Universal Dog Home of Brooklyn, is played by Leah Heilman of West Bend. Danielle Rogne of West Bend plays Rita La Porta, a passionate and volatile woman. Vincent Di Ruzzio, brother to Rita LaPorta, is played by Scott Knop of West Bend. Tony Hendon is played by Dan Kaneiss of Grafton. The ensemble includes Kris Holly of West Bend, Liz Schroeder of West Bend, Darlene Scott of Slinger, and Aja Zarling of Slinger.

The assistant director and stage manager is Ginger Starr; choreographer is Lisa Schnabel; director of music is Tom Utschig; scenic artist is Lisa Rowe; costume manager is Pat Fox; and lighting board operator is Jessica DeLaurier. Crew members include: Jessica DeLaurier, Sarah Heilman, Aaron Hetzel, Daniel Kaneiss, Seth Kieser, Casandra Mullen, Amanda Nachreiner, Alyson Parnow, and Brook Reinicke.

Statesman photos by Andrew Kuehl

Kewaskum High School players will be performing "The Drowsy Chaperone", this weekend at the Kewaskum Theater.

The musical is brought to life by the woman in the chair, Danielle Neuser. While listening to her favorite record, she tells the story of a love struck groom, oil tycoon, Robert Martin played by Benny Strack and his bride to be Janet de Graff played by Katie Tillman. de Graff plans to give up show business and fame to marry Martin all while Feldzieg, her producer, played by Joey Herriges is being threatened with bodily harm by two gangsters employed by his chief investor. Disguised as pastry chefs, these two pun-happy thugs threaten Feldzieg to stop the wedding, in order to ensure Janet's participation in the next production of Feldzieg's Follies.

Along the way many guests bring comedic relief and wonderful, infectious tunes. This is a musical the whole family can enjoy with loud and boisterous characters and love stories for everyone. Tickets are on sale at Kewaskum High School for $5 and $8. Show times are Friday and Saturday at 7:00pm and Sunday at 2:00pm.

HERBERT C. ROEHL

Herbert C. Roehl, 95, of West Bend, finally joined his beloved wife, Betty, in Heaven on Sunday, October 30, 2011.

Herbert Carl Hermann Roehl was born September 21, 1916 to Otto and Emma (Plautz) Roehl on the family homestead in the town of Osceola, Fond du Lac County.

He was baptized, confirmed, and married at Trinity Lutheran Church in Dundee. He often said that he was the longest term usher the church ever had; from his confirmation until his marriage. His family continues the tradition by holding his memorial service at the church that was such a big part of his life.

Herb loved to dance and met his future bride at Light-house Lanes Dance Hall in the town of Barton which was operated by her uncle John Bertram. Elizabeth Marie "Betty" Bertram, daughter of Arthur and Pearl (Sackett) Bertram was born April 15, 1924 in Barton Village. Betty and Herb married on September 29, 1945.

Being born and raised on a dairy farm, it was only natural that Herbert purchased his own farm after his marriage. Prairie View Stock Farm was located in the Town of Mitchell, Sheboygan County (near Parnell). He raised Holstein dairy cows and crops on 160 acres. He was extremely proud of the peas he grew for Stokely.

Growing up during the Great Depression, Herb learned the art of economy very well. He became quite inventive and constructed many useful items from bits and pieces of others. He repaired his own machinery and even designed replacement parts when needed.

When his wife, Betty, died unexpectedly on November 14, 1970, Herb auctioned off all his cattle and equipment and sold the farm. He built a new house near Dundee and lived there until November 2004. He then moved to West Bend sharing the home of his son and daughter in law.

Herb is also preceded in death by his brother, Vilas Roehl; his sister, Leona Roehl Backhaus; and his infant sister, Irma Roehl. Also deceased are sister and brother in laws; Marion Roehl, Viola Ramthun, June Bertram, Frank Backhaus, Leo Bertram, Elroy Ramthun, Warren Bowser and Edwin Kempf, nephews; Carmen Kempf and Jerry Roehl and niece, Janice Morenzen.

Herb is survived by his son, Steven H. (Karoline) Roehl of West Bend and his granddaughter, Beth Ann Roehl (finance Dave Mehnert) of Glenbeulah and his eldest sister, Edna Roehl Kempf, age 100. He is also survived by nephews and nieces, Donald (Beverly) Backhaus, Eugene (Marilyn) Backhaus, Roger (Mary) Roehl, Karen Butzlaff, Earl Morenzen, Richard (Linda) Bertram, John (Deborah) Bertram, Jim (Peggy) Bowser, Jerry Bowser, Ken (Marena) Bowser, Bob Bowser, Dale Ramthun, Sharon (Joe) Stefanko, Ginger Erickson and their families.

A celebration of Herbert's life will be on Thursday, November 3, 2011 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Dundee, Rev. Richard B. Schlieve, officiant. Visitation will be held from 6:00 until 7:00 p.m. followed by the memorial service.

Interment will be Friday at Ledgeview Memorial Park, Fond du Lac.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations to Trinity Lutheran Church are appreciated.

Brussels Sprouts with Caramelized Onions and Prosciutto

Serves 12

- 2 pounds fresh Brussels sprouts, blanched, quartered
- 4 tablespoons Carapelli Premium 100% Italian Extra Virgin Olive Oil
- 1 onion, julienned
- 1 ounce prosciutto, sliced into 1/2-inch strips
- 4 tablespoons white balsamic vinegar
- Sea salt
- Fresh cracked black pepper

Trim stem end of Brussels sprouts. Discard outside leaves. Boil in salted water until cooked through (about 7 minutes) and just tender. Shock in ice water. Quarter the cooled sprouts.

In large skillet over medium-high heat, caramelize onions in olive oil for 15 to 20 minutes, stirring frequently. Remove from pan. Place in bowl, mix with prosciutto.

In the same skillet, over high heat, lightly brown Brussels sprouts. Add onion-prosciutto mix, toss.

Deglaze by adding white balsamic vinegar and scraping bottom of pan. Season with salt and pepper.

Olive Oil and Herb Mashed Potatoes

Serves 12

- 10 8-ounce potatoes, (about 5 pounds) peeled and cut in half
- 3/8 teaspoon white pepper
- 1 1/2 tablespoons kosher salt
- 1/2 cup Tuscan Herb paste
- 1/2 cup Carapelli Premium 100% Italian Extra Virgin Olive Oil
- 1 cup heavy cream, warmed

Boil potatoes in salted water. When cooked tender, mash potatoes. Mix salt and pepper with Tuscan Herb Paste, olive oil and warm heavy cream. Fold into potatoes.

Tuscan Roast Turkey

Serves 16

- 1 16-pound young turkey
- Kosher salt, to taste
- 1 cup Tuscan Herb Paste
- 1 teaspoon fennel seeds, crushed
- 2 teaspoons celery salt
- 3 fennel stalks with fronds, rough chopped
- 3 onions, large dice
- 1 stalk celery, small dice
- 2 1/4 quarts chicken stock, divided
- 3 ounces all-purpose flour

Remove giblets from turkey's cavity, rinse cavity and pat dry, set aside. Season turkey inside and out with kosher salt.

Mix Tuscan Herb Paste with crushed fennel seeds and celery salt. Starting at the neck of the bird, slip your hand between the meat and the skin to loosen.

Rub half the paste mix under skin, and rub remaining paste into the cavity and over the rest of the turkey. Place two-thirds of the chopped onion and fennel stalks inside cavity. Truss bird.

Place turkey in a roasting pan. Roast at 400°F for 30 minutes.

Reduce temperature to 325°F and continue cooking the turkey to an internal temperature of 160°F, approximately 2 1/2 to 3 hours. Baste turkey often during cooking with juices from pan. If turkey begins to overbrown, cover it loosely with aluminum foil.

As turkey roasts, simmer giblets (neck, heart and gizzard), the other, one-third of the fennel stalk, onion mix and diced celery in 1 quart chicken stock until tender, approximately 1 1/2 hours.

When turkey is done, remove from roasting pan and set aside to rest. Degrease roasting pan, reserving 3 ounces of fat to make a roux.

Deglaze pan with a small amount of chicken stock. Transfer stock to a saucepot, and add remaining stock and broth from giblets. Bring to a simmer and degrease.

Make a blond roux with reserved fat and flour. Add roux to the liquid, whisking gently to prevent lumps. Simmer 15 minutes. Strain gravy through a fine-meshed strainer. Adjust seasoning.

Tuscan Herb Paste

Yield: 2 1/4 cups

- 1 tablespoon fresh basil
- 2 tablespoons fresh rosemary
- 1/2 packed cup fresh Italian parsley
- 1 tablespoon fresh thyme
- 2 tablespoons fresh sage
- 1/2 teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 3/4 cup Carapelli Extra Light in Taste Olive Oil
- 1 cup Carapelli Premium 100% Italian Extra Virgin Olive Oil

Blend herbs and crushed red pepper with light olive oil using a blender or food processor, then stir in extra virgin olive oil.

Serving Ideas: Rub the flavor of turkey for grilling and mushrooms for roasting.

Eighth graders fall short in title game

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

Try as they might, the Kewaskum Gridiron eighth graders were unable to overcome Lake Country Red in the All American Youth Football North Conference Championship game held in Kewaskum on Saturday afternoon.

The visiting Chiefs scored early and often, romping to a 31-0 decision over the Indians, who still had a successful season, ending the year with a 7-1 mark. A year ago, they posted a 5-3 mark.

"It's the same old story. You start running into some big schools with larger enrollments than ours," coach "Jonesy" Korth said. "They pretty much controlled the line of scrimmage" and had a lot of success with the three speedy backs they had.

Kewaskum kicked off to open the game, and, "The Chiefs marched down the field and scored. Korth said his team's best offensive series came right after that. "We got to the 10 or 15 and turned the ball over on downs," he said.

Lake Country added another TD in the second quarter, taking a 16-0 lead into the half-time break.

The Indians started on offense in the second half but fumbled on the third play from scrimmage, according to Korth, who said the Chiefs used up the rest of the period and scored again. At that point, Kewaskum began using some of its reserves.

"Our linebackers played great games," Korth said, referring to Berat Elmazi, Brandon Thull and Josh Baker.

Kewaskum had trouble getting its running game going and only completed a couple of passes.

"We had a great year," Korth said, noting the opposing coaches from Hartland said they had been scouting Kewaskum the past couple of weeks and complimented the team's play and sportsmanship.

Korth was assisted by Rolly Maul, Don Ballard, Mike Heberer and John Heinen.

The John Jarecki Memorial Championship Game will be held Saturday (11 a.m.) 35th annual in Hartland, with Lake Country Red squaring off against Lake Country White for the title.

Kewaskum won the Jarecki title once, in 1999.

All four Gridiron teams will be at the annual banquet tonight (Thursday) to celebrate their seasons. Korth will not be in attendance as he is scheduled to have knee replacement surgery that day at St. Luke's Hospital in Milwaukee.

"I'm looking forward to next year," he said.

Sixth grade puts finishing touch on record season title game

By Judy Harlow

There were plenty of reasons for celebration after the sixth grade Kewaskum football team's final game Saturday in Kewaskum.

The second-year Indians finished the season unbeaten (7-0-1) after posting a 39-19 win over Lake Country Red. By finishing without any losses, the Indians became the winningest sixth grade in Kewaskum Gridiron history.

Previously the 2,002 team (7-1) had the best record, according to assistant coach Jeff Brettingen.

"It was a good year," coach Joel Tietz said. About the latest win, he said, "Everyone played and everyone had fun."

On the very first play of the game, Cole Surprenant caught a pass in the flat and romped 75 yards for a touchdown.

The Indians' defense forced a quick punt, and the offense was off and running again, this time scoring on a pass from Gabe Christianson to tight end Cade Peterson that covered 50 yards.

In the second quarter, Kewaskum had a 3-play 74-yard drive with Surprenant scoring on a 62-yard double reverse.

Danny Kreis, Dawson Fox and Tony Steger scored TDs in the second half.

Coach Jim Murray's offense averaged 24 points per game this fall.

On the other side of the ball, "The first defense only gave up one or two first downs," Tietz said.

The fifth graders (3-4-1) ended on a high note, besting Hartford, 25-19.

"Offensively, our passing game was really good. I was pleased with that," coach Mark Walcheske said. "The play action came together."

Scoring for the rookie Indians were Luke Christianson on a 3-yard run, Kyle Bath on a 2-yard run, Carson Dogs on a 29-yard pass, and Ryan Prochnow on a keeper.

Walcheske said the key players on defense in this game were Hunter Grady, Talon Ralph and Ezra DuFour.

"Defensively, we held them a lot, but we gave up some big plays up the middle," the coach said.

News from the seventh grade (1-7) camp was a repeat of previous contests. "Our defense played pretty well, but we couldn't get the offense going," coach Tom Kudek said about the 25-7 loss to the Lake Country Red team.

In the fourth quarter, the Indians finally clicked, putting together a nice scoring drive. "Brady Hanson set it up with a 70-yard pass from (Dalton) Poole. After that Kyle Pamperin scored on a 7-yard sweep," Kudek said, reporting the PAT came via a pass from Poole to Michael Boettcher.

Kudek went on that Zachary Geidel and Seth Bartelt each had fumble recoveries.

Pirates sink Indians ship set for state

Kewaskum defenders hold Pewaukee running back Collin Sternad for no gain on third and four in the third quarter last Friday. The Pirates beat the Indians, 22-21, in overtime to advance in the playoffs.

Opinions differ on how overtime was executed last Friday night, but Kewaskum's football team walked off the field and out of the locker with the same emotion: gut-wrenching heartbreak.

After scoring a touchdown and kicking the extra point to go up 21-14, Kewaskum's field goal team walked toward its exuberant sideline and the Indians gathered for defensive instructions.

In the meantime, officials got the ball ready for play for Pewaukee's shot at overtime; high school rules are just like college in which each team gets the ball on the opponent's 25.

Kewaskum didn't take the field in time and the officials let the play run. With no opposition, T.J. Watt caught a pass and trotted to the end zone for a 25-yard score.

Miffed but not out of it, the Indians prepared for an expected two-point attempt by Pewaukee, a win or lose gamble. Pewaukee asked for the ball on the left hash mark. The teams traded timeouts, Kewaskum calling one first and then Pewaukee.

Quarterback Brock Bateman took the snap and instantly rolled right. He tossed the ball to sprinting Ben Steker, who pulled it in, put up his arms and ran toward his sideline. A Kewaskum holding penalty was declined. The Pirates (9-2) won, 22-21, and extended their season.

Kewaskum's seniors took their last walk on their home field after their first loss of the season and last game of their prep careers. Kewaskum finished 10-1.

"Just thought it would have ended differently for us," said Eric Perkins, the most prolific running back in school history for a single season and possibly career.

An emotional Coach Jason Piittmann put the blame on himself after the game and made a larger statement a few days later.

"I mistakenly treated the time after the scoring plays (TD and PAT) like they are treated during the course of regulation - where there is time for an 'authorized conference' or timeout. In overtime, the ball is placed back at the 25-yard line, the chains are set, and then the ball is marked 'ready for play' which starts the 25 second play clock," he said. "It was completely my error for not noticing the ball being marked ready for play and the whistle making it so. The officials administered the overtime period according to the letter of the rule."

Not everyone, including callers to a Milwaukee radio show, agreed with how the officials handled the situation. Piittmann stands by his original claim.

"As to whether the officials could have done more 'preventive officiating' to avoid having a play of such impact happen, I do think so - but it is not their obligation to do so. As to what penalty, if any should have been called on us - I really don't know. No flag was thrown, but I was told by the crew it would have been a penalty for 'Illegal Participation.' In communicating with other officials, there are varying thoughts on whether it should be that or offsides/encroachment, delay of game, or no penalty at all.

"The bottom line is that I screwed up the situation in overtime."

Piittmann said he figured the Pirates would go to the two-point play.

"We felt they were going to try to go to their right so we tried to put a defense that put us that way. Cover one, but he snuck the ball in there," he said.

The controversy spoiled what was an evenly matched affair with a thrilling finish. Pewaukee held Perkins to his lowest total of the season - 32 yards rushing on 13 carries, but Perkins had the best receiving game of his career with eight catches for 153 yards and a touchdown.

"I was just trying to help the team as best I could. Tried to put the team on my back and try to carry us to a win," he said.

"They loaded up against him. They ran some different looks at us. They spied him really well. They had guys that flew to him," Piittmann said. "They have more athleticism and speed than just about anybody we've played all season."

Down 14-7, Kewaskum had 3:26 left in their season after Pewaukee punted. The Indians got the ball back on their own 8 after having turned the ball over in the end zone on their last possession, squandering a scoring chance.

The regular offense wasn't working, so it was back to the shotgun for quarterback Sam Olla. He hit Perkins, who was moved from the backfield to a slot receiver, for 14. Then Olla scrambled for several more and a late hit out of bounds penalty moved the ball to the 46.

Olla was sacked for a six-yard loss, then hit tight end Andy Doll to get back to the original line of scrimmage. On third and 10, Olla ran up the middle for six, and Kewaskum called timeout with 1:46 to play. The next play would decide the Indians' season.

Olla tried to hit Nate Krupp on a slant but the ball was intercepted. Pewaukee, however, was flagged for holding and Kewaskum's season lived on.

From the Pirates' 38, Olla threw incomplete and then hit Perkins on another swing pass for 13 yards down to the 25. Olla ran left for eight yards, and on second and two found receiver Brad Boegel near the sideline. The all-state first baseman used to taking throws from his all-conference shortstop laid out for a diving catch to the two-yard line.

One play later, Olla ran up the gut and the Indians were within one point of tying the game with 51.1 seconds left.

But kicking hasn't been the Indians' strength the past several weeks, whether it was the snap, hold or boot, and this extra point had the season on the line.

This time, it was executed well, just like after the first two scores. Good snap by Boegel, hold by Olla and kick by junior Hunter Flanders. Olla laughed at the topic of his team's kicking game.

"Flanders did amazing kicking. Let's put it that way," he said. "Didn't help that I was playing 'Good Vibrations' for him when I was holding."

"He had some great holds, by the way," said Flanders with a smirk.

The Indians' heart and resiliency were on full display the entire last drive.

"We just kept saying it we've got to want it as bad as we want to breathe so we had to get down there and score the ball," said Perkins.

"I had a blast. Last drive came down to me," said Olla. "Front line was amazing. Our receivers were amazing. Everyone was amazing that drive."

"We just knew we had to go down the field and we needed a big drive," said Boegel. "I thought we capitalized well, made some big plays, found some open guys. We played our hearts out." "An outstanding group of men and they battled hard. They know what it is to fight," said Piittmann.

Kewaskum for the first time all night had momentum. Pewaukee didn't move the ball, and to overtime the game went. The Pirates won the toss and chose defense first. Kewaskum took over at the 25 and went back to its normal offense with Olla under center.

Teddy Wollner ran up the gut for two. Olla ran option left for six and option right for another six. He ran up the middle for four and then Perkins up the gut for two.

On third and four from the five, Olla found Perkins in the right flat and he jogged in easily. "Sam seen that there was no outside linebacker that had me so Sam dumped it off to me right away and I scored a touchdown," said Perkins.

"We just had momentum coming in. We went to regular (offense) but we still had confidence, we still had momentum and it just carried over," said Olla.

"We did a good job of blocking; we had new enthusiasm, new life, and Sam did a great job reading for the holes and reading on the option as well," said Piittmann.

Flanders hit the extra point and it was 21-14, setting up the controversial finish.

The game was never farther than seven points apart. The Pirates took a 7-0 lead on a 19-yard run on fourth and three in the first quarter as Kewaskum's offense sputtered in the first half.

Piittmann even tried a fake punt - the first in about five years - and Teddy Wollner ran for five yards to Pewaukee's 38 on fourth and three. But the drive stalled when quarterback Sam Olla's run up the middle out of the shotgun fell short at the 20 on another fourth and three.

In the second quarter, the Pirates threatened to score again, driving to Kewaskum's 24. But on fourth on six, all-conference defensive tackle Mack Donath and defensive end Garrett Yahr sacked Bateman for a 15-yard loss.

With 1:31 left and no points on the board, Kewaskum went to its spread offense. A Pewaukee offsides penalty, a pass to Boegel and three more to Perkins moved Kewaskum to the 19.

Olla scrambled left for 12 yards and got out of bounds with 28.4 seconds left. On first and goal, he hit Boegel on low ball in the right corner of the end zone. Boegel pulled the pigskin into his gut before falling for Kewaskum's first score.

The Indians tied the game and were to receive the ball in the second half. Momentum carried into the third quarter but only for a few seconds. Kewaskum fumbled the kickoff and Pewaukee recovered at the 31. The Pirates scored three plays later to go up 14-7.

"It's such an emotional change. You come out and you're all ready for the second half and then all of a sudden it's a downer and they have a short field and it's tough to stop," said Piittmann.

Kewaskum had another scoring chance late in the fourth quarter. Backed up at their own five with 8:09 left, Olla hit Perkins on second and 10 on a short pass. But Perkins was in space where he is most deadly, and he sped downfield, going from right to center and left before being caught at the 10. It was an 85-yard gain.

"That one hurt because I should have got into the end zone," he said.

The Indians later threw an interception in the end zone on a halfback option. The defense bent but didn't break, forcing a punt after eight plays that set up Kewaskum's fourth-quarter heroics.

"It was a great game. We had fun, we came back. Just didn't go our way," said Olla. "That's how sports and life goes. Now I just gotta get back up and take another ride."

"It wasn't like how I wanted it to be," said Perkins.

"Duked it out 'til the end and came up short," said Boegel. "I had a ton of fun. I love every one of the guys on the team. We have a family and that means more to me than winning and losing."
