Lady Indians advance six to sectional, boys send four

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

For some it was a matter of redemption, while others were expected to do well for Kewaskum in Monday's WIAA Division 2 Regional Track and Field competition in North Fond du Lac Monday.

By virtue of top-four finishes, the Lady Indians advance six individuals in five events, along with two relays, while four KHS boys will move on to the Whitewater Sectional Thursday, along with two of the relay teams.

Ripon won both ends of the meet. The Tiger boys outscored Waupun for the team title, 133.50 to 125.50, while the Lady Tigers survived a battle with Waupun, 114.50 to 112.

Kewaskum led by junior Stephanie Henk and talented freshmen, Ellie Debelak and Abby Reysen, finished sixth out of the 10 teams with 75 points, while the boys scored 51 points to finish seventh.

Henk posted the team's only win, throwing the discus 108-11, which was just off her season-best.

Debelak came up with her best long jump of the season, going 16 feet, three inches (16-3) to place third and advance. She also led off the third-place 4x400 relay, with Krystina Lepp, Amanda Plachinski and Reysen following to produce a time of four minutes, 19.83 seconds (4:19.83), their best by over five seconds.

Reysen also placed third in the 400 (1:03.45).

Two high jumpers, senior Ashlee Stahl and freshman Megan Ackhatz, move on by virtue of their second and fourth, respectively, after jumping 4-10 and 4-8. Lepp also cleared 4-8 but lost out on advancing on misses.

Just making the sectional field was the 4x800 relay unit of Caley McClyman, Plachinski, Jessica Nurkala and April Stern. They took fourth with a time of 11:13.44.

Nurkala will also be going in the pole vault after clearing 8-3 for second place.

The pole vault produced two qualifiers for the KHS boys, with Corey Burdick going 12-6 to win the event and Tristin Marx clearing 11-03 for third.

Freshman Ben Watzig's heave of 133-07 was his personal best for almost six feet, giving him third place, and Brandon Mikolajczak also had a good outing, turning in a PR of 11.73 in the 100-meter dash for third place.

High on the redemption list were the Indian sprint relays, which had failed to make the top three in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Meet. KHS coach Jerry Gosa had said this was the first time in 10-12 years the relay teams did not bring home medals.

The Indians came back strong, however, posting a 46.20 in the 4x100 and a 1:38.04 in the 4x200 to take third and fourth, respectively. Marx continues to lead off in place of the injured Ted Wollner, with Brandon Thull, Joey Seitz and Mikolajczak at the Nos. 2, 3 and 4 spots.

Sectional action starts at 3:30 p.m. for the field events and 4:15 for the running.

District sees upswing in WKCE test

By Gay Griesbach
Statesman Correspondent

Kewaskum School District Curriculum Director Darcy Budnik says students taking tests in content-area classrooms and better testing procedures are responsible for an upswing in some 2012 state Knowledge and Concepts Exam test scores.

Budnik says for the past two years the district has been effectively working on a comprehensive curriculum that focuses on daily learning targets, ongoing assessment, customizing instruction and providing support and resources for students.

Overall, there was a 3.5 percent jump in reading and 2.1 percent increase for math in third through eighth graders and tenth graders tested in October and November of 2012.

The percentage of district students considered proficient or advanced in math has also been growing in the past three years, from 49.5 percent in 2010 to 60.1 percent in 2012. The state average for 2012 was 48.1 percent.

The percentage of students considered proficient or advanced in reading is slightly lower and math scores, slightly higher than state averages.

In language arts, social studies and science, fourth, eighth and tenth grade students outperformed state averages for social studies and science.

Wayne Elementary came in at the bottom of the district math scale, with only 42.9 percent of its fourth grade students considered advanced or proficient. Kewaskum Elementary fourth graders topped the list at 69 percent.

Budnik says the percentage is skewed because WES only has 21 fourth graders compared to KES's 74 students in the same grade.

While fourth graders with disabilities exhibit a similar proficiency as non-disabled students in math, the gap widens appreciably by the time students reach tenth grade.

Overall, 39.5 percent of district students are considered advanced or

A grandmother's wish comes true in Fr. Philip Schumaker

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

There was no one lightning bolt moment in his call to a vocation. It was more like a continuous whisper, an invitation from God softly saying, Philip James Schumaker, I want you to be one of my holy priests.

Fr. Philip Schumaker discerned that call after graduating from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, MN, and on Saturday, along with three other men, including his first cousin, Fr. Patrick Burns, he was ordained a Catholic priest at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist Cathedral in Milwaukee. The ordination ceremony was attended by family and friends, parishioners from St. Michael and Holy Trinity parishes and Fr. Edwin Kornath, the pastor of both churches.

Fr. Philip celebrated a very joyful first Mass on Sunday at St. Michael Church, his home parish, followed by a reception in the church hall.

Between requests from guests for his first blessing, Fr. Philip reflected for this writer on his vocational journey, one that was aided by a strong Catholic family, a grandmother who continually prayed to have a priest in her family, and teachers and seminarians who supported his call.

Fr. Philip agreed it was a whirlwind two days for him. "I has ... it's been joyful though," he said. "There's been so much love given to me by God and others who came to the ordination and to my Thanksgiving Mass ... a wonderful outpouring! I really appreciate all the people who helped me, strengthened me, prayed for me to come to this point."

There is no question Fr. Philip comes from a strong Catholic family. They start their day together with Mass at any one of three parishes in the area, a tradition that started when Colleen Schumaker home-schooled her six children.

Colleen and Richard Schumaker have six children, three sons and three daughters. Fr. Philip is the third of six.

Now even though the children are all grown, the family still continues its tradition of being prayer-centered. It was second nature that prayer was what Fr. Philip turned to in his discernment of a vocation.

While attending St. Thomas, Fr. Philip started to feel a calling, and the process of deciding to enter St. Francis Seminary included much prayer and confiding in a spiritual director.

"I took all the way up to the ordination," Fr. Philip said about being certain he wanted to be a priest. "My prayer in the seminary was, 'Lord, if this is what you want, make it clear (to me).'"

Fr. Philip's late grandmother, Meg Schumaker, never made it a secret she wanted a priest in her family. Now she has three, including Fr. Philip, his cousin Fr. Patrick Burns and Fr. Burns' brother, Fr. John Burns.

"She was a very good woman who loved her grandchildren, loved her children with all her heart and prayed for them all the time," Fr. Philip explained.

When asked if he felt her presence during his first Mass, Fr. Philip answered in the affirmative, saying, "She was praying for us. I know that."

While Fr. Philip and Fr. Patrick were together at many family gatherings when they were young, their relationship is much stronger now. "We've gotten to be a lot closer over the years," Fr. Philip said. "This is wonderful. He's been a great support for me. I hope I've done the same for him. He's encouraged me to be a better man, a better priest."

Fr. Philip also has high praise for Fr. Timothy Kitze, who mentored him the past four years while he lived and worked at Three Holy Women (St. Rita, St. Hedwig and Holy Rosary) parish on the east side of Milwaukee.

"They started this parish model five years ago. I've been in it for four," Fr. Philip said. "I enjoyed it very much. It was a chance to get to know a parish very well, get to know the people and establish relationships. It was a wonderful experience."

On June 15-16, he will have Masses of Thanksgiving and farewell at Three Holy Women, and two days later will report to Fr. Ken Knippel as the new associate pastor at St. John Vianney in Brookfield.

"I know I'm going to be doing a lot with faith formation in the school ... teaching," he said, "and I will probably be working quite a lot with the youth minister there."

In his priestly work, Fr. Philip knows there will be challenging times but plans to depend on prayer, along with support from his fellow priests.

"A lot of it is trying to preach in a world in a secular culture," Fr. Philip said. "That's going to be a great challenge, but at the same time there's a great opportunity here, also a great joy, trying to bring God to the world."

"This is a priority in the life of a bishop," Archbishop of the Milwaukee Archdiocese Jerome Listeck told his four new priests during Saturday's ordination, because "You will help in the fashioning of the Church."

He challenged the four to "conform your life to the mystery of the Lord's cross," and shepherd the people who are entrusted to them, first strengthening their own faith because "You cannot give what you do not have."

During the ordination ceremony, the four pledged their obedience to Archbishop Listeck and his successors and experienced the imposition of hands, which forever changes their lives.

Surrounded by 25 of his fellow priests, newly-ordained Fr. Philip Schumaker, center, begins the liturgy of the Eucharist during his Mass of Thanksgiving Sunday at St. Michaels Catholic Church.

Dear Editor

In a time when physical fitness is crucial to teach our children (and ourselves) I am so grateful to know and be a part of something great which our community has to offer.

This month will be two years that Jazzercise has made their way to Kewaskum and into my heart. As it continues to grow and move forward I would like the members of our community to learn and be a part of such a blessing.

Last week a new Jazzercise center opened, and we are thrilled! The Korth family, Carol Smiles-Fahs, and the current Jazzercise family have made it what it is now.

Please watch for and seek out info so we can keep this great business in our community. As a working mom and health care professional I find it so comforting that this is offered so close to home. Kate Korth and Carol Smiles-Fahs are so energetic and uplifting, and the friendships that develop are amazing.

Take time to check out the class times they offer, and watch for periodic events such as Junior Jazzercise. I have sat through many community and district meetings and heard the gripes of what our kids are doing and not doing in today's world. Here is a great opportunity to model and encourage everyone to make time in their lives to make you feel great inside and out!

*Thank you,
Debbie Mielkie*

Letter to the Editor:

Abortionist Kermit Gosnell was found guilty of three counts of first degree murder in the killing of three babies born alive. In the wake of the jury verdict May 13, in the murder trial of Dr. Kermit Gosnell, Congressman Chris Smith, NJ, Co-Chairman of the House Bipartisan Congressional Pro-Life Caucus, released the following statement:

"With today's murder convictions of Dr. Gosnell, we've got to encourage Americans to ask—how different really is Gosnell's house of horrors from abortions that occur in clinics throughout the country? Not much. There are Kermit Gosnells all over America predators, child abusers, exploiters of women. Some abortionists may have cleaner sheets than Gosnell, and better sterilized equipment and better trained accomplices, but what they do what Gosnell did kill babies and hurt women is the same.

Will Americans ever be told the horrifying details as to how and how often abortionists dismember, decapitate, and chemically poison innocent babies. Where is the outrage, over the 55 million child victims who have been brutally killed by abortion over the last 40 years, and the millions of women have been hurt physically, emotionally, psychologically? And why the appalling lack of compassion? Why the empathy deficit for the victims, women and children by so many, including and especially President Obama. Women and children deserve better.

And of course Gosnell's trial isn't the first to rip the benign façade of legitimacy from the abortion industry. As far back as 1975, Dr. Kenneth Edelin was convicted by a jury in Boston of murdering a little African-American baby boy. That conviction was subsequently overturned by the Massachusetts Supreme Court. How did Planned Parenthood react to the reversal? With euphoric celebration. Years later Edelin became the Chairman of the Board of Planned Parenthood Federation of America and was given the Margaret Sanger Award in 2008 (in 2009, Planned Parenthood gave the Sanger

Village finances: How did we get here?

By Andrew Kuehl

andrewkuehl@icloud.com

Two weeks ago The Statesman reported on the financial state of The Village of Kewaskum. This article takes a look back to find out just how the village arrived at this situation and how village finances work.

The Village's financial woes began in 2005 when officials were faced with an expensive mandate from the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) after a history-making flood caused the Village's Wastewater Treatment Plant to release raw sewage into the Milwaukee River.

The DNR ordered the village to erect a new lift station to replace one located adjacent to the Riverhill Park dam (now bathrooms). In 2006, the sewer utility borrowed $2,630,599 and built a new lift station adjacent to the Kewaskum Fire Department.

Once the lift station project was complete, the village began the costly project of updating their wastewater treatment plant to DNR standards. The sewer utility then borrowed $6,792,545 to pay for the project.

While these major projects were occurring in 2005, the village undertook the ambitious project of creating a Tax Incremental Finance (TIF) District. The district is composed of some land along Highway 45 that is zoned for business use and a residential subdivision called Nature Haven Estates.

A TIF District is a tool used by communities to increase their tax base. The municipality works with a developer, to put infrastructure (engineering, sewer/water and roads) into place to make land shovel ready for development. The municipality pays for the improvements and the debt for those improvements is paid back by the amount of increased value of the property as it becomes developed.

Village Administrator Matt Heiser explained engineering and roads were paid for by using impact fees, some special assessments, but mostly by borrowing nearly $8,060,000.

The TIF District was to be completed and infrastructure was to be paid back by 2025.

"Development has not occurred in the TIF district after the economic downturn, so it is not generating as much revenue as projected," Heiser explained.

In 2012, the land went into foreclosure and sale of the land was held up due to that process. Just this month, the village received word the bank has hired a real estate firm to escalate sale of the property.

At the urging of Trustee Kevin Scheunemann the Village took steps late in 2012 to declare the TIF District distressed. This declaration added time to the life of the TIF District, increasing the chances for the village to collect tax from the district. The TIF District is now expected to close in 2035.

"Currently the TIF district does not generate enough revenue to pay its entire debt payment so the General Fund covers the shortfall," Heiser explained.

The 2012 audit reported the TIF District borrowed $236,028 from the General Fund to meet debt repayment obligations. In their 2013 budget, the Village Board added that payment of $118,196 to the tax rolls so money would not be needed from the General Fund.

The sewer utility incurred $1,461,282 in debt from the TIF District project as well. While the water utility was not required to undergo the DNR projects the sewer utility wasn't so lucky.

Debt from the TIF District combined with debt from the mandated DNR projects put the sewer utility into the red. Rate increases were implemented from 2008-2010, however rates did not catch up with debt payments until the increases were complete in 2010. Because of that, the sewer utility needed to borrow money to remain solvent. Instead of borrowing from a financial institution, $1,584,451 was borrowed from the Village's General Fund.

Since 2010, the sewer utility has been operating in the black while meeting its debt obligations including paying back the General Fund approximately $40,000 per year.

The General Fund is the operating fund used by the Village. It contains the annual monies allocated for Administration, Police and Fire, Department of Public Works and Parks (everything except the segregated funds like utilities and library). The cash reserves is the bank balance, cash in excess, of the General Fund.

Heiser described the process, "When we pull money out of the bank to pay the debt of the sewer and the TIF it has to be accounted for somehow. So the general ledger records it as due back to the General Fund."

Heiser says to date, the current balance of Village cash reserves is $1,159,568.

At the end of a budget cycle, the surpluses from the different village departments are considered part of the village's reserves. Many different departments lay claim to funds in the reserves and because the village lent money out of the reserves (to avoid traditional financing), if all those various departments made a request for those funds, the village could not fulfill those requests. As the sewer utility pays back what was borrowed, the reserves are expected to increase.

"Because we lent to the other funds (sewer utility & TIF) we now have more claims against the cash reserves than we can pay," Heiser explained.

The most notable situation took place when the Fire Department requested money they placed into the general Fund (ambulance user fees) for a new ambulance.

"Could we have funded a new ambulance two years ago? Yes, but it would have been tight. Waiting those two years helped immensely," Heiser said.

In regards to the Main Street improvement project, rough estimates reveal about $1.3 million in improvements plus, $48,000 in pavement costs are not covered by the state. Heiser figured the pavement costs could be taken from the nearly $334,393 in the street work fund. He also thought there would be enough in the water utility fund to cover those expenses. However the money for the sewer work will likely need to be borrowed because there is not enough in that fund to pay for those improvements.

This week, the Village Board directed village staff to begin working on their budgets early as they anticipate deep cuts to keep a balanced budget in 2014. Work will begin on the budget process in mid-July, once that time arrives, The Statesman will publish an article on the budget process.

Boehlke discusses her second Survivor stint

Local native Andrea Boehlke just completed her second stint on the popular reality show "Survivor." Here's a Q&A with Boehlke, who placed in the top seven both times she has been on the show.

Boehlke now works for an online men's magazine called Ask Men (<http://www.askmen.com>), doing entertainment hosting on its website as well as press trips. Last week-end she flew to Las Vegas to be filmed learning how to break dance.

Follow Boehlke on Twitter at @andreaboehlke.

Q. Did you vote for Cochran or Dawn? Any reason why?

A. I voted for Cochran like everyone else did. The reason I voted for him is because he didn't mess with my head emotionally like Dawn did. He played a strategic game but played a more calm and collected game.

Q. Did your family come to L.A.? What was that like?

A. It was so amazing that I had 15 people come out to LA with me! I had my immediate family as well as cousins and friends. We had a blast hanging out in LA, I couldn't have asked for a better time.

Q. How was this show different from the first? How did this show change you? Does it make you rethink whom to trust in professional and social situations?

A. I had a much more fun and rewarding experience this time around. I really enjoyed the people, despite them blindsiding me. It was fun because this time around I was able to really play the game and make moves. The show has definitely changed me; it has given me tougher skin and helped me grow closer to my family. When you play a game that revolves around people lying to you, you come home and appreciate your family so much more! However, there will always be that voice in the back of your head wondering if you can always trust people in professional and social situations. Unfortunately, real life is sometimes a little like Survivor.

Q. Grossest thing you ate? How was the food this time? How about the accommodations?

A. Eating the shipworms in the gross food eating challenge was definitely not pleasant! Besides that, the food situation in the Philippines was much better than that of Nicaragua. We actually had coconuts this time and it was really fun cooking them. It seriously tasted like chicken when you burnt the coconut meat. Or maybe we were just going crazy.

Q. Phillip still as nuts as before?

A. See, it's funny because I actually really enjoy Phillip outside of the game. We are buds. On the show he is completely unbearable and outlandish, but in real life he is actually a very genuine, yet still entertaining person.

Q. Make any friends you'll stay in touch with?

A. I will definitely stay in contact with Dawn, Cochran and Phillip the most. We all really bonded. I'm sure I'll stay in touch with a lot of the cast actually. Eddie lives nearby, Allie lives in NYC as well. I really liked everyone in this season.

Q. Would you do a third show if asked?

A. I've been saying no because I want to focus on what is next for me, however it will just depend on where I am in my career and life if they ask again.

proficient in reading skills, above the 36.2 percent state average for 2012. That average has risen from a seven year low of 32 percent recorded in 2010.

In the fourth grade category of readers, Wayne Elementary is only at 28.6 percent for 2012, while at the top of the district, Farmington Elementary students had 43.2 percent of their students considered advanced or proficient, but again, Budnik warns that Farmington has nearly double the students.

She says Wayne, whose fourth graders had the lowest math percentages in the district were at the top of the list last year.

“It’s not apples to apples. When you look at fourth grade scores every year you have a different student group and that alters test scores,” Budnik says.

Eighth graders showed a marked improvement over 2011, rising over 18 points to an average of 46 percent of students that are considered advanced or proficient in reading.

Middle school math skills, which dipped slightly between 2010 and 2011, also showed improvement, rising from 39 percent to 53.2 percent in 2010.

At 36.8 percent, tenth grade reading skills are on the rise, even though they are about 10 percentage points below the highest listed percentage charted in 2005.

High school math skills for tenth graders are also showing an increase over the past five years, going from 34 percent to 47.9 percent, not far from the 2007 high of 50.9 percent.

Budnik said she believes the Star program, implemented in September 2012 to provide ongoing assessments and monitor student’s growth and progress, will lead the district to even higher scores.

The district has also implemented extended learning time at every level to provide additional help to students that may be struggling and enrichment for those who are doing well in class.

The number of economically disadvantaged students, which Budnik says has risen over the past number of years, scored consistently lower in both math and reading.

She said while the term “economically disadvantaged” does not automatically equate with “poor performance,” those gaps are looked at in all grade levels to see if additional resources or interventions are needed.

ship Seminar (WILS). The WILS will be held from June 14 - 16 at the University of Wisconsin - Whitewater campus.

WILS is a local volunteer organization that identifies outstanding high school sophomores throughout Wisconsin and provides them with the opportunity and encouragement to recognize their leadership potential. The program is in its 36th year and this year has selected one sophomore from each high school with over 200 high school throughout the state participating.

The weekend consists of team-building activities, motivational speakers, volunteer service, a talent show, panels of key leaders from various industries, and small group discussion. Toth accepted into NSCS

Taylor Toth

Taylor Thomas Toth of Campbellsport has accepted membership in The National Society of Collegiate Scholars (NSCS).

"NSCS is more than just a symbol of academic achievement. Loflin, NSCS Founder and Chief Executive Officer.

NSCS is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies and is the nation's only interdisciplinary honors organization for first and second year college students. Membership is by invitation only, based on grade point average and class standing. NSCS has nearly one million lifetime members and 300 chapters in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

Schools want your box tops, soup labels

No one likes paying higher taxes, but residents with children or not have a way to help area schools and keep costs down in district and private school classrooms.

For decades and even generations families have saved their soup labels to help their schools and the success of this nearly 40-year-old program is evident as the collection has expanded to things like Labels for Education, Box Tops and soda can tabs. All Kewaskum School District schools collect these items as well as Holy Trinity and St. Lucas.

Helping doesn't a dime, just a little time to remove the labels and tops of various food items.

Box Tops can be found on items like cereal, Kleenex, yogurt just to name a few, but are on thousands of items. Labels for Education are found on Campbell Soups as well as hundreds of other items. Can Tabs are just the tops of aluminum cans.

With budget cuts many are willing to do anything to keep events in our schools, but these things cost money. That's where collecting these items helps bring in free money and much needed classroom supplies.

Wayne PTO member, Tracy Herman stated, "When you collect a $400+ check for items that would normally be garbage...why wouldn't you want to take a little time and help children in our community and make it a better place to learn and live?"

These items can be turned in at any of the schools in our district or Herman says she would be happy to make sure they get to whatever organization someone is willing to help. She can be reached at (262) 483-0006 and can also answer any questions you might have about the program.

Orval was born on April 10, 1927, in Reedsville, to Henry G. and Mabel (Pollack) Behnke. He was baptized at St. John St. James Lutheran Church in Reedsville, where he was also confirmed at the age of 14.

Orval grew up on his parents' dairy farm in the rural Reedsville area and graduated in 1945 from Reedsville high school, where he participated in several sports. In 1950 Orval graduated from Platteville State Teachers' College with a degree in Agricultural Education. He taught in Abbotsford and then was drafted into the Army in 1951, where he served in New Orleans in the food inspection corps.

He married his college sweetheart, Ruth M. Lippoldt, on December 26, 1951, at Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church in Darlington. After completing his service, Orval taught in Princeton and Kewaskum.

Orval began his insurance career in 1958, a profession he enjoyed for fifty years. As an agent with Equitable Life (NY), Orval became a pension specialist and earned the Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) designation. He is in Equitable's Hall of Fame and a lifetime Million Dollar Round Table member, winning many awards for client sales and service. He was a leader in his industry's professional association (NALU) and was recognized in 1983 as Equitable's

IN MEMORY

In memory of RICHARD 'DICK' LOOS, who passed away May 25, 2012.

God had taken you from us that day,
An action so difficult to fathom.
In our hearts and mind you'll stay,
No matter how much time passes.

Never a day goes by without thoughts of you.
Your happiness, heart, and great intellect.
I know you watch over us and all we do,
Until our paths entwine once more.

*We love and miss you
Mary Ann, J.R., Bernice, Jeni, Mandy, Shane, the children, Steph and George*

IN MEMORY

In memory of GERALDINE "GERI" GAVIN, who passed away 23 years ago, May 28, 1990.

In the rising of the sun
and in its going down,
We remember you.

In the opening of buds,
And in the rebirth of spring,
In the blueness of the sky
And the warmth of summer,
We remember you.

In the rustling leaves
And in the beauty of autumn,
In the blowing of the wind
And in the chill of winter,
We remember you.

When we are weary
And in need of strength,
When we are lost
And sick at heart,
We remember you.

When we have joys we yearn to share,
So long as we live, you too
shall live,
For you are a part of us
As we remember you.

Remembering you is easy,
We do it every day,
It's the heartache of losing you

That will never go away.

*Forever missed but never forgotten,
Mom & family*

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of AARON KLUEVER, who passed away 10 years ago, May 23, 2003.

Loving memories we will never forget,
Sadly missed along life's way,
With silent thought and deep regret,
We think of you every day.
No longer in our life to share,
But in our hearts you are always there.

*Sadly missed by Brian, Karla,
Joshua & Molly*

THANK YOU

The family of BERNICE FLEISCHMAN would like to thank everyone for their kind words and offerings of sympathy on the passing of our mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great grandmother. Thank you to Gateway Catering, Twohig Funeral Home, Father Neil Zinthefer and the parishioners of St. Kilian and St. Matthew, especially the members of the choir and all those who assisted with the luncheon. Your kindness was truly appreciated.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. You who gives me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evils against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you, even and in spite of all material illusion. I wish to be with you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy toward me and mine. The person must say this prayer for three consecutive days. After three days, the favor requested will be granted, even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted.

Pole vaulters do well in EWC test

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

No big surprises as to the teams that claimed the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Track and Field titles May 14 in Plymouth.

The Sheboygan Falls girls powered their way to a convincing victory, piling up four individual firsts places and two more in the relays en route to scoring 169.50 points, 24.5 more than the host Lady Panthers. Two Rivers and Waupun both scored over 100 points, with 117 and 102, respectively, while Kewaskum, with mostly freshmen carrying the load, coming in sixth with 62.50 points.

The Plymouth boys were dominant, amassing 158.50 points. Two Rivers was next at 136.50, while Waupun scored 110.50 for third.

Kewaskum, minus sprinter/relay regular Ted Wollner, finished eighth with only 28 points.

The pole vaulters had good outings. Junior Jessica Nurkala cleared nine feet (9-0), her best by a foot to win the pole vault, while Corey Burdick hit 13-3, his personal best by three inches, which was good for second place.

Burdick, the eventual winner, Ashton Novy of Two Rivers and two vaulters from Plymouth were left in the competition after 13-0.

At 13-3, Burdick sailed over on his first try but was unable to get off any good jumps at 13-6.

When asked if he was psyched up for the event, Burdick said, "Definitely ... the weather is beautiful, and I didn't have to fight myself to get loose. It was real easy to get loosened up."

Novy, whose previous best had been 13-6, made 14-1 on his winning jump.

Sophomore Tristin Marx cleared 11-6, good for sixth, while senior Lauren Treptow made 7-06 to take sixth.

Treptow was actually participating in two events at the same time. After clearing one of the heights, she ran from the vault area to the discus to take her final three throws. She finished eighth with a throw of 90-04, her season-best by seven feet.

Actually all three discus throwers, Stephanie Henk, Anna Aycock (85-11), and Treptow had season bests. Henk did the best, placing fourth at 110-08 and that throw came on her final toss in the preliminaries.

With a foul and a short throw in the first two tries, the pressure was on, so after uncorking the 110-08, she breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Thank God."

"I wasn't staying level. I was tilting," Henk said about her efforts in the finals, but she is optimistic she will do well in the Division 2 regionals at North Fond du Lac (May 20). "I think I can throw 115," she said.

Next best after Nurkala's first was a second by Kayla Oelhafen in the long jump with a leap of 15-02.75, which was over a foot better than her prior best.

"This was the surprise of the meet for us," KHS coach Jerry Gosa said. "She (Oelhafen) just popped a great one."

Abby Reysen placed tied for fourth in the 400 (1:03.23), and senior Ashley Stahl tied for fourth in the high jump, clearing 4-6.

Three of the Lady Indians relays took fourth. The 4x200, comprised of Ellie Debalek, Megan Ackhartz, Haley Kleinhans and Krystina Lepp, hit the finish line in 1:56.93, while the 4x400 quartet, Debelak, Lepp, Amanda Plachinski and Reysen, clicked off a 4:24.86, a drop of nearly four seconds.

In the longest relay, the 4x800, McClyman, Plachinski, Nurkala and April Stern turned in an 11:16.39. Other top-eight efforts included a sixth by Debelak in the long jump (14-07.50), seventh by Sammie Wiskirchen in the triple jump (29-02.50) and eighth by Henk in the shot (29-05.50).

Other place winners for the boys' team included; high jump - 100- Mikolajczak, 5th, 12.13; Jason Hanson, 5th, 5-6; long jump - Thull, 7th, 19-0; discus - Ben Watzig, 8th, 122-04.

Tennis team suffers from lack of seasoned performers

The Indians' Michael Prochnow serves for the lead as he and #3 Doubles partner Ian Kenworthy hold on to be the only Indian victors against a tough Kohler team on Monday May 13th. Prochnow and Kenworthy won 6-4, 0-6, 6-2.

As Kewaskum High School's boys tennis coach Matt Fehlhaber anticipated, his team struggled after 80 percent of the team graduated last spring.

Plymouth's boys added a second title, tennis, to their very successful spring in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. They finished the season with 51 points (based on singles and doubles victories in EWC matches).

Kewaskum found themselves eighth in a field of 10.

According to Fehlhaber, Bille Lehmann finished the year at 6-7 at No. 1, while Taylor Nelson was 4-2 at No. 3 singles and Ian Kenworthy and Mike Prochnow, who teamed up midway in the season, finished at 5-3.

On Tuesday, Fehlhaber said, "Bille Lehmann battled back from a break down to win the match in straight, giving Kewaskum the 4-3 victory."

With all but two starters who are underclassmen this year, there will be plenty of optimism when the season rolls around in 2014.

The first part of last week went according to plan for the Kewaskum High golfers, but a collapse in the final mini-tour meet and the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Tournament cost the Indians a chance at finishing fourth overall.

"It is definitely disappointing, but this is not a super-talented team, and we were inconsistent," coach Glenn Eichstedt said about the season.

Sheboygan Falls, winner of seven out of eight mini-tour events and a landslide winner in the tournament, captured the team title with 11 points, one away from a perfect score.

Playing in the EWC tourney at Whispering Springs in Fond du Lac, the Falcons posted a record-setting 305, with the Bachmann brothers, Matt and Chris, finishing 1-2 with respective scores of 71 and 73. Their other counters were Matt Andrews with an 80 (tied for fourth) and Connor Clark at 81.

Campbellsport snuck into second place with a 332 mark, behind the efforts of Logan Eisch and Jack Adams, who placed third and fourth, respectively, with scores of 77 and 80.

Plymouth was one stroke back at 333, followed by Two Rivers, 358; New Holstein, 361; Kewaskum, 362; Waupun, 384; and Kiel, 404.

Kewaskum had no golfer in the top 10. Low for the 18 holes was Nick Banks, with a 44-42—86. Adam Waala posted a 45-46—91 and Mike Holt and Sean Murray both shot 51-41—92.

Eichstedt said his team had a 191 on the back nine (which KHS played first), then, "The second nine we shot 165. That was our best nine of the whole golf season."

With the tournament counting for double points, the final standings came out with Falls (11) on top, Plymouth in second with 22 points and Campbellsport third with 27. Two Rivers was fourth at 50, followed by Kewaskum, 53; New Holstein, 56; Waupun, 69; and Kiel, 71.

Kewaskum had placed fourth with a 186 total on May 13 at Fox Hills, two places ahead of Two Rivers, moving the Indians into fourth place, which had been part of Eichstedt's plans for the week.

In that match, Banks and Dustin Heberer both carded 46s, good for a tie at 11th place, while Murray and Waala were a shot back of that mark.

Holt, the team's No. 1 man, shot a 56.

On May 14, the team started off well, placing fourth a season-low 170 on their home Hon-E-Kor CC course (Red Nine). Murray paced the Indians with a solid 4-over par 40, while Holt played one of his best rounds, shooting a 41. The other two counters were Waala at 43 and Banks, 46.

Where the situation started to fall apart was playing at Auburn Bluffs the same afternoon. While it may be one of the shortest courses the EWC plays on, it has a couple tricky holes, and one of them, the par-5 No. 7, really took its toll on the Indians.

"We certainly shot ourselves out of the water there," Eichstedt said, indicating one of his players had a 12 on the hole. Another finished with a 10, and there was also a nine.

Banks and Murray were low with 44s, but their scores were tied for 17 in the 40-man field. None of the others broke 50, as Waala fired a 50, Heberer, 51; and Holt struggling to a 56.

Raiders, Warriors toppled by Indians who fall to Panthers

By Judy Harlow
Statesman Correspondent

Turning up the offense a notch, the Indians' girls soccer team won back-to-back games against Kiel and Waupun last week before being shut down by a powerful Plymouth team.

The Indians started off the week with a 4-3 double overtime effort against visiting Kiel.

"Quite a game," KHS coach Luke Piwoni said, reporting it took 96:00 to determine a winner, and he was elated to see Becca Strigenz score four minutes before the contest would have been called a draw.

"She (Becca) broke free from the Kiel defense ... she was slightly off to the right side and kicked the ball over the keeper's head and just snuck it in under the crossbar."

This was Strigenz's second goal of the afternoon. She scored off a good feed by Emily Krier in the 24th minute after Jeray Riffel opened the scoring with an unassisted goal just 2:37 into the game.

Kewaskum added a third goal at 37:00 when Shannon Miller used her savvy to connect on another direct kick. "I think that's the third time this year," Piwoni said, noting the score was 3-1 at half.

Unfortunately, the tide turned on the Indians in the second half as the Raiders put on the pressure and eventually tied the game with one minute left.

"It was a tale of two halves," Piwoni said, but all ended well for the Indians, thanks to Strigenz.

"Her foot speed was a difference ... all of a sudden, she has another gear," the coach said.

Emily Kohler was in goal for Kewaskum, and she was credited with eight saves.

Waupun didn't have a chance vs. the Indians, who peppered the Warrior goalie with shots and connected on four in the first half and another in the second.

Sarah Boettcher got the Indians going with her goal at 18:00, then Miller got into the act at 20:00, Riffel made it 3-0 with her first goal at 24:00, and Riffel tallied again at 30:00.

After the break, Miller scored at 47:00. This was her ninth goal of the season, according to Piwoni, who said Riffel now has six and Strigenz and Boettcher are next with four apiece.

"We were able to control the pace," Piwoni said, indicating he used Kohler in goal in the first half and Hailey Taylor in the second, and there was just one save.

The week ended with the Indians traveling to Plymouth where they lost 4-0 in a game that was a lot closer than the final score indicates.

"We had a rough, three-minute stretch," Piwoni said, referring to the Panthers' power surge with three goals at 33:00, 35:00 and 36:00.

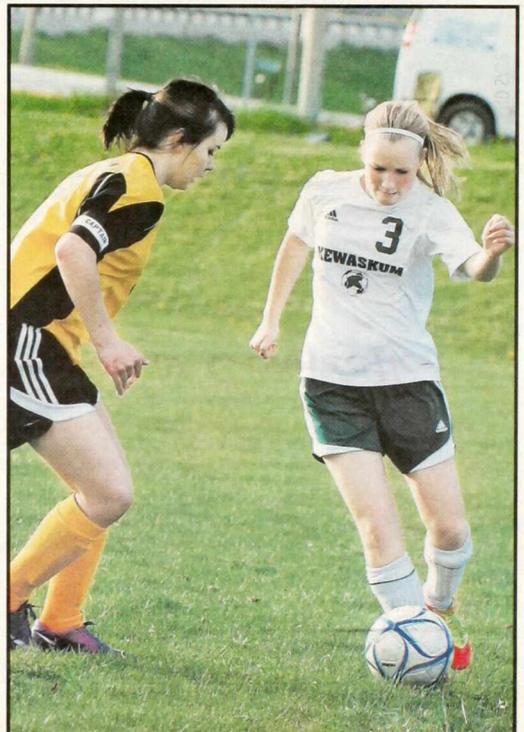

"I was happy with the way Heather May played," Piwoni said, adding, "Kaila Kirst played a phenomenal game at sweeper. I'd say it was her best game of the year."

Kohler made 10 saves, and "saw a lot of action, according to the coach, who said his team is currently 2-2 against Eastern Wisconsin Conference opponents — because of all the way, only the second game against EWC foes will count toward the standings — and 3-11 overall.

Kewaskum had three games on this week's schedule, including one this afternoon (May 23) against New Holstein.

Lady Indians earn No. two seed

By Mitch Maersck
Statesman Correspondent

Kewaskum's fast-pitch softball team earned a no. 2 seed coming into Tuesday's playoff game against no. 3 Grafton.

The Indians finished the regular season 9-5 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference in third place.

Kewaskum lost two close games each against EWC champion Waupun and second-place finisher Plymouth.

Against Plymouth last week in the second game of the doubleheader, cleanup hitter Lindsay Winkler clobbered three home runs over the fence, earning all her team's five RBIs in the 7-5 loss. One went to left center, another to center and another to right center.

"And there was no doubt about any three of them. They were gone," said Coach Jeff Gosse.

That makes four homers for Winkler for the season. Her other came against Waupun.

Some timely mistakes on defense and running the bases helped the Panthers pull out the nightcap.

The Indians lost the first game to Plymouth, 3-1. Four errors in one inning helped the Panthers score all their runs. Otherwise, pitcher Taylore Kohn wins, 1-0.

Kohn went the distance in both games, first allowing three runs on four hits, whiffing one and walking none. In the second, she allowed seven runs on 13 hits and one walk.

Kewaskum on May 13 knocked off Sheboygan Falls on the road twice, 18-6 and 10-3.

In Game 1, Laura Weishan was 2-for-5 with a home run and five RBIs, one of six Indians who knocked in at least one run. Jenny Reicher was 3-for-5 with two doubles (both off the fence) and four RBIs, and Winkler was 4-for-5. Cassidy Enright was 2-for-4 with one RBI. Erin Thisted-Klemp and Rosenthal were each 1-for-4 with a double.

"Jenny's been hitting well. The top of the order's been getting on. They've been doing good," said Gosse. "Freshman Laura Weishan has settled into the lineup."

Winkler went the distance, allowing four earned runs on two hits, nine walks and two hit batters. She whiffed eight.

In Game 2, Reicher was 2-for-4 with two RBIs and Enright 1-for-3 with a double two RBIs. Thisted-Klemp was 2-for-3, and Melanie Juech was 2-for-4 with an RBI. McKenzie Rosenthal was 1-for-2 with a double.

Winkler again went the distance, allowing two earned runs on five hits, four walks, and two hit batters. She whiffed three.

In a tournament at West Bend on May 11, the Indians beat West Bend East, 16-9, and lost to West, 3-0.

Against East, Weishan was 2-for-3 with a double and two RBIs, Maddie Kreis was 2-for-4 with two RBIs and Kohn 2-for-3 with one RBI.

Kohn went the distance, allowing five earned runs on nine hits, walking 11 and whiffing two.

Against West, the Indians only collected four hits. Winkler had two. She pitched four innings and allowed two earned runs on two hits and 10 walks.

Against Two Rivers on May 7, Kewaskum won, 11-5 and 10-0.

In Game 1, Rosenthal Maddie Kreis were each 2-for-4 with two RBIs. Winkler was 3-for-4 with one RBI, and Thisted-Klemp was 2-for-2.

Winkler pitched the entire game and allowed five earned runs on three hits and 12 walks. She struck out 12.

In Game 2, Thisted-Klemp was 2-for-2 with two doubles and one RBI. Reicher and Erica Chesak were each 2-for-3 with one RBI, and Rosenthal was 2-for-4 with an RBI.

Kohn pitched five innings and allowed one hit and one walk. She struck out three.

The winner of Tuesday's playoff game would be scheduled to play the winner of No. 1 seed Mayville and No. 4 Port Washington on Thursday.
