"I said, 'If you need one more, I'll shoot,'" Bales said.

"The best tournament shoot I shot was 92 out of 100 in Forest (at the Sportsman's Club) and I had 50 out of 50 at Cascade (Ridge Runners Club)," Bales said.

While he gave up hunting a few years ago because of health issues and hasn't shot competitively for the past few years, Bales still manages to steady his gun occasionally and get a few shots off to keep his eye sharp.

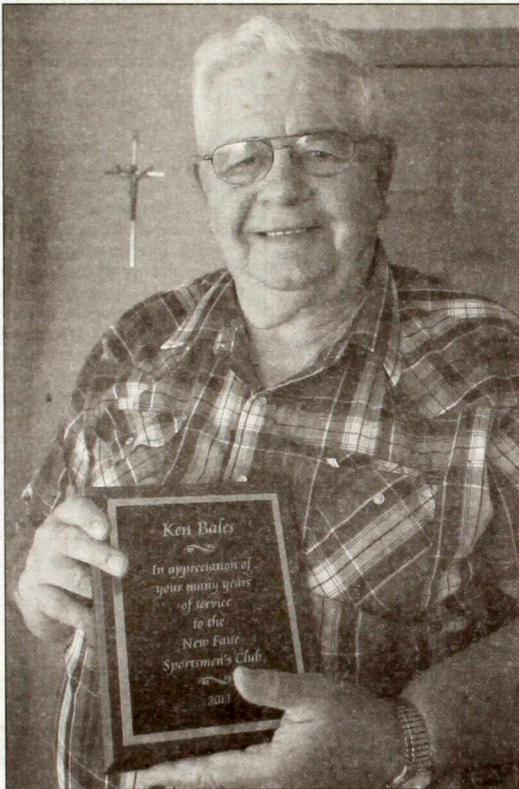

Although he recently moved to West Bend, Bales used to live close enough to the club that he could hear shooting.

He began taking care of traps when they were hand set and the club only had two houses.

From there, added taking care of the grounds and maintaining the buildings - opening them in spring and closing them at the end of the season.

"The Club was always clean and ready to go and the season always started on time," said Geidel.

"I enjoyed doing it," said Bales.

Chief's Corner

By Police Chief Tom Bishop

Wow, summer sure flew by fast! September marks the end of summer, but it also marks the beginning of another school year.

Parents, it is important for the safety of all our children that they cross the street at locations where we have crossing guards assigned. Crossing guards perform two morning crossings and two afternoon crossings:

Fond du Lac and Main / Main and Second St:
 6:50am - 7:25am 8:20am - 8:45am
 2:55pm - 3:25pm 3:50pm - 4:10pm

Fond du Lac and Hwy H West:
 6:40am - 7:15am 8:10am - 8:35am
 3:05pm - 3:35pm 4:00pm - 4:20pm

Those with children attending Kewaskum Elementary School have noticed a change in the way you pick up your child. This new method was developed with the safety of your child in mind. I believe that Principal Hepp's new procedure creates a safer environment than before and I ask for your patience as any

"bugs" get worked out. I have been assisting the school the first few days with this procedure and I personally support the efforts of the elementary school staff to keep our children safe.

I would also like to thank the Kewaskum School Board for their presence at the schools on the first day. I spoke with a number of board members who were stationed at all the schools in the district. I thought it was great that they were an active and visible part of the student's day outside of the traditional boardroom setting.

On that same note, I ask everyone to please SLOW DOWN when driving through the Village. Our children are walking to and from school and it falls on all of us to make sure they stay safe.

Finally, for those of you who would like to know what I am thinking on a more regular basis (and trust me I understand that some of you won't), please follow us on Facebook. I try to update our page on a regular basis with items such as the ones in this article mixed with my personal thoughts on other topics.

Thank you and have a safe month.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Community and Editor,

Point-of-Interest: Public service. You assess an opportunity; decide to put your name on a ballot seeking election for that opportunity; canvass constituents for perspectives and issues; identify problematic challenges that impede success and offer plans on how to address; are entrusted by the community and get elected. Grateful and excited to represent the people, you begin the work promised with passionate focus on doing right. Even though you know you can't please all the people all the time, you embrace integrity, respect, professionalism and rules set forth by State Statute and Policy. Then it comes... those few that make the difference by performing honorably, adding value from results in accountability exposing learned behavior and/or status quo problems, feel it the most. It's the effect of being attacked because you make a difference. You could fly below the radar and kick issue cans down the road avoiding public scrutiny, or you could rise above and do what's right. It's the challenge all in public service eventually face and sadly, many choose the path of least resistance.

What I've found most profound are the (questionable) actions of those who state they know better and claim you are wrong, incompetent or worse. They are clearly not fully informed but agenda driven, hidden and otherwise. They are narrow in focus and mean-spirited with constant criticism, but you fight on because you recognize the importance. Events of today are unprecedented. Every matter is critical because all set the evolutionary foundation for standards and structure that enables future success.

I ask questions to be fully informed before taking action. If not fully informed, action cannot be taken, it's that simple. To do otherwise is the type of failure that would repeat (bobble-head) history.

Respectfully in your service,
 Timothy Ramthun
 Kewaskum Board of Education

Letter to the Editor and Kewaskum School District
 Community:

Events leading up to a failed motion on approving teacher salary increases for the 2013-14 school year at the 8/26 board meeting are:

On Friday, 8/23, the Board received an email from Mr. Troy Hanson (KSD Board Member/Negotiation Liaison). It was not in the form of a FYI report (which would have been the first for the Board to receive), but consisted only of one sentence which read, "Below is the update on negotiations, we are all set and ready to vote this through Monday night which will put us on time with our pre school year goal for completion of this process. Negotiation Liaison Troy, out!" The update he referred to was an attached email from Kim Longdin (KEA President) which consisted of two sentences indicating three dollar amounts and how many of the membership approved the amounts, nothing else.

By law, the Board could not respond to this limited informational email because doing so would create a quorum, which is an open-meeting violation. Therefore, after a motion to approve was performed at the 8-26 meeting, several questions arose during discussion that went unanswered. Time constraints with the Annual meeting following at 7PM prevented completion of discussion, so tabling the item to the 9/9 agenda was suggested, which resulted in comments that doing so would be a "big mistake". Allowing for more time to do this correctly did not happen and the motion failed 3-3-1.

While sitting next to me as the vote started for his motion, Mr. Hanson turned to me, looked me directly in the eyes and stated, "Don't blow it - that means you". In other words, I was being told to vote "yes".

A note to Mr. Hanson - I will not be intimidated or threatened on how I should cast my vote.

Respectfully,
 Grace Mueller
 Kewaskum School Board

Letter to the Editor

Many people come up to me and ask when I am going to write another letter to the Statesman. I said I am waiting for it to get piled higher and deeper, that's what is known as a P.H.D.

Have you noticed a certain liberal never states what the real real liberal agenda is, you never hear the hanky panky they do. Thank heaven for conservative talk shows, without them all we would get s the liberal press and broadcast media with their spin.

Why would anyone object to photo ID's, oh, they can't afford them? They can get them free. Tell me how they purchase anything, how do they get medical attention without one. My medical providers till ask for photo ID. If you are against it, it only tells me you are up to no good.

In regard to Jim Crow "anyone with a lick of knowledge of history" (his words) would know civil rights law was passed by Republicans. Democrats voted against it. Also the Ku Klux Klan was made up of Democrats, including U.S. Senator Byrd who was a high up member of the Klan.

As for boycotting and protesting, it seems that it is only acceptable for liberals. Speaking of boycotting, I intend to boycott Minnesota because Mayor R.T. Rybak is traveling to try to get same sex partners to go to Minnesota to get married. If you want to call me racist, sexist, and a homophobe, thank you for the compliment.

As for Alec lobbying for laws I would rather have their laws than Bloomberg's, Soro's or Saul Alinsky. Thank you Glen and Dan. Good work.

Post Office warns customers about scam emails

Are you receiving emails from the postal service about missing a package delivery? Does the email, which claims to be from the USPS, include a label with fraudulent information about an attempted or intercepted package delivery? If so, don't open the email, because it may contain a link or attachment that, when opened, installs a malicious virus that can steal personal information from your computer.

The emails claim to be from the U.S. Postal Service and contain fraudulent information about an attempted or intercepted package delivery. The emails instruct customers to click on a link to find out when they can expect delivery. But Kewaskum Postmaster Monica Lepak is asking customers not to do it. "We want to keep our customers safe," said Lepak. "Lately, we've been receiving complaints from customers about receiving emails about missing delivery."

Like most viruses sent by email, clicking on the link or opening the attachment will activate a virus that can steal information—such as a customer's user name, password, and financial account information.

What to do? Simply delete the message without taking any further action. The U.S. Postal Inspection Service is working hard to resolve the issue and shut down the malicious program. "If you're not sure about the email you received, you can delete the message or contact the U.S. Postal Inspection Service," adds Lepak.

Postmaster Lepak also offers these tips on spotting scam emails:

- The text contains poor grammar or spelling errors.
- The text states immediate action must be taken or customer could face dire consequences.
- The email requests personal information under the guise of re-confirming information.
- The text from an "automated message system" states "Click on this link for details."

Customers who have questions or wish to report a scam email should call 1-800-275-8777 or email spam@uspis.gov.

"School days, school days, back to Golden Rule days!" As a kid, I remember friends and relatives saying that as a new school year approached. Well, we are at that time of year again. It is time to start the 2013-14 school year.

When I think back to that old rhyme, it makes me think about the culture and climate within our school buildings. It reminds us of the Golden Rule—simply put, "Treat others in the way you would like them to treat you." There are many other famous old adages, similar to the Golden Rule, that hold true today—things we have heard from parents and grandparents, passed down through the generations. These sayings are truths and have stood the test of time and still hold very true in our lives today. In our busy, self-absorbed world we sometimes forget how personal interactions can impact those around us, as well as ourselves. Simple manners and etiquette go a long way toward helping provide a pleasant and positive environment—in school, in places of business, and in society in general.

Kewaskum High School has nearly 600 students and over 60 staff. Those simple lessons from those past generations go a long way toward helping promote a positive environment for education, just as they assist in providing a pleasant atmosphere anywhere else.

Within the walls of the school and the various classrooms there are rules and procedures to make things run smoothly. If we are able to operate with the Golden Rule, those other famous adages, and use our manners and etiquette we would simply need the procedures to help us get through each school day.

Sometimes we hear people say it is "time to get back to basics." What can be more basic than how we treat each other? The start of the school year is a great time to refresh and renew ourselves. We can all have a fresh start and help make our school a great place to learn, teach, and work in. Let's make the 2013-14 school year great!

The children of the late Dorothy Katherine (Theusch) Vorpahl and John Anthony Vorpahl Sr. and their families celebrated their 21st annual family reunion on a very unusually chilly Sunday, July 28. Temperatures were only in the high 50s at the Kewaskum Community Park.

This year's host family was the family of Dorothy and Floyd Buddenhagen Sr. Eighty-four people attended this year's reunion.

Dorothy Theusch was born in Milwaukee on November 15, 1904 and was the daughter of the late Theresa (Grassold) and Anton Theusch. Dorothy passed away on January 16, 1992.

John A. Vorpahl Sr. was born in the town of Farmington on December 14, 1896 and was the son of the late Wilhelmina "Minnie" (Plitzkow) and Louis Vorpahl Sr. John passed away on August 17, 1968.

Dorothy and John were united in marriage on February 18, 1924 at St. Michael Catholic Church in St. Michaels.

Ten children were born to them, namely Dolores Theresa Kertscher (widow of the late Allen E. Kertscher), the late Frederick James Vorpahl Sr. (the late Audrey J. Seltrecht), Dorothy Isabelle (Floyd F. Buddenhagen Sr.), the late Anthony John Vorpahl (the late Louise V. Grabski), the late Adeline Loraine (the late Elmer J. Footland), the late John Anthony Vorpahl Jr., who died in infancy, the late Ronald Chester Vorpahl (Ann C. Viesselmann), the late Patricia Helen Vorpahl, whom also died in infancy, Theresa Anne (Gerald W. Brockman) and the late John Henry Vorpahl Sr. (Teresa C. Coulter).

Dorothy and John were also the proud grandparents of 32 grandchildren. The firstborn grandchild was born on May 13, 1945, the son of Dorothy and Floyd Buddenhagen Sr. and was given the name of Floyd F. "Butch" Buddenhagen Jr. and the youngest grandchild was born on October 20, 1972, the daughter of Audrey and Frederick Vorpahl Sr. and was given the name of Stephanie Renee (Vorpahl) Miller.

Anyone with information on either the Grassold, Theusch, Plitzkow or Vorpahl family ancestors can feel free to contact family genealogist John Henry Coulter-Vorpahl at (262) 338-0000 or email john-henry02@sbcglobal.net.

Muth appointed to Farm Bureau committee

Three young agricultural leaders have been appointed to the Wisconsin Farm Bureau's Young Farmer and Agriculturist Committee.

Katie Mattison of Dunn County, Peter Muth of Washington County and Derek Orth of Grant County have been appointed to new leadership roles by the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation's Board of Directors. Their terms begin at WFBF's annual meeting, December 7-9, in Wisconsin Dells.

Peter Muth is a sixth generation dairy farmer. He and his parents have a 500-acre, 180-cow dairy farm near Fredonia. Peter is graduate of the UW-Madison's Farm and Industry Short Course. He is involved in the Farm Bureau Young Farmer and Agriculturist Program, Fillmore Fire Department and Washington County Holstein Breeders.

The Young Farmer and Agriculturist Committee consists of nine couples or individuals (ages 18-35) from across the state. Their goal is to get more young farmers and agriculturists acquainted with and involved in Farm Bureau. They carry out a variety of statewide initiatives, such as conferences, contests and award programs.

"The Farm Bureau thrives because it is made up of the best and brightest young leaders in Wisconsin agriculture. These three individuals are great additions to the YFA Committee," said Jim Holte, Wisconsin Farm Bureau President.

UW-WC presents Rio Bamba on Friday, Sep. 20

Rio Bamba, a four-piece jazz band from Chicago will kick off the Fine Arts series at the University of Wisconsin-Washington County (UW-WC) on Friday, September 20 with a concert at 7:30pm in UW-WC's Theatre on the Hill. Enhancing the campus focus on Brazil with a fall lecture series, book discussion and photography display, Rio Bamba will feature Brazilian music with its catchy dance rhythms along with other jazz music.

While classic Brazilian jazz, samba and bossa nova performed in the original Portuguese as well as in English may be this band's forte, they fearlessly "color outside the lines."

Founded in 2005 by bass player/vocalist John Garvey, Rio Bamba turns up the electricity, figuratively and literally by ramping up tempos and using Garvey's electric bass to add a touch of American rock/blues bravado without ever disrespecting the source material. Other band members include Maggie Vagle (vocals), Joel Martinez (percussion) and Craig Linenberger (guitar).

Tickets for Friday's performance are $15 adults, $13 seniors (over 62) and youth (under 18). Tickets may be purchased at the door (while supplies last) or in the main office between 8am and 5pm Monday through Thursday and 8am to 4:30pm on Friday. Reservations can also be made by phoning (262)-335-5208 or emailing WSH-Tickets@uwc.edu. The University is located at 400 University Drive in West Bend. The theatre is located on the second floor of the campus. Free parking is available.

Understanding Abstract Painting at Cedar Valley

Cedar Valley, 5349 County Road D in West Bend, is hosting "Understanding Abstract Painting" with Beki Borman on Mondays, Oct. 7, 14, 21 and 28 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. The cost for the workshop is $80.

Learn how to see and paint abstractly. You will look at historical references to understand the different kinds of abstraction, such as geometric abstraction versus expressive abstraction, and discuss color, line, composition and context, and how these elements can be utilized in creating a strong painting in the absence of a traditional subject. Using acrylic, students will create multiple paintings in this class that cover the different types of abstract painting.

Borman attended the Milwaukee Institute of Art & Design where she received her Bachelor of Fine Arts in painting. Since graduating Borman has exhibited both locally and nationally. Her work is represented by the Woodwalk Gallery in Egg Harbor and the Dooryard Gallery in Elm Grove. Some of Borman's influences include Vincent Van Gogh, Wolf Kahn and Wayne Thiebaud. She has taught at The Peninsula School of Art, Alverno College, The Cedarburg Cultural Center and The Plymouth Arts Center as well as other venues. The class will be small and relaxed so each student receives individual attention. No previous experience is required.

Space is limited. Advance registration is required. Extend your stay and enjoy an overnight escape and/or spa services. For more information or to register for the event, visit cedar-valley.org, call 262.629.9202 or email cvcinfo@cedarcommunity.org.

Rebel Grace will headline B-Ville Street Dance

The Boltonville Fire Department will host their 18th annual Street Dance under the stars Saturday Sept. 14.

What started out as small town dance 18 years ago has ignited into a huge fundraiser and community get together for the local fire department. Chief Ken Ramthun says the money raised from this event is directed to both fire and rescue services.

The Boltonville Fire Department does receive tax dollars each year, however, the amount of money received covers their basic operating expenses such as: heat, electric, pager repairs, training for new members, mandatory classes for recertification, trucks and general building maintenance to name a few. The Street Dance and Boltonville Rain Days Picnic are both very important events to help the department raise money for any new equipment. All money raised goes directly to the Boltonville Fire Department.

This year the Street Dance will again go country with the band Rebel Grace taking the stage at 8:30 p.m. The grills get fired up early with food and beverages served at 5 p.m. There is also a cash raffle drawing at midnight.

Dust off your cowboy hat and come out and enjoy the evening with your friends and neighbors and at the same time, helping support the Boltonville Fire Department. Where the

IN MEMORY

In memory of JOHN "JACK" ZALEWSKI, who entered eternal life three years ago, September 16, 2010.

Your body is gone
but you are always near,
you are everything
we feel, see, or hear.

You are the brightest star
on a quiet summer night.
You are the colorful leaves when Autumn's around and the pure white snow that blankets the ground.

You are the first bright blossom, we see in the spring,
the first warm raindrop that April will bring.

You are the first ray of light when the sun starts to shine
and we even see your face in the moon from time to time.

You are the hot salty tears that flow when we weep and the beautiful dreams that come while we sleep.

You're still here in spirit, and we will never be apart because you are forever alive in our hearts.

At the Annual Meeting of the Kewaskum Elementary School District, a motion was made by L.N. Peterson, seconded by Roger Schleif, authorizing the board to submit to the electors a referendum to borrow the sum not to exceed $250,000 for the purpose of a building addition and equipment. Motion carried.

Farmers and other rural residents of the Towns of Kewaskum and Farmington have suffered more than $750 losses to livestock and poultry reported killed by what is believed to be a roving pack of dogs recently. Chickens, geese, sheep and pigs have been killed by the dogs, according to Anton Staral, county clerk, within the past three weeks.

Mrs. George Reindl, 79, nee Theresa Schedlo, Kewaskum, a resident of the village for the past 20 years, passed away July 22, at St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend, following an illness of five weeks.

A son was born to Rev. and Mrs. Donald Bitter, Kewaskum, on July 20. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, Allenton, July 20. A son was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Preston Pierce, Wisconsin Rapids on July 16. He is the son of Mrs. Margaret Pierce of this village.

The unusually heavy rain of last Thursday did considerable damage in flooding low lands and flattening grain in the St. Michael's area. Farmers were unable to get ahead with their work because of the wet weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Petermann of the Town of Auburn are the very proud parents of twins, a son and a daughter, born to them on July 1. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Scheurman of Elmore are the parents of a son born on June 27. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Schaub of St. Kilian on July 1. A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gregor Weis of Elmore on July 1. Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Schrauth of Elmore are the parents of a son, born on the 4th of July. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Vetter of Beechwood. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Brunner of St. Michaels on June 30.

July 15, 1938

Two large barns and a machinery shed on the Robert Morgan farm on County Trunk Highway W near County Trunk B in the Town of Osceola, Fond du Lac County, were destroyed by fire of an undetermined origin Monday night. Some machinery and a large amount of hay and straw were burned. Thousands of spectators from surrounding communities gathered at the scene.

Miss Ellen Suchy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Suchy of Myra, was united in marriage to William Kirchner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kirchner, of the village of Kewaskum in a candlelight nuptial service at West Bend on July 9.

Miss Virginia Rimmel, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rimmel of West Bend, one time residents of the Village of Kewaskum, became the bride of William R. Schmit of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in a ceremony held in West Bend, on July 9.

The Rev. Walter A. Hall officiated at a ceremony at Elo, WI on July 5, uniting in marriage Miss Doris Hatch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spoerl of Campbellsport, and Lloyd G. Schleif, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schleif of Five Corners.

A daughter, Shirley Ann, was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. Wiedmeyer of St. Michaels on July 5. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Roesel of Kewaskum on July 13.

July 22, 1938

Fredric Belger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Belger of Boltonville, had a narrow escape from being fatally injured when a bolt of lightning struck the litter carrier he was working with on the Elmer Quass farm, a quarter of a mile east of Boltonville on July 13. Fred was knocked to the ground by a severe shock. Mr. Quass and a neighbor heard his screams and hurried him to his home where he was immediately placed under a doctor's care. Fred was confined to bed for a couple of days but at present is up and around again.

The severe electrical storm and high wind on Tuesday night of last week in this area did considerable damage, especially in the vicinity of St. Kilian, where trees were uprooted, blown across roads and highways and blocked traffic. A number of barn doors were blown off and on the farm of Mrs. Catherine Schmitt, a silo was blown over completely by the strong wind.

In a summer nuptial mass read by the Rev. John B. Reichel in St. Kilian's Church, St. Kilian on July 16, Miss Beatrice M. Flasch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Flasch of St. Kilian, became the bride of Felix P. Simon of Route 1, Campbellsport, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Simon of Allenton.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Klein of the Town of Wayne on July 16.

July 12, 1913

Burglars broke into the post office in this village during Tuesday night, and escaped with a team of horses and a rig, which they stole from the Grell & Wollensak creamery barn. The team was found at Calvary Cemetery at Fond du Lac early Wednesday morning. The yeggman did a bungling job in the village. They entered the post office building by prying open a rear window. They then attempted to drill through the vault door, but failing to open it in this way, knocked off the combination with a sledge hammer, which was found on the floor beside the vault. This hammer was stolen from the A.A. Perschbacher blacksmith shop. They then drilled another hole in the door. This second attempt to force the door was also unsuccessful, as after the vault door was opened late in the afternoon by an expert from Milwaukee, it was found that nothing was disturbed. The four alleged safe blowers suspected of the post office robbery were taken off a passenger train of the Soo Line Wednesday at Forest Park, Illinois. The suspects resisted arrest and the struggle that ensued caused a small panic among the women passengers.

On Thursday evening, A.L. Rosenheimer and J.B. Day, the well known real estate men from this village, purchased the entire general merchandise stock of the Campbellsport Co-operative Store, located at Campbellsport. The new owners are unable to state at the present time their future intentions as to what they will do with the stock. They however state that the store will be re-opened in the very near future.

Notice is hereby given that all those who are compelled to pay poll tax are requested to do so at once as same is long past due. All those failing to pay their just dues will be prosecuted according to the law.

The basement of the New Opera House at Campbellsport has been leased by a party from Port Washington. He will install several billiard tables and also a bowling alley. He expects to have everything in readiness by July 19.

Born on July 6, a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. John Spoerl and a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kettinger, both of Wayne on the same day.

Eighth graders pile up the points vs. Nicolet

By Judy Harlow

Statesman Correspondent

Only half of the Gridiron teams completed their games in Saturday's opening round of action.

The eighth graders unleashed a powerful offense, scoring eight touchdowns, five via the air, in a 55-14 victory.

"We had a pretty good day," coach Jim "Jonesy" Korth said, reporting the Nicolet Jr. Knights scored first, before Gabe Christensen warmed up his arm with back-to-back bombs to Dan Kreis, covering 70 and 40 yards.

After Tony Steger scored the first of his two running touchdowns, the Indians went back to the air with Cole Suprenaut gathering in scoring passes of 35 and 30 yards, and Jon Heus joined in the fun, catching a 35 yarder.

At half, Kewaskum was up 42-7 and then tacked on two more scores after the break, the last one a 30-yard run by Patrick Kier.

The Indians had 450 yards in offense, with 200 coming in the air where they were 6x8 in passing.

Korth said top defenders were Faton Elmazi, Heus, Jared Chesak, Colten Bennett and William Walters, who also had some very good kickoffs.

Because Nicolet could not field a seventh grade team, coach Tom Kudek's seventh graders had to play one of the Germantown teams. After a rain delay of more than 30 minutes, the Indians were a little sluggish in the early going but made the game interesting before losing 20-18.

"It really got good in the second half," Kudek said, reporting his team was down 20-6 at the break, with the Indians' lone score a thrilling 70-yard run by Cameron Dodge.

In the third quarter, Dodge ripped off a 30-yard TD run, cutting the deficit to 20-12.

Dawson Bastian's interception near midfield set up the Indians' final score, which came on a two-yard run by QB Eric Bauer.

"We tried kicking the two-point conversion all three times and missed them all," Kudek said.

Cited for fine defensive play were cornerback Alex Deheck and lineman Hunter Grady.

"We got in half of our game, and then it got canceled," Paul Anderson, the first-year sixth grade coach, said, reporting a storm moved into the area.

The game ended at 7-7, with Kewaskum's touchdown coming on a 7-yard run by Jed Ermer and the extra point coming on a Jay Horning run. (In Gridiron football, successfully kicking the point after touchdown is worth two points, while a pass or run is worth one point.)

Anderson said Franklin Breit got a quarterback sack.

The fifth graders never got in one play, according to coach Jeff Logan, who said, "We didn't have a game. The team we were supposed to play backed out."

Kewaskum will host teams from Fredonia Saturday, with the eighth graders in the first game at 9 a.m.

Indians push Sheboygan Falls to the limit

By Judy Harlow

Statesman Correspondent

With fewer matches last week the Indians tennis players were able to get in a little more practice with its new coach Elizabeth Johnson and that time provided some quick dividends.

On Thursday the Indians just missed beating a good Sheboygan Falls team, falling by a score of 3-4 in this Eastern Wisconsin Conference match.

"The ladies played hard and had some good matches," Johnson said. "Rachel (Cotter) played a tough three-match where she was ultimately defeated, but she was off playing for a few days and made a tough return."

Two of the Indians' doubles teams came away with impressive two-set wins. Becca Strigenz and Jess Etta only lost one game in their match and Gabrielle Wade and Maddy Kreis also won in straight sets.

Johnson also reported she found out late Thursday night that Hunter Garcia was running a 102° fever so she wasn't 100 percent, but she is better now and will be ready for Tuesday's match at Plymouth.

The 2012-13 budget was discussed and Mr. Smasal explained what caused the variance in deficit amounts. Status of the 2013-14 budget was discussed. All budgets will be reviewed quarterly to track spending trends. Mrs. Thoreson offered two suggestions for reporting to the Board, one being an Objective Summary which is a method for explaining what a budget line item is for, and the second one being a Functional Summary explaining why an item is an expenditure. Mr. Ramthun is happy with the audit process and the aggressive schedule they agreed to. We will have the completed audit report in October before we set the levy.

Indians overpower Falcons in 15-14 nail biter

SHEBOYGAN FALLS- Rebounding from a bad game at home and gaining their confidence back on the road in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference opener made the bus trip home that much sweeter. The Indians football team played tough defense and opened up the game with their veer option offense, winning a nail biter against host Sheboygan Falls, 15-14, Sept. 6.

On a night when the Indians believed something special would happen, they walked onto Zell Field as boys and left as men, sporting a 2-1 overall record and a 1-0 mark in the conference.

"(Other teams) don't see what we do in practice, how hard we work and how hard we prepare," senior running back/linebacker Joey Seitz said. "That's what matters. We had a bad week (against Port Washington). It's all about improving and just fixing the mistakes and getting better."

Seitz had a huge impact on both sides of the ball. He scored Kewaskum's last touchdown of the game and made a game-saving tackle late in the game to protect the Indians' one-point margin of victory.

The Falcons (1-2, 0-1) came out swinging. A 60-yard scoring run by senior running back Eric Klemme gave the Falcons a 7-0 lead on a six-play, 79-yard drive on their first possession with 6:34 left in the first quarter. Klemme burst through the Indians' defense and ran down the left sideline untouched. Time ran out in the quarter with Falls driving to the Kewaskum one. Klemme scored again on the first play in the second quarter for a 14-0 advantage.

Being down two scores in their last game made Kewaskum realize that they either had to pick it up or pack it up and feel sorry for themselves.

"After they scored those first two touchdowns, we needed a momentum swing," Seitz said. "Our defense stiffened. We just picked it up, and I think it woke us up a little and we played as hard as we could."

The Indians turned the tables on two big plays. Senior quarterback Brett Boegel ran 59 yards to the end zone, ending a two-play, 52-second drive at the 11-minute mark to cut the Falls lead to 14-7.

"I always read the (defensive) ends," Boegel said. "And always on veers it's a three-way option with my fullback and I can pitch it. (Their defense) bit (for the fake handoff) and the ends bit up, so then I kept it and ran out and the corner bit really far too and I was just gone. It was a foot race to the end zone."

The other big play was a 5-play, 45-yard drive on a one-yard pass from Boegel to sophomore receiver Charles Witek. The Indians went for two points instead of kicking for a tie on a Boegel pass to senior Benjamin Watzig. That completed the scoring for both teams in the game by the first half.

"I thought we had them down early," Falls coach Brian Berlin said. "You can kind of see them getting slower and hanging their heads. The quarterback Boegel made a great run. That was the biggest momentum play of the game. That kind of put them back in the game again and then from there they just battled back. We just couldn't get it back. We couldn't get the momentum back."

Neither team scored in the second half. Falls tried one last drive late in the game to set up at least a game-winning field goal. Seitz stopped Peterson on fourth down, turning the ball over on downs. The Falcons used all their time outs. The Indians failed to convert a first down to run the clock out. They left 1.1 second on the scoreboard, but Peterson's desperation bomb was intercepted by senior Matt Ringwell to officially end the game. The Indians are in a four-way tie for first in the EWC with Plymouth, New Holstein and Campbellsport, all winning their first conference game.

Boegel ran for a game-high 143 yards on 11 carries and a TD. The Indians outgained the Falcons on the ground, 225-193. Klemme's 101 yards on 14 attempts for Falls also put him over the century mark. Seitz had a team-high 14 tackles on defense. Kewaskum hosts New Holstein in a battle of undefeated conference teams, September 13.

Indians netters bring down Cardinals

On the first day of school at KHS, being tangled up in a five-game match was the last thing on the minds of the girls volleyball team to start the week of Sept. 2-7. But the Indians were in a dogfight in their home opener, September 3, against Mayville, in a nonconference battle.

The previous week was rough for the team as they won only one of four games, losing in their season opener at Slinger, August 27. The Indians beat Two Rivers and lost to Campbellsport and New Holstein in the Campbellsport Quadrangular, Aug. 29. The home cooking at Kewaskum was a change of pace, but the Indians had to work overtime to pull it out.

"I think the fan support was really good for the first game," senior co-captain Steph Henk said. "We didn't have announcements (in school), so I wasn't even sure how many people were going to show up. As far as a team, everybody was a bit nervous."

In the first game, Kewaskum broke a 5-5 tie to take a double-digit lead at 22-12. The Indians won going away, 25-14. The momentum carried over into the second game as Kewaskum's largest lead was seven points. They never trailed and had a 2-0 lead, winning 25-17.

Maybe the Indians thought the Cardinals would not take flight and give them game three for a sweep.

"I think the girls got a little fired up after I talked to them after that second game," said Mayville coach Sarah (Williams) Persha. "We really wanted to win a set because we never beat them in a set. With this being my hometown, I was really hungry to get a win," said Persha who is a 2001 KHS graduate.

The Cardinals got their wish. They took a 4-3 lead in the third game and never looked back in a 25-18 win. The visitors took an early 7-0 run in game four. Kewaskum answered with a 5-0 run in the middle of the game. The Indians closed a six-point deficit to pull within one at 24-23. Mayville scored the last point to win 25-23 and tie the match at 2-2.

It was do or die in the fifth game for the Indians. The Cards raced out to an early 5-1 advantage. The Indians caught up and tied the score at 10-10. Henk's kill to break the tie reversed the Mayville momentum and gave Kewaskum the boost they needed to win 15-10 and win the match, 3-2 to go 2-3 on the season.

"We were really in the flow the first two games," Kewaskum coach Joe Moser said. "We made a lot of serves. We were very consistent with the ball. We took care of it. In the third game, we had some fresh faces coming off the bench, so we were trying to knock off the rust real quick after (the subs) sat for two games. And we just got away (from the game plan). Too many unforced errors."

Henk led the team with 17 kills and senior Heather Johnson added 18 assists.

At Waupun, September 5, the focus was on containing Henk. Coach Kurt Breier made it clear to his team that she was the main focus, based on her 78 kills in 208 attempts entering their Eastern Wisconsin Conference showdown with Kewaskum. The Warriors' scouting report on a dry erase board suggested they serve away from Henk and to watch for her short tip shot over the net.

The Indians did their best to hide their nerves and focus on the first game against the undefeated conference champs from last year. Waupun had a 17-7 lead. Kewaskum scored eight straight points to tie the game at 22-22. Henk didn't let the rowdy student section behind her at the south end of the gym rattle her while she reeled off 10 serves in a row without an error. Waupun sweated out a 26-24 win for a 1-0 lead.

"We kind of yelled at each other a little bit," Waupun junior outside hitter Blake Buchholz said, "to decide who would take the side out ball and who will really step up. We wanted to separate ourselves from them and show them who was the boss."

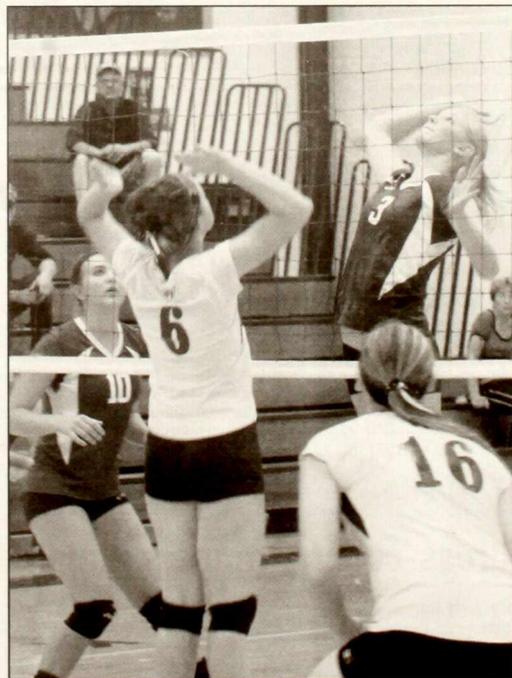

The Warriors had no further problems from the Indians in the next two games. They had a 12-point margin in the second game and won 25-11.

It got real ugly for Kewaskum in the third game. A 9-0 run by Waupun gave them their largest lead at 22-4. Three straight aces by Jessica Fieweger made their 25-12 defeat and the 3-0 sweep by the Warriors a little more respectable.

"(Waupun) is a good team," the junior said about facing the conference champs for the first time. "They have a really good outside hitter (Buchholz). I think we kind of got a little more nervous. We need to work on our serving to get better passes to get better hits."

The Warriors inserted freshmen outside hitters Maiah Domask and Sam Schlieve into the lineup on short notice. "It kind of came from necessity," Breier said, "because of someone who decided not to play. They're good athletes, multi-sport athletes and they definitely rose to the challenge."

One of the challenges of the Kewaskum girls volleyball team as a whole is how 12 upperclassmen will play together and compete with the top teams in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. Minus three sophomores from the 15 that are on the roster, the nucleus of the squad with six juniors and seniors apiece must find a way to compete in the league and hope for a top three finish.

"I think we can put it together and make a run for it," Coach Joe Moser said. "We always have to set our goals high and I think that if we play smart and competitive, we can make our run at it and have high hopes for that green banner."

Co-captain senior setter Heather Johnson agreed. "Our goal is to put another green banner on the wall and just to have fun and play."

The Indians didn't hang a green and white banner that represents their school colors and a conference championship in 2012, but they put one up in the 2011 season when their 10 seniors led the team that fell short in a 3-2 regional loss to Kettle Moraine Lutheran in Division 2. Although last year's team posted a winning record at 23-14, it didn't win the EWC volleyball title and their season ended with a three-game sweep against Lutheran, the Division 2 state champions.

It's a new season. They have co-captain and senior outside hitter Steph Henk back. She sat out last season with a meniscus tear in her knee, which she injured during the Conference Quad. Now Henk is excited and ready to go.

"I was really disappointed (about last season)," Henk said. "I'm really excited to be back and playing for Kewaskum again."

Moser doesn't have any returning all-conference players, but he's happy that Henk is on his side.

"It was kind of frustrating for her," he said, "but she's back and healthy and we're looking for her to be our first team all-conference nominee this year."

Given the caliber of play in the EWC, it's no secret about who the Indians will be facing. Their top opponents in defending conference champion Waupun, Plymouth and Sheboygan Falls will await them.

The wait to give those teams their best shots has already started with a road match at Waupun last week and a run to Plymouth, September 17. A long road trip at New Holstein on October 15 will give Kewaskum a sense of where they stand before the postseason. They will enjoy some home cooking with matches against Two Rivers, Kiel and Campbellsport.

As Henk goes, so does the Indians. Their best player will lead the charge of finishing in the top of the conference standings.

"I think we're going to do great," Henk said. "We have a good team this year, so I think we'll do great things this year."

Cross-country runners remain in the backfield

While Kewaskum High School tries to rebuild a cross country program, there are other schools it competes against that are already performing at a high level.

One example is Two Rivers, which took first in the girls' competition and third in the boys competition at the Kiel Invitational September 5.

The Lady Raiders finished with an amazing total of 26 points in the 19-team meet.

"I think all of their (top five) runners were in the top 10," Kewaskum coach Randy Backhaus said.

Two other Eastern Wisconsin Conference schools, Plymouth and Kiel, were among the top five, finishing second and fourth, respectively, with 72 and 172 points.

Kewaskum placed 15th with 329 points, led again by sophomore Emily Krier, a newcomer to the sport this year.

"Emily dropped quite a bunch," Backhaus said, reporting she covered the 4,000 meters in 17 minutes and 11 seconds (17:11). She finished in 21st place.

"Caley McClyman was next in 57th place, hitting the finish line in 18:19. Also, Ellie Debalek ran real well," according to Backhaus, who reported she finished in 79th place with a time of 18:53.

In the boys' race, Valders took the team title, scoring 83 points, 14 ahead of Manitowoc Roncalli (97). EWC schools, Two Rivers, Waupun and Plymouth took third through fifth with 114, 148 and 167 points.

Kewaskum scored 499 points, good for 19th out of 20.

Josh Fiebig led the way for the Indians, finishing the 5,000 meters in 20 minutes flat, good for 63rd place. Jared Sanborn was next in 75th place, with a 23:17.

The Indians will travel next to the Mayville Invitational Sept. 13.
