Maple Syrup Helps Neighbors Stick Together

– Sweet Hobby In Town Of Wayne Involves Family Members Of All Ages

By Anne Trautner

For many years, Brian Breuer's dad and uncle made their own maple syrup.

After Breuer's dad, Joe, passed away two years ago, Breuer wanted to begin making his own syrup in his father's honor.

Three of Breuer's neighbors, Joe Menzel, Ryan Laduke and Pat Lightner, decided to join the enterprise.

So, for two years now, the group of neighbors and their families have started producing maple syrup.

"It's a big community project. A lot of people help out. It's just a lot of fun," Breuer said.

The adults collect the sap, boil it down to become syrup, can the final product, and do a lot of talking and planning as they complete the process. The children help collect sap from the trees.

"They run into the woods and tell us how much is in the buckets. I send them down on the four wheelers, and they scout for us," Breuer said.

And everyone helps taste test the final product.

Last year, as the group was cooking the syrup, some dripped onto a brick that held up the outdoor boiler.

Lightner licked the spill and said, "This is so good, you have to lick the brick."

"Then we knew that was our name," Breuer said.

It was the beginning of "Lick the Brick," a maple syrup-producing neighborhood venture in Wayne.

Making Syrup

The maple syrup season typically lasts about six to eight weeks. In order for maple sap to flow from trees, it needs to freeze at night and get warm during the day.

Kewaskum School District To Send Out Surveys To Improve School Facilities

By Anne Trautner

Kewaskum Middle School and Kewaskum High School are in need of updated learning environments, soundproofed walls, secure entrances, and updated heating, venting, cooling and mechanical systems.

Those are some of the Kewaskum School

District's facility needs that a Long Range Planning Committee has identified since it began meeting monthly in September 2015.

The school district is now preparing to mail out a survey in May to all households within the district boundaries to determine the feasibility of renovating or rebuilding

Kewaskum Middle School and Kewaskum High School in order to meet those needs. The survey will help determine the amount of money taxpayers are willing to invest in their schools.

Depending on survey results, the district may go to referendum in the fall to finance capital improvements for the two schools.

The district's last building project started in 1999, when it borrowed $19 million to build Kewaskum Elementary School. That loan will be paid off between April of 2017 and April 2019, Kewaskum School District Superintendent James Smasal said.

In celebration of Earth Week, volunteers came out to Mauthe Lake to help plant trees throughout the recreation area on Saturday, April 16. The trees are helping to replace the ash trees that have been cut down over the past couple years because of the Emerald Ash Borer. When the volunteers were finished at Mauthe Lake, they traveled to Long Lake to plant some trees there too.

Kewaskum Public Library Seeks Input From Community

By Anne Trautner

In the first couple of months as head librarian for the Kewaskum Public Library, Emily Goad has been amazed by the number of creative people she has met in Kewaskum.

"Everybody I meet is very creative. It seems like they are very good at knitting or painting or they are very, very interested in something," Goad said.

Goad decided she wants to provide an outlet for that creativity, especially after talking with local resident Karen Hartman.

"Karen is extremely multifaceted. She teaches and she is so passionate," Goad said.

Hartman inspired Goad to find out what activities people in the community would like to learn more about or to teach so that monthly classes could be offered.

So Goad placed a suggestion box in the library for people to mark topics that interest them.

Ideas include things such as basket weaving, jewelry making, bicycle repair, quilting, gardening and scrapbooking, but the sky is the limit, Goad said.

"After about a week, I already have gotten so many responses, which is proof that everybody here is so creative and curious," Goad said.

The suggestion box will remain near the book return inside the library for the next several months. Goad will use the suggestions to plan topics for monthly meetings, which she plans to hold in the community room at the Kewaskum Village Hall.

"If nothing else, we will have a creative space available for people to come and do whatever they want and be together," Goad said. "We are trying to get people to feel empowered and to get what they want from the library."

Planning is still in the preliminary stages, and sessions will most likely begin in the fall. Goad said she hopes the sessions will help the library connect with more people.

"I just think creativity is what brings people together. It doesn't matter who you are, what you are, what your political beliefs are, it just brings everybody together in such a positive way," Goad said.

WASHINGTON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE REPORTS

Bonfire Explosion

On April 16 at 8:47 p.m., the Washington County Sheriff's Office received a 911 call from a person who reported that a house had exploded and was fully engulfed with flames at 2669 Sherman Road in the Town of Jackson. The Jackson Fire Department firefighters, along with sheriff's deputies, were dispatched.

While responding to the call, the Sheriff's Office received another 37 calls on 911 from residents as far as the Village of Slinger and the City of West Bend who reported hearing a loud explosion.

Upon arrival at the scene, it was discovered that there was not a house on fire. The flames were from a large bonfire in a field behind the residence that had just been started. The man who started the fire indicated that he had started the fire in the same manner that he has in the past and that after the fire was started someone may have thrown some fireworks into the fire. Based on the size of the explosion, it is believed that a large amount of an unknown accelerant was used in the starting of the fire which resulted in the loud explosion.

The 36-year-old Town of Jackson man who started the fire will be cited for disorderly conduct. There were no injuries or property damage reported as a result of this incident.

Mental Health Transport

Wisconsin law delegates certain duties to county government. One of these duties includes the safe and secure transport of people under placement for an emergency protection order or other mental health commitment that originates out the patient's county of residence. The Sheriff's Office is often relied upon to make those transports.

While these people are in the custody of the Sheriff's Office, they are under a civil commitment and have the right to be placed in the least restrictive restraints possible at every stage of the proceedings. This mandate includes transports to and from mental health facilities and during any subsequent hearings. Deputies are required to weigh that person's rights against any safety considerations that may be present. Deputies have the authority to make discretionary determinations as to when restraints are used based upon the specific circumstances of the case.

Although these people are patients, the deputies are still responsible for preventing and discouraging escape while ensuring the safety of the patient and well as the general public; many of these subjects also have pending criminal matters that have to be taken into account.

On Thursday, April 14, at 3:20 p.m., two Washington County deputies were assigned to transport a patient under the care of Washington County Acute Care Services from a mental health facility in Waukesha County to another facility in Fond du Lac County. During the transport, the patient was able to reposition herself and began to deeply scratch her right forearm to the point she began to noticeably bleed.

The transporting deputies were monitoring her behavior and repeatedly told her to stop to which she replied, "I want to cut" and "I want it to bleed." The deputies acted by pulling the squad car over on Interstate 41 and readjusted the restraints to protect the patient from her own actions. While the deputies attempted to put the restraints back on, she began to become resistive and both deputies had to physically place her back into restraints. The patient continued to force her sleeve up in an attempt to harm herself during the transport to Fond du Lac County with the deputies closely monitoring.

Once at the Fond du Lac facility, the patient was escorted inside for intake procedures. During that procedure, another male patient from the facility inserted himself between the two transporting deputies. When that person was asked to move, he became combative towards the deputies and staff.

The deputies were now dealing with two physically aggressive and unstable individuals. At the request of the medical staff, and after calling the local law enforcement jurisdiction, the two deputies assisted in placing the male patient into four-point restraints. The deputies were then also requested to assist in securing our initial female patient as she became physically aggressive with staff and needed to be placed into a more secure environment. No one was injured as a result of either physical altercation.

Acutely disturbed individuals are generally afraid of authority figures and they experience this extreme fear because they do not understand their feelings and are not certain how others will treat them. The deputies strive to handle these individuals in a calm, understanding and humane way while still balancing the need to protect the patient from themselves, the public and taking into account the deputies' personal safety.

The property owner eventually pushed through the debris in the garage and noticed the driver was completely unresponsive.

Upon the deputy arriving, the driver was still unresponsive and the vehicle was still in drive with the front tires spinning. The driver still had his foot on the accelerator. The deputy was able to make verbal contact with the driver who shut the vehicle off and crawled out.

The driver was subsequently transported to St. Joseph's Hospital and his condition began to improve greatly. Medical staff advised it appeared the driver suffered a seizure which was consistent with the deputy's observations that drugs and alcohol did not appear to be a contributing factor.

Damage was estimated at about $50,000 to the structure and no one inside was hurt. The driver only suffered minor injuries as a result of the collision. Enforcement action, including a Driver Condition Report, is pending since the medical problem was pre-existing and the driver acknowledged not taking his prescription for two days.

Assist Wisconsin State Patrol

The Wisconsin State Patrol requested the assistance from the Sheriff's Office to investigate a personal injury accident involving a motorcycle that crashed in the 7000 block on County D on April 12 at 6:55 p.m.

According to the preliminary investigation, a state trooper was on County D about half mile east of Interstate 41 when he observed a westbound motorcycle traveling at 94 miles per hour.

The trooper turned his cruiser around, but did not actively begin pursuing the motorcycle. The Trooper continued westbound and located an accident scene involving the same motorcycle he previously saw.

The initial investigation suggests the operator entered a curve on County D at an excessive speed and crossed the centerline traveling off road left and struck an asphalt driveway apron. The motorcycle went airborne and the driver was ejected.

The driver landed 136 feet west of the driveway apron. The operator was wearing a helmet but suffered a severe leg injury. The driver, a 17-year-old Dodge County juvenile, was transported from the scene by Flight For Life to Summit Hospital and is expected to survive.

Although the state trooper was not directly involved in a pursuit of the motorcycle, the decision was made to have another law enforcement agency investigate the accident. The driver will face multiple traffic citations as a result of the incident.

Car Crash

On Monday, April 11, at 6:10 p.m., a 37-year-old North Fond du Lac man was eastbound on State Highway 33 in the 4700 block when he left the roadway and entered the south ditch line.

The vehicle continued to travel for about 200 yards before striking an attached garage of a home. Witnesses estimated the driver hit the building at approximately 40 mph, and they did not see any brake lights on the vehicle prior to the collision.

The property owner came outside and observed the vehicle imbedded in the garage and tried to break the rear window of the van with an axe in an effort to reach

Kewaskum Women's Club Spring Fling Is A Huge Success

By Judy Harlow

Sumptuous salads — the opportunity to win some great prizes — and plenty of conversation.

All were featured at the 19th annual Spring Fling luncheon sponsored by the Kewaskum Women's Club which drew 130 women from Kewaskum, West Bend, Campbellsport, Fond du Lac, Jackson and Milwaukee.

In her welcoming remarks, president Jeanne Goeden remarked how the Woman's Club started over 100 years ago and from its early years has helped the Kewaskum Library and the Girls Scouts. To this day, those two groups still benefit from the club's fund raising efforts like the luncheon, according to Goeden, who said, "This year we have two scholarships" for high school seniors, one for $300 and the other for $750, and will also give money to all the schools in the Kewaskum School District and to the summer concerts in the River Hill Park.

The group also provides refreshments for those who participate in the annual Kewaskum Christmas parade.

All the food for the luncheon was donated by the club members under the direction of kitchen co-chairmen, Cheryl Ammel and Charlene Barutha. This year there were 21 different kinds of salads and also a special pumpkin dessert, made by Goeden. They all drew oohs and aahs from the participants.

"The food is fabulous," Leslie Scheid of Kewaskum, said, indicating, "This is our first year (here)," and noting her cousin, Merriann Cudewicz of Campbellsport, treated many of the people at their table.

A bonus was being with relatives and friends, according to Scheid, who said it was nice "to see a lot of people we haven't seen in a while." Darlene Mielkie of St. Kilian's, was another of Cudewicz's guests. When asked if she would come again next year, "Sure" was her quick answer. She too raved about the variety of the salads.

After finishing with her chores in the kitchen, Cudewicz joined her group. She lives in Campbellsport where she was active in the Women's Club there for many years. When that club folded, she joined the group in Kewaskum.

Cudewicz has a very upbeat philosophy on life, which, she said, "should never be boring. If it is, it's your own fault."

Following coffee and dessert, Gwen Dreher got to the serious business of the raffles, and one of the big winners was Eleanor Stern of West Bend, who went home with an array of gardening tools and nicknacks. The day was special for Stern, who was also celebrating her birthday.

Judy Geidel and Sue Meyer helped Goeden organize the luncheon. The club, which currently has 22 members, is open to all women in the community and surrounding area. It meets once a month, on the third Thursday, for programs and speakers. They also sponsor an annual Christmas party and hold a Founders' Dinner each January.

Currently Sue Strahl serves as vice president with Cheryl Ammel its secretary and Kathy Spaeth, the treasurer.

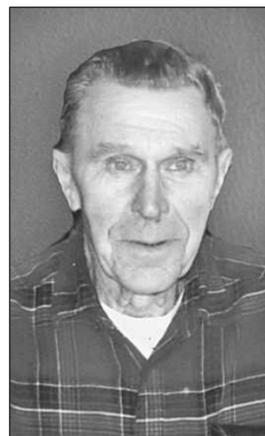

Next year KWC Luncheon has a "Hawaiian theme" to be held on Saturday, April 1, 2017. See you all next year.

Weekly HEALTH TIP

EVEN A SHORT WALK HELPS

A new study suggests that getting up and just walking for two minutes each hour may help offset the negative effects of sitting for a prolonged time. Previous research has linked daily sitting for long hours with higher risk of heart disease, diabetes and premature death. This latest study analyzed data on 3,200 people and found that short periods of low-intensity activities such as walking, house-cleaning or gardening seemed to boost longevity. Replacing two minutes of sitting each hour with two minutes of walking lowered risk of premature death by 33% in people who are sedentary for more than half their day.

Participants will also choose three additional sessions to attend, including Up-cycling, Couponing 101, and Healthy Meals on a Budget. Continental breakfast and door prizes will be provided...all for only $5! Pre-registration is required by April 20th at <http://goo.gl/q0190H> Conference registration forms are also available at Horicon Bank in West Bend and Westbury Bank locations.

Back by popular demand, the Money Smart Week Committee is also planning four document shredding events around the county for the public to dispose of their outdated confidential documents. This is a great way to prevent someone from accessing important account numbers and stealing your identity. The Federal Reserve Bank of Boston advises to shred any papers with confidential information before you throw them out- even the junk mail. Anything with an account number can be used in identity theft. Specific documents do need to be kept for a certain period of time, such as documents used for tax purposes for seven years.

Shredding events are being held on April 23, from 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. at Westbury Bank in Kewaskum and Horicon Bank in West Bend. More shred events on Saturday, April 30, at the Jack Russell Memorial Library in Hartford from 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. and Associated Bank in Germantown from 1 p.m. - 3 p.m. A Shred-It truck will be on hand to deposit your documents into secure bins on site. The limit is two small boxes per household, no businesses please. The shredding is a FREE service being offered during Money Smart Week.

Young children are welcome to join the financial festivities for the Big Read! Story time will be focused on a book with a money concept. Each family will receive a copy of "Start Saving, Henry" by Nancy Carlson to take home. Slinger Library will host the Big Read on April 27th at 9:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. on April 28th. West Bend Library will host on April 26 and 27, both options at 10 a.m., with a third option at 6:30 p.m. on April 28. What a great way to introduce your child to the world of financial literacy!

This 10th year of Money Smart Week Wisconsin is coordinated by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, Governor Walker's Council of Financial Literacy and hundreds of Money Smart partners throughout the state. The effort is designed to educate consumers about money management and create awareness of financial education programs on a wide range of topics such as budgeting, saving and using credit wisely.

Additional information and a calendar of events for this year's Money Smart Week are now available at www.mon-smartweek.org

Carol Bralich is the Washington County UW-Extension Family Living Educator. To register for the Women's Financial Conference and learn more about Money Smart Week events, go to <http://washington.uwex.edu> or 262-335-4479.

BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY

GREAT FUTURES START HERE.

Finally, spring is here! It seems the days of snow and cold are finally behind us. Here at the Club, this makes for a great transition into our Spring IMPACT programs. As we began planning for our spring programs, we wanted to offer programs to our youth that seemed to fit the season. We thought that the best theme was to get moving!

This spring we're offering several programs that get our members on their feet and active. One of these programs is Triple Play, a healthy lifestyle program that focuses on teaching our members general fitness concepts through fun and engaging activities. We also are offering a Runners Club program that will teach our members the proper way to run long distances. Our final program to get kids moving is Backyard Games. This is a personal favorite because all of the fun games you might have played with your buddies growing up are found here in this program. Just last week we were outside playing a game of capture the flag!

The Kewaskum Boys &

Girls Club and our other Clubs in the county are dedicated to the overall well-being of our youth. I think it's well known by now that we do emphasize the academic success of our members by providing, at a minimum, a half-hour of focused time for members to work on homework and receive help when needed. However, we want to be known for more because we are doing more. The health of our members is critical.

By providing an environment where our members are up and active allows us as a Club to improve their health one activity at a time. In our minds, we get to add to those overall minutes of physical activity every day, and by providing constructive time to do so allows us to not only get those minutes but emphasize the important lessons to be taught when it comes to being active. This includes concepts such as warming up, cooling down, stretching, team activities, and individual activities.

As we move forward into the spring, I want to extend an invitation to those in the community who feel they have something to give back to the youth. Our goal as a Club is to help develop these young people into caring and kind citizens, who are responsible, and give back to their community. One of the best ways to help make this happen is to bring in those in the community who share the same goal for youth.

Whether it's a book club, a jewelry class, a history club, or tutoring our members who struggle in school, we'd love to have you at the Club. It can be a one-time deal or a consistent schedule. Our volunteers are crucial to us here at the Club, and without them, we wouldn't be able to make the same quality impact on the lives of our members.

So feel free to give us a call or shoot us an email at the Club to find out how you can get involved. We'd love to hear from you!

Until next month,

Continued From... Kewaskum School District To Send Out Surveys To Improve School Facilities

If voters decide to go forward with a building project for the middle and high schools, the new loan would be tailored with the existing loan to keep the tax rate from fluctuating greatly.

"Now is the right time because of our ability to be fastidious and judicious with our financial affairs," Smasal said. "As one debt drops off and you assume another one, you don't have a big spike or drop in people's tax bills. There is a smooth transition from one debt to another."

If voters approve a building project referendum, there will be no change to the mill rate on the first $19 million potentially borrowed, based on phased financing over two years, each with 20-year amortizations.

If the district borrows $29 million for the project, the mill rate is projected to increase by 59 cents, raising annual taxes by $59 for property value of $100,000. That annual rate is expected to increase $89 if it were to borrow $34 million.

The Long Range Planning Committee, which is made up of about 55 people from throughout the district, looked at each of the school district's buildings to determine which buildings were in most need.

Once the high school and middle school were identified, the committee evaluated specific needs.

"Parts of those buildings were built back in the early 70s and were not necessarily built in a manner that was made to last more than about 30 or 40 years," Smasal said.

One of the needs the committee found was the infrastructure of the two buildings. That includes the heating, venting, cooling and electrical needs, Smasal said.

The committee also found deficiencies in the middle school's and high school's lighting, walls, soundproofing and tiling.

"For those that remember, the middle school was an open-concept building, so when they decided to close the open concept, they just put up portable walls that are not soundproof and are not durable, and need to be replaced more often," Smasal said.

In addition, the committee has found the need for updated classrooms. The Long Range Planning Committee has identified the need for improved learning spaces, particularly in the science classrooms, and the technical education and physical education areas.

At the middle school, the committee found the art, music and commons areas to be below standard. The advent of computers necessitates the ability to have enough electricity in rooms to support workstations, Smasal said.

"You have to look at your design to meet your learning needs so students have an appropriate learning space that is going to enhance the learning experiences instead of detract from it," Smasal said.

The Long Range Planning Committee also looked at the needs to have secure, manageable buildings.

The survey that will be mailed out will contain recommendations from the Long Range Planning Committee.

Once the surveys have been returned and compiled, the committee will report to the school board, which will ultimately decide whether the district goes to referendum in the fall.

Bill Foster from School Perceptions, a public opinion research firm, is tentatively scheduled to meet with the Long Range Planning Committee on April 26 to finalize questions for the survey.

"With the survey, the committee is saying that this is what we found as needs. This is the price tag we think we can afford. Are you agreeing with us?"

Smasal said. "If you think we are on target, tell us. If you think we missed something, tell us what you think we missed."

Surveys are expected to be completed by the end of May.

Kewaskum Middle School Students Create CO2 Cars

Kewaskum Middle School sixth-grade students create with STEM activities.

In Brett Zimdars' Technology and Engineering class, students learn about Newton's laws and the effects they have on everyday items (science). As part of their coursework they set forth to create CO2 cars.

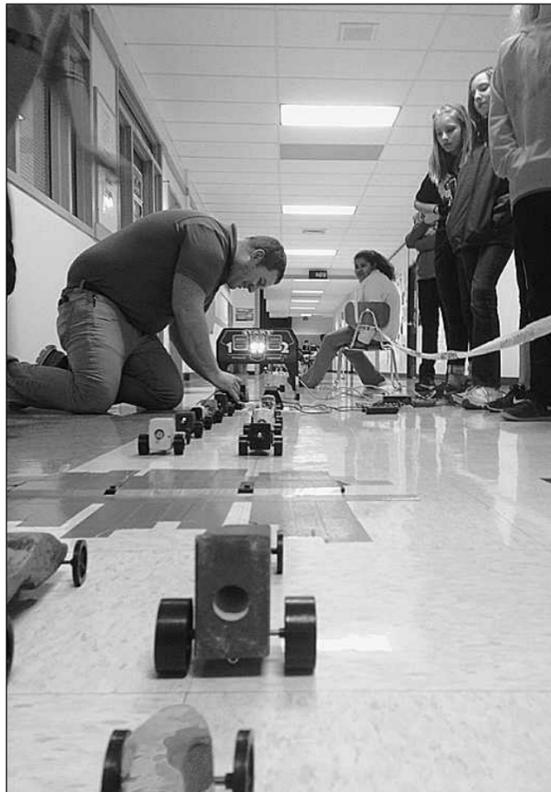

Students needed to practice different processes to create the car (technology). Students had to design their car and problem solve along the journey of car construction (engineering). Math had to be a consideration in the design of the car as it had to be within certain size restraints and student's had to consider the mass of the car to ensure maximum speed (math).

"Having students see the value of all classes in school, is not just an important factor to be successful in their car designs, but also in future classes and one day jobs," Zimdars said.

"Students get excited about creating hands-on projects and recognize learning is fun," Zimdars added.

Kewaskum School District Gets Payout In WEA Lawsuit

By Anne Trautner

The Kewaskum School District has been awarded $103,448 as part of a $4.9 million class-action settlement with the Wisconsin Education Association (WEA) Insurance Trust.

The lawsuit, which was filed four years ago, sought the recovery of federal funds distributed under a program enacted as part of the Affordable Care Act. WEA Trust had obtained several million dollars in the disputed funds by using health care claims data for early retirees of the class member school districts and then refused to pay the funds to school districts that moved their insurance business to WEA Trust's competitors.

"We received the check this afternoon so it will be booked into this school year," Kewaskum School District Superintendent James Smasal said on April 14. "Consequently, we will make sure that we have a balanced budget at the end of the current school year, forgoing the need to use any of the $168,000 [the school board] voted to allow us to spend above the balanced budget line."

The settlement, approved in Dane County Circuit Court and involving 141 Wisconsin school districts, comes more than four years after the class action was filed by Hartland-Lakeside School District and Arrowhead Union School District in early 2012.

Foley & Lardner, a Milwaukee firm, handled the lawsuit after being appointed by the court to represent the 141 Wisconsin school districts on a contingency basis.

The case was complex, having been heard in several different state and federal trial and appellate courts, attorney Thomas Shriner said in a news release.

Settlement amounts differed widely, depending on the amount of early retiree health claims each district incurred. The largest payout, $367,766, went to the Oshkosh School District.

Kewaskum was one of 11 other school districts to receive individual payments of more than $100,000.

"The change in pressure pushes the sap down, then brings it back up, based on the temperature," Breuer said.

The "Lick the Brick" team uses the "old school" way of making syrup. The workers start their season by drilling two holes in a tree and hammering in two taps called spiles, one in each hole.

"Then you have a collection bucket underneath it, and it drips in the bucket," Laduke said.

Breuer's wife, Rebecca, is home during the day on weekdays, so she clears out the buckets if it is going to rain so that the sap is not tainted.

"She's really helped optimize what's good and not, because we are all working all day," Breuer said.

Once the buckets are filled, the clear sap, which resembles sugar water, is then transported via a tractor or four-wheeler through the woods to a cooker that the "Lick the Brick" team constructed.

Before being pumped into the cooker, the sap is poured through a filter, which is actually a bed-sheet. That helps remove much of the initial debris before the solution is purified in the cooker.

"You've got to cook it a while for it to get sticky because there is only about 2 to 5 percent sugar in it," Laduke said.

The earlier in the season, the more sugar is in the sap. When that is the case, about 40 gallons of sap will produce one gallon of syrup. Later in the season, it takes about 50 gallons of sap to make a gallon of syrup.

Last year, the group made 20 gallons of product, while this year there will be a total of about 70 gallons of syrup.

"Our cooker cooks around 10 gallons an hour, we figure, so we spend a lot of hours boiling," Breuer said.

Once the syrup has been boiled down, the crew brings the syrup to Breuer's garage, where it sits for a couple weeks. That gives time for the hardened sugar, called sugar sand, to settle on the bottom of the pans.

The syrup is then boiled again in turkey fryers and filtered again as it is poured into jars and canned.

"It's a neat process," Rebecca Breuer said.

Lick the Brick

The Wayne neighbors have shirts and hats that say "Lick the Brick."

But the fun logo is there simply to announce the hobby and not to sell the product.

"When it's done, everyone loves the syrup. It's an easy gift to give. It's the gift that keeps on giving," Breuer said.

Everyone in the group enjoys eating the product. They like it with pancakes, ice cream, candy, old fashions and cooking just about anything.

They also like the challenge of creating a more efficient operation.

Laduke, who works as a welder for the Army National Guard, is the mastermind behind the cooker. This year he created an entire new cooker, which is bigger and better than last year's cooker that is affectionately referred to as "Old Betsy."

The four "Lick the Brick" founders designed a float system so that they can cook syrup for days on end.

They also devised ways to more efficiently haul sap from the trees to the cooker and up to Breuer's house.

Rebecca Breuer argues that one of the best improvements has been moving the canning process from her kitchen to the garage.

"It got really messy last year," she said.

Still, the favorite thing is the camaraderie that the hobby has created.

It is not unusual for at least 15 to 20 people to be gathered around a bonfire or near the maple trees, enjoying nature and each other.

Now that warm weather has arrived, the maple syrup season has ended. So what do members of "Lick the Brick" do during the summer months?

"We think about how we can make our operation bigger next year; that's what we do," Breuer said.

Keeping Kids' Minds And Bodies Active

Summer is just around the corner and with it children break from the routine—mornings spent sleeping in, afternoons spent watching television or playing video games in the cool air conditioning and evenings enjoying a nice ice cream cone before bed. It may sound great, but a summer spent like this can have lasting negative effects.

Kids are less physically active and engaged in learning during the summer months and research shows that children gain weight two to three times faster than during the school year. In addition to that, kids can fall behind academically because they don't have access to out-of-school learning opportunities.

With this in mind, on Saturday, April 30 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. the Kettle Moraine YMCA, West Washington Branch is hosting the 25th annual YMCA's Healthy Kids Day®, the Y's national initiative to improve the health and well-being of kids and families. Healthy Kids Day is a powerful reminder not to let children idle away their summer days but instead, focus on physical and mental play. Across the nation nearly 1.3 million participants will partake in games, healthy cooking demonstrations, arts and crafts and more that will help motivate and teach families how to develop a healthy routine at home.

"The Y believes in the potential of all children, and we strive to help kids find the Wow! factor inside themselves. A child's development is never on vacation and Healthy Kids Day is a great opportunity to educate families and motivate kids to stay active in spirit, mind and body throughout the summer," said Kirsten Coenen, Center Director.

In celebration of YMCA's Healthy Kids Day, the Y offers the following tips to help families develop healthy habits:

High Five the Fruits and Veggies – Make sure kids get at least five servings a day, the minimum number nutritionists recommend to maintain healthy childhood development. And to keep kids' taste buds evolving, have everyone in the family try at least one bite of a new fruit or vegetable at least once a month.

Foster an Early and Ongoing Passion for Books – Read to and with your kids. Help children read at every age and every stage of their development.

Team Up for Athletic Events – Set a family goal of great health by teaming up for community or charity events like races, walks, fun runs, bike rides, etc.

Volunteer Together – Find a cause that matters to the kids. Open their eyes to a world beyond themselves and the rich rewards that come from making a difference.

Make sleep a priority – Doctors recommend 10-12 hours of sleep a day for children ages five-12 and seven to eight hours per night for adults. Sleep plays a critical role in maintaining our healthy immune system, metabolism, mood, memory, learning and other vital functions.

For more information on specific activities planned, please visit our website at www.kmymca.org.

Strategies For Communicating With Individuals Living With Dementia

The Alzheimer's Association will present "Effective Communication Strategies – When Caring for Someone with Dementia", on Thursday, April 21 from 10:00 a.m. to Noon at the Alzheimer's Association, 620 S. 76th Street, Suite 160, in Milwaukee.

Communication is so much more than talking and listening. It also includes sending and receiving messages through attitude, tone of voice, facial expressions and body language. As people with Alzheimer's disease and other dementias progress in their journey, their ability to use words is lost. This presentation gives families information about decoding verbal and behavioral messages delivered by someone with dementia. It will also empower them with new strategies and tools to communicate and connect at each stage of the disease.

There is no charge to attend this program and it is open to all family caregivers. Registration is required. To register please contact Deborah Klement at 414-479-8800, 800-272-3900 or dklement@alz.org

The Alzheimer's Association is the leading voluntary health organization in Alzheimer care, support and research whose mission is to eliminate Alzheimer's disease through the advancement of research; to provide and enhance care and support for all affected; and to reduce the risk of dementia through the promotion of brain health. For more information about Alzheimer's disease and local services visit www.alz.org/sewi or call the Alzheimer's Association 24/7 Helpline at 800-272-3900.

In March of 2013, the Dodge County Pioneer along the Wisconsin Newspaper Association member papers began partnering with the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund (VVMF) in Washington D.C. in an effort to find a photo for every service member from Wisconsin that was listed on the WALL. 450 photos were missing at that time. In May of 2015, all of the photos were found. All 1161 of these photos, including several from this area, will be published in a special 36 page 2016 Memorial Day tab. This is the first of its kind published in the nation and will be used as a model for other states.

We are inviting local businesses and organizations to sponsor the printing of this historic one time published section.

Garden Memories Art Show Draws Crowd And Art Appreciation

— Local Art Show Helps Local Residents Regain Lost Memories

By Anne Trautner

The artists were dressed in their finest attire and greeted dozens of art patrons with warm smiles.

Wine, punch and hors d'oeuvres were served at the exhibition, which featured more than 100 paintings by the local watercolorists.

It was all part of the Garden Memories Art Show, which was held on Thursday, April 14, at Kettle Moraine Gardens in Kewaskum. It was the first time the assisted living facility held such an event.

The art show featured work from the facility's Memories in the Making art class, part of an art program sponsored through the Alzheimer's Association. The program helps people to express their feelings and memories through art, even after they have lost the ability to use words, said Activity Director Donna Gajewski.

"They get the dementia patients talking about their childhood, if they worked on a farm or they lived in the city, and they get their memories going, and then they draw pictures of their memories. It's kind of nice," said David Bateman, who came to the art show to view the work of his mother-in-law, Marian Linski.

Bateman was impressed not only by the quality of work, but by the sheer number of memories that the process evoked in Linski, who has lived at Kettle Moraine Gardens for five years.

"I didn't know she had done that many paintings," Bateman said.

Kettle Moraine Gardens resident Carol Lange was reluctant to join the painting class.

"I had to coax and coax and coax her to come down. She kept saying that she can't paint. Well, we proved that wrong. Now she's really enjoying it and getting into it. It's wonderful," Gajewski said.

After the artists complete a painting, they write a story to go along with the artwork. Some of the stories describe memories while others are fictitious tales, Gajewski said.

"The stories are so wonderful," Gajewski said.

One of Lange's paintings is entitled "The Carol-Islands" and depicts a sailboat amidst a backdrop of blue sea and green, lush isles.

"They would be located in the Virgin Islands. I have not traveled there, but if I did, I would like to take a sailboat. I've never sailed before, but I would sail around the "Carol-Islands" and I would have a second, third and fourth honeymoon! I would just enjoy the peace and quiet and beautiful scenery, but Harlan would want to fish!" Lange wrote about the painting.

Bret Richards, whose mother-in-law, Althea Kergel, is a resident artist, enjoyed last week's art show.

"I think it's great. It gives them a purpose. They seem to be very happy,"

Richards said. "It's funny how this disease works because she can't remember two minutes ago, but she starts painting and she remembers details from years ago."

Bill Butz is grateful for the social outlet that the classes provide for his mother, Carolyn Butz.

"She's been having a ball since living here," he said.

The artwork was inspiring for many of last week's visitors.

"Good work! That is my favorite right there! How much do you want for it?" art connoisseur Dan Bertler asked one of the featured artists.

"I'm not selling," Janet Otten answered.

Some of the work that was displayed in last week's show will be chosen to join other paintings from facilities across the state in an auction hosted by the Alzheimer's Association.

Work from the Kewaskum artists is also available for the general public in an 18-month calendar.

"We took some of the artwork and we made an 18-month calendar," Activity Director Carol Willegal said. "There were so many pictures, we couldn't decide on just 12 of them, so we made it 18 months."

The January 2017-June 2018 calendars are available for $20 each at Kettle Moraine Gardens, 1038 Fond du Lac Ave. in Kewaskum.

Hanson Puts His Name In The KHS Record Book

— Senior High Jumper Clears 6-7 In EC Quad

By Judy Harlow

One outstanding individual performance stood out among the rest at the East Central quad track meet hosted by Kewaskum on April 12.

When six foot, seven inch (6-7) KHS senior Jason Hanson soared over the bar at 6-7, he set an outdoor school record that stood for 20 years. Travis Jacak held the old mark at 6-6 which he claimed during the 1995 season.

Weather conditions were far from perfect, but that didn't keep Hanson from reaching a goal many thought he would set later this year. He also finished second in the 800 meter race to contribute eight of the Indians' 80 points in their second place finish, behind Berlin's 99.

"I came in at 5-6. Being so cold, I didn't think I would jump that high," Hanson said, indicating he just kept making the heights on the first jumps. "I made 6-6 on the first try, and then 6-7 I think I made on the second try," Hanson went on, adding, getting the record is "something I've been looking forward to since I was a freshman and a sophomore. I was hoping I could get it during this year, and now I did it in the first outdoor meet of the year."

Hanson did make three unsuccessful attempts at 6-8 but with the 800 coming up, wasn't able to really concentrate on those jumps. "I didn't even take a break. I would just go back and take a jump."

The 6-7 is five inches higher than the height Hanson made in the 2015 WIAA State D-2 Track and Field meet when he finished in a tie for sixth place. Now, after making 6-7, it is a good possibility Hanson will be favored to win the D-2 high jump title.

New KHS coach Kris Evans was also delighted with Hanson's effort. "Isn't that great!," he said. "He makes a new record and was a hair's breath away from 6-8."

The Indians had three other first places, taking the 4x100 relay, the pole vault and the shot put. In the relay, Evan Devalk, Cameron Dodge, Eric Doll and Cole Surprenant combined efforts for a time of 47 and .49 seconds (47.49) to beat Berlin by .45 of a seconds.

In the pole vault, Miquel Gonzales and Tony Leiser both cleared 11-0, and Gonzales for the first on fewer misses, and Ben Watzig's heave of 43-07.5 was good enough for first place. Watzig went to state in the discus last year, but he had to settle for second place in this meet after Winneconne's Caleb Rogalski uncorked a mighty throw of 161-01. Watzig was second at 147-10.

Junior Derek Brock placed in three events, finishing third in the 110 high hurdles (16.79), second in the 300 intermediates (44.09) and third in the triple jump (36-05.75).

KHS got the following second places: Surprenant in the 100, 12.52; Justin Reck in the 1,600, 5:12.28; and 4x400 relay (Jake Hrica, Tony Leister, John May, James Villanueva), 3:42.96.

One unusual occurrence came in the 100 where Kyle Pamperin and Dodge finished 1-2 in the JV race with times of 11.95 and 12.00, which were faster than all of the varsity 100 entrants. Evans said he held a time trial for the 100 before the meet to determine which runners would be in the JV 100 and the varsity 100. Then Pamperin and Dodge "stepped it up and really came up with some good times. That's the nature of track. Everyone gets to earn their spots."

With senior Ellie Debelak still nursing a sore knee and not able to compete, the Lady Indians were definitely at a disadvantage. The didn't come up with a single first place, but had four seconds, including Emily Krier in the 1,600 (5:39.50); Sara Butschlick in the 300 hurdles (54.87); Romaela Olla in the 3,200 (13:11.74); and Leah Wilde in the discus (91-03).

Senior Krystina Lepp had a good outing, taking third in the high jump (4-6) and third in the 200 (29.50).

About Debelak, Evans said, "She's chomping at the bit. She wants to run (in the EC Relays)." The coach is debating about putting her in the anchor spot of the 4x400 relay on April 19 and then let her compete in a couple events in the annual Indian Invitational tomorrow, April 22. Eight schools, including Ripon, West Bend East, Random Lake and Winnebago Lutheran, are expected to come. The meet is slated to get started at 4 p.m.

Indian Golfers Are Competitive With Some Of The State's Elite Teams

By Judy Harlow

Even with their number two man out of action, the Kewaskum High golfers did very well in the annual Washington County Invitational on April 16, finishing in a tie for 10th place with Sheboygan North at 325 strokes. It is especially impressive considering the 28-team meet, held at the Washington County Golf Course, included mainly Division 1 schools.

Marquette, with an enrollment of nearly 1,000 boys, captured the title with a sizzling 291, with Cedarburg, Green Bay Notre Dame, and Arrowhead finishing 2-4 with respective totals of 305, 305 and 310.

"They are the power teams of the area," KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said, indicating the Indians had a goal of being in the 320s, which they reached. It was a 12 stroke improvement from a year ago but could have been even better if Sean Murray had played and if the Indians could have eliminated a few miscues on the final holes.

Senior Andrew Otto led KHS with a solid 39-37—76, just out of the top 10. "Actually he missed by one stroke," Eichstedt aid, indicating Otto and Devon Hanson of West Bend East both posted 76s to win medalist honors for the seven teams from Washington County. Otto was two-over-par after 16 holes but double bogeyed his (No. 9), his second last hole.

Sam Schlosser was five-over until he ran into a couple doubles and had to settle for a 40-40—80. The other counters were senior Trent Griesemer, who has "made a big jump from last year to this year." He carded a 42-43—85, as did freshman Jacob Schlosser, who was very consistent with a 42-42—84. Eichstedt said the players are starting to call Jacob Schlosser "Mister 42" because three of his four nine-hole scores have been 42.

"They played well," Eichstedt said about his players, reporting Germatown (322) had the low score among the county teams, three shots ahead of Kewaskum.

Sean Murray was not able to play in the event and will be out for the next week or so because of health issues.

Sheboygan Falls Early Bird Invitational

In the annual Sheboygan Falls Early Bird Invitational, Kewaskum finished fourth out of 18 teams and defeated three conference foes in the process.

St. Mary's Springs, a D-3 school, captured the team title with a sizzling 322 on the 6,424-yard Bull at Pinehurst Farms layout. Host Sheboygan Falls finished second, 15 shots back at 337, with a Nicolet team third at 343, six shots ahead of the Indians, who had a 349, which had just four finishers as Sean Murray withdrew from the tournament after nine holes as his back tightened up in the cold weather.

Eichstedt reported Murray has permission from the WIAA to use a cart because of his recent lung surgery, but near freezing temperatures — it snowed off and on during the day — was too much for him.

Sam Schlosser had the low card for the Indians with a 40-42—82, which put him in a tie for seventh place overall. He had a birdie two on the third hole and another birdie on No. 17.

Otto and freshman Jacob Schlosser both shot

85s, putting them in a tie for 14th. Otto ended the round with a flurry of three straight birdies for a one-under-par 35 on the back nine after struggling with a 50 on the front.

The final counter was Griesemer, who started off well enough with a 43 on the front nine. One bad hole on the back and he had to settle for a 54, giving him a 97.

The meet medalist was Patrick Treichel of St. Mary's who came in with a four-over-par 76.

Eichstedt said the Indians played in four-somes with golfers from Falls and Springs. Defending D-2 champion Waukesha Catholic Memorial was suppose to be the fourth team with the Indians but did not show up for the event.

Lake Breeze Golf Club Mini-Tour Event

The Indians had no problems mastering the Lake Breeze Golf Club in Winneconne on April 11, winning the first East Central mini-tour event with an impressive 165 total, one shot ahead of Plymouth.

Sam Schlosser was the meet medalist with his two-over par 38, a shot ahead of three other golfers. After bogeying the first hold, Schlosser had six pars in a row before bogeying No. 8 and finishing off No. 9 with a par.

All the Indian counters shot 44 or better, with Otto carding a 41, Murray a 42 and Trent Griesemer a 44.

- EC Meet at Winneconne:
1. Kewaskum, 165; 2. Plymouth, 166; 3. Berlin, 168; 4. Waupun, 178; 5. Kettle Moraine Lutheran, 182; 6. Campbellsport, 186; 7. Ripon, 192; 8. Winecone, 195

Young Netters Split First Two Matches

By Judy Harlow

Two matches into the 2016 season and already the young Kewaskum High tennis team has a victory to its credit and a shutout at that. The Indians took care of St. Mary's Springs in short order on April 14, winning six of the seven matches in straight sets.

"It's good for us to get some confidence," Andrew Dahlberg, one of the KHS co-coaches said after the match, pointing out St. Mary's is also young with its number one doubles the only varsity players back. "It was a good testament not to barely win but to win decisively."

At number one singles, it took Michael Prochnow just 15 minutes to defeat Luke Holzman 6-0, 6-0 for his first win of the season.

The Indians' top two doubles teams stayed unbeaten. At number one, Brent Goeden and Jared Chesak were out front most of the first set but the Ledgers drew even at 5-5 before the sophomore duo came through with the 7-5 win over Jerome Schreiner and Eric Kozimor. After dropping the first game in the second set, Chesak and Goeden dominated with a 6-1 win.

At number two, senior

Cole Rahlf and junior Zach Brogaard are looking good together. They improved to 2-0 with a convincing 6-3, 6-2 victory.

The Indians jumped into conference action on April 19 with a match at Manitowoc Roncalli, and today (April 21), they host Two Rivers in a 4 p.m. contest.

Kewaskum 7, St. Mary's Springs 0

Singles: No. 1. Michael Prochnow beat Luke Holzmann, 6-0, 6-0; No. 2. Noel Bindrich beat Eli Ford, 6-0, 6-0; No. 3. Devin Schneider beat Drew Huck, 6-0, 6-0; No. 4. Andrew Neu beat Isaac Skiff, 6-1, 6-1

Doubles: No. 1 Brent Goeden/Jared Chesak beat Jerome Schreiner/Eric Kozimor, 7-5, 6-1 No. 2. Cole Rahlf/Zach Brogaard beat Mitch Greberl/Zach Wilson, 6-3, 6-2; No. 3. Nate Heniadis/Tyler Schellinger beat Bennett Feudner/Steve Braatz, 6-1, 6-2.

All KHS players are listed first.

Kewaskum vs. West Bend West

Kewaskum was definitely the underdog in its season opener and home opener against West Bend West. The Spartans took all four singles matches to win 5-2.

At number one singles, Prochnow had an early 1-0 lead but the veteran Clay Czisny used his powerful serve and good overall play to win 6-3, 6-2. The other Spartans singles players all won in straight sets.

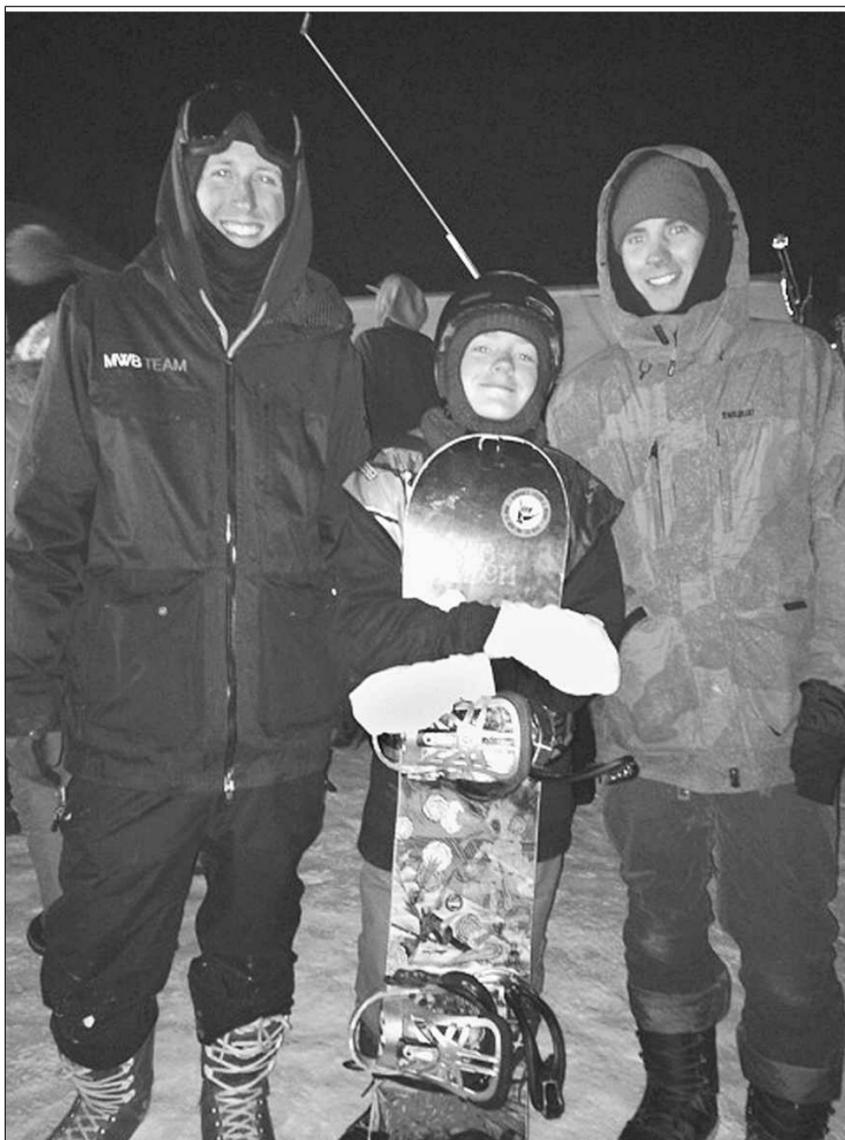

Kewaskum's wins came at number one and two doubles. Both were three-set matches. Chesak and Goeden went up 2-0 in the first set, then struggled and lost 3-6. They regained their composure to win the second set 6-4 and kept the momentum going in the third. Especially key was winning the fifth game after six deuces, which put them up 4-1.

"The number one doubles started playing their brand of tennis after the first set," Dahlberg said, "The number two doubles pulled out a tough match. Other than that, the scores say we were over-matched."

West Bend West 5, Kewaskum 2

Singles: 1. Michael Prochnow lost to Clay Czisny, 3-6, 2-6; 2. Noel Bindrich lost to Mitch Johnson, 0-6, 0-6; No. 3. Devin Schneider lost to Jordan Buchales, 2-6, 2-6; No. 4. Andrew Neu lost to Jack Miles, 1-6, 0-6.

Doubles: No. 1 Brent Goeden/Jared Chesak beat Theson Wanta/Adam Newell, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2; 2. Cole Rahlf/Zach Brogaard beat Parker Sensrad/Michael Lang, 6-4, 6-7 (5-7), 6-7; 3. Nate Heniadis/Tyler Schellinger lost to Peter Fehring/Charlie Mundinger, 3-6, 1-6.

Lehmann Brings Home 11th Place From Snowboard Nationals

By Judy Harlow

The recent excursion to Copper Mountain, Colorado was definitely not a pleasure trip for Kewaskum High sophomore Ayrton Lehmann.

Lehmann wanted to place high in the Youth Men Division (15 and 16-year olds) of the United States of America Snowboard and Free Ski Association's National Championship. Mission accomplished, Lehmann finished 11th overall after a rather disastrous start on the first day of the competition.

In the Slopestyle portion of the event, a combination of jumps and rails, Lehmann had to settle for a 67th place, good for just 65 points. "That one was a rough one," the 15-year old said Sunday. "I fell on both my runs. The snow was pretty slow" after the area received a fresh batch of snow.

The next day, he blanked the Slopestyle finish from his mind and started a much more successful run in the other competitions. The best finish, an 11th place out of 34, came in Rail Jams, where Lehmann reached the finals.

There were two heats leading into the finals, with six competitors advancing from both, and Lehmann was right in the mix, winding up 11th in the finals.

Lehmann placed 16th out of 46 snowboarders in the Slalom with a combined time of one minute, 13.69 seconds (1:13.69) and was 18th out of 48 in the Giant Slalom with a combined time of 1:27.92.

Border Cross was a little more of a challenge for Lehmann, but still he finished close to the upper third of the field, placing 32nd out of 79 young athletes.

Lehmann finished with a total of 3,070 points to earn 11th place. Had he competed in the half-pipe, he would have had a good chance to finish in the top five. "Next year, I'm going to try for the overall," meaning he will compete in the half pipe.

The champion of the 14-15 year old class was Jacob McCarthy of Edina, Minnesota who won the slalom, finished second in the Giant Slalom and Border Cross, third in the Halfpipe and 33rd in Slopestyle for 7,275 points. Mike Craig of Goldens Bridge, New York was the runner-up with 4,515 points.

This was Lehmann's fifth trip to Copper Mountain for the Nationals. He went in 2011-2014, then passed on going a year ago.

The competition definitely gets more difficult as the boarders get older, and Lehmann, who trains at the Sunburst Ski Hill in Kewaskum and competes in the Midwest Best Series, has been able to move up each year. "This was my best finish in the older group," he said. "They change everything pretty much, but it's still the same atmosphere. It's always fun going out there."

After arriving back in Wisconsin, Lehmann's snowboard was put away until December. Currently he is trying to catch up with the others on the KHS tennis team who were involved in practices while he was in Colorado. "It's all right though. I didn't miss too much of it (the season.)"

Wednesday they beat the Washington County Kickers 4-3. Colton Rabe scored three and Oliver Grover scored one. Saturday they played a close game against the Slinger Hawks losing 4-9. Colton Rabe scored all four goals.

The U8 Suns started the season with a dominant victory over Jackson ending the game 11-4. Those to score were Mariosol Gurrola (4), Kingston Grisolono (3), Grant Rasmussen (2), Ranen Enright (1) and Scarlet Reis (1).

U8 Twisters played U8 Washington County Panthers. Carson Maine scored our only goal. Everyone played great. We had passing, stealing, and very aggressive positive attitudes.

aggressiveness in the mid-field.

U9 Kewaskum Flash took to the field against the Jackson Lynx which ended in a tie 3-3. Caitlin Finger, Casey Schmidt and Nick Paul scored for Flash. There was some good defense playing by Emma Sielski and Eden Korth.

The Aztecs were able to capture a 6-5 victory from the two goals a piece scored by Austin Jantz, Caleb Galecke, and the teams new addition Adam Deport.

The U10 Spartans battled Erin in their first game of the season. They suffered a loss of 6-5 after a large lead early in the game. Scoring this week were Timmy Hafemann (2), Dawson Stahl (1), Diesel Fellenz (1) and Alex Severance (1). Autumn Rabe scored the second with a great pass by Emily Lang. Molly Freund showed good passing skills. Bella Schoofs played an active defense. Jenna Adelman and Morgan Adams were impressive goalies.

The U14 Girls Fusion traveled to Hustisford and played together for the first time with several new roster additions. Jaycee Czuppa was stellar on defense, Kiera McFarland had several great runs forward and Ari Krueger was tough up top. Missed opportunities cost the Fusion as they went down 3-0. Despite the score, the girls played very well and continue to show incredible promise.

Two Lone Letter Winners, Sophomores Claim Varsity Tennis Spots

By Judy Harlow

Graduation wiped out a big chunk of the Kewaskum High boys tennis lineup. All four of the singles players and four of the six doubles players are gone from the team that produced a KHS record third place in the 10-team conference, so it's back to the drawing board for co-coaches Julia Duquaine and Andrew Dahlberg.

The two returning letter winners, seniors Michael Prochnow and Noel Bindrich, will switch from their spots on the number one and three doubles teams, and will lead the Indians at number one and two singles.

So how do the coaches think they are adjusting to singles play? "Michael and Noel are adjusting well. They are both hard workers and determined to make the switch well," Dahlberg said before the team's first match against West Bend West. "Michael is a tall and athletic young man, which allows him to get to balls that others can't get to. Noel is working hard to achieve a second serve that can give him options. They are both consistent players and should get us some wins this year."

There were several candidates for the number three and four spots. "I think we have a lot of consistency throughout our lineup, and that is all you can ask for. Give yourself a chance to win. Hit the ball back and don't make mistakes," is how Dahlberg assesses the situation, noting sophomores Devin Schneider and Andrew Neu will start in those spots. The two play "very different styles, but both can be dangerous," Dahlberg said.

Dahlberg went on that a pair of sophomores, Brent Goeden and Jared Chesak, have won the battle to be at number one doubles. After playing one varsity match, the two were successful playing number one doubles at the JV level last season and are ready for the step up.

"I personally am excited to see our one doubles player because they are young, and we have nobody to give them a good match in practice," Dahlberg said. "They will need to stay positive and continue to work on their communication to be successful. They are both hard workers and take instruction very well, so I think they will learn a lot this season and be great for the program's future."

Various combinations were tried for number two and three doubles, with four players including seniors Cole Rahlf and Nate Heniadis and juniors Zach Brogaard and Ty Schellinger in the mix. "We think we have our four top players. We just need to find the best fit for number two and three. Rahlf and Brogaard teamed up at number two for the first two matches and are 2-0, while Schellinger and Heniadis are at number three.

There are 24 boys out for the sport this spring and with JV competitions, most will get a chance to see action.

Concerning conference play, which includes teams from the East Central, the Eastern Wisconsin and several others conferences including newcomer St. Lawrence Seminary, Dahlberg is unsure who the contenders will be. "Plymouth, Roncalli and Kohler seem to be always strong, but I really can't say at this time," he said.

The Indians, currently 1-1, were scheduled to play at Roncalli on April 19, and this afternoon (April 21) will entertain Two Rivers in a conference match.

One Lapse On Defense Is Costly For KHS Soccer Team

By Judy Harlow

During the early part of the season, Kewaskum High soccer coach Luke Piwoni is looking at the playing field as one large classroom.

That being the case, the Indians will be receiving some grades for their performances, and in some games, there might be different grades for the two halves of the same game. Take the April 14 home opener against highly regarded Winneconne. Kewaskum received an A for the first half, especially the first 10 minutes when they scored two goals, and a C for the second when they gave up four goals and ended up on the short end of a 7-3 decision.

"We had a real nice start," Piwoni said, referring to the fact Lizzy Bauer and Jeray Riffel scored unassisted goals just 8:34 and 9:36 into the contest. "They had openings up top, had good looks, and they converted."

"It was important to get a lead on them," the coach went on. "We knew Winneconne was going to be a tough team." And the Lady Wolves were tough, bouncing back from the two-goal deficit to score three goals, two in the final 10 minutes, to surge ahead 3-2 at the half.

Kewaskum struggled to get much offense going in the second half and had difficulty with the Lady Wolves' speed. "They adjusted and started exploiting us," Piwoni said. Especially damaging was a brief period midway in the second half when Winneconne went on a rampage. "They had a stretch of two minutes where they scored three goals." Getting in the act at 76:25, 77:44 and 78:02 were Katie Frierdich (Leah Kubasta), Frierdich (Sophia Cuttill) and Kubasta unassisted.

The defensive letdown cost the Indians a chance to win the game, but Piwoni was not disappointed, saying, "It was a great learning experience for the new players. We made tremendous growth and improvement from the first half to the second ... The next time we play them we hope to be a little more competitive."

The Indians did score one more goal, at 82:10, and it was a beauty involving junior Molly Schulteis and Riffel. Schulteis, playing midfield, lofted a long pass to Riffel, who dodged past two defenders and scored on a low, driving kick that got past Erika Cropp.

Kewaskum got off 10 shots in the contest, and its keeper, Courtney Aker, did well stopping 15 shots, including a couple at close range. Piwoni said Aker has made great progress since last year, playing club soccer. "The improvement is wonderful to see," Piwoni said, noting Aker "has good hands ... is so solid."

Piwoni also cited Mykayla Baertschy's improvement in the second half. "She really picked it up. She looked great," he said. Also praised for her efforts on defense was junior Hailey Herges. "She's our team leader on defense. She really works hard and helps our younger players," Piwoni said.

Kewaskum vs. Kiel
In their season-opener, the Indians gave up three goals in the first 40 minutes, then roared back to score three of their own while holding host Kiel scoreless, and the non-conference game ended up at 3-3.

"They had a game already, and we hadn't been on a real field," Piwoni said. "To come back like we did was great to see. In the second half, we played mostly offense."

Schulteis finally got KHS on the board with an unassisted goal at the 41:43 mark, and that seemed to spark the Indians. Fifteen minutes later, Emily Krier drew the Indians closer to the Raiders, scoring off an assist by Riffel, who scored the tying goal at the 1:10.5 mark.

Aker was in the nets and was credited with 11 saves. Kewaskum took 20 shots, including eight by Riffel and four by Schulteis, who are expected to be the team leaders this spring.

After back-to-back away EC games with Ripon (April 19) and Waupun (April 21), the Indians, currently 0-1-1, return home April 22 for a non-conference game against St. Mary's Springs. The opening kickoff is at 4:30 p.m.

KHS Fast-Pitch Team Posts Successive Shutouts

By Judy Harlow

Chalk up two more wins for the Kewaskum High girls fast-pitch team ... impressive wins at that.

First, the Lady Indians knocked off Berlin, 10-0 in a game that ended in six innings in the home opener on April 12. Two days later, they shut out Kettle Moraine Lutheran 6-0 in a game held in Jackson.

With the two latest victories, the Indians improved to 3-1 in East Central games and are currently sitting in second place in the standings of the new league, one game behind Waupun.

Ace pitcher, Brea Trepes, had her hand in both games and picked up the two pitching wins to improve to 3-1 on the year.

KHS coach Jeff Gosse has been starting the junior Trepes in all the games, then brings in freshman Kennedy Lehn for the later innings, and the plan is working out very well. Against KML, Trepes struck out four, walked just one and gave up the lone Charger hit, a double by Allison Stoltz.

Lehn finished up the last three frames in grand style, holding the Chargers hitless, while striking out seven and walking just one.

Offensively, the Indians came up with some big hits again. Emma Debelak, Trepes, Maddie Geidel and Brittany Williams each chipped in with two hits. Trepes' hits were both doubles, while Williams hit a double and a triple and collected four RBIs (runs batted in). In the first, Williams, the team's left-handed catcher, doubled in one run, and in the fifth, her triple drove in two more. Williams also hit a fielder's choice, which scored another teammate, according to Gosse, who was happy to see the 10 hits but said, "We haven't reached our hitting peak yet."

Waupun is still a perfect 4-0 after defeating Winneconne, while Kewaskum, Campbellsport and Winneconne each have one loss.

KHS was scheduled to play Plymouth on April 19, and, "We have the rival game against Campbellsport on Thursday (April 21)," Gosse said. Then on April 23, the Indians are at Two Rivers for a tournament.

KEWASKUM 102 030 0 — 6-10-1

KM LUTHERAN 000 000 0 — 0-1-0
Winner — Trepes (4) K-4, W-1, H-1
Loser — Katie Scherf

Kewaskum vs. Berlin

In the shutout over Berlin, Trepes struck out four, walked just one and allowed one hit, and then Kennedy Lehn showed why coach Gosse has just great faith in her. "She struck out all six batters she faced," he said, and the game ended after six innings via the 10-run "mercy rule."

Infielder Kenzie Lehn was the hitting star in this victory. She had a single and a triple with three RBIs. "A bunch of others had one hit," Gosse said, reporting, "Skylar Donath had a triple that drove in two."

Laura Weishan, Trepes and Hailey Plachinski all had RBI hits for the Indians.

"An eclectic group of six mid-pubescents vie for the spelling championship of a lifetime. While candidly disclosing hilarious and touching stories from their home life, the tweens spell their way through a series of [potentially made-up] words hoping to never hear the soul-crushing, pout-inducing, life un-affirming "ding" of the bell that signals a spelling mistake. Six spellers enter; one speller leaves! At least the losers get a juice box."

“Consumer Survey Fact Sheet showed that 77% of people receiving a massage indicated it was for medical or injury related conditions.”

- American Massage Therapy Association

Bridging the gap in effective and affordable therapy options for treating soft tissue pain and injuries without the harmful side effects of drugs.

Musculoskeletal disorders are one of the primary reasons people seek medical care. Common conditions include a wide variety of problems such as strains, sprains, myofascial trigger points, nerve entrapment, and chronic muscle tightness. Many of these disorders result from repetitive stress injuries that put additional strains on the body's soft tissues; mainly from sports, exercise, and job related activities. Accidents are also a major cause for seeking treatment. It's important to get help for these conditions early on. We offer a gentle, natural, and alternative approach to the treatment of soft tissue dysfunctions through orthopedic massage and cupping therapy.

Orthopedic massage is a comprehensive approach to the rehabilitation of soft tissue disorders and musculoskeletal injuries. People are choosing orthopedic massage because it is proving to be an effective and affordable option that enhances progress during pain and injury recovery. Call today for a free consultation!
