Smith and Hatch Celebrates 40 Years In Business

By Andrea Hansen Abler

Smith & Hatch Insurance of Kewaskum and Eden celebrated a milestone recently. On December 1st, the business celebrated its 40th anniversary.

Bea Smith started Smith Insurance on December 1, 1976, in Eden. She already had many years of experience in the insurance business.

"She had worked for 20 years in Fond du Lac," said Bill Hatch, owner of Smith & Hatch. "She started Smith Insurance in this house. It started right here."

Bea added, "I think I was one of the first women to own my own agency."

"We basically conducted most of the business right here," Hatch said while motioning to the kitchen table. "I started working here in 1981. I was 18. I got my license right out of high school."

Bea stated that Bill actually started part-time while he was in high school and came on full-time when he was in college at UW-Oshkosh.

To start the business, Bea needed to find clients. Bea and Bill pride themselves on the personal service they provide their customers. That is how Bea was able to start the business and build up her clientele. She made sure to meet them at their house to talk to each one about their insurance needs and how she could help.

"That's how I got started," Bea said. "I made all house calls. I had to give them a reason — 'I'll come to you.' I was in the right location."

The business continued to grow because of their personal-touch philosophy. Their customers appreciated the way Smith & Hatch cared for them, their family and their belongings.

"We've had a very loyal customer base," Bill said. "The bottom line is its about the customer. We're open more than just the traditional hours. We still like to make house calls. I still like to go to their house and meet them at their kitchen table. We still prefer to sit down face-to-face. The most enjoyable part is sitting down and getting to know someone."

Smith & Hatch is an independent insurance company. This means that they can buy plans for their customers from different companies.

"Our job is to do the research for you," Bill said. "As an independent, we can make choices. The customer is our client. People have to trust in us to do that. We can provide people with business advice, options and guidance. People still need professional advice. The value that we add is that we like to give them professional advice. We're there to help when disaster strikes and people can rely on us."

Chess players shake hands before participating in a chess tournament held at St. Lucas Lutheran School in Kewaskum on Saturday, Jan. 14. Students in kindergarten through 12th grade from around the region participated in the competition.

— Area Students Participate In Chess Tournament

By Anne Trautner

Nine-year-old Ian Janz was up at 4:30 a.m., ready to compete in a chess tournament last Saturday.

The young chess player has been practicing his chess moves after school when he meets with other members of his chess club at St. Lucas Lutheran School in Kewaskum. He even took lessons from a high school chess master last summer.

All of his hard work paid off. Ian, who is in fifth grade at St. Lucas, placed first out of the players in fourth through sixth grade at the tournament. But for Ian, it's not all about winning.

"It's a lot of fun," Ian said about the game.

Ian is a member of Kewaskum's chess team that meets at St. Lucas. The club is open to all students who attend Kewaskum schools.

The club was formed last year, but Saturday was the first time St. Lucas hosted a chess tournament.

Students came from area grade schools and high schools to compete in the tournament.

Kewaskum High School was represented at the competition. The high school team practices every Wednesday for about two and a half hours.

"When you play chess, it really makes you think," said Nathan Lawrenz, a freshman chess player at KHS.

Nathan's mother, Traci Lawrenz appreciates the activity.

"To me, the kids just learn so much from it," she said. "It keeps their minds growing."

Traci Lawrenz's younger son, 6-year-old James Lawrenz, who attends Farmington Elementary School, is part of the St. Lucas team.

"I'm just surprised how much the kids learn and understand the game," Tracy Lawrenz said. "I don't know how to play chess, and at age 6, James knows all about it. It's fun to watch him progress... It's great for his mind."

Studies support that sentiment.

According to one Venezuelan study, chess can improve IQ scores. That study found significant rises in the IQ scores of both boys and girls after four months of chess instruction.

The game of chess may help prevent Alzheimer's. A recent study featured in The New England Journal of Medicine found that people older than 75 who engage in brain-stretching activities like chess are less likely to develop dementia than their non-board-game-playing peers.

German researchers found that chess exercises both sides of the brain because of the geometric shapes and chess positions.

Creativity can also be increased by playing chess. One four-year study found that students in grades seven to nine who played chess scored higher in all measures of creativity, with originality being their biggest area of gain.

Other studies have shown an increase in memory, problem solving skills, reading and concentration.

"It also helps with planning. The game is analytical and makes people plan ahead, Traci Lawrenz said.

Ideas For Parents: Easy Things To Help Your Child Succeed

Why do some kids grow up with ease while others struggle? Search Institute Researchers identified specific, practical things that can have a tremendous and lasting positive impact on youth. Rather than focusing on the problems, this research concentrates on the Developmental Assets – the positive things (such as parent support and commitment to learning) that help young people thrive. The assets are values, experiences and positive qualities that young people need to help them make wise decisions and choose positive lifestyles. The more assets they have, the better.

Parent Involvement In School

Youth are more likely to grow up healthy when their parents are involved in their education and school.

Staying Involved In School

It's a downward trend. As children start kindergarten, parents are quite involved with their education. We attend parent-teacher conferences, cheer on our children at school concerts and events, and hang up schoolwork in the family art gallery: on the refrigerator.

But sometimes we distance ourselves from school as our children grow older. Kids seem to be doing well without as much involvement. They're supposed to be independent, right?

Kids need their parents to stay actively involved in their education throughout middle and high school.

Parents can easily stay involved in small ways that will make a difference. For example:

- Maintain ongoing communication with your child's teacher(s). Call to check in every month – before trouble appears. See if teachers have email.
- Join a parent-teacher organization. If you can't volunteer a lot of time, say so.
- Volunteer to help out in small ways. Check with the teacher or the schools volunteer coordinator.

- Help seniors fill out college applications.
- Volunteer to speak on career days
- Attend all conferences. If you can't make it on the designated date, arrange to meet another time.
- Read the same book your child is assigned in English class, and talk about it together.

This article is sponsored by Elevate, Inc., a Washington County non-profit whose mission it is to address the root causes of high risk behaviors through prevention, intervention and residential programming that focus on drug and alcohol issues, mental health and delinquency.

Children's Pride

Remember, your children are proud of you and love having the chance to show you off to their teachers and principal.

For more information about Elevate's prevention, intervention and support services, visit www.elevateyou.org or call Julie Wolf at 262-677-2216.

Drunk Busters Donate To Kewaskum Police Department

Drunk Busters of America, LLC, donated a "chopper" pedal bike to the Kewaskum Police Department to use with the department's Drunk Buster Impairment Goggles.

The combination of this pedal bike with the goggles will allow the department to simulate the effects that alcohol and drugs have when trying to operate an automobile. Officers will set up a course with cones and have riders attempt to complete the course while "impaired."

"This will be a great addition to our Junior Police Academy Summer School Class, as well as community events such as National Night Out," Kewaskum Police Chief Tom Bishop said.

The Kewaskum Police Department appreciates the Drunk Busters of America donation and its efforts to reduce alcohol-related traffic deaths.

The Kewaskum Police Department will use this pedal bike to educate students about drunk driving. The bike was donated by Drunk Busters of America.

Retired Slinger Band Teacher Charged With Sexual Assault

On January 11, David T Hanke, a retired band teacher from the Slinger School District, was charged with one count of sexual assault of a student by school staff. Since then our department, as well as other agencies, have received numerous calls reporting incidents involving David Hanke. Many of these may be described as inappropriate behavior.

If anyone has information about criminal activity or if anyone wishes to report they are victims of a crime, they should contact the Washington County Sheriff Office at 262-335-4411.

Even those dedicated to keeping the roads safe are not immune from dangerous road conditions. The Sheriff's Office responded to a municipal snow plow that overturned on an ice covered Town of Kewaskum road today at 6:38 a.m.

The investigation revealed the operator was traveling down an incline on the ice covered road at about five mph. The road has a crown on it which caused the snowplow to slowly slide sideways and into the ditch. As the snowplow continued to slide into the ditch it rolled onto the passenger side. The driver of the truck was not hurt. The truck only had minor damage and was driven away from the scene after rolled back onto the road.

OBITUARIES

Ryan Timothy Gellings

Ryan Timothy Gellings, 21, passed away on the 13th of January, 2017, as the result of a traffic accident.

Ryan was born in Fond du Lac on July 5, 1995, the son of Timothy and Kim (Jashinsky) Gellings. After his birth while driving home from the hospital, Ryan's older brother Drew and older sister Dani made Tim pull over multiple times so they could each take a turn sitting next to Ryan. This exemplifies the love he gave and received throughout his life.

Ryan grew up in Campbellsport, and even as a child was competitive, smart, and enthusiastic about life. He loved construction equipment as a boy. He graduated from Campbellsport High School and was a student at U.W. Whitewater.

As a young man, he would effortlessly succeed at everything he attempted. He picked up all manner of sports just to prove that he could. His favorite sports were rugby and football and Ryan was hand selected for the Wisconsin State Select Rugby team multiple times. In college, Ryan was extremely proud to have competed in the national rugby playoffs two years in a row.

When he was no longer able to play rugby, Ryan applied his boundless energy to new interests with the same enthusiasm. He pursued cartography, guitar, photography, and art. He developed a passion for the outdoors and hiked peaks and trails in Oregon, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Montana; often at 3 a.m. so he could see the sunrise.

Everyone who knew Ryan speaks of his ability to make a friend wherever he goes. His excitement captivated all those who he interacted with and this is shown by the outpouring of support we have received. Ryan dreamed of traveling to Patagonia and Australia to explore his interests in conservation sciences.

Those left behind to cherish Ryan's memory include his parents Tim and Kim, his sister Danielle (Brandon) Drydyk, his brother Drew Gellings (special friend Amanda Hargreaves), his grandfather Willie Gellings (special friend Bea Mooney), his grandmother Janice Jashinsky, many aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Ryan was preceded in death by his grandmother Helen Gellings, his grandfather Roy Jashinsky, his uncle Mark Jashinsky and his aunt Janet Gellings.

Through the generous gifts of his organs, Ryan continues to change the lives of those around him. He has donated organs to individuals in Illinois, Wisconsin, and elsewhere. His heart will continue to beat with a recipient in Minnesota.

Ryan makes his family so proud by sharing his energy with those who are to receive his organs. Along with these recipients, Ryan inspires all those who love him to wake up every morning and pursue their dreams without fear of failure.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Thursday, Jan 19 at 6 p.m. at Shepherd of the Hill Catholic Church, W1562 County Road B, Eden. Rev. Mark Jones will officiate and cremation will follow.

Visitation will be Thursday, Jan. 19 from 2 p.m. until time of Mass at Shepherd of the Hills Church.

In lieu of flowers, donations towards a memorial bench in Columbus Parc are appreciated.

Twohig Funeral Home is serving the family with guestbook and condolences at www.twohigfunerals.com.

Dr. Richard Lee Wesenberg

Dr. Richard Lee Wesenberg (Dick) of Portland, Oregon, passed away on November 17, 2016, at the age of 79 with his family by his side.

He was affectionately known to those around him as "Doc". He bravely faced congestive heart failure with grace, determination and, above all, a fantastic sense of humor that was with him to the end.

Dick was born in Fond du Lac, on November 2, 1937, and was raised in Wisconsin. This instilled him with a lifelong love of bratwurst and the Packers.

He was always a star pupil and at the head of his class. He attended medical school at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. It is here that he met the love of his life, Nancy, at a school dance. She was a nursing student at the time and they immediately embarked on a lifetime of love and adventure. They were married in 1961 and enjoyed 55 years of marriage together.

Dick completed his internship in Hartford, Connecticut, and then returned to the University of Wisconsin to train as a radiologist. He specialized in pediatric radiology and embarked on a rewarding career in academic medicine. He had the opportunity to practice in many locations and work with exceptional colleagues. He was an Emeritus Professor of Radiology at the University of Southern Alabama in Mobile. He was considered a pioneer and expert in the subspecialties of newborn and low-dose radiology, and had a great passion for his work that never waned.

The achievement he was most proud of was his marriage to Nancy. They raised three children. As a father, he spoiled his kids with the gift of travel. They took many wonderful trips as a family and this is a tradition that he and Nancy carried on into their later years.

He was known by everyone for his sense of humor. He loved to laugh and see the humor in any situation. In fact, you could always hear his laugh at a party, rising above the din of any crowd. High pitched and boisterous, it would make you laugh just hearing it.

In the later years of his life, he faced significant disability from polymyositis. Although this ultimately affected his ability to walk, he cheerfully used his scooter for many years. He did not complain and his cheerful attitude was an inspiration to all who knew him.

He is survived by his wife, Nancy, son Rick (Gillian) Wesenberg, D. A. of Douglas County, Oregon, daughters Kristen (Jim) Doak, Ild, and Karen (Grant James) Wesenberg, M.D. of Portland, and four grandchildren: Lee, Claire, Carson and Henry. He will be dearly missed.

Lincoln Memorial Park and Funeral Home in Portland, OR served the family.

Tools And Recommendations For Healthier Aging

The Alzheimer's Association will present a community workshop called "Healthy Living for Your Brain and Body: Tips from the Latest Research", on Tuesday, Jan. 31 from 3 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. at the West Bend Community Memorial Library, 630 Poplar Street, in West Bend.

Billowing clouds of dense smoke filled the Kewaskum sky Tuesday morning when the Barrel Haus tavern and restaurant located on the corner of Main and Railroad Streets, was the scene of one of the largest fires in the village's history.

The Kewaskum Fire Department responded to the call around 10:15 a.m., when it was discovered by the owner, James Rinas. The Boltonville and Campbellsport fire departments were called in to assist with manpower and equipment.

The fire apparently originated in the kitchen area, where the flames quickly spread in the overhead exhaust fan and up into the walls, but the cause is still under investigation.

Thick smoke rolled thru the village for hours, fanned by strong northerly winds. At times visibility was reduced to zero hampering the efforts of the firefighters. The dense, choking smoke permeated into surrounding businesses and at one point, evacuation of nearby Holy Trinity School was considered due to the school's close proximity to gasoline containment units.

The fire completely destroyed the building and its contents, including two upstairs apartments. Firemen remained on the scene throughout the day and into the evening, as did a large crowd of spectators. A live remote radio broadcast was on hand from West Bend radio station, WBWI.

The corner building was a Kewaskum landmark originally built as the Central Hotel over 100 years ago.

The appointment of Theodore "Ted" Meilahn of Kewaskum as county surveyor was unanimously approved by members of the Washington County Board of Supervisors Tuesday. Meilahn was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of Ethan Maxon, who died Nov. 21, of a heart attack, less than two weeks after being elected to his seventh term as county surveyor November 8.

Approximately 50,000 gallons of water "went down the drain" in Kewaskum Tuesday. The water in the Tower Street reservoir was contaminated after dense smoke filled the water pumping station. Richard Zarling, Kewaskum Elementary School principal, called Armin Oppermann, superintendent of public works, shortly after noon to report that water from the school's drinking fountains had a peculiar smokey taste. Oppermann went to check the station and take a sample of the water. When he opened the door he found the station filled with smoke. It was discovered the smoke was caused by a blockage in the chimney. With the help of volunteer firemen and the fire department pumper, the water was pumped down nearby Third Street into a storm sewer. Debris in the station's chimney prevented the oil burner from getting the proper draft thus causing the smoke. Oppermann checks both pumping stations daily and found both to be in good working order at 7:30 a.m.

The children, grandchildren and members of their families, along with a number of friends gathered at the home of William Seefeldt, Town of Kewaskum, Monday evening to help the venerable man celebrate his 92nd birthday.

Coming as a shock to the community was the death of Mrs. Elmer Uelmen, 39, nee Theresa

John, left, and Arthur Schmidt, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Schmidt, posed for this portrait taken at Miller Studio, Kewaskum. They lived on a farm on Hwy. 28E, now the Marvin Schmidt farm. Marvin is a son of Arthur Schmidt. The photo was taken around 1902.

The Wisconsin Gas and Electric company is at work setting poles for electrical extension to points in Fond du Lac County the work being engaged now at Lomira. The feed wires will stretch east from Lomira to Ashford, thence to Campbellsport, Eden and Marblehead. Another crew is stringing wire between Theresa and Lomira. The Lomira plant is to be used as a distributor.

Mrs. Jos. Strobel left Friday for St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac, where she is at the bedside of her daughter Agnes. (Mrs. Mike Zehren) who is still in critical condition up to this writing.

Mr. Ramthun received three new autos Tuesday, which he sold to John Auppermann, Fred Bartelt and Herman Milke.

Wm. Hess, New Fane, recently harvested his supply of ice last week Friday and Saturday.

The remains of Mr. Trapp of Milwaukee were shipped to Beechwood on Thursday for interment in the Emmanuel's cemetery, Rev. Kaniess officiating.

Two brilliant "sundogs" appeared near the sun Thursday morning, one on each side. According to old weather prognosticators, this sign means a continued cold spell.

Auto license plates for 1917 will be green and white. The state has contracted for 120,000 pairs at a cost of 9.2 cents per pair.

Weekly HEALTH TIP

CRANBERRY JUICE PREVENTS UTIs

Drinking cranberry juice may reduce the risk of the recurrence of urinary tract infections (UTIs), according to a recent study. The study involved 373 women with a history of UTIs. The women were assigned to drink either a daily 8 oz. glass of cranberry juice or a placebo for six months. During the study, the cranberry juice drinkers had a 40% lower risk of a UTI. Scientists think that certain compounds in the cranberries may help prevent the bacteria from sticking to the lining of the urinary tract and colonizing. The berries also have anti-inflammatory properties.

County Clerk's Office Now Offering Passport Photos

The Washington County Clerk's Office is now offering passport photos to customers applying for or renewing their passport. This new service will allow for all necessary processes to be done in one location, for the individuals applying for their passports.

"I am excited to announce that my office will be offering passport photos in addition to accepting passport applications," County Clerk, Ashley Reichert, said. "By offering passport photos, it creates efficiency and gives the individuals submitting their passport applications the opportunity to do everything at one convenient location."

The fee to have a passport photo taken is $11. Photos can be taken in the Washington County Clerk's Office, located at 432 E. Washington St. in West Bend. Passport applications are accepted between 8:15 a.m. - 3:45 p.m. Monday - Friday. For more information regarding specific requirements and fees, please visit the County Clerk's website, www.co.washington.wi.us/clk or the U.S. Department of State's website, www.travel.state.gov.

Washington County Heroin Task Force Hosts Narcan Training

Narcan/Naloxone training will be conducted during the Washington County Heroin Task Force meeting, Thursday, Jan. 19 at 9 a.m. at the West Bend Public Agency Center, 333 E. Washington Street.

The training, presented by the AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin, will educate on how to administer the life-saving drug in the event of a drug overdose.

Narcan is the brand name for naloxone, an opioid antagonist medication used to reverse the effects of opioid overdose. When somebody overdoses on an opioid drug like heroin or prescription painkillers, the drug depresses the respiratory and central nervous systems, disrupting breathing and potentially leading to death.

Please email Ronna Corliss, with the Heroin Task Force at ElevateYou.org to r.s.v.p. Space is limited.

For more information about Elevate and the Heroin Task Force, visit www.elevateyou.org.

Prescribed Burns Planned For Horicon Marsh

Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources staff plan to conduct prescribed burning this winter at Horicon Marsh, located in southeast Wisconsin.

These prescribed burns, planned for seven units at Horicon Marsh, will take place in January and February 2017 if appropriate weather conditions exist. Five of these units are on state property, while two units are a combination of state and federal refuge and will be conducted in cooperation with U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service staff.

Prescribed burning at Horicon Marsh is part of ongoing efforts to remove much of the standing dead cattail stems to provide more areas for spring bird migration, feeding and roosting. Prescribed burning will also give plants other than cattails a better chance to grow in the area. In spring and summer, these areas provide easy access for muskrats to travel and access fresh vegetation - this helps increase muskrat numbers and will lead to a better mix of open water pockets desirable to a variety of wetland plants and animals. Burning over the ice at Horicon is a preferred management strategy to avoid nesting seasons and recreational activities.

The window for conducting prescribed burns is relatively small, due to special weather conditions required. The moisture level of groundcover, wind speed and direction, and relative humidity must be just right for a safe and successful burn.

Questions or comments regarding the prescribed burn should be directed to Paul Samerdyke, DNR wildlife biologist, via email atpaul.samerdyke@wisconsin.gov.

For more information regarding prescribed burning in Wisconsin, visit dnr.wi.gov and search keywords "prescribed burn."

Reach Out And Read

The Reach Out and Read Book Drive is a time when people come together with a common goal of collecting gently used books. The Silbernagel Group along with the Kewaskum Food Pantry is sponsoring a book and dvd drive from January 18 through March 10 to benefit the Kewaskum community.

Why are the Kewaskum Food Pantry and The Silbernagel Group partnering on this together? Because books are important to a person. Books have the ability to expose a person to new information, help with self-improvement, and gain experience from other people through books. Reading connects you with other people and stimulates imagination. Books transport us to different places, different times, and different cultures. We sometimes need an escape from daily life, reading books can do that.

The goal is 1,000 items for donation to the Kewaskum Food Pantry to be given to their clients at no charge. Books and dvds for the drive can be dropped off Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Silbernagel Group office located at 114 Main Street, Kewaskum.

All types of books are welcome. Books for all ages and interests are appreciated. Together we can reach the 1,000 item goal. May everyone in the Kewaskum area have a favorite book to touch, read, and refer back to.

Free Radon Test Kits Available In January

During National Radon Action Month the Washington Ozaukee Public Health Department is encouraging citizens to test their homes for radon by offering free test kits to residents.

Radon is a naturally occurring odorless, colorless gas found in rock and soil. It is the second leading cause of lung cancer, claiming the lives of an estimated 20,000 Americans each year, according to Paula Mugan, Environmental Health Supervisor at the Washington Ozaukee Public Health Department.

"Radon can enter your home whether it is old or new, drafty or well sealed, built on a basement or a slab. Each building is unique, so testing is the only way to know if you have high levels of radon in your home," Mugan said.

The radon test kit is easy to use and only takes a few minutes to set up. Once you open it, the kit stays in your home for two days. Then you will package it and mail it to the lab for analysis. "If you have already tested your home and your radon level is 4 pCi/L or greater, it is time to take action," Mugan said. "You should have a mitigation system installed by a certified mitigation professional. More and more home buyers insist on a radon test, so if you know there is a problem you should address it for your own benefit as well as that of the next owner."

Kits can be obtained at both health departments. The Washington County office is open Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. and is located at 333 E Washington St, Suite 1100, West Bend, 53095. The Ozaukee County office is open Monday through Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. and is located at 121 W. Main St, Room #246, Port Washington, 53074. You can receive a kit by mail from your health department by including a check for $4 with your written request. Please make sure to include your name and address and a kit will be mailed to your home.

More information as well as a list of Certified Radon Mitigators can be found at www.lowradon.org. Additional information is at www.co.ozaukee.wi.us. Knowledgeable environmental health personnel are available at 262-365-5878 to answer your radon questions.

Auditions To Be Held For "The Frog Prince"

Auditions will be held for the Missoula Children's Theatre's production of "The Frog Prince" on Monday, Jan. 23, in the Kewaskum High School Theater from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Those auditioning should arrive at 4:15 p.m. and plan to stay for the full two hours. Some of the cast members will be asked to stay for a rehearsal immediately following the audition.

Among the roles to be cast are three sisters, who also happen to be princesses, the lonely Frog, Ollie the Aspen Tree, bumbling Knights, kindly Swamp Things, the well-read Alligator, fancy Flamingos, helpful Ducks, a busy Fly and the nasty Venus Fly Traps.

All students in kindergarten through 12th grade are encouraged to audition. No advance preparation is necessary.

Assistant directors will also be cast to assist with the technical aspects of the production.

The Missoula Children's Theatre touring productions are complete with costumes, scenery, props and makeup. The MCT tour actors/directors will conduct rehearsals throughout the week from 4:30 to 9 p.m. each day.

"The Frog Prince" will be presented on Saturday, Jan. 28, at 3 and 7 p.m. in the Kewaskum High Theater. Ticket prices are $8 for adults and $5 for students.

The Missoula Children's Theatre residency in Kewaskum is brought to you by the Kiwanis Club of Kewaskum.

– Area Students Participate In Chess Tournament

To help them learn how to make the best moves, the students used pen and paper to make notations on each of their moves, said Katrina Janz, who coordinates the chess club at St. Lucas. After completing a game, the chess players go back over their moves to evaluate what they could have done differently.

The best way to get better is to study those notes and to practice, according to 6-year-old chess champion Basil Arena, who learned how to play chess three years ago. The tournaments help to fine-tune those chess skills, he said.

"It takes a lot of tournaments to know how to win," Basil said.

The top four players in each age category were awarded a trophy.

The following students received trophies for individual standings:

Kindergarten -Third Grade

1. Basil Arena

2. Malachi Yttri
3. Matthias Yttri
4. Parth Dharadhikari

Fourth Grade-Sixth Grade

"We've been here to assist families and businesses. To help protect them, their belongings and the things that are most valuable to them in their time of need. That's what separates us. Insurance is still a people business and a service business. At the end of the day, people still need advice and service. I think that's what people have liked about us."

As things change, Smith & Hatch has had to adapt. They didn't have a computer when the business opened. Everything was done in books, with charts and other information given to them by the insurance carriers.

Now they have quite a few computers and most of the business is done using computers. They keep in touch with clients via email or cell phone if needed, but still try to meet in person with as many as they can.

"Technology has changed the industry," Bill said. "It's really what the customer wants. In today's world, you have to be flexible. You have to adapt to how people want to communicate with you."

Over the 40 years Smith & Hatch has been in business, they have stayed in the same location — Highway V between Eden and Campbellsport. The business has moved from the kitchen table to the basement of Bea's house.

As the business grew, the space it took up in the basement grew too. An addition was put on the back of the house in 1995, which also increased the basement space for the office. Their staff has grown over the years too. Most of their staff have been with the company for many years.

"We would like to recognize our loyal employees who have helped us grow the business to where it is today," Bill said. "Laurie Hatch who is now my partner in the business has worked here 28 years. Shari Crass, Carol Koltz and Missy Lorrigan have all been here 20 plus years, Chad Schmitt-18 years, Jill Zimdahl-four years, Craig Hatch-three years, and Brittany Kranig-two years."

In 1997, Smith & Hatch opened their office on Main Street in Kewaskum. Dennis Butz opened that office for Bill and Bea. That branch has two long-term employees — Jackie Rauch has worked there 17 years, and Carrie Struebing 11 years.

When the business started in 1976, it was Smith Insurance. In 2000, the name was officially changed to Smith & Hatch Insurance Agency.

Forty years ago when Bea was starting this business at her kitchen table with Bill helping out, neither of them thought that this is what it would be today. They hoped it would go well.

"I don't think that either one of us thought it would get to here," Bill said. "It's been good. It is a good business and a good partnership and it's been rewarding. The most rewarding part has been that we can meet people and get to know them. We just helped as many people as we could. And, we're still operating out of the basement of this house. It's been a good ride!"

Bea added, "It's been the fact that we've gotten to know people. I didn't think about getting big. We were day-by-day."

Smith & Hatch Insurance is celebrating its 40th anniversary this week. Bea Smith started the agency out of the dining room of her home and 40 years later, it has moved to the basement and has grown to 12 employees and another office in Kewaskum.

Ask the Dentist My Child Has A Habit Of Sucking Their Thumb, Should I Be Concerned?

Dr. Sara Klasinski

As most infants and toddlers come to find out, thumb sucking can be very soothing and for parents it can be a habit that is very hard to break.

When a child sucks their thumb, the pad of the thumb presses on the roof of the mouth just behind the top front teeth, causing the front teeth to splay forward or inhibits the palatal bone from developing in an appropriate manner causing the child to have what is called an "open bite".

An open bite is where the edges of the front teeth do not touch each other when biting down all the way. A way to help prevent the front teeth from flaring or preventing an open bite is to stop thumb sucking early on.

For best results, the habit should stop prior to the fourth birthday. I want to note that not all open bites come from thumb sucking. If you notice your child is showing dental signs of thumb sucking, my suggestion is to quit the habit immediately because sometimes the teeth and bone can correct the concerns on their own. We will be addressing sucking on other digits in a subsequent article.

SPORTS

No Champions, But Indians Take Fourth At Belcher Test

By Judy Harlow

An already depleted Kewaskum High wrestling team was even leaner at the Craig Belcher Invitational held January 14 at Milwaukee Hamilton High School.

The Indians had just seven wrestlers available for the meet, and believe it or not, they finished in fourth place in the event with 190 points, behind Pewaukee, Valders and the Sauk Prairie reserves, which finished 1-2-3 with 434, 402 and 232 points, respectively.

"It was a pretty good day of wrestling," KHS coach Scott Rhoads said, reporting Adam Bruss (113), Eric Bauer (132) and Kyle Bath (152) all missed the meet. Rhoads said Bauer "took an injury in practice on Friday. It was recommended he sit out," while Bruss was ill.

About Bath's absence, Rhoads said, "He's in some baseball league. He told us at the beginning of the season it would interfere at one point or another."

Kewaskum had three finalists, Braden Maertz at 120, Alex Deheck at 138 and Eduardo Padilla at 170, but all three had to settle for second place.

Braden breezed through the competition until the finals, posting two first-period pins and a 12-3 major decision, but in the finals he was outpointed,

3-1 by Eric Halverson of Pewaukee.

With these latest matches, Maertz is sporting a 22-3 record.

"His Pewaukee opponent is a real good wrestler," Rhoads said, reporting his young protegee "had one little slip up" in the third period. Maertz had gotten to his feet and was looking to escape when Halverson took him to his back for a two-point near fall.

Deheck started with two pins in under 1:00 and then posted a 17-0 technical fall in the semis vs. Andre Childs of Milwaukee Bay View.

The championship match was very tight with Deheck, now 20-7, coming out on the short end of a 3-2 score to Luke Oltmanns of Valders.

"It was a tough loss," Rhoads said, reporting Deheck was up 2-0 when Oltmanns "ended up rolling him into a tilt in the third period" for a three-point near fall and the win.

Padilla, a young and slightly smaller 170 pounder, finished the day at 3-1, winning his first two matches by decision, an 11-1 major and a 5-4 thriller, then moved into the finals with a 3:24 pin over Simon Calderon of Milwaukee Bay View before losing a 6-4 decision to Pewaukee's Conner Goodman.

"He was starting to come back," Rhoads said of the sophomore Padilla, who had a good day and is now 15-16.

Four others finished in the top six at their weight classes. Nathaniel Droese (22-9) placed fifth at 106 while Mason Pomeroy (19-13) was sixth at 120, Tanner Goeman (17-13) third at 145, and Sam Larson (17-14), third at 160 pounds.

"It was a good meet for our middle level wrestlers," Rhoads said, noting the competition was a little better than last year because Pewaukee and the Sauk Prairie reserves were there, but several other traditionally strong teams, including Port Washington, Pulaski and Fort Atkinson, did not show.

Kewaskum 28, Ripon 34

On January 12, the Indians made their final home appearance against Ripon, with forfeits tipping the scale in the visitors' favor, 34-28.

"We had a huge lead," Rhoads said about the start of the match when KHS led 22-0, but, "We had a few matches where we had guys on their back and let them up."

KHS gave up 12 points for forfeits at 195 and 285, and that proved to be the difference as the Indians fell to 3-2 in East Central action. Campbellsport and Ripon are atop the standings with 5-0 records.

Of the 11 matches that were wrestled, Kewaskum won six, including four by pin, and Ripon five.

Getting pins were Braden Maertz at 126, Eric Bauer at 132, Alex Deheck at 138 and Tanner Goeman at 145.

Mason Pomeroy missed this meet because of illness.

The feature match of the night came at 113 where Zach Beck, ranked No. 5 in D-2 in the state, squared off with the Indians' Adam Bruss. Beck had the upper hand in the match, winning by major decision, 10-2.

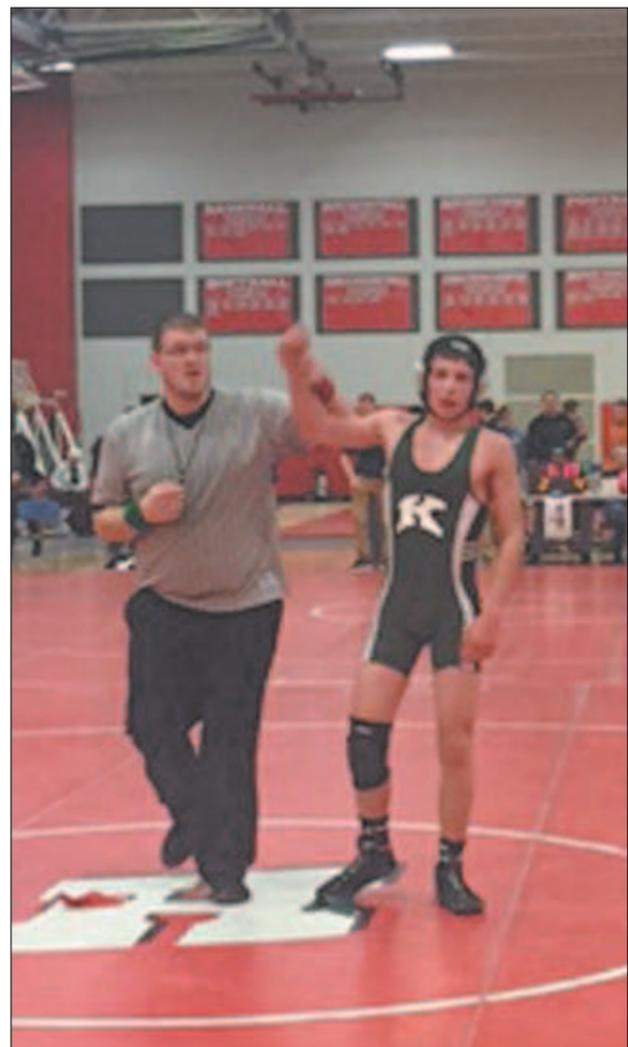

Kewaskum finishes up its dual meet schedule January 19 at Plymouth.

Ripon 34, Kewaskum 28
 126 Braden Maertz pinned Kaden Keenlance, 1:20; 132 Eric Bauer won by major decision over Ryan Cody, 9-1; 138 Alex Deheck pinned Adam Schlehle, 1:21; 145 Tanner Goeman pinned Wilson Agamaite, 3:43; 152 Kyle Bath was pinned by Brady Kissinger, 3:43; 160 Sam Larson def. Joseph Kain, 10-6; 170 Eduardo Padilla lost to Hut Amend, 8-6; 182 Nick Wolf was pinned by Austin Lammers, 0:43; 195 KHS forfeited to Leonardo Rivera; 220 double forfeit; 285 KHS forfeited to Cody Jacobson; 106 Nathaniel Droese dec. Bradley Gabrinski, 6-0; 113 Adam Bruss lost to Zach Beck by major decision 10-2; 120 Alex Butler lost to Ethan Zache 9-7.

The West Bend Wild Volleyball Club 17s team started its season with a first-place finish in the UW-Oshkosh Tournament on January 15th. Area prep athletes on the roster include (from left): Morgan Kappler, Kewaskum High School; Sarah Butschlick, KHS; Mandy Goeman, Campbellsport High School; Amanda Schaller, KHS; and Lizzie Lightner, KHS.

Kewaskum High School student Alex Butler qualifies for the JV State Wrestling Championships on January 7 after participating in sectionals at Homestead High School. Alex pinned his first two opponents. His third match to move into the finals was a tough fought loss, 3-4. His final match resulted in a pin and third place, advancing him to Wausau. State Championships will be held in Wausau on January 21.

Lady Indians Just Miss Chance To Upend KML

By Judy Harlow

In the game of basketball, coaches are always aiming for "signature wins," those wins that come against teams that are traditionally strong.

KHS girls coach Russ Thull just missed getting one for his resume on January 13, losing a heart-breaking 52-50 decision to host Kettle Moraine Lutheran, which isn't in first or second place this season, but is still a powerful upper division team year in and year out and is the East Central's defending champion (14-0).

"The girls played their hearts out ... stayed with a heck of a good team," Thull said about the effort, which featured a battle between the Indians' seniors and the Chargers' depth along with contrasting halves of basketball as the two teams were limited to "teen" scoring in the first half, then exploded for 37 and 33 points in the second.

"We were actually up double digit, like 17-6," Thull said, reporting the Chargers made a little run at the end of the half to narrow the margin to 17-15.

What helped the Indians early was following Thull's game plan to force the Chargers to shoot from outside, and it worked because they were missing.

KHS started out the second half successfully, but then KML had another of its runs to surge ahead 29-22.

"We got ourselves back into it," Thull went on, reporting the Indians were up 35-30 with 8:00 to go and 45-40 with five minutes remaining.

"We had a lot of opportunities" to put the game away, the coach said, but, "We missed some bunnies and had some costly turnovers." Also, KHS made just three of eight free throws down the stretch, which was another factor in determining the outcome.

KML hit two, three-balls late in the game to maintain a slim lead, but, "Hailey HERRIGES hit a long three with seven seconds left, putting the score at 51-50 in KML's favor. Kewaskum quickly fouled one of the Chargers (52-50), giving the Indians one last chance to tie the game or win it. "Mikayla Dogs went the length of the court, but she came up a little short on her shot," Thull said about the shot at the buzzer.

Dogs led the Indians with 17 points. "She's really stepping up her game this year," the coach said, reporting the senior point guard had seven assists, four steals and six rebounds to go with her points for a "complete game."

Hailey HERRIGES was also cited for a good effort, scoring 11 points, hauling down eight rebounds and contributing three assists. "She played tough," Thull said about HERRIGES, adding Maxine Paulowske "had a real nice game," hitting 3x7 three-point goals toward a 12-point effort. Molly Schulteis chipped in with eight points with three assists, four rebounds and a blocked shot.

With the loss, Kewaskum is 6-4 overall and 1-4 in EC play, tied for seventh place with Berlin. KML is 3-2 and in third place in the conference.

After a game at West Bend West on January 17, the Indians come back home January 20 to host Ripon.

The Ultimate Packer Fan Picks – Eight In A Row, Two to Go!

The Green Bay Packers have won eight straight games! They have just two more to go before the celebration of their 14th championship trophy could come back to Lambeau Field.

Can they "run the table"? With the NFC Championship title up for grabs, the Number 2 seed the Atlanta Falcons, (12-5) will host the Number 4 seed, the Green Bay Packers, (12-6) this Sunday, Jan. 22. This will be the last game played at the Georgia Dome. The Falcons will be moving into the new Mercedes Benz stadium next year. Kickoff is scheduled for 2:05 p.m. The winner will move on to Houston to play either the New England Patriots or the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl LI on February 5.

The Packers, coming off an astounding performance against the Dallas Cowboys, are no strangers to the Atlanta Falcons. Earlier this season, back on October 30, the Packers fell to the Fal-

Rodgers' 150th start as quarterback for the Packers. With the win against the Cowboys, the Packers became just the second Number 4 seed in the NFC to beat the Number 1 seed in 11 matchups since the present playoff system was inaugurated back in 1990.

While the Packers are hoping for the return of star receiver Jordy Nelson, the Falcons are looking for a healthy return of their star receiver Julio Jones. Jones has been hampered with a turf toe and Jordy is recovering from broken ribs.

You can expect this game to be a shootout. Both MVP candidates, Rodgers and Ryan have big arms and have nearly identical great stats coming into this game. Look for the Packers defense to come up big containing Matt Ryan.

My "Ultimate Prediction" has the Packers moving on to Houston winning this game big time, 38-30.

cons in a nail biter 33-22. Prior to that, the last meeting between these two was in the 2010 playoffs, Green Bay dominated winning 48-21 and went on to win the Super Bowl in a matchup against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Packers current roster still has nine players remaining with a 2010 Super Bowl ring. The Packers also lead the series over the Falcons 14-10.

Playing against the Cowboys was the most watched playoff game with an estimated 28 million viewers. It was the most viewed sports event since last year's Super Bowl. It was also Aaron

KHS Boys Have Trouble With Rockets' Quickness

By Judy Harlow

Experience and quickness were determining factors in Kewaskum's 67-55 non-conference loss to Cedar Grove on January 13.

The 8-2 Rockets are a senior-dominated team, and they have plenty of quickness as well.

"We just could not defend No. 23 (Reid Hilbelink)," KHS coach Don Gruber said after his team suffered its 10th loss of the season. Hilbelink, a six-foot, two-inch senior guard, poured in a game-high 28 points with many of those points coming on layups or short jump shots. Cedar Grove starts four seniors, and those four combined for 46 points.

Kewaskum led twice in the game at 3-2 and 5-4 before the Rockets went on a 14-6 run to take command. By halftime, the Rockets held a 33-23 lead, but the Indians weren't about to wave any white flags. They cut the deficit to six points on back-to-back baskets by Jordan Carlton, who hit a two-pointer and then a three within 18 seconds, putting the score at 36-30.

After a Rocket miss, Jared Chesak grabbed the rebound, giving the Indians a chance to come closer but here Cedar Grove came up with a steal and a quick pass to Hilbelink, who drove in for an easy layup (38-30).

On their next possession, the Indians got the ball into 6-6 Brady Hanson, but his layup attempt rolled off the rim. Fortunately the Rockets also missed their next attempt, and KHS got a clutch three-pointer by Chesak on the right baseline, and the Indians were within five at 38-33.

Hilbelink answered with a quick basket and then Chesak responded with a drive and a banker, keeping the Indians in the game at 40-35 with 12 and a half minutes to go.

It was here that experience came into play, as the Rockets slowly pulled out to a 10-point advantage, 50-40 with Hilbelink and 6-4 Josh Weis getting key baskets.

Hanson scored nine of his 20 points during a three-minute stretch from 7:44 to 4:05 but each time he scored, the Rockets came back with a basket to maintain a comfortable lead, then three Indians (Brent Goeden, Dan Kreis and Hanson) went to the bench with five fouls, and reserves finished up the game.

"I thought our offense was fine. We worked the ball around and got good shots," Gruber said, indicating sharing the basketball was one of his three goals he had set for the game, along with strong rebounding and not letting the Rockets penetrate.

"We got one out of three," Gruber said. "We shared the ball well. I thought the guys stayed with it," but, "Our defense off the ball was not sufficient."

In addition to Hanson's 20 points on seven of 17 shooting, including 3x6 on three-pointers, Chesak and Carlton each chipped in with 14 points, while Kreis scored four points and Goeden three. KHS hit seven 3-pointers in the contest but only got 18 free throws compared with 37 for the Rockets.

About Chesak's effort, Gruber said, "He played well. He played hard," indicating work on his shooting technique is starting to pay off.

Kewaskum 31, Ripon 71

On January 10, the Indians ran into a stone wall trying to stay with the host Ripon Tigers, who are currently ranked number one among Division-3 teams in the state.

The Indians missed their first 10 shots, including eight by Hanson, and fell behind 22-0 before eventually losing 71-31.

"I told the kids I didn't want them to quit, and they didn't," Gruber said. "We played pretty well in the second half."

Hanson finally scored on a short jumper with nine minutes to go in the first half. That sparked a seven point burst for the Indians, but the veteran Tigers were too much to handle the rest of the way.

Leading Ripon were 6-4 sharpshooter Eddie Muench and 6-8 Bennett Vanderplas, who scored 25 and 19 points, respectively. Vanderplas, who will be going to Ohio University next year, had 13 rebounds, seven assists and six steals, along with two thunderous dunks.

Ripon lost guard Luke Loewe, who transferred to Fond du Lac Goodrich High this year, but in came Melvin Lee, who played his first three seasons at Milwaukee Riverside High before moving to Ripon this year.

Hanson led the Indians with 14 points, and he came up with a two-handed slam midway in the second half after coming up with a steal.

Kreis came alive in the second half and added eight points, mainly on drives to the hoop. After playing Campbellsport on Jan. 17, the Indians are at Berlin Jan. 20.

Current EC standings: 1. Ripon 5-0, 2. Waupun 4-1, 3. (tie) KM Lutheran, Berlin and Campbellsport, 3-2; 6. (tie) Plymouth and Winneconne, 1-4. 8. Kewaskum 0-5.

Holy Trinity Wildcats Roar Into The New Year

A Team Boys Gold:

The Holy Trinity A boys gold team played a thriller against the Washington County Home School Association, losing 38-35. The game was tied at the half 20-20 after the Wildcats rallied to close up an early ten point deficit, and the contest remained tight throughout the second half. WCHSA sealed the victory with a lay-up with time running down. Michael Daniel lead the Wildcats with 27 points, shooting 11-12 from the field (4-4 from three point range) and Dawson Schuetz added eight points and two steals.

A Team Boys Blue:

In a quirky twist of fate the Holy Trinity A blue boys team played the Washington County Home School Association for the third time. Once again WCHSA was too much for them to handle, however this time, the outcome was in doubt until the very last second.

The Wildcats jumped out to a 17-6 lead and used an effective full court man to man press.

"We were able to get a lot of deflections. Deflections lead to steals, steals lead to easy points," said Coach Joel Fleischman. "After the game their coach told me that our players hustled as hard as any team they have played. I was very proud of our effort as usual."

WCHSA crawled back in the game with a 2-3 zone and then switching to an aggressive man to man in the final minutes. The Wildcats were unable to hold the lead in the final minute and ultimately fell 37-34 after a final three point attempt by the Wildcats that fell just a fraction of an inch short.

Sawyer Felton and Luke Baumann were two of the stand out players this week for the Wildcats. Sawyer battled hard on the boards and had a great put back during the course of play. Luke Baumann, always one of the more aggressive defenders on the court, led the team in deflections with six and also had five steals.

A Team Girls:

The A girls came from behind late in the second half to overcome WCHSA. The Lady Wildcats started out the game up 11-4 but then fell behind with great offense from WCHSA. Holy Trinity was able to regain the lead with two minutes remaining and stayed there with great man to man defense as a team, winning 24-22 at the final buzzer.

Brenna Meidl lead the Lady Wildcats with seven points and Natalie Krueger adding six of her own points. Coachs Butschlick and DeRuyter were very proud of how the girls battled back. It was also nice to get Natalie Krueger and Abbey Leiven back in the lineup after injuries early in December.

B Team Boys:

The Holy Trinity boys B team completed a strong start in 2017. Due to the Holiday break and a weather cancellation, the boys hadn't played a game since Dec. 9. Even with the long pause with out any games, the Wildcats didn't skip a beat winning 43-13 over WCSHA Friday night.

The boys then followed up with a third place finish at the Good Shepherd tourney in West Bend over the weekend. Holy Trinity won 40-8 against Salem, lost to the eventual champs, Good Shepherd 39-37, and played their most complete game of the season against a good team, Trinity of Waukesha winning 48-19 in the third place game.

"Playing four games in three days can be a challenge for any team, but the Wildcats relied on great efforts by all ten boys on the roster," according to Holy Trinity coach Chad Cook.

"Donovan Zillmer was a sixth grade highlight film," stated Cook. "Donny made numerous three point baskets and got to the basket and scored too. He's a really tough kid and has a great skill set at this age level."

"Our focus remains simple, we strive to play sound team defense, and offensively we are working to play fast and under control all at the same time. We emphasize seeing the court and making the extra pass, and confidently taking care of the ball all while having a blast playing basketball," explained Cook.

The Wildcats B-team roster is made up of Antoine Coleman, Donovan Zillmer, Noah Schellinger, Luke Graf, Josh Koenig, Alex Vorderbruggen, Ryan Cook, Carson Rolf, Bailey Ralph, and Cale Heinonen.

Holy Trinity is hosting St. Matthew, Campbellsport this Friday, Jan. 20. B girls gold kick off the night at 5:30 p.m., followed by B boys at 6:30 p.m., A girls at 7:30 p.m., and the gold A boys at 8:30 p.m. Come and cheer on the Wildcats.

Holy Trinity's mission is to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to provide a high-quality education, and to guide children in living the Catholic faith. For more information you can visit their website at <http://www.htschool.net/>

Drug-Related Traffic Crashes In Wisconsin Soar, Departments Of Justice And Transportation Co-Sponsor New TV Ad

Last year, 149 people were killed in drug-related traffic crashes in Wisconsin. This is a nearly 200 percent increase over the previous decade, according to Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) statistics.

To help combat this deadly crisis, the Wisconsin Department of Justice (DOJ) and WisDOT have teamed up to produce new TV and radio public service announcements that warn of the dangers of drugged driving.

Premiered at a news conference in Madison, the TV and radio messages are part of DOJ's "Dose of Reality" campaign to combat prescription drug abuse and WisDOT's "Zero In Wisconsin" effort to prevent traffic crashes. The ad, titled, "Drugged Driving," compares the dangers of driving under the influence of prescription drugs to the dangers of driving under the influence of alcohol. The TV spot may be viewed on YouTube.

"The Dose of Reality campaign has been raising awareness about prescription drug abuse and correcting the myths surrounding this epidemic," said Attorney General Brad Schimel. "The myth that prescription drugs are totally safe because they are prescribed by doctors is just not true. The dose of reality is driving under the influence of prescription drugs is just as dangerous as driving under the influence of alcohol. I am grateful for the chance to team up with the Wisconsin Department of Transportation and look forward to working together to prevent injuries and deaths on Wisconsin roads."

WisDOT Secretary Mark Gottlieb said, "In addition to illegal drugs, the overuse and abuse of prescription medications, especially when combined with alcohol, severely impairs driving ability and judgment. Drugged drivers are in grave danger of killing or injuring themselves and innocent victims. Law enforcement officers have extensive training and experience in identifying drivers impaired by alcohol and use many of those same procedures to identify drugged drivers. With our collaboration with the Wisconsin Department of Justice, we are striving to prevent drugged driving through effective education and enforcement efforts."

DOJ and WisDOT advise everyone to be aware of the following points regarding prescription drug abuse and drugged driving:

- The serious legal and financial penalties for a drugged driving arrest are the same as drunken driving arrests.
- Do not mix drugs and alcohol.
- Report impaired drivers to law enforcement by calling 911.
- Take prescription medications only as prescribed to you.
- Store prescription medications safely and securely.
- Dispose of unused prescriptions properly and promptly.

- Heed the warning labels on prescription drugs and over-the-counter remedies about the drugs' effects on driving.
 - Four out of five heroin addicts started with the abuse of prescription pain killers.
 - More than 70 percent of people abusing painkillers get them through friends or relatives.
- Prescription painkillers are involved with more overdose deaths than heroin and cocaine combined.

The Skin Cancer Foundation Shares Three Ways To Lower Your Skin Cancer Risk In 2017

— Make Everyday Sun Safety Your New Year's Resolution

The beginning of a new year is typically when people assess their health and vow to improve their well-being. Resolving to take better care of your skin is a great place to start: after all, it is the body's largest organ. Even though skin cancer is the world's most common cancer — one in five Americans will develop the disease — it is also highly preventable.

"Skin cancer is mainly a behavioral disease and it is strongly linked to sun exposure - about 90 percent of nonmelanoma skin cancers are associated with ultraviolet rays from the sun," said Deborah S. Sarnoff, MD, president of The Skin Cancer Foundation. "Proper sun protection should be a priority year-round because UV rays are present every day, even when it's cold or overcast."

The Skin Cancer Foundation recommends three critical steps to take in 2017 to help lower skin cancer risk.

1. Cover Up

Clothing is the best defense against skin cancer, and the more skin you can cover, the better. But not all clothing is created equally: tight-knit fabrics (like denim) and synthetic materials (like polyester) offer better sun protection than loosely-woven fabrics and natural materials.

Wear a broad-brimmed hat to protect your face, head and neck. To protect your eyes and the sensitive skin around them, wear UV-blocking sunglasses.

2. Use Sunscreen Every Day

Studies have shown that daily use of an SPF (sun protection factor) 15 or higher sunscreen reduces the risk of developing melanoma by 50 percent. Sunscreens come in many formulas — including sprays, lotions and oils — so everyone can find one that fits their lifestyle. For daily use, choose a broad-spectrum sunscreen with an SPF of 15 or higher. For extended outdoor activity, choose a water-resistant, broad-spectrum formula with an SPF of 30 or higher.

Apply one ounce of sunscreen to your body 30 minutes before going outside and reapply every two hours or immediately after swimming or sweating. When sunscreen shopping, look for The Skin Cancer Foundation's Seal of Recommendation, which assures consumers that a sun protection product performs as its label claims.

3. Check in With Your Skin

Skin cancers can be disfiguring and even deadly if allowed to progress. That's why early detection is so important — skin cancer is very treatable if detected in its early stages. However, the five-year survival rate for patients whose melanoma has spread to distant organs is only 17 percent. If detected early, before the cancer has spread, the survival rate jumps to 98 percent.

The Skin Cancer Foundation recommends examining your skin from head-to-toe monthly, and seeing a dermatologist once a year for a professional skin exam. If you spot anything new or changing, make an appointment to see your doctor right away.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

January 19, 2017

GREAT GARLIC BREAD

makes about 8 servings

Adapted from www.allrecipes.com

INGREDIENTS

- 1/2 cup butter
- 1 1/2 tablespoons garlic powder
- 1 tablespoon dried parsley
- 1 (1 lb.) loaf Italian bread, cut into 1/2 in. slice
- 1 (8 oz.) pkg. shredded mozzarella cheese

DIRECTIONS

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C). In a small saucepan over medium heat, melt butter and mix with garlic powder and dried parsley. Place Italian bread on a medium baking sheet. Using a basting brush, brush generously with the butter mixture. Bake in the preheated oven approximately 10 minutes, until lightly toasted. Remove from heat. Sprinkle with mozzarella cheese and any remaining butter mixture. Return to oven approximately 5 minutes, or until cheese is melted and bread is lightly browned.

VOTING BY ABSENTEE BALLOT

Any qualified elector who is unable or unwilling to appear at the polling place on Election Day may request to vote an absentee ballot. A qualified elector is any U.S. citizen, who will be 18 years of age or older on Election Day, who has resided in the ward or municipality where he or she wishes to vote for at least 10 consecutive days before the election. The elector must also be registered in order to receive an absentee ballot. Proof of identification must be provided before an absentee ballot may be issued.

You must make a request for an absentee ballot in writing.

Contact your municipal clerk and request that an application for an absentee ballot be sent to you for the primary or election or both. You may also submit a written request in the form of a letter. Your written request must list your voting address within the municipality where you wish to vote, the address where the absentee ballot should be sent, if different, and your signature. You may make application for an absentee ballot by mail, email or in person.

Making application to receive an absentee ballot by mail

The deadline for making application to receive an absentee ballot by mail is: 5 p.m. on Thursday, February 16, 2017.

Note: Special absentee voting application provisions apply to electors who are indefinitely confined to home or a care facility, in the military, hospitalized, or serving as a sequestered juror. If this applies to you, contact the municipal clerk regarding deadlines for requesting and submitting an absentee ballot.

Voting an absentee ballot in person

You may also request and vote an absentee ballot in the clerk's office or other specified location during the days and hours specified for casting an absentee ballot in person.
