Fire Destroys Kewaskum Apartment Complex — Residents Evacuated Safely

By Anne Trautner

Residents living at the apartment complex at 222 Braatz Drive lost their homes after fire broke out in their apartment building on Friday, Feb. 10.

Seven of the eight apartments were occupied, but all residents were evacuated safely from the building.

One Kewaskum firefighter suffered a serious medical condition on scene and was transported to Froedtert Hospital in Milwaukee. Another Kewaskum firefighter was treated on scene for smoke inhalation.

Some of the pets living in the building did not survive. Two cats were found alive after the fire was extinguished and multiple cats were killed, Kewaskum Police Chief Tom Bishop said.

The fire originated in Apartment 7. Two sisters living in that apartment heard a noise coming from a bedroom.

"We heard popping and knew it didn't sound right. We opened the door, and oh my God," said one of women, who did not want to be identified.

Flames spread through the room almost instantly, the woman said.

"It just all happened so quick," said her sister, who has lived in the apartment for 13 years.

No smoke detectors sounded in that apartment.

The Kewaskum Fire Department was notified of the fire at about 7:36 p.m.

Kewaskum Firefighter Shawn Pritchard, Washington County Deputy Medical Examiner Craig Garbisch and Kewaskum Police Officer Kevin Kohn were the first on scene.

"They ran into the building with fire extinguishers prior to the fire departments' arrival in an attempt to put out the fire. Realizing they could not put the fire out, they managed to get everyone out of the apartment building quickly and safely. Thanks to their quick actions, none of the residents were injured in the fire," Bishop said.

Community Unites To Help Fire Victims

By Anne Trautner

Residents fled from their fire-engulfed homes in the apartment building at 222 Braatz Drive in Kewaskum Friday night, some of them wearing no coats or shoes.

They stood next to the snow-covered lawn and watched the building and all their possessions burn.

"There was not a lot you could do. We just watched," said John Osowski, whose girlfriend lived in one of the building's eight apartments.

Immediately, crowds of people from the community gathered around the displaced residents, ready to help.

"It was really impressive," Osowski said. "They brought cat carriers, coats and shoes."

Seven of the eight apartments in the building were occupied.

Residents ranged in age from infants to adults.

The Red Cross was in contact with the residents Friday night and was able to make sure they all had a place to stay.

Many neighbors offered shelter and warmth as well. Kewaskum School District was ready to open one of the schools to provide a place for the families to stay if needed.

Drugs Hidden In Plain Sight

By Anne Trautner

At ages 9, 6 and 4, Brent and Elizabeth Krueger's children are still young.

"We would like to learn one or two things before they are teenagers," Brent Krueger said.

To do that, the Kruegers attended the Heroin Highway Lecture Series at Moraine Park Technical College (MPTC) last Thursday.

"This is probably the coolest thing I've been to," said Elizabeth Krueger as she ransacked a makeshift teenager's room looking for clues of drug or alcohol use.

She found some bottles of alcohol stashed away under the bed. And there were some drugs stuffed inside a teddy bear.

Some of the things were surprises. A belt and shoelace were things the teen could use as a tourniquet to shoot up. A bottle of vanilla extract was something the teen could drink to get buzzed.

County Board Votes Down Northern Hartford Reliever Route

– Route Will Not Go Through Farmland Or St. Lawrence

By Anne Trautner

Melissa Kratz, who chaired the “No Reliever Route” campaign in Washington County, is able to relax for the first time in about a year.

“Logic prevails at the County Board,” Kratz said.

After about 12 months of trying to come up with an alternate reliever route plan for the City of Hartford, on Tuesday, Washington County supervisors voted 13-11 against a resolution to amend the 2050 Regional Transportation plan.

With the vote, the County Board decided that truck traffic should not be rerouted north of the City of Hartford, along Highway K and through historic St. Lawrence.

It is something that many residents were relieved to hear.

“We were doing high fives in the hallway. It’s spectacular,” Kratz said.

Angie Loosen, who lives on a farm just south of St. Lawrence, is one of the people who is ecstatic about Tuesday’s decision.

“They would have been taking away land and personal property from people who live on this proposed route,” Loosen said.

No homes or buildings would have been taken down with the proposed reliever route plan.

However, 52.6 acres of farmland will be impacted. That number includes a stretch of 70 feet of land on the side of the road that would have been purchased to create new ditches and then be returned to the property owners.

A total of nine parcels of farm fields would be divided to create the new road.

Highway 60, which is the busiest state highway in Washington County, is currently exceeding its designed capacity around the Hartford area, County Administrator Joshua Schoemann said. The new reliever route would have brought traffic north of Hartford onto County K and through the towns of Addison, Hartford and St. Lawrence.

“If we don’t do this, we are essentially cutting off the City of Hartford and jeopardizing to some degree the growth in the Village of Slinger, because transportation is the lifeblood of economic growth and vitality,” Schoemann said prior to Tuesday’s vote.

However, Loosen and members of the “No Reliever Route” group thought it was a bad plan.

“We feel there are so many things that haven’t been thought out or taken into consideration. They say they want to grow this in the Hartford Industrial Park, but in the meantime they are taking away from other businesses, and those are your farms as well as small businesses that are along that route. It’s going to change those businesses drastically as well. It kind of flies in the face of farmers. It’s heart-breaking,” Loosen said.

To improve safety on the route, the county had proposed that a four-way stop be added to the corner of K and 175 in St. Lawrence. In addition, the county was looking into the possibility of lowering the speed limit from 35 mph to 25 mph as traffic goes through St. Lawrence, Schoemann said.

Still, neighbors were worried about the traffic.

About 200 people had crowded into the Hartford Town Hall for a listening session on Tuesday, Jan. 3, wanting to voice their opposition against the proposed reliever route. County staff and engineers from K. Singh provided an overview of the project at the session.

When not all attendees were not allowed to speak at the January listening session, they were afraid their opinions were not heard. Many wrote comments to the county board.

“I do not want the reliever route through St. Lawrence. I live there because of the quiet, quaint historic atmosphere. I love walking my grandchildren across Highway K to tour the local implement shop, the cemetery to learn about past pioneers and the history of the town. I need this crossing of Highway K and 175 to be safe,” Elizabeth Weninger wrote to the county.

“I am greatly concerned about the safety for myself as a farmer needing to cross the reliever route several times just to get to my fields, since my farm will be broken into smaller sections and bisected by the route,” Curtiss Becker wrote to county officials.

With this week’s vote, supervisors showed they had listened to those opinions.

The cost of building the reliever route would have been about $24 million.

“A lot of people think it is just a Town of Hartford issue, but it is a county issue because we all would have to pay for it,” Loosen said. “It doesn’t make any sense because we keep reading in the newspapers that we don’t have the money to take care of the roads we have now.”

Schoemann had asked the City of Hartford to pay for a quarter of the project.

In addition, the state had told the county there would be some compensation for the project, but had not been willing to commit to how much it will pay, Schoemann said.

Even though the county is not going forward with the proposed reliever route, it plans to resurface two segments of the road. Part of the road, which has a construction cost of $4.4 million was to be repaved by 2019, and another segment, which carries a construction cost about $5.2 million, was to be totally repaved in the next 15 years, Schoemann said.

With Tuesday’s vote, the county’s plan for a reliever route around the Hartford remains going south of the city and along Arthur Road.

That plan has been in place since 2005, when a study tried to analyze what would be the best route to relieve truck traffic from Highway 60, Schoemann said. That plan was adopted as part of the 2035 Southeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission (SEWRPC) Regional Transportation Plan.

However, in 2005, the county board did not approve funding the engineering of that southern reliever route, and nothing has been done with it since, Schoemann said.

Part of the push to create a reliever route comes from projected population growth. If the county’s population increases as projected, the impact on property taxes for the project could be minimal.

A SEWRPC study projects that the population for Washington County will reach 157,300 by the year 2035. According to the U.S. census, 132,739 people lived in the county in 2013.

The City of Hartford, which currently is home to about 14,000 people, plans to grow its population by another 5,000 people in the next five years, Schoemann said. Neighboring Slinger is looking at developing industrial property.

“If that kind of growth happens, and we have 5,000 more people, how are we going to serve them if we don’t have this kind of thing in place? It’s about solving a problem,” Schoemann said.

Kratz will be watching what happens next.

“This is one of those things you always have to be on your heels about,” she said.

Weekly HEALTH TIP

WHEN DINING OUT, CHOOSE WISELY

Your environment may influence your eating habits, especially when dining out, according to two recent studies. One study looked at whether a room's being quiet and organized vs. cluttered, noisy and chaotic affected how much people ate. The participants in the out-of-control setting ate more than those in the quiet kitchen. In another study, the size of the server seemed to influence what diners ordered. They tended to order more food, especially dessert and alcohol if their waiter was overweight compared to when the server was thin. To counteract these factors, decided ahead of time what and how much you will order and stick to the plan.

Salem United Church Of Christ In Wayne Holds Special Celebration

The public is invited to Salem United Church of Christ in Wayne for a special celebration of music with the next two Sundays at 9 a.m.

Enjoy toe-tapping music at a Polka Worship on February 19, with Christian hymns set to popular beer hall and waltz music in the spirit of

Martin Luther, the Roman Catholic monk who sparked the Reformation and the beginnings of Protestantism 500 years ago this year. Among other things, Luther was known for writing hymns using folk music and other popular tunes of the day. On February 26 Salem congregation will worship with "Oldies but Goodies," well-loved hymns from days gone by. Salem United Church of Christ is located in Wayne, just north of the intersection of Highways W and H/Mohawk Rd. No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome at Salem United Church of Christ!

Farmington Elementary School students participate in a "Sign-A-Board" community service project to support Washington/Dodge County Habitat for Humanity. FES families responded enthusiastically and generously, raising $500. They purchased a board for each class to decorate and sign, as well as the 6,525 nails needed to build a Habitat for Humanity home, and still had some money left over to purchase other materials and supplies needed for the project.

JUST FOR THE HEALTH OF IT: WELL WASHINGTON COUNTY

Making Washington County A Healthy Place To Live, Work, And Play

When you think of a health community, what comes to mind? Does it involve having access to safe places to exercise or areas where your kids can play? Maybe it's making sure you and your family can purchase healthy foods at a reasonable price or reducing the alcohol, tobacco and drug use among our residents.

Whatever it may be, Well Washington County, the Washington County Health Coalition, was formed with the purpose to mobilize residents, organizations, employers and stakeholders to reduce the major health needs of Washington County.

Well Washington County formed four action teams focused on physical activity & nutrition, alcohol, tobacco & other drugs, mental health and workplace wellness to address these health priorities. Some examples of initiatives for each action team include:

Eat & Move Well Initiatives: Harvest of the Month, Bike Month, active parks, and getting more opportunities to bike and walk throughout Washington County.

Choose Well Initiatives: Hidden in Plain Sight, Heroin/Opiate Toolkit, workplace presentations, legislative breakfast, opiate diversion programs, and alcohol outlet environmental scan.

Think Well Initiatives: mental health friendly community movement, seeking more funding for mental health and expanding our peer support network.

Work Well Network: a network for employers to share best practices around workplace wellness and implement community initiatives.

Coalition partners encourage anyone who is interested in being part of Well Washington County to get involved. Here is a list of upcoming action team meetings.

•Choose Well (Alcohol, Tobacco & Other Drugs) Prevention Network, Thursday, Feb. 16, 8:30 a.m. - 10 a.m. at Elevate; Heroin Task Force, Thursday, March 16, 9 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. at the Public Agency Center 3224.

•Think Well (Mental Health), Wednesday, March 22, 8 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. at St. Joe's Hospital, room A.

•Eat & Move Well (Nutrition & Physical Activity), Thursday, March 9, 2 p.m. - 3 p.m., conference call.

•Workplace Wellness Action Team, Monday, March 20, 2 p.m. - 3 p.m. conference call.

Mayville Lions Club Winter Dance

The Mayville Lions Club is sponsoring a Winter Dance on Saturday, Feb. 25, from 1:00 to 5:00 at the Mayville Park Pavilion.

With the beautiful hardwood floor overlooking the Rock River, the Mayville Pavilion offers a great atmosphere for the young and the old alike to enjoy.

Food and beverages are available for purchase, and the building is handicap accessible. The dances at the Pavilion have become a destination for friends to gather and socialize on a Saturday afternoon.

This year the Myrhum-Patten-Miller-Kietzer Funeral & Cremation Services support the Mayville Lions Club Winter Dance featuring The Julida Boys from West Bend. The Julida Boys who have played together over 50 years. The Julida Boys have a collection of classic country swing, '60s and '70s rock and roll, along with slow and easy ballads.

The Julida Boys were founded in 1963 by Allen Bales, manager, trumpet and keyboard player; along with Mike Noegel, concertina, button box, guitar and lead vocals; Jerry Halkoski, who pumps out unique accordion riffs with runs and bellow shakes; Rick Leissring, providing rich harmonic accompaniment to the trumpet section along with a smooth vocal harmony; Roger Mertz, bass guitar, tuba and vocal harmony; and finally Leo Kalisz, providing the sensational rhythm as the band's dynamic drummer.

In January 2014, the International Polka Association presented a plaque to The Julida Boys, recognizing the band's longevity and dedication of 50 years of entertaining from 1963 to 2013.

The Julida Boys play for weddings, public dances and festivals. Call Allen Bales at 262-338-1202 or email balesallen@yahoo.com.

Mayville Lions Club along with The Friends of Mayville Public Library are sponsoring dances throughout the spring.

The next scheduled dances are: March 4 - Mark Jirikovec; March 11 - Charlie Justman Band; March 25 - Hauser Hotshots; April 1 - Ryan Herman & The Rhythm Playboys; April 8 - Musical Becky & The Ivanhoe Dutchmen; and June 3 - Brian & The Mississippi Valley Dutchmen.

Little Folks School House

Little Folks School House is owned by Dodie Sargent. She brings 33 years of experience, receiving her training at U.N.H. and UW-Milwaukee. The Assistant Director, Jennifer Melzark has 16 years in the field and received her training at Marian College. Along with Dodie and Jennifer are 23 employees.

Little Folks is rated 5 stars by the Wisconsin Youngstar program and Nationally Accredited. The majority of the teachers have two or four year degrees and are dedicated to providing quality childcare.

Dodie provided licensed family childcare from 1983-1997 and opened the group center (Little Folks School House) in 1997 in the Town of Wayne. After outgrowing the Wayne building, they built a bigger center in Kewaskum which opened in 2006. There are five classrooms, three age separated fenced playgrounds, a coded secured entry and camera monitored classrooms. They also provide before and after school care at Little Folks and Kewaskum Elementary School. Little Folks also serves as a teaching center for Moraine Park Technical College. Students are placed with them every semester for their practicum experience where the Little Folks teachers mentor them.

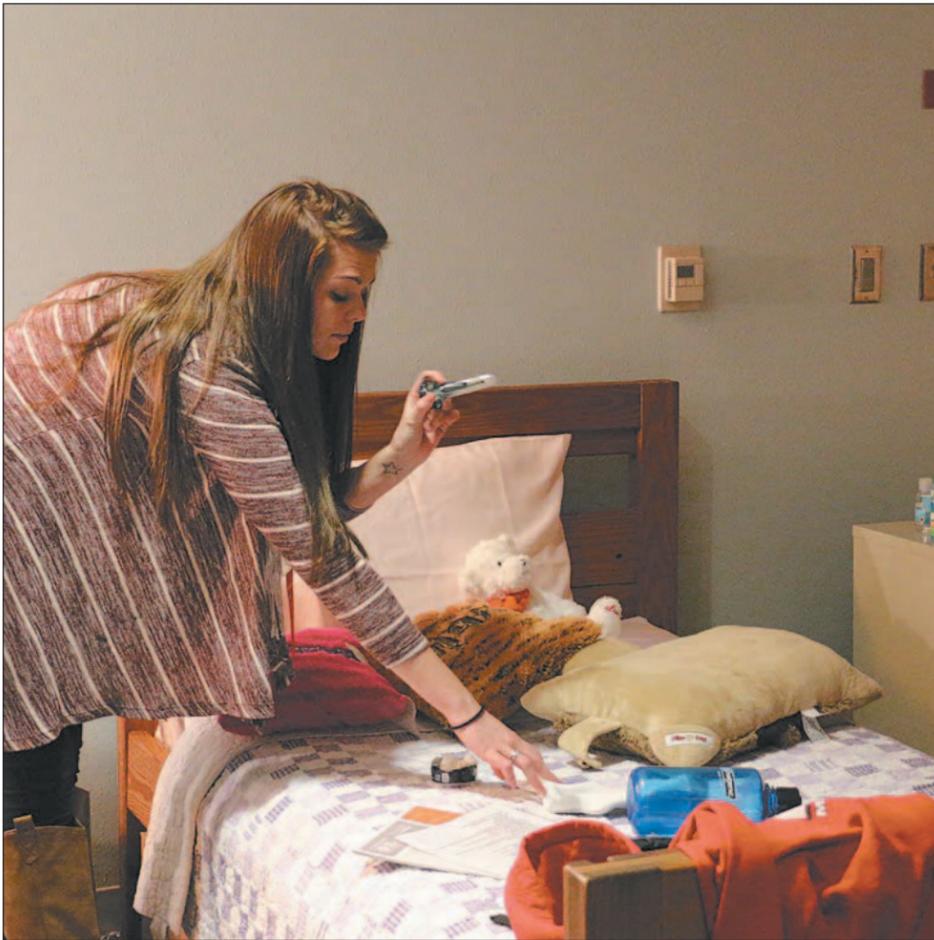

Little Folks strives to form working partnerships with families. They respect the parent's insights and concerns and want them to feel comfortable leaving their children in their care, knowing they will be safe and nurtured as they help to develop and grow.

And there were telltale signs of drug use, like razor scratches on a CD case.

The room was an interactive exhibit entitled "Hidden in Plain Sight." Set up at MPTC, the display educates the public about drug and alcohol abuse.

"Throughout the room are things that you might find in a kid's room that make you believe they are into some kind of alcohol or any kind of drug. There are some noticeable ones. Most of them are very surprising," said Beth Kottke, a nursing student at MPTC.

In all, there are more than 59 items that could signal potential drug or alcohol use.

Some of the items are hidden, but many were out in the open. The purpose is to show where teens may hide drugs, alcohol and other paraphernalia.

The display also points out household items that can be used to either cover up drug and alcohol abuse or can be used to facilitate drug and alcohol use. The purpose of the program is to educate family and caregivers about the signs that can be an indicator of drug abuse.

Guided tours of the exhibit bedroom are held on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and on Thursdays from 5 to 8 p.m. through February 23.

It is free to attend and open to everyone 18 and older. The exhibit is located next to the MPTC Library at the West Bend Campus.

As part of the exhibit, a five-part lecture series began on January 26. Lectures are held on Thursdays from 6 to 7 p.m. through February 23.

The project is presented by the Rotary Club of West Bend, the Washington County Heroin Task Force, Elevate and Moraine Park Technical College.

For more information on Hidden in Plain Sight or the Heroin Highway Lecture Series topics, visit www.facebook.com/hiddeninplainsightwb.

Alanna Schramm, Suzi Neitzke and Tina Perry read the stories of local families at the "Hidden In Plain Sight" exhibit at Moraine Park Technical College. The exhibit runs through February 23.

The Kewaskum Fire Department was assisted by the following departments: West Bend Fire Department, Campbellsport Fire Department, Kohlsville Fire Department, Newburg Fire Department, Boltonville Fire Department and an Engine Company from Fillmore Fire Department to stand by at Kewaskum's Fire Station.

The fire was brought under control after three hours and firefighters were on scene for approximately four hours. Substantial fire and water damage occurred to all of the eight units in the building, which was owned by Bezold LLC. The cause of the fire remained under investigation at press time.

Firefighters battle a blaze at the apartment complex at 222 Braatz Drive in Kewaskum on Friday, Feb. 10. All eight units in the building suffered extensive water and fire damage.

"We want to say thanks to the community for coming out to help. There were lots of people we didn't even know who reached to help us, and that was very touching," said one of the displaced residents. "There were people we've never seen before in our lives. The community was pretty fantastic. The people came out from everywhere just to help," another resident said. The fire victims extended their appreciation to the Red Cross and to all the fire departments and emergency personnel who responded to the crisis. Area businesses and schools took up collections to provide the families with clothing and supplies. On Saturday night, during the boys Kewaskum High School varsity basketball game against Campbellsport, $700 was collected for the families affected by the fire. At Monday night's school board meeting, the Kewaskum School Board members pledged to match that $700 with their own money.

The Kewaskum Food Pantry is providing nonperishable as well as perishable food items for the families. For those who would like to help the families, monetary donations (cash, checks or gift cards) are being accepted at Geidel's Piggly Wiggly, the Kewaskum Westbury Bank and all Kewaskum School District school offices until Friday, Feb. 24. All monetary donations will be equally distributed to the affected families that have a need.

Four Wrestlers Advance; Sectionals Are Next

By Judy Harlow

Realistically, the Kewaskum High wrestling team has no chance at challenging for the D-2 Campbellsport regional crown held on February 11, but coach Scott Rhodes was figuring he might have at least six advance to next week's sectional action.

A couple of close losses cut that number down to four, two champions and two second-place finishers.

Sophomore Eric Bauer maintained his unbeaten record and added three more wins to claim the 132-pound title, while freshman Braden Maertz was a winner at 126 pounds.

The runners-up were Adam Bruss at 112 and Alex Deheck at 138.

As expected, Lomira won the team title with 264.5 points, 60 ahead of Ripon, which came in with 204.5. Campbellsport didn't have the day it expected, placing third with 170, followed in order by Kewaskum, 147.0; North Fond du Lac/St. Mary's Springs, 119.5; Waupun, 89.0; and Mayville, 53.

Lomira advances 11, while Ripon has six, and then came Kewaskum and Campbellsport with four each.

There were just five wrestlers at 132 pounds, but three of them had 30 or more wins. Bauer started out with a bye, then pinned Costa Calarco of Lomira in 1:55 and disposed of Ripon junior Ryan Cody (32-11) 6-1 in the finals.

"He was the same kid he had at conference in the finals," Rhodes said about Bauer, who takes a mark of 33-0 into the sectional. "He (Cody) is a very funky wrestler ... almost double jointed. He's one of the few kids Eric hasn't put on his back this season."

Maertz continues to handle himself like a seasoned wrestler, posting an 11-4 win over Abraham Giebel of North Fondy/St. Mary's in the semis and then shutting out Jon Stucke (24-14) 7-0 in the finals.

Maertz had beaten Stucke in a dual meet early in the year. "It was about the same. I beat him by seven (points) each time," Maertz said, reporting the score was 2-0 going into the third period when, "I escaped and took him down, and then I got a two-point near fall. He started to scream like he was hurt, so they (stopped the match and) gave me another point."

Maertz likes his chances of getting to state. "I think they're pretty good if I keep wrestling like I have been."

With these two wins and the first-round bye, Maertz brings his season record to 30-3. Concerning his opponents in the sectional, Maertz said, "I have no clue. I don't look at that stuff. I prefer not to."

"He had a good day," Rhoads said of Maertz, adding, like Bauer, "didn't have much of a struggle either."

The Indians finishing second were junior Adam Bruss at 113 and Alex Deheck at 138. Bruss received a bye in the first round, then pinned Alex Gundrum of Lomira in the semis in 3:32, earning him a berth in the finals vs. Ripon's Zachary Beck (38-5), who is ranked in the top 10 of Division 2 athletes. Beck got the win, via pin in 5:12.

Bruss still received the second place because he had already beaten Gundrum, who took third.

Deheck, the top seed at 138, needed just 1:45 to dispose of Adam Schlehlein of Ripon after receiving a bye in the first round. In the finals, he had second-seeded Ryan Riedel of Lomira and ended up losing a 6-5 decision.

"He (Deheck) was winning by a point in the third period and trying to find a way to make it through," Rhoads said, reporting, "He went in on the legs, and the guy (Riedel) stepped back and landed right behind him" for the winning takedown.

Deheck also received the second place by rule because he had already beaten Schlehlein.

Sophomore Nathaniel Droese's season ended in heart-break. The second-seeded Droese had a bye and a pin to reach the finals where he was pinned by Lomira senior Tyler Garriety (35-5) in 3:53.

In the wrestleback, Droese lost to Ripon's Bradley Gabrielski, who he had beaten in the East Central finals. This time the score was 8-6 in Gabrielski's favor.

The score was 6-6 near the end of the match, and Rhoads said, "He (Droese) was going for a takedown when 'the kid scored on him.'"

At 145, Tanner Goeman's (23-15) season ended with an 11-5 loss to Colin Saegert of Ripon in the semis after opening with an 11-0 major decision. Goeman won his first wrestleback, 11-0 over a Mayville wrestler but did not get a chance for second because Saegert lost in the finals.

"He (Goeman) was behind the whole match, but he was coming back," Rhoads said.

Mason Pomeroy (23-15) had a similar scenario, losing to the eventual runner-up in the semis and eventually not getting a wrestleback.

Kewaskum's other three wrestlers finished as follows: Sam Larson (21-17), fourth at 152, going 1-2 on the day, while Eddie Padilla (16-22) lost his first match at 160 and eventually took fifth place; and freshman Reagan Dricken went 0-2 at 170.

The Indian qualifiers will be at Milwaukee Lutheran Saturday for sectionals, along with 1-2 finishers from Sheboygan Falls, Valders and Big Foot. The first, second and third place finishers advance to the WIAA State Individual Wrestling Tournament.

In the first round, Bruss will face Lucas Nygaard of Wisconsin Lutheran (25-12), Maertz is pitted against Jared Zeimentz (26-11) of Delavan-Darien; Bauer goes up against Keith Gigger (10-12) of Milwaukee Lutheran and Deheck has drawn Max Ward (35-2) of Elkhart Lake/Howards Grove.

"For sectionals, it looks good. Everybody got a good, first-round draw," Rhoads said, adding he thinks all of them are capable of getting to state.

Bowlers Are On A Roll, Head To State For Third Straight Year

By Judy Harlow

"Three-peat, three-peat" of the cheer of the the Kewaskum High girls bowling team, which has earned the right to compete in the Wisconsin High School Bowling Club State Tournament for the third year in a row.

Kewaskum easily topped four other schools in the District 2 Division 2 sectional competition, which was held at the Harbor Hills Lanes in Port Washington on February 5.

After 12 rounds of qualifying, the Lady Indians were first with a total of 1,921 pins. "We were 70 pins ahead of West Bend West, KHS coach Pat Janesch said, adding, "Mikayla Bigelow led our team with the most strikes and spares."

In bracket matches, the Lady Indians defeated Slinger and West Bend

East.

Along with Bigelow, others heading for state are Brianna Mielke, Allison Thill, Mindy Janesch and Terrah Phillips. Janesch reported one of the girls had a 212 game in the sectional, and the other high scores were a 195, 193 and 185. Their average in the 12 rounds was a 160.

The state tournament will be held Friday through Sunday, March 3-4-5 at the AMF Bowlero Lanes on 117th and Burleigh St. in Wauwatosa.

"Our girls team is actually scheduled to go at 7 p.m. on Friday night March 3," Janesch said, explaining there are traditionally 12 or 13 teams at state, and the first round consists of each team taking the cumulative score from 15 games.

The winner of that first round automatically goes to the step ladder finals, and the other four teams battle it out to see which one will meet the top qualifier in the finals. The No. 4 and 5 teams face off first, with the winner moving ahead to face the team in third place, and so on.

When Kewaskum qualified for state in 2015, the Lady Indians placed 10th and a year ago, they moved up to the seventh spot. Janesch is confident they will do even better this year.

"I think so," the coach said. "The girls did a really good job this season when it counted. I hope we will do really well."

Janesch also reported the senior Mielke was recently named to the all-conference second team for the South Division. The first and second teams are picked on the bases of their top fill percentages.

Kewaskum Indians To Host Round One Game

The Kewaskum High girls basketball team will host West Bend East in the first game of this year's Division 2 regional. The game will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 21, beginning at 7 p.m.

The Indians, currently 10-10 were awarded the seventh seed and East, 1-19, was No. 10 at a recent meeting of the 11 coaches involved. The winner of the game will travel to Plymouth to take on the second-seeded Panthers in a second-round game on Friday, Feb. 24.

Kewaskum and East played earlier this season with the Indians prevailing 50-41.

After Win Over Omro, Indians Are Outmatched By KML

By Judy Harlow

The good news was the Kewaskum High boys basketball team had its lowest turnover total (nine) of the year in its game against host Kettle Moraine Lutheran on February 9.

The bad news was the Indians forgot about boxing out on defense, giving KML two and three chances at scoring on several possessions. The Chargers took advantage of these situations and wound up with a 63-46 win over the Indians.

Kewaskum fell behind by 13 at half, 33-20 and really never recovered. KML had seven players score in the first 16 minutes, while the Indians struggled shooting from the floor and at the free throw line, where they converted just four of 11 free throws. Another glaring statistic was KML's 24-11 rebounding advantage in the opening half.

"We were playing uphill all the way," KHS coach Don Gruber said. "They missed as many shots at we did, just they got three times the rebounds. You've got to box their kids out, and we didn't."

After the break, the closest the Indians came was 47-34 after Carlton hit a shot from beyond the arc. Andrew May, a 6-4 junior forward who wound up with 14 points, answered with a 14-foot jumper and Joey Behm, who led KML with 17, hit a 3-pointer to go back out front by 18.

KHS was led by Brady Hanson's 19 points, while Jared Chesak and Carlton added 10 and nine, respectively. Carlton had an off-night shooting. "Jordan had three or four good looks at the basket. Normally he makes those," Gruber said.

Two nights before, the Indians jumped out to a 23-9 lead over visiting Omro midway in the first half but needed a late charge to hold off the Foxes 67-59 in a non-conference game played at Kewaskum.

The win, the Indians' third of the year, was sparked by the offensive performances of Brady Hanson and Jordan Carlton, who both poured in 26 points. Game scoring honors went to one of the Wolves (6-8), however, as 6-1 senior guard Derek Schoeni hit 27.

"We had a good lead. The boys lost it, and they came back again," Gruber said of his players. "I like these close games. It gives the guys confidence."

Carlton had a spurt where he scored nine straight points on old fashioned three-point plays, driving in for the basket while getting fouled. The last one was quite a display of body control as he was off balance when he converted the shot.

"Jordan was hot, so we ran a lot of 1-4 low (plays)," Gruber said, praising Jared Chesak for his good passing and rebounding.

There were a few scary moments down the stretch for the Indians. One came with 3:00 remaining and KHS holding a 59-51 lead. First, Schoeni hit a 3-point basket, and at the same time, an official called a foul on the Indians, giving Andrew Johnson a 1-and-1 at the line. He made both free throws for a five-point play and just like that, the lead was cut to three (59-56).

Then, with :39 left and the Indians lined up to inbound the ball from half court, one ref noticed blood on Hanson's hand, probably from catching the rim on the second of his two dunks. A time out was called while the trainer tended to the wound, but the first 60 second time out was winding down, so Gruber had to use another.

"I had to take two time-outs or they would call a 'T' (technical) on me," the coach said. Hanson returned, and the Indians used late free throws to increase their three-point lead to an eight-point advantage.

Walsh And Company Too Much For Indians

By Judy Harlow

There are several good "big men" in the East Central Conference this season, including Ripon's Bennett Vander Plas, Marcus Domask of Waupun, Campbellsport's Koy Walsh and Brady Hanson of Kewaskum. The latter two squared off February 10, with Walsh and his Cougar teammates having the better of things in their first of two meetings. Walsh hit an even 20 points, hauled down 10 rebounds and blocked three shots toward a 45-32 victory.

Hanson countered with 15 points but missed at least 11 shots and had difficulty stopping Walsh, who scored on him several times on drives and baseline jumpers.

"Tonight we had too many turnovers, way too many," KHS coach Don Gruber said, adding, "Campbellsport is very, very quick and we kind of got out of our rhythm a little bit."

The host Indians led 12-11 after Hanson hit a turnaround jumper with 8:46 remaining in the first half, and then the Cougars went on a 12-0 run with Koy Walsh scoring a basket, younger brother, Kade, hitting a three for his only points of the game, and Trevor Ramthun driving in for a basket, making the score 18-12.

The run continued with Koy Walsh swishing a long three-pointer and on the Cougar's next possession, driving in for a layup.

During the drought, KHS missed four shots, got whistled for an offensive foul, had a bad pass and was the victim of one steal. Finally, Jon Heus drove the baseline for a layup with 4:01 left before the break.

The Cougars, up 28-14 at half, stayed comfortably in front until midway in the second half when the Indians staged a little comeback on a rebound basket by Hanson and a Hanson free throw, putting the score at 37-28. Koy Walsh came right back with a bucket to push the margin to 11.

"We had a lot of layups that didn't go," Gruber said, indicating his team missed an opportunity to get back in the game when the score was in the Cougars' favor. "We were down 11. We missed two free throws and we threw the ball away twice," he said.

In the closing minute, reserves Keaton Flanders and Nick Buchel each scored baskets to lift the Indians over the 30-point mark.

With the loss, the Indians fell to 0-11 in EC play and Campbellsport, which beat defending D-3 state champion, Waupun, in the season-opener, climbed to 6-5 to stay in third place in the league.

In addition to Hanson, Carlton was the only other KHS player to hit in double figures. He had 11.

The road wasn't going to get any easier for the Indians, who were scheduled to face No. 1 Ripon on Feb. 14, then travel to Campbellsport on February 17.

Good Conditions Greet Sturgeon Spearers As Season Got Underway

When sturgeon spearing got underway on Lake Winnebago and the upriver lakes this past Saturday, spearers were looking forward to seeing some big fish.

Ryan Koenigs, Lake Winnebago sturgeon biologist with the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, said this season should allow for some great opportunities to spot sturgeon cruising beneath the ice. During a recent survey of conditions, DNR crews measured water clarity ranging from eight to 13 feet on Lake Winnebago; four to five feet on lakes Poygan and Winneconne and two to four feet on Lake Butte des Morts.

"While the length of the season remains to be seen, one thing we can say for certain is that there are some very big fish out there this year," Koenigs said. "Typically when water clarity averages 12 feet or more, spearers have higher success rates and we tend to have shorter seasons. It's hard to predict how long the season will be this year."

Sturgeon spearing opened at 7 a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 11, and may run for up to 16 days until February 26. However, an earlier closure may be triggered when pre-set harvest caps are reached.

Interest in sturgeon spearing continues to be strong with 12,962 licenses sold for the 2017 season, including 12,479 for Lake Winnebago and 483 for the Upriver Lakes. For 2017, the system-wide harvest caps are similar to 2016 with 430 juvenile females; 950 adult females and 1,175 males.

It takes at least 10 years for a sturgeon to reach the legal harvest size of 36 inches, while fish at the 100 pound mark are at least 45 years of age. Koenigs said an abundance of gizzard shad turned up in fall forage surveys, indicating the fish could be in better condition this year.

"There are some very large fish present in the system, with 10 of the 11 heaviest fish on record harvested since the 2004 season," Koenigs said. "This is saying a lot given that the tradition dates back more than 85 years. Thanks to careful management, the system retains a very healthy sturgeon population and this spring alone we handled and released two fish in the 80 to 82 inch range."

Last season, the largest sturgeon harvested measured 77 inches and weighed 147.9 pounds when it was registered at Indian Point by spearer Daniel Bloesl.

To help keep tabs on the population, DNR is asking successful spearers to donate their sturgeon heads for an age estimation study. For most fish species, the otoliths or ear bones are the preferred structure for estimating fish age. Sturgeon otoliths are a bit more difficult to work with than most species so DNR fisheries staff members are starting a project to evaluate different methodologies for estimating sturgeon age and growth including use of the otoliths as one of the methods.

Koenigs said this year, spearers should make note of the updated tagging procedures. Tag validation must occur immediately upon harvest by writing the date and time on the tag, but the tags do not need to be attached to the harvested fish prior to registration as long as the spearer and tag is with the fish. If you leave the fish, the harvest tag must be attached to the sturgeon. DNR recommends spearers bring a clear plastic zip-top bag and tie to protect and secure the new paper tag to the fish.

Spearing hours run from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. and all sturgeon must be presented at a registration station by 2 p.m. on the same day they are harvested for registration by DNR personnel.

Additional details about sturgeon spearing throughout the Lake Winnebago system including the complete 2017 rules can be found at dnr.wi.gov by searching for "Winnebago system sturgeon."

Shooting Woes Hamper Lady Indians In Recent Losses

By Judy Harlow

It isn't easy playing the same opponent in a six-day period but with a weather postponement, that's exactly what the Kewaskum High girls basketball team had to do against second-place Waupun.

The Indians lost the first game on February 4 by nine points, so in an effort to score more KHS coach Russ Thull worked on having his girls to be a little more patient offensively in the second meeting which took place in Waupun on February 10. The Indians outscored Waupun 12-11 in the second half but were down by eight at that point and lost the game, 30-23.

"They used a 2-3 zone, so we were looking to attack the inside, but they had the 6-2 kid in the middle" Thull said, referring to Sydney Flier.

"Obviously, we had to hit some shots," Thull went on, and in the area, the Indians had difficulty.

The Indians had no double-figure scorer. Mikayla Dogs led the team in scoring with eight points, while Hailey Herriges chipped in with seven, although she struggled offensively. The only other girls to get on the scoreboard were Maxine Paulowske and Sydney Rosenthal, who added six and two, respectively.

"The girls played a great game defensively to hold them to 30 points, a season low by a lot," Thull said.

With the loss, Kewaskum fell to 3-9 against EC opponents and 10-19 overall with two regular-season games left on the schedule, including tonight's (Thursday) home game against Kettle Moraine Lutheran.

WAUPUN 19-11—30
KEWASKUM 11-12—23
Kewaskum: Sydney Rosenthal 2, Mikayla Dogs 8, Maxine Paulowske 6, Hailey Herriges 7. Three-point goals—Dogs 2, Paulowske, Herriges. FTs—1x4. Fouls—12.

Waupun: Peyton McGinnis 5, Danielle Hopp 9, Sydney Flier 6, Meghan Flier 4, Elyse Stessel 6. Three-point goals—Hopp. FTs—3x5. Fouls—5.

Current EC Standings:
1. Plymouth, 12-0; 2. Waupun, 11-2; 3. (tie) Winneconne and Kettle Moraine Lutheran, 8-5 5. Campbellsport, 4-9; 6. Kewaskum, 3-9; 7. Berlin, 3-10; 8. Ripon, 2-11

Kewaskum 43, Winneconne 52

At Winneconne on February 7, the Indians got off plenty of shots, 54 of them, but there were too many misses, especially from three-point land, where they made five of 25 tries (20 percent) and lost to the Wolves, 52-43.

"We didn't shoot well," Thull said about the game, indicating, "They (Wolves) came out and were very aggressive. We battled, but they played with more energy."

Kewaskum was only down by two points at half, 23-21, but couldn't stay with Winneconne after the break.

Hailey Herriges and Mikayla Dogs both scored 10 points in the defeat, while Bre Trepes added eight points, hitting two of the three, three-balls she took. Molly Schulteis also helped in the scoring department with six.

Herriges was a tiger on the boards, hauling down a game-high 12 rebounds, then came Dogs with five, and she also contributed seven assists, one more than Herriges.

Kewaskum Middle School Students To Present "Honk!"

By Anne Trautner

Kewaskum Middle School students will present the musical "Honk!" this weekend in the Kewaskum High School Theater.

"It's a cute show. It's been nice to see the kids in a different light other than class, so that's been fun," said Andrew Dahlberg, who is directing the show.

Based on Hans Christian Andersen's classic story "The Ugly Duckling," "Honk!" tells the tale of an odd-looking baby duck, Ugly, and her quest to find her mother.

"We've had to adapt a little bit because Honk is supposed to be a guy, but it's a girl because we didn't have as many guys as we had hoped," Dahlberg said.

This is the first time many of the students have produced a musical.

"They are excited," Dahlberg said. "I don't think they quite understood the work that it was going to take to put it on, like all the outside time it requires to make sure you know your lines. But the kids are doing well."

While they have been involved with the show, many of the students have participated in other activities, such as volleyball. Dahlberg doesn't mind that, though.

"The kids have been able to do a lot of different things while they are doing this, which I think is important," he said.

The students started rehearsing just before Christmas break. They took another week off when Missoula Children's Theatre was in town.

Students from the Kewaskum High School Drama Club are helping with sound, lights and set for the show.

VISION 2050 Recommends Multimodal Transportation In Southeastern Wisconsin

The Southeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission (SEWRPC) announced the adoption of VISION 2050, a new long-range plan for land use and transportation in Southeastern Wisconsin. Developed over three years, VISION 2050 establishes an advisory long-range vision for how the seven-county Region can build on its existing strengths, while addressing key challenges such as demographic changes in the labor force and negative net migration.

"VISION 2050 provides a compelling vision for how our Region can develop, and maintain and enhance its transportation system to increase the quality of life for residents and attract new growth to Southeastern Wisconsin," said SEWRPC Executive Director Ken Yunker. "Developed with broad public input, the plan recommends significant investments to improve and expand access to a wide-range of transportation options, especially public transit."

In creating the plan, SEWRPC considered existing and historic land use and transportation system development and performance, prepared forecasts of future regional growth, and analyzed and evaluated the consequences of a wide range of potential land use patterns and transportation investments. SEWRPC also engaged the community at each stage of the planning process through regional advisory committees, task forces, workshops, travel and telephone surveys, and interactive web tools – securing feedback from tens of thousands of residents.

"Public input played a critical role in developing this plan," said Beth Weirick, CEO at Milwaukee Downtown. "The public and key stakeholders were engaged in a variety of ways to ensure a diversity of opinions on the best ways the Region can improve the quality of life for current residents and capture attention as a desirable place to live for those looking to relocate. The Region has a lot to offer."

Key Challenges For The Region

For the past several decades, Southeastern Wisconsin has been able to grow its labor force from within the existing population. But with coming demographic changes, the Region will face a shortage of working age residents. To remain economically competitive, the Region will need to attract tens of thousands of new residents for the first time since the 1950s. At the same time, the Region is challenged by slow population and income growth, significant declines in transit service, and high racial disparities in education, income, and poverty.

"The Region is at a crossroads," says Yunker. "If we are to successfully compete for new residents and new businesses, we need to make positive and proactive changes that make our Region more attractive. VISION 2050 provides a framework for local and State government to create the type of land use development and transportation infrastructure that will help attract new talent and encourage economic growth in the

Plan Recommendations

VISION 2050 provides a comprehensive plan that:

- Increases the Region's competitiveness by providing high-quality roads, transit and bicycle facilities;
- Encourages more sustainable and cost-effective growth;
- Preserves the Region's most productive farmland and primary environmental corridors;
- Significantly improves and expands public transit, including adding rapid transit and commuter rail, and improving and expanding local and express transit services;
- Enhances the Region's bicycle and pedestrian network to improve access to activity centers, neighborhoods, and other destinations;
- Keeps existing major streets in a state of good repair and efficiently uses the capacity of existing streets and highways; and
- Strategically adds capacity on highly congested roadways, incorporating "complete streets" roadway design concepts to provide safe and convenient travel for all.

Funding Challenge

These recommendations require more to be spent on the transportation system in the future, particularly on building and operating a competitive and advanced transit system. The transit system included in VISION 2050 would attract new Federal funding, but require approximately $160 million annually in additional local or State funding. In addition, there is a need to rebuild much of the regional street and highway network, in particular the Region's freeway system. To do so will require the State to maintain the level of expenditure it has provided in recent State budgets for streets and highways and the Southeastern Wisconsin freeway system.

"Ultimately, these infrastructure investments will bring significant benefits to the Region by improving competitiveness with other metro areas, reducing congestion, linking workforce to jobs, making public transit an attractive travel option, and reducing resident and local government costs for other infrastructure and services," said Yunker.

More information about VISION 2050 is available online at www.vision2050sewis.org. A condensed summary of the plan is available at sewrpc.org/PlanSummary, with the full three-volume plan report to be published in early 2017.

SEWRPC serves the seven counties of Kenosha, Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Racine, Walworth, Washington, and Waukesha. It was created to provide objective information and professional planning initiatives to help solve problems and to focus regional attention on key issues of regional consequence.

NOTICE OF SPRING PRIMARY AND SAMPLE BALLOTS
FEBRUARY 21, 2017

OFFICE OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK
TO THE VOTERS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY

Notice is hereby given of a spring primary election to be held in Washington County on February 21, 2017, at which the officers named below shall be nominated. The names of the candidates for each office, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office, each in its proper column, together with the questions submitted to a vote, for a referendum, if any, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS

Upon entering the polling place, a voter shall state his or her name and address, show an acceptable form of photo identification and sign the poll book before being permitted to vote. If a voter is not registered to vote, a voter may register to vote at the polling place serving his or her residence, if the voter presents proof of residence in a form specified by law. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the voter shall retire alone to a voting booth and cast his or her ballot except that a voter who is a parent or guardian may be accompanied by the voter's minor child or minor ward. An election official may inform the voter of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate a particular voting choice.

Where Optical Scan Voting is Used

The voter shall fill in the oval next to the name of the candidate of his or her choice for each office for which he or she intends to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the voter shall write in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided for a write-in vote, and fill in the oval next to the write-in line. On referendum questions, the voter shall fill in the oval next to "yes" if in favor of the question, or the voter shall fill in the oval next to "no" if opposed to the question.

When using an electronic ballot marking device ("Automark") to mark an optical scan ballot, the voter shall touch the screen at the name of the candidate of his or her choice for each office for which he or she intends to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the voter shall type in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided for a write-in vote. On referendum questions, the voter shall touch the screen at "yes" if in favor of the question, or the voter shall touch the screen at "no" if opposed to the question.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth. Sample ballots or other materials to assist the voter in casting his or her vote may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

If the voter spoils an optical scan ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initiated by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the voter shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place.

After Voting the Ballot

After an official optical scan ballot is marked, it shall be inserted in the security sleeve so the marks do not show. The voter shall insert the ballot in the voting device and discard the sleeve, or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit. If a central count system is used, the voter shall insert the ballot in the ballot box and discard the sleeve, or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit. The voter shall leave the polling place promptly.

A voter may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the voter declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English or that due to disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. The selected individual rendering assistance may not be the voter's employer or an agent of that employer or an officer or agent of a labor organization which represents the voter.

Abby is currently enrolled in UW-Washington County and will be graduating with 11 college credits. In her rare free time, she enjoys being in the outdoors with family and friends, hiking, running and riding her horse. Photography and barrel racing are her favorite hobbies. Abby enjoys working with such a dedicated chapter and has been accepted into UW-River Falls for the fall semester. To further his education after that, Jeff would like to attend a technical school to obtain licenses in servicing diesel engines and trucks. Jeff is currently working part time at Culver's of West Bend and enjoys being there. Jeff has learned a lot from Culver's and will definitely take what he's learned and spread it around. A WORD FROM YOUR FFA PRESIDENT talk to that new person, push yourself to excel, etc. You do not want to live a life of regret for missing out the astounding opportunities set before you.

My greatest joy in FFA is seeing others grow in their character and leadership throughout the years. Our group is one of the largest and most involved in the high school. We keep ourselves very busy! FFA members are the type of kids to have true core virtues. They will always be there for you, and are diligent hard workers and the greatest jokesters around. I am completely blessed to be a part of this amazing group. To watch our FFA chapter grow and see the future of agriculture thrive off of the endless hours of selfless work has driven me to continue my dedication for the past four years. The FFA experience is a once-in-a-lifetime occurrence. My goal is for all the generations to come to be able to experience FFA.

Hey there everyone! Thank you for taking the time to read and learn a little bit more about the extraordinary things we are doing here in FFA.

My name is Abby Ashauer and I am this year's FFA president. This is my fourth and final year involved in this amazing group. Personally, my perspective and virtues in life have completely changed since I've joined this organization for the better! Through FFA, my public speaking skills and leadership have flourished. My passion for FFA began when a friend invited me to an FFA meeting. It was then that I fell in love with the organization. Since then, I have delved deeper into finding who I am as a person and helping others around me do the same. Your new and adventurous life is just on the other side of taking risks and stepping outside your comfort zone. DO IT! Join that club,

My junior year I had the opportunity of traveling to Kentucky for the 88th National FFA Convention in October 2015. There were more than 60,000 blue corduroy jackets there! All 50 states were represented by high school FFA students, as well as members from Puerto Rico. A few quotes still stick with me from some of the motivational keynote speakers:

- "LISTEN to all the wisdom around you" -Ricky Risby
- "There is no future in giving up" - Amberley Snyder
- "Be an ANOMALY" -Retiring national FFA officer

What is an anomaly? An anomaly is something that is unusual or unexpected. I believe that is the core focus in this organization we call FFA. To be something more, FFA helps students find their inner selves and to break the barrier of mediocrity.

A WORD FROM THE KEWASKUM FFA ADVISOR

Hello Everyone,

My name is Shelly Oelhafen and I am the agriculture instructor and FFA advisor at Kewaskum High School.

It has been a pleasure working closely with the current FFA officers. This year's officers continue to work well with each other and have done a fantastic job sharing their many duties and responsibilities so far this year. Many other members of the FFA have also been a big part of multiple community service events. All have enjoyed many fun activities organized through the FFA, as you can see throughout this supplement. Many new friendships and fun memories have been made the first half of this school year. We are very excited to have 20 new members join this year, which makes our total membership 65 members!

It is extremely satisfying to watch all the FFA members work well together at all of our events. New members have been welcomed by all in the membership and have found their place within our awesome leadership organization. All members seem to have a good time, no matter if they are working at a community event or attending one of our "fun" outings, and that makes me very proud to be the advisor of such an amazing group.

We still have many fun events to come this spring, which include: National FFA Week Celebration, Fox Valley Career Development Events (judging contests), Annual Awards Banquet, Food for America Program, State FFA Convention and, of course, the WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR!

As the Agriculture instructor, I am currently teaching the following classes throughout the school year: Wildlife 1, Wildlife 2, Agriscience, Small Animal Care, Modern Livestock Production, Dairy Production & Food Processing, and Horticulture & Landscaping. I provide many unique learning experiences in all of my classes, which include: interesting projects and labs, guest speakers and field trips. I enjoy working with all of my students and the FFA members to make a positive difference in our school and community.

I am very excited for the future changes to the Agriculture Department at KHS. The Ag. room will be moved to the science "wing" of the high school, where the new greenhouse will be added to the southeast corner of the school. Students can look forward to a new style of classroom, as well as a new style of learning about agriscience topics.

I would like to thank everyone in our community for your continual support over the years! It truly takes a "village" to raise our children! Thanks for your help!

I look forward to the rest of the school year with the entire Kewaskum FFA Chapter!

Proud supporters of the KHS FFA!

EARLY FARM DAYS

Early Farm Days took place on September 11 at River Hill Park. The Kewaskum FFA set up a petting zoo for all the spectators. It was a great turnout for the amount of antique equipment, which included the threshing machine that comes every year. Some of the Kewaskum FFA members who brought a tractor of their own to the event include: Teagan Herman, Ryan Resch, Nic Limberg and Donny Schmidt.

FFA members work together to host a school-wide bonfire to celebrate Kewaskum High School's Homecoming Week.

HOMECOMING

The FFA does a lot during this crazy week. On the Wednesday of Homecoming week, FFA members hosted a bonfire for all high schoolers to attend. Members also had a Car Smash, featuring a car donated by Kewaskum Auto Recyclers. The Car Smash is an effort to raise money for the Kewaskum Community Food Pantry. To raise money, the FFA charged $1 for participants to take three swings at the car with a sledge hammer. During that same night, hayrides were given to the students by FFA members with KT Organic Farms' tractor and wagon. The kids had tons of fun, even though the ride wasn't very smooth, to say the least. On the Friday of the Homecoming football game and parade, FFA members hauled the car from the Car Smash through the parade. The FFA looks forward to having another successful Homecoming Week this year with more fun activities.

Cody Oelhafen and Leah Resch are happy to serve delicious treats to many participants at the Brent Schultz Memorial Trap Shoot event held last spring at the New Fane Sportsman's Club. The money raised at this event was donated to the FFA Alumni Greenhouse Fund, which will help pay for the future greenhouse structure at the Kewaskum High School.

FFA members Abby Ashauer, Taylor Zuehlke, Claire Schleiter, Kaylee Aker, Courtney Butzlaff, Abigail Drewitz, and Kristy Peters work together to keep the highway clean. The Kewaskum FFA adopts a few miles on highway 28 to clean up every spring and fall.

2016 HIGHWAY CLEANUP

In September, Kewaskum FFA members volunteered to clean up Highway 28, west of Kewaskum. The FFA sponsors this portion of the highway along with the HOPE Club.

Abby Ashauer, Leah Resch, Abigail Drewitz and Keaton Flanders are only a few of the many members who work hard to serve ice cream sundaes for FFA during the 14 days of the Wisconsin State Fair in August.

ICE CREAM BOOTH

On a yearly basis, the Kewaskum FFA and other surrounding FFAs in Washington County travel to the State Fair in Milwaukee to help run an Ice Cream Booth, which serves as the main fundraiser for the groups. There are many members from the Kewaskum, Hartford and Slinger FFA chapters that serve customers cold, refreshing ice cream, along with many different toppings.

The Kewaskum FFA Chapter had a total of 24 dedicated members go to the Wisconsin State Fair for the 10-day duration. Each chapter takes shifts that are a total of 10 hours a day. With as many as eight members from each chapter working each day, and two chapters working together each day, the long, hard days went by quickly and many new friendships were formed.

GROWING YOUR FUTURE THROUGH FUN TIMES AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Dr. Greg Ogi administers a rabies vaccination. The Kewaskum FFA appreciates the more than 40 years of support he has given.

RABIES CLINIC

The annual Rabies Clinic is coming up on Wednesday, March 29, from 6 to 8 p.m. Kewaskum Veterinary Clinic helps put on this fundraiser to fund scholarships for the Kewaskum FFA. Dr. Gregory Ogi's family has graciously supported the Kewaskum FFA for more than 40 years. Help us thank them for their contributions and bring your pets out for $25 rabies shots, open to the public.

FRUIT SALE

This year the FFA sold more than $27,000 worth of fruit. The FFA members would like to thank everyone who supported them and bought products from this fundraiser. The proceeds from this will go toward many leadership conferences, field trips, charities, and many more Agriculture and FFA sponsored events. This year at the fruit sale, many of the agriculture students sorted and inspected the fruit to make sure that it was of a high quality standard. FFA members distributed the fruit and did carryouts during the second week in December. The fruit sale was lots of fun, as well as productive, for FFA members.

AG DAY AT KETTLE MORAIN GARDENS

FFA members planned an "Ag Day" at the Kettle Moraine Gardens Assisted Living Facility in Kewaskum this past October. Members brought their pets for the folks to see. Despite the chilly weather, many residents were able to enjoy their time with the animals and also had a chance to visit with the FFA members about their tractors. FFA members enjoyed hearing about many stories about farming back in the "olden" days. It was great to see the smiles on so many faces that day.

Tyler Butzlaff, Abigail Drewitz and Courtney Butzlaff share their love for animals with the folks at Kettle Moraine Gardens. They enjoyed the time alone with other members bonding and sharing time with these folks.

AMPLIFYING OUR LIVES

WORLD DAIRY EXPO

At the World Dairy Expo this year, FFA members and Agriculture class students had the opportunity to browse all the new additions in the dairy industry. One of the more fascinating pieces of machinery was the rotary milking parlor, which worked much like a gatling gun, but for milking cows. All participants were required to fill out a scavenger hunt that consisted of finding businesses, pieces of machinery and breeds of cow around the World Dairy Expo grounds. This field trip was both fun and highly educational.

JUDGING TEAMS

In late March, the FFA sent judging teams to Fox Valley Technical College in Appleton. The following teams were sent teams to judge: Livestock, Ag Mechanics, Dairy Products, Horticulture, Wildlife, Floriculture and Equine. The Kewaskum FFA had a large turnout in each division and sent a lot of teams. Each team did a great job. The Livestock Judging Team and Ag Mechanics Team placed in the top 10 at Fox Valley and made it to the State Judging Contest.

CONVENTIONS: LEADING ACROSS THE STATES

National Convention

The National FFA Convention is perhaps one of the greatest opportunities of a lifetime. The National Convention is a huge nationwide FFA gathering in Indianapolis held every year at the end of October.

This year the Kewaskum FFA sent eight of its members to explore only a fraction of what the FFA world has to offer. The chapter spent four days traveling between attractions and cities in Indiana learning about many career pathways and leadership while enjoying meeting new people and making new friends. About 50,000 members from around the United States travel to the same location, and the FFA meeting room turns into a blue sea of 50,000 jackets. All of the members are able to experience unique experiences at the event.

Kayla Oelhafen Awarded The American FFA Degree

Kayla Oelhafen, a six-year member of the Kewaskum FFA Chapter, was awarded the American FFA Degree at the 89th National FFA Convention in Indianapolis on October 22. The American FFA Degree is awarded to members who have demonstrated the highest level of commitment to FFA and made significant accomplishments in their supervised agricultural experiences (SAEs). This degree is awarded at the National FFA Convention & Expo each year to less than 1 percent of FFA members, making it one of the organization's highest honors. In addition to the degree, each recipient receives a gold American FFA Degree key.

Kayla is the first Kewaskum FFA member since 1984 to earn the American Degree. Kayla has earned several degrees along the way to the American Degree. As a freshman in high school she earned her Greenhand Degree, and as a junior she earned the Chapter Degree. As a freshman in college she earned her State Degree and she also was awarded the Second Gold in the State Proficiency area of Equine Management. She was awarded both state awards at the 2015 State FFA Convention in Madison.

Kayla has been an inspiration to others in and out of FFA. She is a dedicated, responsible, helpful and kind person. She is currently a junior in college at UW-River Falls, where she is majoring in Animal Science. Kayla plans on continuing her education at Palmer College of Chiropractic, which will lead to a career as a chiropractor for humans and horses. Kayla is currently a certified equine massage therapist and has her own business called Healthy Gait Equine Massage Therapy. The Kewaskum FFA Chapter is so proud to have had Kayla as a member.

State FFA Convention

State FFA Convention is a statewide event in which FFA chapters all around the state and sometimes nation come for one big convention. State FFA Convention is held in Madison at the Alliant Energy Center. There, state officers give their final speeches before they boost their role to state officer, and then the state advisor announces the next state officers and their positions. There are dozens of sessions in which the state officers tell stories, give speeches and announce the winners of the many different competitions that are held at the convention. Many FFA chapters will compete with each other for all kinds of things such as which chapter has the best FFA website or who gave the best speech. There are talent shows, and the winners of those get to perform their talents in front of all of the FFA chapters during the sessions. Five of the Kewaskum FFA members attended the 2016 State Convention.

Once a year, the Kewaskum FFA Officer Team plans a banquet for the members and their families. The banquet is held to recognize the talents that each of the members contributes to the Kewaskum FFA. The members who are recognized are given awards or scholarships from the local businesses and companies that support the FFA. Last year, Ben Gonnering received many awards and scholarships for his areas of expertise. Ben's many scholarships have helped him pay for his college.

The banquet is held not only to recognize FFA members' successes, but also to thank the community for its support. This year, the Kewaskum FFA Chapter will celebrate its 65th anniversary at its banquet in May.

FFA members Seth Bartelt and Abby Ashauer compete for the most awards in 2016 during the annual FFA Banquet.

THE KEWASKUM FFA ALUMNI

Thank You To All The Students

The Kewaskum FFA Alumni would like to thank all the students for being part of the local agriculture education program.

Whether your family lives on a farm, in the country or in town, your life is directly impacted by agriculture. We know that without people to grow or raise the food that we eat, process the cotton in our clothing, or manufacture the materials to build our homes, we would cease to exist.

Students learn how they are impacted by agriculture and how they too could use their skills to impact their community and the world. There are countless career opportunities in this state and country in the diverse field of agriculture.

FFA Alumni's Nut And Bolt Sale

The Kewaskum FFA Alumni held its Nut and Bolt Sale again this past fall. Many alumni members took time out of their busy schedule to stop at numerous local farms and businesses to offer the convenience of restocking tools and other supplies directly out of the sale trailer. It was a very successful two-day event. FFA Alumni would like to extend their appreciation to those who took the time to shop in the trailer and offer a special thank you to those who supported the FFA Alumni with a purchase.

FFA Alumni Mission

The mission of the Wisconsin FFA Alumni Association, Inc. is to strive to be Wisconsin's premier agriculture education advocate. The association supports the local FFA Alumni Chapters so that they are better equipped to assist their local community, agriculture instructor(s) and agriculture youth.

The Kewaskum FFA Alumni chapter supports this mission within our own community. The alumni consist of 50 members who actively volunteer countless hours each year, in order to support the local Kewaskum FFA Chapter. Some of the activities include the annual brat fry at the Piggly Wiggly, raffles, donkey basketball, full day at the Wisconsin State Fair ice cream booth, selling hot chocolate and homemade cookies at the Christmas parade, and the nut and bolt sale, to name a few. The proceeds accrued from these fundraising events are used to support the agriculture education program at the Kewaskum High School, as well as scholarships for graduating seniors. The Kewaskum FFA Alumni is proud to be part of an organization that supports an individual student's education, career development and leadership training.

Kewaskum FFA Alumni treasurer, Brian Oelhafen, enjoys lunch with the state qualifying career development event teams after their contest last spring. Brian volunteered to help Shelly Oelhafen transport the Ag. Mechanics team members to their contest in Madison. He and other FFA Alumni members offered their time and expertise when preparing various teams for their contests.

Many other FFA alumni members also volunteer to help in various locations at the fair each year. Future Greenhouse At KHS

One tremendous accomplishment that has been developing the past several years is almost meeting our goal of raising all of the funds needed to support a greenhouse that will be a spectacular addition to the agricultural education department. Proceeds have been donated through the Brent Schultz and Travis Trapp Memorial events, as well as through personal donations. We would like to thank the community for your support toward the greenhouse, "which will benefit the entire community," according to Mrs. Oelhafen, the agricultural advisor of the Kewaskum FFA.

Wine And Beer Tasting Event

The Kewaskum FFA Alumni will sponsor a Wine And Beer Tasting Event for our many friends who support agriculture in our community and agriculture education in our high school.

This event will be held on Thursday, March 30, at Jugs Hitching Post in Kohlsville from 7 to 9 p.m. The cost of the event is $10, which includes a commemorative wine glass and a variety of wine and beer samples, and a nacho bar.

A number of raffles, including a gun raffle,

50/50 raffle and "bucket raffles," will be held throughout the evening. Anyone who would like to enjoy a casual night out and show support of our local agriculture, agriculture education and FFA, is welcome to attend (must be 21 or older to attend).
