Last Call For Bingo

– Sno-Chiefs Host Final Game Of Bingo In Kewaskum

By Anne Trautner

Bev Rohlinger was a little teary-eyed as someone called out, "Bingo!"

That single word marked the end of an era.

After nine years of the Sno-Chiefs Snowmobile Club running Bingo at the Annex in Kewaskum, the game was played for the final time on Wednesday, May 10.

"I will miss it," said Rohlinger, who has served as treasurer for the Sno-Chiefs for about 20 years.

But without enough volunteers, the game cannot go on.

Unfortunately, the Sno-Chiefs do not have enough volunteers to continue the monthly Bingo.

Many of the Bingo players are now mourning the loss of having the game in Kewaskum.

"We are going to miss it," said Terri Jacobs, who has been coming to the venue for years with her friend Cora Taylor.

Town Of Kewaskum To Get Homeless Shelter For Men

By Anne Trautner

The Town of Kewaskum may become home to vulnerable men in need of a place to live.

On Monday night, the Kewaskum Town Board approved a conditional use permit for the development of a community living arrangement, named Kairos Ranch, at 4265 County Highway H.

The board unanimously approved the permit after the Town Plan Commission voted 6-1 in favor of the proposal. Sandy Pasbrig was the lone dissenter on the issue.

Troy Loether, pastor for Kettlebrook Church in West Bend, and Russ Wanta, executive director for the Habitat for Humanity of Washington and Dodge Counties, presented the application for Kairos Ranch.

"As a follower of Jesus Christ and a passionate citizen of Washington County, I'm growing more and more concerned that a large portion of our population has lost their way," Wanta said.

To help these wayward people, the Kairos Ranch is being created to reconcile vulnerable men to God, a home, their family and the community through faith and good deeds, Wanta said.

Several months ago, Wanta approached Roger and Ann Neumann about locating the Kairos Ranch in their farmstead.

Both Roger and Ann Neumann spoke at the public hearing held on Monday night.

Roger Neumann said that he hoped that the work that would be offered through the Kairos Ranch would help men gain a productive future.

"I think it is a great opportunity to help people get a second chance, maybe a third chance, of improving themselves," said Ann Neumann, who has been involved with numerous mission trips.

Area Dentist Receives Hometown Hero Award

– Dr. Tom Albiero Of Albrecht Free Clinic Recognized

By Anne Trautner

Dr. Tom Albiero, an area dentist, received the Hometown Hero award in Madison on May 10 for his work with the Albrecht Free Clinic.

Located in West Bend, the Albrecht Free Clinic provides free medical and dental care to uninsured and under-insured residents of Washington County who are living at 200 percent or more below the federal poverty level.

Founded in 1996, the clinic was named after its founder, the late Dr. James Albrecht. It was Albrecht's hope that the clinic would ensure continuation of health care for Washington County residents.

"He didn't believe that people should have to make choices between eating and health care," said Alissa Mosal, clinical supervisor for the clinic.

Albrecht quickly found that many people who came to the clinic with a medical problem, but sometimes it actually stemmed from a dental infection that was affecting other parts of the body.

"If you have an infection in your teeth, it can affect your kidneys, it can affect your liver. For pregnant women, it's a big deal because it can affect pregnancy," said Albiero, who is director of dental services at the clinic.

In addition, bacteria from a dental infection can exacerbate respiratory and heart problems, Albiero said.

In the early years, Albrecht was not able to offer dental care for patients.

So people like Dr. Dennis Connor, a dentist in Kewaskum, helped.

Area Dentist Receives Hometown Hero Award

"The patients would get a voucher from the free clinic and come to our office for dental care," Connor said. "It was just a volunteer kind of thing, to fix up whatever they had. We did that for a great many years."

But last year, the Albrecht Free Clinic was housed in a new, free-standing building in West Bend. And the clinic started offering dental care on site.

Since the free dental clinic's inception in 2016, more than 830 dental visits have been provided to financially eligible residents of Washington County.

Connor and Albrecht are two of about seven dentists who now volunteer time at the clinic.

However, more help is still needed.

"Dentally, as we first started, we saw a lot of emergency types of things, where people had infections and broken teeth that were problems, so we were putting out a lot of those fires. We are still doing that, but we are starting to get people back for some more routine, restorative work," Albiero said.

The clinic's goal is to get patients to the point where they are having routine dental visits. This includes regular cleaning, as well as replacing missing teeth for patients.

"We would like to give them their smiles back and give them some self confidence," Albiero said.

With that, lives will change.

"They will be more presentable for job interviews, so they can get back out into the workforce and back into normal life," Albiero said.

There are about 75 free clinics in the state of Wisconsin, according to Ruth Henkle, director of the clinic.

The Albrecht Free Clinic is unique in the fact that it receives no state or federal funds. It runs solely on donations and grants, Henkle said.

And the new building, which is decorated with fine art, does not resemble most free clinics.

"This looks just like a brand new medical clinic that all of us would enjoy. Everyone deserves quality care and to be treated with dignity," Henkle said.

Close to 200 people volunteer their time to work at the clinic.

"It really is very cool. They volunteer here because they want to be here and they believe in what we are doing, so it just makes the atmosphere so nice for the patients that we take care of," Mosal said.

The patients can sense that sincerity, Mosal said.

"I had one patient who was just blown away by the fact that there were people who cared and wanted to help. All the physicians and the nurse practitioners he saw, everyone was pulling together to get him back on his feet, which is what we do both medically and dentally. Everyone got him feeling good and looking good," Mosal said.

That man is now back to work and doing well, Mosal said.

The Kewaskum Statesman, in partnership with The Campbellsport News and the Dodge County Pioneer, hosted a Career Fair at the Brownsville Community Center on Thursday, May 11. Turnout was impressive for the first event, and area businesses were encouraged by the hiring potential.

So It Goes

By Andrew Johnson

"Matching local jobs with local people" was the goal of last week's Career Fair hosted by this newspaper. I am happy to report that the turn out from the public was good and the participation by local employers was at capacity for this event.

Several of the employers present at the event reported to me that they obtained several applicant leads and considered the event good. It should be noted that there were a number of employers who wanted to participate but we did not have the room to accommodate them.

I was able to talk with several of the applicants as they entered the community club last Thursday. They came from all of the coverage areas of our small papers. Some were looking for jobs as a result of layoffs, but most of the people I talked to were looking for a job that "fit them" better. In particular, the biggest thing I heard was that people living here were tired of commuting out of the area to work.

One person told me that she was working mandatory 57 hours per week and commuting 35 minutes each way. This worker was a single mom with a two year old. She told me her child sits in day-care for 12 hours each day and she is getting tired. She is a press operator and really was hoping that she could find work at one of the vendors at the fair so she could be closer to home and spend more time with her child. This young lady appeared to me to be smart and hard working.

Like this example, many employees today are looking for an entire life package when it comes to their job. This may mean different things to different people depending on where they are in the cycle of life. They are looking for reasonable work hours with some flexibility, close proximity to their home or apartment, and a job that means something that they enjoy. These people also want to work for employers who sincerely care for their employees and are involved in the community. These people want to be paid fair but are not necessarily motivated by being paid top dollar. I talked with several people at the fair that told me commuting was the biggest issue for them.

For years, local employers have been telling us that they have been struggling to find qualified, quality workers to fill local job openings. These jobs have a wide range of skill requirements.

There were many world class employers present at the Career Fair last week with many job opportunities. I would guess that there were over 200 job opportunities represented based on the conversations I had with employers. Our community is so lucky and blessed to have such a prosperous industrial base with so many jobs.

I hope that our communities including local governments and organizations are doing their part to make sure that our community provides a place where local workers can call home. It is also important that the current workers are taken care of. We certainly don't want to lose any ground with our current workforce.

It is our hope at this paper that we will provide a "connection" between local employers and potential employees for many of the job openings with our help wanted ads that appear both in print and online on our website as well as future job fairs.

pay for his beer with his room key. He was told that he needed actual money to purchase the item. He then drove back across the street to obtain cash, and proceeded to once again drive back across the street to purchase the beer. In the meantime, officers were contacted and met the man back at the gas station. The man was arrested for fifth offense OWI and had a blood alcohol level more than twice the legal limit.

WASHINGTON COUNTY SHERIFF'S REPORT

Over the past weekend, the Sheriff's Office investigated two separate crashes that resulted in vehicles becoming partially submerged in waterways throughout the county. The accidents occurred within four hours of each other on Sunday, May 14, between 12:30 and 4:30 a.m.

The first accident occurred on Jay Road east of County Trunk XX in the Town of Farmington. A passerby reported a darker vehicle partially submerged in high water with the lights on. The driver of that vehicle, later identified as a 40-year-old Town of Farmington man, had left the scene on foot and failed to notify authorities. He was not hurt.

The man walked about three miles home where deputies made contact with him. The man told deputies he had swerved to miss a raccoon. Enforcement action is pending on that crash.

The second accident occurred at the intersection of County Highway K and State Highway 144 in the Town of Polk at 4:32 a.m. The Sheriff's Office responded to the area after an area resident reported hearing a crash. The deputy located a vehicle partially submerged in three to four feet of water about 30 feet from shore. The driver was out of the vehicle and had minor facial lacerations.

The driver, a 26-year-old City of West Bend man, was on his way home east bound on County Highway K and did not see the stop sign. The driver was placed through sobriety testing and the investigating officer noted alcohol use, but not impairment. The operator will be issued citations for fourth offense operation without a license and failure to stop for stop sign.

The pier owner was contacted and said that he recently had the damaged pier fixed at a cost of $10,000. He believes this damage is more substantial than the previous repair.

Work To Begin On County Trunk Highway D

Reconstruction of County Trunk Highway (CTH) D, from the US Highway (USH) 45 northbound ramps to Green Tree Road is scheduled to begin on Monday, May 22 and be substantially completed by mid-August.

The prime contractor for the project is Zignego Company, Inc. of Waukesha, Wisconsin. Construction will begin by closing the road to through traffic and then removing and replacing the concrete segment between USH 45 and Lighthouse Lane. The driveway to West Bend Warehouse will be realigned and a left turn lane for traffic turning north onto Lighthouse Lane will be added to improve safety. Construction will be staged to allow access between USH 45 and Lighthouse Lane and also to provide uninterrupted access for trucks traveling to and from West Bend Warehouse. The contractor will also be repaving Lighthouse Lane from CTH D to the eastern entrance of The Columbian banquet hall.

Please follow the posted detour route utilizing USH 45, State Trunk Highway (STH) 33, and STH 144 (Main Street). Local residents are asked to use extra care when driving in the construction area and obey all flagmen and construction signs.

Alternate routes should be selected if possible to avoid delays.

For more information, please visit www.co.washington.wi.us/hwy and click on "Road Construction and Projects" or call the Highway Department office at 262-335-4435. Project updates will be posted periodically on Washington County's website and Facebook page. Thank you in advance for your patience and understanding as we improve Washington County's roadways.

Little Folks School House Holds "Pre-School Prom"

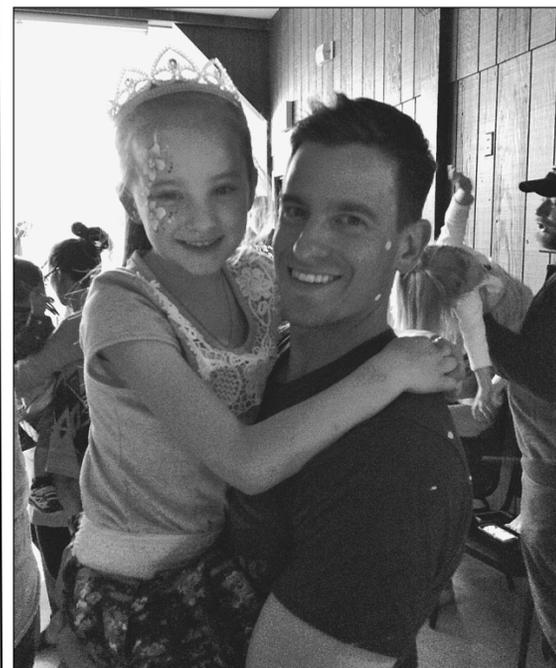

On Friday, April 28, the Little Folks School House held their spring event which was themed "Pre-School Prom." It was a dress-your-best affair. Each child was provided with a crown or tiara. Families enjoyed a kid friendly dinner and many activities throughout the evening.

There was a steady line for face painting which was provided by Rachel Heron of Rock Face Paint.

A photo booth was set up with many props such as hats, mustaches, tiaras and sashes. An art table with dot painting was also set up. A prom wouldn't be a prom without dancing, so Benjamin Cloyd from "DJ Cloyd" came down from Oshkosh to provide music. The Little Folks teachers all volunteered a couple hours of their Friday night to attend the prom.

The Little Folks School House offers several events throughout the year. The major ones take place in the spring and again in the fall. They provide a good opportunity for parents to mingle with other parents and staff and allows parents to watch their children interact with their peers.

The Little Folks School House is rated five stars by the Wisconsin Youngstar program and is the only Nationally Accredited program in the area. More information can be found at www.little-folksschoolhouse.com.

funeral was held Thursday afternoon in the Town of Herman.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday morning of last week at St. Michael's Church when Miss Marie Berres became the bride of Edward Schladweiler. Rev. Beyer tying the nuptial knot. Miss Ella Stelpflug was maid of honor and Miss Anna Schladweiler was the bridesmaid. The groom was attended by Albert Schladweiler as best man and Leonard Klunke as groomsman.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Oeder, a baby boy on Saturday.

A marriage license was issued this week to Walter Liepert and Martha Quaas, both of the Town of Farmington.

Weekly HEALTH TIP

BOOST TESTOSTERONE

As men age, they sometimes experience a reduction in testosterone. Low testosterone may be linked to erectile dysfunction or urinary problems. Weight gain and low testosterone are also connected. According to new research, losing excess weight may help boost testosterone levels and improve erectile function. Researchers assigned half of a group of overweight men to a lowcalorie, low-fat, high-protein diet or a lowcalorie, low-fat, high-carbohydrate diet. Both groups lost about 23 lbs. and had a rise in testosterone levels. Erectile function also improved in both groups in men who had some dysfunction before the study.

Every Saturday - Open Trap Shooting at Beechwood Sportsmans Club, 12 p.m. - 4 p.m., trap or skeet open to the public.

Every Saturday - West Bend Farmers Market, Downtown West Bend, 7:30 a.m. - 11 a.m.

Saturday - Municipal yard is opened 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Thursday, May 18 - Document Shredding Community Event, Protect your Identity and benefit the Kewaskum Food Pantry, 3 p.m. - 6 p.m., The Silbernagel Group, 114 Main Street, parking lot in Kewaskum.

Friday, May 19 - Night Sounds Hike, 8:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m., During the day, Horicon Marsh is a relaxing and tranquil place to enjoy nature, but the dark mysteries of the marsh at night can be chilling to those not accustomed to the sounds of nocturnal creatures. Hike leader and Department of Natural Resources educator Liz Herzmann will dispel the myths of the night and help participants identify the many nocturnal from within the cattails. This program will take place outdoors with easy walking, but possible uneven terrain. Participants should dress warm and bring a low-powered flashlight.

Friday, May 19 - Campbellsport Village-Wide rummage sale.

Friday, May 19 - Washington County separated, divorced and widowed men and women, meetings at Kettle Moraine YMCA, 1111 W. Washington St., Potluck, 6:30 p.m.

Friday, May 19 - Slinger On-Base Club's youth Baseball Tournament.

Saturday, May 20 - Jackson Village-Wide Rummage Sale.

Saturday, May 20 - Wildflowers for Wildlife, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m., Wildflowers for Wildlife will teach participants how to create a beautiful garden with colorful flowers to attract butterflies, birds and pollinating insects. This event, held at the Horicon National Wildlife Refuge, is sponsored by the Friends of Horicon Marsh Education and Visitor Center and Friends of Horicon National Wildlife Refuge in partnership with Taylor Creek Restoration Nurseries and Applied Ecological Services. A native plant sale will help enhance your backyard, schoolyard, park or natural area and benefit Wisconsin's wildlife. Throughout the day, there will be displays and wildflower walks. Native landscaping helps restore ecosystems that once flourished in the Midwest United States. Native plants are great for birds, mammals, reptiles and beneficial insects and also enrich the soil and decrease run-off and filter pollution. Native landscaping can save money in maintenance costs due to less watering, fertilizer and time commitment required. The Horicon National Wildlife Refuge visitor center is located off County Road Z, roughly 3.5 miles south of state HWY 49. For more information, contact 920-923-6891 or 920-387-7893.

An Upcoming Calendar of Events for River Edge Nature Center

Sunday, May 21 - Earth Awakenings Walk, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., As the earth awakens from winter slumber, journey across the landscape with naturalist, Phyllis McKenzie, and reflect on the subtle and sudden changes that occur. Adults will enjoy brisk strolls combined with meditative moments allowing us to connect with the earth's rhythms and patterns. Non-Members and Trail Pass Members: $5.00/person. All Access Members: FREE.

Tuesday, May 23 - Garlic Mustard Pull-a-thon, 9 a.m. - 12 p.m., Help Riveredge control garlic mustard and Dame's rocket throughout the sanctuary. In partnership with the Southeastern Wisconsin Invasive Species Consortium, the Pull-a-thon is a competition, a fundraiser, and a way for people to join together and have a positive impact on their environment. Riveredge was last year's competition winner, so we'll need your help to keep the trophy again this year. Adults and families (with children aged 10 and up) are encouraged to participate. Please wear work boots and long pants. Pre-registration is not required; however, if you have a group that would like to participate, please contact Phyllis McKenzie at pmckenzie@riveredge.us or 262-375-2715.

Thursday, May 25 - Little Explorers Playgroup, 10 a.m. - 11:30 a.m., It's Spring. Let's gather in the Natural Play Area and share the wonder of nature through outdoor play. We will focus on baby animals, plant buds, and the spring thaw as we venture into forests, fields, ponds and more. Nature sensory experiences for babies and exploration tools for older children will be available. Indoor activities will be planned in case of inclement weather. Non-members & Trail Pass Members: $5.00 per child, Adults Free. All-Access Members: FREE.

For more information about Riveredge Nature Center, please go to their website at riveredgenaturecenter.org or call (262)375-2715. The Center is located about a mile northeast of Newburg off of County Highway Y/Hawthorne Drive. The center is open seven days a week.

All the events are free except at locations where a Wisconsin State Park System vehicle admission sticker is required or where a fee is listed. The events are held within the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit at the locations listed for each event. The Ice Age Visitor Center is located about 20 miles north of West Bend and 20 miles south of Fond du Lac.

The History Of The Poppy

In the months of combat of World War I, the men of all nations who engaged in the conflict noticed and symbolized the Poppy, because in the midst of the horrors and death of war the Poppy of the fields of France and Flanders grew wild with a freshness and strength untouched by the strife surrounding it. Poppies grew abundantly in the fields and cemeteries of Verdun and Chateau Thierry and were on the graves of men of all nations. With the picture of the white cosses in the fields of Poppies, Colonel John McCrae visualized his poem, the immortal "In Flanders' Fields."

So a symbol was born, to be used later in New York City on November 9, 1918 when Miss Monina Michael of Athen, Georgia distributed the Poppies to men attending the 25th convention of the YMCA. In 1920 Poppies were sold publicly by American Legion Posts of Milwaukee Wisconsin, during the convention of the 32nd Infantry Division to secure funds for disabled veterans.

On September 29, 1920, at the National Convention of the American Legion the Poppy was proclaimed the memorial flower of the American Legion. Simultaneously it became the memorial of the British Legion. Other Veterans organizations in the English national followed the Legion and Auxiliary in adopting it as their official flower of remembrance.

The nationwide sale of memorial Poppies was begun by the Legion and Auxiliary in 1921. At first, silk Poppies made in France by French widows and orphans were used. In 1922 the first Poppies made by American veterans were produced in the hospitals in Minnesota.

The crepe paper Poppy stands for his right among men to produce with his hands an object immortalized by the men of wars that will enable him to provide for his family the necessities by which we, who are physically able, find our greatest comfort in doing.

The single Poppies are hand made by veterans and their families. The Poppy boards are assembled by veterans and their families. All funds derived from the distribution of American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary Memorial Poppy, Poppy Boards, Poppy Wreaths, except for the purchase of materials, shipping and similar expense, are used for assistance to veterans and their families.

Town Of Kewaskum To Get Homeless Shelter For Men

Karen Strobel, who lives near the home, works for the Department of Corrections and spoke in favor of the Kairos Ranch.

"An organization like this can not only offer them a place to live, but a job, a skill, a trade, something they can actually utilize to move them forward with their lives," Strobel said.

When people are released from prison without resources, they are more likely to use drugs or commit crimes because they don't have support, Strobel said.

Strobel said that she felt the Kairos Ranch would provide needed resources so that people will be less likely to reoffend.

However, Rick Martens, who lives across the road from the property, is worried about who will live at the Kairos Ranch. He also is worried about the property values decreasing as a result.

Pasbrig reiterated those concerns and asked what the term "vulnerable" actually means.

After about two hours of discussion, the Plan Commission agreed that the Kairos Ranch should provide background checks on residents for each of the residents.

Town board members agreed that sex offenders or anyone convicted of a crime against children will not be allowed to live in the Kairos Ranch.

No more than eight residents and two house parents will be allowed to reside in the home, and there will be a security system installed in the building.

Construction is planned to renovate the property, and Loether and Wanta do not expect the Kairos Ranch to open before October.

The conditional use permit will be reviewed every six months.

New Leadership Takes Reins Of Human Services Department

Washington County recently announced the appointments of Julie Driscoll and Sandy Hoefert to the positions of Director of Human Services and Deputy Director of Human Services in Washington County.

"I am very excited about the combination of Julie and Sandy," said Deputy County Administrator Matt Furno. "Julie's energy and ability to lead innovative change combined with Sandy's proven track record of over 25 years of experience in Washington County will serve our population extremely well."

"I am honored to join the great team in Washington County and I look forward to serving the community to support the health, well-being and safety of individuals and families," said Driscoll.

Driscoll holds a Masters of Social Work from the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee. She is the former Director of Family Service, Health and Nutrition at Acelero Learning. Prior to Acelero Learning, Julie was a leader for the City of

JULIE DRISCOLL

Milwaukee Health Department. She has been married to her husband Mike for 17 years and has two teenage daughters, Maura and Delaney. She enjoys camping, cooking and watching her daughters play competitive volleyball.

With roughly 130 employees, over 100 community programs and a 2017 total budget over $20 million, the Human Services Department is the County's largest department, managing a wide variety of community programs for individuals and families challenged by disability, economic hardship and safety concerns. The department includes acute care services - crisis intervention team, the children and families division, an economic support division and the behavioral health services division.

Hoefert has a Master's Degree in Social Work and has been a part of the Washington County Children and Families Division since 1989. Before serving as the County's new Deputy Director, she worked as a social worker, senior social worker, supervisor, and the Children and Families Division manager. She believes in an approach to partners, co-workers, families and clients promoting a "we are in this together" attitude.

Cedar Community Hosts New Seminar Series

Cedar Community is committed to being a leader by helping others navigate the landscape of senior living and senior health care. Every Step with Cedar Community provides valuable information and handouts to help you and your loved ones plan for the future. The first seminar is Thursday, May 18 and focuses on personal information and the ABC's of senior living. Experts include Norah Koskovich, BSW, CSW, Geriatric Care Manager, Cedar Community at Home and Cathy Majkowski, Cedar Community Sales Manager.

The topic focuses on your personal information and where it is stored. Is it in one area and easily accessible so in the event of a personal emergency someone has access to it? Personal information includes all of your legal documents, medical information, insurance policies and funeral information. Learn the importance of keeping all of your personal information in one area. The second part of the seminar discusses the dozens of abbreviations used to describe senior living options including IL, AL, CBRF and CCRC. Learn more about these commonly used terms so you can make informed decisions about retirement living.

There are two time options for the seminar including 10 a.m. at Cedar Community's Cedar Ridge Campus, 113 Cedar Ridge Drive and 6 p.m. at Moraine Park Technical College (T-2 Entrance), 2151 N. Main Street. Please RSVP for the seminar, 262.334.1680, ext. 2221 or at RSVP@cedarcommunity.org.

Enjoy, explore and embrace your best life!

Live more at Cedar Community, where their natural settings, faith-based mission and high-quality services afford seniors the opportunity to live a more purposeful, fulfilled life among family and friends. From beautiful homes and apartments for active and independent retirees, to assisted living, short-term care and rehabilitation, skilled nursing and memory loss services, and home medical equipment, Cedar Community is the only community in Washington County where people age 55 and better have the peace of mind, knowing the services they may need are right there, provided by a team of professionals they know and trust.

Moraine Park Announces Retirees, Service Honorees

Moraine Park Technical College's 2017 Retirement and Service Recognition event on Friday, May 5, honored retirees and those who reached service anniversaries during the 2016-2017 academic year.

"We are grateful to these individuals for contributing so much to Moraine Park throughout their years of service with our College," said Bonnie Baerwald, president of Moraine Park. "This year we had 174 combined years of service from our retirees and 895 combined years from our staff members that received service recognition awards."

In all, 10 retirees and 70 staff members were recognized. Retirees included: Karen Coley of Juneau, adult career pathways manager; Stanley Cram of Fond du Lac, vice president-student affairs; Al Hanisch of Lomira, math instructor; Mary Krieger of Mayville; nursing instructor; Anne Millane of Mayville, student affairs grant coordinator; Annie Sabel of Fond du Lac, central scheduling specialist; Kenneth Sabel of Fond du Lac, housekeeper; Joan Seichter of Fond du Lac, office technology and computer applications instructor; Bonny Zuehlke of Theresa, housekeeper; Janet Kohlwey of Kewaskum, academic advisor.

Two staff members — Kenny Sabel of Fond du Lac and Mary Ann Schoenwetter of Beaver Dam — were recognized for 35 years of service. Gloria Arenz and Fred Rice, both of Fond du Lac, were recognized for 30 years of service.

Staff members recognized for 25 years of service included Nadine Arndt, Bonnie Bauer, Donna Freund and JoAnne Henken, all from Fond du Lac.

Moraine Park also recognized 62 employees for service to the College at the five-, 10-, 15- and 20-year levels.

CAMPUS NEWS

— The following students from your area were among the many University of Wisconsin-Whitewater students to land a job before spring commencement. Students accepted job offers from all over the state and Midwest. Others are moving on to prestigious graduate school programs.

Nickolos Stahl from Campbellsport, who studied marketing, was hired as a business development representative at Oracle in Denver, Colorado.

Michael Bier from Kewaskum, who studied graduate accounting, was hired as an associate accountant at CliftonLarsonAllen in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Laura Kriewaldt from

Kewaskum, who studied graduate accounting, was hired as an audit associate at Hawkins Ash CPAs in Manitowoc, Wisconsin.

In what has become a highly anticipated and celebrated tradition at the university, these students are invited to have their photos taken and posted to social media. Each year it has been offered, UW-Whitewater has set a record for the number of students who participated; this year, 186 students volunteered for the event. Commencement was May 13.

Ideas For Parents: Easy Things To Help Your Child Succeed

– Bonding To School

Why do some kids grow up with ease while others struggle? Search Institute Researchers identified specific, practical things that can have a tremendous and lasting positive impact on youth. Rather than focusing on the problems, this research concentrates on the Developmental Assets™ – the positive things (such as parent support and commitment to learning) that help young people thrive. The assets are 40 values, experiences and positive qualities that young people need to help them make wise decisions and choose positive lifestyles. The more assets they have, the better.

Bonding To School

Youth are more likely to grow up healthy when they care about their school.

School Staying Power

What's the difference between those who drop out of school and those who stay? Researchers Laurence Steinberg, Bradford Brown, Sanford Dornbusch, and Christopher Cross have identified three factors that cause young people to feel disconnected from their schools. They are:

- disinterest
- boredom, and
- lack of connection.

Those who stay in school and do well have the opposite experience. They like it there. They have people who enjoy seeing them every day and who miss them when they're absent. They have families and friends who are proud of what they do there. They have fun and enjoy learning at school; they are stimulated and challenged. Their school is accessible to parents and people of color. In essence, school is a good place for them to be.

Time Together

Three ways to help your child bond to school:

1. Set up a school bulletin board in a prominent place in your home. Hang up the school calendar and school notices. Meet once a month to choose which school activities to attend as a family.

2. Call the school and see if you can subscribe to the school newspaper through the mail. When it arrives, read and discuss it with your child.

3. Make supportive signs for big events.

Talk And Share

Part of bonding to school involves knowing that someone in school cares about you. Tell your child about one adult and one peer in your school that cared about you when you were in school. Ask your child which adults and which friends at school he or she likes best and why.

Liking School

If your child does not like school, ask her or him why. Help your child work to solve the problem, so he or she is able to enjoy school.

FEATURE BUSINESS OF THE WEEK

Tuttle Creek Learning Center, Inc.

Tuttle Creek Learning Center, Inc. is proud to be in business for over 18 years. After purchasing the established center in 1997, Mike and Audra Beyer began molding the business, adding their own unique touches and continued the growing process to accommodate the communities changing needs. Over the past 15 years an infant, toddler and two year old room have been added to the already existing preschool room at the main site, as well as adding before and after school programs in Kewaskum Elementary School and Farmington Elementary School. They have been providing quality childcare for Kewaskum and the surrounding area for over 18 years, while continually improving and adding new features!

Audra brings 27 years of experience to the business and the Administrator, Shelly Marx, brings 23 years of experience. Along with them, there are 10-14 employees depending on the time of year. Mike and Audra Beyer are supportive of their staff going back to school through funding in conjunction with TEACH.

Thank you to all of the parents who have shared their precious children with us! We feel truly blessed to have met each and every one of you. We look forward to many more years of helping your children grow!

Volunteer Days In The Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest In Haskell Noyes State Natural Area

Among the greatest conservation concerns today is the threat from invasive species that have the ability to overrun our native ecosystem and crowd out native plants and wildlife.

Native to Eurasia, garlic mustard is a biennial herb that made its way to North America in the late 1800s and is currently distributed in 37 states, including Wisconsin. Early settlers introduced this plant for cooking and medicinal purposes where it escaped from cultivation into the natural environment and began to spread from the East Coast.

Garlic mustard affects woodland forests and wildlife by displacing undergrowth vegetation and monopolizing the entire forest floor in only a few years. It can thrive both in shade and full sun, upland and flood plains, along trails, roadsides and other habitats.

Please help to control the spread in one of the premier state natural areas — Haskell Noyes in the Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest. Since it is the finest example of southern mesic forest in this part of the state, we need to make sure garlic mustard doesn't take it over and displace the abundant native wildflowers.

Three volunteer days will be held from 5 .p.m

until 8 p.m. on Wednesday, May 24; Thursday, May 25; and from 9 a.m. until noon on Saturday, May 27.

We will meet at the parking lot on County Road GGG just off of County Road SS east from New Prospect. If unable to come for the whole time, follow the main path into the forest and you will find us. Please wear long sleeves, sunscreen, a hat and bring drinking water. Let's make a difference in our Kettle Moraine State Forest!

Please call Connie at 920-533-8939 with any questions.

Northern Unit Kicks Off Summer Nature Programs

Memorial Day Weekend marks the official start to the summer season at the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit. Every weekend from Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day is filled with entertaining and educational nature programs for preschoolers through adults. All the programs are free, except some event locations require a Wisconsin State Park System vehicle admission sticker.

These 15 weeks of marvelous summer fun begin on Friday, May 26, at 8:30 p.m. with a night hike on the Zillmer Trails (located off County Road SS between County Road G and Hwy 67 near New Prospect). We will be exploring the dark for the sounds of the night. On Saturday morning at 10 a.m. wander over to the Mauthe Lake Recreation Area (located off County Road GGG south of County Road SS near New Prospect), or the Long Lake Recreation Area (located off Division Road north of County Road F near Dundee) to solve the mysteries of nature. Youth will discover many of nature's mysteries as part of the Wisconsin Explorer program for ages three and up. On Saturday afternoon from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Long Lake Recreation Area, or on Sunday from 12 to 3 p.m. at the Mauthe Lake Recreation Area, drop in to learn about Wisconsin birds at the Birds of a Feather Drop In at the Beach. You can stop in for a few minutes or stay for an hour.

For the twentieth year, the Friends of the Kettle Moraine are sponsoring the Summer Saturday Evening Events. On Saturday evening, May 27, at 7 p.m., come to the Ice Age Visitor Center (located off Hwy 67 half mile west of Dundee) as Barb and Ken Bowman from Bat Conservation of Wisconsin, present the program, "Winged Mammals: Bats." Learn about Wisconsin's eight bat species including ways people can protect them.

Journey to the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit, and join us for our fun-filled, educational summer programs. For further information, directions to forest locations, or to request a complete summer schedule, contact the staff at the Ice Age Visitor Center. They can be reached at (920) 533-8322. The center is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., and on Saturday and Sunday from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Winged Mammals, Bats

The Friends of the Kettle Moraine's Summer Saturday Evening Events begins the season with "Winged Mammals: Bats." The program will be held on Saturday, May 27, from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Henry S. Reuss Ice Age Visitor Center of the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit. The Ice Age Visitor Center is located off Hwy 67 half mile west of Dundee. The program is free, but donations are always gratefully accepted.

Bats are shrouded in mystery, misconceptions, and myths. Because of their mostly nocturnal habits, bats have been a difficult group of animals to study. But as researchers study the nearly 1,000 species of bats worldwide, they continually learn more amazing facts about these nighttime flying mammals.

Join the experts, Barb and Ken Bowman, from Bat Conservation of Wisconsin as they dispel the myths and misunderstandings surrounding the eight species of bats that call Wisconsin home. They will share insights in the life histories of the state's bats, how they benefit humans, and how people can co-exist peacefully with bats. Discover the dramatic impact white nose syndrome is having on the cave bat species and what you can do to help these incredible insect eating mammals survive. You may even have the opportunity to meet a live bat up close and personal. Make sure to mark your calendars and come out to the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit for an evening of batty fun.

Intro To Backyard Composting

"Intro to Backyard Composting" is the title of a program on Wednesday, May 31 at 6:30 p.m. It is sponsored by Sheboygan County Master Gardeners and will be held in room 5020 of the UW-Extension Office on the UW-Sheboygan campus.

The presenter is Laura Sauermilch. Laura is the owner of an organic farm in Waldo and believes in living in harmony with nature. She also owns an environmental safety and sustainability coaching consulting business called Innovative EHS Solutions LLC.

Learn the basics of composting your food scraps and yard waste into an all-natural fertilizer, all while reducing landfill waste. Laura offers a hands-on casual class and will focus on ways to troubleshoot to ensure success. This is a great class for beginners or those ready for a refresher. This class is free and open to the public.

Morales-Diaz And Schier Honored With St. Joseph's Hospital Annual Nursing Awards

Tracy Morales-Diaz, Kewaskum, and Jenny Schier, West Bend, have been honored with the Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin St. Joseph's Hospital annual Excellence in Nursing Award and Excellence in Nursing Support Personnel Award, respectively. Morales-Diaz works as a registered nurse in the Kraemer Cancer Center, and Schier as a certified nursing assistant on the Medical/Surgical Unit.

"Tracy has been involved in many initiatives to improve the care and comforts for patients, including acquisitions of new technologies and adoption of beneficial procedures," said nominator Martina Hartwell, Kraemer Cancer Center RN, about Morales Diaz. "She is so appreciated by her patients and co-workers, not only for what she does but how she does it. She gives patients hope and comfort and encourages the best in her co-workers. She does all of this not because it is asked of her, but because she is driven to provide the best care possible, with an attitude that inspires others to do the same."

The Excellence in Nursing Award recognizes the outstanding skills and contributions of individual members of the hospitals' nursing staff. Candidates for the award have demonstrated excellence in their area of practice and in the delivery of quality care to patients and their families. They role-model teamwork and demonstrate leadership skills that positively influence patient care.

The Excellence in Nursing Support Personnel Award is designed to recognize the outstanding skills and contributions of individual members of the hospital's nursing support personnel. The award provides an opportunity to celebrate the special care and important work of support personnel.

"When I have Jenny as my tech, I am 100 percent confident that my patients are well taken care of, have all of their needs met and we will have a great day," said nominator Amy Seebantz about Schier. "Jenny is often a preceptor to new staff. She shows new staff not only the basics of the job, but also demonstrates professionalism, confidence, positive attitude, thoroughness, and is a team player. She is a positive person. I have never heard a bad, negative sentence from Jenny. She has a beautiful, infectious smile that brightens up the room. I have had patients comment to me how 'Jenny is always smiling,' and that is so true. She could be having a bad day and her co-workers would never suspect it."

Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin St. Joseph's Hospital, founded in 1930 by local doctors, community leaders and the Sisters of the Divine Savior, is a full-service hospital serving residents of West Bend and Washington County. St. Joseph's Hospital, specializing in women's health and birthing services, cancer care, surgical procedures and rehabilitation services, is part of the Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin health care network, which also includes Froedtert Hospital, Milwaukee; Community Memorial Hospital, Menomonee Falls; and more than 30 primary and specialty care health centers and clinics.

"We used to work together, so this is kind of our get-together thing that we do," Taylor said.

All the Bingo players admit they like to win. But it is the camaraderie they enjoy the most.

Bingo players Ray Lavrenz and Arlene Krueger admit they haven't gotten rich playing Bingo. Still, they like coming month after month, year after year.

"It's a nice, friendly atmosphere," Lavrenz said. "It's a fun night out for young and old."

Judy and Ken Raguse play Bingo in Kewaskum when they aren't wintering and playing Bingo in Florida.

"We've been coming here for several years," Judy Raguse said. "We've gotten to know different people here."

Ken Raguse said they also enjoy the food that is available at the monthly Bingo sessions.

"It's like a date night," Judy Raguse said. "We are going to miss. These people [Bingo volunteers] have really worked hard."

The Sno-Chiefs

The Sno-Chiefs started running Bingo in Kewaskum on June 27, 2008.

Before that, the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce had been running Bingo for decades in Kewaskum. However, when the Chamber no longer had enough volunteers, the Sno-Chiefs stepped up and took over the game.

The Sno-Chiefs, which was incorporated in 1970, have used proceeds from Bingo for various things.

The Sno-Chiefs have given to organizations such as Threshold, a non-profit agency that provides opportunities for people with disabilities.

The group used proceeds to purchase chairs, which were donated to the village to be used in the Annex.

The Sno-Chiefs contributed to Holy Trinity's "We Believe" campaign to build a new parish center and gymnasium.

Money also went toward purchasing a machine that the group uses to groom area trails for snowmobiling.

The group gets reimbursed for maintaining state trails. However, some trails go through farmland, so members go to landowners to get permission to use the trails.

Each year, the group then holds an appreciation dinner for the landowners, Rohlinger said.

Members of the Sno-Chiefs also get together for fun events, sometimes riding their snowmobiles as a group. Some members travel together to ride snowmobiles up north. Some have even traveled together to other states.

Maintaining Bingo

To run Bingo for the past nine years, the Sno-Chiefs have closely followed regulations set by the state.

Every month, 10 volunteers volunteer about seven hours to run the Bingo.

Rohlinger has kept meticulous records so that the operation will pass state audits.

State inspectors stop in and check the operation every six months.

The Kewaskum Bingo license allowed 250 players. However, the average number of players usually hovered around 100 participants, Rohlinger said.

When there were more than 100 players, the payout for each Bingo game was $100.

However, last Wednesday evening, there were just 94 players, so the payout was $80 per game.

Over the years, players also participated in different raffles, and they always knew to look for a chance to win a turkey at Thanksgiving time.

Unless a new group starts Bingo back up in Kewaskum, people will have to go elsewhere to play Bingo.

Other Bingo games in the area include the Hartford Senior Center on the second and fourth Thursday of each month; West Bend Moose Lodge on the first and third Thursday of each month; and the Germantown American Legion Hall every Thursday evening.

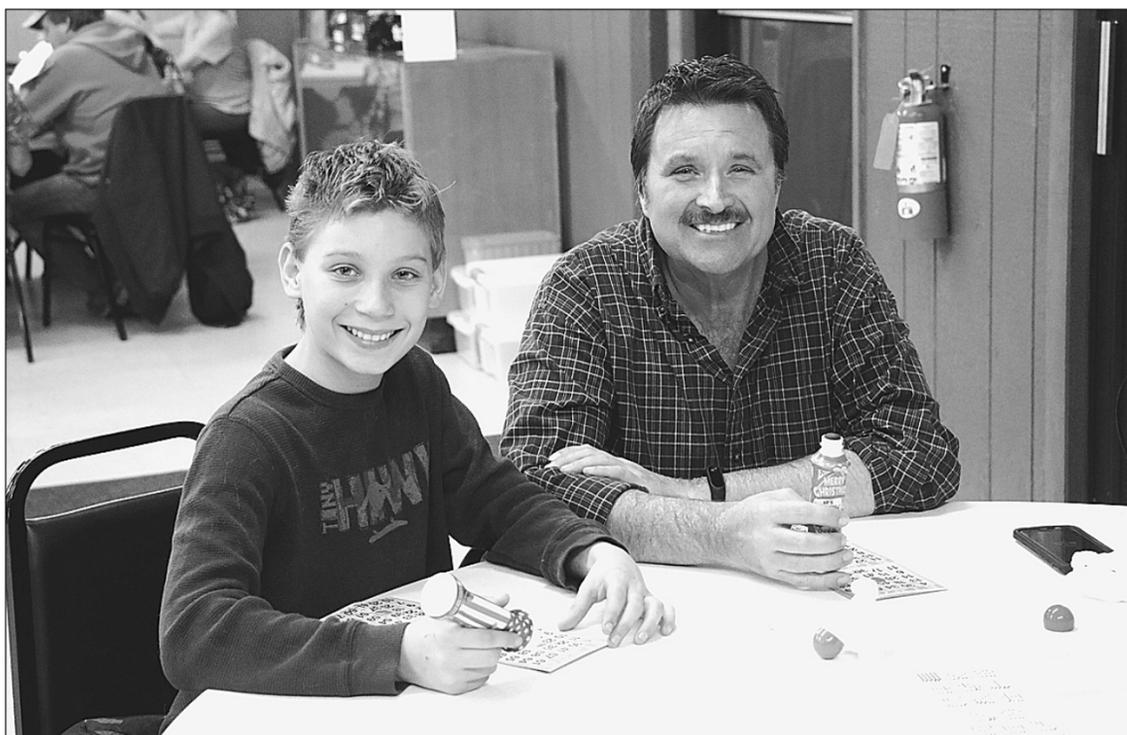

Many will miss having Bingo in Kewaskum, though.

"I am sad. Once a month I get out and enjoy myself. What have I got to do on Wednesday nights now?" Karen Schaub wondered.

Boltonville Rain Days Planned For Memorial Day Weekend

– Boltonville Fire Department Celebrates 100th Anniversary

By Anne Trautner

It was in the late 1960s, and beer distributors were on strike.

That meant that there was no beer available for the Boltonville Volunteer Fire Department's picnic that was held every Memorial Day weekend.

But the firefighters were determined to not let this obstacle prevent them from having a successful fundraiser.

A group of resourceful firemen climbed into their pickup trucks and drove to Oshkosh. There, they loaded their trucks with cases of bottled beer and hauled the brews back to Boltonville to sell at the annual Firemen's Picnic.

The picnic went on as planned and was a success.

There were other years that Mother Nature seemed to be against the picnic. It often rained, and the area even saw snow during the firemen's parade one year.

Still, the firefighters were not to be swayed in their quest to have a successful fundraiser.

They decided to embrace the inclement weather that seemed to strike often. In 1973, the Firemen's Picnic was dubbed "Rain Days," and the name has stuck ever since.

While a number of Boltonville firefighters claim they came up with the event's name, most locals attribute the new official title to Ron Petermann, Kevin Fay and Norbert Dettmann.

This year, the Boltonville Volunteer Fire Department will celebrate its 100th anniversary during the Boltonville Rain Days on Memorial Day Weekend.

Once again, the firefighters are planning on keeping the longstanding tradition of creating a successful festival.

The celebration will feature live music and entertainment all weekend long.

Friday, May 26, will mark the third year the department has held fireworks. Last year it was compared to the fireworks at the Village of Kewaskum's Fourth of July bash. This year it is expected to be even better.

Wenzel Amazements is back for their second year with games and rides for all to enjoy. There will be music, food and fun for the whole family throughout the entire weekend.

On Saturday, May 27, at 3:30 p.m. there will be firemen's water fights at the Boltonville Pond, with area firefighters competing against each other for bragging rights and a trophy.

A parade will begin on Sunday, May 28, at noon. A Bloody Mary bar with all the fixin's will be located in front of Tom's Country Mill at 10:30 a.m.

The huge prize parade starts up Sunday, May 28, at noon. There will be extra cash prizes for the best ideas on the design of a float.

At 3 p.m. there will be a duck derby off the bridge in the park, in which participants can purchase a rubber ducky for $5 each for a chance to win the race.

The music lineup includes:

Friday, May 26- Ozaukee Country Jam Band, 5 to 8:30 p.m.; and Vic Ferrari, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Saturday, May 27- Badger Crew, 3:30 to 7:30 p.m.; and Saving Savannah and Riding Shotgun, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Sunday, May 28- Acoustic Night with Bob and Andy James, 10 a.m. to noon; Goodtime Dutchmen, and Carol and the Keynotes, 1 to 6 p.m.; Pink Houses, 1 to 5:30 p.m.; and Rebel Grace, 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

Boltonville Rain Days will be held Memorial Day weekend. The Boltonville Volunteer Fire Department will celebrate its 100th anniversary at the event. This aerial photo was taken of the Boltonville Rain Days two years ago.

Kettle Country Kids 4-H Club Helps Local Food Pantries

By Max Stowers
Kettle Country Kids 4-H Club

In November, I joined 4-Her's from all over Wisconsin at the Fall Forum. The community service project highlighted there was food pantries.

At the Fall Forum, we talked about ways to help support local food pantries. One family mentioned that they did Birthday Bags. I listened and LOVED the idea and shared it with other youth leaders in my club.

What is a Birthday Bag?

A Birthday Bag contains items that a family would need to make a cake. In our Birthday Bags we have a homemade birthday card, a Beanie Baby, a cake mix, a bottle of oil, a 9-by-13-inch pan, frosting, sprinkles and candles. These aren't items usually found at a food pantry.

We put the items all together so a family that has a child's birthday coming up can grab a birthday bag and have everything they need, except eggs, to make a birthday cake.

We have three members in our club in the Youth Leadership program. Oliver Voight is in fifth grade, Anna Benzing is in eighth grade and I, Max Stowers, am in 11th grade.

The leader gave us each a job. Oliver made a flyer for our club, Anna wrote a letter to a local grocery store to ask for donations and I reached out to community Kiwanis Clubs to see if they would like to support this project.

Our goal was 20 bags. With a donation from the West Bend Early Risers Kiwanis, Kewaskum Kiwanis and Geidel's Piggly Wiggly, we have been able hit our goal plus make another 60 bags! That is a total of 80 Birthday Bags! We plan to continue accepting donations and making Birthday Bags.

The Kettle Country Kids 4-H Club would like to challenge all other Washington County 4-H Clubs to make Birthday Bags for your local food pantry.

EC Golf Race Is Still Very Close

By Judy Harlow

Neither team, Plymouth nor Kewaskum, is giving an inch in the battle for the East Central Conference golf crown.

In a split meet held on May 12, the league-leading Panthers won the first nine-hole competition held at Hon-E-Kor CC in Kewaskum by shooting a 159, and the Indians were one shot back at 160 where they got the nod for second place in a tie-breaker over Waupun.

The golfers then were transported to Campbellsport for the second mini-tour event, and this time it was the Indians getting first in a tie-breaker with Plymouth as both came in with 161s.

The results from those two competitions put Plymouth in first place with 12 points, four fewer than the Indians. Waupun is third with 24 points.

At Kewaskum, Waupun's Collin Holz captured the medal with a 1-under-par 35 on the Blue Nine. After a 36 by a Winneconne player, KHS' Number One man, Jacob Schlosser, Plymouth's Cade Knaus, and another Winneconne golfer came in with 3-over-par 38s.

Plymouth also got a 40 from Cole Bodenschuetz and a 41 from Johno Aschenbach.

After Schlosser, Brad Buechel carded a 40, and the other counters were Jordan Carlton and Talon Ralph with 41s.

Traditionally the Indians have not done well at Auburn Bluffs, but the pressure was on, and they responded with good efforts, led by Carlton's 4-over 39, putting him in a tie for fifth place. Buechel was next with 40, and Ralph and Schlosser both shot 41s.

Knaus tied for medalist honos at 37, then came Aschenbach at 38, Williford at 41 and Alex Shutter at 45. KHS got first because Number 5 man, James Banks, shot a 45 to Bogenschuetz's 47.

Plymouth has now won five out of the eight mini-tour events, while KHS finished first twice.

All the teams will be at the Whispering Springs Golf Course in Fond du Lac Ma 17 for the 18 hole EC tournament, which will figure in the final standings.

Current EC standings: 1. Plymouth, 12 points; 2. Kewaskum, 16; 3. Waupun, 24; 4. Winneconne, 29; 5. KM Lutheran, 42; 6. Campbellsport, 49; 7. Berli, 56; 8. Ripon, 64.

On its home Quit Qui Oc Golf Course in Elkhart Lake, Plymouth had all four counters shoot under 40 to win EC Meet No. 6 by 12 shots over Kewaskum, 148 to 160.

Cole Bodenschuetz captured the medal with an even par 35, while teammate Cade Knaus was next with a 36 and Jake Willeford and Johno Aschenbach came in with 38 and 39. The Indians had great consistency, too, only a couple shots back of each of the Panthers. Sophomore Talon Ralph tied for sixth overall with a 4-over-par 39, then came Jacob Schlosser and Jordan Carlton at 40, and Brad Buechel rounded out the scoring in 11th place at 41.

KHS coach Casey Scheel called Plymouth's score "incredible," adding, "I am very happy with our 160. This is the time of year where we want to start playing our best golf."

EC Meet at Quit Qui Oc: 1. Plymouth, 138; 2. Kewaskum, 160; 3. Winneconne, 164; 4. Waupun, 167; 5. KML, 175; 6. Campbellsport, 188; 7. Berlin, 194; 8. Ripon, 218.

On May 8, the Indians placed second in the first annual Berlin Invitational which was played at Mascoutin Golf Course and used a format of six holes of alternate shot, six of scramble and six of bestball for each school's four, two-man teams.

Kewaskum, which had difficulty with the alternate shot portion of the event, finished second to Hortonville, 239 strokes to 243.

The Indian teams consisted of Jacob Schlosser and Jacob Loehr, Jordan Carlton and Scott Hiltunen, Brad Buechel and James Banks and Talon Ralph and Travis Griesemer.

Lehn Has Two More No-Hitters As Indians Go 5-0 Over The Past Week

By Judy Harlow

Timely hitting, more great pitching by Kennedy Lehn and solid defense helped the Kewaskum softball team to a pair of victories in the Southern Door Invitational on May 13.

The Indians opened with a 4-0 shutout victory over Seymour and slipped past host Southern Door 1-0 in the nightcap. With these latest wins, KHS is 17-3 on the year and heading for a third straight 20-win season.

Lehn did a nice job getting out of jams after allowing five hits and walking two. "They left runners on second and third a couple times," KHS coach Jeff Gosse said, reporting his pitcher struck out 14, including several in clutch situations.

Lehn also produced the biggest hit of the game, nailling a home run to left-center in the bottom of the first inning with Maddie Geidel on base, thanks to a Seymour error.

The score stayed at 2-0 until the sixth when Kenzie Lehn singled, Skylar Donath doubled her home, and Leah Theusch delivered an RBI single for a 4-2 zip lead.

"That was all with two outs," Gosse said, reporting Bre Trepes followed with a hit, the Indians' fourth in a row, but she was left stranded. Trepes had two of KHS' eight hits.

Against Southern Door, the only run of the game was scored by the Indians in the fifth inning. Gosse had Sydney Donath as the designated hitter for KHS, and she started the rally with a smash off the pitcher's glove for a single. Abby Baumann came in to run for Donath and was sacrificed to second by Leah Theusch and promptly stole third. "Then, Bre knocked her in with a double," Gosse said.

Geidel wound up with three hits while Trepes had two.

Lehn handcuffed the Eagles, allowing no hits, while striking out 11 and walking just three. "We've been in 20 games, and she has five no-hitters," Gosse said, indicating that has to be the most or near the most no-hitters by anyone in the state.

Just one Eagle reached second base, on a walk and a sacrifice, according to Gosse, who said Lehn got the next batter to pop out to short and struck out the next girl to end the inning.

Defensively, the Indians "played clean," with no errors, according to the coach.

Kennedy Lehn pitched a no-hitter, her fourth of the year, in a 13-0, five-inning decision over Plymouth in a game played at Kiwanis Park on May 11.

Lehn struck out 13 of the 16 Panthers she faced. She walked one Panther, Sommer Stoney, in the fourth inning.

The Indians had their way against starter and loser, Sylvia Peters, who gave up 10 runs on 11 hits in the contest that was shortened because of the 10-run "mercy rule."

Maddie Geidel smashed a home run, her sixth of the year, going 2x3 while Bre Trepes went 2x3, as did Megan Marx (2b) and Leah Theusch.

With the win, the Indians improved to 9-2, a couple games behind Waupun, which is 12-1.

Current EC standings: 1. Waupun, 12-1; 2. Kewaskum, 9-2; 3.

Winneconne, 9-4; 4. Campbellsport, 7-5; 5. Plymouth, 3-9; 6. KM Lutheran, 2-7; 7. Berlin, 1-6; 8. Ripon, 0-9.

On May 9, the Indians took both ends of a doubleheader from KML, but the Chargers made them work hard for the one-run, 3-2 and 6-5 victories.

"They gave us fits," KHS coach Jeff Gosse said. "We were lucky to get out of both games with wins."

In the opener, Kennedy Lehn struck out 13 and walked five, also giving up five hits for the two Charger runs, which were both earned and came in the top of the sixth, cutting the Indians lead to one run.

Kewaskum scored a single run in the fourth and two in the fifth when Kenzie Lehn singled and later scored on a wild pitch, and then Bre Trepes singled and Maddie Geidel drove her in.

The Indians had seven hits, including two by Geidel, who had a double and an RBI, and two by Brittany Williams.

In the nightcap, Gosse started Trepes, who gave up five runs (four earned) on five hits in 4 and 1/3 innings. She struck out two and walked no one. Lehn came in to finish the game, striking out six, walking a pair and not giving up any hits.

Kewaskum had 13 hits, scoring single runs in the first and the seventh and two in the second and fifth. Trepes was the hitting star, going 3x4 with a pair of doubles and an RBI while Lehn, Ashley Trapp Leah Theusch and Megan Marx each had two hits. Geidel and Marx had doubles.

Sophia Bartelt shot her first turkey on Friday, May 12. Sophia lives in Kohlsville and is a fifth grader at I4Learning Community School.

'Fun' Track Meet Produces Some Good Results

By Judy Harlow

With the East Central Conference meet, the Division 2 regional and sectional coming up, Kewaskum track coach Kris Evans decided to lighten the load for some of his athletes in the May 9 quad the Indians hosted.

"We're trying some people in different events tonight because quads are fun," Evans said while his 4x400-meter relay team, minus Jake Hrica and Derrek Brock, were lining up for the final event of the night.

The Indian foursome of Tony Steger, Gabe Christenson, Brady Hanson and Cade Peterson did win the race with a time of 3 minutes, 34.65 seconds (3:34.56), and Kewaskum won the boys' side of the meet, scoring 88 points, eight more than runner-up Ripon (80).

The Indians won six events, plus three relays. Their best finish was a 1-2-3 in the 100 where Peterson, who normally runs the 200, Kyle Pamperin and Cameron Dodge finished with respective times of 11.54, 11.62 and 11.68.

Brock was a double winner, taking the 110 high hurdles with a time of 15.41 and posting a good time of 52.28 in the open 400 where he was pushed by Quynian Duffy of Ripon, who hit the finish line in 52.54.

"It put him just .06 away from the school record," Evans said of Brock's hurdle time.

Hrica was switched to the 800, and in his first try at the new length, he finished second with a 2:14.41.

In the field events, there were some pleasant surprises, namely a win by Hanson in his first try at the long jump where he finished first with a leap of 19 feet, 10 inches (19-10), and junior Riley Donovan hurled the discus 152-01, his best by eight feet and nine inches.

"I got it on my second throw," Donovan said, indicating, "Hopefully I'm hitting my best come playoffs (conference and regional)."

When asked what he thinks he can hit in the upcoming meeting, Donovan said, "Hopefully 160 feet."

Also, Tony Leister was the winner in the pole vault competition, clearing 11-6 and winning in a jump off with Aidan Schoff of Ripon.

The effort by the winning 4x100 foursome, Steger, Hanson, Pamperin and Dodge, pleased Evans, who said, "Their 44.20 matched their best time."

The 4x200 relay, comprised of Christenson, Kyle Beth, Shawn O'Keefe and Adam Bruss, also took first, crossing the finish line in 1:38.97.

Other top three finishes by KHS boys included: shot put — Donovan, 2nd, 44-05.5; discus — Peterson, 3rd, 137-05; long jump — Christenson, 2nd, 18-06.50 and triple jump — Christenson, 3rd, 37-04.74.

Highlights by the KHS girls were provided by pole vaulter Abby Meidl, and distance runners, Ramaela Olla and Grace Marchello. Meidl cleared 8-09 for a personal record (PR) and first place, while Olla ran a personal best 12:19.22 in the 3,200.

"We ran them (boys and girls) together (in the 3,200) because there were just two girls in the race, Evans said.

Marchello cut several seconds off her previous best 1,600 time to win in 5:45.94.

Other KHS wins came in the following: 400 — Star Below-Kopf, 1:11.12; 100 hurdles — Maddy Thull, 18.19; and 300 hurdles — Sarah Butschlick, 53.99.

Hannah Preder (13-03.50) and Melissa Schneider (13-01.25) finished 2-3 in the long jump while Kelli Oelke picked up a second (82-04) in the discus and Meidl was third in the high jump (4-04); Thull was third in the 300 hurdles (55.97) and Butschlick third in the 100 hurdles (19.4).

After competing in the EC championships on May 16, the Indians will travel to Berlin for a Division 2 regional on May 22.

Kewaskum Quad Track Meet

Boys team scores: 1. Kewaskum, 88; 2. Ripon, 80; 3. Winneconne, 73; 4. Waupun, 31.

Girls team scores: 1. Winneconne, 95.5; 2. Kewaskum, 80.5; 3. Ripon, 62; 4. Waupun, 20.

Kewaskum High School Wrestlers Bring Home Two Firsts And Other Awards

By Judy Harlow

Eric Bauer and Braeden Scoles won titles and five other Kewaskum athletes placed in the top six at the Wisconsin Wrestling Federation Freestyle Championships held in Wisconsin Dells on May 6.

Bauer, who finished third at 132 pounds in the WIAA Division 2 state wrestling meet in February, breezed through the competition in the Cadet division at 145 pounds. Bauer, a member of the Ringers team from Germantown, won all five of his matches by tech fall (10 points or more).

In his semifinal match, the Kewaskum High sophomore defeated Caleb Hatch of Hudson 16-5, and he shut out Wyatt McCutchen of La Crosse in the finals by a score of 10-0.

Scoles, a middle school student, had an impressive outing in the 24-man, 105-pound Schoolboy bracket. He posted two tech falls and had three decisions, two by one point, en route to the title.

In the semifinals, Scoles, representing X-

Factor Elite, defeated Drake Hayward of the Neenah Aviators by a score of 8 to 4, and in the finals, he edged Titus Hammen of the Kaukauna Grapplers, 8-7.

Young Ethan Immel, who wrestles for the West Bend Wildcats, was among 18 wrestlers in the 60-pound weight class for Intermediates. He earned a spot in the finals by defeating Kellen Wolbert of Askren, 18-12, then lost to Mukwonago's Riley Lord 16-8 in the finals.

Alex Deheck, wrestling in the Cadet Division, placed fourth at 152 pounds. In the opening round, Deheck was beaten by the eventual champion, Joshua Otto of Askren Wrestlers, 10-0.

In the consolation bracket, he first received a bye, then ran off five wins in the row, including one by pin and two by tech fall, before getting pinned by Cage Choppoch of Team Wisconsin in the battle for third place.

Tanner Goeman, a teammate of Bauer and Deheck at KHS, placed fifth in the Cadet 160-pound class. For fifth place, he pinned Logan Shramek of Blair Taylor in 1:46.

Brent Krejcarek took fifth place in the Novice Division at 60 pounds, while Stone Pomeroy placed fifth in the 90-pound weight class for Novices.

Krejcarek, who wrestles for Askren, defeated Caston Gasda of New Lisbon 10-0 for fifth place, while Pomeroy was a 10-8 winner over Jaden Sheppard of World Gold in his last match.

Braden Maertz, who won both freestyle and Greco-Roman titles a year ago when he was an eighth grader at Kewaskum Middle School, did not place in either division this year. Wrestling at 132 pounds in the Cadet Division, Maertz finished 2-2 in freestyle.

The Greco-Roman competition was held on May 7, also in the Dells. Kewaskum's best place was a second by Krejcerak, while Immel took a third, Scoles and Nick Deheck (who did not place in the freestyle meet) took fourths and Pomeroy placed fifth.

Soccer Team Is Going Through A Rough Stretch

By Judy Harlow

With its scoring leader at her sister's graduation, the Kewaskum High girls soccer team struggled offensively in three games at the annual Kiel Tournament. "We lost all three, and we didn't even score a goal," KHS coach Luke Piwoni said, reporting on the 3-0 loss to Ozaukee, the 4-0 loss to New Holstein and the 1-0 loss to Random Lake. It was evident the Indians missed senior Molly Schulteis, who leads the team in scoring with five goals. Also missed was defender Brandi Geldnich, who took a shot to the face in a recent game. KHS stayed close to Ozaukee and New Holstein until the second half and gave up the lone goal to Random Lake in the closing seconds of the first half. (Teams played 25-minute halves in this tournament.) Kewaskum had five shots against the Rams, who came up with six scoring chances. Concerning good individual efforts, Piwoni said, "I thought Morgan Denlinger had a really good day. She was solid everywhere. It was good to see." Piwoni also cited Kaylee DuCharme. "She had a good effort defensively, too," he said. KHS, now 4-10, is hosting Berlin this afternoon (May 18). The Lady Indians needed a boost and got it behind a 2-0 shutout win over Ripon on May 11. Senior Molly Schulteis provided the leadership and the scoring in this victory, the second for Kewaskum in East Central games where it is currently 2-6. The Indians came out of the gates fast, scoring at 3:44 with Schulteis beating the Tiger goal keeper after taking a pass from Lizzy Bauer. The score stayed at 1-0 until late in the second half (84:11) when Schulteis scored again. This time Hailey Herriges got the assist. The Indians had 26 shots, while goalie Taylor Cook was credited with six saves in the contest. "We had a lot of opportunities," coach Luke Piwoni said, noting Mikayla Dogs played well defensively. Current EC Standings: 1. Plymouth, 10-0; 2. Winneconne, 9-1; 3. KML, 6-4; 4. Campbellsport, 5-4; 5. Waupun, 4-5; 6. Kewaskum,

2-6; 7. Ripon, 0-7; 8. Berlin, 0-9. Powerhouse Winneconne scored five goals in the first half and another four in the second toward a 9-0 shutout win over host Kewaskum on May 8. The Indians got off just four shots in the EC contest, while the Wolves had 28. Emily Heyroth had a three-goal, "hat trick" for the winners.

KHS Tennis Team Picks Up Two More Victories

By Judy Harlow

The Kewaskum High boys tennis teams went two for three the past week, losing only to Kohler, which is currently ranked Number 7 among Division 2 teams in the state. The Indians did well versus Two Rivers and Howards Grove, winning both matches by 6-1 scores to improve to 4-2 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference with two matches remaining. "It was a beautiful day for tennis," KHS coach Andrew Dahlberg said about the May 11 date with host Howards Grove. "A great win for Kyle Loehr and good for two doubles to get a win." Playing at Number 2, Loehr lost the first set to Brandon Kushnier, 2-6, then came flying back to take the next two, 6-3, 6-1 in a long match. The Number 2 doubles team of Zackary Brogaard and Tyler Schellinger won 6-1, 6-2. The singles swept for the second day in a row, with Devin Schneider dominant at No. 1, disposing of Chase Williams in short order, 6-4, 6-0. In a battle of top double teams in the conference, Jared Chesak and Brent Goeden lost a tough, three-set match, 6-3, 3-6, 5-7. "The third set was full of close calls and great shots," Dahlberg said. "I still believe they are the top doubles team in the conference." Goeden and Chesak are currently 5-1 in conference and 9-3 overall, and all the other KHS players, except for Schneider, who always faces the opponent's top player, are at or over .500. The current records are as follows: Loehr, 6-5; Matthew Krautkramer, 5-4; Bryce Halvorsen, 6-5; Brogaard and Schellinger, 6-6; and Gavin Curtin and Zachary Fahrenrug, 5-5. Kewaskum 6, Howards Grove 1 Singles: No. 1 Devin Schneider def. Chase Williams, 6-4, 6-0; No. 2 Kyle Loehr def. Brandon Kushnier, 2-6, 6-3, 6-1; 3. No. 3 Matthew Krautkramer def. Caleb Holzman, 6-3, 6-2; No. 4 Bryce Halvorsen def. Peyton Roth, 6-2, 6-3. Doubles: No. 1 Brent Goeden/Jared Chesak lost to Eric Reinemann/Keegan Rhynas, 6-3, 3-6, 5-7; No. 2 Zackary Brogaard/Tyler Schellinger def. Ally Wamser/Maverick Moore, 6-1, 6-2; No. 3 Gavin

Curtin/Zachary Fahrenrug def. Killian Poetter/Zach Ziegelbauer, 6-2, 6-2. Kewaskum 6, Two Rivers 1 Singles: No. 1 Devin Schneider def. Isaiah Polich 6-1, 6-0; No. 2 Kyle Loehr def. Tanner Greenwood, 6-4, 7-5; No. 3. Matthew Krautkramer def. Carson Koch, 7-5, 6-4; No. 4 Bryce Halvorsen def. Ethan Limon, 6-2, 7-4 (6). Doubles: No. 1 Jared Chesak/Brent Goeden def. Torny Simons/Alek Konopacki, 4-6, 7-5; 2-0; No. 2 Zackary Brogaard/Tyler Schellinger lost to Laken Duerschmidt/Casey Hendrickson, 4-6, 4-6; No. 4 Gavin Curtin/Zachary Fahrenrug def. Andrew Herseler/Julian Weber, 6-3, 6-2. Unbeaten Kohler had too much experience for Kewaskum and won the match, but the Indians did earn two points, the most any EWC team has scored vs. the Blue Bombers this year. The wins came at Number 1 double and Number 4 singles. At 1, Brent Goeden and Jared Chesak were down 0-3 in the first set before catching fire and winning 7-5, 7-5 behind some great serving, acrobatic returns and good shot placement. "I was Really proud of 1 dubs for the way they played today. After starting the match playing back, they became aggressive and changed the match in their favor," KHS coach Andrew Dahlberg said. "It was a great effort by both players and showed their resiliency after being down early. A true tell of who they are as people." About Bryce Halvorsen, who won in three sets, the coach said, "It was a long match against a solid player, and I think he learned a lot about himself today." Kohler 5, Kewaskum 2 Singles: No. 1 Devin Schneider lost to Archie Brohn, 0-6, 0-6; No. 2 Kyle Loehr lost to Avinash Murthy, 0-6, 0-6; No. 3. Matthew Krautkramer lost to George Palof, 0-6, 1-6; No. 4 Bryce Halvorsen def. Zach Jarentowski, 6-2, 1-6, 7-5. Doubles: No. 1 Jared Chesak/Brent Goeden def. John Vallo/Zach Hoell, 7-5, 7-5; No. 2 Tyler Schellinger/Zackary Brogaard lost to Ben Guesneau/Evan Udovich, 4-6, 4-6; No. 3 Gavin Curtin/Zachary Fahrenrug lost to Joe Conklin/Leo Fink, 1-6, 4-6.

Froedtert And MCW FastCare Clinic Opens In West Bend

Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin health network will open a FastCare health clinic inside the new Meijer store at 2180 South Main Street in West Bend. The clinic, which opened May 16, will provide easy access to affordable care for many minor health problems such as cold and flu symptoms, sore throats, and ear, sinus and bladder infections.

The clinic will be staffed by Froedtert & MCW nurse practitioners and physician assistants. It will be the fourth Froedtert & MCW FastCare clinic to open in a Meijer store, with clinics in Greenfield on West Layton Avenue, in Sussex on Lisbon Road, and in Waukesha on East Sunset Drive.

"Locating our FastCare clinics inside a Meijer store is another way we are simplifying health care by meeting people where they are," said Mark Lodes, MD, president, Froedtert & MCW Community Physicians. "If a minor complaint turns out to be serious, the FastCare staff is right there to assist in finding the appropriate care."

To ensure continuity of care, the Froedtert & MCW FastCare clinic will be linked to the electronic health record system serving the physician offices, clinics, hospitals and emergency rooms of the Froedtert & MCW health network. However, FastCare services are open to all, not just Froedtert & MCW patients.

The Froedtert & MCW FastCare clinic will be open weekdays from 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.; Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Sundays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and select holidays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Patients must be at least 18 months old. No appointment is needed, and because patients are taken on a walk-in basis, waiting times typically are less than 15 minutes. The cost of a FastCare visit is $65, including basic laboratory tests completed on site. Insurance can be billed for reimbursement. Pharmacy service is available onsite at the Meijer pharmacy or at the pharmacy of the patient's choice. Learn more at froedtert.com/fastcare.

Froedtert & MCW FastCare clinics are recognized by the American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP) as a healthcare provider that has accepted and supports the AAFP's guidelines for retail health clinics.

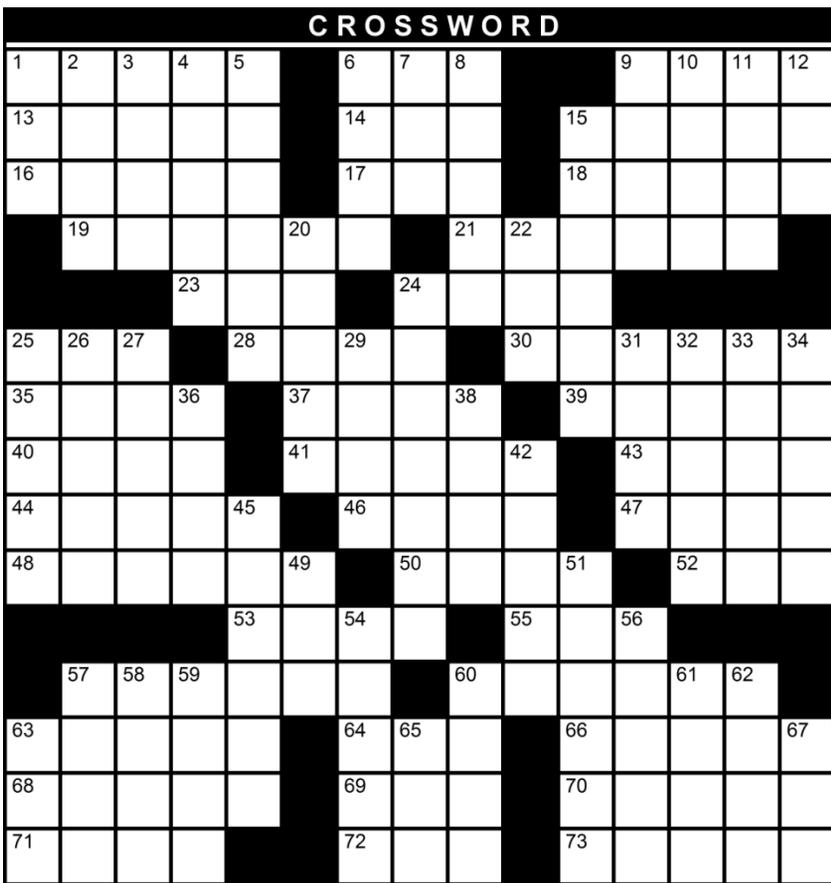

Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin regional health network is a partnership between Froedtert Health and the Medical College of Wisconsin. It comprises eastern Wisconsin's only academic medical center, Froedtert Hospital, Milwaukee; and Community Memorial Hospital, Menomonee Falls, and St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend. The health network includes more than 2,000 physicians across 25 primary and specialty clinical locations, representing the collaboration of Wisconsin's largest multispecialty physician practice with a community-based physician group. The network's three hospitals have 781 staffed beds, nearly 40,000 annual admissions and more than 900,000 annual outpatient visits. Froedtert & MCW network physicians have more than 700,000 annual patient visits at its health centers and clinics. For more information, visit froedtert.com.

Wenninger, Schmidt, Loehr, Green, Bogar Top PDTR A Mains

By Jeff Pederson
Pedal Down Promotions

With spring-like temperatures yielding pleasant spectating conditions and another impressive collection of 108 competitors in the pit area, the second Plymouth Dirt Track racing program of the 2017 season took to the third-mile Sheboygan County Fairground track Saturday, May 13.

The evening's A main events featured plenty of green-flag action, including some good battles at the front of field. On top of that, two of the five A main events were contested in impressive, caution-free fashion.

In the 25-lap Sprint Car A main, Kewaskum's Shane Wenninger completed his comeback from a serious back injury last June by capturing his second career PDTR A-main triumph.

Also claiming A-main hardware courtesy of trophy sponsor Cellcom were Jim Schmidt of Cleveland (Late Model), Matt Loehr of Dotyville (Grand National), Justin Green of Sheboygan Falls (B Mod) and Chad Bogar of Sun Prairie (Micro Sprint).

Lance Fassbender of Burnett led the Sprint Car A main to the green flag from the pole position flanked by outside front row starter Paul Pokorski of West Bend. Fassbender bolted out to a solid cushion in the early stages of the race, building up a half straightaway lead over Wenninger by lap five on the predominately one-groove racing surface.

As the track began to take rubber, passing came at a very high premium. Fassbender caught up to the rear of the field on lap eight, which made things quite interesting for several laps as the leaders attempted to find a way by the lapped cars.

With Fassbender boxed in behind slower cars, Wenninger was able to close the gap considerably by lap 10. One lap later, Wenninger managed to dive past Fassbender entering turn one before powering into the lead exiting turn two.

Wenninger, who was steering his own 53 machine after wheeling the 51M Mayer Automotive car normally driven by Jim Melis on opening night, maintained control as he worked through heavy lapped traffic. On lap 14, the first caution of the race came out when Cascade's Mitchell Yurmanovich and Robbie Pribnow of Lomira made contact in turn three.

After the restart, Wenninger maintained control and was just about to enter lapped traffic again when the second caution flag appeared on lap 18 for Fassbender, who slowed to a stop on the backstretch. After exiting to make repairs in the pits, Fassbender was able to rejoin the race at the rear of the field.

Wenninger, who missed most of the 2016 racing season after breaking two vertebrae in his back in an accident on June 11, held on over the final seven laps to record his second career PDTR Sprint Car A main victory over Brandon McMullen of Appleton, who placed second after starting sixth.

Pokorski wound up third, opening night A-main winner Tim Haddy of Waupun charged from the 11th starting spot to take fourth and 14th starter Kurt Davis of West Allis placed fifth.

Outside front row starter Chris Carlson of North Cape grabbed the lead on the opening lap of the 25-lap Late Model A main followed by polesitter Randy Markwardt of Sheboygan, who is marking his 40th year of racing in 2017.

Carlson wasted no time building up a solid lead over Markwardt by lap four. On lap seven, Jim Schmidt, who started third, moved in to take second place from Markwardt.

Three laps later, Schmidt closed in on Carlson and began to apply heavy pressure for the top spot. Schmidt worked the high side of the track to pull off the winning move in turn four on lap 13.

Once ahead, Schmidt would not be denied as he sliced his way skillfully through lapped traffic en route to his 10th career PDTR Late Model A main victory in the caution-free race.

Defending PDTR Late Model champion Tim Buhler placed second after starting fifth, 2014 PDTR Late Model champ Mitch McGrath came up from his eighth starting position to take third, Carlson wound up fourth and after capturing the opening night A-main victory and three-time PDTR Late Model champion Brad Mueller placed fifth after starting 11th.

Outside front row starter Matt Loehr seized the lead on the opening lap of the 25-lap Grand National A main with third starter and 2011 PDTR Grand National champion Mark Fieber of Cascade falling in line in second.

The first caution of the race appeared on lap seven when polesitter Steven Weber of Plymouth suffered a flat right rear tire. When the race returned to green flag action, Loehr held a solid lead over Fieber as 2010 PDTR Grand National champ Brian Gilles of Plymouth moved in from his sixth starting spot to pressure Fieber for the runner-up position.

The second and final caution of the race appeared on lap 13 when Justin Erickson of Plymouth spun in turn three. On lap 15, Fieber pulled in to pressure Loehr and remained within striking distance, but was unable to wrestle the lead away from Loehr in the closing laps.

Loehr rolled on to his fourth career PDTR Grand National A-main triumph. Fieber had to settle for second, Gilles placed third, Tyler Kulow of Plymouth moved up from the eighth starting spot to finish fourth and fourth starter Jeff Lammers of Plymouth finished fifth.

Polesitter Rick Kretschmann of Sheboygan Falls grabbed the lead at the drop of the green flag of the B Mod A main. On lap two, third starter Cody Eickberg of Plymouth slipped past Mark Hoepfner to take second.

Eickberg quickly reeled in Kretschmann and appeared ready to strike when the first of four caution flags appeared on lap five for a spin in turn two involving Jonathan Singer. On the restart, Kretschmann spun in turn two while leading, which gave the top spot over to Eickberg on the ensuing restart.

When the race returned to green flag action, Green, who started seventh, began to make his presence felt in a big way. Green started to pressure fifth starter Brandon Berth of Cascade for second place beginning on lap seven. Green and Berth battled side by side until the third caution appeared on lap eight when Brad Carman spun in turn two.

The duel between Green and Berth raged on until Green finally inched ahead in turn one on lap 12. Green then set his sights on Eickberg, ducking low in turn one on lap 14 and emerging with the lead later in the lap in turn four. However, Eickberg would not back down and held tough on the high line as the two duelled side by side over the next two laps.

Green finally surged ahead for good on lap 16 before the final caution flag flew on lap 17 for a spin involving Glen Blahnke of Sheboygan Falls and opening night A-main winner Chad Vetting of Valders exiting turn four. Blahnke accepted responsibility for causing the accident, which placed him at the rear of the field and allowed Vetting to keep his spot in the top five.

Green held on over the final eight laps to secure his first career B Mod A main victory. Eickberg held on for second, Berth took third, Vetting placed fourth after starting 11th and Elijah Koenig of Beaver Dam finished fifth after starting sixth.

Outside front row starter Chad Bogar of Sun Prairie cruised to a flag-to-flag victory in the non-stop 15-lap Micro Sprint A Main.

Defending PDTR Micro Sprint Champion Zach Boden of Madison took second, followed by fourth starter Tory Strauss of Waterloo in third, polesitter Denver Larsen of Shiocton in fourth and seventh starter Dylan Larsen of Shiocton in fifth.

Butch Hafemann of Campbellsport won the special Wingless Super Modified A main. B main victories went to Justin Miller of Plymouth (Sprint Car), Will Sorce of Franklin (Grand National) and Craig Gessner of Beechwood (B Mod).

PDTR racing action will continue on Saturday, May 20, with racing scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. The evening will honor all police, fire and EMT personnel with free admission to all personnel showing a credential.

The Plymouth Dirt Track at the Sheboygan County Fairgrounds in Plymouth is located at 229 Fairview Drive in Plymouth. For more information, visit www.plymouthdtr.com or check out Plymouth Dirt Track Racing on Facebook.

Opportunity for input on decisions affecting your water quality

The first and third Monday of each month are Village Board meetings. They are held at 204 First Street, upstairs, starting at 7 p.m.

Health Information

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's safe drinking water hotline (800-426-4791).

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune systems disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Environmental Protection Agency's safe drinking water hotline (800-426-4791).

Source(s) of Water

Source ID	Source	Depth (in feet)	Status
2	Groundwater	503	Active
3	Groundwater	460	Active
4	Groundwater	360	Active
5	Groundwater	280	Active

To obtain a summary of the source water assessment please contact, Matt Heiser at (262) 626-8484.

Educational Information

The sources of drinking water, both tap water and bottled water, include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally occurring minerals and, in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

Contaminants that may be present in source water include:

- Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations and wildlife.
- Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally-occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining or farming.
- Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban stormwater runoff and residential uses.
- Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban stormwater runoff and septic systems.
- Radioactive contaminants, which can be naturally occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA prescribes regulations that limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. FDA regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water, which shall provide the same protection for public health.

Definitions

Term	Definition
AL	Action Level: The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
Level 1 Assessment	A Level 1 assessment is a study of the water system to identify potential problems and determine, if possible, why total coliform bacteria have been found in our water system.
Level 2 Assessment	A Level 2 assessment is a very detailed study of the water system to identify potential problems and determine, if possible, why an E. coli MCL violation has occurred or why total coliform bacteria have been found in our water system, or both, on multiple occasions.
MCL	Maximum Contaminant Level: The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.
MCLG	Maximum Contaminant Level Goal: The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.
MFL	million fibers per liter
MRDL	Maximum residual disinfectant level: The highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for control of microbial contaminants.
MRDLG	Maximum residual disinfectant level goal: The level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.
mrem/year	millirems per year (a measure of radiation absorbed by the body)
NTU	Nephelometric Turbidity Units
pCi/l	picocuries per liter (a measure of radioactivity)
ppm	parts per million, or milligrams per liter (mg/l)
ppb	parts per billion, or micrograms per liter (ug/l)
ppt	parts per trillion, or nanograms per liter
ppq	parts per quadrillion, or picograms per liter
TCR	Total Coliform Rule
TT	Treatment Technique: A required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.

Detected Contaminants

Your water was tested for many contaminants last year. We are allowed to monitor for some contaminants less frequently than once a year. The following tables list only those contaminants which were detected in your water. If a contaminant was detected last year, it will appear in the following tables without a sample date. If the contaminant was not monitored last year, but was detected within the last five years, it will appear in the tables below along with the sample date.

Inorganic Contaminants

Unregulated Contaminants

Unregulated contaminants are those for which EPA has not established drinking water standards. The purpose of unregulated contaminant monitoring is to assist EPA in determining the occurrence of unregulated contaminants in drinking water and whether future regulation is warranted. EPA required us to participate in this monitoring.

Additional Health Information

While your drinking water meets USEPA's standard for arsenic, it does contain low levels of arsenic. USEPA's standard balances the current understanding of arsenic's possible health effects against the costs of removing arsenic from drinking water. USEPA continues to research the health effects of low levels of arsenic, which is a mineral known to cause cancer in humans at high concentrations and is linked to other health effects such as skin damage and circulatory problems.

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. Kewaskum Waterworks is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at www.epa.gov/safewater/lead.

Ideas For Parents: Easy Things To Help Your Child Succeed – Neighborhood Boundaries

Why do some kids grow up with ease while others struggle? Search Institute Researchers identified specific, practical things that can have a tremendous and lasting positive impact on youth. Rather than focusing on the problems, this research concentrates on the Developmental Assets – the positive things (such as parent support and commitment to learning) that help young people thrive. The assets are values, experiences and positive qualities that young people need to help them make wise decisions and choose positive lifestyles. The more assets they have, the better.

Neighborhood Boundaries

Youth are more likely to grow up healthy when neighbors take responsibility for monitoring young people's behavior.

When you ask people why they don't take responsibility for monitoring young people's behavior in the neighborhood, they point to fear. They're afraid of the young people. They're afraid of the kid's parents. In essence, they're afraid of their neighbors.

Connecting With Your Neighbors

Before you decide on appropriate boundaries for your neighborhood, connect with other neighbors to get to know them. Try these simple ideas:

- Hold a front-yard, neighborhood barbecue.
- Organize all the dog owners to take a walk together once a week.

• Suggest a parent get-together. Ask older youth to supervise and play with the younger children.

• Contact your local police department and ask for help in having a block meeting to discuss safety.

This column is sponsored by Elevate, Inc., a Washington County non-profit whose mission it is to address the root causes of high risk behaviors through prevention, intervention and residential programming that focus on drug and alcohol issues, mental health and delinquency.
