Pleas Reached By Two In Area Drug Ring Busts

By Andrea Hansen Abler

Pleas have been reached with two of eight people arrested in a drug ring bust in Campbellsport on March 31 of this year. Lori Beth Merget, and John Michael Plzak entered guilty pleas in Washington County court on Monday, July 17.

Merget, 57, of Campbellsport pled guilty to two of the charges — conspiracy to commit manufacture/deliver schedule I, II narcotics, and party to a crime of possession with intent to deliver-heroin. Two other charges were dismissed but read into the court proceeding — conspiracy to commit manufacture/deliver heroin, and party to a crime of possession with intent to deliver heroin.

Both counts she pled guilty to are Class E felonies. A sentencing hearing for Merget has been scheduled for Monday, Sept. 11, in Washington County Justice Center courtroom 1254. She was considered the leader of this drug ring.

John Michael Plzak, 31, of Kewaskum also entered a guilty plea. He entered the plea for the charge of part to a crime of possession with intent to deliver heroin. A charge of conspiracy to commit manufacture/deliver heroin was dismissed but read into the record during his hearing.

The count Plzak pled guilty to is a Class F felony. A sentencing hearing for Plzak has been scheduled for Wednesday, Aug. 23, in Washington County Justice Center courtroom 1254.

Hearings are set for the other six involved in the next month. Julie Ann Hansen, Lori Merget's sister, of Hartford had an arraignment scheduled for this Wednesday, July 19. (The outcome of this arraignment was not known at press time.)

William Merget (Lori's son), 31, of Campbellsport, Steven Duncan, 55, of Campbellsport, Rachel Kreif, 25, of Kewaskum, and Katelyn Spang, 23, of Kewaskum all have either an arraignment or a hearing scheduled for Monday, July 24. Andrew Simons, 33, Lori's nephew, of Campbellsport has a hearing scheduled for Wednesday, Aug. 16.

The investigation into these charges ran from October 2014 to March 31, 2017.

Cast members rehearse "Beauty And The Beast." The Kewaskum Theatre Company will present the show in the Kewaskum High School auditorium beginning this week, with shows running at 7 p.m. on July 20, 21, 22 and 28. A 2 p.m. matinee will be offered on July 23 and 29.

Kewaskum Theatre Company Presents "Beauty And The Beast"

By Anne Trautner

It's a tale as old as time. And the Kewaskum and the Kewaskum Theatre Company will bring it to life over the next two weeks.

"Beauty And The Beast" opens this week in the Kewaskum High School auditorium, with shows running at 7 p.m. on July 20, 21, 22 and 28.

Matinees will be offered on July 23 and 29 at 2 p.m.

This is the seventh show the Kewaskum Theatre Company has presented since it was formed. And it may be the biggest undertaking yet.

"Essentially everything was more challenging with this show. The costumes are very extravagant. The set had to be huge,"

Director Lindsay Dahlberg said.

But that is the way she wanted it. And Dahlberg's husband, Andrew, and co-director LoraJo Schneider were not surprised.

"Usually it's me saying can we do this crazy thing on stage," Lindsay Dahlberg said.

"What? Really?" Andrew Dahlberg usually replies.

Then co-director LoraJo Schneider says, "Well, maybe we could simplify it."

Then Lindsay Dahlberg says, "No, I really want this."

Then they figure it out and make it work.

"That is how it works every year," Lindsay Dahlberg said.

Journey Of Faith Leads To Kewaskum

By Anne Trautner

The population in Kewaskum grew last week when 286 teens and chaperones converged in the village as part of a mission trip.

The youth could be spotted throughout the area as did various community service projects in the area. They volunteered at nursing homes, day care centers, churches, state parks and churches throughout Washington County and the surrounding area.

"They are doing work in the community of any kind, from painting to landscaping, moving boxes, cleaning, organizing, rebuilding and completing small projects," Kewaskum resident Michael Marx said.

It was the first time the Alive In You service camp was held in Kewaskum. The Catholic program strives to provide an experience for participants that provides an experience that offers faith, service, education and fun.

Marx became familiar with the camp five years ago when he chaperoned an Alive In You trip through his parish, Shepherd of the Hills in Eden. The experience was so good that Marx has gone on an mission journey every year since.

"We call them mission journeys because they are more than just a trip. They are journeys to find our faith," Marx said.

This summer, Marx took his journey one step further. He took five weeks off from his job at QuadGraphics in Sussex to join the Alive In You staff as it hosted a series of camps.

Music In The Park Planned For July 25

The fourth free concert of the 2017 Music in the Park series will be on Tuesday, July 25, with The Sun Rays.

Their drummer, guitar player and keyboard player are retired teachers from Kewaskum. They added a woodwind player from Milwaukee and a bass player from Allenton to round out the band.

Originally formed for a school talent show, the Sun Rays have been playing together for over 25 years. Showing a spirit of fun in their Hawaiian shirts, they describe their play list as "up-beat, happy music" and cover a variety of classic rock from the 1950s through the 1980s. They also throw in a little blues and a novelty tune or two. The Sun Rays clearly have a great time with the music of yesteryear as they lead the audience on a fun walk down memory lane.

After the Sun Rays performance, Music in the Park has only one remaining concert this summer. The weekly series skips a Tuesday so the community can enjoy National Night Out on August 1, hosted by St. Lucas Church. It then concludes with a polka party from the Goodtime Dutchmen on Tuesday, Aug. 8.

All the concerts are free and take place in the large shelter in River Hill Park. The shelter has picnic tables but many people bring their own lawn furniture. Concessions are for sale at 5:30 p.m. from the Kewaskum Fire Fighters Association. The music kicks off at 6:30 p.m. and generally lasts between 90 minutes and two hours with an intermission.

Donations from Geidel's Piggly Wiggly, The Kewaskum Women's Club, Kewaskum Kiwanis and the Kewaskum Fire Fighters Association cover the cost of the bands. The Kewaskum Area Arts Council organizes the Music In The Park series every year.

Members of the Boys and Girls Club of Kewaskum have fun learning about different animals during a field trip to Shalom Wildlife.

SHERIFF'S REPORT

Motorcycle Crash

A 19-year-old Village of Germantown man was critically injured in a single vehicle motorcycle crash that occurred on State Highway 167/Holy Hill Road west of County Highway CC in the Town of Erin. On July 17 at approximately 8:20 p.m. the Washington County Sheriff's Office was notified of an accident with injuries that was possibly involving several motorcycles.

The Richfield Fire Department and Rescue along with sheriff's deputies were dispatched to the scene. Flight For Life Emergency Medical Transport was also called to assist due to the seriousness of the injuries. The operator was transported from the scene of the accident to Fries Lake School in the Village of Richfield where Flight For Life subsequently transported him to Froedtert Hospital in Wauwatosa.

The investigation revealed that the operator was travelling eastbound on State Highway 167 with a group of motorcycles. The victim was the lead motorcycle in the group and failed to negotiate a sharp curve in the roadway and drove into the ditch on the westbound side. The driver was ejected from the motorcycle. The group that he was traveling with as well as other witnesses stopped to render aid to the injured driver. The driver was wearing a helmet at the time of the crash. Speed is believed to be a factor in the accident.

Phone Scam Involves Village Of Kewaskum

A community member informed the Kewaskum Police Department that they received a phone call from a number that caller I.D. identified as the "Village of Kewaskum." The caller stated they were selling some sort of "well-being kit" and was marketing it to senior citizens.

This is a scam. The Village of Kewaskum does not engage in soliciting products for sale. Phone scammers routinely use false numbers to make their scams more believable.

The Kewaskum Boys and Girls Club Food Art program happens each Friday. Members recently learned about different styles of art and then created their own "Under the Sea" masterpiece using food.

Postponed 2016 Property Taxes

The Washington County Treasurer would like to remind taxpayers that their postponed/second installment 2016 property taxes are due on or before July 31, 2017.

If you are paying by check, please make sure that the numeric and the written portions of the check are the same and that your check is signed otherwise the check will be returned, and this could result in interest and penalty charges, if postmarked after the due date. Postdated checks will not be held and will be processed the day that they are received. Checks should be mailed to the Washington County Treasurer, PO Box 1986, West Bend, Wisconsin, 53095. If you require a receipt, please enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

The County Treasurer encourages mailing your property tax payments early and not waiting until the last week of July. Mailing your payment early helps make sure that the USPS postmark is timely and provides greater opportunity to correct errors before the deadline. "The cost of missing the July 31 deadline is severe. Under state law, interest and penalty charges are 1.5% per month back to February 1, (10.5% in August for 2016 taxes) and continue to accrue until the taxes are paid in full. So, it is imperative to pay property taxes on time to avoid delinquent charges."

You can also pay your property taxes online using a credit card or electronic check through Point & Pay. Please visit our website at www.co.washington.wi.us, click on Departments, then County Treasurer, and Pay Real Estate Taxes Online. You will need your tax parcel number as well as the amount due. Please be advised that Point & Pay will charge you a convenience fee of 2.39% of the amount for this service.

The Washington County Treasurer's office hours are Monday thru Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. You can contact the office at 262.335.4324.

Cedar Community Receives National Accreditation For Excellence

Cedar Community recently received the Basic Quality Assurance and Performance Improvement Accreditation for 2017. The Basic QAPI Accreditation, presented by independent accreditator, Providigm, recognizes that Cedar Community is continually assessing residents' quality of life (managing pain, maintaining dignity, respecting resident choice) and quality of care issues (managing weight loss, infections, rehabilitation following acute injury or illness, assessing whether there are enough staff to meet resident needs and preventing readmission to the hospital).

Providigm's QAPI Accreditation is based on standards for excellence in continuously improving quality of care and life for nursing home residents. Centers are evaluated on a quarterly basis and includes 1,020 nursing centers, located across 48 states and Ontario Canada. Cedar Community was one of seven recognized in Southeast Wisconsin and the only one in Washington County.

Providigm's QAPI Accreditation Standards require that Cedar Community is assessing their quality against the full federal regulation and correcting identified issues. Through Cedar Community's use of the abaqis Quality Management System, Providigm is able to verify that Cedar Community is continually assessing the quality of the care they provide to their residents against federal regulations and standards and correcting identified issues.

"Cedar Community is very proud to receive this accreditation. It confirms our commitment to continually strive to improve the care we give to our residents and ensures that our quality systems are sound," says Kelli DeRuyter, Cedar Community Administrator.

Weekly HEALTH TIP

A LAUGHING MATTER

Studies have revealed that laughter has beneficial effects on cardiovascular health, immunity and pain tolerance, and it even burns a few calories. In the most recent research, older adults, average age 82, were instructed to add simulated laughter to their bi-weekly 45-minute exercise sessions. Their class included 8-10 laughter exercises, each lasting 30 seconds to a minute. Even though the participants were faking laughter to begin with, it usually became genuine. After 6 weeks, the laughter group had improvements in mental health, selfconfidence and aerobic endurance compared to the exercise-only group.

Congregation Of Sisters Of St. Agnes Explores Healthcare Ministry

The Congregation of Sisters of St. Agnes (CSA) and SSM Health have signed a letter of intent (LOI) to transfer sponsorship of Agnesian HealthCare based in Fond du Lac, WI, and Monroe Clinic based in Monroe, WI. The parties will begin a due diligence process with the goal of integrating the hospitals and affiliate organizations within the SSM Health system.

As mission-driven organizations, SSM Health and CSA share a commitment to ensuring the long-term sustainabil-ty of Catholic healthcare and providing exceptional healthcare services to meet the needs of the patients and communities they serve across Wisconsin.

The decision to pursue a transfer was initiated and guided by CSA, who established the health ministries more than 100 years ago. Changes in the Wisconsin payer and provider markets, combined with the changing demographics of the Congregation, led CSA to consider how to best uphold the legacy of its healthcare ministries and maintain the level of care that patients and communities expect.

"We are incredibly proud of the quality and compassionate healthcare provided through our ministries. Both institutions powerfully bring our values and mission to life," said Sister Jean Steffes, General Superior of the Congregation of Sisters of St. Agnes. "The time is right for us to focus on the long-term sustainability of Agnesian HealthCare and Monroe Clinic. With their reputation for mission-driven, high-quality and compassionate care, we believe SSM Health is a strong strategic partner to both preserve and advance the organizations."

A Catholic, not-for-profit health system, SSM Health is one of the largest integrated delivery systems in the nation, and shares with CSA a heritage of serving the people of Wisconsin for more than 100 years. SSM Health provides exceptional care in 18 counties across south-central Wisconsin through a comprehensive network of hospitals, physician offices, and care centers, as well as a health plan and pharmacy benefit management company.

"CSA's healthcare ministries, Agnesian HealthCare and Monroe Clinic are pillars of strength in the community and have a bright and vibrant future," said Laura Kaiser, President and CEO of SSM Health. "We are honored that CSA has chosen us to preserve and advance their ministries, and we are excited to begin this journey. Bringing our organizations together would enable us to further expand access to affordable high-quality care in communities throughout Wisconsin, ensuring patients get the care they need, when and where they need it most."

The diligence process is expected to take several months. The terms of the LOI are not being disclosed.

"We are able to take this step today knowing that our caregivers and SSM Health share a commitment to providing exceptional care for residents and communities throughout Wisconsin. It is our hope that they will advance our legacy for years to come," explained Sr. Steffes.

Marx started this year's experience the first week of June in Atlanta. Then he worked at camps in South Carolina, Tennessee and Missouri. He finished up the summer work with the camp in Kewaskum.

Finding a facility to house the campers is an important step in organizing the trips. Kewaskum provided an ideal home base.

The students stayed overnight at Kewaskum Elementary School, sleeping on air mattresses in the air conditioned classrooms.

"The teens are working so hard during the day, so we make sure they are resting. Their comfort is always in mind, and an air conditioning unit is definitely needed. Kewaskum has been awesome for that," Marx said.

The campers ate dinner each night in the Kewaskum High School cafeteria, with kitchen staff preparing the meals.

"We are really enjoying Kewaskum," said Clare Kolenda, a youth minister from Jackson, Mich.

The community welcomed the young volunteers with open arms. Local businesses donated to the cause, and it was evident that people were glad to get the extra help.

"When you go to these facilities where we are doing the work, the people are so appreciative," Marx said.

"It seems like it is going to be a lot of work, but once you see the smiles on people's faces that you are helping, you completely forget about the hard work," said Rebecca Robert, a 14-year-old from Michigan.

For some of the campers, last week was the first time they had visited Wisconsin.

"We didn't know what Wisconsin was going to be like. All I heard was the weather was going to be nice. And it is. In Arkansas, it is hot. And really humid," said 15-year-old Briana Fernandez, one of about 30 campers from Fayetteville, Ark.

By traveling so far away from home, the teens were able to bond.

"It has been really fun. It is a great opportunity to get to know people. We didn't know each other before, and now we are like best friends," said 15-year-old Maria Amaya.

The group from Arkansas spent last week working at St. Matthew Catholic Church in Campbellsport. By Friday, some members of the group were sore from landscaping and others had cuts on their hands from removing wall tiles. All of them were splattered with paint from their work painting the walls in church basement.

But it was all worth it, they agreed.

"We are growing closer in our faith, and also closer to ourselves," said 14-year-old Gaby Montiel.

"I hate how it's just a week. It goes by so fast," 15-year-old Briana Fernandez said.

Some of the campers were from Wisconsin, but the experience was still profound.

"Alive In You is one of the best things about my summer," said Cassandra Kinnard, a camper from Genesee Depot who had attended an Alive In You camp before. "Every time I come, I find a part of myself that I didn't know about before."

Teens weren't the only ones impacted by the trip.

"It has been a great experience for me. It is really neat to see it through these guys' eyes. You go along, and you think you've got it all figured out, and then you see these guys and it really changes your perspective," said Farrell Sexton, a chaperone from Arkansas.

On Saturday, the groups had a free day to enjoy sites in the area.

The teens from Arkansas were looking forward to visiting a dairy farm. They also had heard about the inflatable amenities at Kiwanis Park in Kewaskum, so they added that to their itinerary as well.

As the campers prepared to leave town on Sunday, they knew that although the camp had ended, the experience would stay with them.

"It was all pretty impactful – interacting with the community and seeing the smiles you put on people's faces, knowing that you are doing good, and knowing that you are serving God," said Troy Culver, 14 of Michigan.

May's Double The Decider In Pitchers' Duel Against Germantown

By Judy Harlow

The major Milwaukee newspaper may have jumped the gun when it recently included a feature on the Germantown baseball team and its chances of beating West Bend West in the state series.

The Warhawks, 24-6 at the time and the second seed in the sectional, still needed two victories to get a third shot at the unbeaten Spartans. They fell short in the first try as they were beaten by No. 7 Kewaskum 1-0 in a thrilling game held July 12 at the diamond in Cedarburg after it was determined the Germantown field was too wet to have the game.

John May's two-out, RBI double in the top of the sixth drove home Ryan Prochnow, courtesy running for Cole Surprenant, for the only run of the game. Then after Surprenant hit the 100-pitch mark in the bottom of the seventh, senior Jacob Loehr came on in relief and got two big outs with a runner at second base to secure the victory and move the Indians into the sectional semifinal which was scheduled for Monday, July 17 at Whitefish Bay.

"Thank God for John's big hit," an elated coach Doug Gonring said afterward, talking about the pitch count requiring him to take out Surprenant and Loehr's recent success on the mound with his off-speed pitches.

"Bulldog (Loehr) has done this all year. His curve has been effective for spot play," Gonring went on also noting, "Our defense played well."

Surprenant and Warhawk ace Noah Imrie dueled it out for five innings before May drilled a 3-and-2 pitch to the gap in right-center for what turned out to be the winning run.

The Indians had another big scoring chance in the fourth when Kyle Bath stroked a single between short and third and was advanced to second on a beautiful bunt by Dalton Poole. With the third baseman charging and the shortstop failing to cover third, Bath should have taken the extra base but he missed the opportunity and stayed on second.

Gonring put Peyton Donath in to pinch run for Bath, and after May flied out for the second out of the inning, it was up to Jacob Heberer to get a hit. He singled to short left but the throw home would have easily gotten Donath, who headed back toward third only to find Brad Buechel nearing that base from second.

Donath eventually was run down and tagged by the Warhawks' third baseman, and the inning was over.

KHS didn't miss the next opportunity, and that was all they needed as Surprenant got tough with base runners aboard to hold Germantown scoreless.

The Warhawks had two runners aboard in the first but Surprenant got cleanup Bryce Thomas to ground out to Brent Goeden at second and struck out Colton Thomas on three pitches.

In the third, the Warhawks had two base runners but May caught Thomas' fly to right for the third out, and in the fourth, Surprenant got out of a jam when he got J.P. Szopinski to pop out to catcher Jared Chesak for the second out and Ben Brandenburg to ground out to Goeden for the third.

Left fielder Tony Steger made a nice running catch to deny Joe Seymour with one on in the sixth, and the inning ended with Heberer hauling in a fly ball off the bat of Szopinski.

Germantown started off the ninth with a single by Ben Bradenburg, who moved to second on a bunt by Jonathan Wizner. Next Dan Drinan drew a walk ending Surprenant's day, but Loehr answered the bell, getting Connor Storming to pop out to Carson Dogs at first and then Bryce Thomas to ground out to Dogs, who tagged the base for the final out.

"I've been waiting a long time to get a spot like that ... I could feel it (the pressure) in my knees," Loehr said. "It was good to get the win."

Loehr also credited his catcher, Jared Chesak, with making some good calls, setting up outside after Storming fell behind 1-and-2 in the count and Thomas was 0-and-2.

"Jared's smart. He's a good catcher," Loehr said.

May was a popular man after the game. "I was going to sit on a fast ball," he said, indicating Imrie had thrown him a curve on the previous play. "I was just hoping he would give me a good pitch (to hit), and he did."

The Indians have now won nine of their last 11 games and take a 16-14 mark into the first game of the sectional.

Gonring recalled some of the rough times early in the season but said now, "The kids look like they're having fun. It's fun watching them get better ... I'm proud of them."

No one would have blamed center fielder Tony Steger for skipping the regional opener against Grafton, not after what happened to him early in the morning of July 10.

Steger walked away from a single car rollover accident on Hwy 67 near Dundee. His car was totaled, but Steger felt he was good enough to play, and the next day he went 3x4 with three runs batted in (RBIs) against Grafton in a game the Indians won 4-3.

"I fell asleep and woke up upside down," Steger said afterward, indicating the car hit a tree. "It was a blessing I was here today."

Steger said he was on his way to work when the accident happened. He missed practice on Monday but was ready to go Tuesday. "I was sore, but I am glad I played," he said.

After hitting a pop out in

Tony Steger hits a double and slides safely onto second base during a home game against Grafton on July 11, a day after he was involved in a single car rollover accident.

his first time at bat, Steger singled home Brad Buechel in the bottom of the third for the first run of the game. Buechel used his golfing skills to reach first base when he "chipped" a ball over the pitcher's head. The second baseman picked it up but threw low, allowing him to reach first safely, and he moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Jacob Heberer.

In the sixth, the Indians scored a run to take a 2-1 lead when Steger hit a two-out single past the shortstop and took second with aggressive base running. He scored when Jared Chesak singled on the first pitch.

Steger doubled home a pair of runs in the bottom of the seventh after starter and loser, Haden Fisk, hit Dalton Poole and walked Buechel and Heberer.

Those two runs gave the Indians a 4-1 lead and were very important because the Blackhawks rallied for two runs in the seventh, thanks to a double by Jack Pawlak. Mike Hogan reached when the KHS second baseman, Brent Goeden, bobbled a ball hit to him. Drew Donohue followed with a single to right field, putting runners at first and second.

Goeden got the first out with a diving catch in short-right field, and Poole got out Number 2 when leadoff man Noah Chopp flied out to right field. The next man up was catcher Jack Pawlek, who doubled to the fence in left-center, closing the gap to 4-3.

Coach Doug Gonring decided to change pitchers, bringing in his ace, Cole Surprenant, and he got Lucas Gosewehr to fly out to Kyle Pamperin in right.

Poole, 4-4 on the year, gave up three runs (one earned) on seven hits in 62/3 innings. He struck out four and walked just one.

When asked about his performance, Poole said, "(It was) Probably one of my best of the season." He admitted to being a little nervous at the start but, "Once I got through the first inning, I was fine. I had to trust my guys behind me. I knew we'd pull through."

"Dalton did a wonderful job again," KHS coach Doug Gonring said. "Would have liked to see him finish it off, but I'm happy for him."

KHS (15-14) got six hits off Fisk who went the distance for the Blackhawks.

Ask the Dentist

Back To The Basics: How Do I Prevent Getting Cavities?

Dr. Sara Klasinski

There are some great techniques to help avoid sitting in the dentist's chair. Here are a few to review.

First, using products with fluoride when brushing and using mouth rinses can help prevent tooth decay by making the tooth more resistant to acid attacks from plaque bacteria and sugars in the mouth.

Second, try limiting snacks that are high in sugar, including soda. The bacteria in your mouth love sugar and convert those sugars into acid which breaks down the tooth structure that can ultimately lead to a cavity. Soda is very acidic and the consistent introduction of acid throughout the day weakens your teeth and makes them more vulnerable to cavities.

Third and finally, try eating a balanced diet of vegetables, fruits and dairy. In a recent article, it was announced that eating cheese can help fight off plaque. The calcium from cheese mixes with the plaque and sticks to the teeth, protecting your teeth from the acid that causes decay. Support your state, eat cheese and stay cavity free!

Kewaskum Indians' Batters Are Tamed By Falls Ace

By Judy Harlow

For the second year in a row, the Menomonee Falls baseball team has ended Kewaskum's season and by an identical 4-0 score.

The Indians (16-15) played better defense than they did in the 2016 regional loss, but they couldn't come up with any major offensive surges in the sectional game here Monday afternoon against Falls ace Logan Roble, who limited them to just three hits, including two infield singles.

"As good as we played against Germantown, those were the two or three plays we didn't make today, and they turn wins into losses," KHS coach Doug Gonring said afterward. "Today we couldn't make 'em (key plays), and we only had three hits."

Menomonee Falls didn't have any big rallies, scoring single runners in the second, fourth, fifth and sixth, and two of those runs came after Indians fielders lost fly balls in the sun.

The first came in the bottom of the second when Roble reached via a high pop up which shortstop Brad Buechel lost sight of. Roble was bunted to second, advanced to third on a single by Cole Mir and scored on Jack Koch's single past John May at third, which was barely fair.

Starter Dalton Poole got out of the inning when he got Ben Heitman to hit into a fielder's choice, and then Jacob Sutherland's line drive was gathered in by Brent Goeden in the hole between first and second.

The run in the fourth came via a disputed balk call on reliever Cole Dreier on third after singling and advancing on a base hit by Koch.

Gonring argued vehemently with the umpire it should not have been a balk but lost the argument, and it appeared Surprenant lost a little of his composure after the call, walking Heitman and Sutherland before his center fielder, Jacob Heberer, ran down a long fly ball in center to end the inning.

Surprenant walked Dayne Fuiten to start the fifth, but then got two quick outs on Ryan Spalding's sacrifice bunt and a ground out. He couldn't get the third, however, as he gave up an RBI single to Dreier and two more walks. It was here Gonring called on senior right-hander Jacob Loehr, who finished up the final one and 1/3 innings, giving up an unearned run on just one hit.

Roble faced the minimum number of Indians in the first three innings. Tony Steger led off the fourth with a ground ball to third, which was muffed by Heitman. Gonring put the bunt sign on for Goeden, who set one down to the right of the plate. When Steger saw no one covering third, he rounded second and just kept running, but as he dove for the base, Koch put the tag on him from behind for a double play.

Surprenant beat out an infield hit for a single in the fifth, but his pinch runner, Ryan Prochnow was tagged on on a steal attempt.

After Surprenant struck out looking to lead off the seventh, the Indians threatened when Kyle Bath walked, and Poole smashed a line drive down the left field line. Roble was lifted in favor of Dreier, who got May to ground out, but then Buechel drew a walk to load the bases.

Heberer was up next, and after taking a strike, he hit a low liner toward third base that was caught to end the game.

"We're still a young team ... I feel bad for the five seniors, but that's the way the game goes," Gonring said. "That's as sudden as it goes."

On the positive side, Gonring said his team had a "remarkable turnaround" after looking like a sinking ship. He also couldn't help thinking about what might have happened had Andrew Neu not torn the meniscus in his knee in the fourth game of the year. "He was probably worth seven wins for us," Goring said.

Poole (4-5) took the loss in his final high school game, but there were no sour grapes on his part.

"I felt good. I was getting outs, but we were just not making plays," Poole said, indicating he could have gone farther, but "We were already behind by one. He (Gonring) thought we could just switch (pitchers)."

As far as how the Indians finished the year, winning the last nine of their last 13 games, Poole said. "We definitely started playing together as a team, and it showed ... I'm not complaining."

In the championship game, unbeaten West Bend West defeated Menomonee Falls 7-3 (23-10) to earn a berth in the WIAA State Summer Baseball Tournament. Good luck to the neighboring Spartans as they attempt to finish off a magical season.

No State Amateur For Two Local Golfers

By Judy Harlow

Two former Kewaskum High golfers, now playing for Concordia University, had hoped to make the field in the Wisconsin Men's State Amateur Golf Tournament this summer, but both fell short in their bids to qualify for the event.

Sam Schlosser shot a 6-over-par 78 at the qualifying tournament at the Rolling Meadows Golf Course in Fond du Lac, missing the cut by two shots, while Andrew Otto came in with a 9-over 81.

The two will be sophomores at Concordia in the fall. As a freshman, Schlosser was a regular on the golf team during the fall and spring seasons. Otto started the year at Lakeland College but transferred at the semester and posted a school record low 69 during the spring season. They teamed up earlier this summer to win the annual Hon-E-Kor Bestball Tournament.

WFCA's All Star Football Week Was Thrilling For Kewaskum High's Brady Hanson

By Judy Harlow

His North team came out on the losing end, still Kewaskum High's Brady Hanson enjoyed every minute of the experience playing in the annual Wisconsin Football Coaches Association's All Star Football Game played June 15 in Oshkosh.

For the record, the South won 10-0 in a game which had to be canceled early in the third quarter because of rain and lightning. That didn't keep the 6-foot, 6-inch Hanson, who will be attending Northern Michigan University in the fall, from getting a chance to display his pass-catching skills and soaking in the camaraderie with other top players from the state.

"I think I caught three out of five (passes)," Hanson, who started the game at wide receiver, said Sunday, figuring his longest reception was about 10 yards. (No official statistics were available on the game.)

Hanson said the teams gathered Sunday at Titan Stadium on the UW-Oshkosh campus, and, "We went right into practice," Hanson said, explaining the first practice was with helmets and shorts. After that, "We had two-a-days (with full contact). That was definitely a butt kicking."

Hanson felt he was in pretty good shape coming in. "I've been doing my program from Northern Michigan, and I'm pretty involved in water sports, including water boarding and barefoot skiing," he said.

Hanson was impressed with the two quarterbacks on his North team, Menomonie's Jace LaBuda and Ben Olson from Wisconsin Rapids and with its running back Jace Goodman, a graduate of Menomonie High School.

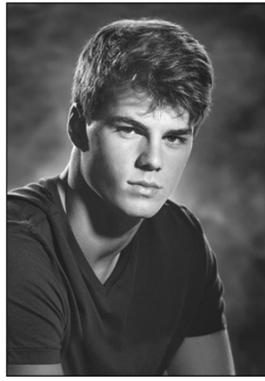

"Ben was more the running quarterback and Jace the passing quarterback," Hanson said, noting Goodman, "He did pretty much everything for us," including running the ball, catching passes and punting.

Hanson said the two quarterbacks were rotated into the game every few players, "depending on the package we were using."

Two of his coaches, Jason Last and Jason Piittmann, came to Saturday's game along with a couple of underclassmen, according to Hanson, who was a two-year starter on the KHS basketball team and placed second in D-2 state in the high jump and as a member of the Indians 4x100-meter relay team.

Hanson was on the All-East Central first team offense and defense a year ago when he caught 38 passes for 749 yards and eight touchdowns in 12 games and defensively had two interceptions, one fumble recovery and four tackles for losses among his 96 tackles.

Concerning his favorite moments of the week, Hanson said, "Meeting a lot of cool people I never thought I would meet" and having the opportunity to mingle with children from the Children's Hospital, which is the beneficiary of the event. (All players on the All Star teams are required to solicit a minimum of $750 in donations for Children's Hospital. A couple players reportedly reached the $6,000 mark in donations.

The children and their families were brought to Titan field where Hanson, his teammates and opponents, got to meet them and spend time with them. "We played catch with them ... we kicked some field goals," he said.

Now that the game is over, Hanson will switch gears in an effort to get ready for football at Northern Michigan.

Practice officially begins on August 12, but Hanson said, "I believe I'm going to check in on August 9 to meet other recruits and the veteran players."

When asked where he will be playing, the three-sport athlete said, "Offense, I believe," and he is happy to report he has added a few pounds, to 215, since the last football season.

About his expectations for his first year in a collegiate program, Hanson said, "I won't know until I get there," but indicates he would rather not redshirt like many freshman do. "I think I'm big enough and fast enough to play. That's my goal!"

Schlafer, McGrath, Sorce, Lubach, Davis Master PDTR Mains

Plymouth Dirt Track Racing honored those that keep the sport of auto racing alive on Fan Appreciation Night Saturday, July 15 at the Sheboygan County Fair Grounds third-mile clay oval and considering the high level of entertainment on the track, the bulk of the healthy crowd on hand left appreciative of what they saw.

In the Sprint Car ranks, Danny Schlafer of Sussex claimed his second PDTR A-main victory of the season. Likewise, Mitch McGrath notched victory number two in the Late Model main event. First-time 2017 headline race winners were Will Sorce of Franklin (Grand National), Brad Lubach of Kiel (B Mod) and Tyler Davis of South Milwaukee (Micro Sprint).

Polesitter Paul Pokorski of West Bend jumped out to the lead on the opening lap of the 25-lap Sprint Car A main. The 25-year veteran held the top spot through the first eight laps before 2010 PDTR Sprint Car champion Kurt Davis of South Milwaukee, who started third, moved in to challenge as the leaders encountered lapped traffic.

On lap nine, Davis dove underneath the high-riding Pokorski in turn one to assume the top spot, while Schlafer, who started seventh, used the outside groove to take over third.

The next lap produced a five-car incident extending from turn three and the way through the frontstretch, involving Anthony Knierim of Franksville, Justin Miller of Plymouth, Eagle's Scott Conger, Shane Wenninger of Kewaskum and Davis, who collided with Miller, who had spun exiting turn four.

The damage forced Davis to exit the race, giving the lead back to Pokorski. Of the five cars involved in the incident, only Conger was able to continue.

On the restart, Schlafer pulled off a slide job entering turn three. However, Pokorski turned back under him to lead lap 11. However, Schlafer was not to be denied as he again slid past Pokorski in turn three on lap 12 and made the move stick.

Schlafer road the ragged edge along the high line, jumping the cushion on a few occasions, but still managed to hold off Pokorski over the final 13 laps to notch his 18th career PDTR Sprint Car victory and the 46th overall main event triumph in Midwest Sprint Car Association competition.

Pokorski placed second, followed by 18th starter Tim Haddy of Waupun in third, Lance Fassbender of Burnett, who started 11th, fourth and fourth starter Al Schlafer of Sussex, who rounded out the top five.

Joel Bennett led the first six laps of the 25-lap Late Model A-main from the outside front row starting spot. On lap seven, after a caution flag for the stalled car of defending PDTR Late Model champion Tim Buhler of Glenbeulah in turn one, 2014 PDTR Late Model champion Mitch McGrath, who started fifth got past Bennett in turn one.

McGrath proceeded to build up a solid lead while ninth starter Justin Hirt of Tigerton and seventh starter Chris Carlson of Union Grove duelled side by side for second for several laps before Hirt claimed the spot for good.

Hirt, who was making his first PDTR appearance of the season, used a late charge to close in on McGrath in the final laps. However, McGrath held Hirt off to collect his ninth career PDTR Late Model A main victory by a five-car-length margin.

Hirt was second, sixth starter Jim Schmidt of Cleveland placed third, three-time PDTR Late Model champ and current point leader Brad Mueller of Random Lake took fourth from the 13th starting position and polesitter Randy Markwardt of Sheboygan took fifth.

After a special driver introduction ceremony, the extended 30-lap Grand National A main saw outside front row starter Justin Erickson of Plymouth grab the initial lead.

Erickson encountered lapped traffic on lap nine, which allowed third starter Jeff Lammers of Plymouth to close the gap on lap 13. Despite losing a hood pin, which left his hood flapping in the freeze, Lammers made several attempts to wrestle the lead away from Erickson before the first caution flag of the race appeared on lap 21 when Jim Rychtik of Port Washington collided with Kurt Davis and Tyler Kulow of New Holstein in turn one.

When the race resumed Lammers felt pressure from 2010 PDTR Grand National champ Brian Gilles of Plymouth, who started on the pole. However, both Gilles and Lammers left the track with mechanical issues when the second caution of the race came out on lap 23.

On the next restart, it was two-time PDTR Grand National champion Don Sorce Jr., who was driving as the No. 14 car for Dan Sorce, moved in to challenge from the 13th starting spot.

Using the high groove Sorce Jr. claimed the top spot in turn two on lap 24, as 78-year-old Dick Hed of Plymouth, who started fifth, moved into the runner-up spot.

Sorce Jr. appeared to have the race in hand, but Will Sorce, who started 15th, had other things in mind. With Sorce Jr. running low, Sorce ventured up high to pass Hed and steal the lead away from Sorce Jr. in turn four with two laps to go.

Sorce went on to record his first PDTR Grand National A main victory of the 2017 season. Sorce Jr. was second, Hed placed third, Matt Loehr of Dotyville came from the ninth starting spot to take fourth and Erickson completed the top five.

Outside front row starter Mark Hoepfner of Hartford led the first two laps of the 25-lap B Mod A main before sixth starter J.J.

Walvoord assumed the top spot on lap three.

After the first of two caution flags for the stalled car of Tim Thrun of Horicon, three-time PDTR Grand National champion Brad Lubach, who started eighth, moved into challenge Hoepfner for second.

Driving the car normally steered by Chad Vetting, Lubach took control of second on lap seven. Two laps later, Lubach used the high groove to bolt past Walvoord into the lead in turn one.

Walvoord rallied over the final six laps to mount some pressure for the lead. However, Lubach, who holds the all-time lead with 24 PDTR Grand National A-main victories, went on to post his first career PDTR B Mod A-main triumph.

Walvoord was second, point leader Justin Green of Sheboygan Falls placed third after starting 11th, Glen Blanke of Sheboygan Falls, who started ninth, finished fourth and fourth starter Cody Eickberg of Plymouth placed fifth.

Tyler Davis of South Milwaukee won his first career PDTR Micro Sprint A main. Preston Ruh was second, followed by Dave Collins in third.

Shane Wenninger of Kewaskum won the Sprint Car B main.

The program attracted 25 Sprint Cars, 23 Grand Nationals, 23 B Mods, 13 Late Models and three Micro Sprints.

The trophy sponsor for the evening was A-1 Appliance and Repair. The next PDTR program on Saturday, July 22 will be Autograph Night. All kids in attendance will receive checkered flags courtesy of the evening's sponsor Hopf Farms. Racing will begin at 6 p.m.

The Plymouth Dirt Track at the Sheboygan County Fairgrounds in Plymouth is located at 229 Fairview Drive in Plymouth. For more information, visit www.plymouthdtr.com or check out Plymouth Dirt Track Racing on Facebook.

What To Do If A Scammer Won't Stop Calling You

Some scammers just don't quit. They've called you on multiple occasions pitching you the same message after you've repeatedly asked to be put on the do-not-call list. You've tried blocking them, but they call from all sorts of different numbers. What can you do?

According to BBB Scam Tracker, over 5,700 scams involving phone calls have been reported to BBB across the U.S. and Canada since January of this year. This number seems to be growing, seeing as only 1,000 more phone scams were reported during the entire year before.

"Once your information is out there, blocking your phone number won't stop scammers from calling you," says Jim Temmer, CEO/president of the BBB Serving Wisconsin. "As soon as you pick up the phone, your number is likely registered as active and can be sold for other scammers to contact."

Better Business Bureau Serving Wisconsin (BBB) has the following tips to help stop these calls for good:

- First and foremost, do not answer calls from numbers you do not recognize. If it's a legitimate contact, they will leave a message. Even if a scammer leaves a message, this will give you time to think about what is being asked of you.

- Be cautious of those automated messages asking you to "Press 9" to be taken off of their call list. It's best to just hang up. Pressing your keypad is another way to alert the caller that they have reached an active number, and they will continue to call and sell your number to other scammers as well.

- Be aware that scammers are calling and impersonating legitimate businesses, organizations, and charities. The best thing you can do to prevent yourself from falling victim is to hang up. If you wish to speak with a representative, find the appropriate phone number and call them directly.

- Join the Do Not Call Registry (DoNotCall.gov) to cut down on legitimate telemarketing and sales calls. Although it won't stop scammers, you'll get fewer calls, making it easier to spot the fraudulent ones.

- Write down the phone number of those callers violating the Do Not Call Registry and file a scam report with BBB Scam Tracker and report it to the FTC's Do Not Call list.

- There's an app for that! Nomorobo.com takes you off any phone call that comes in as a robo call (an automated or machine-made call). The best part? Nomorobo is free for your landline and only $1.99 for cell phones.

– A Few Notes From The Paparazzi

By Anne Trautner

It's not easy being the paparazzi.

This is what I learned on Saturday, July 15, when numerous celebrities were spotted on the Hon-E-Kor golf course in Kewaskum.

With a Hollywood theme for the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce's golf outing, I was assigned the task of being the local paparazzi for the event. Nothing quite like being type cast.

I tried to run after the famous stars with my camera, snapping pictures as I hid behind trees along the way.

I have to admit, most of celebs were friendly. Only a few threatened to throw golf clubs at me. And the Duck Dynasty crew did make me a little nervous with their guns.

There were added hazards, like getting hit by flying marshmallows at the sixth hole. That is where the competitors tried their luck at chipping marshmallows into hula hoops.

Still, it was great to see these celebrities up close.

The Real Housewives of Kewaskum were at the outing, dropping $1,000 bills all over the greens. They didn't seem to care, since they had so much to spare.

Bruce Jenner was golfing, along with Kim Kardashian. Even my old heartthrob Ponch was there in his CHiPs uniform. Everyone seemed to have a good time. When they entered the clubhouse, they walked on the red carpet and posed for pictures.

Most took part in the games that were offered throughout the course.

It was all for a good cause. All proceeds from the outing will benefit the community.

And while I could have become overly stressed about taking all those pictures, I didn't because Anna and Elsa were there telling me to "Let It Go."

I followed their advice and was grateful to see all the support for the Kewaskum community.

And I was glad for the opportunity to see all those bigwigs.

Speaking of which, Donald Trump was in the mix.

Trump did look proud to be involved with the event and had plenty to say.

"I am going to make Hon-E-Kor great again," he announced and gave a thumbs-up.

Kewaskum Theatre Company Presents "Beauty And The Beast"

So, as requested, the set this year has a castle with multiple levels.

Even the props were intricate. A remote control rose was created for the show so that petals could drop on stage.

The story follows the original Disney production of "Beauty And The Beast."

"I love the story. It is one of my favorite of the Disney shows," said Olivia Krautkramer, a music education major at Viterbro University who plays Belle.

Like many of the cast members, Krautkramer has been involved with the Kewaskum Theatre Company productions for years.

"It's kind of like a little reunion for some of us," she said.

One of the unique things in the show is that the cast goes into the house area of the theater.

"It kind of breaks that fourth wall. That is something you don't see in a ton of shows, so that is kind of fun," Krautkramer said.

The show almost has to do that, because there are so many people in the cast. There are a total of 62 cast members, and many of them are children. That is something the theater company is happy to see.

"It is fun and we think it is really important to expose kids to the arts. So part of the reason that we formed this group was to give chances for more people to be exposed to the arts and theater," Lindsay Dahlberg said.

In addition to entertaining the audience, the show sends an important message, Lindsay Dahlberg said.

"We hope that people take away from the show the moral that appearances aren't the most important thing. You can say you are odd, and it doesn't mean you are wrong. Belle starts off the show, and she is considered odd in her village, and feels different and ostracized, but then she finds that it's not her that's the problem. It's how people view her," Lindsay Dahlberg said.

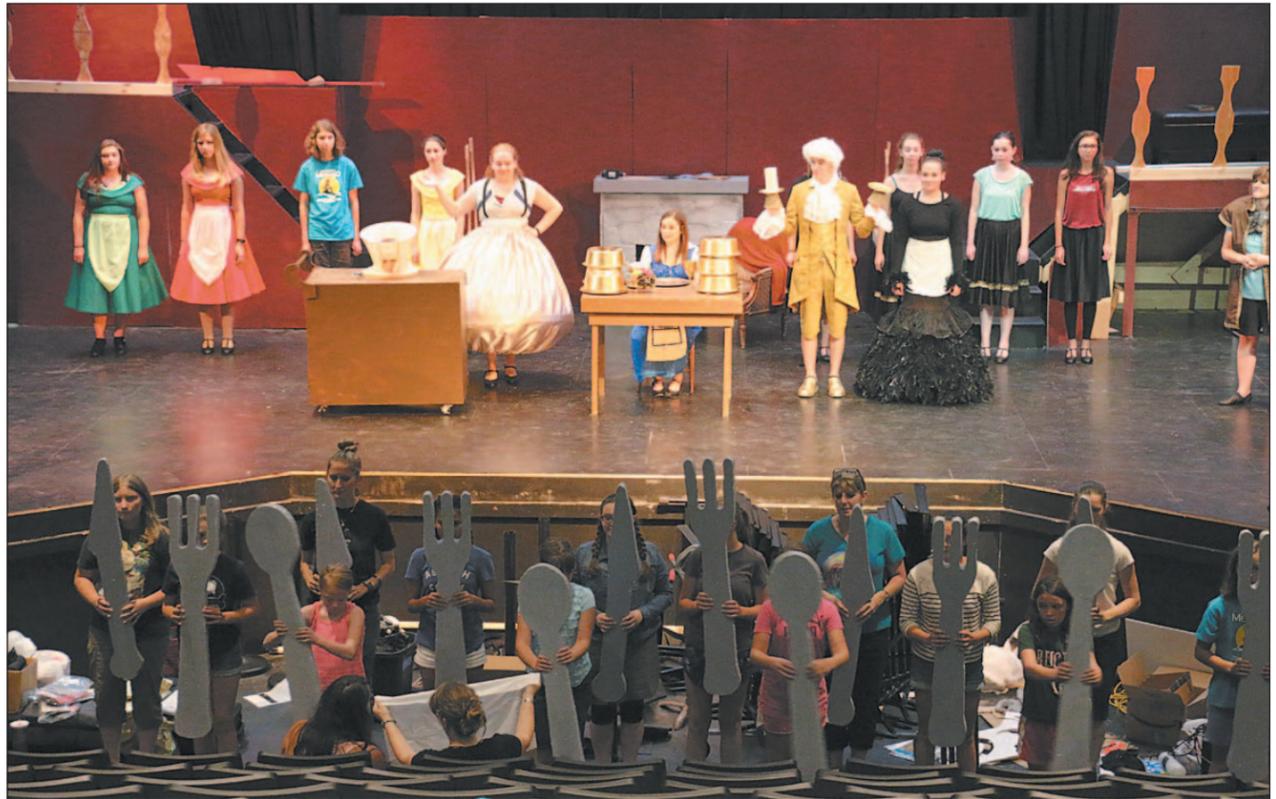

Likewise, the Beast offers a lesson.

"It's not all about what you look like. It's about how a person is inside," Lindsay Dahlberg said.

The show is sponsored by the Kewaskum Area Arts Council.

Tickets are available at Geidel's Piggly Wiggly in Kewaskum. Ticket prices are: adults $15, children (10 and under) $10.

Directors: Lindsay Dahlberg and LoraJo Schneider
Technical Director: Andrew Dahlberg
