Fire Destroys Kewaskum Home

By Anne Trautner

Jennifer Wuensch was at home with her two youngest grandchildren, ages 2 months and 1 year, last Wednesday, Oct. 25, when she looked outside and saw light coming from the garage.

"I thought somebody left the garage light on," she said.

So she went outside and walked over to turn off the light in the detached garage. But when she reached the garage, she heard a crackling noise coming from behind the side door.

"It sounded like a campfire. I opened the door, and all that black gray smoke came pouring out at me. I looked through the window again and noticed that there were flames in the back of our garage," Jennifer said.

Fire Call

Jennifer called for help, but the fire spread quickly. Fortunately, Jennifer was able to safely bring her two grandchildren and pet dog out of the home, and no one was injured in the fire.

The Kewaskum Fire Department was dispatched at 6:19 p.m. to the home at 704 Moraine Court in Kewaskum.

"Upon arrival, the garage was fully engulfed. There was a camping trailer parked in the driveway that was burning. The north side of the house was burning. And the neighbor to the east of the residence, the side of that house was on fire also," Kewaskum Fire Chief Mark Groeschel said.

The fire created a large plume of smoke that could be seen for miles, with reports from as far away as Saukville.

"I knew there was more than a garage burning when I saw that column of smoke. It was black and it went straight up. It was a tremendous amount of smoke," Groeschel said.

KHS To Present Catch Me If You Can

– Musical To Be Performed November 10 And 11

By Anne Trautner

Matthew Krautkramer is a high school junior who has worn lots of different costumes for plays at Kewaskum High School.

Next week, he stars in the school's musical and will add plenty of new outfits to his repertoire as he portrays Frank Abagnale, Jr., a master of disguises, in the show Catch Me If You Can. Although Matthew has played various supporting lead roles, this is the first time he has had the actual leading role in a show. He is enjoying the experience.

"There are a lot more lines to memorize than normal, but it's a lot of fun. It's a fun show with lots of upbeat stuff," Matthew said.

The show is based on the true story of Frank Abagnale, Jr., a teenager who conned millions of dollars worth of checks by assuming a myriad of identities: airplane pilot, doctor and lawyer, to name a few. Set in the 1960s, the show tells the story of how FBI Agent Carl Hanratty pursued Frank Abagnale, Jr., for years before finally capturing him.

Little Folks School House Holds Fall Family Event

On Friday, Oct. 13, the Little Folks School House held its annual Fall Family event. This year's theme was "Happy Birthday" as the child care center celebrated 20 years of being in business. Pizza, special cookies and birthday cupcakes were served. Party hats were available for the children to wear. A craft table was set up along with carnival type games. Face painting was offered by Rachel Hron of Rock Face Paint and Magician Bob Kahn entertained families with his magic show.

The Little Folks School House started out as a small center in 1997 in the town of Wayne. By 2006, the group outgrew the building and moved to Kewaskum where they now provide care for 82 children. They also provide care after school at Holy Trinity and before and after school care at Kewaskum Elementary.

Little Folks employs a staff of 29 including teachers, assistant teachers, co-op students, a full time cook and a cleaning staff. The childcare center works in partnership with Moraine Park Technical College's early childhood program. MPTC students are placed at Little Folks for practicum experience while being mentored by a Little Folks teacher.

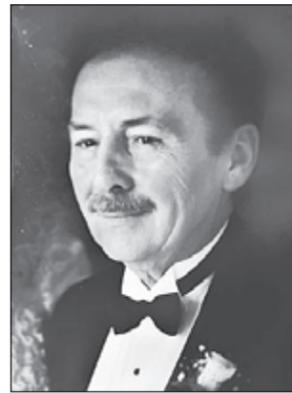

Little Folks School House became nationally accredited in 2015. As an accredited center, it is recognized as an early care and education program that exemplifies excellence in the care of young children. Little Folks School House ensures a high quality program for children that is conducive to their individual growth and development, provides professional training opportunities for staff, and demonstrates that the center exceeds minimum state licensing requirements for child care programs. Little Folks is also rated five stars by the Wisconsin Youngstar program. Youngstar rates thousands of child care providers from one star (for programs that do not meet health and safety standards) to five stars (for the highest quality of care). These stars help parents find the right place for their child to learn and grow. Little Folks School House is the only five-star center in all of Kewaskum and West Bend.

On a very, very warm day last month, the Kettle Moraine Detachment 1203 of the Marine Corp. League sat out in front of Wal-Mart and raised funds for the 9/11 Memorial in Kewaskum. Gordon Haberman had spoken with these distinguished veterans earlier this year about the project and they voted to donate the proceeds of one of their fundraisers to the project. A lot of guys gave of their time to do this. What a great group. They raised $1,338 for Kewaskum's 9/11 Memorial. Go Marines! -photo submitted

Weekly HEALTH TIP

TREATING DEPRESSION WITH DIET

A new randomized controlled trial was conducted to see if changes in diet could reduce the symptoms of depression. Participants all had moderate to severe depression and ate an unhealthy diet (high in refined carbohydrates, sweets and processed meats and low in fruits and vegetables, whole grains, lean proteins and healthy fats). Researchers put half the group on a modified Mediterranean diet and required them to attend dietary support sessions. The other half continued eating their unhealthy diet but attended social support sessions. After 12 weeks, 33% of the healthy-diet group were in remission from depression compared to only 8% of the social group.

Kewaskum Students Raise Funds For Honor Flight

The greatest gift one can give to their country is their service. In recognition of the sacrifice our veterans have made, the Stars and Stripes Honor Flight has made it their mission to honor all veterans by flying World War II, Korean, and Vietnam War veterans, as well as terminally ill veterans from other conflicts, to Washington, D.C., to visit their memorials.

Last year, the Kewaskum Key Club decided to help in this mission. The idea of Kewaskum School District students buying airplanes to show their appreciation for our service men and women was born. Amazingly, $985 was raised.

Again this year, the Key Club is selling paper airplanes for $1. All donations will be given to the Honor Flight to ensure that as many veterans as possible, receive the opportunity to visit the memorials dedicated to them.

The buyer of the airplane can decorate, sign or write a note of gratitude on the plane. The planes will be hung in the KHS Fieldhouse to show support to our local veterans.

Presentation of the gift will take place at the Veteran's Day Assembly on Nov. 10, at 10:40 a.m. in the high school fieldhouse. The public is welcome to attend.

To make a donation, please contact Stacy La Ronge at 262-626-8427, ext. 4252 or email her at slaronge@kewaskum-schools.org.

St. Joseph's Hospital Accepting Submissions For Love Light Tree

Donor forms for inclusion on the memory/honor board for the 31st annual Love Light Tree at Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin St. Joseph's Hospital are requested by November 17. Participants can dedicate a light on the tree in memory of or in honor of a loved one for $5 each. The board is displayed at the Love Light Tree lighting, which will take place Sunday, Dec. 3, at 6:30 p.m. in the hospital's Garden Cafe.

The event features holiday refreshments, an official tree lighting and entertainment by the West Bend High Schools' Choirs.

Names on donor forms received through November 17 will be acknowledged at froedtert.com/lovelight.

Donor forms are available in the hospital's Well Wisher Gift Shop, West Bend Health Center, Kewaskum Health Center and Jackson Health Center. For more information, e-mail SJHlovelight@froedtert.com or call 262-836-LOVE.

The Love Light Tree is sponsored by The Partners of St. Joseph's Hospital. Proceeds benefit the community by enhancing St. Joseph's Hospital patient services and programs, and supporting local youth health care career scholarships.

Volunteers have been serving St. Joseph's Hospital since 1937 when a small group of women met in members' homes to sew for the hospital nursery. Over the years, the role of volunteers expanded to its current Partners organization, assisting patients and visitors and providing service to hospital staff and the community. The Partners also raise funds for the hospital through a variety of events and activities, including operating the Well Wisher Gift Shop at the hospital.

Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin St. Joseph's Hospital, founded in 1930 by local doctors, community leaders and the Sisters of the Divine Savior, is a full-service hospital serving residents of West Bend and Washington County. St. Joseph's Hospital specializes in women's health and birthing services, cancer care, surgical procedures and rehabilitation services. It's part of the Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin health care network, which includes four community hospital campuses, more than 1,600 physicians and nearly 40 health centers and clinics, drawing patients from throughout the Midwest and the nation.

Cedar Community At Home Team Members Receive Purple Angel Training

Cedar Community at Home team members recently received Purple Angel Training which is dementia friendly business training. It is an initiative of the Dementia Friendly Washington County Partnership through the Washington County Aging and Disability Resource Center that began in 2016. The training helps ensure businesses in our community recognize when they may be assisting a person with dementia and teaches participants ways to create a positive interaction with people with dementia. Upon completion of the course, the business receives a Purple Angel window cling to hang at their place of business. The Purple Angel is a universal symbol recognized worldwide for dementia friendliness in a business. It indicates employees have had dementia awareness training and are sensitive to the needs of dementia customers.

The Purple Angel Dementia campaign began in Devon, UK in 2012 to raise awareness about dementia and how others can help support those with the disease. Many countries around the world have joined the campaign to create dementia friendly communities, changing the way people treat those with dementia. Through the training, Cedar Community at Home is recognized as a dementia friendly community where people living with dementia are supported to live a high quality life with meaning, purpose and value. Team members are able to recognize the signs of dementia and communicate effectively with individuals with dementia.

To learn more or to become a dementia friendly business, contact Tammy Dickman, Dementia Caregiver Support Specialist, at the Washington County Aging and Disability Resource Center, at 262-335-4497.

Live more at Cedar Community, where their natural settings, faith-based mission and high-quality services afford seniors the opportunity to live a more purposeful, fulfilled life among family and friends. From beautiful homes and apartments for active and independent retirees, to assisted living, short-term care and rehabilitation, skilled nursing and memory loss services and home medical equipment, Cedar Community is the only community in Washington County where people age 55 and better have the peace of mind, knowing the services they may need are right there, provided by a team of professionals they know and trust.

Project Gratitude Planned For Boys & Girls Clubs

This is the 12th year of "Project Gratitude, a First Weber of West Bend project to provide the food necessary for families of the members of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Washington County, to prepare a full Thanksgiving meal at home. Once again, the goal is to provide for 300 families at an approximate cost of $40 per family for groceries. Since the inception of "Project Gratitude" in 2006:

- 2,032 baskets of food have been delivered to families.
- At approximately $40 per basket, they have spent over $81,000 for groceries.
- A basket feeds 5-6 people, totaling 10,160 to 12,192 plates of food.
- 15.2 tons of turkey was purchased to complete 2,032 baskets.

Your help is needed to continue this very important project. Donations must be received no later than November 10, with checks made out to First Weber Foundation and mailed to Terri Fredrich at First Weber, 1720 Clarence Court, West Bend, WI 53095. LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

About "Taking a Knee"

People with contempt for our country and what it stands for used to burn American flags. Sports figures today refuse to stand in respect to the American flag, or "take a knee" while the rest of us sing the national anthem.

Far too many Americans before them "took a knee" out of respect for our country and what it stands for. They went down on their knees after bullets tore holes in their lungs and they couldn't breathe. They went down on their knees when they couldn't stop their life's blood flowing out of gaping wounds onto the ground all around them. In recent years they had legs blown out from underneath them by an IED, or they couldn't keep their innards from spilling out of their hands, and they went down on their knees.

For some, like those in the Revolutionary or Civil War, the flag was the last thing they saw as they went down on their knees and then passed into the next life. But today we have NFL players and others, who just can't bring themselves to show a bit of respect for the flag or the national anthem or our country.

It makes me angry to think that kids across the country are looking up to some of these players as role models. It makes me very angry to think that any veterans who served our country see this when they watch a game.

The worst thing about all of this, however, is how it lays bare our ignorance of our Constitution.

These players are not exercising their First Amendment right to free speech. Any grownup who told them not to "take a knee," and penalized them for doing so, would not be denying any First Amendment right.

The First Amendment of our Constitution reads "Congress shall make no law ... abridging the freedom of speech ...". Under our Constitution, only the Congress, the federal government, is limited from restricting our freedom of speech.

That is why we were given our Constitution—to limit the power of the federal government. We were not given our Constitution to enable progressives to grant us an endless list of "constitutional rights," with the resultant buildup of the federal government until it is out of all control, like a so-called First Amendment "right" for a moron to "take a knee."

But progressives have manipulated most of us into thinking we must tolerate and allow for this; that people have some sort of constitutional right to say whatever they want, wherever they want, because of the First Amendment.

This doesn't have to be tolerated at all. It would be entirely appropriate for team owners, coaches, stadium owners or supporters to require a show of respect as has always been done in professional sports, and enforce penalties to bring this to a stop.

The burning of the American flag should have been stopped decades ago. State legislatures and cities should have enacted penalties for burning the flag. It would have been entirely constitutionally appropriate for them to do so.

The recent tearing down of veterans' monuments and memorials, happening simultaneously as players are "taking a knee," should have been stopped before now as well. As I write, the Constitution Party of Wisconsin is working to provide penalties for those intent on exercising a First Amendment right to tear down veterans' memorials in our state.

The only thing that will continue to prevent stopping some of these things is your silence.

We are not, in any way, respecting our Constitution when we tolerate this "speech." We are teaching our kids to disrespect our flag and everything this country stands for, and our Constitution. We are effectively undermining our Constitution by not speaking out against this as we have a First Amendment right to.

Chief's Corner

By Kewaskum Police Chief Tom Bishop

Last month I was on my way back from a meeting and I had just entered Kewaskum when a vehicle in front of me changed lanes without using its directional signal. The vehicle's action was a violation of State traffic statutes. I decided not to make a traffic stop on that vehicle and a driver in another vehicle made his displeasure with my decision known to me (via some hand gestures). His thought process was perhaps like most people — "that happened in front of a squad car, so naturally the officer is going to pull the car over" — which, generally speaking, that is a correct assumption. The reasons officers patrol the Village is to deter criminal activity, intercede upon seeing a law violation and respond to emergency calls for service; however, there are a few reasons why an officer might not stop a vehicle for a minor traffic violation. I would like to explain some of the circumstances as to why an officer may not make a traffic stop upon witnessing a minor traffic violation.

1. The officer wasn't looking at the same thing. The most common reason may be that the officer just didn't see the same thing you saw. Just because a police car is right near the observed violation doesn't necessarily mean the officer was physically looking at the same thing. An officer stopped observing traffic at an intersection may miss a violation due to looking up information on the squad computer or simply just looking a different direction.

2. The officer is responding to, or working on, another call for service. The majority of calls we respond to do not require the use of our emergency lights and sirens; therefore, the officer may be working on, or responding to, another call for service and is unable to make a traffic stop at that moment.

3. It is unsafe to make the traffic stop. As officers, our first and foremost consideration is always to have everyone's safety in mind, including our own. Upon seeing a violation, our first reaction is to make the traffic stop and enforce the law; however other factors must play into that decision as well. Considerations must be given to traffic flow, location, visibility, and weather conditions for example.

As we are all aware, the late afternoon traffic volume in Kewaskum is high and trying to make a left turn onto Hwy 45 is all but impossible. In fact, according to the Wisconsin Department of Transportation, in the spring of 2016 the average daily count of cars that traveled on Hwy 45 in the area of Timblin Drive was 18,100 cars per day. If an officer observes a minor traffic violation, the officer must decide if it is worth the disruption in traffic to make the stop, or, when dealing with inclement weather, the officer must decide if it is safe to make a traffic stop in a snow storm when visibility is low. These are critical decisions that need to be made prior to turning on the emergency lights and attempting to make a traffic stop.

4. The officer is not assigned to patrol duty. Officers may be attending court, training or meetings where they are not assigned to patrol duty and are not in a position to perform a traffic stop. Many times in these situations, officers will not be wearing the same uniform as they would be if assigned to patrol duty; thus they are not in a safe position to make the traffic stop.

When I was coming back from that meeting last month, I wasn't wearing my full duty gear as I would if I was assigned to patrol duty. Quite frankly, I sit in a lot of meetings and wearing an extra twenty pounds of gear at those times is not required or preferred. Upon my return to the Village, in our unmarked police vehicle, I did consider making the traffic stop on the vehicle that failed to use proper directional signals, but I also needed to consider the aforementioned safety considerations. In this particular situation, I didn't have my ballistic vest on, a portable radio, or any other equipment needed to safely make a traffic stop. The vehicle I was operating is equipped with lights and sirens, but beyond that it has very limited equipment. At that moment, I decided that my safety outweighed the seriousness of the violation I observed.

5. It may not even be an officer in the car. Police cars require frequent maintenance due to their high use, and like other vehicles, need to be driven by mechanics to figure out what is wrong or to make sure the issue was fixed. There are also times where our unmarked police vehicle will be used by other Village employees to attend a meeting or a training event out of town. These employees are not police officers and do not have the legal authority to perform any traffic stops.

6. Jurisdiction is required. Except in very limited exemptions, we do not have any authority to enforce the law outside of the Village of Kewaskum. Unless requested for mutual aid purposes by the jurisdiction with authority, we are only able to enforce violations that occurred within the political boundary of the Village of Kewaskum. Likewise, agencies without jurisdiction in Kewaskum cannot enforce violations that occurred in Kewaskum.

As you can see, just because a violation occurred in the vicinity of a police vehicle, doesn't necessarily mean that a traffic stop will be made. There are many situations whereby an officer may not immediately act upon witnessing a minor traffic violation.

Throughout this article, I frequently used the term "minor traffic violation" as the seriousness of the violation is another factor in the decision making process. If an officer believes that the drivers actions are serious enough in nature, and they are unable to make the traffic stop at that moment, the officer would certainly radio in the details to our dispatch center and have another officer attempt the traffic stop.

Thank you and have a safe month,

Tom Bishop
Chief of Police

Wisconsin Steam Show Hits Area

By Andrea Hansen Abler

It was a beautiful, warm fall day when a large group of men, women and children got together to fire up some old engines and do some work like they did in the olden days.

Members of the Wisconsin Historical Steam Engine Association (WHSEA) got together for their annual Steam Fest. It was held on the homestead of Matt Harvey who lives in between Campbellsport and Kewaskum on Badger Drive.

People from all over the state of Wisconsin brought their engines to this gathering so they could fire them up and use them for threshing, plowing, sawing logs and much more. Each engine is a little different and the members have all taken very good care of them.

"We like to cultivate interest in steam engines," Harvey said. "This is kind of a play date for us."

The WHSEA was established on January 18, 2003. The first meeting hosted 70 people who were interested in forming a non-profit corporation for those who enjoy the operation of all kinds of steam and related vintage machinery.

According to their website, "Our mission and purpose of this corporation shall be for the education and preservation of steam traction engines and all kinds of vintage steam and related machinery, engineers, and the promotion of safety in the operation and management of traction engines and vintage engines and boilers."

"From the past comes the future and by the preservation of this equipment, we introduce the knowledge of the past to generations of the future."

Every year the group hosts a Steam School. This is where anyone interested in the operation and maintenance of a steam engine can learn about them. It is always held in September with the next one being September 21-23, 2018, at the Rock River Thersheree Inc. Club Show Grounds in Edgerton.

Club members are very enthusiastic about their engines and ready to help anyone out. If you need advice on your engine or need help fixing or restoring it, they are there to back you up when you need it.

At Steam Fest, everyone arrived in the morning with their engines ready to test them out. They broke for a potluck lunch and a business meeting but then they were right back to their engines.

In the field behind the buildings, one group was running a threshing machine with a large crowd. Another group was using a large engine to pull and old time plow. Three people had to stand on the plow to hold the blades in place while the engine drove up and down the field.

On the other side of the barn, Aaron and Cliff Schmidt fired up their 1917 24-75 horse-power Port Huron compound engine. This was only about the eighth time the engine has been out since being restored.

"It is completely rebuilt," Aaron said.

He showed how most of the engine was painted black. Aaron explained that this was done because of the war when the engine was built. Rather than spend the money on colored paint, engines were painted black to save money for the war effort.

Once they got the engine going, it powered a saw. A few people were putting logs on the saw and showing how lumber used to be made.

Many were watching this while just behind it another smaller engine was being used to cut small logs. Another good-size crowd was watching this machine run and had many questions for the operator.

This was how then entire day went at the Harvey farmstead. Lots of old machines being used with huge crowds of spectators watching to see how farming and other industry used to be done.

If you would like more information on the Wisconsin Historical Steam Engine Association, go to their website at www.whsea.org or check out their Facebook page. It is an interesting hobby and a fun group of people!

Steam Fest 2017 was held on the Harvey Homestead, south of Campbellsport, on Saturday, Oct. 21. This was also a meeting of the Wisconsin Historical Steam Engine Association, Inc. Many from the association came out to watch the different machines run and to talk about engines. In the top photo, a crowd watches as William Hackbarth of Armstrong, Tom Blank of Portland, WI, and Willie Boettcher or Chilton do some threshing. In the middle photo, another group watches as Matt Harvey and Dave Schmidt, both of Campbellsport, use a 65-horse power 1920 Case to pull a six-bottom John Deere plow through Harvey's field. In the bottom photo, another group watches as a member uses a smaller engine to job and grind wood. This was all part of the exciting event that is held once a year by the WHSEA. They also host a Steam School once a year where people can learn how to operate and maintain steam engines.

KHS To Present Catch Me If You Can

"It's a good story that shows what people can do when they are desperate. But also it doesn't glorify the criminal act," said Lindsay Dahlberg, who is directing the show with her husband, Andrew Dahlberg.

The story serves as an inspiration for people to see there is a way to redeem themselves.

"So it's really entertaining, but it also has a really good message," Lindsay Dahlberg said.

The comedic musical is based on the 2002 DreamWorks film Catch Me If You Can, starring Leonardo DiCaprio and Tom Hanks.

"This show is really different from the stuff we have been doing lately," Lindsay Dahlberg explained.

The high school typically presents Golden Age musicals or classic music theater set in the 1920s.

"That really tends to appeal to our audience. Not as much to the kids always," Lindsay Dahlberg said.

So this year the Dahlberrgs decided to pick something new.

"This is a show that I have been wanting to do for a very long time. Well, it's only been out for about five years. So, ever since it came out about five years ago, I have been eyeing it up," Lindsay Dahlberg said.

"We also wanted to show the audience a different side of music theater. A lot of people don't know these new musicals, so it's cool to bring that here and show them musicals are not just Oklahoma! and Carousel and Thoroughly Modern Millie. There are a lot of new, really good modern shows out there," she added.

"The audience will like it. It's a funny show. The characters are each really unique," said McKenna Jens, who has the leading female role of Brenda Strong. "You will definitely laugh coming to see this show. It's good."

Not only is the show a different type of musical, but it has offered unique opportunities for the students.

"We have a lot of talent up there, but we are really challenging them," Lindsay Dahlberg said.

This is the first time Logan Weyer, who plays Carl Hanratty, has had a leading role. With that comes extra work.

"It's been difficult finding my character, but it's been a really fun experience because I looked up the character. I've done research and I watched the Broadway performances, just looking at the character," Logan said.

Logan has learned how to play the comical role not by telling jokes, but by acting uptight and nerdy.

"It is a really interesting character, and the way he acts is hilarious," Logan said.

Hunter Roehrig, who portrays Frank Abagnale, Sr., has returned to the theater to perform in this musical after taking several years off from being in musicals.

"It's been really fun to be back into it," Hunter said, and added, "The funnest part is seeing the set come to life."

Kewaskum's stage is being transformed to reproduce the Broadway set and feature two grand staircases.

The music is not the typical Broadway music, though.

"It's a different type of music, it's more jazzy versus what we are used to. That is the hardest part of it," said Destiny Kudelko.

For Destiny, who plays Paula Abagnale, the main character's French mother, there is an added challenge.

"I have to learn a whole other language," Destiny said.

Still, the students are glad they have taken part in the show.

"It sounds cliché, but the best part is the friendships you make. A lot of these people I would not have met if I hadn't started doing musicals and show choir," McKenna said.

Show Times

Friday, Nov. 10: 7 p.m.
Saturday, Nov. 11: 1 p.m. and 7 p.m.

Tickets are $10 and are for sale at Geidel's Piggly Wiggly or the Kewaskum High School Office.

Senior Citizen Show is Thursday, Nov. 9, at noon for $5.

Neighbors reported hearing an explosion, but Groeschel said the noise likely had been from a tire that was in the garage that burst from the heat.

Fire departments from West Bend, Boltonville, Newburg, Kohlsville, Campbellsport and Fillmore all responded. It took about two hours to completely extinguish the fire. Kewaskum firefighters were back at their headquarters at 8:39 p.m.

Extensive Damage

Jennifer's husband, Matthew, arrived home from working in Slinger about 15 minutes after the fire had started. By the time he arrived, the fire was about 80 percent out, but extensive damage had been done.

"It just went so quick," said Matthew who moved into the house 10 years ago.

Damage estimates were not available at press time, but all seven people who had lived in the house are now displaced.

Matthew and Jennifer Wuensch lived in the three-bedroom house with their two daughters, ages 25 and 23, their 2-month old granddaughter, and 1-year-old and 7-year-old grandsons.

"I'm just glad it happened during the day and not when we were sleeping because it could have been a completely different outcome," Jennifer said.

The investigation is still ongoing, and the cause of the fire is not known at this time. Once the fire started, flammable materials helped it to spread.

"We had four propane tanks in there and gas for the lawnmower and the snowblower. And lighter fluid," Jennifer said.

There is no garage left. The family's camper that they purchased last year was parked in the driveway and was totaled. Fortunately, no cars were parked in the garage.

The exterior of the house next door at 706 Moraine Court was damaged, but the interior is still livable.

The interior of the Wuensches' home, which was built around 1974, is a charred mess. Pictures are melted to the walls and belongings are destroyed. Holes were burned through the roof, and there is no ceiling left through much of the house.

"Our furniture is literally melted," Jennifer said.

Still, the fire seemed to have a mind of its own as it traveled through the house. Flames stayed clear of the middle room, which served as the family's office, so items in that room merely suffered smoke damage.

And in the fire's bizarre pattern, one side of the basement remained untouched.

Receiving Help

People reached out to help as soon as they heard about the tragedy. Neighbors cared for the Wuensches' grandchildren and dog as firefighters battled the flames.

The Red Cross provided shelter for the family, who is now staying in a West Bend hotel.

Both the house and the camper were insured.

The Wuensches' grandson turned 7 the day after the fire. The staff at Kewaskum Elementary School, where he attends, was there for him.

"They replaced his backpack and gave him a birthday treat to hand around," Matthew said.

People continue reaching out to see how they can help.

"We don't know what to tell them. Obviously, we are going to need everything, but we don't have anywhere to put it right now," Jennifer said. "But we will get back on track." "We are going to be OK," Matthew agreed.

To help the family, donations can be made at <https://www.gofundme.com/kewaskum-house-fire>.

SSSF Dedicate Memorial On Former Convent Grounds

By Andrea Hansen Abler

It was a dreary morning outside but it was full of delight and prayer inside the gymnasium at St. Matthew Catholic School on Saturday, Oct. 14. The School Sisters of St. Francis were dedicating and blessing their new memorial monument for St. Joseph Convent.

The memorial was constructed over the past couple weeks along Mill Street at the edge of the site where the convent used to stand. It was closed in 2015 and deconstructed this past year.

"This will always be our founding place," said Sister Carol Rigali, U.S. Provincial team member. "It will always be needed here."

The SSSF were formed in Campbellsport in 1874 to serve St. Matthew School. Their original Mother House was built here and they had a presence in Campbellsport for 141 years.

"This is where our story begins in 1874," said Sister Barbaralie Stieffermann. "All of that history and now today we are memorializing that convent. As Sister Carol mentioned, some times you have to let go and some of us have tearfully let it go. That place is Holy ground no matter who buys it."

The memorial monument is curved with two plaques on either side of a cement column. One plaque gives information about the SSSF. The other plaque gives a short history about the formation of the SSSF and St. Joseph Convent that once stood on that land.

In the curved area, metal poles hold stones in place. These stones mean a lot to the SSSF and the Campbellsport community. When the buildings on this site had been deconstructed and the crews were finishing the clean-up of the site, they uncovered the foundation of the original Mother House for the SSSF.

"I said dig them up and clean them up," said Sister Rigali. "We'll use them in the monument."

So those stones surrounding the cement column with the plaques are the original stones used on the first building to be built by the SSSF. This keeps a piece of their history in the Village of Campbellsport for all to see and cherish.

A metal shelf sits at the top of the stones. One side is solid metal but the other is etched with a phrase from Mother Alexia, one of the three founders of the SSSF, to the sisters. It states "The needs of the times are the Will of God for us."

The new monument fits into that space nicely. It is right along the sidewalk next to the old driveway that led to St. Joseph Convent.

"We wanted it to flow and not to be overwhelming but to be gracious," Sister Rigali said. "We are very happy with it."

Hundreds of people filled the St. Matthew School gym that morning to dedicate this memorial monument and celebrate what the SSSF meant to this town. After a brief ceremony, many braved the light rain to help bless the monument.

The monument will be taken care of by the SSSF.

History Of The SSSF

The School Sisters of St. Francis was founded in Campbellsport on April 28, 1874. Their ministry began in parish schools.

Three young women from Germany traveled to the United States in 1873. Emma Franziska (Mother Alexia) Hoell, Paulina (Mother Alfons) Schmid, and Helena (Sister Clara) Seiter were caring for and ministering orphans in Schwarzach, Germany, when they were advised to go to America.

They were called by God to establish a Franciscan religious community that would care for people in need. After they arrived in the United States, they needed a place to establish their religious community.

Father Michels was the pastor of St. Matthew's Church in what was then called New Cassel and now is known as Campbellsport. He was looking for sisters to teach at the parish school and worked with Mothers Alexia and Alfons and Sister Clara to bring them to New Cassel.

According to their website, "Their dream was to help immigrants with a large religious community that would meet the needs of the Church."

Less than a week later, on May 5, 1874, Mother Alexia signed the contract for construction of the first convent and boarding school for the School Sisters of St. Francis. It was later decided that the Motherhouse would be moved to Milwaukee. In 1887, the SSSF built their new Motherhouse in Milwaukee.

After their start in 1874, the SSSF grew rapidly. Within a decade, they were staffing schools in five states. After the new Motherhouse in Milwaukee was built, they also built the St. Joseph's Normal School in Milwaukee. This school grew to become what we now know as Alverno College.

Health services were added in 1893. This was signified by the opening of the Sacred Heart Sanitarium in Milwaukee, which became well-known around the world.

In the late 1890s, the SSSF also expanded their ministry outside of the United States. They started in Europe and over the next 100 years, especially after 1930, expanded to many countries throughout the world.

With a the Motherhouse in Milwaukee, St. Joseph Convent in Campbellsport took on a new role around the turn of the century. It became the home for the elderly and infirm sisters.

For more than a century, St. Joseph Convent in Campbellsport served a great purpose for the elderly sisters. Many of them were active in the community and many area residents were touched by the convent and the sisters.

In February 2015, St. Joseph Convent was officially closed in Campbellsport. Deconstruction of the building began in 2016 and was completed in 2017. The land where the convent once stood is now for sale.

Mission And Vision

The SSSF is an international community of Catholic sisters who unite with others to build a just and peaceful world. Founded in 1874, they now have more than 1,000 sisters, associates, staff, donors and volunteers actively working to address the needs of those who are poor and marginalized by society. Our mission is thriving with five provinces serving the United States, Europe, Latin America and India.

Their mission is to live the Good News of Jesus and witness to the presence of God as we enter into the lives and needs of people around the world, especially those who are poor. We strive to be a source of new life, new meaning and new hope.

Their vision is a world transformed through peace, justice and love.

Sister Phyllis Wirtz of the School Sisters of St. Francis gives the closing prayer at the Dedication and Blessing Ceremony of the St. Joseph Convent Memorial Monument. Wirtz was one of the administrators of the convent here in Campbellsport. The convent was closed in 2015 and deconstructed last year. This monument will serve as a reminder of the history the SSSF have in Campbellsport, where they were founded in 1874.

Trophy Emerges From '61 State Cross Country Win

By Judy Harlow

One might think a high school with just one state championship to its credit would have the first place trophy in a prominent position in the school.

That is not the case for the state championship cross country trophy won by the Kewaskum High boys (now senior citizens) in 1961. The trophy is in the basement of one of the runners after the school had moved it and other older trophies to a storage area.

The story of the trophy emerged recently after the Kewaskum Statesman contacted Allen Koepke, one of the runners of the famous '61 team, to determine if one of the Indians on that team won the Scenic Moraine Conference's individual cross country title. Current KHS senior Justin Reck recorded that feat on October 14 of this year, and in 1973 Randy Backhaus finished first in the old Scenic Conference Meet.

"We didn't have a conference meet," Koepke said, reporting there were dual meets and invitationals and separate sectional competitions for the large schools and the smaller ones. He figured Kewaskum High, in its first season of interscholastic cross country, was probably in the latter division because it had around 400 students in those days.

Koepke recalls traveling to the Tuscumba Golf Course for the sectional. "We didn't win. We were second. The team from Ripon won (63-74)," Koepke said, noting during the sectional, several Ripon runners passed him and other KHS runners down the final stretch, so when the state meet came up, he said, "I knew when I saw runners coming up with their color, I am not going to let them beat us ... That was our montra."

Kewaskum scored 58 points in the meet, held in nearby Hartford, and Koepke was quite sure Ripon finished second. According to the 1962 Chieftain, Kewaskum won with its top five runners finishing first, fifth, eighth, 13th and 21st.

While places and times of the Kewaskum runners have escaped him, Koepke quickly rattled off the names of the top seven runners. "Dennis Vetter was always number one. He was a very good runner," Koepke said. "My brother Bill was number two; Vic Wampler was number three; I was the number four guy, and Allen Rinzel was number five. That typically was the way we finished."

And he was correct. Vetter won the race, while Bill Koepke finished fifth, Wampler placed eighth, Allen Koepke came in 13th, and Allen Rinzel was 31st.

Bobby "Bugs" Schaefer was also a member of the varsity squad that year.

Koepke and his brother were both basketball and baseball players and had no real interest in cross country until the late Walter Bade, the basketball coach, suggested they go out for the sport.

Because of farm chores, neither brother was able to play football, but Bade said the cross country workouts could be completed during a free period the last hour of the school day. Bade said they should go out, and then they would be in good shape for basketball. The rest is history.

The state champions were coached by music teacher John Lutz. "The choral guy ... He was our motivation," Koepke said. He would run with us, but we couldn't beat him."

The runners from all classes ran together at state. Koepke believed the length of the race was 2.1 miles. Vetter's winning time was 11 minutes, 17.7 seconds (11:17.7).

So where is the trophy right now? "It's in my basement," Koepke said. And how did it get there? "Here's an interesting story," he went on, reporting Schaefer wound up becoming a teacher in Minnesota, and some years ago, a friend of his asked if he ever participated in anything in high school, and Schaefer told him about winning the state title.

The friend was amazed and said he wanted to see the trophy, so while making a trip to Wisconsin, he and Schaefer went to the school to look for it. They didn't have any luck.

The two went to the office and were aided by a secretary who told them a lot of the trophies were in storage and were going to be thrown away. Koepke said she took them to the storage room and said they could have the trophy if they found it.

They did, and Schaefer proved to his friend he was on a state championship team. Some time after that, Schaefer brought the trophy to Koepke's house and jokingly told him to break into the school and the trophy case where it belongs.

Koepke said cross country wasn't very big in his day but winning a state title was and added, "I'm glad it's progressed to the point it is at now."

Kewaskum Upended By Defensive-Minded Tritons

By Judy Harlow

Every time the Kewaskum High football team got the ball in the second half against Green Bay Notre Dame de la Baie Academy, the Indian fans were probably wondering, would this be the series their team would score a touchdown and take the lead.

Even when they got the ball with 1:52 left on the clock and no timeouts remaining, there was hope. After all, Kewaskum had been unstoppable this season, averaging 39.9 points per game in their 10 victories.

The go-ahead score never came, however, and the Indians' (10-1) season ended October 27 in a 12-7 defeat at the hands of the Tritons, the 2016 D-3 state runners-up who now move on to play neighboring West De Pere in a Level 3 battle.

"Near misses are the story of the night," KHS coach Jason Piittmann said after coaches and players consoled each other on the field after the contest. Near misses like a long pass from Gabe Christenson that was just inches from Tony Steger's fingertips with :38 remaining in the game, and the run by Patrick Krier on fourth and one at the Notre Dame one-yard line right before the end of the half.

There were near misses on defense, too. Piittmann wondered "how many passes did he (quarterback Wes Glime) complete when we had him sacked."

"He was elusive," Piittmann said of junior Glime, adding, "His receivers are good at finding the open spots," especially Jack Allen, who caught five passes for 95 yards, including two key catches of 12 and 31 yards in the Tritons' first-scoring drive.

Notre Dame took a 6-0 lead on that 10-play drive which was capped off by Michael Gregoire's five-yard run with 10:07 left in the second quarter.

On the PAT (point after touchdown), the usually accurate Andrew Gruesen was wide right, leaving the score at 6-0.

The Indians needed just two plays to overtake the Tritons. After Krier opened the series with a two-yard run, quarterback/receiver Tony Steger did what he has done so many times this season — make defenders miss and outrun them to the end zone.

Starting on the KHS 16, Steger found a hole behind his right tackle, then put a move on a Triton linebacker and headed for daylight down the right sideline for an 84-yard touchdown run. Cade Peterson was perfect on the PAT, and the Indians were on top 7-6 with 9:10 left before halftime.

Here's when the ND offense went back to work, moving 80 yards again, this time in 15 plays with Gregoire getting his second touchdown on a sweep to the left with 2:22 to go before intermission.

After KHS was whistled for being offside on the PAT, Notre Dame decided to try for a two-point conversion, but Krier shot in and tackled Gregoire before he got anywhere near the end zone.

The Indians had just four possessions in the first half, and the last one ended a foot or two away from the end zone. KHS marched quickly down the field, using a 31-yard pass from Steger to Dan Kreis to get into Triton territory at the 44, then two plays later, it was vintage Steger, going around the left end and breaking tackles for a 34-yard run to Notre Dame's seven yard line.

On first down, Kreis caught a pass but was tackled at the one, then Krier was stuffed for a short loss, and after Christenson threw an incomplete pass intended for Cole Surprenant, the Triton defense stopped Krier's run a yard short of the end zone.

"We had the right guy in the right spot," Piittmann said of the play call at the one. When asked if he thought about going for the field goal, he said, "Yeah, thought about it, but we've been so good in the Red Zone all year."

More points were expected after the intermission, but the two, high-powered offenses were stymied by each other's outstanding defensive play. KHS linebacker Faton Elmazi was all over the field, sacking Glime and recovering a Glime fumble early in the third quarter, giving his team the ball at the ND 37.

A couple of passes to Kreis, covering eight and nine yards, moved the ball to the ND 21, but after a false start, a loss of four yards and an incomplete pass, ND took over on its 24.

At this point, there was 5:23 remaining in the quarter, but after a first down on an Allen reception, the KHS defense tightened and forced the Tritons to punt.

Steger hauled in the punt at the 20 and got to the 28 before getting tackled, but KHS went three-and-out, and the Tritons had good field position, taking over at their 46. Gregoire picked up 12 yards on the first play, and a pass to Gregoire was good for 18 and another first down on the KHS 24.

Things didn't look good at this point, but Riley Donovan sacked Glime back at the 32, and two plays later, ND punted to the KHS five. One incomplete pass and two short runs later, it was KHS punting, setting up plenty of excitement in the final nine minutes of the game.

ND missed on a 45-yard field goal into the wind with a little over six minutes to go, then on KHS' first play from scrimmage, Steger fumbled, and Isaac Sidon recovered at the Indians' 24.

ND picked up a first down at the 13 on a pass to Matthew Roeder, and three plays later, Glime had the first down on a draw play but coughed up the ball at the KHS 4, with Jerod Otto forcing the fumble and pouncing on it.

After an incomplete pass,

Steger twice escaped giving up a safety, so the Indians were forced to punt again, but they would eventually get the ball back after Donovan came in from the left side and blocked Gruesen's 37-yard field goal try.

The Indians had one more shot at making the comeback. Moving from their own 33, they picked up a first down at their 45 and after the long incompleteness toward Steger, got another when Kreis hauled in a 10-yard pass to the ND 45.

Thirty seconds to go ... time for three more plays, but Christenson's pass to Cole Surprenant was off target, the Indians had to move five yards back to the K47 for a false start, and then after a completion to Steger at the ND 35, confusion reigned after a flag fell. A defensive penalty would have meant extending the game one play, but there was no penalty, and the game and season were over.

"I thought Riley Donovan played a great game ... Faton played great," Piittmann said. Donovan has been a starting tackle the last two seasons and had six tackles, including three sacks. Elmazi was in on 11 tackles, including four solos and had the one fumble recovery.

Shawn O'Keefe also had a good game, with 12 tackles, including two solos and Krier had a dozen stops with three tackles for losses.

Piittmann said his defensive coach was changing his two outside linebackers (Elmazi and Lucas Christenson) depending "on how we were bringing the pressure."

Offensively, Steger rushed for 156 yards in 17 carries and the one score, while Krier had just six yards. Kreis was the leading receiver with nine catches for 87 yards. Especially effective was a little play called RPO (run, pass option) where Steger would roll out behind Kreis and then dump the ball off to him as defenders were converging.

Piittmann explained watching the Lakeland-Concordia football game a few weeks ago, "Lakeland was tearing Concordia apart with that play." He said the play puts a lot of pressure on the defense, and "Either way, they (guys up front) are blocking for Tony on the run or Dan on the screen."

Gregoire topped the 100-yard mark for ND, rushing for 108 yards in 28 carries and Glime completed 16 of 22 passes for 204 yards.

One glaring statistic was the number of offensive plays, with the Tritons having a commanding 77-46 advantage.

Notre Dame, 9-2, moves on to play top-seeded De Pere, which eliminated Berlin 28-12. The other East Central representative, Plymouth, got shut out by Whitefish Bay, 35-0.

Hungry "LIONS" Coming to Lambeau Field

The Green Bay Packers (4-2) are set to host the Detroit Lions (3-4) during Monday Night Football on November 6th at Lambeau Field.

The Packers, coming off a much needed "bye" week following a frustrating second loss in a row to the New Orleans Saints, should be rested and healed. The Lions are coming off their third straight loss after last night's matchup against the Pittsburgh Steelers, leaving them "hungry". The Packer's Brett Hundley is looking for his first win as a starter, while Matt Stafford on the other hand is trying desperately to keep the Lions from losing out on a possible spot in the playoffs.

The Packers are currently in sole possession of second place trailing the first place Minnesota Vikings by a single game, while the third place Lions are trailing the Vikings by three games in the NFC North Division. The Chicago Bears are in last place at (3-5).

Monday night's matchup will be interesting. Brett Hundley is going head to head with the highest paid player in the NFL, veteran quarterback Matt Stafford. This will be Hundley's second career game starting in place of the injured Aaron

WAYNE SARGENT

Rodgers. Given Hundley really hasn't been given the opportunity to throw the ball much, there's not a lot to judge him by. Both teams have a decent running game, but the confidence of Stafford versus Hundley may be a huge factor coming into play. A lot also depends on the play calling of head coach Mike McCarthy. In the past, McCarthy's play calling has been questionable at best. While both team's defenses are ranked relatively close, the Lions are ranked #25 while the Packer's are ranked better at #21. The Lions offense is ranked ninth and the Packers offense is ranked #11.

The first meeting between these NFC Northern Division teams occurred in 1930 with the Packers winning 47-13. The Detroit Lions were then the Portsmouth Spartans, changing their name in 1934. The infamous rivalry began in 1932, and have met twice a season since, making it the longest continuously-running rival in the NFL.

The last meeting between the rivals was January 1, 2017 with the Packers winning 31-24. Green Bay holds the series lead at three, after their loss to the Lions in 2015 at Lambeau. Since the beginning, the Packers have won 100 games and tied seven. The Lions have won 68 games. The Packers have outscored the Lions 3,730 - 3,201 in total points.

This is a tough one to pick. Will Head Coach Mike McCarthy let Hundley throw the ball? Will he switch up quarterbacks with Joe Callahan, confusing the Lions defense? Can the Packers sensational rookie running back Aaron Jones continue his 100 yard plus game? Can the Packer's defense contain the powerful arm of Matt Stafford and the remainder of the Lions offense? Will Brett Hundley or Joe Callahan come out and light up the field? Only time will tell. I don't have those answers.

This much I do know, I'm going with home field advantage on this one. Packers squeak out "The Ultimate" win 21-17. At least I hope so!

Due to the Packers having a Bye Week, there was no Ultimate Packer Fan Giveaway winner this week.

Each week that the Packers play, the Campbellsport News and Kewaskum Statesman are holding an Ultimate Packer Fan Giveaway contest. There is no charge to enter. There will be two winners announced at the end of the season. Each winner will receive a pair of tickets to a 2018 Packers home preseason game.

Reck Finishes 37 To Lead KHS Trio In State CC Meet

By Judy Harlow

Kewaskum High's Justin Reck capped off an impressive senior season with a top 40-finish in the Division 2 State Cross Country Meet held October 28 at the Ridges Golf Course in Wisconsin Rapids.

The other two runners, sophomore Andrew Carlton and freshman Alyssa Butz, were farther back in their respective packs but look forward to making repeat appearances in the future.

Officially, Reck, who won three invitationals and the East Central Conference individual title, finished 37th in the field of 152 young men, with a time of 17 minutes and 13.62 seconds (17:13.62).

"Justin Reck had an amazing race," KHS coach Kris Evans said about his number one runner for the past two seasons. "He ran pretty darn close to his personal best on a very hilly course."

Evans beamed about the change in Reck from his sophomore year at sectionals when he "was all nerves" to this year at state when he was "running in the big show, he was all calm" and focused on the race. "He ran like he belonged."

Carlton made the top half of the field, winding up 67th overall with a good time of 17:41.35.

"Same story," Evans said of the heir apparent to the number one spot, who was "a little off his personal best" of 17:26 but considering the difficult course, it was a good time. "All I see with him and Ally (Butz) is potential," Evans said.

Butz had a time of 21:68.23, good for 125th in the field. "She was a little off her regular pace," Evans said, indicating that may have been because of the larger field, the excitement or cool temperature the race was run in.

"I heard from both of them (Carlton and Butz), they plan on going every year," Evans said.

The individual winners of the boys' and girls' titles had outstanding efforts. Lakeland's Kavanaugh Fitzpatrick was clocked in 15:52.88 over the 5,000 meter course. He had nearly an eight second lead on runner-up, Cody Meyer of Valders, which was the winning team in D-2.

For the girls, the champion was Dana Feyen of Gale-Ettrick-Trempealeau, who set a fast pace and kept it up until she hit the finish line in 18:39.68. Freedom, behind a 5-6-12-14-21 finish, captured the D-2 girls championship by 30 points over Wisconsin Dells, 72-102.

"It was an exciting weekend ... a lot of fun," Evans said, indicating he's going to work on getting more athletes out for the sport, and hopefully will have more going to Wisconsin Rapids.

Krolski, Number Two And Three Doubles Teams Received Honors

By Judy Harlow

At first, Kewaskum High tennis coach Peter Garcia called it "good news," then switched to "great news" about one of his singles players and two doubles teams receiving third-team honors in the All-Eastern Wisconsin Conference voting.

For the second year in a row, Amanda Krolski earned a bronze medal for her play. The senior Krolski played at number four singles last year and moved up to number three this season. In conference action, she sported a 5-3 record. She missed one match due to illness.

Seniors Sydney Donath and Kallie Hoeft, who played for the first time this fall at number two doubles, also won bronze medals for their third-team selection.

Donath was a converted singles player, and this was her second year on varsity. Hoeft earned third-team honors a year ago, too, with a different partner. The two worked well together, winding up 5-4 in EWC action.

The Indians' number three doubles team, comprised of juniors Nikky Bruss and Nichole Brzozowski, took the bronze after finishing 6-3 in conference play. The two have been together for three seasons, including one on the varsity team, and Garcia said, "These two epitomize that size doesn't matter in tennis, only your will to succeed does."

"These medals speak to the work ethic of these young ladies," Garcia said. "They come out for tennis with no previous experience and through hard work they learn the game and develop their skills."

Kewaskum finished tied for fourth place with Waupun and Kiel in the EWC competition this fall. All three finished at 5-4, while Kohler was a perfect 9-0 to win the title.

Academic All-State Honoree From Kewaskum High School

"The Golf Coaches Association of Wisconsin (GCAW) is pleased to announce that Ashley Trapp of Kewaskum High School is an Academic All-State honoree for the recently concluded 2017 girls' golf season, receiving a designation of High Honors.

Students are nominated by GCAW member coaches if they meet the following criteria: 1) A cumulative grade point average of at least 3.25, 2) participation in at least 75% of their team's varsity matches, and 3) are at least a sophomore in high school. Ashley is a student-athlete who serves as a great example to others, proving that academic and athletic successes are not mutually exclusive.

The coaches association is proud to announce that 305 girls from 97 high schools have been honored this year for maintaining high academic standards in the classroom while competing in varsity golf. In fact, the average cumulative GPA of this year's honorees is an exceptional 3.785.

The GCAW was formed by high school golf coaches in 1986 to help build Wisconsin's reputation for developing quality junior players by promoting golf in our schools and communities. Besides honoring both boys and girls who succeed as student athletes, the association also selects an annual All-State team for boys and girls based on their playing ability. An academic 'Team' award honoring high school teams with the highest cumulative GPA is also acknowledged. The girls' team award will be announced in February 2018.

October 28 Results

Eighth Grade Gridiron Kewaskum 15 Burlington 6

The eighth grade finished off their season in some cold and windy conditions but defeated Burlington 15-6.

The Indians didn't waste anytime with getting on the board as running back Max Melzer took a handoff on the third play from scrimmage for 40 yards and an Indian touchdown. Kicker Andrew Bolek made the two point kick making the score 8-0.

The Indians stuffed Burlington on their first possession till fourth down when they ran a fake punt to pick up a first down. Burlington took advantage as they finished off the possession with a touchdown. The two point kick was no good so the Indians remained ahead 8-6, which was the half-time score.

The Indians defense didn't let Burlington get anything going in the second half and took advantage of a Burlington miscue on an Indians punt to set up their final score. Burlington blocked and the Indians tried to pick up the punt beyond the line of scrimmage and fumbled the ball and the Indians recovered. On the very next play Melzer took a run 50 yards for the touchdown. Melzer ran in the extra point to make the final score 15-6.

The eighth grade team finished the season with an overall record of 4-4 with wins over Greenfield, West Bend East, Mukwonago and Burlington and their defeats coming against Whitefish Bay, Pewaukee, West Bend West and Saukville.

Seventh Grade Gridiron

The seventh grade finished off their season with a 20-18 win. The play of the game was Donovan Zillmer's three yard full-back drive to secure the victory.

Sixth Grade Gridiron

A good effort was made all around by the sixth grade this last Saturday of the football season, but they could not get the win. Better blocking would have helped score points. There were many nice plays on both sides of the ball that showed improvement and hard work during the season. Final score for this game was 31-0.

KEWASKUM YOUTH SOCCER RESULTS

Saturday, Oct. 21 U7 Rebels

The U7 Kewaskum Rebels won their game on Saturday, Oct 21 with a score of 11-1. Their coaches were extremely proud of the way the team worked together for their game. The team had great communication and passing. For being young kids that are still learning the game of soccer, it was very impressive.

The teams 11 goals were scored by Jax with four, Tony with four, Adalyn with two and Braden with one.

Saturday, Oct. 28 U10 Kewaskum Twisters 3, Kewaskum Cyclones 0 From The Twisters

In the final game of the season, the Kewaskum U10 Twisters finished with a win to give them a 5-2-1 winning record.

In a game against the hometown rival Kewaskum Cyclones, Isaac Michlig and Eric Jungers managed to keep the Cyclones scoreless. Meanwhile, thanks to great ball control and excellent passing from Carson Maine and Cooper Saeger, Liam Stoffel managed another hat trick scoring in the first, third and fourth quarters. Ruby Gerhartz and Aaron Schmidt also had a great offensive game keeping the ball on the Twisters side of the pitch for most of the allowed time.

Ending with a 3-0 win for their final game shows a lot of potential for the spring season.

From The Cyclones

The U10 Cyclones took to the field on a very windy Saturday to play against the Kewaskum Twisters for their last game of the season. Anna Parish, Sophia Lunde, Eli Van Beek, Mia Dornacker, Cate Stram, Bryce Wildt, Malora Moluf, Jadelyn Stoltzmann, Colton Rabe and Kingston Grisolono worked very hard bringing the ball down the field. Each player has shown growth over the season and great team effort.

The season goal was to get better at key areas of the game and these players put in a lot of time and effort during the fall season and have made great team and individual strides that will make the other teams want to watch out for the Spring Cyclones.

U10 Kewaskum Hurricanes 6, Richfield Rush 2

The Hurricanes finished their fall season strong with a victory over the Richfield Rush on Saturday. The final score was 6-2. There were three goals by David Brown, two goals by Elias Steinbauer, and one goal by William Haydin. This took us to a final fall record of 6-1-1 to finish the season. The team all worked hard and played really well together.

Richfield Heat 4, U12 Kewaskum Venom 3

On the very cold Saturday morning of October 28, the girls U12 Venom took to the field to play against the Richfield Heat for their final game of the fall season.

There was some good defensive playing by Cora Jaeger, Emily Melzer, Elizabeth Erdmann, Mara Butschlick, Victoria Kenworthy, Eden Korth, Lidia Handke, Emma Sielski, Caitlin Finger and Ava Schiller. Dakota Gatzke and Brooklyn Grisolono did a good job trying to protect the Venom goal. Ayla Stuh, Maddie Marquardt and Rowan Bell scored goals for the team. The final score was 4-3 in favor of the Heat.

We are very proud of all the girls on how far you have come this season. Thank you Venom players and coaches!

U12 Kewaskum

Warriors 6,
Jackson Cheetahs 1
U12 girl Warriors finished out the season undefeated and beat Jackson Cheetah's 6-1. Great teamwork played by the whole team!

Brooke Gruen scored 5 goals with her great footwork and controlled ball dribbling. Emilie Steinbauer had an amazing corner kick to score a goal. It was a proud season for the girl Warriors!

COLLEGE NOTES

UW-La Crosse Women Are Number One

After closing out the regular season with back-to-back victories over UW-Whitewater and UW-Stevens Point, the UW-La Crosse women's volleyball team has claimed the WIAC (Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference) title with a perfect 7-0 record. Helping the Eagles reach that mark, and a record of 19-6 overall, is former Kewaskum High standout, Stephanie Henk. Henk contributed 13 kills and a team-high 22 digs in the 25-19, 25-12, 21-25, 25-18 home victory over the Pointers on October 28.

On October 25, the Eagles topped the Whitewater Warhawks 3-0 by scores of 25-23, 25-15 and 25-19. In that match, Henk led her team in kills with 10.

The Eagles open WIAC Tournament play tonight (November 2) on their home floor. The tournament continues Saturday at a site to be determined after the opening round. Henk, a five-foot, 10-inch senior, is an exercise sport science/pre-physical therapy major.

MSOE Soccer Team Is On A Winning Run

In their last 10 games, the Milwaukee School of Engineering women's soccer team is 9-1 and is currently sporting a 9-1 record in the NACC (Northern Athletics Collegiate Conference) and an overall mark of 11-8.

The lone loss was a 4-2 defeat to UW-La Crosse. In that contest, former Kewaskum High standout Jeray Riffel played 80 minutes and scored one of the Raiders' goals.

In their most-recent game, a 4-0 victory over Lakeland College, Riffel played 42 minutes but did not score.

For the year, Riffel, a sophomore majoring in nursing, has six goals and three assists.

Poole Leads Falcons Past Rockford

After losing its last five games, the Concordia University football team finally got a victory on October 28, defeating host Rockford 26-20 in an NACC matchup behind the passing of former Kewaskum High quarterback, Dalton Poole.

Poole was 18-29-1 for 270 yards and three touchdowns, including a 34-yard strike to John Sanders in the fourth quarter to break a 14-14 tie.

The Falcons missed the extra point as did the Regents who answered Concordia's drive with a 75-yard march of their own.

Concordia won the game on an eight-play, 60-yard drive that ended with Jake Riportella catching a seven-yard touchdown pass from Poole.

With the win, Concordia improved to 2-6 overall while Rockford is 1-6.

On October 21, Concordia Wisconsin lost to Concordia Chicago, 37-17 with Poole coming on in relief of Bryan Gudka to throw two touchdown passes in the final nine minutes. He also had a fumble the Cougars turned into a touchdown.

The Falcons play host to Aurora for homecoming this Saturday at 1 p.m.

Do This Fall Yard Work And Reap Springtime Benefits

Lots of people think that their family yards need less attention in the fall, but autumn is no time to ignore your lawn and landscape.

“What you do now will determine the quality of your family yard next spring and summer,” said Kris Kiser, president and CEO of the Outdoor Power Equipment Institute (OPEI), the international trade association representing more than 100 power equipment, engine and utility vehicle manufacturers and suppliers.

“Every gardener knows to plant bulbs in the fall, but autumn is also the time to mow, mulch, aerate, trim and patch your lawn,” said Kiser. He offers the following tips to help you get your yard into top shape this fall and ready for more relaxing and fun outdoor activities next year.

•Keep mowing. Grass still needs regular care to stay healthy. Grass that is too high may attract lawn-damaging field mice. Shorter grass is more resistant to diseases and traps fewer falling leaves.

Cutting the grass low allows more sun to reach the crown of the grass, so less leaf will turn brown in the winter. However, cutting off too much at one time can be damaging, so never trim more than a third of the grass blades off in a single cutting.

Put mower blades on the lowest settings for the last two cuts of the season.

•Aerate your lawn. Compressed soil hurts grass health. Aerating punches holes into the soil and lets oxygen, water and nutrients into a lawn. Use a walk-behind aerator or get an attachment to pull behind a riding mower.

•Mulch your leaves. Many mowers can mulch leaves with an attachment. Since mulching with a mower can mix grass clippings with leaf particles, these nitrogen-rich grass particles and carbon-rich leaf particles will compost more quickly. Together, they return nutrients to the soil.

•Trim and shore up trees and bushes. Use trimmers, chainsaws or pole pruners to cut back trees, shrubs and plants. Make sure branches are safely trimmed back from overhead lines, and not in danger of falling on a structure in winter weather.

You may need to tie or brace limbs of upright evergreens or plants to prevent them from breaking in high winds or snow. Call a professional arborist for big trees or hard to reach spots.

•Repair bald spots. Fall is a great time to patch bald or thin spots in a lawn. The easiest way to do this is with an all-in-one lawn repair mixture (found at most garden shops and home centers). Use a garden rake or de-thatcher to scratch loose the soil on the spot.

Kiser also added it is important to follow safety procedures whenever using outdoor power equipment. Read your owner’s manual. It will describe the individual requirements for your particular machine, and will provide directions on which fuels may be appropriate for your product. Fuels containing more than ten percent ethanol should not be used unless directed in the owner’s manual.

He said, “You’ll also want to service and winterize your lawn mower, string trimmer, leaf blower, and other outdoor power equipment.”

And, remember, most gas-fueled outdoor power equipment is warranted and designed to run on E10 (10 percent ethanol) fuel or less. There are fuel options available today that should not be used in your outdoor power equipment. Remember ‘look before you pump.’

And, make sure to drain the fuel tank before storing equipment for the winter. Dispose safely of any fuel that is more than 30 days old.

“Winterization is important for outdoor power equipment. When everything is growing again in the spring and you see how all of your hard fall lawn work has paid off, the last thing you want to deal with is a malfunctioning mower,” said Kiser.

For information on safe fueling go to www.LookBeforeYouPump.com. For tips on outdoor power equipment safety, go to www.opei.org.

Food Prices Increase Slightly In Wisconsin

The Wisconsin Farm Bureau’s Marketbasket survey that tracks the average price of 16 food items used to prepare one or more meals reported the average cost at $49.66. The survey items cost 1.3 percent more than one year ago and almost 1.4 percent more since March.

“These minimal increases in the latest Marketbasket survey show that food prices are extremely stable,” said Amy Eckelberg, spokeswoman of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation.

Prices of eight of the survey’s 16 items increased in price compared with the Wisconsin Farm Bureau’s survey conducted last fall.

The increase in the price of bacon was a large contributor to the rise in the survey.

One year ago, one pound of bacon averaged $4.22. This year’s survey shows the price at $4.81. The higher price reflects the lower inventory of pork bellies on the market.

“Bacon is a trendy food item right now,” said Eckelberg. “We are seeing a high interest in this product, therefore a decline in inventory and the reason for a 14 percent increase in price.”

Other items that increased in price during the year were a 9-oz. box of toasted oat cereal ($2.51 to $2.86), a dozen of Grade A eggs ($0.98 to $1.08) and a 32-oz bottle of vegetable oil ($2.37 to $2.56).

Prices of eight of the survey’s 16 items decreased in price compared with the same survey conducted last fall.

Sirloin tip roast decreased in price nearly 10 percent per pound.

“The strong inventory of beef cattle has resulted in lower prices for consumers,” Eckelberg said. “The survey’s average price for a pound of sirloin tip roast dropped from $5.29 to $4.77 (nearly 10 percent) during the past year.”

Other items that saw a lower price from last year was one-gallon of whole milk ($3.32 to $3.01), one-pound of bagged salad ($2.78 to $2.67) and one-pound of boneless chicken breast ($3.69 to $3.48).

Wisconsin Survey Price Is Less Than National Average

Wisconsin’s $49.66 Marketbasket survey average price is $1.47 less than the American Farm Bureau Federation’s national survey of the same 16 food items. AFBF’s survey averaged $51.13, a 2.9 percent difference.

Farmer’s Share Is Just $7.75

During the last three decades, retail grocery prices have gradually increased while the share of the average dollar spent on food that farm families receive has decreased. In the mid-1970s, farmers received about one-third of consumer retail food expenditures in grocery stores and restaurants. Since then that figure has decreased steadily and is now 15.6 percent, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Using that percentage across the board, the farmer’s share of this quarter’s $49.66 grocery bill is $7.75.

The USDA says Americans will spend approximately 10 percent of their disposable annual income on food, the lowest average in the world.

The Marketbasket survey is a quarterly look at Wisconsin food price trends in relation to changing farm prices, weather and wholesale and retail food marketing. Members of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau collected price samples of 16 basic food items in communities across Wisconsin during September.

Individual Efforts Are Great; CC Coach Hopes Team Finishes Will Follow Suit

By Judy Harlow

In his first three years as cross country coach at Kewaskum High, Kris Evans has seen his girls and boys teams enjoy individual successes but has experience just limited team improvement. He's optimistic things will change in 2018.

Senior Justin Reck, sophomore Andrew Carlton and freshman Alyssa Butz qualified for the Division 2 state cross country meet on October 21, and that was definitely the season highlight. Another was Reck winning the boys individual title, which is the first time in 44 years that Kewaskum has had a conference champ. The last winner was Randy Backhaus back in 1973 in the old Scenic Moraine Conference which included several larger schools than the East Central.

Evans is hoping next fall it will be the Indians making a push to be in the upper divisions in the EC, moving up from the sixth place the girls had this year and the seventh by the boys

"I think we had an amazing season. We've got some real standouts on the team, and most all of them will be returning," Evans said, noting there were just two Indian seniors, Reck and Blake Miller, who was the No. 4 runner most of the year.

"I think we will continue to build" Evans went on, reporting there are some strong runners coming up from the middle school, which is another plus.

When the runners gather November 2 for the annual cross country banquet, nine boys will receive varsity letters including Reck, Miller, Carlton, Kyle Toth, Lance Grosskopf, Gannon Kreuser, Clayton Kappler, Johnny Fischer and Bryce Halvorsen.

Reck and Carlton had season-best times of 17:12.1 (Slinger Owls Invitational) and 17:26.2 (D-2 Winneconne Sectional) while Toth was just two seconds from dipping into the 18s.

The girls receiving Ks are: Butz, Maella Olla, Courtney Zarda, Emma Penfield, Abby Meidl and Erika Bolek. Olla's lowest time was a 21:02.2 (Owl Invitational) while Butz was clocked in at 21:16.4 in the Winneconne Sectional for her season-best.

In addition to these girls, Evans hopes Rhea Dricken, who missed most of the year with shin splints, will be healthy and ready to contribute to the varsity's success.

While all coaches enjoy having natural athletes on the team, Evans is just as excited about getting a student to come out for the sport and make tremendous improvement over a season. A case in point is Bolek, who decided to give cross country a try. "She's never run before," Evans said, but from mid-August to the end of October, she cut over five minutes off the time she started with in the 5,000-meter races.

Summing up the season, Evans said, "Three kids going to state is a great year by any measure," Evans said. "It's the best we've done since I've been here," hopeful better years are on the way.

Indians Want To Keep Extending The 2017 Season

By Judy Harlow

Like the Energizer Bunny, the Kewaskum High football team is still going at the time this fall sports section is being printed.

The Indians ended the regular season with a perfect 9-0 mark, including a 7-0 mark in the East Central Conference where they won a third straight conference title, including the three-way tie in 2016.

Kewaskum, second-seeded in its Division 3 playoff bracket, already has knocked off New London 46-6 and is currently preparing to take on No. 3-seeded Green Bay Notre Dame, which started its post season with a 33-13 victory over Luxemburg-Casco.

As usual, KHS coach Jason Piittmann has come up with good game plans this fall, but the best call he made for this team was deciding to move senior receiver/running back Tony Steger to quarterback where he has rushed for 1,245 yards and passed for another 954 yards. Then, when the situation is right, Steger moves to receiver and catches passes from Gabe Christiansen. As a receiver, he has caught nine passes for 277 yards and six touchdowns.

"We talked about it a lot in the off-season," Piittmann said about moving Steger, and in his mind and the minds of all KHS fans, it has worked out "very well. It's given our offense a couple extra facets that make it difficult to defend."

"Tony's always a threat to break something open," the coach said.

Piittmann said Steger's quick adjustment to handling the ball on more than 90 percent of the snaps has been a pleasant surprise. Other surprises include the play of first-year d-backs Jerod Otto and Tyler Degnitz and the emergence of freshman Jonathan Steger as the varsity center after trying a couple other players at that position.

Otto and Degnitz played on the JV team a year ago and have been major contributors in some of the KHS games. Against New London, both of them had two interceptions.

As far as Jonathan Steger is concerned, Piittmann said "That's in the who'd-have-thunk-it department, but we gave Jon the ball, and he keeps getting better."

Another surprise was how the Indians have managed to avoid injuries. "They've been healthy all season," Piittmann said of his players.

No surprises in the areas of linebacking and offensive tackles. Piittmann was certain seniors Patrick Krier and Faton Elmazi would be good again as inside linebackers.

Krier, who weighed 170 pounds as a freshman and had bulked up to pack 205 pounds on his five-foot, eight-inch frame, currently had 67 total tackles, including 20 solos, two sacks and six tackles for losses, while Elmazi, a six-foot, 215 pounder, had 59 total tackles including nine for losses, one fumble recovery and one interception.

Soph Eli Bartelt leads the Indians in tackles with 68, including two sacks and 24 solos.

Krier and Elmazi are very important to the offense too, Krier with his blocks and receptions on screen passes and Elmazi with his recent pass receptions.

Jumbo tackles Riley Donovan (295 pounds) and Jon Leister (280) anchor the offensive line and open some good holes for the KHS running backs.

The kicking game has also been solid for the Indians with Cade Peterson having a good season, punting and kicking PATs (points after touchdowns). Currently he is 34x35 in PATs and is averaging 36.5 yards per punt. "It's a comfort having him there," Piittmann said. "He's so consistent and has such a strong leg."

Summing up reasons why the Indians are still unbeaten at this point of the season, Piittmann said, "For the most part, we've been consistently putting up good numbers," while on defense, "It took us a while to get our feet under us, but we've consistently improved there, too."

Should the Indians win their game with Notre Dame, they would need one more win to reach the D-3 state finals, which will be held at Camp Randall on November 17.

Golfers Were Competitive In New League; Dreher Is MVP

By Judy Harlow

While it is difficult to compete with the likes of Division 1 teams like Homestead, Cedarburg and Hartford, the combined Kewaskum-Campbellsport girls golf team did well this fall in its first season in the North Shore Conference.

Re-alignments moved several Wisconsin Little Ten teams to other conferences, so this was pretty much the only option for the Kew-Cats, and coach Amy Uhlig felt her team was up to the challenge.

"I think we did pretty well considering the competition," Uhlig, who has coached golf for 12 years, said. "I think it was very good competition for the girls with the new teams and playing on new courses."

The Kew-Cats were in fifth place the majority of the year, but one off day in the conference tournament dropped them to sixth overall. Then came the highlight of the year, a fourth place in the D-1 regional in Oshkosh, which earned the Kew-Cats a berth in the sectional where they finished seventh. In both meets, the team carded scores under 400.

Homestead, with two of its players, Speedy Kent and Isabel Malecki, finishing among the top 14 individuals in the D-1 state meet, took first place in the NS with 80 points, 10 ahead of Cedarburg. Then came Hartford with 60; Whitefish Bay to round out the top four.

Uhlig reported Alyssa Dreher, a sophomore from Campbellsport, was selected as the team's MVP after averaging 47.4 per nine-hole round and posting the low nine-hole score of the season, a 42. Based on averages, Dreher was named to the North Shore all conference third team.

Alivia Wisnefske, from Campbellsport and Kewaskum's Taylor Cook, were named team captains. Both are seniors. Wisnefske, who averaged 49.7 strokes, carded a 43 on the front nine of the Rolling Meadows Golf Course during the sectional. She finished with a 93, which was the low 18-hole round on the team. Cook's averaged 53.6. Uhlig praised both her seniors for the leadership they provided.

Others earning letters were: juniors Grace Kober (55.2 ave.) and Ashley Trapp (51.5 ave.) from KHS and senior Mandy Goeman (57.5 ave.) from CHS. Trapp, one of the main cogs on the KHS softball team, was the Most Improved Player after moving up to the varsity team at mid-season and "her score counted for us in all but one of the matches she played in."

When asked about coaching a combined team, especially with a school that is Kewaskum's arch rival in other sports, Uhlig said, "I think it was kind of nice to see them jelling as well as they did ... I know Campbellsport is excited to have this opportunity for their girls."

The team started with 15 girls, and all 15 finished, according to Uhlig, who is already looking forward to 2018.

"We're obviously losing three girls who played significant roles this year," she said. Replacing them will be a challenge, but Dreher, Kober and Trapp should get better, and, "A couple of sophomores we had on the JV team have been playing well."

Another thing to consider is Homestead and Hartford are both losing four seniors, according to Uhlig, who said, "We'll see what happens. The first season went well. I hope we can continue the competitive spirit next year as well."

KHS Volleyball Team Makes A Big Move Upward

By Judy Harlow

The ride was bumpy at first, but girls who have been on the Kewaskum High volleyball team for the past three seasons enjoyed a limo-type excursion this fall, moving up to third place in the East Central Conference and a solid 26-10 season.

The first year Laine Leitzke took the job to steer the program, the best the Indians could do was win one match in a 1-13 season that included a last-place, 1-6 EC mark.

Improvements were made in the second year, when the Indians moved up to seventh place (3-11) in EC play and were 12-19 overall, and now in 2017, the senior-led Indians took the role as honest-to-goodness challengers, going 5-2 in the EC dual meets, 2-1 in the new EC

Tournament and 26-10 overall.

Tournament play was also exciting as Kewaskum rolled over its first opponent, Brown Deer, came back to eliminate Plymouth 3-1 after losing the first game, and then exiting after an emotional loss to Kettle Moraine Lutheran, the number one rated team in Division 1 in Wisconsin.

Five seniors were instrumental in the turnaround, and one, Liz Lightner, missed the first several weeks because of illness. When she came back and started hitting her stride, she was a power at the net with her spiking and blocking. The six-foot middle blocker/outside hitter wound up with a total of 59 solo blocks and contributed 153 kills.

While she is an inch shorter than Lightner,

Amanda Schaller is as good a leaper as she showed while anchoring the front line from her outside hitter position. Schaller put down a team-high 255 kills and she was one of the Indians' emotional leaders.

Sarah Butschlick was another of the key contributors, and she was a three-dimensional player, helping the team with her good sets, her serving and kills. On the year, Butschlick was first in assists with 415, second in ace serves with 47 and fifth in kills with 115.

Morgan Denlinger, another of the senior standouts, chipped in with 333 assists, and she helped at the serving line with 32 aces and dug up 95 balls.

Morgan Kappler had a good year, with 135 kills and 20 blocks.

One junior, Hailey Hassenberg, and two sophomores, Brelynn Scoles and Carolyn Stockhausen, also contributed to the Indians' success and in a variety of ways. Scoles was the best overall player of the three, and her statistics showed that. She had a team-high 56 ace serves, was second in kills with 168 and second in digs with 201.

Hassenberg was all over the court defensively and led the team in digs with an impressive 418, and she also had 36 ace serves, third-best on the team.

Those three will be called on to carry the load for the Indians in the 2018 season along with the 18 girls who played on the JV team this season.

KHS Soccer Team Scores More Goals Than Ever Before

By Judy Harlow

The Kewaskum soccer team had its ups and downs this fall, but there was plenty of improvement, both in fundamentals and in team play. With improvements in these two facets of the game, the Indians were able to reach a new team win total — 9.5.

“That was one of our team goals,” veteran coach John Kenworthy said. “We won eight games and tied three,” and this equates to 9.5 victories during the 8-14-3 season.

“We are really proud of that,” Kenworthy said. “It wasn’t easy. I didn’t know if we were going to pull it off after the Denmark tournament,” and the Kewaskum Invite when two teams ended up not coming.

Kewaskum still struggles against the power teams in the East Central Conference - Plymouth, Kettle Moraine Lutheran and Waupun - but it lost five conference games by one goal. If next year the Indians can reverse those outcomes, perhaps they will jump up to a spot on the top four.

“Offensively, we should be fine. We should be able to score more goals,” Kenworthy said, especially considering he will have attackers Hunter Kuehl, Matthew Krautkramer, Hunter Schmitt, Will Jens and Isaiah Cochran returning.

It would be helpful if several of these players would add a little bulk since the game can get pretty physical. Take Jens for an example. “He’s a great dribbler, but he’s pretty light,” Kenworthy said.

Kuehl, in his third season on the varsity, was the team’s top scorer with 12 goals and three assists in 18 games for a team-high 27 points. Cochran, who has good athletic skills, was next with 22 points on seven goals and eight assists, while Jens scored eight goals and had five assists for 21 points, and Krautkramer got hot near the end of the season and ended up with five goals and two assists for 12 points.

“We will have to find a few defenders,” Kenworthy went on, referring to the fact Gavin Curtin and Tanner Jacak will graduate in May after stellar senior seasons. Those two led the team in minutes played, with Jacak logging 1,824 minutes and Curtin 1,721.

Junior goal keeper Brenden Rice also was an “iron man” for the Indians, playing 1,782 minutes, and he certainly improved his play from the Indians’ first game to the last. He had excellent outings in the two, 3-1 wins over Campbellsport and the 4-0 decision over Greendale

Martin Luther, reversing a 0-4 outcome against the Spartans early in the season.

It wasn’t just his physical skills that improved. “In my opinion, his concentration improved starting midway in the season,” Kenworthy said, adding a couple saves against Delavan-Darian showed “His reaction time is so quick.”

When asked about team depth for the ’18 season, Kenworthy said, “Honestly we need to have about three more players. If we get some incoming freshmen, we can start building that depth.”

Varsity letterwinners this year include: seniors —

Gavin Curtin, Tanner Jacak, Luke Beindrich, Ayrton Lehmann, Bailey Schuetz, Austin Cheeseman; juniors — Brenden Rice, Matthew Krautkramer, Hunter Kuehl, Cameron Dodge, Hunter Schmitt, Jared Thierfelder, Konnor Goslinowski; sophomores — Isaiah Cochran, William Jens, Colin DeYoung, Justin Anderson.

Final EC standings: 1. Plymouth, 8-1-1; 2. KM Lutheran, 7-1-2; 3. Waupun, 7-2-1; 4. Winneconne, 4-4-1; 5. Ripon, 3-4-2; 6. Berlin, 3-7; 7. Kewaskum, 2-7-1; 8. Campbellsport, 1-8.

KHS Tennis Players Celebrate Their Season Successes

By Judy Harlow

Members of the Kewaskum High girls tennis team gathered on October 17th to say goodbye to the team's six seniors, to reflect on their fourth place finish in the 10-team Eastern Wisconsin Conference and to hear words of wisdom from third-year coach Peter Garcia on a "blueprint" for moving up the EWC ladder next fall.

Sophomore Megan Krolski was selected as MVP and Most Improved Player for the year after finishing 9-9 at No. 4 singles with a huge effort against Afiya Quryshi of University School of Milwaukee in the opening round of the sectional at the Pleasant Valley Tennis Club. Krolski lost a close, 4-6, 5-7 match to Quryshi, who was 25-5 on the year.

Seniors Ariaenna Grossenbacher and Brandi Geldnich, who played No. 1 doubles and wound up with a 7-11 mark, were the co-captains of the team.

Most Dedicated Player honors went to junior Grace Marchello, who moved up to No. 1 singles early in the season and never backed down against any of the other top singles players in the league or in tournaments. She finished the year at 8-11, an impressive feat considering she just started playing competitive tennis as a sophomore.

Senior Rebecca Meltz was awarded the Best New Player trophy. She came over from volleyball this year and went 1-3 while subbing for some of the regulars.

Letterwinners included: seniors — Geldnich, Grossenbacher, Meltz, Kallie Hoeft, Sydney Donath and Amanda Krolski; juniors — Marchello Emma Preder, Nikki Bruss, Nicole Brzozowski and Kaitlyn Miller; and sophomore — Megan Krolski.

Junior varsity awards went to: Sara Aranda, Elizabeth Beine, Anna Blazquez, Jill Braatz, Abby Kopfhammer, Sabrina Lor, Carly Meyer, Sydney Ostranger and Katie Vorwerk.

Preder finished 6-10 at No. 2 singles, while Amanda Krolski was 8-9 at No. 3 singles; Donath and Hoeft ended up 8-7 at No. 2 doubles, while Bruss and Brzozowski sported an 8-9 at No. 3 doubles.

Garcia gave each of the girls an engraved key chain, signifying they were members of the 2017 KHS team that finished fourth in the EWC.

Garcia said the girls on the team are like his extended family. "I treat them like they are my own," he said, and sometimes that might include a little constructive criticism to get them fired up.

"We started out the year with a bang," Garcia said, referring to the consecutive victories over Kiel (4-3), Kewaunee (7-0), Two Rivers (5-2) and Ripon (5-2). "I can't tell you how happy I was."

Then started the tougher part of the schedule, starting with the 1-6 loss to perennial power Kohler, which was followed by several 3-4 losses and a defeat at the hands of Plymouth which had 20 seniors on its team.

The Lady Indians recovered, defeating Kiel 5-2 in a match that counted in the conference, giving them a share of fourth place with Waupun and Kiel. All three teams finished at 5-4.

Garcia said what he liked about this group is, "My girls do their best," even against more powerful opponents.

Concerning next season, Garcia feels he has a good nucleus to start with, including Marchello, Preder and Megan Krolski, and he is hoping his No. 3 doubles team, comprised of Nikki Bruss and Nicole Brzozowski, is able to make the jump to No. 1. Also, "We've got a great group of JVs who worked real hard this fall," he said.

Garcia is hoping some of the returnees will take the time to play indoor tennis to improve their games and plans to hold several open practices in the summer as allowed by the WIAA.

The girls presented Garcia with a T-shirt that read "Never Underestimate An Old Man With A Tennis Racquet," and a team picture surrounded by tennis balls including all their names and a card with personalized messages.

One of the girls wrote she hopes Garcia stays in coaching until her children play tennis in high school, to which he remarked, "That should make me about 88 or 90."
