County Seeks Applications For District 11 Board Supervisor Position

Washington County is seeking applications from District 11 to fill the unexpired Board term of Michael J. Parsons ending April of the year 2020.

Parsons, who was re-elected to the position in April, submitted his resignation because he is moving out of the district. District 11 includes the Town of Farmington Wards 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, and the Town of Trenton Ward 3.

Interested candidates must reside in District 11, attend County Board meetings, including regular meetings held on the second Wednesday of the month at 6 p.m. and attend regular standing committee meetings.

The Washington County Board of Supervisors is vested with powers of local, legislative and administrative character to act upon matters of general government, public safety, transportation, health and human services, court services, land use, planning and the conservation of land resources as delegated to the counties of Wisconsin by State Legislature.

“Our ideal candidate is someone that has a passion for serving the citizens of Washington County, can work collaboratively with a diverse group of people and bring a fresh point of view to add to the quality of life for the citizens they represent,” said County Board Chair Don Kriefall. “This is an exciting time to join the County Board of Supervisors as we are exploring a variety of new initiatives that will lead to a more effective government, which can better serve the citizens of Washington County.”

To learn more about the Board’s current initiatives, visit the county website and view the Strategic Priorities for the Quality of Life of the Citizens of Washington County.

To apply: Email applications to Don Kriefall, County Board Chairperson at don.kriefall@co.washington.wi.us Subject: District 11 Applicant – Last Name; or mail or drop off applications to P.O. Box 1986, 432 E. Washington St., West Bend, WI 53095 Attn: Don Kriefall – District 11 Candidate.

Applications may include a resume and statement of interest but at a minimum, must contain an address and brief biography. The deadline for applications is Friday, Aug. 3, at 4 p.m.

Village Board Approves New Administrative Assistant Position

By Anne Trautner

The Village of Kewaskum plans to have a new part-time administrative assistant working in Village Hall.

The Village Board approved the new position at a special board meeting on Thursday, July 19.

The administrative assistant will be responsible for receiving payments for water and sewer bills, as well as receiving tax payments and answering inquiries from the public. In addition, the position includes assisting with the quarterly village newsletter, maintaining the village website and assisting the village clerk, village treasurer and village administrator as needed.

The position will be approximately 20 hours a week, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., with hours possibly varying depending on the time of year. The pay will begin at $13.50 per hour.

The Village Board voted to approve the position to help village staff keep up with an increasing workload.

“The village is growing at a faster rate now; it is growing almost like it was before the recession. A lot of new houses are coming in, a lot of people are coming in. There are more responsibilities coming to these offices every day,” Village Trustee Dick Knoebel said.

Construction continues at Kewaskum High School as workers upgrade the high school and middle school facilities. The project is expected to be completed by the time school starts this fall. For more pictures of the construction project, see page 24.

Lawmakers, Wisconsin Publisher Urge ITC To Reverse Newsprint Tariffs

By Julia Hunter
Wisconsin Newspaper Association

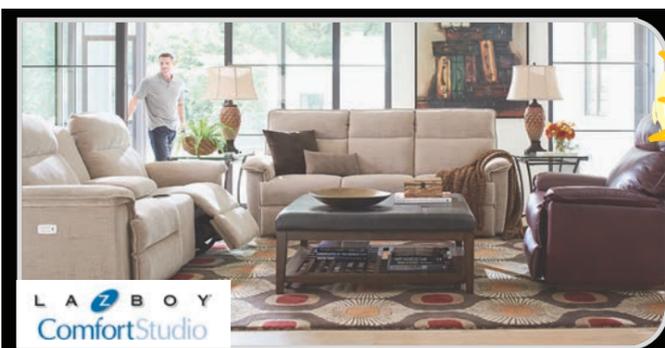

Nineteen members of Congress as well as newspaper executives, including Wisconsin publisher Andrew Johnson, testified Tuesday, July 17, before the International Trade Commission in opposition to proposed tariffs on Canadian newsprint. They urged the Commerce Department to reverse the preliminary import tax imposed earlier this year, arguing it would harm newspapers, readers and, ultimately, newsprint producers.

The petition was filed by North Pacific Paper

Company (NORPAC), a Wall Street-owned paper mill based in Washington State, and one of five newsprint-producing mills still operating in the United States. No other mill has supported NORPAC’s petition.

Continued From... Village Board Approves New Administrative Assistant Position

This will not be the first time that the village has had an administrative assistant. There had been a full-time administrative assistant until 2013.

"When Betty [Bakken] retired in spring 2013, I recommended we should not fill the position at that point. That was in response to the financial pressure that the village was under with climbing debt payments for the TIF," Village Administrator Matt Heiser said.

"At that point in time, between the clerk and treasurer, we had a combined level of experience of 35 years, which is quite a bit of experience and expertise. So that worked for the first three and a half years. With that level of experience, they were able to do their jobs, get their task done, even with the interruptions of foot traffic and phone calls," Heiser added.

However, in March 2017 the village got a new clerk, and a new treasurerer started this April.

"We have gone from having 35 years of experience to a combined level of about one and a half years of experience. That is a giant dropoff in expertise," Heiser said.

Learning the jobs takes time, Heiser explained to the board.

"Each task becomes a little mini research project," he said.

Meanwhile, as the new employees learn their jobs, foot traffic and phone calls have not slowed down in the office.

Most other municipalities in the area that are the size of Kewaskum have some sort of administrative assistant, according to Heiser.

In fact, during the July 9 Village Board meeting, John Knepel of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause LLP, said that Kewaskum has a smaller staff than any other municipality the size of Kewaskum that he has worked with.

Village trustee David Spenner said that the new position should prevent as much overlap between job positions, which he hopes will improve future audits.

The village saved money by not hiring a new administrative assistant in 2013.

"I estimate we have saved $269,000 by leaving that position unfilled since 2013 until now. That is significant. But one mark of being a good leader is being flexible and pay attention to what is going on, and I can see us struggling," Heiser said.

Even with creating a part-time position with no benefits, the village is still saving taxpayers over $38,000 a year from what they were spending for that position in 2013, according to Heiser.

Since the position had not been part of this year's budget, village trustees decided to use funds that had been designated to replace the floor in the annex building.

The Village Board plans to add the position, as well as the annex floor, to next year's budget.

Both the water and sewer departments will help fund the position, since the administrative assistant will be responsible for collecting bills for those two utilities.

WASHINGTON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE REPORT

Fatal Crash

On Friday, July 20, at approximately 6:44 a.m., Washington County Sheriff's deputies responded to a fatal motor vehicle crash which occurred on State Highway 28 at Townline Road in the Town of Wayne. The deceased operator and sole occupant of the pickup truck is identified as James R. Boerst, 16, of Mayville.

A caller reported one vehicle was almost on its side in the ditch, up against the culvert, with the driver inside. The caller and another passerby attempted to pull the driver from the vehicle, but he was pinned inside. Squads were dispatched along with Fire and Rescue from Kewaskum and Kohlsville, and West Bend Intercept was requested. Flight for Life was also requested, but was cancelled prior to its arrival on-scene.

When the first officer arrived, the driver was conscious, but not alert, and it appeared his left leg was pinned. The vehicle involved was a pickup truck and it had struck the culvert head-on. Rescue personnel worked to free the driver from the vehicle, but he subsequently died on-scene due to his injuries.

The initial investigation showed the pickup truck was eastbound on Highway 28 and for an unknown reason it went left of center after cresting the hill west of Townline Road. The vehicle entered the north ditch line continuing east and struck the culvert in the northwest corner of the intersection head-on.

The incident remains under investigation by the Sheriff's Office.

Structure Fire

On July 20 at 10:05 a.m. the Washington County Sheriff's Office received a report of heavy smoke coming from the area of Sherman Road and Interstate 41 in the Town of Polk.

The first deputy to arrive determined the smoke was coming from a fully engulfed garage-type building at 3855 Sherman Road (E&H Outdoor Storage). The Slinger Fire Department was paged and the call was upgraded to a MABAS call. Fire departments from Allenton, St. Lawrence, Jackson, Hartford, Richfield and Germantown responded to assist.

Initial information is that there was a gas tank being removed from a vehicle inside the building by two employees of the business. The gas tank dropped quickly and a spark from something ignited gasoline that was spilling from the tank. The fire was extinguished by approximately 11:55 a.m. The building and contents are a total loss.

The right lane of Interstate 41 had to be shut down at 10:28 a.m. while the fire was being extinguished due to the presence of a propane tank on the south side of the building. The right lane was opened up at 10:51 a.m.

One of the employees suffered minor injuries associated with the fire when he returned inside the building to retrieve an item. There is no damage estimate available.

Washington County Recognizes Michael R. Miller

In appreciation for Michael R. Miller and his 42 years of dedication and service, Washington County, the City of West Bend and Moraine Park Technical College designed, constructed and dedicated a bench and a pergola just off of the Eisenbahn State Trail near Moraine Park Technical College in his name.

Miller has worked with the citizens of Washington County since he was the City of West Bend's alderperson from 1976 to 1984. He was then elected mayor of the City of West Bend in 1987 for his first term.

Miller was re-elected in April 1990, 1993, 1996, 1999, and 2002, serving 18 years as mayor. In 2008, Miller was elected to the Washington County Board of Supervisors, where he served for 10 years on numerous committees and the Moraine Park Technical College Board. He has always strived to work with other community members to better the community and county.

Earlier this year, Miller retired from his years of public service at an event hosted by Moraine Park Technical College. Throughout his many years of public service, he has also received many awards and achievements.

In November 2003, Miller was appointed by Gov. James Doyle to the State of Wisconsin Judicial Commissions, being elected chairman of the commission in June of 2006.

He enjoys working with area schools and students, including presenting Junior Achievement Classes on Family to first graders at Green Tree School and Decora School and working with Junior Achievement to present Excellence through Ethics to students at West Bend East and West high schools.

He also has presented middle school students with information about city government on election days. For his involvement he was Junior Achievement's Volunteer of the Month in April 2014.

These are just a few of Miller's many achievements. His relentless work ethic, and bright personality shine in his actions to better the City of West Bend, and Washington County.

Miller and his wife, Alice, have been married for over 51 years and have raised two children.

Kettle Moraine Coatings donated the powder coating and the Moraine Park Technical College Spring 2018 Metal Fabrication Class fabricated the metal components for the bench and pergola that were made in Miller's honor.

The 2018 season of "Music In The Park" continues on Tuesday, July 31, with the Kewaskum Big Band performing at 6:30 p.m. in River Hill Park.

The Kewaskum Big Band was originally formed in April 2008 by retired Kewaskum High School Band Director Larry Ammel and local jazz musician Howard Schneider. The play list for the group favors the big band era with plenty of George Gershwin, Glenn Miller and their contemporaries, but also includes other jazz artists like Louis Armstrong and more recent show tunes. The group might even sneak in a polka.

The Kewaskum Big Band is presently directed by Kewaskum High School Band Director Josh Michlig. The group is composed of musicians from a variety of places. Many are homegrown from the community, but some come from as far away as Sheboygan and Chilton.

The musicians range in age as well, from retirees to high school students. The band is always looking for more players, too. Anyone who has played a musical instrument and enjoys jazz music should contact Josh Michlig.

After the Kewaskum Big Band, the 2018 season has only one remaining concert with Pat McCurdy to perform on August 14. In between the Big Band and Pat McCurdy is the 2018 celebration of National Night Out at St. Lucas Church on August 7.

All the Music In The Park concerts are free and take place in the large shelter in River Hill Park. The shelter has picnic tables but many people bring their own lawn furniture. The Firefighters' Association sells concessions starting at 5:30 p.m., and the concerts fire up at 6:30 p.m.

The 4-H American Spirit Experience was held June 13-21.

Sam Chapman, Isabelle Draxler, Rachel Etta and Stephanie Hartwell were the delegates from Washington County who enjoyed this fun and educational opportunity.

The trip began in Sheboygan, where the youth met 40 other 4-Hers from eastern Wisconsin. They traveled by coach bus over the next nine days.

Throughout the experience, the group stopped at many historical and cultural locations including Valley Forge, Plymouth Rock, the Empire State Building, the Statue of Liberty and Allergies preventing you from enjoying the weather?

Have you tried allergy medications with no success?

ASK YOUR LOCAL KEWASKUM HOMETOWN PHARMACIST ABOUT NATURAL D-HIST!

Allergy season is upon us, and with about 50% of the population having allergies it is helpful to know your options on how to treat allergy symptoms for you and your family. Environmental allergies are often associated with specific seasons, such as spring or late summer, when trees and plants are spreading pollen into the air. Your allergies may even be year-round and be caused by dust, mold, or animal dander. No matter the time of year or the extent of your allergies, they can impact your daily living and quality of life. Symptoms often include itchy or watery eyes, runny or stuffy nose, plugged ears, sneezing, difficulty breathing, and coughing.

The most common treatments for various types of allergies are antihistamines. Antihistamines block histamine, which is a chemical that is released from the body when it comes into contact with an allergen, which leads to the typical symptoms associated with allergies. Some examples of these medications include: loratadine (Claritin™), cetirizine (Zyrtec™), fexofenadine (Allegra™), and diphenhydramine (Benadryl™). Antihistamines may not work for everyone and may lead to side effects, such as drowsiness or dry mouth.

There are numerous medications that can help you get symptom relief, such as nasal sprays, eye drops, or decongestants. If you have tried lots of products in the past or have to be on a number of medications in order to get relief, Natural D-Hist may be for you.

Natural D-Hist, made by OrthoMolecular, is a natural medication available only through health care professionals, and it's made locally here in Wisconsin. It works by clearing nasal and sinus passages, reducing mucus, aiding in respiratory health, and increasing immune function. Better yet, this medication prevents symptoms from starting in the first place and is found have less side effects than traditional allergy medications. Most individuals require only a 7 to 10-day course to help clear up symptoms and can then use Natural D-Hist as needed afterwards.

If you're wondering if Natural D-Hist is right for you, come into your local Kewaskum Hometown Pharmacy today. Our pharmacists are happy to help you find the right allergy medication for you and answer any questions you may have on other available natural products!

At the annual meeting of the Kewaskum Community School District held Monday evening, electors approved a new indoor swimming pool, re-elected two board members, adopted the proposed budget and voted to give the board authority to take options on land for future school sites as the main matters of business. Electors approved the proposed swimming pool addition to the high school in conjunction with the Kiwanis Club of Kewaskum's campaign and fund drive which will provide about $75,000 toward the cost of the project. The overall cost is expected to reach between $220,000 and $250,000, according to Marshall Boyd, Superintendent of Schools. Re-elected to the School District Board were incumbents Richard L. She was at the lake with friends and had gone in bathing shortly [after] dinner. A boy scout, who also happened to be at the lake, saw her struggling in the water and went to her rescue. He was clawed and driven off by the frantic child, being unable to pull her out of the deep water and save her. Miss Kurtzweil, whose parents are both dead, was making her home with an aunt in the Town of Germantown.

A Home Guard was organized in this village at a meeting held in the village hall on Tuesday evening. Much interest was shown by the citizens of the village and community in perfecting an organization of this kind, and as a result, the meeting was largely attended. It is expected that at least one hundred members will join same within a short period of time. In order to have same recognized by the state, the home guards must have a membership of 63 men. Up the present time nearly that many men have already joined same. The meeting was called to order by John P. Fellenz. Dr. E.L. Morgenroth was appointed chairman of then meeting and Byron Rosenheimer was elected secretary. It was agreed by the different members of the organization, that John P. Fellenz, who is the chief instigator in having a home guard organized, and who served with the United States Army during the Spanish-American War, shall serve as Captain of the Guards. It was also agreed that a commissioned Army officer be engaged for the first several weeks to help perfect the organization, and teach those who have not had any military training, the different foot movements, etc.

The largest contingent of select men of Washington county left last Tuesday for Camp Taylor, Louisville, Kentucky. One hundred and eighty-two men numbered in this contingent which will leave a big hole in the young manhood of the county, and which plainly shows that the war machinery of the United States is speedily moving on. The young men who left from this village and rural routes are: Hugo Vorpahl, Edward F. Proeber, Wilmer J. Prost, Mathias J. Beisbier, Anton J. Fellenz, George Vorpahl, Alvin L. Volm, Edward Feiten, Albert W. Prost, Ed Bertram, William Vorpahl, Louis A. Seefeldt, Alvin A. Kudek, Louis A. Rose, and George Kudek.

Here is a puzzle that puzzles everybody: Take the number of your living brothers, double the amount, add to it by three, multiply by five, add to it the number of your living sisters, multiply the results by ten, add the number of deaths of your brothers and subtract 150 from the result. The right figure will be the number of deaths, the middle figure will be the number of living sisters, and the left will show the number of living brothers. Try it and see.

American Tribute Ride Supports First Responders

On July 28, a unique experience will be happening in Forest Junction. The sixth annual American Tribute Ride [ATR] will be starting at the Forest Junction Fire Station.

On-site registration will be from 9 to 10:45 a.m. The opening ceremony will be held at 11 a.m. Kickstands will go up at 11:30 a.m.

The event is led by Ron Naab of the Allenton Fire Department and his wife. The ride is open to two-, three- and four-wheelers.

The money made from this ride supports the following organizations: Concerns of Police Survivors-WI, Wisconsin Summer Camp for Burn Injured Youth, Wisconsin State Firefighters Memorial, Stars and Stripes Honor Flights, and Wisconsin Veterans Housing and Recovery Program.

As part of the "kick off" program, the Committee will have a special balloon release and dedication of this year's ride to honor a long-time committee member, Bruce Bintzler, who died in October.

This is the sixth annual ride the American Tribute Ride Committee has developed and will be operating. Each year the ride course is different, moving around the southern area of Wisconsin.

Ron Naab stated, "We encourage the public along the routes to greet us as we travel through the area, especially in the villages we will pass through. It is very humbling to see people support us as we honor those that have unselfishly given their lives serving others."

After the lunch stop in Pipe, the ride will continue with a stop at the Plymouth Town Fire Department, and then on to Waldo, both in Sheboygan County. The day will conclude at the Fire Station in Boltonville around 5 p.m.

- Police Officer Charles Irvine, Jr., Milwaukee Police Department, DOD 6/7/2018.

The memorial service will be followed by a pay-in-advance meal and an auction of some exclusive items. One of the items is a hand-crafted American flag by a former Allenton resident, Mel Gullickson. The flag consists of 52 pieces of wood. Also to be auctioned off is an autographed Devante Adams jersey, which was donated by Gordie Boucher Ford of West Bend.

The public is invited to attend any of the stops, especially the Memorial Service at Boltonville. The ATR Committee does ask for pre-registration/payment for the evening meal for those that would like to join the entire rider.

Anyone who would like to join the ride is invited to contact Ron Naab at rjnaab@frontier.com to pre-register for the evening meal.

For those who wish to partake in the ride, you may pre-register at the American Tribute Ride website (www.americantributeride.com) or on Facebook for forms and information. For further questions please contact Ron Naab (262/629-9749 or rjnaab@frontier.com), or Barb Pahl (atride1@yahoo.com).

Natural Pain Relief Is As Close As Your Garden

By Melinda Myers

Busy schedules, over indulging, and strenuous summer activities can lead to sore muscles, indigestion and headaches. When searching for pain relief, look no further than your own garden or your local farmer's market. These five foods fresh from the garden — or pot — are packed with super pain-relieving and anti-inflammatory power.

Mint

Infuse mint into your tea or ice water to refresh and rejuvenate, so you're ready for more summer fun. Mint also helps relieve headaches and general aches and pain. Grow this vigorous perennial herb in a container so it won't overtake your other plants. Then at the end of the season, root a few cuttings to start new plants to grow indoors. All you need is a sunny window, quality potting mix and regular watering.

Hot Peppers

Capsaicin, the spicy element in chili, jalapeno, habanero and cayenne peppers, is a great pain-fighting tool and is often used in topical creams to help treat backaches, arthritis and muscle pain. Hot peppers are ready to harvest when they are fully colored. Ask friends to share their harvest or purchase hot peppers at your local farmer's market if your garden is lacking this plant. Be sure to purchase extra hot peppers to dry and enjoy year-round. Then add these tasty and pain-relieving plants to your garden next summer. Plant them after the soil and air warm, at the same time you plant sweet peppers and tomatoes.

Cherries

Manage muscle pain

and inflammation with sour cherries. They are loaded with disease fighting chemicals and antioxidants. Plus, they help fight inflammation and relieve pain. Purchase plenty of cherries to juice, dry and preserve so you can enjoy their health benefits all year long.

And consider planting a sour cherry tree in your backyard. Montmorency is the most popular sour cherry tree, needing only 700 hours of air temperatures between 34 and 45 degrees to initiate flowering for fruit development. New hardier dwarf introductions from the University of Saskatchewan can be grown in colder regions including zone 2. Although it takes several years for cherry plants to start producing fruit, you'll enjoy watching your tree grow into maturity and bear its first crop. Just make sure to cover the plants with netting so the birds don't eat your harvest.

Ginger

Grow ginger in a pot outdoors or sunny window along side your other indoor plants. Ginger helps reduce inflammation and combat migraines, muscle pain, arthritis and post workout or post-gardening soreness. All this and it helps fight nausea so common during a summer filled with barbeques and celebrations. Although it's a tropical plant, you can find plants or rhizomes (the part you eat) online. Or join other enthusiastic gardeners who have had success rooting the rhizomes they have purchased at the grocery store to start new plants.

Sage

Harvest a few sage leaves, add hot water and brew a bit of sore throat relief. Sage tea has long been used to soothe scratchy and irritated throats and showed positive results in a 2006 clinical trial. Grow this herb in the garden or container. It thrives in a sunny spot with well-drained soil. Harvest leaves as needed throughout the season. Regular harvesting encourages more growth for future harvests. You can remove as much as one third of the plant at one time for preserving.

So next time you're feeling a bit of pain, look to the garden for a bit of relief. Even the simple act of tending your garden and harvesting produce can elevate your mood, lower your blood pressure and start you on the road to feeling better.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

Ty Bodden is running for election to the 59th Assembly District. No surprise to me that Ty wants to serve the people of the 59th district by representing them in State government.

I've known Ty his whole life. At a young age, Ty was already active in conservative politics and developing strong conservative values. His belief in the sanctity of life, our second amendment rights, freedom of religion, and State's rights helped him to grow strong in his desire to have less government regulation at all levels. Always recognizing that the government that is closest to people governs best; thereby giving the people a stronger voice with more control over their own lives.

His energy and passion always devoted to doing the right thing at the right time for those around him. He is true to his word and won't change because of political correctness.

Ty loves spending time with people of all ages and all back grounds. He is a good listener enabling him to understand the needs of the people around him. He listens. He learns. He works to solve the problem. He has the ability to set the goals, stay focused, and get the job done.

His conservative values have remained throughout the years and will not change once he is in Madison.

Ty Bodden will listen to us, learn from us, and work to get things done for the people of the 59th. Ty will be a wonderful addition to the Wisconsin State Assembly.

I am voting for Ty on August 14th. I hope you will do the same.

Sincerely,
Jan Baldock

Sir/ma'am,

"If serving is beneath you, then leadership is beyond you..." this is the mantra of Timothy Ramthun, running for the Wisconsin 59th Assembly District August 14th, 2018.

I had the pleasure of a short talk with Tim at a local diner recently and came away saying: WOW. Tim is the real deal, NOT a politician. NOT an establishment man.

We spoke on many subjects in a 20 minute conversation, but he always brought it back to "serving the people." And I could see the look of elation in his face each time he said it. Tim is currently on the Kewaskum Board of Education where he served two consecutive years as president. He talked of "cost clarification" for the huge project currently underway with the Kewaskum middle school.

He's definitely a "fiscal conservative." We spoke about job growth within the district and the state. He's worked for companies to help them explore their economic business growth. JUST what the state needs now.

He talked about how he wants to help Wisconsin farmers, the "farming committee" being one he would like to be on in Assembly if the people elect him. He had a strategy AND tactics for several issues, rare and impressive.

Tim's face lights up when he talks of his Christian faith and the recent endorsements from two Wisconsin Right To Life groups. Tim is pro-life, pro-family, pro-second amendment and pro-vet.

I think the thing that struck me most about Tim was his sincerity when he said he holds people accountable, loves to exceed expectations and that he says as he does and he does what he says. We need him in the State Assembly "working for the people."

For me, I have no doubt that if you want a man of integrity who will serve you the people, get out and vote August 14th. Vote for Timothy Ramthun, put him in Madison to work for you.

Sincerely,
Scott McLellan

Dear Editor,

A very important election is rapidly approaching on August 14th and we as a people of the 59th Assembly and our great State of Wisconsin, have an opportunity to raise the bar on who we have serving us. We have a choice, if proven experience, depth of capability, passion, conviction, courage, and leadership are as important to you as they are to me the best choice is Timothy Ramthun.

Knowing Tim, I'll tell you without hesitation he has all the elements of becoming a very good citizen servant. He will be most effective navigating the uncharted waters of challenge Madison brings. Given the chance, I'm confident he'll get the work of the people done.

Tim comes from a humble background, growing up on farms, he worked in multiple factories of multiple industries all the while he attended school. Much of the work he faced was challenging, however little did he know then that those challenges were molding him to take on this new role as a Representative for the 59th Assembly.

His professional talents grew after college when he landed several roles helping to define him as a leader, the go-to person for resolving issues while creating jobs. Tim's enhanced working experiences raised satisfaction, for both people and businesses.

Tim is a solid person, good and confident at what he does. He remains loyal and obligated to those he can help when called upon.

Like many in his family before him, Tim is not swayed by the opinions and direction of others. I am most confident Tim is exactly the type of representation we need now in the 59th and in Madison. Tim's presence will influence and inspire the Assembly in areas that concern me such as the growing state budget, taxes, school subsidy issues, job creation and job retention, our beleaguered farming industry, and protecting the preborn.

I don't know if we'll have another chance like this again, the opportunity to elect a person so right for the role, so right for the time. It's Tim's turn to show, given the opportunity, he will give back to the people of the 59th District. Earning them what they deserve, a representative who will exceed their expectations. He's earned it.

Please join me on August 14th in my support for our next 59th Assembly representative, Timothy Ramthun.

Dear Editor,

Timothy Ramthun is the MOST qualified and honest candidate for the Assembly of the 59th district which includes 60,000 voters. How come 10,000-12,000 people usually vote? Don't you care who is ruling and making laws for the people?

Tim Ramthun cares for all the PEOPLE. When you vote for Tim, you won't have to wonder as he is beholden only to the PEOPLE of the 59th and will do his best for all the PEOPLE. Tim needs your vote now so he can work for all the people. Please take 14 minutes of your day on August 14th and vote for Timothy Ramthun.

Thank you,
Dolly Ramthun

Dear Editor,

Ty Bodden was recently endorsed by Washington County Sheriff Dale Schmidt and Sheboygan County Sheriff Cory Roeseler for the 59th Assembly District. It appears to me that Ty Bodden is the clear choice for Law Enforcement in the district. These two Sheriffs do not endorse candidates often, so this speaks volumes.

Ty is a young and hard working farmer who has some new and refreshing conservative ideas. I believe it is time for some of our younger people to step up and be leaders for the next generation of conservative republicans.

It is impressive to see Ty, a 24-year-old, have so much knowledge and passion about the issues. His plans to fix Wisconsin's roads and bridges are great and are in the best interest of the taxpayers.

Governor Scott Walker was 25 years old when he was elected to the State Assembly in the 14th Assembly district and look at all the good he has done for this state! Maybe Ty is following in his footsteps? That is exciting for our district!

In conclusion, if these prominent law enforcement leaders in the district support Ty, then I will be doing my part to support law enforcement's choice and vote for Ty Bodden on August 14th. I hope you join me in doing the same.

So It Goes

By Andrew Johnson

Everyone is motivated by different things. After my faith and family, it is what this newspaper represents which highly motivates me to get up every morning.

This includes my deep love for this country and its great freedoms, including the freedom of the press and the rights of every citizen. It is the people in our community whose stories need to be told. It is the many wonderful people that run local organizations including our fire departments, service clubs, churches, sports teams and charity events.

Although there are sometimes differences and squabbles, our local government officials are pretty good when compared to other communities in the country. I am in a position to clearly recognize that this paper is a vital ingredient that is the glue and face of this community.

I know our paper can be better and we have had our challenges, but we will keep trying to be better and hire/train the best people we can possibly afford within the resources available in the community.

This paper is like a family member to me. It is very personal and dear to my heart and I will do almost anything to protect it. I recognize the existence of this paper is dependent on our many small local advertisers.

It is my hope that all of our readers would patronize those who advertise in this paper when possible. They are investing in our community and we all need them. I certainly also recognize that the paper would not exist without you, our faithful readers.

We live in fast changing and exciting times. Although we have a full digital edition, utilize some social media and our online website, it is the printed version of our newspaper that actually sustains the paper.

In rural markets, there is not enough population to drive enough participation to provide a standalone digital local newspaper. In fact, even large papers which have a strong digital presence could not survive without a printed product at this time.

Newsprint is a critical commodity newspapers need in order to exist. The tariffs on this commodity now threaten the printers and newspapers who use it as well as the public who consume the content published on it.

ITC Trial On Newsprint Tariff

If someone threatened to take your home or job away, what would you do? This is exactly what is happening to me and the newspaper industry which I represent.

On Thursday, May 17, I published a story about the newsprint tariffs, Quad Graphics and a column containing my strong opinion against the tariffs.

I explained how One Rock Capital, investment bankers from New York, purchased a single paper company in Washington state known as NORPAC and initiated an unfair practice claim against Canadian paper manufacturers in order to make a quick buck.

They claimed Canadian competitors took advantage of government subsidies to sell their products at unfairly low prices. The Commerce Department, under the Trump Administration, enacted temporary tariffs on newsprint as high as 32% until the matter could go to court.

The trial was held at the International Trade Commission (ITC) in Washington D.C. on July 17. It was a one-day trial presided over by four federal commissioners, or judges.

The lone petitioner (plaintiff) was NORPAC and the STOPP Coalition (Stop Tariffs on Printers and Publishers) was the respondent (defendant.) This coalition included anyone in the business of paper including four paper companies, printers, including our very own Quad/Graphics, large daily newspapers represented by News Media Alliance and community newspapers represented by the National Newspaper Association.

The defense's position was that newsprint prices were low due to a decrease in demand for paper over the past 20 years, not a recent Canadian subsidy. It should be noted that 75% of newsprint comes from Canada or Canadian paper companies operating within the U.S. Monetary damage of the tariffs has now moved downstream to affect anyone in

Over the past few months, the defense STOPP Coalition legal team was considering using me to testify on behalf of all the community newspapers (more than 7,000) in the U.S.

They interviewed me and told me to keep my calendar clear for the week of July 16 in case they would need me to go to the trial. I was flattered but I really did not think I would be called.

Two weeks ago, I received a call notifying me they wanted me to testify at the trial, so I went to Washington D.C. last week. To say the least, it was an intense and challenging few days.

Without boring you with the details, I proudly testified to four federal judges on how the current tariffs would greatly damage and even destroy many community newspapers in our country.

One of the judges asked me questions and talked directly with me in the trial about our newspapers. I am so proud to tell you that there were only three pieces of physical evidence for the trial and one of them was a copy of each of our papers from July 12.

When I was up in front of the judges I was so proud to see their staff members reading our little newspapers from rural Wisconsin. I thought about taking a photo but did not think it would be an appropriate action in front of the judges.

I believe our entire legal team and seven other industry witnesses did a terrific job. It was awesome to see 19 members of Congress from both parties, mainly U.S. senators, testify that newspapers in their home states are in danger of laying off staff, cutting coverage or going out of business if the U.S. maintains the recently imposed tariffs.

Every one of them talked about how important a newspaper is to a community. Not one member of Congress testified against us.

The odds of winning this case are stacked against us as a rule of law. However, we are hopeful that the amount of the tariff may be lowered.

If we win the ITC case, the tariff would be over. It would take three of the four judges to vote in our favor in order to win. I am very proud to have represented our community and our newspapers at such a trial.

During my testimony, I spoke with great confidence and belief. My eyes connected with each of the four of the judge's eyes as a proud father would representing his home.

It is a complicated case with many parts to it. There is a tremendous amount of information online about the ITC Trial on July 17, including my entire testimony. This information can be found at www.wnanews.com under Top Stories. Another good source is www.stopnewsprinttariffs.org.

Correction

In my So It Goes column on May 17, I incorrectly stated the Trump Administration did not have anything to do with the newsprint tariff case.

I was misinformed and wrong at the time. I learned that it was clearly the Department of Commerce under the Trump Administration which enacted the newsprint tariffs in response to the complaint by NORPAC.

I am sorry I got it wrong the first time. In time, the truth will almost always come out. I am not aware of any member of Congress from Wisconsin from either party who is in favor of the newsprint tariff. It is clearly not good for Wisconsin or our country.

I want to mention I am grateful for the many calls, personal conversations, and even letters of support from our readers and industry friends. We will keep fighting! Thank you.

Lawmakers, Wisconsin Publisher Urge ITC To Reverse Newsprint Tariffs

Johnson, publisher of the (Mayville) Dodge County Pioneer, the Campbellsport News and the Kewaskum Statesman, was one of two publishers to testify Tuesday on behalf of the News Media Alliance. Johnson is president-elect of the National Newspaper Association and serves as president of the WNA Foundation. Paul Tash, chairman and CEO of the Tampa Bay Times — which announced in April it was cutting staff by 50 people in response to the tariffs, also addressed the ITC.

Johnson testified that the increases have already caused him to reduce his page sizes, eliminate office hours at one of his newspapers, lay off a staff member and reduce the hours of another. He explained that the increased costs — an estimated $23,000 a year for him — would not just be harmful to his newspaper, but would also hurt local businesses and the community.

Expecting advertisers to pay more would be tough, he said, adding they'd be facing less exposure along with increased rates.

He argued the biggest loss would be that of civic leadership in the community, expressing how invested he and his staff is in their community.

"The ironic thing is that forcing newspapers to cut pages, reduce days of delivery or go out of business will not help the one U.S. newsprint producer that is supporting these tariffs," Johnson said.

Four ITC commissioners are expected to vote on the case on Aug. 28, with three votes needed to reverse the preliminary tariff. A 2-2 vote would favor the petitioner and the tariffs would become permanent. The rationale behind the decision will be made public Sept. 17.

The commission will continue to accept comments from members of Congress through Aug. 20.

2018 NRCS Conservation Local Work Group Meeting Schedule Announced

—Farmers, Landowners, Organizations, And Agencies Encouraged To Attend

The U.S. Department of Agriculture Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) in Wisconsin has announced the schedule for 2018 Local Working Group (LWG) meetings. Eighteen meetings will be held across Wisconsin in August to gather input and help set priorities for U.S. Department of Agriculture conservation programs under the Farm Bill.

This year the Local Work Group meeting for Sheboygan, Ozaukee, Washington, and Fond du Lac Counties will be held on Monday, Aug. 6, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. at the: Henry S. Reuss Ice Age Visitor Center, N2875 State Highway 67, just outside Dundee.

“Local Working Groups offer a seat at the table for interested individuals and groups to advise NRCS on how best to set priorities and locally implement conservation programs,” said Angela Biggs, Wisconsin State Conservationist. “Members are diverse, with an interest and focus on local agriculture and various natural resource issues.”

Farmers representing a variety of crops and livestock raised within the local area, private woodland owners, representatives of agricultural and environmental organizations, and representatives of other agriculture and natural resource agencies are welcome and should be represented.

Wisconsin LWGs represent two or more counties grouped together by geography, similar land use, resources, and type of agriculture. This will allow greater flexibility and access to funding for the groups.

One of the main programs discussed at the meetings will be the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP), a federal conservation program that helps agricultural producers in a manner that promotes agricultural production and environmental quality as compatible goals.

EQIP offers technical and financial assistance to help landowners with needed conservation practices for water quality, soil health, wildlife and other natural resources. The program was re-authorized through 2018 in the federal Farm Bill, which was passed in February 2014.

Local Working Group meetings are open to the public. Anyone interested in becoming a member in LWGs should contact their local NRCS Service Center. Contact your local NRCS district conservationist if you are interested in participating.

DHS Confirms Death Of La Crosse County Resident From Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever

—State And Local Health Departments Urge Residents To Take Precautions To Protect Against Tick Bites

The Wisconsin Department of Health Services and the La Crosse County Health Department announced the first documented death from Rocky Mountain spotted fever (RMSF) in the state.

RMSF is rarely reported in Wisconsin and most commonly occurs in the central and southeastern regions of the United States. Most tick-borne diseases transmitted in Wisconsin are spread by the black-legged (or deer) tick; RMSF, however, is spread by the bite of the American dog (or wood) tick.

Early symptoms of RMSF can be mild and typically include fever, headache, nausea, vomiting, rash, and stomach pain. If left untreated, however, a RMSF infection can rapidly develop into a serious illness.

“We are saddened to learn of this death and encourage Wisconsin residents to take steps to protect themselves and their families from tick bites while enjoying the outdoors,” said Karen McKeown, state health officer.

•Use an insect repellent with at least 20 percent DEET or another EPA-registered repellent (link is external) according to the label instructions.

•Use 0.5 percent permethrin products on clothing, socks, and shoes according to label instructions.

•Stay on trails and avoid walking through tall grasses and brush.

•Wear long sleeves and pants, and tuck pants into socks and shirts into pants to avoid ticks crawling under clothing.

•Check your entire body for ticks after being outdoors.

•Take a shower as soon as possible after coming in from outdoors.

•Place clothes in the dryer on high heat for 10 minutes to kill any ticks on clothing.

•Use a veterinarian-prescribed tick prevention treatment on pets.

Of the illnesses spread by ticks in Wisconsin, Lyme disease is the most common, but ticks can also spread anaplasmosis, ehrlichiosis, and more rarely RMSF and Powassan virus. Many people who contract a tickborne disease do not recall a tick bite, so it's also important to be aware of the common symptoms of tickborne disease such as fever, rash, headache, body aches, and fatigue.

Most diseases spread by ticks in Wisconsin, including Lyme disease, anaplasmosis, ehrlichiosis, and RMSF, can be effectively treated with antibiotics, making early diagnosis critical. If symptoms develop after a tick bite or after possible tick exposure, see a health care provider.

Moraine Park Welcomes Schwab To District Board

Mike Schwab of Jackson was sworn in on July 9 as the newest member of the Moraine Park Technical College District Board. He will serve as an elected official member representative, with a term expiring in June 2020.

Schwab is and has been an active part of the community of Jackson for many years. In 2009 he was appointed to serve on the Board of Public Works. In 2011 he was elected and served for two years as Village Trustee and was then elected as Village President in 2015, where he has served for the last three years.

Schwab came to appreciate the technical college system after he found himself unhappy with his career and looking for a better fit. He enrolled in a local electrical apprenticeship program and completed his education. Since then he has been working to serve and speak to the quality education received through technical colleges. He previously served on the Electrical Advisory Committee and as an adjunct faculty for the electricity program at Moraine Park's West Bend Campus. His appointment to Moraine Park's District Board will allow him to continue to serve the technical college system.

"This is an opportunity to serve the residents and students of the Moraine Park Technical College District from the perspective of a technical college student, advisory board member, temporary instructor, parent of a former Moraine Park student, and now, also an elected official," said Schwab.

Schwab's community involvement is expansive as well, from serving at his church to being an active part of various committees and commissions within Jackson. He is known to many as a leader and has gained respect from peers and friends along the way.

"Mike will be a great asset to our board," said Bonnie Baerwald, president of Moraine Park. "His constant support of the technical college system and his personal experience with trade education make him a great fit for this role. He is a leader and a wonderful example of how we want to be represented within our communities. I look forward to watching our College benefit from his knowledge and guidance."

Also sworn in alongside Schwab were Candy Fields of Mt. Calvary, Bob Lloyd of Lomira, and Burr Zeratsky of Green Lake, retaining their spots on the board as an employee, school district administrator, and employer members, respectively. Their new terms will expire in June 2021.

The 2018-19 District Board members for Moraine Park were also nominated into office during the meeting. The following board members will serve as officers: Mike Stal, chairperson; Burr Zeratsky, vice chairperson; Bob Lloyd, treasurer; Lowell Prill, secretary.

Van Beek Family Celebrating 10 Years Of Granting Wishes For Wisconsin Kids

Just over 10 years ago the Van Beek family was struggling with the loss of their three-year-old son Isaiah. He was diagnosed less than two years earlier with AML Leukemia. They fought hard, worked together, made sacrifices and had the whole community rallying and praying around them, but still, God had other plans for their little boy.

"My biggest fear was that, over time, people would forget him. Time would pass and memories would fade and he would be lost in our minds too," said Isaiah's mom, Becky Van Beek. "He was such an amazing child and he needed to be remembered."

A few months earlier the family found out that Isaiah was to be granted a wish from Make A Wish, Wisconsin. They were contacted by their assigned wish granters and set up a meeting to let Isaiah pick out his wish. John and Becky were told that it had to be all his idea, no suggestions from the family.

"I was a bit scared," said John, Isaiah's dad, "We were letting an almost three-year-old pick one wish, with no restrictions. He loved John Deere tractors, his cowboy boots, dinosaurs, chocolate milk and animals so this could have gone anywhere!"

Thankfully Isaiah picked a new puppy for his wish. The family researched what kind of dog would be good for Isaiah and his siblings. He really liked the Cockapoos that Becky would show him so they found a nearby breeder in Cedarburg and gave their wish granters the information.

A few weeks later, the family was notified that their puppy was ready to go home and that there were plans to let Isaiah go shopping to get all the things a new puppy would need. Isaiah was so excited to meet his new puppy. He wanted to name her Chicken Nugget, but thankfully settled on Honey Chicken Nugget so the family could call her Honey.

Isaiah's wish granters came to the house and brought cupcakes shaped like a bone and toys and treats for all the kids. They took a limousine to a pet store in Fond du Lac where Honey got her first haircut and Isaiah walked her around the pet store picking out a bed, toys and all the fun things he could find for his new puppy.

The family and his wish granters headed to his favorite fast food place for chicken nuggets. The staff even let him make his own ice cream cone. Make A Wish also paid for one year of veterinary bills, puppy training classes and a photo session with Honey.

"It was simply amazing to see how happy Isaiah was," said Becky. "They took care of every detail and really got to know Isaiah and the family to make sure that his wish was extra special. It was a day that we didn't have to worry about anything and were able to just enjoy being together and having fun."

A few weeks after Isaiah's passing, the family heard about the Walk for Wishes that the Make A Wish of Wisconsin organization holds in Appleton. They agreed that getting a team together and raising money for this wonderful group would be the perfect way to remember Isaiah.

"Our hearts were broken from our loss. It was so hard to imagine healing our little family. We had to show Zach, McKenzie and little Eli that we were strong and we could move forward and still would include Isaiah in our lives," said Becky. "Remembering Isaiah and helping other kids was a perfect way for our whole family to heal."

John and Becky formed their first Make A Wish team — Isaiah's Stars — that year. They had a group of family and friends who joined them in Appleton and they were able to raise a few thousand dollars for Make A Wish. Every year for the past nine years they have had groups of over 30 people join them and have raised close to $36,000 to help grant wishes for other children with critical illnesses.

"It is a truly beautiful experience," John said. "We are so humbled to have all our friends and family surround us with love and not only remember our Isaiah, but also donate generously to help other children who are also struggling with a critical illness."

"It's really special to learn about the child that we help each year," added McKenzie, daughter of John and Becky. "We get called up to the front after the walk and get a plaque and a

Members of the Isaiah's Stars Walk for Wishes team took a group photo after the walk last year in Appleton. This will be the 10th year that they are raising money for the Make A Wish Foundation, so far they have raised $36,000 for the charity. They enjoy doing this to give back to the organization that helped make Isaiah's journey a little better for him.

Wisconsin's Marian Shrines Highlighted On Discover Wisconsin TV July 28-29

Discover Wisconsin, the nation's longest-running tourism TV show, will be shining the spotlight on Wisconsin's Marian Shrines in an upcoming episode. "Spiritual Wisconsin - Wisconsin's Marian Shrines" airs Saturday, July 28, at 10 a.m. on Fox Sports Wisconsin. Local air times can be found at discoverwisconsin.com/broadcastguide. The episode is also available on discoverwisconsin.com.

The episode features shrines in Erin, La Crosse and New Franken. The program is hosted by Mariah Haberman and Jake Zimmermann.

"People of all faiths travel to Wisconsin's Marian Shrines and they visit from all over the world," said Haberman. "Our crew is thrilled to unveil Wisconsin's spiritual side. I'm sure our viewers will find these three shrines as fascinating as I did!"

The show kicks off just outside of Milwaukee in Erin at the Basilica of the National Shrine of Mary, Help of Christians at Holy Hill. Although Holy Hill is most known for its external beauty and location atop Southeastern Wisconsin's highest point, Haberman leads us inside the church. We hear from Father Michael Berry about what makes Holy Hill so appealing to visitors, and chat with photographer Emma Stadelmann about Holy Hill's physical beauty.

Haberman interviews Christopher Pundzak, an IT volunteer for the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in La Crosse who leads a 200-mile Bike to Mary pilgrimage, and then joins in on the spiritually-awakening journey.

Zimmermann continues the journey to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, which was built in honor of the apparition of the Virgin Mary in Mexico in 1531. Zimmermann speaks with the Shrine founder His Eminence Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke about the natural and supernatural beauty of the Shrine and its unique landscape that draw people in.

Last up is the Walk to Mary pilgrimage, which starts at the National Shrine of St. Joseph at Old St. Joseph's Church on the campus of St. Norbert college, and ends at the Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help in New Franken.

The Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help is the smallest of the three shrines, but it is the site of the first and only Marian apparition in the U.S. that has been approved by the Catholic Church. The shrine stands on the spot where Mary is said to have appeared to Adele Brise in 1859.

"Spiritual Wisconsin - Wisconsin's Marian Shrines" will reach Discover Wisconsin's broadcast network of 600,000 viewers across the upper Great Lakes region, including Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Northern Illinois, and Upper Michigan. The episode was produced by Jennifer Ingish. To learn more, visit discoverwisconsin.com.

Steger, Donovan Reflect On All-Star Experience

By Judy Harlow

Even though their North team came up on the short end of the final score, Kewaskum High representatives, Tony Steger and Riley Donovan, enjoyed the experience of playing in the WFCAs (Wisconsin Football Coaches Association) All-Star Game on July 21 at Titan Stadium on the UW-Oshkosh campus.

The South beat the North in the Large School game by a score of 27-7 in the third of three games played that day. In the other games, the North team claimed the eight-man title with a 36-18 victory, while the South prevailed 22-21 over the North in the Small School game.

"It was a lot of fun. I got to play for other coaches and with other players ... It was a good time," Steger, who caught one pass for 10 yards and threw an incomplete pass, said Sunday, explaining the North team used an offense similar to Kewaskum's with a "very fast tempo."

Steger who started for the North, caught his only pass in the first half.

Concerning the incompleteness, he said, "I was playing receiver and got the ball on a reverse" but the receiver couldn't haul it in.

The versatile Steger may have had more opportunities to catch the ball had the weather remained dry.

"It started to rain, so we didn't pass the ball as much in the second half," he said.

As far as the outcome of the game, Steger said the South may have had a little more overall speed than his North team, which led 21-7 after the first half. This was South's eighth straight win over the North.

Steger and Donovan left for the North camp on July 15 and had a practice soon after arriving. One of the most special moments Steger will take from the week was "meeting some of the kids with cancer" from Children's Hospital, the facility which benefits financially from the All-Star Game.

Steger explained the young patients were transported to the field on July 17 where they were able to watch a practice and meet the players.

Concerning the beginning of the collegiate season, Steger said he will report to UW-Oshkosh on August 10. He will be "gray shirted" this year, meaning he will not practice with the team but will go through workouts.

"Pretty much all freshmen do (gray shirt)," he said.

Faton Elmazi, a teammate of Steger and Donovan at KHS, will also gray shirt. Elmazi's brother, Berat, is also a member of the Titan squad. He is in his third year at Oshkosh but has three years of eligibility left.

Donovan concurred with Steger the experience is one he won't easily forget.

"It was great," the 6-2, 292 pound lineman said, explaining it was interesting to be on the same team with players who were once arch rivals, and, "Now you come together to raise a lot of money for a good cause."

Donovan said each player had to raise funds — and his total reached approximately $1,000. He said several families shared their cancer stories with the players after the practice.

Donovan said the start of the camp was a little scary because he didn't know many other players, but, "By the end of the week, you're good friends."

Like Steger, Donovan was a starter, but not on defense, which is where the coaches from Augustana (S.D.) plan to use him.

"They had me at offensive guard. I thought I did pretty well," he said, indicating there were plenty of good linemen on the North team, so they shared playing time.

Donovan will be leaving for Augustana on August 4, a day before the players are required to report.

"It's (Augustana) pretty small. I think the total enrollment is two thousand and some kids," Donovan said, reporting that Sioux Falls is over eight hours away from Kewaskum.

"I'm extremely excited. We have a fantastic recruiting class coming in. I think we're going to be a force to reckon with," Donovan said.

The two young men had their own cheering section for the game.

Donovan said head coach Jason Piittmann and line coach Jason Last were in the stands, along with "some other team members, classmates and my family."

Winning Conference Title Is Highlight Of KHS Final Summer Ball Season

By Judy Harlow

After the Kewaskum baseball team bowed out of the state tournament in the regionals, veteran coach Doug Gonring made the comment, "We're done ... I'm done."

A week later, after Muskego defeated Pius XI 2-1 in eight innings at Kapco Park on July 20, he could add to that statement summer baseball is also "done." The July 20 championship game marked the end of a 54-year era of having summer baseball.

The WIAA (Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association) decided earlier this year it would no longer sponsor a summer season, much to the dismay of Gonring and a lot of other veteran coaches who believe the sport should be played in the summer, not in April and May when Wisconsin temperatures can be in the 40s in the late afternoon.

Knowing it would be the end of summer ball and of their high school careers, the seven KHS seniors, including Andrew Neu, John May, Jared Chesak, Blake Horning, Cole Surprenant, Tony Steger and Gabe Christenson, wanted to go out with a bang, and they accomplished one of their goals, putting together a 13-3 run to win the final North Shore title.

The Indians stumbled in their NS opener, losing to Whitefish Bay while three key players were involved in state action in other sports, then won 13 of the 15 remaining games, losing only to defending state champions West Bend West twice on late rallies by the Spartans.

The Indians headed into the state series as the number one seed and drew Homestead (a 5-3 winner over Cedarburg) for its first opponent. Again a late rally was the determining factor as Homestead edged the Indians 3-2 in a heart-breaking loss.

"It's hard to beat a team three times (in a year)," Gonring said after the game, still proud his players wound up as conference champions.

The Indians also did well in the all-conference voting, with starting left fielder Steger selected as the Player of the Year, beating out West's Evan Albrecht, who has a D-1 scholarship at Purdue, for the honor. With eight hits in the last four conference games, Steger wound up batting .425 (20 hits in 47 trips to the plate). Because of his great speed, he was dangerous every time he got on base, and he covered a lot of ground going after fly balls hit to

Others on the first team included Neu as a pitcher, shortstop John May and junior Lucas Christenson as the utility player. Second team picks were catcher Jared Chesak and pitcher Cole Surprenant.

Neu wound up 6-1 in league play. The veteran southpaw gave up just six earned runs in 33 2/3 inning for a sparkling 1.25 ERA. He struck out 44 and walked 11 in conference. Neu also hit a team-high three home runs in NS action.

Surprenant finished with a 3-1 record, while Chesak batted .377, Christenson .348 and May .320.

Starting next spring, Kewaskum will play in its regular conference, the East Central. Lucas Christenson returns at third base and as a pitcher and fellow junior Ryan Prochnow in center field all season. Kyle Bath, serving as designated hitter the past two seasons, will likely be the team's catcher.

A third regular was second baseman Brad Buechel, who also played as the number four man on the KHS golf team that finished sixth in the D-2 state tournament in June. Since the two seasons are at the same time, he will have to make a choice of which sport to play.

Replacing the trio of Neu, Surprenant and reliever Horning will be difficult, but the new coach will have a pair of lefties, senior Carson Dogs and junior Cole Poole, who pitched in several non-conference games. Colten Miller also saw action as an outfielder.

These five or six players, plus others from the JV team, will help initiate the new era of spring baseball for Kewaskum.

Six Indians Honored In All-Conference Voting; Gonring Is Top Coach

By Judy Harlow

Of the 12 players on the first team All-North Shore baseball team, four are from the championship Kewaskum High team, including outfielder Tony Steger, pitcher Andrew Neu, infielder John May and utility player Lucas Christenson.

Information on the selections was released recently and included Coach of the Year honors going to Doug Gonring, who announced his retirement after spending over two decades in the third base coaching box first at West Bend East and then at Kewaskum.

Steger was selected as the Player of the Year. Steger missed the first two conference games because of conflicts with the WIAA State Track Meet. It took him a little bit to make the switch to baseball but he finished off the conference season in grand style, with eight hits in his last four games toward a .425 batting average (20 hits in 47 trips to the plate).

The speedy Steger was a perfect leadoff hitter, often getting on base with bunts or infield hits, and when he got there, it was a good bet he would steal second or sometimes second and third. In the 14 conference games he played in, Steger had 15 stolen bases.

At Senior Night, Gonring said there probably wasn't a better outfielder in southeastern Wisconsin, pointing to a pair of fantastic catches he made against West Bend West and another against New Berlin West.

Neu was a cinch for first team honors as a pitcher, and he would have been the Comeback Player of the Year if there were such a designation. After missing the entire 2017 season because of knee surgery, Neu came back to finish 6-1 in league play, losing only to Whitefish Bay in the opener when several players were missing, finishing up their spring sports seasons.

The lefty Neu struck out 44 and walked 11 in conference and gave up just six earned runs to NS opponents for a 1.25 Earned Run Average (ERA).

Neu has decided to attend Madison Area Technical College next year, when he will continue his baseball career.

May, a two-year starter and three-year regular for the Indians, went 17 for 53 (.320 average) hitting behind Steger in the number two spot. He also has obvious quickness, which was an asset for the Indians.

May's big night at the plate came in Kewaskum's first game against Homestead on June 25. The game was scoreless until the top of the sixth when May launched a game-winning solo shot over the Highlanders' right-field fence, and the game ended at 1-0.

Christenson, a junior, had a dual role, pitching when he was called on and starting at third base for the last two-thirds of the year. He batted .348 (16 of 45) and went 4-1 on the mound in league play.

Picked for second-team honors were catcher Jared Chesak and pitcher Cole Surprenant. Both are seniors. Chesak went 17 for 45 to hit at a .377 clip and had a good year behind the plate. Surprenant went 3-1 on the mound and batted .250 (10 of 40).

First Team All-North Shore Selections: pitchers — Neu and Logan King, Cedarburg, Sr.; catcher — Jack Pawlak, Grafton, Sr.; Infielders — Evan Albrecht, WB West, Sr., Jacob Devorkin, Nicolet, Soph., Owen Jonas, Whitefish

Bay, Jr., May; Outfielders — Patrick Nau, Whitefish Bay, Jr., Logan Rupnow, WB West, Jr., Steger; Utility — Christenson; Designated Hitter — Jake Goodman, Nicolet, Jr.

Coach of the Year — Gonring.

Blue-Green Algae Bloom Season Is Here

Heavy rains and high temperature are fueling the growth of blue-green algae, also known as cyanobacteria, in water bodies around the state, so the Wisconsin Departments of Natural Resources and Health Services are teaming up to present an informational webinar about the health risks of blue-green algae. Some blue-green algae can cause illnesses for people and animals who accidentally ingest or inhale it, or have prolonged skin contact with the algae.

"Blue-green algae are in all lakes and rivers in Wisconsin, but they only become a problem when they grow to high concentrations, called blooms, on some water bodies," said Gina LaLiberte, DNR's statewide blue-green algae coordinator. "Actively growing blooms are usually green and have a 'pea soup' appearance, but blooms may also appear as blue, white, red, or brown scums that may be foamy or in mats."

While not all blue-green algae produce toxins, the presence of blue-green algae blooms in lakes, ponds or rivers may indicate a potential health hazard, LaLiberte said.

"One easy way to identify potential risk from blue-green algae is that if adults are in knee-deep water and can see their feet clearly, the risk of acute illness is low to moderate for adults, but it's still a good idea to choose the clearest water possible for small children and dogs, and to avoid swallowing water that could contain other bacteria, viruses, and parasites," LaLiberte said. "When you can't see your feet, keep children and dogs out of the water and consider having the whole family pursue another activity that day."

Public health officials encourage people to avoid swallowing any water and to always wash off after swimming in any lake, pond or river. Dogs should always be rinsed off with clean water to remove algae from their coat. If people have any doubts about the appearance of water, they should stay out. They should ensure that children and pets do not swim in or drink water with a blue-green algae bloom.

According to the Wisconsin Department of Health Services, Division of Public Health, common symptoms of exposure to toxic blue-green algae blooms include rashes, gastrointestinal ailments and respiratory irritation. People experiencing symptoms that may be due to blue-green algae exposure should contact their health care provider or the Poison Control Center at 1-800-222-1222.

Animals have a higher risk of dying after exposure to blue-green algae toxins because they are smaller in size and may ingest large amounts of toxins from drinking lake, pond, or river water or licking algae from their coat. Symptoms in dogs can include lethargy, loss of appetite, vomiting, diarrhea or even seizures. If your animal shows any of these symptoms contact your veterinarian immediately.

People are also encouraged to report potential algae-related illnesses in both people and animals to the Wisconsin Department of Health Services by filling out the Harmful Algae Bloom Illness or Sighting Survey or by calling 608-266-1120.

To help track the occurrence of blooms around the state, blooms may be reported to the DNR at DNRHABS@wisconsin.gov. Descriptions of bloom size, duration, location with lake, town, and county name, and photos for verification are particularly helpful.

Blooms tend to grow when there is a lot of sunlight, water temperatures are high, and there is little wind. In Wisconsin, blooms typically peak from July through September.

More information is available by searching the DNR website dnr.wi.gov for "blue-green algae."
