Board Does Not Approve Selling Beer On School Grounds

By Anne Trautner

Beer will not be allowed to be sold on school grounds in Kewaskum.

After nearly 30 minutes of discussion on the topic, the Kewaskum School Board voted Monday night on a proposal to allow beer to be sold during Kewaskum A's men's baseball games on the high school's new baseball field. The proposal failed after a tie vote.

Board members Jim Leister, Timothy Ramthun and Jay Fisher voted against the proposal, while Troy Hanson, Mary Miller and Mark Sette voted for the measure. Sue Miller was absent from Monday night's meeting.

The board has been discussing the issue over the past several months. The proposal brought to the board on Monday was to sell beer during games that were not held on days when school was in session.

The Kewaskum A's men's baseball team has been sharing a field at Kiwanis Park with the high school team since 2000, according to Jason Strobel, who helps with the Kewaskum A's team.

Kewaskum School District Prepares For Grand Opening

By Anne Trautner

The Kewaskum School District will hold a grand opening for its new middle school and refurbished high school on Monday, Oct. 29, from 5 to 7 p.m.

The new facilities opened at the beginning of the school year in September. Final touches have been made since then.

"Workers came in over the weekend and finished the garage doors, they tweaked a couple of things," Superintendent James Smasal said at Monday night's School Board meeting.

"The new gymnasium floor is being painted, and they hope to have that done by the middle of next week. Then they are going to put the bleachers in, so hopefully two weeks from now we should have it pretty much knocked out," Smasal said.

In addition, the district's third Friday count is in, Smasal said.

Scaring Up Donations

– Local Youth Create Haunted House To Benefit Food Pantry

By Anne Trautner

Hunter Sabish, 12, has been creating haunted houses for his family and friends to go through for the past three years.

This year, Hunter, who is a sixth grader at Campbellsport Middle School, decided he wanted to do more.

He partnered with a group of other youngsters from across the area to create a haunted house in order to collect food donations for the Kewaskum Community Pantry.

The group calls themselves the SkareKrew.

Ranging in age from 10 to 12 years old, SkareKrew members have created a haunted house that has numerous rooms. Each of the six SkareKrew members wear different costumes and creepy masks to frighten and entertain visitors.

The haunted house will be open on Friday, Oct. 19, and Saturday, Oct. 20, from 6 to 10 p.m., rain or shine.

The haunted house is located about three miles west of Kewaskum at 5143 Highway 28. To enter, visitors must bring five items to donate to Kewaskum's food pantry.

The SkareKrew also is collecting toys for the Children's Hospital in Milwaukee. Monetary donations will go toward enhancing the haunted house for next year.

A Haunted Idea

Hunter first became interested in creating a haunted house after his stepmother, Kathleen Flynn, brought him to her grandparents' house in Butler. Their entire yard was decorated for Halloween.

"I saw that and decided I wanted to have stuff to make a haunted house," Hunter said.

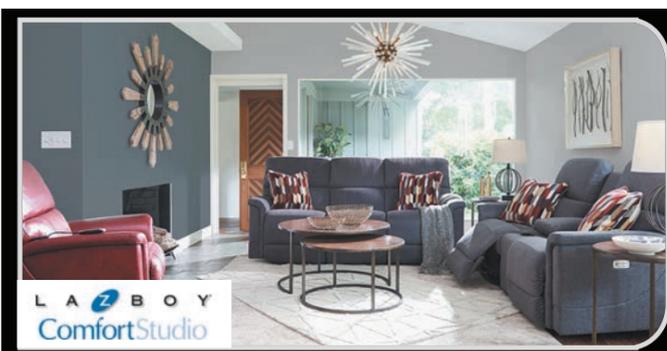

So Hunter started creating a haunted house each year for his family and friends.

Moraine Park Receives $275,000 Dual Enrollment Grant

Moraine Park Technical College is the recipient of a $275,000 Wisconsin Fast Forward (WFF) Dual Enrollment Grant from The Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development (DWD).

Dual enrollment is an opportunity for students to earn college credits in high school. This program helps to save money and time, and it allows students to become acclimated to post-secondary education.

The grant will be used to train a minimum of 71 teachers toward certification of Higher Learning Commission (HLC) Dual Enrollment standards. Moraine Park will work with teachers from 21 school districts in their service area. At least 14 teachers will receive credits toward higher education classes, and a minimum of 57 teachers will work towards certification in programs of study specific to trades, manufacturing, health-care, business, information technology, human services, and culinary arts.

“Gov. Walker’s Wisconsin Fast Forward program is investing in high school teachers, ensuring innovative dual enrollment programs continue to prepare students for high-demand jobs in growing industries,” Ray Allen DWD secretary said. “This funding supports students’ access to post-secondary education while still in high school, accelerating their transition into the workforce and reducing the cost of receiving a higher education.” Moraine Park Technical College currently offers dual credit opportunities at 25 high schools within the College’s district. New program standards now require technical colleges to match the quality and integrity of dual enrollment programs with credits offered at the institution, including the credentials of high school instructors who teach the dual enrollment courses. The 3.6 million dollars in funding will benefit 14 technical colleges and over 1,000 high school teachers across Wisconsin.

“Dual Credit programs are essential to the growth of our economy,” Bonnie Baerwald, Moraine Park Technical College president, said. “This grant will allow us to continue to collaborate with our local school districts and help high school students plan for their college education and future career.”

The Wisconsin Fast Forward program encourages increased collaboration between Wisconsin’s workforce, employers, local or regional economic development organizations, workforce development boards, post-secondary institutions, and private training providers to develop and execute business-led training programs.

Washington County 2019 Recommended Budget Now Available

– County Lowers Tax Rate Again, Lowers Deficit And Invests In Priorities

This week, Washington County administration released its 2019 recommended budget for consideration by the County Executive Committee on October 16 at 6 p.m. The meeting includes a public hearing on the budget for members of the community. The recommended budget reduces the tax rate for the fifth consecutive year despite the proposed $211,790 tax levy increase. The county’s property tax rate will decline from $2.4901 per $1,000 in 2018 to $2.390 per $1,000 in 2019 – the lowest county tax rate in over a century. Property owners can determine the impact of the proposed budget by multiplying their assessed property or home value (in thousands) by the tax rate.

“I am incredibly proud of this budget,” said County Administrator Joshua Schoemann. “Our commitment to diligently prioritizing taxpayer resources along with strong growth in the county have enabled us to produce a noticeable savings for county residents on their tax bills, a reduction in the county’s budget deficit again and increase spending targeted at addressing some of the county’s top priorities.”

Among these priorities, the county included dollars to study the county’s pay plan and help fund anticipated plan modifications to invest in its human resources and attract and retain a workforce dedicated to service excellence. The proposed budget continues the implementation of the Parks Fiscal Sustainability Plan, which is designed to eventually make the county parks independent from the county property tax levy.

The Capital Improvement Plan, also funded in this budget, supports the sustainability plans and funding strategies for Economic Development of Washington County (EDWC) and the 2050 Transportation Network Sustainability Plan.

Moraine Park To Host Business Networking Forum

Moraine Park Technical College will host a Business Networking Forum on Friday, Oct. 26, from 8 to 10 a.m. at its Fond du Lac campus.

This free event is intended for local human resources (HR) professionals and professionals within the manufacturing, health care, financial and government industries to network, share best practices, and learn new techniques. The topic of conversation will focus on “Operating Effectively in a High Turnover Environment.”

With current unemployment rates being at an all-time low, and more job openings than job seekers, it has become challenging for organizations across all industries to operate effectively and efficiently. The Business Networking Forum will include a panel of industry representatives sharing their strategies, struggles, and successes, and featured presenters will be Karen Letourneau, senior human resource manager at Generac Power Systems in Berlin and Mike Mallmann, SPHR the HR Team Leader from Schreiber Foods.

To register, visit <http://bit.ly/octbusinessforum> or email training@morainepark.edu with any questions.

Help DNR Staff Monitor Wisconsin's Wolf Population

– Become A Volunteer Wolf Carnivore Tracker

Wisconsin's wolf monitoring program relies upon volunteers from around the state to help track animals each winter - individuals who are interested in playing a key role in wildlife management are encouraged to sign up for one of several classes offered statewide.

Department of Natural Resources biologists and volunteers have partnered to provide informative classes focused on aspects of wolf ecology, population biology and field study techniques. Tracking is a great way to experience the outdoors and contribute to natural resource management.

Carnivore tracking classes focus on learning to identify the tracks of medium to large-sized carnivores in Wisconsin, as well as a few other common mammals. Wolf ecology and management classes cover the history of wolves in Wisconsin, wolf biology and ecology, how DNR staff monitor the population, and state management and research. Completion of both classes is required to participate in the wolf monitoring program as a volunteer carnivore tracker.

"DNR staff and volunteers tracked over 16,000 miles last winter searching for wolf, coyote, bobcat, and other medium to large size carnivore tracks in Wisconsin," said DNR wolf biologist Nathan Kluge. "It's a great way to get out and enjoy Wisconsin in the winter while helping the department monitor some of the state's most interesting wildlife."

For a list of courses offered, search the DNR website for volunteer carnivore tracking page and select the "training courses" option on the right side of the page.

Marketbasket Survey Shows Milk Is A Bargain In The Dairy State

The Wisconsin Farm Bureau's Marketbasket survey that tracks the average price of 16 food items used to prepare one or more meals rang in at $51.57. The survey total increased less than 3 percent from the same survey conducted this past spring.

"Shoppers are seeing food prices remain fairly stable in the grocery store," said Amy Eckelberg, spokeswoman of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation.

The survey revealed price increases for nine of the 16 items, with bacon and ground chuck seeing the largest jump from this past spring.

Bacon continues to be a popular food item across the United States and rose $0.56 since spring with a one-pound package averaging $5.02.

Ground chuck saw a $0.48 increase since the same survey in the spring.

Two items saw no change in price – shredded mild cheddar and sirloin tip roast.

Survey shoppers reported price decreases for five of the 16 items, with eggs and milk seeing the greatest declines.

This past spring, a gallon of whole milk averaged $2.96. This fall, shoppers reported an average cost of $2.63 per gallon, an 11 percent decrease.

As the dairy state is seeing lower prices on both the farm and retail side, consumers and farmers alike are taking to the '10 Gallon Challenge' to provide for those in need and help drive demand for dairy.

"Milk is a nutrient rich food, but unfortunately it is rarely donated," said Communications Manager at Second Harvest Foodbank of Southern Wisconsin Kris Tazelaar. "It is important for anyone looking to make a donation to first reach out to your local food pantry to see if they are able to accept perishable goods."

Anyone wishing to participate in the '10 Gallon Challenge' should contact their local food pantry to inquire whether they can accept perishable goods. Participants may also want to ask about preferred milk container size and type that is needed most.

Farmer's Share Is Just $7.63

During the last three decades, retail grocery prices have gradually increased while the share of the average dollar spent on food that farm families receive has decreased. In the mid-1970s, farmers received about one-third of consumer retail food expenditures in grocery stores and restaurants. Since then that figure has decreased steadily and is now 14.8 percent, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Using that percentage across the board, the farmer's share of this quarter's $51.57 grocery bill is $7.63.

The USDA says Americans will spend approximately 10 percent of their disposable annual income on food, the lowest average in the world.

Honor Flights

Saturday, Oct. 13, is a very special day for many of the veterans in the communities our small weekly newspapers serve. There are at least three honor flights going to Washington D.C. on that day which will include several of our hometown veteran heroes.

There will be one Badger Honor Flight flying out of Madison and two Stars and Stripes Honor Flights flying out of Milwaukee. These special trips are designed to honor veterans from World War II, Korea and Vietnam, by taking them on a tour of several of our nation's memorials, as well as giving them a huge welcome home by family, friends and the public.

Veterans apply to one of the many honor flight groups serving Wisconsin and then are selected. Many of these veterans have not received the recognition in the past which they so richly deserve.

In recent years, we have made it a priority to tell the stories about individual veterans who go on these special honor flights. We will continue to do so. Some do not want to share their stories, but most do. Every story is unique and special. We are only able to cover those veterans who let us know they are going or have gone. Most of the stories include a guardian, usually a family member, who accompanies the veteran on the trip.

In many cases it involves several family members coming to the welcome event at the airport when the veterans return from Washington. For some, sadly, there is no family to greet them. However, many citizens come to greet them and cheer for them.

As I pointed out, each story is unique. Many of these veterans have given so much. Many of them carry scars and have experienced unimaginable pain so we can be free. I feel it is the very least our newspaper can do is to honor them by telling their stories. Those stories need to be told and they will never get old. These are the types of stories which also need to be passed on to future generations of the veterans, as well as be archived for the public.

I covered the homecoming event for a Badger Honor flight in September 2017 in Madison. It is one thing to read a story or even see photos and videos about the homecoming event. It is a different thing to go to and experience the event. There is something magical about it. It is as if there is "electricity" in the air. It is so exciting. The event makes everyone present so proud to be Americans.

I strongly encourage anyone who has not experienced such an event to come to the Dane County Airport in Madison on Saturday evening – Oct. 13. Details are in the center pages of this edition. The only cost for attending this event is the gas to get there and the small parking fee at the airport.

Most people dress in patriotic colors.

Going to General Mitchell International Airport in Milwaukee is also good, but it will be very crowded. According to Paula Nelson, who leads the Stars and Stripes Honor Flights, crowds at Mitchell Airport have been so big, that the Stars and Stripes Honor Flights had to limit the amount of up-front seating since there is not enough room in front for everyone who comes. Paula said families would be limited to getting four tickets per family for the flight coming into Milwaukee on Saturday. It is interesting to note that Paula is from Allenton. Her father served in World War II.

The Badger Honor Flight originating in Madison this particular Saturday is very special for me. I will be on it as a media person. I will get to see first-hand what veterans experience.

Jim Bublitz, a veteran, a retired Dodge County Sheriff's deputy, and former owner of Murray Funeral Home in Horicon, will be on the flight with 93 other veterans. For many years Jim has led these flights, but this time he is going as a veteran. I have known him for many years and will be covering his experiences, as well as others who allow me to. Saturday's event will be extra special to me because when we go to Arlington I will have the opportunity to visit the grave of my late son, 1st Lt. David Johnson, located in section 60. He was killed in Afghanistan on January 25, 2012.

– Local Youth Create Haunted House To Benefit Food Pantry

Meanwhile, Jay Pintor, who lives in Wayne, had been running a haunted house for years to collect food for the Hunger Task Force in Milwaukee. Pintor's program became known as "The Charlie House."

About three or four years ago, Pintor's son Izek, who is now 10, suggested that The Charlie House should collect toys for patients at Children's Hospital in Milwaukee. So The Charlie House has been collecting toy donations during the past several Halloween seasons.

Earlier this year, Pintor decided to hold a rummage sale to try to sell some of his older props.

Hunter's grandmother, Luan Sabish, came to the rummage sale and learned about The Charlie House.

"I have a grandson who would love to get involved with this kind of thing. You should come and see his stuff," Luan told Pintor.

At first, Pintor was wary of the idea of going and looking at stuff that some kid had collected. But he agreed to visit Hunter.

Pintor brought his son Izek with him to view Hunter's collection.

When they walked through Hunter's door and saw his collection of scary items, they stopped in their tracks. They were amazed.

They decided right then and there to join forces. That was the beginning of the SkareKrew.

The SkareKrew

From that first meeting just over a month ago, plans developed quickly. "It fell right into place," Pintor said. "Hunter is not just a smart kid that did this, he is a good kid."

The idea attracted more kids who wanted to help others.

"These kids all came from different schools and didn't know each other. They came together and showed that kids can band together and make a difference," Pintor said.

Together, the group said they could work together and raise food for people in need.

"They are working together like a team," Pintor said.

Hunter came up with a lot of the ideas of what to create. He admits he watched some YouTube

To enter the haunted house, visitors must bring five items to donate to the Kewaskum Community Pantry. The haunted house will be open on Friday, Oct. 19, and Saturday, Oct. 20, from 6 to 10 p.m.

videos for inspiration.

Izek used his talents to create scary creatures from styrofoam heads, liquid latex and molds.

Adults have helped out also. Hunter's grandfather, Steve Sabish, owns a construction business, so he helped build some of the set, which is situated in his pole barn.

Hunter's dad, Steven Sabish, built up walls from pallets.

The SkareKrew then hung tarps and curtains to create different scenes in each "room."

When visitors arrive at the haunted house, Pintor and his wife Nikki, dressed in costumes, greet them at the door.

As visitors make their way through the haunted house, the SkareKrew members creep around and scare people.

There are only six kids on the SkareKrew team, but they have developed a procedure to change costumes quickly, so it seems like there are more of them than there are.

They know secret passages to get from one "room" to another.

Different scenes include scary clowns, skeletons and zombies. There are mad scientists, scary pumpkins, and lots of rats and spiders in the haunted house.

The elaborate decor includes a haunted playground and a graveyard. There are freaky lights and eerie sounds throughout the building. Lots of blood and gore is splattered throughout.

However, for visitors who do not want to be overly scared, the crew will turn on all the lights in the venue.

After visitors make their way through the maze of Halloween props, SkareKrew members give each other high fives.

"They just have so much fun having people come through," Flynn said.

SkareKrew members include:

-Hunter Sabish, 12 a student at Campbellsport Middle School

-Izek Pintor, a 10-year old student at i4Learning Community School

-Addy Paswaters, a 10-year-old student at Kewaskum Elementary School

Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School Performs Family-Friendly Childrens Theater Production

Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School, 3399 Division Road, Jackson, will present its Children's Theatre Production, a family-friendly comedy, "The Stinky Cheese Man and Other Fairly Stupid Tales," by John Glore, October 26 and 27.

Witty narration brings favorite fairy tale characters back to life, yet their stories have been uprooted and given a new twist in this adaptation of Jon Scieszka's and Lane Smith's book of fractured fables that covers tales from "Chicken Little" to "The Gingerbread Man." Fun music, sassy animals and a plethora of stinky cheese complete the story makeovers for audience enjoyment.

Performances are Friday, Oct. 26, at 7 p.m., and Saturday, Oct. 27, at 2 p.m. in the school's Performing Arts Center. Tickets are $6 for adults and $4 for students (K-12) and seniors (65+). General admission tickets will be sold at the door starting 30 minutes before each performance. No tickets will be pre-sold.

For more information, visit www.kmlhs.org/drama, or contact Mrs. Barb Olsen at barbara.olsen@kmlhs.org or (262) 677-4051, ext. 1162.

Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School is a Lutheran school supported by congregations from Waukesha, Milwaukee, Ozaukee and Washington counties. It offers a comprehensive curriculum and full selection of after-school activities to nearly 500 students each year. The school's trademark is its caring faculty dedicated to excellence as they train their students for life and for eternity.

Agnesian Bereavement Services Sets October 15 RTS Walk/Support Group

When a baby dies before it is born or soon after birth, parents are burdened with the task of saying good-bye to someone they barely had a chance to know. They must accept that a life has ended, even though it barely began.

Pregnancy brings with it a number of expectations, dreams and fantasies - parents spend months planning not just the birth of their child, but also his or her life in all the years to come. Now, just as both parents are emotionally preparing to welcome a child into the world, they must instead accept the loss of both the baby and all of their expectations for their future.

No matter how brief a baby's life, those parents have just as much right to grieve as any other bereaved parent. In fact, it is an integral part of the mourning and healing process.

President Ronald Reagan officially announced October as National Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month.

On Monday, Oct. 15 from 6 to 7:30 p.m., parents who have lost an infant, as well as the community, are invited to join Agnesian Health-Care Bereavement Services as it hosts a RTS Walk/Support Group at St. Agnes Hospital's Christmas Box Angel of Hope Memorial and Healing Garden (held in the St. Agnes Chapel if inclement weather).

The walk provides a chance for families to see that they are not alone.

"This free event enables us to consider how, as individuals and communities, we can meet the needs of bereaved parents and family members," according to Melissa Klebs, MS, CT, Agnesian Health-Care Bereavement Services supervisor. "Sadly, these are deeply painful experiences that many families face daily. It may be hard to talk about, but the more open we are, the better we can serve bereaved parents."

For more information or to register, call Agnesian HealthCare Bereavement Services at (920) 907-3940 or visit agnesian.com/bereavement.

Board Does Not Approve Selling Beer On School Grounds

"We have not had any issues during that time that I know of," Strobel told the board Monday night.

"Nothing against the A's, but you have a system working over there; keep it over there," Leister said at the meeting. "once the cow is out, you can't close the gate."

Leister said that selling beer on school grounds sends the wrong message to students.

"It is talking out of both sides of your mouth, saying one thing and doing another," Leister said.

Chris Elbe, chairperson for the Town of Farmington, spoke at the meeting during time allotted for public comments.

"I don't think it should be considered at all. It's just not proper to be on school grounds. There are plenty of places that have alcohol served, and we just are not setting the proper example," Elbe said.

Sette, who works as a detective for the Washington County Sheriff's Office, said he could see both sides of the issue.

"I think we are weighing out the difference of working with the community and the impact it will have with kids. The way this is being structured is not going to have a direct impact on kids because it is going to be happening on weekends when school is not in session," Sette said.

In January, the board approved spending up to $1.2 million on building baseball and softball fields on school property. Depending on weather, the fields are expected to be completed in the next two weeks, Superintendent James Smasal said at Monday night's meeting.

If the board would have voted in favor of the issue, it would have had to change Board Policy 9160, which prohibits alcohol from being possessed, consumed or distributed on school premises.

In addition, it would have had to change Board Policy 5530, which prohibits the use, possession, concealment, or distribution of all drugs and alcoholic beverages at any time on district property or at any district-related event.

The Village of Slinger allows the beer to be sold on its baseball field during men's baseball games, according to Strobel.

However, the field is not located on its school campus, and the Village of Slinger maintains the field, Ramthun said.

Strobel said he is not sure whether the A's will use the field if beer cannot be sold there.

"We have put a 1.7 mil facility at school grounds. We are a community of 4,000 people. These fields need to be used for the community, whether it is the A's, the Tribe or the KAA," Strobel said.

School District Prepares For Grand Opening

"The good news is that we are down to a differential of 39 kids open enrolling in versus out. That is closing the gap by 23 kids over last year, so that is the lowest it has ever been as far as open enrolling in versus out. Obviously what we are doing is attracting people to the school district, so that is really good news," Smasal said.

Unfortunately, the district anticipated having up to 610 students at the high school, but ended up with 597 students.

"So we dropped a pretty significant at the high school, but we kind of predicted that. Overall, we look at the trends, there are less kids in Washington County, and that trend will continue for the next three years," Smasal said.

Fire Safety Tips Supporting Fire Prevention Week From Paul Davis

Paul Davis Restoration and Remodeling of Southeast and Fox Valley, a leading national provider of water, fire and mold damage cleanup and restoration services for residential and commercial properties, supports the National Fire Protection Association's (NFPA) Fire Prevention Week, October 7-13.

Fire Prevention Week is the longest running public health and safety observance on record, established in 1922 following the Great Chicago Fire that killed hundreds and left hundreds of thousands homeless. This year's fire safety campaign theme is, Look. Listen. Learn. Be aware. Fire can happen anywhere.

For example, look for places in your home where fires can start. Listen for the sounds of smoke alarms and know what to do if you hear them. And, learn how to make a home escape plan.

According to the NFPA, here are campaign tips:

- Draw a map of your home with all members of your household, marking two exits from each room and a path to the outside from each exit. Visit the website for more about fire safety at <http://www.nfpa.org/public-education/campaigns/fireprevention-week-audience>.

- Practice your home fire drill twice a year. Conduct one at night and one during the day with everyone in your home, and practice using different ways out.

- Teach children how to escape on their own in case you can't help them.

- Make sure the number of your home is clearly marked and easy for the fire department to find.

- Close doors behind you as you leave – this may slow the spread of smoke, heat, and fire.

- Once you get outside, stay outside. Never go back inside a burning building.

- For more information, visit the NFPA website at www.nfpa.org.

Paul Davis suggests the following tips to help keep homeowners and families safe:

- Smoke alarms should be installed throughout the home including the kitchen, basement, and every bedroom and outside sleeping area.

- Never remove or disable smoke alarms.

- Test smoke alarms at least once per month by pushing the test button.

- Interconnect smoke alarms so if one sounds, they all do.

- If smoke alarms don't work, replace the correct size battery or the entire smoke alarm unit.

- Don't let children play with fire.

- Don't leave cooking items or clothing irons unattended.

- Place a portable ladder in each second-floor room.

- Have an updated, emergency first aid kit.

- Develop a family plan and conduct a home "Fire Drill" at least twice a year.

- Check fire extinguishers for expiration and replace as needed.

- Handle gasoline or propane-powered equipment cautiously.

- Install carbon monoxide detectors.

Paul Davis and fire industry professionals will help spread the word in their communities about the importance of fire safety. Contact a licensed professional or restoration and emergency services company if damage to your home or business is significant. All technicians are certified from The Institute of Inspection, Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC).

Discover The Beauty Of Double Tulips

MELINDA MYERS

Celebrate the National Garden Bureau's Year of the Tulip in a big way by planting double flowered tulip varieties this fall for a showy display next spring. Flower arrangers love the big bold blossoms that resemble peonies and you'll love their impressive blooms in your garden and containers.

Start and end the tulip season with these beautiful spring-flowering bulbs. Plant double tulips in small informal clusters of seven or more bulbs scattered throughout your gardens. Or combine them with other types of tulips, spring flowering bulbs and perennials. And be sure to add extras to enjoy as cut flowers.

Plant the early-blooming variety Margarita with grape hyacinths for multiple layers of color and fragrance. These violet-purple double tulips are ideal for perennial gardens and after they bloom, the perennials will help mask the declining bulb foliage. Add even more impact by pairing them with other early-flowering pink and red tulips.

Turn up the heat with the warm tones of honey-gold, apricot and peach found in Foxy Foxtrot. This tulip looks great when paired with purple, pink and even red flowers. Like other doubles, it makes a great cut flower.

Enliven the spring garden with double tulip

Monte Orange. Its brilliant tangerine blossoms have a sunny yellow center and the flowers get even showier as they mature. Combine this variety with yellow daffodils for greater impact and a longer display.

Fill in the mid-spring garden with some classic Darwin Hybrid tulips such as Blushing Apeldoorn, Apricot Impression and Ad Rem.

Then create a grand finale of blooms by planting a few of the late spring double tulips. Include Crème Upstar with its sweetly fragrant pastel blooms that change from cream and pale yellow to apricot, pink and rose. It's an exceptional cut flower for your spring bouquets.

Or add an array of jewel tones with a designer collection of double late tulips. The Parade of Pink Mix includes four varieties of fragrant double late tulips in white, pink, rose and magenta.

Say a cheery goodbye to spring with the Yellow Pomponette/Sun Lover combination. These double late tulip varieties pair lemon yellow with blood orange and together they make a nice addition to any sunny spot in the landscape.

Check out Longfield Gardens' article (longfield-gardens.com/article/tulips-by-bloom-time) for a list of tulips by bloom time. Then make your selections so you can enjoy six weeks or more of tulip blooms in your spring garden.

Be sure to order early for the greatest selection of tulip and other spring bulb varieties. For best results, purchase large firm bulbs from a reliable source and store them in a cool dark place until you are ready to plant.

Grow tulips in a sunny or partially shaded location with good drainage. Keep in mind those shady spots in the landscape may provide sufficient sunlight for your tulips in spring before the trees leaf out.

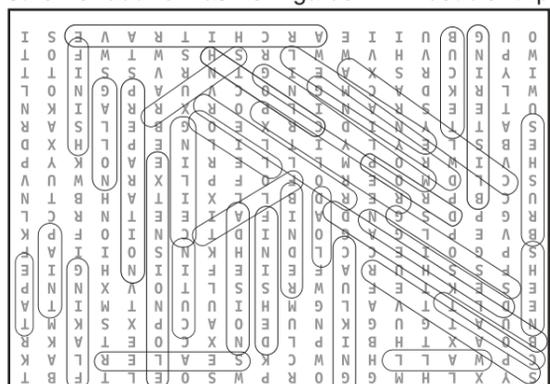

Wait for the soil to cool to begin planting. This is usually mid to late fall after a hard frost and before the ground freezes. Place the bulbs four to five inches apart on center and about six to seven inches deep in properly prepared soil with good drainage. Add a low nitrogen, slow release fertilizer and water thoroughly.

Then relax and enjoy your fall garden and all the beauty winter brings as you wait for the eruption of color in your garden and containers next spring.

Floyd Joins Two Loves To Create New Company

By Andrea Hansen Abler

Last year, Sam Floyd was looking for his next career option so he merged two things that he loved — coffee and helping veterans. Floyd moved back to Campbellsport and started his business Operation Coffee one year ago this month.

"I was working at Ferguson (in Madison)," Floyd said. "That company went out of business. The week before that I lost a good friend to suicide."

As he was contemplating his next move, Floyd was talking with a mentor about his options. She asked him what he loved as they were talking over a cup of coffee. Floyd pointed to his cup and knew he wanted to start roasting coffee.

While working to set up his new business, Floyd knew he could include his other passion — helping veterans. After graduating from Waucousta Lutheran Grade School and Winnebago Lutheran Academy, Floyd enlisted in the United States Marine Corps.

He spent four years, 2002-2006, in the United States Marine Corps. For 10 months during that time, he was deployed to Afghanistan. After leaving the military, Floyd saw how returning to civilian life affected some of his friends. It was hard to handle for many of them.

With the death of his friend so close to the start of his business, Floyd decided to use some of his revenues to help veterans. He donates 10 percent of every sale toward groups who work with veterans and specifically those groups helping to fight suicide among veterans.

"I found this calling," Floyd said. "I guess coffee was just a way to reach out to people."

Floyd is hoping his contributions will help veterans learn that they can reach out to others and that there is no shame in seeking the help that they need.

"I want to keep that conversation going," he said. "There's no shame in having conversations about it."

As Floyd stated on his Operation Coffee website, "Everyday men and women leave the military and find themselves lost. Coming from a brotherhood and sisterhood like nothing else on this earth and then transition into a society that, for the most part does not understand, is extremely difficult. Sadly, many men and women have decided to end their own life because they feel a void that cannot be filled. Many turn to alcohol, drugs and other coping mechanisms that are just filling the void temporarily and that feeling returns but this time the void is bigger and a lot less manageable."

Coming Home

Floyd grew up in Campbellsport, but like many youth wanted to move away from home. He was living in Madison, but moved back to the area.

"I was in Madison and my mom became sick, so I decided to move back," Floyd said. "I knew I wanted to stay in Campbellsport."

He admitted that once he was back, he liked the small town atmosphere. So when starting his business, he couldn't think of a better place to be than in his hometown.

"I'm really excited to be in Campbellsport. It's good to be home and I'm enjoying being back."

Starting His Business

Floyd started working on Operation Coffee as he moved back to the area. Coffee had always been something he enjoyed and starting a business around was challenging but fun.

"I was home roasting for about four years already," he said. "It is difficult. There's a lot of chemistry and math involved."

As a way to get started, Floyd attended a boot camp for veterans that focused on helping to succeed in and start a business. During this boot camp, he decided on the name of his business — Operation Coffee.

He knew he wanted the name to reflect the military since some of the profits are going to veteran charities. While at the boot camp, Floyd and other attendees worked together to find the right name.

"We searched for military names," Floyd said.

Once he decided on the name, he asked his brother-in-law to help him with the logo. It reflects his military service, his christianity and his farming roots. It is in the shape of an overall pocket with the colors and stripes like the American flag and three stars for his faith.

"I'm very thankful to have a brother-in-law who is so talented," Floyd said.

Sam Floyd is excited to share his new venture with the Campbellsport community. He started Operation Coffee a year ago and is almost ready to start roasting his coffee in his new home on Main Street. Floyd is hosting an open house this Friday, Oct. 12, from 4 p.m.-6 p.m. at the former Campbellsport Baptist Church building.

KHS Spikers Turn Back Waupun

— Kewaskum Finishes Fourth In Lodi Test

By Judy Harlow

No longer do the members of the Kewaskum volleyball team fear Waupun. After years of domination in the old Eastern Wisconsin Conference and Division 2 competitions, the Lady Warriors are pretty average, and the Indians have the better team.

During their October 4 East Central Conference matchup, Kewaskum went 3-1 over the Warriors, winning 25-16, 19-25, 25-18 and 25-13. With the victory, the Indians have improved to 2-4 in EC play and are 16-9 overall. Waupun fell to 3-4 in league matches.

"It was a match where we fought adversity well," KHS coach Laine Leitzke said. "The second set we let the Warriors run away from us, down eight we fought back to get it even, but we just could not pull off another big run to get the set. We responded with a big kill on the first play of the third set, and we just kept pushing them away."

Leitzke went on, "Defense again led the charge with our outsides and libero (player) pulling in 84 digs alone. We had some issues Waupun exploited in the first and second set, but we closed those holes and took control of the match in the third."

Junior spiker Brelynn Scoles was back in the lineup after missing a couple matches with an ankle sprain. She helped the Indians at the net, from the serving line and defending against Warrior kill tries. Scoles led the Indians with a whopping 20 kills. She also had three aces and was third on the team in digs with 17.

Hailey Hasenberg, the only senior on the team, also had a good night. Hasenberg topped the Indians in aces with five, and she was the team leader in digs with 40.

"Hasenberg and Scoles did what captains need to do and led the team, the former with strong, aggressive defense and the latter with a relentless attack at the net," Leitzke said.

Junior Carolyn Stockhausen and Nicole Butz were great at the net defensively, providing nine and eight blocks, respectively. Holly Henk was also near the top in a couple departments, second in kills with eight and second in digs with 27, while Anna Peterson contributed six kills and three blocks.

Amanda Miller was the team's assist leader with 25.

Current EC Standings: 1. Kettle Moraine Lutheran, 7-0; 2. Winneconne, 4-1; 3. Plymouth, 2-1; 4. Waupun, 3-4; 5. Campbellsport, 2-3; 6. Kewaskum, 2-4; 7. Ripon, 1-4; 8. Berlin, 1-5.

In the Lodi Tournament held on October 6, Kewaskum had to settle for fourth place out of eight teams. In pool play, the Indians lost to Cuba City 25-16, 19-25 and 13-15, defeated Newman Catholic, 25-16 and 25-18 and then lost to Platteville, 18-25 and 18-25.

Kewaskum then went in to play in the Gold Bracket where it lost to McFarland, 15-25 and 18-25, then lost to Platteville for the second time, 18-25 and 17-25.

The Indians are 17-13 overall, going into the final week of regular-season play. They are at Ripon on Saturday, Oct. 13 for the East Central Conference Tournament.

Indians Pile Up The Yardage To Win Big Over Waupun

By Judy Harlow

Football announcer Jim Magnus got to coax the Kewaskum High fans into plenty of "First Down" chants on October 5 in the Indians' East Central game against Waupun — 31 times to be exact as the Indians piled up 31 first downs behind 463 yards of total offense toward a convincing 45-7 victory.

This was Kewaskum's second straight victory, giving the Indians a 2-4 record in the EC and 4-4 overall.

"We got off to a good start, and then we went into a lull in the second quarter," KHS coach Jason Piittmann said, reporting his team took a 15-0 lead behind some strong running by Lucas Christenson, who had a one-yard touchdown run in the first quarter and another covering 15 yards early in the second after the Warriors failed on a fourth down run at its own 28-yard line.

After the first touchdown, Dylan Maechtle scored the two-point conversion on a run. Ryan Prochow kicked the second PAT (point after touchdown).

Another drive late in the first half led to a 23-yard field goal by Prochow, giving Kewaskum an 18-0 advantage.

After that, the defense relaxed for a play, allowing Beret Veleke to break loose for a 51-yard touchdown with :07 remaining. This gave the Warriors "a glimmer of hope," according to Piittmann, who said his defenders just blitzed right past the ball carrier. "That Veleke kid is fast. He just raced by our defenders."

Never fear, after a little pep talk during the break, the Indians got their swagger back, scoring four times in a matter of seven minutes and 18 seconds. First, it was Christenson finding the end zone from nine yards out with 7:25 left, then Michael Daniel scored on a quarterback run from the three for a 31-7 lead.

Colten Miller got the call less than two minutes later, going 10 yards for his score, and then Christenson scored his fourth touchdown of the night on a three-yard run, giving the Indians a 45-7 lead.

It was Tyler Denitz's pass interception that set up the final score and secured a running clock for the entire fourth quarter, according to Piittmann, who beamed about the offense in the second half.

"We just really pounded hard...gave the ball to Lucas," the coach said, indicating the Indians went to the no-huddle offense for a while, taking advantage of Waupun's lack of depth by wearing them down.

Much of Christenson's yardage — the 190-pounder tailback rushed for 268 yards in 31 carries — came behind the blocks of tackle Jon Leister and Trenton Riekkoff.

Kewaskum also set up Christenson to take several direct snaps, but all four of his passes fell incomplete. Daniel threw six passes, completing four for 63 yards while sophomore Mason Droese got a chance to play in the fourth quarter and was 5x7 for 58 yards.

Sam Schultz caught three passes for 34 yards, while Hunter Grady had two catches for 45 yards and sophomore Bret Fahrenkrug hauled in three for 29 yards.

Leading the Indians' defense were Kyle Bath, Triston Rayburn and Eric Bauer with six, five and five tackles, respectively. Bath and Grady both had quarterback sacks.

Winless Waupun, 0-6 in conference play and 0-8 overall, had just 132 yards of offense.

The win insured a happy homecoming for the Indians and gave them an outside chance at a playoff spot. "If we do (have a chance), it's slim," Piittmann said, stressing, "The first thing we have to do is beat Campbellsport. Then we have to have all the right things happen (involving other teams). It's going to be tough."

Piittmann said 3-3 Campbellsport likes to "mix it up a little. They run more than they like to pass. They've got a nice senior class," adding, "It's a pretty good matchup. It should be a heck of a game."

Campbellsport will host the game on October 12. Game time is 7 p.m. It will be the final EC game for nine KHS seniors, including Grady, Leister, Bath, Prochow, Bauer, Dawson Bastian, Thomas Klemme, Christenson and Miller.

Other EC games on October 5: Winneconne 49, KM Lutheran, 6; Plymouth 28, Campbellsport 6; Berlin 36, Ripon 0.

Current EC standings: 1. Winneconne, 6-0; 2. Plymouth, 5-1; 3. Berlin, 4-2; 4. (tie) Campbellsport and Ripon, 3-3; 6. Kewaskum, 2-4; 7. KM Lutheran, 1-5; 9. Waupun, 0-6.

Lucas Christenson carries the ball for Kewaskum during the Homecoming game against Waupun Friday night. Kewaskum won the game, 45-7.

Perennial Powers Dominate Other Tennis Teams At Sub-Sectional

By Judy Harlow

After a regular season that was highlighted by improvement and a tie for fourth place in the 10-team Eastern Wisconsin Conference, the Kewaskum girls tennis team ran into a brick wall at the October 2 Sheboygan Falls Sub-sectional.

"It was a humbling experience as well as frustrating. Convincing defeats along with convincing wins that generated no points for KHS," KHS coach Peter Garcia said about the tournament, which featured four powerhouse tennis schools, including Brookfield Academy, Kohler, University School of Milwaukee and Shorewood.

Those four schools received seeds at all four singles positions and the three doubles spots, meaning the players from the other five schools didn't have much of a chance to advance.

The Indians did have two victories. Both came in "pigtail" or play-in matches to the eight-player brackets. At number three singles, junior Megan Kroski easily defeated Jasmine Nueser from Sheboygan Falls, 7-5, 6-1 but her day ended when she went up against the number one seed, Natalie Cartwright of Brookfield Academy. The match score was 1-6, 1-6.

Kroski, who was 8-1 in EWC action, wound up 13-5 on the year.

Also, the number three doubles team of Elizabeth Beine and Abby Kofphammer drew Brown Deer's Hameeda Hazelwood and Auserre Omniessence, "winning quickly 6-0, 6-0," according to Garcia, who reported they too ended up with the number one seeds in their next match. The lost to USM's Kala Siddalingiah and Rebecca Daskal, 0-6, 0-6.

Unfortunately, the Indians did not earn any points for their play-in wins. Neither did Sheboygan Falls, Brown Deer, Sheboygan Falls and Grafton.

University School piled up 24 points to lead the competition, with Brookfield Academy and Kohler tied for second with 18 points, and Shorewood had 16 points, good for fourth. These points carry over to the sectional tournament, which took place at Kohler on October 3.

Results of the other Indians' matches are as follows: Singles — No. 1 Grace Marchello lost to Marie Major from Brookfield Academy, 0-6, 0-2; No. 2 — Emma Preder lost to Grafton's Taylor Wentor, 1-6, 1-6; No. 4 Kaitlyn Miller lost to Samara Eitel of Shorewood, 0-6, 1-6; Doubles — No. 1 Nicole Brzozowski and Sydney Ostranger lost to University School's Grace Watkins and Grace Gridley, 0-6, 0-6; and at No. 2, Nikki Bruss and Carly Ostranger were eliminated by top-seeded Sarah Sobecki and Olivia Grose of Kohler. 0-6, 0-6.

Seniors playing in their final matches included: Marchello, Preder, Miller, Brzozowski and Bruss.

Kew-Cats Sidelined After Having Off Day

By Judy Harlow

She knew it would be a tough day, competing with the likes of schools like Arrowhead, Cedarburg and Oconomowoc, but coach Amy Uhlig didn't think her combined Kewaskum-Campbellsport girls golf team would finish last in the October 3 WIAA Sectional hosted by Oshkosh North at the Westhaven Golf Course.

"Very rough day for us at sectionals. I'm honestly not sure what happened to us out there," Uhlig said about the Kew-Cats' total of 424, which was 27 strokes higher than the 397 they had in the regional. "Disappointing to end the season that way after we had such a solid, consistent regular season."

As expected, two-time D-1 defending champion Arrowhead won the meet with a 325 total, led by senior Emily Lauterbach, who shot a three-over-par 75 to capture the medal. Placing second and also advancing to the state golf tournament on October 8-9 was Cedarburg with a 349, two shots ahead of Oconomowoc.

Kew-Cats' junior Alyssa Dreher was in good shape after the front nine where she put together a pair of fours, six fives, and one six for a 44, but she struggled on the back with an eight and a nine for a 55 and a 99, which put her in a tie for 31st place.

Karissa Lange and Grace Kober both came in with 104s, Kober behind nines of 51 and 53, and Lange with a pair of 52s. Ashley Trapp was the Kew-Cats' final counter, and she had a lot of problems on the front nine, carding a 63, then battling back with a 54 on the back for a 117. Tina Bolek finished her high school career with a 61-63-124.

"I want to thank our three seniors (Kober, Trapp and Bolek). Their dedication to this program over the past four years has been incredible. Couldn't ask for a better group of loyal and hard working kids," Uhlig said. "We now have to recruit, regroup and rebuild for next season."

Uhlig announced Dreher led the Indians with a 45.0 stroke per nine-hole round, while Kober was next with 50.0, Lange, 51.7; Trapp, 54.7; and Maddy Thull, 54.8.

Dreher's low round for the year with a 42 at the Washington County Golf Course, while Kober's low score was a 43 at the Mee-Kwon Golf Course.

The state tournament was held at the University Ridge Golf Course near Verona.

Oshkosh North Sectional Team scores: 1. Arrowhead, 325; 2. Cedarburg, 349; 3. Oconomowoc, 351; 4. Beaver Dam, 362; 5. Sheboygan North/South, 369; 6. West Bend West/East, 387; 7. Hamilton, 388; 8. Kewaskum/Campbellsport, 424.

Individual Qualifiers: Kendra Swanson, Beaver Dam, 77; Grace Suter, Oconomowoc, 81; Lauren Craig, West Bend West/East, 83.

Everyone In The Cougar Field Was Chasing Winneconne

If coaches weren't aware how strong the Winneconne cross country teams are this year, they certainly found out after the Wolves posted a sweep at the annual Cougar Invitational in Campbellsport on October 4, the boys winning by 44 points and the girls by 43.

The Winneconne boys came in with 43 points, with Manitoowoc Lutheran, Campbellsport and Kewaskum second through fourth in the 11-team field with 87, 120 and 123 points.

On the girls side of the ledger, the Lady Wolves were tough to beat, scoring a very impressive 21 points based on the finish of their top five runners.

Sheboygan Falls placed second with 64 points, while the Lady Indians finished fifth with girls 120 points.

Individual winners were North Fond du Lac's Diego Charbonneau, who toured the 5,000 meters in 17 minutes and 28.62 seconds (17:28.62) and Macey Clark of Winneconne, who started a 1-2-3 Wolves finish, hitting the finish line in 20:54.18.

The KHS boys were led by sophomore Gannon Kreuser, who finished 13th overall in 18:44.19, while junior Andrew Carlton was three places back in 16th with a time of 18:51.27.

Then came senior Kyle Toth, who continues a good senior season, with an 18th place in 18:59.55, followed by Isaac Schmidt, 36th in 19:56.72, and Adam Walls, running varsity for the first time and finishing 40th in 20:14.51.

Maela Olla led the KHS girls, winding up among the top 10 runners, with a time of 22:14.49, good for ninth overall. Alyssa Butz was next in 19th with a 22:58.23, and Faith Mertzig was four spots back in 23rd with a 23:16.96.

Emma Penfield (23:43.07) and Courtney Zarda (24:18.74) counted with 31st and 36th, respectively.

Attempts to reach KHS coach Kris Evans for comments were unsuccessful.

The Indians are in Winneconne this afternoon (October 11) for the East Central Conference Meet.

Monday Night's On "Bay Watch"

By Wayne Sargent

This Week's Prime Time Monday Night Football on October 15 will feature a battle of the "Bays," starring the Green Bay Packers and the San Francisco 49ers. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:15 p.m. at Lambeau Field.

The Packers (2-2-1) are coming off a poor, sloppy performance against the Detroit Lions at Ford Field, losing 31-23, while the 49ers (1-4-0) are coming off an embarrassing loss to the Arizona Cardinals. The 49ers are without their potential star quarterback Jimmy Garappolo; he is out for the season with a torn ACL. His replacement, rookie quarterback C. J. Beathard, and company have been plagued by injury and had five turnovers in the loss to Arizona.

A frustrated and at times struggling performance by Aaron Rodgers, along with the help of the Lions defense, fumbled twice. However he still managed to throw for 442 yards and three touchdowns. Rodgers, playing against a weak defensive front line of the Lions had more than ample time to toss the ball downfield only to be held back by the Lions tough secondary. The Packers entire team, except for Devonte Adams, were riddled with misplays and frustrating senseless penalties. Dependable, long-time place kicker Mason Crosby had the worst game of his career, missing four out of five field goals and one for an extra point.

The Lions (2-3-0) star quarterback, Matthew Stafford, threw for only 183 yards and two touchdowns. Legendary star running back Lagarrett Blount easily powered himself in for two more touchdowns setting up the win for the Lions.

Now the San Francisco 49ers are coming to Lambeau Field for a Monday Night battle of the "Bays." The 49ers (1-4-0) are sitting in last place in the NFC West tied with the Arizona Cardinals.

These teams have met just 66 times including seven playoff appearances. They played their first game on November 26, 1950, with the Packers winning 25-21. The last meeting between them was on October 4, 2015, with the Packers winning 17-3. The Packers lead the series 35-30-1.

This weeks "Ultimate" pick have the Packers coming out on top 35-9.

Thull Makes His Collegiate Debut

Sidelined by a leg injury for the team's first four games, Brandon Thull, Kewaskum's all-time leading rusher and touchdown scorer, saw his first action for the South Dakota Coyotes this past Saturday, and his performance is likely to earn him more offensive carries in the future.

Thull, a 185-pound running back, carried the ball nine times for 37 yards, helping SDU to a 35-28 victory over Missouri State. Thull averaged 4.1 yards per carry. His longest run was an 18-yard gallop.

The Coyotes racked up 513 yards of offense, while the defense forced three turnovers and put up a goal-line stand in the closing minutes to secure the victory vs. the 24th ranked NCAA II team.

Currently, the Coyotes are 2-0 in The Summit League and 3-2 overall. This Saturday, SDU will host Northern Iowa at the UNI Dome for a 6 p.m. showdown.

Herriges Hopes To Help Pioneer Hoops Squad

After getting her feet wet the first year, former KHS basketball standout Hailey Herriges is looking for more playing time this winter as a guard/forward on the Carroll University women's basketball team.

A year ago, the Pioneers finished 5-11 in conference action and 8-17 overall, with Herriges seeing an average of 11 minutes per game in 24 appearances. She scored 2.0 points per games and contributed 1.2 rebounds.

Carroll opens play on November 20, playing at MSOE (Milwaukee School of Engineering) against her former teammate, Mikayla Dogs.

MSOE Women Win
Three Straight Soccer Matches

The MSOE Lady Raiders had a good week, winning all three of its matches to improve its season record to 7-7, including a 4-2 mark in the Northern Athletics Collegiate Conference.

First MSOE defeated Alverno 10-0 on September 28, and next it posted a 4-1 win over Marian University on October 3, and finally the Lady Raiders shut out Wisconsin Lutheran in a close 1-0 match that saw Jeray Riffel of MSOE go up against her former KHS teammate, Lizzy Bauer.

Against Alverno, Riffel was at her best, getting off seven shots, scoring a pair of goals and contributing three assists in just 31 minutes of play.

In the win over Marian, Riffel got off six shots, scoring one goal. Against Wisconsin Lutheran, she went scoreless in six attempt while playing all 90 minutes.

Bauer, a sophomore, played 27 minutes and did not score.

No Tie This Time: Indian Kickers Secure Big Win Over Berlin

By Judy Harlow

Not everyone was home glued to their television sets, watching the Milwaukee Brewers in game one of their playoff series against Colorado on the night of October 4.

A small but enthusiastic bunch of Kewaskum High students turned out to cheer on the Indian boys' soccer team in its homecoming game against Berlin at the "Doc" Mitchell Athletic Complex, and their energy helped to lift the Indians to a 4-1 victory.

"I love it," KHS coach John Kenworthy said after the victory, pointing out there was also a home volleyball match going on at the same time, with students going back and forth between the two events. "We had a built-in fan base, and it's nice we can do something to keep them excited."

This was the first of the three-game playoff series for the Indians in the East Central Conference. The top four play each other to determine final conference positions, while the Indians are trying to win all their matches against the other three schools to maintain a hold on fifth place and secure the first winning season in school history.

The two squads ended in a 3-3 deadlock in their regular-season meeting, but this time the host Indians were determined to secure the win. The Indians made an early statement when senior Hunter Kuehl scored an unassisted goal at 21:05.

Berlin did tie the score six minutes later by Isaiah Fredenburg, but Will Jens, another of the KHS senior standouts, beat the Berlin keeper at 34:03, with a nifty assist from Isaiah Cochran.

"I was worried (about the game)," Kenworthy said, referring to a recent letdown just before the end of the first half and the final five and a half minutes of the second half against Kettle Moraine Lutheran.

There was no letdown this time, not at the end of either half.

After the break, both teams had opportunities but defenders stepped in to break up the plays or the shots were off the mark. Pushing especially hard from the right side was Cochran, who had the speed and agility to get around and past the defender on him. On one play in the 68th minute, Cochran drilled the ball toward the net when Berlin's keeper, Jaden Schubert, managed to leap high and get a hand on it and knock it away.

The Berlin keeper was not successful 11 minutes later when Matt Krautkramer came up from the midfield to score from close range, with Kuehl providing the assist. Now with the score 3-1, Kenworthy could breathe a little easier but there were some anxious moments when frustrations were mounting for the visitors. Two of them were eventually "carded" for unsportsmanlike conduct.

Kewaskum players stayed focused on the task at hand and refused the budge in the final minutes, securing the important victory.

"I really want them to push through and play a complete 90-minute game," Kenworthy said. "Our defense held together very nicely ... Brenden (Rice, goalkeeper) had a great game ... Hunter Kuehl had a great game at the top."

Kenworthy also noted "We relied on Hunter Schmitt to control things and keep people calmed down."

Jens, who has been on the field for 1,189 minutes in the 21 games he has played in, currently leads the team in scoring with 29 points behind nine goals and 11 assists; Cochran 25 points on 11 goals and three assists, while Hunter Kuehl has 16 points on five goals and six assists. Krautkramer is next with 13 points on six goals and one assist.

The left-footed Rice has given up 2.41 goals per game. He currently has 180 saves on the season.

After a home game against Winneconne on October 9, the Indians, currently 10-8-3, travel to Campbellsport this afternoon (October 11) to play the Cougars at 4 p.m.

The eighth grade Gridiron Indians offense exploded for seven touchdowns on the day en route to a 45-14 win against Slinger to improve to 4-1 on the season and with the win clinched a wildcard playoff spot in the AAYFL Playoffs that are set to begin on Saturday, Oct. 20.

Slinger opened the scoring in the first quarter after capping off a nice drive with a six yard touchdown run and made the two-point kick to make it 8-0. The Indians finally got on the board in the second quarter when quarterback Ryan Cook hooked up with tight end Hunter Loser for a great 17 yard touchdown catch and kicker Carson Rolf made the two-point kick to tie the score at 8-8. Later in the quarter quarterback Derek May took a quarterback sneak one yard for a touchdown, bringing the score at halftime to 14-8.

The Indians got the ball to start the second half and marched it right down the field with the drive being finished off with a nine-yard touchdown run by running back Bradyn Donath. There was a bad snap on the two-point kick attempt but Cook was able to run it in for the extra point making the score 21-8.

On the ensuing kickoff Loser hit a Slinger player forcing a fumble that was recovered by Vance McLean. The Indians took advantage of the good field position and again marched down the field and finishing the drive off with a 10 yard touchdown run by running back Donovan Zillmer to make the score 27-8.

On Slinger's first play of their next drive they dropped back to pass but it was intercepted by May and the Indians were in business again. This drive ended with another Cook to Loser connection, this time for 22 yards making it 33-8.

In the beginning of the fourth quarter Slinger broke free for a 66 yard touchdown run making the score 33-14. Once again though the Indians answered right back with yet another Cook to Loser hook up, this time covering 45 yards making the score 39-14.

Loser then got in on the action defensively ripping the ball away from a Slinger runner, giving the Indians another possession. He finished his great day taking a rushing attempt 39 yards for a touchdown finishing the scoring for the day and making it 45-14.

Loser finished the day with four catches for 133 yards and three touchdowns, two carries for 44 yards and a touchdown, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Cook was a perfect nine for nine throwing the ball for 232 yards and three touchdown passes. Other receivers were McLean with three catches for 62 yards, Rolf with one catch for 26 yards and Zillmer had one catch for 11 yards.

The ground game was shared equally by Zillmer and Donath who both finished with the exact same 12 carries for 68 yards and a touchdown apiece. The Offensive Line made up of a combination of Patrick Simpson, Antoine Coleman, Cale Fedorski, Jessiah Martinson, Mason Stoffel, Sam Gauthier and Adrian Brinker did a great job all day of pass protection and opening up some nice holes for the running backs.

The seventh grade Indians lost their game 35-0. They just could not get anything going on offense. Dylan Soyk had some hard running, Nicholas Deheck had a 19 yard run, and Bailey Ralph had a 23 yard run, but the Indians could not get into the end zone.

On defense, Deheck and Penfield had some good tackles. Matthew Oelhafen had a tackle for a loss, and Soyk had a quarterback sack.

The sixth grade also had trouble getting going on offense. A couple of costly fumbles also hurt them in their 24-8 loss on Saturday. The lone score of the day was made by Andrew Reichert on a 33 yard run. Brent Krejcarek caught a 15 yard pass and Landon Daniel caught one of 24 yards.

Carter Fell was busy on defense. He had a fumble recovery, a sack, and was in on quite a few tackles. Corbin Dexter had a sack, and Krejcarek had a fumble recovery.

Our fifth grade Indians continue to improve. They have yet to get a victory, but they are getting better every week. Touchdowns were scored by Max Sadowniko, Alex Bayer, and Johnny Hooker. Other notables on offense were Eli Ogi, Kingston Grisolono, and Chase Cook.

The defense had a rough first half, but got it together and did not allow Slinger to score any points in the second half. Carson Anderson, Layton Dexter and Gabe Holupka all had several tackles on the day. The final score of their game was 30-19.

This Saturday the Indians are at home again against Mukwonago Blue. Games start at 9 a.m. Please come out and cheer on the teams.
