WTMJ Radio Cares About 9/11 Memorial

By Anne Trautner

Plans for the Wisconsin 9/11 Memorial continue to progress, and the initiative is gaining momentum along the way.

WTMJ Radio out of Milwaukee has selected the memorial as the focus of its WTMJ Cares program. The memorial planned for Kewaskum is being highlighted on the radio station from October 8 through November 2. The goal is to raise $40,000 for the memorial.

Over the last three years, the WTMJ Cares program has highlighted things such as the Honor Flight and raised money for local charities. Staff members take turns choosing a cause to promote.

When it was time for Executive Producer Erik Bilstad to select a cause, he knew right away he wanted to publicize the Wisconsin 9/11 Memorial in Kewaskum.

Supervisor Resigns From County Board

– William Blanchard Says He was Forced To Resign

By Anne Trautner

For the second time this year, the people of Farmington have lost a supervisor to represent them on the Washington County Board.

William Blanchard was appointed supervisor of District 11 on August 8. The position had become open in July after Michael Parsons resigned because he had moved outside the district.

On October 4, William Blanchard resigned from the position. In his letter of resignation, he stated that he was being forced to resign “because my mentally ill daughter is receiving services from Washington County.”

The letter states, “Over the past few weeks, I have been subjected to harassing calls and threats to resign or else... Why am I being forced to resign?”

Blanchard has not been found of any wrongdoing.

The Washington County Board of Supervisors met in closed session on October 10 to review the circumstances surrounding Blanchard’s resignation.

The Board of Supervisors signed a letter that states, “After reviewing this matter it is our conclusion that Mr. Blanchard’s resignation was made freely, voluntarily and knowingly after consultation with his own legal counsel and was not the product of intimidation, harassment, or threats of any kind or nature.”

Blanchard maintains that he was forced to resign.

“At this point, I really have no idea of what happened. And I’m pretty shocked and dismayed,” Blanchard said. “Essentially I was forced to resign, not because I had done anything wrong or unethical, but because my daughter is receiving services.”

Blanchard would have to recuse himself from voting on any matters that affected his daughter. Blanchard and his wife have three children who they adopted from Haiti about five years ago.

Blanchard said he and his attorney initially met with the county attorney and the department head for Human Services about potential perceived issues of conflict.

Blanchard went before the Washington County Ethics Board, which determined there was a conflict of interest for Blanchard to remain a member of the Washington County Board of Supervisors. The ethics board recommended that Blanchard resign from his position as a county supervisor.

The recommendation was based on current circumstances and not based on any wrongdoing or ethical violation.

“The unfortunate part of the story is there would have been so many different departments that would have been impacted that he basically would be recusing himself from as many as 50 percent of the issues that the county board takes under consideration for public policy issues,” County Administrator Josh Schoemann said.

OBITUARIES

Frank M. King

Frank Michael King, 69, of Kewaskum, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, October 10, 2018.

Frank was born on July 15, 1949, in Fond du Lac, the son of Clarence and Ursula (nee Fleischman) King.

On December 11, 1976, he was united in marriage to Jane Hintz at St. John of God Catholic Church in the town of Farmington.

Frank was a member of Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Kewaskum. He took great pride in working for the phone company for many years. People always knew Frank was around by his hearty laugh. He loved the game of golf and was a member at Hon-E-Kor Country Club in Kewaskum. Above all else, Frank loved his family and his grandchildren. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him especially his family and many friends.

Those Frank leaves behind to cherish his memory include his wife, Jane; three children, Michael King, Amber (Andrew) Bingen, and Griffin King; two grandchildren, Lucas and Lauren Bingen; his mother, Ursula King; five siblings, Phyllis (Elton) Zuehlke, Jo Ann (James) Valle, Julie King, Mary King, and Patrick King; his mother-in-law, Marie Hintz; a brother-in-law, Ronald Hintz; a sister-in-law, Sue Helminger; other relatives and friends.

Frank was preceded in death by his father; his father-in-law, Ralph Hintz; a brother-in-law, James Helminger; and his grandparents, Esther and Art Fleischman.

A Mass of Christian Burial for Frank was held at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, October 16, 2018, at Holy Trinity Catholic Church, 331 Main Street, in Kewaskum with Rev. Jacob Strand officiating.

A private burial took place on Wednesday at Holy Trinity Cemetery in Kewaskum.

Frank's family greeted relatives and friends at the church on Tuesday from 3 p.m. until the time of Mass.

Memorials to Holy Trinity Catholic Church are appreciated.

The Myrhum Patten Miller and Kietzer Funeral Home was entrusted with Frank's arrangements. Additional information and guest book may be found at www.myrhum-patten.com.

High School Students To Compete In Countywide Anti-Drug Contest

Students from different high schools in Washington County are preparing to face each other once again in this year's Anti-Drug Competition.

The competition will be open to all Washington County high schools. This year's competition will be an anti-marijuana abuse theme. Student presentations and judging are expected to take place in May 2019.

The program is intended to be an ongoing, student-led anti-drug competition that unites the area high schools and students in the fight against drug abuse.

The program is modeled after a similar one currently in use in the Denver, Colorado area and was introduced to Washington County high schools by Ali Krueger, who is the Washington County Victim Witness Coordinator, and Detective Mark Sette of the Washington County Sheriff's Office.

The Washington County program started three years ago with students from various high schools coming up with an overall anti-drug theme that would carry through year after year. The winning anti-drug theme was presented in spring 2017 by Slinger High School Students who are part of their S.A.D.D. (Students Against Destructive Decisions) group.

Slinger's winning theme was the "SADD TRUTHS" about illegal drug use. Much like the S.A.D.D. acronym, the word "T.R.U.T.H.S." was also an acronym for "To Resist Using The Harmful Substances." The theme focused on the "SADD TRUTHS" and sobering outcomes of illegal drug use and abuse.

The 2017-18 school year was the first year that student competitors were asked to come up with a more involved anti-drug project. The project theme was anti-opiate abuse. All competitors were asked to incorporate the "SADD TRUTHS" theme into their project if possible.

The projects are intended to be 100 percent student-led, and there are no limits set on what students can present. It was left to the individual schools to decide if projects would be part of a curriculum, extracurricular, or whether or not they would be part of groups such as S.A.D.D. or Peers 4 Peers.

Last spring, students from several Washington County high schools participated in the second "leg" of the Washington County Anti-Drug Competition at the West Bend Mutual Prairie Center.

The Slinger, Germantown and Kewaskum high schools sent student teams to present their projects to a panel of judges. The judges for the competition were: Washington County Circuit Court Judge Todd Martens; Washington County District Attorney Mark Bensen; Lt. Paul Buth, Washington Multi-Jurisdictional Drug Enforcement Group; Attorney John Best, Best Law of West Bend; and Jessica Geschke, president of Stop Heroin

Now.

When the presentations were completed, the judges deliberated and selected Slinger High School as the winner of the 2018 Anti-Opiate competition.

The following projects were presented in the competition:

Slinger: A departure from the "same old" rhetoric about the evils of drugs and the negative sides of opiate abuse. Instead, a call to action and a plan with new ideas to bring awareness to all students about opiate abuse in a positive, engaged, and informative manner.

Germantown: An artistic video presentation documenting and chronicling the life of an opiate addict in long term recovery. A well done and impressive video presentation that documents the struggles of a person in recovery and a look at the difficult life that led the individual to a life of drugs and their journey to recovery.

Kewaskum: A student-led anti-opiate effort that students took to students with a well thought out plan that brought engagement of all grades throughout the entire student body. Students engaged other students from all high school grades by coming up with an in-school competition where the various grades competed against each other by earned points through knowledge, participation, drug trivia, etc. The competition took place during lunch, which led to a very high percentage of student involvement (the sophomore class took the scoring honors within the Kewaskum High School).

Sette and Krueger appreciate the efforts made by the students, teaching staff, judges and West Bend Mutual Insurance in this important community event.

"We look forward to continuing to work with the students in our communities working toward a drug-free life," Sette said.

"I have interviewed Gordy Haberman several times over the years," Bilstad said. "I happened to bump into Gordy at a station event, and he said they were moving forward with this memorial."

Bilstad knew what the memorial meant. Haberman, a Farmington resident, lost his daughter Andrea Haberman in the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001. To remember Andrea Haberman and the nearly 3,000 people killed that fateful day, a memorial is being built in Kewaskum.

Haberman told Bilstad about how so many different groups had gotten behind the project. Local businesses, residents in Kewaskum, residents outside of Kewaskum, and folks in New York were all supporting the memorial.

"I just found that very compelling. I found that idea of a small village in Washington County to be able to create this memorial because of all these different people coming together, it spoke to me. It is a story within itself," Bilstad said.

Bilstad has interviewed a variety a people about the memorial.

He has spoken with welders who were at Ground Zero. He interviewed Kewaskum High School students. He is talking to education experts in New York. He is interviewing a Gold Star father, local business leaders and lawmakers.

"There are so many different people who are tied to this memorial in some way. That's what makes it so special. It is just remarkable to me," Bilstad said.

The memorial will serve as a place to reflect on and learn from the events of September 11, 2001. I will be located in front of the Kewaskum Village Annex building on Fond du Lac Avenue, will be centered around a steel beam recovered from the World Trade Center.

"It helps you get some perspective because you see this giant chunk of steel, and you realize that was just a tiny, miniscule piece of the overall tower," Bilstad said.

The program has gotten positive feedback already. The station even received a phone call from someone who offered the use of a crane to construct the memorial.

"This memorial and what it means, really is a phenomenal thing," Bilstad said.

Area Residents Participate In 9/11 Stair Climb

By Anne Trautner

On September 22, people remembered those who had lost their lives at Ground Zero on September 11, 2001.

Four firefighters from Kewaskum were among those who did the stair climb. Andrew Dahlberg, Dave Kletti, Olivia Landowski and Stephanie Martin all took part in the stair climb held at Lambeau Field this year.

"It was a pretty neat thing to do. It gave you time to reflect on the men and women who went up the stairs in New York. What we did was nothing compared to what they did," Kletti said.

The event held this year started with an opening ceremony and speakers. Then the close to 3,000 stair climbers filed into Lambeau Field as bagpipes played somber music.

It was not a race. It was a memorial climb.

The Stair climbers walked up and down the steps of Lambeau Field, climbing what was equivalent to 110 flights.

As they climbed, participants passed signs that showed the timeline of September 11, 2001.

Dahlberg and Kletti did their best to train.

"We stepped onto the back of the fire trucks over and over again, because it's a different kind of motion," Dahlberg said. "doing," Kletti said.

It wasn't just firefighters who did the stair climb last month. Roger Wilson and his friend Steve Mueller also took part in the event at Lambeau Field in September.

"I'm just an accountant. I'm just a guy. These were heroes," Wilson said.

Each person who participated received the badge of a firefighter who had lost his or her life on September 11, 2001.

Roger Wilson, who serves on the 9/11 Memorial Committee in Kewaskum, carried the badge of Jonathan L. Ielpi, a firefighter for Squad 288.

Jonathan Ielpi was 29. He left behind a wife and two sons. He father, Lee Ielpi, retired from the fire department in 1996.

"He was a hero," Wilson said.

After returning to Kewaskum, Wilson told Gordon Haberman the name of the firefighter he had climbed for.

It was a name that Haberman knew. Haberman, a Farmington resident who lost his daughter Andrea in the attacks on the World Trade Center, has gotten to know Lee Ielpi because of 9/11.

"That is quite a coincidence," Wilson said.

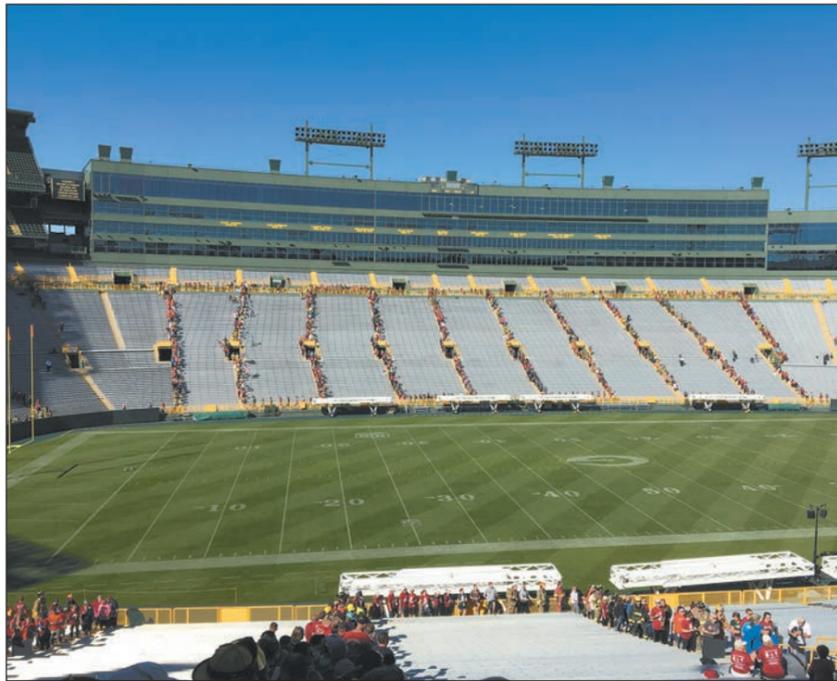

"I no longer believe in coincidences," Haberman replied.

Money raised at the event went to the National Fallen Firefighters Association.

Cpl. Albert Theusch, of Drew Field, Tampa, Florida, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jac. Theusch of Route 1, Kewaskum, has been promoted to sergeant.

Miss Ruth Reysen of the Town of Auburn received a letter from her fiancé, Cpl. T. Alphonse Schladweiler, of Kewaskum route, who is now stationed in Australia, where he has recovered from malaria. Cpl. Schladweiler was at the fighting front in New Guinea before contracting the illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Krautkramer of Route 3, Kewaskum, received a card on Thursday morning of this week, informing them that their son, Pfc. Ralph Krautkramer of the U.S. Marine Corps, arrived safely at an overseas base. They have not yet learned the location. Before being sent overseas, Pfc. Krautkramer was stationed at the Bombardier and Gunner school, El Centro, California, where he trained as a tail gunner in an airplane. Ralph has a sister, 2nd Lt. Jeanette Krautkramer of the Army nurses corp stationed in Africa.

Officers elected recently for student government in the grammar room of the Kewaskum school were: President Alice Backhaus; Vice President John Tessler, and Secretary-Treasurer Barbara Schaefer.

It was erroneously reported 50 years ago (mentioned in last week's column) that a son had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Zehren, when in fact, the baby was a girl. (Sorry, Judy...I just wrote down what was in the column 50 years ago, thinking it was David...his name was on the sign at Shefond. Sorry David...)

On Tuesday afternoon, at about 5:30, a fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the barn and granary owned by William Miller on North Fond du Lac Avenue, in this village. Shortly after Arthur Eichstedt, a tenant, had arrived home from the village, and noticed flames coming out of the roof of the building. The fire spread so rapidly, that hopes of saving the building were out of the question. Besides the barn, seven tons of hay, straw stack, corn stalks, one single harness and about 300 bushels of oats were also destroyed. The total loss is estimated at about $1,500. The home guards of the village marched to the scene of the fire in the evening and helped to quench the flames, and made themselves generally useful in aiding the fire department.

R.L. Raymond, a farmer living at Campbellsport, delivered to Farrell & Meixensperger for shipment Monday, a hog weighing 985 pounds. This was the largest hog ever delivered at Campbellsport. P.D. Nigh, another farmer, delivered a bull weighing 2,000 pounds. These comprised part of a three-car shipment made by the Campbellsport buyers Monday.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kilian Flasch last week at St. Kilian.

Facts And Figures About Cancer

Many things can cause cancer. Some people may be born with genetic mutations that increase their risk for certain cancers, while others make lifestyle choices, such as smoking tobacco, that make them more vulnerable. Certain environmental factors also may put people at risk of developing cancer.

To understand the relationship between cancer and the environment, it helps to understand certain things about the disease.

Agency for Research on Cancer aims to identify causes of cancer. The IARC classification system, in which potential cancer-causing substances are categorized into one of five groups, is the most widely used system in the world.

Does Exposure To A Carcinogen Guarantee I Will Get Cancer?

Exposure to a carcinogen does not guarantee a person will get cancer. The National Cancer Institute notes that many factors influence if a person exposed to a carcinogen will get cancer. These factors include an individual's genetic background as well as the amount and duration of his or her exposure to the carcinogen.

Are Some People More At Risk Due To Environmental Carcinogens?

Cancers caused by involuntary exposure to environmental carcinogens are more likely to affect certain people than others. Those who are at greater risk include people who work in certain industries and are exposed to certain environmental carcinogens on the job.

Are Environmental Carcinogens Responsible For Most Cancers?

The NCI notes that the precise causes of most cancers are unknown, so it's impossible to say most cancers are a byproduct of exposure to environmental carcinogens. Estimates from researchers even vary widely, with some researchers suggesting environmental carcinogens are responsible for less than 4 percent of all cancer diagnoses while others claim nearly one in five cancers can be attributed to environmental exposures.

Is There A List Of Environmental Carcinogens?

The IARC and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' National Toxicology Program have developed lists of substances that scientific evidence has shown are known or reasonably anticipated environmental carcinogens. Those lists can be accessed at www.iarc.fr and www.ntp.niehs.nih.gov.

What Is A Carcinogen?

Substances that are known to cause cancer are referred to as "carcinogens." Extensive research is conducted before something is classified as a carcinogen. The American Cancer Society notes that it is unethical to test a substance by exposing human beings to it, so other types of tests, including lab tests on cell cultures and animals, are conducted to determine if something is a carcinogen.

Studies in people that look at human populations and what they might have been exposed to also are conducted. However, because people are exposed to so many substances at any given time, it can be hard to connect any particular exposure to cancer.

KHS Key Club Offers Free Leaf Raking For Senior Citizens

Although the fall leaves are beautiful on the trees, they can leave a real mess in your yard. The Kewaskum High School Key Club would like to help area senior citizens with this problem by offering free leaf raking Tuesday, Oct. 30, through Thursday, Nov. 1.

"Each year the Key Club members look forward to this event. They are grateful they can give back to their community," said Stacy La Ronge, Key Club advisor.

Students will arrive at homes around 3 p.m. with rakes in hand to collect and remove the leaves during the three days. Any senior living within the Village of Kewaskum can request to have their yard raked by calling 262-626-3105, extension 4253.

The Crooked Trails Snowmobile Club recently made donations of $100 each to three area people. The first went to a local friend and sponsor who is fighting leukemia. The second $100 went to Nicole Braatz's kidney benefit. The final donation was made to Austin Tzbiatowski, a young high school student fighting leukemia. The club's thoughts are with you all. These donations were made possible by the sponsors and those who attend the annual Corn roast. The big success of this event allows the snowmobile club to continue donating to worthy area residents.

Information On Obtaining An ID To Vote In Fall Election

The Wisconsin 2018 fall election is weeks away and the Wisconsin Department of Transportation Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) wants to be sure people know how to obtain identification, free of charge, that is valid for voting.

Most persons already have valid identification for voting purposes (driver license, identification card, military or student ID card, etc.). There is no separate "voter ID." Anyone unsure if their identification meets the requirements should visit the Wisconsin Elections Commission website to check.

For persons who need identification to show at the polls for voting, DMV offers free Wisconsin IDs and has a process, called Voter ID Petition Process, if the required documents needed for an ID are not readily available. This process, available free of charge, can be used to quickly obtain a receipt valid to take to the polls for voting while the remaining documents or verifications are obtained. A list of the required documents is available at wisconsin-dmv.gov.

Anyone with questions related to obtaining an ID to vote should call DMV's Voter ID hotline at (844) 588-1069. Any questions regarding voter eligibility, poll locations, voter registration information or other election information, should be directed to the Wisconsin Elections Commission at <https://elections.wi.gov/>.

Start now at wisconsin-dmv.gov or at a local DMV Customer Service Center. To find a DMV, check hours, services and wait times, visit wisconsin-dmv.gov/centers.

Campbellsport Halloween Caper Around The Corner

The 25th annual Halloween Caper hosted by the Campbellsport Area Chamber of Commerce (CACC) is just around the corner. It will be held on Friday, Oct. 26, at Campbellsport Elementary School and run from 5 p.m.-9 p.m.

The Caper is such a unique event that no matter the age, from toddlers and kids to tweens and teens to parents and grandparents, all will have a spooktacular time. Events vary widely but all will have a Halloween theme.

The traditional hay rides, courtesy of the Campbellsport FFA alumni, will run from 5:30 p.m. - 9 p.m. The hay wagons will take you through town and possibly a few stops along the way.

The Campbellsport 4-H Club is again sponsoring a craft area where children can make Halloween decorations. The craft tables will be open from 5:30 p.m.-8 p.m.

Pumpkin decorating is back at the craft area this year. You can take a pumpkin, while supplies last, and paint it with a scary face or whatever you desire and then take it home with you to display at your house.

Face painting is always popular and is sponsored by the Campbellsport Chamber of Commerce. This activity also runs from 5:30 p.m.-8 p.m.

The balloon lady will be at the Caper again this year. She has been so popular that they keep asking her to come back. She will be making balloon animals and creations from 5:30 p.m.-7:30 p.m.

A tasty menu of seasonal good eats will again be available for everyone. It will feature items like hot dogs, walking tacos, pizza from Ty's Place, cotton candy, and much more. A wonderful selection of food will be available for purchase starting at 5 p.m.

For those who love to play games, National Exchange Bank, the Campbellsport Boy Scouts and the Campbellsport Fire Department Auxiliary will have oodles of games for all area children. The games will run from 5:30 p.m.-8 p.m.

The True Value Bouncy House will be set up in the gym. This always provides a lot of fun for the youngsters, and even some young-at-heart.

Costumes are encouraged for children and adults to add to the Halloween spirit. A children and adult costume parade and costume contest will be held at 6:30 p.m. The top costumes will receive a prize.

Mood music will be provided. The music will run from 5 p.m.-8 p.m.

You will again be able to have your children's fingerprints taken and put on a card that you keep in case of an emergency. This will be sponsored by the Campbellsport Police Department and Fond du Lac Sheriff's Department.

Everyone will be able to capture this fun event on film. The Chamber of Commerce is setting up a pretty fall scene where a chamber member will take pictures of your children and/or family. You will then be able to go to the chamber's Facebook page to download these photos. If you have your camera along, you can take your own photo.

The fee to get into the Caper is $5 per person; children under three years old will be free. For more information, please visit the chamber's Facebook page or website.

This is a great family event loaded with all kinds of Halloween fun. You will have so much to do, you won't know where to go first!

If you have never attended this fun-filled event, you have to get to the Halloween Caper. It is a great time for the whole family!

If you have been to the Caper before, don't forget to mark your calendar for Friday, Oct. 26. You don't want to miss all the fun!

Key Club Trick Or Treats For UNICEF

By Anne Trautner

Trick or treating for the UNICEF Eliminate Project has been a long-standing tradition for the Kewaskum High School Key Club.

Last year the club raised nearly $646. The proud tradition continues this year as club members knock on community doors Saturday, Oct. 27, from 5 to 7 p.m., asking for help preventing maternal and neonatal tetanus (MNT).

Every 15 minutes, a newborn baby dies from tetanus. For a small donation, a woman will receive the three shots necessary to protect her and her future newborn from this deadly and painful disease.

Since 2010, thanks to the contributions of many, 25 countries have eliminated MNT, but there is more work to be done. Please support the students' efforts and the health of women and infants by making a donation.

Washington County Caregiver Coalition Offers Caregiver Day Of Renewal

The Washington County Caregiver Coalition wants to give community caregivers a break from caregiving by offering them a Day of Renewal. Family Caregivers frequently give their time, their strength, their energy, their ALL. Caregivers must find time to take care of themselves and their own health to be effective caregivers to those they love.

This day of relaxation and rejuvenation for family caregivers will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 6, from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. at Cedar Valley Retreat Center, 5349 County Road D, West Bend.

Caregivers can take part in a number of activities including chair massages, reflexology, mini-facials for men and women, adult coloring pages, mini-manicures, essential oils, paint rocks, or give wood burning a try.

Enjoy the beautiful Cedar Valley hospitality and delicious buffet lunch. The day will conclude with caregivers participating in "Memories in the Making," a watercolor paint program with program coordinator Nancy Armitage, Alzheimer's Association. Door prizes will be awarded at the conclusion of the event.

Pre-registration is required on a first come first served basis. RSVP by October 23. There is no cost to attend, however limited space is available. Limited caregiver support funding is available to cover the cost of respite services so caregivers can attend the event. For further information call Tammy D. or Mona at Aging & Disability Resource Center of Washington County 262-335-4497.

Continued From... Supervisor Resigns From County Board

– William Blanchard Says He was Forced To Resign

Because Blanchard was a county supervisor, some of the services for his daughter would have to be outsourced, which would cost the county extra money.

“Due to my place on the County Board, her services would have to be outsourced to another county and would cause Washington County to incur additional costs of between $4,000 and $20,000. I would have been willing to forego my salary to cover the additional expenses but wasn’t given that opportunity,” Blanchard wrote in an email to other county supervisors on October 3.

Blanchard said he was given no choice but to resign.

“I was called last Monday, Oct. 1, by County Board Chairman Don Kriefall, and told in no uncertain terms, that either I submit my letter of resignation by 4 p.m. Thursday or he would convene the board on Friday and vote me off. During that phone call I insisted I had no intention of resigning,” Blanchard said on October 11.

Blanchard has lived in Farmington for about 14 months. He previously lived in Fond du Lac County.

He holds a bachelor’s of arts degree in business administration from Lakeland College and works as an application security architect for Footlocker in Milwaukee.

He has been a volunteer firefighter for the Boltonville Fire Department for a little over a year, he said. He has not served any other office before.

“I am pretty disenfranchised with our county government at this point, and I’m especially disappointed with the other county board members. I’ve received to this date nothing from any of them. No phone calls, no emails, nothing,” Blanchard said.

There were several things he wanted to accomplish as a supervisor.

“One was to continue to work on that priority based budgeting, something I thought lined up with the rest of the board. There is a number of things I think we can cut, for example I don’t think we should be in the business of running a golf course,” he said.

“There was a number of things like that. I have to run the budget at home, and I just thought we could have done a better job,” said Blanchard, who works for Foot Locker corporate headquarters in Milwaukee.

“I think everybody here at the county certainly wishes him and his family the best,” Schoemann said.

The position will now either be filled through a new appointment by the county board or through the spring election.

The county board’s executive committee was expected to discuss how and when the position should be filled during a meeting this Tuesday, Oct. 16. The committee’s recommendation will go to the county board, which is expected to make a final decision in November.

Agnesian HealthCare Internal Medicine/Pediatrics
Physician Gives Tips On Preventing, Treating Flu

As everyone begins the transition to fall weather, many people have already been suffering through some sort of cold. From a sore throat to a stuffy nose, cough and everything in between, the first of the winter bugs are upon us. But lurking out there and not too far away is a much more menacing germ known as the flu.

If you're looking for the best medicine when it comes to the flu, your best option is prevention, according to Brenda Grass, MD, an Agnesian HealthCare internal medicine/pediatrics physician.

"The flu vaccine helps prevent you from getting the flu," Dr. Grass explains. "If you do get the flu and have had a flu shot, it can make it less severe and can keep you from spreading it to other family members, especially children under six months who are unable to get the flu vaccine."

The flu is much more dangerous for infants, young children and the elderly. These are the groups of people that have the most complications from the flu, such as pneumonia, and are more likely to be hospitalized. Sometimes these cases can even result in death.

Last year, the Centers for Disease Control & Prevention (CDC) reported 179 fatalities in the pediatric population from flu. Except for the 2009 pandemic, the 2017-2018 pediatric deaths were the highest since 2004, and 49 percent occurred in previously healthy children.

In the zero to four year age range, as many as about 60 per 100,000 are hospitalized. The earliest a child can receive the flu shot is six months of age. It's important for them to have the flu shot at this age, because a young infant can have the most complications if the flu is contracted.

"We recommend that everyone over six months of age and older get a seasonal flu vaccine each year by the end of October," according to Kim Mueller, Fond du Lac County Health department health officer/director. "However, as long as flu viruses are circulating, vaccination should continue throughout flu season, even in January or later. Keep in mind that vaccination is especially important for certain people who are high risk or who are in close contact with high risk individuals. This includes children at high risk for developing complications from flu illness, and adults who are close contacts of those children."

Flu vaccines are updated each season if necessary to protect against the influenza viruses that research indicates will be most common during the upcoming season.

Each year researchers study which strains of flu will be prevalent for that year and "match" the flu vaccine to those types. "The flu shot contains a very small amount of flu antigen," according to Dr. Grass. "When you get the flu vaccine, your body recognizes the flu virus or antigen as a foreign trespasser and will produce antibodies to it. The next time your body encounters the flu virus it will remember, and will guard against the virus."

Along with the flu vaccine, prevention consists of good habits. "Preventing the flu is just like preventing any viral illness," Dr. Grass explains. "Good hand washing, not sharing food or drink and keeping your daily environment clean will help."

A flu virus is often passed from child to child through sneezing or coughing. The virus can also live for a short time on surfaces. This includes doorknobs, toys, pens or pencils, keyboards, phones and tablets, and countertops. It can also be passed through shared eating utensils and drinking. A child can get a flu virus by touching something that was touched by an infected person, and then touching his or her mouth, nose or eyes.

The flu can be packaged in various symptoms.

"Many signs of the flu can mimic other viruses," says Dr. Grass. "Children will typically have fevers and chills, cough, sore throat, fatigue, generalized muscle aches, headache and congestion, and sometimes, diarrhea. It can sometimes be difficult to differentiate the flu from another virus. However, the flu can lead to complications, like pneumonia or seizures in children."

If you suspect your child has the flu, you should take them to see their health care provider in the first 48 hours.

"If the flu is diagnosed in this time range, Tamiflu, an antiviral agent, can be prescribed and can sometimes shorten the course of the flu illness," according to Dr. Grass. "Supportive care is also important for taking care of a child with the flu at home. It's helpful to give them Motrin or Tylenol to help reduce fever, and also make sure they are receiving plenty of fluids so the child does not get dehydrated. The general rule is to stay home from school until fever free for at least 24 hours without the use of fever-reducing medication."

As Deer Activity Goes Up, Motorists Reminded To Slow Down, Be Alert

Over the next couple months, motorists across Wisconsin will need to be especially alert for the potential of deer darting across roadways. Traffic safety officials with the Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) note that deer/vehicle crashes typically peak during October and November as bucks pursue potential mates.

"The best advice for motorists to protect themselves and avoid hitting a deer is to buckle up, slow down and carefully scan the road ahead," David Pabst, director of WisDOT's Bureau of Transportation safety said. "Deer can be active any time of day, but especially around dusk and dawn. And if you see one deer cross your path, expect more to follow."

Last year, Wisconsin law enforcement agencies reported 20,521 crashes between deer and motor vehicles resulting in 641 injuries and nine fatalities (six of the fatalities were motorcyclists). Dane County had the most crashes with 962, followed by Waukesha County with 872 and Manitowoc County with 798. In Kewaunee, Oconto, and Shawano counties, more than half of all reported crashes in 2017 involved deer. A county-by-county breakdown of deer/vehicle crashes in Wisconsin last year is available on the WisDOT website.

If a collision with a deer is unavoidable, traffic safety officials say the safest option is to stay in your lane and brake firmly. "If you swerve suddenly, you can lose control, resulting in a more serious crash with another vehicle or a stationary object like a tree or utility pole," Pabst said.

The one exception to the "don't swerve" recommendation applies to motorcyclists. Motorcyclists should slow down, brake firmly and swerve if necessary to avoid hitting the deer. Motorcyclists should still try to stay within their driving lane to avoid hitting other vehicles or objects.

WisDOT offers the following safety tips:

- Slow down, eliminate distractions, and make sure all vehicle occupants are buckled up.

- If you see a deer, reduce speed and blow your horn with one long blast to frighten it away.

If a collision with a deer is unavoidable:

- Brake firmly. Stay in your lane.

- Avoid sudden swerving which can cause you to lose control of your vehicle and result in a more serious crash.

If you do hit a deer:

- Get your vehicle safely off the road if possible. Turn on the emergency flashers and call law enforcement. Be prepared to describe your specific location.

- Generally, it's safest to stay buckled-up inside your vehicle. Walking along a highway is always dangerous as you could be struck by another vehicle.

- Don't attempt to move an injured deer.

Dundee Car Show Proves Cars Are Labor Of Love For Owners

By Gay Griesbach

The purr and gutter of vintage engines was matched by music from the same era as cars filed into the Dundee Sportsmen's grounds for the sixth annual Fall Color Car and Craft Show on Saturday, Oct. 13.

From sleek and shiny to rust-bucket works in progress, the show hosted 13 classes of vehicles dating from 1920 to the present.

Fans of a tarnished past admired Nick Peters 1961 Chevy Carryall, which he bought four years ago during a vacation in Arkansas.

While the truck wasn't ready for the Concours d'elegance, everybody has to start somewhere and this was the Chevy's show debut.

When he got the truck it had been coated in red primer, something he has been trying to scrub away to reveal its military colors.

"It's old and it's ugly, but I don't have to wash it," Peters said.

Proceeds from the show, sponsored by the Dundee Sportsmen's Club and Long Lake Preservation Association, support both organizations.

DSC board member and special raffle chair Al Ramthun said the idea for a car show began when he suggested it at one of the club's annual meetings.

"They said, 'Okay, let's do it.' The rest is history," Ramthun said.

"We thought this was something different for the area," Dundee Sportsmen's Club president James Kutz said.

The first year was cold and misty and only 43 classics showed up, but Ramthun figured they were doing pretty well — lola's famous car show only brought in 20 vehicles when it began in 1972.

The second year of the Dundee show registered over 270 vehicles.

Ramthun had his own adventure with a vintage vehicle. He bought a 1949 Ford pickup truck that he described as being mainly parts and pieces. He did some work on it but sold it in 1995, before the transformation was complete.

When he saw it this year at the Dundee show, Ramthun said, "I had a little tear in my eye."

What Ramthun had started, Eric Kaufman finished.

Kaufman and a buddy bought the Ford for $1,200 while they were still in high school. It sat for several years, through marriages and kids, but eventually the Fond du Lac man bought out his partner's share.

"That gave me the spark to start working on it," Kaufman said.

The restoration was an exercise in learning by doing. Kaufman bought cherry wood from the Amish in Kingston to use for the truck bed. He planed the wood, stained and installed it. He learned the proper way to paint a truck and did all the bodywork. A mechanic by trade, he haunted car shows for parts and rebuilt the Ford 351 Cleveland engine.

The two-toned Toyota green and black body sports hobbyist license plates.

The Wisconsin Department of Motor Vehicles website states that hobbyist license plates can be used for street modified or rebuilt vehicles at least 20 years old. Collector license plates are issued to those who have vehicles that are at least 20 years old and have an unaltered body. Antique vehicle plates are for vehicles made in 1945 or earlier that are not modified or altered and are operated only for special events, vehicle maintenance or test drives.

Peters said his Chevy "moves pretty good for an old beater," but there were other cars nearby that move much faster, like Fred Severt's 2006 Corvette coupe.

Severt said his 'vette, equipped with a 500-horsepower, LS2 engine, can reach 150 mph in a quarter mile.

He's owned other

Corvettes, but this is the first he bought new and Severt uses the car for pleasure driving. The odometer reads 144,000 miles and has taken him to Florida, Colorado and places like Yellowstone and Glacier National parks.

As a United States Air Force veteran, Severt could have added a military license plate to the Daytona Sunset Orange paintjob, but he opted for adding a subtle Air Force insignia on the hood.

"I wanted to show my Air Force pride," the Kewaskum man said.

The bulk of entries were Dodge, Chevys and Fords, but Jeff Pyzyk, Grafton, is definitely feeling gemütlichkeit when he climbs behind the wheel of his 1968 Porsche 912. He had someone else do the bodywork, but rebuilt the original four-cylinder stock engine.

Bought 16 years ago, the Porsche is only part of his vintage stable — he also owns three Volkswagen Karmann Ghias, a 2007 Porsche turbo, a 1956 Volkswagen Beetle and 1989 Volkswagen Westphalia. Needless to say, he's partial to German cars. His everyday ride is a Volkswagen Golf R.

It all started with a 1962 Volkswagen Pyzyk acquired when he was 12 years old.

"We had seven acres of land and my dad let me buy the car with my own money," Pyzyk said.

The cost? $20. Ducking into the clubhouse, visitors could warm up and peruse wares from 17 vendors who brought books, wooden toys, jewelry and fall décor items.

This was the first year Thomas Scannell brought his wooden toys, folk art, trucks and farm machinery.

He started by making snowplows modeled after ones he drove before retiring from the Fond du Lac County Highway Department.

"I probably have about 25 of them," Scannell said.

Then he added milk tanker models that resembled the ones he drove, post-retirement, for Wilbur Pfeifer and Charlie Puck.

"It gives me something to do in winter," Scannell said.

The seventh annual Fall Color Car and Craft show will be held October 12, 2019.

Fideler's Badger Family Farm Opens For Visitors This Fall

By Gay Griesbach

Known for their familiar pumpkin wagons in Kewaskum and Campbellsport, the Fideler family is trying something new this autumn.

This year they are hoping customers will come to them, not only for pumpkins, but to discover more of what the rural countryside has to offer.

In addition to taking home pre-picked or U-Pick pumpkins at Fideler's Badger Family Farm, visitors can purchase mums and raspberries and take advantage of the Country Shoppe, which carries Wisconsin-made raw honey, pure maple syrup, garlic and other groceries as well as candles, scarves, pillows, wreaths and other décor housed in a restored, century-old dairy barn.

"It's all local," Jim and Linda's son, Brian Fideler said.

Hayrides highlight the autumn scenery; visitors can also enjoy delicious beverages and have face-to-face encounters cuddly goats, chickens and other livestock.

The idea for the country shop came about when the Dennis and Katey Schrauth and Brian Fideler struck up a conversation at the Campbellsport Fourth of July Picnic.

"We both have seasonal items and thought, 'why not get together?'" Katey Schrauth said.

The Schrauth's, owners of Schrauth Sweet Sensations, are offering honey, maple syrup and garlic at the fledgling country shop.

In August, Sweet Sensations held a garlic sale/open house on their parent's property, which is across the road from the Fideler farm. The number of customers who came gave the Fidelers hope that people would be willing to show up at their farm in October.

They gathered a dozen vendors and opened the shop a few weeks ago.

"Our goal is to keep the market here," Katey Schrauth said.

When Jim Fideler moved to the area from South Dakota in 1974, he bought 76 acres from the elder Joe Mueller, whose home farm is across the road. That farm now belongs to Mark and Kim Mueller, who are raising and selling organic beef at the shop.

In addition to the pumpkins, the Fidelers raise grass fed beef and offer eggs, vegetables, lamb, turkeys, ducks, eggs and pick your own raspberries for sale.

"We don't believe in spraying, so we do a lot of weed pulling," Linda said.

Some of the pumpkins come from Brian Fideler's farm, about three miles down the road.

The farm is a family operation, with sons Brian, Scott and Mike, daughters-in-law Amy and Heidi and Jim and Linda's seven grandchildren pitching in.

Their aim is to restore barns that are increasingly vanishing from rural landscapes and keep the family farm going.

"It's upkeep we hope the next generation can enjoy," said Brian.

"They're unique — two barns that are joined together," Linda said.

The smaller of the two structures was built in 1883, according to marking on hand hewn beam. The larger one was built in 1911.

Linda said in the future, they would like to host farmers markets there.

"We want to educate people about where their food comes from," she said.

The shop, located on Fideler's Badger Valley Farm, is located at 3285 Badger Drive, Campbellsport.

Hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays, October 13, 20 and 27 and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. October 14, 21 and 28.

EC Tournament Ride Ends Well For Indians

By Judy Harlow

They were hoping to go 3-0 in the East Central round robin against teams from fifth to eighth places, but the Kewaskum soccer players had to settle for a 2-1 mark after stumbling in the second game against Winneconne in Game Two of the tournament.

With these two wins, the Indians secured fifth place in the East Central, and more importantly, guaranteed the team a winning record for the year, the first ever in the history of the sport at KHS. Going into WIAA tournament action, the Indians are now 11-9-3.

"I'll say this, it was a roller coaster week for us," KHS coach John Kenworthy said about the two matches last week after opening the event with a 4-1 victory over Berlin. Against Winneconne, the Indians were lethargic, then two days later, they played Campbellsport with energy and purpose.

On October 9 against Winneconne, "We came out as listless as I've seen us all year," Kenworthy said, reporting the Wolves scored two goals in the first half, then the skies opened, and it just poured on the players, according to the coach.

He said one might have thought there would have been no scoring in the rain, but "For whatever reason, we scored two goals" by Cole Schleiter and Isaiah Cochran before the half ended.

"I thought we would come out strong in the second half, but we didn't," Kenworthy said. "I was pretty disappointed."

Winneconne scored two more goals to win 4-2.

The next day at practice, there were changes made, according to Kenworthy, who said, "We came in with some changes, and we had a new lineup, and they bought into it."

"Against Campbellsport, we came out and took control from start to finish," Kenworthy said of the 4-1 victory.

Even the coach of the Cougars, Tyler Witt, noticed a change in the Indians. Kenworthy said Witt graciously sent him a note, saying he had never seen the Indians play so well.

At four minutes, Kewaskum got its first goal on a Will Jens shot with the assist from Hunter Kuehl. Five minutes later, Hunter Schmitt made a penalty kick for a 2-0 lead.

"We didn't give them any opportunities to speak of," Kenworthy said, reporting Cochran scored in the second half, with the assist coming from Jens, then Clay Hunterdmark countered for the Cougars, but the Indians got one back in the 83rd minute when Jens (Cochran assist) beat CHS keeper James Carroll.

"Defensively, I think Matthew Krautkramer played great," Kenworthy said, adding, "Mason Pomeroy had an incredible game with his great passing."

Also cited were the back trio of Cameron Dodge, Kyle Loehr and Jason Thierfelder.

"Because of that, Brenden Rice only made two saves. That's all he needed," Kenworthy said.

The soccer tournament pairings were announced October 13, and the Indians, who drew the 12th seed in one of the D-3 sectionals will play the number five Thomas More at the South Milwaukee Soccer Complex this afternoon (October 18) at 4 p.m. The winner of that game plays the winner of Catholic Memorial and Wisconsin Lutheran on Saturday, Oct. 20.

Cougars' Running Game Is Too Strong For KHS

– Narges And Koelbl Combine For 261 Yards

By Judy Harlow

Campbellsport is IN the WIAA high school football playoffs while Kewaskum is out for the first time in 14 years after the Cougars used a strong running game to beat the Indians 24-8 in the regular-season finale held on October 12.

The win was Campbellsport's first over Kewaskum since 2013 when Shaun Beisbier hit Dustin Salter with a 78-yard touchdown pass with 1:04 remaining for a 22-14 victory.

With the victory the Cougars take control of the Kettle Moraine trophy that goes to the winner each year. More important was the fact the victory gave the Cougars a 4-3 record in the East Central Conference, and by virtue of their winning record, they earned a berth in the D-4 playoffs and will play Martin Luther tomorrow night (October 19).

KHS ended the year at 2-5 record in the EC and 4-5 overall.

CHS quarterback Nick Narges rushed for 162 yards and scored two touchdowns for the winners, while fullback Matthew Koelbl added 99 yards in 19 carries and one touchdown.

For the Indians, it was a game of could've, should've and would've. Had they not missed a half dozen or more pass receptions when the ball was in the hands of receivers, they might have won the game. Had they not turned the ball over five times — senior Lucas Christenson fumbled once and threw three interceptions — the outcome might have been different.

Then there were all the penalties Kewaskum had, 13 in all that accounted for 130 plus yards. They certainly didn't help matters.

"There were a lot of penalties on both sides ... a lot," coach Nick Kreif, filling in for head coach Jason Piittmann said. "We also had a lot of dropped passes. Campbellsport challenged us to throw the ball, and we couldn't connect ... It was unbelievable. We could not execute."

KHS had five possessions in the first half. Two of them ended with punts. The others were all stopped by interceptions, first by Lucas Gierach, then one by Nicholas Fleischman and the last by freshman Joseph Nerat with under :30 left in the first half.

Campbellsport moved the ball well on its first possession, getting into the red zone thanks to a Nick Narges to Trey Bischbach pass, covering 42 yards to the KHS seven-yard line. After picking up three yards on a run by Koelbl, KHS linebacker Kyle Bath sacked Narges for a six-yard loss, then after a short run, the Cougars tried a pass on fourth down, and Fleischman caught the ball but was stopped just short of the goal line.

Midway in the second quarter, the Cougars used a 10-yard punt return by Nerat to set up shop at the CHS 44, and they needed just five plays to move 56 yards for the game's first touchdown. First, Fleischman hauled in a pass for a 25-yard gain, then Koelbl broke loose for a 30-yard run and finally Narges plowed into the end zone from the one.

Narges also got the two-point conversion, giving the hosts an 8-0 lead, and that's the way the half ended.

Late in the third quarter, the Indians had a golden opportunity to score but Ryan Prochnow dropped a long, third down pass at the CHS 30, forcing the Indians into another punting situation. The Cougars took over on their own 36 and started a drive that covered 64 yards in five plays, aided by two major penalties. This time it was Koelbl finding paydirt on a 16-yard quick opener. Again, Narges ran for the two points, pushing the score to 16-0.

KHS picked up one first down on its next possession on a 15-yard pass to Dylan Maechtle, then Michael Daniel threw a pass that was picked off by Cade Heisdorf at the CHS 20-yard line. Two plays later, the 210-pound Narges took off on a run off the left side of the line, cut it to the outside and outraced three KHS defenders to the goal line for another touchdown. Tack on the PAT via a Narges run, and the score was 24-0.

The Indians didn't waive any white flags, answering the CHS score with a six-play drive that ended with Hunter Grady hauling in a 26-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a Daniel pass to Prochnow, covering 48 yards. Prochnow also caught a pass for the two-point conversion, making the score 24-8, and with 8:44 to play, the KHS fans were thinking there was still time for the Indians to get back in the game.

The Indians would not see the ball again, however, as the Cougars ran the ball 13 times in a row to run out the clock.

CHS outgained the Indians, 402 to 223. Only 38 of the KHS yards came on the ground, with Christenson gaining 21 yards in 14 carries. "They had everybody in the box. We just couldn't run the football," Kreif said.

Prochnow caught three passes for 110 yards, while Maechtle had five catches for 51. No defensive statistics were available on the Indians.

When asked who he wanted to cite, Kreif said, "Basically all the seniors. They could have given up, but they didn't." He added, "Ryan Prochnow had some very big drops but he just kept coming ... kept playing."

Koelbl and Kallen Ferguson led the Cougars in tackles, with nine and eight, respectively. Coach Todd Wondra's team was awarded a sixth seed in the Division 4 playoffs and will play the number three seeded Spartans in Greendale.

Other EC scores: Winneconne 45, Ripon 0; Plymouth 54, Waupun 0; Berlin 53, KM Lutheran 8.

Final East Central Standings: 1. Winneconne, 7-0; 2. Plymouth, 6-1; 3. Berlin, 5-2; 4. Campbellsport, 4-3; 5. Ripon, 3-4; 6. Kewaskum, 2-5; 7. KM Lutheran, 1-6; 8. Waupun, 0-7.

Kewaskum CC Teams Place Fifth, Seventh In EC Finals

By Judy Harlow

Winneconne and Plymouth shared center stage on October 11 after the East Central Conference cross country meet, which was held in windy, cold and muddy conditions at the Lake Breeze Golf Course.

As expected after their finishes in recent meets, the host Wolves captured top honors in the boys competition and did so in grand style. Winneconne, behind 3-5-14-16-18 finishes, came in with 56 points, 33 fewer than Berlin's 89 and 35 less than Plymouth's 92.

Plymouth's top-rated D-2 girls turned in amazing performances to finish with 26 points, 19 ahead of Winneconne (42), which also had a good team.

Kewaskum's teams had one runner, junior Andrew Carlton, in the top 10. He took 10th place with a time of 18 minutes and 21.3 seconds (18:21.3), while senior Maela Olla just missed the top 10, finishing 11th.

The Indians did not have enough depth to end up into the upper division, with the girls finishing fifth with 139 points, losing fourth place to Waupun on the finishes of their sixth runners, and boys taking seventh with 160 points.

Amazing as this may seem, a freshman, Kettle Moraine Lutheran's Logan Measner, won the boys' race, covering the 5,000 meters in 17:31.5, nearly 12 seconds ahead of Waupun's Rhyer Smit (17:43.0).

It was a 1-2-3 blitz by Plymouth girls at the finish, led by Maggie Munson's 20:10.01. Then came her teammates Olivia Rabe, 20:17.0 and Lauren Rabe, 20:48.9.

After Carlton came sophomore Gannon Kreuser in 24th place with a 19:16.9; Kyle Toth in 38th 19:52.1; Logan Haydin, 43rd, 20:07.6; and Isaac Schmidt, 20:18.7.

Olla clocked in at 22:08.8, while Alyssa Butz, who was slowed by a sore foot, had to settle for 25th place in 23:21.9. Then came Emma Penfield (23:29.6) and Faith Mertzig (23:40.0) in 30th and 32nd, and the final counter was Courtney Zarda (24:33.9) in 40th.

The Indians will compete in the Mayville

Sectional on Friday (October 19) at the Mayville Country Club.

KHS coach Kris Evans did not return calls from the Statesman for comments on the meet.

Piittmann Tips His Cap To KHS Players

By Judy Harlow

After being sick a couple days last week and making a trip to the ER last Friday morning, KHS head football coach Jason Piittmann was advised to rest and not attend the Indians' game against Campbellsport on October 12. Associate head coach Nick Kreif took over in his absence.

Piittmann did want to offer comments about his players and the season that concluded with the 24-8 loss to the Cougars. "These kids faced a bunch of adversity this year. They kept working hard. They had fun," he said. "While we didn't end up where we wanted to be, in terms of conference finish and playoffs, I am very proud of the way these kids and the coaching staff kept working together to improve week after week."

The Indians suffered five, season-ending injuries to key players, and that definitely hurt their chances of having a winning season. Kewaskum also had a smaller than normal senior class, and at least three of the seniors had not played football in high school before this year or only played as freshmen.

"Hopefully our underclassmen have learned lessons from our seniors and will be ready to move us forward," Piittmann, who was back in school on Monday, said.

Trail Sharks Mountain Bike Team Competes In Eau Claire

On Sunday, Sept. 30, the Trail Sharks-Washington County Mountain Bike Team was in Eau Claire. The weather was perfect for the racers as it was cool and misty, and the trail was flat and fast with a rocky downhill and two soft uphill. This was a course that was not something that the Trail Sharks are used to. However, the athletes did a great job holding on and racing fast with the other racers. Many of the Washington County athletes found each other on the course and pushed each other as they raced to the finish line.

KEWASKUM GRIDIRON RESULTS

The eighth grade Gridiron Indians closed their regular season schedule with a 22-6 victory over Mukwonago, improving their record to 5-1 on the season and entering the AAYFL Playoffs next week on a two game winning streak.
The Indians opened up the game with a defensive stop as linebacker Bradyn Donath forced a fumble that was recovered by linebacker Hunter Loser.

The offense took over and marched right down the field using some nice running from running back Donovan Zillmer and a nice throw and catch from quarterback Ryan Cook to Loser. Cook capped off the drive with a seven yard touchdown run and Carson Rolf's two-point kick made it 8-0 Indians.
The Indians' defense remained stingy the entire first half and gave the offense some great field position but unfortunately they weren't able to capitalize with any other points in the half.

pass and Loser stepped in front making the interception and returning it 16 yards for another Indians' touchdown. Rolf's two-point kick was good making it 22-0.
Mukwonago was able to get on the board in the fourth quarter on a 33 yard touchdown run. Towards the end of the game they were driving again but Loser once again came up with an interception to finish off the 22-6 victory for the Indians.
Offensively the Indians were led by Cook who finished 7X17 for 144 yards passing and had both a touchdown throwing and running. His leading receiver was Rolf with three catches for 91 yards and a touchdown. Leading the Indians on the ground was Zillmer with 12 carries for 40 yards and he also added two catches for 19 yards.
Besides the turnovers forced, other Indians with standout performances on defense included defensive end Justin Mielkie, defensive tackles Antoine Coleman and Patrick Simpson, linebacker Zillmer and safety Derek May.
The eighth grade will be playing in the quarterfinals of the Division 2 AAYFL Playoffs this Saturday, Oct. 20 at New Berlin West with kickoff at 1 p.m.

The defense did a great job, with two goal-line stands, but a couple of long runs by Mukwonago tipped the scale in their favor. Standouts on defense were Corbin Dexter, Peyton Theusch and Brent Krejcarek.
The fifth grade team continues to gain experience every week. The young Indians had some nice plays, but couldn't get any points on the board, with the score ending up 28-0 with Mukwonago taking the win.
On offense, Max Sadowniko had several quarterback sneaks for first downs. Eli Ogi, Alex Bayer and Kingston Grisolono also contributed with some good runs.
The defense had several tackles by Gabe Halopka and Caleb Conwell. Halopka, Xane Kleinke, and Cole Loser also fought hard in the trenches playing both offense and defense.
The eighth grade will be playing in New Berlin, and the younger Indians will be on the road as well. Please check the Kewaskum Gridiron Club website for times and opponents.

Some other first half highlights included a 28 yard pass from Cook to Rolf and a blocked punt by Cook.
The Indians opened up the second half with a nice drive including a 32 yard pass from Cook to Rolf but again the Indians came up empty.
After yet another defensive stop, the Indians offense was finally able to capitalize as Cook found Rolf down the left side of the field for a perfectly thrown 31 yard touchdown pass to make the score 14-0 in the Indians' favor.
On the next offensive play for Mukwonago, they dropped back to

The seventh grade team lost 30-6. Mistakes hurt them in this game. Dylan Soyk had some nice running. He ran for a 30 yard touchdown. Jayden Choy had a nice catch, but the offense turned the ball over three times.
On defense, Mitchell Becker had an interception and many tackles. Soyk, Nicholas Deheck, Casey Schmidt, and Matthew Oelhafen all had numerous tackles throughout the game.
The sixth grade played a great game, but came out with a 26-25 loss. Landon Daniel scored on three long runs, and Everett Donath had the other touchdown of the day for the Indians.

Indians Jump To Third In EC Tournament

By Judy Harlow

By finishing 2-1 on October 13, the Kewaskum volleyball team took third place in the East Central Conference Tournament, setting itself up for a possible good run in the WIAA Division-2 tourney, which opened this week.

"We came in seeded fourth and finished in third, which, other than some hiccups against KML, was well done," KHS coach Laine Leitzke said after a long week of play that included three dual matches — the Indians won all three of them — and the EC tournament in Ripon.

They started off with a 28-26, 25-20 victory over Waupun, then went 0-3 against powerful Kettle Moraine Lutheran, 13-25, 11-25 and 13-25 before rebounding to defeat Winneconne in a tough, five-game match, 22-25, 25-21, 25-18, 18-25 and 15-7.

"The team worked well together today," Leitzke said. "Waupun and Winneconne were both strong matches for us." He went on that, "Throughout the day, we had different players stepping up at different times. (Hailey) Hasenberg had another very solid weekend and led the charge defensively, while (Holly) Henk and (Brelynn) Scoles continued to burden the load offensively. (Carolyn) Stockhausen was very efficient and (Kiley) May also contributed at a high level."

Anna Peterson and Carolyn Stockhausen block the ball for Kewaskum during a game held at Campbellsport High School. Kewaskum claimed a victory in the match, held Thursday, Oct. 11.

In the three matches, Scoles and Henk finished 1-2 in kills with 29 and 26, respectively, while Hasenberg contributed a team-high seven aces, and Stockhausen and Scoles chipped in with five apiece.

Stockhausen had a great day at the net defensively, blocking 14 kills attempts, while sophomore Nicole Butz added 10 and freshman Jenna Butschlick had five. In the assist department, it was Amayah Thomas topping KHS' stats. She had 44, while Nora Sebo and Mary Green were second and third with 21 and 18.

Hasenberg, who went over the 1,000 mark in career digs against Campbellsport, contributed a whopping 62 in the three matches while Scoles had 30 and Henk 21.

The Indians, who received the sixth seed in Sectional 4 of Division 2, opened regional play on October 16 against winless Milwaukee Lutheran. A win would put KHS up against the winner of the number three University School of Milwaukee and number 14 ranked Milwaukee Marshall tonight (October 18) at a site to be determined.

The top seed in the tournament is Kettle Moraine Lutheran, with Plymouth getting picked for number two.

It's A Win, Win, Win Week For KHS Spiker

By Judy Harlow

Any time the Kewaskum volleyball team defeats Campbellsport, it's a good year for the Indians.

The two teams met in the regular-season East Central Conference finale on October 11, and it was the usual battle royal, with the Indians coming out on top in five games, 25-19, 20-25, 25-5, 25-27 and 15-8.

With the victory, the Indians finished up 3-4 in EC play and 20-13 overall.

"It was a struggle for the team to keep their energy. We get a good win, but don't finish well in set one. It led to a flat set," KHS coach Laine Leitzke said, going on that, "We got energetic and took a commanding third set 25-5, but couldn't hold that momentum. When it came down to it, we had to play hard in the fifth set. They (Indians) came out and took the match."

One big highlight in the match was provided by the lone senior on the team, Hailey Hasenberg. "She eclipsed 1,000 digs," Leitzke said. Hasenberg, who stands just five feet five inches, turned back a ton of Cougar spike attempts, 30 to be exact. Next high on the team was Holly Henk with 13.

Brelynn Scoles and Carolyn Stockhausen were 1-2 in kills with 15 and 11, while Henk, Amayah Thomas and Amanda Miller had four, three and three aces, respectively. Stockhausen and Nicole Butz led the team in blocks with six and five, while Miller and Thomas were on top of the assist chart with 24 and 21, respectively.

On October 9, the Indians defeated Division 3 non-conference opponent Weyauwega-Fremont 3-0 by scores of 25-19, 25-22 and 25-13.

"Back-to-back long distance matches, and the team came out with high energy," KHS coach Laine Leitzke said. "They played very well as a team. (Amanda) Miller, (Amayah) Thomas and (Mary) Green did a wonderful job spreading the ball around, and our attackers hit .190 on the night."

Leitzke went on that "Stockhausen and Scoles led a very strong attack and Stockhausen served an ace, and then got a big back row swing to finish off the match. Serve receive was strong, and we posted our best mark of the season. Tonight was a great team win, and I was very proud of the role that every member of the team played in the match."

KHS leaders in the match were: kills — Brelynn Scoles, 12; Aces — Amanda Miller, 2, Carolyn Stockhausen, 3 and Holly Henk, 3; Blocks — Stockhausen, 8; Assists — 15; Digs — Hailey Hasenberg and Scoles, 21 each.

On October 8, the Indians overpowered Princeton/Green Lake 3-1 behind scores of 25-18, 25-11, 15-25 and 25-11.

Statistical leaders included: Kills — Brelynn Scoles, 11; Aces — Amanda Miller, 5; Blocks leader — Nicole Butz, 5; Assist Leader — Amanda Miller, 15; Dig Leader — Scoles, 23.

"A good rebound match from a tough tournament over the weekend. We did what we needed to do in sets numbers one, two and four," KHS coach Laine Leitzke said.
