FDL County COVID-19 Vaccine Update And Notice For Phase 1a

The COVID-19 vaccination program will follow prioritization guidelines and recommendations set forth by the federal Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP) and the Wisconsin State Disaster Medical Advisory Committee (SDMAC). In anticipation of increased vaccine availability locally, the Fond du Lac County Health Department is putting out a call to independent healthcare workers who need a COVID-19 vaccine and are not employed by a facility who can vaccinate them.

Currently, rollout of COVID-19 vaccine is for those in Phase 1a of the COVID-19 vaccination program. Distribution groups and timelines are tentative and subject to change due to guiding recommendations, FDA approval of vaccines, and vaccine allocation/availability.

•Phase 1a includes frontline health care workers and long-term care facility staff and residents. This phase includes individuals who provide direct patient service or engage in healthcare services that place them into contact with patients who are able to transmit SARS-CoV-2, and/or infectious material containing SARS-CoV-2 virus. See Phase 1a guidance provided by the Wisconsin State Disaster Medical Advisory Committee for definitions and categories currently eligible for vaccine.

Kewaskum To Netherlands – Sending Postal History Across The Miles

By Anne Trautner

Theo van der Caaij is a stamp collector who lives in the Netherlands.

One of his prized possessions is a postal note box that was used in the Kewaskum Post Office between 1945 and 1951. At that time, the post office was located at 222 Main St. in Kewaskum. Frank Heppe, who lived in the building with his family, served as the Kewaskum postmaster.

Van der Caaij is now hoping to add to his collection. He would like to find photos that were taken of Frank Heppe and the building at 222 Main Street in Kewaskum sometime between 1945 and 1951.

About Theo van der Caaij

Theo van der Caaij is the secretary of USCA (Society of United States and Canada Collectors in the Netherlands). He is a specialist collector of American postage stamps and revenue stamps. He also collects U.S. postal note stamps.

Postal note stamps were used in the United States from February 1, 1945 until March 31, 1951. Unlike regular postage stamps, which are used to pay the rate for mail delivery, postal note stamps were similar to money orders. They were used with postal note cards to send small amounts of money, up to $10, to anyone on the mainland of the United States.

Van der Caaij has become a world expert on postal note stamps and their usages. To share the information, Van der Caaij wrote a book about his stamp collection and released it on eBay.

Party On The Pavement Set For June 22

By Anne Trautner

After having a year of many events being canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors voted to hold Party On The Pavement on Tuesday, June 22.

"We want to offer an outdoor event for the entire community," said Wendi Dreher, who is chairing the event.

Party On The Pavement, which has been dubbed the largest party to be held each year on a Tuesday in Wisconsin, will feature live music, entertainment, vendors, food and beverages. It is scheduled to be held from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. in the municipal parking lot in the Village of Kewaskum.

"People have been so cooped up, so we want to have something outside where people will be safe and will be able to have a great time," Dreher said.

Campbellsport Residents Voice Concerns About Snowplowing

By Andrea Hansen Abler

A group of residents were at the Campbellsport Village Board meeting on Monday, Jan. 11, to express concerns about snowplowing in the village.

They were questioning why the village did not plow the roads after a snowfall in December that was not quite three inches. Concerns were also brought up by business owners about the way Main Street is plowed in the business district.

"It doesn't bode well for the business district if the streets aren't plowed well," said Boyd Stoffel of Transtar Medical Transport. "I am seeing people like Ann Schlaefer out there shoveling the road for her customers. It can be treacherous and that's getting to be a busy area. I think we can do better."

Mark Gruber, DPW director, explained that he is following the guidelines given to him. The DPW does not go out to plow unless there is a snowfall of three inches or more. This was something the board had asked the DPW to do a few years ago in an effort to cut the budget.

Gruber also said that it is hard in the business district if the plows have already gone through and then the snow from the sidewalks is blown onto the roadway.

"You can't satisfy everybody," Gruber said. "A couple things businesses can do to help, if you could shovel your snow to the back of the side walk by the curb into mounds and then shovel a path by the parking lanes."

Washington County Health Department Offers Radon Test Kits

During National Radon Action Month, the Washington Ozaukee Public Health Department is encouraging citizens to test their homes for radon by offering free test kits to residents. Postage is not included.

Radon is a naturally occurring odorless, colorless gas found in rock and soil. Radon is the second leading cause of lung cancer, claiming the lives of an estimated 20,000 Americans each year.

Radon can enter your home whether it is old or new, drafty or well-sealed, built on a basement or a slab. Each building is unique, so testing is the only way to know if you have high levels of radon in your home.

The radon test kit is easy to use and only takes a few minutes to set up. Once you open it, the kit stays in your home for two days. Then you will package it and mail it to the lab for analysis.

According to the Centers for Disease Control, "If you have already tested your home and your radon level is 4 pCi/L or greater, it is time to take action."

If you choose to have a mitigation system installed, it is recommended that the system be installed by a certified mitigation professional. Taking action is the best step to minimize your health risk.

Kits can be obtained at both health department locations. Due to COVID-19 precautions, we are encouraging residents to request test kits by mail. Kits may be obtained by mailing a $4 check made to Ozaukee County to cover postage to the following addresses: Washington Ozaukee Public Health Department, 333 E Washington Street, Suite 1100, West Bend, WI 53095 or Washington Ozaukee Public Health Department, 121 W Main Street – Room 246, Port Washington, WI 53074.

Walk-up hours will be limited, but will be available at the following times:

West Bend — Tuesday, Jan. 26, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Port Washington — Friday, Jan. 15 and 29, from 10 a.m.- 2 p.m.

More information as well as a list of certified radon contractors can be found at www.lowradon.org. Additional information is also available at washozwi.gov. Certified Environmental Health personnel are available at (262) 335-4462 or (262) 284-8170 to answer your radon questions.

Publisher's Letter

The Present

Dear Reader,

Wednesday, Jan. 6, was a sad day for our country. We watched with disbelief as a mob attacked our Capitol while members of Congress were in joint session voting to ratify the electoral votes from the November election and to recognize the next President of the United States. In the past, this procedure has been largely ceremonial; however due to unusual circumstances, it was much more serious this time around.

People were hospitalized, property was destroyed, and six people died including a Capitol police officer. The DC Metropolitan Police Department, the Capitol Police, the DC National Guard, and the Secret Service all did their best to protect the Vice President and members of Congress in order to evacuate them safely. Even so, the day was fraught with, and the images we all saw broadcast around the world showed, a disturbing level of anarchy and chaos.

That evening Congress reunited back in the Capitol building to resume the people's business of counting the Electoral College votes and confirming Joe Biden as the 46th President of United States. If there is a silver lining in this dark cloud — and I most definitely think there is — it is that both Democrats and Republicans drew together to mount a spirited defense of the democratic principles on which our Republic is founded.

This reflects strength of character, which matters now more than ever.

It's gratifying to know that our Republic is built on a strong foundation beyond anyone's personality and ambition. May it ever be so.

"If we want more business, we have to do something," said Raina Jeffery of Blue Door Coffee Co. "If we want to develop business in town, we need to do better."

DPW employee Mike Phillips added, "I think if the business owners want us to come up there and do a good job, then I think there needs to be an expectation that they have their sidewalks cleaned by a certain time."

"It would help," Gruber said. "I am willing to tell you people when we are going to start plowing snow."

"I think the day of the snow fall, people would expect to be walking through some snow," Stoffel said. "I would think by the following morning would be a reasonable time."

Stoffel did say that his bigger concern is the fact that they do not plow snow less than three inches. He asked if they would consider plowing, especially in the business area when needed.

"I think we can leave that up to the DPW's discretion," said Randy Zielieke.

Dave Krebs, village president, agreed, "I think the bigger problem is those less than three inch snowfalls. So if we could change the policy to let Mark use his discretion in the business district with less than three inches."

"You can get an inch and a half of sloppy crap and it has to be cleaned up," said Mark Reseburg. "My personal opinion is that the three inch rule is too much. I honestly think it could be to his discretion. There has to be a common sense approach to it rather than 'let's get out a ruler.' We have to use our heads about it so we don't go crazy on the budget."

Resident Tom Miller questioned, "Why can't we just do the whole town? I know you're not going to please everybody."

Miller also questioned why there is a parking ban when that is not always when the streets are being plowed. Gruber explained that it is for many different reasons in the winter months, including snow removal at some times. Gruber also stated that the board has to remember that the budget for 2021 has already been set, so snowplowing costs might go over budget if they are plowing less than three inches.

"If you want to change that, that's fine," Gruber said. "If you want it changed, we will do what the board and residents want."

It was decided that the DPW will use its discretion on when to plow, especially in the business district (Main Street from Poplar to Railroad Street). Once they see how this goes, some additional areas with businesses might be added to their "business district" list.

Gruber and the business owners in attendance agreed to work together in the future to communicate when the plows might be coming through the area. This will give the businesses time to get their sidewalks cleared before the plows go through and the snow piles are picked up.

New Board Member

Dan Boldt submitted a letter of interest to the village board for the open seat on the board. Brandon Serwe had resigned from the board in October because he moved out of the village.

The board was going to leave the seat open until after the spring election. No one filed paperwork to run for the seat. Boldt heard about this and decided to turn in a letter of interest and he has also already filled out the paperwork to be a certified write-in candidate.

"I've been retired now for eight years and I know the job (he has been a board member in the past)," Boldt said. "If I am going to come down here and complain, I might as well sit on the board."

Anyone else who would like to be considered for this seat on the board can still file paperwork to be an official write-in candidate in the April election.

Washington County Sheriff's Report

Building Fire

On January 10 at 3:13 a.m., the Washington County Sheriff's Office received a report of heavy smoke and flames coming from the area of Addison Road and Aurora Road in the Town of Hartford.

The deputy who arrived first determined it was coming from a fully engulfed garage-type outbuilding at a business in the 5200 block of Aurora Road. The St. Lawrence Fire Department was paged, and the call was upgraded to a MABAS call. Fire departments from Allenton, Hartford, Slinger, Kohlsville, Richfield, Jackson and West Bend responded to assist, along with Lifestar Ambulance.

Upon arrival there was smoke and flames coming from the building, which was attached to a larger building. There were no injuries to the homeowner or any personnel on scene as a result of the fire.

A fire investigator from the sheriff's office also responded to the scene, and there is no damage estimate available at this time.

A Column By Kewaskum Librarian Lori Kreis

You may agree that this year has not started off as well as we hoped. It was a fantasy that when the clock struck 12:01 am on January 1, 2021 all the stresses of the previous year would poof, disappear. It was a good dream to have. Nature helped us the first week of the year with a beautiful display of trees throughout the area. Personally, those images brought me peace and calm. My own meditation.

I have tried true meditation, cross-legged on the floor, clearing my mind of distractions and have always failed. I am not the type to be able to tune out my environment. During meditation, I might hear a neighbor outside and wonder what they are up to, or a delivery van in my driveway and jump up to see what goodies have arrived. I attempted it once this new year thinking I could do it; I would master the art of meditation. Nope, I gave up within 30 seconds. It was frustrating how something that was supposed to unwind me made me anxious.

Many years ago, I received a gift certificate for a massage. I do not like strangers touching me, so I put it off until it was about to expire. The experience was unpleasant, so much that I have yet to repeat it. I do have one burning memory from it; the therapist told me that I needed to learn how to relax. That set me on the path to try meditation. I obstinately thought that I would show this woman with the extraordinarily strong hands that I would relax or die trying. Ok, I admit that is not a healthy approach to learn a beneficial habit, but I don't approve of failure for myself.

There are so many other ways I can alleviate tension. Immersing myself in a story has usually worked. Truthfully, it has been difficult the last year to concentrate on reading, so I have stuck with lighthearted books that didn't require much thought. I am now able to engage myself in heavier texts and still feel relaxed. As a teen, I loved to crochet and took that up again several years ago. The motions of moving the hook up, around and through yarn is very soothing. Walking, jogging, spinning and aerobics to loud music turns my mind off and brings me to a place that I believe meditation does for others, tranquility.

Finally, I am allowing myself to give up on traditional meditation for relaxation. I realize that just because it works for many other people, does not mean it should have to work for me. And I am going to try to let go of that mean masseuse with the killer hands telling me I don't know how to relax. I do, just in unconventional ways.

How do you unwind? Stop on in and let me know.

Girl Scout Cookies Bring Joy During Challenging Times

In these challenging times when so much has changed, one thing remains a sweet spot — Girl Scout Cookies. Girl Scouts will kick off their 104th cookie sale in early January, and will be offering all the classic favorites.

Girl Scouts are thinking outside the cookie box this season by selling and marketing the sweet treats in creative, socially distant, and contact-free ways to keep themselves and their customers safe. They need your support now more than ever.

Double your impact this cookie season by purchasing twice the amount of cookies you normally do. You will fund double the opportunities for Girl Scouts in your area, and you know you always want more cookies.

The Girl Scout Cookie Sale not only teaches girls essential entrepreneurial skills, but the earnings also power service given by Girl Scouts to those in need right here in our area. With each box you purchase, you are investing in the community and helping prepare girls for a lifetime of leadership and success.

Almost two million Girl Scouts participate in the cookie sale each year, and all of the proceeds raised — 100 percent — stay in the local area. Troops and girls use their proceeds for community projects and a variety of badge activities or trips that build G.I.R.L.s (Go-getters, Innovators, Risk-takers, Leaders.) Girl Scouts earning the highest award, the Girl Scout Gold Award, rely on the Cookie Sale proceeds to fund their 80-hour community service projects. Councils use cookie proceeds to power amazing experiences for girls through support to volunteers, camping experiences for girls and financial assistance to girls in need.

"The Girl Scout Cookie Sale is a quintessential Girl Scout experience, right up there with community service, attending camp and earning badges. In a world where so much has changed, Girl Scouts is still here and providing girls incredible opportunities. The important business and financial literacy skills girls learn through this program are proven to build their leadership skills and position them for success in the future.

"When you purchase cookies this year, you're helping make sure Girl Scouts continues to be here to build girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place," said Denise Schemenauer, CEO of Girl Scouts of Manitou Council.

Manitou Council Girl Scouts will be selling all the classic favorites: Thin Mints, Samoas, Tagalongs, Do-si-dos, Trefoils, Lemon-Ups, S'mores, and the gluten-free Toffee-Tastic. This is the last year Girl Scouts will be selling the S'mores cookies, so stock up while you can!

Girl Scouts will creatively and safely sell cookies door-to-door and at booth sales. Digital sales through the Digital Cookie® platform, a web-based addition that allows girls to take their cookie businesses online, will be extremely useful this year, when selling in-person might be more challenging. The Digital Cookie platform continues to bring Girl Scout programming into the future by providing girls with business, online marketing and technology skills that prepare them for 21st century leadership.

If no Girl Scout sends you an email, calls you, or comes to your door, don't despair. You can arrange to order cookies directly from a local Girl Scout by filling out our online order form at bit.ly/BuyGSCookies-Now. You can also find cookies near you by entering your zip code into the Girl Scout Cookie Finder online or downloading the Girl Scout Cookie Finder app, free on iOS and Android devices.

Local Governments Receive $126 Million In Quarterly Transportation Aid

The Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) announced that communities across the state received $126 million in transportation funding payments on January 4, the first quarterly payments for 2021.

For calendar year 2020, local governments received more than $505 million in general transportation aids (GTA) financial assistance to support transportation related projects; a 10 percent increase over calendar year 2019 allocations.

"These payments represent part of the cooperative work we do with local governments across the state to keep goods and services moving throughout Wisconsin," WisDOT secretary-designee Craig Thompson said. "We are committed to investing wisely and working hard together to come up with innovative, efficient transportation solutions."

The local assistance increase is part of more than $465 million in new funding for transportation projects included in the 2019-2020 state budget, the largest dedication of new, ongoing revenue to the transportation fund in a generation. In addition to the 10 percent GTA increase, the budget included $320 million in new funding for the State Highway Rehabilitation program and provided $90 million in one-time funding for the Local Roads Improvement Program-Supplement grant program.

The first quarter payments to Wisconsin's 1,922 villages, towns, cities, and counties included:

General Transportation Aids - $126,426,597.10 to all local governments

Connecting Highway Aids - $3,015,874.20 to 116 eligible municipalities

Supplemental Transportation Aids - $1,758,896.85 to 96 towns

Expressway Policing Aids - $255,975.00 to Milwaukee County

Area municipalities received the following amounts in general transportation aids for January: Fond du Lac County, $717,217.52; Town of Ashford, $41,594.67; Town of Auburn, $29,374.47; Town of Byron, $28,566.36; Town of Eden, $25,734.69; Town of Empire, $32,731.74; Town of Forest, $32,390.10; Town of Osceola, $27,889.65; Village of Campbellsport, $20,034.55; Village of Eden, $3,380.07; Washington County, $617,625.68; Town of Addison, $42,856.11; Town of Barton, $30,399.39; Town of Farmington, $44,478.90; Town of Kewaskum, $24,998.85; Town of Wayne, $38,467.35; and Village of Kewaskum, $50,681.93.

General Transportation Aids help cover the costs of constructing, maintaining, and operating roads and streets under local jurisdiction. Connecting Highway Aids reimburse municipalities for maintenance and traffic control of certain state highways within municipalities.

Quarterly payments for cities, towns and villages are sent the first Monday in January, April, July and October. County payments are made in three installments, with 25 percent of the total annual payment on the first Monday in January; 50 percent on the first Monday in July; and 25 percent on the first Monday in October.

Signs of an early opening are apparent by the outward signs of the building. Scaffolding will be removed soon from the front and reveal one of the finest theaters in this part of the country. The grill will seat 25 people in both tables and stools, and the kitchen will be of stainless steel.

Kewaskum's Days Gone By

5 Years Ago January 21, 2016

December's mild weather helped the Town of Kewaskum save money for this year's budget. The Town of Kewaskum has $60,991 of unspent money, most of which was saved because it wasn't needed for last month's plowing and heating bills. Also contributing was the saving of about $14,000 that was budgeted for construction expenses. Next month, the town board will discuss incorporating the savings into this year's budget for road projects.

If the proposed bill being circulated by Sen. Mary Lazich (R-New Berlin), Rep. Rob Brooks (R-Saukville), and Rep. Jess Kremer (R-Kewaskum) passes, each school district would get to decide whether or not those who conceal carry would be allowed in the school with guns. The schools would have to post signs at each entrance that guns are not permitted if the district is banning guns from the premises.

When they tried out for parts last Monday, none of the area youth in kindergarten through 12th grade had seen the script for Aladdin. Two days later, they had their parts memorized; and on Saturday the young actors performed the show.

Just short of one year into her second term as the Town of Kewaskum's clerk and zoning secretary, Sandra Stern submitted an abrupt resignation January 14. Town treasurer Dan Stoffel has been appointed interim clerk to handle the town's business until a decision is made about what to do with the position.

Ken Ramthun had been handling the duties of Town of Farmington treasurer since the death of Eugene Fay. At the January meeting of the township, the board voted to retain Ramthun in that position as he had decided he would enjoy keeping the job.

Johnson Bus has been under contract to provide student transportation for Kewaskum School District students since 1993. The contract automatically renews each July 1. Last May, Johnson Bus met with district officials to inform the district a fuel escalator clause would be added to the contract. The school board approved the clause. From August until the end of December 2005, taxpayers have paid $25,632 for fuel surcharges.

Pieper Electric Donates To Wisconsin 9/11 Memorial

By Anne Trautner

Wisconsin Remembers 9/11 has received a donation of $46,359 from Pieper Electric, Inc./Ideal Mechanical to go toward the construction of the Wisconsin 9/11 Memorial.

The financial donation covers the cost of all the light fixtures and wiring for the memorial. All of the labor to install the electric components was donated by Pieper employees.

"It was Pieper Electric's honor to be a part of this memorial, and to contribute to the Kewaskum community's tribute to those who lost their lives on 9/11. Our leadership team is so proud of our team members, who rolled up their sleeves on weekends and after hours, donating their time and talents to the success of this project," said Rick Parra president and chief operating officer of Pieper Electric, Inc.

"Electricians and technicians from across numerous skill levels and backgrounds came together to ensure that this memorial would exceed the community's expectations, regardless of the funds available to do so. It is the spirit of our employees that allows us to continue to prosper, and to carry out the mission and vision of our organization which includes giving back to the communities in which we work. We are thrilled to have been involved," Parra added.

The donation enables construction of the memorial to be completed by this June, according to Gordon Haberman, president of Kewaskum Remembers 9/11, Inc.

"Pieper has been a partner on this since the beginning. Through this donation and the donation of labor, which is a huge amount also, Pieper has donated the entire cost of the lighting at the memorial," Haberman said.

The Wisconsin 9/11 Memorial is located in front of the Kewaskum Municipal Annex Building on Fond du Lac Avenue. The memorial will serve to honor not only those who perished, including Haberman's daughter Andrea Lyn Haberman, but also all those who responded to the tragedy of September 11, 2001.

The lighting illuminates the memorial's centerpiece, a steel beam that was recovered from the North Tower of the World Trade Center. Special lighting was installed on the amphitheater that surrounds the steel beam.

More lights shine up through the trees and landscaping to illuminate the flags at the memorial. There also is lighting for the five educational centers that are situated around the steel artifact.

When completed, the educational centers will provide information about:

- The twin towers.
- The airline crews and passengers.
- The first responders who gave their lives.
- The volunteers who worked at Ground Zero during the aftermath.
- The military flag display and tribute area.

Construction on the memorial began in June 2019. It has been a community project, with area businesses, organizations and volunteers donating their time and funds to complete the work.

"It has been very humbling," Haberman said. "Throughout this entire process, the talent and expertise of local companies who believe in the importance and relevancy of this memorial have propelled the construction of this monument. We have such amazing businesses in the Kewaskum area."

A dedication ceremony for the memorial is planned for June 13.

Recreation Opportunities: Cure For Cabin Fever

By Jackie Scharfenberg
Forest Naturalist

To stem the spread of COVID-19, we have kept close to home or even sheltered in place. Now, winter arrives with its short days, snow, and cold which tends to hinder many of us from going outside. These conditions lead to serious cases of cabin fever for young and old!

The cure for this winter malady involves digging out your winter boots, hat, mittens, coat, snow pants, and long johns. Next, dress in layers, and pack a high energy snack and drinking water. Remember to stay well hydrated on the inside and dry on the outside (dressing in layers will help with keeping dry on the outside). Now, you are ready to head outside for some great winter fun.

Even though the offices, enclosed shelters, Parnell Tower, and the Ice Age Visitor Center remain closed, the rest of the Kettle Moraine State Forest - Northern Unit welcomes cabin fever sufferers and winter sports enthusiasts alike.

When snow covers the ground, the Zillmer and Greenbush Recreation Area trails are groomed for both traditional cross-country skiers and ski-skaters. Both novice and skilled skiers can find trails to their liking. Cross-country skiing provides an incredible whole body workout in a magnificent setting. Remember there is one-mile of lighted trail at Greenbush.

For those wanting a slower pace, try snowshoeing. If you can walk, you can snowshoe, so strap a pair of snowshoes to your winter boots and head out for a walk "on" the snow and an exciting adventure off or on trail. Just stay clear of the groomed ski trails.

Fat-tire bikers can traverse the snow-covered mountain biking trails at New Fane and at the Greenbush Recreation Area. These single track trails provide excellent adventures through the winter woods.

With it getting dark so early this time of year, a full moon walk can happen early in the evening. With snow on the ground and a full moon in the sky, you won't need a flashlight to find your way. Take time to listen for the owls, look up at the night sky, and please do not walk on the groomed ski trails.

Do you feel the need for speed? Then bring your favorite sleds to the sledding hill at the Greenbush Recreation Area.

The bridle trail becomes a snowmobile trail when there is plenty of snow cover on the ground. Connecting trails allow snowmobilers to go between the Forest and county trails. Several snowmobile clubs keep this system of trails in good shape.

Try out your detective skills as you follow a set of animal tracks. A tracking guide will come in handy as you decipher the story of the animal's adventure.

For those who want to bag their next meal, many hunting seasons run well into the winter. How about rabbit or squirrel stew for supper? Don't forget about ice fishing if you prefer a meal of fresh caught bluegills or perch. With 12 lakes within or bordering the Northern Unit, you have plenty of lakes in which to drill a hole to a drop a line. Free fishing weekend is January 16-17 when you will not need a fishing license to fish.

If treasure seeking is more your style, try geocaching. Go to geocaching.com to get started and find what caches people hid within the Northern Unit. There are a lot including a special Cold Cache along the Ice Age National Scenic Trail. Your cell phone works great for this!

For a true winter adventure, you can hike into a backpack shelter along the Ice Age National Scenic Trail or pitch a tent at the Mauthe Lake Recreation Area for some cold-weather camping! A great time of year to avoid the crowds and biting bugs.

Put on your creativity hat for extra winter fun. Make a snow angel in fresh fallen snow. Build a snow person. Come up with a winter scavenger hunt for your family like a black and white or sound hunt. What else can you think of to do outside this winter?

Get out of the house and head the Northern Unit to cure your cabin fever! The only cost is a Wisconsin State Park System vehicle admission sticker and a trail pass if you cross-country ski or mountain bike. Remember to practice good COVID-19 practices, come dressed for the weather, bring snacks and water, and know the location of open bathrooms. Take care and make some unforgettable winter memories!

Campbellsport Public Library Provides Boredom Busters

The Campbellsport Public Library is happy to help keep people of all ages busy during the winter months. In addition to the great selection of reading material and movies, the library is providing take-home activities. There are activities for people of all ages.

The library's puzzle exchange is still going strong. Stop by the library anytime it is open to browse through the selection of puzzles. There are always a nice variety of scenes to choose with the number of pieces ranging from 250 to 2,000 plus.

Interested parties take home any puzzle that they are interested in completing. To keep the selection of puzzles fresh and exciting, the library encourages the users of the puzzle exchange to add new puzzles to the collection whenever possible, but this is not a requirement.

There are some children's puzzles in the exchange at times. The library would love to offer children the chance to participate in this fun community-minded program. If you have — in great shape — children's puzzles to donate to the program, the library would be happy to accept them anytime we are open.

If puzzles frustrate you, the library is also providing copies of crossword puzzles and sudoku challenges. Currently, the library has color by sticker sheets available. At different times of the month there will also be craft projects available and even cooking challenge projects to take home. These projects are available first-come, first-serve.

People are welcome to come into the library to look through the boredom busters or you can ask for these items to be picked up through lobby pick-up or curbside delivery.

Like the library on Facebook or Instagram or go to www.campbellsportlibrary.org for more information about the library. If you have any questions about any library service, please call (920) 533-8534 or email director@campbellsportlibrary.org. The Campbellsport Public Library is located at 220 North Helena Street, Campbellsport.

The library will be open through the winter and spring Monday through Friday from 9:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. Please feel free to call between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. A staff member is in the library during those times preparing the building for opening and closing.

Kewaskum To Netherlands

– Sending Postal History Across The Miles

Within two days, two books had been sold.

"I do like your book, the one I was waiting for over 30 years. But I do have so many things that are not in your book," one of the customers wrote to van der Caaij.

The customer and van der Caaij started emailing each other back and forth.

"He sent me scans of his collection and I changed my book to be a much more complete version," van der Caaij said.

When it was completed, van der Caaij released his book about U.S. postal notes once again on eBay. This time, he received no reactions at all, even after relisting the book several times.

Finally, after one month went by, van der Caaij received a response from Jack Harwood, a money order collector in Florida. Harwood offered to write a review of the book, so van der Caaij sent him the book.

"He told me he liked the book, but it had too many mistakes," van der Caaij said.

So Harwood decided to send the book to California to a man named Jim Noll, who specializes in the postal note business.

Again, the book was edited, this time with Noll translating the book from "school English" into "American English."

Van der Caaij, who speaks Dutch, added a catalogue of the stamps and cards, and the 230-page book, "U.S. Postal Notes and Postal Note cards 1945-1951," was published in 2012.

The book is now sold by Varisell.com and by Eric Jackson, America's largest revenue stamp dealer.

With his book finished, van der Caaij exhibited his collection in New York at the World Stamp Show 2016, where he received good reviews, with 86 out of 100 points, standing next to the most elaborate collections he had ever seen.

A Kewaskum Connection

Van der Caaij stayed in contact with Jack Harwood via emails. Then in 2017, the two met in person in London.

"There, we met for the first time and although it was short, we became friends through stamp collecting. A year later, he came to see me in the Netherlands and we managed to get him to our stamp collectors society in the Netherlands. He told his story at our club and many people tried to speak English to him and get acquainted with him," van der Caaij said.

After meeting Harwood, many of the people later sent him things for his collection.

"We all had a great time and we kept in contact from that moment on. He even acts as my American address when eBay sellers don't sell abroad. A great way of expanding my collection," van der Caaij said.

Although he lives in Florida, Harwood has connections to Kewaskum. He had two sons with his ex-wife, a woman from Kewaskum.

His ex-wife's father was Frank Heppe, according to van der Caaij.

"He was the postmaster for a long time in Kewaskum," Harwood told van der Caaij.

In fact, Frank Heppe served as the Kewaskum postmaster from 1934 to 1956. When Frank Heppe retired, the post office was moved from his home at 222 Main St.

"All postal things were move to the new post office, but some artifacts stayed, where they were left unused," van der Caaij said.

One of those unused items was a postal note box that held postal notes that were sold in Kewaskum.

This past spring, Harwood's ex-wife died, according to van der Caaij. Harwood's two sons emptied their mother's house, and that is how they found the old postal note box from Kewaskum. The sons gave it to their father because he collected stamps.

Kewaskum To Netherlands

"Jack is a very generous man, and he decided to give me that box. I accepted the gift with a giant smile," van der Caaij said.

So Harwood sent the box to his friend. The Kewaskum postal note box is now sitting in Monster, Netherlands.

A Request

Now Theo van der Caaij is looking for photos of the old post office and Frank Heppe to go along with the Kewaskum postal notes box.

"In my opinion, history is only complete when the story has some pictures," van der Caaij said.

Specifically, van der

Caaij is looking for the following items:

- A photo of the Kewaskum Post Office that was taken between 1945 and 1951.

- A photo of Frank Heppe from around that time (in the post office).

Van der Caaij sends the following message to the people of Kewaskum: "My question to all of you in Kewaskum is: Does anyone have a picture I'm asking for, or just a scan of this picture, so the history will be together with the box forever?"

Anyone with any photos is asked to send them to Anne Trautner at atrautner5@gmail.com or Theo van der Caaij at thanlier@caiway.nl.

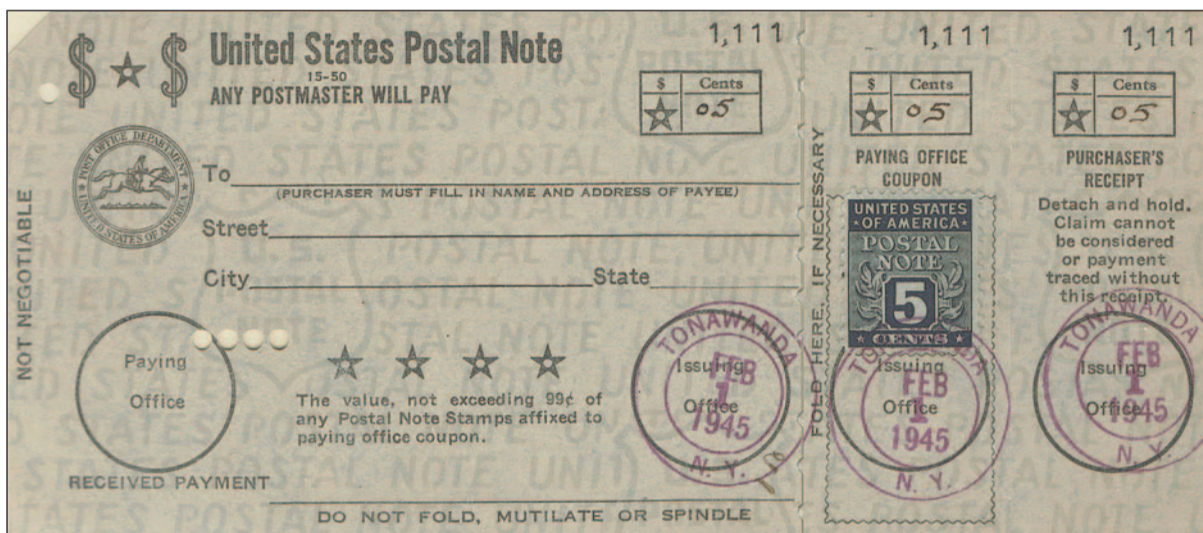

Theo van der Caaij is a postal note collector who lives in the Netherlands. He recently was given an old postal note box from Kewaskum.

Party On The Pavement Set For June 22

The event will offer a fun activity for community members as well as help area businesses.

"This will provide an outlet for people who have a small business to show their wares and items," Dreher said.

In addition, the goal is to provide an opportunity for local organizations to raise funds.

"Many clubs and organizations were not able to hold fundraisers over the past year because of the pandemic," Dreher pointed out.

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, which is a nonprofit organization, has not been able to hold the majority of its regular events over the past year because of the COVID-19 pandemic. There was no Party On The Pavement last June. The chamber did not hold its annual style show or golf outing in 2020, and those events will not take place in 2021, either. The Cookie Hunt, which benefits the Kewaskum Community Pantry, was canceled in 2020 as well.

Still, the chamber continued donating funds to help the Kewaskum community. In December, it sponsored the Kewaskum Christmas Parade, which costs about $2,000 each year. It recently donated over $3,000 to repair the village's welcome sign. In addition, the chamber donated $1,200 to Music In The Park this past summer. Since 2019, the chamber has given $2,300 for landscaping around the Eisenbahn trail kiosk and the kiosk in front of the Kewaskum Fire Station. The chamber also has pledged funds for Reigle Family Park and has committed to be a major sponsor of the village's 125th anniversary celebration, which is scheduled for June 2022.

The chamber would like to be able to continue supporting the Kewaskum area.

"All proceeds from Party On The Pavement are given back to the community. This is something that helps everyone," Dreher said.

Additionally, the chamber board decided it wants to offer an event that everyone can look forward to in 2021.

"We are trying to have something to bring community together. We want to promote Kewaskum," Dreher said.

Businesses, restaurants, organizations and clubs will have an opportunity to book a booth at Party On The Pavement. Forms to register an organization will be available in the near future on the chamber website, www.kewaskum.org.

A Look Back At 2020

—This is the final installment of our look back at the year 2020.

September 10

We have combined our newspapers, the Campbellsport News and Kewaskum Statesman are now together in one strong local package.

The Campbellsport School District got off to a good start last week after having to switch to virtual school in the last two months of the 2019-2020 school year and continuing to deal with a nation-wide pandemic.

Kewaskum School District's first week of the 2020-2021 school year is in the books. The district is offering in-person classes as well as a virtual program for students in the district because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Four-year-old Carter Jacobson was very excited about the Kewaskum Police Department's Back To School Scavenger Hunt. He won a ride to school in a Kewaskum police car on the first day of school.

September 17

What started out as a "crazy idea" turned into a special charity ride to raise money for the Eden Fire Department and to remember the events that shook the United States on September 11, 2001. The charity ride was held on Saturday, Sept. 12. An opening ceremony was held at 11:30 a.m. at the Eden Fire Station. Members of the Campbellsport Fire Department's Honor Guard helped with the ceremony, which honored those first responders who ran into danger to help 19 years ago.

A ceremony was held on Friday, Sept. 11, in Kewaskum at the 9/11 Memorial and Education Center. During this emotional ceremony, the armed forces flags were raised in the military section of the memorial for the first time.

State Representative Timothy Ramthun (R-Campbellsport) issued the following statement in response to receiving the Award for Conservative Union Foundation: "Another award for your 59th District representative, and it's a big one! I am truly honored to receive the Award for conservative excellence from the American Conservative Union Foundation," Rep. Ramthun stated.

"Healthy River Healthy Communities" badges were recently placed on Kewaskum welcome signs. The village earned these badges as it agreed to participate in Riveredge Nature Center's Community River Program. Neighboring communities are also coming on board Kewaskum's river project.

September 24

On Tuesday, Sept. 22, Governor Tony Evers declared a new Public Health Emergency and issued an Emergency Order extending the requirement for individuals to wear face coverings when indoors and not in a private residence, with some exceptions as clarified and defined in the order. The order was extended for 60 days and was set to expire on Saturday, Nov. 21, or by a subsequent superseding order. This was in Response to a surge in cases among young people and outbreaks on campuses.

Naiya Iraci, an 11-year-old girl from Kewaskum, went bear hunting for the first time on September 9 and may have broken a state record for harvesting the largest black bear in Wisconsin. Naiya was bear hunting with Michael Frank, her "papa," in Hatfield on September 9 when she shot and killed the giant black bear. The bear, which had a dressed weight of 720 pounds, probably had an undressed weight of about 812 pounds, Michael estimated.

During the Campbellsport School District's annual meeting, area residents approved the proposed tax levy. The electorate unanimously approved the proposed levy for the 2020-2021 of $9,868,273. This gives the District a mill rate of $9.96 per $1,000 of equalized valuation.

Area municipalities have decided to schedule Trick or Treating in the villages even with the Coronavirus pandemic. They encourage residents to participate if they feel comfortable and be safe while out and about.

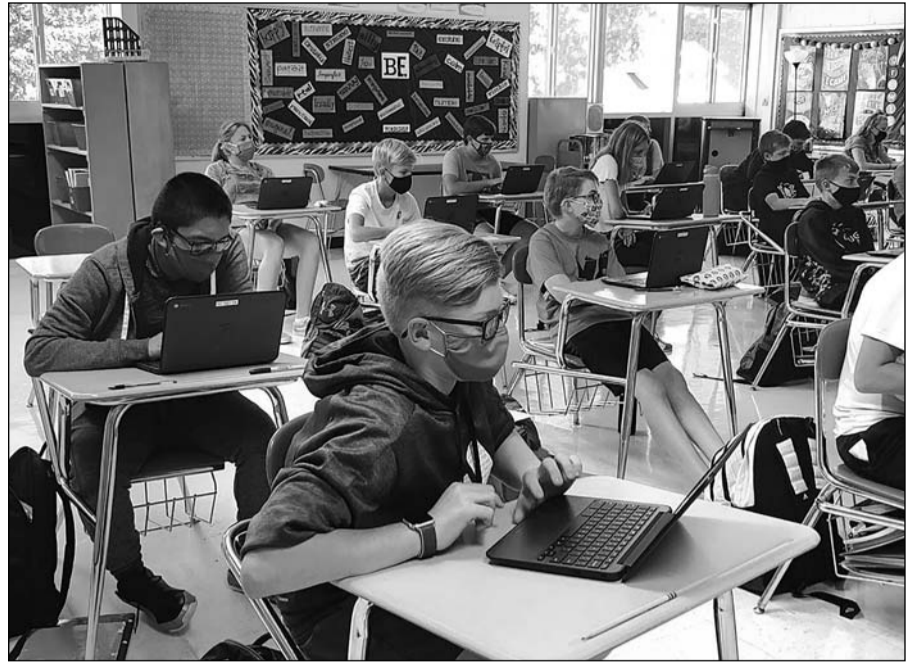

David Wege, fifth-grade teacher and principal at Waucousta Lutheran Grade School, was awarded Sunny 97.7's Teacher of the Month Award for the month of September.

October 1

An assistant coach for the Kewaskum Gridiron Club, part of the Wisconsin All-American Youth Football League, exposed eighth-grade players and fellow coaches to COVID-19 last week when he attended a practice and a scrimmage.

The Kewaskum Public Library is now offering a StoryWalk in Kewaskum during the month of October. Large storybook pages are placed in several local business windows. Families from throughout the community are invited to walk throughout the community and read the children's picture book "Leaf Man," by Lois Ehlert.

Campbellsport High School's track was completely redone this year. The old track was torn out and a few changes were made to the track before a new one was laid. The final step to this process was completed about two weeks ago with the striping of the running lanes.

Campbellsport Middle School students listened to their teacher during class the first week of school. Students were back in the classroom with safety guidelines while everyone continued to live through the Coronavirus pandemic. Students have to wear face masks all day, wash hands frequently and social distance when in the hallways.

Fire prevention week is from October 4th to the 10th. This year due to COVID-19, the Campbellsport Fire Department did not have their usual open house. The fire department still hosted a representative from Ahern Fire Protection to complete the annual inspection on fire extinguishers on October 10th.

As the number of COVID-19 cases continues to rise across Wisconsin, the Kewaskum School District is looking at options to safely educate students. The district leadership team shared with the Kewaskum School Board on October 8th, plans that have been made if needed for going all virtual, 4K through 12th grade, or going to a hybrid model.

October 15

A free COVID-19 community testing site became available at the Fond du Lac County Fairgrounds starting Thursday, Oct. 22.

Drexel Building Supply is leading the charge as the cornerstone sponsor for the new homeless shelter in Fond du Lac — a labor of love project over two years in the making between the Solutions Center and St. Vincent de Paul of Fond du Lac County.

Connor Kissinger, Drexel marketing & outreach leader, said, "The full team at Drexel supports this cornerstone sponsorship, to provide, as Isaiah writes, 'a refuge from the storm' is on point with the Drexel alignment of one overall mission — to 'Supply Happiness.' Supplying happiness comes in many forms, and at times it starts with a roof, a meal and warmth."

The COVID-19 pandemic may have canceled many events in the community this year, but it has not stopped the generosity of people. "I think people in general recognize that because of COVID, everybody is having a little bit of a struggle raising funds. The community has responded to all of the organizations in town," said Mark Yanke, who chaired the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club's mega raffle this year.

Stephanie Fell has been promoted to operations manager for the South Main and North Main customer services spaces of National Exchange Bank and Trust in Fond du Lac.

October 22

Irineo Medina, an artist who lived in Kaukauna, painted a mural on the building at 143 Main St. in Kewaskum. The colorful painting is a Kettle Moraine prairie scene that features native plants and insects from the area. The painting has a border that is based on a Potawatomi design as a tribute to the Native Americans who first lived in the Kewaskum area.

James Allen, 34, was sentenced for charges related to a stabbing incident that occurred in Campbellsport on March 30, 2019. He pled no contest to first-degree intentional homicide and was sentenced to 22 years in prison and 20 years of extended supervision.

Campbellsport residents learned of Highway Y reconstruction plans in the village. Fond du Lac County is planning to reconstruct the roadway from Highway 67 to the Milwaukee river.

Property owners in the Kewaskum School District will see their school tax rate go down 11 percent for the 2020-2021 school year.

St. Matthias Catholic Church, which dates back to 1861, recently got a new bell rope.

Fond du Lac United Way Announces Mini-Grant Applications for Youth Programs

United Youth Advisory Board — a collaboration between the Fond du Lac Area United Way and Fond du Lac Area Foundation — announces the availability of mini-grants to tax-exempt organizations for programs to serve children and youth living in Fond du Lac County.

Health and human services organizations can request a grant application packet by contacting the Fond du Lac Area United Way office at 921-7010 or by email at akilawee@fdlunited-way.org. Applications must be submitted back to United Way no later than 4:30 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 5.

The United Youth Advisory Board is comprised of students from local high schools, such as Fondy High School, North Fond du Lac High School, Campbellsport High School, STEM Institute, and St. Mary's Springs Academy.

"These students participate because they care about the needs of children and youth living in the Fond du Lac area," said Taylor Schneider of Society Insurance, advisory board supervisor.

High school students make great volunteers and we seek student representation from all high schools. Reports show that people who volunteer are 27 percent more likely to find employment than those who don't.

Youth throughout Fond du Lac County interested in learning more about volunteering on the advisory board can call the Fond du Lac Area United Way at 920-921-7010 or email akilawee@fdlunitedway.org.

Fond du Lac Psychiatrist And Nurse Indicted For Unlawful Distribution Of Controlled Substances

Matthew D. Krueger, U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, announced that on January 5, 2021, a federal grand jury indicted John D. Whelan, 74, a psychiatrist, and Tina Montezon, 58, a licensed nurse, both of Fond du Lac, for conspiring to distribute controlled substances, including Buprenorphine, Ritalin, Xanax, and Adderall outside the course of a professional medical practice and not for a legitimate medical purpose, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1), 841(b)(1)(C) and 846.

The indictment also charges Whelan and Montezon with maintaining a drug-involved premises, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 856(a)(1), and making false statements to federal agents, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1001. If convicted, Whelan and Montezon face a maximum sentence of twenty years in prison, up to three years of supervised release, up to a $1,000,000 fine, and a $100 Special Assessment.

According to the indictment, the defendants prescribed controlled substances outside the course of professional medical practice from a residence located on Clinton Street in Fond du Lac. Defendants gave those prescriptions from the residence on Saturdays in exchange for $200 to $300 per prescription.

"The Justice Department will hold accountable medical professionals who abuse their prescribing privileges for personal gain," stated Krueger.

"This indictment demonstrates the value of federal law enforcement working closely with state/local law enforcement and prosecutors," said Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) Chicago Division Special Agent in Charge Robert J. Bell. "DEA and our partners continue to work in harmony to improve public health and safety, while holding rogue practitioners and medical professionals accountable for the diversion of controlled substances."

The Drug Enforcement Administration and the Lake Winnebago Area Metropolitan Enforcement Group investigated the case, which Assistant United States Attorneys Julie F. Stewart and Kevin Knight will prosecute.

An indictment is only a charge and not evidence of guilt. The defendant is presumed innocent and is entitled to a fair trial at which the government must prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

Get Ready For Free Fishing Weekend January 16-17

Most Wisconsin waters are included in this event, except for spring ponds. Before you go, review information about the early trout season and the trout regulations. If you see a season date listed for a specific body of water, you're free to fish there, although some waters may be catch-and-release only.

All other inland waters and Wisconsin's side of the Great Lakes and Mississippi River are open for you to test your skills and try your luck. Remember: All regulations and seasonal restrictions are still in force.

Looking for kid-friendly fishing locations? Check out the DNR's guide at <https://dnr.wisconsin.gov/topic/Fishing/anglereducation/takekidsfishing>.

Tread Carefully: No Ice Is Safe Ice

Please exercise caution on the ice and be aware of the "honeycomb effect," which occurs after freeze-thaw-freeze conditions and weakens ice.

The DNR does not monitor local ice conditions or the thickness of the ice. Local bait shops, fishing clubs and resorts serve winter anglers every day and often have the most up-to-date information about ice thickness on local lakes and rivers, as well as areas that are especially dangerous.

Be sure to stay safely on shore if ice conditions are questionable, and if open water is within casting distance, give that a try. Always tell someone where you are going and when you'll return.

Dress for winter comfort and bring safety gear:

- Warm layers that are water-resistant
- Sturdy waterproof boots with spike-style creepers for traction
- Extra hat and gloves
- Rescue throw rope
- Ice claws
- Stay safe with more ice safety information at <https://dnr.wisconsin.gov/Education/OutdoorSkills/IceSafety>.

Keep COVID-19 Safety In Mind

This year, due to the COVID-19 public health emergency, there will be no scheduled events to coincide with Free Fishing Weekend. But that doesn't mean you and your family or roommates can't still venture out for a local adventure and drop a line.

Please remember to maintain a distance of at least six feet from those who do not live with you. Have a mask handy in case you need it; it will also keep your face warm.

Ready For More Adventures? Get A License Now!

The DNR offers a variety of fishing license options so you can get out on the water quickly, easily and at a bargain price.

New to fishing or haven't bought a fishing license in 10 years? Get a first-time buyer resident license for $5.

Indians Rout Campbellsport And Plymouth

The Kewaskum High School girls basketball team improved its conference record to 5-2 at the halfway point of the conference season with a pair of home wins last week.

On Tuesday, Jan. 5, the Indians used a first half 32-0 run to build a 47-10 halftime lead over Campbellsport. This was the first game Kewaskum had its full arsenal available since early in the season, and its depth showed on both ends of the court.

Junior Annie Christenson led the way with 18 points and five steals. Sophomore Madi Dogs also had a solid game with 16 points, seven rebounds and five steals to help the Indians to a 71-22 victory.

Plymouth traveled to Kewaskum on Thursday, Jan. 7. The Indians played arguably their best defensive half of the season, forcing 20 first-half turnovers, leading to a 28-12 advantage behind 24 points from senior Kennedy Adams, Christenson and Dogs. Adams played the passing lanes really well and was able to turn steals into easy baskets.

The second half displayed the depth of the Indians. Five different players notched a three-point field goal, and 10 players had at least one steal. After another strong half, the Indians found themselves with a 56-32 victory over the Panthers.

Dogs and Adams finished with 14 and 13 respectively. Adams added four assists and six steals in a team defensive performance that forced 32 turnovers for the game.

Last week's wins brought the Indians to 8-2 overall heading into round two of conference play.

Trading Cards

I was having a conversation with a colleague the other day. We got on to the topic of how sports coverage in the media has changed. Ironically, that came on the heels of my writing an article for this column on that topic.

As part of our discussion, I brought up how we used to collect trading cards — mainly baseball and football cards for me. We talked about how we would buy packs to try to get the cards of the latest stars.

It made me think back to my childhood and the trips we took to “The Big Dime Store” and the “Little Dime Store” in my hometown. Those were not the actual names of the businesses, but are what they were called by people. I would stuff that cardboard tasting gum into my mouth as I sorted through the packs of cards.

I had shoeboxes full of cards and eventually had binders with them in. I do not recall really having any cards that were high in monetary value. I think I had one, which at the time, was worth nine dollars, as it was a card with an error.

We would trade or barter with our friends to try to put together a whole team’s worth of cards. Sometimes we would trade just so we could get our favorite players. It seemed like we knew many more of the players on the teams back then, compared to today. At least that seems to be the case for me. I hear the names and see the highlights. With the trading cards, you read their statistics and even learned things like their birthplace and birth-date. Some cards even had interesting tidbits about the players.

As I got older, the cards became much more of a business for people, myself included. Instead of buying packs of cards and trying to put together collections, I would purchase or my parents would purchase the entire Topps set for a birthday or Christmas gift. I seldom looked at those cards, as I wanted to keep them in “mint condition” as much as possible.

Now, I am going to have to ask my parents where all those cards are stored, as I have not moved them with me. It will be some time for reminiscing and showing my kids what we used to do in the “old days.” I hope this column sparked some memories for some of you, as it did for me.

Thompson Focused For Big Year On The Lanes

Campbellsport High School senior Amber Thompson has been the number one bowler on the CHS girls bowling team throughout her high school career. The two-time MVP has been the anchor for the Cougars bowling team all four years and she’s off to another great start in the 2020-2021 season. Thompson is the January featured Athlete-of-the-Month.

Amber made it to the State Bowling Tournament last year as a junior but did not place. This year she’s looking to get back to state individually and make some noise on the lanes. The Cougars have a solid team this year and have a very good chance of qualifying their whole team for the state tournament this season.

Her coach Cary Serwe describes her as the epitome of a focused athlete. Serwe has high praise for his star saying, “I’ve never coached a female athlete that had such a grasp on the game and worked so hard to make themselves better.”

Amber carries a 183 average/game and has a career high game of 269 to her credit.

Thompson did compete in softball for the Cougars her freshman year and she’s also been a member of the CHS Trap team. She did very well in Forensics, competing two years and she’s been in 4-H nearly her entire life (12 years). Amber also did track her sophomore year and has been a member of the CHS Show Choir for three years. She is also a member of the National Honor Society.

The daughter of Tim and Jenny Thompson, Amber has a younger sister Brianna who is a sophomore at CHS and a teammate on the varsity bowling team. She was a cashier at the Piggly Wiggly but is currently working at King Pin Lanes. Amber loves to hunt and spend time with her family, she also enjoys singing at church.

Thompson has done a terrific job in the classroom at CHS as she sports a 3.89 grade point average and is ranked fourth in her class of 93 students. Next fall she is looking at going to college at either Marian University in Fond du Lac or UW-Platteville. She would like to study forensic science and technology. UW-Platteville is one of the top colleges in the nation for this major.

Here are some of Amber’s favorites:

Food — Ice Cream
TV Show — Impractical Jokers

Athlete — Shannon O’Keefe (professional bowler)

Music — Country
Movie — Million Dollar Baby

Teacher/Class — Mr. Ellenbecker/sociology

High School Memory — Bowling in front of her family at the State Tournament last year

Lady Cougar Bowlers Push Record To 4-2

On Monday, Jan. 4, the Lady Cougar bowlers traveled to Pioneer Bowl in Richfield to do battle with the hometown Hartford Orioles. The oil pattern for the competition was Kegel's Broadway, which is a short in length lane pattern but a heavy in oil volume pattern. On this lane condition, many bowlers struggle to get the ball into the pocket and low scores are usually the result.

both the Orioles and the Cougars. The Cougars opened with games of 112-149-127 to the Orioles 115-110-140 to find themselves down 1-2. Games four, five and six saw some better spare shooting and the Cougars pulled ahead 4-2 with games of 181-129-143. Games seven, eight and nine saw more improvement as the lanes opened up with the Cougars rolling 147-165-188 to win the match 7-2.

Amber Thompson led the Cougars, filling 15 of 18 frames. Paige Jordan had a good night filling 12 of 18 frames as did Brianna Thompson. Kylie Zehren had a rough start but finished strong, filling nine of 18 frames and Hannah Thelen chipped in filling six frames.

The Cougars were still in second place in the conference with a chance to move up when they bowled the first place West Bend

East Suns on January 11.

Stats for the match were as follows (strikes-spares-total frames): Brianna Thompson 4-8-18; Hannah Thelen 0-6-18; Paige Jordan 4-8-18; Kylie Zehren 5-4-18; Amber Thompson 9-6-18.

On the JV exhibition side of the house, Jessica Kusko rolled two strikes and four spares and Audra Stoffel had two strikes and two spares.

2021 Resolutuion: Crash, Not Accident

—In The New Year, Save Lives By Changing How You Talk About Tragedies

Forget losing the "Quarantine 15." For those looking for an easy-to-stick-to New Year's Resolution that will make a difference, look no further than changing the way you talk about car crashes. Namely? Stop calling them "accidents."

Here's why: The language we use to think about and describe things affects the value judgments we make about acceptable behavior, and as a result, the way that we behave. When we call a crash, collision, or wreck an "accident," we imply that these tragedies are inevitable, and that they're beyond human influence or control. After all, "accidents" happen, don't they?

When it comes to car crashes, nothing could be further from the truth.

In fact, according to comprehensive research from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), 94 percent of all crashes are the result of driver error. That means that 36,000 of the 38,800 people who lost their lives on American roadways in 2019 could still be here today if drivers made different choices.

Consider also the outcomes for the 4.4 million people injured seriously enough to require hospitalization — or the billions of dollars spent on auto insurance claims, incurred losses, medical bills, and litigation each year. All told, nearly 95 percent of it could have been avoided completely.

Crashes aren't accidents, and they don't have to be an inevitable, acceptable fact of life. In Wisconsin for example data from 2013 shows:

- Almost 19 percent of all crashes were the result of inattentive driving. Nobody "accidentally" texts and drives. They choose to look at their phone while behind the wheel. The crashes may not have happened intentionally, but the causal behavior did.

- Another 18 percent of crashes are due to speeding. Speeding can be deadly and increases crash severity, as crash energy increases with speed. People often drive faster than the speed and our AAA Foundation's Traffic Safety Culture Index finds that a large proportion of drivers confess to exceeding posted speed limits.

- Over 13 percent of crashes are due to failing to yield. The purpose of right-of-way laws is to prevent conflicts resulting from one driver failing to yield and give right of way to another... All drivers are required to exercise due care to avoid a collision, and whoever has the last clear chance to avoid a collision has an obligation to do so.

This may seem pedantic, until you look at the data. According to research published in the December 2019 issue of Transportation Research Interdisciplinary Perspectives, use of the word "accident" tends to shift blame to the victims of car crashes, and prevents people from thinking about these deaths and injuries in the context of a preventable public health challenge. Importantly, the study concludes, ridding our lexicon of the word "accident" has "the potential to save human lives and prevent injury on a large scale." That's significant, given that road traffic crashes are a leading cause of death for people aged between one and 54, per the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

That potential is why NHTSA hasn't used the word "accident" in its official communications since 1997, why Nevada lawmakers changed all statutory references from accident to crash in 2016, why the City of New York stopped using the "a-word" in 2014, and why the Associated Press Stylebook urges journalists to "avoid accident, which can be read by some as a term exonerating the person responsible."

In the new year, Wisconsinites hoping to take this important first step in preventing traffic violence can sign the pledge at CrashNotAccident.com.

"When a plane crashes, we don't call it an 'accident' — in large part because we demand answers, and that it doesn't happen again," said Nick Jarmusz, director of public affairs for AAA — The Auto Club Group. "In 2021, let's change our language to reflect the fact that car crashes aren't something that just happen. They're something we control. They're a problem we can solve. Accidents happen, but most crashes don't have to."

Following the prioritized approach, Fond du Lac County Health Department in collaboration with Agnesian HealthCare, a member of SSM Health, are working together to provide COVID-19 vaccine to Phase 1a frontline healthcare personnel that are not affiliated with a healthcare system, hospital, or long-term care facility. Earlier this week local emergency medical responders started receiving their first dose of the COVID-19 Pfizer vaccine.

"We've reached a point where we can begin vaccination clinics for additional frontline health care workers not affiliated with a healthcare system who play an important role in keeping our community healthy," says Kim Mueller, health officer. "It is heartening to begin vaccinating more groups in our community who are in need of a vaccine. We continue planning for safe vaccine distribution efforts as vaccine availability grows."

Notice For Phase 1a Health Care Personnel Not Affiliated With A Healthcare System

The health department asks that individuals who meet the Phase 1a definition and are not yet matched with a vaccinator submit their information on the Fond du Lac County Health Department COVID-19 Vaccine webpage.
