Three-Peat

Braeden Scoles of Kewaskum stands at first-podium position for the third-consecutive year at the WIAA Division 2 Individual State Wrestling Tournament, as the Indians' first-ever freshman champion from 2020 is now a three-peat legend (he won the 145, 160 and 160 weight classes from 2020 to 2022, respectively). The KHS junior defeated Eddies Sims of Amery by major decision (15-3) to earn his third-straight gold medal in the Captial City. BREANNA RICE PHOTO

Kewaskum Ends Wrestling Season with Scoles Earning Third-straight State Title

CLARICE CASE
JOURNALIST

With the wrestling season coming to a close, Kewaskum is already looking ahead to next year. Of course, the buzz of Braeden Scoles third-consecutive state championship is cause for immense celebration, but the Indian matman, his teammates and coaches are eager to get back to work for an even brighter 2022-23 season.

This season, all but one spot on the roster was filled, and 12 wrestlers were brand new to the sport.

"We are going to make this transition from being a really young team to being an older team," said head coach Scott Rhoads. "We are heading in the right direction."

This season seemingly marks the beginning of that right direction, as the Indians had three qualifiers in the individual state tournament. Sophomores Nick Deheck and Dylan Soyk were first-time qualifiers, and junior Braeden Scoles was a third-time qualifier.

"Getting three out of three qualifiers through sectionals to state was very rare," Rhoads said.

Kewaskum Couple Inducted into State Marriage Hall of Fame

Marvin and Janey Kuel, who were part of the inaugural class, have been married for 71 years

Wisconsin Family Council (WFC) announced today the first inductees into Wisconsin's Marriage Hall of Fame (WMFOH), and in the listing are Marvin (Sr.) and Janey Kuel of Kewaskum.

The organization began this unique Hall of Fame to honor both the institution of marriage and individual marriages that have "gone the distance."

The Kuel's story is available to read on wifamilycouncil.org.

On their page, the words of Janey introduce the couple to the reader.

"My husband and I were married for a half-year when he was drafted into the Army," she

KPD Introduces 'Eyes on Kewaskum' Program

BREANNA RICE
JOURNALIST

Last week, Kewaskum Police Chief Tom Bishop introduced a new program called "Eyes on Kewaskum," which would create a database for the locations of home security cameras – such as doorbell cameras, outdoor cameras, etc. – to better serve the department's investigations of criminality in the village.

Being included on the database is entirely voluntary.

"The goal for this program is for our department to create a very simple database [of] where residents have security-type cameras," said Bishop, adding that the plan was to create a network of willing homeowners that could help investigations with their security footage.

According to a release from Bishop, if an event that required a police call happened in a village neighborhood, local law enforcement could obtain a list of residents in the area who may have camera footage of the event. If KPD officers determine an act may have been caught on camera, KPD would then contact households to ask permission to review the video from their cameras.

"Eyes on Kewaskum is designed to be a collaborative effort with the community to solve crimes, because the more eyes we have on Kewaskum, the safer we will be" he said.

To participate in this program, Chief Bishop asked for residents to fill out a form, which is available on the police department's website.

Introducing 'Views'

This newspaper's "Page Two" opinion and editorial section receives a new name

MITCHELL BRADLEY KELLER
ACTING EDITOR

What's in a name?

Typically: Letters.

In a grander, more colloquial, sense (presumably as Bill Shakespeare intended), the ancient question is really about identity.

Sometimes, a name means nothing, but in other cases, a name might feel like everything.

Here at the Campbellsport News and Kewaskum Statesman, I have noticed something about the "name" (or lack thereof) of one of our weekly sections.

That section is "Page Two," and if you are asking yourself, "What is Page Two?" – you are not alone.

Obviously, Page Two is the second page of our newspapers, and it has, historically, been the avenue for our opinion/editorial content; often times abbreviated as "op-ed" in the news world.

The term "Page Two" was mostly used internally; newspaper-people, like most industries, develop their own lingo and, often, we forget that our readers are not always "in" on the jive. While we could assume our readers were privy to this detail, we are also trained as reporters and journalists to assume nothing.

As such, especially as we are nearing local spring elections and are in an even-year for the November General Elections, I determined it was necessary to better-define for our readers what exactly this section is.

And, thus, I decided to give it a name.

Moving forward, Page Two will be known as "Views".

The words "views" has a double meaning: First, it is a synonym for "perspectives" or "opinions," which, you may have gleaned from the above information, is precisely to the type of content that was printed in this section. Letters to the Editor, elected officials' press releases and some of our community contributors have their pieces printed here.

But, "views" also refers to scenery, particularly, one from a vantage point (perhaps the top of a moraine or esker?). To lay this allegory plain: The Kettle Moraine State Forest, and the surrounding pastoral farmland which is distinct to our communities, offer stunning views of our state in all four directions.

Both of these meanings apply to the concept of an op-ed section named "Views". I expect, in the future, we will continue to receive Letters to the Editor and opinion articles about daily life in our villages and towns. However, we also frequently receive contributions from area writers who simply write for their own entertainment (and to entertain others), and this is also an appropriate section for this style of content.

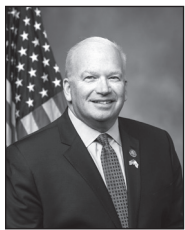

The double meaning of perspective coupled with this region's natural beauty made the name fit, from this acting editor's point-of-view.

Together, Views is a place where the community comes together, to share ideas and critiques, but also to celebrate, laugh and find solidarity with their family, friends and neighbors.

While this is, overall, a minor change, I do hope readers enjoy the new title and will continue to interact with us as we find new and exciting ways to amplify all voices in our coverage communities.

To submit a Views article or a Letter to the Editor, e-mail acting editor Mitchell B. Keller at mitchell.keller@mmclocal.com.

Veteran Education Benefits in Limbo

CONGRESSMAN SCOTT FITZGERALD
WISCONSIN'S 5TH DISTRICT

One-hundred thousand dollars.

That is how much financial aid servicemembers are eligible to receive once they have served at least 36 months of active-duty service in the military.

This aid includes full tuition coverage for public schools or roughly $26,000 annually for private education and apprenticeships. The servicemember also receives a monthly housing allowance, which varies by location, plus $1,000 annually to cover books and other school supplies.

Add that up, and we're talking about a tab that clocks in well over $100,000-worth of education benefits.

The promise of generous education benefits has, for years, served as a useful tool to recruit America's best and brightest to military service.

Now, thanks to President Biden's divisive and potentially unlawful vaccine mandate, thousands of Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Marines and Guardians will be at risk of losing those same benefits.

On August 24, 2021, Secretary of Defense Lloyd Austin issued a directive requiring mandatory COVID-19 vaccination for all servicemembers, including those in the Ready Reserve, and the National Guard.

Despite the challenges this vaccine mandate currently faces in court, the Defense Department has proceeded to involuntarily discharge those who refuse the vaccine.

This leaves many veterans in limbo, knowing that they may have their education benefits stripped away as they are forced out the door.

As many in the veteran community already know, servicemembers who receive a general discharge under honorable conditions are ineligible for both Montgomery and Post-9/11 GI bill benefits. This means a group of veterans who have served honorably up until the point of refusing the COVID-19 vaccine could have their education benefits denied, and their service record diminished.

Further complicating these matters, the decision whether to grant a general or honorable discharge is left solely to the servicemember's commanding officer.

These are men and women who have done their time, who have paid their dues, and who have served with distinction up until the point of refusing this vaccine. Some have [more than] 20 years of service. Others sought a religious exemption that was denied. Some may have even been planning to pass the benefits along to their children.

Congress cannot let this issue fall by the wayside, to do so would be a disservice to our men and women in uniform.

That is why I introduced H.R. 6671, the Vaccine Discharge Parity Act, to ensure servicemembers can utilize the education benefits they have worked so hard to earn.

This legislation would amend Title 38, U.S. Code, so that a member of the Armed Forces who receives a general discharge under honorable conditions on the sole basis of refusing the COVID-19 vaccine remains eligible for G.I. bill education benefits.

This proposal is straightforward and merits support from anyone who considers themselves an advocate for our nation's veterans.

This is an issue that has garnered wide support among Wisconsinites in the Fifth Congressional District, and I'm proud to report that this legislation has already received the support of House Committee on Veterans' Affairs Ranking Member Mike Bost (IL-12).

We are a country that rewards our heroes, not punishes them, and my bill will make sure of that.

Is retirement on your horizon?

A big part of the retirement package is the real estate you own. Whether that be a home in town or a 100-acre farm, a high-equity asset needs to be accounted for.

When clients come to me to discuss selling their property, more times than not they're near the retirement age and need to make a decision about their lifestyle. For some, the house is too big and they'd prefer to be in a smaller home or a condo. This takes a lot of the maintenance pressure off of them. If you live on a larger tract or farm, selling off part of the land can ease the workload. You still get to live on the farmstead that you know and love; it's just taken a different shape.

Whichever direction you choose, the property most likely has more equity than when you originally purchased it. This money can be used in a variety of ways. It can be added to any retirement accounts you have. You can use it to pay down other loans. Heck, maybe you want to go on a vacation. Be sure to also meet and discuss your goals with your accountant or financial advisor. A tax or real estate attorney isn't a bad idea, as well.

One thing is for sure, I highly recommend having a plan. I'm a pen and paper type of guy, so most of my plans are quickly written down. Make sure to take notes and have a solid team around you that listens and wants to be a part of your goals and legacy.

| RURAL WRITES |

G.A. SCHEINOH
CONTRIBUTOR

It is perhaps one of the hardest events both city resident and country dweller alike must face. Though each handles it in a different way. Last Saturday I dealt with this difficult chore.

I woke late and padded out into my kitchen. Figured something must be wrong. My dog Piper usually hears me and trots out front, expecting her breakfast. Soft food since she's had dental issues.

My worst fears were rightly confirmed when I walked into the hallway to the back parlor and found her lying there as if asleep. She wasn't.

Piper was 11 years old. Folks told me she might not live too much longer because that's about the lifespan for a beagle/shepherd. But it still came as a shock.

Gone such a vibrant companion who seemed small at the shelter but large in a smaller home. Smart enough to do a MacGyver when she couldn't get at her food bowl. Lifting it out with her teeth to a better spot. Disappointed when she went to point and I told her the hound don't hunt anymore.

Now there's a huge hole in my heart. I am all alone in what suddenly seems a sprawling, empty house. Add to a bout with depression which has me sidelined from work this fresh situation. Stir in guilt that I failed her since she had obvious distress.

Write about and relive the good memories you had with her an acquaintance suggested. Perhaps, at a future date that will be possible. I had a tough time just to pen these words. And I wouldn't wish this heartbreak, confusion, and misery on anyone. Because our pets truly become family and to lose them is equal to the passing of a human relative.

Grief too must fade away. Though for now there is only sorrow.

Views & Letters to the Editor Policy

We welcome all readers to contribute to our Views page and submit Letters to the Editor, but we do have some rules that apply:

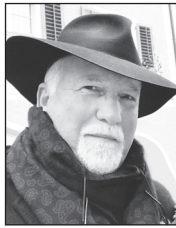

- All letters must be signed and a telephone number and address included so the writer can be verified.
- Names may be withheld from a letter at the editor's discretion and only if including the name could cause harm or other consequences to the writer.
- Letters should be concise and to the point. Letters should be limited to 750 words. The editor has the right to publish longer letters chosen on interest, history, merit and/or relevance.
- No letters will be printed that are not in good taste, are defamatory or libelous.
- Letter writers are required to provide any documentation needed to prove that facts and figures used in a letter are correct before the letter can be published.
- A writer is allowed to write on a particular subject once per calendar month only, unless the editor allows additional letters.
- We do not publish letters of thanks or poetry.
- No mass-mailed letters or letters from far out of our readership area will be printed.
- Candidates for office are not allowed to run letters during the election season with the exception of initial campaign announcements.
- Letters relating to elections will not be published in the issue just prior to the election.

Lent, a Special Time

Dear Reader,
Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent, which many Christians observe in preparation for Easter. The Tuesday before, known variously as Fat Tuesday, Shrove Tuesday, or Mardi Gras, is a final bash before settling down for a time of contemplation.

We can trace the name for this season back through the centuries, from "lencten" in Old English, "lente" in Dutch, and Lenz in Old High German. All of these words refer to an ageless season of Christian prayer, meditation, fasting, and good works, in preparation for the celebration of Easter and the Resurrection.

How a Christian observes Lent is a personal choice. Some may completely ignore it, others may fully embrace it, and many will choose something in between. Wherever you land on this continuum, there's something worthwhile in taking time to step back and consider one's choices and alignment with a higher purpose. This can lead to a new path forward that brings inner peace.

OBITUARIES

Kenneth L. Majerus

Kenneth L. Majerus, 76, of Campbellsport passed away peacefully surrounded by his family and friends on Thursday, February 24, 2022, at his home.

He was born on May 27, 1945, in Fond du Lac, the son of Arthur and Evelyn (nee Gruenwald) Majerus. On September 26, 1970, Ken married Diane F. Kaschner at St. Lucas Lutheran Church in Kewaskum.

Ken was a caring and loving husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend. He was a plumber for most of his life but still had a love for farming, restoring John Deere tractors, fishing, bus and casino trips.

Survivors include his wife of 51 years, Diane; children, Julie (Nathan) Wagenknecht and Mike Majerus; grandchildren, Mateo and Natalia; brother, Gary (special friend Cheryl Grosnick) Majerus; sister, Lois Majerus; brother-in-law, Bob Smith; nieces, Betty (John) Meier, Mary Neitzel and Peggy (Jeff) Wendt; other relatives and friends.

Ken was preceded in death by his parents; and sisters, Loraine Smith, Linda Majerus and Luann Majerus; and brother, Ronald "Radar" Majerus.

Victory service was held Tuesday, March 1, at 4 p.m. at Immanuel Lutheran Church, 3540 S. Helena St., Campbellsport. Rev. Paul Cerny officiated. Private family inurnment will be at a later date in St. Matthews Cemetery.

Visitation was Tuesday, March 1, from 1 p.m. until time of service at the Church.

The family extends a special thank you to the Horizon Hospice staff for their care over the past week.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Immanuel Lutheran Church, Winnebago Lutheran High School or the charity of your choice.

Twohig Funeral Home is serving the family with online guestbook and condolences at www.twohigfunerals.com.

Richard Silvin Theusch

Richard Silvin Theusch, 83, passed away on Thursday, February 24, 2022, at Froedtert West Bend Hospital in the Town of Polk with his family at his side.

Richard was born on April 4, 1938, the son of the late Walter and Regina (nee Wiesner) Theusch.

He enlisted and served his county from 1957 to 1959 in the Army. Richard was united in marriage to Carol Ann Krebs on May 13, 1967, in St. Lawrence Catholic Church in St. Lawrence. Richard worked at the Gehl company for 43 years. Following his retirement, he enjoyed working for Wisconsin Auto Auction and Russ Darrow driving cars. He belonged to the Hexelbank Club, Kewaskum School Board, and was a church choir member for 50 years. Richard loved fishing and going on Casino trips.

Those Richard leaves behind to cherish his memory include his wife, Carol Ann Theusch; four children, Ronald (Ada) Theusch, Doreen Zellmer, Allen (Dana) Theusch and Joann (Ernie Mahsem) Theusch; nine grandchildren, Liesel Theusch, Miranda (Erick) Swanson, Erik Theusch, Abbie Theusch, Jonathan Zellmer, Dustin Zellmer, Peyton Theusch, Jacob Mahsem, and Kailey Mahsem; five sisters, Carol Jean Jacak, Lorraine Beine, Rosemary (Robert) Guth, Elaine (Dennis) Wieberdink, and Darlene Walls; a brother, Donald (Diane) Theusch; a sister-in-law, Caroline Theusch; along with many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents, Richard was preceded in death by his four brothers, Walter "Sonny" Theusch, Robert Theusch, Francis Theusch, and James Theusch; sister, Marilyn Theusch; nephew, Kyle Theusch; and two brothers-in-law, Roger Jacak and Ervin Beine.

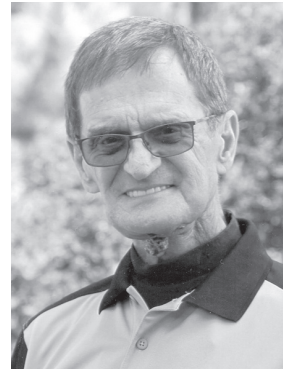

Visitation: Richard's family will greet relatives and friends at Holy Trinity Catholic Church, 305 Main Street, in Kewaskum on Saturday, March 5, 2022, from 10 a.m. until noon.

Mass of Christian Burial: A Mass for Richard will be held at noon on Saturday at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Kewaskum. Father Mark Jones will officiate and Military Honors will take place after Mass at Holy Trinity. Cremation will follow the traditional Mass and burial of his remains will take place at Holy Trinity Cemetery in Kewaskum on Sunday, March 6, at 10 a.m.

The family would like to extend a heartfelt appreciation to the staff at Kettle Moraine Gardens in Kewaskum and the nurses at Froedtert West Bend Hospital.

The Myrhum-Patten Funeral and Cremation Services has been entrusted with Richard's arrangements. Additional information and guest book can be found at www.myrhum-patten.com.

Morris Belger

Morris "Morrie" Belger, 68, of Allenton, God welcomed him home on Wednesday, February 23, 2022, when He saw that he was tired and couldn't fight any longer after a long and courageous battle with cancer and its complications.

He was born May 20, 1953, to the late Myron and Viola (nee Rick) Belger in West Bend. Attended Holy Trinity Catholic Grade School graduating in 1967. Graduated from Kewaskum High School with the Class of 1971. Worked in his family business (Kitchen Cupboard) followed by Weasler Engineering after High School. Married Mary Backhaus on May 29, 1981 and together built their life and family in Kewaskum, their hometown community. Graduated from Moraine Park Technical College with a degree in Machine Tool and Die in 1983. Finished his Apprenticeship in 1988 while working at X-Cel in Iron Ridge. Fully retired from Vollrath in Menomonee Falls in 2019.

Volunteer EMT and Firefighter for the Kewaskum Fire Department retiring after 25 years of dedicated service. Received Firefighter of the Year Award in 1996.

Avid photographer and videographer – nearly always having a camera or camcorder in-hand taking photos and videos including numerous wedding pictures in the 1970s throughout the 1990s. Loved outdoor activities including hunting, fishing, golfing, and always having the best manicured lawn in the neighborhood. He also loved tinkering, building, and fixing things in his garages. Loved traveling, anything with Bigfoot, Ancient Aliens and The Curse of Oak Island on the History Channel, Coca-Cola, antique bar items, coin-collecting, and action-packed thriller movies.

Most of all, he passionately loved his family. He was always there to help no matter what with his children and grandchildren. He attended all their events and loved to pop in to visit or take them on special outings that usually ended with a treat.

Those Morrie leaves behind to cherish his memory include his wife, Mary Belger of 40 years; three sons, Michael (Melinda) Belger of Jackson, Matthew (Rebecca) Belger of Mundelein, IL, and Marcus Belger of Boston, MA; five grandchildren, Ethan, Emily, Addison, Stella, and Annette. Further survived by his two brothers, Mark (Cheri) Belger of Lincoln, NE, and Monty (Kathy) Belger of West Bend; his sister, Margie Bubb of Campbellsport; his sister-in-law, Chris (Kevin) Fay of Kewaskum; his four brothers-in-law, Mike Backhaus of Waterford, PA, Bob (Joanne) Backhaus of Kewaskum, Steve Backhaus of Kewaskum, and Joe (Debbie) Backhaus of Campbellsport; many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his brother, Myron Belger Jr.; sister, Maxine Belger; parents-in-law, Gerald and Shirley Backhaus; brother-in-law, Richard Bubb; and nephew, Ricky Bubb.

A Mass of Christian Burial in remembrance of Morrie will be held on Friday, March 4, 2022, at 2 p.m. at Holy Trinity Catholic Church, 305 Main St., Kewaskum.

The family will greet relatives and friends at the church on Friday from 12 p.m. until 1:45 p.m.

Memorials in Morrie's name can be to the charity of their choice, Holy Trinity Parish, or the American Cancer Society.

The family wishes to extend their deepest gratitude to all of the medical staff at Froedtert Hospital that contributed to his care with such compassion. Also, to all the family and friends that gave so much love and support. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

The Myrhum-Patten Funeral Home of West Bend has been entrusted with Morrie's arrangements. Additional information and guest book may be found at www.myrhum-patten.com.

In Memory of

Gerry Mueller

Months have grown day by day,
It is now a year since she went away,
Gone are the days we used to share,
But in our hearts she is always there.
The gates of memory will never close,
We miss her more than anyone knows,
With tender love and deep regret,
We who loved her will never forget.

Campbellsport Police Chief Expresses Concerns Regarding Act 143 at School Board Meeting

BREANNA RICE
JOURNALIST

On Monday, Feb. 21, the Campbellsport school board held a meeting at Eden Elementary School, and Village of Campbellsport Chief of Police Tom Dornbrook expressed concerns regarding the district's compliance with 2017 Wisconsin Act 143.

According to Dornbrook, the chief had requested to be on the agenda for this meeting but was denied the opportunity. Dornbrook stated that he believed his concerns were necessary to address, so he, instead, spoke during the public comment portion at the meeting.

Dornbrook informed the board that, to his knowledge, Campbellsport High School is not in compliance with the reporting requirements of 2017 Wisconsin Act 143, and he requested immediate action on the issue.

Act 143 requires school districts to develop school safety plans, and also mandates school safety trainings (such as active-shooter training).

Chief Dornbrook stated he was made aware that the Campbellsport School District has not submitted this information since January of 2019. Dornbrook's main concern with this issue is that the school district does not have a reunification plan in place. For example, if the school needed to evacuate for any reason, there is no set plan on how to reunite children with their parents or guardians.

Dornbrook stated that it is necessary to ensure that students are able to return to their family in a safe and orderly manner.

After the police chief addressed the board about his concerns, other members of the community spoke publicly on this issue, as well. Six parents of Campbellsport students urged the board to listen to Dornbrook and take his request seriously.

The majority of the comments made by the parents revolved around an alleged "hit list" incident that happened in December.

According to parents, an individual attending Campbellsport High School made a list consisting of 10 students and threatened to put those listed in danger. Parents were unhappy with the way that the district handled this situation and expressed their concerns with the lack of action the school is taking to ensure their kids are safe.

Dornbrook expressed that he will do everything in his power to get the school up to date on their safety requirements, but he needs the help of the board to assist him in this manner.

This issue was addressed during the public comment portion of the meeting, and as such, the board did not discuss this topic after hearing from the community.

wrote. "The October after our wedding, our first son was born, and my husband was there for the event. Our son, Marv Jr., years later, was a missionary in Indonesia with New Tribes. The year after he was born, my husband was sent to Korea. For me this was the hardest part of our whole marriage, but with faith and prayer I knew he would come back safe, which he did."

Janey went on to write that the pair would raise four more children: Marline, Wesley, Vicki and Jolene. She said that family is "precious" to her and Marv, Sr., and she noted that their faith played a strong role in managing marriages "ins and outs."

Her advice to others looking to span seven-decades of marriage:

Trustee, Village of Kewaskum

Seven candidates will be vying for two open seats in this year's Village of Kewaskum Board of Trustees election.

Name:

Richard Knoebel (i)

Occupation:

Retired from Kewaskum Police Department (39 years, 24 as Chief of Police)

Family Information:

Married to wife, Cindy, with one daughter, Kelly, and one granddaughter

Community Involvement:

I am a member of the Brownsville Lions Club.

Why are you running for candidacy?

My wife encouraged me to run the first time, and now I would like to continue to keep Kewaskum a safe and prosperous community.

What are your qualifications?

Being a police officer for 39 years I have been around for the changes that have occurred, giving me a perspective of where the village came from and where it needs to go. While the Chief of Police, I attended board meetings for 24 years, so I believe that these experiences help me when it comes to making decisions for the future of Kewaskum.

Why should people vote for you?

My priorities are: Promote the industrial park; Get our streets and infrastructure in better shape; Promote Kewaskum as a great place to live and raise a family.

Name:

Fuzz Martin

Occupation:

Partner, Chief Strategy Officer at EPIC Creative in West Bend;

Former morning show host at 92.5 WBWI (now WMBZ)

Family Information:

My wife Shanna and I have two beautiful girls, ages six and 17. Our youngest attends KES and our eldest will be attending UW-La Crosse in the fall.

Community Involvement:

Service to our community is extremely important to me. I have been actively involved in the marketing and fundraising for the Wisconsin 9/11 Memorial & Education Center since 2018. I am now the president of the Memorial's board of directors. I also serve as the vice president of the board of directors for the Volunteer Center of Washington County. As a hobby, I host a weekly podcast called, "Fifteen Minutes with Fuzz," where I showcase positive people, events and organizations in our area.

Why are you running for candidacy?

I am running for Kewaskum Village Trustee because I enjoy the operations of local government and feel that my career experience in business strategy, marketing, and communications will be a valuable asset to the future of the village.

What are your qualifications?

Everyday, I work with businesses large and small to reach their marketing goals while staying on budget. I also volunteer with a number of local nonprofits and assist them with developing strategies to maximize their budgets while supporting their missions. My agency has nearly 85 employees, and I understand how to navigate issues surrounding our current era of low unemployment. Each of these experiences is similar to those the village is currently confronting.

Why should people vote for you?

Did you know that our police officers are expected to process evidence at the same table where they eat lunch? Did you also know that if they are exposed to blood-borne pathogens or get dirty on the job, their only choice is to shower at home—risking their health and the health of their families? As your trustee, I will support a new shared services building. I will work to ensure the project is right-sized for the future, minimizes the impact on available parking downtown—perhaps even increasing spaces, and takes care of those who we call upon to serve and protect our community.

In addition, I will work to find a solution to staff the Kiwanis Park Pond, prevent us from ending up with another 20% year-over-year jump in our water bills, and help find a solution to our current garbage collection woes.

The decisions we make as a village today will affect our community for decades to come. As your trustee, I will work to ensure we maintain responsible growth for our village's future. On Tuesday, April 5th, 2022, village residents will choose four trustee candidates. Make FUZZ one of your FOUR. To see where I stand on other issues, please visit fuzzmartin.com.

all times, in all things."

Applying to be part of the WMFOH was open to any married couple in the state who have been married 60 or more years. In this inaugural group, the cut off was 65-years-of-marriage.

Julaine Appling, president of WFC, said:

"Strong marriages that last a lifetime are the bedrock for a strong Wisconsin. We are excited to launch this Marriage Hall of Fame and to induct 11 couples as the inaugural members. Each year, in February, we will open the application for other couples to apply to be inducted."

Also inducted from this extended "neck of the woods" are Clarence and Henrietta VanEssen of Waupun (70 years), Donald and Alice Roth of Hustisford (68 years), Bill and Barbar Lincoln of Watertown (68 years) and Levi and Patrician Snyder of Markesan (68 years).

"We congratulate all these couples on their milestone anniversaries!" said Appling. "This is one of the most fun, and I think one of the most important, projects we've ever done. Hearing from these couples whose marriages are examples of faithfulness and commitment in both the trials and joys of life is encouraging and is a reminder to younger married couples that having a marriage that lasts a lifetime is possible and is worth the work that goes into it.

"Each of these couples will be sent a framed certificate recognizing their induction into Wisconsin's Marriage Hall of Fame.

"Next year, WFC will induct more couples into the Hall."

Growing dahlias is a must for anyone who loves cutting and arranging flowers. But there are hundreds of beautiful dahlia varieties to choose from and that can be overwhelming. To make the selection process easier, choose compatible colors that will look good together in the garden and in arrangements.

The combination of peach and burgundy is both striking and sophisticated. Peach-colored flowers add a fresh and soothing feel to the garden. Dahlia American Dawn is a blend of peach, mango, and papaya with plum-purple highlights. Good partners include other varieties in the same warm, sunset tones, such as dinnerplate dahlia Belle of Barmera, decorative dahlia Great Silence and ball dahlia Maarn.

Member of Kewaskum Public Library Board of Trustees since 2008, president since 2017;
 Volunteer at Kewaskum Public Library;
 Election Inspector/Chief Election Inspector for Village of Kewaskum since 2016;
 Member of Village of Kewaskum Shared Facilities Committee since 2019;
 Platelet donor at Versiti Blood Center of Wisconsin - more than 150 donations;
 Volunteer sewing for various organizations

Why are you running for candidacy?

I am an active member of several Village organizations (Library Board, Election Inspector, Shared Facilities Committee) and attend village board meetings regularly. I am interested in serving my community in a key role as a village trustee.

What are your qualifications?

I have experience serving as a member of the Library Board, and I understand the practical, legal and ethical responsibilities required of a board member. I am detail oriented, organized and inquisitive.

Why should people vote for you?

By regularly attending village board meetings, I have developed a keen interest in village operations, and I believe I can offer a fresh perspective and also practical solutions to policy-making decisions that affect our constituents on a daily basis. I have a strong desire to be a contributing member of this wonderful community.

Name:

Marnie Parse

Occupation:

I am the operations manager of Mike's Automotive Service in Kewaskum. I also have been a CNA for more than 30 years. I still do in-home health care visits.

Family Information:

I have a biological daughter, 27, who has special needs and a biological son, 24. I have been a foster parent and have helped several Kids over the years. I also have two multipoo dogs and use them as therapy dogs as part of my Home Health Care services.

Community Involvement:

Involved with the Chamber of Commerce; I also operate a full-service gas station. I enjoy seeing people and seeing smiling faces.

Why are you running for candidacy?

I've been part of this community for 10 years as a parent. I want to keep this a great place to raise a family. I have seen how this community comes together to support in times of need and positive things. I would like to give back to my community.

What are your qualifications?

Great with people and will work hard and make sure your voice is heard. I have assisted in scheduling a home health care agency to be on call to help staff and residents. I also run the day-to-day operations of a gas station; maintaining budgets, vendors, staff and also customer relations.

Why should people vote for you?

My priorities are: I may not have as much experience as others, but I feel like I could make a difference, and I take pride in our community.

Name:

Mary Schlitt

Occupation:

Chief Deputy County Clerk - Washington County

Family Information:

My husband Jim and I have been married for 27 years.

Community Involvement:

My husband and I have volunteered in prepping the soccer fields at Reigle Family Park, as well as putting Thanksgiving meals together for the Kewaskum Community Pantry. We are also looking forward to helping the Historical Society with the 125th Anniversary celebration at River Hill Park in June.

Why are you running for candidacy?

I filed candidacy papers after becoming aware of the two vacant positions. I would look forward to working together with the village board to provide positive leadership and fiscally responsible services. I love this community and want to serve here in any way that I can!

What are your qualifications?

My work with Washington County has given me a background in government operation that can be valuable to the Village of Kewaskum. Previous to working for the County, I was a Church Administrator for 15 years. I believe both jobs give me a unique skill set that make me qualified to serve as a Village Trustee.

Why should people vote for you?

My heart is to serve this community to the best of my ability. I believe much can be accomplished by good people working together toward a common goal.

Name:

Nate Wendelborn (i)

Occupation:

Director of Public Works, Village of Newburg

Family Information:

I have a wife, Carlie, and a one-and-a-half-year-old son, Jackson.

Community Involvement:

I graduated from Kewaskum High School. I was involved in the KYSO program and head coach of the Kewaskum boys varsity soccer team.

Why are you running for candidacy?

I am running for re-election to continue my work on responsible government spending, working to keep sewer and water rates from increasing, and to help listen to the needs of my constituents. There are a lot of very impactful topics coming up in the very near future that the Village residents and business owners need to be included in on.

What are your qualifications?

My time spent working as a public works director gives me a unique perspective on local government, especially when it comes to spending. I understand what things are necessities for our staff to complete their jobs well, but I also know where we can tighten up spending to reduce the impacts to our taxpayers. Prior to serving on the village board, I served for more than two years on the Planning Commission.

Why should people vote for you?

People should vote for me for trustee because, in my year on the board so far, I have tried to cut spending on things like multiple concept plans for a new municipal building and excessive staff overtime, I will fight to keep the Kiwanis Pond open as long as we can and come up with a long-term solution to the staffing issues it presents, and I will try to find ways to keep our water and sewer rates from increasing due to necessary upgrades. I am the kind of trustee that will always take a call or e-mail from anyone and will take as much time as it takes to make sure those impacted by decisions are heard and informed.

Name:

Justin Weninger

Occupation:

Journeyman Carpenter, C.D. Smith Construction

Family Information:

Married to Sara (Ramel). I have two sons, Jaxson (7) and Harrison (5). My parents are Bruce and Carolyn Weninger. I also have an older brother, Chris Weninger, and a younger sister named Michelle Uniewski.

Community Involvement:

I am a trustee with the Kewaskum Athletic Association (KAA). I coach my son's flag football team, baseball teams and basketball team. I am a board member of the Kettle Moraine Sportsman Club. I am a committee member of the Gateway Gobblers. I am also on the planning committee for Holy Trinity's Social Fest. I am a board member and officer of Carpenters Local 2283.

Why are you running for candidacy?

I've lived here my whole life. I have been involved with a lot of great things. I want to continue being apart of the community, and doing what is best for our town.

What are your qualifications?

I have been an officer on the Carpenters Local 2283 for the last four years. A board member of the Kettle Moraine Sportsman Club for the last six years. A trustee for the KAA for the last year-and-a-half.

Why should people vote for you?

Being apart of a small town community means so much to me. The way we come together as a community for the smallest things is amazing. I love being apart of that. I've been here my whole life; I love it here. I want my kids to appreciate that as much as I do. I want what is best for our town, and the great people who live here!

KEWASKUM'S DAYS GONE BY

5 Years Ago
March 9, 2017

Randy and Jessica Trapp and their 16-year-old daughter, Ashley, lost everything when their house burned down February 28. Jessica said the worst part about the fire was losing her son's possessions. Travis Trapp lost his life in 2014, the result of a car accident. Wanting to salvage anything they could after the fire, the family used forks to meticulously dig through the soot, mud, and water. Although damaged, they found Travis' old yearbooks and wrestling medals as well as two toy tractors from his collection. Randy's class and wedding rings, Ashley's jewelry box, the baptismal gown the two children wore, and a few other special items were also found.

For the better part of the past century, an old photo of Chief Kewaskum has circulated that depicts the person for which the village and township of Kewaskum are named. It turns out that photograph is not of the correct Chief Kewaskum. Local historian Aaron Laatsch was recently shifting through old files at the Kewaskum Historical Society Museum and came across a 111-year-old letter that confirms the photograph could not be the Kewaskum namesake. It was discovered that the original Chief Kewaskum drowned in the Mill Pond at Hustisford in the 1860s; the Chief Kewaskum in the picture passed away in 1905.

Readers of the Statesman were reminded of the school board candidate debate taking place March 9.

The Boltonville Fire Department is celebrating its 100th anniversary. The volunteer fire department was formed in 1917 after two serious fires in the small village occurred. The first fire truck cost $350 and the most recent purchase was approximately $350,000.

The Dundee St. Patrick's Day Parade is this Sunday.

Kewaskum Middle School students had one of the strongest showings at Solo And Ensemble in recent years. All students received either a first or second place rating.

The Kewaskum High School girls bowling team took second place in Division 2 at the Wisconsin High School Bowling Tournament. The Lady Indians include Allison Thill, Mindy Janesch, Terrah Phillips, Breanna Mielkie, and Mikayla Bigelow. The team was in third place after the opening round of action.

The Kewaskum sixth grade girls "Kewaskum Tribe" basketball team recently won the seventh grade North Shore Girls Youth Basketball League Championship. Kewaskum's sixth grade team played up at the seventh grade level against schools from the Metro Milwaukee area.

At the March 5 Kewaskum Youth Wrestling Tournament, four members of the Indian Wrestling Club earned titles at their respective weights. They included Eli Olgi in the 73-77 pound weight class, Joshua Vogt in the 95-104 weight class, Xane Kleinke in the 102-109 pound weight class, and Kannon Muckerheide in the 165-200 pound weight class.

Daniel R. Reindl, 69, formerly of Kewaskum, passed away March 5. Karen A. Kirst, 70, Kewaskum, passed away February 27. Lillian A. Oelhafen, 100, Kohlsville, passed away March 3. Jerome P. Metz, 69, Wausau, passed away February 27.

The public, village trustees, DNR, and two engineering firms gave a thumbs up to an updated plan to renovate the village's outdated wastewater treatment facility. The village is set to make an official vote at the March 19 meeting. The revised plan will cost taxpayers $3.44 million. The first plan had been estimated at $10.9 million. Revised population estimates were a factor in bringing down the price for the facility upgrades.

Regal Ware has announced the recipients of its annual $18,000 scholarship award. They are Bekki Heberer and Lindsay Krautkramer.

Firefighters from Campbellsport, Kewaskum, and the City of Fond du Lac worked in the midst of blowing and drifting snow on State Highway 45 on a two-vehicle crash. The accident left a nine-year-old Kewaskum Elementary School student dead and his father facing possible drunk driving charges. Two other children in the vehicle sustained serious injuries. The couple in the other vehicle are Kewaskum residents and were transported with non-life threatening injuries. John Ibeme Sr., 55, was expected to be formally charged March 7.

The Eisenbahn Trail that runs through Kewaskum may be more populated with snowmobile enthusiasts this time of year, but come May 5, three local business people hope to pack the trail with walkers. The trio is organizing a run/walk/bike ride in memory of dear friends. Jeff Jaeger and Chris and Steve Jung are organizing the event in memory of Ben Derge and Barb Liegl.

Dave Rizzardi, Kewaskum's agriculture teacher, has been chosen as one of 100 teachers to receive the $1,000 award from the Herb Kohl Educational Foundation Scholarship and Fellowship Program for 2007. He was nominated by Principal Christine Horbas.

Kewaskum High School students Ryan Nuernberg, Chad Enright, Alex Piwoni, Travis Bryant, and Kyle Flasch placed second as a team in the recent Bots IQ competition, sponsored by members of the Wisconsin Precision Metalworking Council. The Kewaskum team was sponsored by Toolcraft, Inc. of Germantown and Regal Ware of Kewaskum.

The final score in the playoff game against St. John's Academy/Northwestern was 29-28, with Kewaskum winning the playoff game for the first time in a long time. The only time one of the teams scored in double figures for a quarter was Kewaskum's 12 in the third quarter. Kewaskum lost 49-38 to Port Washington in the second round.

A daughter, Haley Breann, was born February 23 to Cynthia and Daniel Short of Adell.

Virginia A. Oppermann, 82, Kewaskum, passed away March 5. Marjorie M. Lynn, 88, West Bend, passed away March 3. Betty Ann Giese, 78, Kewaskum, passed away February 27. Bryon Eichstedt, 80, Kewaskum, passed away February 28. Paul K. Stier, 80, West Bend, passed away March 3. Ann Marie Steier Lobenstein, 82, West Bend, passed away March 2. Infant Alexi Jo Ringle passed away March 1. Marian Mueller, 84, Adell, passed away March 1. Deacon Leo A. Mugan, 62, Cascade, passed away March 2.

Joel Dzedzic earned second place in the 135-pound weight class at the WIAA State Wrestling Tournament. He was down 7-0 in his first match but came back to win 15-10. He lost the championship match 12-9. Dzedzic finished his high school career with 131 wins and 11 losses. He is the first Kewaskum wrestler to go to State all four years and also place each year.

Glen Schnabel finished his high school wrestling career by placing fifth at the WIAA State Wrestling Tournament.

At the Village Board meeting March 3, the parking ban was unanimously lifted as of midnight that night. However, a stipulation was made that in the event of a storm or significant snowfall, a snow emergency can be announced at any time, which would mean the winter parking ban would go back into effect.

Four students from Holy Trinity School participated in the St. Mary's of Mayville Forensics Meet on February 20. The team of Maggie Herriges, Rachel Wolf, Cindy Reindl, and Aileen Chambers did an interpretation of Noah's Ark by Bill Cosby, getting an A and A+ on their reading.

After several months of negotiating, the Town of Wayne board approved a developers agreement presented by Kim and Mary Rodenkirch to develop land on Broadview Lane.

Ruth O. Kaniess, 91, Kewaskum, passed away March 1. Mervin C. Thompson, 86, Hot Springs, Montana, passed away February 24. John H. Clark, 78, West Bend, passed away February 28. Robert W. Heinecke, 66, St. Anthony, passed away March 2. Tammy S. Beder, 19, Hustisford, passed away February 28. Janel M. Spaeth, 21, Franksville, passed away February 26. Deborah A. Nehrbass, 47, West Bend, passed away March 1.

The annual Scenic Moraine Solo and Ensemble contest is scheduled for March 4. Kewaskum schools are sending 200 students, the largest group to the contest.

A three-year contract with Johnson School Bus Service of West Bend was accepted by the Kewaskum School District. This bid was about $46,000 less than Degnitz Bus Service and about $50,000 less than the bid from Wm. C. Bauman Bus Service. Degnitz and Bauman transport the students now.

The Kewaskum Community High School Forensics Team won 10 "A" and six "B" ratings to take second place in the Scenic Moraine Conference meet last Saturday.

Dean Schmidt, Kewaskum's representative at the district FFA Creed and Public Speaking Contest held February 23, placed second with his speech titled The Invaders.

Forensics has become an important extracurricular activity for many Kewaskum Junior High School students. In its second year of existence, 30 students are active in the program.

Glenn Eichstedt of Kewaskum was named to the Scenic Moraine All-Conference team. Tom Theusch received honorable mention.

After a third place finish in the Scenic Conference and a so-so season, the Indians have really turned it on and played some of their hottest basketball to win the Class A WIAA Sub-Regionals. Kewaskum beat Random Lake 79-45 in the first round and Campbellsport 85-61 in the second round. The Indians will play Sheboygan South in the Regional championship game.

Alma Ramthun, 78, Kewaskum, passed away February 27. Lillian Preis, 82, passed away February 24.

Eddie Haack, who has served as a full-time trainee and law enforcement officer since last June, resigned to take a position in West Bend. He agreed to work part-time until a full-time officer is hired. Four people were interviewed for the position at the March 4 meeting of the village board.

Louis Opgenorth of Kewaskum was one of three prominent Washington County farmers in Chicago last Thursday to be interviewed by Everett Mitchell, WMAQ farm program director. The three farmers discussed their experiences in the application of soil conversation measures on their farms.

John Tessar from the Kewaskum basketball team was selected on the North Fond du Lac district all-tournament team. His teammates, Don Wierman and Augie Bilgo, made the all-tourney second team.

A floral and pottery gift shoppe will be opened in the near future in the Kippenhan store by Miss Lois Zanow. She is a 1946 graduate of our local high school.

John Weddig, 70, Kewaskum, passed away March 1. Elmer Miller, 55, Kewaskum native, passed away March 3. Margaret Thull, 85, Farmington, passed away February 21.

Campbellsport Middle School February Students of the Month

Colton Jaeger – Sixth Grade

The sixth grade teachers would like to proudly recognize Colton Jaeger for the February Student of the Month. Colton has an incredible drive to always want to learn more. He excels in all of his academics and pushes himself to go above and beyond what is expected of him. In addition to his academics, Colton also participates in Science Olympiads.

Not only does Colton thrive within his academics, Colton's positivity radiates throughout each class. He is such a kind-hearted student. When someone needs assistance or a helping hand, Colton is always willing to step in and help those in need. Colton is an excellent positive role model for all Campbellsport Middle School students. We couldn't be more proud of all that Colton has achieved this year.

Congratulations Colton!

Colton Jaeger

Christopher Taddey – Seventh Grade

Throughout this school year, the seventh grade teachers have stressed the importance of always "choosing kind." Our Student of the Month is a role model to others in being able to choose kind in all life situations. The seventh grade team is proud to announce Christopher Taddey as our Seventh Grade Student of the Month for February of 2022.

Christopher is a quiet leader as he models a positive attitude and always puts forth 100% effort both in and outside of his classes. Christopher goes above and beyond by using his time well and offering help without being asked. He doesn't draw attention to himself, but he does what needs to be done. Christopher does a nice job on his work without needing praise or attention. We can always count on him to do the right thing whether we are watching or not. Christopher clearly has a strong work ethic and a strong desire to learn!

Christopher brightens our days and treats others with kindness and respect. Being polite is just part of who he is and how he treats others. Thank you Christopher for adding to Campbellsport Middle School in so many positive ways!

Christopher Taddey

Lilijana Obrochta – Eighth Grade

The eighth-grade teachers proudly recognize Lilijana Obrochta as our February Student of the Month. Lilijana has stood out as one of the most thoughtful, intelligent, and hard-working students in the eighth grade. She puts forth incredible effort and has a work ethic that stands out as exemplary for her age. Lilijana has an inquisitive mind and a sweet personality that makes teachers and students both want to be in her presence. Although a quiet student in the classroom, there is no mistaking her ability to be an effective leader and positive role model for others. Lilijana is loyal to her friends and her presence brings joy to those fortunate enough to be close to her.

KMS Students Rated in Middle Solo and Ensemble Events

Kewaskum Middle School hosted Middle Solo and Ensemble on February 26. It was great to have an in-person festival again. All students received either a first or second place rating in their events. Directors Rachael Holmes and Josh Michlig are extremely proud of these students. Students from Cedarburg, Port Washington, Grafton, and Kewaskum performed a variety of band and choir events. This was the first middle school festival held in the new middle school. Students and directors loved our new facilities!

Music is classified from C (beginning level for second or third year players) and goes up to Class A (typically reserved for advanced high school students).

Student Grace Last on horn received a first place rating in Class A events and is advancing to State. This is the first KMS brass event going to state in a very long time.

Students receiving a first rating in Class B events are Eighth Grade Clarinet Choir (Kayleen Becker, Madi Klemme, Hope Landvatter, Addy Staver, Ryker Lunde and Oliver Luedtke); Leo Gerhartz (horn solo); Zach Lefeber (snare drum solo); Aubrey Reysen (flute solo); Skylar Beisbier (flute solo); and Grace Last (piano solo).

Receiving a first rating in Class C events are Eighth Grade Jazz Band; Eighth Grade Saxophone Choir (Jenna Kreuziger, Ruby Gerhartz, Zach Doubeck, Ben Ebert and Zoey Reysen); Seventh Grade Percussion Ensemble (Zach Lefeber, Mckenna Lange, Ayla Rank, Liam Kumrow, Sarah Zeman, Peyton Voight and Malia Volesky); Alessandra Otten and Tessa Neumann (trumpet duet); Maddie Dercola, Baxton Anderson and Violet Brazeau (alto sax, flute, tenor sax trio); Jack Krenzke (trumpet solo); Nora Nowacki (clarinet solo); Henry Luedtke (trumpet solo); Kayleen Becker and Skylar Beisbier (flute, clarinet duet); Mckenna Langer (snare drum solo);

Carter Heimerman (alto sax solo); Elliott Schulz (trumpet solo); Eric Jungers (euphonium solo); Colton Rabe and Kyle Haim (trumpet duet); Malia Volesky and Mckenna Lange (mallet duet); Eleanor Schulz and Sienna Hatch (clarinet, alto sax duet); Jordan Kephart (clarinet solo); Kayleen Becker (clarinet solo); Elijah Mays (bari sax solo); Lexie Butzlaff and Kellan Schutz (bass clarinet duet); Lia Piittmann (oboe solo); Zoey Jakubowski (alto sax solo); Meagan Knoeck (clarinet solo); Liam Kumrow (timpani solo); Alayna Lambrecht, Taylor Keller and Emma Klahn (trumpet trio); Ethan Bielaga and Sawyer Tye (clarinet, alto sax duet); Kiley Leu (clarinet solo); Lia Piittmann (piano solo); Oliver Luedtke, Katelyn Nielson, Gabe Halopka and Zoey Reysen (bass clarinet, horn, bari sax, mallet quartet).

Second rating in Class C events was received by Cale Krejcarek (trumpet solo); Emma Solburg and Taylor Weinreich (flute, alto sax duet).

Shepherd of the Hills Catholic School students, Jensen Stoffel, left, Dayton Rentmeester, and Clementine Bollman, use teamwork to play a game of Valentine's Day bingo. SUBMITTED

Welcome 4-H Club News

At a Welcome 4-H meeting held on Monday, Feb. 21, Jenny Kutz (dog leader for Fond du Lac County), on right, spoke to club members about dog training and how to show dogs at the fair. It was a very informative presentation. Jenny and her assistant, Michael, at left, demonstrated how to train their dogs and how to teach a dog how to heel, sit, stay, and fetch. SUBMITTED

Staffing Changes

The Campbellsport Public library would like to bring to your attention a few staffing changes. Alison Capoyanes, who has been working as our children's librarian, has decided to embark on the new adventure of being the library director! Alison has been working at the library since last May and has thoroughly enjoyed making connections with library patrons, children, and area businesses.

When asked about her new position Alison said "I am up for the challenge and can't wait to see where this next adventure will take me. I want the library to continue being a central hub of learning for this community and am thrilled to continue the legacy of this library that was started 100 years ago."

Alison lives in Fond du Lac with her husband, Peter, and their two children George (4) and Corrina (1). In her spare time she loves to read and spend time with her family.

We would also like to introduce to you our new Children's Librarian Monica Hinze. Monica moved to Campbellsport in the fall of 2021 with her husband, two daughters, four Cockapoos and one Persian kitty. Monica is excited to work in the community and hopes to bring a joyful spirit and attitude to the library each day.

Book Sale

We will be hosting a mini book sale in the library beginning March 7-11. Come check out our wonderful selection of both fiction and nonfiction books as well as magazines and much more. The sale will be held on the first floor of the library and will take place during our open hours of 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. Hope to see you there!

Native Trail Marker Trees Presentation

The Campbellsport Public Library would like to invite you to come and listen to local historian Karl McCarty present on Native American Trail Marker trees. He will be at the library on Thursday, March 10, at 6 p.m. Before settlers came to Wisconsin, a vast network of trees were bent. Recent findings are indicating major traffic by Natives in Fond du Lac County. McCarty will share how some of these trees looked, and present on some of the trees still standing within our 20-mile radius. You will leave with the ability to spot some of them in the forest yourself.

Movie Matinee

On Friday March 11, at 10:15 a.m., the library will be showing Disney's "Encanto." If you haven't seen this movie yet, you are in for a real treat. The music and movement in this movie are so much fun, and there is something for everyone in your family to enjoy! We will provide popcorn! Hope to see you here!

Story Hour

The library hosts story hour each Wednesday from 10:30 -11:30 a.m. with Mrs. Monica. Each week features several themed stories along with a craft and various other activities. Children ages 3 to 5 are welcome to attend with an adult. Masking for story hour is optional, however we do ask that you continue to use hand washing practices and your best judgement when joining in the fun. If you have a cough or cold-like symptoms, please stay at home until you feel better. Here's what's coming up:

- March 2 – Dr. Seuss Week.
- March 9 – Join us for a special story hour reading of Two Ducks in a Row, a true story written by Linda Herrick and Stephanie Delvaux of Campbellsport.
- March 16 – St. Patrick's Day celebration.

Tinker Tuesdays

Tinker Tuesdays are back! This free drop-in program is for school age children, or younger children who have a parent along to help them. Join us each Tuesday from 3:45-5:30 p.m. Children are invited to come tinker with Legos, Lincoln Logs, Brain Flakes and Zoob and Straw Builders.

Afternoon Book Club

The Campbellsport Library invites new members to join our afternoon book club. The book club meets every third Tuesday of the month at 1 p.m. in the library. Come join us for lively discussions and light refreshments. The book for March 15 is The Invisible life of Addie Larue by V.E. Schwab. We have copies available in regular, large print and on CD audio book.

LORI KREIS KEWASKUM LIBARIAN

I can't think of any previous collaborations between a prolific author and country music superstar, but I do know of one coming out this month. Run Rose Run is the effort of a partnership between Dolly Parton and James Patterson. It includes a story, music and a bookcast. We will have the novel and the music CD at the library for you to check out. The book is about a young woman who comes to Nashville to pursue her musical dreams. She has fled her brutal past, but her songs reflect the heart-wrenching pain Rose has experienced. The album contains songs that are directly related to this story.

In some other new fiction releases this month, Janet Evanovich comes out with The Recovery Agent, a new series featuring Gabriela Rose, a woman who searches for missing things. Look for Harlan Coben's The Match, a thriller that has Wilde follow a tip that may give him the truth behind his childhood abandonment. I like historical fiction and Black Cloud Rising by David Falade brings us back to the Civil War and the African Brigade. Jennifer Smith of young adult writing fame branches out into adult fiction with The Unsinkable Greta James. This story is about a musician coming off a public tragedy to try to heal with her father on an Alaskan Cruise. Also look for new books by Danielle Steel, Lisa Scottoline and Gilly MacMillan.

Noted as one of the top science books to come out this year, The Invisible Siege: The Rise of Coronaviruses and the Search for a Cure by Dan Werb brings us the origins of COVID-19 and the discoveries of its vaccines and potential cures. Generation Sleepless is a helpful guide for parents as to why their tweens and teens are not getting the sleep they need. Psychotherapists Heather Turgeon and Julie Wright offer real-life solutions for making sure your children learn better sleep habits. Jack Davis releases The Bald Eagle: The Improbable Journey of America's Bird. It features stories of Founding Fathers, rapacious hunters, heroic bird rescuers and the lives of bald eagles themselves. March will also bring us new non-fiction releases about the Keto Code, loving someone with Alzheimer's Disease and books of essays.

In children's literature, there is a large variety of new items coming out this month. Some picture book titles include, The Library Fish, Look After Us and Nana Loves You More. Some new easy chapter books will be about Owl Diaries, Biscuit and Friends, The Bad Seed and The Good Age to name just a few. For teens, The Rumor Game about bullying at a posh private school is sure to be a popular read.

Great new movies will be out on DVD this month. Get on the holds list for West Side Story, Sing 2, Belfast, Matrix: Resurrections and several Masterpiece series.

Be sure to come in soon to check out all the new releases in March.

from July into October. The fluttering, melon-colored blooms of HS Date work particularly well, due to this variety’s maroon foliage and open growth habit. Complete your peach and burgundy theme with the dark-hued flowers of Rip City. These large, velvety flowers are almost black in the center and soften to wine-red toward the petal edges. Add ball dahlia Jowey Mirella for blooms that are smaller in size yet equally striking.

For another eye-catching color combination, narrow your selection to dahlias with purple and hot-pink flowers. Historically, purple was associated with royalty, spirituality, and knowledge. While pastel purple evokes a sense of calm and serenity, deeper tones add drama and excitement. Dinnerplate dahlia Lilac Time is an heirloom variety with fluffy, lavender blooms that can measure eight to ten inches across. Be sure to also include flowers in juicy grape and violet hues such as dahlias Thomas Edison, Cartouche and Purple Taiheijo.

Complement these moody purples with vivid pink dahlias. Burlesca is a cute little pompon dahlia with tightly rolled petals that reveal hints of peach, burgundy and violet. Fascination’s rose-pink, semi-double flowers contrast beautifully with the plant’s dark foliage and the blossoms are irresistible to bees and butterflies. Ball dahlia Rocco is an all-star variety that is long lasting in both garden and vase.

If you prefer pastels to brights, choose dahlias in shades of pale yellow, soft pink and cream. The enormous flowers of dinnerplate dahlia Café au Lait are a must. Complement them with ball dahlias such as peachy Linda’s Baby or buttery Boom Boom yellow. Decorative dahlia Fluffles has taffy-pink petals that fade to white, while Milena Fleur’s are a mélange of pink, peach and pale butterscotch.

When you start with flowers in compatible colors, designing floral arrangements becomes so much easier. You’ll have all you need to quickly create a centerpiece for any gathering, an impressive bouquet for your own home, or an informal handful of blooms to share with friends.

United Way Announces 2022 Ziegler Leadership Scholarship

The United Way of Washington County awarded the 2022 Ziegler Leadership Scholarship to Maxwell Roy, Director of Operations for the Boys & Girls Club of Washington County. Max will receive $2,500 towards his Doctor of Public Health studies at the Medical College of Wisconsin.

Maxwell Roy

United Way of Washington County believes that agency success starts with strong and capable leadership. We recognize the need to further equip local nonprofits for excellence as we expect measurable and impactful community program outcomes. This scholarship is an opportunity to build talent development and nonprofit capacity in an ever-changing environment.

The Ziegler Leadership Scholarship was established in 2016 and is awarded annually to a nonprofit executive or nonprofit emerging leader to expand and enhance their leadership development through continuing education, training and/or certification.

As Director of Operations, Max is responsible for overseeing five Washington County locations of the Boys & Girls Club, including 2,500 members and 60 staff. He has completed several leadership development programs through the Boys & Girls Club of America, including Club Director’s Academy program, Advanced Leadership program and National Trainers Initiative. In 2017 he graduated from the Master of Public Health program at the Medical College of Wisconsin.

“United Way is thrilled to award this scholarship to Max Roy,” said Kristin Brandner, CEO, United Way of Washington County. “Max is dedicated to improving himself and this community and always strives for excellence. We know his continuing education will have positive ripple effects on Washington County.”

Max will utilize the scholarship to support his current enrollment in the Doctor of Public Health Program at the Medical College of Wisconsin where he will complete a dissertation on the mental health and well-being of nonprofit leaders in youth-serving organizations.

“Leadership, and continued development, is foundational in my priorities and values when it comes to the work I do for the good of the community,” said Max. “This funding will support the continuation of my development as a leader in the nonprofit sector serving youth, families and communities.”

What was Lost – a Dead Trail Marker Tree

KARL MCCARTY
CONTRIBUTOR

In Fond du Lac County stands a tree that once pointed to a sacred setting all around. The only thing living is the argument for its place in history. Maybe this is why she's upright — just barely — after decades of decay.

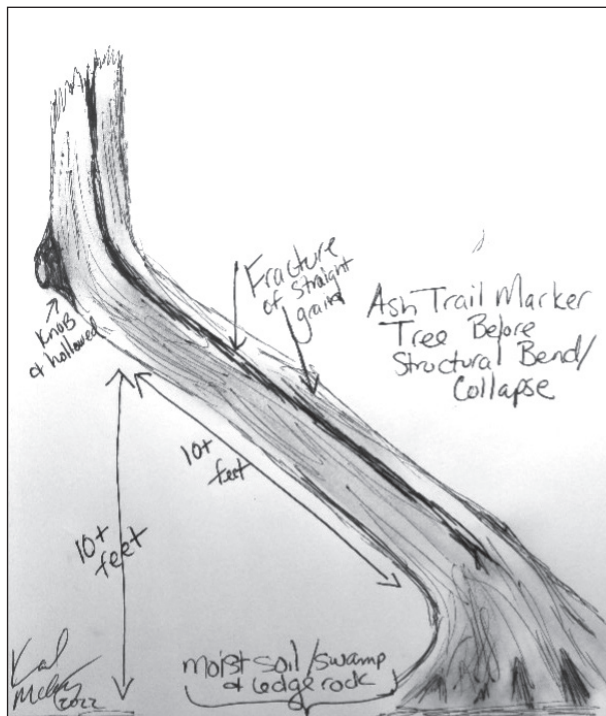

Focus on the Forest

Around Christmas time, readers were introduced to a Native American trail marker tree in the Oakfield Area. They were also shown examples of how trees were bent before permanent European settlement. The purpose of those articles, and those forthcoming, is to find more in the area. Your eyes in the forest have been appreciated, as we are starting to locate trees molded by Native Americans more than 170 years ago.

The focus of this article is a complicated tree, both dead and deformed from its once historic bend. Please see the accompanying pictures and recreated sketch for understanding. Here are some thoughts on why the ash tree described below is a trail marker tree in the eastern half of Fond du lac County.

Rationale as a Marker

- First, the tree has the remnants of a healed knob. A tree whose leader is bent down will have its branches become new competing leaders rising upwards. Over decades, the original (now bent parallel to the ground leader) atrophies and dies off, forming a typical elbow healing while the new “arm” (leader) points up. This tree has at least one

This sketch shows what the tree looked like before it lost its structural integrity. Because ash trees have straight grain, the Native American bend in the tree may have caused the split that eventually went all the way to the root.

SKETCH BY KARL MCCARTY

knob, once deconstructed from its present twisted state.

- Second, ash trees don't grow crooked. In fact, younger species of ash grew straight all over the forest, and a half dozen young ones stand as straight as a flagpole just feet away. The original Native American-made bend in this old tree is very unorthodox to the behavior of its species.

- Third, the ash tree is not huge in circumference, but it is big. Its circumference is at least 6-feet. However, the tree established on rather moist land and possible ledge rock. Because the area might have on occasions been too wet, combined with ledge rock for the root to penetrate, the ash tree might be stunted in growth. Recognize this tree could align with measurements that would be under arborist estimates for a tree 170 years old when compared to a typical ash tree at such circumference. Please keep in mind the bending itself of a tree, and subsequent recovery may stunt the tree too. Also, the tree was dying long before emerald ash borer came to the area, so its modest size and subsequent age to be estimated should not include recent years. Outside observers have suggested it may even have been dying for decades.

- Fourth, along the previous lines, the tree matches one of the last bent trees in the area. It probably is not more than 200 years like other trail marker trees within a 20-mile radius. This might explain why its bend did not form a nice 90-degree angle like an arm and elbow, as seen in the reconstructed sketch. Thus, the tree was bent but not checked on after tying down — a plausible conclusion after Indians started to be exterminated from the area. When trail marker trees are made, they still need maintenance in the years of shaping. This tree likely lacked such manicuring, but is also a rationale on why its strange shape is a trail marker.

- Fifth, the tree is all within a couple miles of Native American mounds, petro forms, and/or medicine wheels. There are also sacred springs, and former caves and quarries within reason from the area. Just one of these could have been justification for a necessary awareness to the area by a marker tree.

Rarity of Rarities

There are also factors that it may be a rare specimen as an ash trail marker tree. Ash is known for its straight grain, and other hardwoods other than ash may have been a better choice for trail marker trees. When it comes to this tree, a paralyzing crack destabilized it from its long time position. Does the bend of the leader open an ash tree to cracking later years down the road? If this is the case, the ash tree was not a good pick of species for a trail sign.

There are two valuable publications that will give the reader, and hiker, good footing for similar trees. Raymond E. Janssen did research in the mid-1900s. For example, his article in the July 1941 edition of The Scientific Monthly was very helpful to defining the qualities of Trail Marker Trees,

The trail marker tree in winter. The snow on the ground and the leaves off the trees make the markings more pronounced in the forest.

particularly in Illinois. Dennis Downes has published great images in his book, Native American Trail Marker Trees (2011). Both of these publications have many examples of various trees, but it appears ash is less common, and sparsely mentioned. Janssen wrote that some species are more easily bent at sharp angles than others, as he listed “oaks, elms, hickories and maples” (p.24, 1941). Likewise, Downes's book is meticulous in the amount of trees found that marked trails, but ash trees are not the dominant choice. Was ash less chosen because Native Americans knew a 90-degree bend of its straight grain made it susceptible to splitting?

With this in mind, the story behind the tree might have required the marker be exactly at that spot. Perhaps it marks a special meaning to the Native American who bent it. This need may have caused the tree to have to be that ash because no other location could be used. It begs to question why a tree needed to be bent exactly there. A forced location may also explain its shape, as the tree may have been bent at a very late age which made it hard to bend parallel with the ground.

In addition, a strong spiritual connect for those who align with Native American spiritualism is argued by and witnessed by the landowner, who prefers it to be anonymous for now out of respect to the dead. That individual thinks it is important to publish the tree before it falls over completely, as it has held this position for probably a decade. Its death started long before emerald ash borer, and its break seems to have been induced by the bending of the straight grain. The only fear is that this publication will close the chapter on its standing: as a strong storm may tip the scales of its history, fall over on the wet soil and blend with the landscape it once honored. Its fortitude and continued spirit is worth pondering, argues the owner, even if the tree is dead.

If you have an interest in trail marker trees, Karl McCarty will be presenting at the Campbellsport Public Library on Thursday, March 10, at 6 p.m. You may also contact him about recommendations on such trees at kmccarty@oakfield.k12.wi.us.

Moraine Park and Kreilkamp Create Truck Driving Program

Moraine Park Technical College (MPTC) and Kreilkamp Trucking of Allenton have combined efforts to create the Wisconsin Regional Truck Driving Academy, a unique career opportunity to help respond to worker shortages.

Like many industries, Kreilkamp's workforce is declining, and the worker shortages are impacting his business.

"Currently, there are more loads than trucks," said Tim Kreilkamp, President of Kreilkamp Trucking. "For every driver, over nine loads are waiting to be hauled. Delays like this cause late deliveries and contribute to many of the product shortages we are seeing today."

The need for skilled truck drivers is also top of mind for MPTC.

"We are continuously reviewing industry needs for future programming," Pete Rettler, dean of Moraine Park's West Bend Campus, said. "[Coincidentally], Tim [Kreilkamp] came to the college to discuss his needs right when we were exploring how we could help. Our partnership formed from there."

Kreilkamp and Rettler worked to explore the needs and how to fulfill them feasibly.

The needs revolved around the challenging process of obtaining a commercial driver's license (CDL); access to a semi is required to take the road test. Additionally, many driving schools charge $5,000 or more upfront for the training. For individuals starting in the industry, this is a significant expense and, in many cases, an unaffordable option.

"We realize it is not easy to get into the trucking industry," Kreilkamp said. "Many of our seasoned drivers are retiring, and I knew we would have to create a solution to begin to rebuild the workforce."

As Kreilkamp and MPTC continued to work through logistics, the need to create an accessible driving school became evident.

"We needed to provide an option with no upfront costs and access to equipment," Kreilkamp said. "I could provide the space and tools but did not have access to instructors or curriculum."

Kreilkamp had the tools and space for classrooms and driving, and MPTC had educational resources. Together, the Wisconsin Regional Truck Driving Academy was created.

The Wisconsin Regional Truck Driving Academy is an eight-week program taught by two Moraine Park instructors. Cohorts will run every eight weeks, with 12-15 students in each session.

Those interested must be 18 or older, have a good driving record and be able to pass both a drug test and a Department of Transportation (DOT) physical. Individuals accepted into the program become employees of Kreilkamp. Lodging, transportation and meals are paid for during the program, and participants earn a wage while they complete the training. "We cover all the costs to apply for and enter the program, including the DOT physical," Kreilkamp said. "The only upfront commitment is to show up to class, the rest is taken care of."

The Wisconsin Regional Truck Driving Academy, funded in part by a grant, is managed through Moraine Park's Economic and Workforce Development department. After completing the program, participants will have a Moraine Park technical diploma, be employed by Kreilkamp and begin working immediately. The starting salary for a regional truck driver is approximately $61,000 per year.

"With unemployment at an all-time low in the region, creative solutions to finding and retaining talent are critical," JoAnn Hall, Dean of Economic and Workforce Development at MPTC, said. "Employer-funded training programs, like this one, become a critical component to support business growth. Combining the expertise and resources of both of our organizations has been key."

The overall goal is to create 72 skilled truck drivers each year, and future goals revolve around developing further partnerships for even more growth.

For more information on the Wisconsin Regional Truck Driving Academy, call 262-629-5000 ext. 3028 or 3036.

Lady Indians Win Third Consecutive Regional Title

Julia Steger attempts a three for Kewaskum.

MICHAEL DREWNIAK
ASST. COACH

The Kewaskum girls basketball team began their postseason on Friday, Feb. 25, against a familiar opponent, the Berlin Indians. The 10-seed seeded team from Berlin stunned the seven-seed Lomira Lions in the opening round of regional play on a buzzer beater to set up the second-round match-up.

Kewaskum's regular season matchups were pretty lopsided in favor of our local five, and the regional game would be no different, as the local Lady Indians bested the visiting Indians, 70-28.

Junior Madi Dogs scored all 18 of her points in the first half, and senior Annie Christenson scored 12 of her 16 points in the first half to help Kewaskum to a 40-12 halftime advantage.

The starters for Kewaskum played the first shift in the second half, and they gave way for the reserves to close out the game.

The reserves played extremely well and helped Kewaskum reach the 70-point mark for only the second time this season. After a the 42-point victory, Kewaskum was headed into the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association Division 2 Regional Final against the three-seed Watertown Luther Preparatory Phoenix.

Regional Final

Kewaskum hosted the regional final the next night (Feb. 26).

Watertown Luther Prep knocked off North Fond du Lac the previous night, 58-52, helped by senior Grace Schmidt's 30-point evening. The 6'1 senior center was a concern for the Kewaskum coaching staff in their preparations.

The Indians got off to a slow start, being held scoreless over the first three minutes, and Prep jumped out to an early 4-0 lead.

Eventually, Kewaskum started getting going, and junior Julia Steger had a lot to with it. Steger knocked down three triples and scored 12 of her 17 points in the first half. Annie Christenson scored 10 of her 16 points in the half, as well, and the Indians finished the first frame strong and took a 32-25 into the locker rooms.

Kewaskum shot 50% from the field in the first half.

The second half may have been the best half of basketball Kewaskum has played all season.

Everything was clicking on both ends of the floor, as juniors Morgan Adams and Madi Dogs got

With a commanding lead, Annie Christenson fights through contact with a 30-point lead for Kewaskum in the first half of last week's round-two victory over Berlin. CLARICE CASE PHOTOS into a flow, scoring 14 and 11 points, respectively.

The defense was sharp with constant help in the paint, which made things difficult for Prep's Schmidt.

The Indians outscored the Phoenix 42-18 in the second half and cruised to a 74-43 victory in the final home game this season.

Junior Grace Leitheiser was exceptional, and the coaching staff noted her solid defense and ability to set teammates up for baskets as playing a significant role in the outcome. She finished with seven assists and three steals.

Kewaskum now heads to sectionals to take on the top-seeded Waupun Warriors. The game will be played at Lomira High School.

As the two teams play in the East Central Conference, Kewaskum and Waupun have squared off twice this season, and the Indians lost each of the two previous meetings. However, Kewaskum will look to a strong first half in the team's last meeting as a blueprint, as the Lady Indians led at halftime of that contest played in Waupun.

The coaching staff knows that the squad will need to shoot the ball as well as they did in regionals to knock down the Waupun door.

The first-round sectional contest will be played Thursday, March 3, in "The Den" at Lomira with tip-off scheduled for 7 p.m. This contest will, arguably, be the biggest semifinal contest in the WIAA Division 3 bracket, as Waupun features three first-team all-conference players.

Kewaskum will feature four all-conference players: Annie Christenson and Madi Dogs both were unanimous selections for first-team, while Morgan Adams was voted to the second team and Julia Steger earned an honorable mention.

This was the first time Kewaskum had four players earn all-conference recognition.

Kewaskum's record now is 23-3; 23 wins is a school record for most in a single season.

The winner of Thursday night's game will advance to the sectional final on Saturday, March 5, at 1 p.m. in Wautoma against the winner of Madison Edgewood and Columbus.

Morgan Adams does her best Kareem impression during last week's victory over the Berlin Indians. Kewaskum will play Waupun in round-one of the WIAA Sectional Tournament in Lomira on March 3.

AN Outdoorsman's JOURNAL

Buffalo County Gator Hunt

MARK WALTERS COLUMNIST

There was a time not that long ago when I was very consistent at catching large northern pike both in open water and on the ice. Last week, I headed over to the Mississippi River to fish near Buffalo City with the hope of catching some gators, which I find to be one of the best eating fish in the north.

SATURDAY, FEB. 19 HIGH: 23, LOW: -6

So, here was the plan: I am going to drive on the ice near Spring Lake, unload my snowmobile and Otter Sleds, load them with my gear and go exploring. I would build a camp, catch huge gators and go home 54-hours later. Naturally, my sidekick Ruby was along.

Though I have camped and fished Spring Lake – probably 50 nights of my life – I wanted to explore and cover a new, large area with my three tip ups. I set up on, maybe, a 40-acre body of water close to the main channel and began the huge task of building camp. Long story short, I had one flag, caught a small northern pike and had a bad feeling about my location.

SUNDAY, FEB. 20 HIGH: 46, LOW: 14

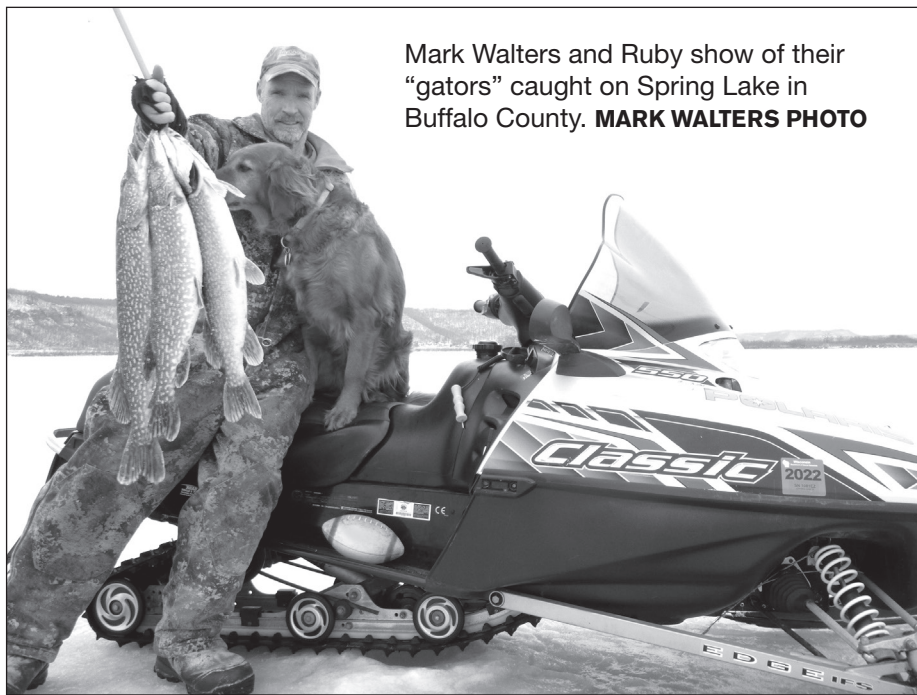

I think I need to start adding a "What Did I Forget" section to this column.

Last night, I was in my Eskimo ice shack enjoying life and thinking about cooking supper when I realized that I had forgot my Coleman propane cook stove.

This was not good, and I was hungry.

I had a frozen, packaged chicken dinner along, and I wanted to eat it.

I might add: It had become very windy, and my shack really was taking a beating and testing my ice anchors.

So, I come up with the idea of heating up my supper in a cast iron pan on top of my Mr. Buddy heater. I accidentally put too much water in it, so I had to cook it down and, just before I was about to consume it, my meal fell upside down on my carpeted floor.

I have to admit that I was crazy hungry and literally ate my supper off the carpet.

This morning, I had zero action. I frequently moved my tip ups, and I was bummed.

Throughout the day, I could see two people off in the distance that appeared to be going to tip-ups, which generally means they are having action.

About 3 p.m., they left, and I took a ride with my snowmachine, checked out their spot and made the decision that I was going to break camp and move. I have literally never done this, but I wanted to catch some gators.

So, I put out two tip-ups – and am setting my third – when I get a flag.

After an excellent fight, I iced a 28-inch gator, the perfect eater.

Folks, I have to tell you, between 3:30 and 10:30, I did not have a spare second. I was either building camp or running to another flag. I caught seven gators by dark, four more after dark and pulled my tip ups at 10:30.

The fishing was incredible!

MONDAY, FEB. 21 HIGH: 31, LOW: 23

I was walking the ice before daylight setting tip-ups and putting lights on them.

Before I had my third one out, my first was up.

I was catching 19 to 30-inch northern pike – not trophies, but half were over 25-inches – so there was always hope for a 40-incher.

In the back of my mind was a predicted ice and snowstorm, so I wanted to be heading home by 3 p.m.

With the approaching weather, the action ended, but my move had iced me 17 gators, most of those got released to swim another day.

So, I take the first load back to my truck and yesterday's warm weather had melted some ice where there was current. Had I been driving, and not thinking, I would have put my machine in open water.

When I got to my truck and trailer where there was snow and ice two days ago, there was now open water 40-yards in front of my truck. Had there been a little snow on what was ice, I would have driven forward to end this trip and would have lost the smile on my face.

When I was packing up, I spoke with my buddy, Nancy Baker, who was fishing by herself; it was her birthday, and she caught a nice limit of "sunnies!"

A few minutes later, a couple that recognized me pulled up with their truck and had me meet their golden retriever pup: "Ruby."

These folks read this column in the Buffalo County Journal and named their Ruby after mine!

To qualify for state, Scoles had defeated the sixth-ranked wrestler (at that time in WIAA Division 2) in the state from Kiel.

But Scoles, of course, was ranked number one.

In the state tournament, Deheck and Soyk wrestled Thursday night in the preliminary rounds, but after some tough matches, each lost to their opponents.

Scoles wrestled in his first match in the quarterfinals early on Friday. He won by technical fall.

In the semifinals later that evening, he won by a 19-6 major decision.

In the championship match, Scoles won by a 15-3 major decision – ultimately, no match was close – making him a three-time state champ and back-to-back champion in the 160 weight-class. In his freshman season, Scoles won the 145 weight-class title.

Looking ahead to his senior year, Scoles will have the rare opportunity of maintaining a title for four-consecutive years.

Looking back at 2021-22, Rhoads acknowledged senior Colin Duren and freshman Brent Krejcarek who finished the season with winning records. Duren ended with a 25-20 record, and Krejcarek ended with an 18-13 record.

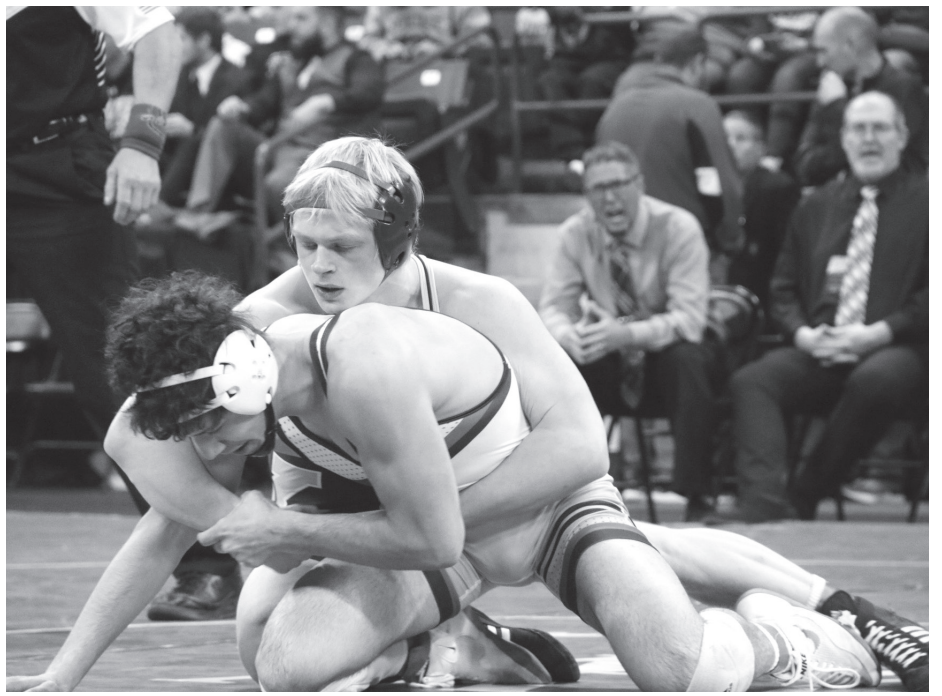

A highlight of this season for the whole team was winning a dual against a Plymouth team, 42-35.

“That particular dual was a bit of a nail biter,” Rhoads said. “We had some moments that we needed that went our way, and we earned that win. It was a good season energizer, and we rode that positive energy for quite a while.”

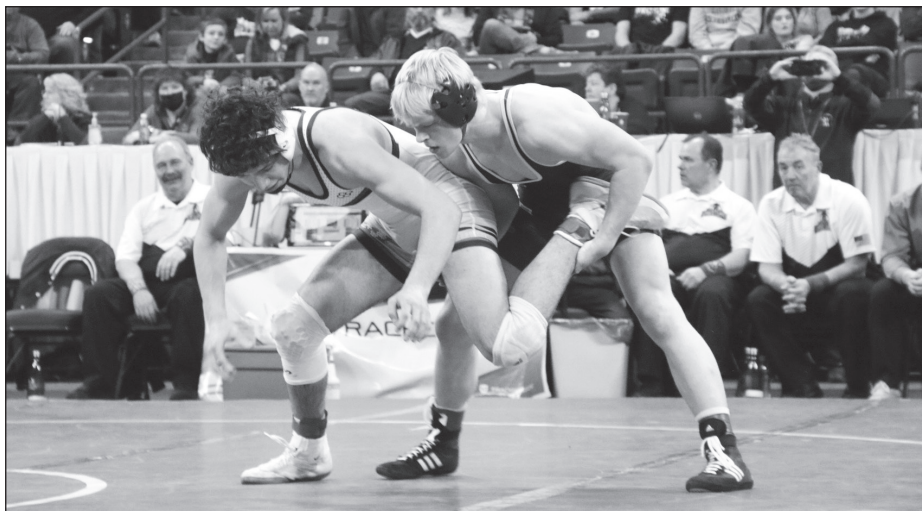

Looking ahead, Rhoads hopes to keep the numbers high and put in a lot of good work in the off-season to prepare for next year.

Having three state qualifiers returning to the program will help set the Indians up for more future success, and Scoles, assuredly, will have the Wisconsin wrestling world glancing his way as aims to make history starting this winter.

Congratulations to Scoles and the Kewaskum wrestling team on a fantastic season.

Blanchard Takes Third at State

DAN HEISDORF
ASST. COACH

Four Cougar wrestlers – Drake Muellenbach, Ostin Blanchard, Sam Koth and Joseph Volz – all wrestled last weekend in the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association Division 2 Individual State Wrestling Tournament in Madison, and Blanchard went 3-1 during the tournament to finish in third place.

Blanchard (126) wrestled Friday morning, Feb. 25, against Eyan Dessellier of Kiel, who Blanchard had a tight match with the week before in the sectional final. The Campbellsport matman bested his Kiel counterpart in that match.

At state, down 4-2 in the second period, Dessellier caught Blanchard off balance and put him to his back for the fall.

This was the Cougar junior's first loss of the season.

This put Blanchard on the consolation side where he then went up against Jackson Blaken of Gale-Etterick Trempealeau/Melrose Mindoro. Blanchard used four takedowns on his way to a 9-3 win.

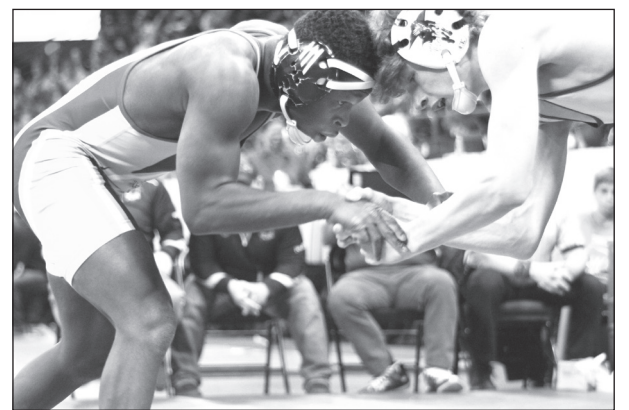

His third match pitted Blanchard against Cole Bozile of Oconto Falls. Blanchard dominated this match by taking Bozile down three times and using a tough ride to get a 7-0 win to put him in the third-place match against Derek Zschemitz of Neilsville Greenwood/Loyal.

In that match, after a scoreless first period, Zschemitz would get an escape and a takedown right to Ostin's back for a 6-0 lead.

But, Blanchard would find another gear, and he got an escape and a takedown to make it 6-3 heading into the third period. Blanchard chose the down position and got a reversal to make it 6-5. He gave up an escape and then got another takedown to tie the match. Blanchard and his coaches felt they had Zschemitz on the ropes and decided to cut him again and go for the win, and Blanchard did just that, as he got a takedown with just 55 seconds remaining in the match.

To close out the waning seconds, Blanchard would use some great riding and a couple good mat returns to earn a 9-8 decision and a third-place finish in the state final.

Blanchard would finish the season a near-perfect 52-1, which is the new school record for wins in a single season.

Drake Muellenbach (120) would wrestle a win-or-go-home-match Thursday night against Teague Holzer of Saint Croix Central.

Muellenbach would find himself down 8-0 early in the second period, but then started his comeback. He reversed Holzer and put him to his back to make it 8-5. Holzer would get an escape, but Muellenbach was right back in for a takedown. Holzer then added another escape and took a 10-7 lead heading into the final period. Muellenbach would choose down, and he got a reversal to cut the score down to 10-9 (advantage Holzer). Muellenbach would again let him go and get another takedown to tie the match at 11-11. Finally, with just 25 seconds left in a tense match,

Muellenbach let Holzer go and went for the win, but it wasn't to be, as Holzer would get the final takedown and a 14-11 win.

The Cougar senior would finish his career as a four-time state qualifier, and he will have his name on the 100-win wall.

Joseph Volz made his first state appearance at 220 pounds.

He faced Connor Thomas of Peshtigo his first match. Volz gave up a takedown in the first period and then choose down in the second period. Volz almost got away a couple times before being put to his back and getting pinned.

His second match put him against Teige Perkins of Richland Center.

In a tight match, Volz was down 4-3 in the third period when Perkins reversed Volz and put him to his back to get the fall.

Just a sophomore at a weight-class above 200, Volz gained some valuable experience this season and will be a force the next two years.

Sam Koth (138) was Campbellsport's final state qualifier. He also wrestled in a win-or-go-home-match on Thursday night.

He was up against Brody Hart of Winneconne, who was a defending state champion.

Koth wrestled with grit and determination, but the defending state champ proved to be too much, and Koth ended up getting pinned in the second period.

On the whole, it was a very successful year for the Cougar wrestling team, as they were Flyway Conference Champions and WIAA Division 2 Regional Champions.

The Cougars qualified for and competed in the WIAA Team Sectional Championship, and qualified eight individual wrestlers to sectionals.

The future is bright, and the goals are already set for next year.

Congratulations to Ostin and the rest of the Cougars on a great season!

6. Announcement/Recognitions: Deb Senn reported that Kathee Dirmeier was recently in the newspaper for completing her second recertification with the National Board of Recertification. She also reported that Colton Zurn has earned a consecutive second "Master Angler of the Year" award while finishing 5th in State.

Patrick O'Connor reported our wrestling team won at their recent conference. FBLA hosted their regional conference at the Campbellsport Middle/High School with a special thanks to all the Campbellsport Staff and FBLA chapter members that helped make it possible. Also, the High School Dance Team took 3rd in their recent State competition. A CPM coach was able to provide some feedback to the teachers during the implementation process. Course books were handed out to students for upcoming school year. The honor roll list was finalized.

Tiffany Sponholz reported that four teachers have volunteered to help create a matrix system in order to help evaluate the needs for students in order to better understand the space determination. She also completed the Civil Rights Data Collection Report that is due every other year. This helped start conversations about dealing with harassment issues and create procedures/policies to use next school year. Kristi and Tiffany also held a co-teacher professional development presentation for the middle school staff.

FINAL NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS LATE FEES TO BE ASSESSED AFTER APRIL 1, 2022

Pursuant to Section 174.052, Wisconsin Statutes, notice is hereby given to all owners of dogs in Fond du Lac County that rabies vaccinations and dog licenses are required under the statutes.

Vaccination by a veterinarian against rabies of all dogs is required (Section 95.21 (2)) within 30 days after the dog reaches 4 months of age, and re-vaccinated before the certificate expires or within three years of the previous vaccination. Notice is hereby further given that evidence that the dog is currently immunized against rabies must be presented before a license can be issued. To qualify for the minimum license fee for neutered males or spayed females, presentation of evidence attesting to same must be presented when applying for the license.

PENALTIES

A minimum late fee of $5.00 shall be assessed the owner of each dog 5 months of age or over who fails to obtain a dog license by April 1st of each year, or within 30 days of acquiring ownership on or before the dog reached licensable age. The minimum late fee may be raised by municipal action.

Any owner who fails to have a dog vaccinated against rabies as required by statute may be required to forfeit not less than $50.00 nor more than $100.00.

2022 dog licenses can be obtained from your LOCAL TREASURER.

Gov. Evers Orders Flags to Half-staff in Honor of Former State Rep. Daniel R. LeMahieu

Wisconsin Gov. Tony Evers signed Executive Order #158 ordering the flags of the United States and the state of Wisconsin to be flown at half-staff on Saturday, Feb. 26, in honor of former Wisconsin State Rep. Daniel R. LeMahieu, who passed away on Feb. 18 at the age of 75.

“The state of Wisconsin is grateful for the late Representative LeMahieu’s service to our country, to the people of Wisconsin and to his community,” said Gov. Evers. “Kathy and I extend our sincerest condolences to his son, Senate Majority Leader Devin LeMahieu, and the entire LeMahieu family, as well as his friends, colleagues, and community during this difficult time.”

Former State Rep. LeMahieu

served in the U.S. Army from 1969 to 1971, and from 1988 to 2002, he served as a Sheboygan County Board Supervisor, twice being elected Chairman. In 2002, State Rep. LeMahieu was elected to represent the 59th Assembly District in the Wisconsin State Assembly, where he served for twelve years until his retirement. State Rep.

LeMahieu was an active member of his community as owner and publisher of the Lakeshore Weekly for 23 years, as a long-time member of Bethel Orthodox Presbyterian Church and through his involvement in many local organizations.

Services for former State Rep. LeMahieu were held on Saturday, Feb. 26, in Oostburg.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR SON KYLE

KYLE PATRICK BARRETT
10.22.79 - 3.7.20

*No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
A gift for such a little while
Your loss just seems so wrong
You should not have left before us
It's with loved ones you belong*

*Forever loved with a love beyond all feelings,
Missed with a grief
beyond all tears
Mom and Dad*
