Cooler Times Ahead for Kewaskum Schools' Cafeteria

Construction project underway to accommodate district food service's new refrigeration unit

For any reader concerned about the headline, the Kewaskum School District (KSD) food service team is already as "cool" as it can be, but later this school year, the team will be receiving an immense upgrade in refrigeration, as a construction project to accommodate a new unit is currently underway.

"Ever since I got here, I've been saying I need more space," said KSD Nutrition Services Director Terri Miller, noting that she's been with the staff for more than one decade.

Miller got her wish coming into this previous summer, as the KSD Board of Education approved the purchase of the cooler – at approximately $250,000 – which will at least double the food program's capacity to store and keep fresh perishable food items. The food service budget was used to purchase the cooler, but the construction project funding needed to come from the school district.

It is a need for Miller and her staff, who are eager to increase farm-to-table programs for Kewaskum students.

Campbellsport Approves Street Infrastructure Plan

BREANNA RICE

The Campbellsport village board held a meeting on Monday, Sept. 12. Members discussed possible action on the Public Works Committee's recommendation of a 10-year Street Capital Improvement Plan (CIP) and the financials involved for this project.

Village Administrator Charlie Kudy expressed that community members have had concerns about the lack of work being done on the roadways. Kudy stated that an $11 million infrastructure plan for the next 10 years was recommended by the DPW, municipal advisors at Ehlers and engineers at MSA to help improve the streets of Campbellsport.

The plan is proposed to take the full decade to complete. This amount of time helps the board plan ahead both physically and financially.

"Ten years was chosen by the village staff as we understood the amount of projects that needed to be addressed in the village and it helps lessen the financial burden," said Kudy.

Alligator Allegedly Spotted in Reigle Family Park Pond

On Sunday, Sept. 18, the Kewaskum Police Department received a report of an alligator in the pond at Reigle Family Park in Kewaskum. The police department received assistance from the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (DNR) in a search for the reptile on Monday, Sept. 19, but the alligator was not found.

The DNR stated that the animal may be a black caiman that was raised domestically, but then was set free by its own-

Local Retail, the Foundation of Our Community

Dear Reader,
 Something good happens every time you shop and buy from a local retailer: You support our community.

Let's think about a typical buying experience. Let's call our local store owner Joe or Jane. You buy something from them, getting value for your dollar, secure in the knowledge that you are not over-paying because Jane and Joe face competitive pressure to keep prices down. Now what?

We can imagine where that money goes. Joe and Jane pay their supplier, pay their employees, and pay themselves with a small profit. The money they and their employees spend then goes somewhere, and that somewhere is mostly right back into our community.

Think of what Joe and Jane are doing to support our community. They are the ones who sponsor the local soccer league, who go to the Chamber of Commerce meetings that focus on making our community a good place to do business. They may be serving in the local government and helping make our home a wonderful place to live. And by buying from them, you are supporting all of that goodness.

And then think of what happens when you spend your money online. I've said it before and I'll say it again – those dollars leave the community – forever. A dollar spent on Amazon is a dollar sent to Amazon's headquarters in Seattle. That dollar isn't going to come back here. It will go on to a seller and supplier somewhere else in the country, or somewhere outside the country. Meanwhile a store owner right here in the community has one less dollar to pay his employees, one less dollar to spend locally or donate to a local charity.

Support our local businesses to keep our community strong and vibrant. Give the local retailer a chance. It's as simple as that.

er, according to Kewaskum Police Chief Tom Bishop.

If anyone sees such a reptile at Riegle Family Park, they are asked to try to take a photo so the animal can be positively identified and to contact the Kewaskum Police Department or the DNR. If the animal is found, the DNR will use an animal rescue organization to relocate the reptile.

Reader Celebrates 'Banned Books'

Banned Books Week is Sept. 18 to 24.

Who would have thought such an issue would warrant an entire week's dedication? But, it certainly is necessary.

I was happy to see the "Banned Books" display at the Campbellsport Public Library. A fitting place for such a display, since our library is central to our ability to explore ideas, experience new perspectives and learn to think for ourselves.

If you visit the library, you will see several classics that have been banned and the reasons why they were censored.

While we may not all agree with the books' premises, we all have a right to read about and explore these ideas and viewpoints.

There seems to be a current effort to erase history and the lived experiences of people of color, and to shut down discussions involving gender identity. Learning about these matters enriches all of our lives, because they impact all of our lives.

Knowledge is power.

 CONTRIBUTOR

If you happen to take Highway V from Campbellsport to Fond du Lac, about the time you meet the intersection with County Trunk B, just shy of the hilltop above Eden, it's smooth sailing all the way to the 151 bypass. The roadwork is nearly finished. All except the yellow stripes.

Two fresh layers of asphalt were spread out over a couple weeks duration. Yep, they tore up the whole stretch. Right down to a loose gravel bed. Probably way overdue since they hadn't done a complete rebuild in more than three decades.

Should you pass through our quiet little quarry town, along about evening before dusk, you might see an older, tall, somewhat stoop shouldered fellow walking along at a brisk clip. Depends how his knees are feeling that day. Most noticeable is the strange looking walking stick, metering his stride with soft taps upon the blacktop. Actually the steel tube handle from a broken carpet sweeper.

Please don't buzz by him too closely. Because that guy is me. Taking my evening constitutional down to Lime Road and back; one-third mile each way. A desperate attempt to drop extra pounds gained by both medications and a forced leave of absence due to a doctor's physical restrictions.

At first, it was a torturous routine. Especially for somebody who's more of an indoors type. Don't know about other country folk. But simple walking, without a clear cut destination seems rather pointless. No matter how much Emerson, Thoreau or countless others are quoted about the joy involved, in a book titled The Magic of Walking.

Then one night, it struck me like a thunderbolt. As I strolled, I began to notice small details – goldenrod growing in the ditches, a dark brown cottontail scampering into the undergrowth. Like many people, I'd sleepwalked through life. Missing a lot. Hey, maybe this habit isn't so bad after all.

It's not too Late for Fiscal Responsibility in Washington

CONGRESSMAN SCOTT FITZGERALD
 (WI-05)

Congressman Scott Fitzgerald

Inflation remained high in August, coming in at 8.3%. Strangely, despite that news, Pres. [Joe] Biden hosted a celebration of his climate-tax hike bill, misleadingly titled the Inflation Reduction Act, just hours after the latest inflation figures were released. Pres. Biden and Democrats leaned into unprecedented spending and are now taking a victory lap, despite failing to actually tackle Americans number one issue heading into November, inflation.

We shouldn't be surprised with the result with a little background on how we got here. Sen. Joe Manchin and Majority Leader Chuck Schumer, in secret negotiations, agreed upon $745 billion in new government spending, with roughly $400 billion going toward Green New Deal initiatives. To claim the bill would reduce the deficit, they packed it with tax increases and offset gimmicks. One frightening proposal in the Act is to give the IRS $80 billion to enable the hiring of 87,000 new IRS employees in order to audit American taxpayers to squeeze every last tax dollar out them.

A key argument proponents of this legislation make is that the Inflation Reduction Act will make the wealthiest corporations finally pay taxes, an overused red herring. Nearly five years ago, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act was passed under Republican leadership. This legislation provided income tax cuts while at the same time making concrete corporate tax reforms. Despite the pandemic and the economic recession of 2020, federal tax revenue soared in FY2021 at the fastest rate in 44 years. As for corporations, according to the nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office, corporate tax receipts jumped 75%, growing $370 billion higher than before the tax cuts.

Right now, we are not on firm fiscal footing as a nation. The federal government pays about $400 billion annually in interest on our national debt. Further entrenching ourselves is unproductive both in the present and future. We must refrain from delinquent spending and prioritize stretching each tax dollar we already spend to the have the greatest impact on society.

Don Seil Turns 100

Kewaskum resident Don Seil celebrated his 100th birthday on Sept. 19. Seil has lived in Kewaskum since he was three years old, when he moved there with his parents in 1925. A Kewaskum High School graduate, he worked locally. Seil is a World War II veteran and was a longtime Kewaskum Fire Department volunteer.

Friends and family members gathered at Kiwanis Park in Kewaskum over the weekend to celebrate Seil's big day. Many people sent him birthday cards. Seil wishes to thank everyone who sent cards and/or gave him well wishes as he celebrated being 100 years young.

"It was humbling to be remembered by so many on this milestone birthday. Kewaskum is indeed a wonderful community to grow up in and reside. Sincere regards to all," Seil said.

do, and the cooler that we have is just not working correct [and is] too small," she added.

The new cooler – the delivery for which has been delayed due to supply-chain issues – will be enormous (10x18 feet), and a construction project is currently underway at the high school to accommodate a fridge that would make William Anthony Perry blush.

The catch-22 of having such a large cooler is that, predictably, it would reduce space to the rest of the cafeteria or food preparation areas. To avoid this, the food services team and the district opted to take out a wall on the building's south-side entrance between the Field House doors and the large cafeteria windows.

The majority of the cooler will be placed outside the school building (though a wall will be built around and above it). The only entrance to the cooler will be from within the school.

All of this effort, Miller said, will help the service team be more proactive with its fresh food offerings. It will also help give perishables a longer shelf life.

"I want to offer fresh fruit and vegetable for the kids," she said, noting that the canned offerings provided from state and federal sources is fine, but not the same quality as fresh produce.

In addition, particularly as federal covid money has stopped funding free lunches, Miller wants to provide multiple access points for students needing fresh and nutritious meals.

And her focus for sourcing these fresh items? Miller said she prefers one option above all others: Local.

"I would love to build a relationship with a local farmer that we are getting product through," she said.

In the meantime, Miller might not need to look too far for locally-sourced lettuce: The Kewaskum FFA group has been growing heads indoors, which

This construction project, outside Kewaskum High School, will help house a new 18-foot long cooler for the schools' food services team.

Miller plans to use in the future.

"And it's grown right here!" she said, gesturing to the Kewaskum High School building.

In that respect, the massive cooler will have a (pun intended) snowball effect on other programs in the district. In addition to the FFA being able to grow, harvest and store more food, the cooler will also be an asset to other groups or clubs that might host fundraisers, events or team dinners.

"I do always try to improve," said Miller in closing, noting that – since the pandemic – being able to "think outside the box" had hit a standstill. The flexibility and functionality the cooler will offer, Miller believes, will be a big boost to finding creative ways to serve the students.

The cooler won't erase all the problems in the industry, however, as some food items remain hard to get – and inflation has increased the prices.

Miller credited her staff in doing "more with less" through the difficult period. She said the team was able to feed kids and stay positive simply because of how much they care.

"We are serving more kids, but with the same staff we had before. We really increased our participation," she said, praising her team. "The staff I have is amazing. They stepped up. The kids have not been affected by the [worker shortage] or the

All of the roads in need of construction will be done in a strategic order to ensure that they are properly taken care of.

"The CIP finance plan will affect a minimum of 14 different roadway projects ranging from resurfacing to total reconstruction," explained Kudy.

The roads that will be worked on were chosen by a variety of factors including their condition and proposed plan of construction.

"Some of the streets were picked based off of PACER ratings," stated the Village Administrator. "These ratings are scores that are determined by the village every few years to be submitted to the [WisDOT] in order to report their condition."

Roads with the worst PACER ratings were selected for improvement planning. Another factor that was taken into consideration was if the street needed resurfacing or total reconstruction.

"Roadways that will not need major, if any, underground infrastructure improvements will be worked on first. These streets will simply be resurfaced," explained Kudy.

The second step in the 10-year plan is to work on roads that are set to be completely reconstructed. Kudy stated that this will include new curb, gutter, underground infrastructure and in some areas, sidewalk replacement.

"The Roadway CIP is somewhat of a living document, as it relates to if we need to make changes because another roadway requires attention, or if circumstances change, the plan can change with it," said Kudy.

After the village board discussed the infrastructure plan, all members were in agreement that it was necessary to take action on the village roads and approved the proposed recommendation of the 10-year Street CIP financial plan.

lack of product. They wouldn't even know."

The kids will certainly notice the installation of the 18-foot-long cooler, which should be delivered sometime later this year or early in 2023.

Until then, though, Miller and her staff are prepared to "keep it cool" in more ways than one.

She shared the two-word phrase adopted by her staff (accompanying T-shirts were made), which they used as a rallying cry during the toughest moments of the last few school years:

"Challenge accepted," she said with a laugh. "So, whatever problem you give us: 'Challenge accepted.' We're going to get it done."

Axes Will Fly – The Ledge Games Return to F.D.L. on Saturday

Annual timber event is back for a seventh time to raise funds for local tech education

The Ledge Games (TLG), a local timber competition for charity, returns to Red Cabin at Green Acres on Saturday, September 24, for the seventh consecutive year. The event will welcome more than 100 amateur lumberjacks and jills, as they compete for the titles of Man and Woman of the Ledge. Competitors will be joined by hundreds of spectators as family and friends cheer them on throughout the day.

Competition is designed to test competitors' strength and finesse with events including caber toss, hammer toss, archery, keg toss, speed chop and axe throwing. The winners of each event will take home their own TLG axe, and the winners of each division receive a new chainsaw and a year's worth of bragging rights.

"What started out as a day to have some fun and raise money seven years ago has turned into a celebration of local manufacturing and industry," Tyler Oestreich, The Ledge Games co-founder, said. "None of this would be possible without the support of our generous sponsors, including Wisconsin Lighting Lab, ATI, Integrity Saw & Tool, Faith Technologies, Graymont and our host, Red Cabin at Green Acres."

Each year proceeds from the event fund local tech education, including scholarships for students attending technical colleges throughout the Lake Winnebago region. Since its inception, The Ledge Games raised more than $44,500 for 78 scholarships – helping make education more accessible and affordable for local students studying engineering, manufacturing and technology and related fields.

"The Ledge Games is proud to support local tech education and help in the development of the next generation of talent," Josh Michels, The Ledge Games co-founder, said. "We're committed to making education more attainable for local students, and we are incredibly grateful to our community as it helps us further this mission."

The Ledge Games kick off at 8 a.m. with events running until approximately 4 p.m. In addition to the lumber competition, TLG offers food, drinks, raffles, entertainment and fun for the whole family. To learn more about The Ledge Games, The Ledge Games Scholarship, or to register to compete, visit LedgeGames.com.

OBITUARIES

Charles L. Weiland

Charles "Charlie" L. Weiland, 71, went home to his Lord Jesus on Wednesday, September 14, 2022. He left this side of heaven surrounded by his beloved wife and three children.

Charlie was born in West Bend on January 6, 1951, the son of Norbert and Mildred (Wiedmeyer) Weiland.

Charlie grew up on a dairy farm in the rural Campbellsport (St. Killian) area where he graduated from Campbellsport High School and attended MPTC. On Sept 16, 1972, he married his high school sweetheart, Mary Rita "Beata" Floyd, at St. Michael's Church in Dotyville. They started their married life and raised their family in Appleton, where Charlie was an accountant at Nash Finch for 24 years. After transferring to Eagan, MN, for seven years, Charlie returned to Fond du Lac to finish his career at Summit Automotive, retiring in 2018.

Charlie was a humble servant and devoted family man. He would do anything for anyone at any time. As an incredible husband, father and granddad, Charlie was a patient teacher, gentle encourager and Beata's best friend. He was generous with his love and time and everyone who met him recognized his kind spirit. He had a deep love for working with his hands, being outdoors, laughing with his friends and family, and road tripping in a "woody" station wagon. As a "jack of all trades" Charlie was an amazing woodworker, lumberjack, dishwasher, map reader, maintenance man and number cruncher. He shared his deep and honest faith in Jesus with those around him through his giving heart, volunteering and acts of service. While we can't fill the "Charlie sized" hole in our hearts, we can strive to follow his example of Christ-like love and service for others. He will be forever missed.

Survivors include his wife of 50 years, Beata; children, Nathan (Lisa) Weiland, Betsy (Ryan) Beach, and Anney (Sam) Fahrenholz; grandchildren, Rachel Weiland, Olivia and Jonah Beach, and Lucy, Jack and Max Fahrenholz; mother, Millie; siblings, Steve (Jean), Mary Kay (Jack) Martin, Jim (Sue), and Gary (Michelle); sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, Patty Wirtz, Mike (Barb) Floyd, Stan (Kristie) Floyd, Nancy Marie (Gary) Gellings, Greg (Peggy) Floyd, Annie (Pete) Andrew, John (Barb) Floyd, Rich (Jeanne) Floyd, and Carolyn (Jack) Schickert; many nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.

Charlie was preceded in death by his father, Norbert; brother, Tommy; grandchildren, Jacob Weiland and Baby Beach; Goddaughter, Claudine; in-laws, Joe and Lois Floyd; and brother-in-law, Bill Wirtz.

Visitation was held on Tuesday, September 20, at Community Church, N6717 Streblov Dr., Fond du Lac, from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.

A Funeral Service was held Tuesday, September 20, at 5 p.m. at Community Church with Pastor Adam Utecht officiating; dinner followed.

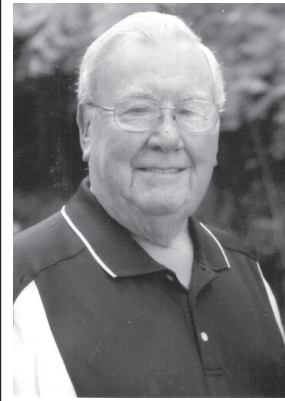

In lieu of flowers, memorials are appreciated to Badgerland Youth for Christ, North Fond du Lac Optimists or Charis Pregnancy Help Center.

We would like to give a special thank you to our family and friends for your prayers, love and support during these most difficult days. Thank you, as well, to the ThedaCare Medical Center ICU nurses, doctors and staff for your compassionate care of Charlie. Most importantly, thank you to our Lord Jesus Christ, whose sacrifice provides the gift of eternal life. Through faith in Him, we have the assurance of seeing Charlie again one day.

Twohig Funeral Home has been entrusted with Charlie's arrangements. If you wish to send a card or condolence, please send to the Twohig Funeral Home, P.O. Box 710, Campbellsport, WI 53010 or go online for Charlie's guestbook and condolences at www.twohigfunerals.com.

ber event for charity that offers competitors the opportunity to live out the lumberjack lifestyle they've only dreamt about. With men's and women's divisions, events are designed for all sizes and abilities and focus on both finesse and strength. All proceeds from The Ledge Games go to support local tech education, including The Ledge Games Scholarship which was created to help make technical education more accessible and affordable for Wisconsin students studying engineering, manufacturing and technology. Residents of the Campbellsport School District approved the tax levy for the 2017-18 school year at the annual meeting September 18. A tax levy of $9,735,937 was approved. This levy will give the district an estimated mill rate of $11.26 per $1,000 of equalized value. A final tax levy and mill rate will be approved in late October after the district receives the final financial aid numbers from the state. As of now, the tax levy increases $337,790 or 3.57 percent over last year. According to Shelly Eilbes, business manager for the district, the majority of the increase is due to debt service interest payments for the referendum project of $304,942. After approving the levy, residents also approved the purchase of the final property near the middle/high school building. The purchase of 315/317 N. Railroad St. for $209,000 was approved and then, in a special school board meeting after the annual meeting, the board also approved the purchase.

A new face welcomes everyone who walks into St. Matthew's Catholic School in Campbellsport. Traci Tousey is the new school secretary. She is replacing Lois Thull, who passed away suddenly after more than 29 years in the position. Tousey is a little apprehensive taking over for Thull, but was encouraged when Thull's husband went to the school to meet Tousey and tell her that she will do a great job and that he was glad she was at the school.

Officials of National Merit Scholarship Corporation announced the names of approximately 16,000 semifinalists in the 63rd annual National Merit Scholarship Program. Grace Krahn of Campbellsport is a semifinalist. She is a senior at Campbellsport High School.

The new garage for the Campbellsport Police Department is under construction. The garage will be connected to the Campbellsport Municipal Center and will house the police department's vehicles. This is the final piece of the new village hall/police department building.

Campbellsport Boy Scout Troop 719 held its Court of Honor on August 31. At the Court of Honor Ceremony, Cody Nuoffer advanced to Life Scout Rank and Matthew Gorr advanced to Star Scout Rank. Receiving merit badges from summer camp were Nuoffer, Gorr, Joseph Gorr, Aydan Meilahn, Phillip Miller, Jeremy Ryan, Ryan Mader, and Jeremiah Jaycox.

Sara Scannell had a personal best 24:37, finishing 49th. The boys did not have a full team. Ike Grahl had the best race of his career with a time of 18:38 for 26th place, just missing a medal by one spot.

Calla Loehr's strong kick in the last quarter mile of the Sheboygan Lutheran Crusader Challenge on September 12 had her passing five runners. She finished 11th with a time of 22:05.

Mathias L. Serwe, Jr., 82, Campbellsport, passed away September 16. Sherry L. Kemp, 58, Theresa, passed away September 11. Marion Rose Leonard, 95, passed away September 12.

With a disappointing show of attendance, the Campbellsport School District tax levy increased to $6,900,000, an increase of 11.9 percent. The mill rate would increase from $7.78 to $8.10 per $1,000 of assessed equalized value. Once the state government is finished debating how much state funded aid the school district gets, the tax levy increase could be reduced. The state amount will not be announced until mid-October.

Lisa Klein has had a passion for a number of years now. She has wanted to build a labyrinth at her business, Armstrong Apples, which is located on Highway B in Armstrong. This year, her dream came true. She built the labyrinth on the business grounds and has opened it for everyone to come and enjoy. The labyrinth is made out of hay bales. It follows a pattern she got off the internet. There are 1,000 bales. It took a couple months to build because, to have true meaning, every bale needs to be laid out in an exact location. Klein placed the bales herself. The labyrinth design chosen by Klein has an association with Christianity.

A man was found dead in his residence after a domestic dispute. The incident occurred south of Campbellsport on Highway V. According to the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department, 37-year-old Jeff Sachen was found dead in his residence September 22. Officers had set up a perimeter around the residence and attempted to make contact with the male suspect for five hours. After five hours, gas was introduced into the house. When members of Fond du Lac County SWAT entered the residence about 20 minutes later, they found the male suspect deceased.

Emily Ellenbecker and Abigail Cochran won the National Reading Rainbow Young Writers and Illustrators contest. The entries by the Campbellsport youngsters had been advanced to the national level in March. They were two of 12 author/illustrators selected from 40,000 contest entrants from across the United States.

Katie Schanen of Campbellsport, a Stevens Point college student, will join hundreds of other citizens from around the country in Washington, DC, to unite against reckless taxes, spending, and regulation. The group will meet with their lawmakers as part of the Americans for Prosperity Foundation's Defending the American Dream Summit on October 4 and 5.

Dave Arndt, a 1957 graduate of Campbellsport High School participated in the Senior Olympics on September 15. He won three silver medals - shot-put, discus, and 100 meter dash - in the 65-59 age division.

In a surprise volleyball victory, the Lady Cougars prevailed over the Huskies 25-22, 16-25, 21-25, 25-21, and 15-9.

The Most Reverend Richard J. Sklba, Auxiliary Bishop of Milwaukee Archdiocese, attended the 150-year celebration of St. Martin's Church in Ashford. He presented a plaque to Frank Fell for his many years of service to the parish. The church, which comfortably seats about 225 adults, had standing-room-only attendance for the event. Following a special Mass, there was a reservation-only catered dinner with 115 people in attendance.

After many, many months of sometimes less than pleasant negotiations, an agreement has been reached for continued cooperative fire protection for the Village of Campbellsport and the Townships of Ashford, Auburn and Osceola. The crux of the agreement is that the Village buys out the remaining investment of the Townships in the fire department, which will now be owned and run by the Village. Richard Carson, the attorney for Ashford and Auburn, said this was the best way to go legally as the townships are customers of the Village and consumers of the fire department product.

Last Friday was the Flyway Conference opener for the Cougar football team. Campbellsport had a commanding 34-7 halftime lead and won the game over Wautoma 48-7. The Cougars, 3-0 and 1-0, will travel to Mayville this Friday.

The CHS Girls Cross Country Team finished second in the 14-school Sheboygan Lutheran Challenge last Tuesday. Kim Walloch won her first invitational race of the season with a blistering 16:03, 14 second faster than the second place runner. Walloch won the Cedar Grove Invitational two days later, this time 34 seconds faster than the second place runner.

Campbellsport's boys cross country team won the Cedar Grove Rocket Invitational, with three runners placing in the top 11 - Jesse Muench, Mike Meilahn, and Nick Martiny.

A son, Austin DeWitt, was born September 3 to Jerri and Thomas Moore of Eden. A son, Ryan William, was born September 4 to Kelley and William Beck of Campbellsport. A daughter, Jennifer Evelyn, was born September 9 to Amy and Oran Nehls of Campbellsport.

Bernadette E. Nimmer, 77, Campbellsport, passed away September 12.

After serving the Village of Campbellsport for the past 18 years, the Avenue Dairy has sold its retail dairy routes to the Wayside Dairy of Belgium. The route change will occur October 1. Martin Knickel owned and operated Avenue Dairy, but became ill about two years ago. His son had taken over the route.

St. Matthew parochial school boys of the fifth and sixth grades took two more games in their challenge series with the students of Columbus school. Friday afternoon's score was 40-32 and Tuesday afternoon's score was 32-12.

With much fanfare, the long awaited opening of the Village's most recent enterprise, Bechler's Lunch Room, took place last Saturday.

Principal Paska attended the fall conference at Madison on Thursday and Friday last week. The meeting of all school administrators and supervisors was called by State Superintendent John Gallahan.

The field was too wet to play last Sunday so the Campbellsport Athletics will play their last game of the season this Sunday at the local diamond against Klaetsch Sporting Goods. Klaetsch, champion of the Fond du Lac County League for 1947, ended the season with only one loss. The Athletics will have either Wondra or Schloemer on the mound.

Ten local archer enthusiasts will be among the 4,000 hunting this year with the bow and arrow in the Necedah Wildlife Refuge. The first group of four will go up Friday evening to be on hand for the opening Saturday, the rest will follow. Only two deer have been shot by local archers; the first by J.C. Hasler and the second by A.G. Brandt.

Some local municipalities have asked Washington County to give 25 percent of its sales tax revenue with municipalities in the county. Washington County officials decided on September 19 that the county was not able to comply with the request. According to Kewaskum Village President Kevin Scheunemann, his village has been talking with other Washington County leaders about the possibility of adopting Sheboygan's model for sales tax since April. Sheboygan County shares its sales tax revenue with local municipalities to help cover road improvements. At last week's meeting, the Kewaskum village board unanimously passed a resolution requesting the share of sales tax revenue from Washington County. Had the county approved the request, the village would have received about $86,000 annually, if the sales tax revenue was allocated by population. The letter denying the request was printed in the Statesman. Washington County Administrator Joshua Schoemann explained the denial. He added that an alternative for the village to consider is shared services and/or consolidation.

Kewaskum High School graduate Julie Haberman Osmus has always loved creating art. Her art kept her going when her sister, Andrea Haberman, was killed in the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001. A large painting created by Julie has been selected to be part of a juried exhibit and is featured at the Cedarburg Cultural Center. The piece, measuring 16 feet by four feet, depicts boats lined up on the shore.

The Village of Kewaskum has started a corrective action process for properties that are out of compliance with the village's floodplain ordinance. The board unanimously approved hiring M Squared Engineering, LLC for $11,600 to identify any violations and to develop any necessary corrective action plans. FEMA has identified 35 areas that are out of compliance with the ordinance, according to Village Administrator Matt Heiser. In 2009, the village board had voluntarily adopted the floodplain ordinance, which brings the village under FEMA regulations. Heiser said it's possible the properties were built to the standard, but the village did not document that fact.

Next week is Homecoming Week. All of the athletic events were listed in an article that also included information about the parade route. Due to construction, there is a new route; a map was included in the paper.

Kewaskum's volleyball team beat Plymouth in straight sets, 25-19, 27-25, and 25-17. Coach Laine Leitzke said his team had a game plan and the players stuck to it. The victory gave the Lady Indians a 3-1 conference record and 13-4 overall record.

The football Indians remain undefeated after a 27-21 victory over Plymouth.

In a make-up match against Sheboygan Falls, the Lady Indians lost 5-2 on September 18. But the next day, the tennis team won, 6-1 over Manitowoc Roncalli.

Justin Reck won the Indian Invitational on September 21. He finished in 17:29.61. Teammate Andrew Carlton placed third in 17:45.23. The team came in second. On the girls side, Alyssa Butz placed third in 22:07.76.

Expressions on the faces of village board members were a stark contrast to those seen when they thought their TIF District was going to be the home of the much-hyped Village Lakes Center. With much of the residential and commercial land still vacant, village engineers painted a very red picture for the village trustees.

The Town of Kewaskum board took action on changing the speed limit on Highland Drive from Hwy H to Ridge Road. The 55-miles per hour limit was dropped to 45. The Town of Barton will be contacted to ask if they would also drop the speed limit as Barton maintains the road from Highland Drive to Highway D.

After a four-year wait, construction has started on Townline Road in the Town of Wayne. Town officials report the project should be complete if weather cooperates by October 15. Road work begins at Badger Road and ends at Sunset Drive. Township residents pick up the entire $250,000 tab on the project. Contractors will be replacing culverts, widening shoulders, raising the roadbed and resurface that stretch.

Town of Wayne's board approved the purchase of an International Plow Truck to replace the oldest truck in the fleet of three, a 1992 International Plow Truck. The 1992 truck will bring a trade of $7,800, bringing the entire cost of the new truck to an estimated $116,500. Although delivery is estimated to be December 1, it could be the end of January.

An undetermined amount of damage was caused by a fire, which originated from a cigarette in a waste basket, to a residence on Orchard Valley Road. Fillmore firefighters were joined by Boltonville Fire Department to battle the fire.

Kewaskum's soccer team brought energy and aggressiveness when meeting Campbellsport and beat their rivals 2-1.

The football Indians are still unbeaten after defeating Two Rivers 35-6.

Ralph and Estelle Matenaer and Steve and Susan Volm, all of Kewaskum, were recently honored at the 2007 Wisconsin State Fair for their Century Farms. The farm must have continuous ownership by a family for 100 years or more.

Kiwanis Students of the Month of September are Rebecca Spaeth and Kurtis Wetzell.

A son, Landyn Michael, was born September 11 to Chenile Smith of Kewaskum.

Patricia J. Birenbaum, 82, Fillmore, passed away September 19. Edward Krebs, 56, Town of Wayne, passed away September 22. Alice L. Uelman, 87, West Bend, passed away September 21. Norbert Gonwa, 74, West Bend, passed away September 15. James T. Fitzgerald Sr., 80, Campbellsport, passed away September 18. Richard K. Kimla, 65, Three Lakes, passed away September 15.

A fire broke out in the laundry room of a condo on Main Street September 21. The fire destroyed one bedroom and caused smoke and water damage to the condo's interior. Damage is estimated between $75,000 and $100,000. The cause is still under investigation.

Kewaskum Middle School teachers who participated in the 17th annual Teaching the Transescent Seminar were Diane Stangl, Erv Uhlman, Kris Dreher, and Leslie Bruss.

The KHS varsity girls tennis team hosted a quad tournament this past weekend with Slinger, Grafton, and Kiel also participating. Kewaskum took first place in the champion flight with Jenny Immel and Bobbie Jo Thorn in number three and four singles.

Bringing home medals from the Ripon Cross Country Invitational were Carol Neuman, second place, and Emily Rinzel, 16th place.

Kewaskum and surrounding area felt tremors from the earthquake which shook a large portion of the midwest early Friday morning. The tremor occurred about 12:25 a.m. and lasted less than a minute.

It is estimated approximately 7,000 people attended the Kewaskum Kiwanis Turkey Shoot. There were 36 lines open for shooters. The club abandoned live targets last year because of pressure from animal protection and a threat from Kiwanis International that the club's charter might be revoked if the practice continued.

Atty. John A. Kluwin and his wife of Kewaskum returned home Sunday night from Monte Carlo, Monaco. The couple spent three weeks enjoying a fantastic time attending the Silver Jubilee meeting of the International Bar Association. Kluwin was selected by the president of the American Bar Association to be one of 10 delegates named to represent the United States at this historic conference.

A Kewaskum school bus carrying members of the JV football team, en route home from a game at Grafton, was involved in a collision with an auto that allegedly made an illegal left turn in front of the bus in West Bend. The driver of the auto suffered a dislocated finger. Damage to both vehicles was reported at over $200. None of the 22 passengers on the bus or the bus driver were injured. The driver of the auto was issued a citation for failure to yield the right of way.

An organizational Cub Scout meeting will be held September 25 at Kewaskum Elementary School.

In a well-played rock 'em, sock 'em football game, the Kewaskum Indians rallied in the second half to defeat a tough Grafton team 22-16. Kewaskum also staved off a last-minute threat by the Blackhawks.

Kewaskum's Randy Backhaus came in first in the Class C division at the annual Highlander Cross Country Invitational at Homestead High School. He finished the 2.5-mile course in 13:27, 100 yards ahead of his nearest competitor. Glen Asch of the Indians placed fourth. As a team, the Indians were fifth.

A son was born September 13 to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jeske of Kewaskum.

The Kewaskum Utensils are the newly-crowned grand champions of the Kettle Moraine baseball league. Game two of the three-game playoff series was a pitcher's duel giving Kewaskum a 1-0 victory. The week before, Kewaskum downed the Cheesemakers 10-5. A crowd of around 500 people saw the thrilling second game. The attendance would have been larger, but an all-night rain continued until late Sunday morning which caused many people to believe the game would not be played.

Kewaskum High's gridders opened the 1947 season with a 42-26 victory over Oostburg.

Katherine Endlich, 85, Kewaskum, passed away September 21. John Dwyer, 64, Town of Wayne native, passed away September 13. Dora Flood, 47, Eden, passed away September 18. Alma Hendricks, Campbellsport, passed away September 13.

Matthew McClean Defeats Countryman Hugh Foley for U.S. Mid-Amateur Title and Earns U.S. Open Exemption

Sept. 10-17, 2022, Erin Hills and Blue Mound Golf & Country Club, Wauwatosa

UNITED STATES GOLF ASSOCIATION

The winner of the 41st U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship, which was partially played at Washington County's Erin Hills, was... the Republic of Ireland.

This island nation of 5.1 million (7 million when you count Northern Ireland) was going to produce its first champion in a USGA amateur competition no matter who prevailed in the 36-hole championship match, which concluded on Saturday, Sept. 17 – one-and-a-half days later than expected – with 29-year-old optometrist Matthew McClean of Belfast holding the Robert T. Jones Memorial Trophy, thanks to a three-and-one victory over countryman, and close friend, Hugh Foley, 25, of Dublin.

With the victory also comes the spoils. McClean now is exempt into the 2023 U.S. Open at The Los Angeles (Calif.) Country Club and will receive a likely invitation to next April's Masters Tournament. He also is the second USGA champion of 2022 from Ireland, following Pdraig Harrington, who claimed the U.S. Senior Open in June at Saucon Valley Country Club in Bethlehem, Pa. Northern Ireland natives Graeme McDowell (2010) and Rory McIlroy (2011) won U.S. Open titles in consecutive years. They were only the second and third players from Ireland to even reach a USGA final, following Valerie Hasset in 1998 (U.S. Senior Women's Amateur).

"Yeah, fantastic," said McClean, who celebrated the victory with his caddie Jack Enea and girlfriend Kate Jones. "Sort of probably hasn't sunk in just yet. It's been a very long week, but I'm sure once we sort of sit down this evening, it'll sort of sink in a wee bit more, but yeah, it's unbelievable really."

Since Sept. 5 when the two departed Dublin on a trans-Atlantic flight to Chicago, McClean and Foley have been inseparable, sharing rental cars and private housing as well as playing together in practice rounds preparing for their first USGA championship experiences. For the past week, they've stayed at the home of Colgate resident Dan Benedum, who wound up serving as Foley's caddie. Enea got on McClean's bag through Benedum, with whom he plays golf at Ozaukee Country Club in Mequon.

But when both advanced to the championship match on Friday, the social chatter was put on hold as they battled to see which of them would become the second international champion in U.S. Mid-Amateur history. Lukas Michel, of Australia, won in 2019. McClean and Foley shared a steak dinner on Friday night following the first 18 holes of the championship match, which McClean led, 2 up.

McClean, No. 120 in the World Amateur Golf Ranking®/WAGR®, and Foley, No. 195 in the WAGR, wanted a strong result this week to bolster their chances of representing Great Britain and Ireland in next September's Walker Cup Match on the Old Course at St. Andrews.

McClean already has had a head start in that quest, representing GB&I in the 2022 St. Andrews Trophy competition against Continental Europe and competing for Ireland in the recently completed World Amateur Team Championship in France (team tied for 19th). McClean also posted strong finishes in a pair of prestigious amateur competitions in England: the Brabazon Trophy (third) and Lytham Trophy (tied for sixth), and he lost in a playoff at the Irish Open Amateur, a stroke-play event.

Foley was hoping the 12-plus-hour break between rounds would give him a chance to reset for the second 18 of the final, but he struggled through the first six holes, making bogeys on Nos. 19 (hole was tied), 20 and 24 to fall 4 down. A 50-degree wedge from 110 yards at the par-5 25th set up a winning birdie, but he didn't win another hole until the 31st, which started a string of three consecutive birdies to tighten what was turning into a McClean rout.

He did have a bizarre occurrence on the par-3 27th hole when his bunker shot flew into a sprinkler head and never bounced out. He received a free drop but faced a 35-footer for par rather than a much shorter putt. The bogey put McClean 4 up.

McClean holed an 8-footer for birdie on the par-4 30th to increase his margin to 5 up with six to play, only to see his close friend hit some marvelous shots on the next three holes. Foley's tee shot on the par-3 31st stopped 7 feet short of the hole, and his exquisite pitch from below the green on the par-5 32nd was perfectly executed as he used the slope behind the green to sling his ball to 18 inches. Then on the 369-yard 33rd hole, Foley's approach stopped 9 feet from the flagstick, and he calmly converted to cut the deficit to 2 down.

"It was hard to sort of hang in there, but I didn't really do a huge amount wrong," said McClean. "I just sort of felt if I kept on doing what I was doing, hopefully he wouldn't birdie the last six holes against me. That was the plan, and thankfully it worked out in the end."

McClean thought he won on the par-3 34th hole as his 30-foot putt caught the left edge and spun out. It was only a momentary delay in his crowning achievement. He reached the 35th hole with a brilliant 7-iron approach, and when Foley missed the green from the right rough and failed to get up and down from thick greenside rough, the match was over.

"I made a late charge there, decent back nine," said Foley, who became the first player since Darren Clarke in 1990 to win the North of Ireland and South of Ireland amateur championships. "I thought maybe 3- or 4-under back nine might have a chance, but he held on great. That birdie on 12 was really, really good. Almost put the nail in the coffin. That's when I had a little bit of a run and freed up. But he held up great with those pars there at the finish. He deserved it today."

What Champion Receives

- A gold medal;
- Custody of the Robert T. Jones Memorial Trophy for one year;
- Exemptions into the next 10 U.S. Mid-Amateur Championships;
- Exemption into the 2023 U.S. Open Championship at The Los Angeles Country Club;
- Exemptions into the 2023 and 2024 U.S. Amateur Championships at Cherry Hills Country Club in Cherry Hills Village, Colo., and Hazeltine National Golf Club in Chaska, Minn., (respectively);
- Likely invitation to the 2023 Masters Tournament.

Notable

Runner-up Hugh Foley received a silver medal, an exemption into the next three U.S. Mid-Amateurs and an exemption into the 2023 U.S. Amateur. He's also exempt from local qualifying for the 2023 U.S. Open.

Erin Hills will be back in the spotlight in 2025 when it hosts the U.S. Women's Open Championship Presented by ProMedica. It will be the daily-fee facility's fifth USGA event.

Jack Enea, who served as Matthew McClean's caddie, was a busy man on Friday. The 59-year-old looped the semifinals and first 18 of the 36-hole final, then worked on the "chain gang" at the Hartford/Homestead high school football game that night.

While Foley is headed back to Ireland on Sunday, McClean is staying for a week in Chicago with his girlfriend, Kate Jones.

This wasn't the first time two finalists roomed together in a USGA mid-amateur. When Cindy Scholefield (now McConnell) won the inaugural U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur in 1987 at Southern Hills Country Club in Tulsa, Okla., she roomed with runner-up and fellow Californian Pat Cornett-Iker. Scholefield and Iker are past Curtis Cup players, the latter serving as captain in 2012 at Nairn Golf Club in Scotland.

Championship Round

ROUNDUP: K.H.S. Soccer

COACH CHUCK GROVER KHS SOCCER

Game 1

The Kewaskum boys' soccer team regained their form Thursday, Sept. 8, against an inexperienced Berlin team.

The scoring started early with a beautiful build up of play from the defensive back field through the midfield with a few well-timed give-and-goes and one touch passes that culminated in a perfectly placed pass from Luciano Olla to Denali Fellenz who found the back of the net once again.

Two minutes later Hayden Johnson found the goal with a beautiful header off a great corner kick from Charlie Gambino. This combination has turned out to be one of the Indians top scoring plays.

Mr. Gambino's deft touch on delivering pinpoint crosses to a charging Hayden Johnson who can seemingly elevate to any level to get to the ball.

Two more scores in the first half by Dylan Strankowski and Riley Kuehl respectively saw the Indians take a 4-0 lead into halftime.

After suffering their first defeat to West Bend West, the Kewaskum coaches changed some things up in training this week to the team's tactics and style of play. During the first half the team executed the game plan very well, with short quick passing, movement off the ball, switching of fields, and movement as one unit between the lines. The team really seemed to embrace the new style and saw immediate success.

The second half saw two goals scored within seven minutes of the start, by Carter Curtin.

At this point, the coaching staff began cycling out the starting unit and subbing in the less experienced members of the squad. This turned out to be very little in a downturn of play. With the early season success, the newer additions of the team have seen some well-deserved varsity game minutes.

The team continued to keep the pressure on and saw freshman midfielder David Brown score his first goal for the Indians.

After the seventh goal, the Berlin side made the decision to change goalkeepers.

Kewaskum continued to create chances and pressure on the newly subbed goalie who did not break and pushed away all the shots fired from the Indians.

Dan Zeman again had some action while playing the entire second half in goal for Kewaskum.

Last Minute Teal Hunt

MARK WALTERS
COLUMNIST

I was supposed to be on a very simple goose hunt near Burnett, Dodge County, for this week's trip, but that changed when my hunting partner told me that there were not any geese coming into the fields that he had permission to hunt.

In a matter of hours, my plan went from a simple field hunt and staying in his house to loading up my 18.6 War Eagle with decoys, my canoe, sleeping bags, guns and other gear and heading to Ferryville on the Mississippi River to spend two nights living out of my boat.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 31
HIGH: 81. LOW: 53.

So, it's Ruby, her pup, Red, and myself. We are going to live and hunt in my boat and explore by canoe.

The teal season, as well as early goose season, opens in the morning, and I am running out of daylight as I explore.

The water is very low on the Mississippi backwaters, and the vegetation is numerous, which should mean I can hide the boat and whack some birds the next morning.

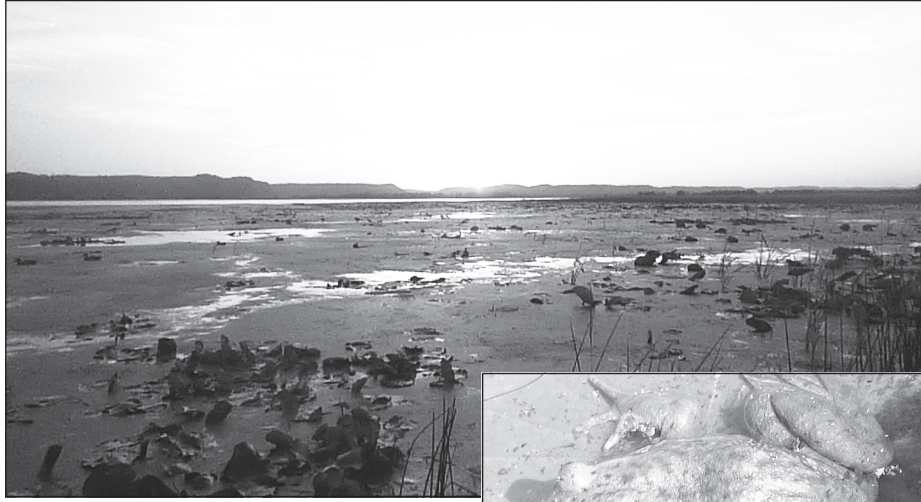

My first surprise came when I jumped out of my boat into chest deep water, and my waders told me that they have several leaks. I got back in the boat after hiding the War Eagle in some wild rice, opened a can of beer and watched the skies.

I saw three flocks of teal, numerous woodies and not a goose.

Towards dark, I heated up some chili, put my cot together and tried listening to my radio, but the batteries were dead. I have to mention, the charger for my phone went to heaven, as well, so this would be 48-hours of non-intervention from the outside world.

After supper, I became very comfortable in my sleeping bag with two golden fur balls laying beside, and I watched the sky.

By midnight, the dew was so heavy that it had soaked through my sleeping bag. I got up, put a tarp over it and kind of slept until 4.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 1
HIGH: 84. LOW: 55.

I had trash bags that I put in my chest waders; that helped. They only went to my thighs, so I still got wet.

This morning, I had a flock of teal offer some very easy shots as they flew by. I missed, and Ruby was not happy with me.

Red, on the other hand, was fine with watching the sky and, about every half hour, doing a quick run and dive off the boat into the water.

An hour after legal shooting began, every bird in the area vanished, so I went exploring by canoe.

I was confident the late day hunt would be good, and I really had no cares as I was on the water; my housing was free and I did not have to go home for another day.

Another kind of conundrum: The sun was a bit of a scorcher and when I tried taking a siesta it was simply too hot.

With three hours of daylight left, I was super excited for the massive teal and goose flight that was about to begin. I did not care that I was burnt to a crisp, had no radio or phone, had not harvested a bird and that my waders leaked quite profusely. Fifty-one years ago, my dad – the late Robert Walters – took me hunting to Ferryville for the first time, and I honestly was living down memory lane.

At dark, I got in my sleeping bag with two bundles of gold wrestling to see who could put their face next to mine, and I watched the sky.

Late in the night, it started raining. I packed my bag, put on my rain gear and waited for it to get light out. I planned on limiting out on teal and geese.

Daylight came, a teal snuck in and landed in my decoys. Ruby kept looking at me and, in dog talk was saying, "shoot the bird fool!"

The teal sprung into the air, I took three shots at the flying bird, I missed and then just like the day before, the sky was empty.

I packed up, made the journey back to the landing, ran my bear baits before I got home and thus another "epic" journey came to an end!

Love to hunt!

KHS SOCCER from page 10

Dan's form may look unorthodox, due to being put in the position with very little training, but he has managed to keep a clean sheet in every game he has been in. With some quality instruction Dan might have found a new calling on the soccer field.

The Final score was 7-0 with Kewaskum winning their eighth game of the season.

Game 2

A tremendously physical and aggressive Kiel team came to Kewaskum for a rare Saturday morning soccer game.

The game had an auspicious start when one of the Kiel captains was questioned by the head official about his shin guards and if they were sanctioned. They were not, so the official instructed the Kiel player that he would not be allowed into the game until he found new equipment. He was not allowed into the game after finding new shin guards for altering his uniform by cutting the feet off his socks and not having the same color of the sock underneath.

This was the kind of day it was going to be for both sides with very inconsistent officiating, which Kewaskum saw when they receive only their second yellow card of the season. With the physicality of play on both sides there might have been a call for yellow cards.

Kiel's size, strength, and speed threw the Indians out of their game plan almost from the opening whistle. Unorganized and sloppy play had Kewaskum looking as if they took a step back. Goals in the 17th and 27th minute had the hometown side scrambling to recover. Poor positioning and reaction to Kiel's relentless offensive pressure proved too much to handle in the first half which resulted in a converted penalty kick for Kiel.

A 0-3 halftime deficit meant the Indians would have their work cut out for them in the second half.

During halftime the team had a chance to catch their breath and came out for the second half with renewed sense of confidence that they could compete with their athletically superior opponents.

This game proved that when you play as a team and have each other's back you don't need to be the biggest, fastest, or strongest to win. Faith in the game plan, tactical strategy, and team-

National Library Card Sign-up Month

National Library Card September at the library is National Library Card Sign-up Month. National Library Card Sign-up began in 1987 as members of the American Library Association and libraries across the country worked together to ensure that every child can sign up for their own library card. The Campbellsport library invites children and adults who do not yet have a card to stop in and get one.

The process takes five minutes and all you need to bring with you is a drivers license. You can also go online to our website at www.campbellsportlibrary.org and begin the process there. Children must be 3 years old to have their first library card. Having a library card is wonderful for so many reasons. It offers you the chance to check out new materials, including books and magazines, as well as TV shows and movies. Throughout the school year it can save parents, and caregivers hundreds of dollars on education resources and services for students.

Our librarians are here to help you with any questions you may have and would love to help you explore what the library has to offer and beyond.

Sonic the Hedgehog Double Feature

On Monday, Sept. 26, Campbellsport Public School does not have school. Children and families are invited to join us at the library for a Sonic the Hedgehog Double Feature! We will be showing the first movie at 1 p.m. and immediately following the first, we will be showing Sonic 2 (around 3 p.m.). Feel free to bring a cozy blanket to sit on and a beverage, and we will have the popcorn ready and waiting! Zzzzzoom on down to watch Sonic Battle against the Egg Man and defend his life here on Earth! Join us for one or both movies we would love to see you!

Tinker Tuesdays

From 3:45 to 5:45 p.m. on Tuesday, children and young adults can stop in to build with Legos, Zoob and straw builders, and other manipulatives. For the month of September, any children's books that are checked out (up to 10) will earn two Lego pieces to be added to our in-house Lego tower. Our goal for the month is to have a tower that is more than 6-feet tall. You can help us reach this goal by checking out books and adding your pieces to our tower. Come join in the fun all September long! We will post a picture of the tower here at the end of the month so watch to see if we reach our goal.

Wednesday Story Hour

Children ages 3-6 are invited to join Azra at the library for story hour every Wednesday from 10:30-11:30 a.m. Children will enjoy reading stories, making crafts, and participating in other themed week activities. Story hour offers the opportunity for young children to socialize with others and also encourages growth in language development, motor skills, and helps to promote a love of learning. Children and families are welcome to stay after story hour to play and explore at the library.

The themes for the first month of story hour are as follows:

- September 28 – Pirate Party
- October 4 – Witches
- October 11 – Ghosts
- October 18 – Monsters

Check It Out!

LORI KREIS
KEWASKUM LIBRARIAN

Earlier this year in Idaho, State House Republicans passed a bill that would allow librarians to be prosecuted for allowing minors to check out material deemed harmful. In Iowa, a bill was written that would charge public and school librarians with a criminal offense for providing obscene material to minors. Last month, Missouri made it a crime for public and private schools to circulate sexually explicit materials with a maximum penalty of one year in jail and a fine of $2,000. I personally know of public librarians that are harassed for allowing harmful books in their collection.

Challenges go back 100 years as documented in the 1924 California case against the King James Bible in schools and school libraries. Yes, that is correct. The Bible is a popular challenged book. Here are some other titles – To Kill a Mockingbird, The Color Purple, Of Mice and Men, The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn and the Harry Potter Series.

The American Library Association Office for Intellectual Freedom has recorded more book challenges in 2021 than ever before and 2022 may break that record.

The motto this year for Banned Books Week is Books Unite Us, Censorship Divides Us. How do books unite us? They create connections between readers by crossing boundaries of race, socioeconomic, education and more. Censorship divides us by putting up barriers, barriers to intellectual freedom.

The thought that others want to take away our freedoms is terrifying. The freedom to read is a right granted to all Americans in our Constitution along with the right to privacy to exercise that freedom. There are individuals, groups and public authorities that want to take away that freedom by limiting or removing items they deem controversial. And that is happening as noted above.

Who decides what is controversial or obscene or explicit? Should that be left to governing bodies, parents, educators? I believe that each human being should be trusted to make their own decision about what to read and not be forced to give up what others consider inappropriate.

Here are some more of my thoughts that could be construed as controversial. Books help to understand complex issues. Young people have the right to see themselves reflected in books. Parents have the right to guide their own children's reading but should not be making decisions for other parent's children. Removing books from libraries can lead to government censorship and take away our American freedoms.

I am passionate about intellectual freedom and that is why Banned Books Week is so important to me. The selectors at this library work hard in keeping a balanced, well-thought out and researched collection. Banning any one of them would remove the book for all. No one should have that right to remove material based on their own beliefs.

Please take a stand with me against censorship and protect our freedom to read.

Sept. 17

The Kewaskum Gridiron Indians got back into action on Saturday, Sept. 17, with all the teams playing at home against Slinger Blue.

The eighth, sixth & fifth grades came away with victories, while the seventh grade battled hard with their game ending in a tie.

Eighth Grade

The boys played a great all-around game, and the offense lit up the scoreboard, scoring on the first six offensive possessions en route to a 42-13 victory over Slinger Blue. The Indians improved to 2-1 on the season.

Kewaskum took a 20-6 lead into halftime with touchdowns scored by Anthony Coleman (54-yard touchdown catch from Eli Ogi), and then William Koch scored on pass receptions of 14 and 20 yards from Kyle Haim.

In the second half, the Indians were able to add three more scores with Ogi hitting Koch for a 20-yard touchdown pass and then Kingston Grisolono added rushing touchdowns of one yard and 74-yards. On the longer of the two, Grisolono broke several tackles to earn the score.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade

team played a hard fought game that ended in an 8-8 tie against Slinger Blue, which brought their record to 2-0-1 on the season.

Levi Whitfield scored the only touchdown on the day for the Indians, while Blake Stal added the two-point conversion kick.

The defense fought hard all game and didn't give up a score until the fourth quarter. Standout players on the defense included Jace Wichtoski, Evan Soyk and Quin Dornacker.

Sixth Grade

The sixth grade team played a hard fought game and came away with a one score win, 24-18, against Slinger Blue to improve to 2-1 on the season.

Again leading the way for the Indians offense was Ryland Ciriacks who had his second-straight four-touchdown game.

Porter Reis also had some nice runs for the offense.

On defense, Sam Vang and Bryce Zehren led the way with some nice stops and tackles to help preserve the close win for the Indians.

Fifth Grade

The fifth grade team also played a tight game and came away with a 32-30 win against Slinger Blue to improve to 3-0 on the season.

The Indians offense was led by Cole Kertscher who had three touchdowns and 150-plus rushing yards on the day.

Henry Ogi added two more scores for the Indians.

The defense had several standout players on the day, which included Owen McHenry, Walker Sabish, Cade Wichtoski, Paxton Boeldt and Ogi.

“We were overwhelmed by the outpouring of community support for last year, especially from area churches and schools. The coin drive really highlights what we can accomplish when we work together. If we all do our small part, collectively we can make a big difference,” said Melanie Goring, associate director at the Albrecht Free Clinic. “So many of us have that jar of spare change that we keep meaning to take to the bank. This coin drive will help the Albrecht Free Clinic to continue providing the most fragile and vulnerable members of our community basic health care with dignity and respect.”

The Albrecht Free Clinic exists to meet the medical and dental needs of uninsured individuals living and working in Washington County. It is a volunteer-driven organization, made possible by the doctors, nurses, and administrative support volunteers who give so generously of their time and talents. Founded in 1996 by Dr. James E. Albrecht, the clinic has proudly served Washington County for 26 years. More information is at visit albrecht-freeclinic.org.

and showed their better side in this half. Better linking of play through the midfield earned Kewaskum several quality chances to get them back into the game.

A breaking Charlie Gambino saw his left footed blast tipped by the goalie and ricochet off the crossbar of the goal. The Kiel keeper was not done breaking the Indians hearts as he also turned away a seventy ninth minute penalty kick.

Still fighting until the end, Kewaskum was unable to get the two additional goals that they needed to pull level.

A 1-3 defeat have the Indians sitting with an 8-2 record on the season.

expecting that we may not need to increase our rates just yet. He also presented their conceptual plan for financing throughout the next 10 to 15 years for street projects necessary in the village. There is a separate plan for resurfacing and reconstructed streets. The goal with this plan is to spread out projects efficiently to avoid an increase in the tax levy. Market rates, assessments and the economy will all play a factor in the actual numbers as each project begins.

Chief Dornbrook reported that the issues presented last month in the Theisen Trails subdivision have all been addressed and taken care of for the most part. His department will continue to monitor grass cutting and the construction project cleanups. Dornbrook is investigating the need for a cross guard at the intersection of W Sheboygan and Railroad Streets during the before and after school hours. He is also looking into a Wigwag warning lighted sign to caution drivers in that area. More details will be provided for action at the next board meeting. There are two officers interested in employment with the department. One full time and one part time. An offer to hire was accepted by the part time candidate. ## Five-game Winning Streak for K.H.S. Football

COACH STEVEN TENNIES KHS FOOTBALL

Waupun's Veterans Memorial Stadium does not have lights for the 2022 season. Therefore, the situation provided a rare Saturday afternoon game for the Kewaskum Indians football team. The Indians played under the sun and came away with a 41-0 shutout-victory, which means a sparkling 5-0 overall record (and a 3-0 record in the East Central Conference) just over halfway through the 2022 season.

A slow first quarter saw the Indians score with only 0:21 left in the period, as junior fullback Dylan Soyk found the end zone from seven-yards out. Fellow running mate senior Dillan Steger took on the kicking duties on Saturday and knocked through the first of his five extra points on the day for a 7-0 Indians lead.

The second quarter is where Kewaskum picked up the pace, as the Indians scored three more touchdowns.

The first was from Steger on a 13-

Dillan Steger, #34, wears his best game face while rumbling down the field on this run. The senior had 85 rushing yards and a touchdown during last week's shutout of Waupun.

Despite the tight spaces, Dawson Stahl, #9, found the end zone after a direct snap on this play.

yard scamper around the left end. Next, junior quarterback Dawson Stahl powered his way through the Warrior's defense for a two-yard score. Finally, senior quarterback Ryan Cook found fellow senior wide out Owen Parrish behind the defense for a 71-yard touchdown pass to close out the first half.

Soyk would find paydirt once more to open the third quarter, rumbling for an 11-yard touchdown.

Junior running back Casey Schmidt closed the scoring with a one-yard touchdown run with 3:19 to go in the third.

Despite the high score from the Indians offense, it was the defense that stole the show. The Indians held the home team to a meager 16 yards of total offense for the entire day. The Warriors wound up rushing the ball in reverse as the mighty Indian defense held them to (minus)-19 yards on the ground. Contributing to

Wins and No Losses All Around for Kewaskum Youth Football

Over two weeks, the four teams combined to go 7-0-1

KEWASKUM GRIDIRON

Sept. 10

The Kewaskum Gridiron Indians had a full slate of action on Saturday, Sept. 10, with the eighth and seventh grades traveling to Wauwatosa, sixth grade to Sussex and the fifth grade to Lake Country with all of the teams coming away with victories.

Eighth Grade

The eighth grade played a solid all-around game, scoring on all four of their offensive possessions – and not giving up a score until the last minute of the game – en route to a 28-6 victory over Wauwatosa.

The Indians took a 14-0 lead into halftime with touchdowns scored by Eli Ogi (three-yard touchdown run) and Kyle Haim (touchdown pass to Kingston Grisolono for a 35-yard score).

In the second half, the Indians were able to add two more scores with Haim hitting William Koch for a 25-yard touchdown pass and then Ogi added another rushing touchdown from 25-yards out.

Grisolono was able to convert on two-out-of-four two-point conversion kicks on the day.

Haim finished the day seven-for-seven, passing for 126 yards and two touchdowns with Koch catching five of those passes for 82 yards and a touchdown. Grisolono led the way on the ground with seven carries for 53 yards.

On defense, Grisolono forced a fumble and Tristan Bosselman and Lewis Williams each had fumble recoveries, while Jack Krenzke added a quarterback sack for the Indians defense.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade team had a nice performance, coming away with a 32-12 victory over Wauwatosa.

Jace Wichtoski led the team, scoring two rushing touchdowns on the day.

Leviathan Whitfield provided some excitement with a punt return for a touchdown.

Michael Missall added a touchdown pass to Landon Scheel, and Blake Staral contributed a 25-yard field goal. Staral also converted two two-point conversion kicks for the Indians.

The defense stood their ground aside from a couple big plays. Cameron Jones came up with a big interception late in the game, and Jude Johnson led the team with a couple tackles for losses. Quinn Dornacker forced and recovered a fumble.

Sixth Grade

The sixth grade team played a great game, defeating Sussex by a score of 31-6.

Kewaskum's eight seniors were recognized prior to the meet.

The seniors are: Rylie Dwyer, Stephanie Erdmann, Molly Freund, Charity Humphreys, Jade Johnson, Amanda Martin, Mackenzie Steiner and Isabelle Thomas.

Once the meet began, Molly Freund took control of her number one singles match early, beating Madison Thill 6-3 in the first set. Thill took Freund to a tiebreaker in the second set, but Freund won the tiebreaker to earn the 6-3, 7-6 victory.

Sheboygan Falls, however, came in undefeated in dual meets on the season, and lived up to their record.

At number two singles, Kewaskum's Liz Erdmann won the first set against Andrea Hicks. Hicks battled back to win the match 3-6, 7-5, 6-3. The defeat snapped a six-match winning streak for Liz Erdmann, and was her first conference loss of the season.

At number one doubles, Sheboygan Falls' Ava Potokar and Sophia Smallwood improved to 10-0 on the season, with a 6-1, 6-2 victory over Kewaskum senior Isabelle Thomas and junior Rowyn Weidmeyer. The Kewaskum tandem, which have been enjoying an excellent season, had their record fall to 9-4.

Sheboygan Falls also earned victories at #3 and #4 singles, as well as #2 and #3 doubles.

Playing at #3 doubles, Kewaskum seniors Rylie Dwyer and Jade Johnson played a long, spirited match, battling back after losing the first set.

Dwyer and Johnson won the second set, but couldn't quite get the third one, finally falling 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

Sheboygan Falls went to win the meet, 6-1, improving their record to 11-0 on the season.

The Kewaskum Indians volleyball team (15-3, 3-0) defeated Plymouth (3-10, 0-3) in conference play last week, as the girls handled the East Central rival in three straight sets – 25-11, 25-14, 25-6 – to win the match up.

The team played very strong.

We were mentally focused and prepared for this match, and we were able to execute our game plan at a very high level.

Dogs and Rochon had very strong nights in the front court, and Grisolono and Mikaela Marquardt played a strong match in the back court.

Sebo and Madelyn Marquardt placed the ball well for us to take advantage and we did.

C.H.S. Boys Runners Third at Ripon

COACH MIKE KULIBERT
CHS CROSS COUNTRY

The annual Kris Greening Cross Country Invitational hosted by Ripon was held at Barlow Park last Saturday, Sept. 17.

The 13-school meet featured Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association (WIAA) Division 2 state-ranked Winneconne in the boys race and Freedom and Winneconne in the girls race.

Winneconne easily won the boys' varsity race with the low score of 27 points. In a close battle for second, Portage (68) edged Campbellsport (72) by only 4 points. Freedom (90) took fourth place followed by Waupun (105), Pius Xi (196), Lomira (202), Ripon (230), Beaver Dam (235), Kewaskum (263) and Waupaca (287).

Despite placing four runners in the top fifteen, Campbellsport could not quite overcome Portage, which placed all five of its scorers in the top 25.

Logan and Brody Nolan led Campbellsport, as the two Cougars got off to strong starts by positioning themselves in the top-10 early and moving up as the race progressed. Logan finished fifth with a season best time of 17:43. Brody took seventh in a season best 17:51. Sawyer Dirmeier and Aydan Meilahn worked together throughout the race and it paid off with great times. Sawyer took 13th in a career best 18:24, and, in 15th, Aydan had a season best 18:33.

Both Noah Bobb and Owen Blevins also had career best times. Bobb finished 40th in 19:50, and Blevins was 41st in 19:51.

Cougar Girls Log Solid Personal Times

In the girls' varsity race, Freedom, ranked sixth in the state, was the winner with 51 points. Kewaskum surprised Winneconne by taking second with 70, while third-place Winneconne had 92. Beaver Dam (96) finished in fourth followed by Lomira (142), Waupun (158), Valley Christian (197), Ripon (217), Portage (223), Mayville (225) and Campbellsport (254).

Despite having several runners not feeling well, the Cougars had some of their best times so far.

Lydia Toshner was the top Campbellsport runner in 43rd with a time of 24:32. Taking 46th, Sienna Hewitt finished in 24:49. Emily Ohme, who placed 49th, had a career-best 25:16. Izzy Sperflage also had a career-best time; she finished the 5,000-meter race in 57th with a time of 25:48. Hannah Thelen and Katrina Ohme had season-best times of 30:26 and 30:55.

Timm and McCarty Shine in Omro

CLARICE CASE
JOURNALIST

The Campbellsport Cougars defeated the Omro Foxes, 42-27, on Friday, Sept. 16, in Omro.

The Cougars scored 14 points in the first quarter. In the second, each team scored seven points. At half, the score was 21-7.

The Foxes nearly matched the efforts of the Cougars in the second half with Omro scoring six and Campbellsport seven points in the third, and 14 points from each team in the final period. As such, it was a scoreless first quarter from the Foxes that allowed the Cougars to keep their lead through the night.

"Ben (Timm) ran hard and had a great game with 29 carries for 213 yards and two touchdowns," praised Todd Wondra, Cougars' head coach. "Mitch (McCarty) had some great throws when we needed them to continue drives. He was six-for-12 with 110 yards and one touchdown, and added two touchdowns on the ground, as well."

Wondra believed the Cougars played well on both sides of the ball, but, "defensively, there was some breakdowns with individual responsibility that allowed Omro to have some big plays."

The team will continue to work hard and improve their offensive and defensive operations going into the next week, he shared.

The Cougars will be away again on Friday, Sept. 23, as they face Winnebago Lutheran Academy in Fond du Lac.

Wondra knows it will be another tough game.

"They are coached well and play disciplined defense," he acknowledged.

The game begins at 7 p.m. at Viking Field.
