There were no other reported injuries.

According to a Fond du Lac Sheriff's Office (FDLSO) press release, a call about a fire was received around 9 a.m. last Thursday. Deputies from FDLSO along with firefighters from Eden and neighboring departments arrived and were able to extinguish the fire before it spread to other businesses and buildings.

"It's sad to say we have had a major fire to one of our historic businesses in the village today," read a statement from the Village of Eden. "Our hearts and prayers go out to the families and employees of the Eden [Meat Market]."

An investigation revealed that a fire in one of John Thomas "Tom" McCarty was born on Christmas Day 1912 to John and Katherine (Becker) McCarty. This story is a tribute to his service in World War II and his origins in the Ashford Township.

Detailed memories of Tom McCarty (1912-1982) are fewer with time. His wife died in 1969, and both of his children are deceased. Most of the old stories are held by nephews and nieces as all of Tom's siblings have passed. But one story comes from an old neighbor. It was a July 2018 interview

Veterans Day

Dear Reader,

Veterans Day, originally called Armistice Day, honors those who served in America's Armed Forces. Most Americans have family members and/or friends that have served or are currently serving.

Our father Frank Wood was a war correspondent in WWII for the US Army. Our brother Dan Wood served in the US Navy. Our cousin Bill Wood served in the Army, including a tour of active duty in Iraq and later stints working with NATO in Europe. He retired earlier this year as a Lieutenant Colonel and with the widely respected Airborne Badge and Ranger Tab. Veterans Day honors all those who served or are serving in the US military; Memorial Day honors those who gave their lives for their country.

We can all spend 2 minutes of silence in observance of their service at 1:11pm Central Standard Time on Veterans Day. This is a small but meaningful gesture recognizing all these warriors did and do and the sacrifices they have made and continue to make on behalf of America.

CONTRIBUTOR

Kind of appropriate that election day follows Halloween, huh? Because the choices of candidates we're given is often quite scary. Makes one almost wish for simpler days of stub pencils to mark an X.

I especially miss the old town hall. Which still stands on a side street in Eden, next to the post office. Now the building serves as a museum, with photos of early life in the area on its walls.

Same as the Auburn Town Hall, the painted wood sided square, most likely former one room schoolhouse was the hub of community activity. In days past, the structure served not only for elections but also board meetings. A spot where grass roots government business ensued in a rustic yet efficient manner. Rough plank flooring echoed footsteps towards the raised dais where poll workers sat, often neighbors. They knew my father on sight, a dependable blue dog, hardworking family man. The comradery made the place a bit more friendly.

Unfortunately, it wasn't large enough to accommodate a crowd. Cut to the present – a fancy brick and steel replacement. Though also a bit small, the main voting space divided between township and village, a rigid rollback partition separates the districts.

And how we cast ballots also changed. First a fill in the circles form. Rather like placement tests in high school. Followed by draw a line to connect the arrow. Can't go back. Not with highfalutin machines which tally each ballot inserted.

I'll never forget voting for the first time in the presidential primary in the spring of 1976. Just finishing my senior year in high school. Already taking on the duties of an adult and the responsibilities of a good citizen. That's a milestone which lingers in memory for a lifetime. Those initial tentative steps towards a future beyond childhood.

Marian University Names Business of the Year

More than 170 individuals from the Fond du Lac area business community gathered at Marian University Wednesday night to celebrate the Business of the Year, and other award-winning organizations. Dr. George Koonce, Marian's senior vice president for University Relations, was the Master of Ceremonies for Marian University's 41st Annual Business and Industry Awards, where area businesses are honored for their entrepreneurship, economic development, special achievement, and commitment to community.

And the winners are:

Business of the Year – Wisconsin Lighting Lab
Community Collaboration Award – St. Vincent de Paul, Solutions Center Shelter, and Drexel Building Supply

Economic Development Award – Legacy Express, LLC

Entrepreneur of the Year – Paul Reetz, Integrity Saw & Tool

International Business Achievement Award – Wisconsin Spice

Special Achievement Award – KFIZ

In addition, Allen Buechel was presented, posthumously, with the George Becker Business Spirit Award. Named after George Becker, former president of Giddings & Lewis and a member of Marian University's Board of Trustees, the award is given to an individual, company, charitable organization, or civic group whose good business practices benefit the community, either through the ways they do business or their contribution to the community. As the longest-serving county executive in Wisconsin, Buechel's dedication to the Fond du Lac community spanned more than 40 years. Betty Buechel, Alan's wife, accepted the award in honor of her late husband, who passed away unexpectedly earlier this year.

Money raised from the Annual Business and Industry Awards goes directly to scholarships for students in Marian University's business program.

Marian University was founded in 1936 by the Congregation of Sisters of St. Agnes, a group of pioneering Sisters, in Fond du Lac. The university has a rich tradition of dedication to the education of the whole person and offers a variety of undergraduate, masters and adult learning degrees at its main campus and online.

Miriam Victoria Kremer

Miriam Victoria Kremer, age 17 (July 21, 2005 - November 3, 2022), was carried home to her Lord and Savior in the glow of a beautiful fall sunrise on Thursday, November 3, at 6:57 AM. Miriam fought bravely and without complaint during a three-year struggle with leukemia and subsequent complications throughout her high school years.

Baptized at David’s Star Lutheran Church on July 31, 2005, Miriam was a blessing and true inspiration of strength and grit — physically, emotionally, and spiritually — to all who came in contact with her. She leaves a massive void for those who loved her - sisters, Keturah (18) and Michaiiah (13), parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, many pets, caregivers and a long list of friends.

Miriam was especially proud to have maintained all of her studies at Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School. She had been holding a 4.0 GPA for the first quarter and was ready to graduate with her senior class in 2023. She was also excited at starting her first job at Cousins Subs and was finally able to attend drivers’ ed. lessons. Her goal was to have her central line removed by Christmas so that she could take snowboarding lessons with her younger sister and swim and tube again next summer. With Jesus by her side, she never let her trials of illness get in the way of living life.

Miriam was known for her generosity and caring for those around her. She loved to purchase gifts for friends and family and was always jotting down notes throughout the year so she would have ideas at hand.

Miriam loved pets, traveling, hiking, camping, kayaking, fishing, playing trumpet and piano, and learning guitar with Grandpa. Her final trips included zip-lining at the Creation Museum this spring, camping and kayaking this summer, and catching her biggest fish ever during a Lake Michigan charter this fall. Her final feats were the homecoming festivities this fall and climbing the stairs at Holy Hill two weeks ago.

Confirmed on May 18, 2019, at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, Miriam’s confirmation verse gave her great strength: “I can do all this through Him who gives me strength” (Philippians 4:13.)

No guilt in life, no fear in death; This is the power of Christ in me. From life’s first cry to final breath, Jesus commands my destiny. No power of hell, no scheme of man, Can ever pluck me from His hand; Till He returns or calls me home, Here in the power of Christ I’ll stand.

Miriam was a warrior for Life. She cared deeply and was strongly committed to life issues. Her passion compelled her to speak up for pre-born babies and their mothers at any opportunity. She loved the work of WELS Lutherans For Life (LFL). She was even able to attend the LFL banquet with her family this year on October 14. To honor Miriam’s deepest desire to save lives and change lives with the Gospel, we ask that memorials be made to WELS Lutherans for Life, 8501 W. Lincoln Ave, West Allis, WI, 53227.

Visitation will be Friday, November 11, 2022, at Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School (3399 Division Rd. Jackson, WI 53037) from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. A Funeral Service will follow at 1:30 p.m. with Pastor Darren Knoll and Pastor Clark Schultz presiding. Interment will immediately follow at Washington County Memorial Park.

The Phillip Funeral Home of West Bend is assisting the family.

Carolyn Laura Krueger

Carolyn Laura Krueger (nee Gilman), 80, of Eden, died peacefully on Thursday, November 3, 2022, at home surrounded by family.

She was born January 23, 1942, in Eureka, California, to Levi and Margaret Gilman.

Mom grew up in Tillamook, Oregon, in a house her dad built with his own hands. As a child, Mom was very sick with rheumatic fever and bedbound for quite some time. Her most loving memory from childhood is her mom carrying her up and down the steps at school so she could attend school again. As a teenager, mom and her friends, Marmie and Ann, loved hanging out and having fun at the Fern Café. Mom attended Tillamook High School.

When babysitting at her sister’s house in Seattle, she was walking with her friend when a crazy, but handsome driver almost ran her over while crossing the street. It was love at first sight and he asked her out. After four dates, he proposed. They were married on May 8, 1959, in Tillamook, Oregon. Together they started their family there. In 1970, they moved to Wisconsin, eventually settling in Campbellsport. Mom worked at Reliable Knitting in Campbellsport from 1974 until retirement when she turned 65.

Mom’s loves included her papers dolls from her mom and dad, angel collecting, reading about angels, watching paranormal shows, flower gardening especially being known for her beautiful clematis’, writing, with being a published poet. Her biggest love was her road trips with “Daddy” (Jerry) to explore the west.

One of the most meaningful moments in mom’s life happened in 2001 when she kept her promise to her dad and pursued and received her high school diploma.

Carolyn is survived by four daughters, Sheryl (Thomas) Gellings, Carol Will, Robin (Thomas) Ostergaard, Jerri (Thomas) Krueger-Moore; daughter-in-law, Helga Krueger Conrad; 13 grandchildren, Melissa (Dave) Kutil, Nicole Gellings, Holly (Charlie) Labarca, Kimberly (Ben) Pankratz, Laurel Kohrt, John Will, Ashley (Felix) Cruz, Tyler (Cayla) Weeks, Brittney Weeks, Elle (Avery) Henne, Austin Moore, Sebastian (Manuela) Krueger, Fabian Krueger; 15 great-grandchildren; and her kitty, Mitzie (Baby).

Carolyn was preceded in death by the love of her life, Gerald “Jerry” Krueger; her parents; her older sister, Sharleen Christensen; and younger brother, Leonard Gilman; son, Uwe Krueger; and son-in-law, John Will; father and mother-in-law, Allan and Viola Krueger; numerous brothers and sisters-in-law, and grandson-in-law, Jarod Kohrt.

A private service will be held for immediate family at Shrine of Rest Mausoleum, Ledgeview Memorial Park followed by entombment.

Our family thanks SSM Health ICU nurses Lisa, Brooke, and Cheyenne and SSM Health Hospice caregivers Denise, Heather, Betty, Marissa, and Amanda for the love and exceptional care they provided to our mom.

Services are in the care of Uecker-Witt Funeral Home, 524 North Park Avenue, Fond du Lac, WI, 54935. Additional information and guestbook can be found at ueckerwitt.com

Nine pages in this issue spotlighted those who have served our country. Photos of service people filled these pages, each including the service person's name, branch of service, and years served. Another page had 15 coupons from businesses that were showing their appreciation to Veterans by offering them a special.

The top three essays from fifth grade students at Campbellsport Elementary School were published. The students were asked to write about "What Veterans Day Means To Me." Winners were Katelyn Bertram, Ella Landowski, and Samuel Ellenbecker. Katelyn thinks of the flag on Veterans Day - red for blood shed, white for nurses who wrapped injuries, and blue for tears shed by families who lost someone. Ella says people should always thank a veteran any time they see one and always think about the brave, loyal, and heroic veterans. Samuel explained what happened to his friend, Bill Soyk. Bill was 19 when he was drafted to fight in the Vietnam War. During his time in Vietnam, Bill was shot in the arm, spent time in a Vietnam hospital and an Army hospital in Japan before being sent home.

Fifth grade students from Ms. Timm's class at Campbellsport Elementary School wrote letters to veterans thanking them for their service. These veterans were from all over the United States. The letter campaign was called Operation Veterans Day Letters.

Due to the efforts of David Wege, a member of the Civil War Round Table of Milwaukee and an educator of young minds in Waucousta Lutheran Grade School, an adult field trip took place. The Civil War Time Travelers visited the spot where the Iron Brigade saved the day and saved the Union while being destroyed in combat: Gettysburg, PA. There were stages of the trip. The first was Gettysburg, then a day trip to Harpers Ferry and the Antietam battlefield. There was three non-stop days of touring the Gettysburg battlefield then a trip back to God's Country.

Steinig Tal Police K9 Academy, which is located outside of Campbellsport, recently completed a course and held a graduation. Larry Filo has been training police dogs since 1978. Steinig Tal is the Jaron Ruplinger, a sixth grade student at St. Matthew's School, has been chosen by his classmates and teachers as the November Student of the Month.

The state honors project has two 100-voice choirs comprised from the audition process in which 2,000 people participated. The performance will be October 25 at Overture Hall in Madison.

Shawn St. Mary, president of the Eden Volunteer Firemen's Association, presented Grace Sabel with a check for $23,743.34 for the Tony Sabel Benefit Fund. The money will offset the cost of a van that will provide transportation for 22-year-old Tony, who was paralyzed in a snow tubing accident earlier this year.

St. Matthew's third grade students are making ornaments for the 2007 State Holiday Tree in Madison. This year's theme is Naturally Wisconsin. The students have used pine cones and painted them white and added silver glitter to make them glisten like the snow.

Citizens of the village are reminded to attend the annual budget meeting to publicly discuss the annual budget for the 1948 year. With a tax reduction in site amounting to almost $4,000, there will probably be a lack of interest in the meeting. However, this is the only time of the year when the citizen is asked to "stick his nose into village affairs." Every citizen with an active interest in village spending and services should appear at the meeting in order to voice his opinion at a time when appropriations are being made.

The burglaries at the Lueders Jewelry Store, C.J. Kleinhans Implement Store and Buechel Implement on the night of October 25 were solved this weekend with the arrest of three youths from Appleton. Booty valued at thousands of dollars was recovered. Among the loot recovered was much of the jewelry items taken from the Lueders Jewelry Store and the portable radio from Kleinhans.

| KEWASKUM'S DAYS GONE BY |

Kewaskum High School will likely have a new brick exterior on the west side of the building. And it may have a new entranceway, office, kitchen and cafeteria space. These improvements may become part of the school district's current building project because the district has been receiving bids lower than projected for the building project. Monday's meeting was the first time the cafeteria was mentioned. It would be larger than the existing one and would have round tables. To make room, the kitchen and serving area would be moved to where the existing office is and the office would be added to the front of the building. The details are still a work in progress.

Farmington Elementary School held an all-school assembly for Veterans Day on November 13. Students learned about Taps, the American flag, and the American Legion Honor Guard. A familiar face appeared on the gym wall as Chief Warrant Officer Matt Doum visited with the staff, students, and visitors through FaceTime. In the audience were his two daughters (second grade and kindergarten), his two younger sons, and his wife. Matt is currently stationed in the Virgin Islands, but he also works as a deputy for the Washington County Sheriff's Office and is a liaison officer for Farmington Elementary. Because he walks the hallways of the school every day, the students all recognized him.

Winter weather has arrived in Wisconsin and the Knights of Columbus Council #1964 were determined to make sure the students are able to be bundled up to brave the cold temperatures. Through the efforts of the organization, Jim Gorman and Jim Gugg delivered dozens of new hats and pairs of socks, mittens, and gloves to Kewaskum Elementary School on November 10. The Knights also delivered items to Holy Trinity School in Kewaskum. Overall, the Knights delivered donated items to six Washington County schools.

People are now allowed to ride bicycles on sidewalks in the Village of Kewaskum. The village board approved changes to two village ordinances on November 6 to permit bicycles on sidewalks. Police Chief Tom Bishop said the stance of the police is that it is safer for kids to ride on the sidewalks so the ordinance now reflects conformity with the village's enforcement. State law allows for municipalities to enact ordinances permitting bicycles on sidewalks.

Residents in the Village of Kewaskum may see a 2.9 percent increase in the village tax levy next year. That was the projected tax levy at last week's board meeting. Trustees discussed a preliminary budget at that time. The final numbers won't be known until the village receives information from the county.

The Board of Commissioners of Public Lands approved a State Trust Fund Loan totaling $110,809.12 to the Town of Wayne to purchase a tractor and boom mower.

Tony Steger won another football honor last week when he was one of three utility players named to the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association All-State First Team Offense list.

Although he went 6-2, Eric Bauer did not place in the USA Wrestling Preseason Nationals Tournament. He went into the tournament as the number two seed, but made a tiny mistake to end up losing his first match. He then won six straight matches before losing his final match.

Former Kewaskum volleyball player Stephanie Henk made history at UW-La Crosse when she was named conference Player of the Year for the second year in a row.

William Woodrow Hanselman, 70, Kaukauna, passed away November 9.

The village board heard progress is being made on reaching new agreements with the developer of the village's Tax Incremental Finance District during a special meeting held November 13. The biggest winner in the meeting, the village, will receive $368,492 from the TIF district developer for his portion of the improvements to the district. Developer Gary Gavin came away from the meeting with improvements being made to the property that will help him in selling parcels in the district. Approved was a street lighting proposal for Prospect Drive and Trading Post Lane and Trading Post Drive.

It wasn't all smiles but not all moans and groans either as the Wisconsin DOT came to town November 7 to gather input from residents along Highway 28 where a reconstruction project is set to begin in 2011. More than 40 people were at the meeting to view the plans firsthand. The 77-year-old roadway exceeds the statewide crash rate average. The project will see the reconstruction of Highway 28 east from US 45 to the bridge over the west branch of the Milwaukee River in the village. Completion of preliminary design is scheduled to begin in spring 2008. Final plans will be presented in fall 2010 so construction can begin in spring 2011.

More than 25 town residents were in attendance for the Town of Kewaskum budget hearing where they needed to decide on going over Governor Jim Doyle's allowed 3.86 percent budget increase for townships across the state. An overwhelming majority voted against the measure. As for the budget, 20 residents voted in favor of the two percent increase, two voted against, and six abstained. The 4470,651.48 balanced budget reflected a two percent increase in the levy.

Residents in the Town of Farmington are encouraged to attend a special meeting on November 21. The town board will decide whether or not to accept Highway X from Washington County. Town Chairman Gary Schreiber would like to gather as much input from town residents as possible. If approved, the town would receive $625,000 from the county to make repairs to the road.

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce has chosen village resident Larry Ammel as the parade marshal for the annual Christmas Parade.

Induction of 35 new members into the Kewaskum chapter of the National Honor Society was held November 6.

The playoff ride for the Indians ended on November 5 when Kewaskum lost 24-17 to Wisconsin Lutheran. The Indians had a chance to tie the score with less than a minute left in the game, but a fumble short of the goal line ended the season.

A daughter, Emerson Eve, was born October 29 to Sara and Jason Schmidt of Wayne. A daughter, Isabella Rae, was born November 1 to Lauren Hughes and Ray Wollner of Kewaskum.

An all-time record 964 votes were cast in the village in Tuesday's general election. This beats the previous high of four years ago, 807.

The Village of Kewaskum will investigate the possibility of obtaining state funds toward purchase of land to be used for a proposed park. The village is in the market for park land suitable for, among other things, an outdoor swimming pool.

Louis Nemzoff, Milwaukee junk dealer who does much hauling out of Kewaskum, was being held in the Washington County Jail the past week after he had been bound over to the circuit court and his bail set at $10,000 in a traffic hearing Monday. He was charged with reckless driving and failure to stop after an accident with a Kewaskum school bus in which an injury was sustained. Two buses of students were returning from the Marquette-Villanova football game in Milwaukee when one of the buses was hit by Nemzoff. Leroy Keller Jr. was injured when the side of the bus was ripped open and an angle iron from the Nemzoff truck pierced his body causing a ruptured kidney. He has apparently passed the danger point and is recovering nicely.

The Kewaskum Sportsmen Club hadn't been very active in the past year or two so it was reorganized by a very enthusiastic group, and new officers were elected when about 35 sportsmen attended a reorganizational meeting. Members voted to meet every other month on the third Monday.

Thirty-five boys reported for the first high school basketball practice of the season on Monday and have been working out every evening after school this week. The first game is next Friday against Sheboygan Falls.

C.H.S. October Students of the Month

CAMPBELLSPORT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Campbellsport High School (CHS) is proud to announce their "Students of the Month" for the month of October.

Congratulations to Kody Koltz, Sydney Clark, Peyton Hall and Katrina Ohme for being selected as the CHS Students of the Month in October.

Kody Koltz

The PE Department selected Kody Koltz as October's Student of the Month.

Kody has been a great leader throughout the semester. In Coaching and Officiating class, Kody has put others before himself.

Since Kody has had previous experience with officiating basketball, he has stepped up and acted as a second teacher in the class. Some examples of what Kody has helped others with include understanding floor spacing, using proper hand mechanics and how to conduct yourself as an official.

We would like to thank Kody for being that positive leader in our school.

Great job, Kody!

Sydney Clark

The Art Department would like to nominate Sydney Clark as October's Art Student of the Month.

Sydney is currently a student in Art Foundations and she has been producing some amazing art this quarter.

She currently has her artwork on display in the media center.

Sydney always shows up to art class with a positive attitude and is ready to learn and create for the day. She takes her time and works quietly, but is always willing to help any of her classmates.

Because Sydney uses her class time so efficiently, she always completes her projects on time. Sydney takes her education very seriously and is always open to feedback and suggestions.

I am enjoying having Sydney in my art class this semester.

Peyton Hall

The Math Department is proud to nominate Peyton Hall as the Math Student of the Month.

Peyton is an exceptional math student. She has an excellent understanding of the work that is being covered in class and has shown that she will go far in future math classes.

Beyond her ability and hard work, she is a very reliable partner to her classmates.

On multiple occasions, she has taken some of her personal time to work with other students to help them get caught up and she is very helpful in working with her classmates. She has a natural confidence and she has gained a strong ability to explain how she understands the work that we are doing.

For these reasons, Peyton is our math student of the month.

Katrina Ohme

Katrina Ohme was nominated for Student of the Month for the Campbellsport High School Social Studies Department.

Katrina is currently in my American Government class and AP Psychology class and she has clearly shown an advanced understanding of the content. Katrina always uses her class time well, and gives feedback as needed.

She may not always speak up in class, but she shows her thorough understanding of the content by how well she does on assessments and written work.

Katrina has the capability to succeed at whatever she sets her mind to in her future. She is a good listener, a deep thinker and a thorough writer.

We look forward to getting to know her better as the year goes on and see how she can set an example for her classmates.

All high school students are eligible for this honor. Students are nominated by their teachers and then chosen by department.

Teachers make their selections based upon attitude, effort, character, interest and achievement, as exhibited in the classroom and school community.

Administration, faculty and staff are committed to developing future leaders in our community. We want to honor those who are striving each and every day to be those future leaders, who demonstrate this by their positive actions and behaviors.

the store's vents spread to bacon grease. Employees of the market attempted to extinguish the flames prior to the firefighter's arrival, but they were unsuccessful.

The Eden Meat Market has relocated its business operations and plans to honor its catering contracts. The store itself, however, will not be open for the foreseeable future. As of print time, the business was not planning on having the ability to process deer.

"We are closed at the Eden Meat Market until further notice," read a statement from the business. "We are waiting for approval from our state inspectors to identify what products are viable and what is deemed a loss. We plan to update everyone with information as often as possible. Our phone lines are open as our business office was relocated. Eden Catering is operating status quo unless otherwise personally notified by one of our team members. Please be patient as we navigate our 'new normal.'"

Emergency response to the fire included units from Campbellsport, Lamartine, Mt. Incidental Take Notice for Washington County

WIS. DEPT. OF NATURAL RESOURCES

The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (DNR) proposes to issue a permit for the “incidental taking” of a rare plant, which may result from the Newark Drive – Roadway Rehabilitation Project.

Incidental take refers to the unintentional loss of individual endangered or threatened animals or plants that does not put the species’ overall population at risk.

The town of Trenton proposes to recondition 1 mile of roadway along Newark Drive from Trenton Road to Indian Lore Road in the Town of Trenton and Town of Farmington. The existing roadway is approximately 20’ paved surface with 2’ wide gravel shoulders. The project will look to improve the roadway to two 11-foot paved lanes and 2’ wide shoulders.

Additional areas of grading and pavement reconstruction will be required along Newark Drive to improve vertical profile to minimum design standards and to install standard roadway section with ditches to address subgrade drainage concerns.

The presence of the state threatened Forked Aster is confirmed in the vicinity of the project site. DNR staff determined that the proposed project may result in the incidental taking of some plants.

The DNR concludes that the proposed project is not likely to appreciably reduce the likelihood of the survival or recovery of the species within the state, the whole plant-animal community of which they are a part of, or the habitat that is critical to their existence.

Conservation measures to minimize the adverse effect on the threatened and endangered species will be incorporated into the proposed Incidental Take Permit. Copies of the jeopardy assessment and background information on these species are available by visiting the DNR Incidental Take Public Notices webpage or upon request from DNR Conservation Biologist Stacy Rowe at 608-228-9796 or stacy.rowe@wisconsin.gov.

The public is encouraged to submit written comments regarding project-related impacts to the Forked Aster by Dec. 7, 2022 to:

Greetings from the Campbellsport Library!

It was great to see everyone who came in to join us for our BOOOOKTACULAR event on October 28th. We had a wonderful turn out and were happy to see so many smiling faces. Children and families enjoyed the wonderful magic show performed by Glen Gerard and had a fun time getting their faces painted by our lovely face paint artists Mary and Diana. They also enjoyed watching Jean the Balloon Lady create magical balloon creatures in a matter of minutes. We had a wonderful time celebrating Halloween with all of you and hope to do similar events in the future.

The following sponsors for contributing to the event included Campbellsport Chamber of Commerce for sponsoring the balloon artist, Blue Door Coffee House for providing wonderful monster cookies for our attendees, Piggly Wiggly for providing six wonderful prizes for the winners of our costume contest, SLS Photography for providing the selfie station, Campbellsport 4-H for providing crafts and cookie treats, and Kingpin Lanes for providing bowling coupons for our treat bags.

We appreciate all of our wonderful volunteers for all their time spent setting up tables, helping with crafts, and handling food preparation as well as the mini food stand in the basement. We appreciate all our volunteers for helping to make this event a success!

Monthly Board Game Night

The library is excited to announce the start of a monthly board game night at the library. The first meeting of this group will be on Wednesday, Nov. 16, from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in the library basement. People who are interested in being a part of this group are invited to join us for this informal meeting to discuss which games may be played, times that work best for the group and dates for future events. This game night will be sponsored by the library and headed up by Sharon McCarty. Currently, game night is open to able-bodied players ages 18 and up. Those who are interested in joining the group can sign up at the front desk of the library, call or send us a message on Facebook.

Story Time at the Library

Children ages 3-6 are invited to join Ms. Azra at the library for story hour every Wednesday from 10:30-11:30 a.m. Children will enjoy reading stories, making crafts, and participating in other themed week activities. Story hour offers the opportunity for young children to socialize with others and also encourages growth in language development, motor skills, and helps to promote a love of learning. Children and families are welcome to stay after story hour to play and explore at the library.

Roth Retires and Abby Funk Transitions to N.E.B.A.T. Campbellsport Office

Congratulations to Julie Roth, who retired from National Exchange Bank & Trust (NEBAT) in mid-October, after 31 years of service.

Roth was vice president of lending and worked at the Campbellsport office where she helped the community with all their retail lending needs.

She is active in the community as a part of church school and choir at her church, YScreen and the Campbellsport Chamber of Commerce.

Retail lender, Abby Funk, has transitioned to the Campbellsport office from Fond du Lac to serve the community and take care of local consumer lending needs. Funk joined the bank in July 2021 as a retail lending associate.

Funk grew up in Chilton and attended Chilton High School. She went on to earn her degree in Agricultural Business from the University of Wyoming. Today, Funk resides in Oakfield with her family. She is active in the community as a part of the Farm Bureau and the Campbellsport FFA Alumni.

PARC Improvement

Eighth graders from St. Matthew School in Campbellsport work at Columbus PARC on Thursday, Oct. 20, hauling wood chips and leveling the chips in efforts to improve the landscaping around two recently trimmed pine trees located east of the storage shed. "These kids and their mentors are certainly setting some fine examples of youth at its best. The dedication and pride shown in the assistance they provided was a pleasure to witness," praised Rick Heisler. The youngsters are students of teacher Julie Dotzler, who was assisted by adults Joanne Theisen and Sarah Mowry.

with Jim Reilly which showed me that Tom's story resonates beyond family history.

"Now Tom McCarty made a little history. Did you know that?" I did not. Jim provided context, as he grew up at the bottom of Eden Township. "Of course, we thought a lot of Tom." (By 'we,' Jim meant his brothers.) "He was such an outstanding individual, then he came to be a Marine, and he'd tell us stories about driving a Jeep. And his dad - John, he didn't understand that it was a Jeep - or what a Jeep was. And he was telling my dad that, 'My son Tom is driving a Hoop.' And my dad [William Reilly] said, 'Well I never heard of that.' 'Well, the Marines got 'em,' he [John McCarty] said." John McCarty's confusion makes sense because the Jeep was a creation coming out of World War II. There apparently was a picture of Tom with a Jeep for which this old conversation centered on. "He was telling my dad about it, and my dad said, 'Well if he's driving something, I think it's a Jeep.' Course,"

Tom and Anita (Anderson) McCarty on their wedding day in Minocqua in 1950.

Jimmy laughed, "There's really nothing to the story other than that."

Historically, the contrast of perspective is important. Tom was seeing the foundations of a four wheeled vehicle that led to the ATV craze we live in today; John was born in 1872 and lived a life dominated by horses. According to the documentary series "America the Story of US," the Jeep was a word that came out of the General Purpose vehicle. This "GP" likely merged into Jeep, and well over half a million were made for World War II. Tom McCarty drove at least one of them.

"Us kids - we just thought a lot of Tom." Tom was older than a lot of the Reilly boys who grew northwest of the McCartys. "I know that when he was in the Marines; I was still in grade school." Jim attended the Burrough's School located in the Ashford Township's edge south of Rohlf Cemetery. Jim credited Tom as a model for why his siblings joined the military. "I was the sixth one [Reilly boy] to go into the service."

Irish on the Eden/Ashford Border

Eden Township was more influenced in early Irish settlement. Ashford was more German speaking, but not on the northern town line. The McCartys and Johnsons were in Ashford Township's northern ends, but they likely fit in more with the South Eden crowd like the Reillys. With that in mind, some of those interviewed on the topic of South Eden claim it extends to the Johnsons and McCarty original homesteads - even though the farms of Johnson's and McCarty's are in northern Ashford Township.

The Reillys, Johnsons, and McCartys had a lot in common. They were John Ambrose McCarty spent his whole life on the farm his ancestors settled in the mid-1800s. He married Katherine Becker, and they had 10 children. His grandson Tom McCarty, who observed him as a child in the 1950s, concludes this is the best picture of his collection that reflects who grandpa was - aged from the farm, and huge hands which had boxed in his younger days, some of which was likely against his will. He retained passion for viewing boxing on the television in the evenings sponsored by Gillette. He died in 1959. SUBMITTED

Irish, Roman Catholic, dairy farmers, and boxing fans. All of these farm families and homesteads are tied to the local land by the 1800s, though Johnson's and McCarty's go farther back closer to the 1850s.

Tom McCarty was the son of John Ambrose McCarty (1872-1959), who came from Thomas (1837-1905), whose dad was Michael. Michael and his wife Ann were the first Irish lineage of their family to first settle the Ashford area. Michael McCarty is buried in Byron's St. John's Cemetery on Highway 175, as that's where he attended church as there was no St. Matthews in Campbellsport. Michael settled on the farm at the end of what became Rolling Drive in northern Ashford Township. The 1880 History of Fond du Lac County says Michael and Ann (along with son Thomas) came from County Leitrim.

There is something about farming, being Irish, or both that calls people back to the land. The McCarty Farm at the end of Rolling Drive was "The Farm." "The Farm" is synonymous with the base, as many farms eventually became a family's central location. This is what happened at the McCartys, given so many had been raised there through multiple generations.

An example of the homestead serving a meeting place continued with Uncle Tom McCarty. By the 1960s, John "Bud" and Gloria were on the farm along with Bud's brother George. Tom could see two of his brothers on a Friday night, so he returned to his roots often, and sometimes weekly.

Overall, this connect to the land and Irish family are an important element to the 1950s dairy farm in southeastern Fond du Lac County.

Spooking a Johnson

There was another Tom McCarty who helped me put the pieces together for this story. This Tom is Tom McCarty's (1912-1982) nephew and is the source who can best explain how the McCarty farm was a base. (For the purpose of the article and to avoid confusion, I will differentiate between Nephew Tom and Uncle Tom.)

Nephew Tom pointed out that the McCarty farm was also a neat place for the Johnsons to stop by. Here is a story likely from the late 1920s or early 1930s -

"I don't know if my dad 'Bud' ever told you that. That one time Jim Johnson was down [at The Farm]." This was "Old Jim," George Johnson's brother. "He used to come down and visit with my Grandpa McCarty [John Ambrose]. And Uncle Tom was upstairs, and it was in the dark on a moonless night. And Tom climbed out of the window onto the porch roof and jumped onto the porch with a sheet and came up here."

When Nephew Tom was telling me this story this fall, we were at The Farm. He was making a reference (here) to the woods kitty corner to the farmstead. Uncle Tom preempted Jim Johnson's departure from the McCarty farm house. "And he was up on the bank up here with a sheet over his head and smoking a cigarette when Jim Johnson came walking home. And he scared the living crap out of him, and Jim ran back to the farm, and Grandpa McCarty had to give him a ride home."

Enlisting after Rejection

Uncle Tom worked hard on the family farm, and struggled like many to find work during the Great Depression. When the economy hit hard in the 1930s, it was difficult for him to find work. Nephew Tom thinks his uncle followed a Berg from Ashford who was in road construction, and headed up north. Besides struggling for work, Tom also had bad teeth. Old photos of the young man usually show a smile small enough to still hide teeth. Bad dental health prevented him from getting drafted.

"See, he was old when he went into the Marines," said Nephew Tom. Born in 1912, he was already pushing his late 20s when the attack at Pearl Harbor occurred. "And he didn't even have to go into the service, because his teeth were so bad." Given the agricultural deferments provided in the war, he likely could have avoided the war on that alone.

Tom persisted and enlisted. And regardless, the military helped him get his teeth fixed. "In fact, when my mom

[Gloria] was cleaning out one of the closets up stairs, she found all of the letters that Uncle Tom wrote to Grandma McCarty [Katherine Becker] the whole time he was in the service. Two years in, they were still dealing with getting his teeth done."

Tom in the Pacific

Nephew Tom McCarty is a great source to understand Uncle Tom. For one, he read the letters from World War II that his uncle wrote back home. Second, he saw his uncle visiting The Farm on Friday nights after the work week end in the 1960s and 1970s. Both Toms also hunted together.

Uncle Tom stopped at The Farm more after his wife died in 1969. Once a widower, Tom would stay talking to his brothers "Bud" and George longer. He also started to share more war stories of the five and half years he gave for his country.

"And they'd be sitting in the kitchen talking. One. Two in the morning. He'd be telling war stories at that point in his life. Maybe the last two years of his life. Or three. And I was lying in bed trying to sleep, 'cause I gotta get up in the morning. I got to get up in about four hours to work. I'm trying to listen to stuff, and trying to sleep at the same time."

On one of those nights, Uncle Tom shared World War II stories in the South Pacific islands where they had bad fighting. He was driving an ambulance at that time, and they had a card game the night before. One of the players had longer, blonde hair. The next day, Uncle Tom was hauling the wounded back as a driver, "But in front of him was a Jeep piled up with the dead guys, and [on this Jeep's back end was] this blonde kid that he was playing cards with the night before."

Tom's service didn't end abruptly with the end of World War II. Other letters indicated he remained in China where he took care of local families by providing food for them. Nephew Tom laughed, because as another military veteran, he knows his uncle likely shouldn't have been funneling supplies.

"He was requisitioning food for them from the chow halls to feed these [Chinese], and getting fuel for 'em and that." China had not fallen to Communism yet, as this was before 1949 but after World War II. They were our ally and helped us win World War II, and Uncle Tom gave them some supplies in their postwar desperation. That being said, it probably was against policy to feed them, but evidence of Uncle Tom's compassion.

That Parent-Teacher Conference

Writing about family history can be difficult. I do not mean to come across telling stories accused of being "Pollyannish" or sugarcoated. Uncle Tom McCarty could be tough. Especially on certain family members.

The more I researched, the more it was apparent that this toughness was seen in his interactions with family members; and not seen by outsiders. When asked if old Tom

McCarty was firm in his behavior towards others, Jim Reilly said, "Well, he didn't have to get firm with me." Jim had only kind words. Maynard Chadwick (1932-2021) of Oakfield worked with Uncle Tom with the telephone company and had a similar respect. Maynard enjoyed working with him, and like Jim, did not have an issue with his personality.

Uncle Tom McCarty was a tough cookie. Strict, firm and forceful were adjectives family members shared. Nephew Tom pointed out the need to remember Uncle Tom's life context. For one, he had a rough life. He worked hard on the farm, he went up north for work during the Great Depression, and served our country for five and a half years. He clearly had some post-traumatic stress from the war, as indicated by the stories he shared with Bud and George at one o'clock in the morning. "I mean," Tom concluded, "You're a product of the environment that you grow up around." He added, "I always look at it that he did the best with what he had at the time." Veterans not only deserve our respect, but also understanding.

Nephew Tom elaborated on a memory at St. Matthews –

"I don't know if I was in third grade or fourth grade. Mrs. Kramer was my teacher at the time, and we went down for parent-teacher [conferences]. And I remember that in there, the first thing she asks is, 'How's old One Punch?' That's what they used to call Uncle Tom. And I get in the car, 'What the hell does she mean 'one punch?'" Then dad answered his son: "Well, he used to hit 'em one time and they'd go down, so they called him 'One Punch.'" Was the teacher laughing? "Oh yea. I don't know if she had gone out with Tom. She was about his age...I'll never forget that."

All things considered, one gets the sense when it came to World War II, a few other fellow Marines accepted Tom McCarty "as is."

Rocky Mountain Elk Hunt/The Camps

MARK WALTERS
 COLUMNIST

I recently returned from what was an epic adventure hunting elk and mule deer while living in the mountains in southern Montana for eight nights by myself.

I think you will enjoy this series of columns as each one is very unique. As always, thanks for reading.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 19
HIGH: 71. LOW: 46.

I left my home near Necedah driving a pickup with 354,000 miles and pulling a trailer.

The Chevy Hotel would put on another 2,600-miles flawlessly and not use a drop of oil.

I took Interstate 94 and North Dakota was loaded with ducks.

I also saw low water in every form and every state. The rivers in Montana are extremely low.

I drove to where I last hunted for elk in 2007 with then-19-year-old Ryan Moll. On that hunt, Ryan harvested a rag horn, and we both filled our mule deer tags.

This would be my fourth elk hunt and all of the past hunts have had major snowstorms on either opening day or the day before.

I arrived on a Wednesday with the season opening on Saturday, and I hiked the mountains as much as possible and, when I found "elk paradise", I built a spike camp near my intended hunting area and had a base camp at the base of the mountain in a U.S. Forest Service campsite.

I was well aware that on opening weekend a major blizzard was forecast for the area, and I used a small tent that was well-tarped for my spike camp.

My base camp was made of my pop-up of 13x8 Eskimo ice fishing shack. I put a 20x30 tarp that was heavily roped above the shack and had my usual kitchen, cot, propane lights, heater and cook stove.

First failure: I simply cannot find the mountain pass where Ryan and I based and hunted. I am worn down from the drive, pulling a trailer on some difficult mountain roads, "backing up" often and running out of daylight.

On three occasions, I spoke with Montana mountain men and, though all of them tried to help me, my situation was not pretty. Major learning experience: everyone is talking grizzly bear and carrying both bear spray and pistols. There are lots of stories of bear encounters. I had spray; no pistol.

After 40 miles and lots of stress, I may have found where I camped/hunted with Ryan [in 2007].

The weather is perfect, and I saw elk tracks on a short hike.

On this night, I slept in my trailer and, let me tell you, bear problems are a constant conversation. There are a lot of rules pertaining to cooking in tents and how you store food.

An elk caught on camera by one of Walters' field cameras.

I find more signs and keep moving; soon, I found an area where it is obvious that elk are nearby.

I keep moving.

I come to an opening where the trees are torn apart by a bull; there is some grass, and I know I have found home.

I had three trail cameras and a chip; not cellular, as they are illegal. I put the cameras on trails and am totally into the game.

Cameras can be used for pictures but not hunting, I retired them once the season began.

I do the nearly three-mile hike down to the base camp that I have yet to build. For three hours, I work on the most perfect base camp that, in my mind, for the last three months, I could dream up.

In the middle of the afternoon,

Foolish moves can cost people, bears or both their lives.

THURSDAY, OCT. 20
HIGH: 73. LOW: 42.

The first thing that I did this morning was begin to climb the mountain and explore.

My goal was to find open grass areas "sometimes referred to as parks" where elk and mule deer feed.

I am literally on top of the world both physically and mentally and, for the first 2,000-feet, do not see anything that interests me.

I keep exploring and have forgotten my compass.

I get physical and stay on the move.

A.T.V./U.T.V. Riders: Wear Your Helmet!

17 fatalities reported so far in 2022

WIS. DEPT. OF NATURAL RESOURCES

The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (DNR) urges ATV/UTV riders and passengers to wear their helmets and seatbelts while out riding this fall.

So far this year, 17 people have died in ATV/UTV crashes in Wisconsin. Most crash victims were not wearing seat belts or helmets.

According to the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety, 71% of fatally injured ATV riders were killed in crashes involving no other vehicles in 2020. Helmets and seatbelts dramatically reduce the chance of serious injury, especially in single vehicle crashes.

“ATVs are popular for work and recreational purposes such as trail riding and hunting,” said Major April Dombrowski, DNR Recreational Safety Section Chief. “Protect yourself and loved ones by always wearing a helmet. It’s the single most important piece of protection an ATV or UTV rider can wear.”

In addition to wearing a helmet, follow these tips for a safe ride:

- Use extra caution when operating on pavement.
- Always operate at a responsible speed and within your abilities.
- Never consume alcohol or drugs before or during your ride.
- In addition to a seat belt and helmet, wear protective clothing such as eye protection, gloves, long pants and long sleeves.

Wisconsin law requires ATV and UTV operators born on or after Jan. 1, 1988, who are at least 12 years old for an ATV (and at least 16 years old for UTV) must complete an ATV safety certification course to operate in Wisconsin (exception: on private property owned by operator’s immediate family). These safety courses can be taken online or in person. A list of approved safety education classes is available on the DNR Safety Education webpage.

Wisconsin law also requires every operator involved in a crash incident to report the incident without delay to law enforcement officials. Operators must submit a written report to the DNR within 10 days of the incident.

For more information about ATV and UTV recreation in Wisconsin, visit the DNR’s ATV/UTV Riding in Wisconsin webpage.

October 29

Game one: On Saturday, Oct. 29, the U12 Girls Storm team took on Waubedonia in the last game of the fall season. With frost on the pitch, the Storm team got off to a fast start with a long goal by Evelyn Jungers within the first few minutes.

Not long after, Kinsley Fochs sank another goal to the back of the net.

Sierrah Bonlender, playing right side stryker, dribbled past the Waubedonia defense and scored the third goal for the Storm within the first ten minutes of the game. Around the 25 minute mark, a handball in the box gave the Storm a Penalty Kick attempt. Evelyn Jungers drilled the shot past the Waubedonia keeper.

Throughout the entire first half, Anaston Schmidt kept the Waubedonia team out of the Storm net and safe from one difficult shot.

The first half ended with the Storm leading four goals to one.

The start of the second half brought another Penalty Kick for the Storm.

Sierrah Bonlender took the PK for the Storm and easily found the back of the net.

The second half also saw a new keeper in goal with Madeline Kester allowing only one goal for Waubedonia.

Evelyn Jungers showed some fancy footwork and secured the hat trick with a tough angle shot from the side of the goal.

The Storm team saw some top notch defense with Emma Madel and Evangeline Lemmer keeping the Waubedonia team out of the backfield.

Throughout the game Abigail Pritchard and Monroe Edwards had some excellent passes to set up the goal scoring.

The last score of the game came in the final minutes when Isabelle Piwoni made a beautiful pass to Sierrah Bonlender who locked down a hat trick for herself.

The game ended 7-2 with the powerful Storm team taking the win.

The Storm team finished with seven total wins and only one loss during the season.

We can’t wait to see what this talented team can do this spring!

Congratulations to the Storm team!

Snowy Owls Spotted in Wisconsin

WIS. DEPT. OF NATURAL RESOURCES

Despite mild fall weather, snowy owl season is underway across Wisconsin.

Though one owl was spotted in Dane County from mid-July to mid-October (a very rare case of a snowy owl successfully over-summering in Wisconsin), the winter migrants now seem to be settling in.

The first likely migrants were spotted on Oct. 19 in Superior and atop the observation tower at Rib Mountain State Park in Marathon County. Another was photographed in Ashland on Nov. 1.

These are the only new arrivals reported anywhere in the lower 48 so far, aside from one along the international border in North Dakota. Eastern Canada has seen a notable shortage of observations so far. Farther west, a few owls have moved into the Canadian Great Plains.

Extra

Snowy owls are regular visitors to this readership area, particularly around the Kettle Moraine State Forest.

Sightings of the rare birds have been a regular annual occurrence near forest and farm communities, although typically, they appear in this region when snow blankets the ground in January and February.

I strap on my fully-loaded backpack, climb the mountain and build my spike camp, which is where I will sleep some nights to avoid the long climb.

I feel good about my plan.

FRIDAY, OCT. 21

HIGH: 68. LOW: 44.

Today was physical and also a great day.

My plan was to sleep at my spike camp and whack an elk or mule deer the following morning.

In the middle of the afternoon, I climbed the mountain with a big load, was happy to see that my spike camp had no bear damage and then went the nearly-one-mile to where I would hunt the next morning and checked my cameras.

Two-out-of-three had multiple elk pictures and everything was perfect in my world.

I went back to spike camp, ate nuts and food; you do not cook and, at dark, I went into my tent with a loaded 300 BAR.

One of the real stories of the trip began that very minute and that was falling rain that would soon change with dropping temperatures.

Live large.

Lady Cougar Bowlers Post First Win of Season

CHS BOWLING

King Pin Bowl in West Bend was the site of the first match of the 2022-2023 season for the girls bowling in District 7 of the Wisconsin High School Bowling Club.

The first opponent of the year was the Suns of West Bend East.

Three years prior, the Suns had captured the state title in Division 2.

This year, the Cougars have nine bowlers on the team, led by seniors Brianna Thompson, Aubree Koenings and Hannah Thelen. Returning this year are junior Paige Jordan and sophomores Taylor Muraski and Amber Ninneman. New member of the team this year are sophomores Olivia Boegel, Capri Constantineau and Maddy Grunwald.

All are expected to be instrumental in defending the Cougars conference title and a return trip to the state tournament.

The Cougars started the first game with a 4-bagger, spare and another 4-bagger to rip off a 229-game to West Bend East's slow start of 120.

In game two, the Cougars cooled off and the Suns made the match 1-1, shooting 165 to the Cougars 145.

In the last seven games, the Cougars grabbed six wins to take the match 7-2.

"For the first match of the season we bowled fairly well averaging 157," said Coach Cary Serwe. "It will take awhile to get the lineup to gel, but that is normal with three new teammates. We have a hole to fill with Paige Jordan being out four-to-six weeks. Paige was very clutch in our number 4 spot last year."

Taylor Muraski and Brianna Thompson led the team filling 13 of 16 frames and 15 of 18 frames, respectively. Aubree Koenings had a career high filling 9 of 13 frames, and Maddy Grunwald filled 7 of 12 frames.

Stats for the match were as follows (strikes-spare-total frames): Taylor Muraski 9-4-16; Hannah Thelen 1-4-11; Maddy Grunwald 5-2-12; Aubree Koenings 1-8-13; Capri Constantineau 1-1-7; Olivia Boegel 2-4-13; Brianna Thompson 4-11-18.
