K.H.S. Rocket Club Wins Midwest Competition

The Kewaskum School District states, “We ignite a passion for learning.”

There’s no better example of that than the Kewaskum High School (KHS) Rocket Club. Members of this club have to design an experiment, convert that idea into a physical payload and then build an 8-foot Class II rocket to house that payload.

Students work on the project at least two times a week from late December until launch weekend in mid-May at Blue Harbor in Sheboygan. Besides building the rocket, the team members design and make team shirts, create a team logo, produce a story board explanation of the experiment and develop a live presentation of the principles of the experiment. Then they are evaluated by experts in fields relating to aerospace. All the work is done by the students, under the supervision of team advisors, who are typically parents or school faculty.

The program is run through Rockets for Schools, which is based in the Midwest. This competition is one of only two in the nation that qualifies high school teams for the yearly NASA Student Launch Initiative in Huntsville, Ala. The other competition is hosted in California. Teams must finish in the top three of this competition to qualify.

Tiki Beach Resort Responds to Noise Requests

ANNE TRAUTNER
 JOURNALIST

About 40 people gathered in the Osceola Town Hall last Monday, May 8, after some residents complained about the noise level of music at Tiki Beach Resort on Kettle Moraine Lake.

“I have lived out here my whole life. I’ve never been so insulted by having such loud music,” Osceola resident Angie Mitchell said. “The music is fine, just turn it down. It’s too loud.”

The Town of Osceola enacted a disorderly conduct ordinance two years ago that calls for noise coming from businesses to not exceed 85 decibels between 7 a.m. and 11 p.m., and not to exceed 75 decibels from 11 p.m. to close.

The Tiki Beach Resort has never been cited for violating the town’s sound ordinance, according to Kayla Sellnow, who owns the resort. She said that sheriff’s deputies came out last year and checked decibel readings, but it has always been below 85 decibels, so no citations have been issued.

“We are going to go off the ordinance from two years ago. What we said we thought would work. We had many meetings. We came up with a decibel rating. We said if anyone had any problems to let us know, and we would come out there with a decibel reading unit at the property line of the complaint. To this day, technically, we have not had any complaints where we had to go there and do a decibel reading at a property line,” Town Supervisor Dean Kranig said.

To ensure the sound level stays within the limit at the Tiki Beach Resort, Sellnow installed equipment and put a limit on the volume so that bands cannot go above the 85-decibel threshold. The challenge is when bands bring their own sound equipment, she acknowledged.

During last week’s meeting, some residents suggested lowering the maximum decibel level in the ordinance.

“Based on the fact that it has not yet been tested being an actual complaint to the town, I am very reluctant to touch this thing. We have an ordinance. I think what discussion has to center around is applicability,” Town Chairperson Terry Leininger said. “To date, we have not had a complaint that this can be applied to.”

“I can hear the words sitting on our front deck,” said Connie Ramthun, who lives about 4/10 mile from the resort. “The way the stage is set, and the way the sound is projected, it goes right out.”

Love Transforms Over Time

Dear Reader,

How do we fall in love?

It doesn't happen in a vacuum. We meet someone, get to know how they think and the way they live, and understand their core values such as family, religion, politics, and character. We watch how they treat others and how they handle different situations. We watch for tone and check for lightheartedness and a sense of humor. We consider any dark shadows and what they might mean. Eventually, we perceive the true essence of a person, or believe that we have, and we fall in love with that perception.

After the children have flown the nest; after the parents and aunts and uncles have passed; after the friends have retired or moved away or passed, what we perceived no longer exists. We saw what existed in that one moment of time, but we did not glimpse the eternal and unchanging reality of a human soul, because that's just not possible. We stare at each other anew and understand that Father Time never paused and now we are old. We wonder what we fell in love with. Where is that person, other than in an ever-changing memory.

The answer is unknowable, so we trudge on, because of character, because of commitment, and because of the embers of love that flow and still spark bursts of joy among a new context of life.

Regarding the May 11 'Rural Writes' Column

To the editor,

I disagree with G.A. (Scheinoha) on several of his points:

1) I don't condone what happened on January 6, but to say a small, heavily armed group stormed the capitol is a false statement. There were few guns confiscated and the only gun related incident was the shooting death of Ashli Babbitt shot by a capitol policeman.

2) The author stated that assault rifles "serve only one purpose: to kill the greatest number of people in the shortest time." A good friend of mine and I have been going out west to shoot prairie dogs for the ranchers who want to get rid of prairie dogs, for 20-some years. He uses his AR-15 (the AR stands for Armalite, one of the first manufacturers of that style gun ... AR does not stand for assault rifle.) AR style guns are very popular with people down south who shoot wild hogs. Some people shoot deer with them while others use them in shooting competitions.

It's hard to have a definitive assessment of the 1994-2004 assault weapon ban. Christopher S. Koper, the author of the Department of Justice review of the assault weapon stated, "that magazine restrictions could have reduced shooting deaths by 11-15%." He further stated millions of weapons were grandfathered in, and importers were able to import tens of millions large capacity magazines (LCM) before the ban.

A friend of mine and I went to the April FDL gun show. He bought 12, 30-round Magpul magazines for himself and his friends. His reasoning was you never know if the government will try to ban them. By the way, a full-size Glock 17 (9mm) pistol has a magazine capacity of 17 rounds and

G.A. SCHEINOHA
CONTRIBUTOR

Only one day? They should get a week. Leastwise, a month. Yeah, mothers are that vital. Beyond necessity, bringing us into existence, they offer the best of themselves without thought or concern for their own well-being.

Who else bound youthful wounds, tried her best to heal a broken heart, nurtured, indeed sustained us into and beyond maturity? Some still do. As Erma Bombeck once stated, "Motherhood is the world's second oldest profession." A job which never ends. No matter our age, we will never cease to be her young'uns. Always need the benefit of her advice. Even if it's sometimes unheeded.

Count yourself blessed if your mother is still alive to tender her good counsel. Compassion goes out to those whose are no longer around.

Mine passed six and a half years ago; four days before my birthday, a week before Christmas Eve.

Not a day goes by I still don't miss her. No matter how old they grow, no one is ever prepared to let them go.

Mom was born in 1931 in a tenement house in Hartford, a true child of the Great Depression. Her father worked for the WPA in addition to his regular job. Her mother did seamstress work. Though the family survived, mother didn't have an easy life. Both an older sister and she suffered abuse, verbal from mom, far worse at the hands of father.

Small wonder they became "normal" adults, despite suffering rocky marriages because of those deep wounds. Raising well-adjusted kids to lead successful lives.

Now Mom abides through the stories she told about hobos and gypsies passing through town, even an encounter with a Native American tribal chief. An extraordinary youth always filled with faith and hope.

These remain forever, her precious gift to the future. Till we offspring join her in that life ahead, just round the next bend.

| ENJOY EVERY SANDWICH |

Rock Hall Couldn't be Persuaded, Zevon Left Off List

MITCHELL BRADLEY KELLER
EDITOR

Back a few moons ago, when I first started this column titled "Enjoy Every Sandwich", an obligatory explanation was necessary to make sense of the phrase for readers.

In short, it is a three-word pseudo-philosophical nudge of encouragement from a dying rock and roll musician to anyone who was listening.

That rocker was Warren Zevon, and he said the words to David Letterman on The Late Show back in 2002. Zevon had just received a terminal cancer diagnosis, and he recorded a final album and embarked on a relatively bold press tour prior to its release. The comedian Letterman asked Zevon, not so humorously at all, what advice he had to those of us remaining.

"Enjoy every sandwich," said Zevon (and I'm paraphrasing a little bit).

Zevon died roughly one year later, and the album he was promoting - The Wind - ended up earning "The Excitable Boy" (a nickname for Zevon based on one of his songs) two posthumous Grammy awards; Zevon's family accepted what was the late singer-songwriters only victories in the annual award show. His career began in 1965.

I bring up Zevon because the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame recently announced it's 2023 class of inductees. Zevon was among the nominees, but he did not make the final cut. It was his first year making the short list, however, which many Zevon fans celebrated as long overdue.

Known for the hits "Werewolves of London", "Keep Me in Your Heart", "Poor Poor Pitiful Me" and "Hasten Down the Wind", Zevon's initial big break came via Linda Rondstadt, who covered several of his songs throughout the years (including the last two I just listed). While he was enigmatic and struggled with consistency, Zevon's music permeated the Los Angeles rock scene of the '70s and '80s, and his sound, energy and prose inspired contemporaries like the Eagles, Jackson Brown, Bob Dylan, the aforementioned Rondstadt and Bonnie Raitt. All of those individuals and Eagles were inducted to the Rock Hall.

By almost every objective measure, Zevon is deserving of being a rock and roll hall-of-famer.

The Rock & Roll Hall of Fame is an interesting thing, though. As someone who studied rock and roll music from a historical standpoint, I at least have some credibility when stating bluntly: it really doesn't mean a thing.

That's not to say folks who end up getting enshrined at the Rock Hall's Cleveland museum shouldn't be proud of the accomplishment, but more so that, over time, the selection committee of the Rock Hall has proven itself pretty inept at identifying what is and is not "rock and roll" and who the vital players were and how they influenced the genre. They've made up for this in recent years by correcting some massive oversights over the decades, but the process is needlessly slow and arbitrary.

In comparative terms, it simply does not (and never has had) the same prestige of the professional football hall in Canton.

It's just something fans of this type of music accept and live with. It's a fantastic museum! But, it's not the be-all-end-all list of relevant rockers of the past.

Nevertheless, it's still fun when folks who are long-overdue for the honor finally receive it, and while Zevon did not make it in this year, his addition to the shortlist is an encouraging sign that one day, finally, he'll earn the benign title of being a hall-of-famer (nevermind he did not live to see it happen).

It may not mean much of anything, but for fans of the inductee's music it is nice to celebrate, be nostalgic and enjoy what very well could be the last remnants of an authentic American art form. Rock and roll will never die, but, right now, it does seem to be taking a very long nap.

In the words of Warren Zevon, "I'll sleep when I'm dead!"

See you next week.

Master Meat Crafter Joins Kewaskum Foods Ownership

Kewaskum Foods announced that Master Meat Crafter, Judd Reчек, joined Kewaskum Foods in an ownership role and will take on a lead sausage making role for the company. Reчек brings over 30 years of experience in sausage making, along with numerous state and national awards.

Reчек was in the inaugural Master Meat Crafter class, put on by the University of Wisconsin - Madison. This two-year program started in 2012 and teaches advanced foundations of the meat and sausage craft.

"We are ecstatic that such a high caliber individual like Judd is making the long-term commitment to our customers by taking on an ownership and leadership role in our company," said Kewaskum Foods President and principal owner Brian Schumacher.

Schumacher and his wife, Carolyn, became owners of Kewaskum Foods in November of 2018. Kewaskum Foods was founded in 1941, originally as a meat locker, by Sylvester Harter and was known as Kewaskum Frozen Foods for nearly 80 years. "We felt that we needed to update the name to better reflect the business. For the last five years, we've worked to transition the name and introduce a formal brand," said the Schumachers.

"We slowly revamped the branding of our company and products. We chose new logos for our brand the week prior to all the schools being shut down due to covid, in 2020," Brian said.

"We're finally making headway in the transition," Carolyn explained. "There are well over 100 labels that we needed to update with a lot of detail-oriented work. We started incorporating the new labels beginning in October 2022."

"Rebranding is a critical step for creating change for our business," Brian added. "We came here with a vision to enhance the foundation of this business, to build upon it, and to create opportunities for workers and their families."

The new logo, including imagery of the Kewaskum Fire Feather™ and the "Find Yourself" tagline, is what initially attracted Reчек.

"I met Brian in April of 2022 at the annual Wisconsin Association of Meat Processors convention, in Middleton, when I saw him wearing the new Kewaskum logo on his sweatshirt," Reчек said. "Brian told me about his vision for the business and I was really impressed with his place in the Class II Rocket competition in Sheboygan.

The students competed against 11 other teams from Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Illinois, Kentucky, Kansas and Maryland. Most of the other teams have corporate sponsorship and can take rocketry as a curriculum choice at both public and private schools during the year.

Kewaskum's club, on the other hand, does all the work after school and on weekends at one of the advisors' residences or at KHS.

Kewaskum Middle School Rocket Club Faculty Advisor Nikki Airaudi has maintained the middle school rocket club program for well over a decade in the Class I level. The KHS Rocket Club was just formed in 2020, after one member of the KMS Rocket Club went into high school and found out that there was no high school club.

This year's championship was the culmination of four years of hard work and setbacks. Covid cancelled the 2020 competition. In 2021 the team finished in the top five. In 2022, the team came in second place behind Madison West High School. Now, in 2023, the team earned the top spot.

Congratulations to a well-deserved achievement for the team. The rockets and trophies are on display in the Kewaskum High School library.

Mary Vore

Mary Vore peacefully went home to the Lord on Saturday, May 6, at the age of 83, in her home, surrounded by family.

She was born in West Bend on November 15, 1939, to Clarence and Esther (Figge) Wolf. She attended St. Boniface Catholic School and then West Bend High School, where she graduated in 1957.

She married Donald G. Boyung on August 24, 1957, at St. Boniface Church in Germantown. Together, they began raising a family which grew to seven children over the next 22 years. During their 23 years of marriage, they lived in Mississippi, Milwaukee, and then finally settled in Newburg in 1963. After Don's passing in 1980, Mary continued to raise their last four children. On July 29, 1990, Mary married Leon (Lefty) Vore, growing their new family to 12. Together, they raised the two youngest of her children and traveled regularly with them.

Mary was a loving mother and truly appreciated the different personalities of all her children and all the joy they gave her. When asked for advice about raising children, she said it was most important just to love them. Over the years, she was blessed with 33 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren, each welcomed with great love and pride.

Mary had multiple jobs over her lifetime, but most enjoyed her work with the patients at Samaritan Home in West Bend where she worked as a CNA for 17 years, retiring in 2004. After retirement, Mary and Lefty continued to travel, enjoy time in the yard at home, and spend time with family. They had more than 33 wonderful years together.

Mary had a servant's heart and always wanted to help where she could. She was involved at her church, serving as a catechist and as a member of the Christian Mothers. More recently, she helped serve meals at St. Ben's and regularly contributed to families in need, especially at Christmas. She treasured spending time with family and friends. She loved baking and always had cookies ready should anyone stop for a visit. Each spring and summer, you could find her outdoors, planting and tending her many plants and flowers. When she couldn't be outside, she enjoyed reading, playing cards, watching Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy, sewing, and painting.

Mary was an active member of Holy Trinity Catholic Parish in Newburg since moving to Newburg in 1963.

Mary is survived by her husband, Leon (Lefty) Vore; her sister, Joanna Groth; sisters-in-law, Jean Weichelt, Doreen Miller, Bethana Peters and LuAnna Salmon; her seven children, Donald F. (Donna) Boyung, David (Joy) Boyung, Daniel (Patricia) Boyung, Dianna (Andrew) Stoffel, Dawn (Kevin) Doll, Charles (Erin) Boyung and Karen (Josh) Smith; her five step-children, Russell Vore, Linda Schroer, Barbara (Bill) Owen, Ron (Cindy) Vore and Jim (Lisa) Vore; 33 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, Clarence and Esther (Figge) Wolf; her sisters, Janice Schmitt and Rosie Vento; her late husband, Donald G. Boyung; and her brothers-in-law, Elmer Weichelt, Abe Miller, Jerry Peters and Edwin Boyung; and other family members.

Robert E. Leidholdt

Robert E. Leidholdt, 81, went home to his Lord on Saturday, May 13, 2023, at Villa Loretta Home in Mount Calvary.

He was born in Fond du Lac on July 18, 1941, the son of Ervin and June (nee Gibson) Leidholdt. He was a 1959 graduate of Campbellsport High School. Robert was united in marriage to Nancy M. Klein on October 6, 1962, at Our Lady of Good Hope Catholic Church in Milwaukee. Robert was a proud and talented mason for many years working for Selzer & Ornst Construction and later for Kotze Construction. He worked on many projects in the Milwaukee area, including the Allen-Bradley Clock Tower.

Family always came first for Robert. He enjoyed many camping trips all over Wisconsin and other states with his wife and children, loved the show "MASH," All Star Wrestling, and spending time on Long Lake, fishing, boating, and swimming with the grandchildren. He also enjoyed taking the grandkids and great-grandkids for pontoon boat rides around the lake and just hanging out on the pier with family. He loved many family gatherings where he could show off his grilling skills. His favorite, above all, was Christmas. Robert and Nancy always had a 13-foot Christmas tree in their previous stone house and current log cabin home. It was beautifully decorated not only with lights and ornaments, but with family by it. He knew directions in Milwaukee like the back of his hand and we all relied on his directional expertise to get us where we wanted to go. Robert and Nancy enjoyed traveling, including Brazil, France, Switzerland, Jamaica, Bahamas, Hawaii, and all over the United States.

Robert, skilled in the art of masonry, put a personal touch on each of his homes including a large fieldstone fireplace in his previous stone house outside of Campbellsport. After retirement he enjoyed making miniature fieldstone light houses that adorn his front yard by his current home on Long Lake. Robert was also a woodworker and could fix just about anything. Robert and Nancy also hosted a foreign exchange student from Brazil, Soraya Galassi Sarro, who quickly became his fourth daughter and ice-cream companion and have stayed in touch over the years. Soraya referred to Robert as the "Spoiled Child" because he was an only child.

Those left behind to cherish his memory include his wife of 60 years, Nancy; daughters, Victoria (Wayne) Bokelman, Kelly (Michael) Gatzke, and Jill (Todd) Leidholdt-Immell; grandchildren, Gabriella and Matthew Bokelman, Rebecca (Benjamin) Blandin, Stephanie (Adam) Konz, Cassandra (special friend, Bradley) Gatzke, Elizabeth (Scott) Abig, Nathan (fiancé Samantha) Rauch, Ryan (Alexis) Rauch, Marissa Immell, and Travis Immell; great-grandchildren, Hudson, Everett, Gracelynn, Adley, Axton, Brantley, Kailey, Jaxson, Ethan, Madison, and Maddilyn; brother-in-law, Robert (Barbara) Klein; sister-in-law, Elizabeth Mortl; other relatives and friends.

Preceding Robert in death were his parents, Ervin and June; in-laws, John and Anna Klein; brother-in-law, Greg Mortl; and a number of aunts, uncles, and cousins.

A Memorial Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Saturday May 20, at 12 p.m. at Shepherd of the Hills Catholic Church, W1562 County Road B, Eden, with visitation from 10:30 a.m. until time of Mass at the church. Lunch to follow. Rev. Mark Jones will officiate, and Robert's remains will be at Sacred Heart Cemetery in Dundee at a later date.

The family extends A special thank you to the nurses, aides, and staff at Villa Loretta Nursing Home and the staff with SSM Hospice.

Free State Park Passes Available at F.D.L. Public Library

This summer, let the Fond du Lac Public Library (FDLPL) take you to a Wisconsin state park – on us.

A limited number of free, one-day passes to any Wisconsin state park may be "checked out" from the Fond du Lac Public Library. They're available as part of a new partnership between libraries such as FDLPL, the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, and the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction.

One pass will be available per family, and passes will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis.

To get a state park pass, stop by the checkout desk at the Main Library or at the Allen J. Buechel Branch on Fond du Lac's east side. Library patrons will need to decide which date they plan to use the pass before they visit the library, must have an active FDLPL card, and must have a vehicle with Wisconsin license plates.

Passes may be used anytime through the end of the year that a state park is open with no blackout dates.

plans. Ultimately, I guess I 'Found Myself' with this opportunity."

They aren't disclosing the long-term plans, but Schumacher believes that there is a very large opportunity with the business.

"Step one was to maintain and improve. Step two was to rebrand. And step three was finding ways to grow," he said. "We've seen a lot of demand for our products and have not been able to fill $1 million dollars' worth of orders over the past couple of years."

The State of Wisconsin awarded Kewaskum Foods a $150,000 matching grant for a significant project.

"We are planning to use those funds to purchase two double-house smoke houses so we can increase our capacity," Schumacher explained. "This will give us an 80% increase in smoking and cooking capacity for our sausage line, a much-needed change for our business."

With Judd's leadership and knowledge base, Kewaskum Foods will be able to better train people in the art of sausage making.

"There is a lot of science around the process, and food safety is a critical component to our business," Schumacher said. "Ultimately, we'd like to build a formal training program so that we can fuel our growth."

Gov. Evers, P.S.C. Announce 'Internet for All Wisconsin' Listening Tour

Registration Open for In-Person/Virtual Meetings

Gov. Evers, together with the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin (PSC), announced late last month, the statewide Internet for All Wisconsin Listening Tour, a series of nine in-person and two virtual interactive meetings to help develop the state's five-year action plan to deploy high-speed internet and improve internet affordability and adoption.

Community leaders and all interested members of the public are welcome to attend this free event. Prospective attendees are advised to visit psc.wi.gov/Pages/ServiceType/Broadband/ListeningTour.aspx for additional information.

Wisconsin could expect an allocation of $800 million to $1.1 billion to implement the state's five-year action plan for broadband and approximately $25 million to implement the state's Digital Equity Plan under the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law's 'Internet for All' programs. In December 2022, Gov. Tony Evers and the PSC announced the nearly $6 million federal investment for the state to develop these plans by gathering local input from Wisconsinites in broadband access and digital inclusion activities.

"With nearly everything about our economy, our workforce and our way of life depending on access to high-speed internet, it's important for folks across the state to come together and share their experience and ideas to bridge Wisconsin's digital divide," said Gov. Evers. "We have come a long way to get more Wisconsinites connected than ever before with over 390,000 homes and businesses connected to new or improved internet, but there's still more work to do. As we invest in Wisconsin's infrastructure and future, the conversations during this Listening Tour will help guide this important work to ensure all can access affordable, reliable, high-speed internet."

"Public participation is critical to the Commission's broadband access and digital equity efforts, so I'm excited for the Commission to hit the road and hear from community members across Wisconsin as we develop the state's five-year action plan," said Rebecca Cameron Valcq, chairperson. "I look forward to the robust dialogue and community engagement during the statewide Listening Tour."

The Internet for All Wisconsin Listening Tour is hosted by the PSC's Wisconsin Broadband Office, in partnership with Wisconsin's nine regional economic development organizations. If someone is unable to attend an in-person or virtual meeting, they may still submit public comment online at www.surveymonkey.com/r/Internet4WI.

In addition to in-person events in throughout the state outside of this newspaper's readership area, a virtual event will be held on Tuesday, June 6, from 8:30-10 a.m.

Results of the election of officers for the coming year of the Mother Club were: Mrs. W. Fischer, president; Mrs. A. Berge, vice president; Mrs. Henry Kraemer, secretary; and Mrs. Leo Ketter, treasurer. Officers will take over their duties at once. The Belles proved to be better mudders than Waupun as the two teams slid around on the sloppy local diamond last Sunday. Rain, which had halted the game once before in the afternoon, became so heavy in the Belles half of the sixth inning that the umpires were forced to call the game. The locals were on the long end of a 5 to 3 score and thus chalked up their first Central States League win.

| KEWASKUM'S DAYS GONE BY |

5 Years Ago

May 24, 2018

Tom Kohn of Kewaskum recently went on The Stars and Stripes Honor Flight to Washington, D.C. The experience brought back memories for Tom, who served in the Vietnam War. He spent 13 months in Vietnam as a radio telegraph operator. Tom proposed to his sweetheart over the ham radio while stationed in Vietnam. He thought it would be a good Christmas present. It was; Gloria accepted the proposal. A rural mail carrier rang her doorbell on December 24, saying he thought he had something pretty important for her. Inside a box was a smaller box and the smaller box had Gloria's diamond engagement ring inside. Tom had purchased it at the military store in Da Nang, Vietnam.

Cousins Subs in Kewaskum held a fundraiser to benefit Kewaskum families who lost their homes in the Odawa Circle fire that occurred on April 30. Keith Novotny, owner of the store, said that it was the busiest that the store has ever been. The Herriges family and the Kjer family each received a check for $2,000 thanks to the fundraiser.

Kettle Country Kids 4H Club gathered donated items from club members and the community, putting together "boredom bags" to donate to families that are waiting in hospitals to help keep them occupied and relaxed.

Kewaskum High School softball team was voted by participating coaches as the top seed in the Division 2 Waupun Sectional. The Lady Indians are currently 18-0 and received a first-round bye.

Kewaskum's tennis team lost its first match of the season, but then went 10-1 in the next 11. The most recent matches were definitely in Kewaskum's favor as the tennis Indians beat Howards Grove 7-0 and Waupun 6-1. Kewaskum finished third in Eastern Wisconsin Conference standings.

Cade Peterson was a double champion at the East Central Conference Meet on May 14. He won the 100m dash and 200m dash. Peterson, Tony Steger, Cole Surprenant, and Tyler Heus make up the 4x100 relay, which posted the best time.

Abby Meidl was the lone girls champion at the East Central Conference Track Meet. She cleared 10-9 in the pole vault.

Several Kewaskum athletes are advancing to the D-2 East Troy Sectional. First places included Riley Donovan in discus, Cade Peterson in 100 dash and 200 dash, 4x100 boys relay, 4x400 boys relay, Romela Olla in 3200 run, and 4x400 girls relay.

Paige Airaudi and Kennedy Adams teamed up during the 62nd minute of play on the soccer field to score the lone goal in the 1-0 victory over Ripon on May 17.

Kewaskum's golfers finished the regular season with victories at Mascoutin and the Lake Breeze Golf Course. After that was the 18-hole conference meet at Lawsonia, where the Indians shot a 315 and won by 14 shots over second place Waupun.

Lizzie Lightner, a middle hitter from Kewaskum High School, will join the Edgewood College volleyball team next season.

Ralph J. Schmidt, 75, Kewaskum, passed away May 21.

Village of Kewaskum trustees voted May 19 to offer a contract to former Village President Matt Heiser to replace Village Administrator Jay Shambeau, who will leave the village after two years. Heiser will officially assume the responsibilities as village administrator on June 23. Village trustees met in closed session on May 12 to interview Heiser. From that meeting, they came to the consensus to offer the position to Heiser.

LORI KREIS, DIRECTOR
KEWASKUM PUBLIC LIBRARY

Summer reading is almost here and coming soon is my annual article about summer slide and a preview of all the wonderful activities Kewaskum Public Library will have for you and your family. But that is not this week. This week, I need to feature one summer event because although I am usually up on things workwise, I think this one may need more advanced notice to assist with planning and becoming a success.

Before that, here is a little history lesson. This hobby originated most likely in the late 18th century during colonial times as one of the collective work efforts women did together in their community. It was considered a work party such as barn raisings and harvestings and huskings. Many of the participants lived in farms far away from their closest neighbors and getting together to work on this necessary household item was a popular way for women to socialize. They not only worked, but laughed, talked and caught up on what was going on with everyone. All this while creating a practical piece of art in one day that could take a single person months. What am I referring to? A quilting bee of course.

During our Summer Learning Program themed, 'All Together Now - Bee a Summer Reader' we will be hosting an intergenerational community quilting bee. There will be drop-in sessions throughout the summer for community members of all ages to design a square that will be part of the quilt. Right now, I am working with a stupendous volunteer to coordinate how this will work, someone with extensive quilting experience whereas I have none.

Beginning mid-June, dates and times will be available for citizens to come in and decorate a square that is ready for design. We will have all the supplies available for it to be completed at the library. By running this quilting bee throughout the summer, we hope to have as much participation as possible, meaning a large community quilt that will one day be hung at our new library. The Summer Learning Program wraps up at the beginning of August and that is when we will start piecing the community quilt together. Here is when we will need volunteers. You do not need any sewing or quilting experience but to get it done as a quilting bee does in a day, we can use as many hands as possible. Stay tuned for that date.

You are probably wondering if there is a theme for this community quilt. There absolutely is. Along with the summer theme of "All Together Now - Bee a Summer Reader", participants will design a square reflecting what being part of the Kewaskum Community means to them. They can show what they love about this village, the ways they feel a part of it or anything commemorating our community.

If you are interested in helping throughout the summer for our Community Quilting Bee or any other program, don't hesitate to contact me.

C.H.S. April Students of the Month

CAMPBELLSPORT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Campbellsport High School (CHS) is proud to announce their "Students of the Month" for the month of April. Congratulations to Katelyn Bertram, Taylor Muraski, Andrew Graves, Gavin Pickering and Jack Mowry for being selected as the CHS Students of the Month in April.

Katelyn Bertram

I nominate Katelyn Bertram for student of the month. Katelyn inspires me and others by consistently showing up with a positive mindset. She is willing to put in hard work and do what it takes to achieve. Katelyn takes great ownership of her learning and personal growth which makes her a strong leader and enjoyable to work with. I appreciate that she knows how to have fun, but takes our work seriously. I am very grateful for all the effort Katelyn has poured into our choir program and the CYO Musical. I'm excited to see what she will accomplish in the next two years.

Taylor Muraski

I would like to nominate Taylor Muraski for the math student of the month. She is a dedicated and hard-working student. She always strives for excellence and is willing to help any student in the class. I know that I can count on her to not only get her work done and perform at a high level, but that she will assist with explaining her thinking so that others in the class can also reach the correct understanding. She has a very bright future ahead of her and she is a person that will achieve the high caliber goals that she has set for herself.

Taylor Muraski, Katelyn Bertram, Andrew Graves, Jack Mowry and Gavin Pickering were named "Student of the Month" in April at Campbellsport High School. SUBMITTED

Andrew Graves

The PE department selects Andrew Graves as April's student of the month. Andrew has demonstrated a positive attitude towards his classmates and towards his learning. Characteristics that can be seen from Andrew on a day to day basis include trustworthiness, compassion, honesty, respect, and responsibility. We are proud of Andrew for demonstrating the Cougar way.

Great work Andrew, keep it up!

Jack Mowry & Gavin Pickering

In every group setting, it's common for a few people with 'large' personalities to overshadow the rest of the group. Large classroom settings are no different. Quiet students can easily escape, or evade, notice when several others dominate the stage. However, there are other ways of standing out that cannot go unnoticed, and the Social Studies Department would like to spotlight two freshmen, Jack Mowry and Gavin Pickering, who have thus far escaped Student of the Month recognition, but whose quiet maturity and academic excellence couldn't scream louder!

Although they're not the type who frequently raise their hands to ask questions, answer questions or share their thoughts, when they contribute it's always perceptive and meaningful. They arrive to class every day fully focused and ready to learn regardless of circumstances. They conduct themselves with positivity and dignity, treating everyone with the utmost respect.

I have never heard them utter a complaint or criticism of anyone—a VERY rare attribute indeed. And when correcting their tests, I frequently find myself rereading their written responses, admiring such thorough explanations, deep connections, mature vocabularies, and unique phrasing. Consistency is one of their trademarks: There is never any doubt that they will impress me every day in every way.

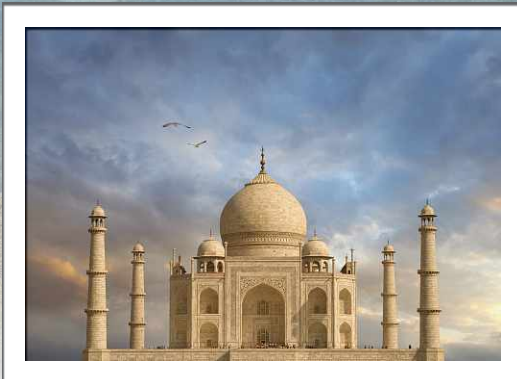

All high school students are eligible for this honor. Students are nominated by their teachers and then chosen by department.

Teachers make their selections based upon attitude, effort, character, interest, and achievement, as exhibited in the classroom and school community. Administration, faculty, and staff are committed to developing future leaders in our community. We want to honor those who are striving each and every day to be those future leaders, who demonstrate this by their positive actions and behaviors.

However, not everyone is bothered by the noise.

“We feel that weekend entertainment at the resort is a very positive addition to our lives. The resort owner takes great care in hiring very good bands of all different genres so that there is truly something for everyone. My husband, my neighbors and I, we all look forward to fishing on the lake with fantastic music in the background. Last year we joked that we were fishing to the oldies. We feel that this lake and the Tiki Beach events are truly heaven on earth and we cannot wait to have our friends and family join us this summer,” said Michelle Harrington, who lives five houses from the resort.

“When we look at actual numbers on the subject, they are open from Memorial Day to Labor Day, which is only 105 days of the year. Of those days only 45 have music during the day, and only 30 have music into the evening, so that is literally 12 percent of the year that has music only 8 percent of the year with evening music. Again, that is 92 percent of the year quiet on the lake with no music. Because of the Tiki Resort and the Dundee bars and all their music, we are a destination for tourism,” Harrington added.

The sound ordinance applies to other venues in the town, not just the Tiki Resort.

“It’s not just Kettle Moraine Lake, we’ve got Dundee, we’ve got Sportsman Park. We have all these things; they all raise money. They donate money back to the community,” Tom Hinchliffe said.

“I’m of the opinion that the ordinance should stay as is. There are approximately 15 weekends of summer for the Tiki Bar to run, which is a short time for a seasonal business to make their living,” said Ed Fellion, who lives with his wife less than 200 yards from the Tiki Bar. “I ask the board not to handcuff the seasonal business.”

Isaac Baker, a town resident, said he thinks sound travels because the stage faces the lake.

“This can be fixed really easily,”

Baker said. “You just switch the stage around.”

Dr. Toby Watson, who is the person who developed the resort and owns property there, and Sellnow said at the meeting that they would look into changing the directions that the speakers face. In addition, Watson told Baker he was open to walking the property with him to find a solution.

“The business is willing to work with the community. Let’s let them make some changes, and we can do some monitoring,” Kranig said.

“We will monitor everything. If you are concerned about the noise, call me. And I will endeavor to get there ASAP and get a reading from your property to the letter of this ordinance. We worked way too hard to throw this thing out. I’m proud of the work that the people who were involved in this did because it was difficult,” Leininger added. “What concerns me is what is said outside of this building. We need to always keep at the top of our mind to keep building things up. And that is exactly what happened tonight. People got together, they talked, they were respectful, and I think everybody comes out of here knowing a little something new. If we continue to do that, we are going to be OK.”

The Tiki Beach Resort on Kettle Moraine Lake is scheduled to open on Monday, May 22 at 1 p.m. Live music is planned for every weekend through the summer.

has the same semiautomatic capabilities as an “assault rifle.” I bet more people are killed in mass shootings with pistol rounds than ARs.

Now let’s think outside the box. I Googled top reasons for deaths of Americans 20-24 years old. The number one reason (42%) were poisonings (drug overdoses with a smaller percent of vehicle accidents). In 2021, in the U.S. 106,000 people died of overdoses. That equals 8,833 per month. In the first paragraph of the May 11, Rural Writes column, the author said, “that in just a few months there were over 20 incidents of random shootings.” If we are to be concerned about the deaths of young people, think deeply about those numbers: 8,833 drug overdoses per month compared to 20 random gun incidents in two months. I wish the “blue dogs” would deal with the amount of drugs pouring across the border because of what I think is a complete open-door policy at the border. Talk about insane.

Daniel Rose

D.H.S. Details End of Emergency COVID-19 Response
COVID-19 prevention and precaution remain a priority as response programs transition

The federal government has announced the COVID-19 Public Health Emergency will end May 11. In Wisconsin, case numbers, hospitalizations, and deaths from COVID-19 are significantly lower than they were during the surge in late 2021 and early 2022, and the Wisconsin Department of Health Services (DHS) has been making plans to move away from an emergency response to the virus.

The federal public health emergency has been in place since early 2020, and it gave federal and state governments flexibility to waive or modify certain requirements in a variety of areas. Associated legislation provided funding and additional flexibilities to help combat the virus.

DHS continues to transition its emergency COVID-19 response programs and services. Some programs, including COVID-19 testing and vaccine services, will continue to undergo changes in the coming months.

“The declaration of a public health emergency helped support Wisconsin’s efforts to combat COVID-19 with resources that saved lives statewide,” said DHS Secretary-designee Kirsten Johnson. “As the federal public health emergency declaration nears its end, DHS will continue to shift our COVID-19 response operations. However, it is critical that Wisconsinites know this does not mean COVID-19 has gone away. The virus remains a threat to health, and we must continue to care for ourselves and each other.”

2022 CONSUMER CONFIDENCE REPORT DATA
KEWASKUM WATERWORKS, PWS ID: 26701125

Water System Information

If you would like to know more about the information contained in this report, please contact Dennis Aupperle at (262) 626-4310.

Opportunity for input on decisions affecting your water quality

Monthly, first and third Mondays at 7:00 pm. 204 First Street Kewaskum WI 53040

Health Information

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's safe drinking water hotline (800-426-4791).

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune systems disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Environmental Protection Agency's safe drinking water hotline (800-426-4791).

Source(s) of Water

Source ID	Source	Depth (in feet)	Status
2	Groundwater	503	Active
3	Groundwater	460	Active
4	Groundwater	360	Active
5	Groundwater	280	Active

To obtain a summary of the source water assessment please contact, Dennis Aupperle at (262) 626-4310.

Educational Information

The sources of drinking water, both tap water and bottled water, include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally occurring minerals and, in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

Contaminants that may be present in source water include:

- Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations and wildlife.
- Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally- occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining or farming.
- Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban stormwater runoff and residential uses.
- Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban stormwater runoff and septic systems.
- Radioactive contaminants, which can be naturally occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA prescribes regulations that limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. FDA regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water, which shall provide the same protection for public health.

Definitions

Term	Definition
AL	Action Level: The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
HA and HAL	HA: Health Advisory. An estimate of acceptable drinking water levels for a chemical substance based on health effects information. HAL: Health Advisory Level is a concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, poses a health risk and may require a system to post a public notice. Health Advisories are determined by US EPA.
HI	HI: Hazard Index: A Hazard Index is used to assess the potential health impacts associated with mixtures of contaminants. Hazard Index guidance for a class of contaminants or mixture of contaminants may be determined by the US EPA or Wisconsin Department of Health Services. If a Health Index is exceeded a system may be required to post a public notice.
Level 1 Assessment	A Level 1 assessment is a study of the water system to identify potential problems and determine, if possible, why total coliform bacteria have been found in our water system.
Level 2 Assessment	A Level 2 assessment is a very detailed study of the water system to identify potential problems and determine, if possible, why an E. coli MCL violation has occurred or why total coliform bacteria have been found in our water system, or both, on multiple occasions.
MCL	Maximum Contaminant Level: The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.
MCLG	Maximum Contaminant Level Goal: The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.
MFL	million fibers per liter
MRDL	Maximum residual disinfectant level: The highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for control of microbial contaminants.
MRDLG	Maximum residual disinfectant level goal: The level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.
mrem/year	millirem per year (a measure of radiation absorbed by the body)
NTU	Nephelometric Turbidity Units
pCi/l	picocuries per liter (a measure of radioactivity)
ppm	parts per million, or milligrams per liter (mg/l)
ppb	parts per billion, or micrograms per liter (ug/l)
ppt	parts per trillion, or nanograms per liter
ppq	parts per quadrillion, or picograms per liter
PHGS	PHGS: Public Health Groundwater Standards are found in NR 140 Groundwater Quality. The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, poses a health risk and may require a system to post a public notice.
RPHGS	RPHGS: Recommended Public Health Groundwater Standards: Groundwater standards proposed by the Wisconsin Department of Health Services. The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, poses a health risk and may require a system to post a public notice.

SMCL	Secondary drinking water standards or Secondary Maximum Contaminant Levels for contaminants that affect taste, odor, or appearance of the drinking water. The SMCLs do not represent health standards.
TCR	Total Coliform Rule
TT	Treatment Technique: A required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.

Detected Contaminants

Your water was tested for many contaminants last year. We are allowed to monitor for some contaminants less frequently than once a year. The following tables list only those contaminants which were detected in your water. If a contaminant was detected last year, it will appear in the following tables without a sample date. If the contaminant was not monitored last year, but was detected within the last 5 years, it will appear in the tables below along with the sample date.

Additional Health Information

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. Kewaskum Waterworks is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at www.epa.gov/safewater/lead.

Town Shows Appreciation to Former Supervisor

Kevin Thull stepped in to fill the term of Supervisor 1 in the Town of Osceola for the remainder of the 2021-2023 term. His knowledge, hard work, and heart were certainly appreciated at a time of need.

The Town of Osceola showed its appreciation of Thull's service by presenting a cake to him to thank him for his time on the board. At the April 4, election, Doug Hodorff was elected to fill that position for the 2023-2025 term. Hodorff was welcomed to the board and sworn into office during the Town of Osceola's Annual Meeting, which was held on April 18.

AN Outdoorsman's JOURNAL

Thirty-four Years an Outdoor Writer

MARK WALTERS
COLUMNIST

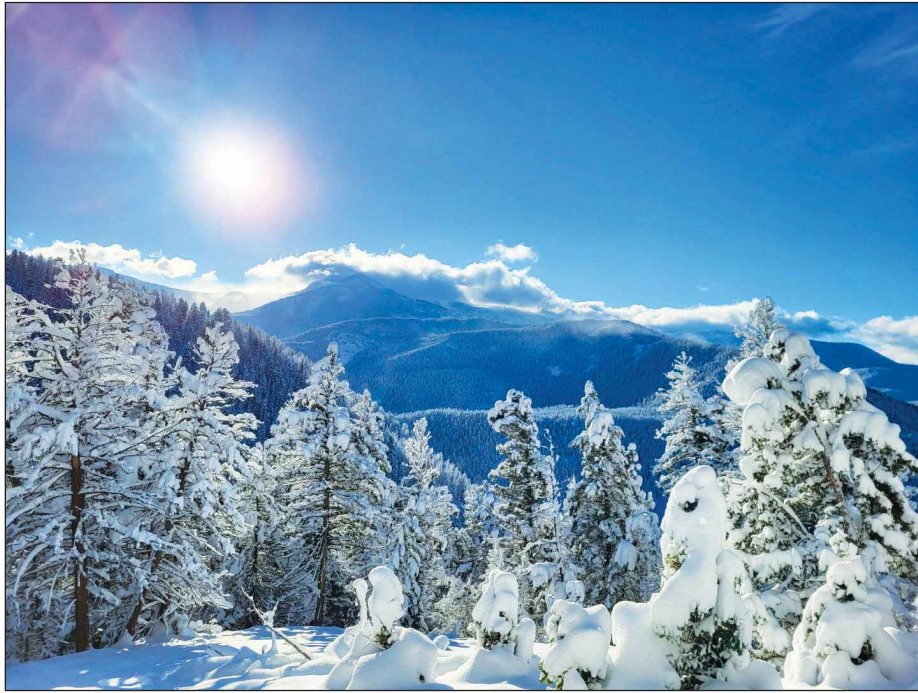

Thirty-four years ago this week I hand wrote my first column for the Poynette Press.

I was the camp manager at Chimo Lodge and Outposts, which is a fly-in camp 55 air-miles out of Red Lake, Ontario, Canada.

I called this column "North of the Border" and hand-wrote it every Friday from an active bear stand.

This week, I am writing about three big parts of my life, and I have to tell you, I am so busy, it is hard to find time to sweep the floor.

On April 17, the state of Montana held its drawing for out-of-state "General Big Game Combo" elk and deer licenses. Just like last year, I received one and I will be heading west on the 17th of October, by myself, to live in the mountains and make some meat.

The hunt and experience that I had last year was one of my coolest ever; extremely physical, horrible weather conditions that started on opening day, harvesting a beautiful 6x6 bull elk and falling down the mountain in deep snow many, many times getting the bull elk to my base camp.

I was either sweating, freezing or falling, and I did not care, I had a bull elk. This fall I would be very happy with a cow or a smaller bull. Selina had my bull aged and it was 6.5-years-old and a bit on the chewy side (can you say slow cooker?).

So last year was the worst year of my 61-years on this planet; my soulmate, Michelle Chiaro, died unexpectedly and part of me passed with her.

I love raising cattle and so did Michelle; in the fall I move them into my garden, and they do all the fertilizer spreading that I need. In turn, I have gardens that yield extremely well. With Michelle's passing, I was going to have to get out of the cattle business, because I no longer had her to feed them when I travel. I did not want to be out of the cattle business, and two sets of neighbors are going to back me up and this coming Tuesday, and I am going to be buying some calves.

No turning back, now. Mark Walters photographs a pond 25-feet outside of his front door.

These steers were in the garden from October until February, and they created some excellent fertilizer.

No one can understand what happens when you lose a soulmate, unless they have lost a soulmate!

Here is the final subject, and you will now realize that I am officially nuts.

With Michelle's passing, I have had only one potential cure and that is to keep very busy; that cure does not work in the evening for me, and I have been kind of depressed. In my front yard there has been a swimming pool since the year 2000. That pool fell a part about a month ago. It took me about 24 hours to have this brainstorm to cure my depression. Folks, as of four days ago, I no longer have a front yard. I have a very large hole, that over the course of the summer, will become a pond. I am going to ice skate, swim, look at and manage my large aquarium and maybe that will help me to find my "happy" again.

I am totally addicted to water, I soak in the tub every night I am home and I love going to the bottom of a lake when I swim and seeing how long I can hold my breath.

Smile lots!

Indians Upset Warriors on the Road

KHS BASEBALL

Kewaskum (12-5) upset the third-ranked Waupun Warriors (16-2), 8-1, in Waupun, Tuesday, May 9.

On a beautiful 70 degree day, the Indians came off the bus ready to hit. Lead-off batter Donny Zillmer got hit by a pitch and the next five batters (Austin Reichel, Hunter Loser, Dylan Soyk, Derek May and Austin Loehr) all hit singles. After a strike out, Carter Curtin placed a perfect suicide bunt down to take a 5-0 lead before the host Warriors had a chance to bat.

The first two batters reached for the Warriors, but that was all Indians' starter May needed to settle in and retire the next three to end the inning.

The Indians picked up right where they left off in the top of the second with a single by Reichel and sacrifice fly by Loser to extend the lead to 6-0. Waupun hit a double and single to score one with no outs, but May stranded them with a pair of fielder's choices and a strike out.

The score stayed the same until the fifth inning when the Indians got their last two insurance runs on a Curtin single and, eventual, steal of home on a first and third situation.

The Indians racked up 10 hits thanks to a multi-hit game from Loehr, Reichel and Soyk.

Waupun had six hits and were led by Ethan Cunningham with two hits including a double.

May was strong on the mound going the distance allowing one run on six hits while walking two and striking out four.

Warriors Top Indians by One

Thursday's game against the Waupun Warriors (17-2) was a heart-breaker for the Kewaskum Indians (12-6) as the visitors broke the tie in the ninth to defeat the Indians, 3-2.

The game started out favoring the Warriors as they took advantage of an Indian mistake and scored two in the first inning. However, the host Indians would hold them scoreless from that point until the top of the ninth inning.

The pitching was strong on both sides. The Warriors' pitchers struck out 12, while the Indians sat down seven.

Donny Zillmer started the game for the Indians. The pitcher went seven innings, allowing two runs on seven hits, striking out six and walking one. Austin Loehr took the loss for Kewaskum. He went two innings, allowing one run on two hits, striking out one and walking one.

The Indians trailed 2-0 until the bottom of the sixth inning. With one out, Hunter Loser was hit by a pitch and Dylan Soyk singled to give the hosts two on with one out. As the double steal was on, Derek May grounded out, but Loser was able to score and Soyk advanced to third. Soyk was later able to score on a passed ball that tied things up.

The Indians had a chance in both the seventh and eighth innings having two on with two outs but just could not get that big hit.

Soyk led the Indians with two hits in three at-bats. Loser had the lone double of the day for Kewaskum.

Indian Shutout Lions

Kewaskum (13-6) used small ball tactics in a pitchers duel that only had two hits for the Indians to defeat the Lomira Lions(10-5), 3-0, on Saturday, May 13. Pitching was led by Derek May and Josh Koenig who combined to throw a shut-out.

May started the game and went three and two-thirds innings allowing just three hits, striking out three

A pitching duel took place in Kewaskum on Tuesday, May 9, as Plymouth came to Kewaskum hoping to knock the Indians back into a tie for the conference lead.

Kewaskum pitcher Macy Sabish allowed only three hits to the guest Panthers while striking out 12 in the victorious effort.

The Indians' bats recorded five hits, including a double by Isabelle Thomas. Kewaskum showed patience at the plate, taking advantage of four walks.

Leading hitters for Kewaskum were Kyli Baka, 2-3 with one run scored and one RBI. Sadie Clausing went 1-3 and Aubrey Magray went 1-1 with one run scored.

Indians Battle Wolves to Stay Atop the ECC

Thursday's softball game between Kewaskum and Winneconne turned into an epic battle of wills as two of the top teams in the conference gave the fans some bonus softball before the Indians pulled out a one-run victory.

Kewaskum jumped on the Wolves right away, scoring three runs in the first inning. Mikaela Marquardt drove in two runs with a two-out triple and then scored one herself on a passed ball. The Wolves answered with two runs of their own to round out the frame.

In the second inning, the Indians got things going with a walk by Aubrey Magray and a double by Isabelle Thomas. Lauren Rettler came through with a two-out single to score both Magray and Thomas. Winneconne added one run in the bottom of the inning with a double and the runner scoring on a passed ball.

The only other scoring during the regulation innings came when two Dylan Soyk and Donny Zillmer each managed one hit to lead Kewaskum. After Zillmer's single the Indians used a walk and wild pitches to score. May scored the second on a suicide squeeze and Soyk later scored on a wild pitch.

Winneconne batters got on base via walks and then scored on some aggressive baserunning and some Kewaskum mishandles of the ball.

The game remained scoreless until the tenth inning, with both teams having opportunities with baserunners on, but the pitching and defense for both teams held strong.

In the top of the tenth inning, Grace Leitheiser led off with a free pass. "Lighty" then stole second to advance into scoring position. With one out, the Indians successfully executed three consecutive bunts, the third of which was a squeeze bunt from Magray as Leitheiser dove in head-first ahead of the tag by the Wolves' catcher.

The Indian defense clamped down on Winneconne in the bottom of the tenth, finishing the game with a strikeout, pop up, and ground out to seal the hard-fought victory.

"This was a gut check," commented Kewaskum Head Coach Chris Sabish. "The girls battled and battled and we found a way to win."

The Indians wrap up the season with a home doubleheader with Ripon on May 16.

Kewaskum was voted the number one seed in their half of the WIAA Sectional bracket. They will open tournament play at home on May 23 versus either Ripon or Two Rivers.

C.H.S. Track Building ‘Championship Culture’

CLARICE CASE
JOURNALIST

“The culture... it’s changing,” stated Campbellsport Head Track Coach Derek Toshner, who has revamped the program since taking the position five years ago.

Last week, on Tuesday, May 9, during their home invite, three school records were broken - a fourth was broken earlier this season. Derek shared with his athletes at practice the next day that almost half of the school records have been broken over his first five years.

“When one kid starts to be really good, that sets a fire,” Toshner observed.

Senior Aubree Koenings broke the discus record of 119’3” set by Dawn Zuengler in 1978 back on April 13 at the Markesan Invite with a distance of 126’8”. She has been throwing since sixth grade, but started throwing disc as a freshman.

Last week Tuesday, senior Josh Dontchenko broke the pole vault record of 12’10” set by Tom Campagna in 1973. He had scratched his first two jumps of the night. Before his third attempt, Assistant Coach Shannon Toshner mentioned Campagna was there to watch him. After some more words of encouragement, Dontchenko surpassed 11 feet and set a new record of 12-11.00, nearly 13 feet. He has only been pole-vaulting for two years. The big difference between this year and last year was a change in attitude. He admits that he got more serious about the event, traveling to Waukesha to train at an indoor facility over last summer and winter, and focusing on his emotions as it can be not only a challenge physically, but mentally.

Then the girls 4x400 relay comprised of sophomores Sienna Hewitt, Capri Constantineau, Lydia Toshner and freshman Kameron Rohlf broke the time of 4:15.9 set in 2002 with a 4:12.4. With that time, they are ranked fifth in the state. They attributed part of their success to training they received at XLR8 Sports Training, LLC. in Appleton. They have been working on their form, lengthening their strides, and moving their arms properly to run faster. Their new goal time-wise is to run a 4:10 or be first in state.

Feeling inspired by the girls relay, the boys 4x100 relay, “ran out of their minds,” said Derek Toshner. Just last year, the record from 1982 was broken with a time of 44.81. Unexpectedly, one year later, that record was broken again by juniors Ben Timm, Emmet Homuth, Mason Willacker and sophomore Emmett Gonnering with a time of 44.74. They believed their handoffs were the difference maker on Tuesday.

“We got those like down pat,” said Timm.

Overall, the boys placed second and the girls placed fourth as a team on Tuesday.

“So far, the boys have won the Markesan, Ripon, and Waupun Invitationals. The girls took second in Markesan and third in Waupun,” said Derek. “Historically, we were bottom to possibly middle of the pack in these invitationals.”

“This is not the program we were five years ago, not even close,” he added.

When he came back to Campbellsport five years ago, there were around 18 kids on the team. Now, there are nearly 60.

“I had to like weed out the old system,” Derek explained. “When we started, I really focused on the freshman and then by the time they were seniors they had only seen my system... It just took some T.L.C., love, and some recruiting from Shannon.”

When asked what it has been like having Derek and Shannon as coaches, Koenings said, “I love them. They have always been there by my side to help.” She added that they are always positive and there to encourage and help improve.

Dontchenko, when talking about the season, said, “I really got to know my coaches a lot more and I appreciate them a lot... 99 percent of it was coaches, my teammate and people supporting me.”

“Every year, the kids have been getting better and better,” said Derek.

On Monday, May 15, the team competed in the Flyway Conference Meet hosted by Winnebago Lutheran Academy at North Fond du Lac High School. Details from the conference meet will be available in next week’s paper.

“This is a team that can win conference and do something that has never been done in the school’s history –for the girls. The last time for the boys was 1969 and 1973,” Derek told the team. “I believe in you guys and you should believe in yourselves.”

Campbellsport will participate in the regional at Grafton on Monday, May 22, their sectional will be at Milwaukee Vincent on Thursday, May 25, and the state meet is June 2-3.

While the entire team is focused on conference and the remainder of the season, Derek already has some thoughts about the next year.

He is losing one boy, Dontchenko, who already has his mind set on trying to defeat the pole vault record at Milwaukee School of Engineering next fall which is 16’9”.

“I have fun with this, why stop?” he asked rhetorically.

And the team will be losing four girls, including Koenings, who will also participate in track and field at UW-Stout, along with Hannah Lueck, Elli Scannel and Ella Goebel.

As for those that will be around next spring, Derek thinks, “They are going to be so dialed in; it is going to be incredible.”

Cougars Shut-Out Foxes

COACH DAN HEISDORF CHS SOFTBALL

The varsity softball team had a rough start to the week last week, but finished strong going...

On Tuesday, May 9, they faced Lomira (12-5) and could not get anything going losing by a 10-0 run rule.

Kinsley Homuth and Maia Morgan had the only hits in the game. Megan McCarty pitched 3.1 innings allowing five hits and four earned runs. Ava Sippel pitched 2/3 of an inning allowing three hits and one earned run.

The next night, the Cougars faced St. Mary's Springs and had a very rough fifth inning. Winning 3-2 with two outs and a runner at second, things fell apart quickly. A couple walks and a grand slam opened the flood gates as Springs ended up scoring nine runs after two outs inwrought to a 13-3 win.

Sam Schodrow, Homuth (double), Kaitlyn Goebel and Lilli Twohig all had hits. Peyton Hall got the start and allowed eight hits, seven earned runs, while striking out two. McCarty pitched 2/3 of an inning allowing three hits and one earned run.

On Thursday, May 11, the Cougars faced off against Laconia on senior night.

Homuth put a crooked number on the scoreboard in the bottom of the first. After Schodrow doubled, Homuth crushed a two-run bomb over the left field fence to give the Cougars a 2-0 lead

McCarty had two hits (double). Schodrow, Kylie

Krueger, Homuth, Alyssa Koelbl, and Sippel each had a hit. McCarty got the win allowing nine hits and one earned run.

On Friday, May 12, the team went to play Random Lake (#7 in D4) and lost 3-2.

Homuth, Sippel, and Goebel (double) each had hits.
