Battle of Mascots Goes To Berlin

The Kewaskum Indians fell to the Berlin Indians by two, 22-24, last week Thursday

KHS FOOTBALL

Coming into the Thursday night game against Berlin on Sept. 21, the Kewaskum Indians knew the math of what needed to happen to make the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association Playoffs. Kewaskum needed to win at least three of the final four games of the season and felt good going into a game with Berlin with whom they seemed pretty evenly matched.

The Indians from Kewaskum ended up falling to the Berlin Indians by a score of 24-22, leaving Kewaskum needing to sweep the final three games to make the playoffs.

Kewaskum opened the scoring after a long, time-consuming drive with a touchdown at the 8:27 mark of the first quarter by Dylan Soyk on a one-yard run. Hayden Johnson tacked on the point after touchdown (PAT) to put Kewaskum up 7-0.

Berlin answered the challenge in the second quarter, scoring twice on touchdowns from 26 and 51 yards. Their two-point conversions both failed.

The third quarter saw Berlin add six more points to their lead with a touchdown from six yards.

In the fourth quarter, the squads traded scores with Kewaskum scoring on a 50-yard screen from Andrew Reichert to Landon Daniel.

Defensive Dandy Goes to Springs, Cougars Even in Flyway Play

Campbellsport football held St. Mary's Springs to just 7, but the Cougars were shut out at Fruth Field last Saturday afternoon

It was the first fall football feature in the Flyway, but it sure felt more like summer last Saturday afternoon, as the Campbellsport Cougars traveled to Fond du Lac's Fruth Memorial Field to take on the St. Mary's Spring Ledgers. Field-temperatures felt like 90 in the sun, and it was the defensive players on both sides enjoying the vitamin D, as St. Mary's Springs just outlasted the Cougars, 0-7.

"It was a good game to watch Saturday," said Campbellsport Head Coach Todd Wondra. "I'm proud how the defense played. We made them earn everything they got and played fairly well all day."

In the first quarter, neither team scored, and the script for the remainder of the contest had been set: each team would need to fight for every yard.

Campbellsport (4-2, 2-2) was effective early running with Ben Timm, but the Ledgers (6-0, 4-0) were able to tighten up on third downs, forcing the Cougars off the field in key situations.

"We struggled offensively maintaining blocks and getting to our second and third level blocks,"

Peace United Church of Christ to Celebrate 125 Years – Part I

"No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here."

PEACE UCC

2023 marks the 125th anniversary of Peace United Church of Christ (UCC) in Kewaskum. In honor of this special occasion, we thought it fitting to share who we are with the wider community.

This is the first of a series of articles that we are hoping will offer insight on who we are, how we provide extravagant welcome and our hopes of peeling back the layers to provide easy access to those in need.

Lets go ahead and delve right into how Peace UCC made its start in Kewaskum.

With a common goal to establish a German Evangelical Church in Kewaskum, nine men – Albert Backhaus, Henry Bruessel, Carl Doms, Charles Geidel, Ludwig Guth, Nicholas Guth Sr., William Prost, Christian Schaefer, Sr. and George Schleif Sr. – met on June 2, 1898. They asked neighboring pastor, Rev. Robert Gruenwald of Fillmore, to conduct services every two weeks in Good Templar Hall, now known as Labor Union Hall, until a regular pastor could be hired.

And thus, the story of Peace Church began.

The following day, Nicklos Guth, Sr. gifted a

What Matters?

Dear Reader,

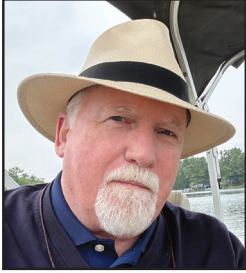

Remember those events back in high school – sports, homecoming, prom, the musical? It was a big deal back then. And now?

Remember those happenings back in college – football games, parties, concerts, road trips? More big deals back in the day. And now?

You ran the gauntlet of life with all the challenges, barriers and naysayers. So, here you are. At last you can recalibrate from this place and time you have gotten to and move forward, with the realization that the big stuff from once-upon-a-time is now minuscule. It no longer even exists, except in memory. Why? Because in a world of rational perspective and the ability to take the long view, things take on their proper significance – or insignificance.

But there are eternal values that we can touch, if only briefly. There can be joy in every moment if we so choose. It is joy that makes any single instant into an eternal experience of love.

Must've done a Rip Van Winkle. Okay, much shorter. While I slept, a subtle change came. During one of the hot days, a cruise down Highway 45 from Eden and descent through the DeNeveau heights, spotted the dogwood's too soon crimson blush roadside.

A brief blaze which died to a drab burgundy. But it's not as if there weren't other signs. A splash of orange and yellow splotched like paint dripped among the green foliage. And this was before our current cooling in temperatures.

Anyone who's lived here long enough knows Wisconsin's next season often begins early. Except for the last winter which seemed to drag on forever because of too many thaws during the frigid months. Bringing late, past the vernal equinox snows. Albeit, they melted quickly. Yet left many longing for, finally, spring.

Mind you, the cycles haven't approached the speed of shifts inside big box retailers like Walmart and Target. The push of back-to-school supplies nudged aside by an early run towards Halloween.

Not as fast as a few decades ago when the Kmart in Wausau displayed spooky costumes in fading July, on the cusp of August. You know October shan't be over before artificial conifer forests loom to replace the eerie in stores. Even the most robust party goer may wonder what's the rush.

Fortunately, though nature seems to have sped up, leastwise round these parts, it isn't at that hectic mercantile pace. Still, with the obviously hotter than ever before summers and frequently warmer cold spells, can the steadfast climate change denier actually believe there isn't, as Ray Parker, Jr. sang, "Something going on in the neighborhood." Or not be concerned as he concluded, "And it don't look good."

All right, full disclosure, I told myself before this football season that I would not allow my column to be a weekly update on the Green Bay Packers, and I promise this to be my last one (at least for a while).

However, after Sunday's thrilling 18-17 comeback win, I really can't help myself.

The Packers scored 18 consecutive points in the fourth quarter after trailing 17-0 the entire contest. The comeback was fueled by some bad play by the otherwise dominant New Orleans Saints' defense, the fact that the Saints' backup quarterback was playing following an injury to the number-one, a little bit of luck and a lot of Love.

The Packers' quarterback was by no means spectacular on the day. In fact, it was probably his worst game of the season.

But in the fourth quarter, he and his teammates kept finding ways to sustain drives and score points.

It was Love who ran-in a pivotal touchdown late, which made the score 9-17. Instead of kicking the one-point point-after-touchdown ("extra point"), the coaching staff opted to attempt a two-point conversion, which meant – should the Packers' defense stop the Saints – the offense would need just another touchdown and extra point to win the game.

That two-point try, although not executed as designed, resulted in a spectacular throw-and-catch from Love-to-Samori Toure.

It was at this point, I started to get goosebumps. While I still knew, as a fan, a lot needed to roll the Packers' way for them to win, I had already seen enough to sense there could be something special about the Green-and-Gold.

But, as I already noted, things did keep rolling the Packers' way, and another late touchdown (an incredible catch by Romeo Doubs) essentially sealed the deal (yes, I'm ignoring that the Saints missed a pretty easy field goal to take the lead, but I did mention "luck" earlier).

One of the biggest takeaways I had playing organized sports in high school was how immense the aspect of "the team" was. I was never the most talented in any sport I played, and few of my teammates moved on to the college level, but I had the luxury of playing for successful teams, often, because the group of guys were tight-knit and genuinely cared about one another. As a result, we gave maximum effort in everything we did, and it led to some relatively miraculous upsets in my "playing days."

When you're on a special team you know it, and even once removed from organized competition, you can sense it from afar (even through the T.V.).

From a distance, the last few years, I sensed the team spirit was absent around Lombardi Ave. Even though the Packers have had some of the most talented players in the league's history, say, the previous five seasons, they always fell short of expectations; despondence seemed to permeate the locker room.

As Love and the Packers celebrated their surreal fourth-quarter comeback last Sunday, it was evident how much it meant to them (just week-three in a long, 17-game ladder).

It looked familiar, it looked fun and I hope there's more to come.

See you next week

Missing the Moraines from Mesa

It's 112-degrees for the umpteenth time this summer.

You get in your car and it's 120-degrees. You drive and you think, "Where would I like to be right now?" San Deigo? San Fransisco?

No!

I would like to be in Kewaskum, Wisconsin.

I would like to hike up Buckshot's Hill by the old Amerahn, and then have a "Spotted Cow" at the Amerahn. I'd like to walk the trail where the railroad tracks used to be and finish off the walk with a trek around River Hill Park – maybe catch a concert.

The best Mexican food I've ever eaten was at the "Limping Coyote" and the best cheesesteak I've ever had was at "Wiseguys."

And I sorely miss the German potato salad at "The Pig."

I'd even go back to get a haircut at the "Sip and Clip" on Highway 45.

Before I returned home, I'd stock-up on the spicy beef sticks at the food locker.

But, first and foremost, I'd like to visit with the friends I made there for the last 25 years. To say they are friendly is to weaken the adjective.

I'd like to describe them as gregarious, convivial and full of warm and sincere hospitality. The get-togethers were full of joyful banter, belly-laughs and cordiality.

And it struck me one time that all the people that I'd met with in 25 years were all still married to the same person. This exemplifies their belief that strong families beget a strong community, that begets a strong country.

And I guess that's why I'd like to be in Kewaskum... Pleasant people, pleasant place!

UScellular Launches 5G Mid-Band Network in Campbellsport

Technology delivers up to 10x faster speeds than low-band 5G

UScellular has launched its 5G mid-band network in Campbellsport to enhance the mobile, home and business internet experience for customers in the area. This new 5G network has more capacity and low latency for smoother data processing and can deliver speeds up to 10x faster than 4G LTE and current low-band 5G networks.

UScellular has upgraded all Campbellsport towers with 5G mid-band technology, so local customers with a mid-band capable smartphone, such as the iPhone 14, are already experiencing increased speeds today. 5G mid-band can also enhance home and business internet using fixed wireless technology. With fixed wireless, a home or business wirelessly connects to a nearby cell tower, providing a high-speed broadband connection via a wireless signal, as opposed to the wired connection provided by fiber or cable.

"Broader 5G coverage with mid-band technology provides consumers and businesses with even faster data connection speeds for a better experience at home or on-the-go," said Marlon Bailey, director of sales for Wisconsin at UScellular. "This new 5G technology builds on our current network in Campbellsport, and we will continue to add more mid-band capable smartphones, tablets, routers and IoT devices in the coming months and years."

As UScellular further deploys its 5G mid-band

Flamingos Flock to Boltonville?

STAFF REPORT

Last week, Port Washington made national news when flamingos were seen in Lake Michigan at South Bend Beach Park. It was reportedly the first time that wild flamingos have ever been in Wisconsin.

It is believed that Hurricane Idalia is what caused the flamingos to flock to the Dairy State.

Flamingos were spotted in Boltonville, as well.

“They stopped here on their way to Port Washington,” joked Boltonville resident Dennis Fechter, who captured a picture of a group of pink flamingos standing perfectly still in his yard.

Jean was laid to rest beside her husband at Union Cemetery, Saukville later that afternoon. Hello! This month we had a lot of important, but not exciting things to discuss. (Haha.)

The results will be shared next month. We are wrapping up our club year and getting ready to start a new year in October.

Next month we will welcome new families that are interested in joining our club with an ice cream social. If you’re wanting more information about the Boltonville Firecrackers, please join us on Tuesday, Oct. 17, at 6:30 p.m., at the Boltonville Fire Station. We hope to see you there.

Take care!

According to Campbellsport Police Chief Tom Dornbrook, John Wilson, 39, surrendered himself immediately to officers because he didn't know where he was and he no longer wanted to be bitten by mosquitos. The arrest was in connection with a robbery at Klotz's Piggly Wiggly in Campbellsport. Wilson and another person stole a case of Sky Vodka and other high-end alcohol, totaling just under $500; and Dornbrook said this was not the first time the two had stolen from Klotz's.

| KEWASKUM'S DAYS GONE BY |

5 Years Ago • October 4, 2018

Onlookers stood at the edge of the Kewaskum Fire Department's parking lot last Thursday evening and watched as firefighters freed a person from a smashed vehicle and placed him onto a long backboard. Fortunately, the car crash was staged and the patient was not injured. The scene was staged so that firefighters and emergency personnel from Kewaskum and Kohlsville could train. A total of four vehicles were utilized for EMS training as well as hydraulic extrication tool training.

Although Bob Paluso is a Milwaukee native, he got his taste for country life and being around horses from his grandfather. The two bonded over the joys of horse raising and both looked forward to time spent together on Fredrick Muck's farm. About 20 years ago, after working for several years as a police officer in inner-city Milwaukee, Bob purchased a farm near the Kettle Moraine State Forest. He and his wife were actively searching for a country home for the family and animals so Bob was saving money for that dream. Unfortunately, Bob's wife passed away unexpectedly while their two children were young. One day a friend told Bob about the property he would purchase. Bob recently opened the property as a bed and breakfast.

In recent years, the Kewaskum Homecoming Court was made up of senior students who were on a fall sports team. This year, the court will include two freshmen, two sophomores, two juniors, and four seniors. All of the high school students started voting last week for the representatives. Before this year, the coaches voted to decide the court members.

Kewaskum High School students will soon be utilizing the new greenhouse that stands proudly at the front of the school. The new greenhouse honors Brent Allen Schultz, a student who lost his life in a car accident in 2014. Several weeks before the tragic accident, at an FFA officers meeting, Brent and the other FFA officers discussed the need for a greenhouse as a learning tool. Brent's parents, Lynn and Kevin Thull and Rod Schultz, and other family members and friends worked hard to organize fundraisers. Over the last four years, approximately $90,000 has been raised toward the greenhouse. Another $10,000 was raised from a tractor raffle. These monies were presented by Kewaskum FFA Alumni to the Kewaskum School Board for the new greenhouse.

For the second consecutive year, the Kewaskum-Campbellsport co-op girls golf team will compete in a Division 1 Sectional Tournament.

A heart-breaking 3-2 score meant that the soccer team from KHS placed second in the Denmark Tournament on September 29. The Indians had beaten North Fond du Lac 3-0 and Clintonville 1-0.

Behind consecutive victories over Kohler, Kiel, Valders, Cedar Grove/Belgium, and St. Francis, the Lady Indians captured the championship at the Cedar Grove/Belgium Volleyball Tournament.

The tennis team finished the regular season losing 4-3 to Kiel. Kewaskum winners were Megan Krolski, Kaitlyn Miller, and the doubles team of Nicole Brzozowski/Sydney Ostranger.

Ivan W. Kumrow, 68, Town of Scott, passed away September 27. Raymond E. Krueger, 81, Kewaskum, passed away September 28.

It is not too often that a Kewaskum-based company makes headlines for national news, but Regal Ware, Inc. was just highlighted in Fortune Magazine for its plan to bring outsourced goods from China and produce them back in the states. With the high oil prices and rising labor cost in China, Regal Ware is ditching its 10 years in China and bringing production home. Shipping cost has doubled in two years because of oil prices. According to CEO Jeffrey Reigle, delivery charges have gone down considerably since production was moved back to the United States and instead of taking a month or two, delivery now takes days. That delay had put a strain on the company's inventory.

Usually a high school weight room is simply that; used by high school students and their athletic programs. Athletic Director Jason Piittmann said the Kewaskum School fitness center will serve members of the community as well as the high school students.

Emergency personnel from Kohlsville and West Bend Fire Departments responded to a crash on September 30. A Lomira teen was taken by Flight for Life Helicopter after he was ejected from a vehicle which rolled several times after leaving the roadway.

In a separate accident, the Washington County Dive Team was summoned when the 35-year-old Horicon man trapped in an overturned vehicle partially submerged in the Milwaukee River claimed there had been other occupants in the vehicle. A search was conducted for more than two hours without success. The officer believed alcohol to have been a contributing factor to the accident.

Sara Lehnerz and Nick Olla were named Kiwanis Students of the Month for the month of September.

The Lady Indians volleyball team swept New Holstein 25-17, 25-12, 25-23, thanks to clutch hitting by Brandi Wagner and Erika Heberer.

Tonya Janssen was the first Kewaskum runner to finish for her team in the Kewaskum Cross Country Invitational. She placed ninth. Zach Herges finished third for the Kewaskum boys.

Kewaskum's football team shut out Two Rivers 37-0. The Indians are currently tied for first in the conference with Plymouth. The two teams will meet tomorrow.

Jason Piittmann was named Packers.com Coach of the Week last week. The honor for the Kewaskum football coach was due to the Indians beating Waupun 28-0.

A daughter, Annabella Margurite, was born September 12 to Andrea Landry of Kewaskum. A son, Cooper, was born September 16 to Natasha and Douglas Noennig of Fredonia. A son, Caleb Arion, was born September 17 to Jamie Schreiber of Adell. A son, Dylan Everett, was born September 17 to Mellisa and Jordan Blanchette of Kewaskum. On October 10, pro wrestling returns to Kewaskum. Featured will be the stars of Mid American Wrestling and a special guest appearance by AWA Legend Baron Von Raschke. He began as a hated villain, but became a fan favorite after he started using his signature clawhold on devious wrestlers.

Assistant Fire Chief Mark Herges informed the Village of Kewaskum Board that a new committee will be looking into the purchase of a new ambulance. Funds are available so an ambulance will be ordered in the near future.

The death of a 33-year-old Sheboygan man who sustained a gunshot wound to the head on September 12 while hunting in the Kettle Moraine area near the Zillmer Hiking Trail has been ruled a hunting accident. A hunter had fired at a squirrel and missed, striking Ge Lor.

Twelve-year-old Erica Christie, a seventh grade student at Holy Trinity School, was a State Finalist in the Pre-Teen Wisconsin Scholarship and Recognition Program. She earned four trophies: one for being named in the top 25 semi-finalists, one for earning the number one spot in Personal Development, one for second runner-up in the talent competition, and one for being second runner-up in the overall program.

Kewaskum's volleyball team won twice last week. The Lady Indians defeated Chilton 15-9, 15-3, 15-7; and two days later defeated Plymouth 15-12, 15-6, 12-15.

The first meeting of the Holy Trinity Home and School organization was held. parcel of land on Wilhelmine Street, now known as 1st Street, to the church. Three days later, a larger group of families met and approved a constitution. The families of Herman Backhaus, Fred Buddenhagen, William Doms, Henry Ebenreiter, Herman Geidel, Michael Geidel, August Kirchner, William Krahn, Phillip Meinhardt, Carl Prost, Charles Schaefer, Christ Schaefer, Jr., John W. Schaefer, Ludwig Schmidt, Christian Schmitt, Jacob Schmitt, John Schmurr, John Schultz and William Wesenberg were accepted in the "Deutsche Evangelische Frieden Gemeinde", along with Mrs. Nicholas Mertes.

The nine founders became the first Board of Trustees, electing Carl Doms, Sr. president, Charles Geidel, vice-president, Ludwig Guth, secretary, and Christien Schaefer, Sr., treasurer. George Schleif, Sr., headed the building committee.

Enthusiastically, the congregation began to build a brick church, 36-by-60 feet in the style of the Fillmore Church, adding a basement for use as a school and furnace room. On August 20, 1898, the cornerstone was laid.

Dedicated fundraising and diligent manual labor throughout the summer and fall of 1898 culminated in the dedication of the church on November 4, 1898. The project began with $1,500 subscribed and was completed at a cost of $3,900 with much of the work done by members.

The 1900-pound bell, purchased for $400, was hung in the 90-foot steeple in time for the dedication and was rung three times daily thereafter. Rev. F. Klingsberger, from Milwaukee, presided over the dedication: "And so they builded a temple, for they all had a mind to work."

Rev. Gruenwald, the first minister of the church, also served four other pastorates at Fillmore, Silver Creek, Beechwood and Waubeka. He continued in his role for a year, then his assistant at Fillmore, Rev. A. Jahnke, was hired as the full-time pastor for the church.

Rev. Jahnke served a few months, and Rev. Herman Erber accepted the job in November 1899.

Erber stayed for 10 years, during which Peace Church purchased a parsonage at 1433 Parkview Drive for $2,000, a lot on the west side of the church was bought for $150 and the sanctuary was redecorated adding lamps and chandeliers.

The first students were confirmed under Rev. Erber on Easter Sunday, April 16, 1900. With his wife, Rev. Erber organized the Sunday school, and the Christmas program was held on Christmas Eve. A summer picnic was held in River Hill Park, which continues to this day.

Our next pastor was Rev. Fred Mohme. During his tenure, the "Frauen Verein" ladies aid was formed, and Rev. Mohme continued to instruct Sunday School in German. The membership grew under his pastorate, and many of these members were born in the United States. Thus, it was decided to hold Sunday School classes one Sunday a month in English.

When Rev. Mohme resigned, Rev. Henry Barth took over the pulpit. During his time the parsonage was renovated: a telephone was installed, electric lights were added, and a garage was built. The congregation, at this point, included 140 families and was becoming a vital part of the community.

In 1923, the 25th anniversary of the church was celebrated. Electric lights were installed, a renovation of the basement was done and the windows in the church were replaced with 12 new stained-glass ones.

Rev. Barth reorganized the Sunday School so that both German and English were taught and included confirmands too. English services were held one Sunday a month.

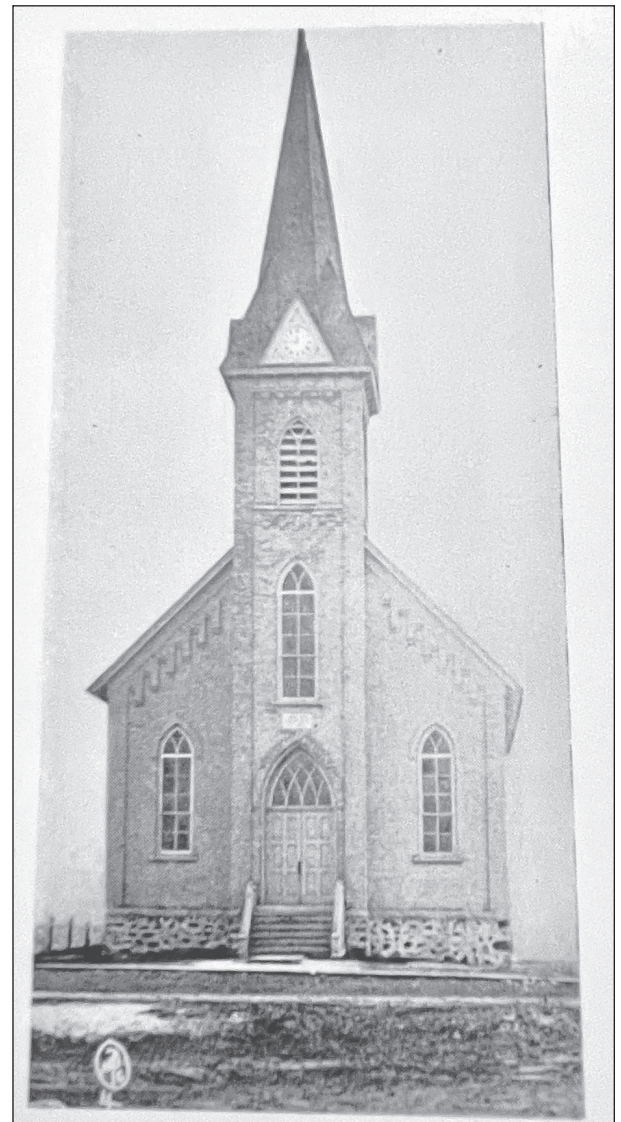

In 1925, Rev. Ernst succeeded Rev. Barth. Alternate services in English and German began and minutes of the council meetings were now in English. English hymnals were purchased, and the constitution was written in English. The choir moved from the balcony to the front of the sanctuary. An improvement fund was started for the cemetery as the church took charge of it rather than members taking care of individual graves.

During Rev. John Frohne's pastorate (1929-1932) extensive remodeling was done. On the south side of the church property, the building was extended to include a sacristy, choir room and a Gothic type of chancel with room for a pipe organ in the future. The basement space allowed for a fuel oil furnace, modern kitchen, restrooms, storage space and a back entrance. The extension on the north provided a cloakroom and stairs to the basement.

Ill health forced Rev. Frohne to resign in 1931 and Rev. Richard Gadow was called. He stressed benevolent giving and by 1936 the church had met 100% of the benevolent part of the budget. A financial secretary was established in 1933 and the sexton took charge of digging graves at the cemetery. English services were now held on the first, third, and fifth Sundays. Every year brought new and exciting additions to the church, which had become so much a part of the community of Kewaskum.

On August 3, 1941, Rev. R. G. Beck began his pastorate with many new ideas. The "Hymnal" was introduced for congregational singing. The monthly Tidings newsletter was sent out to members. Vacation Bible School was started, and the Sunday School was moved to better rooms. A pulpit and lectern were added with cloth hangings. The cemetery was incorporated, and a perpetual care fund was established.

Rev. William G. Schwemmer came in a momentous year for Peace Church. 1946 was the year that Peace Church officially became affiliated with the Evangelical and Reformed denomination. As the newest member of the E & R denomination, Peace Church invited the South Wisconsin Synod to hold its Annual Session in Kewaskum the following spring. In 1948, Peace Church celebrated its 50th Anniversary with a service incorporating several past ministers, including Rev. Iroin, who spoke on "Church Makers", which was the goal of the nine founders in 1898.

In 1951, Rev. Frederick Schwemmer was called. He instituted pew communion and pointed out that Peace was the only local church to have open communion. But bigger changes were coming with the advent of the union of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the Congregational Christian Church, and the Afro-Christian Convention. With the merger in June of 1957, the United Church of Christ became a reality at a national synod in Cleveland, Ohio.

In 1957, Rev. Clarence Hammon was called, and German services were discontinued. In 1959, the church bought land parcels south and west of the church and construction on the two-story education wing was begun. It was dedicated on January 27, 1961. The next year, a new Allen organ was installed and in 1963, the church became an official member of the United Church of Christ.

Rev. Hammon resigned the same year, and Rev. Dan Schowalter came in June of 1964. Two worship services were started in 1965 to accommodate the growing congregation. Work was done on the narthex, and red carpet was added to the sanctuary. In 1969, a new parsonage was built on Hillside Drive in the village and the old parsonage was sold to St. Lucas Church.

Rev. Milton Staskal arrived in 1975. He served less than a year and Rev. Darrell Joiner was called as the 15th minister to serve Peace Church.

Rev. Joiner left in 1985 and Rev. James Bettin was called in 1986. Rev. Bettin started Peace Church's involvement in Habitat for Humanity. Plus, the planning for an elevator was started and dedicated on Christmas Eve 1996. Rev. Bettin served until his retirement in 1996.

Rev. John Wickman served as interim until Rev. J. Eric Kirkegaard arrived in 1998, just in time for Peace Church's 100th anniversary celebration.

Rev. Kirkegaard has been with Peace Church for the past 25 years and as we plan for the 125th celebration, he will be part of it.

"May the future years continue to demonstrate our faith to the community and, above all, to the Lord," he said.

Line 5 Relocation Project Supporters Join Safest Way Tour in Brownsville

Event included a 34-foot-long section of pipeline for supporters to sign

A group of local citizens, labor leaders, business leaders, and tribal members gathered at the Michels Corporation on Wednesday to show their support for the $450 million proposed Line 5 relocation project in Ashland, Bayfield and Iron counties. Participants in the event organized by the Wisconsin Jobs and Energy Coalition also took the opportunity to show their support by signing a pipeline similar to the one to be used on the proposed project.

The relocation project, which is estimated to create more than 700 Wisconsin construction jobs, is currently being reviewed by the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. Supporters at Wednesday's event heard from elected officials, business, labor, and tribal leaders on the economic need for the relocation project and why pipelines are the safest way to transport the energy our state, region and nation need to power our economy and ensure our quality of life.

"Michels is a proud Wisconsin company and we can assure everyone that safety and environmental stewardship will guide every step we take as we build the Line 5 relocation project," stated Pat Michels, president and CEO of Michels Corporation, which has been selected as the mainline contractor for the Line 5 relocation project. "The Line 5 project will not only support 1,000 jobs in Wisconsin, but it will inject millions into the state's economy, all while ensuring the energy our region needs continues to flow."

Terry McGowan, president and business manager for Operating Engineers Local 139, stated, "The Line 5 relocation project will be completed safely and with the least environmental impact possible because our union workers not only receive the best training in the world, but they call Wisconsin home. It's time for the Line 5 project to move forward."

"Native communities rely heavily on the energy Line 5 supplies – especially propane," said Kim Kastern, small business owner and Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa tribal member. "Enbridge has gone above and beyond in working with tribal businesses like ours and providing job opportunities for tribal members with their commitment of allocating $50 million of the Line 5 relocation project budget to native-owned businesses and training tribal members to work on the project."

"Our state's union men and women have been waiting patiently to begin work on the Line 5 relocation project," said Corey Gall, president of the Wisconsin Pipe Trades Association. "These highly skilled union welders have spent years in the classroom and in the field receiving rigorous training to ensure the Line 5 project is completed safely and to the highest standards possible."

Banners flanked the 34-foot pipe that highlighted these key pipeline facts:

- Pipelines have a 99.99% safety record
- Shutting pipelines like Line 5 would dramatically increase gas and diesel prices in the region

- Line 5 is major supplier of Midwest propane used to heat homes, cook food and dry crops
- Pipeline projects provide good paying jobs and boost local economies

In addition to being the safest way to carry Wisconsin's critical energy supply, an independent economic impact study estimated the Line 5 relocation project would add $135 million to Wisconsin's economic output, increase state tax revenues by millions and support more than 1,000 jobs in the State of Wisconsin. Enbridge has signed a letter of intent with Wisconsin-based Michels Pipeline, Inc. as the mainline contractor for the project, and a Project Labor Agreement was signed last year with the Laborers International Union of North America, International Union of Operating Engineers, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and United Association of Plumbers and Pipefitters.

The event in Brownsville was part of a three-day, four-city swing for the Safest Way Tour. Other stops that week include Baraboo, Madison and Pewaukee. In its second year, the Safest Way Tour has made more than 20 stops, with more than 1,700 people participating in the tour. LORI KREIS, DIRECTOR
KEWASKUM PUBLIC LIBRARY

It's Banned Books Week October 1-8 and although I love to celebrate our freedom to read, it is sad that we still must commemorate this event because attempted acts of censorship are on the rise. This year, the theme is "Let Freedom Read" as this year the focus is to draw national attention to censorship and the harm it causes.

In 2022, there were nearly double the number of challenges trying to ban books as there were the previous year. The 1,269 demands to censor library books and resources were the most since the American Library Association began compiling this type of data approximately two decades ago. What is more disturbing is that most books targeted for censorship were about or by LGBTQ+ people and Black, Indigenous and people of color. A book challenge is a demand to remove a book from a library's collection so that no one can read it. These challenges are becoming more prevalent from organized censorship groups with a goal to suppress the voices of diversity. When a challenge is made by one of these groups, this is a direct attack on our constitutional rights to choose what we want to read and what concepts we want to discover.

With the rise of challenges presented, there have been many news stories that are difficult to believe. In several Chicago suburbs last month, bomb threats were made as part of a nationwide intimidation campaign challenging the books the libraries have in their collection. More recently, there were additional bomb threats when the Illinois governor signed a measure that requires Illinois libraries to adopt a policy prohibiting the practice of banning books or face the loss of state grants.

Thankfully, with more challenges in the news, there are more people doing what they can to combat this. One way readers are fighting these challenges is to offer book sanctuaries, places where endangered books, the right to read and intellectual freedom is protected. You would think libraries would be a book sanctuary, which is the case in most places, but in some states, libraries are being forced to remove books from their shelves or face severe penalties. These sanctuaries may then be in schools and churches. In other places, banned and challenged books are popping up in non-traditional reading spaces, such as ice-cream shops, breweries, and people's front yards.

What can you do to prevent the extermination of intellectual freedom? Stay informed about what is going on. Spread the word by declaring your right to read. Speak out at group settings about the dangers of censorship. Exercise your right to read by checking out a banned book. Support the choice that what anyone wants to read must be left to the reader or, in the case of children, to their parents. Stand up for the principle that no one else has the right to determine what you decide to read by limiting your choices to their values. Let Freedom Read!

AN Outdoorsman's JOURNAL

The Hunt Begins

MARK WALTERS
COLUMNIST

This week's column is all over the map and good stuff. I hope that you had a great week.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 15
HIGH 72, LOW 52

Here is the plan: Drive to Pepin County – the Chippewa River near Durand – camp, canoe and bow hunt.

I had a slight conundrum.

This is one of the only trips that I can go on this fall to bow hunt for deer, as my trips are booked until December 12. I want fresh meat, so like last year when I did this trip, I would like to put an arrow in a big fat doe or maybe 1.5-year-old buck. There is no doubt that I would have a big smile on my face if I harvested a 3 or 4-year-old buck but, when you live out of your garden, freezer or barn like I do, mature bucks are not super popular at the dinner table.

In four weeks, I will be hunting elk and mule deer in Montana. Last year, I harvested a 6.5-year-old 6x6 bull elk. This year, I would be just as satisfied with a raghorn "young bull" or a mature cow.

Today, I paddled a mile from camp, and I was about as happy as I could be as paddling a canoe and sitting in a tree are two of my favorite things in life to do.

When I got to where I would start walking, there was a 27-inch-northern pike that appeared to have just died laying in the water. I took a good look, and it appeared to have swallowed a bullhead and the barbels were sticking through its stomach. I wonder who died the worse death, the bullhead or the northern pike.

The following morning when I arrived in the dark, I could see where a raccoon had eaten the northern pike.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 16
HIGH 75, LOW 51

I am hunting a ridge-line that has water on one side of it and a swampy forest behind the water. If I see a deer, quite often it is on a beaver dam that is separating the two, and it is always a very cool experience.

Walters captioned this photo with a question: "Is there anything more peaceful than sitting 15-feet up in a tree and watching day become night?"

Today was made up of two hunts, and I used my Hoyt compound bow.

There is another question mark in my life. I will not shoot over 25-yards and if I would switch over to my Raven crossbow, I would think I would whack more bucks. There is something in me fighting that switch but, once the weather gets cold, I will have to use the crossbow due to a shoulder injury.

This morning when I was paddling in the dark, I listened to a raccoon fight and, as far as I am concerned, the raccoon is a nasty animal, and I loved it when you could get good money for their furs, as

I was an avid trapper.

On both my morning and afternoon hunts I surprisingly did not see a deer and can honestly say I really enjoyed myself.

The following morning I had my only deer experience of the weekend but it was too dark to make anything of it.

I did the afternoon hunt, paddled back to my truck and loaded up.

I had just started driving and got a call from my stepson, Travis Dushek. Travis had put an arrow in a good-sized buck over by Wisconsin Dells.

After tracking it for a short distance, the decision was made to pull back, and in the morning, Travis went in with his friend, Pat Guyse, and his dog, Ryker.

Ryker's nose did the job and, just like that, Travis Dushek had filled his buck tag on a beautiful nine-pointer.

It is fall my friends, live large!

Brianna Thompson Gaining Respect through Trapshooting

CLARICE CASE JOURNALIST

Campbellsport High School graduate (class of 2023) Brianna Thompson literally went out with a bang.

As a senior member of her high school trapshooting team last spring, Thompson earned a ladies' First Team All-Conference nod in the Kettle Moraine Trapshooting Conference, and she's continued to excel in the sport this summer. Earlier this year, she earned trips to a number of shooting competitions in Wisconsin and Illinois and earned more than 10 trophies to show for it.

"This past year was a true blessing for my trapshooting career," Thompson said. "I set a lot of new personal bests and achieved a lot of things kids my age would only imagine receiving."

The Wisconsin High School State

Shoot took place at the Wisconsin Trapshooting Association (WTA) Home Grounds in Rome on May 20. Thompson shot 100/100 to take first place among the women and the overall field.

"With this being my first summer not having to worry about travel softball commitments, I was able to practice more, and get what I really wanted out of the season," explained Thompson, who started shooting in eighth grade, but did not start competing until sophomore year.

Just two years later, Thompson earned the all-conference award from the Kettle Moraine Trapshooting Conference as a senior. While it takes just one person to pull the trigger and connect with a target, the CHS alum acknowledged her teammates as a reason she found success in high school. She mentioned Austin Flasch, Hunter Schultz, Taylor Murawski and Logan Herriges, who she said were invaluable teammates and helped her tremendously.

At the SCTP State Shoot in Wisconsin Rapids - June 23-25 - Thompson shot 100-straight to become a Lady Grand Champion and five-time SCTP title winner. She also qualified for the SCTP All-State Team.

The next month, Thompson competed in the 124th Annual Wisconsin State Shoot for the Amateur Trapshooting Association (ATA) (again in Rome) the week of July 11-16.

She noted the competition is always good at the ATA because competitors are shooting against women from all over Wisconsin and even some from out of state.

"I ended up taking multiple trophies, one being the Lady One Singles Champion with a 198/200. In all my singles events, I shot a 99/100 with the exception of a 97/100. I also took home a Handicap Championship with a 99/100 from the 22.5 yard line," shared Thompson. "I met a lot of new people and had a lot of fun!"

Handicap shooting is singles firing from a further distance than the usual 16-yard line.

Before July came to a close, Thompson also competed in the Academics - Integrity - Marksmanship (AIM) Grand National Youth Trapshooting Championship in Sparta, Ill., at the World Shooting Complex from July 27-31.

"AIM ATA was first in which I ended up placing first in the Girls AAA Junior for singles with a 198/200, running 150 in a row," said Thompson. "There were over 2,000 kids there so you can only imagine the competition.”

It was at the AIM Grand National that Thompson also won an AIM Academic Scholarship.

Brianna Thompson smiles while at the ATA Grand American competition in August. SUBMITTED PHOTOS

Then on Aug. 9, Thompson returned to Sparta for the ATA Grand American to compete as an adult.

Thompson won the Champion of Champions ladies' award with a 200/200.

“Champion of Champions is all of the state winners coming together to shoot against each other to determine the ‘real’ champion,” explained Thompson. “I ended up shooting a 198/200 in the championship singles, 90/100 from the 23.5 yard, and 85/100 in doubles.”

“I was very thankful to shoot with some well-respected shooters as well as catch up with the Bartholow brothers, and their dad Buddy, whom I look up to,” Thompson added. “I got to spend some amazing time with my parents, and was able to purchase a new gun, which I will dedicate to my skeet/sporting events. I named him Jerry, after my grandpa, who I was told was a pretty darn-good shot.”

After an eventful first half of 2023, Thompson has now started her first semester at William Penn University in Iowa. She plans to double major in psychology and criminology. She is also a member of their shotgun team.

This sport has not only allowed her to meet many amazing people, but it has brought her closer to her own family, she said.

“I love shooting with everything

I have, and I can really get into my zone and forget about life when I step on the field,” Thompson said. “My dad and I have grown closer through the time I have been shooting because we both have such a competitive drive to be the best we can. I love that I am able to shoot with everyone, like my sister and her boyfriend. I love all the respect I have gained from many new grandpas I have adopted. This is truly a sport you can do when you can no longer stand.”

Speaking of her dad, Thompson had more to say about him, her family, and all the others who have helped her become who she is today and accomplish all she has.

“I want to give a special shout out to everyone who has helped me along the way. I wouldn't be where I am today without a lot of your feedback and help,” Thompson stated. “Especially my dad; he has been there since the day I started and is my biggest support. My family in general for helping me understand the true meaning of the sport - respect - and raising me to be a good, respected individual. All of the trap houses I go to practice at; where all my grandpas hang out! High school coaches, especially Doug and Tom and grandpas - thank you for all the advice.”

There is a tremendous need for volunteers in Wisconsin. There are a wide variety of volunteer opportunities available, including Client Facilitators, Support Facilitators, Technology Coordinators, and Counselors (tax return preparers). Every level of experience is welcome. Volunteer Counselors receive tax return preparation training and are IRS certified.

This year, 650 AARP Foundation Tax-Aide volunteers helped more than 30,000 Wisconsinites file their federal and state tax returns. The program is offered at 90 sites in Wisconsin, including senior centers, libraries, and other locations.

AARP Foundation Tax-Aide has grown remarkably since its inaugural team of just four volunteers in 1968. The program now involves more than 25,000 volunteers and serves 1.2 million taxpayers annually at some 3,300 sites nationwide with free tax help.

In 2023 taxpayers who used AARP Foundation Tax-Aide received $884 million in income tax refunds and more than $91 million in Earned Income Tax Credits (EITCs). Taxpayers do not need to be a member of AARP or a retiree to use this program.

Berlin scored from two yards out with three minutes left on the clock.

Kewaskum put together a very impressive drive in the final three minutes of the game to draw within two. The onside kick took the big bounce that they wanted but Berlin was able to field the ball and was then able to run out the clock.

Leading the stats for Kewaskum were Dylan Soyk and Nick Deheck with rushing yards. Soyk had 23 carries for 96 yards and a touchdown. Deheck had 10 carries for 43 yards. Quarterback Andrew Reichert had a touchdown run.

On the passing side of the ledger, Reichert was 15 of 23 for 188 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Reichert spread the ball around to six different receivers - led by Bailey Ralph with seven catches for 62 yards and Landon Daniel with three for 92 yards and a touchdown.

Defensive leaders were Dawson Stahl with 14 tackles and Nick Deheck with eight. Everett Donath contributed seven stops while Braden Gissal and Matthew Oelhafen each had six.

Next up for the Kewaskum Indians, a trip to Ingalls Field in Ripon to face the Tigers on Friday, Sept. 29.

Eighth and Fifth Grade Indians Win Over the Weekend

KEWASKUM GRIDIRON

This past Saturday, Sept. 23, the Kewaskum Gridiron Indians eighth, seventh and sixth grade teams hosted the New Berlin West Vikings, and the fifth grade hosted the West Bend West Spartans. The club also celebrated Parent's Day.

The eighth and fifth grade teams were able to come away with victories, while the seventh and sixth grade teams were defeated by the visiting Vikings.

Eighth Grade

The eighth grade Gridiron Indians scored early and often, and played tough defense throughout the day en route to a convincing, 48-6, victory over New Berlin West.

On the opening possession of the game, Landon Scheel stripped the ball away from a Vikings player to grab some momentum right away. The Indians kept the ball on the ground on their entire possession with Jace Wichtoski capping off the drive with an eight-yard touchdown run. Blake Stalal added the two-point kick for an 8-0 lead.

On the Indians' next offensive possession, it was, again, Wichtoski finishing off the drive with a 12-yard touchdown run and another Stalal two-point kick giving the Indians a 16-0 lead.

The defense forced the Vikings to line up to punt the football, but the snap went over the punters head and Carter Unger scooped it up at the one-yard line and headed into the endzone for another Indians' touchdown. Stalal again added the two-point kick to make it 24-0.

The Vikings got on the board on their next possession with it being set up by a long kickoff return to make the score 24-6.

Before the end of the first half, Levi Whitfield hit Unger on a long 41-yard pass and then Whitfield got into the endzone on an 18-yard touchdown run, and with another Stalal two-point kick, the halftime score was 32-6.

The Indians received the football to start the second half and, again, were able to drive the ball downfield and Scheel finished the drive off with a 24-yard touchdown run with Stalal again converting the two-point kick to make it 40-6.

The great offensive day was capped off with Superior Torres rushing in a touchdown from four yards out and Stalal finishing off a six-for-six, two-point kick day for the final score of 48-6.

Wichtoski was the offensive leader on the day, rushing the ball 10 times for 83 yards and two touchdowns. The offensive line played great all day, opening up holes so big for the running backs that the Indians only attempted three passes the entire game.

The Indians' defense put together a great performance with Quin Dornacker and Jack Brucker each recording a quarterback sack and three tackles for losses, Evan Soyk recorded three tackles for losses, Scheel had a forced fumble and fumble recovery, Jude Johnson and Wichtoski each recorded a tackle for a loss, Whitfield had an interception and Easton Sabish blocked a punt.

The eighth grades record improved to 3-1 on the season.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade Gridiron Indians held tough in the first half against a much bigger New Berlin West team only trailing 16-8, but ran out of gas in the second half in being defeated 40-8.

The Indians' score came on a short pass that Porter Reis broke open down the sideline for a 50+ yard touchdown. Kamden Derge added the two-point kick for the Indians.

On defense, the team was led with several tackles by Ryland Ciriacks, Lucas Zeeb and Brodee Groeschel.

The seventh grades' record dropped to 1-3 on the season.

Sixth Grade

The sixth grade Gridiron Indians played a tough New Berlin West team and fell for the first time this season by a score of 22-6.

The Indians' touchdown came in the first half and was the first time the New Berlin West team was scored on in the first four games of the season. This came on a 50+ yard touchdown run by Henry Ogi. Ogi was able to hit Carson Eilbes and Bowen Nass on a couple of nice pass plays as well during the game.

The defense was led with key tackles by Ogi, Eilbes and Owen McHenry.

The sixth grades' record is dropped to 3-1 on the season.

Fifth Grade

The fifth grade team had yet another defensive battle against West Bend West this week coming away with a hard fought, 7-0, victory.

The first three quarters both teams fought for field position until a 35-yard Lincoln Talbot punt return sparked an Indians' offensive drive that was capped off with a seven-yard touchdown run by Decker Schutz. Charlie Ogi followed the touchdown with a successful run for the extra point to put the Indians up by seven heading into the fourth quarter.

The Spartans' ensuing drive was halted when Dawson Scheel intercepted a pass giving the Indians the ball with six minutes remaining in the game.

After a Kewaskum turnover on downs, the Indians' defense once again held strong to seal the victory for the home team.

Kewaskum was led on offense by Ogi who had 42 yards rushing and an extra point and Schutz who had 25 yards rushing with a touchdown.

The stout defense was spearheaded by Talbot with four tackles and a pass breakup, Caleb Thull with three tackles and a tackle for loss, Schutz with three tackles, Scheel with his interception and Shane Guttmann who had a sack.

The win improves the fifth grades' record to 2-1-1 on the year.

The 5th Grade team has a bye on September 30 with the rest of the teams hitting the road with the eighth and seventh grade teams traveling to Slinger and the sixth grade team traveling to Sussex-Hamilton. The eighth grade will kick things off at 9 a.m., the seventh grade at 10:45 a.m. and the sixth grade at 12:15 p.m.

Trail Sharks Open Season at Mt. Telemark

WASHINGTON COUNTY TRAIL SHARKS

The Washington County Trail Sharks Mountain Bike Team had their first race of the season on Sunday, Sept. 3, at Mt. Telemark in Cable.

There was a great turnout for the Wisconsin league as there were over 900 athletes overall and 26 athletes representing our team.

Despite the 90-degree heat and dusty conditions, the athletes did an outstanding job.

Ephraim Essinger of Kewaskum placed 35th and Mason Dorn of Campbellsport placed ninth in the two lap race.

Their next race will be on Sunday, Sept. 10, at Minooka Park in Waukesha.

Six Trail Sharks take Podium at Waukesha

WASHINGTON COUNTY TRAIL SHARKS

The Washington County Trail Sharks Mountain Bike Team had their second race on Sunday, Sept. 10 at Minooka Park in Waukesha.

With 650 total athletes participating, the Trail Sharks had 42 athletes representing the team.

Unlike last year's mud fest and shortened course adjustment due to heavy rains, it was perfect racing weather.

New this year the advanced racing categories had more technical features like rock gardens and additional single track trail added to their course.

All athletes did an outstanding job tackling the infamous hill climb at the start of the course and maneuvering their way through the single track trails in the woods. The team had six athletes on the podium bringing home medals in addition to a first place trophy for team standings.

Gracelyn Beimborn and John Rank of Kewaskum placed 10th and 65th, respectively, in the one lap race. Ephraim Essinger of Kewaskum placed 33rd and Mason Dorn of Campbellsport placed 17th in the two lap race.

The next race will be on Sunday, Sept. 24 at Englewood Farm in Fall River.

CAMPBELLSPORT JUNIOR FOOTBALL

The fifth and sixth grade tackle football team defeated Lomira, 44-27, to stay unbeaten at 4-0 on the season.

Campbellsport wasted no time getting on the scoreboard as Damien Braund ran 38 yards for a touchdown on the first offensive play after a Lomira turnover. Quarterback Brock Bothe would hook up with Carter Morgan for a 55-yard touchdown pass as the Cougars led 16-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Lomira would answer with a score of their own on a 25-yard run to cut the Campbellsport lead to 16-7.

The Cougars and Lions would trade one more touchdown each to end the half with Campbellsport in front, 24-14.

Damien Braund scored his second touchdown on an 8-yard run.

Campbellsport would put the game away in the third quarter tacking on two more touchdowns to increase their lead to 38-14.

Braund scored on a 55-yard run (his 15th touchdown in four games) and Hunter Fettig scored his first touchdown of the year with a 2-yard plunge into the end zone.

Madden Gruber ripped off a 45-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter to put the Cougars up 44-21.

Lomira would get two late scores to make the final 44-27.

Sully Immel played an outstanding game at defensive end with some great tackles and a fumble recovery, Jackson Mueller and Declan Flaherty also recovered Lomira fumbles.

Nolan Wissink had a superb game on both sides of the ball, as did Carter Morgan who made a spectacular one handed catch to go along with his touchdown.

The undefeated Cougars take on Waupun for their last regular season game before the playoffs. A win would put Campbellsport in the championship.

said Wondra. "We need to continue to get better sustaining blocks along with using proper technique."

The defense kept Campbellsport close, though, and an interception by Carson Ries, as Springs looked to be rolling, put momentum on the Cougars' side early.

On both sides of the ball for each team, cramps and injuries seemed to crop-up early and often; common at this point of the season during a 1 p.m. contest.

"It was a physical game on both sides of the ball, so we had a couple players get banged up a little but should all be good to go this week," said Wondra. "It's different playing an afternoon game versus playing at night when it cools off and the sun doesn't affect the players [as much]."

While Campbellsport was winning the field-position contest early, Springs finally broke free on a long drive late in the second quarter. With just minutes remaining, a quarterback bootleg near the goal line for the Ledgers found paydirt, and the extra point after made the score 0-7, Springs.

Little did anyone know then that this would be the final score of the game, as the two teams duked it out for another half.

Timm ran the ball well despite not finding the endzone. He led all rushers with 109 yards on 25 carries.

The defense, despite giving up the game's only score, played up-to-the-occasion on the day. They held Springs' rushing attack to just 55 yards on 28 carries (only a 2-yard average per carry).

A big reason for the lack-of-success for the Ledgers' rushing attack was the defensive line.

Wondra credited two-way player Amadeo Rodriguez with making the most of his limited defensive opportunities in last week's contest. He was in on four tackles and two solo, several for which were stuffed at the line or for a loss.

"Amadeo played fairly well on defense when he got the opportunity," said Wondra, noting he has a huge part to play with the offense. "He plays line on both sides of the ball for us and is a big part of what we do offensively."

By the end of the contest, despite beating Springs on the state sheet in several categories, it was the home-team Ledgers earning the shutout victory, 0-7. Springs remains unbeaten on the season and holds a first-place tie in conference with Winnebago Lutheran.

Campbellsport will host Laconia for the Cougars' homecoming game this Friday night.

While his team played well in the loss last week, Wondra said they'll need to retool to prepare for the Spartans.

"There's some places we still need to work on doing our job every snap," he said.

Kickoff for Friday night is scheduled for 7 p.m.
